ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN ON C.N.R. MAY STRIKE

Because of the Company's refusal to accept award of Conservation Board.

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—A strike of engineers and firemen on the C.N.R. is threatened, according to information received here as the result of the refusal of the company to accept the award of the conservation board of which Judge Costoworth of Toronto was chairman. It is stated that a vote of the men on the whole system will be taken during the next two weeks and if two-thirds agree to insist upon acceptance of the board's ruling, action will be taken. The strike would affect 2,000 men, it is said, of whom three hundred live in Winnipeg.

Representatives of the Brotherhoods of Engineers and Firemen will, on Monday, receive voting papers from W. B. Best and T. M. Shorner, chairman of those organizations who have just returned from Toronto, where they assisted in the negotiations with the company.

The original demands of the men was that the pay schedules should be increased to an equality with western rates, or rates on lines in the States east of Chicago, and that pay on main lines should be equal to that on branch lines.

CARDINAL VON HARTMANN BEARER OF MESSAGE FROM KAISER TO POPE BENEDICT

Rome, Nov. 26.—It was asserted in well informed quarters here today that Cardinal Von Hartmann, Archbishop of Cologne, who arrived in Rome yesterday, was the bearer of an important message from Emperor William to Pope Benedict in which the war situation was presented from the German point of view.

In the message the Emperor is reported to have disclaimed responsibility for the war, Germany being de-

POSTAL RATES ON PARCELS FOR SOLDIERS

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—An official notice from the British post office gives the following rates of postage on parcels (which must not exceed 7 pounds in weight) to British and Canadian soldiers serving with the Mediterranean forces:

One pound, 32 cents; two pounds, 40 cents; three pounds, 48 cents; four pounds, 56 cents; five pounds, 64 cents; six pounds, 72 cents; seven pounds, 80 cents. When men are known to be in hospitals, but the actual hospital is not known, the parcel should bear the word "Hospital" in large letters.

BRANTFORD, ONT. WOMAN SUICIDES

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 26.—Unable to sleep by reason of nervous trouble, from which she had suffered for some time, Mrs. Aaron Mathews, of 40 Terrace Hill street, arose at three o'clock this morning and committed suicide by drowning herself in the cistern of her home. The discovery was made by her husband.

In the east. The men decided to accept this, although it failed to meet their wishes, and when, according to their statements, the company declined to be bound by it, they decided on taking a vote of the men affected.

Change in Water System.

Commissioner Wigmore is about to change the system by which the water is now fed into the "header" from the 36-inch main at Marsh Bridge. The present arrangement results in loss of pressure and as five large pipes lead off from it this is an important item. He proposes joining each of the mains running through Erin, Brussels (St.) and Waterloo streets and City Road direct by "Y" joints to the 36-inch pipe. This will give much easier control of the whole water districts in case of a shut off for fire or any other purpose.

Narrow Escape.

An elderly lady narrowly escaped being struck by the Boston train yesterday and the noon-hour crowd which was waiting for the express to pass was given an unwelcome thrill as the woman risked death to save a few seconds delay. Prompt work by Driver Charles Lameroux in bringing the train to a sudden stop, averted the occurrence of a serious accident.

Now in Serbia

Capt. Carruthers of Kingston, Ont., grandson of Hon. Isaac Burpee, who was wounded in the western campaign early in the war, and afterwards returned to the front, has been fighting in the campaign on the Gallipoli peninsula with his regiment, the Royal Irish Fusiliers, and is now in Serbia. He has been through severe fighting this year, but so far has escaped injury.

What Dr. Chase is Doing for Our Soldier Boys

At Home and Abroad---To Every Soldier a Full Sixty-cent Box of Dr. Chase's Ointment Free---Greatly Appreciated by the Boys.

Realizing that ointment is one of the prime necessities to the soldier, both in training and at the front, it was early decided to supply all Canadian recruits free of charge.

That this offer was appreciated by the military authorities is best evidenced by some of the replies received from Headquarters, as well as from individual camps.

