

HOTELS.

QUEEN HOTEL, Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

THIS HOTEL HAS BEEN REBUILT AND PAINTED IN THE MOST ATTRACTIVE STYLE. AN ELEGANT GENTLEMEN'S PARLOR, OFFICE, AND BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED LIVING ROOM ON GROUND FLOOR. PERFECT VENTILATION AND SEWERAGE THROUGHOUT. LARGE AND AIRY BEDROOMS. COMMODIOUS BATH ROOMS AND CLOSETS ON EACH FLOOR. AND IS CAPABLE OF ACCOMMODATING ONE HUNDRED GUESTS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

PURIFY THE BLOOD, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and all complaints incidental to Female of all ages. For Children and the Aged they are priceless. THE OINTMENT is an infallible remedy for Bed Sores, Bad Breasts, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers. Rheumatism. For disorders of the Chest it has no equal.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. UNLIKE ANY OTHER. Originated by an Old Family Physician. Think Of It! In use for more than thirty years after generations have used and blessed it.

Great - Bargains! NEW HOME OFFICE, Phoenix Square, Opposite City Hall, Fredericton, N. B.

Guaranteed for Five Years. NEW HOME OFFICE, Phoenix Square, Opposite City Hall, Fredericton, N. B.

WILLIAM WILSON, Solicitor and Conveyancer. Office: Carlton St., East Side. Directly opp. Dr. Coulthart's office.

H. B. RAINFORD, Barrister, Attorney-at-Law, Notary Public. Clerk of the Peace and Division Registrar.

GEO. A. HUGHES, Attorney and Solicitor, Notary, Conveyancer, &c. Office: WHELFLE BUILDING, Fredericton, N. B.

WILLIAM ROSSBOROUGH, MASON, Plasterer, and Bricklayer. Shop St., near Gas Works, Fredericton, N. B.

ALLAN LINE. 1893 WINTER SERVICE 1893. Liverpool, Londonderry, Halifax and Portland services.

Glasgow and Halifax Line. SELLINGS FROM GLASGOW.

RAILROADS. CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY ATLANTIC DIVISION. ARRANGEMENT OF TRAINS In Effect Oct. 3rd 1892.

WESLEY VANWART, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY PUBLIC. Office: No. 12 Carlton Street, Fredericton, N. B.

WESLEY VANWART, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY PUBLIC. Office: No. 12 Carlton Street, Fredericton, N. B.

THE JERSEY COW.

Why the Jersey Cow Must Become Popular. The Jersey cow, which until recently was generally considered "more ornamental than useful," is fast becoming a general favorite, not only as a family cow, but as a valuable adjunct to the dairy.

One of the principal characteristics of the Jersey is her persistent and continuous milking qualities, even when very young. To illustrate from personal experience. The writer bought a Jersey heifer that had been in milk about five months, and was supposed to be pregnant, but in the spring, when she should have been near her time of calving, it became apparent that she was not with a calf.

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

How can farming be made to pay? It is still an open question, and to many thousands of farmers it will continue to be "the unknown quantity in an intricate problem" until some means is devised by which the winter season can be made sufficiently profitable to meet at least the household expenses of the farm, instead of consuming in winter what is made in summer, as is too often the case at present.

FOUND IN A DREAM.

One of the most peculiar freaks of psychological phenomena ever brought to light has recently culminated near Phoenix, Arizona. In 1859 two brothers, A. B. and Luther Ellett, lived in Nebraska county, Kansas. Luther chose the part of the wanderer and went west, presumably to Colorado, and nothing more was heard of him except vague reports that he had been killed by Indians.

Each cow is a law unto herself as to the amount of forage she can properly consume. A liberal allowance of coarse fodder should also be fed. Clover hay, corn fodder, ensilage—all are good. Rovers are valuable as a food for milch cows. Carrots are perhaps best, with sugar beets next. Turnips and ruta-bagas will favor the butter.

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

When the writer bought her at an auction at a merely nominal price there was strong opposition manifested towards the little Jersey, and as compared with large native cows, she did look very insignificant; but in less than a week the little Jersey, like Sam Slick's clock, had become fringed with everybody, and now "none but Jerseys need apply."

RANCHO DE KANGAROOS.

