The tent will be a black top tent so that the show will be able to run in the day time, as it is the intention to start the show at one o'clock in the afternoon and have a continuous performance until the close of the exhibition in the evening. HOLLAND FEARS KAISER'S GRASP

Emperor Watching Chance to Annex
Country—Dutch Likely to Resist.

BERLIN, July 29.—Pear that the Kaiser might try to annex Holland in the event of the death of Queen Wilhelmina may lead to a change in the constitution of that country, as the indications are that the Dutch have little sympathy for the "iron emperor" of their powerful military and naval neighbor.

It is held here that in the event of the Orange dynasty vanishing with the queen's death, the Hollanders will follow the example of Norway and decide the future form and head of the government by means of a referendum, with strong chances in favor of a republic. Should a German prince succeed to the throne it would not reduce Holland to the status of a dependency, but it would inevitably cement political bonds with the fatherland, which the Germans are yearning for. Efforts to draw Holland into a postal and custom union are constantly afoot, but to no avail.

It is quite probable that a German prince will succeed to the throne. The first claimant is Grand Duke William Ernest of Saxe-Weimar. The next in line is Prince Albert of Prussia, and the third is the hereditary Prince of Weid, who is considered as having the best prospects of success.

The Kaiser has sent a message of sympathy to Queen Wilhelmina.

AGED LOVERS MAY WED THIS WEEK.

Man, Although Eighty One,
Denies Being Old.

Says "Future Wife, Who is Sixty-Four,
Reminds Him Strongly of Dead Wife
—She Has Family.

BOSTON, July 29.—The marriage engagement of 81-year-old George E. Luzzader of Whitman, to Mrs. Lydia C. Alger, aged 64, of 47 Alger street, Brookline, which was announced Saturday, has attracted much attention, where both are well known. It is expected the marriage will take place in a few days.

Mr. Luzzader is one of the best known men in Whitman. He is a member of David A. Russell post, G. A. R., of that town. He has been married before, but lost his wife many years ago. Mr. Luzzader is also a "forty-niner," and went to California when the fever first struck the country. San Francisco was then a handful of huts. Mr. Luzzader is of a musical turn, and in his younger days he travelled with a minstrel company. He can sing and dance about as well as ever he could. During the civil war he saw hard service in the south. Some months ago Mr. Luzzader went to California, and was near San Francisco when that city was destroyed. He lives with his grandson, Charles A. Whitman, on Temple street.

Mrs. Alger is the widow of Orlando Alger, of Brockton, and a prominent member of the Baptist church in that city. A warm friendship sprang up between the couple when they met, and when Mr. Luzzader proposed marriage he was promptly accepted. Mr. Luzzader, in speaking of his future wife, says:

"She reminds me of my former wife and she is the woman I want. I don't know why people should think I am going to get married again. I am not old. I feel just as young as I did twenty-five years ago."

Mrs. Alger said: "Yes, I am going to marry Mr. Luzzader soon. I am sure we will be very happy together. This week Mr. Luzzader and myself are going to my former home in Manhattan on a trip." Mrs. Alger has a family.

NOT A REFUGE FOR THE GARZ

Villa Near Copenhagen Bought by Queen
Alexandra and Her Sister.

LONDON, July 28.—The purchase by Queen Alexandra and her sister, the Dowager Empress of Russia, of the Villa Avidere, near Copenhagen, has started a fairy tale which has captivated the whole of Russia. The story runs that the villa has been purchased for the Czar's coronation. It is the building of a secret tunnel to enable him to escape from the villa unobserved should the necessity arise.

The Queen and the Dowager Empress have decided to bring the villa, which is near the Sound, the price paid being $25,000. It is also true that a tunnel is being made, but it is a very sensational piece of excavation. A large, beautiful park of the villa is divided by the main road, which must be crossed to reach the beach. For the purpose of avoiding this the Queen and Dowager Empress have decided to have a tunnel made under the road, thus connecting both sides of the park. The tunnel will be ready in August, when Queen Alexandra is expected in Denmark.

ACTOR AND ACTRESS IN ISLAND WEDDING

PORTLAND, Me., July 2.—It was announced today that Miss Sue Van Duser, who is playing the leading part at the Gem Theatre, and Mr. Harry Stubbs, an actor now in the West, will be married early in September at a cottage in Peaks' Island, which Miss Van Duser and her mother are occupying this summer.

