ALLEGED ST. JOHN
MAN IN TROUBLE

Norman E. Gray Arrested at Portland, Me., on Stealing Charge

WOMAN ACCOMPLICE

The Two Prisoners Are Said to Have Relieved a Maine Woodsman of His Cash, Watch and Clothes Valued at $103 - Female in Similar Scrape Before.

Portland, Me., Nov. 23.—(Special)— Norman E. Gray, who gives his residence as St. John, and his age as nineteen, and Nellie Keizer, about the same age and living in Bangor, are under arrest here, charged with stealing from Frank E. Mc-Dunnah, a Maine woodsman, $90 in money, a gold watch, a coat, a vest and a compass, all of the value of $103.
McDunnah came to Portland with the girl from Rumford (Me.), on Monday last.
He says that she put her trunk in the room he engaged, and that yesterday Gray called and was introduced by her as her brother. Gray brought with him a letter to a message from the girl's relatives, to the effect that some of them were ill, and advised her to go to them. Later a man named John Bellevue, also calling from New Brunswick, called at the room and took McDunnah out for a walk. When they returned they found the girl's trunk gone and the money, watch and other articles taken from McDunnah's trunk.
The loss was reported to the police at once, and search was made for Gray and the girl. They were found to have gone to two boarding houses, and at the second both were arrested. They denied all knowledge of the money, but the clothing was found in the girl's trunk. She said McDunnah put it there, because he did not have room in his own trunk, but he denies this.
Bellevue told the police that Gray and the woman asked him to take the woman from McDunnah, and when he refused they got him to take McDunnah out for a walk.
Bellevue was held in a cell for a few days.
The woman was mixed up here in a similar game a few months ago, but there was not sufficient evidence to go on condition of leaving the city.

MORE BRITISH TROOPS TO LEAVE
HALIFAX TODAY

Garrison About Abandoned to Canadians, Only Staff and 200 Troops Remaining.

Halifax, Nov. 23.—(Special)—The Dominion line Kensington arrived from Mon-real this evening and the remainder of troops will take place tomorrow morning.
The troops going include the R. G. A., R.
G. F., R. A. M. C., and school staff.
Headquarters staff remains, and there will be about 200 imperial troops in garrison, consisting of R. E. and different staffs.
The embarkation of the R. G. A. and R.
G. F. troops leaves Halifax practically in the hands of the Canadian militia department, though, of course, Major-General Charles Parson is still in command.

BLIND MAN CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 23.—Charged with manslaughter, Daniel C. Moriarty, a blind pauper, was bound to the wall yesterday under bonds of $3,000 in the court today, as responsible for the death of John McGill, his room-mate at the Springfield House. He had waived examination. It is alleged that the act was committed during a quarrel between the two men while they were in their room one night. Moriarty is said to be mutually irresponsible at times.

SULTAN, RELYING ON KAISER, DEFIES POWERS

Germany Refrains from Joining Allies in Demonstration Against Turkey, and This Leads to the Belief That He is Secretly Abetting the Trouble—Fleet to Seize Customs Houses.

London, Nov. 23.—The persistent refusal of the Turkish government to accept European control of the revenues of the vilayets of Macedonia, notwithstanding the ultimatum presented by the allied powers, is about to lead to the putting into operation of the threat of a naval demonstration with the view of compelling the acquiescence of Turkey in the European control of the administration of proposed reforms in Macedonia.
The obduracy of the Sultan apparently is based on the belief that he has the passive support of the Emperor of Germany and upon the jealousy supposed to exist among the powers. In diplomatic circles it was supposed the Sultan would yield and he would do so before decision had been taken by the fleet.

TRAGIC DEATH OF
MAN AND WOMAN

Found in the Woods in New Hampshire Dead from Bullet Wounds

A MORBID LETTER

Stated They Were Tired of Life and Had Agreed to Die—Supposed Husb-band Held Empty Revolver in Right Hand - Albany Woman's Body Found Doubled up in Trunk in Her Rooms.

Clarendon, N. H., Nov. 23.—A case of murder and suicide was revealed today, when the bodies of a man and a woman were found in the woods near the Boston & Maine railroad tracks in West Clarendon.
Clasped in the man's right hand was a 32 calibre revolver with all but one of the five chambers empty. The bodies were recognized as those of a couple who registered at the Junction House as W. H.
Jones and wife, of Portland (Me.), who left the following day. In the man's pocket were found papers bearing the name of Harry W. Leavitt, and W. H.
Leavitt and a letter addressed to Mrs.
Mary J. Leavitt, Lisbon Falls (Me.).
The medical referee expressed the opinion that the couple had been dead about two weeks.
A further examination by the medical referee showed that the woman had been shot in three places. One bullet entering the head in front of the right ear, pursued a downward course, lodging in the jaw. The second proceeded through her cheek. The third, and as Dr. Saunders believes, fatally, entered her right temple.
Inside the wedding ring on the woman's finger were the engraved letters "W. H.
L. to A. B. W., June 2, 1903." This tended to strengthen the theory of the authorities that the man was Wm. Harry Leavitt and the woman was his wife.
The letter to the proprietor of the Junction House was as follows: "Anything that may be found in my pockets, money, etc., please forward to Mrs. Mary J. Leavitt, Lisbon Falls (Me.). Myself and wife have loved, lived together, and now decide to die together; no more, but just tired of life. Good-bye to all."
It was learned that the couple came here from Guild, where it is supposed they were seeking employment in a woollen mill. The Knights of Pythias local lodge will take charge of the bodies.
Albany Woman Murdered.
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 23.—What appears to be a murder committed nearly two weeks ago and peculiarly ghastly in its details, was discovered here late this afternoon when the badly decomposed body of Mrs. John Hammond was found wedged in a trunk in a room of the house on South Ferry street, where she lived with her husband. The trunk stood in the place. The body within was heavily sprinkled with chloride of lime, and the disinfectant was strewn thickly all about the three rooms comprising the flat. The cover of the trunk was propped open with the evident idea of having the odors of decomposition escape up the chimney.
John Hammond, the woman's husband, has not been seen for nearly two weeks.
He is twenty five years old, a cabinet maker and came from Cohoes. The dead woman was fifty-seven.
Whether the woman died a natural death, was strangled or was poisoned remains for an autopsy to disclose. There are no evident marks of violence on the body which, when found, was fully clothed, excepting shoes and was doubled up in a sitting posture with her face down upon the knees. The body was bound in this position with a clothed line.
Disagreeable odors all day today drew the attention of the first floor family to the Hammond rooms from which not a sound has been heard for a least ten days and this afternoon the police broke in and discovered the body.
A picture of Hammond was found by the police and his description has been sent broadcast.

