Another American Sent to Bottom By German Submarine

New York Steamship Leanlaw, From Russia to Belfast With Cargo of Flax, Torpedoed

London, July 26.—2.46 p.m.—The American steamship Leanlaw, from Archangel, July 4 for Belfast with a cargo of flax, was sunk yesterday by a German submarine off the northwest coast of Scotland. The crew were brought into Kirkwall in their own boats. The Leanlaw was torpedoed on July 25. The steamer left New York May 17, with cotton consigned to Russia by way of Gothenburg. The vessel was retained at Kirkwall while enquiries were made as to the possibility of getting her cargo to Russia, as Sweden forbids the export of cotton. The ship was released on June 26 with permission to proceed to Archangel where the cotton was discharged and a cargo of flax was loaded for Belfast. No details of the torpedoing have been received beyond a message stating that the crew have been safely landed. They notified the American consul at Dundee of the sinking of the vessel. The Leanlaw was owned by the Harby Steamship Company of New York. She was formerly called the Erswell. She was 280 feet long and of 1,974 gross tons. The British steamship Grangewood, 3,422 gross tons, from Archangel, Russia, for Havre, has been torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. The crew landed today at Lerwick, Scotland.

GERMANS MAY DELAY REPLY

Watch U. S. Attitude Towards Great Britain

THAT WILL INFLUENCE THEM

London Papers Do Not See Application of Part of Wilson Note Referring to Last Two Months in German Submarine Warfare

Berlin, July 26.—There is every indication that considerable time will elapse before the German government makes any attempt to answer the American note. Should the United States protest to Great Britain in regard to restrictions placed upon shipping, which it is reported there is now being formulated, it is considered possible that the German reply would not be brusque. In the meantime the United States intends to force Great Britain to abandon the policy Germany considers illegal of condemnation of the United States is universal. However, has not been abandoned, however, that the United States may intend to retaliate vigorously. Great Britain's methods of controlling the sea. Until this point becomes clear in Berlin, foreign offices probably will mark time. London Comment

French Destroy an Austrian Submarine and Aeroplane Base In The Adriatic Sea

Evidently Fleet Operating With the Italians—Latter do Good Work on Land and in Air

Toulon, France, July 26.—The new French destroyer Le Bison has demolished the Austrian submarine and aeroplane depot on Lagosta Island (the southernmost of the Dalmatian group in the Adriatic Sea). The French loss was only one man killed. Lieut. Commander Le Sort has been highly commended for his brilliant exploit. It seems to have slipped the Germans, who were to have attacked the French front in the Adriatic. This despatch indicates that the French navy is co-operating with the Italian against Austria in the Adriatic. Russia Playing Her Part

Petrograd, June 26.—Hamilton Frye cables the Daily Mail.—There is little excitement at Warsaw, and the people are fairly confident. The city is entirely under military control. The most important fighting is still occurring between the Vistula and the Bug, where General Mackensen is trying to break through, while the Russian are offering a magnificent resistance. Two days ago, it seems to have slipped the Germans, who were pressing toward Lublin. The Germans were reinforced, however, and returned. When the attack again, last night they were within a few miles of the town, so that eventually the Russian front may be along the Lublin Chosin Railway. There is a feeling at Petrograd that in facing great odds, the Russians are considering the interests of France and Great Britain in preference to their own. It would allow the enemy to transfer large forces to the west to break through to Calais and possibly to Paris. Overcome Gas Mines

London, July 26.—The Russians have developed an effective method of meeting German attacks with poisonous gas. They dig a shallow gutter some distance in front of their positions, filling it with moss. When scouts report a gas attack being prepared, the Russians pour a considerable quantity of petroleum into this gutter and set fire to the moss. When the gas cloud begins to appear, the flames rise quickly and the effect is to change entirely the air currents and disperse the gas, carrying the gas cloud above the troops. Italians Continue to do Well

Rome, July 26.—An official Italian report says: "On the afternoon of July 26, two of our airplanes flew over Riva, in the Austrian Tyrol, and dropped incendiary bombs on the railway station, with excellent results. The enemy's artillery fired on the machines but without effect. In the Carnia on the night of the 24th."

AMERICAN RED CROSS, SHORT OF FUNDS, IS TO GIVE UP WORK IN WAR

Two Units To Be Kept In Belgium But Million and Half Fund Will Have Been Exhausted By October 1

Washington, July 26.—Decision of the American Red Cross to withdraw, on October 1, its doctors and nurses from the European battle field, was being discussed today by officers of the society, who expressed regret at the necessity for the action. Lack of funds is given as the reason by Miss Mabel T. Boardman, chairman of the Red Cross relief committee. She announced that on the date mentioned the general fund, aggregating $1,560,000, will have been exhausted. Of the sixteen units, all will return to the United States with the possible exception of the two in Belgium, where there is the greatest need. The Serbian sanitary commission and other work supported by special contributions will be continued so long as funds are available.

BOARD OF TRADE MEN MEET THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS

Matter of Transcontinental and St. John To be Taken up Later With Mr. Gutelius

The minister of railways, Hon. Frank Cochrane, accompanied by several prominent railway and government officials, was in the city this morning for two hours and a half. He arrived at 8:30 o'clock, made a hurried trip of inspection of the properties of the government roads and left at 11 a.m. for Fredericton, accompanied by the members of his party traveling in a special train and to private cars. Besides Mr. Cochrane there were Hon. W. H. Hearst, premier of Ontario; Sir Henry Dayton, chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, and P. P. Gutzwiller, general manager of the government railways. This party has been making a trip of inspection over the government lines from Montreal, through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. During their brief stay this morning, they visited the piers at the Ballantyne railway station at Newcastle, to the north of Mont Facon.