In the last few years Miss Van Duser has been playing leads in "The Christian," "Teas," "The Cowboy and the Lady," "Miss Temple's Telegram" and "Merely Mary Ann" and "Because She Loved Him So." Last year she toured the Canadian provinces and played a loved wife's engagement in Jamaica, under Mr. Stubbs' management.

Miss Van Duser and Mr. Stubbs are well known in St. John, having played here with W. S. Harkins.

WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT AT THE EXHIBITION

The local Council of Women has undertaken the management of the women's department in the exhibition which opens in St. John the first day of September.

In connection with this department there will be an art room, tea room, rest room and a demonstrating room. It is expected that the art room which will be in charge of an efficient committee of ladies, will be further enriched by an exhibition of arts and crafts from Montreal.

The tea room will be under the management of the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and the Women's Mission. They will serve a light tea from four until eight o'clock.

The King's Daughters will have charge of the rest room which will be free to the public. In the demonstrating room the Victorian Order will give an exhibition of their skill in caring for the sick and wounded. Also there will be kindergarten work and Domestic Science demonstrations.

The judges of the exhibit who have undertaken this department solicit the co-operation of the women of the province and ask that all work available for exhibition purposes be sent in.

For any further information please apply to the president, Mrs. David McCallan, 182 Germain street, or the secretary, Mrs. C. H. Chisholm, 129 Union street, St. John.

MONCTON DEATHS.

MONCTON, N. B., July 29.—The funeral of the late Hiram Edgett took place from his late residence here at one o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended by Moncton's most representative citizens. Rev. Mr. Strothard, Pastor of Central Methodist Church, conducted the funeral exercises, and the body was taken to Dover for interment in the Methodist Cemetery here.

The death occurred in this town on Sunday of James Wm. Lawler, aged twenty-three years, son of John Lawler, after lingering illness, from consumption.

F. A. Dickman & Co. have advertised today ladies' elbow length gloves which have been almost out of the market for some weeks. They also announce a special sale of Irish lawn and linen-handkerchiefs and English hosiery—all samples, which make an attractive shopping time for this time of year.

HOLY GHOST AND US AGENTS

RICKSPOINT, Me., July 29.—Agents representing the Holy Ghost and Us Society, with headquarters at Shiloh, Me., were here today and completed negotiations with Captain Millard C. How for the purchase of the bark Rebecca Crowell, 50 tons, built at East Boston in 1873, and now in port at Rockland. The bark, it is said, will be the flagship of Rev. F. W. STARTLING RUMORS ABOUT AUSTRIAN STEAMER.

PENSACOLA, July 29.—It was rumored here that the Austrian steamer Carolina, Captain Harstich, which cleared from this port on July 24, for Marselles, Speziah and Venice, had foundered somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico.

Later another rumor was in circulation that the vessel had gone aground on one of the Florida keys. Careful inquiry fails to confirm either report.

The vessel sailed from here with a cargo of phosphate, cedar shingles and barrels of tallow. It is not believed by the consignees of the cargo, the Gulf Trust Co., that there is anything in the rumors.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO LYNCH NEGRO.
Officers Drove Them Off at Point of Revolvers and Landed Prisoner in Jail.

CANONSBURG, Penna., July 30.—Coroner Sipe and Constable Miller drove into town at 7.30 o'clock today with Elmer Dempster, a 19 year old negro, who had been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Samuel Poole and two children and the shooting of a third child last evening. Dempster was taken to the county jail, at Washington, Pa., leaving here on a trolley car at 8 o'clock.
While no blood stains were found on him last night when it was learned that he was the last person seen about the house before the tragedy, Dempster was taken from his bed at 2 o'clock this morning and after a severe examination is alleged to have made a complete confession.
According to the story told in his confession young Dempster attempted an assault on the four year old daughter after the departure of Mr. Poole, but was frustrated by the mother who went to a bureau to get a revolver to shoot him. The negro says he killed the mother and child set fire to the house to hide the crime.
The feeling against Dempster is very bitter.

