BATH AGAINST INCORPORATION

Fire Company is Organized—Institute Will Present Fire Alarm—Tangle Between Hydro and Telephone Company

A meeting of interest to the citizens of this place was held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 30, to discuss a most important question, namely, whether the village of Bath should or should not seek incorporation. Dr. M. E. Commins was unanimously elected chairman of the meeting and F. M. Gheron was appointed secretary.

Much discussion ensued both pro and con to the motion. When the vote was taken by one vote. Those standing for the motion, 14; against, 15.

This vote will show that though incorporation was defeated it was not by any overwhelming majority. A start has been made; the ice has been broken in the direction of civic government and will most surely be heard of again. Then, if nothing more comes out of it, the method of procedure will at least be certain and correct procedure is certainly a stepping stone of no mean value in any such forward movement.

The appointing of an up-to-date volunteer fire brigade was also taken up at this meeting and the following men were appointed by the meeting and also had their respective positions assigned them.

Furthermore the third section for which the meeting was called was the selection of some suitable fire alarm; whether this should take the form of a bell or be an electric siren, and again as to the location of this said alarm and the system of alarm which would most adequately meet with local requirements. This fire alarm is to be presented to the town by the Women's Institute, and the subject was brought up by them at this meeting, to get the opinion of the so-called sterner sex on the subject.

Mrs. Hannegan and her son John Hannegan, Johnville, left for Portland, Me., on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Tracy and Master Tracey Giberson returned home on Monday, Oct. 29, after a month's visit spent with friends in Lowell, Mass.

The many friends of Mrs. Donohoe and Mrs. Simon Gallagher, who were injured in an automobile accident, will be pleased to learn that both are well on the road to recovery, having left the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, on Thursday last, and making the trip home by car.

FINE NEW OFFICES OF N. B. TELEPHONE

Most Elaborate in Town and Good Service is Being Given

Altogether the most attractive suite of business offices in the town are those of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., which during the summer were rebuilt from the old building owned by the Company on Main street. L. E. McFarland had the work in charge and this fact testifies that it was very well done. A new plate glass front was put in, hard-wood floors were laid throughout, and the whole street front is devoted to the uses of the company. The walls of the apartment are paneled in heavy board and Douglas fir, the color scheme being for the side walls, a light buff and flat white, with dark stained wood-work. The handsome wainscoting is of natural wood and the ceilings are a neat design in pressed steel, painted in flat white. The public is shut off from the operators' room by a neat railing with narrow counter top. At the left is a commodious room occupied by Manager Britton. At the right there is a booth for public toll service. A two position switch-board, capable of accommodating several hundreds of subscribers, occupies a convenient location in the main room. Off of this room there is also a large store room used for surplus supplies needed by the Company and there are also conveniently located lavatories. The office gets light from the street at the east, while the west windows look out upon the river. It is doubtful if the company have anywhere in a town so small as Hartland, an office so elaborate or fitted in a more modern way.

Mrs. Pearl Thornton is the capable and obliging chief operator. Her staff consists of Miss Margaret Lewis and Miss Isabel Hallett, day operators, while Miss Marion Donkin is night operator.

Strange to say Saturday was the Editor's first visit to a local telephone exchange, and as he watched the operators at their skillful manipulations of plugs and cords and various dings, which he knew not the use of, there came to him a new respect for the girls, who were sometimes termed cranky and incompetent. The writer does not know whether it was one of their busy hours or not. If it was not he would like to be present to see the girls move when they are really busy. There are some who claim that our telephone service is not what it should be. The Observer strongly advises the complaining ones to visit the office at some busy hour and see if they, the complainers, could themselves do better at the work. The installation and the up-keep of the equipment, like that at Hartland, runs into a great deal of money and if subscribers complain that more operators should be employed, they must remember that every additional operator calls for additional equipment and wages and that the subscribers would have to pay for it in the end.

THIMBLE PARTY

Mrs. Harry Barter and Mrs. P. C. Barter entertained very pleasantly at a thimble party on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5.30 at the home of the latter in honor of their guest, Mrs. D. W. Kyle, Moncton.

