SWETTENHAM RESIGNED RATHER THAN APOLOGIZE

He Received a Demand From Colonial Office to Apologize to Admiral Davis Over Jamaican Difficulty---Apology Carried His Resignation.

LONDON, April 5.—The Standard today declares it is able to publish for the first time the circumstances leading to the resignation of Sir Alexander Swettenham as governor of Jamaica. The paper says that according to Sir Alexander's own statement in a letter to an intimate friend, he resigned in consequence of a peremptory demand from the colonial office to apologize to Rear Admiral Davis. To this Sir Alexander replied that if such a course were necessary he would do so with pleasure, but such a compulsory apology carried with it resignation.

There was any dispute between him and the American admiral at the time of the Kingston earthquake, saying: "We were the best of friends during the whole time the admiral was here. He had the use of one of my private carriages and drove around with my private secretary."

NEW YORK, April 4.—Although he was only fifteen years old, the love that Frederick Collinder bore for his mother was as strong as ever was that of manhood, and when he was told that she would be taken away from him for good he could not bear it. He killed himself yesterday, and the mother, lying on a bed of illness from which she is not expected to rise, keeps calling for him constantly, for she does not know he is dead.

MRS. EDDY IS A DELUDED PERSON

And for Years Has Been Incompetent, Says Ex-Senator Wm. E. Chandler.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Former U. S. Sen. William E. Chandler, counsel for the plaintiffs in the Glover-Eddy suit, late Tuesday night issued a statement in which he declared that the new trust for Mrs. Eddy's property, "is a trick contrived by her lawyers to avoid a possible reversion and that the defendants in the suit have used her delusions and incompetency to serve their own selfish ends."

MCGILL UNIVERSITY LOSES BIG BUILDING

Handsome Engineering Building Valued at $1,000,000 Destroyed by Fire Early This Morning.

MONTREAL, April 5.—(Special)—McGill University suffered one of the greatest losses in its history early this morning by the destruction of the McDonald engineering building, a gift of Sir William McDonald. The building was one of the finest equipped engineering departments on the continent, and was equipped with a complete set of about five o'clock from some unknown cause and before the fire department reached, the scene was a mass of flames. It was clearly seen that nothing could be saved, and the firemen directed their attention to keeping the fire away from the other buildings.

The building was completely destroyed with all its contents. It was opened by Lord Stanley 13 years ago. The insurance on the building amounts to $425,000, but the loss will far exceed this amount. Many famous treasures were lost, including the famous Rankine collection of Kilmahoney models, considered the best in America.

THE THAW TRIAL MAY BE HELD OVER FOR WEEKS

NEW YORK, April 5.—Much uncertainty again invests the Thaw case. Harry K. Thaw is sane according to the finding of the commission in Lunacy, which has placed in Justice Fitzgerald's hands the report that he is adjudged competent to stand trial. But this triumph by him over the prosecution may end with the report, and he may yet have to spend many weary weeks of imprisonment before his fate is decided.

to obtain a review of the justice's decision. It will be taken in the appellate division of the supreme court, and by it the district attorney will seek either a writ of prohibition, or a writ of mandamus. Such an application will act as a stay of proceedings, and if granted, it will halt the trial, which has reached its last phase, for perhaps weeks or even months. Mr. Jerome is proceeding on the ground that he cannot, without having examined the minutes, make an intelligent argument against the adoption of the commission's report. Justice Fitzgerald has not yet confirmed the report, but doubtless he will do so next Monday morning. The jury, meantime, is excused until Monday.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

MR. BINK'S GRIEF.

Mr. Peter Binks is worried. He is like a man who has suddenly quit using tobacco and goes about with a far from happy expression, absent-mindedly feeling in his pocket for a match and acting generally as one distraught.

waterworks extension was a blunder, or the fire department too good, or the directors of departments not big enough for a couple more just like the most obtuse of the present members have been elected for the year, and the carnival goes on. And it makes me lonesome. I feel as if I had lost a friend, or quit taking a tonic, or suffered from the after effects of gripe—or something of the sort. Now I have been getting on my feet with great eagerness, "could you please call one of the aldermen names, or say things about your taxes—or something of the sort? I would relieve me so much. It would give me a new lease of life."

The new reporter regretfully replied that being a newspaper man and always looking for something that would appeal to his sense of humor, he could not conscientiously do anything that might have the effect of influencing public opinion against the present city council. It would be like throwing an inspiration. "No, sir—I can't do it."

