The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

The study of Composition, in many of our schools, is too often neglected, or if taken up at all, is done in a very perfunctory manner.

One reason for this, and perhaps the main one is, that there has been in our schools, no practical text-book, that would lead the pupils to arrange their thoughts in a clear, concise and pure form.

Composition is one of the most important subjects in the school curriculum, yet all teachers acknowledge, that, except in rare instances, the work is performed in a very 'hap-hazard' way.

The object of this series of graded composition books is to so train the children in the use of the written language, that at the end of the course, they may be able to write intelligently, grammatically, and fluently on any subject within their knowledge.

The matter of letter-writing has been very fully treated, and this otherwise difficult subject will, it is hoped, no longer prove a 'bug'.

The work has been carefully graded, and nothing appears in it that has not been put to a practical test in the actual school work of its authors.

Part I. is designed for use in Part Second, Junior Second and Senior Second Classes, and is issued in connection with three corresponding exercise books.

Part II. is now in press, and is intended for classes from Junior Third to Public School Leaving inclusive.

Acknowledgments are hereby made for suggestions obtained from Public and Separate School Inspectors, Advanced Teachers, and Canadian and American books on Language.

In schools where Composition has not been systematically taught, teachers are strongly advised to begin at the beginning and cause their pupils to take the whole course. Each of the exercise books has been so arranged as to lead to its successor, and much better results will be obtained by making even the advanced classes take up the preparatory work.

CHAPTER VII.

PARAGRAPHING.

A paragraph is a part of a composition consisting of one or more sentences, and usually contains but one continued thought. All compositions that contain more than one continued thought should be divided into paragraphs. The following composition on coal contains four thoughts:—

- | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Where it is found. | 3. Its qualities. |
| 2. How it is distributed. | 4. Its uses. |

COAL.

Ex. 1. Men dig in mines for coal. Coal is useful to burn in coal stoves. Coal is black and hard. Coal mines are in England and in Nova Scotia and in the States. We cannot burn coal in every kind of stove. Coal is burned in engines on the railroad. Coal is put into cars and boats and sent to different cities, where it is sold and burned. Coal is used in blacksmith shops. Coal makes a very hot fire.

If we arrange this composition in thoughts of the same kind, it will read as follows:—

COAL.

Ex. 2. Men dig in mines for coal. There are coal mines in England, Nova Scotia and the United States.

After the coal is taken from the mines it is put on cars and boats, and sent to different countries, where it is sold.

SPECIMEN LETTER.

WINDSOR, Dec. 9th, 1895.

JAMES EDWARDS, ESQ.,
London, Ont.

DEAR FATHER,

Your letter came last night. We were all glad to hear from you, and hope you will soon come home. Uncle George called last night and took us all for a sleigh-ride. We enjoyed ourselves very much.

Your loving little girl,

NELLY.

Ex. 10. Write neatly the above letter.

NOTE TO TEACHER—In schools where vertical writing is taught, teachers will instruct their pupils to follow the same system in these exercises. The authors' experience is that this system is preferable to all others.

The Salutation.

The salutation is the form in which we address the person to whom we are writing. The common forms are:—Dear Sir, My Dear Sir, Dear Father, Dear Friend, My Dear George, Dear Aunt, etc., all depending on how well we know the person to whom we are writing. Notice carefully how the salutation is punctuated and where it is placed in the model.

Ex. 13. Begin a letter to your sister, writing the heading, address and salutation.

The Body of the Letter.

This part of the letter should contain the news you wish to send, and anything you think would be of interest to the person to whom you are writing.

The Complimentary Close.

This part of the letter is the polite or complimentary form of closing it, and takes many different forms as: Your loving cousin, Your sincere friend, Your affectionate son, Yours truly, etc.

The Signature.

Last but by no means least, a letter should contain the name of the writer very plainly written.

Ex. 14. Write a letter to your father, who is away from home, and tell him these things:—

1. His letter was received yesterday.
2. All at home are well, except Nelly, who has a cold.
3. How glad you will be when he comes home again.
4. The horse ran away but did no harm.
5. The hen that was lost came home to-day with ten chicks.

Write letters similar in style to the following, but do not use the same words and sentences.

GUELPH, Sept. 3rd, 1895.

MR. THOMAS J. WESTON,
Stratford, Ont.

