London, June 26 .- The latest British and German communiques, showing increased activity on the British front, are attracting attention here, and receive unusual prominence in the London morning papers, which also publish conspicuously the fact that the King received General Sir William Robertson, chief of the imperial general staff, at Buckingham Palace last (Sunday) evening.

(Special Cable to The Advertiser.)

(By Ed. L. Keen.) London, Eng., June 26 .- Every surface indication

today pointed to the beginning of the long-expected super-offensive of the Allies.

Breaking out with a terrific smash against the Austrian front, the Italians drove the Austrians back yesterday on a front of more than fifteen miles. They recaptured seven positions taken by Austrian crown prince in his recent drive in the Trentino, including the row of strongly fortified works resting upon Asiago. Gen. Cadorna is reported to be driving home this new offensive with great power.

BRITISH BATTERING TRENCHES. At practically the same hour that the Italian rush began, British artillery broke loose with a battering attack agains the German trenches from La Bassee Canal southward to the Somme. Both British and German official statements comment on the violence of this attack, which in certain sectors approached the intensity of the drum fire that Thus far no word ha the beginning of the expected British infantry attack.

RUSSIANS DRIVING HARD.

Dispatches from Berlin today reported that the Russians, instead of being disheartened by their temporary check in Volhynia, are bringing immense numbers of reserves into action and have renewed their vigorous attacks to reach Kovel. In the southeast the Slavs have cleared Bukowina of the enemy and are entering the passes of the Carpathians. German correspondents emphasize the fiery character of the Russian attacks and the inexhaustible supplies of men and munitions, as if to prepare their readers for further Russian successes. RUMANIA PREPARING.

Reports that Rumania is displaying military activity, coming from German sources today, coincide with other dispatches that the pro-Ally party at Bucharest is urging Rumania's entrance into the war while the Russians are driving home their victories in Bukowina Berlin reported that the fourth Rumanian army corps is being mobilized

Drygoods Men Going to Ottawa To Protest Tariff

Object to the Government's Method of Charging Import Duties.

A deputation of wholesale drygoods merchants, wholesalers, etc., will go to BACKED BY INSPECTOR Ottawa tonight to discuss tariff matters with the minister of customs The merchants are not satisfied with the announcement relative to the tariff.

The Government desires to charge the duty on the price at the time of shipment, not on the price the time the sale was made. For instance, a piece of cloth were purchased in for 10 cents a yard, to be deliv ered in December, and before delivery the market price had gone up to cents a yard, the Government would charge duty on 15 cents a yard, not 10 cents, although the wholesale merchant paid only 10 cents a yard. The latter claims that he sent his travelers out to sell on the basis of cents a yard, and he should not be

NOW OR NEVER FOR FOE IN THE BATTLE OF VERDUN

London, June 26 .- A dispatch to the Times says: Events at Verdun again imperiously demand attention, and again the soldiers of France exact respect. The Germans are pushing harder than ever before. NOW OR NEVER.

nd every hundred yards of progress now made is more significant than every mile of progress made in the first months of the battle. It is but a very scant margin which now separates the French or Germans from victory. THE MORAL EFFECT.

For whatever may be the military effects of a German victoryfrom that point of view the victory is already to the French-the moral importance of the success to the crown prince would be very great. It will, however, require more than the fall of Verdun, permanently to affect the French morale. France knows she is struggling for her existence, and that defeat spells slavery. The country's determination to die as a race in the glory of the battlefield rather than in the ignominy of servitude, remains intact and grim through the struggle. The country's faith in ultimate victory remains unshaken.

Foot by foot the defence of Verdun continues, and throughout the country there is a consciousness that at Verdun the question of defeat or victory now is being settled, and settled in favor of the Allies. The attack which is now in progress must be considered as the final push of the Germans.

We have now in stock some very special values in Marseilles Quilts, in not only the popular-priced lines but also the better qualities. We have prepared ourselves in the past year by making early purchases for 1916, thereby avoiding the three advances in price which have taken place since then. We are now able to offer you quilts at almost old prices, and those who are able to anticipate their needs for the fall can save money by buying now. While our stock is large at present, these prices should sell us out in a very short time.