WOUNDED MONCTON OFFICER HOME

Lieutenant Tingley and Eleven Officers and 23 Privates ALL WANT TO GO BACK

Ready for Firing Line When They Recover—He Was Wounded in Leg and Arm in the Battle of Ypres

Moncton, N. B., July 26.—A. J. Tingley, I. C. R. special agent, Moncton yesterday received from his son, Lieut. Frank H. a telegram stating he had reached Quebec and would be in Moncton this afternoon. Lieutenant Tingley has had many exciting experiences since resigning as engineer in the Dominion public works department, St. John to go to the front. He was in the battle of Ypres. Quebec, July 26.—The officers are all determined to get back to the firing line. Lieutenant Tingley of Moncton was the second artillery brigade eighth battery and was wounded severely at the battle of Ypres in the leg, leg and right arm. "Our infantry dashed forward in splendid style, regardless of the fire directed against them, while we plugged away as steadily as possible. It was night and day work and without any chance to let up. The battle started on April 22, and raged until May 5, when we were relieved and got a chance to rest. It must be admitted that the Germans are good soldiers, well trained and efficient."

Twelve Canadian officers and twenty-three privates and non-commissioned officers, reached Quebec yesterday on the steamer Misanable. The men are to be discharged as having done their "bit" well and truly, but all the officers of the party have returned on sick leave, though the condition of some of them would indicate that it will be some time before they are again fit for service. "The officers are Captain Gordon, Captain C. W. Holl, 2nd Battalion; Lieut. R. L. Dennison, 8th; Lieut. F. H. Dingley, 2nd artillery; Capt. Hastings 10th Battalion; Lieut. Rogers, 1st; Lieut. W. N. Nicholson, Ammunition Park; Lieut. McCormack, 4th; Lieut. A. R. Fortin, C. A. S. Co.; Lieut. J. S. Reid, 10th; Capt. S. J. Anderson, 8th; Lieut. Gendron, 14th Canadian Engineers. "We must get back," was the statement these men made, "officers are needed at the front, particularly those with experience."

TO MEET TODAY. The assessment commission recently appointed by the city council will meet this afternoon. It is possible that at this meeting a chairman will be selected and a date named for opening the sittings of the board.

ST. JOHN HAS SENT $49,000 TO BELGIANS

Mayor Forwarded $2,500 to London Today

Letter of Thanks Comes From A. Shirley Benn, M. P., Who Formerly Lived in This City

The total cash forwarded from New Brunswick through the office of Mayor Frink for the Belgian Relief Fund now is upwards of $49,000. The last donation forwarded was that of $2,500 sent by His Worship to the Belgian Ambassador in London today. Acknowledgments to the fund today were several sums aggregating $31 from Bristol, Carlisle county, N. B., made up as follows:—J. J. Hay, ward, through whom the money was forwarded, $10; C. R. Lechart, $10; H. W. Annett, $5; S. N. Banks and E. Carvey, $2 each; and I. Rogers and A. Giberson, $2 each. Many old friends in this city will be interested in a letter received by the mayor this morning in connection with this work of Belgian Relief. It came from London, Eng., and was sent by A. Shirley Benn, M. P. It was in acknowledgement of $4,885.50 sent forward by the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E., some time ago, and in it he expressed his pleasure at again being put in touch with St. John especially in such a manner as this. He spoke of his many happy years spent here, and referred to his recollection of many old friends, besides expressing thanks and appreciation for the sum received. Mr. Benn was formerly engaged in the lumber business here with the Gray Bevan Company, and is well remembered.

COLLECTED TWENTY-NINE RAZORS. In response to the appeal of Emerson & Fisher for old razors to be put in condition and sent to the soldiers, George I. Versey has collected twenty-nine at Norton and Apohaqui and turned them in this morning, and has the promise of more.

THEFT FROM MOTOR BOATS. A miserable act of sneak-thievery was committed late on Saturday night, or early on Sunday morning, apparently by some people in a motor boat or boats, at Spaworth Park, when power craft material valued at more than $50 was stolen from some launches lying off shore. Four motor launches had been left about three o'clock at the park, and from three of them, those owned by John Burley, Wm. Spence and H. P. Robertson, spark coils and batteries were torn away. Not only the owners of the boats, but other residents of this summer resort were indignant at the work. Besides the monetary loss, much inconvenience was caused through the taking of the batteries and coils.

BURIED ON SUNDAY. The funeral of William Elmer Young took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence, 194 Guilford street. Rev. W. H. Sampson officiated at burial services and interment took place in Cedar Hill. Many beautiful floral tributes were received, testifying to the esteem in which he was held.

ANNIVERSARY OF WAR. Local women interested in patriotic endeavor, called upon Mayor Frink this morning with respect to the matter of observing August 4, the anniversary of Great Britain's entrance into the war. Nothing definite was dealt with, as work is being awaited from Lieut.-Governor Wood.

NO WORD YET. No further word has been received by Mayor Frink from Premier Clark with respect to the suggestion of New Brunswick providing an aeroplane for service with the allies.

BETTER TODAY. William Hanley is recovering. His condition today is said to be considerably improved.

ABOUT THE SAME. Harold A. Lyman, hurt in an automobile accident recently at Remford, is still unconscious. He is reported as being about the same as on Saturday.

COME FROM DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE

Gifts of Machine Guns From New Brunswick Pleas Man

(Special Correspondence) Valcartier Camp, Quebec, July 23.—Some time ago the 55th Battalion was offered the gift of band instruments by the Daughters of the Empire, through Mrs. E. A. Smith. This equipment had been delayed for sometime, but today it has arrived, and from henceforth the music will enjoy all the charm that band music can give. Several of the instruments will probably assist the Saturday parade service and, besides, a large choir of voices. There is a great interest in the gift of the offers of machine guns coming from New Brunswick. In this life and death struggle there are few things which so conserve the safety of a soldier's life like these guns, and it is hoped the battalion may be fully equipped. Colonel Meighen spoke to the officers of the 55th today on modern warfare. Some of the companies are undergoing the second treatment of inoculation for typhoid. Last night the camp entertainment committee, of which Brigadier McLair is chairman, met at brigade headquarters. Major E. C. Weyman and Capt. H. E. Thomas were representatives from the 55th. It is planned to have field sports on each Saturday afternoon. Major W. J. Osborne is camp field officer of the day. Lieut. A. L. Philips is subaltern, and Lieut. H. S. Murray, rationer. Capt. MacNaughton, paymaster, has arrived in camp from Sussex, where he remained after the departure of the troops. The wife of Capt. G. H. Campbell is staying in Valcartier village. Some of the companies are settling down to regular target practice.