Brigadier-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes wrote:—"This is indeed a most useful and acceptable donation, and for which please accept my most sincere thanks."
Lieut.-Col. Murphy, in charge of Valcartier Camp, wrote:—"I would be very glad to receive donation of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and feel sure it would be acceptable."
One Major reports:—"The Ointment arrived on the day the Battery completed 24 miles route march on foot, and I can assure you the Ointment was very beneficial, and much appreciated by those with sore feet."

Further distributions of Dr. Chase's Ointment will be made to the recruits assembling for training at the various towns and cities throughout the country. Officers in charge are requested to advise us how many boxes they can use, allowing one for each man. In a score of ways this Ointment is useful to the soldier, and it is our desire that every man shall be supplied free of charge. Address Edmansson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

FIVE TONS OF OINTMENT
Weekly Supply for 100,000 British Soldiers from Their Feet
London, Feb. 26.—An "awakeness" at the British general army headquarters in France pays a tribute in an article given out yesterday by the Official Press Bureau to the work of the army supply departments. He calls the Ordnance Department a "military universal provider." He says in part:—"The vastness of the work of maintaining a modern army may be gauged by the fact that during the past month the supplies furnished included 450 miles of telephone wire, 530,000 sand bags and 10,000 pounds of shoe blacking, while in ten days the Ordnance Department supplied 120,000 fur waistcoats and 300,000 flannel belts. The average weekly supply of ointment for feet is five tons, the complexity of the work is illustrated by the fact that the index of the stores includes 50,000 separate kinds of articles. Most of these still are obtained from England, but some are being manufactured by the Ordnance Department in its own workshops in France."

ANOTHER RECRUITING DAILY IS WELL UNDERWAY HERE

Fifteen men secured at meeting last evening, in Mill Street—Eight were for the Siege Battery—A fine array of speakers.

I have had mothers come to me and beg me to do what I could to have their boys discharged. I told them that if it were in my power to do so, I would not do it, for once those boys had discarded the uniform, they would be looked upon everywhere as cowards, who were scared to go and do any real fighting, or as men who backed out of a bargain at the last minute. Victory is coming, and the day will come when the German hordes will have been put down, and the men who have gone across and fought them with some honor, loaded with honor and glory, and then, the men who did not go will be left in the shadow while the others will get all the honor that is going. I hope that no man will miss this opportunity. We have our honor to maintain. I think there ought to be at least one from each family, where it is possible, doing his bit for the Empire.

There was a recitation by Private John Harrington, after which Lieut. Col. Sturdee was called upon to speak to the men. "The response to the appeal made for more men is not very great, but let us give them a royal welcome. Let it be as good, or better than the welcome given to the 52nd Battalion, when it came here. A great deal of the conduct of a body of men in a strange place depends on the kind of a reception they get when they come to that place. We have seen how the 52nd acted. They got a hearty reception, and then there was not a bit of trouble in the city caused by the battalion. The better we treat the men, the more readily they will reciprocate the treatment, and the better they will act while they are here."

There was some more music by Miss Hallam and Miss Sturdee after which William Lanyon, band sergeant of the 204th band, sang a solo, the piano accompaniment being played by George Lanyon, his son, both father and son being in the khaki. Following this, there was a piano solo by George Lanyon, after which Rev. W. R. Robinson was called upon to speak. He began by telling the people that out of his congregation there were now fifty-two men in the army, some of whom have already fallen. Others are on the point of enlisting.

There are three words in the English language," he said, "that are most dear to every person. They are mother, home and honor. We all know who it is that worked for us, and cared for us when we were too young to take care of ourselves. We all know of the great love of a mother. Then consider how it is with hundreds of thousands of mothers in Belgium. They have been driven from their homes, and their children have been mutilated, and their daughters have been outraged. How would you feel if those things happened to your mother? Their boys have been killed trying to defend their homes. "Now the appeal comes across the waters to us here in Canada, and right here in St. John. The appeal has not been vain, for many men have gone, and the number who have come back is still red with blood. It shows that there is still red blood flowing in the veins of the St. John boys. "Take the next word, Home. We see a fine building, well furnished, and hear a man saying, 'that is my home.' But it is not his home. It takes more than a building to make a home. It takes the loved ones and happiness to make a real home. We enjoy all the comforts of homes, and our people are free to do as they please both in their homes and outside. But it is not so in Belgium. There, the homes have been destroyed and broken up by the Hun. All the beautiful houses and buildings of all kinds have been destroyed, and what people are left must do as the Germans say, or they will be severely punished. The people of Belgium are calling to the men of Canada to come over, and not only restore their rights to them, but also prevent those same things from happening to their own homes. "Mother and Home are sacred to us, but Honor should be above all else."

