TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

In Two Months Russians Have Captured More Than 358,000 of Enemy's Men

Continued Success in Region of Carpathians—A Lull on the West Save For Artillery—Minor Infantry Engagements Near Pozieres

Petrograd, Aug. 16.—(Via London)—Between June 4, when the Russian offensive was inaugurated and August 1, General Brusiloff's forces captured more than 358,000 men. This was the official announcement today.

Great numbers of guns also were captured, says the report, which gives the following figures: Officers captured, 7,757; men, 358,045; cannon, 405; machine guns, 1,324; mine and bomb throwers, 338; powder carts, 252.

The Russians have captured a series of heights to the west of Vorokhta and Ardernoy, in the Carpathians. In the Vorokhta and Delatyn regions the Austrians are retiring to the west.

BRITISH REPORT London, Aug. 16.—"With the exception of minor infantry engagements in the vicinity of Pozieres, where our line is being consolidated, there was no change between the Anzacs and the Somme," says the war office report of today.

"There was some heavy shelling by both sides during the night."

Lull on West Front New York, Aug. 16.—A London cable to the Tribune says:

Sharp thrusts, which won ground both for the British and the French on the west front on Monday night, have been succeeded by another lull, broken only by the incessant artillery combat.

While the Germans insist that the allied offensive is spent, military critics here declare that the war is being cleared for a greater blow yet.

"The earthquake of which the German seismographs gave insufficient warning, as the French describe it, is still rumbling.

Hais's forces have driven the Germans out of most of the trenches northwest of Pozieres, in which they gained a footing on Monday. Further west, they forced the enemy's trenches at the Moquet Farm, directly east of Thiéval.

By these attacks, the loop around Thiéval has been drawn tighter and the town lies now in a pocket. The Leipzig redoubt is in a similar position. So soon as the British line further east is advanced, the British will be ready to make a new attack toward Thiéval.

Heavy Bombardment Paris, Aug. 16.—A violent bombardment was carried on last night on the west front at Thiaumont, Fleury, Vaux and Chaptre, east of the Meuse. Along the greater part of the front, the night passed quietly.

A Raid Near Trieste Rome, Aug. 15.—A squadron of French and Italian aeroplanes, made a raid near Trieste today, and is reported to have inflicted extensive damage. A French aeroplane was lost.

At Expense of Austria. Bucharest, Aug. 16.—The Epoca announces that Germany has offered territorial compensation to Rumania at the expense of Austria, in return for Rumanian neutrality in the war.

FURTHER GAINS BY ITALIANS Rome, Aug. 16.—Further advances for the Italians in their campaign against the Austrians east and southeast of Gorizia, were announced by the war office. Austrian trenches along the slopes of Monte Poinka on the northern edge of the Carno Plateau and in the neighborhood of San Caterina and San Marco, east of Gorizia, have been taken.

SWEAR SMITH IN AT ONCE? Premier Clarke is in the city today. So is B. Frank Smith, M. L. A., of Carleton county. So is J. Howe Dickson, clerk of the executive council. His honor Lieut.-Gov. Wood is expected here this afternoon. This may fairly be taken as an indication that Mr. Smith is to be sworn in this afternoon as a member of the government, probably as minister of public works.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN GENERAL BRUSILOFF One of Russia's foremost generals in the field today, and who is directly responsible for the sweeping Russian movements in Galicia is General Brusiloff shown herewith at his desk where he directs the hundreds of thousands of soldiers under his control.

RUSSIAN ARMY EQUIPPED BY THE JAPANESE Clothing, Arms and Munitions Brought Over Sea GUNS OF GREAT POWER

Military Observer, Back to Paris From Russia, Brings Interesting Story of Czar's Forces and Their Great Work

Paris, Aug. 5.—(Correspondence)—The extent to which Japan is clothing, shoeing, arming and maintaining the Russian army was vividly presented to a military observer, who has just returned after a trip along the Russian front in Japan. He was astonished to find that the Russian army was supplied with clothing, shoes, saddles and leather furnishings from Japan. He also found that the Russian soldiers were equipped with Japanese-made guns, machine guns, and other weapons.

"It is strange," he went on, "that Russia went to war with Japan over Korea, and now Korea is supplying Russia with the shoes in which her soldiers are marching to victory. Korea is a great grazing country, and is proving a vast reservoir of raw hides which the Japanese are rapidly turning into boots, saddles and leather furnishings."

"How did these supplies get from Japan to the Russian front?" the observer was asked.

"It was noted," he said, "that about the only vital point where the Germans had not been able to send their submarines was in the waters of the East China Sea, the Straits of Korea and the Sea of Japan. These are the waters separating Japan from Russia, and the Atlantic mainland and the routes over them, commercial and military, are open and without menace."

"What sort of arms and munitions were sent to Japan?" he asked.

"All sorts," was the reply, "from the service rifle to the big 12-inch gun. The 12-inch gun is a terrible weapon, and they are content not to send their submarines to the waters of the East China Sea, the Straits of Korea and the Sea of Japan. These are the waters separating Japan from Russia, and the Atlantic mainland and the routes over them, commercial and military, are open and without menace."

"No," and the report is not correct," said the observer. "The Russian artillery officers are directing their own fire, and are getting splendid results. The only Japanese and French officers who are temporarily assigned to explain the working of a new piece, just as an expert is sent along to explain any complicated piece of machinery. Japanese experts accompanied the big 12-inch Japanese guns, not to manœuvre them in action, but to explain how they were to be manœuvred. That is the extent of their help, and the Japanese are accomplished in operating their artillery. No," the Japanese have the remarkable ability in firing, clothing and munitioning the Russians, but they have not had a chance to do the fighting."

WENT ABOUT STREET HITTING AT PEOPLE Harry Crossman Faces Trial in Higher Court—A Wife Beating Story in Court

Harry Crossman was in the police court today charged with drunkenness and with committing unprovoked assault upon pedestrians in King street yesterday morning. The evidence of Sergeant Baxter showed that he also struck him while on his way to the police station in the patrol wagon. W. H. Dunham, who was standing at the foot of King street, was another victim. He said that he was approached by Crossman, saying: "I am looking for you." At the same time he made an attempt to strike at him. He was caught by the witness and held until Sergeant Baxter arrived. A Western Union dispatch messenger was also struck and knocked down. The magistrate said that he would commit the man for trial and if the higher court let him go he would hold him for assault on the police court this morning. That of a man charged with cruelly beating his wife for the last two months. Since he has refused to work, although he has been offered several jobs. He is Percy Toole. His wife gave evidence of harsh treatment she had to put up with. Walter Colwell, a neighbor, said that he often heard cries of murder and such like coming from the house at night. Only last night, he said, there was trouble. Toole said all he asked that she live as any other man's wife and that she obey him. He was remanded. Two Austrians were fined $10 each for fighting together in Pond street. Ella Gordon made a report against Thomas Dobbin for abusive language. The case comes up again tomorrow.

TODAY'S BALL GAMES. National League—Chicago at Cincinnati, cloudy, 8 p. m.; Pittsburgh at St. Louis, played Sunday as part of a double header. No other games scheduled. Fall of Lemberg Is Now Deemed Certain

Advance of Russians Brings Joy to Troops—German Officers Taken Prisoner Admit That Peace Now Means Another War

London, Aug. 16.—(New York Times)—The correspondent of the Daily Mail from the Russian front, under date of August 14, sends the following: "The brilliantly rapid movement of Lechitsky's troops northward toward Lemberg, causes the greatest rejoicing throughout the Russian army. This is now being inflicted on the Austrians has sensibly reduced their power of resistance, and there is abundant proof that the spirit of their troops is sinking lower every week."

"At the same time," the Russian have taught the Germans a severe lesson by handling the troops sent to stiffen the Austrians in a manner so rough that they were glad to surrender in thousands. "Nearly all the prisoners were found to be still in complete ignorance of the character of Brusiloff's drive, and of the failure of their army before Verdun."

"They say when these facts are generally known, all hope of victory will die away. Many prisoner officers say terms of peace have already been much discussed among them. Their view is that, falling any great success for their arms, Germany will make peace in the spring by giving back all the occupied territory, and possibly paying an indemnity. When told the allies would never agree to such a peace, they express great surprise. They admit, however, that the whole energies of Prussianism would in such an event, be directed to preparing another war in the west. The Austrians will be unable to do more than hold a defensive line very far back. The fall of Lemberg is now regarded as certain."

THEIR STEAMER TOPPLED, THEY DRIFT ASHORE ONLY TO BECOME ARAB'S PRISONERS

Rome, via Paris, Aug. 16.—A boat steaming from the Red Sea, the passenger steamer Letimbro, sunk in the Mediterranean a fortnight ago by an Austrian submarine, has been driven ashore near Misrata, on the Tripolitan coast. Eight passengers from the Letimbro, who were in the boat were taken prisoner into the hands of the Arabs. General Amegha, Governor of Libya, has sent emissaries to treat with the Arabs for the release of the prisoners.

