T. W. CALDWELL, M.P. BREAKS THE ICE

T. W. Caldwell, elected by the United Farmers—and others—to represent the constituency of Carleton-Victoria, was the first of the cross-benchers to "break the ice" in Parliament and not only he, but his fellow farmer members created a very good impression so Ottawa reports state. Mr. Caldwell stated that he and those occupying seats with him were there not solely in the interests of the farmers, as had been charged, but that they had in view the best interests of the whole of Canada. Mr. Caldwell's speech will be given in full next week.

While our numbers are yet small, we believe we have got a large majority of the people of Canada behind us, and that the government knows we have this bulk of public opinion with us. I believe that at the next election this public opinion will so assert itself that we will be returned to power by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Caldwell charged that Union government was formed to carry on the war. This duty had been completed, demobilization had been completed and the retirement of the government was long overdue. He charged that the government was not consistent in its tariff policy, that there was little likelihood of the tariff being one of the main issues at this session, and that the government had penalized rather than assisted increased production. "As to economy, I never heard the Union Government accused of that," said Mr. Caldwell.

Mr. Caldwell claimed that the tariff was imposing an unfair burden on the farmer. He cited the case of a Ford car which he said could be bought for $240 cheaper on the American side than the Canadian side of the Maritime boundary. In each case it was the same case. It was absolutely necessary that the farmer should have a cheap car. Mr. Caldwell read extracts from Judge Robson's letter of resignation. These Mr. Caldwell said showed that the creation of the Board of Commerce had not been favorable to production. Yet Judge Robson was a man in whom the government had such confidence that they appointed him chairman of the board.

Mr. Caldwell congratulated the government on having found it necessary to honor his constituency by sending three Cabinet Ministers there to speak during the by-election campaign. The presence of these three ministers, Mr. Caldwell asserted, had increased his majority by thousands of votes. He had entered the field as an independent, pledged to support the measures of either party which he thought were in the interests of the people of Canada at large. The government's opposition to his candidature evidently meant that the Ministry did not intend introducing legislation which would be in the people's interest.

In closing, Mr. Caldwell, said he would not occupy the time of the House, as he found in going about the country that people considered that entirely too much time was being wasted in debating the address in the Commons. "We are not here in the interests of farmers alone," he declared. "We are not here to tear down, but to build up so that the whole world may see that Canada is a little bit of God's own country."

Methodist Children Entertain

The entertainment given by the children of the Methodist Sunday School last Friday evening in the Armory was a very successful affair and was fully appreciated by the audience which was made up of the older members of the church and congregation for whose pleasure it was given. The program consisted of songs, readings and recitations interspersed by the telling of funny stories which were so well told, the audience was convulsed with laughter. The whole program was pleasing and very well given. Clinton Clark was leader and organist. He certainly proved his efficiency along that line. After the program was given games were played and refreshments were passed consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. Although not as many were present as would have been had the roads been more passable the sum of $13 was realized which the boys and girls gave towards defraying expenses of some added repairs to the church. These young people did all the work involved in this entertainment, themselves and much credit is due them for the earnestness and enthusiasm with which they carried it out. Mrs.

Owen Clark, teacher of the Primary class, lent her aid as sponsor of the affair.

POWERFUL APPEAL OF THE MIRACLE MAN

The Dramatic Power of This Best Thing in the Photo-Drama World is Unquestioned—Superb Orchestral Accompaniment and Matinee for Out-of-Town Patrons—Excursion Rates

"The Miracle Man is Coming" has been on everybody's tongue during the past week. Shown in St. John in January it was acknowledged freely to be the best production ever screened in the province. There seats sold for $1.50—and the house was packed four times daily for four days. This did not satisfy St. John people and last week the same wonderful drama was repeated 24 times—twice each afternoon and twice each evening, and it filled the house every time.

While the scenery, the actors and lighting are all of the very highest class, the really compelling thing about it is its remarkably strong heart appeal. Its first showing was before 1500 criminals at Sing-Sing prison, and the warden afterward declared that never in his time had he seen the sin-hardened classes he is in charge of, so profoundly stirred. The story is thrilling from the beginning to the glowing grandeur of the consuming climax, when every spectator is thrilled with the realization that after all the sin and uncleanness of the world, there exists goodness and purity if there is faith.