Those present were Mrs. D. W. Kyle, and Mrs. J. E. Bars, Moncton, Mrs. S. Miller, Mrs. A. Plummer, Mrs. A. G. Baker, Mrs. C. S. Baker, Mrs. Murdoch, Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. E. W. Laskey, Miss Marion Stevens, Mrs. C. H. Taylor, Miss C. Shaw, Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. F. R. Kelly, Mrs. G. O. Orser, Mrs. G. O. Britton, Mrs. Geo. McGoldrick, Mrs. K. W. Keith, Mrs. D. E. Morgan, Mrs. J. S. King, Mrs. McGinley, Mrs. A. W. Kyle, Mrs. Spurgeon Tompkins, Mrs. S. H. White, Mrs. F. Hagerman.

TOWN'S LOOKS BEING IMPROVED

Not so Many New Buildings as Former Years But Many Attractions Added

While during the past season the number of new buildings has not been so great as in former years, there has, nevertheless, been a great many improvements on buildings already erected. The completion of the magnificent residence of Dr. Macintosh on Prince and Main streets adds greatly to the attraction of the town and it is quite easily the finest residence within the county.

M. L. Hayward, Esq., has had a miracle wrought upon what he himself would have termed his humble dwelling with a magnificent broad verandah extending across the front and along the whole south side and the ell, and other attractions added, together with neat painting in a delightful shade of green, makes the residence rank well up among the best of houses on Main street, which is being noted for its comfortable and handsome homes.

What was known as the old Nevess place in the heart of the town and which is one of the very oldest buildings here, is the property of H. E. Adams. The old house was one of the early styles, the fashion of a hundred years ago, but it was well built, roomy and hospitable in appearance. For years it was beautified by a covering of ivy, but now the old building is being so changed that its oldest friends will have difficulty in recognizing it when the work is completed. Large windows have been placed in front and a verandah luxuriously broad and inviting has been built across the south side. The three buildings specifically mentioned in this article are not the whole of our Main street improvements. It has been mentioned before that L. H. Glass, J. W. Montgomery and others have added to the appearance of their properties. The extension of broad concrete side walks is a pleasing feature and from end to end the Main street of today can hardly be recognized as that which the village of Hartland boasted as its chief thoroughfare ten years ago. All the improvements that have been made cost money.

The Observer made considerable excursions last year and it knows what that cost is, but all the improvements, together, and those which will be done in the next year and in years soon to come, will make the street one of which the town can be thoroughly proud. This article has treated especially of the Main street, but there have been other improvements on all streets and the residential section of the highlands is being beautified quite as much as the rest of the town.

The appearance of Burt's Flat, so-called, will be wonderfully changed before the flowers of next spring bloom.

THANKSGIVING AT THE HARTLAND U. B. CHURCH

"Oh! give thanks unto the Lord for He is good, for His mercies endureth forever. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord for He has crowned the year with His goodness." In view of the goodness of God let all the people make their way to the various churches on Sunday that they may offer public thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold blessings. A Special Thanksgiving Service will be held in the Hartland Baptist church on Sunday evening at 7.30 to which all who do not worship elsewhere are cordially invited. Special Thanksgiving music will be rendered by the choir.

At the morning service the pastor will give the second sermon in the series on "God's Message to the Church" (Rev. 2: 2-11).

POPPY DAY

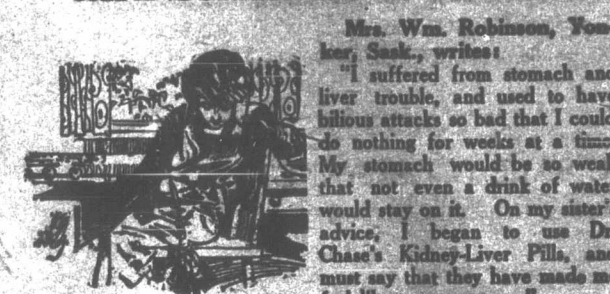

(Edmundston Observer)

"Poppy Day" falls on the 11th, that is a week from Sunday. On Poppy Day the custom has been to wear a poppy in memory of those who died and those who fought for freedom amongst the Poppy Fields of Flanders. These poppies will be on sale in Edmundston on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, next week. The poppies are made by disabled soldiers, and by this means a great number of men are employed. The money obtained from the sale of them on "Poppy" Day is used to help disabled veterans and dependents of veterans.

