THEY SAVED A LIFE

And Received the Royal Canadian Humane Society's Medal.

Gallant Action of Herbert John Lush and Louis Dambra Fittingly Recognized by Mr. Adam Brown, President of the Society.

Herbert John Lush, a tall, well-formed lad of 15, and Louis Dambra, a slightly smaller lad of 13, were last night made the recipients of the bronze medal for saving life which is presented by the Royal Canadian Humane Society, where especial bravery is shown. On May 10 last Clarence Paul, Herbert J. Lush and Louis Dambra were bathing in the Thames at Decher's Island. Paul got beyond his depth and began to drown, and Lush swam to his assistance. The drowning boy grabbed his rescuer around the body and dragged him down with him when he sank, and both would probably have drowned but for the action of young Dambra, who swam to their assistance, and was instrumental in saving both lives. Although the evening was very stormy, Somerset Hall, where the presentation took place, was well filled. Young Lush, Dambra and Paul occupied seats in the front row. Dean Innes occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks said that the most discouraging matter in connection with humane work was the lack of public sympathy. He briefly explained the aims of the association, and made a very eulogistic reference to Adam Brown, the president of the Humane Society of Canada, as he introduced him.

Mr. Brown stated at the commencement of his address that he was gratified that throughout Canada there was a spirit abroad that was taking cognizance of all humane acts. Not only were dumb animals, but children as well, protected from brutes in human form. The press had been most kind in regard to the work, and the pulpit most outspoken. Some 50 years ago the first Humane Society was organized in England, and ever since then the society had been growing in a quiet and unostentatious manner, educating the people to the proper treatment of God's defenceless creatures. Much cruelty arose from thoughtlessness. Nothing made this fact more apparent than the cruel check rein. Mr. Brown also spoke of the extreme cruelty of docking horses' tails, and the cowardice of trap shooting. While admitting that he trod upon dangerous ground, he spoke emphatically against the wearing of song birds as ornaments.

Mr. Brown then launched into the history of the Royal Canadian Humane Society, organized a year ago in Toronto. He explained the objects of the association, and how at the intercession of the Governor-General the Queen had graciously permitted the body to use the prefix "royal." He presented the dean with six posters containing instructions in the method of resuscitation, and requested that he see that they were posted up in the locality of public swimming places. He also showed an arrangement for the saving of the lives of people endangered by ice accidents.

Mr. Brown then called the two youths to the platform, and after reciting the act of heroism performed by them, pinned the medals on their breasts amid applause of the audience.

"If in future life you are in need of a recommendation," said Mr. Brown, "show them that," and he touched the medal.

During the evening, Miss Maud McLaren sang "Good-bye, Summer," very sweetly. Miss Isabelle Love recited a dialect sketch in a very finished manner, and Miss Nellie Burnip exhibited her wonderfully strong and sweet voice in a manner that won unbounded applause.

A collection in aid of the Humane Society was taken up at the close.

NO WEDDING.

The Bridegroom Elect Fixed the Hour and Suddenly Expired.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—The very sudden death of Mr. Isaac M. Chafee, of No. 13 Mutual street, Toronto, Monday afternoon, thwarted matrimonial plans which were to have been carried out in this city today. Mr. Chafee is an elderly retired merchant, and he was engaged to be married to Miss Perry, who for some time has been residing in this city with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Watkins, of 17 East avenue south. Mr. Chafee wrote to Miss Perry and to Rev. Canon Curran, fixing 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the hour for the wedding, and all arrangements were completed to bring the event off quietly at St. Thomas' Church at that hour. The wedding breakfast was to have been given at Mr. Watkins' residence immediately afterwards. After mailing the letters Mr. Chafee died almost instantly. The receipt of the news was a severe shock to Miss Perry, and Mr. Watkins' household, and much sympathy is expressed by friends.

BEFORE HIS WIFE'S EYES.

Mr. John Vivian of Brantford Dropped Dead While Reading a Paper.

Brantford, Oct. 30.—A terribly sudden death occurred yesterday morning when Mr. John Vivian passed away at his home, 230 Darling street, without a moment's notice. Mr. Vivian had been suffering from indigestion for a few days, but took little heed to his ailment. Yesterday morning, while sitting reading to his wife, he dropped in the middle of a paragraph and remarked with a smile, that his heart was throbbing strangely. Then before another word could be spoken his head dropped forward, and before his startled wife could reach his side he was dead. A medical man was called in, but could do nothing. The cause of death was heart failure.

