THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I submit that the Prosecution has failed to establish a prima facia case on the first charge, for the following reasons: There has been no evidence to indicate that at any time the accused was in the vicinity of the money, allegdly in the handbag of Mrs. Lamfers. In that respect Mrs. Den Enting has stated that she thought the accused was in the yard where the handbag was by reason of the fact that she heard bottles rattling. I would like to point out that she also stated she had bottles in the kitchen where she kept the syrup, and also that the accused had a bottle with him. Secondly, there is no indication that the money that fell out of the accused's pocket had been any money which Mrs. Lamfers had, allegdly, in her handbag. Mrs. Lamfers said she could identify the money because of the way it was arranged, and she has no other way of recognizing it. The Court saw Mrs. Lamfers arrange and rearrange the money in this Court room. Thirdly, I submit that there has been insufficient evidence that the money which witnesses say they saw fall out of the accused's pocket is the money that was handed over to Lt. Bateman. This money was picked up by a soldier and put into the Jeep and then another soldier took it from the Jeep, this soldier could have been Pte MacEacheran, from there it went to the orderly room clerk who says it was put into the orderly room box. I contend there are gaps in the sequence of the handling of this money. This first soldier who picked up the money has not been identified, has not given evidence, no one seems to know who he was. Pte MacEacheran is not here to state that he did pick the money up from the Jeep. Also during the night the money was left in the orderly room box it could have been taken by anyone. The clerk was asleep, the box was not locked, and the clerk does not know whether the envelope containing the money was sealed or not.

ANSWER BY THE PROSECUTOR

I submit that there is sufficient evidence offered by the Prosecution to merit this case to the members of the court. The Court will recall there are a number of instances of strong circumstantial evidence that the accused is guilty of stealing that money. First, Mr. and Mrs. Den Enting and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lamfers, all state that the bicycle bags were closed before the accused arrived on the scene, yet, directly after the accused left the Cafe, Mrs Lamfers and Mr. Den Enting both found that the bicycle bags were open and showed signs of having been tampered with. Secondly, the accused and his companion, Moore, were in the yard, or, in the part of the premises leading to the courtyard. They were there alone for 15 minutes and had ample opportunity to take the money. All five witnesses state that neither themselves or anyone else went into that courtyard from when the bicycles were put there until after 7 o'clock when the accused had left the Cafe. Thirdly, the prosecution has put forward sufficient evidence that that only way into the courtyard was from the kitchen itself. The evidence reveals that there is a wall, a high wall, surrounding the courtyard, with an iron, barbed wire on top of it. The gate leading into the side street was securly locked and barred. Mrs. Lamfers was apparently satisfied that her money was safe in that courtyard, and she took all precautions because that 400 guilders was all the money she had in the world. Fourthly, Mrs. Lamfers, despite cross-examination, stoutly maintains that the money that fell out of the pocket of Pte Dufresne is her money, and it is an exceedingly singular fact that the denominations of the 362 guilders, so far as the lesser amount would allow, tallies with what Mrs. Lamfers says she had in her purse. I have shown by a series of witnesses that the money that fell out of Pte Dufresne's pocket was the money which is in Court, and which has been identified by Mrs. Lamfers as her money. I submit that this Court can take judicial notice of the common and ordinary things of life. I am sure that every member of this Court has at some time been very very certain of a fact and still unable to find a reason for so being. Such is the case of the certainty Mrs Lamfers had in identifying the money which was filed as an exhibit before this Court. I submit that a prima facia case has been established.

NO REPLY BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Mr. President and members of the Court, the Defending Officer has made a motion, at the end of the Prosecution's case, that the prosecution has not made out a prima facia case on the first charge of stealing. I must, shortly, and in a very few words, tell you what stealing is. Stealing is the taking, without the consent of the owner, frauduently, and without colour of right, any property, and carries it away, with the intention at the time of taking it to permanently deprive the owner thereof. So, the essential ingredients in order to establish theft are, lack of consent of the owner, frauduently taking and carrying away of property with intention to permanently deprive the owner thereof. Now, the Defending Officer's motion is simply that the Prosecutor has not produced enough evidence on which you could, if you heard no more, convict the accused of that charge. At this stage it is not/incumbent on you, as the Court, to believe or disbelieve any evidence you have heard. In other words, it is now your function to determine whether or not you have sufficient evidence to determine the guilt or innocence of the accused. If you are satisfied at this stage of the innocence of the accused you can, of course, allow the submission, but, if you think there is more than a thread or tittle of evidence to support the charge, then you may proceed with the trial.

The President announces that the Court is closed to consider the submission by the Defending Officer

The Court is reopened and the President announces that the submission by the Defending Officer has been disallowed, and that, accordingly, the Trial will proceed.

NO QUESTIONS BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR

Sir, first of all I would like to state to the Court that the law is, as the Judge Advocate will tell you, that drunkeness is no excuse for any crime, and that drunkeness only goes to mitigation of punishment. It is for the members of the Court to judge how drunk the accused was. You have heard his evidence, and he did not explain, on cross-examination, the story about the vinegar very well. CSM Wilson stated that the accused was drunk but not so drunk as not to understand what he was doing. Mr. Den Enting stated the accused was drunk but he also said that he could walk around reasonably well. Under cross-examination he stated that he thought the accused was not so drunk as not to know he was in a Cafe. Also the accused was not so drunk that he was unable to fight with some agility, as the evidence shows that he beat up Pte Bartlett pretty soundly, and no person as drunk as the accused wishes to imply he was could do that. That is a point for the Jury to decide, that is, how drunk the accused really was. The Prosecution need not prove the guilt of the accused beyond all shadow of doubt. In as complicated a case as this it is almost impossible to prove the case conclusively beyond all doubt. I submit that the Court as jury must judge, gauge, weigh the evidence the same way as any reasonable man carrying on a business would do. With this standard of judgement in your minds I ask the court to recall all the evidence which has been given by the prosecution.

All the offences committed by the accused were committed on the 10th day of June 1945. Two witnesses were positive on this point, namely Sgt. Brocklebank of the Provost Corps and Inspector Helweg. They are both members of the arm of the law; they should know because that is the result of their training. William Verbeek , the allegedly assaulted policeman, is almost sure it was on 10 Jun 45. Mr. Bateman is almost positive of the date as is L/Cpl MacIsaac, who went on leave the next day. All the other witnesses are certain it was on a Sunday during the first part of the month. There are only two Sundays during the first part of the month, the 3rd and the 10th. Mrs. Den Enting thought that the date was the 13th and the nearest Sunday to the 13th is on the 10th. They all state that the date of the offence was 5 or 6 weeks ago. Mr. Lamfers is almost sure that the incidents took place on the 10th. I submit to the Court therefore that these offences did take place on the 10th, because it is the 10th June, 1945, Sunday, the one date that predominates over all other dates mentioned. There is a definite chain of events leading from one witness to the other linking together all those witnesses on that one day. I would like to point out to the Court that if all the witnesses had definitely and positively stated that the day was the 10th, the Court would have had reason for strong grounds of suspicion with regard to the witnesses, particularly after such a long period of 6 weeks has elapsed since the offences took place.

Dealing first with the charge of creating a disturbance at 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum. The facts given in evidence by Mr. & Mrs. Den Enting and their daughter, Josephine Philipsen, all coincide. The sum total of their evidence on this charge definitely established that the accused did create a disturbance in a civilian cafe at 131 Amstelstraat. There is no question at all with regard to the degree of disturbance. Look at the facts as offered by the evidence. The accused followed the daughter into the living room without permission. The Cafe is a public place, but not so the living quarters. He also followed the daughter into the kitchen without permission, and while there took a bottle of vinegar. An attempt was made to get the bottle back from the accused. The conduct of the accused during the first visit can be described as obnoxious. It was so obnoxious in fact that Mr. Den Enting, on seeing the accused approach the side door, bolted that door. The accused in the company of Moore persisted so that Mrs. Den Enting and her daughter went to the door, and as a result of a request made to him, another Canadian soldier, named Bill, who was a guest at the house, went to the door. Evidence is offered that Bill talked to the accused and then suddenly the accused hit Bill in the face with his fist. Blood was seen and a tussle insued in the Cafe over the billiard table. The accused was seen standing over and then lying on top of Bill, who was on the floor. Mr. Den Enting gave evidence that the accused remained in the living quarters alone, that they heard the opening and closing of cupboard doors. On my question as to why they allowed the accused to remain alone in the living room, both Mr. and Mrs. Den Enting stated that they were afraid to go in. I submit to the Court that this charge of creating a disturbance has been proved by the prosecution.

With regard to the charge of stealing 400 guilders from Marriagie Prins, of Amsterdam, the evidence definitely establishes the identity of Marriagie Prins as the person named in the charge sheet. Both she and her husband state that in a bicycle bag on the bicycle of Mr. Lamfers the wife has her purse. The purse contained a pocket book, which in turn contained 400 guilders in Dutch currency. Both she and her husband went so far as to state the exact denominations of the notes. They both counted the money on the Friday evening before that Sunday. Mr. Lamfers stated that this 400 guilders was their total savings and household money; for that reason they both knew exactly what they had, as people in their straightened circumstances would normally know, these circumstances being further aggravated by the present disorganized economical condition of Holland. They guarded this money very carefully because it was all they had. It was safer, Mr. Lamfers stated, to take the money with them wherever they went, than to leave it at home. On arrival at 131 Van Amstelstraat, the bicycles were put in the courtyard to the rear of the Cafe, and leaned against a shed there. Mr. and Mrs. Den Enting, their daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Lamfers, five witnesses, definitely state that the bicycle bags on Mr. Lamfers bicycle, in which were the 400 guilders, were closed by means of leather straps and buckles. The evidence of all five witnesses again state that Dufresne and Moore were in the living quarters alone for about 15 minutes and the opening and closing of cupboards was heard during that time. No one saw what the accused was doing in the living quarters, but a rattle of empty bottles was heard and further evidence was given by Mr. Den Enting that empty bottles are kept in the shed. The accused and Moore emerged from the living room into the Cafe and left. Evidence was given by Mrs. Lamfers that directly the accused left the premises, she went to the bicycles. This is corroborated by Mr. Den Enting, who saw her go there, remain there for about a minute and return into the house. As she entered the house he stated that she was weeping, yelling and in a very nervous state. The members of the Court saw that woman while she gave evidence and will agree with me that she is a woman of that type of temperament, who would become exceedingly upset, and undergo such emotional disturbances, particularly if all her and her husband's savings and household money were stolen. She found that the bicycle bags were unbuckled and her handbag has been tampered with. Mr. Den Enting immediately afterwards went to the bicycles and also found the bags open. Mr. and Mrs. Den Enting, their daughter, and Mr and Mrs. Lamfers all state definitely that they saw no person go and they themselves did not go into the courtyard between 1700 hours, when the accused first arrived, and the time the accused left after the second visit, which was approximately 1930 hours. During the 15 minutes the accused was in the living quarters alone there was every opportunity to proceed into the courtyard. He was heard opening and closing cupboards, so he was in a ransacking mood. Further evidence was given by Mr. and Mrs. Den Enting and daughter, and by Mr. and Mrs. Lamfers as to the security of the courtyard from outside interference. In evidence they stated that the only way anyone could get into the courtyard was through the kitchen door, as there is a high wall around the courtyard, with a barbed wire fence on top of it, and that the entrances to the courtyard were locked and securely barred. All this evidence with regard to the theft is merely circumstantial. It is obvious that all money looks the same unless there are special markings on it. The Court will take judicial notice of the fact,

I am certain, that it is foreign to normal human behaviour for a person to put a special marking on every bill he gets or to take the serial number of every bill which passes through his hands. It is also unusual that a person should count his money every day. Mrs. Lamfers is sure that the money is her money. You yourselves have experienced the same feeling many times of being unable to give a reasonable explanation for a feeling. That the money which Mrs. Lamfers identifies in Court as hers is the same money that fell out of the pocket of the accused is, I submit, definitely proven. Every person in the chain of transfer of that money was called as a witness. The defence has attempted to break this chain by inferring that this money was in the custody of various persons who were vulnerable to theft. It is sufficient to state that the total of the money, by the evidence, remained 362 guilders all along the line and is it not preposterous to suppose a thief would replace money he had stolen with other money?

There is a certain legal doctrine which is particularly applicable to this case, namely, the doctrine of recent possession. This doctrine is very well put in MML, Chapter VII, Section 66, Page 124. It states here that if a person is found in possession of goods recently stolen there is strong presumption that he stole, or received with knowledge that they were stolen. The onus of proving guilty knowledge always remains upon the Prosecution. A Jury or Court Martial may, in the absence of any explanation by the accused, find him guilty. However, the Prosecution is going further than it needs to. It is actually proving the circumstances under which the accused came to possess the stolen 400 guilders. The evidence is purely circumstantial and it cannot be otherwise. So called circumstantial evidence is evidence and such evidence alone can lead to the pronunciation of guilt by a jury. There are two leading cases on circumstantial evidence: In Rex v Palmer (1856), Cockles Cases 4th Edition, Page 61, the accused was on trial for murder. Evidence was admitted that the prisoner was heavily indebted to the deceased, that the prisoner obtained poison, the conduct of the prisoner was relevent to his being guilty, after the death of the deceased, the accused was eager to have the body fastened down in the coffin, that he tried to bribe the post boy to overturn the carriage which was carrying a bottle to London for chemical analysis, that he tampered with the postmaster and with the coroner. Lord Campbell, C.J. stated in his charge to the jury that witnesses have got to state that they saw the deadly poison administered by the prisoner or mixed up by the prisoner.....(from bottom Page 61). In the case of Dowling v Dowling, 1860, 10 Irish Common Law Reports, Page 236, (quotes). Evidence has shown that there was sufficient opportunity during the time the accused was in the living quarters alone for him to take that money. The Prosecution submits therefore that the accused is guilty of stealing 400 guilders. As far as the difficult nature of this case will allow, the prosecution has offered sufficient evidence to find the accused guilty.

On the fourth charge, that is the charge of assaulting William Verbeek, in the City of Hilversum, and thereby occasioning him bodily harm, I submit the accused is guilty beyond a shadow of a doubt. The evidence of William Verbeen himself is conclusive. The bodily harm was actual. The wound in his right leg below the knee was open for 8 days. He was attended by a doctor. He had bodily pains for a few days as a result of the fall he took when the accused socked him under the chin. He was unable to fulfill his duties as a policeman for 8 days and his doctor prescribed rest. Inspector Helweg visited him on the morning after the fight and that witness states that Verbeek could move around only with difficulty. Two other eye witnesses of the incident between Verbeek and the accused corroborate Verbeek's evidence, namely Inspector Helweg and Peter de Weerd. No clearer evidence on a charge like this can be obtained. I submit that the accused is guilty of this offence. May it be noted by the Court that at the time of the alleged assault on Verbeek he was in policeman's uniform, and therefore the accused was aware that Verbeek occupied an official position.

With regards to the fifth charge of escaping when in arrest. Here again the evidence is clear and conclusive. CSM Wilson was instrumental and aided in the arrest and again in the re-arrest. The accused was obviously in close arrest, why otherwise would an escort be put in the 1500 wt with them? The Court is entitled to take judicial notice of matters within their general military knowledge (R.P. 74). Although CSM Wilson did not actually see the accused jump out of the vehicle, the accused was not in the vehicle when it stopped. There are also two independent witnesses, Inspector Helweg and Peter de Weerd, who saw the accused actually jump out of the truck. They also corroborate the evidence of CSM Wilson of both the arrest and the re-arrest. Mrs. Den Enting too, saw the Provost chase the accused. This was not a mere attempt to escape. The break by the accused from the escort and captors was complete and he had to be arrested all over again. I submit to the Court that the accused is guilty of escaping from close arrest.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir, in so far as the first charge is concerned I reitterate, no evidence is before the Court of the fact that the accused left the living quarters of the Cafe. Mrs. Den Anting has stated that she heard rattling of bottles. Evidence given by Mrs. Den Enting and by Mr. Den Enting shows that bottles were also kept in the kitchen, and that the accused had a bottle with him. The Prosecution has brought out the fact that the bags on the bicycles were buckled with leather straps at the time the bicycles were left in the courtyard. The evidence has also brought out that the last person in that courtyard was there shaking a table cloth at 4 o'clock. There is a space of nearly three hours and fifteen minutes during which time no one of the family were in the courtyard, or did they see anyone else enter it. There is a gate to the courtyard leading to the neighbours property. No one has been able to state whether or not that gate was locked. In so far as the high wall is concerned it is a seven foot wall and quite scalable. I submit that besides the fact of the rattling of bottles there was no evidence given that the accused might have been in the courtyard. Also a gap of three hours and fifteen minutes would be ample time for what the Prosecutor has called outside interference. On the matter of identification of notes, which allegedly fell from the pocket of the accused during a fight with the Provost, and which Mrs. Lamfers claims are hers and were taken from her purse, there has been no identification of those notes other than the arrangement of the notes. I contend that ~~ex~~ no identification whatsoever has been made. Mrs. Lamfers arranged and rearranged those same notes in this Courtroom and when asked if the only way she could identify them was by the arrangement, she answered, yes. So far as the sequence of the possession of the notes is concerned I contend there has been a break. Peter de Weard has stated that he saw another soldier pick the notes up and put them on the seat of a Jeep. This other soldier has not given evidence, has not been identified by name by anyone. CSM Wilson has given evidence that he told Pte MacEacheran to pick the notes up from the seat of the Jeep, but who the other soldier was who picked the notes from the ground is not known. Pte MacEacheran has not given evidence at this Trial either. As to the date of these alleged offences might I suggest that the reason why the witnesses could even come close to the date was by reason of the fact that they were all asked what happened on the 10 Jun 45. All the witnesses are very well aware of what this case is about, so, when they were asked what happened on the 10 Jun 45 they naturally would assume that this was the date on which these circumstances happened. Even at that they were by no means sure of it. I suggested to one of them, could it have been the 17 June and the answer was, "Yes, it could have been". The Prosecution has stated that drunkenness does not go as an excuse for a crime itself but rather to mitigation of punishment. Yet, when what stealing means in law was read the words fraudulently and with intent to deprive were used. Surely it goes to whether or not fraud was present and whether or not any intention to deprive permanently was there. You have heard the evidence of various witnesses. Mr. Lamfers when asked if the accused was very drunk at the time said, "Yes", and when further questioned as to whether he thought the man knew what he was doing said, "I don't think he knew what he was doing". Also you have heard the evidence of the accused on oath, and he states that he does not remember what happened after a bottle of gin was consumed in the school at around 2:30 in the afternoon. I submit that the accused was too drunk to have the necessary intention. The case of the Prosecution, as has already been stated, rests on certain very material particulars, entirely circumstantial evidence. So far as the first charge is concerned I direct the attention of the Court to Page 88 of MML, which says, before a Court findsan accused person guilty on circumstantial evidence it must be satisfied not only that the circumstances are consistent with the accused having committed the act, but are consistent with any conclusion that the accused is the guilty person.

In so far as the other offences are concerned. I might point out that the Prosecution has intimated that creating a disturbance is following a person into a room and drinking from a bottle of vinegar. I leave it to the Court to decide if that is creating a disturbance. You have already heard the CSM state that he did not inform the accused that he was under arrest. Surely it is conceivable for the CSM of your company, if he sees you are having a bit of trouble, to see that you get home all right. CSM Wilson has definitely stated that he did not place the accused under arrest. In so far as all of the charges are concerned I would remind the Court that the Prosecution must prove the guilt of the accused beyond all reasonable doubt. By reason of the facts I have stated, insofar as the first charge is concerned and the evidence of the accused, and in view of the points brought out in the other charges, I feel the accused should not be found guilty of the charges stated.

SUMMING UP BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE

Mr. President and Members of the Court, it is now my function as Judge advocate to sum up. First of all I wish to make it clear as to what the function of the Judge Advocate is on a Trial of this nature. The function of the Judge Advocate is to advise the Court on all points of law involved. In the case itself the Court, in the final analysis, is the judge of the law, as well as the facts, but, you should take your law from me unless you have very good grounds to the contrary, and even then you must record your reasons for refusing to take that law, as defined by me. As far as the facts are concerned, you the Court are the only judges, you and nobody else are the judges. If I have at any time during this trial, either in questioning of witnesses, or, by any comments made by me, or, if I should say anything during this summing up that would lead you to believe that I am expressing an opinion on the facts of this case, or of the guilt of innocence of the accused, you must disregard my comments or remarks completely. In other words, any views I have on the facts of the guilt or innocence of the accused is of no interest to you whatsoever. I repeat, you are the sole judges, you are the only judges of the facts of this case. You must form your own opinion of the facts. I should also add that if I should refer to any facts given in evidence it is your recollection of the facts, or evidence, and not mine that you should take. You should have no difficulty on this score because the evidence has been taken down by a Court Reporter and I will lay before you a complete transcript of the evidence taken up to this time, not including the evidence taken this morning. If at any time during your deliberations you have any doubt as to the evidence you can re-open the Court and the shorthand writer will read to you from his notes.

The accused stands charged with the offence of stealing, under Army Act, Section 41. I might say that if this alleged offence were committed in Canada or England same would be tried by the civil courts, but in the Canadian Army on active service, in a foreign country, the Army must try all offences allegedly committed because there are no civilian courts with jurisdiction over our soldiers. Accordingly, the first charge is simply a civilian offence of stealing, which under Army Act 41, is tried by a court martial. Irrespective of the technical wording of the charge the charge is simply one of theft. I will tell you what stealing or theft is in law. It is well defined in KML, Chapter VII, Para 80, at Page 118. A person steals who without the consent of the owner fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent at the time of such taking, to permanently deprive the owner thereof. You will see therefore that the necessary ingredients are five in number: The lack of consent of the owner, which in this case, if it was a theft, there can be no argument. Second, fraudulently and without colour of right. All that means is a person taking something to which he is not entitled. The "takes" is the third ingredient, which is the essential ingredient of theft. The taking can be actual taking by a person with his hands, and a person may take something although, physically, he does not take it. He may take it through an agreement with another person who does the actual taking through his instructions. The next essential is carrying away. There must be a carrying away. A man who puts his hand in another persons pocket to take money but actually does not pull it out of the pocket does not actually take anything away. Then last is the intent to permanently deprive the owner at the time. It must be the intention of the person taking that it is done permanently. In other words, a person who takes something but intends to return it, that is not a permanent taking because at the time of taking the thing the intention was to return it.