MACHINE GUN CAMPAIGN HERE MARKED SUCCESS

The complete list of machine gun contributions secured by G. S. Mayes and Frank B. Ellis in their rapid canvass of business men was as follows: To contribute price of one gun each: G. S. Mayes, Joseph Allison, J. H. Ross, T. H. Estabrook Co., James F. Robertson, W. Malcolm Mackay, F. R. Sayre, John G. Estabrook, F. P. Starr, Emerson & Fisher. Those contributing half the price of a gun: David Dawson, E. A. Goodwin, G. C. Estabrook, G. A. Kimball, J. H. Kimball, Chas. McDonald. Mr. Mayes said this morning that they expected one or two gentlemen with whom they had talked to contribute the price of a gun, and several others half the price. He was confident that twenty guns or more would be secured, as he understood the Ellis and St. George's Society were moving in the matter. He and Mr. Ellis desired to thank the business men of the city for the generous reception given their appeal, and ask that those who have given pledges send their checks to Mayor Frink, by whom the amount will be sent forward. Mayor Hickey, Geo. Watt and A. E. Taylor of Chatham are receiving subscriptions for a machine gun for the Chatham platoon of the 55th. They have collected over $500. The Reed Company, with places of business in Moncton and Campbellton, have donated a Lewis Machine gun at a cost of $1,000 to the 55th Battalion. Springfield, N. S., expects to contribute two machine guns. The Amherst News says it is suggested that the Orange Lodges unite and provide a machine gun. Keith Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of Moncton have voted $50 toward a machine gun.

AVIATOR SAVES BRITISH TROOP SHIP

Paris, July 26.—The way in which a German submarine heading for a British transport laden with troops and ammunition, was put to flight by an allied aeroplane is described by the Sedulir correspondent of the Matin. An aviator saw the underwater boat preparing to launch a torpedo and gave the alarm. Pending the arrival of destroyers, he dropped bombs at the submarine. Although none of the missiles took effect, they forced the submarine to plunge deeper. Soon afterwards the periscope reappeared and the aviator dropped two more bombs. The submarine then made off and did not reappear.

The only proviso is that the balloons must be destroyed while in the air. To contribute price of one gun each: G. S. Mayes, Joseph Allison, J. H. Ross, T. H. Estabrook Co., James F. Robertson, W. Malcolm Mackay, F. R. Sayre, John G. Estabrook, F. P. Starr, Emerson & Fisher. Those contributing half the price of a gun: David Dawson, E. A. Goodwin, G. C. Estabrook, G. A. Kimball, J. H. SEEKING PLACE WHERE LIES BLAME FOR LOSS OF THOUSAND LIVES

Investigation of Chicago Picnic Steamer Disaster Begun—Many Try For Vacancies Left by Dead

Chicago, July 26.—Federal and state authorities today took up the task of fixing the responsibility for the overturning of the steamer Eastland at her dock in the Chicago river on Saturday, in which approximately 1,000 of 2,408 excursionists aboard were drowned. Examination of the members of the crew was started. Evidence also was sought to show whether the vessel was properly constructed.

The delegate urges the Pope to use his influence to prevent massacres and to suggest that the Christians be instructed in Acts Minor that they may thus escape death which otherwise will be inevitable.

The Pope has appealed to Emperor Wilhelm and to Emperor Francis Joseph whom he will hold responsible unless the threatened massacres are averted.

THEIR BABY WAS IN THE BASKET

An Incident That Attracted Attention in the Train Shed

A new method of infant locomotion was introduced in the I. C. R. train shed this morning on the arrival of the Boston train. So far as the comfort of the child was concerned the method is worthy of adoption, but for fathers and mothers—well—perhaps they will not feel that way about it.

Much attention was attracted at the vestibule of one of the cars when the Boston express pulled in. The porter was perspiring and several passengers eager to lend assistance had their coats off. They were delicately manoeuvring to get a large and beautifully dressed basket out of the vestibule. They wouldn't get it on end, nor on its side, so it was decided that there was something mysterious about it, and people hung around to find out.

When eventually the burden was placed on the floor of the train, a woman lifted up the basket in her two hands and carried it away before the train started. The basket was decorated with the same color of silk. The people were well-to-do Americans from Massachusetts.

KILLED IN ACTION

Sergt. Major Galloway Had Recovered From Labasse Wounds—News of Local Soldiers

It is now reported that Sergt. Major Alex Galloway did not die of wounds which he sustained at Labasse early in June. He recovered from those wounds, returned to the front and was killed in action while fighting with the 4th Battalion, his original unit. He was given a soldier's funeral within sound of the guns, and it was a fitting end for him. He had been born a soldier. Twenty-six years ago in Stanley Barracks he first saw the light of day. His father was a soldier at the time. When the lad grew to manhood he followed in his father's footsteps and served for nine years himself in the R. C. R.

LOCAL NEWS

THE MACHINE GUNS

Mr. Mayes called upon Mayor Frank this morning and requested him to attend to the matter of providing machine guns in which he has acted during the last seven days. Mr. Mayes will be out of the city for some time. His worship consented, although so doing will greatly add to his activities aside from those of his civic office.

Come to the People's Dry Goods Store for bargains, 14 Charlotte street.—Basson.

