The Sensation of the Year

This latest and greatest achievement of The Willys-Overland Company has no equal among other low-priced cars.

In looks and action it compares favorably with many cars selling for double its price.

You must see it to appreciate its beauty.

Its distinctive light grey finish and symmetrical body lines command attention everywhere.

And when you ride in it you will understand why this car has been the sensation of the year.

For it has a powerful engine. It has cantilever rear springs and 4-inch tyres.

Moreover it is completely equipped—you do not have to buy a thing extra.

We will be glad to demonstrate this car for you and your family—to show you the many improvements and advantages it has over other cars of its size and price—to prove to you that it is the biggest value of the year.

We are at your service.

"The Magic Cup."

In Aid of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convalescent Hospital.

That opera "The Magic Cup," will be repeated on Wednesday night in the Casino for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convalescent Hospital. Scidom has a performance given such universal pleasure and satisfaction as "The Magic Cup," and anticipated pleasure of the large audiences is the best evidence of its wonderful success. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson and His Grace the Archbishop will patronise Wednesday night's production. The cause is a good one; the performance is worth more than the price of admission, and a capacity audience should attend. Tickets will be on sale this afternoon at the Atlantic Bookstore.

CONSCRIPTION TO SAVE TIME.

New York Tribune: A great deal is made by the opponents of conscription of Great Britain's experience. It is true that the British have made an army. It is true that to-day thirty-two months after the outbreak of the war, the new English army is demonstrating its capacity to win battles from the German conscripts. But no one in England would deny that it was the conscript armies of France which held the Germans for the two years while British volunteer armies were training after the brave, but tiny, British regular army had been destroyed in the campaign from Mons to Ypres. No one denies that men will volunteer. No one denies that volunteers can be trained into soldiers, but what all thoughtful proponents of conscription urge is that no nation can afford to wait two years while volunteer armies are being trained.

Brazil and the Entente

(From the Westminster Gazette.)

Those who witnessed the magnificent welcome which the people of Rio de Janeiro gave to H.M.S. Glasgow when she arrived there after the disaster to Admiral Craddock's squadron know how fully Brazilian sympathies are with the Entente. A correspondent who was there at the time and who knows Brazil well tells me that throughout the country, right from the beginning of the war, Brazil has shown a splendidly benevolent attitude towards us, and that nothing is to be feared even from the thousands of Germans who have settled, more particularly in the Southern States, in what are more or less German communities. The Brazilians themselves are engaged in the growing of coffee, but the Germans have handled the exportation to Europe, which in pre-war days was done mainly by way of Hamburg. They do not look upon German raiders with friendly eyes; and I am assured that they will be found in the main loyal to the country of their adoption.

"Killed in Action."

In yesterday's casualty list appeared the name of Lance-Corporal Herbert Harding, 7 Cabot Street, as "killed in action" on April 23rd. The dead soldier left here with the first contingent and passed through several engagements at Gallipoli and in France, but on the date given surrendered his young life to the great cause. Left to mourn is a young wife and four tiny children, to whom the Telegram offers deep sympathy. Royal Naval Reservist John Miller, of Portland Cove, is a brother of Mrs. Harding.

Better News.

If some sinister clouds have been gathering in the war sky of late, a refreshing gleam of sunshine breaks through them to-day. It is impossible to read the messages of this morning without a sense of encouragement, a feeling that matters all round are improving daily. The darkest cloud has been over Russia, and the severe censorship has lifted the curtain sufficiently to show that a conflict fraught with far-reaching possibilities has ended, for the moment at any rate, in a victory for the Provisional Government and its confirmation in the policy it is pursuing. But the situation yet retains many elements of danger, the cloud is not yet dispersed. If the speech of Prince Tseretelli to the Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates means that a large part of the Russian people are set upon demanding assurances from the allied democracies of a "no annexation, no expropriation" policy, their demands may prove a little too extreme and lead to trouble. It all depends upon the interpretation of these words and others of like tenor. But for the present much of the misgiving that has been felt in the Allied capitals will be removed.

The news from the British and French fronts is of the brightest. The French have smashed their way further towards Laon and the high land traversed by the Chemin des Dames is in their hands. The lying bulletins from Berlin need not be regarded. The correspondents on both fronts are

The Prohibition Case Promoted on the Field of Battle.