I do not propose to go into the evidence in this case for two reasons; first, both the Prosecutor and the Defending Officer have ably reviewed the evidence before you, and brought to your attention the main facts of the case. Secondly you have, and I wish you to take particular notice of the transcript of the evidence before you, which you can read. In order to convict the accused on the first charge you must be satisfied, in a manner which I will tell you later, that the accused by himself, or in concert with another person, actually stole this money of a sum of 400 guilders, on, or about, the day in question. The case of the Prosecution in this respect is evidence that the money was in a particular place, and that the accused was also in, or near, that place at a time when he could not be seen by other people, or, was not seen by other people, and that immediately, or, shortly, after the accused had left that place the money was found to be missing. The Prosecutor alleges that there was a theft that afternoon in the place described, and that the accused had the opportunity to commit that theft. The Prosecutor has endeavoured to produce to the Court evidence that on that same day, at a different place, certain money was found on the person of the accused. You have heard a great deal of evidence on where the money went and of the various hands through which it passed. All that is merely to tie up that the actual money produced to the Court was the money which, allegedly, fell out of the accused's pocket. It is for you to decide whether , under all the circumstances shown, you are satisfied that the money produced in Court, and marked as an exhibit in this case was the money that fell out of the accused's pocket. The Prosecutor has endeavoured, by circumstantial evidence, to suggest that that money, in view of the denominations, is in all likelihood the money or part of the money which was allegedly stolen. The Prosecutor in the third phase has gone further then merely to show by circumstantial evidence that this sum of money, by reason of it's denominations, was the same money that was stolen, or part of it, but has produced a witness who states that it is the money. It is for you to decide whether or not you can give credence to that evidence, or whether it is more of an opinion then a fact. You have heard the reasons given as to why the money is identified. As far as the Defence is concerned, the Defence takes a strong view that the evidence is not sufficient, and the Defending Officer submits to the Court that you should not find the accused of theft on such evidence. It is a matter for you to determine what part of the evidence you believe and what conclusions you can come to in that respect. The burden of proof, the proof that the accused committed this offence, or, this alleged theft, rests on the Prosecution. I will go into this at a little greater length at the end of my summing up. As the Prosecution stated this morning it is my duty to bring to the Court's attention what might be called a special rule, or, not so much a special but a variation or ramification of the rule, and that is the Doctrine of Recent Possession. It is set out in Para 66 of Chap. VII of MML at Page 124, it reads, "If a person is found in possession of goods recently stolen there is a strong presumption that he stole them, or, received them with the knowledge that they were stolen...(reads) The onus is still upon the Prosecution to prove him guilty. If you are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that this money that fell out of the pocket of the accused was the money that was allegedly taken sometime before from the bicycle bags, then there is a presumption that it was stolen by the accused, in the absence of any reasonable explanation as to how the money came into his possession. Remember, however, that first of all you must be satisfied that that money was the money that was stolen.

I will just say one or two words about principals and accessories. A person who commits an offence himself is guilty as the perpetrator and can be tried as such. If two or more people jointly commit an offence, each taking some part, but neither taking necessarily all, each of the parties are liable to be tried, charged and indicted throughout as principals and as perpetrators. I wont go into the definitions of principals in the first or second degree because I do not think it is particularly applicable to this case. I will say that if two or more people jointly commit a crime, each taking some part, but no necessarily the whole part in the offence, each is as guilty as if he had committed the offence himself.

I should say a word as to drunkenness as a defence. There is a principle of English law that drunkenness is no excuse for crime. The normal rule that a man intends the natural results of his actions applies. However, where intention is of the essence of the offence, such as murder, drunkenness can in certain circumstances be an excuse. I will read to you from Archibold's, 31st Edition, Page 17 and 18 (reads). You can take it from me that unless the accused was so drunk that he did not know what he was doing, or, did not know the nature and consequences of his acts, or, did not know that he was doing wrong, then it is not an excuse. If his drunkenness was such that it merely effected his desires or his judgement that is no excuse. It must be to the extent that he did not appreciate the nature and consequences of the acts he was doing. However, as was stated by one of the counsel, drunkenness, even if it does not go to that stage can have an effect on the sentence. I would like to mention one more thing in connection with drunkenness that I have found is very material and is not always understood. The mere fact that a man does not remember what happened while he was drunk does not necessarily mean that at the time he did not know what he was doing. In other words, a man can intend to drive a vehicle and be extremely drunk, and he knows enough to put in the key and to drive, but the next day does not remember having had the vehicle out. That is all I will say with respect to the first charge.

On the third charge, which is a purely military offence of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he created a disturbance, you have heard all the evidence and it is simply a matter for you to determine whether or not a disturbance was caused by the accused in that Cafe and, if so, was it to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline. It is a straight question of fact.

I now come to the fourth charge, the assault charge. This like the first charge is a civilian offence made a military offence by virtue of Army Act, Section 41. The language forming the charge is technical but it boils down to nothing more than an assault upon a certain person, that assault resulting in actual bodily harm. An assault is defined as an attempt to commit a forcible crime against the person of another, such as an attempt to commit a battery. It includes a battery committed as well as an attempt to commit a battery. In legal language a battery is a beating and wounding. To beat in legal language means not merely to strike forcibly with the hands or a stick or anything, but also merely the touching of laying hold, however trifling, of another's person or clothes, in an angry, revengeful, rude or insolent manner. For instance, the pushing of a person off the street in an angry manner would be an assault, or, if a person attempts to hit another person and misses, it is an assault; if he hits him it is an assault also. There are various other definitions but these are sufficient. An assault must be without consent, for instance a prize fight is not an assault. From these remarks you will appreciate that if hands are laid upon a person without his consent same constitutes an assault, and no bodily harm need ensue. In this particular charge it has been alleged that the assault did cause actual bodily harm. In order to convict on this charge you not only have to find that it was an assault on the policeman but you must find that assault caused actual bodily harm. Actual bodily harm includes any hurt or injury which would interfere with the health or comfort of the person assaulted. It does not need to be serious, it does not need to be permanent, it just has to be an actual injury. If you find there was no actual bodily harm you can find him guilty of common assault rather than assault as alleged. That is a right you have. There are numerous defences to assault which I should mention, one is such a thing as an accident or mishap. If you come to the conclusion that the striking of this policeman was an accident then there was no assault. If there was consent it would be no offence. Self defence is a defence of assault. If you were satisfied that the accused was assaulted by this policeman and was merely defending himself you could find him not guilty. On the other hand you will recall that the policeman was in the performance of his duty and that has a great bearing on the charge; if the policeman was using no more force than necessary, which he was entitled to do, and in doing so was assaulted, in that case the defence of self defence on the part of the accused could not be justified.

As to the fifth charge, once again this is a strictly military offence of escaping, and it is a straight question of fact as to whether the accused did escape when in arrest. You have no direct evidence of anyone who actually put him in arrest but you have all the surrounding circumstances. It is for you to decide whether or not he was, in fact, in closed arrest, and, if so, did he escape when in that condition. That is the question of fact for you to determine.

You have heard about, "circumstantial evidence", and it is necessary for me to say a few words in this respect. There is direct evidence and there is circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence of the most obvious type is when someone sees an offence committed. Sometimes that evidence is good and sometimes it is not good, because people do not always see things the same. Circumstantial evidence is evidence of an intricate nature in which circumstances are brought before the Court in an attempt to satisfy the Court beyond a reasonable doubt that these circumstances can only be consistent with the commission of the offence. I will read from Para 42 of Chapter 6 in MML, Page 8 (reads). I have so warned you.

As far as credibility of witnesses is concerned, that is a matter entirely for you to decide. You may believe all or part of the evidence of any witness, you may believe part of the evidence and reject the other part, or, you may reject the evidence totally. In other words, you ar the sole judges of what part you will believe and what part you will not believe. You are of course, in weighing evidence of witnesses to remember their interests in the case, and whether their interests would tend to effect their evidence. You will of course give due consideration and great care to the remarks of both the Prosecutor and the Defending Officer, and, if anything, most care should be given to the remarks of the Defending Officer.

It is a principal of British justice that the accused is innocent until proven guilty. It is not for him to come to this Court to prove he is innocent, but it is for the Prosecutor to prove him guilty. It has been said that that is the most golden thread running through British jurisprudence. If the Prosecution does not prove that the accused is guilty of all or any of these offences beyond a reasonable doubt you must find the accused not guilty. By a reasonable doubt I do not mean a fanciful doubt or a doubt conjured up in the mind through weakness or fear. I mean a doubt of such a nature as would influence a business man in taking action or refraining from taking action in a business matter. If after hearing all the evidence you are sure of the innocence of the accused or have a reasonable doubt of his guilt, then you must acquit. It is unnecessary for me say, but I will say, that you will try the case on the evidence heard in this Courtroom and not on anything you may have heard outside. You have sworn to try the case on the evidence and that is the evidence before you here.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Mr. President, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?

ANSWER BY THE PRESIDENT

No, sir.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

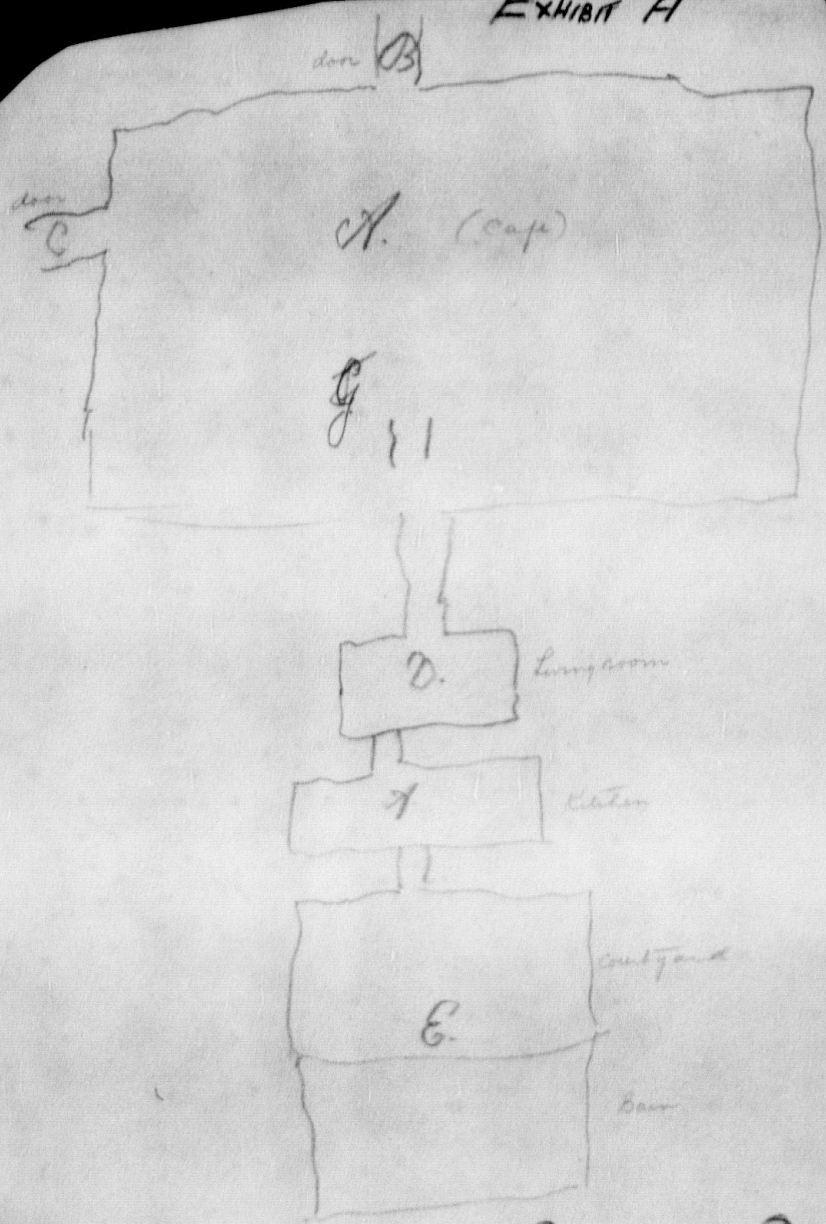
Mr. Prosecutor, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?

ANSWER BY THE PROSECUTOR

No, sir.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Mr. Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?



ANSWER BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

No, sir.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir, I realize I need say little about the service record of the accused. I will just point out that he came into the Army one year ago last March, he came overseas last November and came to the Continent in February of this year. I have questioned his Commanding Officers as to his conduct in the field and all have stated that he was a very satisfactory soldier in action. As further evidence to the good intentions of this soldier he was an early volunteer for the Canadian Army in the Pacific Force. On the day in question the accused was admittedly drunk and he committed certain offences which I am certain he would not have otherwise committed. I need not direct your attention to the paragraph in MML which states what consideration the Court should give to the offences when the accused was in that condition. He has already spent 43 days in both open and close arrest. I ask you, in view of the above facts, to be as lenient as possible with the accused.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of C123697 Pte Dufresne V.E., Stormont Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, a soldier in the Canadian Army Overseas.
By direction of the commanding officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.
Mr. Bart Bos, of Gerardus Gulliam and J.B. Laughlin, both of Hilversum, Holland, are duly sworn as interpreters.

1st witness for the Prosecution

Josephine Elizabeth Philipsen of 131 Amstelstraat, of the City of Hilversum, wife of A.J. Den Enting, of the same place, Metal Worker, having been duly sworn, states through the Interpreter, Mr. Bart Bos;

On 10 Jun 45 at Hilversum I was living with my daughter, Dinie Versteeg of 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum who was the proprietress of a cafe at that address. At approximately 1700 hrs on that day a soldier whom I now recognize (here the witness identifies and indicates C123697 Pte Dufresne V.E.) followed my daughter into the kitchen. My daughter returned to the living room and I heard the cupboard in the kitchen being opened and looking around I saw Dufresne take a bottle of vinegar from the cupboard and put the bottle in his tunic. I tried to take the bottle out of his tunic. He threatened me by raising his fist and making an angry face and angrily saying a few words which I did not understand. I returned to the livingroom followed by Dufresne with the bottle of vinegar. There were a number of guests in that room and I heard the accused and another soldier whom I now recognize (here the witness points out and identifies C123712 Pte Moore W.R.), speaking to my daughter in the livingroom. I heard my daughter say to them that she was unwilling to barter cigarettes for gin, or words to that effect. I noticed that a bottle of gin was missing from the livingroom. Dufresne and Moore passed from the livingroom, through the cafe, out the front door with Dufresne still carrying the bottle of vinegar. I saw a lump under Moore's tunic. I followed them outside. I saw the upper part of the bottle of gin protruding from Moore's tunic and I entreated with him to give back the bottle of gin, but he would not. My husband and I followed them both to a school about five minutes walk away, where we lost sight of them. Then we returned to the cafe. Both Dufresne and Moore were obviously under the influence of liquor because they did not walk quite steadily and they both smelled of liquor. At approximately 1900 hrs I was sitting in the livingroom with the same guests while my daughter was in the cafe. I heard a noise at the side door of the cafe as if someone trying the knob, followed by a banging on the door. I went to that door and I saw Dufresne banging on the door and Moore with his hand on the knob. I motioned and said in Dutch to them through the door, which had a window in it, that the cafe was closed. Dufresne threatened me with his fist as if he were going to break the window, and cried "open, open", while Moore revealed a carton containing cigarettes by opening his tunic and also cried "open, open". I unlocked the door but didnt open it. Pte Bartlett, who was one of the visiting guests in the livingroom, and whom I now recognize (here the witness identifies A28607 Pte Bartlett R.A.), went to the door. I am not sure who actually opened the door and I understood from what Pte Bartlett said to the two soldiers that I had no gin and to go away. I saw Dufresne hit Bartlett in the eye with his fist, I think it was the left eye, which began to bleed heavily. I saw the soldier, Dufresne, deal Bartlett many blows with his fist. Bartlett staggered back and fell on the floor in the corner of the cafe.

Then I saw Dufresne lay on Bartlett and grasp him by the throat. Bartlett became blue in the face. I became frightened and started to cry. Then Dufresne released Bartlett and stood up. Moore went to Bartlett and patted him on the shoulder, but Bartlett motioned him to go away. I grasped the knob of the door leading into the livingroom to prevent either Dufresne or Moore from going in, when Dufresne touched me on the arm and said, "We want Gin, give us gin", or words to that effect. I repeated over and over to him, "We have none. we have none". Dufresne then became angry and threatened me by raising his fist. My daughter ran to us and cried in Dutch and motioned to Dufresne not to touch her mother. I then went with my daughter to the main entrance of the cafe. Dufresne went into the living quarters and Moore stood in the cafe by the door leading into the livingroom. I heard a window being smashed in the direction of the living quarters and saw Moore look into the livingroom and say, "Okay" a few times. My guests, who were in the living room, left by the main front door and they appeared to me to be frightened. Then Moore went into the living room and both Dufresne and he were in the living quarters alone for about 10 minutes. Throughout that time I heard their voices and the opening and closing of cupboards and drawers. I then saw them leave for they came into the cafe and left by the main door. Dufresne had a stone bottle which belonged to my daughter in his hand. I saw him raise it to his lips in the cafe before he left and outside the cafe he threw the bottle away. I locked the doors. I saw a Dutch policeman follow the two soldiers. Some minutes later I saw two Provost soldiers chasing Dufresne and Moore into a yard. During the second visit both Dufresne and Moore were badly under the influence of liquor. They were drunk, their walk was unsteady, their speech thick and they both smelled of liquor.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J. E. Philipsen

2nd witness for the Prosecution

Abraham Johannes Den Hnting, 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum, Holland, metal worker, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter, Sgt Bos;

At approximately 1700 hrs 10 Jun 45 at Hilversum I saw two soldiers come into the cafe at 131 Amstelstraat operated by my daughter, Minnie Versteeg, widow. (Here the witness points out and identifies these two soldiers as 6123697 Fte Dufresne and 6123712 Fte Moore W.R.). I saw them both approach my daughter in the cafe and I gathered from what they said and from their gestures that they wished to barter cigarettes for gin. I heard my daughter say, "Please go away. I have no gin", or words to that effect. While I stayed in the cafe, my daughter went into the living room and both the soldiers followed her into that room. I heard the soldiers speak with my daughter and then I also went into the living room. While in that room I saw the taller soldier, whom I now recognize (here the witness points out 6123697 Fte Dufresne W.R.) in the kitchen take a bottle of vinegar from a cupboard and put it in his tunic. In the living room at the time were besides myself, my wife and daughter, the other of the two soldiers (here the witness points out 6123712 Fte Moore R.R), four other guests and a Canadian soldier called Bartlett. (Here the witness points out A28609 Fte Bartlett W.A.). I tried to calm both Dufresne and Moore by talking quietly with them, but they were unwilling to do what I asked. There had been a bottle of gin standing on a barrel in the living room by the kitchen door during the time Dufresne and Moore were in the living room. Suddenly I noticed that it was no longer there. I then saw that Moore had the upper part of that same bottle of gin protruding out of his tunic. The two soldiers then went into the cafe and out the side door of the cafe. My wife and I followed both the soldiers and I saw Dufresne take a drink out of the bottle of vinegar and in a surprised manner spit it out and throw away the bottle. I followed them to a school about five to six minutes walk away, where my wife joined me a few minutes later. I saw the two soldiers go into the school. My wife and I then returned to the cafe. My impression of them was that both Dufresne and Moore were under the influence of alcohol. They were somewhat steady in their walk but in a merry mood and their breaths smelled of liquor.

At 1900 hrs on the same day I was standing behind the counter in the cafe. I saw Dufresne and Moore approaching the side door of the cafe, whereupon I bolted the side door hurriedly. These two soldiers made unmistakable gestures to me that they wanted the door opened. My wife and Bartlett went to the side door. My wife unbolted and opened the door. I saw Bartlett try to prevent them from entering the cafe by pushing them gently out the door. Suddenly I saw Dufresne hit Bartlett a blow in the eye with his fist and Bartlett began to bleed from the side of his head. Then I saw Dufresne pick up Bartlett bodily and throw him clear across the billiard table onto the floor on the other side and Bartlett laid on the floor. Then Dufresne laid on top of Bartlett. I could not see what Dufresne was doing on top of Bartlett. He was there for about five seconds then both Dufresne and Bartlett rose to their feet. Moore joined them and they all shook hands. Dufresne went into the living quarters and I heard a window being smashed. Later I saw that the window in the door which leads from the hallway into the livingroom was broken. The size of the window broken was about 120 cms by 30 cms and was etched glass, the cost of which to replace will be between 10 and 15 Guilders. Dufresne was all alone in the living quarters. Moore, myself and all the rest of the people were in the cafe. Moore was standing in the cafe by the door leading into the living room. I attempted to go into the living room through that door but I was stopped by Moore who said something in english and who gently pushed me back. Moore stood there for about a quarter of an hour and now and then looked into the living quarters and shouted, "Okay". Then Moore went into the living quarters too. All the other people including myself stayed in the cafe. The two soldiers remained alone in the living quarters for from 10 to 15 minutes and I heard clearly the opening and closing of cupboards. I saw them go through the kitchen out the back door through the backyard into a shed at the rear. About 10 minutes later the two soldiers came back through the living room into the cafe, Dufresne holding a stone bottle which belonged to my daughter, in his hand. Dufresne put the stone bottle to his mouth and then put it into his pocket. They both left through the main door. Immediately upon the two soldiers leaving the cafe, I saw the wife of Paulus Lamers of the city of Amsterdam, who was a guest all this time, go into the shed into which both Dufresne and Moore had gone. On her arrival earlier in the day I had put her bicycle in that shed and in so doing did notice that there were two bags attached to her bicycle, one on each side of the rear wheel. I am quite certain that when I put the bicycle in the shed the straps on the bags were buckled. Paulus Lamers put his own bicycle in the shed before I put his wife's in. In about one minute's time of her entering the shed, she came out. I saw that she was weeping and was very upset. I then went into the shed and I saw that the two bicycles were on the floor and I noticed that the straps on both of the bags on the bicycle of the wife of Paulus Lamers were unbuckled. I stood both the bicycles up.

During this second visit Dufresne and Moore were very much under the influence of liquor, much more so than during their first visit. Their manner of walking was unsteady and their breaths smelled of liquor.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

3rd witness for the Prosecution

Dinie Versteeg, 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum, Holland, widow of B.G.M. Den Anting, lat of the same place, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter, L.B. Vaughlin.