The situation in Bukowina has cleared up with Russian announcement that the whole of the duchy is now in Russian hands. Thus, in three weeks, Gen. Letchitzky has broken through positions fortified like the French front, and aken over 40,000 prisoners and added territory of 4,000 square miles to that controlled by the Russian Empire. His victorious army is now fighting in two main directions—first, in the far south, it is mounting the valley which leads o the Kirlibaba Pass of the Carpathians, and thence over the Carpathians nto Transylvania, and, second, in the northwest it is striving for the possession of Kolomea, an important railway pulsed.

Austria's dilemma on the Russian front is made clear by the map, which shows that since the commencement of the Russian advance she has been com pelled to exchange a front 260 miles long, between Pinsk and Rumania, for

I look upon that prolonged discussion in Winnipeg not only as a great intellectual achievement but even more as a great religious asset. I thank God and the press for the publicity given to it, for it stands today, and will continue to stand, as a great confession of kind. the cross of Christ towered o'er the wrecks of time. In view of it, one is prepared to believe with the Rev. Dr McCrea of our own city and a delegate to the great assembly, 'that there wil be no disruption,' 'that the opposition now in existence will have died out before the consummation of union.' A Beautiful Spirit.

"Will not the beautiful spirit of the ssembly have a special appeal to all the churches concerned and find a sympathetic response in all. In the Methodist Church, as in the Presbyterian, there has been, in spite of the large majority favoring union, a strong minor ity of able and devoted men, both clerical and laymen, who from convicion have stood for the perpetuity of he Methodist Church, which in the past but merely that the rector was loaned has been so signally honored and blest. as it were for a very important duty There may be some present in my conhim in their prayers and hoped on his gregation this morning. THE LONDON ADVERTISER

London, Ont., Monday, June 26.

THE CITY'S TANGLE. HERE cannot be any doubt that municipal affairs in London are in a good deal of a tangle. Civic management is split into a dozen different or eight months. branches, each with no relation to the other, and expenditure is often made according to the departmental attitude possible that citizens will forget that rather than the attitude of the citizens as a whole.

London and all other municipalities which operate according to the haphazard whim of constantly changing councils are in a bramblebush. They jump in and frequently scratch out their optics, and then continue to tangle themselves in the hope of getting their eyes back again. There is no general direction from the Legislature at Toronto, which is essentially the mother of the municipalities and which is created to deal almost entirely with the problems of the municipalities. But here as in the local boards and councils, there is nothing of specialized ability or adequate conception of what any given action may mean to the future of a city or town. The city of Blank's bill is usually allowed to go through, though it may have been framed by a stupid council and voted through by a small section of the electorate, which may be swayed by a hundred and one considerations.

CAMP BORDEN.

THE CITY of London is not chagrined over the removal of troops to Camp Borden because of the money that might have been made out of the troops. The meanest businessman in London has never so much as spoken one word to suggest that we regarded the troops as a commercial investment. But the city of London is chagrined over the stupid that have inflicted Sir Sam Hughes

Little more than one month ago the citizens were assured by William Grav. M.P., and the local Conservative newspaper, that there would be between 12,000 and 15,000 soldlers in this city for the summer training. Camp Borden had then been purchased and there was no excuse for holding back the news and making the city look foolish for the second time. Only Sir Sam Hughes' egotism and Mr. Gray's lack of influence and lack of touch with the sources of information kept announcement from being made. But a further hoax was practiced, in endeavor in which a child's special order, no doubt, to calm the storm talent may tend. that followed a breach of faith with which might have been saved by leaving the battalions in their respective recruiting localities until it was time to move into Camp Borden. Excellent as the training at Camp Borden may be, the disorganization attendant upon the removal from London will more than offset the training the troops have received in this city. Many precious weeks of time have been wasted and battalions have been set back by the flighty and hare-brained policy pursued by the militia depart-

One thing is certain-the opening of Camp Borden is a splendid thing for the railway lines and for contractors residing in the neighborhood of Toronto. It is understood on good authority that practically all of the contracts for supplying the new Hughes' camp will be in the hands of several big Toronto dealers. This is not given as an insinuation of wrongdoing, but it is inevitable that Toronto has been delighted with the decision. The man who sold the land, the railways and the Toronto contractors are certain to benefit, no matter what it costs the country or the troops who have now been in process of organization for six

A SCRAP OF PAPER.