BALFOUR'S RESIGNATION
EXPECTED VERY SOON

Tired of Party
Divisions

Liberal Leader May Refuse to Form a Government

Before an Election - Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman Favors Irish Home Rule.

London, Nov. 23.—Tremendous activity developed in political circles today consequent on the circulation of a well founded report that Premier Balfour had decided to bring his ministry to a close and to directly or indirectly appeal to the country.
Rumors regarding the resignation of the cabinet and the dissolution of parliament have been thick for three months past, and when two of the leading government organs today almost in the same terms "suggested" the immediate resignation of the premier on account of the immediate breach in the Unionist party over the social question, the "suggestion" was looked upon as having been inspired by Balfour himself. This was strengthened by the knowledge that prior to the publication of the editorials, Mr. Balfour met certain influential persons at his official residence in Downing street.
These two facts when coupled lead to the belief that the premier had intended to resign and as he had just returned from a visit to King Edward at Windsor it is believed that his resignation had been informed of Mr. Balfour's intentions. Beyond this, however, there is not the slightest official confirmation of the report. All political interest now centres in the cabinet meeting to be held tomorrow at which it is understood the situation will be discussed.
Conservative and Unionist papers are in favor of the resignation of the cabinet which will place the Liberals on the defensive. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman consents to form a cabinet, but the Radicals say that the resignation will only mean dissolution as Sir Henry, if requested to form a cabinet, will probably decline to do so until the verdict of the people has been known.
The Liberal papers point out that while Mr. Balfour may attempt this "radical move" they are confident it will fail on every side and that therefore the disolution of parliament is believed to be imminent. There is no thought, however, that a campaign would be forced prior to the beginning of the year with the elections somewhere about the end of January.

CAPTAIN OF WINDSOR
BARQUE COMMITS
SUICIDE IN BOSTON

William Lockhart Ended His Life in Vessel's Bathroom With a Bullet

Had Been Despondent for Some Time - Lived Only an Hour After the Shot Was Fired - Was a Native of the Provinces, But Resided in Brooklyn of Late Years.

Boston, Nov. 23.—Captain William Lockhart, of the British barque J. E. Graham, of Windsor (N. S.), committed suicide by shooting on board the vessel at Mystic wharf, Charles River, today. Capt. Lockhart was found in the bath room of the vessel by Steward John Marshall and he died an hour and a quarter later.
Lockhart fired one shot from a 28-calibre revolver into his head. The other officers said that Capt. Lockhart had been dependent of late.
Capt. Lockhart was 55 years of age and a native of the provinces, but his home during recent years has been in Brooklyn (N. Y.). The Graham is loading lumber for Buenos Ayres.

INDIANS ON WARPATH FOR SEVEN YEARS AND
NO ONE KNEW IT

Police Superintendent in Yukon Conveys This News to the Government

Formal Burying of Hatchet is Going to Take Place After Big Tribal Pow-wow - $12,000-000 Said to Be in Sight in Silver Mine.

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—It is perhaps news to outsiders to learn that the Indians of the Yukon have regarded themselves at war with the whites ever since their arrival in the country in 1897.
This remarkable piece of information is contained in a report from the police superintendent at White Horse, just received here. However, the officer in question adds some further news of a resounding character. At the time of writing the Indians were assembling at White Horse from Taku, Tagish, Allen, Little Salmon, and Dixon House for the purpose of holding inter-tribal dances and entertainments. This would be followed by a gathering at Little River, where the hatchet would be formally buried.
The same mounted police officer reports that at Windy Arid, the vein of rich silver in the Montana mine proves to be one and a half miles in length. It is one of the Grand Consolidated group of mines the owner of which claims to have $12,000,000 ore in sight by actual measurement.

O. of Reception to Lord Stanley.

West Houghton, Lancashire, Eng., Nov.
23.—Lord Stanley, the Conservative general, was booked for a speech by his constituents here tonight. On entering the hall he found it packed with representatives of the labor party and was unable to find a place on the platform. The meeting unanimously passed a resolution of want of confidence in the government.

Liberal Leader Favors Irish Home Rule.

