OTTAWA, April 5 .- On orders of the day being called, Hon. Mr. Bowell called attention to the notice of motion put on the paper by Elgar, accusing Mr. Bowell of receiving $500 in connection with the Prince Albert Colonization Co. Bowell said it was not true that he was interested in the Prince Albert Colonization, and it was not true that he had received any money from Jamieson. He never had any connection directly or indirectly, inferentially or otherwise with the colonization company. He was, however, day in the week. quite willing to gratify the curiosity of Edgar, and wanted a committee at once appointed. The allegations against him (Mr. Bowell) were false and untrue in every particular. White of Hastings said he hoped Edgar would give to the house the exact words of the conversation between Edgar and Hugh Sutherland, a member of this house. Edgar read over his charge to the effect that he believes he can establish by satisfactory evidence that in 1882 John White M. P. for East Hastings, who was associat-

What then was before hin! It was this; How to reconcile the timperial unity with the diversity of legislatures. Other countries had solved the problem and under much more difficult circumstances. We ourselves, might be said to have solved it with the sepect to Ireland, during the time that Ireland had a separate parliament. Did it destroy the unity of the British empire! (Cheers.) Gladstone then pointed to the case of Norway and Sweden, which countries were, he said, united upon the footing of strict legislative independence and co-equality. He also referred to the case of Austria and Hungary, to show that legislative diversity and governmental unity in an empire was not a paradoxical relation. The claim of Ireland to make all association of the conduct of both a legislative and an individual to the case of the conduct of both a legislative and alministrative yastem of Ireland was that its spring and source of action was English.—(Cheers.)