I am the proprietress of a cafe at 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum. At about 1700 hrs on 10 Jun 45 I was standing behind the counter of my cafe when two soldiers entered. I recognize the soldiers as being present here today. (The witness indicates and identifies C123697 Pte Dufresne W.R. and C123712 Pte Moore W.R.) From their gestures and showing cigarettes and uttering the word "gin" I understood that they wished to barter cigarettes for gin - 300 cigarettes for one litre of gin. I went into the living room and was followed by both the soldiers, who I did not invite into that room. There they made the offer again as I was on my way into the kitchen, this time offering 200 cigarettes. I refused. I went into the kitchen followed by Dufresne, again without permission. Dufresne picked up a bottle of vinegar in the kitchen and returned with it to the livingroom. I followed him and tried to take the vinegar away from him, but I was unsuccessful. I went out the back door with the intention of going outside the premises and entering the cafe by the front door, but the back gate leading into the street was locked and I could not go out. I then returned to the living room and found that the soldiers had left the premises. Then I noticed that a bottle of gin belonging to me which had been standing in the living room by the kitchen door was missing. I never bartered gin for cigarettes with either Dufresne or Moore.

At 1900 hrs I was in the living room of my home and my father was behind the counter in the cafe. I heard a knocking at the side door of the cafe and I saw my mother go to the door. I went into the cafe and saw both Dufresne and Moore on the other side of the door. I had visitors in the living room including a Canadian soldier called "Bill". I opened the door by pulling the bolts and swinging the door wide. As a result of what an acquaintance of mine told Bill, he went up to Dufresne and Moore, who were already in the cafe. I noticed that both Dufresne & Moore were drunk because they were not in a state to be approached with reason, they did not talk coherently and their gaits were woggly. I saw Dufresne attack Bill and as far as I could see, Dufresne grabbed Bill by the front of his clothes and worked him to the floor and all I saw was Dufresne standing over Bill. Bill got to his feet and then Dufresne and Moore asked me to go back to the living room to talk things over. I refused. The door leading to the living room was closed. Dufresne stood by that door while Moore went into the living room. My mother attempted to go through that door but Dufresne prevented her from so doing by adopting a threatening attitude with upraised arm. I went to my mother and pulled her away from the door. I left the cafe and went outside. I saw nothing more except as I entered the cafe by the front door Dufresne and Moore passed me on their way out. I saw one of the two soldiers raise a red stone bottle to his lips. The bottle I recognized as being my property and later I missed one such bottle. I keep filled bottles of such kind in the cafe and living room and empty ones in the back shed. I noticed on entering my premises that the glass in the door leading into the living room was broken and I also missed four packages of cigarettes. The pane of glass will cost about four guilders to replace. Since the 1 may 4b I have no license to sell hard liquor and any such liquor on my premises was for private use only.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

4th witness for the Prosecution

A28609 Pte Bartlett W.A., HQABC attached to HQ 9 Cdn Inf Bde, having been duly sworn, states.

Between 1630 and 1700 hrs 10 Jun 45, while I was visiting in the living room at a cafe in Hilversum, the address of which I do not know, the daughter of the two civilian witnesses who I see here today (Here the witness points out Abraham Johannes den Anting and Josephine Elizabeth Philipsen, his wife) came into the living room followed by two soldiers. I see these same two soldiers here today. (Here the witness points out C123697 Pte Dufresne W.E. and C123712 Pte Moore W.H.). Bargaining ensued between the daughter and Dufresne and Moore for the bartering of 300 cigarettes for one bottle of gin. One of the soldiers laid a carton of 300 cigarettes on the table and the daughter picked up the cigarettes and put them in a cupboard. I then saw the daughter pour something from one bottle into another and hand the filled bottle to one of the two soldiers. I heard them protest and say that they wanted a larger bottle for the cigarettes and I also heard one of them offer 300 Guilders for another bottle. I then saw one of them leave the living room to go into a pantry. When he came out I saw the neck of a bottle protruding from his tunic. One of the soldiers took the 300 cigarettes from the cupboard and they both made for the door of the livingroom with the two bottles. The women protested and tried to stop them. Moore made a motion with his right hand towards the inner pocket of his tunic and said, "If you dont get out of the, way, I'll shoot you", or words to that effect. They pushed their way out of the living room and that is all I saw of them for the time. During the episode they were both under the influence of liquor because they both talked gaily.

At 1900 hrs on the same day I was still in the living room of the cafe when, I think it was the mother, came to me. As a result of what she said to me, I went with her to a door through which I saw Dufresne and Moore. The door I saw was bolted. Someone, I think it was the mother, unbolted the door and I opened it. Dufresne asked me if the lady of the house had another bottle of liquor. I told him that I couldnt say as I was only a guest in the house. Then Dufresne pushed me around the cafe with the flat of his hand against my shoulders. He hit me with his fist three or four times, one or the blows landing just below my left eye where slight bleeding resulted, and one of the blows knocked me down. I tried to talk him out of it. Then we both got up and he apologized and said that he was sorry that he did it. I then noticed Moore in the cafe and I saw the neck of a bottle which I did not see there when he entered the cafe sticking out of his tunic. Dufresne was with me in the cafe with a number of other people until the time he left with Moore. I do not know where Moore was during the scuffle, but Dufresne and Moore left the cafe out the front door right after the scuffle ceased.

During the second visit both of the soldiers were more under the influence of liquor then when they were during the first visit. They spoke angrily and I cant recall if I did smell any liquor on either of them.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

D 82736 Cpl QUINN, F.F., of the Canadian Provost Corps, on the strength of No.3 Cdn Provost Coy., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am D 82736 Cpl Quinn, F.F. On the evening of 10 Jun 45, I was on mobile patrol in the city of Hilversum. As the result of what the Dutch Civilian Police told me, I proceeded to a cafe situated on AMPLESTRAAT. On arrival there I was approached by Pte BARTLETT, who I identify here today, and I noticed that there was a small cut just above his left eye. As a result of what Pte Bartlett told me, I proceeded down the street towards the centre of the city. I saw two Canadians soldiers walking along the street and when they turned around and saw C 37222 L/Cpl BADOUR, W.J. and myself approaching in a jeep, fled into a neighboring civilian backyard. L/Cpl Badour immediately jumped out of the jeep and gave chase and caught one of the soldiers, whom I now identify and recognize (indicating C 123697 Pte DUFRESNE, V.E.). L/Cpl Badour turned Pte Dufresne over to me and then gave chase after the other soldier. I warned Pte Dufresne that he was under arrest and ordered him to accompany me to Provost HQ. Pte Dufresne refused to obey the order by struggling with me. He grabbed the collar of my tunic. At this time a Sergeant, of the Glengarrians, who I now recognize and identify (indicating D 86195 CSM Wilson, G.E.) came on the scene and ordered Pte Dufresne to release the hold on my collar and accompany me to Provost Headquarters. Pte Dufresne refused to obey the order of the Sergeant Major by releasing my collar and beginning to argue and struggle with the Sergeant Major. After a few minutes the Sergeant Major again ordered Pte Dufresne into the waiting 15 cwt belonging to the Glengarrians. Pte Dufresne then walked towards the truck. At the same time L/Cpl Badour had captured the other Canadian soldier, who I now recognize and identify (indicating C 123712 Pte MOORE, W.R.) and was approaching us at the truck. I then ordered both Dufresne and Moore to get into the truck. Pte Moore immediately got into the truck, but Pte Dufresne again started to struggle with L/Cpl Badour and had to be forcibly put into the truck by L/Cpl Badour. I then ordered three Glengarrians soldiers to act as escorts to Ptes Dufresne and Moore and ordered them into the back of the truck, which they did. L/Cpl Badour rode with the driver of the 15 cwt. As the 15 cwt slowly moved off and the Sargeant Major and I were preparing to follow in the jeep, Ptes Dufresne and Moore jumped out of the moving 15 cwt and fled into a neighboring civilian backyard. The Sargeant Major and I immediately gave chase. Both Dufresne and Moore had stopped running when they reached the backyard and I ordered them back to the truck. They both obeyed the order and got into the truck. We then proceeded to our Provost HQ where in the presence of both Dufresne and Moore an inspector of the civilian police stated that 400 Guilders had been taken from this cafe on Amplestraat. Whereupon I ordered that both Dufresne and Moore be searched but the total amount of money onboth of them did not nearly equal the amount of money alledgedly stollen. PteDufresne had on his person 14 Guilders and 50 cents and Pte Moore had 30 Guilders. I am not aware of any other money concerned in this case.

In my opinion both Ptes Dufresne and Moore had been drinking for I smelled the liquor on their breath, but were not drunk in comparison to the many cases of drunkenness I have seen.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

6th Witness for the Prosecution

No. D 86195 C.S.M. Wilson, G.E. of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

At 1930 hrs on 10 June 1945 in the City of Hilversum as a result of what a Glengarrian soldier told me, I proceeded to a house, the address of which I am not aware. I saw Pte. Dufresne, whom I recognized as being on the strength of the Company of which I am C.S.M., struggling with a Corporal of the Provost Corps. I ordered Pte. Dufresne to go peacefully with the Provost Corporal, which he did. On arriving at the jeep Pte. Moore, who I recognized as being on the strength of the Company of which I am the C.S.M., and a L/Cpl. of the Provost Corps were there. Lying on the driver's seat of the jeep I saw a pile of bills of currency, which I ordered on e of the men of my Company to pick up and to safe-keep. I have no idea how this money came to be lying in the jeep. Later, on checking the amount of that money, I found it to total 372 Guilders. I turned this money over to B.H.Q. of S.D. & G. Highlanders.

Dufresne and Moore were put into a 15 cwt. truck with two other escorts. On the way to Provost H.Q., Dufresne and Moore jumped out of the 15 cwt. and fled into a neighbouring yard. I ordered them to get back into the truck, which they did and I accompanied them to Provost H.Q.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

7th Witness for the Prosecution

Jan Franssen, of 220 Van Amstelstraat, of the City of Hilversum, building contractor, having been duly sworn states through the interpreter, Bart Bos:

At about 1930 hours on Sunday, 10 June 1945, I was sitting in the backroom of my house at 220 Van Amstelstraat in Hilversum reading when I suddenly saw a pair of elbows appear through two window panes of the room in which I was sitting. Then I heard the crash of smashing glass and I saw a small Provost soldier, who wore white straps, struggling with another soldier, whom I now recognize as the accussed (Here the witness indicates the accused, C 123697 Pte. Dufresne, V.E.) I saw the small Provost soldier go away with the accused and I locked my kitchen door. The size of each of the two panes of glass which were broken, was 140cms by 42½ cms, which would cost 10 Guilders to replace both.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

8th Witness for the Prosecution

Johan Hendrik Helweg, of 6 Jan Steenlaan, of the City of Hilversum, Inspector of Police, having been duly sworn, states:

At about 1930 hrs on 10 June 1945 in Hilversum, as as a result of information received by me, Head Agent Verbeek and I proceeded to the corner of Van Amstelstraat and Hilvertsweg in Hilversum. There I saw two Canadian soldiers who I now recognize here to-day. (Here the witness points out and indentifies C 123697 Pte. Dufresne, W.E. and C 123712 Pte. Moore, W.R.) Dufresne was without a tunic or a hat but had rolled sleeves. Moore had a tunic on but no hat. Verbeek went up to Dufresne and attempted to calm him down and to stop him from chasing the crowd of civilians and soldiers who had gathered. I saw Dufresne hit Verbeek under the chin with his fist. Verbeek tried to reach for his rubber stick. The next thing I saw was Verbeek lying on the ground. Verbeek got onto his feet and went away with Dufresne following him.

Then one Provost car with two Provost arrived and I went with them in the car after Dufresne. I did not see Moore. I saw Dufresne standing to the rear of a house on Van Amstelstraat with another soldier. Behind Dufresne I saw two windows which were broken. The two Provost with me went to Dufresne to arrest him. Dufresne struggled but he was taken away by the Provost, and I saw Dufresne struggling again with the Provost on the street by the jeep. I remember that the name of one of the Provost was Corporal Quinn. The next morning I saw Verbeek at his home and I saw that he could walk only with great difficulty.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Johan Hendrik Helweg)

9th Witness for the Prosecution

Willem Verbeek, of 247 Hilversweg, of the City of Hilversum, head agent of police, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter Bart Bos:

At about 1930 jours on the 10 June 45 in Hilversum I went with Inspector Johan Hendrik Helweg to the corner of Van Amstelstraat and Hilvertsweg in Hilversum. There at the intersection I saw two soldiers who were rather unsteady in their walk. The same two soldiers I recognize as being here to-day. (Here the witness points out and indetifies C 123697 Pte. Dufresne, V.E. and C 123712 Pte. Moore, W.R.) Behind them walked many civilians. The soldiers tried to send the civilians away. The people who did not go away were beaten by Dufresne who I saw use his open hand and fist at least threeetimes on the crowd of civilians. I saw Dufresne, the biggest of the two beat a civilian. I posted myself between them but Dufresne quickly seized me by the tunic and pushed me to the side. Immediately I posted myself again between Dufresne and that civilian. Dufresne tried to hit me in the jaw with his fist but I parried the blow. I pulled my rubber stick and immediately Dufresne kicked me on the shin just below the right knee. This blow was very painful. Then Dufresne hit me under the chin with his fist and I fell on the ground on my back. I hurt my hip and back badly as I fell against the side of the pavement. I rose again and tried to go away but was followed by Dufresne. The behaviour of the soldier I found very brutal and indescent. I have an open wound on my right leg and I had pains on my body for 5 days. For seven days I was under treatment of my doctor. For 8 days I was not able to fulfill my duties. I personnaly incurred no medical expenses as these were paid for out of a fund.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Verbeek

(Wilem Verbeek)

10th witness for the Prosecution

Peter de weerd, 184 van Amstelstraat, Hilversum, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter, Sgt Bos.

At 1915 hrs on 10 Jun 45 I was sitting in my room at 184 van Amstelstraat, Hilversum. I saw in van Amstelstraat opposite my house, two soldiers who seemed to be drunk in that their manner of walking was not quite regular. Those same two soldiers I see here today. (Here the witness points out and identifies 6123697 Pte Durresne W.E. and 6123712 Pte Moore W.H.). They were followed by several civilians and now and then the two soldiers tried to send them away. I followed them and they went into Hilversweg. On Hilversweg I saw the head agent of police who I know to see but whose name I do not know. I see him here today. (Here the witness points out Willem Verbeek). Verbeek tried to interfere in the affair by speaking to one of the soldiers. Suddenly Verbeek was attacked by the bigger of the two soldiers whom I now recognize. (Here the witness points out 6123697 Pte Durresne W.E.). The head agent pulled his rubber stick but before he could use it he was kicked by Durresne and Verbeek fell to the ground. Verbeek then tried to go away but was followed by Durresne and another soldier who I see here today. (Here the witness points out 6123712 Pte Moore W.H.). The latter was not aggressive. As there were many civilians around I could not see further details. Both of the soldiers ran away and tried to hide themselves in the garden behind the house at 220 van Amstelstraat, Hilversum.

A Provost jeep came up containing two civilian police and two Provosts. The Provosts chased after these two soldiers and I saw them arrested by the two Provosts. I saw Durresne resist being arrested and it took the Provosts and two other soldiers to hold him. Durresne fell on the ground and I saw some bank notes fall out of his back trouser pocket. I could not see how many notes there were but they were a folded bunch of about 15 or 20 notes, which I am sure was Dutch currency. I saw one bank note of 25 Guilders and I believe I saw one bank note of 25 Guilders. A soldier whom I did not know picked up the money and threw it into the front of the Provost jeep. Immediately another soldier who I did not know took the money out of the jeep.

Both Durresne and Moore were put into a small truck which drove away. I saw that in the Agtiantierstraat they both jumped out of the rear of the truck and ran away. I saw them both arrested by military police and saw them put into the truck again and driven away. I do not know whether I will be able to recognize the soldier who took the money out of the jeep nor can I recall special details or marks about his person.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

P de Weerd

11th witness for the Prosecution

Marriagje Prins, 64 Marco Polo Straat, Amsterdam, Holland, wife of Paulus Lamers of the same place, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter, A.B. Caughlin.

At about 1330 hrs 10 Jun 45 my husband and I arrived at 131 Amstelstraat, Hilversum, where we visited. Our bicycles were put in the care proper. At about 1400 hrs both bicycles were removed to the shed at the rear of the care by Mr. Anting and my husband, Mr Anting taking my bicycle. My husband's bicycle had two bags, one bag slung over each side of the rear wheel. One of the bicycle bags contained my handbag which held my pocketbook containing 400 Guilders. One of the compartments of the pocketbook contained 380 Guilders and the other compartment contained two notes of 10 Guilders each. I noticed that when my husband took his bicycle to the shed both bicycle bags had their straps buckled. Directly after my husband and Mr Anting took the bicycles to the shed, I went outside the back door and I saw that the gate leading from the back enclosure to the street was barred and I considered the money safe. There was another door on the opposite side of the small enclosure but I am not certain if this was locked. I looked into the shed and saw both the bicycles there and noticed that both bicycle bags were buckled. I saw no-one at anytime go into the shed. I saw two soldiers on the premises of the care and a fracas ensued as a result of their presence. I see the same two soldiers here today. (Here the witness indicates Cpl 23697 Pte Dufresne W.E. and Cpl 23712 Pte Moore W.H.) At approximately 1930 hrs immediately after the soldiers left the premises, I went to the shed. I saw that the two bicycles were standing outside the shed leaning against it. I saw that both the bicycle bags were open. I thereupon checked my handbag which was closed and in the bicycle bag. On opening the handbag I found my pocket book not to be in the same compartment of the handbag as in which I left it. I checked the contents of the pocketbook and found it empty. There was no money in the pocketbook. My 400 Guilders were gone. I reported the matter to the Dutch Auxiliary Police. The denominations of my 400 Guilders were as follows -

1 note of 100 Guilders
2 notes of 50 Guilders
2 notes of 20 Guilders
1 note of 25 Guilders
13 notes of 10 Guilders
5 notes of 1 Guilder

The notes were not new money and they looked as if they had been handled rather a lot.

Question - Do you recognize this money? (Here I produce 362 Guilders composed of the following denominations,

1 note of 100 Guilders
2 notes of 50 Guilders
1 note of 25 Guilders
2 notes of 20 Guilders
9 notes of 10 Guilders
7 notes of 1 Guilder which was held by No. 3 Can Pro Doy as evidence in this case.

Answer - Yes, it is mine.

Question - How do you know it is your money?

Answer - By its appearance. I cant tell you why, but it is mine. (Here the witness counts the money) There are 302 builders here and I say that this is my money which was of the 400 builders in my handbag.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Harrington Dias

12th witness for the prosecution

Paulus Lamers, 64 Marco Polo Straat, Amsterdam, Holland, having been duly sworn, states through the interpreter, A.D. Laughton.

My wife, Marriagje Prins, and I, cycled to 131 Amstalstraat, Hilversum, on 10 Jun 45. Immediately on our arrival there at about 1330 hrs I put my bicycle in the back enclosure of the cafe and leaned it against the outside wall of the shed. I had one set of two bags draped over the rear wheel of my bicycle. When I left my bicycle there, I am not sure whether the bicycle bags were buckled or unbuckled, but it is usual for me to keep them buckled. One of the two bicycle bags contained my wife's handbag. In the handbag was a pocket book containing 400 Guilders. The denominations of the notes of the 400 Guilders were;

1 note of 100 Guilders
2 notes of 50 Guilders
2 notes of 20 Guilders
13 notes of 10 Guilders
5 notes of 1 Guilders
1 note of 25 Guilders

At about 2100 hrs on that day I next went to my bicycle and found it still there. I did not investigate the bags. My wife's bicycle had been put there by Mr Anting beside mine. I did not see anyone go to the bicycles during the day. I did not actually see the 400 Guilders in my wife's handbag. I know the money was there because it is our custom that my wife always carries our savings and household money with her in her handbag. It is our custom not to leave any money in our house when we leave it, but to take it all with us as a matter of safety. I know the denominations of the 400 Guilders because people in our circumstances know exactly what money they have. The 400 Guilders was our total savings and household money.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

B67485Pte Dufty A A

The fact that Pte Dufty is a good and reliable driver I personally vouch for having been in direct contact with him for 21 months as transport officer of the Royal Regiment of Canada. That he absented himself at MacMalin while on a duty consisting of transporting personnel to an ENSA party disapates any suggestion at hindering the unit operationally. The circumstances surrounding his personal affairs and particulars of service does in a way small way justify his action. Pte Dufty is married with two children, the youngest he has never seen. His wife has been ill and compassionate leave was applied for and according to correspondence from Canadian Section Current Headquarters 2nd Echelon, which I have seen. Would same have been granted if he had been able to hold out a little longer. He has had two brothers killed in this war, one in Italy and one in France, a pretty big contribution from one family. He has four years nine months service to his credit. And yet here is a man who has expressed his eagerness to Drive without pay if it was it within your power to award a forfeiture at the equivelant of a substantial detention sentence. You are however empowered to award forfeitures of pay up to 90 days, and I submit that when you decide on an equitable and fair sentence that you make three months of it as a forfeiture of pay in order that Pte Lufty may be re-employed in a useful purpose that much sooner. In perusing his MFM 6 undue emphasis on the several minor entries is not justifiable in view of his long service.

AREA OF SITUATION

B0/48brte Dufty A A

The fact that Pte Dufty is a good and reliable driver I personally vouch for having been in direct contact with him for 21 months as transport officer of the Royal Regiment of Canada. That he absented himself at Meehalin while on a duty consisting of transporting personnel to an NSA party disputes any suggestion at hindering the unit operationally. The circumstances surrounding his personal affairs and particulars of service does in a way small way justify his action. Pte Dufty is married with two children, the youngest he has never seen. His wife has been ill and compassionate leave was applied for and according to correspondence from Canadian Section Current Headquarters 2nd Echelon, which I have seen. Would same have been granted if he had been able to hold out a little longer. He has had two brothers killed in this war, one in Italy and one in France, a pretty big contribution from one family. He has four years nine months service to his credit. And yet here is a man who has expressed his eagerness to drive without pay if it was it within your power to award a forfeiture at the equivelant of a substantial detention sentence. You are however empowered to award forfeitures of pay up to 60 days, and I submit that when you decide on an equitable and fair sentence that you make three months of it as a forfeiture of pay in order that Pte Lalty may be re-employed in a useful purpose that much sooner. In perusing his RMC 6 undue emphasis on the several minor entries is not justifiable in view of his long service.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) & call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(I. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s) & If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[1], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[2], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[3]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No.[4]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(I. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

R 6[illegible]48.5 Pte Duffy A.A.