SOME LITTLE PROGRESS BUT RAILWAY STRIKE MATTERS STILL UNSETTLED

Washington, Aug. 16.—Definite assurance that the threatened railway strike would be avoided was not apparent today, when White House conference with railroad managers and employees were resumed, but it was reported that President Wilson had obtained from the managers a qualified concession of the eight hour day principle on which further negotiations might be conducted. It was the third day of the conference, and indications were that the crucial stage would not be reached before tomorrow, when 640 additional employees' representatives will be here.

AUTOCASE

Two bye-law matters were disposed of this morning by Magistrate Ritchie. Frank L. O'Rgan, reporter for speed, was fined $5. His car was not out at the time he was reported. The case was dismissed. W. E. A. Lawton, reported for a similar offence, was in court today, but the case stands over until tomorrow, as Mr. Lawton wishes to bring his wife as a witness.

A MILK COMBINE?

There is said to be a movement on foot to form a combine among milkmen and dairymen to corner all milk and dairy produce so that the public will be forced to pay any price demanded by them. A prominent dairymen is said to be behind the movement. One large milk dealer is said to have refused to join this combine.

PORTUGAL TO GET INTO FIGHT ON WEST FRONT

Troops to Firing Line in France When Allies Decide Aid Needed to Exert Maximum Pressure on Enemy

London, Aug. 16.—(Toronto Globe cable)—"Portugal is on the verge of larger co-operation in the world war. She is taking thorough stock of her available military and naval resources, with a view of not only further strengthening her ancient alliance with Britain, but with the idea of becoming a considerable factor in the broader arrangements of the Entente."

Dr. Bernardino Machado, president of the Republic of Portugal, made this announcement of Portugal's future war policy in Lisbon today in an interview.

"In accordance with well understood conventions between the two governments," he said, "the military participation of Portugal in the Anglo-Portuguese alliance heretofore has been confined to operations in Angola, Portuguese East Africa, where at this moment our splendidly equipped troops are engaged along a thin but long and difficult front. Our help now is asked in the campaign on the western European front. Portugal is ready to undertake whatever measures are necessary to convince the Entente of our sincerity and persistence."

"Our troops will take the field in France at the precise moment the British, French and Portuguese general staffs decide Portuguese aid is necessary to exert the maximum pressure."

HUGHES MORE WARLIKE

Washington, Aug. 16.—Charles D. Hughes, republican presidential candidate, said he should not shrink from war in enforcing American rights abroad. He read the democratic programme of 1912, declaring for protection of American rights abroad.

"I want that made real," the nominee said, "I do not think in making that real we encounter the danger of war. I would not shrink from it in performing the obvious duty."

Mr. Hughes confined most of his remarks to what he termed the need for a protective tariff.

TRYING TO GAIN GOOD WILL OF THE POLES

London, Aug. 16.—It is announced from Vienna, says an Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Copenhagen, that it has been decided to establish a system of self-government among the towns and communities in the Polish territory occupied by the Austrians.

A large number of interned Polish citizens, the advisers state, will be released and sent home.

EIGHT CASES OF MEASLES IN THE ONE FAMILY

According to the Board of Health officials the epidemic of measles in the decrease, it has been reported to the board that there is one family in the vicinity of Spar Cove road with eight cases in the household. The family came from an outside district and it is thought they contracted the measles before coming. BISHOP SMITH HERE

Bishop C. F. Smith of the A. M. E. church, arrived in the city today to attend the annual conference to be held in St. Philip's church here, starting tonight and lasting until Sunday evening. This is Bishop Smith's second visit to the city, he having been here sixteen years ago. He boasts of being a Canadian, born in Colborne, Ontario, in the year 1828, and is one of the only two Canadians of his church to be elevated to the position of bishop. His district embraces Michigan, Ontario, Nova Scotia and Bermuda.

The bishop belongs to a fighting family by his father, N. H. Smith, having been a sergeant in a colored regiment which took part in the McKean rebellion in 1857. Not having heard of the recently authorized colored battalion here, Bishop Smith said that it would be news for some people to know that the colored people had a battalion all their own, and on his return trip he intends to visit Toronto and see whether or not any particulars with regard to the first colored regiment can be procured.

TRY TO DIVIDE BELGIAN PEOPLE

Germans Look to Time When War is Over

RACE AGAINST RACE

Three Million Walloons Speak French and Two Million Flemish Speak Combination of German and Dutch

Gen. Von Bisping, military governor of Belgium, is already making plans calculated to help his country long after the German occupation of Belgium is a thing of the past. He is doing his little best to divide the Belgians upon the lines of race and language, and to assure one part of them that Germany is their friend, and that their real enemy is not the invader, but that section of their fellow citizens that speaks the other tongue. If Canada were occupied and the invader were to encourage the real enemies were the "Orangeists" of the province of Ontario, the game in Belgium which is being played by von Bisping would be duplicated. The war has introduced Belgium to the world as a united and heroic nation, we are apt to forget that before it began there was a serious cleavage, and that Belgium is, in fact, a nation composed of two different races, one language being spoken in one part of the country and another language elsewhere, and that the minority was strongly combating the majority.

Walloon v. Flemings. Everywhere the language of diplomacy is French, except in the communications between Britain and the United States, or between Germany and Austria, and in Belgium the prevailing language is French. It is spoken by those Belgian subjects who are classed racially as Walloons, some 8,000,000 of them, while the Flemings, to the number of 2,000,000 speak a combination of Dutch and German. Before the war there was trouble in Belgium between these two factions, and von Bisping has sided with the Flemings. He has called upon German universities to prove that the Flemings are really a Teutonic race instead of being Celtic as they had supposed, and has represented to them that Germany is their friend, and the German invasion an act of kindness to free them from the yoke of their Walloon oppressors. He has ordered the German officers in Belgium to acquaint themselves with the Flemish patois and this tongue is used for official communications, while the French, the language of the majority has been sternly suppressed.

Belgium in Federal Union. Writing on this subject Es-Attache says in the Pittsburgh Dispatch: "Now, while Governor General von Bisping's elaborate and costly propaganda has failed to reconquer the Flemings to German rule, it cannot be denied that his manoeuvres have had the result of reviving the former so-called Flemish People's Party and the promulgation anew of its platform. The latter demands that on the evacuation of Belgium by the Germans the kingdom should be reconstructed as a federal union of two entirely distinct states, the one Flemish and the other Walloon, under the sceptre of King Albert. The platform provides for complete autonomy for each of the two states on the lines of Austria and Hungary before the present war. The foreign policy of the kingdom, the customs, the army and navy, the currency, the railways, postal, telegraph and telephone services and the national finances are all to be dealt with by the federal government. All other matters are to be regarded as state affairs, and Flemish is to be the official language of Flanders and French that of the Walloon portion of the dual kingdom.

Looking to Evacuation. The leaders of the Flemish People's Party repudiate any sympathy or friendship for the Germans, insisting that they want to be neither German nor French and in reply to the arguments that the discussion of such racial questions is lacking in patriotism while the German invader occupies the land and while 300,000 Walloons and Flemings are fighting side by side in the trenches for their common country, namely, Belgium, they contend that peace may come quickly and even unexpectedly, that Belgium must not emerge from the war as she was before the war, and that, therefore, no time must be lost in preparing for the struggle for their rights. That the Belgians, from their gallant monarch downwards, look for an evacuation of their country by the Germans at a far earlier date than is dreamt of here is shown by the fact that King Albert and his government has appointed by decree a Royal Commission, under the presidency of H. Carton de Wiart, Belgian minister of justice, to consider and compare measures which may be urgently required on the withdrawal of the Germans from Belgian territory and to arrange for a re-assembling of the Belgian parliament at Brussels.

"That the Belgians will ever forget the war I do not believe, but the Germans have always been of a sanguine character and imagine that when the scars of battle have disappeared and time has assuaged if not obliterated the memory, and when the Flemings have finally succeeded in winning complete home rule, the Flemings may remember the support and encouragement tendered to them in the matter by Germany and may lean towards her in a political, and what is far more important in Teutonic eyes, in an economic sense."

Discounts Lasting Hatred. Von Bisping, like other Germans, calculates that the passions aroused by the war will be short-lived, and that when the struggle is over the nations engaged in it will return freely to the quarrels and differences that occupied them a couple of years ago. In that event even should Germany be driven out of Belgium, as he must naturally expect, he will have sown seeds that will ripen into a pro-German feeling on the part of nearly half of the Belgian population. His hope is that the Flemings will remember that Germany was the friend that took their part against the Walloons, and that they will have a natural affection for Germany which may manifest itself both politically and economically. It is more likely that the war will blot from remembrance the problems that abounded after-people before it came, and will obliterate former quarrels, the common ground upon which Flemings and Walloons will meet in the future will be a hatred and a horror of Germany and all her works.

SEEK TO IDENTIFY BODY FOUND IN HARBOR

The body of the man who was washed up the harbor this morning taken to Messrs. Brennan's undertaking parlor where a close examination was made of the clothing in an effort to find some clue which would lead to identity. Mr. Brennan discovered the name Hall, printed in indelible ink and alongside of this the figure 8. The shirt was marked Ruthland and was size 17.