There's no "if" or "ands" about our sale. It's simply a money saver to pick up money.—Woods' Cash Stores, 248-249 Union street.

A BOAT DISAPPEARS

Some river pirate who knew a good thing when he saw it, appears to have carried off George Poole's boat from shore at Public Landing Saturday night. Boat and oars were gone early Saturday evening, but were gone on Sunday. It was a small boat and a good one.

First annual sale now on at 14 Charlotte street.

THE MATTER OF GRANTS

Some of the local societies to whom grants were apportioned in the re-considered estimates some months ago by the city council, are now applying for the money. In some cases a detailed statement of expenditures has not been given, but attention is drawn to the regulation demanding an exact accounting of all moneys expended before any payment is made.

You're not! Hundreds have got their bargains, so come along, it's your turn! The People's Dry Goods Store, 14 Charlotte street.

In Ludlow street Baptist church, West End, tonight, a distinguished medical missionary, the Rev. J. C. Spencer, M.D., will relate his experience among the Hynds, and J. Simpson, Indian, Northern British Columbia, Special music. You are invited.

Bing! Bang! Smash! That's the way prices are being cut out of commission by our first annual sale at 14 Charlotte street.

FOR THE RED CROSS

A garden party at the home of Mrs. Francombe, at Oak Point, on Saturday evening, in aid of the Red Cross, proved a very enjoyable affair, and the sum of $40 was raised for the fund. There was an interesting programme by the Girls' Club of East St. John.

HAVE A SON AND HEIR

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker of Public Landing are rejoicing over the safe arrival this morning of a baby boy, whose weight is nine and a half pounds, and whose name will be Ernest Albert DuVernet Parker.

If advance sale is any indication, Bert McAllister is going to get a rousing welcome tonight at the Opera House. There is a crowd of good seats left, but it would be well to make application early in order to secure desirable locations.

Disappointed are you? Well why don't you get your dinners at the Grand Ocean Cafe, Mill street.

IMPERIAL'S SPLENDID OPENING BILL

"The Way of the Transgressor" is a three-act play by the popular playwright, the usual high Vitagraph standard. The cast includes Leo Delaney, Leah Baird and other well known stars. It is a drama of New York business life giving some interesting sidelights.

The Animated Weekly contains much of the European war and leading events of the week. The comedies are of Lubin vintage, two very funny ones indeed. Zomler, the comedian, is in a brilliant form, but some side-splitting clowning.

On Wednesday Margaret Clark presented that of "Wildflower," in Mary Gorman's story of that name.

BISHOP OF LONDON IN RINGING APPEAL

London, July 26—The Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Ingham, Bishop of London, last evening contended a huge open-air meeting on the steps of St. Paul's for the arms of Great Britain. Some 8,000 terms, but on this occasion it is a body. Twenty thousand persons were present. The bishop said in part:

"The fulfilment of Britain will free the world again. No calamity could be more useful to contemplate than at this supreme crisis in the history of the world if Britain should fail."

The call which was addressed to the nation for military service is the greatest call that could be addressed to any nation.

"We are fighting for the freedom of the home, the liberties of the world and international honor."

"Christ upon the cross was opposed to the revival of the pagan doctrine that 'might is right.' The church calls upon the nation to say that no sacrifice matters if we win."

Hurt His Feelings

Lytway, the butcher had been very busy for a few moments with a well known dictionary. Suddenly he closed it with a snap and glowered at his wife in the cash desk.

A GOOD STORY WILL BEAR OFF REPEATING

THE STORY OF TODAY is one intensely interesting to wise home furnishers. It's the story of big values in every kind of Furniture for lesser outlay than you would be asked in many other places.

Hustling and planning never ceases here. As fast as one benefit is found and given to our customers another is looked for—that's what brings a continual flow of pleasing results to you and us. We want your trade, be it large or small. Just as soon sell you one small piece of furniture as a houseful, if that's all you need. It's a simple but good story and "A GOOD STORY WILL BEAR OFF REPEATING"

Fortified Tires That Protect In 5 Ways Against Trouble

Fine rubber, staunch fabric and good workmanship are not enough to protect a tire from trouble. Many makes besides Goodyears have those things. But Goodyear Tires alone are fortified in five costly ways against the worst attacks that a tire encounters.

So they have proved out best in countless tests when run with rival tires on opposite wheels.

For your own sake please note these five exclusive defenses—

Fortified Against Rim-Cutting by our Cut feature, that best combats rim-cuts. Millions of tires have proved that.

Fortified Against Blowouts Air cure, that saves so many blowouts due, in rival tires, to wrinkled fabric.

Fortified Against Loose Treads by our Rivets, formed in each tire. They reduce loose tread risk 60 per cent.

Fortified Against Insecurity by our 126 piano wires, vulcanized in each tire base. They make the tire secure.

THE NATIONS CALL

"What we have, we'll hold." "Britons, guard your own."

Under the oaks at Crystal Beach yesterday, the oaks that are emblematic of British hearts, Rev. Dr. Campbell commenced to more than a thousand people these two mottoes, in this supreme hour of trial for the British Empire.

It was fitting that at the annual Sunday service of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club, quite a number of whose members have enlisted, the preacher should deliver an eloquent appeal for recruits, and for the enlistment of every man and woman, young and old, for some form of patriotic service while the war lasts, making the successful prosecution of the war the great task of all the people, each in its own capacity proving their devotion, and proving themselves worthy of the splendid men who have gone to give up their lives that the nation may live.

Dr. Campbell set forth very clearly in his brilliant address the righteousness of Britain's cause, the peril that threatens the world, and the duty that confronts every British subject at this time. He laid special emphasis upon the importance of the part the overseas states of the Empire must play in giving aid to the Mother Country, and warned his hearers that the end is still far off, and that further sacrifice is needed, and that further sacrifice is needed, and that further sacrifice is needed.