Montreal seems to be a Mecca for enterprising foreign capitalists who have conceived financial enterprises of first-class magnitude. Henry G. Adams, of Sydney, Australia, who has been in the city, will reconnoitre the south-western prairies with a view of purchasing large ranches for rearing an animal never seen outside of a cage on this continent—the real live kangaroo.

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

They (kangaroos) are to take the place of the almost extinct buffalo," said Mr. Adams, in the Windsor, the other day. "I am confident," he continued, "that they will thrive in the same latitude as that in which the American bison multiplied to such enormous herds. I am told that the climate is similar to New South Wales; I shall soon know the truth for myself. After I have seen some rears in Toronto, I will go to spend the winter in the southwest, and before the end of the summer, I expect to make my first importation of kangaroos."

ADAMS BROS. FUNERAL FURNISHING - UNDERTAKERS. OPP. QUEEN HOTEL, FREDERICTON.

WILLIS HEART TO HIS WIFE. Major Earl Bruden, an old German newspaper man, who died recently at St. Louis, left a will containing a queer bequest. He bequeathed his heart to his wife, and left directions for placing it in her possession. It seems that Major Bruden married twice a young man, and his wife is still living in Germany. For some reason his married life was unhappy, and he came to America, leaving his wife in the old country. Though estranged from her for life, it seems that his love for his wife never ceased, and he frequently declared that as his heart was still hers she should have it after his death. In accordance with the provisions of the will, the heart has been removed from the body, and forwarded to Mrs. Bruden.

TONS OF DEAD CROWS. Thousands of dead crows lie upon the ground under the trees on the mountain. East of Frush Valley, Pa., beyond McKnight's Gap. This place has been a roosting place for crows for many years. The unusually cold severe winter and the deep snow have killed the birds. There are said to be tons of tons of dead crows on the mountain at this famous roosting place. The coldness has blinded many of them so they cannot find any food.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

CORNER QUEEN AND ROBERT STREETS, BY THE HERALD PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO.

THE HERALD.

FREDERICTON, MARCH 4, 1893.

THE VOTE.

At the conclusion of the budget debate at Ottawa Sir Richard Cartwright's amendment, favoring tariff reform, was divided upon and lost, the vote standing 126 to 72.

MR. TEMPLE ON CORN.

Mr. Temple gave the house some amusement by referring to his vote of last night upon the motion for free corn.

The following extract from the Ottawa Free Press contains a good story, and is to the point: "A great many conservatives would like to treat Sir Adolphe Caron as they treated Mr. McGreevy, but they are afraid his place as premier-general of campaign funds could not be easily filled."

The matter of the Nova Scotia coal legislation has been brought up in the dominion parliament again by Dr. Weldon, who appears to be haunted with the idea that a great coal monopoly will be created unless the act is vetoed.

The latest from St. John with W. G. Scovill as manager, to be known as the dominion identification company.

CLEVELAND'S INAUGURATION.

By this time Grover Cleveland will be inaugurated president of the United States for the second time. But few times in the history of the republic have the democrats had the pleasure of electing a president, and to-day Washington is full of them, joyous over the inaugural ceremony.

From Edmundson Direct.

H. P. Timmerman, general superintendent of the Atlantic division, C. P. R., has visited Woodstock during the week and it is rumored that his visit was in connection with the running of trains from that town across the bridge.

WELLSFORD.

MARCH 3.—This community was very sorry to learn of the death of one of our old and very much respected residents, Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, who passed away on Saturday last at the advanced age of eighty years.

CHIPMAN, Q. C.

MARCH 3.—G. G. King's store is the general place of gathering now that the mills are closed down.

BROAD ROAD, Q. C.

MARCH 1.—The roads from Peterville to St. John are in a very bad condition for traveling as they are covered with ice in many places in a sliding shape, and other places are obstructed by deep banks of snow.

SOUTHAMPTON.

FEB. 23.—Again we hear talk of a new hall to take the place of the one destroyed by the Saxby gale. It is a deplorable fact that Southampton front, from Queensbury street to the county line between York and Carleton, has no suitable public hall.

Mr. J. C. Butcher, for some years agent of the Merchants Bank of Halifax at Moncton, has left the service of the bank and it is understood he will give his attention to his insurance business.