The fact that Pte Duffy is a good and reliable Driver I personally Vouch for Having been in Direct Contact with Him for 21 months as Transport Driver of the Royal Regiment of Canada.

That He obtained Himself at Rechain ~~to overseas~~ while on Duty Consisting of Transporting personal To an ENSA Party Disregards any Suggestion of Hindering the Anti-Aircraft ~~operations~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Crew~~ ~~at~~ ~~Rechain~~ surrounding his personal affairs and particularly ~~of~~ ~~Service~~ ~~Duties~~ in a Time of War must refer His action

Pte Duffy is married with two children the youngest he Has never Seen. His wife Has been ill and Comfortable home was applied for and according to Canadian Section Canad Headquarters 1st ECHelon which I Have Seen

Would you have been glad if he had come back to Head just a little longer. He has had 2 Brothers killed in this War one in Italy and one in France. A pretty big Contribution from one family - He has 4 years Gallant Service to His Credit.

~~Whatever His future~~
~~be we would like to be~~

And yet Here is a man who has expressed His ~~Desire~~ To Drive without fear it was within your Power to award a fortune at the equivalent of a Substantial Detention Sentence.

You are However empowered to award Forfeitures at pay up to 90 days - and I submit that

When you decide on an equitable and fair sentence that you ~~you~~ make ~~it to~~ 3 months of it as a forfeiture of pay

STATEMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER CAPTAIN M.A. Mac PHERSON RE' CPL. DUFTY IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT.

I am sure that the court will have considerable difficulty in this case because there are a number of circumstances which appear to be a blatant disregard to orders. Surley as you will note there is no such suggestion.

You will note that Cpl Dufty was absent without leave, as a matter of fact Cpl Dufty had permission to go to Fleet. The accused had two brothers whom he had not seen for two and a half years. I submit it was perfectly natural to see his younger brothers as soon as possible when they were as close as that.

The person being carried on his Motorcycle was one of his young brothers. You will note that the only reason against this was that the brother was not carrying a crash helmet.

An outstanding thing in this case is the good behaviour of the accused, he has been an excellent soldier for almost now four years. The accused informs me he has only once been up to Company Orderly Room and that for a very minor charge of 3 days C.B. which practically constitutes a clean sheet. He has been an N.C.O. for two and a half years. He was a Lance Corporal for one year.

It is submitted that the excellent character offsets the balance of evidence produced against him, four years without a Regimental Entry, he most certaily deserves consideration not to mention compassionate grounds. Cpl Dufty is twenty four years old, single and his record while he has been in this Company is exemplary. The reason why we have not Character Witnesses ...and there are many who could come forward.....is that two officers are otherwise engaged one is on Wheels and the other myself. The accused was an N.C.O. of mine for four months and gave no cause for criticism other than normal prodedure. I recommended him for promotion to Corporal as a reliable hard working N.C.O. It is therefore recommended that you do not revert him to the ranks, if so you will spoil a man and his services will not be good.

The punishments you have are sufficient, you may award 28 to 30 days forfeiture of pay, or loss of pay as the case may be. Nothing is to stop the Court from these measures ...and...it would be far more suitable. A man with so much to his credit as this man has namely four years excellent service calls for consideration.

First Witness Prosecution

Lieut. S.M. Adams, 33 Canadian Corps Troops Company, R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:-

"I am Lieut. S.M. Adams, 33 Canadian Corps Troops Company, R.C.A.S.C. I am Officer i/c "B" Transport Platoon. I know the accused. He is a section corporal in my platoon. He was a section corporal when I assumed charge of the platoon in January, 1943. He has Harley Davidson motor bike No. CC.1039972, signed over to him. I recognize Transport Work Ticket No. U-7-17. It is the Work Ticket for the motor bike in question (Work Ticket marked Exhibit "A"). On 11 August 1943 Cpl. Dufty had his usual duties as a section corporal to perform. He had no duties to perform which required him to be in Fleet. I did not authorize a journey to Fleet nor did anyone else to my knowledge. Work Tickets in my platoon are made out for Unit Area unless the vehicle is required to go out of the Unit Area. It was not known that the motorbike in question was out until the accused reported to the guard on returning that night.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

PLEA IN MITIGATION "A"

You see before you a soldier who has always given his superiors the best of co-operation. This man has been in Italy since November '43. He has seen action in the Gothic and Hitler lines. He made a mistake and acknowledges it, but this is his first offense. Surely, the Court must show clemency to a man, whom, harassed by fear and worry nevertheless surrendered himself voluntarily. Human nature is weak and irreparable damage may be caused by the loss of a single day's liberty to one so young. Therefore, gentlemen I ask the minimum sentence for this man. I thank you.

Capt. Cerroni J.A.

I am G-45079 SQMS Peacock J.E. of 4 C.A.B. workshop and was on strength of 4 C.A.B. workshop on the 24 Nov 44. I act as chief clerk of my unit and as such it is one of my duties to publish and post Part 1 Orders of the unit. On or about the 24 Nov 44 while the accused was on strength of this unit a Unit Part 1 # 74 d/24 Nov 44 Order republishing Div Routine Order # 2905 forbidding trafficking in Dutch currencey was posted in all sections and in all messes and on the unit notice board.

(H.R.Hewitt) Lieut
Officer detailed to take Summary of Evidence.

Idea of Mitigation

Mr. Dugas is a married man having two children. He is thirty years of age and has but eight years of public schooling. He does not read english very well but understands.

He has no job to return to after repatriation and with the aid of all gratuities available, he is hoping to purchase for himself a small business to carry on with in civilian life.

Mr. Dugas has convinced me that he was unaware of the seriousness of this crime, trafficking dutch currency into foreign exchange. Since Mr. Dugas has been with the Ugd.

up until this time, he has proven from all reports a reliable and trustworthy soldier in action. So with this plea of mitigation I leave this sentence of Sgt. Dugan in the hands of the court hoping that they will be as lenient as they can see fit.

The Court, having re-assembled by order of Brigadier A. W. Beament, CBE, VD., O-i/c Cdn Sec. 1. A Field General Court-Martial of which you were President assembled on 22 Jul 44 to try the m/n soldier on a charge under AA 12(1)(a) to which the accused pleaded not guilty, was found guilty and sentenced to undergo detention for 12 months.

2. Under the provisions of AA 54(2) I direct that the Court which tried the accused re-assemble for the purpose of reconsidering their finding on the first charge and, if there is a new finding which involves a sentence, of passing a fresh sentence.

3. The reasons for requiring such revision are:

(a) That a perusal of the proceedings shows that there was an irregularity in the form of the charge which would prevent at law a finding of guilty on the charge.

(b) That a perusal of the proceedings shows that even if the charge had been properly drawn there was not sufficient evidence for the Court to justify the finding of guilty on the charge. The evidence was not well presented but an analysis of it indicates that the only period of AWL which was satisfactorily established was from 0900 hrs 16 Jul 44 to 2200 hrs 17 Jul 44. It is considered that there is no satisfactory evidence before the Court to show intent to desert on the part of the accused.

4. The Court will re-assemble as soon as possible. It is appreciated that the exigencies of the service will occasion some delay in this regard, but it is your duty as President to ensure that the Court re-assemble as soon as circumstances permit. The form of proceedings on revision is contained in MML p 759.

5. Before assembly the President and members of the Court should familiarise themselves with the provisions of M.M.L. pp 63-64, Art 94, A.A.54(2) and fns thereto, A.A.56(3), R.P.51(B) (1) and fns thereto, R.P.52 and fns thereto, R.P.120 (G) and fns thereto.

6. The following matters should be noted particularly:

(1) That the Court shall re-assemble in closed court and shall not receive further evidence.

(2) That if the Court does not adhere to its former finding, the finding and sentence shall be revoked, a new finding recorded and if the new finding involves a sentence, a new sentence shall be passed afresh.

(3) After revision the President shall date and sign the decision of the Court and transmit the proceedings for confirmation as required by R.P.97(B).

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

~~Defence statement~~

Summing up - prosecution

For the defence has been asking leading questions showing that accused must show intent, we are not dealing with intent but cold facts, the accused was on parade & answered his name, he was told that any unauthorised failure to go with draft would mean that he would be charged with desertion he was not entitled on pass therefore not authorised to miss draft the testimony of other witness Fowler testifies time he was A.W.L. & Sgt Ebey the time of return with facts before the court including the warning & statement by Capt Brown that he had to be replaced & his time of return constitute a case In view of warning referred to I think charge should stand

Serving up Defence

The evidence that prosecution has given proves accused was absent, but being absent does not constitute desertion. The accused had no intention of deserting His M's Forces, on the contrary the fact that he returned of his own free will should leave no doubt in your mind that he did not intend to desert. Three warnings were given for draft & twice they were cancelled frankly I do not think he knew where he stood. The accused has been in camp for 6 weeks.

Accused states

Q. How long have you been in camp?
A. 6 weeks, Sir
Q. How many times have you been warned for draft?
A. These 3 or four times, Sir
Q. How many times have drafts been cancelled?
A. Several pay times
Q. Had you been warned on the 16th that the draft was to leave on Sunday
A. No Sir
Q. What was your reason for leaving camp?
A. No reason Sir
Q. ~~What up~~ Did pay day influence you?
A. No Sir
Q. Did any provost stop you or send you back to camp?
A. No Sir I returned of my own free will
Q. When you returned to camp was that the first information you had that you had missed the draft
A. No Sir
Q. Where did you receive this information
A. At 6 o'clock 17th July in Aldershot
Q. Having heard this what steps did you take
A. I returned to camp & reported into Orderly room
Q. Can

4. Prosecution cross questions Accused

Q. You received notice ~~to return~~ that draft. Leave left at 1800 hrs 17 Jul & returned at 2200 hrs did you not.

A That is correct, Sir.

Court.

Q You heard the warning on 10 July?

A Yes, Sir

Q. It was clearly given? - you knew what was said

A. Yes Sir

The defending officer state that accused has clean sheet for 2 years. No question of failure of any duty. Was not employed by 12 Bn. at the time of absence. Accused knows on the charge and has learned his lesson. Is a good soldier and will continue to be on if given chance.

Opening address by the Prosecutor:

The accused is being tried on two charges. The prosecution will prove that the accused assaulted, and struck a Lance-Corporal. Subsequent to this several other persons became involved in the disturbance, which took place on a public street. Therefor the accused by his act, and by subsequent assaults committed two separate offences, the second being due to the fact that the whole thing took place on a public street.

First witness for the prosecution:

Police Sergeant James Briggs, Barnsley Civil police, having been duly sworn states:

The accused is recognized by the witness.

I was on duty on New Street, Barnsley in company with police sergeant Lees of the same constabulary, when at the bottom of New Street, we saw a tallish Canadian soldier attacking another Canadian soldier. We at once went there and parted them; but the attacking Canadian soldier broke free and again attacked the smaller Canadian soldier who I then noticed was wearing a Lance Corporals stripe. At this point a woman rushed in and attacked the ~~tall Canadian soldier~~ the Lance Corporal. The lady had been walking with the Lance Corporal who had been attacked. We tried to part the lady and the tall soldier. While we were doing this another Canadian soldier rushed in and attacked the Lance-Corporal. At this point, the Canadian Provost cardrew up with a patrol inside and the two soldiers who had attacked the Lance Corporal were arrested by the Provost Corps. patrol. The Lance Corporal who had been attacked made no effort to defend himself, and tried his best to avoid causing trouble.

I recognize the accused as the tall Canadian soldier referred to in the above evidence.

The witness is cross-examined by the defending officer.

Q. Were there many people in the street.

A. There were quite a few around, since it was Sunday night.

Q. Was it sufficiently light and not too crowded for you to see the accused.

A. Yes. I could see the accused all the time.

Q. What do you mean by the fact the soldier was attacking the L/Cpl.

A. He struck the L/Cpl. on the jaw with his fist. The L/Cpl. made no resistance to the attack.

Q. When you approached to stop this fighting, did you have to use force?

A. We got between them and pushed them away and told them to clear off.

Q. Did the tall soldier cause this woman any reason to give violence

A. She was walking in company of the L/Cpl. who was attacked by the tall soldier, and no doubt was taking the L/Cpl's part.

Q. Had all this fighting ceased before the Provost arrived?

A. No.

Certified K.R. 836) complied with.

Second witness for the prosecution:

A 3648 L/Cpl Mc Curdy, A.L. having been duly sworn states.

I am A 3648 L/Cpl Mc Curdy, A.L. #3 Det. 1 Provost Coy.

I recognize the accused.

I was on duty in the town of Bradley, on the night of 16 Jul 44 in company with L/Cpl. Barnes, at about 2250 hrs. while driving by the Duke of York public house noticed a disturbance. I stopped and at the same time saw Pte. Duggan hit a civilian lady, and right after that a Police Sergeant grabbed hold of him. On his evidence we placed Pte. Duggan under close arrest. We then took him to the police station and later escorted him to this unit guard room.

III
Q. Had the police not been there what action would you take on seeing Pte. Duggan strike a civilian lady?
A. I would have obtained further witnesses and determined whether Pte. Duggan was at fault and we would have been required to take him into military custody anyway.
Q. What charge would you have held him on.
A. Creating a disturbance.

Witness is cross-examined by the Defence.
Q. Did the Civilian police lay hold on Duggan.
A. Yes.
Q. Did you see Duggan hit L/Cpl. Cooper.
A. No.
Certified R.P. 83(6) complied with.

Third witness for the prosecution
D 166631 L/Cpl. Daron, H., having been duly sworn states:
I am D 166631 L/Cpl Daron, H. # 3 Det 71 Provost Coy. I recognize the accused.
On 16 Jul 44 while on patrol in the town of Barnsley with L/Cpl. McCurdy at approximately 2250 hrs while driving past the Duke of York public house I saw the accused strike a civilian lady. By the time we got over to him the accused was in the hands of the Barnsley civil police. On their evidence he was placed under close arrest by L/Cpl. McCurdy, and was later escorted to the police station and then to the unit guard room where a receipt was obtained for the accused.
Q. When the accused struck the civilian girl do you consider that he had committed an offence.
A. Yes, he was creating a disturbance.
Q. What action would you have taken had the civilian police not been there.
A. The accused would have been placed under arrest anyway.

The defence cross-examines the witness.
Q: Did you see the accused strike L/Cpl Cooper.
A: No.
Certified K.R. 83(b) complied with.

Fourth witness for the prosecution:
D 37471 L/Cpl. Cooper, G.K. having been duly sworn states:
I am D 37471 L/Cpl Cooper, G.K. #3 Det 1 Provost Coy. C.M.P. I recognize the accused.
At approximately 2250 hrs 16 Jul 44 I was walking down the street in company with a civilian girl, and I was nearly opposite the Duke of York Public house when two Canadian soldiers who had been standing in the doorway of the public house ran across the street and attacked me. They were later identified as Pte. Ferguson and Pte. Duggan. Pte. Duggan struck me on the left ear and Pte. Ferguson attempted to strike me. Pte. Duggan then started to struggle with the civilian girl I was walking with, until two civilian police-men stopped him. I defended myself from Pte. Ferguson until L/Cpl. McCurdy and L/Cpl. Baron stopped, and grabbed hold of Pte. Ferguson. The two soldiers were placed under arrest by L/Cpl. McCurdy
Q. Were you wearing badges of your rank?
A. Yes.
Q. Who struck you first?
A. Pte. Duggan, the accused struck me.
The defence cross examines the witness.
Q. Had you had any previous disagreement with Pte. Duggan?
A. No.
Q. Did Pte Ferguson hit you?
A. He attempted to hit me.
Certified RD 83(b) complied with.
Prosecution closed.

P.T.O.

Statement of the accused on oath.

H 20320 Pte Duggan, B.J. 2C.I.R.V. C.I.C. having been duly sworn states:

On Thursday evening 13 Jul 44 I went to Barnsley to the Duke of York Public house. While drinking I met the before mentioned girl who joined me in a few drinks. At approximately 2015 hrs. I went into the lavatory. There I was approached by L/Capl. Cooper, who told me to stay away from the girl at the bar. I asked him if he was in his rights in my private affairs. He said," If you knew what is good for you, you will keep away." I went back to the bar, and continued to have a drink. A Capl Cooper then came up to me and asked me to go outside with him. When out on the street he asked me to go up an alley, and fight it out. That I agreed to do, until Pte. Haycock, told me to watch I didnt get myself in trouble. I went from there to the dance at the Urban dance hall with Capl. Dumont and did not have any further contact with the girl or the L/Capl. that evening. On Sunday 16 Jul 44 I went to Barnsley in the afternoon accompanied by Pte. Ferguson. Pte. Ferguson left me for a short while and I had supper and coffee at the Bus Station. Ferguson then met me there again, and we went to the Duke of York Public house, where we met a lad who had just come from Italy. We were having a drink together and I went up to the bar for drinks. While at the bar the before mentioned girl asked me for a cigarette, I then asked her if she and her friends would join us to have a drink. They said they would if we went to their table, which we did. We had a few drinks and then Pte. Barr and his girl friend from London joined us. We were all having a drink when L/Capl. Cooper came up and leaned over our table, and spoke to the before mentioned girl. He then went back to the bar and was drinking, when the girl left our party, and went over to him. She remained there for about two minutes and then came back and joined us. I asked her if she was still going to accompany me for the remainder of the night. She replied "Yes" he means nothing to me as I have only known him for a week." He stayed in the bar until closing time and the party of us went out onto the street where this girl and another girl excused themselves to go to the ladies room saying "They would be right back." We waited for about twenty minutes for them to return when I saw the girl who was in my company across the street. I went over across the street and asked her if she was still going to come home with me. The L/Cpl. spoke up and said "Buggar off." I then turned to him and said you are the same man that tried to cause trouble the other night. He replied "yes," and lifted his hands and struck at me. He passed blows at each other and he hit me on the right shoulder. I slipped and fell on the street, and when I got up the girl rushed at me, and started to struggle. Then the civilian police came up, and said "Settle down." This I did immediately and stood with the civilian police the girl and Cooper in a group until L/Cpl. McCurdy and Baron took me to the Jeep. Ferguson was already in the jeep, and they took us to the police station and then to our unit guard room.

The witness is cross-examined by the prosecution.

Q. Are you trying to say that the sworn evidence of police sergeant Briggs is all a deliberate lie?
A. No.
Q. Was he telling the truth?
A. Yes.
Q. He said that he saw you attack Cooper.
A. That is right.
Q. He said that Cooper did not retaliate in any way.
A. When the fight started Police Sergeant Briggs was not there because it started on the sidewalk.
Q. Do you know that he was not there?
A. Not for sure.
Q. Do you recall him saying that he was on patrol there.
A. I recall him saying he was at the bottom of New Street when the fight started and that he came on the scene when he saw the disturbance.
Q. Do you recall him saying that he was there all evening.

A. No.
Q. Would you say that he was not there when the fight started
A. I don't know.
Q. He did not mention a fight going on when he arrived at the bottom of Nevs St.
A. He mentioned he saw trouble and came to the scene.
Q. But he said was, that at the bottom of Nevs St. I saw a tall Canadian soldier attack another Canadian soldier" He said nothing of seeing a disturbance prior to that did he?
A. No.
Q. He further stated that he did not see Cooper strike a blow.
A. He may not have seen Cooper strike a blow but he did strike a blow.
Q. He said that Cooper did all he could to avoid causing trouble. didn't he.
A. In my opinion Cooper did not.
Q. As against the facts stated by the police constable, ~~that~~ you are putting your opinion as to whether he did all he could to avoid trouble or not.
A. I am stating what took place at the start of the fight.
Q. Then is the police sergeant wrong.
A. I say that Cooper did fight and strike back at the start of the fight.
Q. You have already stated that the evidence of the police sergeant is right.
A. What he saw did take place.
Q. Yet you state that the police sergeant is not correct in saying " Cooper did all he could to avoid trouble" how is the police sergeant right as wrong.
A. He is wrong. But the police sergeant saw only approximately half of the disturbance.
Q. Did you strike a civilian girl?
A. No.
Q. Then the evidence of L/Cpl. McCurdy, L/Cpl Barons ~~the~~ is wrong.
A. Yes.
Q. Police sergeant Briggs said you struck her. So he wrong.
A. Yes. I went to sweep her out of the way so that she would not get struck by a blow.
Q. ~~A~~ L/Cpl. McCurdy, L/Cpl Barons and the police sergeant lying.
A. No.

7 VII

Q. Police sergeant Driggs stated you and Cooper were parted once but you broke away and again attacked Cooper.

A. I cannot recollect whether I was parted or not.

Q. What about the evidence of the police sergeant that you struck Cooper a very hard blow and that he was holding his jaw for some time.

A. It is quite likely he was hit as we were both striking at each other.

Q. Would this occur at the beginning of the fight.

A. I dont know.

Q. Do you recall striking Cooper a hard blow to his left cheek.

A. I recall striking at him but I dont recall any blows hitting him.

Q. Yet you say the police sergeant is probably right when he says you hit him a hard blow.

A. He is probably right.

Q. Do you remember what stage of the fight he would be referring to.

A. No.

Q. You say you can remember that he was striking back at you.

A. Yes.

Q. Why did the police sergeant not see him striking back at you.

A. I dont know.

Q. Why did he say he did all he could to avoid trouble.

A. I dont know.

Q. Do you consider the fact that Cooper cut you out with your girl friend sufficient justification for you to strike him.

A. No.

Q. Did you see that he was wearing a stripe

A. I didnt take close enough notice to him at the time.

Q. How about earlier in the evening did you notice he was a L/Capl.

A. I never noticed at any time that he was a L/Capl.

Q. Did you notice on 13 Jul 44 that he was a L/Capl.

A. No.

P 15

Q. Apt he states that he was wearing a stripe on Sunday night. Was he right?
A. I don't know.
Q. Who struck the first blow?
A. Cooper struck at me, but I got out of the way of it.
Q. Did he hit you on the right shoulder.
A. Yes.
Q. Then you slipped and fell.
A. Yes. my feet went out from under me. I had hob nails on.
Q. You immediately got up.
A. Yes.
Q. That would be all one / and a matter of seconds.
A. Yes, a matter of a few seconds.
Q. At that stage the girl rushed in and started to struggle.
A. Yes.
Q. The police sergeant saw that, did he.
A. Yes he rushed in to part us.
Q. If so did you suggest in the first part of cross examination that the police sergeant did not see the beginning of the fight a couple of seconds before.
A. Because he could not have seen it or he would have stated it in his evidence.
Q. I suggest that the reason he did not state it so that it did not happen.
A. No. the suggestion is not true.

