

Brewster, Westbrook And Good Government For Both Brants

A GOVERNMENT THAT DOES THINGS

NO. 1—AGRICULTURE.

The two foundation facts with reference to the prosperity of Canada and Ontario are: (1) Agriculture and (2) the development of Dominion industries, and the employment of labor therein on behalf of the upbuilding of the home market.

First of all, of course, comes the tilling of the soil and the welfare and the progress of those engaged in this vitally important work.

What is the Whitney Government record in this essential? This is a fair question, and one which the Courier proposes to answer, taking, for comparison, the year 1904, the last year of Liberal rule in this Province, and the year 1914, giving the appropriations of a Conservative Government now going to the people.

Speaking in a general sense, the official figures stand thus: Appropriation for Agriculture, 1904 (Lib.).....$ 475,678 Appropriation for Agriculture, 1914 (Cons.).....1,252,152

Increase.....$ 776,454 (In other words, over 150 per cent.)

When he appealed to the people in 1911 Sir James Whitney asked authority to enter into an agreement with the Government of Canada, by which aid for carrying on agricultural instruction would be provided from the Federal Treasury. He succeeded, with this result:

Federal grant Agriculture, 1904 (Lib.).....Nothing Federal grant Agriculture, 1914 (Cons.).....$230,880

Another matter taken up by the Whitney Administration was the means of getting into closer touch with the farmer and disseminating personally the information gained at Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations. What has been the outcome?

District Representatives, 1904 (Lib. Gov.).....None District Representatives, 1914 (Cons. Gov.).....40

Ontario, under a Conservative Government, has the enviable reputation of leading in this class of work on this continent.

In connection with the above move there have been many important advantages, including a course of four or five weeks in the winter time, when the young men of the farm can more easily get away. Result:

Courses in 1904 (Lib. Gov.).....None Courses in 1914 (Cons. Gov.).....30 Attendance.....550

Still another move was to interest boys and girls, and a plan of school fairs was established. Result:

Number in 1904 (Lib. Gov.).....None Number in 1913 (Cons. Gov.).....69 Number expected 1914 (Cons. Gov.).....150

These are simply a few of the many illustrations which will be further given of what a Conservative Administration at Toronto has meant for the farmer.

A vote for Brewster or a vote for Westbrook is to say that you endorse what has been done and what it is proposed to still further accomplish.

CREW OBEYED THE CALL OF THE SHIP'S OFFICERS

Reason Why So Many of the Empress Sailors Were Saved—They Were All Britishers and Behaved as Such.

QUEBEC, June 2.—A strong word of protest was uttered last evening by Capt. Murray, harbormaster of Quebec, who for many years was commander of various C.P.R. vessels, and until her final fatal voyage was captain of the Empress of Ireland in the recent catastrophe. "I hear that there has been a lot of adverse criticism regard the number of the Ireland's crew saved," said Capt. Murray, "and I want to say a word for these good fellows. It is hard for a landsman to understand the exact circumstances, but there are standing orders that in any emergency, such as a collision, the crew must immediately hasten to their stations at all hands. My information is that the instant Capt. Kendall saw that collision was inevitable he gave the order to the second officer to call all hands to the boats. "This order was instantly obeyed, and that is why the men were saved. They rushed to the upper decks in an effort to launch the boats, and were tipped off into the sea when the Empress careened after the other vessel backed away. "The spirit of both officers and crew was shown by the work of the chief officer, Mr. Steele, who marched up in his pyjamas and started chopping the boats free. He was crushed to death by the fall of boxes hurtling down as the ship lurched. But before he was killed he got several boats cut loose, which later saved a number of people. "Captain Murray stated that there was a doubt many of the Ireland's crew got to their stations and were thrown into the water while trying to do their best to save the passengers. Mr. Jones, the first officer, and Mr. Fife, the third officer, were actually cutting the lifeboat grips clear with axes, when the final plunge came. Both went down with the ship, but later came up and were saved by the lifeboats they had released, which rescued many others.