All over Canada on Armistice Day these poppies will be on sale, large ones for the ladies, and small ones for the men. The simple act of wearing this token brings back memories to us of those stirring days, when we held our breath at the latest news from the theatre of war, when we bowed our head at the name of a loved one whom we heard had fallen, when we KNEW that only a thin red line kept us safe from German Domination. Ah! how well did Canada's sons do in that fight for freedom! And in honor to those who fought, and in memory of those who died the people of Edmundston will wear a poppy on Armistice Day.

SATISFACTION

A seemingly low price for an article is always attractive, but unfortunately frequently misleading. How often is heard the remark—"I would rather have paid a little more and got the quality I wanted."

As a matter of fact that "little more" was necessary to obtain the better quality. Good goods require a higher price to be good.

There are cheaper teas than "KING COLE"—but would you be satisfied with their quality?

Two super pictures were shown at the local theatre on Wednesday. "Crimoline and Romance" proved a pretty little love idyl of a beautiful young lady who, kept sequestered by her old uncle, got a marvelous trick out of a visit to an aunt which was clandestinely arranged for her by her old colored mammy. A Fox News and Harold Lloyd comedy made a full program. Saturday evening witnessed the screening of the big ten reeler "Monte Cristo." To those whose boyhood days were stirred by the tale of Edmond Dantes' adventures in Dumas' immortal epic, and those who have been thrilled by some actor endeavoring to bring the count home in reality, the work of John Gilbert in the title role and the assistance of his galaxy of stars will be something long to be remembered. Those missing this picture missed a real treat. Read the advertising elsewhere in this week's Observer.

The teachers and scholars of the superior school, have already begun practice for a play which will be staged sometime during the Christmas holiday season. The scholars are already greatly interested in the progress of the affair.

Mrs. B. R. Field gave a Halloween party to a number of young tots for the pleasure of her daughter, Rayworth, on Wednesday evening last, and the kiddies had a wonderful time.

Miss Lillian Goodspeed entertained a number of her set at a Halloween party at her home on Wednesday evening. A number of fantastic garbs were noted adorning the masquaders, and all had a wonderful time.

The town cut-ups, gave but little evidence of their endeavors on Thursday morning. The little bits of devilry, that they perpetrated were of such a slight order that no one suffered any discomfort from their ravages.

R. P. Hartley of Woodstock was in town on business on Saturday.

S. H. Cormier spent the week-end at home here. He is working on a decorating job at Hartland.

Mrs. W. R. MacKenzie of Derby Junction, N. B., writes: "I have tried Vicks VapoRub and found it very satisfactory. I have used it for bronchial asthma by melting it in a spoon and inhaling the vapor, also rubbed a little on my chest. Vicks gave me relief in a short time."

HARDWICKE

Miss Christine MacDonald of Hardwicke, N. B., writes: "I have used Vicks VapoRub for catarrh and inhaled the vapor. I found it excellent. I also used Vicks for burns and obtained great results."

SAYFIELD

Mrs. Edwin Spencer of Main Street, Sayfield, N. B., writes: "I have suffered for years with bronchitis and coughed so long that I feared other developments. I used the trial package of Vicks by rubbing my throat thoroughly and putting a little in my mouth. Now I do not cough nearly so much and am greatly relieved. I cannot recommend Vicks too highly."

BURNT CHURCH

Miss Marjorie E. Morrison of Burnt Church, N. B., says: "I have used Vicks VapoRub and find it good. I used it for a cold in my head and it gave quick relief. Mother and I would not be without Vicks for anything."

WHILE the supply lasts, the coupon below is good at any local drug store for a test size package of Vicks VapoRub, the external vaporizing treatment for all cold troubles.

Though new here, Vicks is a family stand-by in the States, where over 17 million jars are used yearly. Its success is due to its amazingly quick double action. Rubbed on, it penetrates and stimulates the skin. At the same time, its ingredients, released as medicated vapors by the body heat, are inhaled with each breath directly into the nose, throat and lungs. Thus colds are often broken up over night, croup relieved in fifteen minutes.

Mothers prefer this new way of treating children's cold troubles because it avoids upsetting their little stomachs by internal dosing. It is fine for spasmodic croup, sore throat, tonsillitis and head colds, and as a salve for cuts, burns, bruises and itches.

Vicks is the discovery of a pharmacist in the States who found how to combine, in salve form, the world's best remedies for colds—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine, etc. Made at first in the back room of his drug store, for a few friends, its fame spread county by county, state by state until now Vicks is the largest selling remedy of its kind in the world.

