THE NORMAL SCHOOL

Five Carleton County Students Are Affected A DOCTOR COMPLAINS Says Better Sanitary Conditions Should be Provided or School Sh ould be Moved from Fredericton--Board of Education Meeting.

FREDERICTON, Dec. 7 (Special)--Lieut. Gov. Governor Snowball presided at a meeting of the Board of Education yesterday afternoon and a large amount of business was transacted.

The report of the Interprovincial committee on Acadia readers was presented by Dr. Inch and adopted. The chief superintendent also reported on his recent visit to the Consolidated School at Riverside. He said the building was about completed and nearly equipped, and price reports were very bright for a successful school.

The following members were granted certificates of application for school garden work, on recommendation of Prof. John Brittain--Lease, Draper, R. Sahabrook, Woodstock; H. F. Perkins, Maryland; J. A. McAdam, Andover; G. J. Trueman, Riverside.

A communication was read from Mr. W. Anden, principal of Upper Canada College, asking co-operation of the educational department to extend the free library to educational supplies. It was referred to the chief superintendent to take such action as he deemed expedient.

The chief superintendent reported on the activities of the Normal School. He stated that the Normal School, five had already been started in the county. He stated that the Normal School from Fredericton. Dr. Inch was authorized to inquire into the matter and to report to the board.

THE EXAMINATION OF DR. PRESTON AND HOWARD CAMP TO COMMENCE TOMORROW

The real interest in the case of Dr. Preston, who is charged with using means with intent to commit an abortion, and that of Howard D. Camp, charged with concealing means used with intent to commit the same criminal offence, will practically begin tomorrow morning when the preliminary examination will commence in the police court before Magistrate Ritchie.

Dr. A. W. Macrie will be in attendance in the interests of Camp, and Scott Morrill and B. L. Gerow will defend. Therefore it has been the custom for the solicitor-general to avail the introduction of criminal cases into the higher court, but tomorrow the crown's case will be conducted in the inferior court by solicitor-general Jones.

The anticonvulsant statement of Edith Clark which, according to the evidence secured was signed by her, was when read at the inquest last night, a matter of surprise to the general public, as Howard D. Camp was the only person mentioned in the body of the note; and it also stated by what means she had attempted herself to effect a cure of her trouble, and that she had been unsuccessful in the attempt. The coroner, however, stated that she could not possibly succeed, and that the operation had been performed by some skilled practitioner.

SAKHAROFF ORDERED KNOUT FOR PEASANTS, BUT BULLET FOUND HIM

Awful Cruelties Practiced by Russian General Who Was Assassinated by Terrorists Yesterday--Telegraphers Still Out--Russian Refugees Tell Terrible Tales.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 6 (morning) via Edytshkha, East Prussia, Dec. 7.--The news of the assassination of Lieut. General Sakhharoff, former minister of war, who was shot three times and instantly killed in the governor's palace, at Saratof, in Southeast Russia, on Monday last, had been preceded by the most horrible stories of the manner in which Sakhharoff had been repressing the agrarian disorders. He coaxed peasants with Cosacks and had them beaten with the soldiers' switches. So doing Sakhharoff pursued the system adopted by Prince John Obolensky, former Government-General of Finland, in suppressing the agrarian in the vicinity of Kharkoff seven years ago.

He has never returned. After a year of complete rest, for the greater part of the time in the south of France, his health was greatly improved. Then, with his wife and daughter, he took up his residence in Paris. Nearly two months ago his health began to fall again, and since the last of October he has been steadily losing ground. He is believed to be suffering from an affection of the heart.

LAURIER TO BERNHARDT

Premier Expresses His Regret at Behavior of That Quebec Mob.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (Special)--Sir Wilfrid Laurier has received the following telegram from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who is in Quebec-- Quebec, Dec. 7, 1905. Madam Sarah Bernhardt, Ottawa, Ont.: I regret, madame, more than I can say, the acts of violence of which you and your company were the victims on the 1st inst. I only learned on my arrival here yesterday what had taken place the night before, and I express to you the universal regret and sympathy which are felt for the misadventure of a city so remarkably known for its peaceful hospitality and order. As to what was said by L'Espresso in your press, I have seen it in a newspaper which for me does not concern me.

THE DRAG NET OUT County Authorities After Suburban Resorts for Violating Liquor Laws.