The interesting and much postponed Beef, Iron and Wine case was heard at the Magistrate's Court before Judge Morris this forenoon, Mary Spire, a shopkeeper, being charged with a breach of the Prohibition Act. Patrick Gray was the first witness called. He testified that he visited Mrs. Spire's shop on Sunday, April 26th, and bought three flasks of Beef, Iron and Wine, and paid fifty cents each for them. He drank two and got drunk. Cross-examined as to the effect it had on him, Gray answered that he felt as merry as he ever did in his whole lifetime, but the aftermath made him heavy, stupid and foolish, coupled with a prolonged headache. Const. Myers gave evidence that he found a flask of the patent medicine on Gray when he arrested him. When analyzed the contents of the flask showed 16.2 per cent of alcohol. Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, Deputy Minister of Customs, was the next witness sworn. He stated that Beef, Iron and Wine was being imported under the Customs heading of Alcoholic Preparations for Medicinal Purposes, and 30 per cent. duty was paid on it. Asked by the Judge as to whether he had received any permits for the importation of spirituous liquors, witness replied in the affirmative and that he had refused several applicants. Again asked as to whether he had official notification prohibiting the importation of liquors, witness said he had received nothing in writing, but he knew that Prohibition had become law. The Judge replied that witness should have had official notification, and not having received such, he had no right to refuse permission for the importation of liquors. Mr. Gibbs, counsel for the defendant, took exception to the remarks of the Judge and a few passages at arms occurred, the counsel advancing the analogy that Mr. LeMessurier had as much right to make such refusal in his official capacity as Collector of Customs as the Judge did to try this case on the grounds that he held no official notification. Mr. A. E. Parkins then gave evidence. He was a wholesaler in drugs and medicines and supplied the trade with alcoholic medicinal wines. He stated that a large percentage of alcohol was used in the preparations of all medicines as alcohol was the world's best solvent and had great preservative power, quoting the British authorities for the statements. Asked by the Judge if he knew he was engaged in the manufacture of an alcoholic beverage (Beef, Iron and Wine), witness replied that he did not and added that Beef, Iron and Wine was known all the world over as a household remedy.

Mr. Hunt conducted the case for the prosecution and at 1 p.m. an adjournment was taken until to-morrow afternoon.

Man Injured.

A young man named Murphy met with a nasty accident last night by being hit in the back by a shaft of a carriage. It happened the victim was standing at the junction of Barter's Hill and New Gover Street when a light horse attached to a carriage dashed up the hill and striking the unfortunate young man as described knocked him to the ground. At the same time inflicting two severe cuts in his forehead. He was picked up in a state of semi-consciousness and brought to a nearby druggist, who on bandaging his wounds advised him to obtain the services of a doctor.

"The Magic Cup"

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir,—I was glad to see in the papers an advertisement for the production of the "Magic Cup," in aid of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convalescent Hospital; and as an old theatre goer I cannot let this opportunity pass without a word of appreciation of the work done by the troupe and those associated with him in the recent Operetta. No praise can overstate the last performance, wherein the boys of St. John's and Holy Cross Schools have distinguished themselves. Their careful training, costuming, drilling, etc., were unique. The second act, when the Fairy Queen and her attendants gave an exhibition of artistic and refined ballet dancing (reflecting the skilful tuition of Mrs. Cleary), the whole audience was moved with enthusiasm and surprise at such perfection achieved by the boys which was even worthy of professionalists. During the evening, and also the intervals (which were short) our talented band of local musicians rendered such good and harmonious music as left nothing to be desired, and since the days of the "Mikado," "Geisha" and "Dorothy," etc., I have not seen anything shown here to surpass it. Apart from the worthy object (of itself sufficient to fill the house) I think one can safely predict another overflowing bumper in the "Magic Cup" to satisfy those who will patronize, as well as those whose generous efforts were a crowd at the house on the evening of Wednesday next at the Casino.

A DELIGHTED SPECTATOR.

HERE WITH SEALS.—The schr. Mac Lake having on board 2,800 seals from Greenspond, is now in port. The schooner Lizzie Guy reached port from Catalina with a part cargo of 300 seals, all of which were taken by landmen during the spring; most of the seals are old ones.

THE PRICE OF COAL.—We are informed by Messrs. A. Harvey & Co. that it is not correct as has been inferred from published reports, that the price of all coal has advanced to $14.20 a ton. The North Sydney coal that has been imported in reply to a large demand is selling at that price, owing to increased handling expenses, but Sydney coal and Scotch coal are selling at $11.20 and $11.60 respectively.

BRICKLAYERS ON STRIKE.—We are informed by a prominent official of the Bricklayers' Union that a number of their members have decided to quit work until such time as their employers guarantee them $5 for an 8-hour day. Our informant states that the average bricklayer is not employed more than four and a half months throughout the year, and in view of the high cost of living the former wage of $4 a day was insufficient to live on. Eleven of the Union men started work at the new fresh fish plant this morning and are laying at an average of 1,200 bricks per man, or a total of 13,200 bricks per day.

A Wonderful Help in Keeping the Complexion Youthful and Clear.

Perhaps you wonder how so many women manage to have a complexion that is always fresh and clear, and how you can make your complexion better. Here's the secret—

This is the Vanishing Cream that softens the skin and gives it that soft, velvety radiance that we all desire. Nyal's Face Cream is not oily or greasy, and it is readily absorbed by the skin, vanishing without leaving any tell tale gloss on skin. The skin welcomes this pleasant, soothing, cooling cream. It makes dry, tight skin soft and pliable. It makes rough skin firm and smooth, and gradually gives to coarse rough skin a finer, more delicate texture.