So many people have become enthusiastic over the famous Vicks "Spoon Test" that each drug store has been furnished with a special demonstration stand for making the test. Go to your druggist and try it—it's free.

When I woke next morning I was greatly relieved. I gladly recommended Vicks to any person suffering from colds."

WOODSTOCK

Mr. J. A. Troy of 75 Emerald Street, Woodstock, N. B., says: "I found Vicks a great relief to me, for I am troubled with asthma. At night I rubbed it well on my chest and put a piece up each nostril. It certainly made my breathing much easier. Would advise any person bothered with asthma to try Vicks."

ST. JOHN

Mrs. M. R. Blizard of 55 Erin Street, St. John, N. B., writes: "My little boy had a bad cold in the head and chest. I used Vicks VapoRub at night by applying it to the chest and covering with a flannel and in the morning he was feeling better. We have recommended Vicks to different people for whooping cough and asthma and it has brought great results."

fly have again moved into the Mrs. Joseph Nixon house, Church street.
Harvey Price has purchased a new pool table, which he has set up in his barber shop and states that he is open for all comers.

Mr. Minne and party motored to Centreville last Wednesday evening, all stating that they enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griffin, Debec, spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. John Pickard, Piercemont.

A very impressive memorial service was held in St. John the Evangelist cemetery, Johnville, on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 4, at three o'clock, in memory of all those buried. Following which Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated in the church. Rev. W. M. Donohoe, the pastor, officiated at both of the services.

Numerous stories, many bearing the same plot thought-out, yet mainly being as numerous and as different as there were imaginations to make them so, yet we believe in all good faith, have been current, regarding the dispute between the Consolidated Telephone Co., Ltd., and The Carleton Electric Company. For the benefit of those who may wish to know, negotiations are now going on between the representatives of these two companies, and it is expected will shortly reach some agreement amicable to both. The stumbling block was that the Carleton Electric Co. have erected poles in places where they protruded through the Consolidated Telephone Company's lines, thus encroaching upon the Telephone Company's rights. When a settlement is reached there is no doubt but that the work on the 1400 lines, in his section, will recommence.

Hallowe'en night, per usual custom, was a night of tricks and stolen wheelbarrows, ringing of door-bells and misplaced gates. No extensive damage was done however, to any person's property, perhaps because the present adult population, having a faint recollection of their own antics on Hallowe'en nights in years gone by and being afraid that history might repeat itself, stayed awake later than usual and retired only when they felt sure that the "Katzenjamer Kids" of the present generation had slouched through the kitchen doors of their respective abodes, and had stealthily tip-toed up the back stairs, in an effort to avoid the tentacles of a strict, God-fearing, law-abiding parent.

Percy Semple, Florenceville, and Joseph Fewer, Woodstock, have been busy men about town during the past couple of weeks.

Work on the Haley Bridge, on the Johnville road 1 1/2 miles from here, is progressing rapidly under the charge of Bridge Inspector H. W. Craine.

THE RADIO BUG

The Radio Bug has taken strong hold on Hartland and the set installed by H. H. Hatfield is one of the most complete in the province. On Friday evening it was the editor's pleasure to hear a portion of the speech of David Lloyd George, given at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City, the atmospheric conditions were not very favorable, however, and only a few words of his speech could be distinctly heard.

On Sunday evening there came loud and distinct a concert from Gemble's Department Store in Philadelphia, another from East Pittsburg, and another from Albany. The foot ball score was also read from Albany and Cleveland, Ohio. On Sunday evening the conditions were better than on the two previous nights and quite a large congregation gathered at the home of Mr. Hatfield after church services and listened to a sermon delivered in a New York Presbyterian church by Dr. Frank E. Spear, a returned missionary, who made a strong appeal to not only the audience whom he was directly speaking to, but to listeners all over America, for aid for the starving millions in Japan and the far East. Hymns number 439 and 326 were distinctly announced and were heard by the magnificent choir as distinctly as if it had been only across the street.

Russell Britton has had a radio outfit and has succeeded in hearing news all over the world, and Carle Rigby is hearing concerts and world news every night through his outfit. He also sells complete equipment.

Lakeville Leaflets

Joseph Anderson, an old and respected citizen of Deererville, was buried here on Friday afternoon. Evangelist Lee Good of Monticello, Me., preached an appropriate sermon to a well filled house.