MR. MAYES WANTS DREDGE CHANGED

He Suggests That the Beaver be Put to Work at the End of New Wharf.

With reference to the difficulties experienced by Mr. Mayes in dredging in the channel between the Sand Point wharves and the proposed new structure, owing to steamers coming and going, and necessitating frequent moving about of the dredge, Mr. Mayes suggests that the department of public works might be communicated with to allow him to place the dredge at the end of the wharf now being built and have him dredge out the berth. This would keep the dredge out of the way of the steamers and also facilitate the work of getting the new berth ready.

BRODERIE ANGLAISE RESUMES ITS SUMMERTIME POPULARITY.

Lovers of eyelet embroidery, or broderie Anglaise, as our French cousins term it, will note with satisfaction the return of this type of elaboration in many of the most fetching gowns for the summer.

Linen of a fine, close weave takes this form of embroidery better than any other wash fabric, and the effects which can be worked out with it are numberless.

The circular top skirt is embroidered in a very simple and artistic design, the fronts of the jumper or oversuit carrying this same form of decoration.

Three rows of wide Irish crochet insertions are set in the wide circular flounce above a deep hem, and the waist shows lengthwise and crosswise bandings of this same lace, which also forms the little skeleton sleeves and belt.

The under blouse is of dainty white batiste, with a yoke of eyelet embroidery and lace frills.

comes out best at time of need, my lord," he said defiantly. "Try me in it, if you wish."

Della Scala's glance softened; he laid his hand on the boy's shoulder gently.

"Thou art a d'Este and my brother, Vincenzo, I do not fear thy behavior in battle, only learn the harder part-to bear thyself while waiting."

Vincenzo was melted, but not caring to show it before Conrad, left the tent without reply.

"He hath the makings of a soldier in him far all his willfulness, I pray you pardon his present idleness, my lord, and hold me as the cause," said Conrad. "I should have roused him sooner."

Mastino glanced around. It was the first time he had entered the German's abode, and the lavishness of its appointments were not to be denied.

TRAGEDY OF THE WHITE SOX TRIP TO THE SOUTH. Among the cheering incidents of the trip to the White Sox from San Antonio to New Orleans were the following items, which really came under the head of "too numerous to mention."

10.15 p. m.—Damage repaired by robbing a belated farmer of left hand wheel of his wagon. Train chuchus merrily on its way.

10.30 p. m.—Cylinder head blew out, but the train was not stopped. Engine threw left hand drive wheel.

10.45 p. m.—Engine ran out of oil. Brake man was dispatched to nearest town, and brought back some pork rind with a delay of only two hours.

11.15 p. m.—Train ran by mistake onto a branch line. Error discovered after going twenty miles and promptly rectified.

11.30 p. m.—Entire train jumped track and ran for 100 miles over Texas prairie before passengers noticed it. It only then came to their attention while crossing a bridge. It was a short bridge, however, and no kick was made.

1 a. m.—Tender ran dry of water and stopped necessitated. Engineer promptly threw out to nearest creek and the deficiency supplied in forty-five minutes.

2.15 a. m.—Engine stopped train to josh a milkmaid in western Louisiana. Passengers were so glad that any man on the train could enjoy himself that they stood for the delay.

3 a. m.—A reporter fell asleep. Train was stopped so as not to disturb his slumber.

3.15 a. m.—Coupling pin broke at top of grade. Forward part of train 100 miles forward; rear cars backed up 100 miles. Accident promptly remedied when discovered. For lack of a coupling pin Professor Barrell secured a collar and elbow on the rear car of the first half of the train and a half-Nelson on the forward car of the rear half and the party proceeded merrily on its way, stopping only now and then to kid the professor.

3.30 a. m.—Supply of coal was exhausted and train was halted until sun came out with enough heat to warm up the boiler.

ORIENT WANTING CANADIAN FLOUR Western Manufacturers Have Found Desirable Markets in Japan.

The flour mills of western Canada are busy filling orders for the Orient. There is a great demand from the Lake of the Woods Milling Company have disposed of 140,000 sacks and Ogilvie's sales have reached 170,000 bags, says the Winnipeg Telegram. These orders are to be filled by July 1. Other large orders are coming in continually.

THEY FAILED TO PROVE THEIR CASE (New York Evening Post.)

Of the assertion daily repeated that the "bank in Wall street" was a conspiracy of the railway discussion, and of nothing else, perhaps the less said the better. Mr. Harriman has gravely declared that the tightening of the money market—which plain, every-day bankers had supposed to be due to the weak condition of some foreign banks, and to have reached its crisis at least six months ago—was really caused by "this hostility to the railway."

