Dear Sir,

Please accept my best thanks for your kind letter, and apologies for my delay in replying to it.

I am so glad to find that you like my chart, "The great and The Small"; and note what you say regarding its suitability for Schools, and not for Colleges. Of course it is very elementary - just a sign-post by the way, as it were, to stimulate interest in these Subjects, and cause those who read it to pursue science by the regular and orthodox text-book dealing with such.

Yours very truly,
Edmund H. Priestzke.

Dear Mr. Brietzcke,

Thank you for sending me the illustrated article
"The Great and The Small!" I think it is more suitable for work in schools than in a university such as McGill, and I hope you will be successful with it.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

I beg to submit, for your inspection, an illustrated article which I have prepared ("The Great and The Small"), thinking that this work may be of interest to you.

All the lettering on the original was done by my own hand, and the copies which I send are photo-lithographs of that original. It is practically three years since I started this work, and a few notes concerning it may be of interest.

It has been highly commended by Prof. Hughes, Professor of Education, at Mc. Gill, and his predecessor, Prof. Clarke, was also much interested in it, and said that he could recommend it highly for the use of schools, etc.

It has been officially rejected by both Protestant and Catholic Provincial School authorities—Dr. W. P. Percival stating that, in his opinion, it was beyond the childish mind, and the Catholic Board stating that it was "not opportune to give authority to this work".

Notwithstanding these adverse criticisms, from those who should, at once perceive its value, a great number of local schools and colleges have taken copies, as well as several Colleges in S. Africa.

It has been sent to the following countries—

Italy, France, Germany, Switzerland, Great Britain, India, The West Indies, Canada, U.S.A. S. Africa, Australia, New Zealand, etc.

I have given away over 2000 copies of the small "Rotaprint" English sample which I send,—I cannot submit photo-lithos. of this smaller size, as it is out of print, at present, but I enclose a small copy of the French edition, which is a true lithograph, just to give an idea of the appearance of the chart, when reduced in size.

I shall deem it a great favour if you will inspect this work,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:-

I acknowledge with grateful thanks the receipt of your letter of February 28th, in which you inform me that the British Columbia Teachers' Federation have done me the honour of giving me Honorary Membership in this Association.

I thank you for the more than kind way in which you have referred to the service I was permitted to render during the Great War. You were good enough to express the wish that my Principalship of McGill University will be marked by the same measure of success as attended the efforts of Canada's military forces overseas. This is almost too much to hope, because I realize only too well the many personal handicaps under which I labour. Yet, if a realization of the magnitude of the task confronting one, a determination to give the very best that is in one to the work in hand, and an appreciation of the opportunity for useful service which one enjoys, count for anything I believe I may play some part in influencing McGill University to make a greater contribution to the prosperity and welfare of our Country and to the happiness of mankind.

W. W.

Harry Charlesworth, Esq.

In the Army I knew that every untrained man was a source of weakness, so in the State, I believe, that every uneducated man keeps our Country from developing the full strength of which it is capable. In the Army I appreciated the value of good leadership. Many of our units were inefficient solely because their leaders were inefficient. In the State leadership is equally important and these leaders must come from the educated classes. I believe it is the highest purpose of a university training to implant in minds yet plastic and malleable the seeds of a noble and courageous citizenship, whereby her students may be the better enabled, in due course, to direct and regulate all the higher offices and functions of our complex citizenship.

I believe it is the function of the University to rear and nurture a healthy and fearless breed of men and women, so that from their earliest assumption of the full rights and obligations of such citizenship they may never fail "to play the game", in virtue of the fact that they have mastered under her tutelage that most difficult of all lessons "the love of truth, the determination to hold fast to intellectual honesty, which is a far rarer and more difficult virtue, especially in a democratic society, than the practice of philanthropy".

To my mind the aim of the University should be to send out into an ampler world stalwart men and women, who have learnt to subdue and renounce individual caprice; whose minds have been tempered with a sense of proportion and repose; and who, too, in a word, have learned by rote, and have had indelibly impressed upon their hearts that greatest of all human lessons, namely, that "in the simple service of his fellow-men lies a man's only lasting happiness".

Harry Charlesworth, Esq.,

Will you please convey to the members of the Federation my sincere thanks for the distinction they have accorded me and my best wishes for their individual and collective success.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.

Sir:

I have the honour to advise you that at a recent meeting of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, it was felt by all that by your magnificent services during the Great War you had added great lustre to Canada's fame, and the Teachers desired to take official cognizance of the pleasant fact that such a distinguished National service was given by one who was once a member of the Teaching Profession in British Columbia.