Men visited the rooms this afternoon in an effort to identify the body as that of a man named Anderson who was drowned in Courtney Bay last winter, but they were unable to do so. As there was no man named Hall who was known here, as far as is known the mystery of the unfortunate man is remains and may never be solved.

A former resident of Woodstock, who is in the city, said he thought the body might be that of Allen Carr who fell through the ice last winter near Woodstock and had never been recovered.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

STARS TONIGHT IN METRO PLAY AT IMPERIAL

Little Miles Minter, the youngest star in the world, who scored such a marvelous success in the Metro feature picture, "Emmy of Stork's Nest," will be seen at the Imperial tonight and tomorrow in "Barbara Frietchie," a big five-act photo drama produced by the Populists and Players for the Metro programme. This stirring and picturesque feature is adapted from the famous poem of the same name by John Greenleaf Whittier and the play by Clyde Fitch. In her remarkable career as a stage and screen star, Miss Minter never had a role better suited for her beauty and charm. She will be remembered by millions of theatre-goers who saw her as trapped by her wonderful performance as a child star in "The Littlest Rebel," an exceptionally strong cast appears in support of Miss Minter, including Mrs. Thomas W. Wiffen, the veteran actress, who will make her screen debut in this picture, Guy Coombs, William A. Moore, Anne Q. Nilson, Franke Fraunholtz, and Wallace Scott. Siberian travel series and Universal Animated Weekly also.

"AN ALIEN" ON SATURDAY AT OPERA HOUSE; JUST ONE DAY

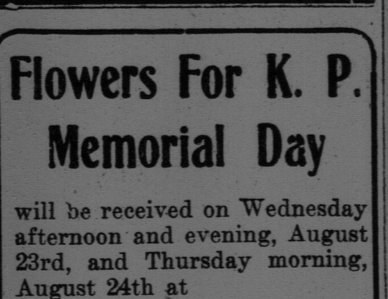

Everybody in St. John interested in motion pictures, and those who are not, should be interested in the announcement that the Opera House management has been able to secure a return engagement of that best of all photo dramas, "An Alien," with George Beban, the picture that made such a big hit last May. It will be shown here on Saturday of this week, one day only, and you should make it a point to be sure to see it, as it will probably never come to St. John again.

"AN ALIEN" IS UNDOUBTEDLY THE BEST DRAMATIC STORY EVER PUT UPON THE SCREEN

At any rate, when it was seen at the Astor Theatre, in New York, where it played a long and successful engagement, the press and the leading critics all agreed that it carried the most dramatic and heart-rending story ever produced in motion pictures.

INCREASED PAY FOR MEN OF BANGOR STREET RAILWAY

Bangor, Aug. 16—The Bangor Railway & Electric Co. announces a general increase in the wages of conductors, motormen and car barn employees of the company, following a conference with a committee of employees. All the men mentioned are to receive two cents an hour increase in pay, effective August 15. This follows an advance in wages made on January 1, of this year, when one cent an hour additional was given. Manager Graham said that the company is granting higher wages to its employees from broad motives, recognizing that the cost of living is increasing. The gross receipts of the company, as shown by the public reports, are not so high as they were two years ago, and the profits are less, but it was felt by the management that as in the past, all possible should be done for the welfare of the men, and the increase was granted.

Under the new scale of wages, men will receive 23 1/2 cents an hour during the first six months of their employment with the company; 25 1/2 cents an hour the third year and 27 1/2 cents an hour the fourth year and thereafter. All employees who have been with the company at least eleven years and reached the age of sixty-five, are entitled to a pension; at seventy years they must accept a pension. The company loans money to those of its employees who may be in need of ready cash, at low rates of interest.

The company also maintains a life insurance policy for all employees without cost to them. The sum of $300 is paid to the beneficiaries of employees who die in the employ of the company after having been in the service one year. The company is paying $40 a month to dependents of its married men who are with the militia on the Mexican border.

The gathering was ably addressed by the president. A paper prepared by Mr. Otty, on the work of the Public Utilities Commission, was an account of its value and lack of time, ordered taken up tomorrow morning.

This afternoon and evening, on invitation of Mayor Parker Grimmer, the members of the union will be the guests of the town council and board of trade at an excursion by automobiles through this district and to a shore dinner, then a Belgian relief concert in the Bijou this evening.

BRITISH SAILORS' RELIEF FUND

Halfpenny subscriptions to the British Sailors' Relief Fund now amount to $7,700, not including the proposed subscription of $300 by the city. The Halifax mark aimed at is $10,000 and the committee meets this week to arrange ways and means of making up the balance.

END INQUIRY TONIGHT

Coroner W. F. Roberts will conclude the inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of James McNeill, a young man who met his death at the General Public Hospital, this evening in the court. Dr. Roberts will address the jury after which they will retire for a finding. The verdict will be awaited with much interest.

The Peal of Wedding Bells

Does it not bring visions of the day when your own little girl will be a blushing bride? And don't you hope that when she marries, "Daddy's Gift" will be such as will add much to her happiness?

Well then, why not commence now to provide for her dowry by means of an Imperial Endowment Policy on your life? You'll scarcely miss the small yearly savings required to maintain it.

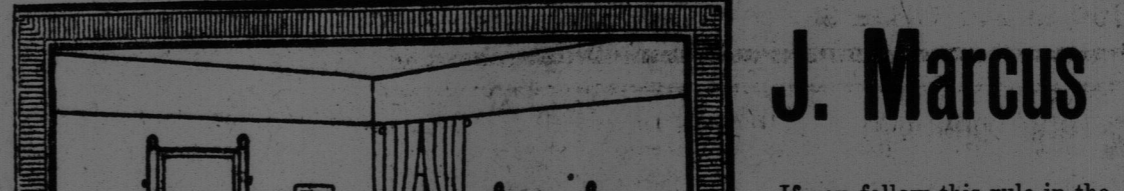

In this way you can make sure of having available when she reaches a marriageable age any sum you may choose. And, if you should die in the meantime, the full amount of the policy will be paid to her or to her guardian immediately.

We'll tell you all about Imperial Endowments if you'll send us your name and address. And your asking for the information will not place you under any obligation whatever.

PATRIOTIC CAUSES

Miss Walker, treasurer of the Red Cross, has received from Manager McKay of the Opera House the sum of $86, receipts from the concert of Aug. 2 under the direction of Sergt. Westall and the Field Ambulance Corps.

Leave your vegetable marketing until Saturday at the fair to be held on the ground of E. P. Baker, South Bay, on Saturday. A special farmers' table has been provided whereon everything in the way of farm produce, from butter to honey, may be had and of the very freshest kind. Donations from the Steins farm and others will make this a feature of the fair. Proceeds go towards buying comforts for the soldiers.

BRITISH LOAN IN UNITED STATES

London, Aug. 16—The forthcoming loan to be issued in the United States for Great Britain is regarded in banking circles as a preliminary move to protect exchange, which recently has been showing signs of drooping. The amount of the issue is so small, however, that it is understood that a more comprehensive operation, which will include countries allied to Great Britain, may be undertaken in the near future.

It has been reported unofficially, that a new British loan, the amount of which has been given variously at $100,000,000, to $250,000,000, would be issued soon. It is understood that the loan will be secured by American stocks and bonds, which the British government has been mobilizing.

THAT CARLETON CASE

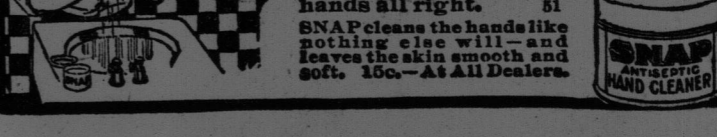

St. John, West, Aug. 16, 1916. To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Under the heading of Quick Work, appears a police report in the Evening Times that a boy having entered the fruit store of Mr. Smith was arrested by two detectives and that the crime was committed yesterday. The report implies that the boys' arrest and conviction were due to the efforts of the police. The facts are that the crime was committed on Monday, the 7th inst., and that Mr. Smith, by the aid of two friends, C. M. Alexander and C. I. Alexander, left for Fredericton last evening to attend horse races.

THREE LIQUOR CASES

Harry Crossman, arrested yesterday as reported elsewhere, laid information this afternoon against three liquor dealers, that he secured liquor from them, he being a minor. Crossman says that he is only 18 years of age. The liquor dealers are Phillip McGuire, Richard Caples and a saloon in Brussels street, licensed under the name of Dacey. The case was still going on at 8 o'clock.

A limestone quarry which is about a mile long, picturesque in appearance and dangerous to work in, is located near Rockland, Me. There 800 laborers toil in chasms having perpendicular sides 200 feet high and no way of entrance or egress except by means of the derricks which hoist and lower about a dozen men at a time.

MORE NEW BRUNSWICK MEN IN CASUALTY LIST

The midnight casualty list contained the names of three New Brunswick men killed in action, Lieutenant Robert T. Matthew, St. John; Albert Ross, Bayfield; wounded, Roy F. Maher, Lower French Village.