Soon as it was known that this great dramatic triumph was to be brought to New Brunswick one of our fellowtownsmen not directly interested in the "movies" for profit, but rather looking upon the great invention as a wonderful instrument for good, if properly used, and of high educative value, seized the chance of exemplifying to the local people what is possible in a moving picture. He urged the managers of The Star to secure this great feature and the securing of it was no easy matter. But at last it was arranged so that the big 8-reel feature will be shown at Centreville on March 31, at Hartland April 1 and 2, with an afternoon performance at 3.45 on April 2. This matinee will be for the special benefit of

Shadow Social

A shadow and novelty social will be held in the Star theatre on the evening of March 19 under the management of the G. W. V. A. The ladies and girls will provide baskets containing dainties which will be pleasing to the appetites of the gentlemen. The baskets will not be auctioned off as is customary, but instead the shadow of the person who provided the basket will be thrown upon the screen. This will afford some amusement as the gentleman buyer may think he is getting the basket of the girl of his choice when it may belong to his married aunt or grandmother. Some other features of entertainment are also being provided. Ice cream, soft drinks and candy will be sold in the building. The proceeds of the evening will go to the Memorial Fund of which more will be said in a later issue. H. A. Sippell, 1st Vice President, G. W. V. A.

HE WANTS TO TELL THE WHOLE WORLD

Dunham's Nerves Steady Now and Health is Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"Yes, sir, I am in the very best of health since I have taken Tanlac, and I feel so grateful for it that I want to tell the world about this medicine," said Arthur Silas Dunham, who lives at 11 High street, Moncton, N.B.

"You can just imagine," he continued, "what a weakened, miserable condition I was in after I had the 'flu' and it was followed by pleurisy and bronchitis. I was so weak I could hardly get about and so nervous I shook like a leaf. Severe headaches spells came on me and at times I got so dizzy it was hard for me to stand up. I had almost no appetite at all and the little I did force down seemed to give me no strength and nourishment. It was next to impossible for me to get a good night's rest, why sometimes, I got hardly two hours sleep. When morning came I was simply 'all in' and all day long I felt so miserable that life was hardly worth living.

"A friend who knew the condition I was in came to see me and told me about Tanlac and advised me to give it a trial. And I am certainly glad I took his advice, for while I have only taken three bottles I am already feeling like a new man. My appetite is so fine that my biggest trouble is trying to satisfy it, and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly and is giving me strength and energy. My nerves are now steady and I am no longer bothered with headaches or dizzy spells. I sleep like a child the whole night through and when morning comes I get up feeling just fine."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

GUARD AGAINST THE 'FLU

Serious Outbreaks of Influenza all over Canada

GOOD HEALTH IS THE SUREST SAFEGUARD

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brings Vigor and Vitality and Thus Protects Against Disease

There can be no doubt that the situation regarding the spread of Influenza throughout Canada is one of grave concern. It is quite true that the number of cases does not constitute an epidemic such as caused the suffering and sorrow during the terrible days of 1918. Yet there is no disguising the fact that everyone should be on their guard against the disease.

In Montreal alone, from January 20th to February 21st, three thousand, one hundred and twenty-two cases of Influenza and 189 deaths from the disease were reported to the Health Department.

If the outbreak had come at the beginning of the winter instead of the end, we might reasonably feel that the very cold weather would check the spread of the disease. But coming as it has, at the end of the winter, there is grave fear that an epidemic may occur. For spring, with its slush and rain under foot, its dampness and chill, its constant changing from cold to warm and back again, is a prolific source of coughs and colds, pleurisy and pneumonia.

The best protection, in fact, is GOOD HEALTH.

Those who are not as well and strong as they should be—those who are underweight; those who are "run-down" through overwork or sickness; should build up at once. What they need is a Blood-purifier, a body-builder, a strength-giver, like "Fruit-a-tives", the wonderful fruit medicine.