Sitting, Scotland, Nov. 23.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, leader of the Liberal party, speaking here tonight, said that the air had been cleared to some extent by Premier Balfour when addressing the National Union of Conservative Associations at Newcastle-on-Tyne, Nov. 14, he said: "I am not afraid of the opposition, but I am afraid of the party," and Joseph Chamberlain at Bristol, when he said:
"Away with all lame ducks and blunt swords."
The Liberal, said Sir Henry, might have had sympathy for Mr. Balfour if they knew his policy, but no one knew it that policy was to deliver the Conservative party from or to Joseph Chamberlain.
Sir Henry plainly outlined his attitude toward home rule for Ireland. He said that the only way to deal with the
of the Irish government and to make Ireland strong was to give the Irish people the management of their own domestic affairs. He said that opinions regarding Ireland in the respect were becoming stronger.

MAILS UNCERTAIN

Canadian P. O. Department Notified of the Difficulties—Hull Girl Attempts Suicide—Some Ottawa Estates.

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—(Special)—Notice had been received by the post office department of Canada that mail communication with Russia via Stockholm is uncertain, but that correspondence for the city and government of St. Petersburg, for the north and northwest of Russia and for Finland will be forwarded by every available opportunity and that it is important that the addresses of letters, etc., should be as full as possible. Also that the payment of money orders in Russia is subject to delay and that no parcels can be sent at present.
Dependent and tried of his, Rosie Grox, aged 21, of Britannia street, Hull, tried to commit suicide by jumping from the Inter-Provincial bridge, today. She was seized in the nick of time by Joseph Hurtubitz, Victoria street, Hull, and will probably be accused in the police court tomorrow morning for trying to take her own life.
The late Charles Scrymgeour, Ottawa, left an estate valued at $36,500, all of which goes to the widow.
The late Patrick Buckley, captain of Ottawa, left an estate worth $29,000, all of which goes to a daughter.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST OFFICIALS
OF N. S. CONCERN

New York Receiver Appointed for Colonial Copper Company.

It is Alleged That the President and Receiver Paid Only $78,- 000 for the Property, and it is Capitalized at $8,000,000, of Which They Kept $3,000,000 Worth of Shares.

New York, Nov. 23.—Lawrence Goldkin, of this city, was today appointed receiver of the Colonial Copper Company, which owns copper mines in Nova Scotia and other portions of Canada. Application in bankruptcy was filed against the company by creditors having claims of $6,500. Mismanagement on the part of the company's officials was alleged.
The Colonial Copper Company is capitalized at $8,000,000 and a bonded indebtedness of $3,000,000. The charge is made by the petitioners that J. A. Hanway, the president, and A. Munger, treasurer of the company, purchased the property belonging to the share for about $78,000 and kept for their share $3,000,000 of the company's capital stock. It is also alleged that the president and treasurer never paid for the property of the company until they had realized upon the stock acquired by them, and that the property was really paid for from the treasury stock of the company.

DALHOUSIE MAN'S

Dalhousie, N. B., Nov. 23.—(Special)
The body of Wm. Carr, who was drowned in the Dalhousie harbor on Sept. 26th, was found yesterday at Stonehaven, Gloucester county, and identified. The

EXPECT RECORD
CROWD AT YALE-
HARVARD GAME

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 23.—Preparations for the annual football contest between Harvard and Yale, which will be played this year in the Stadium on Saturday, were nearly completed today. The 45,000 ticket holders have received their red or blue strips of pastebord, and from the demands by these fortunate purchasers of the game who have been unable to get tickets, there is every indication that there will not be a vacancy at the kick-off on Saturday afternoon.
The crowd that will witness the game will be the largest that has ever assembled at a football contest in this country. The seating capacity of the stadium, which is about 40,000, has been increased by an additional stand at the opening on the end of the north, and by several rows of seats along the inner circle and on top of the great structure.

BLOCKED AMERICAN
FISHING BUSINESS

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 23.—As indicating the effect of the retaliatory policy against American fishermen the colonial government published today a statement showing that thirty American fishing vessels with cargoes aggregating 45,000 barrels of herring, cleared from the Bay of Islands up to Nov. 23 last year, where only one American vessel with 1,300 barrels has sailed to this date during the present year.

Halifax Man Found Drowned.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 23.—(Special)—
The body of Michael Keefe, carpenter, who resided at 31 Birmingham street, and who has been missing from home for about ten days, was found in the harbor this morning. The deceased was 55 years old. The medical examiner gave a certificate of "Flood Drowned."

MUTUAL RESERVE BOTH SIDES MAKE

Policyholder Writes Insurance Committee Alleging
Crooked Work

OWES THEM $1300

At One Time the Company Wrote Him He Had Paid in Enough to Give Him a Paid-up Policy, But Later He Was Informed That Assessments Had Wiped That Out - Manning on the Stand.

New York, Nov. 23.—Late this afternoon Mr. Hughes, counsel of the legislative insurance investigating committee, called to the witness chair William S.
Manning of Albany, referred to in letters addressed by John Nichols to Senator Depew, and read at the previous session as the "cantankerous friend from up the river."
Mr. Manning was the most interesting witness of the day, and was questioned closely by Mr. Hughes as to his connection with life insurance. He defined his work for various companies for many years, and worked gradually up to the time when he took up insurance work in Albany, and as he specified was paid $490 a year by John A. Nichols "to protect his insurance and be always working for the interests of the business." After several years he said this amount was reduced to $300. He did not know, he said, where Mr. Nichols was getting the money, and had never inquired. He denied he had ever received money from the Equitable Life Insurance Society. When his fee was reduced, however, he said he understood that the Equitable, with the Mutual Life and the New York Life, has wished $100 reduction to be made.
The committee adjourned while Mr.
Manning was on the stand, until tomorrow morning.

Mutual Reserve Under Fire.