Paris Bodies Arrive Home

PARIS, June 2.—The bodies of Mrs. Fred Blackhurst and Mrs. W. Jeffs, who were drowned in the recent marine disaster, arrived by the 10.15 train this morning. The funerals will take place to-morrow from the late church homes of the unfortunate victims. Mrs. Blackhurst's funeral will take place from St. James' church after service at 2 p.m., while the late Mrs. Jeffs' funeral will take place from the Baptist church after impressive services at 4 p.m. All that remains can be viewed at the churches where they now are by the relatives and friends from 6 to 8 p.m. to-day and from 10 to 12 noon to-morrow. "No further word of Paris identification have been received in this town. "The Great White Way. "The hydrant electric lights were turned on in Brook Lane for the first time on Saturday night, and the rest of the new lights that have been ordered will be put in this week.

Were All Britishers. "The Empress had just as she was ever stepped on a ship's deck," said Captain Murray. "They were

LAURENCE IRVING AND HIS WIFE (MABEL HACKNEY)

Mr. Laurence Irving, son of the late Sir Henry Irving, and his wife, known on the stage as Mabel Hackney, were among the victims of the disaster. Mr. Irving, who first gained fame in America as a member of his father's company, was well known to the theatregoers of both continents, but the comparisons naturally invited by reason of his relation to the famous English actor caused him to object strenuously to being billed in America as "the son of Henry Irving." He preferred to stand on his own merits as an actor. He was born in London forty-three years ago. His wife was at one time leading woman for Sir Henry Irving, succeeding Miss Ellen Terry.

GRIM SPECTACLE WHEN BODIES ARE VIEWED FOR IDENTIFICATION

More Than One Hundred Bodies Have Been Picked Out By Relatives at Quebec—Seventy-eight Are Still Unclaimed and Will Be Preserved as Long as Possible By the Authorities.

QUEBEC, June 2.—All day at the death house at the Louise basin the work of identifying the victims of the Empress of Ireland disaster went on. Despite the fact that exposure and heat had played havoc with many of the bodies, progress was made, and by six last evening it was announced that approximately 110 bodies had been identified, leaving 78 still unknown. During the day 38 bodies were removed from the temporary morgue and shipped to the relatives.

Every body in the morgue was embalmed during the day, 15 expert embalmers coming from Montreal yesterday morning, so that the grim work proceeded all day, the bodies being embalmed in sections of 20 at a time. The work was ended by sundown. All the bodies have been recently prepared for burial, while they have been removed from the heterogeneous collection of Rimouski coffins and placed in decent funeral receptacles. As long as there is any reasonable likelihood of immediate identification the 78 bodies left will be kept at the wharf until they will be taken to the warehouses at the city ceteries, where they will be held as long as possible pending identification or the eventual burial amongst the unknown victims of the sea. Amongst the bodies identified yesterday afternoon was that of Mr. Fred Rutherford, of Montreal, silk buyer for Ogilvie, whose body was recognized by Mr. A. J. Burroughs, of Nottingham, England.

It was reported that the body of Laurence Irving, the famous English actor, had been identified, but last evening it was stated that this was a mistake. The bodies of both Mr. and Mrs. Irving are among the unknown. The identification of the body of Sir Henry Seton Kerr was confirmed yesterday. He had been on a fishing and hunting trip, and was identified by an old friend, Mr. A. E. Howard, of London, England, who had come from Detroit for that purpose. The body was little distinguished, but the way of material identification could be discovered, except a small relief marked with his initials. "I am happy," said one official, "to know that the little tot will be buried in a plot that will receive loving care."

Five Claim One Body. "It is doubtful there were five persons claiming that the body of a baby was that of a relative. It is quite probable that bereaved relatives have picked bodies of persons who are not their relatives, and, consoled in the belief that they have the right body, have shipped it away for burial.

The officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway and of the Government, however, have refused to hand over the body of the baby to any one of the five claimants, and have insisted on a thorough proof of identification before yielding it.

The solicitous officials, who yesterday were inclined to accept the assertion of any relative as to the identification of a body, became more strict yesterday.