"Fruit-a-tives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally as nature intended. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps the skin active, and insures an abundant supply of pure, rich blood. "Fruit-a-tives" tones up and strengthens the organs of digestion, sharpens the appetite, brings restful sleep and renews the vitality of the nervous system. "Fruit-a-tives" contains everything that an ideal tonic should have; to purify the blood, to build up strength and vigor, and to regulate the eliminating organs, so that the whole system would be in the best possible condition to resist disease.

Now is the time to build up your health and strength, not only as a precaution against the ravages of influenza, but also to protect you against "spring fever" and the inevitable reaction which comes with the appearance of warmer weather.

Get a box of "Fruit-a-tives" today and let this fruit medicine keep you well.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is fretful, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food, and sour bile gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

"CASCARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

A Cascarets tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. Bell-Brooks

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Tuesday, March 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Groat, Foreston, when his sister, Mrs. Eunice Bell, of Winthrop, Mass., was united in marriage to Asa Brooks of Foreston. HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARRIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years experience is at your service.

and bead trimming. The house was tastefully decorated with evergreen and potted plants. The wedding march was played by Miss Mae Stoddard. After the ceremony they partook of a sumptuous repast. The presents were numerous and costly including cut glass and silver and a substantial cheque from the groom.

The bride, who for the past few years has been residing in Winthrop, is held in high esteem by all who know her. In the evening the young people of the neighborhood gave them a lively serenade after which they were invited in and treated by the bride and groom. All departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Brooks a long and happy wedded life. The bride's going away dress was of navy wool poplin with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will reside in Foreston.

cases ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wire-prick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted. When you or your children sustain any injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood-poisoning, etc. Hence the time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Craig and the entire household, who have been very ill with grip, are able to be around again; also Gordon Graham, Mrs. Harry Lewis, who was considered in a serious condition last week, although by no means out of danger, was so much improved as to be allowed to be removed to the home of her father-in-law, C. W. Lewis, on Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. McLaughlin, of Cupid, was the guest of Mrs. George McLaughlin a few days last week. She also visited her sister, Mrs. E. B. McLaughlin, of Upper Andover.

Miss Emily Cronkite, of Red Rapids, was in town a few days last week.

Several from here have received invitations to the "Floors of the Legislative chamber," for the opening ceremonies on Thursday.

The Women's Institute met with Mrs. F. D. Sadler on Wednesday afternoon, when quite a number were present, and many others were prevented through sickness from attending. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Earle, after which all joined in singing, "O Canada." The roll call was answered by hints on making housekeeping easier.

Mrs. F. D. Sadler then read the minutes of last meeting, at Mrs. M. L. Jamer's. Much important business was discussed, including Town improvement, and the fire alarm, towards which the amount of $97.15 was collected on Tag day. Mrs. McPhail and Mrs. Earle went as delegates to the Women's Institute at Andover a couple of weeks ago in the interest of the fire alarm. As a result of their visit the Andover Institute favored co-operation with our Institute, in a supper to be given in the near future, as a means of raising funds for this good cause. This matter was thoroughly discussed and all seemed in favor. As a means of helping to get the girls in our schools interested in sewing, it was decided to send two members of the Institute—to visit the school every Friday afternoon. Mrs. Marshall Armstrong and Mrs. Geo. Edwards were the two chosen for last week, and Mrs. R. W. Estabrook and Mrs. A. Wade for this coming week. As the Household Science courses will be held in Perth from April 13 to 23, it was decided to have two of the school rooms fitted up for this purpose and a committee appointed to look after it at once. Mrs. Earle and Mrs. Edwards then read two excellent papers and Miss L. Blakslee played a fine piano solo, which brought the programme to a close. The hostess served delicious refreshments. Mrs. J. D. McLaughlin, President of the Cupid Women's Institute, was present and delivered a nice little speech, although her time was rather limited, she having "a date on" as she expressed it. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Niles, of Andover, on April 7.

Like Figures in Fairy Tales

In the crowd which we walked across a long court lined with the Black Guard, passed under a gateway, and were met by a shabbily-dressed negro. Thus Edith Wharton relates her visit to the Moroccan Sultan's harem in the October Yale Review. Traversing a hot tangle of polychrome tiles, we reached another archway guarded by the chief eunuch, a towering black with the enamelled eyes of a basalt bust. The Eunuch delivered us to other negroes, and we entered a labyrinth of inner passages and patios, all murmuring and dripping with water. Passing down long corridors where slaves in dim grayish garments fastened themselves against the walls, we caught glimpses of great dark rooms, laundries, pantries, bakeries, kitchens where savory things were brewing and stewing, and where more negroes, abandoning their pots and pans, came to peep at us from the threshold. In one corner, on a bench against a wall hung with matting, gray parrots in tall cages were being fed by a slave.

