The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

As every Association for the assistance and relief of our fellow-creatures is commendable and good, it is hoped the NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY of Halifax will be esteemed such by all who candidly pursue the Rules of its Institution.

When people meet with misfortune, or fall into distress in a part of the world remote from the land of their nativity, they naturally select their countrymen to reveal their situation to them, and to claim their aid.

That they might have it in their power to interpose with effect in behalf of such claimants, the natives of Scotland and those of Scotch parentage in the city of Halifax, agreed, in the year 1768, to form themselves into a charitable Society.

The good effects of their association have now been experienced for 105 years, and though the objects of their charity, like the contributors to it, have, according to their fundamental principles, been North-Britons only, and can, while their present Constitution lasts, be no other, yet there is nothing so narrow or illiberal in their Institution as to indispose them, in their individual capacity, from acting up to the principles of universal charity, and joining with the community at large, in acts of social or private beneficence.

The Seal now used by the Society, viz., a silver Seal, with a Thistle and Crown engraved thereon, with this motto: “Nemo me impune lacessit,” shall be continued, subject to the regulations hereafter mentioned.

SECTION II.

OF MEMBERS AND THEIR QUALIFICATIONS: ELECTION AND DUTIES

As the existence and usefulness of the Society depends upon its ordinary members, what relates to them deserves the first consideration.

Persons desiring admittance into the Society shall consist, first, of natives of Scotland; secondly, of those whose parents are or were natives; or, lastly, of those whose fathers or grandfathers are or were natives.

They shall be proposed by one or more members of the Society, at a general or special meeting, and their election shall be determined by a majority of votes by ballot, at next quarterly meeting.

Every person thus elected as an ordinary member shall, at the time of his admission, subscribe the Rules of the Society, and pay into the hands of the Treasurer a sum not less than four dollars, to be applied according to the orders and regulations hereinafter specified.

Honorary Members. Honorary members shall consist of those persons eligible into the Society, who are passengers and sojourners, rather than resident in the city, or who, being ordinary members, may remove from the city, or of those whom, on account of their office and avocations the Society shall think proper to exempt, though resident, from the duty of ordinary attendance. In either case they shall contribute to the funds of charity a sum not less than six dollars. The admission and enrolment of members of the first description shall, as heretofore, be vested in the officers of the Society, viz., in the President, Vice-President and Assistants. And it is to be understood that if any members of the first or second class shall become permanent residents in the city, they shall pay the same annual contribution as ordinary members or otherwise shall cease to be members of the Society.

SECTION III.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY, AND ORDER OF BUSINESS

Ordinary meetings and their number. For cultivating a mutual good understanding among the members, and for conducting the business of charity, the Society shall be assembled four times in the year, besides its anniversary meeting, namely, on the first Thursday of the months of February, May, August and November.

At all meetings of the Society, after the President or Vice-President has taken the chair, the Rules shall be laid on the table for the perusal and direction of the members; and nothing shall be talked of but the business of the Society, while the President keeps the chair.

Business.

Every member speaking on business shall stand up and address himself to the chair, and no member shall speak more than once on the same subject, except by leave from the Chair, or in order to explain something already offered.

Every member resident in the city, who shall be absent from any meeting, ordinary or extraordinary, shall be noted in the Minutes by the Secretary, and shall forfeit for every time he is absent, fifteen pence, for the use of the Society. Every member present shall pay 1s. 3d., to defray the expense of the evening.

Every member resident in the city, who shall absent himself for four successive quarterly meetings, without making an excuse that shall be deemed satisfactory to the Society, shall no longer be considered a member.

Penalty of absence.

At the meeting in November the members present shall, by a majority of votes given by ballot, elect the officers for the ensuing year, to wit, a President, Vice-President, two Assistants, a Treasurer, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Committee of Charity and Messenger; and at this meeting, also, a regulation shall be made for celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew.

Election of officers; time of it.

Any member being elected to the office of President and refusing to act, shall forfeit twenty shillings; Vice-President, fifteen shillings; and all other officers ten shillings each, for the use of the Society.

At the meeting to be held on the 30th November each year, for celebrating the festival of St. Andrew, or on the day following, if the 30th happens to be Sunday, the officers elected at the preceding meeting shall enter on their functions.

Annual festival.

At the said Annual Festival, every member of the Society who shall appear without a St. Andrew's Cross on his breast, shall forfeit and pay to the Society's use, seven shillings and six pence.

SECTION IV.

OF THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY: THEIR DUTY AND BUSINESS.