The most striking instance of the confusion came over the body that was claimed yesterday by Miss Tiria Townsend, of New Zealand, as that of her aunt, Mrs. H. Wynne Price, also of that island. The difficulty of identifying the body of that Mrs. Price, and a daughter of Mr. H. V. Meredith of Montreal. They positively identified the body of a little girl as that of Barbara Meredith Hepburn, 3-1/2 years of age, the daughter of Mrs. Meredith.

W. W. Stork, Brampton, Ontario, who came here looking for the body of his wife. He found a body which he felt almost certain was that of his wife, but examination of her rings showed that he was mistaken. Even then Mr. Stork was not certain, fearing that the rings might have been taken off and put on the wrong person.

Jewelry Had Been Removed. A good deal of difficulty was caused by the fact that jewelry had been removed from bodies, generally to preserve it, sometimes from more sinister motives—these taking away the only means of identification from the battered corpses. After lying for nearly 24 hours in a rough wooden box, the body of Mr. W. Leonard Palmer, editor of the London Financial News, yesterday was identified. At first it had been mistaken for that of Frank Hamilton, a Canadian Pacific Railway agent at St. John, N.B. Toward dusk a telegraph messenger hurried in with a message for Mr. Hamilton, calling his name in the usual way. A British bluejacket grimly pointed him to the open coffin marked Hamilton. The boy drew a scared breath, threw

Mr. Cullen's Search. There remained in the morgue last night three bodies of babies to which no names have been attached. F. H. Cullen of Toronto, who found the bodies of his two children, was again in the morgue, going from body to body and gazing at each in vain search for the corpse of his wife. Finally he went to Rimouski in the hope that the men patrolling the beach along the St. Lawrence might come across his wife.

Gyryk Zutsky, a Galician, tall and powerful, who lost a wife and two children in the wreck, found his children yesterday, but kept the bodies in the morgue waiting to get that he screwed the lids of the coffins of his two children and kissing them, burst into tears. He remained in the morgue until nightfall.

The body of Mrs. F. H. Hepburn, wife of a mining man at Vancouver, was identified yesterday afternoon by several fashionably dressed ladies. They stated that they could not be absolutely certain, but thought the body was that of Mrs. Hepburn, and a daughter of Mr. H. V. Meredith of Montreal. They positively identified the body of a little girl as that of Barbara Meredith Hepburn, 3-1/2 years of age, the daughter of Mrs. Meredith.

W. W. Stork, Brampton, Ontario, who came here looking for the body of his wife. BRANTFORD RELATIVES ARE SEARCHING IN VAIN

No Identification of Ones From This City Lost on the Empress Has Been Established—Relatives Will Remain in Quebec.

That only one Brantford body from the wreck of the Empress of Ireland has been identified, was all the news received to-day concerning the local side of the terrible disaster. The remains were those of Robert Laws, and they will be taken to Galt and interred under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Foresters there. Two Paris bodies have arrived home, but the little group of Brantford mourners now at Quebec have waited and searched in vain for their loved ones.

Hope is almost temporarily abandoned at the finding of any of the Brantford victims until the Empress is broken up. It is believed that within the ship itself are hundreds of those who met their death, and possibly most of the Brantford people. This was the message telegraphed last night to the Courier by Mr. W. E. Day. In the meantime general interest centres in the fixing of the responsibility for the disaster, and little groups of men can be found almost everywhere discussing the various phases of the disaster.

The City Council Resolution. A resolution of sympathy moved by Ald. Hollinrake and seconded by Ald. Ryerson was passed at the meeting of the City Council last night. It was as follows: "The City Council

BAND CONCERTS FOR THE SUMMER

City Council Handled Business in Expeditious Manner.

The city council enjoyed a short, sharp session last night, on which the curtain rung down at 9:30. The main feature of the session was the allotment of the contracts to the two regimental bands for band concerts during the summer. The Dragoons and the Dufferin bands again, have the summer program, half and half, just the same as last year, although there are one or two changes in the schedule of park concerts. While past years the council refused to agree, this year the council refused to disagree on the matter, and every section of the city will have some of the music provided for.

Ald. Ward submitted two reports of the board of works and both were adopted. The experiment of sprinkling oil on some of the city roadways will be carried out, although the oil will be bought and paid for to the extent of $700 by the Brantford Motor League.