A. G. Turney, Provincial Horticulturist yesterday received word that his brother, Lieut. William Turney, had been killed in action while fighting with the 3rd Strathfordshire in July. The information came to Mr. Turney in a letter from his brother, Gunner Harry Turney, who left Fredericton with the 23rd Battery and is now at the front with the 8th Battery.

The late Lieut. Turney was thirty-three years of age, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turney, who are now living a few miles from Brussels. He was a native of Nottingham, England, but moved to Belgium with his parents some years ago.

That Lieutenant Robert Theodore Matthew, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Matthew, of this city, had fallen in battle, was in word received yesterday. Lieut. Matthew was a member of the

THE LATE DR. JOSEPH LOCKARY

Of Dr. Joseph L. Lockary, whose death was announced yesterday, the Boston Globe of Monday says: "Dr. Joseph L. Lockary of 108 Warren street, one of Roxbury's best known physicians, died in England, at St. Stephen, N. B., from cerebral hemorrhage."

Dr. Lockary left Boston about a month ago to take a much needed rest at his summer home at Oak Bay, N. B., and was stricken while in a motor car on the way to the hospital at St. Stephen.

He was born at St. Stephen, N. B., about forty-five years ago, and was graduated from McGill University, Montreal, with high honors, and had been practicing in Roxbury about twenty years. His wife, who was Miss Katharyn Ladrigan, died about five years ago.

Dr. Lockary is survived by five brothers, Rev. Fr. Frank, who is in France, chaplain of one of the Canadian battalions; Lewis, now convalescing in a military hospital in England; John, Fred and Edmund; and four sisters, Catherine, Margaret, Sister Adrian, who is in Bangor, Me., and Sister Carmella, who is in Portland. He has one son, John, about eight years of age.

Interment will take place at St. Stephen on Wednesday morning, and there will be a requiem mass on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at St. Joseph's Church, Roxbury.

He was a member of Massachusetts Medical Association, the Catholic Order of Foresters, New England Order of Protection, being medical examiner of Algonquin Lodge of Roxbury, the Knights of Columbus, and many other fraternal and charitable organizations, where his ever ready assistance will be greatly missed.

HOW GEORGE COWAN MET DEATH IN WATER

George Cowan, son of Edwin C. Cowan, engineer in M. R. A. Ltd., who was drowned at Jenseg yesterday, met his death while bathing in the creek. It is Dyleman with his two boys and young Cowan had been in the hayfield and the lads, becoming tired, decided to take a cooling in a nearby creek. The creek is deep and narrow. The Cowan boy reached the middle of the creek when he sank. The two other lads were too small to render assistance. Mr. Dyleman, being informed, secured a raft and was successful in securing the body within a very short time. Coroner Hobson decided an inquest was unnecessary.

CONCERNING MR. SMITH.

It is not necessary for the Standard to proclaim its admiration for Mr. B. Frank Smith. It approves of Mr. J. K. Flemming as a Conservative candidate for the house of commons, and why not of Mr. Smith as a member of the provincial government? A newspaper that would approve of the political acts of the former would naturally support the latter.

There is even a rumor that the government would be willing to traffic in the lieutenant-governorship to gain its ends. That, however, would be too glaring and too outrageous. It is true that including the gross violation of the principles of responsible government in the retention of Hon. P. G. Mahoney as minister of public works, but the schemer assumes too much if they dare to suggest that he make his own office a pawn in the desperate game they are playing.

The addition of Mr. Smith to the cabinet would be welcomed by the opposition. If he is the sort of man the people of Carleton county want as their representative in the government, in view of the revelations of the last two or three years, the rest of the province should know it. But there are few who will believe without the proof given in the ballot box that the people of Carleton county are any less jealous of their reputation of their county than were those of Westmorland.

Germany may pay for the lives of the Belgians she has shot for treason. Italy is wiping out old scores with a vengeance. She will emerge from this war as a greater and more powerful nation. Greece also had her opportunity, but let it pass.

Germany is the nemesis of Austria. In 1866 she thrust Austria out of the North German Confederation. Half a century later she has brought a more dreadful fate upon the Dual-Monarchy.

The shadow of Russia falls darkly across the plans of Germany. It tells of an ever-present menace of appalling bulk, that cannot be brushed aside so long as the British, French and Italians continue to do their part in the west and south.

Portugal will soon have an army in the field in France, in support of the Allies. Slowly, but surely, the coils are being tightened around the Central Powers. We would like to be assured that Roumania is ready to strike when the word is given. She has much to gain by such a course, and her aid would be of immense value.

The aid given to Russia by Japan is indicated by one of today's cables. But for that aid Russia could not have equipped her immense armies, and their splendid effectiveness is in very large measure due to the vast quantities of munitions and equipment rushed in from Japan.

Confidence grows from day to day that the enemy will not be able to provide any front as those that failed in their object last year, but we are warned that there is still tremendous strength in defence to be overcome, and that if Germany is obstinate enough the struggle may still be long and costly.

THE KAISER'S LAMENT The German Kaiser is reported to have declared in an interview that he has not the responsibility for this war upon his conscience. He would be quite right in saying that he alone is not responsible for the war, but he cannot evade his share of the responsibility—a share that is proportionate to the influence he has exerted over the German people. He is right, however, in saying that the war was inevitable. So long as the German people believed in war and maintained the fallacious but supremely dangerous view that theirs was a divine mission to lead the world, there was always a prospect of war that drew ever closer; and at last the war became inevitable. The Kaiser could not have prevented it, though it might have been postponed. The seeds of this war were Stag Parties "I wonder why they call them stag parties?" remarked the man who had just received an invitation to attend one. "It's probably an allusion to that well-known quotation, 'The stag at eve has drunk his fill,'" replied his wife, meaningly.

In a shop recently a well-known actress, who is noted for her perennial youth, asked for a traveling bag of alligator skin. The shopkeeper, who had none of that particular sort, brought out instead some smooth leather. "And you tell me this is alligator skin?" objected the actress. "Why, where are all its wrinkles?" "Ah, madam," replied the wily dealer, who knew his customer, "wrinkles are out of vogue. The correct alligator bag is made from the skin of an alligator that has been massaged."

His waistcoat was wonderful. His tie was tremendous. His socks were positively super-human. In order to display which his trousers were tucked up to a ludicrous height. An urchin plucked him by the sleeve. "Lost somebody's gu'n?" queried the youth sympathetically. "The swell swelled with indignation. 'Of course not, fellow!' he responded contemptuously, proceeding on his way. 'Cat or dog dead, gu'n?' queried the youngster, following. 'No!' distinctly annoyed. 'Why do you ask such stupid questions?' 'Why, gu'n?' called the urchin, 'con I see yer got yer trousers at 'arf-mast'."

Your "Get-Away" Power in Summer is low. Summer brings mental and physical lassitude. The spirit is languid, the liver is lazy. Nature is trying to unload the toxins that come from heavy foods and lack of outdoor exercise. Help Nature to restore natural vigor and vim. Get an eight-cylinder stamina by eating Shredded Wheat Biscuit with fresh fruits and green vegetables. Cut out meat and potatoes—eat these delicious, nourishing little loaves of baked whole wheat and be cool, contented and happy. For breakfast with milk or cream; for luncheon with berries or other fruits. Made in Canada.

WHITE SLAVE KING ADMITS HIS GUILT

More Police Indictments Are Expected Revelations Will be Widespread—Authorities Seek 'Fixes' Named in Confession as 'Pipe Line' From Force to Underworld

New York, Aug. 16.—Widespread revelations of the "white slave trust" which, according to District Attorney Swann, will pay the way for the indictment of many patrolmen, were made by Yushe Botwin, after he had pleaded to an indictment charging white slavery before Judge Rosalby in General Sessions.

Two powerful and wealthy men were named by Botwin in his voluntary statement to the prosecutor. Through these who are known as "fixes" it is charged, the police worked their "pipe line" to the underworld banks. This pair is said to have dealt directly with the police.

Botwin is fifty-seven years old, and has engaged in the traffic for more than twenty years. Having nothing to do with the police, he openly frequented some of the best known restaurants in the neighborhood of West Twenty-ninth and West Twenty-seventh streets.

Botwin was probably the most successful white slave in the country. He has been on commission from New York to San Francisco and from Maine to Florida.

Fiendish Brutality—One Sick Canadian Twice Bayoneted and Then Struck Down by German Sentry

(Special cable from Montreal Gazette's Resident Staff Correspondent.) London, Aug. 15.—Among the Canadians who arrived in England during the last week from a German prison camp is Private Harry James, of the Highlanders, whose residence is 408 Gault avenue, Verdun. He was taken prisoner at Langemarck in April, 1915.

Henry James, of Montreal, who had been in the front line, says that the Germans are first class looters. "I had no sooner reached Paderborn camp," he says, "when they stole my two gold rings and watch. I made several protests, but it was no use."

Several instances of German brutality are described. One is of a Canadian who was out on a working party. He fell sick, and the officer in charge told him to return to camp.