The Teachers of British Columbia are also justly proud to think that you have once again been called into the realms of education, as Principal of Canada's great University, and they wish you the same high measure of success in this work as was yours in your former position as Head of Canada's Military Forces.

There is a vital necessity at present for great educational leaders in Canada, and we look to you with every confidence in this connection, knowing that your efforts will always be centred on the advancement of education in its broadest sense, namely the building up of the highest type of Canadian citizenship.

Trusting that you will honour the Federation by the acceptance of Honorary Membership,

I have the honour to be,

Sir:

In your letter of March 16th, 1921, in which you accepted Honorary Membership in the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, you were good enough to express your sentiments with regard to the part which a University education should play in the life of a Nation.

I have many times re-read your letter for the inspiration which it contained and I would like to take the liberty of saying that it would be impossible to express in a better way the importance of education as a national necessity. I cannot help but think that such excellent and helpful words should be passed on to educationalists generally and I would, therefore, ask you if you would give your permission to the publication of your letter, or at any rate the second page, in an issue of our magazine. Our great work at the present time is to convince the public generally of the tremendous value of education as a means of bringing about a higher type of citizenship. We have many meetings to this end, and I am sure that the use of your opinions in this connection would greatly aid in bringing about the desired results.

Trusting that we may receive this further favor from you, I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Sir:

In connection with the application for membership, which you were good enough to fill up and return to this office, I beg to state that such an application from you is unnecessary and was not intended for your use.

The inclusion of a membership form in your copy of the magazine was an oversight on the part of those responsible for mailing the same---they were only intended to be included with the copies for our own active membership. I regret any trouble you may have been put to in connection with this matter.

We shall be pleased to forward you a copy of the magazine each month and we should also be glad to print in our magazine any information concerning your great University and its work, which may be of benefit or assistance to any members of the teaching profession in British Columbia.

It is a matter of great pride to us that you were so kind as to honor us with the acceptance of Honorary Membership in our Federation, and as far as we are concerned that Honorary Membership will be for life, and we sincerely hope that you may be spared for many years to carry on your good work, and to serve as an inspiration to those of our members who are serving faithfully in lesser spheres of influence.

Again expressing regret,

I do not know whether I have acknowledged the receipt of your letter, but I desire to do so now and to tell you that I will be on the look-out for suitable men for these positions, and will notify you from time to time of any men that seem to me worthy of being considered for the positions in question.

Dear Dr. Klinck:-

On looking over the most excellent report of the money raised for the McGill University fund by the graduates in British Columbia, I notice that you have been kind enough to make a contribution.

Permit me to thank you most warmly and sincerely for this generous act, testifying as it does to the sincerity of your regard for McGill. I hope that there shall ever remain between our Universities the strongest possible desire to be mutually helpful. When speaking in British Columbia I tried to say something which would help your University as well as to appeal for funds for McGill.

Because I lived longer in British Columbia than in any other place, I regard it almost as home. I am, therefore, very much interested in all that concerns her welfare, and I believe that her University will be the factor which will make the greatest contribution to her happiness and prosperity. I wish you the highest degree of success in building up and developing that institution.

With all good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA UNDER ORDER 162.
DATED MARCH 30, 1916.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and in that case the Company shall be liable for damages, suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200., due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

DAY LETTERS.

This Company will receive DAY LETTERS, to be transmitted at rates lower than its standard telegram rates, as follows: one and one-half times the ten-word Day message rate shall be charged for the transmission of fifty (50) words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for such fifty words shall be charged for each additional ten (10) words or less.

DAY LETTERS may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTERS are, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full-rate messages.

DAY LETTERS shall be written in plain English, or in French. Code language is not permitted.

DAY LETTERS may be delivered by the Telegraph Company by telephoning the same to the addresses, and such deliveries shall be a complete discharge of the obligation of the Telegraph Company to deliver.

DAY LETTERS are received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a DAY LETTER shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTER on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full-rate messages under the conditions named above.

My dear Sir Arthur,

All my best thanks to you for your letter. It is very kind of you to have taken an interest in young Griffiths, and I am sure he will be very appreciative of your kindness. His father and mother are very great friends of mine, and Sir John Norton-Griffiths, as you know, has been a very excellent and consistent Empire Builder.

When are you coming to pay us a visit in London Town?

I have got in my little den here a coat of arms of my old College at Oxford and the University. I wonder whether you could give me the address of any firm in Montreal from whom I could get the arms of McGill, painted, say, on wood or metal, to hang up in my den? I should like to have them if I could.