A narrow staircase mounted to a landing where a princess out of an Arab fairy-tale awaited us. Stepping softly on her embroidered slippers, she led us to the next landing, where another golden-slipped being smiled out on us, a little girl this one, blushing and dimpling under a jeweled diadem and pearl-woven braids. On a third landing a third damsel appeared, and encircled by the three graces we mounted to the tall mirror in the central tower, from which we were to look down at the coming ceremony. One by one, the little guide, kicking off their golden shoes, which a slave laid neatly outside the door, led us on soft bare feet into the upper chamber of the harem.

It was a large square room, enclosed on all sides by a balcony glazed with panes of brightly-colored glass. The room itself was commonplace. On a gaudy modern Rabat carpet stood gilt armchairs of florid design and a table bearing a commercial bronze of the "art goodly variety. Divans with muslin-covered cushions were ranged against the walls and down an adjoining gallery like apartment otherwise furnished only with clocks. The passion for clocks and other mechanical amusements is common to all un-mechanical races, and every chief's palace in North Africa contains a collection of timepieces which might be called striking if so many had not ceased to go. But those in the Sultan's room were remarkable for the fact that, while designed on current European models, they were proportioned in size to the imperial dignity, so that a Dutch "grandfather" became a wardrobe, and the box clock of the European mantelpiece a cupboard that had to be set on the floor. At the end of this avenue of timepieces a European double-bed with a bright silk quilt covered with Nottingham lace stood majestically on a carpeted platform.

But for the enchaning glimpses of sea and plain through the lattices of the gallery, the apartment of the Sultan's ladies fell far short of occidental ideas of elegance. But there was hardly time to think of this, for the door of the mirror was always opening to let in another fairy-tale figure, till at last we were surrounded by a dozen hours, laughing, babbling, taking us by the hand, and putting fishy questions while they looked at us with curiously eyes. They were all (our interpreters whispered) the Sultan's "favorites," round-faced, apricot-tinted girls in their teens, with high cheek-bones, full red lips, surprised brown eyes between curved-up Asiatic lids, and little brown hands fluttering out like birds from their brocaded sleeves.

West Side Notes

(intended for last week)

What's the matter with a few notes from this section? From the birth of the Observer, June 1909, to some time in 1915, West Side notes were a regular feature of country correspondence. Hoping that some one would be interested locally and take a hand, Nicodemus, after long and faithful service quietly resigned, but seemingly the mantle of inspiration failed to drop on the proper shoulders. We do not intend to come back as a regular, but just this once for "days of Auld Lang Syne" we ask for space.

We are especially pleased to write that as a community we have come through February, 1920, with all sails set and going strong. The calendar tells us that we will not have such another month as February until about 1960 and for that the Lord knows we are truly thankful.

We are marching into March with our share of trouble but full of confidence that we can pull 'er through. After reading these notes it will be plain, evident that we are having our own time fighting "the world, the flesh, the devil and the 'flu."

Two weeks ago what threatened to be 'flu appeared in the family of Percy York, and being the "sure enough" article the entire family was soon down.

Ralph York, a son, who lives with Jos. York, his grandfather, and Mary Birmingham quite soon capitulated and consequently the regulation quarantine cards were in evidence on the residences of Percy York, Joseph York and Guy Birmingham.

Following these first developments, the epidemic has gradually advanced until we could more easily tell who has not the 'flu at this writing than who has. But there are 52 cases today (Wednesday) between the Church and the school house in the village. This leaves only four houses not quarantined up to this time.