The turning over of an excursion steamer at her dock in Chicago Saturday cost a thousand lives. Apparently she was overcrowded. If so, somebody should be held to strict accountability.

Suppose we grant that Mr. E. S. Carter is a terrible fellow—as the Standard asserts—does that justify a hold-up of the liquor dealers for a large amount of money when they were afraid the government might put them out of business?

The Montreal Herald says in reply to criticism of Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "The Liberal leader is always at the disposal of his country, and we believe it is true to say he has made more recruiting speeches since the war began than any of the present ministers of the crown."

The Chatham World, Conservative, says:—"The evidence that is wormed out of unwilling witnesses by Commissioner Chandler shows that a very large percentage of the bridge appropriation for Gloucester county was stolen by the men in charge of the work. And yet the Standard says there is nothing in the charges, that the accused are innocent, and that nothing has been shown except some irregularity in the keeping of accounts."

Referring to the present labor troubles in Europe and America, the Bangor Commercial says:—"While the exigencies of the situation will certainly operate to make strikes in Wales or in Essex of very brief duration the situation in this country is different. Employees of the Remington Arms and Ammunition Company at Bridgeport have threatened to strike. The Bridgeport machinists apparently believe that their employers, now turning out vast quantities of war supplies and with large contracts, will yield to their demands for increased wages rather than witness the works shut down for lack of men. There are some, however, who see other influences at work at Bridgeport. The manager of the Remington works ascribes the attitude of the men to foreign influence while Samuel Gompers asserts his belief that German influences are behind recent plots unearched to destroy munition plants in this country."

ARE THEY AFRAID? The Standard this morning calls upon Mr. E. S. Carter to make a direct charge against some member of the government or of the legislature in connection with the hold-up of the brewers and wholesale and retail liquor dealers for a large amount of money at the time the question of the future status of these licenses of a provincial department was hanging in the balance.

If the Standard speaks for the government, the latter is not willing to have the matter investigated by Commissioner Chandler. And yet it is a clear case for the commissioner. The liquor dealers are licensees of the government. If, while questions seriously affecting their interests were being considered by the government, they were called upon and did contribute a very large amount of money, the case is somewhat similar to that of the lumber operators who were invited to make large contributions when the question of timber leases was being considered at Fredericton. We all know what happened when that matter was investigated by a royal commission. We also know how difficult it is to get at all the facts in such cases. Mr. Carter is prepared to prove that at the time the government was considering the question of the liquor traffic in this province, and when it was publicly stated on the authority of a member of the government that prohibition was being considered, the brewers and wholesale and retail liquor dealers were asked to contribute a fund entirely too large for the requirements of counsel acting in their behalf. They did not give the money cheerfully and of their own motion. Who collected that money? What was it for? Who finally got it?

Under ordinary circumstances if the liquor dealers decide to enrich somebody at their own expense it is nobody's business; but if, when the fate of the liquor business is being decided by a government, pressure is brought to bear upon them to contribute a large fund, and produce the money quickly, the people have a right to know why that money was raised and who got it.

Whatever advice the Standard may give him, Premier Clarke will make a very grave mistake if he refuses the enquiry. He professed a desire to enquire into every transaction which reflected upon the administration of the department. He should therefore have to show why this large fund was dragged out of the liquor dealers at such a time, and what became of it.

Mr. Carter says he can deliver the goods at a properly instituted enquiry. If Commissioner Chandler thinks he has not sufficient power, it can easily be given him. Is the government afraid? It believes Mr. Carter is, as the Standard politely observes, "a public liar," it has the opportunity to put him to the test. What is it afraid? To refuse an enquiry would be an admission that it fears an enquiry.

IN MANITOBA

Of political conditions in Manitoba, Canadian Finance says: "Manitoba has had enough gang rule." Referring to the new platform adopted by the Conservatives in that province it says: "The platform of the two parties being so much alike, it more than ever behooves the electors on both sides to nominate and support men of proved integrity and independence. Above all, let there be exercised for all time that spirit of Howdenism which condones in political life what would not for a moment be tolerated in decent business or social circles. Recent revelations have shown that party habits are so strong and machine ruts so deep that men of apparent good intentions allow themselves to follow lines of least resistance, to their own and their province's later chagrin. However desirable may seem the end sought, even if from the public's viewpoint, it can never justify behind-scenes methods or the secret manipulations of any cabal. Public affairs are the public's affairs. The public itself too often forgets this essential principle of democracy."

The Italians are making steady progress against the Austrians. The Russians are still holding Warsaw.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Irene and Helen, two little sisters went to visit their grandmother in the country. It was their first visit away from the city and they were surprised and delighted at everything. They were especially interested in the chickens and loved to hunt for the newly laid eggs.

Their grandmother cautioned the children never to take away the nest eggs. Their strife to see who could find most eggs was great. One morning Irene reached a nest first. Seizing the forbidden egg she started for the house.

"No, grandmother!" shouted Helen, hurrying after her sister. "Irene's got the egg the old hen measures by!"

"Dear me!" exclaimed the absent-minded old lady. "I do wish you would get me a pair of them, John."

"Ask for a menu, Jack."

"One menu only?" he said. "One menu for four? No, no; I'll do the thing well now I've started it. Here, waiter four menus—fresh ones, mind, and see that they're not overdone."

WAR CLOSES A GERMAN BANK 250 YEARS OLD Frankfurt, Germany, July 8—(Correspondence)—The engulfment of smaller financial houses in the great banking consolidations of Germany, for several years the dominant feature of German high finance, has just claimed as a sacrifice the private banking firm of Goll & Sons, one of the oldest in South Germany. The firm, which was founded in 1664, and looks back upon an unbroken history of 250 years, has been absorbed by the Mitteldtsche Credit Bank of Berlin, and will hereafter be conducted as a branch of that big Berlin joint-stock bank. The war has borne more heavily upon the private banks than upon the great joint-stock institutions, and has thus encouraged amalgamation. The company has also purchased a second plant in Worcester and in business circles is reported to be negotiating for a third plant. The contract for the shrapnel is said to have been obtained through a New York banking company. The plant purchased here will be ready by Nov. 1. INLAND EMPIRE TIMBER. FATHER SHOTS SON DEAD; KILLS HIMSELF

James Francis and His 24 Year Old Son, of Oliville, Victims in Tragedy

In a fit of violent insanity, James Francis, an aged resident of Oliville, about nine miles west of Welsford, shot and killed his son Fred while he slept in bed early on Saturday morning, and two hours later he committed suicide with the same weapon.