RECOVERY IN THE STOCK MARKET (New York Journal of Commerce.)

The recovery from last month has been quite impressive, and has convinced most people (though not everyone) that the worst part of the depression has passed. It is now on securities will exhibit strength. The influential interests who are now supporting the market have shown that their resources are equal to the occasion, and so long as there is no wholesale liquidation from individual sources the market may be depended upon to absorb casual offerings. Moreover, with money down to 3 per cent for call loans and 6 per cent for time funds, the market is showing a return of 6 per cent or better against non-speculative investors, and Europe may follow up its profit-taking.

THE THEATRES THE CHARITY BALL

Local theatre goes realize that "The Charity Ball" is one of the greatest plays of the decade, as evinced by the gratifying advance sale for the opening performance of the Lyceum Stock Company at the Opera House on Monday night. Manager Anderson says that the advance sale is the largest any stock organization that ever played the house. The presentation will be a massive one from a scenic standpoint, and indications are that the company will be greeted with a capacity audience when the curtain rises on Monday night.

A GOOD PICTURE SHOW

The English Cinematograph Company opened a three nights' engagement at the Opera House last evening with an excellent programme of moving pictures and illustrated songs. The pictures presented were noticeably free from the jerky movement which is frequently a cause of complaint and were of a varied and interesting character.

THE VAUDEVILLE THEATRE

There can be no question that vaudeville has obtained a remarkable foothold with local theatregoers, judging by the success of the "Vaudeville," which is the week's offering at the "Vaudeville." The ladies are turning out in great numbers, and this is a sufficient evidence of the excellence of the various acts.

The Jones Family

"It was selling Belgian seed oats among the farmers in a certain district in Indiana," said the man with two big whiskers, "when a man who was driving in the opposite direction on the highway ran his wagon into my buggy and took a wheel off. It was clearly his fault, and he was mighty impudent about it and refused to pay damages. I proceeded to the nearest village to begin a lawsuit. When I went to the judge for a summons that worthy scratched his head and queried: 'You found out that his name was Bill Jones, did you?'"

REPORTS, DISASTERS, ETC.

London, April 3.—A dispatch from the Liverpool office of the White Star Line steamer Suezic which went ashore near the coast of Newfoundland, was cut in two yesterday by means of the extensive use of dynamite. The ship was finally severed and towed into port. Her fore part is firmly fixed on the Gloucester fishing pier. The Gloucester fishing pier was damaged by a collision with the Gloucester schooner Freceptor in thick fog off Sable Island the latter part of last week.

SOCIETY

That the fancy dress ball given by Lt. Col. and Mrs. G. R. White at the York assembly rooms on Wednesday evening, was the social event of the season, goes without saying. At first functions that have taken place within the last few years have been given by the St. John society circles but better represented.

Among the costumes particularly noticed was that worn by Mrs. G. R. White who, as the Duchess of Gainsborough left nothing to be desired. Attired in a lovely costume of black and white with accompanying coronet and jewels, she was a perfect facsimile of the historic character.

Another admirably conceived costume was that of Mrs. George West Jones, who impersonated Peg Woffington. Mrs. E. M. Shadbill made an excellent Spanish lady. Mrs. Stratton gave a lovely costume particularly dainty in an artistic color of pale blue and pink chiffon.

Miss Allan of Fredericton, made a charming Madame Pompadour, while Miss McLean was also in Pompadour costume. Miss Innes, in a quaint dress of the 17th century, elicited many favorable comments.

Another costume worthy of special mention was that worn by Mrs. D. Carleton Clinch, who assumed the role of a Lady of the French Court.

Mrs. Fred Sayre, attired in a pretty colonial costume was also much admired, and Miss Stetson, in a handsome gown of pink brocade silk gave a splendid representation of Martha Washington.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, in a lovely costume of rose pink satin, artistically embellished with garlands of roses presented a faithful type of the reign of Louis XVI.

Mrs. F. C. Jones looked particularly well in a dainty costume which might well represent Summer, and Mrs. Simeon Jones in Pompadour style recalled the colorful and in every detail faithfully represented Spanish ladies.

Miss Edith Skinner was hostess at the most delightful tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Burrows, who is about to leave St. John for Montreal, where she will join her husband. Among those present were Mrs. Freeman Lake, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. R. K. Jones, Mrs. F. C. Carver Jones, Mrs. D. Carleton Clinch, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Miss Tucker, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Innes, Miss McMillan, Miss Hegan and others.