SHALL WE TOE IN OR OUT? "Shall we toe in or out?" asks the Journal of the American Medical Association. The writer comes very near recommending a neutral course. "Like the child's toy house built with blocks," he says, "the foot stands when balance is maintained and becomes weak and wobbly when a single block is moved sufficiently to disturb its balance. In correct position, the foot carries the weight of the body with a wide margin of strength to spare. Change the posture and the demand upon this reserve strength becomes often too great to be permanently borne. The foot is then under a strain it tires, becomes painful, and, finally, by yielding of the ligaments, the shape of the foot is altered, its efficiency is impaired, and our whole physical being feels the loss of a stable foundation. Body posture directly influences the maintenance of foot comfort, and foot posture has a direct bearing upon correct attitude of the body. The old method of toeing out, as taught to the recruits of the army in Civil war times, was really a position of weakness. To utilize its power to best advantage, the walking position of the foot should be with little or no outward pointing of the toes. In standing, slight turning out of the toes is permissible. To add to foot comfort, shoes should not cramp the ball of the foot and the heels should be low and broad, to give stability without calling upon the muscles to maintain balance. Mechanically the foot is a wonderful creation, but, like all delicate mechanisms, it must be kept in good condition and used intelligently or its efficiency disappears."

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Isabelle Walker. The death of Mrs. Isabelle Walker, wife of John W. Walker, occurred yesterday afternoon at her residence, 41 Harding street, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Walker is survived by her husband and one son, Arthur S., of the National Drug Company; also two sisters, Mrs. Nelson Russell, of Houlton (Me.), and Miss Elizabeth Thompson, of St. John. Mrs. Walker was a member of Queen Square Methodist church. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence.

Mrs. Mary Grieve of Harvey Station died at the residence of her son-in-law, Thomas Wilson, on Saturday. She was a native of Northumberland county, England, and came here with her parents in the year 1848. Her husband, Patrick Grieve, died about fifty-five years ago. She is survived by four sons and two daughters. The daughters are Joseph Grieve, residing in British Columbia; John H. and Thomas. Her daughter is Mrs. Thomas Nelson.

Mrs. Isabel Patterson, wife of Thomas Patterson, died Tuesday at her home, 105 St. John street, after a long illness. She was 65 years of age and is survived by three daughters and two sons.

The death of E. K. Stevens occurred on Tuesday at his late residence, Sellsbury road. He was fifty-four years old and is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. The daughters are Mrs. Austin Taylor of Moncton, and Blonnie at home. The sons are Stanley in Belgium, Ewart on home defence, Halifax, and Russell at home.

R. Sweetman of Moncton has received a despatch advising him of the death of Miss Sidie Heron in Boston. She was a time a stenographer in the C. G. B. stores office in Moncton. Miss Heron was about twenty-one years of age when she resigned her position about two months ago on account of delicate health. Her father is now in Vancouver, B. C.

A "COLD CRACK" Frederick Mail—The announcement is made that E. Frank Smith, M.P.P. for Carleton, may succeed Hon. P. G. McNamee as minister of public works. This will be a cold crack for those government supporters who were under the impression that Mr. Smith had already "brought trouble enough upon the party."

Painful Swollen Veins Quickly Relieved and Reduced. Mrs. R. M. Remter, of Federal, Kansas, writes an interesting account of her success in reducing a severe case of enlarged veins that should be encouraging to others similarly afflicted. She suffered with badly swollen and inflamed veins (in fact one had broken), for more than seven years before she became acquainted with Absorbine, Jr., and used it. Absorbine, Jr., was faithfully applied for several weeks and, to quote from her letter, "The large knots in the vein left, it was all nicely healed, and I had not bothered me since."

Absorbine, Jr., is an antiseptic liniment—cooling, soothing, and pleasant to use. $1.00 and $2.00 at your druggist's or post-paid. Liberal trial bottle postpaid for 10c. in stamps. W. F. Young, P. O. Box 317, Lyons, Mo., Montreal, Can.

LESSENED CROP YIELDS

(Bradstreet's.) As pointed out in Bradstreet's for some weeks past, weather conditions have made for deterioration in crop conditions, already none of the best, and this view of possible crop output has been reinforced by the government report on cereal and other crops put out on August 8. This report unsparingly reduced the quantitative estimates of spring wheat, which had suffered from rust and heat, further lowered the estimates of winter wheat, already assumed to have been decided, and pointed to a wheat crop the smallest since 1912 and only slightly above that of 1911. It also reduced the quantitative estimates of corn, oats, barley, rye, white and sweet potatoes, fax, apples and peaches. In fact, the sole bumper crop indicated is tobacco. About the only satisfaction that can be taken from the entire outlook is that most crops are up to or near the five-year average, and that old supplies of some of these crops will permit of us retaining some of the export trade which we have enjoyed since the war began in Europe. Higher prices for lessened yields will, no doubt, make up to producers for the smaller gifts of nature, but this rather negative blessing, from the consumer's standpoint, will have to be taken for what it is worth. From the standpoint of the country's foreign trade, of course, it needs to be remembered that the reduced volumes of export trade in food products is likely to be made up for by large takings of manufactured goods, which will, no doubt, be heavy as long as the war in Europe continues.

FRENCH CAPTAIN DENIES DEUTSCHLAND IS SUNK

Captain Leskivitt of the French armored cruiser, Admiral Aube, which arrived at Pensacola, Fla., on Saturday, denied widely circulated rumors credited to one of his orderlies to the effect that the cruiser had received a wireless message from a British patrol boat in the Atlantic saying she had sunk the German merchant submarine, Deutschland on Tuesday, Aug. 8. The captain asserted he had received no information whatever about the Deutschland.

its baneful effects on the general health standards of this country, tuberculosis must be combated with the active participation of every available agency. The services of the federal government should be utilized particularly to establish a national effort against this disease. While the outline of Smith in its entirety is perhaps difficult of attainment, especially with relation to its immediate utilization as a plan of campaign, certainly if put into effect it would tend to decrease greatly the number of new infections through the propagation from old cases.

WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

The results so far achieved, says the writer, "are shown in (1) the steadily growing enlightenment of the people on the subject of tuberculosis, its causes, methods of prevention and treatment; (2) the gradually falling mortality from the disease (in the registration area in 1900 the rate was 16.8 per 10,000; in 1911, 18.20) and (3) the impetus given to the entire public health movement through concentration of public attention on a disease, the gradual eradication of which is dependent on the realization of higher general health standards.

"The present lower mortality marks the effect of the intensive educational campaign of the steadily expanding system of institutional and home control of the disease, and of the general improvement in the sanitary and economic conditions of the people. Tuberculosis, however, is still with us, with its appalling though reduced mortality, and with some of its fundamental problems still awaiting solution.

Paris, Aug. 16.—"The capture of the third line of the German defence from Hardecourt to the Somme was preceded by a bombardment so intense that for a radius of twenty kilometers the ground was saturated with shells, and the earthquake," says La Liberté's correspondent in the north of France.

"In the north of France, the formidable artillery preparations, the correspondent adds, "waiting impatiently for the moment to pass into the assault. Finally, as if obeying an order which had been heard simultaneously on the entire front, the batteries were ordered to cease fire. The silence which succeeded the great uproar lasted only a few minutes. Several shells were fired, and were given and orders were passed along. The clinking of bayonets being adjusted could be heard, and a number of special and a system of industrial insurance, permitting the workers to take cognizance of incipient symptoms of disease; (3) reduction in the prevalence of all diseases which create a predisposition to tuberculosis; and (4) further improvement of those in contact with children; removal from tuberculosis surroundings of children under two years, preferably under four, and as much later as possible, and creation of special institutional provision for such children; (2) earlier diagnosis of the disease, rendered possible by the universal application of the principle of periodic physical examinations of children and adults, and a system of industrial insurance, permitting the workers to take cognizance of incipient symptoms of disease; (3) reduction in the prevalence of all diseases which create a predisposition to tuberculosis; and (4) further improvement of those in contact with children; removal from tuberculosis surroundings of children under two years, preferably under four, and as much later as possible, and creation of special institutional provision for such children.

"The French losses were more and less than had been expected. At Maurepas they did not have 800 men disabled, and it was at this point of the summit plateau, the southern part of which had been occupied the day before, that the combat was hottest. The German lunging on, defending the ground inch by inch, trying to cope with the French and hurriedly bringing up reinforcements. "Their resistance was vain, however. The French, after furious hand to hand fighting, pushed forward and entered the village, which had been completely destroyed by the French shells. The French are continuing their progress, and their possession of the entire village seems probable."

Electricity, the most subtle force in nature, always follows the line of least resistance. Politicians, who are perhaps the most subtle of human forces, have a similar tendency.—John Hill.

its baneful effects on the general health standards of this country, tuberculosis must be combated with the active participation of every available agency. The services of the federal government should be utilized particularly to establish a national effort against this disease. While the outline of Smith in its entirety is perhaps difficult of attainment, especially with relation to its immediate utilization as a plan of campaign, certainly if put into effect it would tend to decrease greatly the number of new infections through the propagation from old cases.

WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

The results so far achieved, says the writer, "are shown in (1) the steadily growing enlightenment of the people on the subject of tuberculosis, its causes, methods of prevention and treatment; (2) the gradually falling mortality from the disease (in the registration area in 1900 the rate was 16.8 per 10,000; in 1911, 18.20) and (3) the impetus given to the entire public health movement through concentration of public attention on a disease, the gradual eradication of which is dependent on the realization of higher general health standards.

"The present lower mortality marks the effect of the intensive educational campaign of the steadily expanding system of institutional and home control of the disease, and of the general improvement in the sanitary and economic conditions of the people. Tuberculosis, however, is still with us, with its appalling though reduced mortality, and with some of its fundamental problems still awaiting solution.

Paris, Aug. 16.—"The capture of the third line of the German defence from Hardecourt to the Somme was preceded by a bombardment so intense that for a radius of twenty kilometers the ground was saturated with shells, and the earthquake," says La Liberté's correspondent in the north of France.

"In the north of France, the formidable artillery preparations, the correspondent adds, "waiting impatiently for the moment to pass into the assault. Finally, as if obeying an order which had been heard simultaneously on the entire front, the batteries were ordered to cease fire. The silence which succeeded the great uproar lasted only a few minutes. Several shells were fired, and were given and orders were passed along. The clinking of bayonets being adjusted could be heard, and a number of special and a system of industrial insurance, permitting the workers to take cognizance of incipient symptoms of disease; (3) reduction in the prevalence of all diseases which create a predisposition to tuberculosis; and (4) further improvement of those in contact with children; removal from tuberculosis surroundings of children under two years, preferably under four, and as much later as possible, and creation of special institutional provision for such children.

"The French losses were more and less than had been expected. At Maurepas they did not have 800 men disabled, and it was at this point of the summit plateau, the southern part of which had been occupied the day before, that the combat was hottest. The German lunging on, defending the ground inch by inch, trying to cope with the French and hurriedly bringing up reinforcements. "Their resistance was vain, however. The French, after furious hand to hand fighting, pushed forward and entered the village, which had been completely destroyed by the French shells. The French are continuing their progress, and their possession of the entire village seems probable."

Electricity, the most subtle force in nature, always follows the line of least resistance. Politicians, who are perhaps the most subtle of human forces, have a similar tendency.—John Hill.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist) Rev. Frank C. Rideout of Bridgeport, Conn., is spending his vacation in visiting the scenes on the friends of his boyhood in Carleton county, N. B. He is meeting with much success in his work at Bridgeport.

Another very welcome caller recently was Rev. Johnson L. Mills of Rev. Bank, N. J. He spent a few hours in the city on route to Amherst.

Rev. E. B. Kinley has closed his pastorate at Weymouth.

Rev. H. H. Ferguson, pastor of the United Baptist church at Gibson, N. B., is spending part of his vacation in this city. Under his leadership the financial condition of the church has greatly improved.

For more than sixty years Dr. J. C. Mudge ministered to the churches on Digby Neck. Later these churches were grouped into two fields. Now the scarcity of workers has led to a reunion of the fields. Rev. I. Dwight Lytle, who has been pastor of the Little River field, has become pastor of the Sandy Cove group as well. He will find on all parts of his wide field fragrant memories of the ministry of Dr. Mudge.

Rev. E. B. Colwell has resigned the pastoral care of the Jemseg and Lower Cambridge churches. His pastorate of three years has been very successful, and he is held in highest esteem for his own and for his work's sake.

Rev. M. E. Fletcher, our denominational minister of finance, is visiting the churches in the Nova Scotia Southern Association.

During the summer months these provinces by the sea become a sort of Mecca to Baptist pastors across the line whose early homes were here. Among those who are thus enjoying a reunion with relatives and friends is Rev. George R. Baker of Hallow,

Russians Win Gateway To Plains of Hungary

Petrograd, via London, Aug. 15, 10.20 p. m.—The Russians have captured Jabolons, one of the most important gateways through the Carpathians to the Hungarian plains, and have taken nearly 1,500 additional prisoners, according to an official statement issued by the war office tonight.

Petrograd, via London, Aug. 16, 12.33 a. m.—The Russians have delivered another telling blow against the right flank of General Von Bothmer's retreating army at Tustobahy, three miles west of the Zlota Lips and northwest of Monasterzyka.

The Austrians crossed the river at Korjaba under the shell fire of the Russian batteries, suffering heavy losses. They attempted to make a stand on the high ground on the west bank, where they had previously prepared strong entrenchments and wire defences. While shells raked the Austrians from across the river the Russians moved up from the south, where they had been expanding their positions during the last few days in the neck formed by the Zlota Lips and the Dniester. They poured a grilling fire from machine guns on the Austrians, who withstood the Russian attacks for five hours, and then fell back on the Gorjona river, four miles to the west.

Northward battles are raging with terrific intensity along the Zlota Lips, the Russians having succeeded at several other points in gaining a foothold on the west bank. General Sekharoff has made a considerable advance in the last thirty hours against the left flank of General Von Bothmer's new positions. He has out the Tarnopol-Lemberg railway at a new point, Zhorow, where the road crossed the Strpa river, driving further home the wedge between the armies of General Von Bothmer and General Von Boehm-Ermolli before Brody.

Paris, Aug. 15—Italian troops have entered the suburbs of Tolmino, which is under continuous shell fire, according to a despatch to La Liberte from Turin today. The Austrians, says the despatch, are evacuating the city. Geneva, Aug. 15, via Paris—The Italian advance guard moving southeast from Gorizia is within thirteen miles of Trieste, whence the greater part of the Austrian fleet has sailed for an unknown destination, according to a telegram from Buchs, Switzerland, today.

THE GRAND LODGE I.O.G.T. IN SESSION

Important Gathering of Temperance People in Hampton—The Reports of the Year

Hampton, Aug. 15—The 46th annual session of the Grand Lodge of N. B. I. O. G. T., opened here today. The executive committee met at 10 o'clock and the following committees were appointed: Committee on political action—Rev. Thomas Marshall, L. R. Hetherington, Rev. W. G. Lane, D. C. Fisher, J. V. Jackson, Rev. O. N. Chipman, Rev. J. G. A. Belyea, Michael Kelly and A. C. M. Lawson. Juvenile work—A. C. M. Lawson, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Fowler. Credentials—A. C. M. Lawson, L. R. Hetherington, J. V. Jackson and Mrs. J. V. Jackson. Obituary—Rev. O. N. Chipman, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Arbo. Sessions—Messrs. Belyea, DeLong and Roberts. State of order—Messrs. Hetherington, Morrell, McEachern and Mrs. DeLong. Appeals—Messrs. Belyea, E. Marshall, Stuart and Mrs. Irvine. Finance—Messrs. Lane, Kelly, Van-Buskirk, Stuart and Mrs. Crandall. The grand secretary's report showed:

Lodges reported last year	46
Organized during year	1
Reorganized	1
Discontinued	48
Members reported last year	1,807
Initiated	487
Expelled	28
Reinstated	237
Resigned	0
Left by card	11
Suspended for non-payment of dues	647
Expelled	4
Died	8
Present membership	679
Net loss	1,592

About half a dozen lodges have not reported. Three of the largest lodges lost 46, 88 and 98 members respectively, and three others lost 20, 20 and 85, total for the six, 307. This shows that loss has not been general.

The G. C. T. reorganized Hampton Lodge, and Rev. Bro. Bell organized Burden Lodge at Burden. Fifteen lodges with total membership of 408, report 91 members in uniform. Dominion Lodge, St. John, has 88 members, of whom 15 enlisted. Others have from 20 to 80 per cent in uniform.

The report recommended that lodges be "urged to retain on the membership roll all these noble boys; that no tax be required from lodges on such members; that an honor roll of their names be made in the Journal, and that memorials be published of those killed." Eleven members have been reported during the year as having finished their earthly course. They are: Stanley F. Wetmore, Edward S. Ogden and Howard Johnson, Clarendon; Basil Harris, Salmon Rock; Ruth McLeod and Lot DeWolfe, Dominion; Dr. McC. Macdonald, Cambridge Star; D. B. Burgess, Fairville; R. J. McEachern, P.D.C.T., Thorne Lodge, and four killed in action—Richard Ashburn, Gward; Fred Hunter and Harry Grant, Cherry Hill; and Clyde Newcombe, Mt. Pleasant.

There was never a time when our lodges were more needed than at present. Twenty-four lodges with 874 members have favored an increase of per capita tax; two with 88 members voted nay and 30 with 670 did not report a vote. The secretariat would recommend increase of tax to 10 cents.

The report continued, noting with commendation the new prohibition bill, deeming it a most drastic and suitable one, much better than the Scott act. He recommended repeal of Scott act, and for chief prohibition inspector the G. C. T. Mr. Stockford. Also that 800 a year be voted Dominion Alliance funds.