Several from here attended the funeral of James A. Kilpatrick of Tracey Mills, which was held at Williams-town. Rev. M. H. Manuel of Nova Scotia, an old friend of the family, came to attend the burial.

Mrs. Perley of Fredericton was here on Friday to be present at the burial of Mr. Anderson.

The union services are being well attended this week. They are in the U. B. church.

Mrs. Geo. Smith is under the care of Dr. Wright.

Miss Millie Foster is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wright.

Miss Bertha Palmer of Boston is visiting her relatives here.

On Monday a family gathering was held at John Gillis's.

Dr. Geo. Burt of Fort Fairfield was in the village on Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Tracey is not improving as rapidly as her many friends would wish.

W. W. Wilson is unloading a car-load of Robin Hood flour this week.

The grist mill is doing a big business this fall.

Mrs. Carrie McDonald of Houlton visited her home here on Sunday.

BIRMINGHAM-HAYWARD

Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 31, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few near relatives, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Fannie Birmingham, when her daughter Annie became the wife of Amos Hayward of Upper Brighton. The bride looked very nice in a fawn velvet with large black velvet hat and brown furs. As the bride and groom entered the parlor Miss Elizabeth Hayward, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. During the signing of the register Miss Hayward sang "O Promise Me." After a wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Hayward went on their honeymoon to St. John. Miss Birmingham is one of Hartland's most popular young ladies. Many friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Hayward a long and happy wedded life.

REV. J. K. KING

"BACK FROM ENGLAND"

At the Methodist church Sunday night a large congregation met to welcome back the pastor, Rev. J. K. King, after his two months' absence in the old country. The reverend gentleman in a few words before the sermon expressed his pleasure in again being able to be present and although he had a wonderful trip, taking in five different countries, a trip he had longed for for forty years, he was glad to be back again and he wished to express his heartfelt thanks to the people for their kindness in letting him go, and especially to Rev. Thomas Pierce who carried on the work in his place during his absence.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Edna Sipprell was happily surprised on Friday evening when the Philathea class of the U. B. Sunday school, of which she is a member, met at her home in Somerville and gave her a party. A very pleasant evening was passed and refreshments were served by the visitors. Miss Sipprell was presented with two pieces of Par-lisan Ivory accompanied by an address given by Mrs. G. F. Bolster. Miss Sipprell expects in the near future to go to Boston and points in Connecticut for an extended visit.

COMPOSES A NEW SONG

Raymond H. Clarke of Portage, Me., who a few years ago was employed in the station here, has written the words for a song, which, it is predicted, will be a real hit and one that will live forever. The title is "Just Memories" and the music has been composed by May Hill, who has had a number of great successes, including the march hit "Dominion of Canada" which won her a $10,000 prize. Mr. Clarke is a native of St. Stephen and his wife is a daughter of H. C. Glenn of Grand Falls, and who, at a period during the war, was a clerk in the Bank of Montreal here.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH

Sunday next will be observed in the above church as Harvest Thanksgiving Services. There will be special singing and sermons. As this is Armistice Day there will also be memorials offered for those who gave their lives in the Great War. The services will be as follows: 8 a.m., Holy Communion (Memorial); 11 a.m., High Celebration with sermon; 7:30 p.m., Evensong and sermon. Gifts of fruit, vegetables and flowers will be thankfully received in the church on Saturday afternoon. The Rector will preach at Glasville at 2:30 in the afternoon.

40TH ANNIVERSARY

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Day celebrated the 40th anniversary of their wedding at their home on High street, when a large number of guests were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Four sisters of Mrs. Day and her aged father, James McClary, were among the number. The sisters presented to Mrs. Day a gold brooch, and the assembled guests presented to her a club bag and to Mr. Day an umbrella.

In loving memory of Everett E. Cattelle who departed this life Nov. 2, 1922.

A year ago since that sad day When Everett dear has passed away. Gone is the face we loved so dear; Silent the voice we long to hear. Too far away for sight or speech But not too far for our thoughts to reach.

Mrs. Geo. Cattelle and family.

SEWING CIRCLE GOSSIP

There was some discussion at the Circle this week about the International Vessel race, and as to whether at four bells in the morning the Lunenburg sailors like coffee better than tea. The wife of the radio operator, whose husband is now at sea, said she thought it largely depended upon how good the coffee was. "It," said she, "the sailor can get LUXOR ORIENTAL COFFEE, he is bound to prefer it to anything else."