Mrs. Hermann Stuart McDuffie entertained at an informal but very enjoyable afternoon tea, at her home, 122 Douglas avenue, on Wednesday last, when about one hundred guests were present.

BON VOYAGE

Had his arrangements permitted it, the citizens of St. John would have been glad to have had the opportunity to extend in a formal manner to Sir Wilfrid Laurier the assurance of their personal regard, and of their confidence that as Canada's chief representative at the imperial conference he will maintain the high traditions of Canadian statesmanship.

Our frenzied haste has led to innumerable lamentable disasters, and today there is an inclination to apply the brakes. The consuming desire of our business men to double, treble and quadruple their establishments has not always culminated profitably; expansion has not always meant genuine prosperity.

The late Baroness Burdett-Coutts used to relate with keen pleasure a story of the Duke of Wellington and the Duke of Devonshire.

"How is it, Monsieur le Duc," he said, "that you have so few of the Spanish masterpieces?"

"Unwritten law is no law," said the count. "I beg to remind your honor," said the suave attorney, "that when Newton discovered the law of gravitation it was wholly unwritten."

A little Scotch boy was reading in his history an account of the battle of Bannockburn. He read as follows: "And when the English saw the new army on the hill behind, their spirits became damped."

The teacher asked the boy what was meant by "damping their spirits." The boy, not comprehending the meaning, simply answered, "Pittin' water in their whisky."—Christian Register.

ALL DAY DEBATE ON TRADING CO. AFFAIRS

Mr. Monk's Motion to Summon Official of Interior Department to Bar of House Lost After Long Debate.

Ottawa, April 4—Mr. Monk, in the house this forenoon, moved his motion summoning C. A. Hedden, accountant of the interior department, to the bar of the house because of his refusal to answer certain questions at the agriculture committee in regard to the North Atlantic Trading Company.

Mr. Oliver said if there was any fault he thought the government and the department would be responsible rather than one officer.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Bergeron, Miller, Foster, Carvell, Henderson and Northrup.

The house divided on the motion of Mr. Monk, which was defeated by 99 against 51 for majority, 48.

Before going into supply, Mr. Foster said that he was going to discuss the insurance report on Tuesday afternoon.

Col. Sam. Hughes asked whether Lord Aylmer had resigned, and Mr. Fielding replied that his term had expired and his commission was not renewed. He was not in a position to make any definite statement.

PRESIDENTS OF CORPORATIONS

Should They Hold Office Year After Year?—The Evil Effects.

NEW YORK, April 4—Should the presidents of large corporations retain office year after year? This subject is exercising study in thinking circles because of the changed ideas of the public regarding corporate management.

Too often the head of a large corporation, after years of service, comes to regard the concern as his private property in which stockholders have no business to be interested.

Instances where this has occurred will immediately suggest themselves—the Sugar Trust and Amalgamated Copper industrial, the Union Pacific and Reading in railroads may be instanced offhand.

The moral information that is taking place in this country may not cease until every corporation is managed not by one man, but by the body of stockholders. What voice have the stockholders in the policy of any one of the corporations named, or in a hundred others that come to mind? President Havemeyer is convinced that it is none of the stockholders' concern how the Sugar Trust is conducted so long as they receive their regular dividend check.

WHY NOT SAVE MONEY?

Unless better candidates than now appear probable are to be nominated for the city council why should the city be put to the trouble and cost of an election? Why not nominate two additional aldermen-at-large, to meet the requirements, and elect them and the present members by acclamation? Why incur the expense of an election because some persons of no particular ability would like to wear the title of alderman?

The nominations will be made next Tuesday. There does not appear to be any concerted action in any ward to bring out candidates who would be any more able or public spirited than the present members. Such apathy in view of the universal complaint at other times is amazing and unaccountable. For one day in the year the people themselves are masters. That day falls this year on April 16th—election day.

If on that day they do not choose the best men to represent them at the council board, they very properly become the slaves of whatever system the men elected may inflict upon the city.