WERE IN ST. JOHN.
About three weeks ago, it will be remembered, Marion Munroe, aged eleven years, and her ten-year-old brother arrived in the city from Cape Breton looking for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Munroe, but as the latter had no idea of their children coming to the city, and having moved from Chesley street, there was considerable difficulty in the youngsters locating their parents. It had been learned that the boy and girl had been residing with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stubbart, on a farm at Boularderie, C. B., from which place they left to come to St. John. After the little girl had located her parents in the North End she told them stories of depravity, in which she was the victim while residing on the farm, and implicated two brothers named Angus and Joseph Christie. Mrs. Munroe on learning these things was much distressed, sought advice how to act in the matter and as a result left St. John and taking her little daughter returned to Cape Breton where a warrant was sworn out against the Christie brothers. They were accordingly arrested and the case was up in the police court at Sydney Mines last week for a preliminary hearing. The prisoners were committed to the jail at the next session of the Supreme Court. According to the North Sydney Herald, the little girl is in shocking physical condition, and although charged with such a serious crime the Christie brothers appear to be quite unconcerned in the matter. It is also stated that the two young men previously figured in a somewhat similar case.

DRUGGISTS MUST SECURE CERTIFICATES

Fines of $20 struck, but allowed to stand for present.

In the police court, yesterday afternoon, Charles V. Vanwart and Harry Driscoll of Brussels street, with Brunswick A. Olive and Giles T. Allan of West St. John, were charged by the Pharmacy Society with selling and dispensing drugs in the city, they not being qualified druggists holding certificates. Harry W. Robertson appeared for Mr. Vanwart, while Wm. Ewing was counsel for the society, and the complaints were argued by Fred W. Munro, the president of the society. A large number of the city druggists were present to watch the proceedings. Mr. Driscoll admitted that he was not a qualified druggist but that a person holding a certificate was in charge of the store. Mr. Vanwart claimed that Blake A. Hoyt, who was registered, was in his employ. It was pointed out by the court that even with gentlemen being in the employ who were certified, according to law, the defendants who did not hold certificates had no right to fill prescriptions. In the case of Brunswick Olive, he explained that Samuel Walters, who held a certificate, was connected with the store. It was shown in court that Mr. Walters was not at the store at all times and Mr. Olive admitted that during the absence of Mr. Walters prescriptions were filled. This was also pointed out as a violation of the law. Giles T. Allan admitted that he did not hold a certificate and stated that the concern was run under the supervision of Dr. W. L. Ellis. Everett Walters of West St. John was also reported and Mr. Ewing stated that although Mr. Walters held a certificate he had not paid his last assessment and that was the reason

Unsightly Pimples Covered His Face.

All diseases and blemishes of the skin are caused by the blood being in an impure condition.
You cannot make a good complexion from the outside; you must get to the seat of the trouble. You must make the blood pure and rich by taking a medicine that will drive out all the impurities and poisons from the blood; one that drives out everything from the system that is the cause of these unsightly skin eruptions.
The best blood cleansing medicine on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters; a medicine that has been used with the greatest success for the past forty years; a medicine you don't experiment with when you buy it.
Mr. Lennox D. Cooke, Indian Path, N.S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last winter my face was covered with pimples. I tried different kinds of medicine, and all seemed to fail. I was one day to a friend's house, and there they advised me to use B.B.B., so I purchased two bottles, and before I had them taken I found I was getting better. I got two more, and when they were finished I was completely cured. I find it is a great blood purifier, and I recommend it to all."
B.B.B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

loans of similar character will be undertaken by American bankers from time to time as the exigencies of the

Draw a Moist Cloth Through a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Dandrene dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of toilet counter, and just try it.

Save your hair! Beautify it! You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.

The splendid result of the Patriotic Auction—an enterprise of the Daughters of the Empire—became known yesterday, when a cheque for $30,000 was handed to the Patriotic Fund management by Miss Helen Sydney Smith, treasurer.