I am just beginning to receive Canadian cuttings from the Editors of the 100 odd weekly papers I had the privilege of looking after this last summer. It is a great joy to find that they all seem, from their own accounts, to have had the very best of times.

With all good wishes to you,
Yours very sincerely,

October 24th, 1924.

Sir Harry Brittain, K.B.E.,
2, Cowley Street,
Westminster, London.

My dear Sir Harry:-

Thanks for your letter of the 4th of October.

Regarding your desire to have a coat of arms of McGill let me recommend Mr. E.T.
Adney, 26 Buckingham Avenue, Montreal, as one who can do for you what you desire.

We are all very much interested in the election which is taking place in the Old Country. The matter furnished in our press seems to point to a Conservative victory, with Labour increasing its representation a little, while the official Liberal Party seems in a bad way.

The Prince of Wales left here a day or so ago for New York. He looks extremely well and seems to have enjoyed his visit very much, even if the American newspapers were rudely aggressive.
He appears quite at home in Canada and told me that certainly he would return in a couple of years time.
I believe he plans to go to South Africa next year.

With all kind wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

2, Cowley Street,
Westminster.

November 4th, 1924.

My dear Sir Arthur,

All my best thanks to you for your letter and for giving me the address desired in Montreal.

While your letter was crossing the Atlantic the Elections have concluded with, as you will now know, a very amazing result.

I succeeded in my own constituency, the big manufacturing division of Acton, in increasing my majority by about 5,000, which was a very useful lead.

With all best wishes to you and warmest thanks,

I am,

Yours very truly

President L. C. Klinck,
University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear President Klinck:-

Thank you very much for your letter of April 24th with reference to the opening date of your new university buildings.

I would much prefer to go on the 15th and 16th of October. Our Founder's Day ceremonies take place on the 6th of October, which is the anniversary of the birth of James McGill, and I would like to be here at that time.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

VANCOUVER, CANADA

April 24-1925.

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal, Canada.

Dear Sir Arthur:

Last fall when you so kindly consented to give the principal address on the occasion of the formal opening of our new buildings, I stated that the ceremonies would probably be held early in October. The building program has now progressed far enough to warrant fixing the dates definitely. Have you any preference as between October 8th and 9th and October 15th and 16th? If so, I shall be glad to recommend the dates which best meet your convenience.

With kind personal regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA UNDER ORDER 162.
DATED MARCH 30, 1916.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and in that case the Company shall be liable for damages, suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200., due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable for the act or omission of any other Company, but will endeavor to forward the telegram by any other Telegraph Company necessary to reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephone the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

DAY LETTERS.

This Company will receive DAY LETTERS, to be transmitted at rates lower than its standard telegram rates, as follows: one and one-half times the ten-word Day message rate shall be charged for the transmission of fifty (50) words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for such fifty words shall be charged for each additional ten (10) words or less.

DAY LETTERS may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTERS are, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full-rate messages.

DAY LETTERS shall be written in plain English, or in French. Code language is not permitted.

DAY LETTERS may be delivered by the Telegraph Company by telephoning the same to the addressees, and such deliveries shall be a complete discharge of the obligation of the Telegraph Company to deliver.

DAY LETTERS are received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a DAY LETTER shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such DAY LETTER on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full-rate messages under the conditions named above.

CONFIDENCE LOST IN B.C. UNIVERSITY HEAD

VANCOUVER, April 6 — (C. P.) — University of British Columbia's senate has passed a resolution expressing non-confidence in President L. S. Klinck. The resolution was passed by a vote of 18 to seven at a meeting held here last night.

The resolution declared "the senate regrets that it has lost confidence in the president of the university, and feels that the best interests of the university cannot be served under his leadership."

The passing of the non-confidence motion culminates a series of differences between the senate and the board of governors on the handling of the university administration.

April 6th 1932.

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal.

The Gill University.

Dear Sir:

I understand that the University of British Columbia is affiliated in some way with The Gill. According to the "Press" which enclosed a vote of non-confidence has been passed with regard to President L. S. Klink a former member of the staff of The Gill University at Macdonald College. Those who knew Mr. Klink here find the announcement difficult to comprehend.

Your interest is solicited.

Yours respectfully,

Jeski A. Watt

72 Maple Ave.,
St. Anne de Bellevue.

April 8, 1932

Leslie A. Watt, Esq.,
32 Maple Avenue,
Ste. Anne de Bellevue, P.Q.