Second witness for the Defence.

H 199999 Pte Baran, K. A. having been duly sworn states.

I am Pte Baran, K. A. 2C. 1 R.V. and I recognize the accused.

On the night of 16 Jul 44 Pte Duggan, myself, Pte Ferguson, a girl I had with me, two girls they had with them were all sitting in a public house in Barnsley. After sitting there for awhile, I noticed a L/Capl. who belonged to the Provost Coy call one of the girls, the one that was sitting with Pte. Duggan, to the bar where the L/Capl. was drinking. They got into a sort of a huddle, apparently talking about something. After the conversation she came back and sat beside Pte. Duggan again. In the meantime Pte. Duggan was buying all the beer for her. At the same time the L/Capl. kept smiling and winking to the same girl. This went on until the public house closed. Pte. Duggan, Pte. Ferguson, and myself all went out with the women we had with us. As we were all standing outside I with the woman I had, I noticed that the two women that Duggan and Ferguson had, left them and I heard one of them say "He will be back as soon as we are finished." After they left I wasn't paying much attention to anyone, except the woman I had with me. After a short time, I would say twenty or twenty-five minutes, I noticed the woman that Duggan had walking across the street with the same L/Capl. that was drinking in the same public house as the rest of us. At the same time Pte. Duggan spotted her cross the street, so he walked over and as he came from behind he went in between the two of them, he sort of leaned his head across to talk to her, then the girl I was with said to me "Look what is happening across the street." As I looked I saw Duggan just getting up from the ~~ground to my mind that~~ with the Provost standing in a sort of ready and crouched position. When Duggan got up they both took a couple of swings. The girl that was with them started to kick Pte. Duggan, who in turn just pushed her aside. By this time a jeep containing four or five provost stopped right there, and some civilian police arrived there, the provost grabbed Duggan, and started with the civilian police right in the middle, to take Duggan towards the jeep and put him in it.

The prosecution cross examines the witness.

A. I knew him and we are in the same regiment.

Q. Do you generally go out with people who are not your friends?

Q. Have you talked it over with him since?
A. No.
Q. Did you see him in the guard room at all?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you talk to him in the guard room?

A. That is right.
Q. After they left you ceased to pay much attention to what was going on
A. I didnt pay much attention.
Q. How long were you talking to your girl.
A. I dont know.
Q. When you say twenty or twenty five minutes is that probably wrong?
A. I could not swear to the time
Q. Was it after this period of time that you noticed Duggan's girl walking across the street.
A. Yes.
Q. Did the two women, after they crossed themselves go across the street to the K/Kpl.
A. I didnt see the K/Kpl. at that time.

P XII

Q. Between the time you left the public house and the time you saw the L/Capl. across the street would be how long?
A. About twenty or twenty-five minutes.
Q. What happened during that twenty or twenty five minutes.
A. ~~Pte Duggan and Pte Ferguson were~~
A. I don't know.

A I saw it all from time Duggan got up until the provost took him away.
Q. You said in your evidence "I don't know whether anyone got smacked"
A. I didn't see anyone get a real hit in the face and I did not see anyone get smacked.
Q. Did you see Duggan strike the girl
A. No.
Q. During the fight where were the police?
Q. Before the provost got there did you see the police?

A. No

A. I saw the provost and the police at the same time.
Q. Could the police have been there through it all and you would not have seen them.
A. yes.
Q. Where did you stand during the whole thing?
A. In front of the Duke of York public house.
Q. The evidence of Police sergeant Briggs, was that he saw Duggan attack the L/Cpl, strike him a hard blow in the face which caused L/Cpl. to hold his jaw. Is that correct or not?
A. I dont know.
Q. Would you say the police constable is wrong.
A. From what I saw I would say he was wrong.
Q. Do you swear that Duggan did not strike the L/Cpl in the face.
A. I dont know.
Q. Do you know whether the L/Cpl. held his jaw or not.
A. I dont know.
Q. Why do you say the police constable is wrong then?
A. Because from what I saw I do.
Q. The police constable further stated that the L/Cpl did not retaliate in any way. Is he right or wrong?
A. He is wrong.
Q. The police constable said that the L/Cpl did all he could to avoid trouble. Is he right or wrong.
A. He is wrong.
Q. The police constable has told a direct lie then in regard to the two questions. Is that right?
A. I do not wish to answer the question.
Q. The police constable further stated that he saw the accused strike the girl quite a hard blow. Is that right or wrong.
A. From what I saw he pushed her, I said.
Q. Do you know the difference between a "strike" and a "push"
A. yes.

P. XIV

Q. Then if the police constable said "strike" would you say he was wrong?

A. Yes.

Q. Would you call him a liar in this respect?

A. Yes.

Q. L/Bdr. McCurdy stated that he saw the accused strike a civilian girl? Is he also wrong.

A. Yes

Q. Is he also a liar?

A. Yes.

Q. L/Bdr. Baron also states he saw the accused strike a civilian girl. Is he wrong also?

A. Yes.

Q. Yet you saw the whole thing without obstruction by the people in front of you.

A. Yes.

Re-stated K. R. P. 86(b) complied with Closing address by the defence.

We have only L/Cpl. Cooper's evidence to show the manner in which he and this girl were approached. It is also apparent that the civilian policemen were not immediately at the scene of the scuffle when it first began. It is possible that blows were struck on both sides but it is the feeling of the defence that there must have been some particular reason for these blows.

The defence rests on the opinion of the court in accordance with the evidence as given and that the accused may be found not guilty.

Closing address by the Prosecution:
In reply to the statements of the defending officer in which he states that we have only Cooper's evidence to show the manner in which he was approached that evidence was not questioned at the time it was given. The witnesses for the defence seemed to be entirely confused as to what did happen.
Something was said about "blows" being exchanged but that was not mentioned by the civilian police officer who the accused himself has stated must have been there a few seconds before the civilian girl got into the struggle, and therefor must have seen on the accused own admission, the whole affair. The negative evidence of the police officer is therefor as strong as the evidence of Cooper himself.
Even under cross-examination by the court Cooper did not vary his evidence in the slightest, and in fact corroborated what the police officer said in regards to doing all he could to avoid trouble.
That evidence was at first denied by the witness for the defence who later backed down when he found that he would have to call somebody a liar.
The evidence for the defence was that neither witness could say that the policeman was not at the scene of the scuffle, merely that they did not see him. The evidence of two witnesses for the prosecution which was also unquestioned by the defence was that the accused struck Cooper a blow to his left side of his face. Witnesses for the defence again said merely that they did not see it. There was no denial

It is not possible I submit that blows were struck on both sides. The evidence of the accused was not corroborated by his own witness who swore that he saw no blows struck merely arms in the air, and again this witness was not prepared to state that the policeman or Cooper himself were wrong. There may have been a particular reason for the blow as the defending officer suggests but that reason was not brought out in evidence or did he see fit to call as a witness Pte Ferguson who was admitted by both defence witnesses to have been present throughout the evidence of the defence, as the blow struck on the civilian girl was not such as to discount three reliable and independent witnesses for the prosecution, who stated that they saw the accused strike the girl. The evidence of Pte. Doran I submit is so wholly unreliable after his own admission that he was not paying much attention to anybody except his girl, can be discredited by the court. He said nothing of a positive nature I submit that the first charge has been proved beyond any possible doubt particularly in view of the accused own admission that he struck L/Cpl. Cooper, No provocation on the 16 Jul 44 has been shewn.

As to the second charge the whole affair took place on a public street as was stated by all witnesses. If the accused is to be found guilty on the first charge which he has admitted, then he must also be found guilty on the second charge of creating a disturbance. It was after the blow was struck that the civilian girl became involved and consequently a public disturbance created. I submit therefor that the accused must be found guilty on both charges.

P XVIII

Defence plea in mitigation of punishment.

H 19108 Pte Haycock, O. G. 2 C.I.R.V. states

On Thursday evening 13th July 44 when leaving the Alhambra Hall, I was going toward the bus station when I saw a gathering outside the Duke of York Hall. There seemed to be a commotion and I was attracted by the presence of the Provost and one soldier whom I recognized as Pte. Duggan. I crossed the street and advanced to Pte Duggan and asked him what the trouble was. He seemed to be evoked over some challenge made by the provost. I told him to pass it up as he would naturally be up against odds. I took hold of Pte. Duggan and told him not to accept the challenge and come with me down the street, this he did. He explained the trouble as we moved down the street toward the market square. There was also in the company a P.T. Instructor, I dont know his name but I knew him to see him and to speak to him. I told Pte. Duggan I would have to go and emphasized to forget it and avoid any further trouble. We shook hands in agreement that he would do this. Upon leaving I made a remark to the P.T. Instructor to take charge to see there was no further trouble. He said he would do this.

Plea of Defending Officer in mitigation of punishment.

I wish to point out that the conduct sheet of the accused shows only minor offences and that this is his first Court Martial. Although it has not been proved that there was any reason for the accused attack on L/Capt Cooper, it would seem natural that one man is not going to strike another man without there being some reasonable cause for so doing. I suggest that if Capt Cooper removed from the company of Pte. Duggan the girl in whom he was interested, therefor the accused took the primitive way of trying to regain her. I also wish to point out that the accused has assigned pay to an aging Mother of £3.0.0 per month, also that he be given the opportunity of serving any sentence he may receive from this court in the field with his own unit.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of H.20320 Pte. Clarence John DUGGAN, C.I.C. on strength of 2 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Police Sergeant James Briggs, Barnsley Civil Police, having been duly sworn states as follows:
I am a Sergeant in the Barnsley County Borough Police Force. At about 10.45 p.m. on Sunday, 16 July 1944, I was on duty in New Street in company with Sergeant Lickess when at the bottom of New Street we saw a tall Canadian soldier attack another Canadian soldier. We at once went down to them and saw that the tall soldier was attacking a L/Cpl. who did not retaliate in any way. They were parted once but the tall soldier broke away and again attacked the L/Cpl. On which a woman rushed at the attacking soldier and started struggling with him. We eventually got them parted and then another Canadian soldier attacked the L/Cpl. At this point the patrol of the Provost Corps joined us and the two Canadians who had attacked the L/Cpl. were arrested by the Provost Corps. We then learnt that the L/Cpl. who had been attacked was a member of the Provost Corps who was not on duty. I did not see him strike a blow, he did all he could to avoid causing any trouble.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

President read the charges to the accussed and received the following pleas:-

1st. Charge: A.A. Sec. 18 (4) STEALING PUBLIC PROPERTY, in that he, in the Field on or about 21 Oct 41, did steal one blanket and rations consisting of four tins of condensed milk, being public property in the possession of 5 Cdn Field Ambulance.

2nd Charge: A.A. Sec. 40: CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE, in that he, in the Field on 31 Oct 41, carried four tins of condensed milk in his respirator haversack after having removed his respirator.

The ACCUSSED pleads GUILTY TO THIS CHARGE:

President to the Defence: Have you any statements to make in behalf of the accussed or any character witnesses to bring forth?

Defence: Yes Sir, I would like to produce three character witnesses and also make a plea for mitigation of sentence.

B89915 S.Sgt. Hopkinson G.G., 5th Cdn Fd. Amb. RCAMC having been duly sworn states:

Defence: Q.1. You have known the Accussed for a good many years, will you tell the court in your own words what you know of him?

A.1. I have known the accussed for approximately eight years, and have known his family very intimately. His father died when he was nine years of age, and his mother gave him his own way in a great deal of things and since his fathers death there had been no male in the family and Pte. Duggan has had no one to guide him as a father should. He is of a well known family, that of Tucketts the Tobacco people, his mother is a very fine woman and as long as I have known Pte. Duggan he has never been in trouble before. I might say that Duggan always had lots of money and was of a very generous nature in this regard. He was a very popular student throughout his school days and a regular member of the Y.M.C.A. at home. He attended church and Sunday school and became a leader of the younger boys back home. He is a man of very high moral standing and a very good soldier in my opinion. That is all Sir.

B89886 L/Cpl. Johnson R.D. having been duly sworn states:-

Defence. Q.1. Johnson will you tell the court briefly what you know of the accussed character?

A.1. I have known Pte. Duggan since he joined the army and I have never seen him with stolen property before.

Q.2. What is your opinion of his general character?

A.2. Very good Sir.

Q.3. He has never at any time either than as a person of high character?

A.3. Not to my knowledge Sir.

B89889 Pte. Todd, J.B., 5th Cdn Fd. Amb. RCAMC having been duly sworn states:

Defence: Q.1. Will you tell the court in your own words what you know about Pte. Duggan and your opinion of his general character?

A.1. I have known Pte. Duggan since 1933 and we went to school together for two years. After that I worked with Duggan and found him to be a hard worker and honest.

Q.2. Has he ever been in trouble in civilian life ?

A.2. In the eight years I have known him, he has never been in civilian court.

Q.3. You have known him since he joined the army?

A.4. Yes Sir, and he to my knowledge has been a good soldier.

Defence: That is all.

Defence: You have heard the evidence of three character witnesses and I would like to make a plea of mitigation for the accussed for the following six reasons:

(1) This is the accussed first serious offence in the army.

(2) The articles which the accussed removed were not for his own benifit but for the good of needy people that he knew in this country and who had previously been very courteous to the Accussed.

(3) He realises that his impulsive action was was wrong and serious and is fully resolved that this thing will not happen again.

(4) That, he is a very young man, being only nineteen when he enlisted in the Canadian forces.

(5) He is of good character which has been testified to by three character witnesses.

(6) He has already been in close arrest for a period of 31 days.

The case of the Defence rests at this period and hopes that every consideration of leniency is shown to the Accussed. That is all.

President of the Court:

I declare the Court closed. Pte. Duggan will be returned to his Unit where he will be held pending the promulgation of the findings of the Court by the G.O.C.

Court closed at 1010 hours

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

NOTE E-3

M. President,
Members of the Court

You have heard the evidence against the accused, to all charges we have pled a dual guilty

There only remains for me to bring out to you the circumstances which have brought the accused before you on such charges.

Being the eldest son of a family of 9 children, father out of work for 10 years, the motive of being "absent without leave" was not being absent from the army but rather to help the family out of their difficulties.

He has reinlisted, not under an assumed name, he has given exactly the same particulars about himself and his family but his carefree state of mind induced him to act in such a way with the intention not to defraud but only to clear his conscience of his wrong situation.

His behaviour since his reinlistment has been good, his records shows that his conduct is on the upgrade, I plead to you in using great clemency in sentencing him, and help him rehabilitating himself now he has proven the will to do so.

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-5514, Pte. Thomas William DUGGAN, General Company, No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH

First Witness for Prosecution

Lieutenant J. Simister, Assistant Adjutant No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I produce original documents in my possession as follows:- MFM 2 - Record of Declaration on Attestation (Triplicate Copy) of C-5514, Pte. DUGGAN T. whom I now recognise as the accused, showing him having been attested in the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment C.A.S.F., on the 3rd day of April 1940. Attached as Exhibit "A" A.F.B. 115 Record of Declaration of a Court of Inquiry, assembled at Camp Borden, Ontario, Canada, A 10 Infantry (advanced T.C.) on the 9th day of September 1941 for the purpose of investigating and recording the absence, without leave, from his duty, and deficiency, if any in the Arms, ammunition, equipment, Regimental necessities, or clothing of No. C-5514 Pte. DUGGAN T., the accused. Attached as Exhibit "B". I also produce copy of original document, MFM 2 Record of Declaration of Attestation, showing the accused having been attested in the Queens York Rangers C.A.(A) under Regimental No. H-70257 Pte. DUGGAN Thomas William, at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, on the 7th day of April 1942. Attached as Exhibit "C".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J. Simister

(J. Simister) Lieut.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused elected to give evidence as follows:-

First Witness for Defence

The accused C-5514 Pte. T.W. DUGGAN, General Company, No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn, states:-

I first joined the Canadian Army, in 1940, in Picton, Ontario. I got in with a bunch of fellows, who drank cheap wine. I got in with them they were also in the Canadian Army, instead of bettering myself, I seemed to be getting deeper with this lot of fellows and going A.W.L. between the cheap wine and my father not working for ten years and being the oldest of nine children, I used to go home to try and help my parents. My Dad used to abuse my mother and this also got me down. I kept up like this until August 1941, when I went home and got a job helping my father roofing. I helped the family out as much as I could. No military police came to my home until about 3 months ago, in April 1942, I joined the Army again with the intentions of going Overseas, and bettering myself. While I was in Canada, with the Queens York Rangers I had two or three small crimes, A.W.L. which were caused by my girl friend turning me down. I had been keeping company with her for eight years and this was the reason. I have been in England now nine months, and have only been A.W.L. on one occasion that was over staying a pass for 1½ days. My intentions were to better myself and I believe I have done so since coming back into the Army and getting Overseas, and hope I shall be able to improve my record as I go on.

T.W. Duggan

(T.W. DUGGAN) Private

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence at this time.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the hearing and presence of the accused and that rules of procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Plea in Mitigation in the case of R 23191 Pte Duquette C.S.

Ex. "B"

Pte Duquette enlisted 29 Jun 41 and arrived overseas 1 Dec 43. He is single and has had ~~four or more~~ several ~~time~~ offences, all in Canada, ~~the most serious being~~ AWOL ~~& Desertion~~ 5 days AWL.

Pte Duquette went into action on D Day and was in action until being wounded 25 Jul 44. He arrived back in France 1 Sept 44 and stayed until 1 Nov when he was evacuated because of battle exhaustion. The 19th time he joined the Bn was in the rest area at Ghent. At this time Pte Duquette was still very shaky and nervous. At Leopold Barracks he was placed on guard duty, and, because of his nervous condition, fired five rounds from his rifle during the night. He was reprimanded by his Company Sergeant Major and went absent the following day because he could stand it no longer. Pte Duquette made numerous trips to the MO for sleeping tablets because he found it impossible to sleep.

Because of the good service rendered by the soldier to the date of going absent, and, because of his condition at the time, I ask the clemency of the Court by awarding the minimum sentence.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(1)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s). In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans None (4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. (1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

PLEA OF MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF PRIVATE E. DUGUAY

If it will please the court, I would like to offer a plea of mitigation. First, I would like to make a confession, I would like to confess that when I first accepted my appointment as defending officer, I did so because of the fact that private Duguay being French and having asked for a french-speaking officer, I felt that I was obligated to assist him. But since I have heard his story and looked into his record, I am pleased that I accepted this post as I feel that here is a man who needs all the assistance that I can give him.

Private Duguay, arrived overseas three years ago. He married here and has one child. Last February, he was posted for duty in Italy, and was wounded in May, seriously wounded--the loss of an eye. He spent two months in hospital and since then has suffered continously with terrific headaches. He attended sick parades on account of these headaches, and was told that it was nervous. Private Duguay record previous to receiving this wound shows that he was willing and tried to be a good soldier, but the shock of this wound and the loss of the eye to a young man has left him more or less discouraged and bewildered. He feels that he is of no longer of any use as a soldier and is now employed at Z.V.R.D. on guard duties. This employment, after being in the thick of things overseas has not assisted him any. He feels that he has offered his service to his country, lost his eye in this offer and now he should be free to return to civilian life.

In my opinion, this soldier should be more pitied then censored and every help should be given him to try and rehabilitate himself to a more active and useful life.

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-23171 Pte. Duguay, E., Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, on strength of No.2 V.R.D., 1 Cdn C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier in the Canadian Army Overseas.

Trial of No. B 88108 Pte. Duguay, H., 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy. R.C.A.S.C.

Prosecuting Officer: Capt. M.E. Mears, 1 Cdn. Div. Sup. Col. R.C.A.S.C.

Defending Officer : Lieut. N.H. Ballingall, 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy. R.C.A.S.C.

Provost Recn.

The Order convening the Court is read in the presence of the Accused.

The Accused is asked the following question: "Do you object to being tried by the President or any Members of the Court whose names you have just heard read over?"

Answer: "No, sir."

The President and Members are duly sworn.

The Accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

Question by the Court to the Accused: "Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the grounds that you have had insufficient time to prepare your defence?"

Answer: "No, sir."

The Prosecuting Officer makes the following opening address:- "I have several points in connection with the charge which I will prove to the Court. I will prove first that there was an accident; second that the damages suffered by vehicle CL196890 amounted to £43-18-11; third that the damages suffered by vehicle CZA205943 amounted to £40-9-9; fourth that the vehicle CL 196890 was in the charge of and being operated by B 88108 Pte. Duguay, H., 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy., R.C.A.S.C.; fifth that the accident was caused by the negligent manner in which Pte. Duguay was operating his vehicle."

The Prosecuting Officer proceeds to call witnesses.

1st Witness: Mr. R.W. Barnes, 19 Chester Ave., Worthing, Sussex, having been duly sworn, states:-

I was proceeding in a westerly direction on the Billingshurst to Petworth Road at approximately 25 to 30 m.p.h. As I was coming around a bend to the right in the road, I noticed an Army lorry overtaking from the rear. It overtook me after I was almost nearly around and just as he got nicely in front of me he struck another army lorry coming from the other direction. When the first Army lorry cut in in front of me, I pulled in to the curb. The first lorry turned over after hitting the second one. I estimate the speed of the first lorry to have been 50 m.p.h.

The witness is examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1: Did this accident occur on 12/12/41?
A.1: Yes.

Q.2: Do you recognize the driver of the overtaking vehicle in Court?
A.2: Yes, the accused.

Q.3: How long have you driven vehicles?
A.3: 25 years.

Q.4:"What do you judge the speed of the overtaking lorry to have been?"
A.4:"About 20-25 more m.p.h. than mine."

The witness is crossexamined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1:"When Pte. Duguay passed you, were you going uphill?"
A.1:"Uphill."

Q.2:"What is the weight of your lorry?"
A.2:"5 tons."

Q.3:"How do you judge the speed of Duguay?"
A.3:"He passed me going up the hill."

Q.4:"Did you see the 8-cwt. skid?"
A.4:"Yes. At the same time as I saw the lorry passing me."

Q.5:"Did you see the application of the brakes on the 8-cwt.?"
A.5:"No, but it apparently must have applied them."