No person shall be eligible to the office of President, who has not been at least twelve months an ordinary or perpetual member of the Society.

Office of President.

The duty of President, Vice-President or Chairman, is to preside at all meetings, to regulate the deliberations of the Society; to state and put questions both in the affirmative and the negative, according to the sense and intention of the meeting; to check undue warmth or irregularity, and keep all persons in order; and for this purpose he shall have the power of fining, at his discretion, an offending member, not exceeding 1s. for each offence, without putting a vote; to direct summonses for all ordinary and extraordinary general meetings; and to execute or superintend the execution of all the rules and orders of the Society.

Duty of President and Vice-President.

The custody and use of the Seal, the power of naming the place of meeting, with all other powers vested in him by ancient usage, shall, as heretofore, remain with the President, or, in his absence, with the Vice-President or Chairman.

To have the Custody of the Seal.

The President, Vice-President or Chairman, shall approve of all disbursements, and sign all orders of distribution, the account of which shall, as usual, be submitted to the Society for its satisfaction. To sign orders, &c.

The Secretary or Assistant Secretary shall attend all meetings and Committees of the Society, with the Rules and Records; shall take down all Minutes, particularly noting, in a regular account, all monies received and disbursed, and shall produce the same, fairly written, in proper books, at the next meeting; shall read all letters, petitions or papers sent or communicated to the Society, and shall record such of them as may be deemed worthy of preservation; prepare all answers in such terms as may be directed; shall make proper indexes to the books of the Society, and allow no account thereof, under his direction, to be in arrear beyond the space of twelve months. Business of the Secretary.

The Treasurer will give such security as the Society may require for the trust reposed in him; he shall receive all monies belonging to the Society; he shall regularly produce his accounts signed, and the state of the incidental resources of the Society; and shall annually prepare a correct view of the funds, and the savings or exceedings of the year. Business of the Treasurer

He shall have no credit in his account for any sum disbursed for which he does not produce the order or approbation of the President in writing, or of the Committee of Charity.

THE APPOINTMENT, POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE OF CHARITY.

The Committee of Charity consisting of five, shall, as heretofore, be annually elected by the Society, for the following purposes: Number of it.

To enquire into the claims, characters and circumstances of all such as apply for the ordinary or extraordinary aid of the Society, to prevent the Duty.

charity of the Society from being improperly or fruitlessly applied.

To give their opinions as to the sum.

To deliver their opinion candidly and freely with respect to the general merit of claimants, and to the extent of the relief it may be necessary to afford them.

To report the misfortunes or sickness of Members.

To report to the Society any accident that may befall members, and such as stand in need of aid, or any sickness they may labor under, and to describe the nature and extent of the assistance it behoves the Society to give them, while in such circumstances.

PROVISIONS IN CASE OF THE ABSENCE, REMOVAL OR DEATH OF OFFICERS.

If any officers of this Society are, by sickness or otherwise, necessarily absent from a regular meeting, others shall be called, for the time being, to act in their room; and if any of the officers happen to remove out of the Province or to die during the year for which they were elected, the members assembled at the next quarterly meeting shall, as upon the meeting in November, choose others to serve in their room for the remainder of the year.

SECTION V.

FUNDS OF THE SOCIETY AND APPROPRIATION THEREOF.

Funds of the Society.

All the money collected from the members or received by donation or otherwise, shall be applied to the best advantage for promoting the ends of the Institution; and if, at any time, there shall be more money in the funds than present exigencies require, the Treasurer at the desire and by the direction of the Society at any general or quarterly meeting, shall lend out the same upon interest on the credit of the Province, or unexceptionable personal security by bond, or by investment in real estate, within the city of Halifax, by bond and mortgage; this security to be taken in the name of the President and Vice-President for the time being, and the survivors of them, as Trustees for the said Society; and in the said instrument of security, it shall be declared that the same is made in trust for the Society, and the President and Vice-President shall be parties to, and shall execute the same in the presence of two witnesses, and the said security shall be lodged with the Treasurer for the time being, and the mortgage, if any, to be duly recorded. Provided always, that said President and Vice-President, or either of them, their heirs, executors, or administrators, shall at all times subsequent (on being required by the Society at a general meeting so to do) execute an assignment or assignments of the said instruments, to their successors in office.