Dear Mr. Watt,

I have your letter of the 6th with reference to the item which appeared in our local press regarding President Klinck of British Columbia.

In the first place, let me say that the University of British Columbia is not now in any way affiliated with McGill, nor has it been ever since the College was established as the University of British Columbia. When the foundations were laid it was known as McGill College, but some time before the War, British Columbia decided to take over the University.

I do not know what is the matter, but ever since the present Minister of Education took over that office there has been friction. My sympathies have always been with President Klinck.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

Dear Sir inform your principal in as kindly a manner as you see fit that signified sincerity is such without ambiguity. Am not responsible for unpunctuality of specific comprehension in other words lack of vitally necessary coordination.

May 13,
1932.

E. W. Beatty, Esq., K.C., LL.D.,
Chancellor,
McGill University.

My dear Chancellor,

I am returning Watt's telegrams.

I cannot think of anything to which they might have reference. Some time ago I had a letter from him, asking if the University of British Columbia was still in affiliation with McGill University and making a plea that we interest ourselves in the defence of President Klinek, in his difficulties with the Senate of the University. I replied to that as courteously as possible.

I learn from others here that Mr. Watt is regarded as abnormal. It seems the poor chap has not had steady work for a long time and people fear it is affecting his mind. I understand he has been in the habit, lately, of sending strange telegrams to different people.

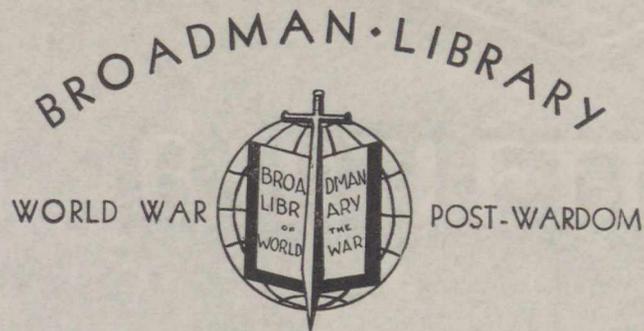

I believe Mr. Watt, Senior, is one of your employees.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.

DOCKET ENDS:

BRITISH COLUMBIA - UNIV. OF

February 10, 1937

Dr. D. McMurray
McGill University
Montreal, Canada

Dear Doctor:

I am interested to know why you have not yet written me further about the preservation of your records in their original form, - the only proper way to preserve records if we want to hand down to the future authentic facts. Unless we preserve the originals themselves, nothing will be authentic and records can be easily falsified. The Broadman Process preserves the originals.

Do you believe your records so badly mutilated that you assume their preservation impossible? You are in error if you think so. It will be a surprise to you to note the strength of each sheet thus processed. We can preserve master copies of newspapers, files of newspapers no matter how old they may be, records and manuscripts of any kind or description. Send us a sample order and you will be convinced.

Do you expect to wait with the preservation of your records until later, when the paper will be even more brittle? If you do so, the results will not be nearly as good, and more repair work will be needed. The sooner such records are preserved, the better. Our generation owes a duty to the future to preserve the records of our day - perhaps the most important era in human history - and to hand them down to posterity in their original form.

Enclosed please find a sample and price list. If you need any specific information, I shall be pleased to give you same. Hoping to hear from you very soon, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dr. Joseph Broadman

formed that there was no land close to Musgrave Harbor flat enough and wide enough to provide a runway long enough for the Lady Peace. When it was suggested that the plane could be equipped with pontoons and launched into the air from the waters of the harbor itself, fishermen who knew the coast shook their heads. They explained that the "harbor" was merely an open roadstead with very little shelter, and offered an opinion that the waters would be too rough for such a launching.

Still Hopes for Repairs

However, other fliers have alighted near there, and Captain Rickenbacker would not give up the idea of repairing the plane so the ocean fliers could return to New York in their own machine until he had conferred with them directly at least.

The flight from Boston was uneventful and the big Douglas plane, the largest machine that has ever appeared in the skies above Newfoundland, made good time. Pilot Bransom made a perfect landing on the long narrow field in the hills above Harbor Grace.

Merrill and Richman made better time than they were credited with yesterday. They landed at 3:15 o'clock Newfoundland daylight time (1:45 P. M. New York daylight time), which means they flew the 2,300 miles from Southport in 15 hours 42 minutes.

Captain Rickenbacker hoped to get away by boat by 10 o'clock tonight. The voyage up Newfoundland's rugged coast in the motor launch should take about twelve hours if all goes well.