Q.6:"Was the pavement slippery that day?"
A.6:"The road surface that day was good."

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1: "Did the 8-cwt. skid on the right side of the road?"

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.1: "Was the grade a gradual one?"
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "Is the upgrade a curve and if so, how far?"
A.2: "Yes, very steep and some distance."

Q.3: "What was the width of the road?"
A.3: "I estimate 22 feet."

2nd Witness: Mr. W.G. Orchard, 27 wigmore Road, Broadwater, Worthing, Sussex, having been duly sworn, states:

On the 12/12/41, I was proceeding from Wisborough to Petworth. I was following Driver Barnes at about 60 feet behind him, going down a right hand curve. As I was looking into the mirror I saw an Army overtaking me on the bend. I saw a truck coming from the other hill. I thought the first lorry was going to pull in, but apparently he did not have the time. The result was that he hit the other truck and overturned immediately.

The witness is examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1: "Did you see the driver of this lorry that passed you and crashed into the other lorry?"
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "Do you recognize him in the Court?"
A.2: "Yes, the accused."

Q.3: "How long have you driven lorries?"
A.3: "I have been 17 years with the same firm, of which the last 15 has been as a driver."

Q.4: "At what speed do you estimate that you were travelling?"
A.4: "I estimate 25 m.p.h."

Q.5: "The other lorry passed you when you were going that speed?
A.5: "Yes".

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1: "You were in the second civilian lorry?"
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "How far behind were you?"
A.2: "About 60 feet."

Q.3: "Duguay overtook you as you were going down the hill?"
A.3: "Yes."

Q.4: "Do you remember seeing the actual accident?"
A.4: "Yes, on the impact the tool box bounced off."

Q.5: "Did you see the skid of the 8-cwt.?"
A.6: "I do not remember."

Q.6: "Where did the impact take place?"
A.6: "On the side of the road belonging to the 8-cwt."

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.1: "What do you estimate to have been the speed of the 30cwt.?
A.1: "I estimate 45-50 m.p.h."

3rd Witness: A 3017 Pte. Jones, H.E., Royal Canadian Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

On 12/12/41, I was detailed to drive the Padre, Capt. Wilkes in 8 cwt. CZ 4205943 from the coast to London. It was about 1030 or 1100 hrs. I was proceeding from Petworth to Billingshurst. The roads were in bad shape with rain. And the visibility on the said road is limited. As I came around the road, I saw the civilian vehicle on my right. I had gone another ten or fifteen feet when the 30 cwt. loomed out of nowhere in front of me. I applied the brakes (the brakes had been set up on 11/12/41). It was impossible to avoid the collision. When I applied the brakes, I skidded slightly to the right and I cut the 8-cwt. sharp to the left direction. That is all that I can remember.

The witness is examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1: "When you started to skid, did you keep the brakes on?"
A.1: "I do not remember."

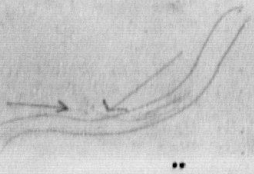
Q.2: "Was the skid lengthways or crossways?"
A.2: "It was slightly to the right and then off to the left."

Q.3: "Was your vehicle ever over on the right of the white line?
A.3: "Just for a second when I applied the brakes."

Q.4: "Was it over there at the time of the impact?"
A.4: "I do not think so. I was well in the left shoulder of the road."

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1: "When you saw the oncoming 30 cwt., did you not immediately apply your own brakes, and then it skidded?"
A.1: "Yes."



Q.2: "How long was the time from your first seeing applying the brakes until the impact?"
A.2: "It was a matter of seconds."

Q.3: "As soon as you applied your brakes, you skidded to the left, and then you cut to the left?"

A.3: "Yes, I went slightly to the right and I then cut the 8-cwt. to the left."The last I remember was a crash."

Q.4: "What was the condition of the road?"
A.4: "Wet."

Q.5: "Had the road been dry, could the accident have been avoided?"
A.5: "Yes."

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.1: "What was the speed at the time of the accident?"
A.1: "30-35 m.p.h."

Q.2: "Were you going down-hill?"
A.2: "Yes, on a slight down-hill grade."

Q.3: "At the time you saw the 30-cwt., where was the civilian lorry?"
A.3: "About 25 yards from my truck."

Q.4: "Had you instantly stopped, could the 30-cwt. have "snaked" in?"
A.4: "That depends on the speed of both vehicles."

4th Witness: Capt. J. H. Cornell, O. i/c W.S., 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy., R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, presented an estimate of the repairs and the cost of parts necessary to repair vehicle CL 195890, amounting to £43-18-11.

The Defending Officer did not wish to cross-examine.

5th Witness: Lieut. R.F.Richardson, 2i/c No. 3 Group, 1 Cdn. Div. Ord. W.S. R.C.O.C., having been duly sworn, presented an estimate of the repairs and the cost of parts necessary to repair vehicle CZ 4205943, amounting to £40-9-9.

The Defending Officer did not wish to cross-examine.

At this point, due to the close proximity of the ground, the Court adjourned to look at the scene of the accident.

The Accused was given the following three alternatives:

(1) to make a statement under oath.
(2) to make a statement under not under oath.
(3) to make no statement.

A.1: "I was abreast of the second lorry when I saw the first lorry."

Q.2: "Did you get a little excited?"

Q.3: "Why did you try to pass the first lorry?"
A.3: "It was impossible for me to get in between the first and second civilian lorries.

Q.4: "Did the fact that you were excited and driving a little faster speed impel your attempt to pass the first lorry?"
A.4: "Yes, I was going too fast to cut in behind the two lorries."

Q.5: "You were following L/Cpl. Evans from Shipley?"
A.5: "Yes."

Q.6: "How far were you travelling behind Evans prior to your making the turn in the road?"
A.6: "Approximately 25-30 yards."

The witness is crossexamined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1: "How long have you driven lorries?"
A.1: "X 18 months."

Q.2: "Are you familiar with the rules of the road?"
A.2: "No, I am not."

Q.3: "Is it a common habit to pass another vehicle on a bend?
A.3: "It is not."

The witness is re-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1: "How long have you been with 1 Cdn.Div. Pet. Coy.?"
A.1: "Since Dec. 1939."

Q.2: "Have you ever been involved in an accident before?"
A.2: "No."

Q.3: "What speed were you travelling as you overtook the second lorry just prior to going down the hill?"
A.3: "30-35 m.p.h."

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.1: "Did the truck driven by Evans pass the other two lorries?
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "Where".
A.2: "Just before the bend."

Q.3: "Did you know where you were going?"
A.3: "Yes."

2nd Witness: [illegible] L/Cpl. Evans, #[illegible] 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy., R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1: "Duguay was following your lorry from Shipley to Petworth at the time of the accident?"
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "You had passed the two civilian lorries just before going into the curve?"
A.2: "Yes."

Q.3: "Had you seen Duguay's lorry in the mirror prior to the accident?"
A.3: "I had to the first turn."

Q.4: "At what speed were you travelling?"
A.4: "25-30 m.p.h.from Shipley."

Q.5: "At the time just prior to going down the hill?"
A.5: "Approximately 28-30 m.p.h."

Q.6: "Duguay was in sight when looking into the mirror just prior to going down the hill?"
A.6: "Yes."

The

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.1: "Where did you pass the two civilian lorries?"
A.1: "Before I started to go down the hill."

Q.2: "Did you see Duguay's lorry after you passed the civilian lorries?"
A.2: "No."

Q.3: "Had the same situation arisen could you have pulled in between them?"
A.3: "Yes, I could have done so."

Q.4: "Do you remember passing the 8-cwt.?"
A.4: "Yes, I passed it."

3rd Witness: B 86103 Sgt. A.E.Lawrence, 1 Cdn. Div.Pet.Coy., R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.1: "Duguay is a Driver Mechanic is he not?"
A.1: "Yes."

Q.2: "In your association with Duguay, have you known him to be involved in an accident?"
A.2: "No."

Q.3: "Have you known him to drive other than carefully?"
A.3: "Yes, but I have not had occasion to check him."

Q.4: "What is your opinion of him as a soldier?"
A.4: "He has been a good man."

The Defending Officer makes the following address:
"Duguay, in passing lorry no. 2, did not know that lorry no.1 was in front of it, and much to his surprise, discovered that lorry no. 1 was there as well. He was going down a hill and had speeded up because he was going down a hill. I would stretch a point to say that he had been going perhaps 40. The fact that he was going that rate of speed and that he was on a bend, excited him, and in his excitement, he tried to overtake lorry no. 1. The road was also very wet and in bad condition at the time. I feel that the fact that the 8-cwt. skidded into Duguay's lorry was a great contributing factor to his accident. Pte. Jones has admitted that had the road been dry, he could have pulled up in time to avoid the impact. The Court will see that a 30-cwt. does not reach 50 m.p.h. from 30 m.p.h. in just coming around a bend. Duguay has had two years' service and has been a good man with no accidents during that time.

The Prosecuting Officer makes the following address:
"I have proven the accident occurred between the two lorries. I have proven that the accident was the direct result of the driving of C1 195890 at the time of the accident occurring. Blame cannot be attached to the other vehicle. Capt. Cornell, and Lieut. Richardson have furnished the cost of the damages. L/Cpl. Evans said that his vehicle was doing 30 m.p.h., but no evidence has been submitted to show that Duguay was not doing 50 m.p.h. The two civilian witnesses bear this out that he was actually going at an excessive rate of speed. There should have been no necessity for a skid or application of the brakes had he not been out of proper position. Due to the nature of the road if not more care than ever should have been exercised. I have proved that Duguay speeded up in excess of that of the two civilians' lorries. Evans has said that he could have gotten in between. Duguay has said that he could not have. The reason is that Duguay was obviously speeding."

The Court adjourned to consider its finding.

The Prosecuting Officer, Capt. M.E.Mears, 1 Cdn. Div. Sup. Col., R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:-
"I produce herewith a certified true copy of the M.F.M. 6 (Conduct Sheet) of Pte. Duguay, H., B 88108, 1 Cdn. Div. Pet. Coy., R.C.A.S.C."

The Defending Officer did not have anything further to say regarding mitigation of sentence.

Statement of Capt. R.C. Wilkes, Royal Canadian Regiment.

I am the R.C. Chaplain attached R.C.R. 1st Bde. and on Dec 12 at about 0930 a.m., I left Selsey in a Chev. 8 cwt driven by Pte. Jones enroute to London. About an hours ride after, while we were travelling about 30 - 35 m.p.h., we came to a bend in the road and all I remember is seeing an Army 30 cwt coming right in front of us on our side of the road passing a civilian truck, Jones applied the brakes and truck started to skid. That is all I remember.

Statement of A/3017 Pte. Jones, H.E., H.Q. Coy, R.C.R.

I am employed as a driver to Chev. 8 cwt OZ-5009943 and on Dec 12, 1941, I was requisitioned by the padre, Capt. Wilkes to drive him to London. We left Selsey about 1015 a.m. and were proceeding from Petworth towards Billingshuret when I drove around the end of a road. I saw a civilian vehicle coming towards me then a 30 cwt attempted to pass at a high rate of speed. He was right over on the left side of the road. I jammed my brakes and started to skid then I released the brakes and drove for the left ditch when the crash occurred. That is all I remember.

Statement of R.W. Barnes, 19 Chester Ave., Worthing, Sussex.

I was proceeding west on the Billingshurst - Petworth Road at approximately 25 to 30 m.p.h. On a right bend an Army Lorry (CL-195290) overtook my lorry and as he was a few feet in front of me he struck another Army Lorry OZ-4009943 coming in the opposite direction. I swung over on the curb and the first army lorry cut in front of me and turned over after hitting the second lorry. The first lorry was travelling at approximately 50 m.p.h.

Sgnd: R. Barnes

Statement of W.G. Orchard, 27 Wigmore Rd., Broadwater, Worthing, Sussex.

I was following E.V.B.6 at about 50 feet interval. An army lorry overtook me and passed ahead to overtake E.V.B.6, when he was opposite him, a smaller army lorry coming in the opposite direction collided and the first lorry cut in front of E.V.B.6 and turned over. The smaller lorry bounced off the first Army lorry and ended up in the ditch. Two men were thrown out of the smaller lorry. The first army lorry was travelling at approximately 50 m.p.h.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4 (2) elects to give evidence on oath.

I was returning from 1st Div Pet Coy Workshops to our pump at Petworth for the purpose of refuelling. I was driving a 30 cwt lorry number C.L. 195890 following L/Cpl. Evans in a 15 cwt lorry on the road from Billingshurst to Petworth. As we were nearing Hawkhurst we saw two civilian lorries ahead of us. L/Cpl Evans proceeded to pass both of them and I following him, passed the second one on a level stretch of road just before approaching a bend in the road. After passing the second lorry, I took up a position between the leading lorry and the second. After having gone round the bend, I proceeded to pass the first civilian lorry at approximately 30 m.p.h. As I had already passed this lorry at approximately 30 m.p.h. I saw an 8 cwt lorry coming towards me. I immediately cut over onto the left side of the road. I noticed the 8 cwt lorry immediately applied his brakes and the road being slippery caused his lorry to skid toward me. My vehicle at the time was half way over on my side of the road and then I was struck on the right front by this vehicle, which caused my lorry to turn over.

I disagree with the statements of W.O. Orchard and R.W. Barnes that I was travelling at approximately 50 m.p.h. as it would be impossible to negotiate a 30 cwt lorry around a bend, such as were taking, at a speed of greater than 30 m.p.h.

A.7- On March 17th 1943, at approximately 2245 hrs in company with Lieut Boulanger I was walking on the streets of Sunningdale Village. When coming near to the Station, I noticed two Canadian soldiers who seemed to be argumenting with a civilian. I did not stop I just went on my way, a few minutes later I saw a civilian walking very fast behind me and I recognized him as the one which was with the two Canadian soldiers. Suddenly, he started running and crossed the street to the other sidewalk, then I noticed two Canadian soldiers coming behind me in pursuit of the civilian. These two soldiers passed by me on the sidewalk, as they passed by me I recognized one of them as being Pte Leblanc, A. Thinking that there might be trouble, I called Leblanc's name he trued his head, looked in my direction and just went on. Suddenly they started to run and closed up on the civilian, closing up on to him they forced him into an alley leading to a backyard. Seeing that there was trouble I crossed the street and shouted to them: What are you doing there?" They did not answer. I noticed one of them throwing the civilian on the ground so I gave the order to let that man alone. Then one of them came out of the shadow,and hit me in the face. As he came out of the shadow, I distinctly saw his face. I then fell on the ground, causing my head to hit the pavement. During that time Pte Leblanc who had been standing on the side, ran away with Pte Duguay.

We had spent the evening in Sunningdale Hotel, which is near the Station, at 2200 hrs at the closing time of the Hotel we decided to come back to Camp by taxi. I phoned myself for the taxi and he told me he could not come befre 2210 hrs. We waited till 2210 hrs for the taxi. When he came we let him go with an other load. After the taxi had gone Lieut Dugnon and myself made our way towards the direction of Camberley. After having walked for a period of about 5 minutes, I saw Pte Leblanc and Pte Duguay pass beside us marching very fast. I called Duguay by his name, but he did not seem to hear me, I also recognise Leblanc who was walking with him but failing to remember his name I did not call him. A few minutes later I saw Pte Duguay and Pte Leblanc crossing the road, and vanishing in the shadow of a house which was near there. I then heard a shamble of a fight. I told Lieut. Gagnon we had better go and stop that fight before they got in trouble. Lieut. Gagnon then crossed alone. I for my part stayed on my side of the road thinking that it would not be necessary for me to go. Just as Lieut Gagnon reached the scene of the fight, I remaining on the other side of the road I saw the two men doubling down in the direction of the Station, and also saw somebody falling down. I went further and soon recognised Lieut. Gagnon on the pavement, I immediately helped him to get up, because he was quite dazed, He had a wound in the right side back of the head and a slight injury on the left of the nose and his nose was also bleeding. After I had helped Lieut. Gagnon to get up, an officer of the Home Guard whom was residing in the house near there called him in his house to give him First Aid. Having left Lieut Gagnon going in the house with this Home Guard officer, I then saw a civilian with his clothes all twisted and who seemed to have been in fight with somebody. I asked the civilian what had happened, he told me he had been assaulted by two French Canadian soldiers. The civilian went away and I went in the house to see how was Lieut. Gagnon.

Q.34- Has Duguay ever been under your command?

A.34- I had him three weeks under my Command in Bognor Regis during the Spartan scheme. We were on the Greek Force Duguay was in my platoon and I knew him very well and his face is familiar to me.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No Y-4082, Private Jean Baptiste DUGUAY, of the Royal 22e Regiment, on the strength of 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence was taken under oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. Lieut. C. Gagnon, Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut C. Gagnon, of the Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU. On 17 Mar 43, I was in Sunningdale with Lieut Boulanger when, at about 2245 hrs, as we were going by the station, I saw two soldiers arguing violently with a civilian. I did not think anything of it at the time and continued on my way. A few seconds later the civilian caught up with us and passed us walking very fast and even running at times. Behind him were two soldiers. As these soldiers went by I recognised one of them as Pte Leblanc. I called his name, but, looking back, he kept on going. Suddenly the civilian started to run with the two soldiers in pursuit. They caught up with him and pushed him into an alleyway. I could see this quite plainly in the moonlight. I crossed the street in their direction to see just what they were up to. I asked what they were doing, but got no answer. Just then Duguay threw the civilian on the ground. I ordered him to stop. He suddenly lunged towards me and hit me with his fist on the nose, knocking me backwards and causing me to split my head on the pavement. While I was down Duguay and Leblanc took to their heels and ran away. While all this was going on Leblanc just stood to one side and did nothing to interfere.

Q.1. How was I dressed when this happened?
A.1 You were wearing battle dress.
Q.2 Was I far from you when you identified me?
A.2 You were just about to hit me and were quite close.

The accused declines to further cross-examine this witness.

"C. Gagnon" Lieut.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. Lieut R. L. Boulanger, Regiment de la Chaudiere, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut R.L. Boulanger, of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, 6 CIRU. On 17 Mar 43 at about 2230 hrs I was in Sunningdale with Lieut C. Gagnon. As we were walking down the street in the direction of the camp, I saw two soldiers going by which I recognised as Ptes Duguay and Leblanc. I called out Duguay's name but he didn't seem to take any notice. Suddenly they ran and went into an alleyway. No sooner had they entered the alleyway that I heard coming from there noises which seemed to indicate that a fight was in progress. Lieut Gagnon crossed the street to try and stop it. Suddenly in the moonlight I saw a man fall and two others take to their heels. Realizing that the man who had fallen was Lieut Gagnon I rushed to his assistance. He was down on the ground and his nose was bleeding profusely. Just then a man arose from out of the shadow where he had been lying. He was a civilian and I tried to question him as to what had happened. He did not seem eager to answer my questions and he walked away. I am positive, having seen them go there and having recognised them as they went by me, that the two men who ran away after knocking down Lieut Gagnon, were Ptes Duguay and Leblanc, although I was too far away at the time to actually see which one of them did strike Lieut Gagnon.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No E-4802, Private Jean Baptiste DUBUAY, of the Royal 22e Regiment, on the strength of 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Q.1 Where were you when you recognised me?
A.1 I was walking down the street and you passed beside me.
Q.2 How far away were you when the fight started?
A.2 On the other side of the road, about 35 or 40 feet away.
Q.3 Did you identify the two men who ran away.
A.3 I was too far away to identify you but I knew it was you.

The accused declines to further cross-examine this witness.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in French in accordance with MP 4 (R) and RO 1424, reserves his defence.

CLOSING ADDRESS

B-4803 Pte J. B. Duguay, R 22e R No 6 CTRU.

1. Before I start I wish to point out that all here lays on the first charge, if the prosecution fails to prove the first charge the whole matter should be dropped and a no case verdict should be given.

2. The prosecution has failed in every point to prove the first charge.

(a) Three witnesses have stated under oath that the accused was in his quarters from 2215 hours until at least 2230.

(b) The witnesses for prosecution have only seen what they described as being Duguay in the moonlight for a split second, it might well have been anyone at all wearing a uniform. The times stated in their evidence does not at all correspond with this one given by all witnesses of prosecution.

(c) The whole matter of time was approximate.

(d) The prosecution fails to prove the second charge because they did not even bring the most important witness the civilian.

3. Due to all these little points not clarified it becomes clear that the identification was badly done and I ask the court that a non lieu verdict should be passed.

Defending Officer.

Final Address - Summing Up Evidence -

From the evidence given by Lieut. Dagnon and Lieut. Boulanger it is clear and beyond the shadow of a doubt that Pte. Duguay was in Summingdale after 2200 hrs on March 17th 43. Nobody could deny he was in his hut between 2200 and 2225 hrs. But nobody can prove he did not go down town after 2230 hrs., and as it take about 20 minutes at the utmost to reach the station, it is clear he could easily be there at 2245 when he assaulted a civilian and Lieut Dagnon. Facts never lie, witnesses may, and specially his, do not seem very reliable.

Still from the evidence of the two officers a/m Duguay assaulted a civilian (Unfortunately, on account of his not being identified he could not be brought into Court)

Then Duguay struck Lieut Dagnon in the face, and ran away fearing to be recognized. Lieut Dagnon still has the marks of the assault.

Duguay and Leblanc were plainly identified by Lieut. Boulanger and Lieut Dagnon before, during and after the assaults. I do not believe the Court needs more evidence. Moreover, the accused's witnesses admit there might be an error of 15 minutes in the time they stated, and they cannot assure Duguay and LeBlanc went to bed after 2230 hrs.

EXAMINATION OF FIRST WITNESS

LIEUT. P. MANTHA , R. de Mais. CA(O)

Q. Will you explain what happened on the afternoon of the 1 Sep 42.

A. On 1 Sep 42, I was in the R. de Mais. at #2 CDTRU, working on a Court of Inquiry when Pte. Dugay walked in and asked if I was going back soon in the Fd. Unit. On giving him an affirmative answer he asked if I would bring with me in my vehicle as he explained that he had just come out of detention and he had some equipment which he wanted to fetch at 5 Cdn Inf Bde. I informed him I would gladly do it provided he would get himself a pass and permission from his superior officer, Major Brosseau, who came in the Orderly Room at this very moment. The pass was granted, but I informed Duguay that he would have to come back by train the very same night as we could not send transport to bring him back. Duguay answered that he had enough money in his pocket to do so. We left shortly after and I stopped at Bde. where Duguay got off.