No one witnessed the tragedy and the two shots were not heard. Two daughters, Mrs. George Patterson and Miss Anne, who were sleeping in the upper part of the house, awoke long after their usual hour of arising. It had been the custom of their brother to call them. When they found that their room doors were barred they were in terror. They battered down the door and rushed downstairs to the rooms occupied by their father and brother. Fred was dead with a shot through his head and the father had committed suicide as was shown by the position of the gun. It was supposed between his knees and a little stick rested against the trigger. It was a double barreled shot gun.

Dr. A. A. Levin and Coroner Malcolm Mackenzie were summoned from Welsford. The coroner decided that no inquest was necessary. The bodies were buried this afternoon.

The elder man was seventy years old. For the last seven or eight months, since the death of his wife, his mind had been affected but never until Saturday morning did he become violent. Recently he decided over his farm to his son and this, it is said, worried him. The younger man was to have been married in September to Miss Ada Charlton, a resident of Welsford and at present employed with Charles Venetouls, Prince William street.

Seven daughters and six sons survive. Mrs. St. Clair McKel, Cold Brook, is one of the daughters.

Harold W. Rising's Paper To National Credit Men

THE MARITIME PROVINCES

A Careful and Comprehensive Review of Conditions—Trade Normal in the East—The Matter of Uniform Commercial Laws

The July number of the Credit Men's Journal includes the following paper, read at the meeting of the National Council of the Canadian Credit Men's Association in Winnipeg in June, by Harold W. Rising, Waterbury & Rising, Limited. Mr. Rising was one of the delegates to the national council meeting. His paper follows:—

When approached as to making the journey to Winnipeg to attend this national council meeting, I hardly felt, on account of my being probably the youngest member of the board of governors, and of my short business experience, that I was the proper party to touch on the matter I have to deal with. However, I may say that, situated as I am, I have been in touch with conditions to some extent, and I think that the maritime provinces are on a sounder basis today than probably any other part of Canada. There is a feeling of business confidence in these provinces that augurs well for greater prosperity and progress when the war drums have been furled, and the battle flags have been furled. It has been demonstrated that the business of the maritime provinces has been conducted on a sane and healthy basis, probably on account of never having been subjected to the boom element which is so prominent in western cities. While there are serious dislocations in some sections, generally those who have been most successful in agriculture is the basic industry.

It has been shown that our great basic industry, agriculture, is on a sure foundation, and wisely guided. The matter of lifting up these provinces by the sea to greater heights than they ever dreamed of last year business conditions in New Brunswick reached the enormous figure of 9,875,270 bushels. The yield in oats was 5,986,892 bushels. While the future of agriculture is most encouraging, and while it contains great possibilities, it is not without its difficulties. The old avenues of traffic continue open, thanks to the British navy, and the Canadian navy is being opened up after the present European struggle is over.

It is estimated that at the present time 128,000,000 feet of timber is floated down the St. John river yearly, to be manufactured into lumber and pulp. This is entirely aside from the immense quantities of lumber that are cut in the northern part of New Brunswick, or on the St. Croix river. The various kinds of soft wood are spruce, fir, pine, cedar, hemlock, hemlock, and poplar, while in hardwoods there are birch, beech, maple and ash. The total value of lumber shipments from St. John alone to the United States annually amount to about $1,000,000. Canadian exports are very optimistic as to the future, and they have good reason to be. A wise conservation of this great natural resource is very necessary, and doubtless this will be insisted upon more emphatically in the future. Nova Scotia is better off than New Brunswick for this industry, and larger fish concerns are located in Halifax. New Brunswick, however, ships large quantities of both lobsters and sardines abroad. The best markets for the lobster trade were France, Germany, and which of course are now out of owing to the war. The large sardine factories along the United States coast effect our sardine trade with that country, as there is a heavy duty to overcome, therefore the Canadian factories find it practically impossible to compete in price with the sardine concerns on the other side of the line.

Fishing Industry Neglected.

With respect to other phases of business in St. John, the past year may be said to have reached a high stage of advance in so far as harbor development is concerned. In the language of the war correspondent, "trench" has been taken, and the "forward movement" continues. Last winter the grain exports from St. John were valued at $7,118,800, and there is a promise that if steamers can be secured this winter the export of grain will be even larger. During last winter a very important traffic was carried on in the shipping of remounts and continental supplies. The general business of the city has been reported on the whole as very satisfactory to the various business houses, all of which goes to show that St. John is sustaining the good name that Vice-

President Bosworth of the C.P.R. recently gave it, "The Premier Waterport of Canada on the Atlantic Seaboard." The total trade for 1914-1915 of the two big maritime shipping ports, Halifax and St. John, was $80,946,152. St. John's share being $25,965,848. In Halifax the $1,500,000 pier, known as "New Pier No. 2" is practically completed, but in order to accommodate the increased amount of shipping it has been in use the greater part of the past winter, and the record of shipping for the port shows an increase of thirty-two ocean-going steamers during the close of navigation in the St. Lawrence. The new ocean-going terminals in Halifax are progressing favorably, and contracts aggregating $5,000,000 have already been awarded. Plans are now completed for a $1,000,000 union passenger station on this site. Building activity has never been greater in history than during the last year in both St. John and Halifax.

Made in Canada in the Maritimes.