Band Concerts. The buildings and grounds committee reported as follows:

"That we award contracts to the Dufferin Rifles and Dragoons bands at the same price as last year, namely, $225.50 for the Dragoons and $225.80 for the Dufferin Rifles, provided they furnish bands of 30 men each, consisting of capable musicians the said bands to play alternately in the following location, namely: 1. St. Andrew's park; 2. Terrace Hill; 3. Tule park; 4. Victoria park; 5. Alexandra park; 6. Jubilee Terrace; 7. Recreation park. The city to supply the chairs and stand but no light. As both bands are away we will have to arrange the dates on their return, if they accept our offer."

"That the coal and wood tender for the year for the central fire station, East ward fire station and the city hall and civic charity be given to the Wilson Coal Co., they being the lowest tender."

Ald. Pitcher said the only change in the schedule was a band concert for St. Andrew's Park. As regards the Salvation army band there were two concerts to come from that organization which were not given last year because of the illness of several members of that band following a visit to Niagara Falls.

Ald. Pitcher's committee report was adopted.

Ald. English wanted to know if the new sidewalk would be put down at the same grade as Dundas street was at the present time.

Ald. Ward could not go into details but promised the very best engineering.

Ald. English said grading the street up would be the best, otherwise the money on a new sidewalk would be thrown away. Dundas St. looked to be the only approach to Terrace Hill for heavy traffic, provided it was put in good condition. Now was the time to grade the street before it was all built up. The Hill could not get a street car service until Dundas street was graded up.

Ald. Hollinrake thoroughly agreed with the contention of Ald. English and urged Ald. Ward not to overlook the matter.

Board of Works. The board of works reported:

"That Robert Gillies be paid the sum of $75 for a strip of land having a frontage of 10 feet on Glenville Avenue, being composed of the southerly 5 feet of Lot 10 and the northerly 5 feet of Lot 10 on the western side of Glenville Avenue, the city requiring this land as an outlet for sanitary and storm sewers from Glenville Avenue, and the city solicitors be instructed to have the deeds prepared and executed."

"That the local improvement walk to be constructed on the northerly side of Dundas street between West and High streets be laid on the outside of the boulevard."

"That the city solicitors be instructed to prepare necessary by-law for payment to the Waterous Engine Works Company of the contract price of $2,000 for purchase of steam road roller."

"That the report of the city engineer of May 30th, recommending the widening of Chestnut Avenue between Spring St. and Kerr Avenue, as a local improvement be adopted, and the city solicitors be instructed to prepare the necessary by-law."

Another One. Ald. Ward had another Board of Works report which had been left over from the last meeting. It proposed: Fleet Street, sidewalk on outside of boulevard. Drinking fountain in front of T. A. Cowan's store provided it be removed at any time so ordered by the council.

removed the company did so at its own expense in striking contrast to the Western Counties Electric Company. The report was adopted. Ald. Ryerson thought a drinking fountain on the main street made it look like a country town. Mayor Spence thought it was a good thing to get everybody on the water wagon. Ald. Ryerson: "Well, I'm on the water wagon but I don't like the idea. We're big enough to put fountains up ourselves and they should be put up in the proper places." Ald. Calbeck and Mayor Spence favored the proposal and wished there were half a dozen more round the city. Notes of Meeting. J. M. Dyckman and others wanted sidewalk on Dundas Street on outside of boulevard. The petition was referred to the board of works, as was the petition of C. M. Grippion and others against the paving of Park Avenue. The Brant Dragon band offered to supply band concerts with thirty men at $1.25 per night each man, the conductor to receive $2.50. Mr. Corke, a member of the City Clerk's staff, acted in Major Leonard's place, the latter being away at Dragon camp, studying fortifications and camp diet. The offer of $100 of the Brantford Motor League for the purchase of oil for some of the main approaches to the city was accepted, and the city will spread the oil. Mr. George Heyd and other residents have offered to pay for oil on Dufferin Avenue if the city will spread it. The idea of the motor league is to educate Brantford that oil is the proper solution of the abatement of the dust nuisance. The motion was put through by Ald. Calbeck and Ward. Mayor Spence said that any inconvenience the board of works was put to was well worth while and it would be a money saver. The Mayor objected to the wording of the resolution, "that the work be done if it didn't seriously interfere with other work." The Mayor said he didn't like to see a weight attached BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. It is true that George Duncan's first and only effort in this direction ended in his flinging down the clubs and bolting at the turn.

