Now turn right side out and bring single "T" double "oo" perforation keeping upper edges even and back; also bring the two single small "oo" perforations together and tack at single large "oo" perforation. Close center-back seam. Gather upper edge of skirt between double "TT" perforations. Lap right front edge on left, centers even (double "oo" perforations indicate center-front) and tack invisibly at single small "oo" perforations.

Adjust stay to position underneath upper edge of skirt, centers even; stitch upper edges together, bringing single small "oo" perforations in skirt and stay together.

For the separate waist that is to be worn so extensively this summer this is an ideal skirt. It is light and graceful and if the cascade effect is desired with a contrasting material, very little result may be accomplished.

OPERA HOUSE SCOTNEY JUNE 11-12

YOUR REFRIGERATOR—ARE YOU GETTING THE MOST OUT OF IT? HERE ARE A FEW HINTS ON THE CARE IT NEEDS

(By Caroline Coe.) Refrigerators are supposed to be necessary to the preservation of food, but many times through carelessness, they are exactly the opposite. A good (not necessarily an expensive) refrigerator is a profitable investment. But, unless one knows or studies it from all sides, in, out, up, and down, we often find a refrigerator is a very expensive house furnishing. The best arranged are those having the ice chamber on one side, with a swinging door. This space should be large enough to store at least 125 pounds of ice, and the ice chamber should not be open. Ice is wasted by constant contact with warm air from outside. There never should be any food kept in this ice space. The only things permissible are the water bottles, which should be filled and laid inside. If you contemplate purchasing a new refrigerator, do not overlook the fact that if the lining is white you can detect the slightest mold or any other dirt which might be neglected on a dark surface. The ice chamber, if one is careful not to place any food in it, may be kept in perfect condition with a thorough cleaning once a week. Remove the ice and wash the chamber with a solution of soda water. Take cool water, with any of the cleaning powders of a little ammonia, and wipe every inch and corner of the space, and flush the pipe with cold water. A little cold water will not flush the pipe, you need a force or a deluge of water which acts like a torrent to sweep the drain pipe of anything it may contain. All food should be kept covered. The little granite pails of different sizes that may be purchased for ten cents are most valuable in the refrigerator. Milk bottles should be kept closed with a paper cap or a cup turned over the top. Not enough thought or knowledge is given to the drainage or waste pipe. Many drain pipes connect directly with the sewer system of our homes. This is very unsafe. The only safe way to do this is to have a reliable plumber arrange the pipes so there may be no direct connection between the sewer and where food is kept. The old wood-lined ice boxes may be freshened and the musty smell removed by giving the entire inside a coat of lime. Wash the entire inside with a strong solution of soda water. Dry in the sun, if possible; if not, leave open until perfectly dry. Mix a quart of quinine with water to a consistency of cream. Apply with a wide paint brush to every part of the lining. This will be satisfactory if used on the dark lining. If the first coat does not make the inside white, give it another coat of the lime wash. If the refrigerator is in good condition, and the lining is of zinc and has become dark colored, give the entire inside two or three coats of bathtub enamel, allowing the different coats to thoroughly dry each time before applying a second or third coat. The cleanliness and drainage of our refrigerators may affect our whole household. If the ice box is damp, a bowl containing a lump of unstacked lime (the size of an egg or a cup) placed on the top shelf will absorb much of the moisture. Every housewife should inspect her refrigerator every day if she wishes to keep her food sweet, her grocery bills small and the health of her family good.

Legislation in Battle. Wild scenes, culminating in a pillow fight and fistfight, marked a recent all night sitting of the Australian parliament. Because the opposition continued obstruction tactics, the government decided on an all night sitting and the government whip provided for the ministers pillows and blankets. The laborers, who were not so comfortable trying to sleep with books as pillows and newspapers as blankets, commenced removing the blankets and pillows from their slumbering opponents and a battle royal, recalling nursery days was the result.