AUTO SMASH SUNDAY EVENING

Sunday the mercury registered 74 degrees and the sun shone brightly all day. It was without doubt the warmest November day ever recorded in this part of the world. From April 1 to date there have been only 12 days on which the sun did not shine brightly for a time at least. Nearly every day was almost cloudless, and much of the time strong north winds prevailed. The summer months were the coolest that any inhabitant can recall.

Order Printing Now

Now is the time for produce dealers and other business men to look over their stock of office supplies and place their orders for printing before the big rush that usually sets in around the first of September. We can handle any orders sent in now very expeditiously, but if orders are deferred they may come at a time when we have weeks of work ahead. Letterheads, invoices, envelopes, all the various needed blank forms may as well be ordered now and be ready the instant they are required. We can at any time deliver blank typewriter paper, second sheets, from stock in hand, and we supply any form of special "house leaf" or other blanks as quickly and as cheaply as they can be secured elsewhere. The facilities of The Observer Newspapers printing plant are not excelled in the province, being quite equal to the best equipped city offices. The most expert craftsmen we can secure are employed and the enterprise needs your patronage and we will lend our best effort to satisfy every customer in quality, service and price. Orders sent by mail will be filled promptly and at just as low a price as if we gave competitive figures—and if you must have an order filled in a great rush we will never take advantage of your necessity. The regular customer, the "stay-at-home," gets our best prices. We try to fill every order so that we may hope for the next one with reasonable assurance. The Observer Newspapers Ltd., Hartland, N.B.

KILBURN NEWS

Miss Elsie Gowen of Upper Kintore

IN line with new legislation being passed in the various States of the American Union aimed to diminish the alarming number of accidents through reckless driving of automobiles, particularly on level railroad crossings, the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada has requested the Canadian Pacific Railway to submit information bearing upon similar dangerous practices by motorists on various portions of its system so that use may be made of the information with a view to endeavoring, through education, to minimize the occurrence of such dangerous practices.

In a Bulletin issued by the Board of Railway Commissioners on June 15th, 1922, 54 cases of danger at protected crossings are cited for the period October, 1922, to May, 1923, and of these fifty are declared to have been due to the carelessness of motor drivers. "Motor accidents," says the bulletin, "are becoming more frequent. Every sane motorist deprecates this. If accidents are to be lessened, the sane motorist must educate the culpably negligent motorists."

All highway crossings are by law protected by signs, and they are only dangerous when the driver of the automobile makes them so. They are not dangerous if motorists will take a small part of the care they exercise in turning on a city street. It is the motorist's carelessness that makes them dangerous. The train has right of way. Everyone knows what may happen if the plainly seen warnings are disregarded at a point where the motor car can stop while the train cannot.

The surprising part of it also is that safeguards and precautions erected by the railroads are so often entirely ignored. Time after time newspaper reports show that crossing alarm bells, barrier gates and even watchmen waving "stop" signals mean nothing to the man in the motor car who is determined to beat the train to it.

Coroners' juries are usually more discriminating and put the blame where it belongs, but the general public, seeing the usual newspaper heading, "Train Crashes into Motor Car," starts out with the impression that the train must necessarily be to blame, when, as a matter of fact, a fairer statement of the case would be "Another Auto Gets in Path of Fast Train." Quite as often, too, the heading should read, "Flying Auto Dashes into Moving Train." Frequently the auto strikes the train well behind the engine, a convincing indication that the motorist too frequently treats the railroad crossing with the same casual notice that he gives the intersection of a quiet country road.

Out of 32 level crossing accidents that happened in Ontario during 1922, 22 were the result of the motorist not heading the stop signal, and seven were the result of running into the lowered gates or actually passing under them after they were lowered or while they were being lowered. One man had no headlights and apparently did not see the gates were down while the remainder in other ways tried to cross in front of the engine in order to save time.

In an editorial on this question, the Toronto Star says that: "In a country like this, with its magnificent distances, and railway systems with twenty thousand miles of track, the time may never come when all level crossings will be eliminated. With motor cars in use everywhere there is no railway crossing so remote that a motorist may use it. It is his business to see that he does so at a safe moment. It is his business for two reasons: (1) because it is the presence of him and his car at that time and place, and not the coming of the train, which creates the risk of a crash; and (2) because if there should be a crash he and his car will be crushed, and not the train."