Mr. Stewart, wife of the rev. Dr. Stewart, professor of theology at Mt. Allison, died Monday night about twelve o'clock, but the immediate cause of death was a sudden attack of asthmatic grip followed by congestion.

HIBERNIA, Q. C.

MARCH 1.—Rev. O. R. Mott has honored this place with his intellectual lectures in a series of five sermons. Mr. Mott is particularly popular here with young and old.

BLACKVILLE.

FEB. 28.—Skating in the order of the day and night as well. The pond has overflowed and affords amusement to large crowds.

PETERSVILLE, Q. C.

MARCH 1.—Our local grocer, Mr. Howland and Mr. Timmins, had considerable difficulty in getting their supplies from the railroad station on account of snow drifts last week.

TEMPERANCE VALE.

FEB. 27.—A number of our young men have returned home from the lumber woods looking much the better for their absence.

AROUND THE WORLD.

The Week's Events in Brief—The Ocean of our Exchanges.

Joseph Vanwart, an old and honored resident of Woodstock, is very low with pneumonia and not expected to recover.

The important ceremony of inaugurating the new president of the United States, Grover Cleveland, took place today, with the most brilliant ceremonies.

A letter received, announces that Honduras is again in a state of revolution. The movement is headed by Gen. Bonilla, who was prominent in the last insurrection and recently pardoned by the government.

The election for the Ontario Assembly in Toronto, Tuesday, resulted in the return of Mr. Ryerson, conservative, the figures being: Ryerson, 6,984; Ogden (Liberal), 6,707; Thompson (Labor), 604.

The New York house of bishops has adopted resolutions declaring against the Chinese Exclusion act and government appropriations for sectarian schools or missions.

Mrs. Stewart, wife of the rev. Dr. Stewart, professor of theology at Mt. Allison, died Monday night about twelve o'clock.

Fred. Harris, son of Alex. Harris, of Northesk, Northumberland county, was killed in the woods in Michigan, a few days ago.

The prohibition question coming up for discussion in the Manitoba local legislature a motion presented by Attorney General Sifton, asking that the dominion parliament be memorialized as to the passing of a prohibition law.

The House of Commons Tuesday rejected a motion that the British government should use its influence to bring about the re-assembling of the international Monetary Conference.

Saturday last being the 30th anniversary of the appointment of N. S. Foose to the sheriffship of the county of Kings, a large number of friends met at his residence in the evening for the purpose of tendering him their warmest congratulations.

Scott Act Inspector McClintock, of Woodstock, accompanied by constable Baker, raided some of the places there suspected of selling liquor.

George W. Slipp, the Woodstock merchant, who recently failed, was tried at St. Andrews on Wednesday, on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences.

There was quite an accident on the Shore Line, Tuesday afternoon. Near St. George a passenger car jumped the track, fell over and took fire from the stove.

The first case called in the Kings County circuit court, was that of John Watson vs. John Price—an action for damages alleged to have been committed by plaintiff in a collision at Sussex on the morning of Saturday, the 22nd of October by being run into by defendant.

The Montreal Star, which has been unfriendly to the conservative party, tells Sir John Thompson plainly that in the composition of his cabinet he has taken in some of the poorest material that has found its way into the ministry for a long time.

More than five thousand persons attended the great Orange meeting at Beloit on Thursday, Kane who presided, said Ulster was prepared to defend herself to the last against the proposals of the Home Rule bill.

Brown's bear has not yet aroused itself from its winter's lethargy—and if it only knew Mr. B's intention, it would, no doubt, prolong its sleep indefinitely.

It may be of some interest to those who maintain that the exodus is decreasing—to learn that during the next eleven years 483 persons left the parish of Peterville for the United States. Still we sing "Our Own Canadian Home."

IVORY SOAP.

This is the finest soap known for general household use, because it is absolutely pure, and the price is reasonable. For sale by C. FRED. CHESTNUT, Apothecary, 2 doors above Barker House Queen St., Fredericton.

LUCY & CO'S CHEAP SALE.