The charity of the Society shall be applied in the following manner, viz., the President, Vice-President, with the other officers of the Society or the Committee of Charity, shall have power to draw orders on the Treasurer for the time being, in favor of such poor or distressed persons as they shall judge fit objects of the Society's bounty, which orders the Treasurer shall immediately pay, provided always, that none but those who have the same qualifications in regard to country and parentage as is stated in the rule respecting admission of members, their widows and children, shall ever be entitled to any part of this charity. Provided also, that the sum so drawn for does not exceed £5 to any one person, and when £5 are drawn by order on the Treasurer, the said order must be signed by every member of said Committee of Charity; and, to prevent impositions on said Committee of Charity in future, all orders on the Treasurer shall be signed by at least three of said Committee of Charity, when under £5.

As a stated provision is made for the resident poor by the municipal laws of the city, to which the members of this Society contribute their proportion in their private capacity as citizens, the fund of charity shall be rather applied to the relief and assistance of persons who have met with sudden misfortune, or who suffer by occasional distress, than to continued allowance for the settled poor; but as no adequate regulation, suitable to all times and all circumstances, can be devised on this subject, the Society shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this rule, be always free to exercise its own discretion and humanity with regard to it.

SECTION VI.

CERTIFICATES TO BE GRANTED TO RESIDENT, PERPETUAL, OR HONORARY MEMBERS.

All perpetual, resident, or honorary members removing from the Province, shall, upon application, be furnished with a Certificate of their admission and attendance, under the Society's Seal, and signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary, the form of which shall be as follows :

“ These are to certify that _____ was regularly admitted a _____ member of the North-British Society of the City of Halifax, in the Province of Nova-Scotia, at a meeting of the Society the _____ day of _____, A. D. 18 _____

“ Given under our hands and the Seal of the Society, the day and year above written.”

But as it may be expedient for members of this Society to remove in quest of settlement to other parts of this Continent, where similar institutions subsist whose countenance and direction might be of great assistance to them, a second form of Certificate shall be granted, upon application, to such members of this description as the Society shall think worthy of the same, the form whereof shall be as follows :

“ These may certify that Mr. _____ was regularly admitted a Member of the North-British Society of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, on the day of _____, and having duly conformed to all its Rules and Regulations during his residence here, he is, therefore, recommended to the countenance and protection of any and all similar Societies.”

SECTION VII.

PROVISION IN CASE OF THE SICKNESS AND DEATH OF MEMBERS.

In describing the duties of the Committee of Charity, the superintendance of the sick was mentioned as a part of their charge, and as this branch of the Society's institution may be more effectually managed by them, they shall, in case of the continuance of the sickness or the incapacity for business of such members as need the Society's care, make report thereof to the officers and private members ; and if he or they need assistance during the night, the members of the Society shall, upon the recommendation of the committee, watch with such sick persons, and shall, at the Society's charge, be allowed proper refreshment during their watch.

In case of sickness.

In case of the death of any member needing such aid, the funeral charges shall be defrayed by the Society, and such a sum as circumstances may demand and the funds allow, shall be given to the widow or the orphans of the deceased.

In cases of death.

When the attendance of the Society is requested at the funeral of one of its members, or a countryman a stranger in the place, the President shall issue orders for that purpose ; and the customs of Scotland, as far as expedient shall be adhered to in the procession on such occasions, and as little expense incurred as possible.

Funerals.

SECTION VIII.

INTRODUCTION OF PERSONS ELIGIBLE TO BE MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY, AT THE QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

Introduction of Visitors by Members.

For the purpose of extending the usefulness of the Society, and for making the objects of it more generally known, each member shall have the privilege of introducing, at the respective Quarterly Meetings, persons (non-residents) eligible to become members of the Society; the member or members so introducing such visitor or visitors, to contribute towards the funds of the Society the sum of 2s. 6d. at each of the meetings in the months of May and August, and the sum of 5s. in the months of November and February, for each and every visitor so respectively introduced at any such meetings; provided, however, that all and every such visitor and visitors so to be introduced as aforesaid, shall be precluded from taking any part in the proceedings or business of the Society.

The foregoing rules shall be deemed the fundamental articles and regulations of the North-British Society, in Halifax, Nova-Scotia, and shall not hereafter be altered or abrogated, on any pretence whatever, otherwise than by consent of at least two-thirds of the members regularly met at any Quarterly Meeting in November; provided, also, that a Committee has been previously appointed, to consist of at least five members, and to have reported such alteration to be necessary.

Voted unanimously, and agreed to at a Quarterly Meeting at the Mason's Hall, in the town of Halifax, in the Province of Nova-Scotia, the seventh day of November, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Three.