The financial statement showed total receipts of $444.70 and expenditures of $528.84; balance on hand, $56.81. E. N. Stockford, Grand Chief Templar, reported in part as follows: My third annual report, from the standpoint of membership, is not what I would like to be able to bring to you. Circumstances have been such that little preparatory work could be undertaken. Much of the loss of membership has occurred among the larger lodges of the jurisdiction, and where there has been the greater enlistment for overseas service. In that way the cause has suffered, and places that these men have occupied have not as yet been filled.

One lodge was organized and one re-organized during the year. Each of these is doing good work. Four temples have been brought into existence, and this department has shown evidence of new life.

During December last a delegation from N. B. branch of the Dominion Alliance waited upon the government, asking for a prohibitory measure. In response to this, during the last session of the house such legislation was given as to please the temperance people and expression of our thanks has gone to the government.

The Prohibitory Law

Under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Rev. W. D. Wilson, traveling secretary of New Brunswick branch Dominion Temperance Alliance, explained the workings of the new prohibitory law before a fair sized gathering of the members of the local branch and a few clergymen in Orange hall yesterday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. David Hipwell, Mrs. Joseph Seymour occupied the chair and introduced the speaker. Mr. Wilson has an intimate knowledge of temperance affairs, and his discourse proved practical, instructive and interesting.

In Tropical Countries Liver Chill Very Common

In Northern latitudes also the liver is a very unruly organ and requires careful watching. The concentrated vegetable juices in Dr. Hamilton's Pills act directly upon the liver and stimulate its action to a normal basis. The blood is purified, the skin grows clear, headaches disappear and robust health is firmly established. No medicine for the stomach, liver or kidneys can compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 36c. box at all dealers.

King George Spends Week at Front

With the British Army in France, via London, Aug. 15, 7 p. m.—King George has been at the front for a week. He left today for England, and his departure was the first information that the majority of the troops had of his presence. As a matter of precaution, the visit was kept a secret, and there was no display or big reviews, as on the occasion of his visit last fall.

The Prince of Wales was with the king all of the time. The monarch was dressed in khaki, with the crossed batons of a field marshal on his shoulders, and the prince wore the uniform of a lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards. Neither wore any decorations, and but for their features, which were immediately recognized everywhere, they might have been taken for two of a party of officers making a round of inspection.

A dramatic moment occurred as the king was walking across a field swept by a British charge. He came to a grave at the bottom of a shell crater with a cross bearing the inscription "Unknown British Soldier." Both the king and the prince halted and saluted the cross.

When the king visited the men of the Scottish division, which had seen such desperate fighting at Deville or "Devil's Wood," the survivors of the South Africans gave him their usual war cry. He managed to see something of all kinds of the soldiers fighting under the British flag, from the Scotch, English and Irish, to the troops from overseas.

General Joffre came over from his headquarters, and President Poincare came from Paris to take lunch with King George and Sir Douglas Haig. On Sunday morning King George lunched with King Albert of the Belgians. Throughout the week a moving picture man was doing his best to keep up with the king while the diffident Prince of Wales was noticeably proficient in slipping out of the picture just as the operator began turning the crank. Not the least of the many scenes with dramatic appeal during the king's visit was that on the quay when the king landed. He was received by a guard of honor from a battalion of the King's Royal Rifles, 75 per cent of whom had been wounded.

London, Aug. 15, 8.45 p. m.—After his visit to the front, King George today issued a general order to the army in France expressing his appreciation of the splendid condition and cheerful confidence of all ranks, and, through personal visits to the scenes of later desperate struggles, his understanding of the demands made upon the courage of the men and the physical endurance required to assail and capture positions prepared during the past two years, which were stoutly defended to the last.

Ottawa, Aug. 15—Col. J. Lyons Biggar, director of transportation and supplies in the militia department, has been promoted brigadier-general. It is announced in militia orders. He has directed the transport and supplying of Canada's troops since the war broke out.

On the island of Trinidad is a lone brick chimney which once was part of a sugar mill long since gone to ruin. The chimney has remained intact and a tree has grown up through the centre and pushed its branches through the top.

For All Complexion Ills

If the skin be colorless, sallow, muddied, over-red, blotchy or freckled, nothing will so surely overcome the condition as ordinary mercurized wax. It literally takes off a bad complexion—absorbs the dead and near-dead particles of surface skin, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience at all. A new complexion is then in evidence, clear, spotless, delightful, soft and beautiful. One ounce of this wax, procurable at any drugstore, will rejuvenate even the worst complexion. It is used like cold cream.

Get What You Pay For

When you Advertisers buy circulars or booklets or postage stamps, you always check up the quantity received to see that you get what you pay for

When you Manufacturers buy steel or wood or bolts or screws, or raw material of any kind, you check up every carload and every little package to see that you get what you pay for.

When You Retail Merchants buy stocks from jobbers or manufacturers, you check up every smallest shipment that comes to your store to see that you get what you pay for.

Buy your advertising space the same way. The better newspapers all over the country—the newspapers whose circulation statements are founded on facts, not fancy—furnish you with certified audits so that when you buy their advertising space you know that you get what you pay for.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations' Membership is made up of over a thousand advertisers, advertising agencies, newspapers, magazines, farm journals and trade publications. Its object is the improvement of circulation and advertising conditions, the protection of the man who pays the advertising bills, and the protection of the publisher who gives FULL MEASURE. When you buy advertising space, buy it from publications that give you proof of what you pay for.

The Daily Telegraph and The Evening Times-Star are the only A. B. C. newspapers in New Brunswick and two of the few A. B. C. newspapers in all Canada. Therefore, they should be the first consideration on the part of any local or national advertiser catering to the St. John and New Brunswick markets.

LEAPS FROM THE TOP OF THE SINGER TOWER

Tuberculosis Victim Had Noticed Detectives

Policeman Thought it Movie Stunt—Broadway Crows Horrified as Body Shots Downward

New York, Aug. 16—A body fell from the Singer Building Tower, and after striking the projecting roof at the thirteenth story landed on the opposite sidewalk of Broadway.

Amid the screams of terrified spectators, a few of whom missed death by inches, a traffic policeman calmly muttered, "The movies," and turned to keep straight the traffic that clogs that part of the thoroughfare at noon. But it wasn't the movies this time. It was a thriller from real life, such as has never seen its equal in suicide annals at police headquarters.

Albert Goldman, seventy years old, and hopelessly ill of tuberculosis, had fought his last battle with Fate. Just as the ball dropped from the Western Union tower, signifying noon, he hurled himself into space from the observation tower, on the fortieth story.

Five minutes later, when Richard Daley, the traffic officer at Cortlandt street and Broadway, flashed the news to headquarters, Detective Callahan hung up the telephone receiver and faced his partner, Detective Bulger.

"He beat us to it," was all he said. The two men hurried to the Greenwich street police station, and after identifying the mishap man of paper in the clothes, read to a group of reporters two letters. One was addressed to the Chief of Police and the other to Mrs. Natalie Tuchman, the suicide's sister, with whom he lived, at 1158 Simpson street, The Bronx.

They were practically the same, to the effect that Goldman had tired of suffering and intended to commit suicide by hurling himself from a skyscraper. Both letters had been mailed the night before, and reached their destination at 10 a. m. From that time until noon detectives scoured the city in an effort to save the man's life.

HIGHLANDER HOLDS IT IN FACE OF HEAVY ODDS

Private Robert Baker of an Argyll Territorial Battalion, who has received the Distinguished Conduct Medal, was a farm servant lately residing at Killcheeran, near Port Charlotte, Islay.

He was serving in a sap when the Germans exploded a mine, partially destroying the trench, and his retreat was cut off by an artillery cross-fire. The trench was then rushed by a party of Germans, but Baker ran to meet the enemy, and with his grenades fought with such vigor as to convey the impression to the enemy that the sap was held by a force. A German with a belt filled with grenades ran to attack Baker, who killed him with a grenade, and, fighting alone, killed eleven men, ultimately causing the enemy to retreat from the trench.

He held his position that night alone, and in the morning he hoisted his helmet on a rifle as a signal to the gunners. His signal was noticed and he was rescued from the trench which he had held so valiantly. Baker received the warm congratulations and praise of the colonel and officers of his regiment. He was promoted corporal and granted leave of absence for a holiday at home.

SCHOOL TEACHERS GO WEST

Frederick Gleaner—The School Board of Fredericton reluctantly parts with Miss Verma Baird, one of the youngest and at the same time of the most efficient on the school staff. Miss Baird, who is the second daughter of Harry P. Baird, belongs to a family of educationalists, her mother being formerly enrolled in the provincial teaching service, her eldest brother, Roster Baird, being only newly appointed to one of the chairs in the faculty of the New Brunswick university, her brother, Murray Baird, now in training camp for overseas, having won the Rhodes scholarship for N. B. in 1915, and her sister, Miss Edna Baird, having attained honors in music at Heidelberg before taking up her profession here. She left by the C. P. R. for Winnipeg on Monday evening and was accompanied by Miss Mrs. Barton, formerly of Chipman, who will enter upon like duties in the schools of Manitoba.