At this morning's session Mr. Hughes read the contents of a letter which he said had been sent to the governor of a state, then to an insurance commissioner, and finally to the committee. It was written by the holder of a $5,000 policy in the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, which he had taken out in 1888.
At the end of the first five years' period he said he was informed by the company that he had paid in an amount in excess of the mortuary demands, and that the amount of which was not stated, was credited to his account, payable at the end of ten years. At the expiration of ten years, he said, he was informed that such amount and extraordinary assessments had been made against him that the whole amount of the bond was wiped out.
At the end of the second five year period he was given another bond, which he said he still had in his possession. At the end of the third five year period, he declared that he was informed by the company that he owed it $1,300, and that he was to pay it P. D. Q. or it would be charged against him.
Mr. Erridge said he did not think such a condition could arise. Mr. Hughes gave him the number of the policy, and he said he would have it looked up.

UNITED STATES POSTAL DEFICIT $15,000,000

Washington, Nov. 23.—The annual report of the auditor for the post office department for the year ended June 30, 1905, shows the fiscal operations of the department to have been as follows:— Revenue of the postal service, $152,826,- 385; expenditures of the postal service, $167,299,109.
The receipts from the postal service proper are shown to be seven times greater than they were thirty-three years ago, and nearly eighteen times greater than they were in 1880.

Warsaw, Nov. 23.—(Governor-General Skalko has sent a confidential circular to the temporary military governors recently appointed in the ten Polish provinces, ordering them to consider agitators and rioters as insurgents, and to shoot them down until they are all exterminated, and also to disperse public meetings by the use of fire arms.

port of the Zemstvo and municipalities in

Some Desertions from Strike-Breakers' Ranks, But Six Local Men Go to Work

ANOTHER LOT TO ARRIVE TODAY

Principally Italians; Montreal Longshoremen Not Yet Induced to Come
—Both Sides Express Satisfaction With the Situation Last Night.

The strike situation last night was briefly this: The Allan liner Parisiana cargo has been discharged and loading began; a number of the twenty men brought down Thursday from Montreal have refused to go to work; several St.
John men, but whether union or not can not be said, have joined the working gang on the Parisiana; fifty more men, chiefly Italians, left Montreal for here last night; the Donaldson liner Alcides, which is being worked by her crew; Montreal longshoremen have not as yet been induced to come here.
The Day's Developments.
Twenty more strike breakers arrived Thursday at noon, and sixteen soon after went to work at Saint Peter's. Four remained during the afternoon the local men were able to get others to desert.
These were taken to the longshoremen's headquarters, Water street, and later were provided a boarding house.
The Donaldson liner Alcides came up the harbor from the island at 12 o'clock and docked at the McLeod wharf, where she will discharge her local cargo. An effort was made by the Donaldson people through their foremen, Paterson and Frost, to get local longshoremen to go to work at the thirty-cent rate, but without avail, and the crew were put to work at discharging.

Talk With Mr. Kelly.

"Asked if he was satisfied with the situation as it stood at the present time, Mr.
Kelly said: "Yes, the imported men are leaving the wharf."
"Did these men know there was a strike on when they engaged to come here," was asked.
"No," replied Mr. Kelly; "they were led to believe that there was no strike on and that they were to do general work. We have," he continued, "the sympathy of the public and everything looks now as if we would win." The shed on the McLeod wharf was full of longshoremen at 7 o'clock last night when the night gang of the Alcides went on. There had been a rumor in the afternoon that there might be a break-in the strikers' ranks, and this occasionally the congregation of the association made their intention being to see if there were any defections, and who they were.
The report, however, apparently had no foundation, as at the appointed time, no one outside the crew went at the discharging of the cargo.
The longshoremen, after making some derogatory remarks regarding the crew's method of working, dispersed to the Water street headquarters.

ANOTHER STEP TOWARDS CHURCH READJUSTMENT

Committee of Baptists of City Proper Vote for Reorganization SAVE TWO OF THE FIVE CHURCHES AS NOW

Favor Germain Street and Tabernacle Remaining as at Present
—Another Meeting is to Be Held Next Week.

Readjustment of the Baptist work in the city proper, but Germain street and Tabernacle church to remain as now, was favored by the committee of the five Baptist churches interested, at a meeting last evening.

The meeting was of an informal and private nature and was attended by ministers and lay delegates. There were two resolutions passed, one affirming the desirability of readjustment, the other to the effect that Tabernacle and Germain street Baptist churches remain as they are.

The meeting was held in the Brussels street church, and Rev. A. B. Cobbe, the pastor, called the meeting to order, after which Rev. R. J. Hughes led prayer. A. H. Chipman was appointed secretary.

The chairman, in explaining the purpose of the meeting said that the United Baptist ministers' conference at a meeting held a few weeks ago declared that it was desirable that there should be a readjustment of the Baptist work in the South End of the city and appointed a committee comprising the ministers of the United Baptist churches of the South End.

The meeting of last evening was called by this committee, and members of Waterloo, Leinster, Brussels and Germain street churches and Haymarket Square Tabernacle church had been invited. Those present were:

Germain street church—Rev. Dr. G. O. Bates, deacons P. S. Simms, W. H. Cole, J. W. Watson, W. C. Cross and S. H. Davies.

Waterloo street church—Rev. A. J. Prosser and deacons James Patterson, William Peters, P. J. Neslop, Thomas Robinson and J. S. Smith.

Leinster street church—Deacons T. L. Bay, John Bennett, R. J. Haley and Messrs. A. A. Wilson, E. L. Ridd, A. W. Sault, N. C. Huestis, N. Cameron, W. V. Barbour, J. E. Vincent and H. D. Everett.