The "Made-in-Canada" campaign which has been conducted in bearing good fruit in order to its credit the Board of Trade at St. John recently sent out two enquiries to business men as follows:—

"Do you find evidence of improvement in the business situation?"

"Is the 'Made-in-Canada' movement having a beneficial effect?"

The replies received indicate that business in this locality has not been affected to any great extent since the war broke out, and that the "Made-in-Canada" propaganda is catching beneficially.

A wholesale grocery firm, which is also engaged in spice manufacturing, replied in the following terms:—

"There are quite decided evidences of improvement in business in the steady advance of the markets. The 'Made-in-Canada' movement is certainly having a beneficial effect. We find that manufacturers, buyers, jobbers and retailers are all emphasizing it quite strongly."

A prominent firm of manufacturing concern remarked in their report:—

"We have had a very good increase in business from the first of the year. We are confident that the 'Made-in-Canada' campaign does help out, but there are concerns who appear to be selling on the motto 'business is as usual, while placing orders are better, which makes our business normal."

A leading firm of brush manufacturers reply most encouragingly:—"Business so far as we are concerned has decidedly improved in the last six or eight weeks so much so, in fact, that we are now busier than we have been since the two years ago, and we have been forced to run overtime in some sections in order to catch up with orders. This improvement is only to a very slight extent due to business arising from the war; it comes mainly from the fact that we have the way of tracing the direct results of the 'Made-in-Canada' campaign, but from general observation, we have no doubt that this has been an influential factor in stimulating trade."

Trade is Normal in East.

One of our largest tea and coffee houses places itself on record as follows:—"We find in the west a more normal feeling, but without much improvement in sales. In Ontario there is a decided improvement. In the east, with the exception of a few new beliefs to have been dropped, it is not announced how she was lost."

The Russian Fleet, the British steamer Danube, was torpedoed by German submarines on Saturday and Friday night; also the trawler Henry Charles, Kathleen, Activist and Prosper. All these craft were lost.

The Italian report a victory against the Austrians, in having taken Gorizia, an important strategic point.

PROMOTED

Lieutenant Arthur N. Carter, son of E. S. Carter, of Rothesay, who was a Rhodes scholar and went from Oxford at the beginning of the war, has just been placed in charge of the machine guns of the 8th battalion of the York and Lancaster Regiment, which is expected soon to go to the front.

Canadian Companies Expected to Acquire Bulk of Lake Trade Through American Law

Cleveland, July 26 — Steamship men operating on the Great Lakes declare that the Seaman's Bill, which will become effective on November 14, 1915, will operate against the American merchant marine on the Great Lakes in as deadly a manner as it is already operating on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. The direct effect on the Great Lakes caused by the bill's impossible increase in the cost of operation, they say, will be sure to drive from the Great Lakes low-cost passenger, package freight steamships, which on account of the present low cost of operation and high efficiency, are able to render the shipping and traveling public maximum service at minimum price.

The Northern Navigation Company, a Canadian company, is already working into the passenger business on the American side by advertising personally conducted trips through Georgian Bay and Thirty Thousand Islands from Cleveland for $89.25 with $2.50 extra for side trips. Officials of American steamship companies declare that after the Seaman's Bill goes into effect it will be pretty hard to compete with the Canadian companies.

WANTS INFORMATION

E. E. Peck, police magistrate in Albert, N. B., sent a communication to Chief of Police Simpson this morning, asking for some particulars about a man who was arrested there on July 14 on a vagrancy charge, and giving his name as Michael Cogswell of St. John. He says he was born in Kentville, N. S., and with his mother moved to this city nineteen years ago. Chief Simpson would like to hear any particulars about him.

A FRIENDLY BOUT

Visitors to Sea Side Park last evening were entertained in a manner that they had not anticipated. Two stalwart young men got into an argument regarding their respective strength and subsequently decided to settle the argument by wrestling. They stripped off their coats and went out on the sand-bordered steps and there struggled for supremacy. Many spectators witnessed the friendly encounter and one was heard to remark that it was worthy of peating itself, and the days of the arena were again upon us.

CONTRIBUTE $60 IN RESPONSE TO APPEAL OF MISS T. MCKIEL

Money Goes to Procure Extra Comforts For Soldiers Under Care of Fairville Nurse

In response to a letter of appeal from Miss Theodora McKiel published about ten days ago asking for contributions to assist in purchasing comforts for the wounded soldiers in her ward in the hospital in France where she is engaged in nursing, it will be gratifying for many to learn that $60 has been received thus far by Mrs. Cecil R. McKiel of Fairville, who is forwarding the donations of this amount (twenty-five dollars was the gift of the Lancaster Red Cross Society and two sisters of Brown's Place contributed $11. The others contributing for the worthy cause are:

John Day, Mrs. E. F. Dunham, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Clarence McKim, Mrs. Stevens, (Harland), Mrs. Wm. Simpson, Miss Ann Boscoe, Mrs. Boscoe, Mrs. L. Peatman, Mrs. Green, Miss M. O'Brien, Doreen Gilles McAvity, Viola S. McAvity, James McAvity, North Harrington, Lou Robinson, F. Chipman Schofield, H. A. Lotes, (Berry Mills), Mrs. H. A. Lotes, (Berry Mills), Mrs. Sumner Townshend, Miss K. Townshend, Miss Helen Corbett, Mrs. W. G. McLeod, Miss Brennan, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. J. K. Schofield, "O. A. P." (Sussex), Mrs. G. Hegan, Miss Linda Shaw (Leprass), Miss Gertrude Reid, Dr. J. H. Allingham, Mrs. Raynes, Percy Bosson, Mrs. Winifred Webb, Mrs. Wm. Cheesman, Two Friends (St. John).

Judging from previous letters it will take about two weeks for Miss McKiel to receive the money and another two weeks to bring a reply so no letter of acknowledgment is expected for at least four weeks, possibly five.