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 30.—Dempster was safely lodged in jail here at 9 o'clock. The officers had an exciting trip from Canonsburg. Two attempts were made to take the negro from them.
Shortly after leaving Canonsburg about 20 men boarded car and dragged prisoner and officers from the car.
A fierce struggle followed, but the officers succeeded in keeping possession of the negro and finally drove the mob off at the points of their revolvers.
When Washington was reached nearly 300 people had gathered at the court house, but the crowd was eluded by taking the prisoner through the basement to the jail.

AN OPPORTUNITY.
The maritime board of trade will meet in Amherst on August 15th. St. John should send a large delegation, and it is to be hoped that every merchant and manufacturer who can possibly arrange to do so will attend. It is well for men to get together in a social way and talk business. They become personally acquainted and in these little provinces where all must be united to stand against the growing influence of the West, every bond should be strengthened. Meetings such as these not only develop friendships, create a more personal interest in the different branches of industry, but they improve business generally. It cannot, however, be said that the selection board that could be chosen. The maritime board of trade is a union of the three boards of the three provinces, and was originally intended to deal with questions of common interest, but at past seasons while there have been numbers of subjects of this nature, considerable time has been spent in discussing points of purely local importance, introduced by various delegates who desired that the support of their home organization. There are certainly enough questions of common interest, and of moment to the three provinces and there should be given the fullest consideration.

The St. John delegation must, as is the custom, support the interests of this section of the province in the best possible manner, and bring to the notice of the other delegates the advantages which this city possesses. But while this valuable information is being disseminated the delegates will have ample opportunity to discuss Amherst is a town which should, according to precedent, be only a spot on the map. There scarcely any reason under the sun why it should progress in the way it has done, yet it stands out as a shining example of enterprise and push, the busiest place of its size in Eastern Canada, and growing rapidly. There is surely something to be learned from her, and St. John men who attend the maritime board will be able to see for themselves the flourishing industry and to learn why they went to Amherst. The knowledge may be useful when this city starts on its proposed campaign after new manufactures.

THE COLLEGE COURSE.
The completion of another high school year has added a long list to those who are anxiously looking forward to a college degree. Over one hundred candidates—representing the best this province has to offer—have just been notified of their success in passing the matriculation examinations. For four weeks they have waited patiently. Probably nothing college has had little or no doubt that they were through, but under any circumstances it is a relief to know it, to see it in black and white.
It is reasonable to suppose that not half of those who wrote the college entrance examinations will go to college, and some of those who do go will not attend a provincial university. Each year McGill claims her share. Queens and Toronto are not as a rule entirely neglected. But who have institutions they may select for their Alma mater, the present is an important epoch in the student's life. He wonders what it all will be like. From initiation to graduation is a long time. There is much to accomplish. It looks like a big hill, and it is. But it is one that is pleasantly climbed. It is safe to say that few of those who enter next autumn will ever regret it.
The student upon entering college should get thoroughly into the making of him. The college is simply an opportunity, plus an inspiration. It may have an accomplished staff of teachers for suggestion, inspiration and guidance, it may furnish a vast array of books in many subjects, it may give access to museums and libraries; but these will ensure nothing more than a perfunctory and barren result. They are helps and encouragements but they do not ensure his success. Our college courses are probably made up too largely for the purpose of preventing idleness and too little for the purpose of affording opportunities for the inspiration of the most diligent and the most enterprising. A college should not be looked upon as a place for mere study, but for the development of the powers of concentration, and in the attainment of this end the different college societies undoubtedly play the most important part.
However they all go hand in hand and he, who enters in the game, comes to a full realization of this fact, will when he receives his parchment on the day of his graduation, know just what college life means in its broadest and truest sense.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.
It was a curious crowd that gathered at the dock in New York Saturday to witness the home coming of John D. Rockefeller. For weeks the papers have been full of rumors regarding what would happen the minute the Standard Oil magnate stepped foot on American soil. That a warrant had been issued for his arrest was no secret, and it was generally supposed that the officers of the law would be the first to greet him. Those who watched and waited were doomed to disappointment. There was no sheriff waiting for Mr. Rockefeller. His lawyers had signed a bond for his appearance out in Findlay in answer to the warrant. The matter was arranged after Mr. Rockefeller left France, but on the voyage out he received several wireless messages and presumably was assured that no minions of the law were waiting for him.