Brussels street church—Rev. A. B. Cobbe and deacons William Alwood, A. H. Chipman, C. Vail and I. B. Kierstead. Tabernacle church—Rev. Perry J. Stackhouse and deacons James Belyea and E. W. Rolfe.

The following resolution was carried unanimously: "That this meeting endorse the action of the United Baptist Conference in declaring that a readjustment of Baptist work in this city is desirable."

The second resolution, which also carried unanimously, is as follows: "That it is the opinion of this meeting that the Tabernacle Church, because of the position it occupies geographically and the place it holds in the city, and Germain street church, because of the position it occupies geographically and the place it holds in the city, shall remain as they are."

It was decided to appoint a committee consisting of two representatives each from Leinster, Waterloo and Brussels street churches to draw up a programme for the next meeting, which will be held on Tuesday evening next in Brussels street church. A spirit of harmony prevailed throughout the meeting last evening.

Counsel for Digby County Murders Argues for New Trial Before Supreme Court.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 25.—An effort to prevent the execution of Hope Young, convicted at Digby last August of the murder of Minnie Ward, was made today when her case was brought before the full bench of the supreme court for a hearing.

The full bench is asked to decide whether the evidence of medical men submitted at the trial was improperly received; whether a statement said to have been made by the accused and committed to writing, was improperly received; and whether the findings of the court were warranted by the evidence. On the decision of the supreme court will depend the fate of Hope Young's counsel for a new trial.

Minnie Ward, or, as she was sometimes called, Alice May Young, was placed in Hope Young's care, it is said, by Elmer E. Young, a Boston lawyer. The child was found dead in the woods last June near Digby by a searching party and Hope Young was accused of having caused its death.

Three Hundred Made Demonstration in Front of Editor of Le Canada's Residence

Rioters Started to Burn an Effigy of the Man Who Criticized Them, But Police Charged the Mob and Arrested the Ringleader.

Montreal, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Between 200 and 300 students of Laval University went on a rampage tonight and made Geoffrey Langlois, M. P., editor of Le Canada, the object of a malicious demonstration. It took a special squad of fifty policemen under Inspector Legat to disperse them. One of the number, Maxim Raymond, who was deemed worthy of arrest on account of his leadership and demonstrative bearing, was arrested and later admitted to bail. The charge laid against him was "disturbing the peace and inciting a mob."

The students mustered in front of the university about 6 o'clock and armed with billiard cues to which were attached strips of red banding and headed by an effigy of the editor of Le Canada, began a march up St. Denis street towards the residence of Mr. Langlois on Laval avenue. Previously, however, some one had sent in word to central police station that a hostile demonstration was taking place in front of Le Canada's office, down town and it is believed that by a ruse of that kind the students hoped to put the police on the wrong track long enough for them to carry out their purpose.

The police, however, were warned in good time for an officer and four men reached Mr. Langlois' house a few minutes in advance of the students and were lined up in front ready for the onslaught. The students displayed little trepidation at this unexpected obstacle for they at once began to set fire to the effigy and to sing songs and shout.

Meantime word was sent through Mr. Langlois' telephone to various police stations and within fifteen minutes Inspector Legat came upon the scene and was able to muster fifty men, together with several patrol wagons.

The rioters were inclined to be averse and for a time defied the police by throwing sticks and making violent threats. Then the inspector ordered a charge and his men and wagons moved and broke up the avenue in front of the house, broke up the mass of students and chased them away.

It was feared that this early start was a preliminary to an attack on the meeting to be held by Missionary Mage. There, however, was no disturbance.

Mr. Langlois has long been regarded by many as a free-thinker and even a Free-mason but apart from that the fact that he was recently free-mason enough to take the students to task for having egged Mr. Mage seems to have been too much for those whom Hon. J. Israel Tarte has defended on the ground of their youth and inexperience.

SOCIETY THIEVES

Arrest Elizabeth, N. J., Man of Business for Burglary—Society Woman Implicated.

New York, Nov. 20.—The arrest of a business man of high standing in Elizabeth and Clayton (N. J.), charged with many burglaries committed in German town, a suburb of Philadelphia, coupled with the announcement that a woman prominent in Elizabeth society circles, whose name is being zealously guarded by the police, was his partner in the robberies, has caused a tremendous sensation in the places mentioned.

The man in question is Alford Porch Smalley, whose home was in the village of Clayton, where he lived his young wife and her two pretty children. He was employed by Swift & Co. in Philadelphia, with a salary of $90 a week. It has been his custom to go to Elizabeth on Saturdays, returning to Philadelphia on the following Monday.

It is declared that the husband of the woman in question discovered the stolen property in her trunk. She declared that Smalley had given her the valuables to keep for him, but this has not satisfied the husband and it is said now that he has filed suit for divorce.

All of the burglaries committed in Germantown have been on Friday night, an account of which fact the robber became known as "the Friday night burglar."

The police investigation showed that two persons had entered the houses and that one of the persons wore the shoes of a woman.

The arrest of Smalley occurred in Williamsport (Pa.), Wednesday last, but it was of such importance that the police decided to keep the facts secret. His arrest followed the investigation into the robbery of the home of Dr. Frederick Moore of the village of Clayton, who was a warm personal friend of Smalley. It was shown that Smalley was at his home on the night of the robbery. He had been called from Philadelphia by the death of his mother-in-law. He attended the funeral and went home with his wife. That night Dr. Moore's home was entered and looted.

The police became suspicious of Smalley, and he was shadowed in Philadelphia. When he went to Williamsport he was followed and arrested.