Our Semi-annual Sale Will Commence on Saturday, Corner Queen and Regent Streets. Please Examine the Wonderful Low Prices on the Following List:

- Men's Pers'n Lamb Caps, $3 75 Boys Shoe Packs, 60
Seal Caps, 2 50 Youths " " 30
" Oil Tan'd Moccasins, 40 Boys Moccasins, "
" " Packs, 90 Ladies Waterpr'f Overb'ts, 1 65
" " Larrigans, 2 00 Misses Felt Overboots, 75
" Rubber Coats, 2 25 Childrens " 50
" Diagonal Suits, 8 00 Ladies Rubbers, " 35
" Overcoats, 6 50 Mens, Boys and Childrens

Fredericton, February 24, 1893.

DR. MURDOCK'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND OF Tar, Senega, Wild Cherry, etc. Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Tickling in the Throat, Shortness of Breath, And Diseases of the Throat & Lungs.

GEORGE H. DAVIS, Agent, Fredericton, N. B.

HOTEL BRUNSWICK

FUTURITY STAKES.

To be trotted on Moncton Driving Park on AUGUST 30th and 31st, 1893.

Open to Colts owned in the Maritime Provinces on or before January 1, 1893.

- Stake No. 1, for Trotting Foals of 1892.
Stake No. 2, " " " " 1891.
Stake No. 3, " " " " 1890.
Stake No. 4, " " " " 1889.

CONDITIONS.

The fees in each stake will be twelve dollars, payable as follows: $3.00 on 1st March, when a winner is given, and final payment of $9.00 one week before the race.

Fifty Dollars ($50) Will Be Added to each of above stakes, and the purse will be divided as follows: When four or more start, the premium of 20 per cent. to first, 25 per cent. to second, 10 per cent. to third, and 10 per cent. to fourth.

There will also be a 25¢ CLASS, for a purse of $200. The entrance fee for this race will be 10¢ per cent. per entry, payable a week before the race.

GEORGE McSWEENEY, Manager.

A Full Line OF Liebig's Extract of Beef,

W. E. SEERY, Merchant Tailor, Has Just Received a splendid new stock of

CLOTHS AND TWEEDS,

Spring Overcoating, Suitings, and Trousersings,

Which he is prepared to MAKE UP in the LATEST AND MOST FASHIONABLE STYLES AT MODERATE PRICES.

W. E. SEERY, WILMOT'S AVE.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his valuable farm situated in the Parish of Dumfries, about half way between Peterborough and Woodstock, containing 200 acres, of which 40 acres are intervals of the very best quality.

For sale at the lowest market rates by JAMES S. NEILL.

Sap Cans and Spiles.

TO ARRIVE: TWO Thousand Sap Cans, and Ten Thousand Sap Spiles—For sale by JAMES S. NEILL.

JOHN J. WEDDALL.

Standard Patterns,

Make Perfect Fitting Garments.

Save Money; No Waste of Material; Save Time; No Troublesome Refitting.

REQUIRES NO PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE.

Seams allowed; Made over Living Models. Every Lady may be Her Own Dressmaker.

JOHN J. WEDDALL.

February, 4th, 1893.

Stock Taking Sale!

For the next ten days our entire stock of Winter Goods will be sold at Cost Prices in order to reduce the stock before making up the books on Feb. 1st.

Come and See Our Prices!

C. H. THOMAS & CO. OAK HALL.

NEW BRUNSWICK FOUNDRY

MACHINE SHOP.

McFARLANE, THOMPSON & ANDERSON,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Buckeye Automatic Cut Off Engines,

CELEBRATED

DUNBAR IMPROVED SHINGLE MILLS.

Improved Rotary Saw Mills, Mill Machinery, Enclosed Mowers, Ithaca Horse rakes, Stoves and Furnaces, Railway Castings.

NEW GOODS.

We Have Just Received the Following Goods.

Grey and White Cottons, Grey and White Shirtings, Table Linens and Napkins, Towels and Towelling, Pillow Cottons and Cotton Sheetings, Gingham and Prints, etc.

JOHN HASLIN.

"GIVE THEM FITS"

That's Just What We Do. BUY OUR—

WATCHSPRING CORSETS,

And you will have PERFECT FITS every time. For sale at

DEVER BROS.

Hamburgs and Allovers, Emb'd Lawns and Muslins, Satin Jean and Butcher's Line,

DEVER BROTHERS.

Woven Wire Mattresses, all sizes ALSO MATTRESSES.

At Lemont & Sons.