Mr. Rockefeller didn't talk much. About all the reports could get out of him, when they asked about Standard Oil, was that he had nothing to say except to assure them that he had had a splendid trip. He dropped a few sentences about golf, invited the reporters to play a game with him some day—he didn't say exactly where—and said that he had played a good deal while abroad. Mr. Rockefeller is not easily worried by all the things that are said about him.
WE ARE BETTER OFF.
Rockefeller, so they say, is powerful and great. Had a birthday Saturday. He is sixty-eight.
Dun and Bradstreet give John D. A tremendous "rate." For his cocoon is very hard to pierce. —But he's sixty-eight.
John D.'s face is hard and grim. Hair has left his pate, indigestion sports with him. And he's sixty-eight.
Fame like this is out of reach, I may not be great, But my appetite's a peach, —And he's sixty-eight.
Then, too, I have poet's hair, Think of John D.'s fate, For his cocoon is very hard to pierce. —And he's sixty-eight.
Envy the sublime John D. Nay, I joy to state, I am only thirty-three. —He is sixty-eight.

HIS STOLEN HORSE.
A certain farmer living near the hamlet of Darby having got a horse stolen, he called on his neighbors, and asked them to help him find the horse. He said:—"At midnight the farmer was disturbed by a voice shouting, 'Your horse is stolen!'"
The irate farmer hurried on his clothes, and hastening to the door, asked:—"Which way has he gone?"
"Toward H—," replied one of the farmers.
Another offered the loan of a horse he bestrode, which offer the sleepy farmer accepted. After riding all night he found himself at daylight the next morning riding his own horse—Tribuna.

WHEN AUNTIE WAS SILENCED.
Auntie was showing off her little nephew, aged two, to an admirer, who was calling upon her for the second time. The man Harvard wanted, and during a pause in the performance specially requested by auntie he suddenly remembered the way she had been teasing him before the car arrived and decided to turn the tables on her. So he pointed a chubby finger at the door and said, "My rug!"
Auntie at once caught the spirit of the thing and cried emphatically, "No, my rug!"
"My dress," said her little nephew, pointing to auntie's gown.
"No, my dress," replied auntie delighted to have an opportunity to show how cute he was.
Then the little boy sidled over to the caller, and pointing at him cried, "My man!"
Silence on the part of auntie.

QUINN WILL TRAIN HARVARD TEAMS.
Selected Among Many by Head Coach Reid.

His First Duties Will Be With the College Football Team in Fall—Succeeds Jack McMasters.

BOSTON, July 30.—William S. Quinn, who came to Harvard early in the year as coach of the hammer and shot candidates for the athletic team, is to be the successor of Jack McMasters as trainer of the Harvard football and athletic teams.
Of the many applicants for the position Mr. Quinn has been selected by Head Football Coach Reid, with whom the appointing power rests, as the best man for the place. Formal announcement of the appointment will be made in the course of a few days unless something unexpected happens in the near future.
The original field of candidates for the job was quickly sifted down to four men, and Coach Reid was informed that whichever one of the four would be acceptable to him to have charge of the physical condition of the football men next fall would be acceptable to the Harvard athletic authorities. While the appointing of Quinn rested with Coach Reid, it is understood that William F. Garcelon, who is at the head of track and field athletics at Cambridge, concurred unqualifiedly with the football coach in Quinn's selection. His first duties in his new place will be in connection with the football work this fall.
William S. Quinn, as an assistant trainer of the track team, proved an enthusiastic worker and soon created by his method of indirectly will be of great interest in the weight events, which has not been at Cambridge for years. He devoted the greater part of the first half of the training season to a thorough instruction in form, and long before the snow was off the ground had his charges at work back of the Stadium.
Despite the fact that the work of his candidates proved disappointing in the intercollegiate games, as the most promising men fell below their regular practice work, the fault was not attributed to his system, and at the close of the season William F. Garcelon made the statement that he believed Quinn without a peer in the coaching of field event men and that the man Harvard wanted, after finishing at Harvard, Quinn trained Ellery H. Clark for the national all-around championships in which his charge finished third.
Quinn's home is in Elizabeth, N. J., where for years he was prominent in all branches of athletics, making a specialty of the weight events. Although handicapped greatly by his light weight, his scientific knowledge of his games put him into the ranks of the star performers. He is considered the best all-round professional athlete in America. His ability to get under his men's enthusiasm will be of great assistance to Head Coach Reid in handling the Harvard football team.