The meloe nearly became a riot, when a labor member struck the government whip on the job. Efforts were made to separate the fighters and soon almost the whole membership of the house was rolling on the floor, wrestling, hitting and clawing. Finally the antagonists were separated and the blankets restored to their rightful owners. The debate then proceeded until the government forced a vote, while two of the labor members were out of the room. The house adjourned after a twenty hours' sitting.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer. These days the face needs special care and attention. Puffs, dust and dirt, the beating sun, are severe on any skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure mercuriolized wax. This keeps skin and pores in a cleanly condition, the complexion beautifully white and free from blemishes. Fresh and rough-skinned outside are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of mercuriolized wax, obtainable at any drugstore, is sufficient to clean the face and to keep it in good condition. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle remover.

THE Gurney-Oxford bears perfection this year. It has many splendid points, of which these are the most important—The Gurney-Oxford Economizer (not to be had on any other stove) is such a convenient method of regulating the fire and saving fuel that it certainly should be on the stove you buy.

The heat goes directly to the oven where it abounds—over and under and around the oven, heating it evenly in every corner. It can't get up the chimney; it must do its work. These, briefly, are the devices that make the Gurney-Oxford the most perfect piece of stove mechanism ever devised.

GEORGIAN DANDIES.
Return to Side Whiskers and Peg-Top Trousers.

(London Standard.)

A determined attempt is being made by a group of young London art students to revive the forgotten fashions of the regency. They at present represent the most forward movement among the "nuts" by virtue of the daring distinctiveness of their costume.

The "uniform" of the Georgian "nut" consists of a "waisted" coat, cut low in front, with a broad collar roll, and large buttons, the waistcoat, is also cut loose and low, showing an expanse of white frilled shirt. The collar is almost hidden by a wide stock-own, usually of a grey and white check, to match grey and white check socks. From the neck is suspended a gold-rimmed eyeglass on a black silk ribbon, half an inch wide, which is carefully arranged to fall across the dazzling white frills of the shirt, to provide contrast. In place of a watch-chain, a heavy fob on a broad black ribbon dangles from the pocket.

But the climax of the scheme lies in the return to peg-top trousers. They are not strapped under the boots, but are very little wider than the ankle. The favorite color among these modern georgians is buff, worn with black coat and waistcoat, and check bow and socks. Very thin boots with square toes are de rigueur with this costume. The hair is worn long, but carefully trimmed, and short, close-cropped side whiskers, extend to the level of the base of the ear, complete the reproduction of the fashions of the Regency "buck."

A number of young artists, of whom the leader is a former Slade student, wear this dress nightly at restaurants and dinner clubs in the West End in the hope of restoring variety of color and form to masculine dress.

A young woman collecting rents for a reform tenement association appeared one day with an itching bound over one eye. She explained to the tenant that she had conjunctivitis. That was worse than Greek to Mrs. Kizavalski who insisted on seeing what such a long word might mean. Nothing was said till the afflicted member was rebanded when the Polish sister, wise in experience, remarked with a sigh: "Sorey. But I did not know you was married."

SO LITTLE DONE; SO MUCH YET TO DO

Less Than Eight Per Cent of Canada Yet Famed—Saskatchewan's Position

Saskatoon, Sask., June 9.—The statistical department, at Ottawa, has just issued figures which indicate the vast undeveloped agricultural potentialities of the Dominion. According to these, Canada's total land area is 4,018,645 acres, of which 718 per cent, or 109,177,285 acres are occupied as farm lands. The estimate of possible farm land is given at 440,910,000 acres, or thirty-one per cent of the total. Of course, in the prairie, the percentage of available land is very much higher. For instance, in Saskatchewan's great district, upwards of 90 per cent of the land is suitable for agricultural purposes and merely about ten per cent of it is as yet under the plow.