This afternoon in G. R. Vincent's office five county liquor cases will come up. Information has been sworn out against "Jon Dillon," Emma Madgwick, "Minnie Eaton," and Mrs. Melvin, who keep road houses in the county by selling liquor without licenses. John the Greek, who resides at Spruce Lake, is also charged with the same offence. The liquor authorities usually visit these resorts once a year, and as a result of this year's visit the foregoing persons have been reported.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

A. D. Wetmore, of Truro, is in the city. Miss Bertha Barck, who has been on a visit to St. Andrew, returned to her city last night and will remain here until after Christmas, when she will return to California. Senator Domville returned from Ottawa today. Judge McLeod came from Fredericton today. Judge Barker arrived in the city at noon.

A. J. Hazen returned from Fredericton at noon today. H. M. Hopper of the St. John Railway Co. left on Tuesday for a trip to Detroit. Harold B. Robinson left for Montreal on Tuesday evening last.

The city engineer wants piling driven along Union street, Carleton, and also along the Rodney wharf, Union street. It appears, wants to join the strip of harbor front presented by the City to the C. P. R. by the wharf toward the Beacon, and it is felt that the C. P. R. has got enough city property already. The creek on the part of Union street, which has always been a steady going thoroughfare, is giving the aldermen a lot of worry, for they say it is liable to decompose in the night and take all its belongings. With regard to Rodney wharf, a careful examination shows that it also has developed wandering proclivities, and may not even wait to be half-sunk before proceeding on its travels. Therefore the city engineer recommends that both the wharf and the wharf be put under bonds. The board of works at once considered the matter, and the treasury board will prepare the bonds. The treasury board is acting on bond.

Either Es-President McCurdy or McCull, of the big insurance company, will be asked to come to St. John and act as an advisor of the city council. The civic debt is growing so rapidly that some help along the half a million home to be needed to devote his whole time to it.

He Deprecates Sordid Motives Actuating Men IN ENTERING POLITICS

SEATTLE, Wa., Dec. 7--Amundsen, the first man in history to travel the northern passage from east to west, is still at Fort Egbert, Alaska, waiting for an answer to the message he sent Monday night to Nansen in Christiania.

From the fact that Amundsen and his expedition are in winter quarters near the mouth of the McKemie River, his object, which he made public before leaving Christiania, in May, 1903, has been fulfilled.

NOT SOLVED YET Identity of Man Found Drowned is Still Unknown.

The identity of the victim of Saturday's fatality at Liberty's lumber pond is still unknown. Many think he is Joseph White, of Chatham.

Several persons called at Chamberlain's undertaking rooms this morning and viewed the remains, among them being two young men who knew Joseph White in Prince Edward Island, and both are sure that the body is that of White.

A telegram was sent to Mrs. Jimmo, a sister of White, this morning, asking her to identify the body, and any other particulars she may be able to furnish.

At one o'clock this afternoon no answer had been received. The young man mentioned several names, among them being Joseph White, of Chatham, and seemed to think Mr. Newcombe had employed him. It has also been learned that the body was found in the vicinity of Torrington. He was again seen by Mr. Newcombe on Friday last.

Henry Gilbert, of Rodney, who purchased a ticket for a stranger, was to have returned to the city this morning to view the remains, but at 2:15 this afternoon he had not seen the body and no reply had been received from Mrs. Jimmo as far as could be ascertained.

Funerals The funeral of Arthur Daniel took place at 2:30 this afternoon. Rev. Canon Richardson conducted a burial service in Trinity church, and interment was in Fernhill.

The funeral of Mrs. John Williamson took place this afternoon from her late residence, Victoria street. Rev. R. P. McKim officiated, and interment was in Cedar Hill.

The body of Mrs. Mary Jane Johnston was laid to rest in Fernhill this afternoon. A large number of floral tributes were sent, which showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Johnston was held.

OBITUARY Gordon Neilson Word reached the city this morning of the death at Montreal of Gordon Neilson, the sixteen year old son of Matthew Neilson, formerly manager of the St. John Railway Company. TRYING TO OUST McCALL FROM THE CONTROL OF THE NEW YORK LIFE

NEW YORK, Dec. 7--Carance H. Venner applied to Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum yesterday for a mandamus directing John A. McCall as president of the New York Life, to furnish him with a complete list of the policy holders, their addresses and the amounts of their policies. Venner also wants leave, as a policy holder himself, to inspect the company's books.

The object of Venner's move is to obtain proxies to be used at the election of trustees next April. His counsel, George H. Yeaman, submitted to the court a statement embodying some of the disclosures at the insurance investigation, and declaring that there exists sufficient information among the policy holders to warrant the election of new trustees and other officers. Without a list of the policy holders, said Mr. Yeaman, it would be impossible to organize a movement to displace the present management.