MRS. W. E. COREY WAS GRANTED A DIVORCE FROM HER HUSBAND
The Action Was Not Defended by Mr. Corey, Who is President of The United States Steel Corporation—Miss Corey Says Her Brother Was Infatuated With Fast Life of New York

RENO, Nev., July 30.—Mrs. Wm. L. Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, was awarded a divorce in the second district court of Nevada, sitting at Reno, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case was submitted without argument, and the jury took but one ballot. The jury was out but a few minutes.
Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree and the custody of her sixteen-year-old son, Allan Corey. She drove at once to her home on Riverside avenue, where she says she will continue to reside. No evidence was submitted by the defense.
Miss Addie Corey, sister of the respondent, corroborated Mr. Corey's statement that Corey had deserted his wife and told how she and her aged mother had made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation. Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.
"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked. "I do not," she replied.
"Why?"
"For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age."
Allan Corey stated that at the time of the parting, his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. "He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side."
At the conclusion of the trial, Attorney Sardis Summerfield stated his client, William E. Corey, was anxious for the decree of divorce as his wife. "If the decree is granted," he said, "Mr. Corey will be entirely satisfied. He has consented to this divorce. This understanding between Mr. Corey and the attorneys of Mrs. Corey was reached some time ago."
Mrs. Corey added that she came to

RENO for her health, and that she had no intention of bringing an action for divorce at the time she took up her residence in Nevada.
Mrs. Corey was asked by her counsel if newspaper publicity was responsible for her separation from Mr. Corey and for the divorce proceedings. She replied emphatically that such was not the case.
The question of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, touching upon this phase of the case, stating that in May, 1904, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed, she negotiated through her attorney's a financial settlement with her husband. "I am a resident of Reno, Nevada," said Mrs. Corey, when placed on the stand, and the wife of William Ellis Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married on Dec. 1, 1883, at Pittsburgh, Pa., and lived together until May 1, 1905. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York. I followed him and held a conversation with him in the Hotel Lorraine. It was there that he told me that he had decided to live apart. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together, and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."
Mrs. Corey added that she came to

THE NEW CANADIAN PACIFIC ROUTE TO THE FAR EAST.

Two of the most interesting steamers recently completed are the Atlantic liners Empress of Britain and Empress of Ireland. These vessels were constructed in fulfillment of a long-cherished hope by the Canadian Pacific Railway to form a complete chain between England and the Far East by way of the Dominion. The Canadian Pacific route has grown in popularity, because of the very fine scenery which abounds in Canada, the admirable character of the management, and the shorter passage it affords to the Far East than that by way of the Suez Canal. The East-bound passengers from England have, however, in most cases adopted the New York route, principally because of the superiority of the Atlantic liners trading with the great American cities; but now there will be no need for the passenger to make the detour via New York, as the two new Canadian Pacific vessels sailing from Liverpool to Montreal are equal in every way to the American liners, so that passengers may journey under the superior Canadian Pacific Railway Company from England to Yokohama or Shanghai, going by their new steamers to Montreal, by their railway to Vancouver, and thence by their ever-popular Express liners across the Pacific.

It is instructive to compare the distance by the various routes. The mileage of the Canadian Pacific route via Montreal and Vancouver is 10,223 miles, while via Halifax, Montreal, and Vancouver it is 10,488 miles; from Liverpool to New York and then via Montreal it is 10,904 miles, while the route to Yokohama through the Suez Canal is 11,877 miles. Similar comparisons might be made in connection with other destinations; but these quoted are typical. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has thus done well in organizing a special Atlantic service. In securing Dr. Francis Ziglar as naval architect they were further fortunate, and he, in collaboration with Mr. Arthur Piers, chief engineer of the marine department of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, with great experience of the requirements of passenger and a ready will to gratify them, has produced two ships which not only afford the maximum of convenience and comfort to passengers, but embody a splendid compromise between the requirements of speed and the provision of sufficient cargo capacity to ensure a satisfactory financial return. With a load of 4000 tons of paying cargo, the Empress liners are required to steam on trial at 19½ knots. This cargo capacity necessitated fairly full lines, the block coefficient of fineness being 0.68; but notwithstanding this, the speed has been more than realized.—Engineering.

Will Look Into Case of Army Officer Who Was Arrested in Africa.