Mr. Vivian was a man of about 40 years of age, and had lived in this city for many years. Latterly he was in the employ of Mr. John Mann. A family of a wife and two children survive him.

SEVEN MAY DIE.

Wholesale Poisoning in a Swell Southern Hotel.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 29.—About 20 guests of the Adolphus Hotel are sick. The physicians pronounced it a case of poisoning. Those expected to die are: J. P. W. Bowers, of Wheeling, traveling salesman; J. M. Baker, traveling salesman, New York; Harry Ranney, of Huntington; Mrs. Ranney, wife of above; W. R. W. Sterling, proprietor of the hotel; Miss Mary Sterling, daughter; Homer Smith, Point Pleasant, unaccounted for. Many others are sick, but not seriously. The cause of the poisoning is unknown.

AN UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

The tour of Mr. Laurier throughout Ontario has pleased his friends, who have crowded to hear him at successive meetings from Morrisburg to Woodstock. They had good cause to be satisfied, for he is an able man, a persuasive speaker and an earnest statesman. Wherever he went he strengthened his party, and Conservatives who saw and heard him for the first time were impressed favorably with his sincerity, the fairness and moderation with which he discussed public questions, and the love of country which stamped all his statements. Even the Toronto Mail and Empire has a kind word to say of the Liberal leader, the candor of his utterances, and the kindly feeling with which men of the opposing political camp have learned to regard him. But that journal could not be expected to endorse Mr. Laurier, or to confess that there has been a prelude of victory in his march. On the contrary, it finds many proofs of a weakened and divided party in the speeches of Liberals, and does not hesitate to say that the tour was a calamitous and an unfortunate one. It discovers, for instance, that there has been an utter breakdown of the tariff policy, because of some remarks attributed to Mr. Laurier at Waterloo. The policy of the Liberals on the tariff was clearly formulated at the Ottawa convention, and by it they propose to stand. Words put into the mouth of Mr. Snider by a reporter who said they did not last what was said will not disturb any Liberal; and good and thoughtful men as Mr. Snider is, no words uttered by him could result in a breakdown of the Liberal policy on the tariff. Again, it is said that Mr. McMillan, of Huron, offered as his strongest argument against the high tax system, the condemnation of a law which was repealed five years ago. Supposing he did—suppose Mr. McMillan made not one but two or three, or four mistakes, and there are few men in the Parliament of Canada less likely to make mistakes than John McMillan—what proof does that afford that Mr. Laurier's tour has been a calamitous failure? A third evidence of Mr. Laurier's loss of grip in Ontario is his position on the school question. He favors a commission to accurately define the grievances, and the Mail and Empire says this is muddling the case, and is a knife at the throat of the western province. Common sense would seem to suggest that the best way to settle any question is to begin to learn it and understand it, and the Government of Manitoba has suggested to the Government at Ottawa that the best way of doing so is with a commission. Mr. Laurier would settle the question in the same way, and even Mr. Tarte, who is a "black tart" to the Mail and Empire, says there is no coercion in his policy. Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his friends by their policy might disrupt the union, but they could not hope to solve the problem. Mr. Laurier would first learn the facts of the case, and then by tact and good sense he would seek to reach a solution founded upon justice and fair play between man and man. We venture to say that there are many Conservatives in Ontario to whom this course is more acceptable than the one proposed by the Ottawa Government. One other demonstration of the unfortunate tour in the eyes of the Mail and Empire is the presence of Mr. Tarte. Conservative papers had a good deal to say against Mr. Tarte before he joined Mr. Laurier in Ontario; but we notice that they have had little to say since. Some have been silenced by proceedings for libel, and the rest by an exposure of the rascality of their friends in Mr. Tarte's best and most incisive way. It was the dark deeds of McGreevy and Connolly, Langevin and Caron, out of which the whole Conservative party profited, that drove Mr. Tarte out of the ranks of that party; and his speeches have made that rascality clear to Liberals and Conservatives alike at the Laurier meetings in Ontario.

No, the tour of Mr. Laurier has been neither calamitous nor unfortunate. It has been a great success from first to last.

Russian scientific men have ascertained that out of 347 trees struck by lightning in the province near Moscow 322 were white poplar. They advise farmers to plant poplars as natural lightning conductors. Here is a hint for Canadian farmers and others.

BY THE WAY.