The executive committee met today in the rooms of DeMonts Chapter, Mrs. J. B. Travers in the chair, when the reports of the manager and treasurer were read and adopted.

MAJOR BLACK TELLS OF WORK IN TRENCHES

In a letter which the Minister of Marine and Fisheries received a few days ago from Major F. B. Black, M. L. A., from somewhere in France, he says: "I have now been in France and Belgium for some little time and at present we are doing trench work. It has rained daily for the past ten days. The country is a sea of mud and the trenches constantly caving in, and water in most of them from 2 inches to 4 feet in depth. When making my tour yesterday, I was soaked from mud and water to my waist from 9 a. m. till 11 p. m. We all manage to keep in good health and the men are cheerful. Fortunately the Germans are in the same plight, and, as all are so busy repairing trenches and baling water the fighting is only semi-active and casualties are not heavy."

HE THOUGHT WATER HAD FROZEN, BUT HE HAD BEEN TO A PARTY

Resident of the North End had an interesting hour yesterday.

One resident of the northern part of the city spent an interesting hour or two in the early morning yesterday endeavoring to thaw out the water pipes in his home. It did not matter to him, that the weather was fairly warm for he had been out to a "party" on the previous evening which had been prolonged rather late. Anyway he arrived home and found there was no water available.

He worked diligently for more than an hour without much change in the condition of the pipes although his mind cleared sufficiently to make him consider the possibility of there being something wrong with the mains. He went to the telephone and called up the city department and learned with regret that a burst in a main in Erie street was the cause of the trouble. When he secured this information he went into private conference with the kitchen stove.

A Christmas For A Dollar

Written By Ruth Huntington Grey Of The St. John High School

Did you ever think that for a silver dollar, and a little work you could produce a truly Merry Christmas for your eager children? Not then read how Junior did it, and then tell me what you think.

The next button was the right one, and Junior sent a loud peal through the big house. The trim little maid, who answered, resisted him but Junior was firm.

Then Junior did something which he never did before in all his short life. He hid that dollar under his mattress, and told his mother nothing about it. But she saw it when she made his bed for him.

treasure, and proceeded to drag it home. Then when it was safely hid in the back alley with the rest of his "surprises," Junior proceeded to count his capital. Forty-five cents!

WOUNDED OFFICER'S STORY OF FAMOUS ATTACK AT LOOS

By a Wounded Officer. It was September 23, in the early afternoon. The sun shone intermittently between ominous clouds, brightening for a few fleeting moments the shell-shattered houses and squalid streets of the small mining village which was providing, to the best of its increasing ability, a semblance of shelter and comfort to some of the troops who, two days later, were to take part in the great attack.

Hollow cheeks can arise from a number of other causes. If you lose your teeth, for instance, the cheeks fall in. If, though you have every tooth in your head, your gums recede to any great extent, you will show hollows in your cheeks also.

Fashion Hints

That is the idea is Eastern. These wonderfully beautiful scarfs are made of metal thread, finely woven into veil-like wraps for the shoulders of a woman in low-cut evening dress.

Reliable Recipes

One and one-half cups of sugar, 1 cup of milk, 2 eggs, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, no shortening. Mix not very stiff. The same rule mixed this and dropped from spoon into hot fat.

Things Worth Knowing

Avoid Too Warm Cloths A great many people dress too warmly in winter. It is much better to wear moderately light underwear and a heavy coat or sweater vest that may be taken off in the house.

How Canada Looks After Men Who Fight Her Battles

Sent Forward Well Equipped, with Everything Possible Done to Ensure Health—Provision Made for Those They Leave Behind and For the Men Themselves When They Have Returned After Doing Their Bit.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—It is a little shock at the La Croix, which is somewhere in the far North of the Great West as Canadian geography goes, there lives a Scotch-Canadian woman whose only companion is a daughter fourteen years old. These two recently returned to a new cheerless home from Saskatchewan, where they had come to bid farewell to the youngest son of the family, a lad of seventeen, who was starting to the front with the Forty-fourth regiment.