Musgrave Harbor is about 150 miles from Harbor Grace, and access to it in the Summer months is by sea only. In the Winter time, with its open harbor icebound, the fishing hamlet is completely isolated.

HALTS AIR BOMBING OF OLD FORT TYLER

Gen. Craig Notifies Lehman That Frightening of Fish and Fishers Will Cease.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
ALBANY, Sept. 15.—Governor Lehman has been assured in a letter from General Malin Craig, Acting Secretary of War, that the Air Corps will no longer drop bombs in practice over Fort Tyler, near Gardiners Island, N. Y.

The Governor had received complaints that the bombing planes were frightening the fish and were scaring the fishermen as well, and he made two requests on the War Department. Today he made public a letter from General Craig, dated Sept. 10, which said:

"Acknowledging receipt of your letter of Aug. 28, 1936, in which you make inquiry of the action of the War Department on your previous letter of Aug. 5, 1936, concerning certain complaints against Air Corps bombing practice over old Fort Tyler, off Gardiners Island, N. Y., please be informed that I have issued orders that this practice be discontinued.

"As you know, old Fort Tyler, off Gardiners Island, recently reverted to the public domain of the United States in accordance with the request of the Long Island State Park Commission, which offered no objection to the use of the old masonry fort as a bombing target. I am happy to accede to your request on the representations which you make."

shrewdest purchasers of second-hand articles, sky-high prices were replaced bargains, all because business has improved to such an extent that there has been a 50 per cent drop in bankruptcy sales, causing a shortage of damaged items.

Many of the 800 second-hand specialists gathered yesterday at the auction sale of unclaimed and damaged articles of the Postoffice at the General Postoffice Building, Thirty-third Street and Eighth Avenue, said a shortage of goods had caused unprecedented bidding at sales, where "outrageous" and "unheard-of" prices are being paid because of competition.

Sol Novie, who conducts a department store at 127 Orchard Street, on the lower East Side, where, he says, one can buy "anything from a cat to an automobile," made this comment:

"Prices here and at all the sales lately have been high because of a shortage of merchandise. That is a sign—and make no mistake about it, either—that business men are not failing these days like they used to. Things are picking up quick."

"At least," he went on, "the people are paying 25 per cent more at the sales these days. Some of them are taking a loss.

"And, besides, there aren't so many sales now. And a lot of amateurs are looking for bargains and jacking up the prices. Look over there and see all the new faces."

He revealed he had paid much higher prices than he had intended to for the lots that cost him $147 yesterday.

"The game's all played out now," he advised. "I remember one day at a police sale when I bought a barrel of German dye for $14 and then sold it for $2,400. I'm a specialist. I don't get stuck."

Some 408 lots, which included gold watches, six months' old coffee and cigars, brought in a total of $3,426.

Skeleton 'Mystery' Solved

CLEVELAND, Sept. 15 (AP).—Coroner A. J. Pearse said today a skeleton found buried in East Cleveland was a discarded medical school specimen and not a seventh victim of the mad Kingsbury run slayer. L. D. Mennell, a school teacher, said the skeleton belonged to him, according to the Coroner. Mr. Mennell reported he buried it Labor Day when he moved from the vicinity. Two boys discovered the skeleton on their way home from school. They noticed several bones protruding from the earth in a weed-grown field.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The living costs of wage earner families and lower salaried workers rose 1.7 per cent between April 15 and July 15, food rising 5.8 per cent on the average during the three months, Secretary Perkins stated today.

While living costs as of July 15 were 13 per cent lower than the average in 1923-25, the index rose 10.1 per cent from the low point in June, 1933, and 2 per cent in the year from July 15, 1935, Miss Perkins reported. The new figures show costs this Summer as 17.2 per cent lower than seven years ago.

In thirty-two cities increases in the cost of food ranging from 2.8 per cent in Los Angeles to more than 10 per cent in Indianapolis, Kansas City and Birmingham were reported to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. In New York City the increase was 3.2 per cent and in Washington 5.3 per cent.

The advance during the quarter was caused primarily by an increase in the prices of potatoes, other fresh vegetables and fruits, and of butter and eggs, Secretary Perkins said.

Advances in rental costs were reported from twenty-six of the thirty-two cities, the greatest increase, 2.7 per cent, occurring in Denver. In Portland, Ore.; Detroit, Buffalo and Pittsburgh, there were rent increases of 2 to 2.2 per cent. New York was one of five cities where rentals declined slightly. There the decrease was one-tenth of 1 per cent, only Portland, Me., showing a drop of as much as six-tenths of 1 per cent.

