BILL.

An Act to encourage the establishment of "Building Societies" in the District of Quebec.

WHEREAS divers influential persons Preamble. residing in the District of Quebec, have prayed that the privileges and immunities conferred on certain other sections of the Province with respect to the establishment of "Building Societies," be extended to the said District, and in view of the great advantages to be derived from the formation of similar Societies in the said District, by encouraging the inhabitants of the different localities thereof in the exercise of economy, frugality and temperance, it is expedient to extend the said privileges and immunities to the said District: Be it therefore enacted, 15 &c.

And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when and so soon as any twenty persons or upwards in any part of the District of Quebec shall have agreed to constitute 20 themselves a Building Society, and shall have signed and executed, under their respective hands and seals, a declaration of their wish and intention so to constitute themselves such Building Society, and shall have deposited 25 the same with the Clerk or Prothonotary of the Court of Queen's Bench of the said District, (who for receiving such deposit shall be entitled to receive a fee of two shillings and six-pence) such persons and such other persons as may afterwards be- 30 come members of such Society, and their several and respective heirs, executors, curators, administrators, successors, and assigns, shall be ordained, constituted and declared to be, and shall be a corporation, body corporate and politic, by such name and style as a Building Society, as by such declaration so deposited as aforesaid shall have been declared to be the name by which the persons so executing the same, desire such Society to be known, for the purpose of raising by monthly or other periodical subscriptions of the several members of the said Society, and in shares not exceeding the value of one hundred pounds for each share, (such subscriptions not to exceed twenty shillings per month for each share,) a stock or fund for the purpose of enabling each member thereof to receive out of the funds of the said Society the amount or value of his share or shares therein, to erect or purchase one or more dwelling house or houses, or other freehold or leasehold estate, to be secured by way of mortgage or otherwise to the said Society until the amount or value of his share or shares shall have been fully paid to the said Society, with the interest thereon, and with all fines or liabilities incurred in respect thereof; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the several members of such Society, from time to time, to assemble together, and to make, ordain and constitute such proper and wholesome Rules and Regulations for the government and guidance of the same, as the major part of the members thereof so assembled together shall deem meet, so as such Rules shall not be repugnant to the express provisions of this Act, or to the general laws of this Province or of any part thereof; and to impose and inflict such reasonable fines, penalties and forfeitures upon the several members of the said Society who shall offend against any such rules, as the majority of the members may think fit, to be respectively paid to such uses for the benefit of the said Society, as the said Society by such Rules shall direct; and also from time to time to amend and alter such rules as occasion may require, or annul or repeal the same, and to make new rules in lieu thereof, under such restrictions as are in this Act contained; Provided, that no member shall receive or be entitled to receive from the funds of such Society any interest or dividend by way of annual or other periodical profit upon any share or shares in the said

When twenty persons shall agree to constitute a Building Society, they shall be a Corporation for that purpose, after having complied with certain formalities.

 5 Society until the amount or value of his share or shares shall have been realised; except on the withdrawal of such member according to the rules of the said Society then in force.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and 10 may be lawful to and for every such Society to have and receive from any member or members, such sum or sums of money by way of Bonus on any share or shares, for the privilege of receiving the same in advance
 15 prior to the same being realized, besides interest for the share or shares so received or any part thereof, without being subject or liable on account thereof to any of the forfeitures or penalties imposed by any Act or 20 Acts of Parliament or by any Laws in force in Lower Canada relating to Usury.

Society may receive sum of money from any Member by way of bonus on any share without being subject to penalties inflicted by Usury Laws.

III. And be it enacted, That each such Society shall and may from time, to time, elect and appoint any number of the members of 25 the said Society to be a Board of Directors, (who shall choose a President and Vice-President,) the number and qualification thereof to be declared in the Rules of such Society; and shall and may delegate to such Directors
 30 all or any of the powers given by this Act to be executed; and such Directors being so elected and appointed shall continue to act for and during such time as shall be appointed by the Rules of such Society, the powers
 35 of such Directors being first declared in and by the said Rules; and in all cases where Directors shall be appointed for any particular purpose, the powers delegated to them shall be reduced to writing and entered in a 40 book by the Secretary or Clerk of the said Society; and a majority of the number of such Directors present at any meeting thereof shall at all times be necessary to concur in any act of such Directors; and they shall in Society to elect from time to time a Board of Directors.

all things delegated to them act for and in the name of such Society; and all acts and orders of such Directors, under the powers delegated to them, shall have the like force and effect as the acts and orders of such Society at any General Meeting thereof could or might have had in pursuance of this Act; 5
 Provided always, that the transactions of such Directors shall be entered in a book belonging to such Society, and shall from time to time and at all times be subject and liable to the review, allowance and disallowance of such Society, in such manner and form as such Society shall by their general Rules have directed and appointed, or shall in like 15 manner direct and appoint.