John G. Millburn, representing Mr. McCall, opposed the application strenuously and submitted an affidavit by McCall, in which Venner's motives are attacked. McCall in his affidavit says that the name and address of a policy holder are considered confidential matters in an insurance office, and that if a list were given to Venner, he might use it to the company's disadvantage and his own personal profit.

Regarding the insurance revelations, McCall denies that the campaign contributions testified to were given for political reasons. He says they were given to help safeguard the interests of policy holders and in accordance with McCall's usual policy. He says that there is an action pending to test the legality of the payments, and should the courts decide adversely to his contention he will refund the money from his own pocket.

McCall adds that the insurance investigation is a one-sided affair, and that the disaffection among policy holders is gradually dwindling. Justice Greenbaum reserved decision.

CORONER'S JURY NAMES DR. PRESTON IN ITS VERDICT

Says Edith Clark Died of Blood Poisoning Following an Operation Performed by Him—Howard D. Camp a Party to the Transaction.

The inquest into the death of Edith F. Clark was concluded last night before Dr. D. E. Berryman, coroner, and the jury after being out one hour and thirty-five minutes returned a verdict that death was the result of an operation performed by Dr. E. A. Preston.

The preliminary examination of the prisoner will be begun in the police court tomorrow morning.

The verdict was hardly unexpected and, as the jury in the close court room was listening, Coroner Berryman, who presided, in charge of Marshall Doughtan, filed to a private apartment and one the coroner was summoned that he might be consulted. At 10:20 o'clock the jury returned.

It required more than an hour in which to reach a decision. At 8:45 o'clock the jury, in charge of Marshall Doughtan, filed to a private apartment and one the coroner was summoned that he might be consulted. At 10:20 o'clock the jury returned.

The pressure from beyond the entrance into the hall was so great that the crowd pressed against the table where sat the lawyers and newspaper representatives.

A little before the appearance of the jury a few clergymen entered and though chairs under such circumstances were more of a luxury than necessity, the ministers were almost instantly accommodated.

The verdict, written on foolscap and in possession of Foreman Chase, Danery, was handed by him to Coroner Berryman, who, in a dead silence, minutely perused the document. They stood by.

St. John, N. B., Dec. 6, 1905.

We, the jury empaneled to inquire into the case of the late Edith Clark, do find that she died on Nov. 22nd, 1905, at her home No. 82 Adelaide Street (N. B.), the result of blood poisoning caused by an abortion, which was performed by Dr. E. A. Preston, at the residence of the deceased, at 10:20 o'clock on Monday, Nov. 21st, 1905.

That 200 people had assembled about the door as early as 7 o'clock. The united efforts of Sgt. Caples and Policeman Boyes were unable to keep back the throng, and some of the witnesses were compelled to climb through a window, above the door, in order to get in.

Dr. J. H. Scammell, recalled, was the first witness. After speaking of what the operation Dr. Roberts and myself might be placed in an awkward position."

Scott E. Morrill, counsel for Dr. Preston, arose at this juncture.

"I submit," said he in part "that evidence of this nature is not evidence for the jury. The coroner has no right to reject any prejudice whatsoever that I am conducting it according to the law. I am not exceeding my duty in the performance of it."

"I am willing to allow any court to treat me fairly," said Mr. Morrill. He requested the coroner to be permitted to read the testimony.

"I don't think that hearsay evidence should be allowed to be read out here," said he. "I might also say that I have no right in this court unless the coroner asks me."

"You have no right to say anything at this stage," remarked Coroner Berryman. Mrs. Roberts' Clerk was recalled. "I know as a rule," she said, "when Edith left the house and when she would return, I distinctly remember when Dr. Roberts was first called to attend her. That was Wednesday, November 15. On Monday, the 13th, Howard Camp called about 7:30 in the evening. At that time he did not see my step-daughter. She was in bed. He left a small parcel for her. The parcel contained a small bottle of medicine, and a note in an envelope."

"A day or so later," said she, "I found the bottle. The words were, 'I think thirty drops to be taken in water when needed.'"

"A bottle was there produced, and the witness said it resembled the bottle brought by Camp."

"I remember," went on the witness, "that on Tuesday morning, Edith felt better. She was not out of the house on Monday or Tuesday, but on the previous Saturday evening she was out. I don't remember if she was accompanied."

Dr. Scammell again took the stand.

"I had a conversation with Miss Clark, and what she told me I put into writing. It was signed by her."

The witness was about to produce the document when Mr. Morrill made an objection concerning it.

"If we anticipated everything that happened," observed Coroner Berryman, "we would be extremely wise in our day and generation."