Facts such as the foregoing are beginning to impress the general public at something akin to their true significance. That we are all dependent upon the farmer has long been one of the most commonplace platitudes which we have iterated and reiterated parrotlike. We have it by heart and repeat it just as a child does some astrute grammatical rule the real meaning of which he may never comprehend. Now, however, it is different, and Saskatchewan prairies are long to lead the whole dominion in aggressive effort toward agricultural advancement. This notwithstanding, a marked similar awakening from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Agriculture means more to Saskatchewan than to any other province, for her other natural resources are yet undeveloped. The settlement of her lands and their intelligent operation so as to insure the fullest productivity for her people, her foremost and sincerest aim of the people of this province. What Saskatchewan already is with only a negligible fraction of her land under wheat, the pioneering crop, instinctively induces speculation as to what she will have become when, say, merely fifty per cent of her fertile area is being produced not merely grain, but cattle, horses, sheep, swine, poultry and such other agricultural products? The answer may be left with perfect safety to the most fervently optimistic imagination.

Paris, June 9.—"The Day of 24 Hours" was the subject of a report by Dr. Alfred George, president of the Geneva Chamber of Commerce to the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce here today.

Switzerland, he said, was ready to adopt the twenty-four hour day, and the Swiss government would authorize it if it did not fear complication from the fact that two of the four neighboring countries—Germany and Austria-Hungary—still insist on the old system of dividing the day into twelve-hour parts. France, Italy, Belgium, Spain and Portugal have adopted the twenty-four hours day.

He urged the need of universal adoption. "It is often difficult," he said, "to fix the time of departure or arrival of letters and telegrams, under the old system and it almost goes without saying that the reading of the time tables and the interests of all transport enterprises would be greatly facilitated by the twenty-four hours' day."

DR. MELVIN'S HOUSE AT WESTFIELD BURNED

LeBaron Jones' Residence Also Caught—Three Alarms in City Last Evening

Fire which is said to have started from a spark from a C. P. R. locomotive destroyed the summer home of Dr. G. G. Melvin at Westfield last evening. A house owned by LeBaron Jones across the road also caught but was extinguished by a party of amateur fire fighters before any great damage was done to it. The house had been rented by Dr. Melvin to John Emmerson but it had not been occupied by him. The house and furniture was valued by Dr. Melvin at $1,000 and was insured for about $800 with Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company. The Jones property was damaged to the extent of about $200 which was covered by insurance.

The fire apparatus was called out twice last night for slight fires. About 6.15 o'clock the North End firemen were called out by an alarm from box 144 for a fire in a chimney at the rear of St. Luke's church. About 7 o'clock an alarm from box 46 brought the apparatus to Melvin's street for a slight fire in the roof of a house owned by Charles Melvin.

A barn fire in Acadia street last night brought out the chemical in response to a call from box 145 and the blaze was extinguished before any serious damage had been done.

ENGLISH LITERARY NOTES

(Times Special Correspondence)
London, May 30.—One of London's most famous publishers bought a novel some time ago from a distinguished woman author, and in due course published it and got satisfactory sales on it. He had paid such a huge advance on it, however, that he did not make much money on it. Last week he proposed to the author to publish a cheap edition of the book, and named a goodly sum in advance of royalties on it. The author, who was somewhat of a dilettante in the good old sense, wrote at once to say that she must decline to accept the advance fee, but that she would prefer him to publish the book without paying her anything extra. The royalties as might come along in due course. I do not suppose anyone who knows anything of the publishing business will believe this tale but it is true.

Ever since a suffragette slashed the Sargent portrait of Henry James at the Royal Academy, requests to reproduce the picture have been pouring in upon the famous novelist from publications of all over the world. Up to date, he had been asked to give in detail. This now famous Sargent portrait, which is valued at $8,500 of course, the property of Mr. James, having been presented to him by some 200 of his admirers.

Cabriere d'Annunzio, who is to transfer himself and his probably unique household to London as soon as he can find a habitation here, is as great a lover of animals as he is of extravagant dress, and at one time kept more than forty dogs. Those who have read his novel "The Fire" will remember that one chapter is about them. He keeps horses, too, but one of his most curious pets is a goldfish.