The journey to Saskatchewan from the La Croix represented eighteen hundred miles of travel—by canoe, by overland trail, some by railway. The old mother and the young sister made it bravely, though their hearts were heavy for the lad, with whom they were able to have only a few minutes conversation before he had to leave. In the last of four sons and brothers, the eldest went with Canada's first contingent, "somewhere in France," they met death. The youngest son would go. He must avenge his brother.

The memory of her four boys, the consciousness that none has given more than she to Canada and the Empire, for she has given her all, a Victoria Cross awarded to the eldest son which was waiting her at Saskatchewan, told her that the Empire does not regard her sacrifice as in vain—these are one mother's proudest possessions, to be nursed to her heart so long as life remains.

It is war. To sons the raking and the giving of their lives, to mothers the sacrifice of all that is dearer than life itself.

I am glad I did not see the parting of this mother and her only remaining son at Saskatchewan. Some of these partings I have seen and want no more. It is not good to witness the rending of a mother's heartstrings.

It is good, however, to forget together with the sons who have come back and listen to their tales of experience as I did at the Overseas Club, at Quebec. Even when there is an arm missing or a leg, even if an occasional hacking cough tells of the deadly gas or a limp explains its owner's name on the casualty lists, always the spirit within is fine.

Clearing House For Invalidded Soldiers
The Overseas Club is a sort of clearing house for the men invalided home. It is an organization of prominent business men who have placed at the disposal of the returned soldiers who are landed at Quebec a large clubroom where they may gather during the time they remain in that city pending the arrival of formal discharge papers. The large room is festooned with flags, and at one end is something that looks suspiciously like a bar. Each evening there is plenty to eat, "soft" drinks for those who choose, beer, boys scout do the waiting, a piano to pound, other music when they want it—mostly they are left to their own devices, which they appreciate. In other words, there is nothing to make them feel that they are being either polished or "mollycoddled," nothing to destroy the feeling that this club is their own.

Every city had towns in the Dominion had its Klubb Club to welcome its own upon his return and do for him. The Overseas Club simply fills the gap "in between." With these clubs, with its patriotic fund, with its various organizations, to find preferred positions in civil life that returned soldiers can fill and with its system of government pensions Canada is taking hold of its "veteran" problem in a way that shows understanding of its probable magnitude and full appreciation of the men who have risked and suffered.

There is nothing to it, nothing; in the open they are done just like so many lambs bleating at being driven to slaughter!" The "Tipperary" chorus had died down and conversation was once more possible. I had asked a blue eyed, fair skinned lad of twenty-two, from the left arm of whose coat their peeped a black band that told its own story of amputation, what he thought of the German as a man to man fighting man.

"Nothing to it," he added, "contentedly. They had it on us at first with their artillery and their gas, but when it came to the close work one Canadian is as good as any five of them. They had to be driven in by their officers—I wish I could reproduce the scene."

"We went through them when the time came like a bunch of professionals go through a lot of football clubs. Honestly, I saw some of them crying like babies. They had caught us, too, half a company that got in between two of the lines, and we had to cut our way through. They had us outnumbered at least ten, perhaps twenty to one, but we got through. Of course there weren't many of us left, but we got through."

Stories of German infantrymen beaten and routed and forced at pleasure by their officers before they would "stand the gaff" were told on all sides. There were stories, too, of gunners found dead at German machine guns, chained and padlocked to the guns, not trusted to serve them as brave men would, but made prisoner by their officers and doomed to a captive's death. Again, of the infantry, that they came always in close brought into the camp, not developed in it. I asked about preventive inoculation only to discover that this is a subject the authorities do not discuss. The reason was not difficult to discover. The British army is the only army in which the taking of the typhoid serum is not obligatory; theoretically, therefore, it is not obligatory in the army of Canada. But everybody undergoes the inoculation. The answer is obvious—while there is no compulsion there is such persuasion as may be necessary, and the statistics of the camps, showing what is practically absolute freedom from the dread disease, tell the rest.

Liberal provision has been made for pensions for wounded and disabled soldiers and for widows and dependent children of soldiers killed. The widow of a private receives $22 a month and $5 a month for each dependent child; the widow of a brigadier general $100 a month, with $10 a month for each child—the allowance for widows of non-commissioned and commissioned officers being graded between these two amounts. For example, the widow of a captain receives $45 a month, with $7 a month for each child.