When taken to the police station a complete kit of burglars' tools and a loaded revolver were found on the prisoner. He was then taken to Philadelphia, where he was put through every severe degree to which the police can resort.

The police say that no amount of questioning could get Smalley to confess to these robberies. It is thought that his reason for denial is that he is determined to protect the name of the woman who was his accomplice.

Smalley was held in jail in Philadelphia awaiting extradition papers. He was taken to New Jersey on the charge of robbing Dr. Moore's home, and the police made no entry of the arrest.

A despatch from Philadelphia says that Smalley when questioned broke down and confessed to having a second wife in New York city.

When the news of Smalley's arrest was made known to his wife in Clayton, she was crushed by the humiliation and fled with her two children to the home of her accused husband's father, who is a man of wealth and prominence.

GATES CASE BEFORE
RAILWAY COMMISSION

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—(Special)—At the railway commission today an application of the city and county of St. John, N. B., for an order directing the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to construct and maintain a gate across the main street at the village of Fairville, where the company's railway crosses, and also the highway road in the village of Milford, where the C. P. R. also crosses, came up for consideration. The point discussed was the cost of maintenance of the gates and the above crossings. Col. H. H. McLean, K. C., and Mr. McMullen appeared for the C. P. R., and George R. Vincent and W. D. Hogg appeared for the municipality. The contention of Col. McLean was that the municipality should bear the cost and the argument of Mr. Vincent was that the railway should bear the whole cost. Decision was reserved.

Fell Off the Wharf.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Rev. Thomas Abbott Nelson, who with Mrs. Nelson was visiting relatives at Aylmer was accidentally drowned last night at that place. It is not known exactly how the fatality occurred, but it is thought that while walking on the wharf he slipped into the water. His body was pulled out of the water, life was extinct. The coroner decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

He was the son of the late John Nelson, of Nepawa, and was in his forty-ninth year. He had charge of Presbyterian churches at Windsor (N. S.), Bristol (Que.) and in the village of Eastport, where he was the pastor of the latter on the day of his death. He is survived by Mrs. Nelson, a daughter and three sons. The sons are Irving, of the village of Eastport, where he is a partner in the village Lumber Company, Winnipeg; Percy, with J. R. Booth, and Harry, at home. First Train Load of Potatoes Goes to Stockton Springs—A Great Trade Predicted.

(Portland (Me.) Advertiser).

The first carload of potatoes out of Aroostook over the Northern Maine Seaside railroad was sent down Friday night and arrived at Stockton Springs on Saturday. So the new road is open at last for business and the outlet of Aroostook to the sea is an established fact.

This first car will mark an epoch in the history of Aroostook county and of Bangor & Aroostook railroad. It is the beginning of a development of the region which is tapped by this railroad system, that will be far reaching in its effect on the prosperity of the state of Maine.

Saturday night a train of sixteen cars left the north, bound for Stockton Springs, and arrived Sunday. The 1,000 ton steamer Foxall, of the American Shipping Company, is now lying at her dock at Stockton ready to take on board this first shipment of potatoes to be got by rail and water. They will be delivered at New York.

The Foxall will not have a full cargo, by any means, since the 9,500 bushels in the train load will not fill her more than a third full but it will be enough to show New York that the Aroostook people mean business and that there are more tubers there than come from.

The steamer line has not yet begun to run on a regular schedule, and it will be some little time probably before one is arranged to meet the demands of business. Now that the road is open to freight traffic the loads of freight will follow rapidly, and the people of the town of Stockton will realize at last that the new railroad is no dream but a reality which means thousands of dollars to them every year. The sleepy old town which has lived itself up every winter for years will be lively enough through the cold months this season.

George H. Davidson, who has been elected master at Bangor for more than twenty years, has been promoted to the post of Petticoat to succeed the late Mr. Price, and is now on duty there. Mr. Price is one of the most popular I. C. R. agents and his success is assured.

Gas Tank in Mail Car Exploded,

Only the Registered Letter Bag

Was in the Car--Accident Happened West of North Bay.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Winnipeg train due here at 3.30 this afternoon arrived about five hours late on account of an accident at Wapasset at 5 o'clock this morning, 68 miles west of North Bay. The engine, with the exception of the front driving wheels, and all the train except the rear sleeper, left the track near the switch of the siding at the Wapasset station.

At the time the train was running at about forty miles an hour. The gas tank exploded and went through the roof of the mail car. H. M. Brown, the mail clerk, had a narrow escape, but he managed to leap from the car with the bag containing the registered mail matter. All the other mail matter was destroyed, the car being burned to a crisp. The one bag was all that was saved. The mail was collected from Calgary and eastward points. There was no mail on the car from west of Calgary. No one was injured.

There was an embankment of twenty feet where the accident occurred, and a half an hour before a construction train was standing on the siding with 200 Italians asleep in it. This train was fortunately drawn to the other end of the siding, otherwise the result would have been terrible. The explosion shattered the windows of the station.

This disclosure followed the appearance today of the grand jury of Krup's counsel, Charles F. Dillon, who last week refused to answer questions at a jury sitting.

Dillon was today directed by Recorder Pickett to answer these questions. Pickett was subpoenaed by Attorney General Mayer to appear before the grand jury tomorrow when Dillon also will be summoned to answer the questions.

Charter Canadian Vessels to Buy Her-

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 21.—Inspector O'Reilly, in charge of the enforcement of the fishery laws against American herring vessels on the west coast, arrived from Bay of Islands last night, having been summoned to St. John's by Governor Macdonald to give the fullest information respecting the fishery situation in order to enable the governor to advise the imperial cabinet. O'Reilly reported that the Americans had only loaded a single vessel this far, the other 20 vessels in the bay having little fish. The scheme of hiring colonial fishermen outside the three mile limit was being abandoned by the inspector and a number of men had shipped, their catch was trifling.