INDIGESTION AND HEADACHES

Arising From Constipation, Cured and Regular Habits Established by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

In the western Provinces, where so many thousands live far from doctors and drug stores, very many rely on Dr. Chase's medicines to cure disease and maintain health and strength. This letter gives some idea of what perfect control Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills exert over the most common ills of life. Mrs. H. K. Haver, farmer's wife, Eastburg, Alta., writes—"For about ten years I suffered from constipation, indigestion, headache and languid feelings. Treatment from two or three doctors afforded only temporary relief, so I turned to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and with most satisfactory results. Headaches have disappeared, regular habits established and general health very much better. Both my husband and I can speak highly of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, as we have both been greatly benefited by them." One pill a dose, 25c a box, 5 to $1.00, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty foods, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bismuthated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bismuthated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which induces the condition of indigestion, it does more delicate stomach lining, it does more that could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bismuthated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bismuthated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomachs up the hill with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creators" or following some foolish physical culture stunt, instead of the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to the remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fattening blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its re-generative, constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can realize the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows under your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Your druggist has it, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

Caution—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming indigestion, dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

FIELD HUSBANDRY EXPERIMENTS

The experimental farms at Ottawa and the branch farms and stations make field husbandry investigations a very prominent part of their work. For information of those who are interested in the more important results of last season's work over the entire system have been summarized and issued in Bulletin No. 75 of the experimental farms. It takes up the question of rotation, cultivation, fertilizers, rates of seeding, cost of production, weed eradication and other points connected with field agriculture. The information is presented by farms and stations and is, therefore, easily available for study. This bulletin is for free distribution at the publications branch of the department of agriculture at Ottawa.

ON THE ADVICE OF HIS DOCTOR

He Used Dr. Chase's Ointment for Protruding Piles With Splendid Results.

Too often a doctor can only think of an operation when asked for a treatment for piles. Some are sufficiently broad-minded to use the most effective treatment available, which is undoubtedly Dr. Chase's Ointment, as was proven in the case referred to in this letter.

Mr. Simon E. Jones, Railway station, Inverness, N. S., writes—"I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment the best treatment obtainable for protruding piles. For three years I suffered from piles, and was advised by a local physician to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. I had tried many treatments in vain, and therefore know which is the best. I can highly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment, and you are at liberty to use this statement."

The record of cures of every form of piles which stands behind Dr. Chase's Ointment is the strongest guarantee you can have that it will promptly relieve and cure this ailment, even in the most aggravated form. See a box, all dealers.

ST. JOHN AND THE MAIL SERVICE

Guteilus' Agreement Aired In Commons
Discrimination Charged
Hon. Dr. Pugsley Upholds Claims of This Port and Urges Square Deal—Borden Defends Arrangement—Mr. Hazen's Position

Ottawa, June 6.—The winter mail steamer arrangements, and incidentally the Guteilus agreement were discussed at considerable length in the commons yesterday.

At the opening of the afternoon session A. K. McLean called attention to the superiority of Halifax over St. John as the landing point for the transatlantic mails. He read a memorial from the Halifax board of trade which claimed that Halifax had an advantage on the average of twelve hours and forty-three minutes over St. John for mails from Liverpool to Montreal. He pointed out that the mail contract last year had provided that the steamer companies should be left free to choose the port at which they would land mails but said that he was convinced that the government had used its influence to secure the transfer of the Royal line steamers from Halifax to St. John.