Mr. Laurier's flowers of eloquence have roots of logic.

In the matter of war canards the other London papers are decidedly behind the Times.

The Week, of Toronto, nowadays appears to be Jinglo from horns to hoofs.

In a discussion on election prospects, the Toronto Telegram (opposed to the Liberals) says the opponents of Mr. C. S. Hyman, M.P., in this city, can scarcely hope to defeat him. The popularity of Mr. Hyman, our contemporary truthfully adds, is unabated. He has most of the young men with him, and the old ones, too.

British shipbuilders are making torpedo boats for Russia, Spain, and Japan. In case of conflict with either nation, British warships would meet others worthy of their steel.

The customs collectorship at Montreal has been vacant for over three years. The postoffice inspectorship at the same city has been vacant for two years. All because the jobs are wanted by high tax M.P.s, and the men in power are afraid to open the constabulary.

Big imports of French wines are being made into Canada as a result of the law just put upon the Canadian statute book by the Dominion Government. The duty on cottons, iron and other necessities is as high as ever; but the Canadian taxpayer must be satisfied, seeing he can have much cheaper French wine than formerly.

Mr. Grieve, M. P. for North Perth, speaking at Elmira, Ont., of the decline in the price of agricultural products, said that before 1878, when he was a younger man, he drove into Waterloo with a load of barley. Mr. Joseph Seagram, distiller, now the Conservative candidate in North Waterloo, jumped on the wagon and said "he would give 74 cents a bushel for the barley, but if the people would turn these miserable Grits out of power he would give 5 or 10 cents a bushel more. Instead of barley increasing in price it had so declined that the farmers could scarcely sell it, and they were obliged to feed it to their stock. A similar decrease had taken place in all the other products of the farm. The country needs a change.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier has promised to attend a series of demonstrations in his honor in Montreal and district within the next month. The Liberal chieftain will be busy till Parliament meets.

Sir William Van Horne, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was in Toronto yesterday on business connected with the Ontario Government. Sir William has just returned from a visit to the Northwest, of which he speaks most hopefully—enthusiastically. The colossal harvest has set the people of Manitoba and the Northwest on their feet, and inspired new confidence in their great possibilities. The C. P. R. has caught the contagion; thus never been in better condition than now; and its receipts are increasing. All of which must be cheering news to every well-wisher of Canada. By the way, the C. P. R. president has a kindly word for Mr. Hays, the new general manager of the Grand Trunk. He says Mr. Hays is one of the ablest railway men on the continent. If a change was deemed requisite, no better man could be appointed to succeed Mr. Sargeant.

The report that manufacturers have refused to contribute funds for the support of the high tax party for the coming campaign is probably true. The Globe regards it as wise on their part, because most of them are losing more than they are gaining through trade obstructions, and because contributions cannot materially affect the result. It will be a misfortune from a public standpoint if it necessitates another left-handed order in council.

The California State Patrons offered to contribute $1,000 to the funds of the American Tariff League, and put the money up, on condition that a committee of five, impartially selected, should decide (a) that the present system of protection by tariff in imports is just and equitable to the producers of agricultural staples as long as there is a surplus of those to export; (b) or that a bounty on exports of agricultural staples would be unjust or inequitable as long as there is a protective tariff on imports. The Protective League should decide (a) that the present system of protection by tariff in imports is just and equitable to the producers of agricultural staples as long as there is a surplus of those to export; (b) or that a bounty on exports of agricultural staples would be unjust or inequitable as long as there is a protective tariff on imports.

The Washington Star calls him Sir Joseph Chamberlain, K.C.B. The news of Joseph's knighthood hadn't reached Canada before this.

LETTER FROM MR. GOLDWIN SMITH

New Hope for Farmers of Ontario.

The Future of Agriculture Discussed in an Interesting Way.

To the Editor of the "Advertiser":
In the Mail and Empire of Thursday last there was a letter from Mr. John A. Donaldson, of Toronto, recommending our farmers to turn their attention to the culture of their grain. A farmer enough to be able to form an opinion about the particular suggestion. But any one who can show the farmers of Ontario how to live and thrive without reference to the price of wheat will be doing them and the country a greater service than any which is likely to be done by the politicians.