Four degrees of injury are recognized in the law making provision for the wounded. The first applies to those totally incapacitated and those with total incapacity of earning a livelihood as the result of wounds or injuries received or illness contracted in action; the second class are those totally incapacitated while on active service during drill or training or other duty, also those rendered "materially incapable" in action or in the presence of the enemy; the third class includes those rendered "materially incapable" while on active service, but not at the front, and those "in a small degree incapable" from wounds or illness in action; the fourth class takes in the "small degrees" incapacities who were rendered in active duty, not in action or the presence of the enemy.

The rates are graded between—For a private, first degree, $264; second degree, $192; third degree, $132; fourth degree, $78; and for a brigadier general, first degree, $3,100; second degree, $1,620; third degree, $1,650; fourth degree, $698.

It is through the Patriotic Fund, supported by popular contributions in all parts of the Dominion and administered by leading professional and business men with practically no cost to the fund itself, that the greatest work for the men who return and those at the front is now being done. Primarily the fund takes care of persons dependent upon the men who have joined the colors. This was its first purpose. Not much has as yet had to be done for the men who have returned, but something was needed to relieve distress due to unemployment, and this has been done. Subscriptions to the fund have been most liberal, its total running into the millions. The administrators of the fund in different centres of population are devoting their energies also to the problem of finding proper employment for returned soldiers to run into the millions. The end will doubtless be a preferred "veterans" class in the civil service.

An interesting phase of this relief work was the setting aside by practically every farmer in the West and by many in other parts of the Dominion of a "patriotic acre." The proceeds from the production of that acre are to go to the Patriotic Fund, which is headquarters of this "patriotic acre" movement. I was told there that it was too early to estimate the results, but it was believed every farmer in the wheat belt had set aside his acre for the cause and that the amount realized would run high.

In addition to the giving that goes into these funds there is that for the Red Cross. The response to the needs of this organization has been liberal, despite an occasional blunder. One of these, more laughable than serious, was the selection of Trafalgar Day as Red Cross Day throughout the Dominion. It went all right in those pro-tions of Canada where England is spoken, but when the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec received his notice from Ottawa he managed some way to "lose" it until after Trafalgar Day had been duly celebrated. Then he designated another day for the Red Cross in Quebec, at the same time diplomatically suggesting to the higher authority at Ottawa that somebody ought to "brush up" on history to the extent at least of acquiring knowledge of just what Trafalgar Day celebrates and what Trafalgar was.

FREDERICTON SOLDIER SAVES HIS COMRADE

Pte. Jack Markey thanked by mother of boy he saved in France.

Special to The Standard.
 Fredericton, Nov. 26.—Private Jack Markey of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, one of the heroes returning to Fredericton from the firing line during the past few days, has since his arrival received a letter from the mother of a member of the Princess Pats whose life he saved in one of the memorable fights which that famous regiment went through about Tyres early in the month of May. It was just at the time that the Princess Pats were so badly decimated when they were almost wiped out of existence that Private Markey performed the heroic act which is now bringing recognition. He was a member of No. 4 company from which volunteers were called to act as stretcher bearers and go up to the first line trenches to carry away the wounded of No. 2 company which had been badly shot to pieces.

Eighteen men were called for and Private Markey was one of the number accepted for this hazardous task. When they got to the front line of trenches instead of being used as stretcher bearers they were called upon to act as reinforcements. Finally when the time came to go out of the trench there were only seven left to leave.

One was Capt. Adamson, who commanded the company and one of the others was Corporal Duncan Fisher, a young Scotchman. He was suffering from four wounds, one bullet having taken away part of an ear and another having paralyzed one of his arms, while he was also shot through the legs. Private Markey put him on his back and carried him to safety through heavy fire. Corporal Fisher recovered from his wounds, but one of his arms is still partially withered. This week Private Markey has received a picture of Corporal Fisher whose life he saved and also a letter from his mother, of which the following is a copy:

Coda Linn, Oban, Scotland,
 11th November, 1915.