There was an average decline of 2.2 per cent in fuel and light costs, reflecting seasonal decreases in all but two of the thirty-two cities covered. House furnishing goods showed little change.

In twenty-two cities slight declines occurred in the indices for miscellaneous items which include the cost of street-car fares, medical, laundry and telephone services, newspapers, movies, tobacco, medicines and toilet articles. These decreases resulted in an average drop of one-tenth of 1 per cent for the thirty-two cities combined.

Mobile, Birmingham, Los Angeles and San Francisco reported declines of between six-tenths of 1 per cent and 1.5 per cent. In each of these four cities lowered telephone rates were chiefly responsible for the decline in cost of the miscellaneous group of items.

SHIP GIVEN UP IS FOUND

Six Weeks' Overdue, the Gad Is Fighting to Reach Halifax.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 15 (Canadian Press).—Given up as lost by her agents, the three-masted Norwegian schooner Gad, six weeks overdue here on a voyage from Sunderland, England, was still struggling to make Halifax, it was learned today.

The first report from the 240-ton vessel since she sailed from the other side on July 2 came from the steamship Betty, which spoke to the Gad forty miles north of Cape Race on Sept. 2.

The Betty reported to I. H. Mathers & Son, Ltd., the Gad's Halifax agents, that the little schooner had obtained food and supplies from another ship and was attempting to make port. Severe storms had churned the Atlantic since the Gad set out. Only enough food was carried to last a month, the usual time for the crossing.

Two 5-year-old boys who able to suppress a desired school along with the rest city's 1,120,000 children in their homes yesterday had been the subject of a search by police for more than hours Monday.

The boys, Herbert Mel 533 Saratoga Avenue and Heller of 589 Saratoga Ave Brooklyn, left their home o'clock Monday morning, in hand made their way School 156, near by at Stue and Grafton Street.

the boys were told that not be enrolled unless approved by their parents, so instead turning home they decided a walk.

They went to the Sutt station of the B. M. T. F Street subway line at Van Avenue, where, despite the funds, they boarded a train spent the day riding train 9 P. M. entered an apartment at 1,440 Broadway, and soon dozed off in the A tenant returning home midnight found them.

City Births This Fewest Since 18

The year 1936 is likely fewer births in New York than any year since 1890 of the city's population about three times what forty-six years ago, according to estimates of Health Department statisticians announced by Dr. John L. Rice, Health Commissioner.

Up to last Saturday been only 71,102 births, unlikely, in the opinion Rice's aides, that the total year would reach 100,000 that the 1935 total of 100,000 passed. In predicting for this year, the Health Department experts explained that the of births for the last quarter usually was less than other quarter.

If the 1936 forecast is the birth total will trend that has been present under way since 1917, the city experienced its peak 141,546 births. The year near that mark was 141,256.

THE BRITISH SCHOOL AT ROME

FACULTY OF ARCHAEOLOGY, HISTORY, AND LETTERS

THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT TO THE SUBSCRIBERS

1936-37

Director's Report.—The Director took up his appointment at the beginning of October 1936, and returned to England at the end of June 1937. During this period he resided at the School except for visits to England, to France, to South Italy, and to Crete. The visit to Crete was made after discussion with the British School at Athens in order to report on the Roman building at Knossos partially excavated in 1935. A plan and summary, together with notes on other Roman remains on that site, were prepared. During the session he lectured in Rome at the Istituto di Studi Romani on 'Rome and the Art of the Celts and Anglo-Saxons from the Fifth to the Eighth Century,' and at the American Academy on 'The Cosmati.' He also lectured to the Royal Archaeological Institute on 'The Pre-Conquest Stones of Wales.' He continued his study of the artists of the Cosmatesque School, and hopes to be in a position to publish the results at an early date. He was also engaged in the completion of work already begun in Wales, Cornwall and elsewhere, and during the summer of 1937 supervised the second season of excavation at Castle Dore, Cornwall. Publications: 'The Roman Villa at Ditchley, Oxfordshire,' Oxoniensia, Vol. I; Interim Report on the Excavations at Castle Dore; 'Report on Roman Exeter' (jointly with other authors), Proc. Devon Arch. Exploration Soc., Vol. II; 'Report on the Pottery of Porthmeor,' Journ. Roy. Inst. of Cornwall, Vol. XXII.