At Somers', that grand old man, George himself, is doing heroic work single handed with three families on his hands, numbering 12 patients, and he is bringing them through O. K. so far. At Albright's, the son, Aubrey, went in Saturday night and took charge of a home with seven all down. A daughter, in this home, Miss Pearl, who is a telephone operator at Florenceville, came down on Monday to assist here. These seven are going strong. This is only an indication of what such epidemic calls for in the way of sacrifice and service. Other families are being cared for in like manner. Mrs. R. E. Kidney came as a volunteer nurse to the home of her sister, Mrs. Chas. E. Shaw. There are six patients all doing fine. Mrs. Tilley is having good success so far with her special cases, the families of Percy York, Percy Tilley and the Haywood home, and all these with the others can continue to do fine towards recovery if they can so far use good judgment and show a proper appreciation of the efforts that are being made on all sides for their best welfare, by being patient as long as they are "patients."

Walter Cook and Mrs. William Currie are the only pneumonia cases reported so far.

The few who are left to do the "field" work are both faithful and willing and so far all have been well looked after in all respects—wood, medicine, food and sympathy, and the last is the greatest of them all.

Early this week the Hartland Women's Institute took the situation into consideration and quickly bountiful hampers of edibles were supplied through this source, coming, too, just at a time when the local contingent was beginning to realize the serious outlook, what with soups and dishes of similar tasty and nourishing nature and the running to and fro among twelve or fifteen homes, some people were just about convinced that they had their hands quite full. This timely aid was followed by many others in and around Hartland so that all is well and the situation is well in hand. Quite naturally the entire West Side is very grateful for the voluntary and big hearted assistance from outside, and here's hoping that there never will be occasion to return the thoughtful attention in a like situation.

Since its organization, some 30 years ago, or more, the Reformed Baptist Church of Victoria has had a home in the Orange Hall. During the past few months arrangements have been made to provide a proper and convenient place of worship, that will be a comfort and a credit to this earnest and active little Christian body. The site chosen for this edifice is the Sanford W. Shaw lot at the corner of Main and Pucker streets and the material to be used for the body of the church will be a product of the Hartland Cement Co. Dolph Nixon has the contract to supply the rough lumber. Already some material is on the grounds and building operations will probably commence when we have done with the snow and the 'flu.

Occasional word from Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Shaw, who are spending the winter in British Columbia with members of their family, tell us of the beauty of nature and the preparations for spring seeding.

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER

South Brookfield, Queens Co., N.S., Oct. 1919.
"Our little girl was very sick with Stomach Trouble and different foods were recommended, but everything failed until a nurse told me to give her OLIVEINE EMULSION. She is now a big, healthy baby and I would not be without it in the house. For coughs and colds and as a health builder it is the best to be had. We recommended OLIVEINE EMULSION to quite a few who were suffering from the effects of influenza and they used it with good results."
(Name on Request)

OLIVEINE EMULSION is more than an ideal cough remedy, to pave the way for a quick recovery from heavy colds and deep-seated coughs. It is a body builder—gives strength to the weak—tones up and invigorates the whole system. It is pleasant to take and is agreeable to the most sensitive stomach.

their little girl, Marjorie, and Mrs. Boyer's sister, Mrs. White, are escaping the snows and blows of New Brunswick's best in that line, seem to take diabolical delight in writing from fair Florida of the growing oranges, the waving celery and the clustering grapes. Oh, well! We know the delight of digging out a wood pile or working all day to plow out a road and in 10 minutes seeing the whole works buried under five feet of snow. We have all heard stories of the writer that the "soldiers went through," and one I remember was of an officer, who stood warming before the old-fashioned fire-place at "Maplewood" and, shivering, made the remark that "he would rather be where the bullets were flying like hail than to be in this damned country."

The little logging operations of Barnett, Hoyt, Clark, Nixon and others are coming along at a discouraging pace owing to cold and snow and sickness and fire.

Aside from the victims of 'flu, all are well among us except Mrs. J. B. Bowser and Mrs. S. H. Shaw and we hope that favorable results will be the ultimate outcome in these particular cases.

Our school is closed of course and Percy Tilley can't clip your horse for many a long day. "Flu—Nuff said!"

THE OPEN HAND

An Indian Tale of Maine and New Brunswick

Founded on Historic Facts and Sustained by Tradition
Written by W. D. Kearney and printed in 1864 by W. S. Gilman at Presque Isle, Maine

The Observer is about to undertake the re-printing of the above well-known volume, now almost out of print. To print a new edition of this quaint book involves an outlay upwards of $500. Before we undertake the work we must have a reasonable guaranty that we can sell a sufficient number at $1.00 to pay us.