Overcome by the monotony of the game, which "he did not understand."

But Vardon and Ray have both borne witness to the fact that the foundation of their game was laid in their caddie days.

Ray, indeed, thinks that the kind of practice he got among his fellow-caddies at Jersey was the best that a golfer could have.

Some of the strongest amateur players, too, learned their golf as clubbers.

We need only name two outstanding examples: Francis Ouimet! Charles Evans, jr.!

Everyone who is asked who is the finest amateur golfer in America names one or the other of those two.

Evans was a caddie in Chicago; the present American open champion was a caddie on the very course on which he won his greatest triumph.

McDermott, Brady, McNamara—all started as caddies.

All of which goes to prove that if you get the right sort of caddie you get the best kind of golfer.

GREAT GOLFERS ONCE CADDIES

List of Star Players Who Started Playing as Caddies on the Links.

In reference to the caddie question, this clever editorial from Ladies' Golf is well worth quoting. It begins:—

Here's to the caddies! We can't do without them, and we can't do without them.

So we have just got to make the best of them.

And don't let us forget that the best of them is something very good indeed.

With a few notable exceptions, the leading prospects all started golf as caddies.

The Latest Comment On Local Soccer Doings

Tutela, who head the league at the moment, dropped their first point of the season at Paris where the Frenchmen tied them to a one all draw.

Another team that is now slowly coming forward, is the Roses or Slows of England. They stand fifth on the list and by virtue of a victory over the Wanderers, gained two more points on Saturday.

Twice the hardy Scots have met the Holmedale Tigers and each time they have put the O. I. B. boys to rout.

The Wanderers, although they lost to the S.O.E. on Saturday, are spoken of as a better team than when they started.

Stewart plays an unselfish game and was free with his passes as usual. He is a valued member of the Holmedale crew.

There were some fine attendances on Saturday, 400 watching the Duffs and Cockshutt's and a big crowd saw the Wanderers defeated. In Paris, they had a record number of spectators.

Tom Mathias has made a good impression upon the Sons executive. Dudden displays ability in the Wanderers' citadel.

They have a good opinion of W. Hollands as a referee up in Gay Parade Hear that Tutela missed Fred Hingley on Saturday with his ever useful goalgetting propensities.

Cockshutt's will be crippled more now than ever with Bobby Richardson up the spout.

Barney Umacke is gradually recovering from his nasty accident. His football children have missed him.

Carey got a bad kick on the thigh last Saturday, but it is thought he will turn out next Saturday in the black and white.

Clark of the Duffs says he feels better now than he did after Saturdays game. He had a collision.

Vipond of the Scots, can send them across from the right and he was accountable for some of the Scots success against the Tigers.

Richardson has a strong kick and no one knows it better than the Tigers' goal-watcher.

Jack Morrow surprised himself when he missed a penalty for the Tigers on Saturday. This is the first in three years.

What You Don't Read On The Score Boards

Mr. Henri Gero, otherwise known as one of Brantford's best bats, managed to secure his fourth win in the Canadian League, 1914 season yesterday by a 7-4 margin. Although touched up for 11 hits, Gero apparently had much the best of the argument against Wilkinson, who, by the way, won seven straight for St. Thomas last fall without a break. The Red Sox garnered in 10 hits and showed the Saints how to play a good game of ball in the field.

OTTAWA BEAT LONDON AGAIN

League Race is Tightened Up as Result of Monday's Games.