Mr. Hazen thought if the people of Halifax and St. John would pay less attention to quarrelling and would get together so as to arrive at some unanimity it would be better for all concerned. Mr. Hazen said that St. John for years had never had an opportunity until the recent contract was signed to demonstrate the advantages of its port. This contract gave the mail carriers an option to go to either port. Mr. Hazen explained that the experiments had shown that St. John could handle the mails with equal facility with Halifax. He read a letter from N. E. Marshall, of the Toronto board of trade, who said there was very little difference in the time for the arrival of the mail either from St. John or from Halifax. Mr. Hazen said that he had proposed and discussed in detail, and it was resolved to recommend them for adoption by the board, and that the committee be authorized to call for tenders.

Mr. Day asked on behalf of the Playgrounds Association that the use of the schools be granted on the same terms as last year. Mr. Agar seconded this, and after a modification made at the suggestion of the superintendent that the association give up possession one week

Mayor Frink Suggests Development of Corkery Field by City—Grants For Sewers and Fire Alarm Boxes

Market square is to be laid with permanent pavement at a cost of $26,000, and that without recourse to either a bond issue or the aid of the local improvements act.

Commissioner Potts' resolution that the work be done and the cost be charged to next year's assessment, to be deducted from his 1915 appropriation—a suggestion which seemed to shock the council last week—was adopted yesterday with the support of Commissioners Wilmore and Russell, Commissioner McLellan opposing.

Church street will receive a bituminous pavement at a cost of $1,900 by the same method of procedure.

While discussing town planning, Mayor Frink made the interesting suggestion that the Corkery field in the North End should be taken over by the city and laid out in building lots to aid in relieving the congestion in other locations.

Com. McLellan, while speaking of repairs to the exhibition buildings, announced that he had seen militia plans providing for the use of all the military grounds in the South End, and expressed the opinion that the council might be requested to remove the exhibition grounds within the next two years.

The commissioner of harbors, ferries and public lands submitted his report, recommending that renewal lease issue to W. L. McDiarmid of lot No. 218 Guys ward for seven years from May 1, 1918, at $11 per annum, being an advance of ten per cent. on the original rental; that renewal lease issue to George Goddard of lot D, Brooks ward, for seven years from Nov. 1 last, at $9.60 per annum, being an advance of twenty per cent. on the present rental; that renewal lease issue to G. C. Clark of lots on Rodney street, Brooks ward, and that the tender of George McKean of $18 per thousand for 18,000 feet deals for repairs of West Side wharves and ferry roads, be accepted. The report was adopted and approved.

More Money for Sewers.
The commissioner of water and sewerage recommended that the estimate for the construction of the Marble Cove outfall sewer be increased by $4,000; that the outfall sewer in the Market square be renewed, estimated cost $800, to be paid for by bond issue; that a 15-inch sewer of about 200 feet be constructed in Marsh road to serve the property of Joseph A. Lilety, estimated cost $400, to be paid for by bond issue; that a sewer extension be made in St. James street, West, to serve the premises of the late Edward McNeely's estate, estimated cost about $200, to be paid for from sewerage maintenance fund; and that $40 be granted to Miss Shaw, Main street, for damages to her property while installing a new sewer in No. 5 fire station.

A. W. Sharp, chairman of the board of assessors, reported the promotion of Charles A. Emery to the position of chief clerk, of W. J. Cotter to the office of assistant, and the appointment of Roy L. Burley as junior clerk, salary for the latter office not yet arranged. The report was adopted.

Acting on a request from the Good-year Rubber Tire Company, Com. Potts moved that the company be allowed to run a compressed air tube under the sidewalk, under the same terms as other apparatus has been installed, to the satisfaction of the commissioners affected. The motion was carried.

The applications of John A. Kimball and William Connors for appointment as city constables were favorably recommended to the mayor.

Commissioner Potts moved that he be authorized to purchase in New Jersey (U. S. A.), a tar pot at a cost of $400. The motion carried.

Commissioner Potts asked if his department was responsible for the maintenance of the place known as Morgan's alley, of Main street. The question was referred to the recorder.

The same commissioner asked what had happened to the $1,000 provided for band concerts, and expressed surprise when informed that the money was at his disposal and the arrangement of the concerts was within his sphere of activity.