We feel certain that there are a number of people, especially among the older generations, both in New Brunswick and Maine who would desire a copy of this book. It will be printed in quarto form, 9x12 1/2, and nicely bound in stiff board covers. It will not be a large volume for the money but it is certainly a volume that every descendant of the early pioneers will want to own.

If you want one, please fill out the following blank.

PRINCIPLE OF TELEPATHY.

How Information is Conveyed From One Mind to Another.

Not only is it possible to transmit messages from one place to another by means of wireless, but it is possible on occasions for one mind to communicate with another distant mind without the employment of any apparatus whatever, writes Elliott O'Donnell in Pearson's Weekly.

That is what we mean by telepathy. Telepathy is purely mental. It is carried on quite independently of all the organs of the body, saving the brain, and yet it enables us to receive from afar impressions of thoughts, feelings, visions, taste and sounds. It is entirely a matter of concentration.

One of the most remarkable cases of what certainly appears to have been telepathic communication was that of Mrs. Hawker, wife of the famous airman. It will be remembered that when news first came to hand that the daring aviator was missing, the whole country, with one exception, feared the worst, and that exception was Mrs. Hawker. She was never in doubt as to her husband's safety, because at the very critical moment when his life was in the gravest danger, messages came to her saying that all was right and that he was alive and well. The only explanation of those messages seems to lie in telepathy; there was certainly no other medium for transmitting them.

A curious case was that of a certain priest who disputed the rights of anyone in a village near Paris to a particular field. A farmer was that he had the priest determined to make him relinquish it through the instrumentality of what was in reality telepathy. Accordingly, he put a wooden cross in the field, to which he affixed a paper bearing on it the words: "If you put your spade into this field a specter will come and torment you in the night."

The farmer, taking no notice of the cross, overturned it, and sure enough that night and for many subsequent nights was tormented by a figure in white that entered his room and said: "Give me back my field."

Finally, the farmer grew ill, a doctor was summoned, and it then transpired that it was all due to the priest, who, at the very time the farmer used to see and hear the vision, was parading his own house in a white sheet, repeating the very words, "Give me back my field," that the farmer had heard so continually. It was done solely by concentration. But it is not only sounds that can be conveyed by telepathy, but taste as well.

Dr. Elliottson narrates how, in the presence of the Archbishop of Dublin and several other persons, he experimented on a certain Mrs. Snewing. Standing behind Mrs. Snewing, so that she could not see him, Dr. Elliottson put various substances in his mouth—salt, sugar, cinnamon, ginger, and so on, all of which were carefully concealed with blotting paper and handed to him by a Mr. Sparlett, eldest son of Lord Abinger. Each time an article was put in his mouth and he began to taste it, Mrs. Snewing called out and described what she fancied she tasted and every time her description tallied exactly with what Dr. Elliottson had in his mouth.

A Finished Product.
"Don't count your chickens before they are hatched," replied Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "De fact is, I don't pay no 'tention to 'em till dey's done growed several months."

McLaughlin Valve-in-Head Service

McLaughlin Valve-in-Head motor cars are so designed and manufactured as to render them capable of great serviceability under a wide range of motoring conditions. Yet they are backed by a service organization of more than 2000 Canadian dealers so thoroughly organized as to make that serviceability continuous.
Every McLaughlin owner is entitled to and receives prompt and efficient service—the kind that insures the uninterrupted use of his investment. Our service department is in charge of a first class mechanic with special training in the McLaughlin line.
While we are not soliciting more garage work, in fact we always have more than we can attend to, we are particularly anxious that McLaughlin owners get in touch with us in case they are not getting entire satisfaction. Our interest in McLaughlin owners does not cease when the car is paid for. The importance of service is something the man buying his first car does not realize. With the stock of parts we carry, and the stock at the Mc-Laughlin branch at St. John, McLaughlin owners on this territory have access to at least $100,000 worth of parts which can be secured within a few hours. McLaughlin parts cost less than others, taking weight and quality into consideration.