[illegible]

Q. Were you under the impression that Duguay had a pass?

A. Yes.

Cross examination

Q. Will you recognize Major Brosseau's signature if you see it on the pass?

A. Yes, it is Major Brosseau's signature indeed.

SECOND WITNESS

Examination of Capt. Bourcier.

Q. Do you recall conversation you had with Capt. Slater on 1 Sep 42 about Duguay?

A. On 1 Sep 42, at about 1600 hrs. Capt. Slater of 5 Cdn Inf Bde. called me on the phone and said that Pte. Duguay was at Bde. and apparently had no pass. I told Capt. Slater to hold Pte. Duguay and I phoned Major Brosseau at #2 CDTRU who informed that Pte. Duguay had a late pass for the day. I informed Capt. Slater of what Major Brosseau but again Capt. Slater denied the fact and I told us Duguay as he belonged to the Fd. Unit.

Exhibit 9
17 Sept 42

Q. When Capt. Slater called you, he said Duguay had no pass.
A. Yes.
Q. Which instructions did you give about Duguay?
A. I told Sgt. Provost to tell Duguay that he had been detailed to C coy.
Q. Are you sure that Sgt. Provost gave orders to Duguay to eport to C Coy?
A. Yes.
Q. Pte. Duguay was paraded to you in order to know where he had spent those two days.
A. Yes, Sir. Duguay said to me that he prefferred to be sent to the Guard Room instead of going to C.Coy.
Q. Do you know if Duguay had reasons to act so?
A. He had no reasons at all.
Q. Then he was not satisfied with the posting.
A. Right.
Q. What did you do?
A. I put Duguay under close arrest.

Cross examination

Q. What time did Duguay report to you?
A. I was told it was about 1400 hrs on 1 Sep 42.
Q. Did Sgt. Provost tell Duguay to report to C. Coy at once.?
A. Yes.
Q. What time was he supposed to fall on parade normally?
A. 0830 hrs.
Q. Duguay was not at this camp before?
A. No.
Q. How many men do you put in a tent?
A. Normally, a tent accomodates 10 men, but they are now occupied by 6, 7 or 8 men.

Re-examination

Q. Do you remember at about what time Capt. Slater called you?
A. Sometime in the afternoon.
Q. Then Pte. Duguay may have reported slightly about 1730 hrs or 1800 hrs.
A. Yes.

THIRD WITNESS

D.56972, Sgt. Provost, R.

Examination

Q. What happened on 1 Sep 42 when Pte. Duguay reported to you from Bde.
A. On 1 Sep 42, sometime in the afternoon, Duguay reported to me after he had seen the Adjt. stating he was reporting from 2 CDIRU. and that he had been transferred from 5 Cdn Inf Bde to 2 CDIRU. I phoned Bde. and was told by Bde. Orderly Room Sgt. that Pte. Duguay was transferred from 5 Cdn Inf Bde. to R. de Mais. Fd. Unit. I explained the case to Pte. Duguay and ordered to report to C. Coy for duty. Pte. Duguay asked me to ask the Adjt. if he could be instead to H.Q. Coy as a driver or a D.R. The Adjt. told me to send Pte. Duguay to C Coy and I gave the same order to Pte. Duguay. He then left me.
Q. You told Pte. Duguay to report to C. Coy.
A. Yes.

Q. What did he do?
A. He went away.
Q. Did he ask where C Coy was?
A. No.
Q. Then you took for granted that he knew where C Coy was?
A. Yes.
Q. To which Coy did you direct Pte. Duguay to report?
A. C Coy.
Q. Did you try to find Duguay afterwards.?
A. Yes, I phoned to all coys. and he was found in the camp. Then Duguay reported to Orderly Room. I paraded Duguay to the Adjt. and he said to the later:" Don't prepare my forms for posting to C coy, but prepare them for posting to the Guard Room or my former coy".
Q. Were you personnally present when Pte. Duguay used those words?
A. Yes.

Cross examination

Q. Did you spend any time chatting with Pte. Duguay before you gave him instructions?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you give him a difinite order?

ADDRESS BY PROSECUTING OFFICER

In any case, when a man reports to a Unit, He has to report to the coy. he is detailed to. But Pte. Duguay who knew nothing about the positions of the coys. did not ask any questions. Pte. Duguay instead of reporting to C Coy went to A Coy and the morning after whent to C Coy. He did not appear on any parades at all. He spent 2 or 3 days in C Coy lines and did not report at all to that coy.

ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

We have the evidence from Sgt. Provost that Duguay did not receive the order to report to a coy, but to go to a coy., and he slept in the lines of C Coy.

The court is closed for the finding.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE.

in the case of D-56964, Pte. Duguay, L. Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O), the accused, a soldier of the Canadian Army, Overseas;

FOR THE PROSECUTION:-

FIRST WITNESS:- Lieutenant P. A. Mantha, Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O), having been duly sworn in, states:-

On September 1st. 1942, I was in R. de Mais. Orderly Room in #2 C.D.I.R.U. working on a Court of Inquiry, when Pte. Duguay walked in and asked if I was going back soon to the Field Unit. On giving him an affirmative answer he asked if I would bring him with me in my vehicle as he explained that he had just come out of detention and he had some equipment which he wanted to fetch at 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde. I informed him I would gladly do it provided he would get himself a pass and permission from his superior officer Major Brosseau who came in the Orderly Room at this very moment. The pass was granted but I informed Duguay he would have to come back by train the very same night as we could not send transport to bring him back. Duguay answered he had enough money in his pocket to do so. We left shortly after and I stopped at Bde where Duguay got off.

17 Sept 42.

FOR THE PROSECUTION:-

Second Witness:- Capt. F. D. Bourcier, Adjutant, Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O), having been duly sworn in, states:-

On September 1st, 1942, at about 1600 hours, Captain Slater of 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde. called me on the telephone and said that Pte. Duguay was at Bde and apparently had no pass; I told Captain Slater to hold Pte. Duguay and I telephoned Major Brosseau in #2 C.D.I.R.U. who informed me that Pte Duguay had a late pass for the day. I informed Captain Slater of what Major Brosseau had said but again Captain Slater denied the fact and I told Captain Slater to send us Duguay as he belonged to the Field Unit.

An hour later, Pte. Duguay under escort reported to me, and I ordered him to report to Sgt. Provost, Orderly Room Sgt. who would post him to some Coy.

On Sept. 4th, 1942 at about 1400 hours, Pte. Duguay was paraded to me again in the Orderly Room when I told him of all the trouble he had caused about his pass, and he said he had not produced it because he had not been asked for it.

I then ordered Sgt. Provost to post Duguay to "C" Coy and I informed Pte. Duguay of this; Pte. Duguay then said:-"Do not trouble yourself with making the posting to "C" Coy, send me to detention instead." or words to that effect. As Duguay was refusing my order I put him under close arrest and sent him to detention.

FOR THE PROSECUTION:-
WITNESS:- D-56972, Sgt. Provost, R., Orderly Room Sgt., Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O)., having been duly sworn in, states:-

On September 1st, 1942, sometime in the afternoon, reported to me after he had seen the Adjutant, stating he was reporting from #2 C.D.I.R.U. and that he had been transfered from 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde to #2 C.D.I.R.U. I phoned Bde and was told by Bde. Orderly Room Sgt. that Pte. Duguay was transfered from 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde. to Regiment de Maisonneuve Field Unit. I explained the case to Pte. Duguay and ordered him to report to "C" Coy for duty. Pte Duguay asked me to ask the Adjutant if he could be sent instead to H.Q. Coy as a driver or a D.R. The adjutant told me to send Pte. Duguay to "C" Coy and I gave the same order to Pte. Duguay. He then left me.

On Sept. 4th, 1942, C.S.M.Berube informed me that Pte. Duguay was not in "C" Coy and I sent runners in the camp to find him. Pte Duguay was finally located in the camp and I paraded him to the Adjutant who said to Pte. Duguay:- "You report to "C" Coy for duty" or words to that effect. Pte. Duguay answered:-"Don't trouble yourself to post me to "C" Coy, prepare my posting to detention" or words to that effect.

Captain Bourcier then placed Duguay under close arrest.

I personally saw him there, I told them that starting from 1200 hrs on that the Pl would be CB'd to the area, pending our move, I did not give anytime as to when the CB would be lifted. About 1600 hrs a number of the boys including Pte Dougay and L/Cpl Scott, were present with me during a discussion, at about 1745 hrs. the platoon was formed up ready to move off. We were moving from the Coy area to embuss for the Rhine crossing, it was reported to me that one man was absent from my platoon. I investigated and found Pte Douguay was missing. I made a personal check of the platoon and found this to be correct. I made a search of the Pl area and that of Coy HQ but could not find the accused. I shouted several times but received no reply, I did not see Pte Duguay during the move, the crossing of the Rhine or the attacks that followed.

Cross Examination by defence

E 60184 Pte DUGUAY W. J.

E-3

In March 1940 Duguay [illegible] in the 1st Anti Tank Regiment. In June of the same year he came overseas. He married an English girl in March 42 and they now have 3 children, the youngest of which was born 5 Nov. 45.

Duguay has been transfered from one unit to another many times and has had to do a variety of uninteresting duties. Consequently he never became very enthusiastic towards his army obligations.

In January of this year family troubles caused Duguay to go A.W.L. while at 24 Spec. Emp. Coy., Bordon he made application for his wife's trip to Canada. On telling her what he had done she explained that a 3rd child was expected and she did not want to make such a long trip with 2 young children when in her condition. They quarrelled and instead of returning to his unit as he had intended he remained to try to straighten out their problem. He was unsuccessful and delayed his return still further. He found work for short periods near his family and continued this form of support until apprehended.

I wish to emphasize the fact that Duguay joined the Can. army early in the war (Jan 40), he has been misused in many units, he suffers from pneumatism which would not be improved by being in detention, he has a wife and 3 young children to support and put up a home for in Canada, he was already $90 in debt to the army at the beginning of the year, and finally he has spent 50 days in detention awaiting trial. I ask that the court take the above circumstances into consideration when awarding sentence.

Plea on —
Mitigation of punishment

I invite the court to take in consideration, his passed record and also, his services in the theater of war. Before he went A.W.L. he was pasted from one Co. to the 2nd P.R. and at the time 3d P.R. was on the move to a new area. Hewas sent back and fro from Co to Co. And finally found himself on 3d P.R. as a shoe maker, there, being in hob with no stones in he has been those days with no blankets, in, fact the best that he could to get from one P.R. store, and that on this he went A.W.L. So you can see it did not take him very long to find out he was in the wrong so on the fourth day he gave himself up.

P.P. complied with.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED IN MITIGATION NOTE E-1

Sir,

I was married with permission in this country two years ago, my wife and two children are now living in East Croydon.

I have had quite a bit of training in the artillery and I would like to go back to the artillery. I feel that as I am trained and I think that I am able to serve as an artillery I would like to go back to the artillery and soldier there. I would like to go to the theatre of operations.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IS WRITTEN OUT AND ATTACHED.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment in the Case of Lte Duguay W. J. (20184)

Lt G.P. Marchand, attached to 5 Canadian General Pioneer Coy and presently
Defending Officer for the accused, states:-

I know the accused, Lte Duguay, to be an agreeable, well-liked soldier in this Company and one who is not troublesome. I consider him to be a steady and very good worker. But unfortunately he seems unable to resist the temptation of absenting himself without leave after having been in camp for a period of time.

I know that in the present circumstance, the illness of his wife and poor health of his two children was worrying him very much and seem to be the reason behind his last offense.

This soldier is A1 category and has expressed his desire to be sent to the field of Operations, feeling that he would be of more service to his Country there than by undergoing detention if the Court awards such punishment. He also feels that he can mend his ways and is anxious to have the opportunity to redeem himself.

On behalf of the accused, and for the sake of his wife and children, may I ask that the Court see fit to show leniency in its award of punishment.

E0184 Gnr Duguay W.J. being duly sworn in states.

I was down to the coast for two weeks over Xmas-time. During these two weeks I was feeling sick and suffering with rheumatism. I then reported it but kept on doing my duty. On the following Saturday we returned to Barracks. I then went back to the troop and I started to drink again. On New Years night I went on guard not feeling very well. Next day I was house ordely and after finishing my work I went to Sgt Saunders and having seen told the housework was very good, asked him for a pass. He said he was sorry but all passes had already been given out. I then went to a pub and started drinking. When I left the pub I went to Croydon and met some friends there I started drinking then was doing pretty steadily after that.

Questions by the Defence Counsel.

Q:- Where else did you go beside Croydon?
A:- Shirley, Wickham and Katram. Then I started to figure the time I was away and I thought I had better be getting back as quick as I could so I gave myself up to the first policeman I met.
Q:- Why?
A:- At first time I did not know if the battery had moved and I wanted to get back as soon as possible.

(The Defence Counsel declines to further question the witness)

The Prosecutor cross-examined the accused as follows:-

Q:- Were you drunk all the time you were away?

A:- Pretty nearly all the time.

Q:- When was the first time you were able to think clearly on your absence

A:- The day I gave myself up.

Q:- Did you have enough money to keep you going for the time you were away

A:- No. I got some from my friends

(The prosecution declines to further question the witness)

Questioned by the Court.

Q:- What clothes did you wear during your absence?

A:- Battle-dress.

Summing up by the prosecution:

Mr President the evidence that has gone before I think is quite clear. However, I would like to point out Para 23 Page 23 of M.M.L. You are in possession of the ~~conduct~~ Charge Sheet showing the time of absence. I fail to see why being on the guard on duty for ~~the~~ two weeks has any thing to do with the case of desertion. At the time the accused was there were also present sixty-three other men. As regards his being sick on the guard many men at various times have been replaced due to illness. Our Surgeon was sick and unable to think while A.W.O.L. this I think would be hardly possible having passed his 21st day he was classed as a deserter.

FORM C.

AFTER FINDING.

Lieut N. J. Robinson is sworn and states:-

I produce a certified true copy of [illegible] relating to the accused. (The said copy is marked [illegible] by the President) and attached to the proceedings).

Question to the Accused:

Do you wish to address the Court, or to call evidence as to character?

Answer:

Yes, My Defending officer does.

The (Accused) (Defending Officer) makes the following plea in mitigation of sentence:-

Lieut [illegible] RCR

President.

Mr President

These focal point of this case seems to be centred on intention to desert. Although I realize that the Court has knowledge to a large degree of Military Law, may I be permitted to read from M M L, Page 19 Sec 18.

I realize that this is an experienced court and perhaps it is hardly necessary to labour the point, but may I submit that one of the fundamental principles of British Justice lies in the fact that every man is innocent until proven guilty, and that every accused is entitled to any reasonable doubt. If such doubt should exist in the mind of any member of this court, I submit it is the duty of this court to acquit.

From sworn statements given by E0063 Sgt Langston, ~~a precedent had been established that~~ the ~~Pte~~ Pte Gnr had cleaned the house satisfactorily, he got an afternoons pass. Gnr Lleguay, although houseorderly, did not get his pass, and from evidence given by Mr Bryce in S/C ~~Court~~ the reason given was that the quota of passes had been expended and not that the house had not been satisfactorily cleaned.

Sworn statements have pointed out that Gnr Lleguay had been on Coastal Defence for two weeks prior over Christmas and was on guard New Years night

Both the accused and Mr
Bryce state that during the four days duty at the coast, which was arduous and ~~intense~~ forbade any time of whatsoever, he had not been on the beat 2 hours.

Then Mr President, when refused what he thought was a right, he became mentally depressed, and to use the vernacular
"fed up".

For I submit as a matter for going A.W.L.

The Charge sheet shows an absence of twenty three days, twenty one hours and forty four minutes.

If there had been any intention to desert H.M. ~~[illegible]~~ service, it is highly improbable that he would have returned to his former haunts when ~~he~~ the Battery had been previously located. This in itself shows that he was not attempting to hide.

If there had been any intent to desert from H.M. service it is very unlikely that he would have remained in uniform. The accused was wearing uniform when he gave himself into custody

From the Deputy's own statement he drank considerably while absent from the Battery ~~[illegible]~~ his disorderly conduct [illegible] his disordered mind cleared sufficiently for him to think clearly, and his mental depression had lifted, which he must have been suffering, he realized that he had been away a considerable length of time long enough to be classed as a deserter; by merely twenty one days expiring, only.

Immediately realizing this he gave himself up, not to M.P.
but to civilian police, which was the first he met. His sworn statement says that he gave himself up to the first policeman he met, because he wanted to get back to the battery as soon as possible.

Mr President
Without labouring again over the evidence, I submit that this case before the court, appears to be such where the principles of British Justice should be brought into play, because I submit that Gnr Duguay was never a deserter and never had any intention of deserting.

"It is quite clear from the history of this mans case that he is a psychopathic personality.
His unstable record in Civilian life was carried forward in the Army. It was most unfortunate he was ever selected for the Infantry. His only potential in the Army would be in the Pioneer Corps. I rest the case with the Court insofar as any psychopathic recommendation is concerned. I suggest the proper method of approaching the problem would be by further psychiatric examination.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of Pte Marcel DUQUETTE, Fusiliers de Monte Royale att No 7 Cdnadian General Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness — A 86086 L/Cpl Massell CB, No 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, sworn states :-

I am A 86086 L/Cpl Massell CB, No 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps. On the 12 Sep 44 I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize as D142589 Pte Duquette M, att No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. There was no one else present. I identified myself to him telling him I was a member of the Pro Corps and that I was investigating his injury. He was cautioned in the following words :- "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so, but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence." He fully understood this warning. After being cautioned he volunteered to make a statement which I reduced to writing. This statement was read over to him by myself and he in turn read it himself then signed it. I produce the statement referred to by me and I recognise the signature of the accused as that on the statement. There were no threats, promises of reward or inducements held out to the accused to obtain this statement. He was not under arrest at this time.

"C B Massell"
Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Second Witness — Capt HE Armour, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn states :-

I am Capt HE Armour, medical officer in charge of ward 6 of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. Pte Duquette was admitted to my ward on the 25 Jul 44 suffering from a wound of the left foot which perforated the middle phalanx of the second toe. Clinically there was no fracture of any importance, the wound traversing the toe in the medial side in a vertical direction. Healing has been good and he is now fit for full duty without change of category due to the wound. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon was fired.

"H Howard Armour" Capt RCAMC
Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness — Capt A M Johnson, RCAMC, No 10 Cdn Gen Hosp.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

"Maxwell Augustine"
Officer Taking Summary

I do not require the attendance of Cap AM Johnson for the purpose of cross-examination.

Accused

The accused is cautioned as follows :-

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement at this time.

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down before me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

STATES:

I am Marcel DUQUETTE, age 20 years. I came to England in May 44 as a reinforcement and was sent to the F.M.R. I came to France with my regt. and our first action was at Carpiquet. On the 13 July, we were in action on the right of Carpiquet. We had dug in for the night and three of us were in a trench together. Our section L/Cpl came around and asked for someone to go on guard as the Major had told him to expect a counter attack. I took the first shift and went on duty around 10 o'clock. I was sitting out with my rifle across my knees. It was loaded and cocked. The shelling started and I got very nervous I started to shake and had no control of myself at all. My rifle was pointed at my left foot and in a fit of panic I pulled the trigger. I cannot help it that I am so nervous. For a few minutes I did not know where I was or what I was doing. Then when I realized I had wounded myself in the foot, I called for the other two fellows I was bunking with and they took me to the stretcher bearers.

I have read over the above statement and it is true.

HOSPITAL OR SICK LIST RECORD

D-142559 Pte DUQUETTE, Marcel. F.M.R. Age: 20

Enl. 10 Sep 43 O/S May 44 B.L.A. 7 Jul 44 Evac 13.7.44

This interview was unsatisfactory because of language difficulty and deliberate wrong statements - no co-operation. His mother "died of shock" when his brother came O/S and his father had a "breakdown" when he came. He had countless neurotic features as a child and reached Grade 10 at school after 7 years (always a different number of repeated questioning) claims he was slow learning but can read and write French. Work history was spotty - several different jobs but always quit them because they were too cold or too hard or his mother was sick.

He was call[illegible] up in the army - has been always homesick - cries of loneliness at nights, is afraid of shooting a rifle and unable to keep up in route marches. He was in France 6 days before evacuation and spent all h[illegible]s time in slit trenches and was unable to sleep. Would refuse to leave slit trench to get food, etc. - shook continually. The injury occurred when he was ordered up on guard duty. He is demoralized - has no volition and no morale.

Summary

A Fr. Cdn - poor family history - life long history of inadequacy and dependency. He has nver had volition for service and proved his complete uselessness in action. He is hopeless for any combatant role but might be able to do unskilled work at base. His intellect is difficult to assess because of lack of co-operation but I don't believe he is defective.

STATEMENT OF MITIGATION

in the case of

M. 5005 CPL DUKE, N.R.P

The accused M.5005 Cpl Duke, N.R.P pleads guilty to the charge as stated, namely being absent without leave for 26 days, being apprehended as charged, and admits the cost of apprehension as stated, £3-14-1.

May the following be considered as a plea for mitigation in the punishment of Cpl Duke.

1. That the inference of the wording of the charge, namely "in ~~civilian~~ Plain clothes be not misunderstood, the accused states that when apprehended he, having left his battledress blouse and slacks to be pressed was wearing or carrying on his person the following:

Soft Felt Hat
Grey Sweater (Auxiliary Service Issue)
Grey flannel civilian trousers
Army Issue: Underwear
Socks Shirt
Boots
Discs, Identity
Paybook, N.R.M.L.

2. Cpl Duke is of high mental calibre and in no way pleads ignorance to the gravity of the offence. In explanation of the circumstances he states that, due to a holiday feeling after a 48 hrs pass, he did absent himself by failing to return to his unit on the expiration of said pass. Being at the time in receipt of 16 pounds he did not find it difficult to fill in the time while continuing his absence. Being, twelve days later, in receipt of a further 11 pounds, is stated by the accused to be the cause of his unwise continued absence.

3. Cpl Duke is 34 years of age, attended Malvern Military College for three years, obtaining "Certificate 'A' Infantry", dated Nov 1924. He served with the 28th London Regt as transport Sgt in England and Egypt from 1924 to 1926 whereupon he returned to Canada.