NO RECRUITS FOR 55TH THIS MORNING

No recruits were signed at the recruiting office this morning. One man applied but was rejected. Military men feel that some campaign should be adopted to stimulate the enlistment. Several men who have already been accepted for the heavy battery will go this afternoon to join the body at Partridge Island. They are William King, George Hart, William Girwood, S. A. McDonald and Arthur McAfee.

A. Hedley Jamieson will leave tonight for Sussex to join the detachment of the 59th under canvas there.

No announcement has yet been made as to when the detachment of seventy men of the heavy field battery at the island will be sent to join the unit at Halifax, but word is expected momentarily.

Fourteen men of the 3rd Garrison Artillery at Partridge Island will go to Halifax probably tomorrow to reinforce a portion of the unit now on service there under Captain Allan. Col. B. K. Armstrong, who has just returned from Halifax made this announcement this morning.

LOGS GO ADRIFT

This morning a raft of logs, which was being towed by the tug Champion from the Nashuak booms to the Partington Pulp and Paper Company's mill, Union Point, Fairville, struck one of the small islands above the falls and several hundred logs broke away and went through the falls.

As the tug approached its destination with its tow the current caught it and, despite the efforts of the tugmen and the crew of the tug, struck the island. The raft separated and some logs were swept into the current and carried through the falls into the harbor. It is estimated that upwards of 5,000 feet were carried away.

T. L. Wilson, Chesley street, with some assistants, was soon at work in the harbor catching the logs and as a result of their efforts it is thought that the loss will not be very heavy. A rumor circulated throughout the city that two men had been drowned as a result of the accident, but the report was unfounded.

STRIKING SCENE AT R.K.Y.C. SERVICE

More Than Thousand People on Shore, Hundred Boats on River

More than 100 craft of all kinds, from the Dream, with Senator Thorne, ex-Chief Justice Bucker, and others on board, to the tiny canoe with two ladies at the paddle, were anchored at Crystal Beach or pulled up on the shore, while the annual service of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club was being held yesterday. Many of the sailing yachts and some of the larger motor craft were dressed with flags; and the scene, with more than 1,000 people on the shore during the service, most of them in white, and the attendance of ladies unusually large, was one of great animation and beauty.

Not only were members of the Yacht Club, but very many members of the Power Boat Club, and suburban residents from all along the river, between Sand Point and Brown's Flats. It was a perfect day, with a good yachting breeze, yet not enough wind to disturb the smallest craft. The 800 printed forms of the service were far too few for those who desired them. A thought of sadness was suggested by the memorial page, which recalled the death, within a year, of Honorary Commodore Robert Thomson, Commodore Horace C. Wetmore, and Hon. Chaplain Rev. Lindsay Parker.

The feature of the service was the powerful and eloquent patriotic address by Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, who made a strong appeal for recreation and for the enlistment of every citizen for some form of genuine patriotic service during the war.

Rev. Craig W. Nichols, rector of Westfield, assisted in the solemn service, and an orchestra led the music. The hymns were heartily sung. Vice-Commodore Logan spoke briefly, and noted the fact that some forty members of the club had enlisted in one capacity or another. This service concluded a very enjoyable and successful club cruise.

OFFER TO CARE FOR TWO BELGIAN CHILDREN MADE ORPHANS BY WAR

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Scammell Give up Trip to Exposition For This Kindly Purpose

J. K. Scammell, of Fredericton, Dominion public works engineer, a former St. John citizen, has written to D. Mullin, K. C., Belgian consul here, declaring that he and his wife have decided to give up a trip to the San Francisco exposition, where Mr. Scammell intended to attend an international congress of engineers, and, instead, have decided to care for two Belgian children "afflicted by this terrible war of Kultur."

"Send us," he writes, "two Belgian children between the ages of six and fourteen, a brother and sister or two sisters, who have become orphaned through the result of this war, brought on by an overzealous, cruel, military god and his Reichstag and we will feed, clothe and educate them as good Canadians in our home as members of our family until they become of age. God grant that this war may soon end with Germany crushed to the dust."

POLICE COURT

There were so many prisoners on the police court this morning that the dock could not hold them all and two had to be placed on a bench inside the rail.

Seven men arrested on drunkenness charges were fined $8 or two months in jail.

James O'Dell, arrested on Saturday night in Brussels street on a charge of drunkenness and using profane and obscene language was fined $24 or six months in jail.

Thomas Livingston and Augustus McDonald were fined $20 or two months in jail for fighting in Union street on Saturday evening. The fine was allowed to stand upon their promise of better behaviour.

One witness, Harold McKiel, was heard this morning in case against Mary Bromley, under arrest charged with assaulting William Hanley with a knife with intent to kill. He told of seeing the trouble as he was going to work. The woman was then remanded.

DAVID AND FRED SHAW TO THE WAR

David Walter Shaw of 161 Erin street, who has passed for the Heavy Battery, is going with the 55th Battalion, in which his brother, Fred W. Shaw, has also enlisted. They will go to Sussex tomorrow night. D. W. Shaw was through the South African war for three years. He was rejected here on account of his youth and small size, but stowed away and got into the game, and returned with his ribbons and medals after having gone from the Transvaal to the king's coronation. After that he was a sergeant under Capt. Sturdee for four years in G. Co., 69th Fusiliers. He was with the 6th Mounted Rifles here, but on account of illness was unable to go. Now that he is able to pass the examination again he is off with the 55th, along with his brother, whose home is in St. Patrick street.

Dull Days in Business

An advertiser asks: "Does it pay to advertise in dull seasons?" And this causes the inquiry: "What are dull seasons?" "Would they be dull if you really went after business—or are they dull because they have always been that way?"

February and August used to be dull months for many years, but they are the brightest in the year. Similar examples are to be found all through the merchandise calendar.

Very often advertising and merchandising mixed with the right proportion of brains will eliminate the "dull days."