SPRING MEDICINE

The following bit of counsel offered by the Quebec Telegraph is worth passing on to the people of other cities. St. John among the number: "Now that the snow is disappearing and spring is at hand, there is something which everyone can do to improve the appearance and healthfulness of the city. As soon as the season will permit, a general cleaning up should be instituted. The accumulations of filth during the winter should be removed as quickly as possible from the streets and backyards. The blocking of the sidewalks with packing cases and the littering off of the thoroughfares with waste paper should be stopped. And as neatness and attractiveness pay in addition to enhancing the appearance of things generally, shopkeepers would find it to their interest to try what the application of a little fresh paint to their premises can do in that respect. The same remark applies, too, to our citizens generally, who should take pride in the look of the houses in which they live. They should do all they possibly can to increase their attractiveness and if there be a lawn or a small piece of ground in front of their residences, a well kept green sward or a bed or two of gay flowers will contribute powerfully towards that desirable end during the fine season. Their fences should be painted or white-washed. In fact, there is a whole lot of things which the citizens might do along those lines and yet not hurt themselves very much in time or pocket. The mere development of a desire to live in a neat, perfectly clean city would be a good thing."

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

FREDERICTON, April 4—When the house met this afternoon Mr. Pugsley introduced a bill for the appointment of a police magistrate at Caraquet, Gloucester county.

Mr. Ryan gave notice of motion for Monday next that it would be beneficial to the province and the I. C. R. that the Dominion government should take over the branch lines as part of the I. C. R. system.

The house went into committee of supply, Mr. Allen in the chair. There was much discussion over the items of $4,500 for dairying and $3,000 for farmers' institutes, $800 for the Maritime Winter Fair, and $750 for cold storage. Seventeen items were finally passed before the committee rose and reported.

THE BRITISH PREMIER ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

"The Exclusion of Women From the Franchise is Neither Expedient, Justifiable, Nor Politically Right," Says Campbell-Bannerman.

The bill introduced into the Imperial House of Commons for the enfranchisement of women was only of very limited application, and the introducer of it said that it was brought forward only for the purpose of obtaining an expression of opinion on the general proposition. The only important feature of the debate was the speech of the premier, which we subjoin. The house did not decide on the question, the time limit having put an end to the debate. Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman said: "I must make an apology to the house for interposing at this early hour, but the simple reason is that I have another engagement elsewhere, which will take me away from the house for two or three hours, and therefore I wish to state once what the attitude of the government will be in this matter. This is one of the most infrequent occasions to leave the decision of any government to the decision of the question before it to the house. (Hear, hear.) There is not only as I believe, no conscientious opinion on this question in any part of the house, and no affection of unanimity; but one may almost say that on every bench in the house—there may be exceptions—there is a difference of opinion. (Hear, hear.) In these circumstances, of course, it is for the house itself to take the course that best represents the views of its individual members. So far for the action of the government in its relations to the House of Commons. But I have a word or two to say in regard to my own personal opinion on this matter. I am in favor of the general principle of the inclusion of women. (Cheers.) I hold this view not solely on the ground of abstract right or principle, although on that I would urge there is much to be said. For instance, a woman pays taxes and has no direct representation. She has no power of influencing those who control the taxation. She has to obey the laws and to act upon arrangements which affect her personal liberty in a thousand ways—arrangements in shaping which she has no share; and I think the case has been very much intensified of late years by the much larger part that women have been not only allowed but invited and encouraged to take in wage-earning, in work in trades, in professional occupations, and other ways, which surely increase the inconsistency of denying her parliamentary rights, while conceding her civic duties. I think that the stage is long past when it can be urged that a woman by her nature and by her position in society is sheltered in some mysterious way from the buffeting and turmoil of life, and is unfitted for taking any part or exercising any share in public affairs. In fact, we have given up the idea which has prevailed in former days, that a woman is, if I may use the phrase, an outlander by profession. (Laughter.) But the way in which I approach this question is not only that abstract expediency, but also that of expediency. Is it good for the state that the women should be excluded from the franchise? Is it for the public advantage? What are the questions now which parliament has been called upon to deal, is now dealing, and in future, I

LORD AYLMER STEPS DOWN

Inspector General of Canadian Militia Retired Against His Wish.

Ottawa, April 4.—Lord Aylmer, inspector-general of the Canadian militia, has been retired from April 1. He had no definite knowledge of the decision until the evening. His retirement is not of his seeking. Lord Aylmer is in the best of health, is practically head of the Canadian militia, standing next to the minister, and has carried every step he has obtained on pure merit. It is said that he is to be succeeded by Col. Vidal.

The order retiring Lord Aylmer was issued by Lord Grey today. Lord Aylmer in 1893, notwithstanding that he was a Liberal, and that his brother was a Liberal, and that his brother was a Liberal,

PREMIER GETS BIG SEND OFF

Ottawa Streets Lined by People Who Wish to Farewell Sir Wilfrid.