It seems hardly possible that wheat should recover its price. The wheat-growing area in Hindostan appears to be almost boundless; labor there is extraordinarily cheap; and the Government is furnishing the people with improved implements in place of the rudimentary plows which they have hitherto used, and at the same time multiplying, by railway extension, the means of transport, which have hitherto been defective. Besides Hindostan, the Argentine is pouring wheat in rapidly increasing quantities into the British market. Our own Northwest is adding to the volume, and though it has been opened up at the expense of the Ontario taxpayer, it is just as formidable a rival to the farmer of Ontario as if it were a foreign country.

When the C. P. R. was under construction one of the directors was heard to boast that by the opening up of the Northwest the loan societies of Ontario would now have a ready market for their securities. In other words, that the farms of Ontario would lose their value; rather a hard measure for the farmer who was paying for the building of the C. P. R. The cattle trade with England is precarious, and is now suffering from the embargo on the maintenance of which, so long as there is any ground or pretext for it, the British farmer, wishing to protect his own industry, will insist. The horse trade with England never can be worth much, because if horses do not sell at once on landing, they will be eating up their value at a lively rate. The bicycle seems likely everywhere to reduce the price of the horse. The trade in cheese is more reliable. But the British farmer, whose wheat no longer pays, as soon as he recognizes that fact, must betake himself to dairy produce. Besides this, trade with England is always liable to interruption by maritime war, of which there is a scare at this moment; for it is vain to think that the British navy, powerful as it is, could completely command at once the Mediterranean, the Pacific, and the Atlantic. If, then, the suggestion of Mr. Donaldson can enable the farmer of Ontario to vary his industry with advantage, our gratitude will be due to its author. Yours faithfully,
GOLDWIN SMITH.

Toronto, Oct. 23, 1895.

YET THE SLAVERY WILL CONTINUE.

"Don't be a slave to your first baby. My first baby was a tyrant when six months old. I have been reaping my reward ever since." Said at the Chicago Convention of Mothers.

BURDEN OF BRITISH STATESMEN.

There rest upon the shoulders of the Cabinet responsibilities and perplexities that are positively heart-breaking in their magnitude and intensity, and in their possibilities for good or evil, not merely as regards Canada, but the whole human race. Could the ordinary Englishman see the questions which a Cabinet has to face as part of its daily work, put side by side and catalogued, his first impulse must be to ask, "How do these gentlemen manage to sleep at night, or take a holiday, or play golf?" Their responsibilities would hang over them like a nightmare. Of course, this would be a very exaggerated way of looking at the matter. People who have to do highly responsible things learn to do them with as much coolness as drinking tea. Theoretically, the head station-master at Waterloo ought to be gray-headed with worry at the thought of the confusion and accident he might cause by wrong orders. Again, a general in the field should be unable to smile for the thought of the disaster which a slip of memory might produce. Yet, in fact, station masters and generals are just like other people. So are the members of an English Cabinet. Though they realize their responsibility and recognize the appalling difficulties of their task, they are not crushed by them, but feel instead stimulated by the desire to overcome them.—Little's Living Age.

THE TITLE FACTORY TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

(From the Toronto Mail and Empire.)
A proposition that has much interest in it has been made by the London "Advertiser." It is as follows: "Canada does not yet possess all the power of self-government that would be advantageous to her. She should be given the right to create lords, dukedoms, earldoms, baronies, knightships, and all the orders of nobility prevalent in Great Britain and other old world countries. Without that right, without lords, dukes and earls, and only a limited number of baronets and knights, Canada must continue to be at a great disadvantage, as we shall show. Imported, duty free, baronets and knights would really have no more value to this country, but there are many reasons for believing that live lords, live dukes, and live earls, if existing in plenty here, could divert to the Dominion annually many millions of hard cash that are now gathered into the coffers of needy old world nobility." Coming, as it does from a leading Liberal newspaper, it is quite within the bounds of possibility that Mr. Laurier will make the scheme a plank in his trade policy. He has to be sure, an objection to titles, but if the prosperity of his country could be advanced thereby, he would no doubt change his opinion on the subject.

BROWN IN HEALTH.

The Interesting Story of a Lady in Qu'Appelle, N. W. T.

Suffered With Severe Headaches, Loss of Appetite and Fatigue on Night Excursion—Insomnia Added Its Terrors to Her Troubles.

(The Vidette, Qu'Appelle, N. W. T.)