Sir Sam Hughes threw a bomb into London when he announced that some of the overseas battalions would have to be moved to Camp Borden. The Forest City has been looking forward to reaping a great harvest this summer.-Berlin Telegraph.

S A MATTER of fact London looked upon the presence of the troops in this city as a bargain between the city and the Government. The Government wanted a place to train soldiers for this district. London offered to do so much toward the securing of ground and putting the camp in shape and bonded upwards of 1.800 acres, agreeing to pay the prices asked.

The militia department then told London that it would be all right to go ahead and prepare for the accommodation of all the troops in this dis-Criticism of London's problems at trict. The department's own officers carried out a great part of the prepar-

MAIT A MINUTE! -By J. H. F.

It is rumored that H. Ford will not allow his employees to go to war with Mexico, in case of war. Hennery, the Flivver, is a large-hearted patriotic soul, is he not?

An influential citizen wants to know how it is that the city was asked to expend so much money when it was so certain in some quarters that the camp would not stay here. Just one of life's little mysteries.

Russia is inhabited by Russians, Cossacks and a few other tribes, together with about two million Germans and Austrians, who are staying there for their health. Sir Sam Hughes may not be a blue blood, but there is generally a blue haze in the vicinity when he starts talking loudly.

A Chicago paper has a recipe for treating tainted milk. Better toss it to the pigs.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor gave up millions for love. It might be mentioned in passing that there are a few other millions lying about handy for her use. Somebody says that the reason that the Germans want to take Verdun so badly is so that they will not be run over by the Russians. So far as one can notice, a whole flock of patriots who make the eagle scream in their oratorical outbursts, have not been shipped to Mexico to take a rise out of Carranza. It must be pathetic to see Kaiser Wilhelm shedding bitter tears of sorrow at the plight of

Uncle Sam. An enthusiastic German newspaper called the kaiser the admiral of the Atlantic, after the recent sea battle. If that's his job, he certainly is our

of work.

Judging from the number of organizations that have repudiated Judge Hughes, he is going to make a great run for the presidency.

Just when we had started in to enjoy a spell of weather, along came the rain. Happy days.

It must be touching to hear Col. J. Wesley Allison sing that hymn, "In My Hand, No Price I Bring." It is said that there is such a scarcity of cocoanut oil that a lot of manu-fucturers are nutty. Some of the butter these days makes us wish we were a Swiss yodeler. How we could sing

'Oleo, oleo." It is said that there is quite an outbreak of rabies in the Dominion. The country must be going to hear more speeches from Sir Sam. If Hannes Khollemann, the runner, does not go to war at the request of the U. S. A., they might make him a flight lieutenant.

* * * There can be no end to the war, says the Berlin Tageblatt, until the soil of England is saturated in the life-blood of its people. The bird that penned that must expect to live until he outlasts that dear old Methuselah. The Germans are a funny people.

So far as we can gather statistics on the question, it would appear that Col. J. Wesley Allison is the only person in Canada whom Sir Sam Hughes has not bawled out some time or other.

One reads frequently about a ballplayer dislocating his shoulder, but never that his law gives out.

The person who predicted that the rainy season would end on June 21 seems to be about right. The only trouble is that he was about two months late.

AN GILLE DUBH CIAR DUBH.

(The Dark Swarthy Lad.) This old Gaelic song is published at request of an old reader, T. G. H., and will no doubt be familiar to many Scottish readers of The Advertiser:

Cha dirich mi bruthach, S cha shiubhail mi mointich. Gu'n d'fhalbh moghuth cinn-sa, Scha seinn mi oran: Chat chaidil mi uair

O Luaingus an Domhnach, Sann gill-e duhb ciar-dubh A tigh'nn fo m'uidh San gille-c dubh ciar-dubh 'A tigh 'nn fo m'uidh.