The mayor asked Commissioner Potts

when he would report on the North End survey. The latter was surprised to find that this was in his department, but promised to secure a report for the next meeting.

Commissioner McLellan moved that he be allowed $1,000 by bond issue for the purchase of six to eight new fire alarm boxes. Carried.

Police Matters
Police matters again engaged the attention of the commons yesterday afternoon. Chief Clark announced the resignation of Patrolman Shortcliffe, making the third vacancy on the force, and said that he has not enough men for the work.

The chief also submitted a charge that former Patrolman O'Leary, dismissed from the force and afterwards employed as special constable, has not turned in his uniform as required by law and that he has entered the lockup and advised prisoners confined there to plead "Not guilty."

In another communication the chief submitted a detailed account of Patrolman Briggs' story of his conversation with Com. McLellan at the time Briggs alleges that the commissioner attempted to interfere with him in the discharge of his duty. This letter also stated that T. J. Durick, whose drug store he was watching at the time, offered to give him $10 after his conversation with the commissioner.

A course of action which will receive general public support was adopted by the commons council yesterday, when provision was made for dog pounds and the promise was made that stray dogs should be rounded up and disposed of.

TY COBB THINKS FAST; THAT'S WHY HE'S GREATEST BALL PLAYER

TY COBB TURNING THIRD FOR HOME

(By Hugh S. Fullerton) Ty Cobb is the greatest ball player in the world. Everyone says he is. Therefore, it must be true. Why is Ty Cobb the greatest? That isn't a riddle. Can you tell why he is? How can an outfielder, averaging only two "chances" a game to catch flies, and make throws, be the greatest player? What a bunch of nerve and brain that fellow is! He is tense, alert, on his toes, moving with every pitched ball, thinking. He has forgotten that there is a crowd, forgotten everything excepting baseball and that he must win. Not a move escapes him. If you want to enjoy the game do as I did. Take a field glass and watch Cobb's face. You can tell by the way he clenches his hands...

Sliding into the Ulate. Suddenly Cobb yelled, "I have it!" The others hesitated. Cobb himself had stopped. The base runner at second saw the situation. It looked as if the Tigers were all mixed up and that the ball would fall safe. The runner leaped toward third. At the last instant Cobb buried himself forward, grabbed the ball just as it was nearing the ground, and, like a flash, shot it to second base. The runner slid back desperately and escaped being doubled by an eyelash. Cobb had figured it out and claimed the catch merely in the hope of leading the runner into thinking the ball would fall safe, and on the chance of making a double play. I have talked to Cobb a score of times about how he does it. He doesn't know. He just does it.

The Newest Giant of The Seas

The giant Cunard liner Aquitania, now at New York on her maiden voyage, embodies all those qualities conducive to the structural strength, comfortable habitation, regularity and economy of propulsion at high speed and perfect stability.

Beautiful as were the lines of the "Lusitania" and "Mauretania," those of the "Aquitania" are sure to please the eye of the experienced naval architect and to greatly impress the layman.

The "Aquitania" is 901 feet long over all.

The area of the deck is equal to that of eight football fields.

The beam is 97 feet, while the depth is 64 feet. As a consequence the ship when fully equipped for her service will displace practically 45,000 tons.

The stowage space is equal in number to the population of greater London.

The normal sea speed provided for is twenty-three knots, which will enable her to have New York on the Wednesday morning and arrive on the other side early in the morning of the following Tuesday.

The ship has been designed to accommodate a total population of 4,210. Of

HAZEN RAPPED BY NOVA SCOTIA LOBSTER MAN

Privileges Allowed the Fishermen Have Been Taken Away

(Halifax Recorder.)