Throughout this broad Dominion there are thousands of women, prematurely old and constant sufferers, either as a result of too constant application to household work, or from troubles incidental to the sex. To those suffering thus, it is gratifying to know that there has at last been found a remedy that will restore them to health and strength, and bring health and happiness where before had been misery and suffering. Many of our readers who know Mrs. Cargo only as an energetic and capable boarding-house keeper, may know that about a year and half ago she was a confirmed sufferer, feeling but little hope of her recovery to health. Although not confined to bed she dragged on a wretched existence from day to day. Added to her other sufferings, was that terrible one, known to some in a mild form, but to few as to Mrs. Cargo—insomnia. This with her other troubles, headache, and a feeling of fatigue on slight exertion was rapidly breaking her down. Many medicines were tried, but none reached the seat of the trouble, and Mrs. Cargo felt like giving up in despair. At last, however, she was induced to try a medicine which is exciting much favorable comment the world over—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mrs. Cargo admits that after the numerous disappointments she had experienced she had but little faith left in any medicine, but before taking the Pink Pills she found her appetite, which had before been very poor, returning, and this gave her the first ray of hope she had had. Her husband began to notice the improvement in her condition and another supply of Pink Pills was procured, which were carefully and faithfully taken according to directions. The improvement was so marked that she continued the treatment from January to March, at the end of which time she had gained 25 pounds in weight, and was fully restored to health, and has had no return of the trouble.

Mrs. Cargo says she cannot speak in terms too strong in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and would like us to make a statement to the effect that the benefit she has derived from the use of this great restoring medicine. An impoverished condition of the blood, or a disordered state of the nerves is the fruitful source of most of the ailments that afflict mankind, and to any thus afflicted, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer a speedy and certain cure. No other remedy has ever met with such great and continued success, which is the strongest proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills accomplish all that is claimed for them. They cure locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, diseases depending upon vitiated blood, and a host of other chronic affections, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, curing all forms of weakness. In men they act as a tonic in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark. They are never sold in bulk, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form should be avoided. These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and may be had of any druggist, or sent by mail at either address, at 50 cents or six boxes for $2.50.

Effective Temperance Work.

Until within the last year or two temperance organizations generally have been more or less antagonistic to the reformation of inebriates by means of Gold Cure or other medical treatment, advocating, instead, moral method, the grace of God and prayer as effective measures. Dr. Talmage, the eminent Brooklyn divine, who has taken a profound interest in the problem of cure for the inebriate, has, in one of his public utterances, made clear that the feeblest intellect must be impressed by the force of his reasoning. He says: "There are some things the grace of God doesn't propose to do, and this is one of them. Never let the grace come in my history when I come to get the grace of God. There are men who need something beside. We want the grace of God and we want surgery and we want the Gold Cure. I am mightily impressed with this Gold Cure. This opinion is being echoed far and wide by great thousands. Within the borders of our own province Lakehurst Institute, Oakville, is quietly, yet surely doing its good work and making people happy. Mr. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, has received a letter from Mr. Datus C. Smith, a large and influential farmer of Blanshard, South Dakota, expressing his appreciation of the value of the publications issued by the department, especially the annual report of the Experimental Farm at Quilich, of which he says: "There is nothing published in the United States that equals it for completeness and for practical all-round value to the man for whom it is intended."

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), Oct. 28.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in London should be called "The Dadd's Kidney Pill Club," as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been found so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvelous cures through the use of the specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

Have that old photo you have copied and enlarged. Mr. C. D. Anderson will make you one for $3, framed and all. Call and see at 340 Richmond street.

—Mrs. D. Beattie, city, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. Rossiter, Shakespeare.

—Mrs. R. Morrison, Kent street, has been called to Cleveland, where her son Ninian is lying seriously ill in Huron street Hospital.

—Rev. Jas. W. Pedley, B.A., who is coming to the pastorate of the First Congregational Church, is expected to arrive in the city today.

—Dr. Catermole, of Milverton, formerly of this city, has disposed of his practice to Dr. Nasmith, formerly of Staffs, and will remove to Stratford.

—Mr. Robert Gardiner, late of the Walker House, Berlin, has been appointed assistant clerk of the Tennessee House here, and has assumed his duties.

—Rev. James W. Pedley, B.A., who is coming to the pastorate of the First Congregational Church will arrive in the city today and will be present at the evening service.

—"The Canadian Spurgeon," Rev. William Patterson, of Cooke's Church, Toronto, will lecture on "Duty, Anghrim and the Boyne" next month in St. James' Presbyterian Church.