Is turagh nach robh mise 'S an gille dubh ciar-dubh; An aodann na beinne An lagan beag fasaich, Nan ait-eigin diomhair,

'S e tighinn fo m' uidh.

Dh-olainn deoch-slaint'. A ghilie dhuibh chiar-dhuibh Do dh-uisge nan lon, Cho deonach 's go b' fhion e, Ged tha mi gun or, Tha ni 's leor tig'nn g'am farraidh, 'S cha ghabh mi fear liath 'S e tighinn fo m' uidh.

Mo ghille dubh boidheach Ge gorach le cach thu; Gun deoin da mo chairdean: Shiubhlainn leat fada, Feadh lagan a's fhasach 'S cha ghabh mi fear liath 'S tu tighinn fo m' uidh.

Mo ghille dubh laghach S neo-raghainn leam t-fhagail. Na 'm faicinn an cuideachl thu, Thaghainn ro chach thu; Ged' fhaicinn cuig mile. Air chinnt gur tu b' fhearr leam, Cha ghabhainn fear liath 'S tu tikhinn fo m' uidh.

'S tu tighinn fo m' uidh. Bho mhadainn di-ciadain, 'S bruaileanach m' aigneadh, Mur furtaich thu chiall orm 'S mi raoir air dhroch leabaidh. Cha'n fhad gus an liath mi, S an gille dubh ciar-dubh, Tighinn fo m' uidh.

Dear Miss Grey,—Have just finished your interesting page, which I never miss reading, as it would seem almost as bad as to not hear from my own sisbad as to not hear from my own sisoad as to not hear from my own sis-ters, for I think a great deal of some of our correspondents. If you have a Watteau-shaped hat troubles sometimes. Oh, the girls who have mothers to go to don't know what they have. I can scarcely remember my mother, but everyone says she was a dear mother, so I often shed a tear as I read some of the mothers' letters.
I am a mother now myself, and I pray I may be a mother in everything to my little girl little girl.

There was a letter signed "In Distress," which I think I felt very sorry for, but I think your advice would be just what I would say. She is in the very trouble I was myself once, so if she would care to correspond with me just say so in the Mail-Box. I kept right on, and it turned out all right in my case, but I can see now what a risk we run, dear friend, so be very careful. Miss Grey says "Pray"; so

We'll buy back the bands

Nearly every time a new article is introduced the burden of proof is put upon the purchaser. In putting out El Sidelo Cigar (which is new to Canadians) we are going to reverse the usual process. Instead of indulging in a lot of commonplace description of the cigar's qualities. we are giving an absolute guarantee. We simply say:

Ask any cigar dealer for 50c worth of El Sidelo Cigars (Chesterfield size 4 for 50c, or Club House size 6 for 50c). Smoke them. Then if you are not ready to say that these are better than any cigars you have smoked at the price, send us the bands before July 15th, 1916, and we will return your 50c at once.

Surely this is a simple and straight-forward proposition isn't it? Yet realize what it means. After over seventeen years experience with the tastes of Canadian Smokers, with their likes and dislikes, we feel we are in a position to make this proposal with the certainty that the fairness of cigar smokers will prompt them to accept it in the same spirit in which it is offered.

JEER FRENCH SOCIALIST WHO WANTS ARMISTIGE

President Deschanel of Deputies Says Consent is Impossible.

PARIS, June 26.-The Government's prodrome tonight. Mr. Rowell said, war application caused a debate in the Chamber of Deputies Saturday evening. The Socialist deputy, Brizon, opposing the credits, demanded an immediate armistice, and attacked the recent address of President Poincaire at Nancy. Protests and cries of "Shame" from various parts of the chamber following Deputy Brizon's statements.

President Deschanel of the chamber and Finance Minister Ribot objected to the bringing in of the name of President Poincaire and also to the language used by the Socialist deputy. "Neither the chamber nor any Frenchman would consent to an immediate armistice and peace, which would mean that we renounce our rights under repeated violations of justice," said President Deschanel. The applications which are for the third quarter of 1916 were adopted.