BERLIN, July 31.—Emperor William has ordered a searching investigation into the case of Major Fischer, who was attached to the headquarters staff in German Southwest Africa and who has been arrested on the charge of receiving bribes from firms selling war supplies. It appears that the major has been receiving money for years from the firm which has the monopoly of supplying the colonial forces in German Southwest Africa. This money was given nominally as loans, and according to the press reports, the total of the sums paid finally reached $25,000. Major Fischer's salary was $2,000 a year. VIATIATES CLAIMS FOR INSURANCE

Knights of Columbus Refused to Pay $1000 to Heirs of Former Member.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 31.—By a decision handed down yesterday the supreme court of errors, in sustaining the judgment of the court of common pleas of Fairfield county, vitiate the claims of the heirs of the late Patrick Coughlin, of Bridgeport to the insurance of $1,000 claimed from the Knights of Columbus, on the ground that he was in arrears at the time of his death. The suit has attracted wide-spread attention. Coughlin had been a member of the Knights of Columbus from its inception. At his death a claim was made that he was a member of the Masonic order and as such could not have been admitted to the Knights of Columbus. Later, the defendants alleged that he was in arrears in the payments of assessments, and the claim of his heirs for the insurance was contested.

FIREMEN LEAVE FOR CHARLOTTETOWN

Marched Through Principal Streets This Morning.

City Cornet Band Escorted Them to the Train—The Men are Expected Back on Friday.

This morning the St. John contingent of firemen left by the Point du Chene express for Charlottetown, where they will attend the firemen's festival there. The party assembled at the hook and ladder station, King street east, and headed by the City Cornet band and the chief of the fire department, two captains and Marshal John Ross, marched through the principal streets, having as their terminus the railway depot.

At the depot the band played a number of stirring airs, after which they disembarked.

A large crowd had gathered around to see the fire fighters depart, and as the train pulled out of the station they were given a rousing cheer.

Two special cars were attached to the regular express. At Charlottetown, the St. John men will take part in the "Grand Firemen's Tournament." The local men will be represented in nearly every event and hope for better success than was their fortune in the recent events in Fredericton.

Chief Kerr last night at the meeting of the board of safety, asked permission to go over with thirty-two men. Each of these, however, will leave substitutes on duty here. Besides the firemen, there will be about thirty men from the Salvage Corps, eighteen from one company and twelve from the other. Fairville will also be represented by thirteen men.

The tournament takes place tomorrow and Thursday, and the men expect to be back to the city on Friday.

TOURISTS DISGUSTED WITH WHAT THEY SAW.

Consider Existing Conditions in Old Burial Ground a Disgrace to the City.

A party of Americans who were making a tour of the old burying ground, in the city, were much surprised to find that in many places the public walks lay directly over the graves. They considered a shocking state of affairs. They found that the walk along the eastern side of the graveyard took in no less than ten or twelve graves, one of these being included in the asphalt pavement in which the footstone set. Other visitors to the city during the winter and spring months have expressed the same surprise to see that small boys and girls were allowed to skate and slide among the graves, occasionally running like the tomstones, and doubtless dislocating some of them which were not firmly set. To most people a spring ground is a sacred spot, and the constant tramping of vulgar feet over the heads of the departed was a sacrilege, they think, to desecrate those grounds.

SUMMONED TO POLICE COURT THIS MORNING

Another List of Citizens Brought Up by the Board of Health—The Different Excuses.

There was another list of citizens before the police magistrate this morning, having been reported by the board of health for filthy premises. One case of a place on Cheley street was defended by W. B. Wallace, who said that the premises reported did not belong to his client, that they had no yard or outhouse and from a recent survey the outhouse was on Church of England ground, and the yard on ground owned by Patrick McGoldrick. The health inspector was given a week for further investigation.

George Kierstead, reported, said he had left orders for the cleaning to be done and it had not been attended to. If the board would send a man to do it he would be pleased to pay for it. He was given a week to get the work done or be fined.

The Salvation Army are looking forward to another visit from the Commissioner Coburn. It is probable that some time during the early part of the fall the commissioner will spend a few days in St. John.

Ensign Freeman, who has charge of the Army building for the province, and Adj. Thompson, have gone to Sydney Mines to superintend the construction of a new barracks there.