—Gen. Gascoigne, the new commander-in-chief of the Canadian militia, has recommended to the Minister of Militia that the full number of sergeants in the militia be restored to the different corps.

—Mrs. H. A. Boomer left for Bermuda today, having sufficiently recovered from her late severe illness to attempt the voyage. Her many friends will rejoice if the voyage prove as beneficial as expected.

—Balliff Burns and a number of friends from Missouri started this (Wednesday) morning for Muskoka for a big deer hunt. Mr. R. B. Walker is acting as bailiff of the Division Court in Mr. Burns' absence.

—Mr. P. F. Canfield, farm manager at the London asylum, after having been in the service of the Ontario Government for 25 years, has tendered his resignation, which was accepted Nov. 1. After that he will be found at 601 King street.

—The annual election of officers of the Arlington Club was held last evening. The following were elected: Dr. Geo. C. Davis, honorary president; S. E. Thompson, president; M. J. Bridgman, vice-president; J. J. Sullivan, secretary-treasurer; J. W. Kearns, chairman; E. E. Bouney and L. Ferguson, rooms committee.

—Mr. Frank Yeigh, Toronto, has arranged to give a series of instructive and entertaining picture lectures, each illustrated by 100 stereoscopic views. The subjects are "Canada," "Norway," "Glumpes of Europe," "The Cities of Italy," "The World Encircled." Societies or churches requiring attractive entertainments should communicate with Mr. Yeigh, whose address is 472 Spadina avenue, Toronto.

—Of the $27,000 liabilities of the estate of Mr. John Ellison, Port Stanley, $2,800 is due employees, the largest of whose claim is $300. The largest creditor is Mr. A. B. B. of Buffalo, whose claim is $6,100. There are notes of $8,000. The creditors number nearly 150, in amounts generally not exceeding $400 or $500. It is not believed that it would pay anything to any creditor. If a receiver were appointed and the business run for a few years, it is believed by the creditors that all the claims could be paid in full.

—A new literary society was organized at the parsonage of the B. M. E. Church, Gray street, Monday evening, Oct. 28, with the following official staff: Nathan Martin, president; Miss M. L. Lewis, secretary; Miss Ethel Reid, vice-president; Miss Louisa Reid, financial and corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. E. Holden, chorister-at-arms; Miss Ellen Reid, treasurer, and Rev. R. L. Holden, chaplain. The name of the organization is the Forest City Literary Association of London, Ont., No. 1. Its aims are to advance its members in literature, parliamentary usages and song.

—The Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. have commenced the winter's work most enthusiastically. Eighteen members were present Monday, and as it was Crusade Day, Mrs. McTaggart headed the list with 21 honorary and three active members. Mrs. Heath came next with four honorary and two active members. The total number added were 27 honorary and 13 active in all 42 new members. The reports from committees were received, and it was decided to accept the kind invitation of Mrs. Spencer, sen., to hold an "At Home" at her residence on Friday evening, Nov. 8, when a collection will be received in aid of the fundraising fund for new building.

A CAT'S-PAW TOMORROW NIGHT.

Any new work from the pen of our distinguished literature as Max O'Rell, becomes more or less interesting. His last, however, is quite likely to receive more widespread attention than any of his former efforts, inasmuch as this time it is a play or rather a comedy. It is his first attempt in the role of playwright and naturally enough he shares the anxiety of his friends in its production and success. It is said, though, by those who have heard it read and seen the rehearsal, to be fully equal to "The Battered" or "His Wife's Father," both of which are acknowledged successes. The title selected for the new comedy is "A Cat's-Paw" and the main plot is a satire on the gratitude (or rather ingratitude) and egotism of the world in general. There are three counter plots, all of which serve to complicate matters and create no end of amusement. Mr. Sam'l Edwards who has in hand the chief role of Johnathan Perkins, is a comedian of more than ordinary merit and has long been one of the foremost in his line in this country. A few of his greater successes will be remembered as "The Bender" in "All the Comforts of Home," "Herr Kraft" in "In Spite of All," "Mr. Barnes" in "Barnes of New York," "Purky" in "Middlewick" in "Our Boys," "Cattermole" in "The Private Secretary," etc., in all of which his work received by the press the most cordial indorsement. KNOCKED OFF $29,000.