PRINTING

While it is true that the stamp on your letter is a guarantee of delivery, it falls to the letter itself to determine its final destination—the filing cabinet or the waste basket.

In many cases your written correspondence is your only point of personal contact with your client or your customer, and it through poor appearance or address it fails to convey the importance of your message, it naturally is received with but scant attention. If, on the other hand, your letter has a "crackle" of quality—a clean, dignified appearance—it will command the same respect which would be accorded to you on a personal visit.

To ensure quality which you know will be faultless and therefore above comparison, specify Colonial Bond. Printers everywhere in Canada have it—better still, let us send a sample sheet.

Here and There

The world's record for grain trains was shattered by the Canadian Pacific Railway on October 5th, with a monster train of 122 car loads of wheat, over a mile long, which operated between Stoughton and Arcola. The contents of the cars, 185,000 bushels, weighed 5,566 tons.

All grain loading records in Alberta were completely smashed by the Canadian Pacific on October 10th, when the Company loaded 753 cars, representing at least 1,065,200 bushels. If these cars were placed together they would make up a freight train about six miles in length, and a baker's dozen of these trains would extend from Calgary to Banff, a distance of 82 miles.

A record in western railroad construction was established on the Canadian Pacific Langdon-Melfort line recently, when the last mile of track between Langdon and Pleasantdale was completed in one day. D. A. Livingstone, engineer in charge, reports that seventy per cent of his crew of 25 were British harvesters.

Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operated in the purchase in the British Isles of a large stock of horses, swine and sheep, including sheep owned by His Majesty the King, which arrived here recently. This is the second shipment of cattle to Canada through the co-operation of the agricultural departments with sheep and swine breeders throughout the Dominion.

T. K. Doherty, the Canadian Commissioner in the International Institute of Agriculture, estimates Canada's exportable wheat surplus this year at 300 million bushels, as against 150 millions from the United States, 110 from Argentina, 50 from Australia, and 15 from Russia. Canada, in fact, may be expected to supply nearly half the wheat exports of the whole world—300 out of 675 million bushels.

E. W. Beatty, K.C., President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, speaking at important centres on his recent extensive tour through the Canadian West, sounded a note of optimism, declaring that the general improvement in Canadian business conditions rendered an accompanying growing pessimism entirely unjustifiable. Stressing the need for a vigorous, intensive immigration policy by the government, he put forward suggestions that the department of immigration and colonization should issue a general invitation through Great Britain, the United States and certain European countries, for settlers, and that greater advantage should be taken of the favorable policies towards emigration to Canada adopted by the governments of Great Britain and other countries.

Most extraordinary yields of grain are reported from the Provincial School of Agriculture at Orléans, Alberta. On a one-acre patch 105 bushels of Marquis wheat were threshed, which is believed to be a record for this crop, exceeding the 82 bushel yield of Sanger Wheeler, which was previously considered unsurpassable. From an acre seeded to oats, 205 bushels were threshed. Barley similarly yielded exceptionally. On a field of 27 acres an average of 70 bushels to the acre was secured, whilst on another, 10 acres of a different variety, a yield of 80 bushels to the acre was reported.

Eighty per cent of Canada's national debt is owned by Canadians. Bank deposits in this country at the close of the last fiscal year, March 31st, 1928, totalled $1,218,000,000, an increase in ten years of $720,000,000. The year's trade records show Canada's foreign trade to be $1,000,000,000, an increase of $221,000,000 over last year, and Canada's exports have exceeded her imports by $107,000,000, forty-two per cent of these exports being finished products.

BACK AGCHED TERRIBLY

Mrs. McMahon Tells How She Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chatham, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a run-down condition after the birth of my baby boy. I had terrible pains and backache, was tired and weak, not fit to do my work and care for my three little children. One day I received your little book and read it, and gave up taking the medicine I had and began taking the Vegetable Compound. I feel much better now and am not ashamed to tell what it has done for me. I recommend it to any woman I think feels as I do."

—Mrs. J. B. McMahon, 183 Harvey St., Chatham, Ont.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has for nearly fifty years been restoring sick, ailing women to health and strength. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful periods, irregularities, tired, worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. McMahon writes, as well as by one woman telling another. These women know and are willing to tell others, what it did for them; therefore, it is surely worth your trial.

Women who suffer should write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book, upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women."