OTTAWA, June 2.—With a score 4 to 1 against them, the Ottawas looked like a beaten team when they went to bat in the seventh inning in yesterday's game against the London team. London had knocked Kane out of the box, and Ottawa had not been able to rap out a solitary safety off Beebe. The crowd roared for a rally, however, and it came. Powers doubled, Dolan singled, and Fried drew his third pass of the day, filling the bases. Shocker breezed out, but Bullock's single scored Powers, and Mills' infield allowed Doan to register. Shaughnessy then doubled, scoring Fried and Nill, and putting his side ahead. Rogers duplicated his manager's liner, making it 6 to 4, and after Lage's two-base hit, which advanced him to third, Rogers stole home. He hugged the bag until the ball had left Linneborn's hands, Catcher Snyder having thrown it there to catch Lage, but Rogers darted for the plate with Linneborn's arm, and as the latter had thrown it to Pitcher Beebe, Lefty beat it home by several feet on one of the cleverest plays of the season. Five hits, a pass and an error had one all the damage, but Rogers' steal was the feature and the crowd went wild.

Shocker, who replaced Kane in the sixth, allowed only one hit. Reising took out Beebe in the seventh and pitched a good game. The match abounded in exciting plays, Rogers and Reising distinguishing themselves with brilliant catches. Two thousand people attended, and the Ottawa rally in the seventh sent the mall into hysterics. The victory places Ottawas within one game of London in the Canadian League race.

DOLAN WEAKENS AND ERIE WINS IN EVENT. ERIE, June 2.—After twirling one of the most remarkable games ever pitched in this city, Dolan weakened in the 11th inning yesterday, and Hamilton lost 4 to 3. Once the locals had the bases full with none out, but Dolan tightened and either forced the batters to fan or hit flies to the outfield. On three occasions he tightened and prevented the Yanks from scoring when Hamilton's chances to stem the tide seemed doomed. The score: Erie, 10; Hamilton, 100 001 01—4 14 1 Hamilton, 101 100 100 00—3 2 5 Moore and McNeill; Dolan and Haefner. Umpire—Walsh.

GALM HOLDS PETES, WHILE BEAVERS WIN. TORONTO, June 2.—After booting the ball all over the lot like a lot of corner lot artists and presenting the lowly Petes with three in the first inning, the Beavers came from behind and scored a 5 to 4 victory behind the masterful pitching of Galm, a new heater. Galm held the Petes hitless for five rounds and only allowed them five safeties throughout the afternoon. The Beavers showed across their runs with timely batting. The attendance was very poor.

CIRCUS SPECTACLE HAS GIGANTIC CAST

"Solomon and the Queen of Sheba" is this season's feature with Ringling Brothers circus. A gigantic wordless play enacted upon a stage bigger than that of a hundred ordinary theatres, it has been pronounced the most magnificent spectacle ever presented in America. It requires a cast of 1250 characters, a ballet of 300 dancing girls, and a caravan of camels. It depicts the glory of Solomon and the beauty of Balkis in a succession of scenes that picture the pomp and splendor of ancient Israel with strict regard for historical accuracy. This mammoth pantomime opens the regular circus program in the main tent and is part of the performance. It will be seen when Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows come here, Friday, June 12. Five trains are required to transport the wonders of Ringlingville, and one entire section is loaded with special scenery, costumes, accessories and electrical effects used in the Solomon and the Queen of Sheba production. There is a chorus of a thousand voices and 90 musicians augmented by a cathedral organ. The grand procession in which Solomon goes to the gates of Jerusalem to greet Sheba's queen is a pageant of grandeur—enlisting the entire cast of characters, almost 700 horses, elephants and correctly captioned desert camels. The costumes of the monarch's train and that of the visiting princess are a richness in keeping with the era portrayed. The thrones, vehicles, musical instruments, symbolical utensils, armor and trappings were designed after the exact styles of those used and worn 30 centuries ago.

I tried many tonics, but kept growing steadily worse, until I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. They gave me almost immediate relief. "My trouble started with a cold, and gradually grew worse. I had stiffness in my joints and cramps in my muscles and suffered from neuralgia. I had heart fluttering and headaches, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing and I was always tired and nervous. ALL IS READY FOR NIAGARA

Dufferin Rifles Held Last Parade of the Season Last Night.