The Canadian vessels, the Mariner and the Bonosko, with the largest cargoes of herring ever taken from the bay, sailed this week bound for Gloucester, being chartered by American traders. These fishermen, under local fishery regulations will pay import duty on foreign fish when entering American ports.

HOLD MRS. BARNES
FOR GIRL'S DEATH

Stepmother of Pearl Barnes Charged With the Wilful and Felonious Murder of Child Who Died of Poison.

Port Fairfield, Me., Nov. 20.—Suspicion against Mrs. Myra Barnes, of Easton, as the murderer of 13-year-old Pearl Barnes culminated in her arrest today by Deputy Sheriff Huston, of Presque Isle, and C. H. Dismore, of this town, on a warrant sworn out by County Attorney Higbert Powers, of Port Fairfield, and signed by Judge Nicholas Fossenden. She was the stepmother of the murdered child, but it is believed she did not seek the little girl's death. Rather, it is contended that in a frenzy of resentment at what she claims to be the unjust treatment to which she was subjected by her husband, Isaac Barnes, she jeopardized the lives of the entire family by putting in a paper bag containing a quantity of Epsom salts intended for general use in the household enough strychnine to kill a dozen persons, but that her intention was only to kill the man she claimed was the author of her misfortune and who refused to treat her as she felt his wife should be treated after she had loaned him the sum of $800, which had been lent her by her husband.

Mrs. Barnes was dressed attractively in black and gave every indication of refinement, but was naturally unattractive, nervous strain, and indicated it in heightened color and compressed lips. When Judge Fossenden asked her if she understood the nature of the complaint against her, which alleged the felonious and wilful murder of Pearl B. Barnes, she replied that she presumed she did not, and further suggested that he supposed she desired to plead not guilty, she replied, "Certainly." discuss the matter with the officials and give them any assistance in her power. Apparently she did not endeavor to hide one fact in connection with the case. Even in regard to the possession of the strychnine, she was the first to refer to the fact that she had had it and the variance between her evidence and that of the members of the family in this matter is the only indication of a misstatement in any respect.

SOME RARE WOODS

Certain Prized Material for Furniture Growing Gradually Scarce.

(Chicago Journal).

Old and well seasoned oak is hard to get and harder to work. There is no great quantity of old oak furniture in the market, and old pieces that would supply large enough lumber for important work are seldom found. Now kiln dried oak is uncertain, being liable to warp and crack.

Panelled articles can be made of such material with some safety, but large solid articles are likely to give a bad account of themselves at the end of a winter in a steam-heated house.

Rosewood also the best cabinet makers distrust. This wood has a peculiar oily quality that makes it unsafe when glued. For this reason rosewood is used chiefly as a veneer. This species loses much of its oil and takes glue satisfactorily.

Native walnut is no longer a favorite with the cabinet makers. This wood was in effect exhausted a quarter of a century ago or more, and it is now as expensive as mahogany and by no means so beautiful.

Chestnut is a good deal prized, not for furniture, but for wainscoting and for doors. It is sometimes put up in the rough with good effect, and sometimes oiled and polished, when it is remarkably beautiful considering the cost.

Gulfypress is used with great effect in like fashion, and when filled and oiled it makes one of the most beautiful woods for inexpensive interior decoration.

Cherry was the old substitute for mahogany until Mahogany was scarce, and it is still a favorite wood with the furniture makers. It is, however, not easily obtained in a properly seasoned condition, for proper seasoning makes it expensive.

The fact is that with cherry, as with oak and mahogany, the seasoning is an important element of cost. The cabinet maker who must sink his capital for two or three years in wood that is undergoing the process of seasoning finds it hard to compete with those who use kiln-dried material.

Mahogany is the favorite wood with the best cabinet makers. There is a vast amount of seasoned mahogany to be had from ruminous old articles made in the last century when the rage for mahogany was well developed; and while the new mahogany is less beautiful than the old, purveyors of furniture seem to have learned that it is worth while to have the new wood well seasoned.

ANGLICAN CHURCH IN CANADA COMMENDED FOR STAND ON DIVORCE

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Bishop Wm. Crowell Doane, in his annual address to the convention of the Diocese of Albany, of which he is the head, dealt with subjects of immediate interest to the church, and also especially with those of divorce and the ethical preaching called for by the times.

The bishop's remarks on divorce had special reference to the high tide in the general synod of the church of the following canon:

No clergyman within the jurisdiction of the Church of England in Canada shall solemnize a marriage between persons either of whom shall have been divorced from one who is living at the time.

"I could have wished," said the bishop, "that we, upon whom the presence of the danger and the pressure of the duty are so much more strong than upon the Canadian church, could have led in this movement. But I have great hope that we shall follow at our next convention."

The proximo necrolog and weighed a good deal with them, because the constant immigration into Canada from our western states, centered with this divorce disease, makes real to them the danger of contagion. Surely it becomes us, in the face of our sorrow need to apply this one sure remedy, which shall at least rid the church of all responsibility and lift the standard of reform, to influence public opinion, and the legislation of other religious bodies, in the high time for the making impossible the prohibition of our marriage service, by using it under circumstances that falsify and contradict its essential language.