BISHOP RICHARDSON'S VISIT

The Bishop of Fredericton made an Episcopal visit to the Church and Parish of St. John the Baptist on Wednesday.

By Strawberry Flats and the Silver Daisy

1—Falls about 5 miles from Hope
2—On the trail

3—The Summit
4—Defiance Camp

The little village of Hope, situated on the Fraser River about one hundred miles from the coast, is the starting point for all mountaineers wishing to reach the interior of British Columbia by the trail route. It is a scattering of about two hundred inhabitants but possessing both an abundance of natural beauty and a truly romantic past. The village is flanked on one side by the noble Fraser river, while from the other side one looks up three wide draws in the mountain ranges. The one to the left is the beautiful Coquihalla valley through which the turbulent Coquihalla river cascades from a pass unmatched for rugged grandeur. Through this pass too, under innumerable snow sheds and tunnels the Kettle Valley Railway goes to Princeton and the interior. In the centre is an opening for the Nicola river, to the right is the Silver Creek draw and beyond it the snow-capped peaks of the Cascade range.

The mountain trail over the Hope Pass is the old one known as the Dewdney which was surveyed and partly built for twenty-five miles out of Hope, by English Sappers in 1861. It winds up the Coquihalla River for a short distance, then branches off with the Nicola, a tributary of the former river. The way lies through Sylvan glades, past rushing waterfalls and over rustic bridges, the old dry "cribbing" of which is as firm as the day when it was laid.

The first feeding ground for horses is at 12 Mile Lake—otherwise known as Divide Lake at an altitude of 6000 feet. This lake is the head waters of the Nicola river. Here there is a beautiful hay meadow owned by a trapper and prospector who is patiently awaiting the day when the transprovincial road will give him a means of transporting his wealth, in the shape of hay, to outside points.

At 22 Mile there is another beautiful camping spot. Here there is a large cabin situated in the forest's heart on the very banks of the Skagit river. The owner of it carries on prospecting and mining operations in the vicinity. He appropriately calls his cabin "Defiance Camp" and his mine "The Silver Daisy."

From here on for many miles the scenery becomes more wonderful, if that were possible, but at the same time more wild and rugged. The Pass, a narrow highway bounded by cliffs thousands of feet high, is a sight of never-ending marvel. At one spot, known as Skagit bluff, the trail (a bare 18 inches wide) winds around the shoulder of a cliff which towers above and drops away a sheer one thousand feet to the bed of the river below. Then the trail once more drops down to the next feeding grounds at Cayuse Flats which has a sister spot three miles farther on—Cedar Flats. Beyond Cedar Flats lies a long strip of heavy cedar timber, a true "forest primeval." Strawberry Flats, a pleasant open field on the Skagit river at a height of 3700 feet is the last stopping place before the actual ascent to the summit begins. Here, in spite of the high altitude, wild strawberries grow in abundance.

In the next 2800 feet (of the perpendicular of course!) one is led to the summit by a series of switchbacks zig-zagging up the face of the mountain. The river, which at the foot appeared a torrent, is here a tiny stream, a mere trickle over the stones. Below, the ever-lasting hills unroll themselves for a hundred miles of valley and peak.

When the summit itself is attained a sight never to be forgotten appears. A wide open meadow lies in an inverted crown on the mountain top. Around its edge rise whitish cliffs scarcely distinguishable from the many snow banks. And everywhere, even beside the snow, grows a bewildering variety of wild flowers.

In the centre of the depression lie two lakes, the dividing of the waters, for from the one goes the Skagit river towards the sea and from the other flows the Whip Saw Creek towards the interior lakes. As soon as the descent of the eastern slope is begun a great change is noticeable. The grade is easy and steady, the country becomes more open and is clear of the under-brush and ferns so characteristic of the western slope.

The last camp is twenty miles from Princeton but the last nine miles of that distance are covered by a good motor road, the beginning of the proposed Trans-provincial-highway from Princeton to Hope.

About eight miles from Princeton is a wonderfully interesting spot where stratified rocks yielding excellent fossils remains are located on the side of the hill.

Shortly after this the valley opens out before one. Princeton snuggled peacefully into a friendly circle of hills and its two rivers, the Similkameen and Tulumna, keeping guard over it. Beyond it, rises a splendid vista of rolling green foothills with more rugged mountains closer in, indicative of the districts most flourishing industries, ranching and mining.