Hon. J. D. Hazen, as minister of marine and fisheries, is receiving severe criticism from the fishermen of southern Nova Scotia. The latest complaint which the people of this province have against this minister's administration of the department bears very vitally on the great industry of lobster fishing. The season between Yarmouth and Halifax begins on December 15 and ends on May 31. For many years it has been the custom of the department to allow the fishermen two days grace for collecting their traps and all lobsters caught in the traps when taken up were allowed to be retained by the fishermen. This was to offset the loss which these men sustain at the beginning of the season, when it takes two and sometimes three days for the traps to get well settled on the bottom and sufficiently well soaked to perform their work.

Although the season starts on December 15, it is often the 17th or later, before the fishermen begin to reap their reward owing to the fact that they are not allowed to set a trap previous to the first hour of the 16th, and they have to await the following few days for their gear to get into working order after being set.

There was no mention made of the long customary privilege when a request was sent to allow for further extension of the season, but the refusal of the government to meet the request for extension of the season, was accompanied by a sweeping and radical order that all lobsters caught in the traps when taken up after midnight of May 31 must be thrown back to the water. This is entailing a very great hardship on the fishermen, but the minister is obdurate. A prominent lobsterman, who keeps in close touch with things that affect the industry, told The Morning Chronicle yesterday that it was nothing more or less than stonewalling on the part of Mr. Hazen. He in the first place knew nothing about the needs of the men, and when advised refused to accord any consideration to the arguments put up to him for re-establishing the old order.

TWO ST. JOSEPH'S MEN HERE WRITING EXAMS

Speak Enthusiastically of Preparations for the Jubilee Exercises

Frank A. Hourihan, '14, and Robert D. Fraser, '14, students from St. Joseph's University, are now in St. John writing the Normal School examinations for Grammar School lines. As these examinations are written Mr. Hourihan and Mr. Fraser will return to the university to complete examinations for arts degrees on June 18.

They speak enthusiastically of the preparations in progress for some time at the university to celebrate its Jubilee and to arrange a festival of entertainment for the visitors attending during the celebration. On Tuesday evening, June 16, there will be an interesting scene in the pretty auditorium of the Science Hall when the former and present students of the institution, representatives of ecclesiastical, educational and political life of the province, and visitors and relatives of the students assemble to be welcomed by the president and faculty and to hear the addresses in reply to be delivered by Very Rev. W. P. Chapman, V. G., administrator of the diocese; Hon. Senator Poirier and W. O. McInerney of New York. Representatives from Laval and other universities will be present. The institution will be brilliantly lighted and decorated for the occasion.

On June 17, pontifical mass will be celebrated in the open air. The beautiful statue of the founder of the university will be unveiled at two o'clock, with notable addresses and music. A baseball game will be played after the unveiling, on the college campus. The banquet to the invited guests and benefactors of the institution will be a splendid function. A beautiful array of fireworks will be discharged after the banquet.

On June 18, convocation day, degrees and diplomas, scholarships and prizes will be conferred.

REV. DR. BURROWS SPEAKS OF CAMPAIGN NOW CLOSING

"While the campaign in Queen's rink has not been as big as I have been accustomed to in some places I am well satisfied with the results," said Dr. Burrows, speaking of the revival now closing. "The aim of my work is not only the conversion of souls but to contribute to the fight against the saloon and other forces which make the right kind of life harder for all the residents of the community."

"I have enjoyed my stay in St. John and have formed a high opinion both of the city and of the people I have met. Your city undoubtedly has a great future, the natural advantages your port for both shipping and industrial development and the calibre of citizens guaranteeing its future growth.

"What my future plans will be I cannot say definitely. I have been asked to go to Campbellton and if the arrangements are completed I will probably accept. But I am anxious to get back to my home and family as soon as possible. The opportunity since last Christmas, I made my home in Youngstown, Ohio, although I am a Canadian and I always enjoy my visits to my native land. Mrs. Burrows, who is with me is a Canadian also, her father being the late Hon. William McCraney who represented an Ontario constituency at Ottawa for many years.