The closing drill of the season was held last night in the armouries, when the 38th. paraded 378 strong. "A" Company led in numbers with parade roll of 57; "E" Company came next with 31 and "G" a "lusty growing child" beside its elders, shot up to 30. The bands were in strength with 32 in the brass and Sergt. Mellor's Buglers totalled 26. Being their last parade previous to going to camp next week, the night was devoted to out door training. The battalion was exercised throughout various parts of the city in out-post duties, the signallers held a practice on the terrace; and the stretcher bearers on the green. Under Bandmaster Johnson, the brass band played to quite an audience and gave an unexpected treat to the enthusiasts who congregated to admire and criticize our local soldiers. Sergt. Mellor marched the buglers round the Terrace and gave "Murphy the drumstick juggler" a workout which he seemed to enjoy. Their selections were heartily enjoyed by the juveniles to whom the technique and finesse of the brass instruments as yet does not appeal. Col. Howard and staff, moved throughout the parade, commencing criticizing and advising as the occasion warranted. After the corps re-assembled, they drew up in company column in the hall and were addressed on the arrangements for Niagara camp by Lt.-Col. Howard, who hopes for a record mobilization. The bugle band goes to camp this year and Pte. Murphy is promoted to Sergt. in order that the disciplinary experiences of the Dublin Fusiliers may be visited upon their young minds and elsewhere, if the impression is to be lasting.

There's a new bass drum coming from London, England (by special order) the one in use at the present being from the U. S. A. and it gives satisfaction when the "M. Leaf" is played.

The bugle band is not to be accompanied by parents or guardians of all such soothing things as feed bottles and comforters are to be omitted from their kits—(not in orders.) On Saturday morning the advance party will parade at the armouries at 7.30 and the main body on Monday morning at 8 o'clock, en route for five days 'rooty grub' and 'squint pushing.'

"F" company got two recruits—119 hour conversions and welcome nevertheless. Old soldiers take notice, there's two new guys to initiate into the arts and crafts—they'll be very much required when fatigue parties are made up. Extract from Kipling:— For we licks 'em, an' we kicks 'em. An' we knocks 'em into shape, Till one morning they awake in their full and proper kit— Jus' so.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

Visits were exchanged between the yacht and Hazel's relatives. Diners were arranged and trips into the surrounding country to entertain the visitors...

CHAPTER XV. The Wreck of the Lady Alice. "I CANNOT be mistaken," Jane continued. "Oh, Hazel, are you sure that he is dead? Can there be no mistake?"

"I am afraid not, my dear," answered Hazel sadly. "I wish I could think that you are mistaken, but now a hundred in this terrible ocean! It is unbelievable that that brave heart should have ceased to beat; that his mighty muscles are quiet and cold forever; that he who was the personification of life and health and manly strength should be the prey of slimy, crawling things; that..."

"What do you mean, Jane?" cried Hazel, now thoroughly alarmed. "Who do you think it is?"

"The first officer, who searched his luggage, found nothing to identify John Caldwell of London. He said that he had been born in Africa and educated in France."

"Yes, that would be true," murmured Jane Porter dully. "The first officer, who searched his luggage, found nothing to identify John Caldwell of London. He said that he had been born in Africa and educated in France."

"The first of the week, I think," she replied. "Indeed?" exclaimed Mr. Thurman. "I am very fortunate. I too have heard that I must return at once, and now I shall have the honor of accompanying and serving you."

"That is nice of you, Mr. Thurman," replied Mrs. Strong. "I am sure that we shall be glad to place ourselves under your protection." But in the bottom of her heart was the wish that they might escape him. Why, she could not have told.

"By Jove!" ejaculated Lord Tennington a moment later. "Bully idea, by Jove!"

"Yes, Tennington, of course," ventured Clayton. "It must be a bully idea if you had it, but what is it?"

"It is to take Mrs. Strong and Miss Strong, and Thurman, too, if he'll come, as far as England with us on the yacht. Now, isn't that a corker? And we'll sail the first of the week, or any other time that suits your convenience, Mrs. Strong."