DEAR COUSIN TOM,

School opened on Monday last, after the summer vacation. It was rather hard to get down to work again after such a long play-time. We had a great deal of fun in the holidays—fishing, boating and swimming. I am going to work hard this term, as my teacher says I stand a good chance to be promoted at Christmas. I hope next vacation you will be able to visit me, and we shall have a jolly time.

Your affectionate cousin,

NED.

MISS SUSIE BAKER,
Mitchell, Ont.

DEAR SISTER,

We were pleased to hear that you arrived at Mitchell safely on Monday night. Fanny Grant is spending a few days with us, and will go home next Tuesday. Aunt Kate says she will write you a letter in a few days. Our teacher is having us write letters in school now. I will tell you about the concert when I write again. We all send you our love.

Your loving brother,

FRED.

MISS KATE BRIGGS,
Peterborough, Ont.

DEAR TEACHER,

My mamma told me this evening that I had passed into the Second Book. She saw my name in the paper in our school report. I will go home, when school opens after holidays, and study hard. Mamma and I are visiting my cousin Fanny here.

Your loving pupil,

MARY BROWN.

MRS. JAMES BOYD,
Ingersoll, Ont.

DEAR AUNTIE,

Your kind letter inviting me to spend my summer holidays at your home was given to me by mamma to-day. I was very glad to get it, and I will be sure to go as mamma and papa say I may. I go to school every day and my teacher says I am doing well. You may look for me the day after school closes.

Your loving niece,
ETHEL WYNNE.

DEAR GRANDPAPA,

When I woke on New Year's morning and saw the pretty sleigh you had sent me for a New Year's gift, I was so pleased that I scarcely knew what to do. I tried it right away after breakfast and it runs very well. I thank you a thousand times, my dear grandpapa.

Your loving grandson,
GEORGE BAKER.

DEAR FATHER,

I thought you would be pleased to receive a letter from me. I go to school every day and I like it very much. We are now learning to write letters, and my first letter is to you. When are you coming home? Don't forget to bring me a new sled, as the sleighing is very good now. We are all well at home.

Your loving son,
ARTHUR.

DEAR CHARLIE,

My kind mamma has given me permission to have a party on my birth-day, which will be next Saturday. If you can come
 I shall be much pleased. We shall have games of many kinds and tea and cakes in a large tent on the lawn. Be sure to let me know if you are coming.

Your sincere friend,

HARRY SMITH.

DEAR FRIEND HARRY,

Your kind letter inviting me to your birth-day party on next Saturday was received this morning. I was much pleased to have it, and at once asked my parents if I could go. They have given me permission, so I shall be sure to be with you.

Your friend,

CHARLES EDWARDS.

MASTER HENRY SMITH,
Amherstburg, Ont.

DEAR FRIEND HARRY,

Your kind letter received. I am very sorry that I shall not be able to go to your birth-day party on next Saturday. I have been very sick for two weeks, and, although I am getting better every day, the doctor thinks it would not be well for me to go out for some time yet. I would like very much to be with you, and I hope you will have a jolly good time.

Your sincere friend,
CHARLES EDWARDS.

— FOR USE IN —

SENIOR SECOND BOOK CLASSES.

Containing the same material as the Text Book, from pages 58 to 88, inclusive, together with blank pages for writing out the Exercises and Examples.

PRICE, 10 CENTS.

These Exercise Books contain ruled paper of a superior quality, so that pupils may use pen and ink without difficulty.

Sufficient blank space has been left to enable pupils to write out the various Examples and Exercises, together with extra blank pages at the end for the Letters and longer Examples.

Pupils can thus secure, at the cost of an ordinary good Exercise Book, the Examples from the Text Book suitable for their own class work, as well as an Exercise Book in which to write them out, and Teachers will be saved the time and labor taken in dictating the Examples.

A Second Text Book on the same subject, designed for Third, Fourth, and Fifth Book Classes, with especial attention given to Entrance and Public School Leaving work, and to be known as "First Steps in Composition, Part II.," will be issued shortly. The chapters devoted to Business Forms and Correspondence will make this work particularly valuable to the pupils in the higher forms of the Public and Separate Schools and Junior forms of High Schools. Suitable exercise books will also be published in connection with the Second Text Book.