The Man In The Street

The Bear's growl is beginning to cause terror in Berlin.

Forgive us readers dear, For we know not what we do; This column must appear Though it fairly puzzles you.

A phase of the abbatior question which bothers us is how to spell the blamed thing when you have to do it quickly.

Sinking the Deutscherland is becoming popular among excitable newspaper correspondents.

The suggestion that the government should look into the matter of regulating the prices of commodities is a fine one, but it is also suggested that if we get a new minister of agriculture it will not be a man of the type of one advancing but a matter of potatoes.

What Might Have Been

This week the Red Cross Society made its first regular house to house collection of old newspapers and other waste paper. During this collection it happened that a letter carrier, making his rounds in a residential street, deposited his heavy bundle of papers on a door-step, as was his wont, while he delivered letters in neighboring houses. He returned just in time to rescue the bundle of his Majesty's mail from the hands of the Red Cross collector, who was about to deposit it in his van, with sundry other packages of waste paper.

Tipperary Mary's Men

Who said the policemen are quitters? It was reported that they were afraid to meet members of the Street Railway in a contest for muscular supremacy, but they are actually participants in the contest. A correspondent writes to ask which side he should bet on. Well, if some of the muscles of the forces participate in the contest the Man in the Street is of the opinion that it would take a locomotive to haul them over.

To return home heralded a hero after disposing of a large and ferocious wolf, and the next day to hear that the beast was a dog must be rather humiliating to the amateur huntman.

And Then They Walked

Two young ladies were very anxious for a walk one evening last week, and leaving their summer home at Point Landing about eight o'clock, they strolled leisurely along the road towards Westfield. The sudden appearance of an approaching auto quickened the pace of the fair ones. On came the car. "He is along," whispered one, and "I know him," said the other. The auto stopped and the two ladies got in. So quickly passed the time that the ladies realized they were being taken far from home, and that it was becoming late. Hillendale was reached and the fair ones alighted. They were then on the look-out for a chance back. "There will be plenty of chances," they assured one another. But the "chance" never came, and they were compelled to walk all the way back. They are taking no more chances.

LOCAL NEWS

MEETING TODAY

A meeting of the Lancaster Ferry Commission was called in the city hall this afternoon. The object was to reorganize and elect a chairman.

STREET WALKING CASE

A young girl was arrested by Detectives Barrett and Briggs last night about 10:30 and was charged with street walking. This morning she pleaded guilty and was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd in Waterloo street. Complaints have reached the police recently concerning street walking by young people. The police propose to round up the offenders.

BRINGING SON'S BODY HOME

The body of George Cowan, fifteen-year-old son of Edwin C. Cowan, who lost his life by drowning in a creek at Jenajag yesterday, is expected to arrive in the city on the steamer Majestic this afternoon. A message from his father this morning said that he was driving through the Jenajag to Washademoak and would take the steamer Majestic for the city.

DAVID GILLILAND

A very large number of friends gathered at Reed's Point, Kingston, yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of David Gilliland, who died last Sunday morning. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Shanklin in the Baptist church, and interment was in the Baptist cemetery. Among those in attendance at the funeral were members of the Orange order and the I. O. O. F., with both of which societies he was affiliated. The Orangemen wore their regalia. Mr. Gilliland was a young farmer, one of the outstanding men of the district, noted for his integrity and a man who took a deep interest in the community. He is survived by his wife and four children.

BOY ARRESTED

A very young lad was taken to police headquarters early this morning by Detectives Barrett and Briggs on a charge of collecting money without authority. The boy is only a youngster, but is evidently older than his years. It is understood that he had been working for a milk dealer up to and including Thursday of last week. Since then, although severing connection with his employer, he had been going about to his customers and collecting money from them, and had received about $6. The city detectives were put on the case and as a result the boy was taken into custody at the Union Station early this morning. Since last Thursday he has been working with another milk firm, driving a team.

DEATH OF HARRY RILEY

The death of Harry Riley, of 141 Mckenzie street, occurred this morning in the St. John county hospital, where he had been a patient for the last eight months. Mr. Riley was only forty years of age, and had been an employee of the St. John Iron Works. He leaves his wife and five children. He was a son of the late Andrew Riley of Annapolis, and had been living in St. John about four years. Two brothers, Andrew and Richard, are in Annapolis, and another, Thomas, is in Toronto. There are two sisters, Mrs. Rosche, of Annapolis, and Mrs. Carl Miller of Bear River. Mr. Riley was an office in the Salvation Army, and his funeral will take place from the Charlotte street chapel. He was also a member of the Royal Order of Moose.

MAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN HARBOR

Floated by Tug G. K. King and Was Secured

Long Time in Water and Identification Possible Only by Means of Pieces of Clothing

Members of the crew of the tug G. K. King were horrified this morning about 10:30 o'clock to see a body floating past the stern of their boat, which was moored at the foot of the South Market wharf. Captain Golding ordered that a line be procured and attached to it, after which he sent a message to Coroner Roberts.

The body was that of a man and apparently it had been in the water for a great length of time. The trunk is intact, but other parts are missing. The man was apparently about six feet in height and proportionately large.

Parts of the clothing are still there and are the only means which may lead to identification. He was wearing a black and white striped shirt, a woolen fleece lined undershirt, and apparently dark grey pants with black stripes, also heavy woolen socks and fairly heavy boots. Judging from this apparel the unfortunate man was drowned during the winter.

Members of the crew of the tug are of the opinion that the body floated down through the falls. Many were trying to recall drowning accidents in which bodies were not recovered and some are of the opinion that the unfortunate man may have belonged to a dredge. Inspector Copley and Policeman Winter arrived soon after the body was found and they remained until after the arrival of the coroner and the body had been removed to the morgue.

POLICE FORCE VS. ST. JOHN RAILWAY

Battle of Giants in Tug-of-War at Tipperary Mary's Picnic, Tesbury, Saturday

The sports committee of Tipperary Mary's Patriotic League to be held on the Bunsy grounds next Saturday afternoon and evening have arranged to revive the old-time rivalry between the police and the street car workers in the line of tug-of-war. This forenoon an agreement was made whereby six of the burliest and most muscular of Chief Simpson's finest will pull against a sextette of conductors and motormen for a handsome trophy, which the Railway Club will put up.

Things have changed a bit since tug-of-war were in sport a few years ago, for in the opinion of many of the standards these classes of men have all had to pass "white hope" tests with the result that the event on Saturday ought to be a battle of giants.

This tug-of-war is only the first of a programme of contests that will make the picnic a pronounced sporting event as well as a splendid outing. The ten and twenty-cent railway fares was good news this morning—thanks to the L. C. R. management and Rotary Club—and now it is announced that motor craft have good docking facilities at the new Regent wharf, only a short distance from the grounds.

GOOD TIME AND A FINANCIAL SUCCESS

A record was made by St. Columba Presbyterian church as far as Fairville Protestant denominations are concerned, anyway, in financial returns from their picnic this year, as the treasurer, James E. Bryant, reports that he has on hand a surplus of $168 and there are still several amounts not yet in.

As this is certainly the highwater mark it might be interesting for the Fairville people to know that total receipts were $841.88 with expenses $178.88, leaving the excellent balance of $663 to add to the church funds.

None of the local churches make money-getting the chief object, as the picnics are primarily a day's outing in the country.

AN INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

Exciting indeed was an incident which occurred while W. S. Stephenson of Westfield was entertaining a party of friends in his car one evening this week. While they were returning along a dark and lonely country road, where thick evergreen trees lined the way and formed an arch over head, a huge moose suddenly appeared directly in front. Mr. Stephenson slowed down a little, but the animal, quite undisturbed, braced itself and prepared to charge the machine, much to the consternation of its occupants.

One lady exercised her vocal organs most vigorously and awoke the slumbering echoes with her terrified screams, but strangely enough they did not have any effect on the moose's line of action. Another, thinking the car might prove an ineffective barricade, proceeded to climb over the back, while a third considered it safest to get out and get under. Another member of the party gently besought it to "shoo."

While the greatest confusion reigned Mr. Stephenson alone remained cool, and with presence of mind highly commendable sounded the Klaxon. When this unearthly noise rent the still night air the moose swerved suddenly, within an inch of the car, and dashed off into the darkness.

It took some time to restore order, but this was accomplished as the car sped over the remaining distance. Opinions vary as to the size of the moose, but it is generally conceded, by those who had an excellent opportunity to observe that this must have been the one which enjoyed the society of Noah in the Ark, and since it has named about the forests and waded larger ever since, its dimensions are naturally unparallelled.

LOCAL SHIPPING

The schooner Willie McNeil arrived at Port Hawkesbury, N.S., on last Saturday from Stonehaven with a cargo of stone, according to a letter received by J. Willard Smith, local agent, this morning.

MR. CORMIER NOT ELIGIBLE. Hon. J. D. Hazen has informed the Acadicians that Max D. Cormier is not eligible for a place on the supreme court bench, as it has not been ten years since he was admitted to the bar.