"I submit to the court," remarked Mr. Morrill, "that that note should have been placed in the hands of the solicitor general."

"Well, it's in my hands just now," replied the coroner.

There was further feeling, until the coroner requested Mr. Morrill to resume his seat and give to him the privilege of defining his position.

"This court was opened on Monday evening last," said Coroner Berryman, in part, "and four or five legal gentlemen were sitting at that table. Not one of them intimated to the court that he was present in the interests of Dr. Preston."

"I sat here on Monday night," said Mr. Morrill, "and I do not remember hearing from the coroner the question as to whether or not I was representing anyone. I am sorry I have said what I have said."

A. W. MacRae here arose and informed the coroner that when he and his colleague, J. A. Sinclair, were present Monday night no reason was seen for acquainting the court with the fact that they were present in the interests of Mr. Camp.

The note produced by Dr. Scammell had previous to this been given to Mr. Morrill and Mr. MacRae, both of whom read it. Subsequently Dr. Scammell read the document to the court. The date was November 19.

Her relations with Howard Camp were told of and that she attempted unsuccessfully to bring about an abortion. This was signed by her in the presence of Drs. Scammell and Roberts.

"This statement," Dr. Scammell remarked, "I received the morning previous to the operation. I then went out and wrote what she had told me and conversed with Dr. Roberts. My object in having her sign the note was that in the event of her death Dr. Roberts and myself be cleared."

Dr. Roberts was recalled. "I was present," he said, "when Edith Clark signed the paper and heard her admit that it was correct."

At this point Mr. Morrill again objected to the evidence.

From W. Tremaine Gard.

I have just completed my purchase of HOLIDAY GOODS for this season, and assure my friends and would-be customers that never before in my 23 years of business in this city have I ever had such a complete line of first class, reliable, up-to-date stock of WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY, Silverware, Opera and Field Glasses, Manture and Toilet Sets, and such articles, as I have now on hand to show them; while my DIAMONDS and other precious gems in Rings, Brooches and Pins, are incomparable in quality with what is generally found in jewelry stores, and the prices are much below the quotations of the catalogue sent here from other cities. Call and see them and be convinced before purchasing elsewhere.

Quebec, Dec. 6.—(Special)—It took forty Quebec policemen to protect Madame Sarah Bernhardt from being mobbed as she was about to take her departure from Quebec last night.

their departure by a public demonstration against the actress at her departure. In the meantime the police authorities received information of the impending trouble and a force was called out to protect Madame Bernhardt.

Madame Bernhardt was cheered when she left the auditorium and drove towards the C. P. R. station but she was pelted with stale eggs at several points along the line.

The police refused to allow the mob to enter the station and the trouble took place on the outside.

Win. Craig, aged 14 years, of Waterloo street, came very near meeting a water-gate by slipping on Lily lake yesterday afternoon. RIVAL CITIES OF ALBERTA
The Respective Advantages of Calgary and Edmonton—Railways Chief Factors—Both Cities Will Become Important Distribution Centres—Edmonton Will in the End Draw From a Larger Productive Territory.

(Special Cor. Toronto Globe.) CALGARY, Nov. 25.—Will Calgary be greater than Edmonton? This is a question discussed not only in the city but on the trains. The place at the present time is several thousand inhabitants ahead of the northern city. It is developing into a most important wholesale centre. It is the home of a large number of commercial travellers, a sign that it is a point of trade distribution. Not long ago a circle of the United Commercial Travellers Association was organized here, with one hundred members on the charter list.

Lacombe branches of the C.P.R. will also serve the great country east on the C.N.R. midway to Winnipeg. Unless Saskatoon supplants it in a portion of this country, West of Edmonton, and also north there is a bright future, and the Peace River country is as productive as we are told, it will soon be settled and the Alberta capital will benefit. I imagine eastern people have slight idea of the good many miles on all sides of that city the country is as well settled as the most fertile section of Ontario.

Edmonton, to my mind, has a bigger section to serve than Calgary. At present there are only three wholesale houses there, but others are preparing to locate in the spring. Edmonton in a few years will be the distributing centre for that portion of Alberta running south of Red Deer and east along the Wetaskiwin and

MARINE NOTES
Business steamer Gulf of Annapolis sailed from Liverpool yesterday for this port via Halifax.

It is expected that 10,000,000 bushels of grain will be shipped from Portland, Me., during the winter. The year's output of 2,000,000 bushels was placed in commission last year.

The ship W. F. Babcock is now on route from San Francisco to Philadelphia with a kind crew shipped around Cape Horn. She carries a ton for freight and it is reported that it is to load and discharge here.