The Librarian continued his researches on the red-figured vases of South Italy. His book on the pottery of Paestum appeared about Christmas, 1936, and it is hoped that a second volume, dealing with the fifth-century Italiote vases, will appear in the 'Bilder griechischer Vasen' series in 1938, as a result of the new material gained during a visit to the principal vase-collections of South Italy and Sicily made in the spring. He gave a lecture on 'The Pottery of South Italy with special reference to that of Paestum' to a meeting of the 'Camerata' held in the German Archaeological Institute in February.

The following public lectures were held during the session:—'Roman Provincial Administration before Augustus,' by Mr. J. P. V. D. Balsdon, 'Romanesque Ornament and Sculpture in England,' by Mr. A. W. Clapham, 'Chinese Painting,' by Mr. Laurence Binyon.

Courses of lectures on the archaeology and art of classical and medieval Rome were delivered by the Director and Librarian during the session. These courses were intended for students, but other members of the British community were admitted on application to the Director. The Librarian also conducted parties of students round the Forum, the Palatine and other classical monuments, and special visits were made to Ostia, the Cavallini frescoes in Santa Cecilia, and to view the frescoes of Michael Angelo from the scaffolding erected in the Sistine Chapel.

Library.—The session was one of considerable activity in the Library, consequent on the achievement of the first part of a general scheme of rearrangement and reorganisation, the completion of which must await the finishing of the new wing. The topographical room has been completely rearranged and now houses the topographical works belonging to the School and to the late Dr. Ashby, in whose honour the room has been named the Ashby Topographical Library, and an inscribed plaque has been placed above the door, together with Sir George Clausen's portrait of Ashby. The collection of English county periodicals and registers, etc., is being slowly brought up to date and will, it is hoped, shortly be considerably enlarged. It is unnecessary to stress the advantage of such a collection available to students of archaeology in Rome, as at present it is almost impossible to find sets of these journals.

During the session the Library acquired by purchase, exchange or gift some 350 volumes, excluding periodicals and offprints. The following institutions presented copies of their publications or other works:—The British Museum, The Society of Antiquaries, The British Academy, which presented a complete set of the Proceedings, The Hellenic Society, The British School at Athens, and the Cambridge University Press. The Library is also indebted to the following authors for copies of their works:—Professor Bernard Ashmole, Mr. Hope Bagenal, Mr. R. H. Barrow, Prof. J. D. Beazley, Dr. G. Bendinelli, Mr. George Buday, Mr. Campbell Dodgson, Dr. H. Egger, Sir Arthur Evans, Prof. T. J. Haarhoff, Prof. J. H. Holwerda, Dr. L. Poinssot, Prof. J. E. Powell and Mr. E. K. Waterhouse, and to Mr. F. W. Sargant for a generous gift of art books from his own Library.

The Worshipful Company of Goldsmiths presented three valuable volumes on their art for inclusion in the Churchill Library, namely :—v. Jenny, Keltische Metallarbeiten; v. Jenny and Volbach, Germanischer Schmuck; Orbeli, Orfèvrerie Sasanide.

Students.—Mr. A. W. James, Medieval Scholar, resided in Rome and Naples for six months. He worked in the archives of Naples and also made journeys to visit Angevin sites in Sicily and South Italy, preparing his thesis on Charles I's Eastern Policy.

Mr. D. E. L. Haynes, Classical Scholar, was in residence from November until March, studying Roman art of the third century A.D., and making, in conjunction with Mr. P. E. D. Hirst, of the Faculty of Architecture, a detailed examination of the Arch of the Argentarii. He also visited Libya, in order to study the Severan monuments at Lepcis and Sabratha, and South and North Italy. He then proceeded to the Danube and Rhine regions to study provincial Roman sculpture.

Mr. G. Brett, Rivoira Scholar, resided at the School for the greater part of the session, studying Byzantine and early Christian silver plate and other minor arts. He also visited the museums of Istanbul, Naples and Palermo, and assisted in the excavation of the imperial palace of Constantinople in the summers of 1936 and 1937, on which he published a note in Antiquity, September 1937.

The following, admitted as students by the Faculty, resided during the session :

Miss M. Garstang, working on Italian textiles, resided for six months in Italy, visiting the collections of medieval and renaissance textiles in Rome, Florence, Venice and elsewhere.

Mr. R. L. Beaumont, working on the Iranians in antiquity, resided for two months, returning to England on election to a fellowship at Corpus Christi College, Oxford.

Mrs. Atkinson, formerly Miss Chrimes, a student of the School, resided for four months continuing her work on the Etruscans.

Mr. J. P. V. D. Balsdon, Sub-Rector of Exeter College, Oxford, resided for three months working on Roman history.