He was known to practically every policeman on the force and was a favorite with all. The canine was possessed of more than usual intelligence and was much prized by his owner. Neil was a prize winner and was valued at $500. So well trained was he that, even though he spent a good deal of his time about King square, he had never once been known to leave the walk and go on the grass.

GIVE YOUR LITTLE ONES PICNIC DUTY AND PAY TRIBUTE TO GREAT GUTELIUS

He Demands a Few Cents More For Each Child Carried on Picnic Trains Between City and Rothesay

The eagle eye of Gutelius glancing over the territory which has been placed under his jurisdiction has sighted a new opportunity to get at the public. This time it is the Sunday School children who will be the victims of his attack. St. John got its share of his attention when he signed that ingenious agreement with Mr. Bosworth that resulted in the loss of the Empire steamer to this port. The suburbanites were handed a deal so bad that even the mighty Gutelius had to take it back. Now his attack is directed on the Sunday School children, perhaps of the belief that since they have no votes they are fair game.

The result of the workings of his 800-year brain has been to increase the rate for children between the past the rate for children between five and seven years has been 12 1/2 cents; this year it has been raised to fifteen cents with a five-cent increase for adults. The increase is not large, but it is sufficient to add a bit more to the burden of those who finance these outings of the children and naturally it has not increased the popularity of the present administration of the alleged people's railway.

NO R. K. Y. C. MAN THERE

Times Story of Disgraceful Action on Yacht is Taken up by Club

The story in yesterday's Times concerning the disgraceful action of a young man on a yacht at Public Landing on Sunday was read with perhaps keener interest by the officers of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club than by any other citizens. They promptly instituted enquiries, with the result that they soon learned the name of the yacht and the names of those on board.

The yacht does not belong to their fleet, nor were any of those on board members of the club.

"If there should be any misconduct on the part of any members of our club while up river, or on the part of anyone on board a yacht belonging to the fleet," said Commodore Wetmore to the Times this morning, "we would regard it as a favor to be told about it. As soon as we hear of this case we went right after the facts, and we are very glad that no R. K. Y. C. man was in any way connected with it."

The assailant was quickly overpowered and the weapon taken away from him before any damage could be done, and he was sent on his way.

Change Your Clothing Fashions as Often as You Like But Stick to Your Clothing Principles

We could not sell, and we would not sell today men's suits in the same fashions that we sold ago. Nobody would buy them, and some of them would seem very ridiculous.

But we are in no way ashamed of them. They were the best fashions of their day, and there was never any danger of their being anything less than the best, because They Were Always Right in Principle.

No clothing stock anywhere is more sensitive to fashion than ours — none quicker to include every good style that a man may ask for. But there is no varying from the old reliable standards in fabrics and tailor-work.

No man can buy an undesirable suit in a store that knows the business value of selling only the reliable kind.

Whether you choose a $10 suit or a $25 suit or a suit at any price in between, you can be sure of its value as you are of the good Canadian dollars you pay for it.

Then, to top it all, every man who buys O. K. Hall clothes gets them at one-fourth to one-third less than the prevailing prices, because he buys directly of the makers, and he saves the middleman's profits.

MEN'S SUITS.....$6.50 to $30.00

REPORT PRESENTED BY JUDGE FORBES REGARDED AS HIGHLY SATISFACTORY

Woodstock, Ont., June 8.—At the Presbyterian general assembly meeting yesterday the report of the Finance committee, eastern section was regarded as highly satisfactory. It showed receipts of $151,204.82 for the year, an increase of more than $10,000. The report was presented by Judge Forbes of St. John. The report of the board of Sabbath schools and young people's societies, recommended that ministers and all religious workers be earnestly charged to make a special study of the needs of boy life, attention being drawn to the fact that a large proportion of the boys were being lost to the church. The committee would have boys conferences, community work, and other like movements in behalf of the boys.

Rev. W. J. Knox, of London, presented the final report of the committee on religious education, deploring the fact that only fifty per cent of children were being taught in their tents at Sunday school.