Dear Sir,—Our son Duncan Fisher, P.P.C.L.I., writes to you for one of his photos for you. He says you are going home so I am writing to try to express his father's and my own gratitude to you for saving our dear boy's life. Had you not helped him when he was wounded he most likely would have died. We are glad you are getting home to your dear wife and children and we pray God to bless you and them and to give you long life together. We trust you will have a safe voyage and find all dear to you quite well. Again thanking you very sincerely,

I remain,
 Very gratefully yours,
 JESSIE S. FISHER.

The incident above referred to took place on May 4th. Two days later Private Markey himself was wounded.

I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used acted so pleasantly and quickly as 'Fruit-a-tives', and by using it recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and Constipation and misery were cured. FUNERAL OF BOY SCOUT YESTERDAY

Many fellow remains of Earle Merritt to last resting place.

The funeral of Earle Merritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, of Seely street, who was drowned in Lily Lake last Wednesday morning, was held yesterday afternoon and was attended by many friends of the family.

The boy had been a member of the St. Paul troop of boy scouts, and the procession which wended its way from his parents' residence was led by some twenty-five scouts, in full uniform, one of them carrying the solitary beat on his black draped drum, as they passed along.

On arriving at St. Paul's church, the scouts, who represented most of the troops of the city, and who had gathered out of respect to their dead comrade, lined up on either side of the doorway, and then took their places in the church.

After the service, which was conducted by the Rev. H. G. Alder, had concluded, the remains were conveyed to Fernhill cemetery again preceded by the boy scouts.

ST. JOHN CASE IN APPEAL COURT

Judgment for Plaintiff with costs—Other cases of interest.

Fredericton, Nov. 26.—Quite a large number of judgments were read by the Supreme Court of Appeals this morning, of which some are of direct interest to parties in St. John. They are as follows:

Peter Brown vs. Bathurst Lumber Co.—Before Chief Justice McLeod and White and Grimmer, J. J. Chief Justice reads the judgment of the court. Appeal allowed with costs. The case to be referred back to judge of the County Court to hear same on the merits.

Duffy vs. Duffy.—Before the Chief Justice and White and Grimmer, J. J. The Chief Justice reads the judgment. White, Justice, reads judgment. The verdict reduced to $753.01. Appeal allowed to this extent with costs.

The King vs. Folkins ex parte McAdam.—Before Justices White, Barry and Grimmer. White and Barry, J. J., read judgment of the court. Grimmer, J. J., reads dissenting judgment. The conviction was confirmed.

Howard vs. City of St. John.—Before Chief Justice and White and Grimmer, J. J. Grimmer, Justice, reads judgment of court. A special case. Judgment for plaintiff with costs.

This was a special case stated for the opinion of the court as to the construction of an act of last session by which the city sought to impose on agents of companies issuing policies of their companies with a heading over them such as "National Underwriters' Association" an additional tax as if the association were a separate company. Some of the agents complained to the city that by the use of this device other agents obtained more business and the bill prepared by the city was defeated by one of their members to meet the grievance complained of. It was thought by the court, that where these devices do not represent an actual body liable under the policy the agent of the company which is bound by the policy is not liable to the extra taxation.

Talbot vs. Oullet.—Before Chief Justice and White and Grimmer, J. J. Grimmer, J. J., reads the judgment of the court. Appeal allowed. Verdict entered for defendant with costs.

Donovan vs. Excelsior Life Ins. Co.—Before Chief Justice and Barry and Grimmer, J. J. Barry and Grimmer, J. J., read the judgment of the court. Chief Justice agrees, appeal dismissed with costs. This was an appeal from judgment in favor of the company on an endorsement policy for $1,000.

Oliver vs. McDermott.—Before Chief Justice and White and Grimmer, J. J. Chief Justice delivers judgment; appeal dismissed with costs. Upon the conclusion of the above judgments the court adjourned sine die.

PRESENTATION TO JEMSEG BOY WHO HAS JOINED THE COLORS

Jemseg, Nov. 25.—Mr. Walter Colwell, one of the young men of our place, has volunteered for overseas service and expects to go away this week. And a large number of his friends, about fifty, gathered at his home last Thursday evening. It was his great surprise when they presented him with a purse of twenty-two dollars and ten cents.