Mr. J. E. Powell, Trinity College, Cambridge, now Professor of Greek at the University of Sydney, spent one month at Christmas collating Greek MSS. in the Vatican.

Professor Atkinson, Victoria University, Manchester, spent one month at Easter studying recent developments in classical archaeology.

Miss A. Cameron, The Register House, Edinburgh, formerly a student of the School, spent one month working in the Vatican archives.

The following resided for shorter periods :

Mr. T. J. Dunbabin, Assistant Director of the British School at Athens and Fellow of All Souls College, Oxford; Miss de Labillière and Miss Joan Laing, students of the British School at Athens; Mrs. Oakeshott, collaborating with the Librarian in the study of South Italian vases; Mr. E. T. Salmon, Associate Professor of Classics at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario, and Mrs. Salmon; Professor C. H. Stearn, of the same university; Mr. G. Robertson, of New College, Oxford, studying the history of art; Mr. H. Rendall, Hallam Prizeman from Harrow.

The following students were unable to stay in the hostel, but came to Rome and obtained facilities from the British School :—Miss B. Tilley, studying the topography and antiquities of Latium; Miss P. Winter, studying the MSS. of Euripides.

Scholarship.—The Rome Medieval Scholarship, 1937, was awarded to Mr. W. H. Davies, M.A., of the University College of South Wales, Cardiff. Mr. Davies had already been engaged in research on the works of Gildas, and proposed to study the sixth century in Western Europe, with special reference to the peculiarities of 'Continental' and 'Celtic' (Hiberno-Saxon) types of MSS., and the historical and linguistic relationship between Italy, France and Great Britain.

Publications.—During the session the Faculty published Dr. A. D. Trendall's Paestan Pottery, towards the publication of which Trinity College, Cambridge, made a grant of £100, and Mr. E. K. Waterhouse's Baroque Painting in Rome, the cost of which was shared by the author.

It is hoped that Volume XIV of the Papers will appear early in 1938. With this volume the Papers will return to the old crown quarto format, and it is hoped to find more room in them than hitherto for contributions by senior scholars, in addition to those of the School's own students. Volume XIV will contain the following articles; Two Tomb-Groups from Selinus, by K. M. T. Atkinson; The Pons Sublicius and the Insula Tiberina, by M. E. Hirst; The History of the Extortion Court at Rome, 132-75 B.C., by J. P. V. D. Balsdon; Caesar, the Senate and Italy, by R. Syme; Studies in the Social and Economic History of Ostia, Part II, by F. H. Wilson; Notes on Santa Maria della Strada at Matrice, by E. M. Jamison.

Appeal.—The increasing activity of the School, and the desire of the Faculty that it should use its opportunities to the full has led to the issue of an Appeal by the Faculty for wider support, addressed in particular to the Universities and Colleges of the Empire. This Appeal, together with a Memorandum giving details of the history, work and needs of the Faculty, is being circulated early in 1938. Copies are being sent to subscribers for their information. The Executive Committee of the School has at the same time undertaken the building of a new wing, and hopes to obtain the balance (£1,000) of the fund required for this purpose from other than University sources.

Finance.—The income from subscriptions and donations for the past year shows an increase of £214 on that of the previous year. This increase is more apparent than real, owing to the fact that during the past twelve months there have been received two Life Subscriptions and a special contribution of £100 from Trinity College, Cambridge, towards the publication of Dr. Trendall's volume on Paestan Pottery. General subscriptions other than those from Universities and Colleges show the normal decrease due to the death of subscribers. It is essential that this decrease, which not only involves financial loss but also implies the loss of personal support and interest which is of great value to the School, should be made good, and it is hoped that those who are interested in the School will use every endeavour to persuade their friends to support it by annual subscriptions. Such support is more than ever necessary to enable the Faculty to meet further badly needed expenditure on the Library and some increase in the annual value of the Scholarships, which is very desirable and is now under consideration.

It will be noticed that the expenditure on the Library largely exceeds that of the previous year, but this is partly due to the fact that in 1935-1936 the total amount of the Library allocation was not actually expended. The transfer of £200 to Publications Reserve is somewhat higher than last year, but is by no means excessive in view of actual commitments.

Dear Sir,

I enclose some copies of a leaflet giving particulars of the Fourth Annual Conference of British and Dominions Students, to be held at Geneva next September. We should be very grateful if you would be so good as to bring the Conference to the notice of any students who might be interested and who are coming to Europe this autumn.

Yours faithfully,

N. H. Poole

Secretary.