The London West Court of Revision sat for three hours Monday and disposed of only 29 of the 32 appeals entered against the assessment for 1934 and knocked off $2,900 on the total. The court met in the school house, with Reeve Macdonald in the chair, and Deputy Reeve Murdoch, Council, Messrs. Hamilton and Andrews and Assessors James Hevey and W. A. Nixon present. Mr. W. J. Reid appeared against the $3,750 assessment on Tecumseh Park, which he showed was very excessive. Last year the property was assessed for $3,000; the new grand stands cost less than $3,000 and the hockey track, which cost $1,000, was not included in the assessment. The court thereupon reduced the assessment to $2,000, and Mr. Reid was perfectly satisfied.

Levi Hammond—Against $850 on three Saunby street lots. Reduced $50. George Hisecox—Against $425 on Wharncliffe road property. Confirmed. Mr. Peters—Against $175 on Ann street lot and $300 on 30 acres on the west side of the Wharncliffe road. Former assessment reduced $25; the latter was confirmed.

E. F. Johnston—Against $1,500 on lot on south side of Oak street, the house on which was recently destroyed by fire. Confirmed.

P. Mulken—Against $3,800 assessment on Deputy Reeve Murdoch's market garden on Mount Pleasant. The estimate was too low. The assessment was confirmed.

Alfred Butler—Against $375 on Peter street lot. Confirmed.

Mrs. McCauley—Against $500 on Annet street property. Reduced $50. John Peters—Against $100 on Ann street lot; $75 on Peter street lot; $175 and $200 on William street lots; $400 on 45 acres on lot; $800 on lot on four lots on Blackfriars street; $225 on No. 103 Oxford street; $550 on No. 18 Peter street; $400 on No. 19 Peter street; and $200 on 15 1-2 acres on Grosvenor street. All the assessments were confirmed, with the exception of the $175 lot on William street, which was reduced to $50, and the $800 lot on Grosvenor street, which was reduced $50.

The balance of the appeals will be heard this evening this week.

THE PUBLIC, ATTENTION!

McLaren, Parkinson & Co., 231 Dundas Street, Have an Announcement to Make—They Handle Buck's (Brantford) Stoves and Conduct a Large Business.

Messrs. McLaren, Parkinson & Co., who have lately started in business at 231 Dundas street (old Mechanics' Institute building), call the attention of the public to the fact that they have on hand full lines of Buck's famous Brantford stoves, tin and enamel ware, and house furnishings, and also that they conduct a general tin-smithing, plumbing and carpentering business, for which none but the most competent workmen are employed. Buck's stoves, which are handled exclusively by the firm, have been on the market for many years, and are constantly growing in favor among the housekeepers. The Happy Thought Range is made in 42 different sizes and styles and fitted with patent illuminated ventilating oven doors, corrugated ovens, and patent adjustable dampers, which are found in no other range. This range, in all its different styles and sizes, includes high and low warming ovens, reservoirs or water heaters, and about 80,000 families in the Dominion are now enjoying the comforts derived from the use of the Happy Thought Range.

The general public is cordially invited to the store at 231 Dundas street, to inspect the Buck stoves, which have already had a wonderful sale in the city this season.

Chaumont, New York, certifies to Mr. John D. Rose's sickness and cure. Mr. Rose's statement is as follows:—"I, the undersigned, being a medical man, certify to the value of your remedy for dyspepsia. Last summer my stomach failed so entirely that I was unable for weeks to digest any food except an occasional cracker; meanwhile I was reduced to a skeleton, and became so weak that I was unable to walk without staggering. Having seen in a Toronto paper your remedy advertised, I procured through my sister, a bottle of your medicine. Upon trying it I began at once to mend, and in a short time entirely regained my health, gaining in six days 12 pounds. Today I am well and hearty, which blessing, under God, I owe (as I think) to your medicine, K. D. C."

WRONG IN THE UPPER STORY.
 Some time ago a man went to visit a friend who was an inmate of a Scotch lunatic asylum. After a prolonged chat in a humorous if not edifying vein, the visitor thought it about time to go.

"Is that clock right, Jock?" he asked of the inmate.

Jock gazed at him for a minute or two in speechless amazement, then laying his hand compassionately on his shoulder, said:

"Non, nae ye think it wid be here if it was right?"

In his VEGETABLE PILLS Dr. Parmelee has given to the world the fruits of long scientific research in the whole realm of medical science, combined with new and valuable discoveries never before known to men. For Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions, Pimples, Pills act like a charm. Taken in small doses the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.