Rules to declare purposes for which Society is established, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That every such Society so established as aforesaid shall in or by one or more of their said Rules declare all and every the interests and purposes for 20 which such Society is intended to be established, and shall also in and by such Rules direct all and every the uses and purposes to which the money which shall from time to time be subscribed, paid or given to or for 25
 the use or benefit of the said Society, or which shall arise therefrom or in anywise shall belong to the said Society, shall be appropriated and applied, and in what shares or proportions and under what circumstances 30
 any member of such Society, or other person, shall or may become entitled to the same, or any part thereof: Provided that the application thereof shall not in anywise be repugnant to the uses, interests or purposes 35 of such Society or any of them to be declared as aforesaid; and all such Rules during the continuance of the same shall be complied with and enforced; and the moneys so subscribed, paid or given, or so arising to or for 40
 the use or benefit of the said Society or belonging thereto, shall not be diverted or misapplied either by the Treasurer or Directors, or any other officer or member of such Society entrusted therewith, under such penalty 45 or forfeiture as such Society shall by any Rule enforce and inflict for such offence.

V. And be it enacted, That the Rules for the management of every such Society shall be entered and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be open at all seasonable times for the inspection of the members of such Society, but nevertheless nothing contained herein shall extend to prevent any alteration in or amendment of any such Rules in the whole or in part, or making any new Rules for the management of such Society, in such manner as by the Rules of the said Society shall from time to time be provided.

Rules to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

VI. And be it enacted, That all Rules from time to time made and in force for the management of such Society and entered and recorded as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several members and officers of the said Society, and the several contributors thereto, and their representatives, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full notice thereof by such entry and record as aforesaid; and the entry of such Rules in the book or books of the said Society as aforesaid or a true copy of the same, examined with the original and proved to be a true copy, shall be received as evidence of such Rules respectively, in all cases: and no certiorari, suspension, advocacy, reduction or other legal process shall be brought or allowed to remove any such Rules into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

Rules to be binding on Members and Officers of Society.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Rule entered as aforesaid shall be altered, rescinded or repealed, unless at a General Meeting of the Members of such Society, convened by public notice written or printed, signed by the Secretary or President of the said Society in pursuance of a requisition for that purpose by not less than fifteen of the Members of such Society, which requisition tion shall state the objects for which the meeting is called, and shall be addressed to the President and Directors; whereupon each member shall be notified of the proposed alterations through the Post Office, 5 within fifteen days; such meeting to consist of not less than one-third of the shareholders, three-fourths of which meeting must concur in such alterations or repeal.

Rules to specify place of meeting.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Rules 10 of every such Society shall specify the place or places at which it is intended that the said Society shall hold its meetings, and shall contain provisions with respect to the powers and duties of the members at large, and 15 of such officers as may be appointed for the management of the affairs of the said Society.

Directors to appoint Officers of Society.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Directors of every such Society shall and may 20 from time to time at any of their usual meetings, elect and appoint such person or persons to be Officers of the said Society as they shall think proper, and grant such salaries and emoluments as they may deem fit, 25 and pay such necessary expenses attending the management of the said Society as may be incurred; and shall and may from time to time elect, when it shall be deemed necessary to carry into execution the purposes of 30 the said Society, for such space of time and or such purposes as shall be fixed and established by the Rules of the said Society; and may from time to time discharge such person or persons, and elect and appoint 35 others in the room of those who shall vacate or die or be so discharged; and all and every such officer or other person whatsoever who shall be appointed to any office in any wise touching or concerning the receipt, manage- 40 ment or expenditure of any sum of money collected for the purposes of the said Society, before he shall be admitted to take upon him the execution of any such office or trust; shall become bound in a bond in such form and for such amount as the Directors may determine, with two sufficient sureties, for the just and faithful execution of such office of trust, and for rendering a just and true account according to the Rules of the said Society; and in all matters lawful to pay obedience to the same.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall and 10 may be lawful for every such Society to take and hold any real estate, or securities thereon, bonâ fide mortgaged, assigned or hypothecated to the said Society, either to secure the payment of the shares subscribed for by 15 its members, or to secure the payment of any loans or advances made by, or debts due to such Society, and may also proceed on such mortgages, assignments or other securities, for the recovery of the moneys thereby 20 secured, either at law or in equity or otherwise, and that such Society shall have the power of investing in the names of the President and Treasurer for the time being, any surplus funds in the stocks of any of the 25 Chartered Banks or other public securities of the Province, and that all dividends, interest and proceeds arising therefrom shall be brought to account and applied to and for the use of the said Society according to the 30 Rules thereof.

Society may take and hold real estate, &c. mortgaged to Society, to secure payment of shares.

XI. And be it enacted, That if any person appointed to any office by such Society and being entrusted with and having in his hands or possession, by virtue of his said office, any 35 moneys or effects belonging to such Society, or any deeds or securities relating to the same, shall die or become bankrupt or insolvent, his heirs, executors, curators, administrators or assigns, or other person having a 40 legal right shall within fifteen days after demand made by the order of the Directors of such Society or the major part of them assembled at any meeting thereof, deliver over all things belonging to the said Society,