Bishop Doane remarked especially upon the recent dictum of Supreme Court Justice W. J. Gaynor, that a civil decree of divorce has no effect upon the ecclesiastical bond of matrimony as held by the church, whose obligations bind the parties. Said the bishop:

It is a strong, clear and timely statement, from which it seems to me that it is only right for the church to take the ground first, that only the state which dissolves the marriage can rightly or safely deal with the question of re-marriage, and, secondly, that if the religious bond, as Justice Gaynor says, is not severed by the state, the church certainly cannot be that bound again, where it has not been dissolved.

After a severe attack of Grippe my health was almost shattered. I suffered constantly from nervousness, dizziness, and at times I was afflicted with terrible palpitation and heart pains. Work became a great effort. At ten in the morning I was exhausted and weak I could hardly work any longer.

"Then came a bad attack of rheumatism which laid me up in bed. I could scarcely lift the weight of a pound, and to stoop or bend was impossible. My druggist recommended Ferruccio, and he knew what he was talking about, for he rebuilt my strength, gave me abundant appetite, better blood, and new nerve energy. The rheumatism has disappeared. I weigh more, feel refreshed and vigorous, and am able to work ten hours a day. Ferruccio zoned did it all!"

County W. O. T. U. Meetings.

About thirty-five members of the County W. O. T. U. assembled in their parlors, in German street, for their annual meeting Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises, led by Mrs. J. H. Grey. A report on Sunday school work was read by Mrs. Bullock. She said that she had distributed 5,700 leaflets on the work. She moved that the Y. W. C. A. workers should adopt the National school work and apply to the provincial superintendent for literature.

Mrs. Myles, provincial superintendent of the Y. W. C. A., reported that she had organized two Y. W. C. A. unions.

The North End W. O. T. U. reported an increase in their membership, and that they had decided to resume their Sunday evening gospel meetings in Union hall, beginning on Nov. 26.

The Y. W. C. A. union reported that they had donated $21 to the kindergarten work, and that they had given 1,200 pages of good literature to the lumber camps.

The North End juvenile society reported a very large increase in membership. The reports from the other parts of the county were not received.

The election of officers resulted in Mrs. J. H. Grey being elected president, Mrs. J. H. Grey, vice-president at large; Miss Lockhart, secretary-treasurer. The presidents of the local unions are also chosen vice-presidents of the county union. After the business had been transacted, a supper was served.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE?

The Telegraph's attention has been directed again to the matter of dangerous crossings on the I. C. R. Some weeks ago, as all will remember, a shocking accident at Bloomfield again made evident the need for changes at that point in the interest of persons using the common highway.

SETTLE THE STRIKE. Even if there is no delay in handling the freight at Sand Point a prolongation of the present situation must be injurious to the local men.

PLAIN LANGUAGE. The "band par" interests at Washington occasionally have some plain language from independent newspapers which have recognized their insincerity and realize that Canada is making great strides toward commercial independence.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS. Differences in both parties in Great Britain confuse the situation at present and render prophecy unusually hazardous. It appears to be conceded that Mr. Balfour is ready to lay down the task of government, and that Mr. Chamberlain is anxious to have him do it in such a way as will most hamper the enemy--the Liberals.

THE ELECTIONS. Wednesday's elections do not change the relative strength of the political parties in the House, nor do they throw much light upon the trend of public opinion in the country.

did not answer. Dawson now smiled affably. "Mr. Grinnell, you are still one of our depositors, you know," he said, with an air of claiming family relationship.

Dr. Fisher came in last night from Waterbury after making investigation. To a Telegraph reporter he said last night that the cases were smallpox and that there were now eighteen houses in which the disease existed. How many cases there are he could not say.

He visited one of these about two weeks ago. Dr. H. B. Hay had the patient quarantined at the time. Dr. Fisher, through a misunderstanding with the local doctor, Dr. Earle, and by the misrepresentation of the case by the patient himself, says he was misled and ordered quarantine raised, although he was not together with the investigation, and he ordered Dr. Hay, of Chipman, to watch the cases and if there were any new ones or any sign of spreading to notify him.

Meantime he consulted with Premier Tweedie, who ordered him to make thorough investigations and if he did Tuesday and Wednesday, and the result was that he came to the decision that the disease is smallpox.

Same as at Burr's Corner. Dr. Fisher is of opinion that in the fortnight which has intervened that there have been developed, but there have likely been cases during the past two months and now the people are beginning to die in great numbers.

The disease shows the same symptoms as in the cases at Burr's Corner and Ormiston, referred to in the two latter places came from Waterbury.

Where the first case in the vicinity developed is not known. But it is known that a young woman of Cumberland Bay was affected with rash some weeks ago; that she was, in her work, brought in contact with people, and that in this way the disease was carried to Burr's Corner. The cases there were pronounced to be genuine smallpox by Dr. Lunnam, the government expert on contagious diseases.

Dr. Fisher said that on Wednesday he telephoned from Chipman to Dr. Earle that the disease was contagious, and that he had had a telephone message from Dr. Hay at Moncton and four other men had come from the scene of the smallpox and were going to the woods. Dr. Hay, by just coming from the home of his brother, who was just convalescent.

Constables Seek Them. Dr. Fisher said that he could not understand these men leaving and he was very much annoyed over an article of his in the paper which held up Dr. Hay had traveled by train to Miram, and they left again as soon as possible, and he had the car in which they traveled, fumigated, and sent constables to catch and detain Jeffrey and his four companions.

Dr. Fisher says that although the situation is not inviting, yet if a good man can be got to take hold of the case, he thinks any people in this way the most a case to home investigation, and by quarantining the suspected houses, and by a thorough disinfection and fumigation of the houses, and by the same work, the meeting was largely attended.

Dr. Fisher says that there will be a meeting of the board of health at 9 o'clock on Monday.