"And so it was settled that they should sail the following Monday. Two days out the girls were sitting in Hazel's cabin looking at some prints she had had finished in Cape Town. They represented all the pictures she had taken since she had left America."

"And here," said Hazel suddenly, "here's a man you know. Poor fellow, I have so often intended asking you about him, but I never have been able to think of it when we were together. She was holding the little print so that Jane did not see the face of the man it portrayed."

"His name was John Caldwell," continued Hazel. "Do you recall him? He said that he met you in America. He is an Englishman."

"I do not recollect the name," replied Jane. "Let me see the picture."

"The poor fellow was lost overboard four times when the coast," she said as she handed the print to Jane. "Lost over— Why, Hazel, Hazel— don't tell me that he is dead—drowned!"

"The poor fellow was lost overboard at sea!" And before the astonished Miss Strong could catch her, Jane Porter slipped to the floor in a swoon. After Hazel had restored her from unconsciousness she sat looking at her for a long time before either spoke. "I did not know, Jane," said Hazel in a constrained voice, "that you knew Mr. Caldwell so intimately that his death should prove such a shock to you."

THE COLLIER STORSTAD RAMMING THE EMPRESS OF IRELAND--DRAWN TO ILLUSTRATE OFFICIAL DESCRIPTION OF THE DISASTER.

Mrs. Andersen Tells Of Efforts at Rescue

(By Special Wire to The Courier) MONTREAL, June 2.—"Captain Anderson told me," said Mrs. Andersen to-day, "that he was trying to keep the Storstad in the hole, and that if the other liner had not been speeding they would have stopped together for a time at least. My husband ordered two of the officers to go to the bow and see if any water was pouring in. "Again I asked him if we were going down, and he answered, "I can not tell yet," and said he thought the Empress all right. I think it was five minutes later I heard screams and cries. I shouted to my husband, "Oh they are calling." At first it seemed as if it was coming from shore. The captain gave orders to go in the direction of the cries and proceeded very slowly. Everywhere around me I could now hear screams. My husband gave orders to send out all the lifeboats, and that could not have been ten minutes after the vessels had collided.

"I gave all I had to the passengers and have only what I am standing up in. My husband gave two suits and other clothes away. "The first lady to come on board was a Salvation Army girl clad only in her nightdress and a pair of corsets. When she was brought into the cabin, she ran to me, and putting her arms around my neck, said: "God bless you angel, if you had not been here we would have gone to the bottom." After the passengers were all on board, Mrs. Andersen ministered to them. In one arm she carried two bottles of whiskey, and a bottle of benedict, while in the other she had carried an urn of coffee, milk and sugar. One of the stewards, a Swede, helped Mrs. Andersen. All the rooms were packed with shivering passengers, clad only in scanty night attire in many cases. So helpless were the majority of those rescued that she was forced to pull the clothes off the women and put others on.

SCENE ON BOARD EMPRESS OF IRELAND JUST BEFORE DISASTER.

Above is shown one of the Salvation Army leaders preaching to emigrants on board the Empress of Ireland just before the ill fated vessel was lost. There were many members of the army on board that went down with the vessel. One of the members, Commissioner David Rees, stood on the deck of the doomed vessel trying to persuade the passengers to keep cool and lend a helping hand to many. When the ship was almost under water one of his men shouted to him to jump for his life. He replied he would stand by his wife and children, and sank with the words, "O God, Thy will be done," on his lips.

EAST INDIANS

Hold Mammoth Meeting of Protest in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 2.—That the Maharajahs of two of the most important Indian provinces be requested to call on the viceroy of India to demand in turn that he shall appeal to the Imperial government and to the government of Canada to secure entry for the Hindus aboard the Komagata Maru now in this port, was one of the resolutions passed at a monster meeting of East Indians when large subscriptions were made by Vancouver Hindus for their brethren on board the steamer. A threat was added that much unrest would be fermented in India if the Komagata Maru party was not allowed to land. The situation has become rather aggravated in the eyes of the Hindus, because 640 Chinese arrived on the Empress of Russia Saturday and were admitted on payment of a five hundred dollar head tax. Boards of inquiry in individual cases of Hindus convened to-day and will probably last all week.