Ottawa, April 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier left for the colonial conference this afternoon with the cheers of thousands and the singing of patriotic songs ringing in his ears. He was accompanied by Sir Frederick Borden and Hon. L. P. Brodeur and those private secretaries.

The train was a special one, leaving here at 3:40 p. m. for St. John and Halifax. Those who were to accompany the premier and senators seeing him off, the commons did not meet until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of 3. There was a great jam of people at the railway depot. All Parliament Hill and a large part of the city of Ottawa turned out to give a hearty send-off to the first minister and his colleagues. Those who were able to reach the car gave him a warm handshake and wished him success in the important mission which he undertakes.

Lady Grey, Lady Morley, Lady Laurier, Lady Borden, Miss Borden and Mrs. Brodeur were on the special and will be passengers on the Empress of Britain.

Montreal, April 4.—The ministerial special reached here this evening from Ottawa at 6:30 and five minutes later the steamship special left for St. John. Sir Wilfrid, although thin, seemed hale and hearty and there was no sign of anxiety in his face.

MARRIAGE A MOCKERY

Dr. Henson Says the Leaders of Society Are Filing Divorce Courts.

BOSTON, April 4.—Declaring that the leaders of American society have brought about an epidemic of licentiousness which even national laws would be powerless to remedy, the Rev. Dr. Henson preached a sensational sermon against divorce in Fremont Temple. His subject was The First Marriage, and he said in part: "For that first marriage, when Adam fell into a deep sleep and God took one of his ribs, was a woman made to order—and it was the only woman God ever did make. "I don't know what Adam thought when he looked upon that magnificent specimen of womanhood which God had him made, but I am prepared to believe that it was a case of love at first sight. "What a change from that wedding, magnificent in its very simplicity and naturalness, to the elaborate displays of today. The more vulgar ostentation there is about wedding, the surer you may be of scandalous proceedings to come later in the divorce court. "Before state, or church, God founded the family. It is first and foremost, for it was founded by God Almighty. "When the first man and woman sinned and fell, God told her that she should be to the man, and he should rule over her. But he did not mean that a bearded brute should beat and abuse her. He meant that the natural course of events the greatest burden of the sin should be for her to suffer. "Today the magistrates are overtaking the preachers. "We have a smart set whose filthy lucre gives them a sort of rotten respectability. Their lucre is fresh activities are what keep the divorce courts busy. "There are disgraced judges on the bench, who are willing to lend themselves to base usage. There are mercenary preachers who are ready to satisfy the demands of the libertines. There are states whose statutes are framed so as to invite the libertines from other states to come and evade their lawful responsibilities. "The cure is not in state legislation nor in national laws; it is in the cultivation of a public spirit which shall scourge with the lash of scornfuls the libertines who lead American society. "It should brand with infamy the author, albeit a woman, of that book which, by trial marriages and trial divorces, lower the high institution of matrimony to the standard of the barmy. "We are in the midst of an epidemic of licentiousness. Divorces have doubled in the last 15 years in this country. Do you think conditions are any harder today than they were 15 years ago? "Do you remember years ago when you were courting your sweetheart, when you gave her bouquets and filled her boudoir with roses, when you wrote reams of poetry to her on paper scented with musk; do you remember those days when you made a human door-mat of yourself? "And now you come home like a howling cyclone and yell out because dinner is not ready. And when it does come, you shout that it isn't fit to eat, and that you'll go out to a hash-house. Do you think that your wife is any different now than she has never seen you, or that she thinks of other men? "My good woman, for I hope you are good, greet your husband with a flower in your hair as you used to do. Make his home-coming a joy; make the home a little heaven on earth. Then he won't go to the saloon or think of other women."

THE SAILORS VACCINATED

Dr. Flood of Digby Enforces Quarantine Against St. John

The trouble with the Digby health officer is not ended. Yesterday the steamer Prince Arthur crossed the bay with about 50 passengers, and for fully an hour the steamer was held up at Digby while Dr. Ford was inspecting and vaccinating the crew, who left Yarmouth, N. S., the night before, and who had been in the city of St. John. The passengers held certificates given by Dr. Lewin and they were allowed to go ashore. "A. C. Currie, manager of the D. A. R., characterized the action of the board of health of Digby as absurd and insane all the way through. On Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. a telegram was received from Dr. Ford stating that a new crew would have to be put on board the Yarmouth before Mr. Currie explained that this would have to be done, through the custom house, which was closed from the receipt of the telegram until after time for sailing the following day. Officers of the steamer Yarmouth say that after Dr. Ford had inspected the ship he walked down to the engine room and showed his overcoat into the furnace.