His chaplain, Capt. Moffatt, writes as follows:

In the Field, Belgium, June 9, 1916.
Dear Miss Hussey.—I am very sorry indeed that your letter to Joe Holman, your cousin, had to remain unanswered. You will have heard by now that he was killed in action on June 3. The 14th and 15th Battalions took part in one of the most gallant charges the Canadians have ever made, and durng the advance Joe was killed. That night the battalion was relieved before they had a chance to collect and bury all their dead. But last night I found that your cousin had been buried by the 24th Battalion, who are now n those trenches. I inclose your leter to him written May 15. May God comfort you and all his family in your sorrow. I can tell from the tone of your letter that you will find much comfort in the knowledge of his bravery and sacrifice for others. We all hope and pray that this war will soon end and that our young men may get home to spend their lives for the upbuilding of our country, instead of laying them down to resist a cruel Yours sincerely,

PRESENTATION OF COLORS TO 135TH ON TUESDAY

Field Kitchens From City and County Councils To Be Given.

The presentation of colors to 135th Overseas Battalion will be made at Carling Heights on Tuesday afternoon. Lieut.-Col. Robson and the officers of the battalion have arranged for the trooping of the colors, an attraction that has not been presented to the citizens of London and Middle-County since the 70th Battalion left for overseas.

Nor will the presentation and trooping of the colors represent the entire program. Field kitchens will be pre sented to the "Pride of Middlesex" by the township council of West Nissour and London City Council and there will e a march-past of the units compris ing the different brigades in camp. The event has been scheduled for 2 o'clock (city time) or 1 o'clock county time. Dr. H. A. McCallum will pre sent the colors. Mayor Stevenson will offer the field kitchen on behalf of the city of London, while the reeve of est Nissouri will make the presentaion for his municipality. The trooping of colors will follow the e demonstrations by classes in physitraining and machine gun work. The band will furnish a program of music and the occasion will be improvfriends of the 135th Battalion, both from city and county, to fraternize with the officers and men of the unit It will not be many weeks before the Middlesex battalion will proceed overeas and Col. Robson and the officers elieve that additional interest would engendered by the employment of Il formalities associated with the reeption of the battalion standards.

Middlesex Association Decides to Take Action Against Proposed Legislation,

The Middlesex Threshermen's Assoiation met in the county building on Saturday afternoon and discussed several questions relative to proposed legislation that the Ontario Government are considering with respect to traction engines.

The Government has under advisement the placing of a tax on all traction engines similar to the automobile license, and the association formulated a plan to oppose the tax. Other threshermen in Kent and Oxford have combined to oppose the proposed tax, and the Middlesex threshermen have fallen in line with the idea.

A matter concerning the laying down of heavy planks each time before crossing bridges was discussed, and this will e decided at a future meeting. The question of an advance in rates was not brought up at all, the threshermen all believing it better to let the present scale of prices remain unhanged notwithstanding the fact that the cost of their machinery and the operation of it had increased. The next meeting will be held the first Saturday from P. E. Culverhouse, B.S.A. of the Vineland Experimental station. Mr. Culverhouse declared that there was no reason why fruit could not be preserved without the use of sugar, except in the case of jams and jellies, the syrup on fruit being used merely for flavoring. "The method for preserving the fruit is practically the same as the ordinary method with sugar," wrote Mr. Culverhouse. "The fruit should be washed and prepared in the ordinary way, hulling, peeling and coring, pitting, etc. The prepared fruit should be placed in freshly sterilized jars, and then covered with boiling water. Have You Made Your Will?

That is a very direct question and one that most people do not want to answer.

Before you make a will you must have something to bequeath. To be asked "Have you made your will?" reminds most people that they have nothing to leave to support those who are dependant on them and the question hurts.

Just to see how many people do not make wills because they have nothing to leave, read these facts prepared by Mr. Straus, President of the American Society for Thrift. Insurance "In the United States 66 out of every 100 people that are known to be very much alike. If you put on a life insurance policy you can sign your will as soon as the policy is issued to you. You will have something to leave to those dependent on you that will keep them from want. We have a policy that will exactly suit you, and if you put it on at once you will not feel hurt if anyone asks, "Have you