On 3 Sep 39 he joined 15th Field Coy R.C.E. and became L/Sgt the same year. At his own request reverted to Spr in May 1940 to come overseas with 1 Bn N.C.O.'s.
Became Cpl in Jul 40 and L/Sgt in Jan 41.

Cpl Duke is well above average mentality and is held in esteem by officers and men for his ability to handle men and get results as well as his academic faculties.

He has been recommended more than once as officer material but has, as shown on his conduct sheet, a reputation for irresponsibility.

4. I, F.L.McDonald, was Cpl Cpl Duke's Section officer from 29 June 42 until 1 Aug 42 when we were constructing a 1000-man hutted camp at Buck's Green. During this period Cpl Duke was responsible for far more than normal Cpl duties, and was in charge of working parties of 100 infantry and about 20 Sprs. I hereby unreservedly recommend Cpl Duke's work in managing the above mentioned parties during the stated period. Also from 5 Aug to 27 Aug 42, Cpl Duke and Cpl Rippon accompanied me on attachment to the 10th C.W. Group R.E. during their period of ranging and tactical exercises at Kirkby Stephen, Westmoreland. There were also attached two Canadian Officers with two N.C.Os each.

May this plea for mitigation be considered, please.

Plea & Mitigation –

Mr. President & members of the Court the accused in pleading guilty throws himself on the mercy of the Court & I would like to bring to your attention a few facts to which I feel you should consider carefully in pronouncing sentence.

It appears that Pte Duke was mainly a victim of circumstances on the evening of 8 Feb 45. Earlier in the evening he met Pte Mason & they decided to have a few drinks together. The accused had never been out with Mason before & did not realize how wild he became when drinking. When they arrived at the Café Millberlonnes Pte Mason forced his way into the café & the accused a little befuddled from drinking followed him into the premises. According to the evidence the accused took little or no part in the disturbance that followed, remaining practically in the role of an onlooker.

I would also like to bring to your attention his record of service in the army. He joined the army 13 Apr 42, came overseas on 19 Dec 42 in the artillery. He switched from the artillery to the infantry in April 44 & came to France six days after D day & joined the Canadian Scottish regiment on 7 July 44. He was in continuous action until October when he was taken prisoner by the Germans. He remained a prisoner for 5 days when he was liberated. He went to the hospital with sinus trouble on 5 Nov 44 & was discharged from hospital on 24 Nov 44. He came to C.B.R.C & remained there until 21 Jan 45 when he again went to hospital with diphtheria. He was finally discharged from hospital on 7 Feb 45 - ~~[illegible]~~

This man assures me that he is very anxious to return to his unit. ~~[illegible]~~ I'm sure this fact, together with his fine record of service in the field & also the fact that the evidence of the case shows very definitely that the accused had very little part in the disturbances at the Café on 8 Feb 45, will weigh very heavily in his favour & that the Court will see fit to give him the minimum sentence possible.

I also bring to the Court's attention the fact that all through his army career he's had a clean record & his crime sheet has only very minor charges on it with no punishment exceeding 28 days C.B.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B111103 Pte William, Sydney, DUKE (Cdn Scots Regt) 59 Coy 11 CBR BN, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas charged with "Creating a Disturbance"

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

K14027 Gnr Cottyn A.J. (RCA) 60 Coy 9 CBR BN, having been duly sworn, has acted as interpreter in this Summary of Evidence. The evidence was translated from Flemish to English.

FIRST WITNESS

Camiel Canse, 3 Frankruk Plein, Ghent, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the 8 Feb 45, at approx 2200 hrs just as I was closing the door to my cafe, two soldiers came up to the door and crowded me back. They came into the cafe and asked for cognac. I said it was closing time and also stated I did not sell cognac after closing time. The soldier whom I now know and recognize as Pte Mason then demanded a bottle of cognac and said if I refused he would kill me. I went and stood behind the counter. By the signs they were making and also the odd word of English I understood they led me to believe that, if I did not give them the cognac they would wreck my cafe. Pte Mason took a glass off the counter and smashed it on the floor. I still refused to give them any cognac. Pte Mason then opened his tunic and came out with a knife and jumped over the counter. I rushed out through the back door which leads from the bar. Just at that time the police came in through the back entrance."

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q. 1. What did I do to make a disturbance ?
A. 1. You came in and asked for cognac and stopped Pte Mason from doing me any harm. I cannot say that you did create a disturbance because in my mind you did not.

Q. 2. Did you give us anything to drink in your cafe ?
A. 2. No.

(RP 83(b) has been complied with) C Canse
.....
(Camiel Canse)

SECOND WITNESS

Leopold Canse, 3 Frankruk Plein, Ghent, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the 8 Feb 45 at approx 2200 hrs my father called me downstairs. When I came down I saw two soldiers standing at the bar. They were demanding cognac. The soldier who I now know and recognize as Pte Mason said :" If you don't give me no cognac in two minutes I'll break all your glasses and lights." I pretended I did not understand any English and the other soldier who I now know and recognize as Pte Duke came up to me and said:"Did you hear what he said?" After that Pte Mason took a glass off the counter and threw it on the floor. Then Pte Mason said: "I will kill you if you do not give me cognac."

SECOND WITNESS CONT'D

"He reached into his inside tunic pocket. I thought he was getting a pistol. Then he reached around his right side and took a knife and opened it. Then he held onto the bar at the counter, stood on the bar just above the floor and lunged over the counter with the opened knife ~~&~~ his right hand. At that time my father and I went out the door leading from the bar and locked it. The provost came shortly after."

Cross-examined by accused:

Q. 1. Did I create any disturbance ?
A. ~~R~~. No.

(Leopold Canse)

(RP 83(b) has been complied with)

C38350 L/Cpl Andrew H.W., 2 Cdn L of C Pro Coy, Ghent Det., having been duly sworn, states:

"On the 8 Feb 45, in answer to a call received at approx 2230 hrs, I, in company with L/Cpl Wood, H.C.A., proceeded to the Millecollonnes Cafe. Two soldiers were pointed out to me in the Cafe as having been the ones creating the disturbance. They were the only two soldiers in the cafe. The soldier whom I now know and recoguize as Pte Duke was standing behind the bar. I then escorted him to the Pro. Det."

.....
(C38350 L/Cpl Andrew, H.W.)

(The accused declines to cross-examined the witness.

(RP 83(b) has been complied with)

The accused was cautioned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? you are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you may give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

The accused does not wish to make any statement.

The accused does not wish to call any witness.

I CERTIFY THAT THE FOREGOING SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE, CONSISTING OF TWO (2) PAGES, WAS TAKEN DOWN BY ME IN THE PRESENCE AND HEARING OF THE ACCUSED AND THAT RP4(c) (d) (e) AND (f) HAVE BEEN COMPLIED WITH.

Defending Officers Address — Dykelow AAUO

Re charge re improper possession of Canadian Government property

It is submitted that no evidence has been adduced to show that Dykelow possession of the revolver was improper. It must be remembered that Dykelow bought the revolver in a bona fide purchase and that he did not realize that it was Government property.

He states he owned one identical weapon in Canada and it is reasonable to believe that he saw nothing wrong with owning one here. His anxiety could be accounted for by the fact that he knew he overstayed his leave.

I would like to draw to the Courts attention that if this was civilian property, no charge would not be proper - (Ref Gen Regs para 35) - and as Dykelow thought this was civilian property, he should be credited in his favour.

The Court has examined the pistol and seen how small the port stamp is. If Dykelow had been intending to conceal the port mark, he could have done so easily. It seems clear that he did not know that his purchase was an Army pistol. It is submitted that the Court should make a finding of not guilty.

I am the accused. On 1 July 43 I was amongst troops who were dispatched to No 4 C.B.O.D. for the purpose of guard duty. While I was there I learned that guards who had a revolver did not need to carry rifles. I made enquiries about obtaining a revolver and the boys told me that Sapper Croft might know where I could get one. I had a 48 hr. pass so I came down to 1 CSRU to see Croft. I asked him if he had a revolver that he could sell me. He said yes. I purchased the revolver from him for £3-10-0. I did not know it was a Canadian Govt. gun. I had only been in this country two months. I had never seen an army revolver at the time I got that one. I had a revolver like that in civilian life. That was why I thought that revolver was a civilian gun. (The witness is shown Ex 'A' & referred to the govt stamp on it.) I know that is the govt mark now. I didn't know before I got up for orders. I didn't see the mark on the revolver when I bought it. I tried to hide the pistol because when I bought it it had the serial number filed off the butt and I thought I would get in trouble.

Cross Exam: I did not look for 781 I looked for Canadian Govt marks on the revolver. I was never instructed in a certain revolver. I figured the fellow that had the revolver had filed the No. off. That didn't make me suspicious. I thought it might be a hot civvy gun. I have never seen a certain revolver like this. I have been in the Army about a year. I never thought what the 781.

Govt mark means. I have seen it on my clothing and equipment, but I don't know what it means.

By the Court:

I identify Ex A as the revolver Croft sold to me by the serial no. on the butt being filed off, a filing on the back of the chamber and two little filings on the hinge of the cylinder.

The evidence is read over to the witness.

" I am B33085, Sgt. Starley, G.H. (R.C.C.S.), on strength of No.1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. On 16 Jul 43, at approximately 0830 hours, I was in the ablution room of Spider 3 when I happened to overhear part of a conversation to the effect that Sigmn. Dukelow had a revolver in his possession. Knowing that he had not been issued with one, and I being aware that two were missing from our section (D.R. Section No. 1 Coy), I started to investigate. Sigmn. Dukelow was not available but I had seen him previously around Sigmn. Larson's bed. I found Sigmn. Larson and asked him about the revolver. He immediately pulled it out from under his kit bag, stating that Sigmn. Dukelow, knowing that I was looking for him had put it under there. I took possession of the revolver and I now recognize it to be the revolver handed to me by the number on the barrel which I noted on 16 Jul 43, to be 926620, and also four (4) rounds of ammunition which were in the revolver, and I placed Sigmn. Larson under Close Arrest. Sigmn. Dukelow, whom I recognize as the accused now present, was brought back to me by the Regimental Police. Sigmn. Dukelow was then marched down to the Guard Room."

Tinston asked me again if I knew of anyone who wanted a revolver. I still replied I didn't know anyone. About 5 Jul 43, Sigmn. Dukelow approached me about 0830 hours and asked me if I knew where he could purchase a revolver. I replied I did. He requested that I get it and he would purchase it from me. I went to Sigmn. Tinston and told him I had found a purchaser for a revolver. He went to his kit bag and got one and handed it to me. I took the revolver to Sigmn. Dukelow for which I received three pounds, ten shillings (£3.10.0) Prior to the sale of the revolver, Sigmn. Tinston told me that he wanted one pound (£1.0.0) for the revolver and that I could have any amount over that sum which I sold the pistol for. Directly after the sale of the revolver to Sigmn. Dukelow I proceeded directly to Sigmn. Tinston and paid over one pound (£1.0.0.). The remainder of the money received from the sale I pocketed. The condition of the sale stated above was satisfactory to Sigmn. Tinston. I recognize the accused as Sigmn. Dukelow."

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Detective Constable S. Mascall of the Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at Farnborough, Hants., having been duly sworn, states:

" I am Detective Constable S. Mascall of the Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at Farnborough, Hants. On Friday, 16 Jul 43, I was making inquiries relative to a revolver which had been stolen at Delville Camp. Firstly I questioned Signn. Larson, who made a signed statement after being formally cautioned. A copy I hereby submit (Appendix "A"). With result of this statement I visited the stores where I was handed a Smith & Wesson Revolver, .380, No. 926620 and four (4) rounds of live ammunition by Sgt. Starley. I made further inquiries with result I saw Signn. Croft who, after being cautioned made a signed statement. A copy of which is herewith produced (Appendix "B"). FIRST WITNESS for the Defence.

The accused, H102257, Signn DUKELOW, Charles, on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian army Overseas, elects to give evidence on oath, and having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, I am H102257 Signn. Dukelow C., on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. About the 1st July, 1943, I was among the troops of this unit that was despatched to No. 4 Sub-Depot, Canadian Base Ordnance Depot for the purpose of guard duty. After my arrival at 4 Sub-Depot I learned that a guard who had a revolver was not required to carry a rifle but could be armed with their revolver in place of. I made inquiries regarding possibilities of purchasing a revolver and learned through some of the boys that Signn. Croft might know where to get one.

On approximately 5 Jul 43, I approached Sigmn. Croft and inquired if he knew where I could get one. He said yes, that he could get me one for three pounds, ten shillings (£3.10.0.). I agreed to purchase said revolver from him. The deal took place and the sum mentioned (£3.10.0.) was paid over to Sigmn. Croft. After I had the revolver about two weeks, I noticed that the cylinder wouldn't turn when the trigger was pulled, so I returned to the unit to see if Sigmn. Croft knew how to repair it. I heard that Sgt. Starley and the R.P's were looking for me so I placed the revolver for safekeeping under Sigmn. Larson's kit bag as I had no bed of my own, and reported to Sgt Starley. Sgt. Starley was unable to see me at this time so I proceeded to Norvel Guard Room and was escorted back to Spider 3 where I was questioned by Sgt. Starley regarding the revolver. After questioning I was returned under escort to the Guard Room. When I purchased the revolver I was not aware that it was Government property as I was the owner of a similar revolver in Canada and was of the opinion that the one purchased here was civilian property. The four (4) rounds of ammunition was found in the "Services Club" in Heading. It was found on top of the partition in the lavatory.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Proceedings in the case of 1913043 Cpl Dudley H.A.

Witnesses for the Prosecution

FIRST WITNESS A35202 R.S.M. Clayton J. having been duly sworn states:

"I am A35202 RSM Clayton J. and I recognise the accused. I came in the main gate at approx 2300, at St Pelles Barracks, on 12 Jan 1945. I saw three Provost on duty at the main gate and asked them their reason for being there. They said they had orders to search Dudley on the march of Sgt and take possession of his weapon, as one of their number had had his taken from him. I stayed on the main gate and at approx 2300 hours the accused walked through the main gate and was stopped by the Provost and ordered to submit to search. The accused declined to be searched and said "I'm a soldier and I have my rights". The accused pushed past the Provost and I stopped him and asked him to submit to search. He replied "No I do not have to be searched" I told him that if he did not submit to search that I would have to place him under close arrest. I again asked him to be searched and he again refused, replying "If you place me under close arrest, you will have to place a charge against me, and see if you can make it stick" I sounded the guardroom and placed the detention cells for an escort. The escort arrived and as he was not the equal rank of the accused, he ordered to be escorted to the Cells. I turned to the Provost Corporal and told him to escort the accused to the detention Cells and he ordered to take his place on the main gate.

C.J.H.

The accused while talking to me at the main gate seemed ~~when he was~~ sullen, but he was not drunk. When he said about making the charge against him stick if I said one he was emphatic about it.

Cross Examination By Defence.

Q — Did the Pamost give the man a definite order?

A — No sir.

Q — Did you give him a definite order?

A — No sir.

Q — Was any attempt made to search him at the gate?

A — Not to my knowledge sir.

Q — Do you remember his exact words when he referred to you arresting him?

A "Yes" "If you place me under close arrest, you'll have to place a charge against me, and see if you can make it stick"

Q — Are you sure the conclusion of that remark was "I don't see how you can make it stick"?

A — No sir — that was not the

Q — Now, in what manner did he object to being escorted by the Pte?

A — "I demand an escort of equal rank."

Q — Would you please classify "Not Drunk"

A — I mean to my mind is drunk when he's staggering and does not know what he's doing.

C4K.

Q — Do you infer then that he had been drinking?

A — It seemed so to me.

Re Examination By Prosecution NIL.

R.P. 83 (B) has been complied with.

SECOND WITNESS D 7518 Sgt Willock K.T. having been duly sworn states:

"I am D 7518 Sgt Willock K.T and I recognise the accused. At about 2300 hours on 12 Jan 45 I was standing at the main gate of St Peters Barracks, as assistant to RSM Clayton, supervising the search of all ranks of Staff & below. Cpl Bailey entered the main gate and was stopped by a Cpl of the Provost Corps. He had refused to be searched by the Provost Corps Cpl and was then stopped by RSM Clayton. The Clayton told him he would have to submit to a search, he refused to be searched saying that he would have to be put under close arrest and a charge laid against him. The RSM then entered the guardroom and called the Detention block for an escort. When the escort arrived Cpl Bailey refused to go with him saying that the escort was not of equal rank. The RP was a Lord/Bedfordshire. The RSM then detailed the Provost cpl to accompany the accused to the Cells. The RP was not wearing any thing to distinguish him as such. The prisoner's attitude was arrogant and he appeared as a "know all" and defiant and he just wanted to be obstinate. To my mind Cpl Bailey was sober.

Cross Examination By The Defence

Q — Did you hear any of Bailey's remarks to the Provost?

A — No sir I did not.

C.S.K.

Q — Where was the accused when the RSM stopped him?
A — He was past the Provost Cpl and the guardroom door but he was not out of the archway.
Q — Where were ya standing?
A — Behind the Provost, with the RSM. to my right.
Q — Did you hear all that passed between the accused and the RSM?
A — Yes sir except when they entered the guardroom.
Q — Can give the exact manner in which he refused to accompany the L/Sgt?
A — No sir I cannot.

Re-Examination By Prosecution

Q — Did you hear the accused refuse to accompany the L/Sgt?
A — Yes but I can't recall the exact words.

Question By Court

Q — Did you hear any order given to the accused?
A — Yes he was told by the R.S.M that he would have to submit to a search.
Q — Explain the word "TOLD"
A — Well he was given an order to submit to search.
R.P. 93(3) has been complied with.

THIRD WITNESS — B 67632 Cpl Porter F.R. having been duly sworn states:

I am B 67632 Cpl Porter F.R. and I recognize the accused. At about 2200 hours on 12 Jan 45 I was in company with L/Cpl Tomlinson and was detailed to search all troops coming in 12 Bn C.S.R.C. on search was for a pistol. At about 2300 hours Cpl Bailey entered the gate, I told him I would like to search him.

P.T.K.

He said "Obs me ya dun" I asked him why not and he stated that he would only be searched in the presence of an Offr. There was an Offr working at that time and I asked him over and explained the situation to him. The Offr told the accused that he'd better let me search him. The accused then stated that he wanted the Orderly Officer present. The RSM then came over. He gave the accused an order to let me search him. Cpl Bailey still refused to be searched unless the O.O. was present. The RSM told him he was under arrest and to be taken to the guardroom. There was a L/Cpl detailed to escort him, but the accused refused to go with the L/Cpl. The RSM then detailed me to take him. Arriving at the guardroom he still refused to be searched. The N.C.O. i/c the guardroom then phoned for the O.O. On his arrival the accused allowed me to search him and there was no pistol on his person.

I was dressed in Cog dress: white gaiters, white cross belt and pistol and sun hood. The first time I asked the accused I told him I would like to search him. The second time, in the presence of the Offr who had come in the gate, he still refused to be searched. When he refused at first, he said he wanted an Officer present, but when an Officer arrived he then wanted the Orderly Officer. Impudence was plainly visible during the whole time, his attitude to my mind was just obstinate, but he was not defiant.

Cross Examination By Defence

Q— What were your exact words and manner when you first wanted to search the accused?

A— I gave him an order that I would like to search him.

Q— Are you sure you didn't say "Just a minute here I want to search you"?

C.A.K.

A — I did not see.

Q — Did you actually try to escort him?

A — Yes I tried to feel his breath and he pushed me away saying "No you don't"

Q — Did ~~you the accused~~ this Offr speak to the accused & did he first go to get the Orderly Officer?

A — He actually spoke to the accused.

Q — How long after you first stopped him was it before he pushed past you and was stopped by the RSM?

A — He didn't push past me

Q — Did you hear the accused's exact words when he refused to be escorted by the L/Bdr?

A — He said a L/Cpl could not escort him to the guardroom, and that he wanted someone his own rank.

Q — Were these further words & did the RSM tell you to take him down?

A — The RSM ordered me to take him down.

Q — R P 83(a) has been complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS "M3823 L/Cpl Thorburn W.N. having been duly sworn states:

"I am M3823 L/Cpl Thorburn WN and I recognize the accused. On the night of 8 Jan 45 at about 2300 hours I saw Cpl Darby come through the gate where we were searching all entering personnel and Cpl Porter stopped me to escort him, but I do not remember what he said to Cpl Darby.

The accused when stopped said he would not be searched unless an Offr was present. Cpl Porter got an Offr and Cpl Dudley still refused to be searched. I don't recall the outcome as I was busy with other soldiers coming through the gate. We were searching all ranks up to, and including Sgts.

Cross Examination By Defence

Q— Did you hear anything that passed between Dudley, the Offr and Cpl Porter?

A— No sir

Questions By the Court

Q— How is it you did not hear what Cpl Porter said to the accused at first but did hear the accused's reply?

A— I was not close enough at first but had walked near by the time the accused replied.

Q— What was the tone of voice of the accused when he refused to be searched?

A— A fairly loud tone of voice.

Q— What was his manner?

A— Rather aggressive, he appeared to me to have had quite a bit to drink.

C4K

FIFTH WITNESS A35342 L/Bdr Glazier S.J. having been duly sworn states:

I am A35342 L/Bdr Glazier and I recognize the accused. On the 12 Jan 45 at approx 2300 hours I was on duty at St Peters Barracks as R.P. I was sent to the Main Gate by Cpl Burch who was in charge, to escort Cpl Bailey to the detention Cells. On my arrival Cpl Bailey refused to go with me as I was not of his rank, so the RSM sent him to the detention block with the Provost Cpl. I was wearing a pistol, but my left sleeve was obliterated - I couldn't be certain as to whether I was wearing an armband or not.

Cross Examination by Defence

Q — Do you recollect Cpl Bailey's exact words upon your arrival?

A — Yes sir "This man is not of my rank" and nothing further was said.

Q — Did the RSM immediately detail Cpl Porter to take him?

A — Yes sir.

R P 93(a) has been complied with

SIXTH WITNESS M589 Sgt Logelin G.E. having been duly sworn states:

I am M589 Sgt Logelin G.E. and I recognize the accused on the night in question I was Guard Commander at the Main Gate of St Peters Barracks about 2100 hours the Provost arrived and ~~inquired for that thing~~ and at about 2300 hours Cpl Bailey entered the Main Gate after approached by the Cpl Provost to be searched, he refused, stating that he had certain privileges as a Cdn soldier. An Officer entered and went to the Orderly Room and obtained written authority from the OC to search all personnel who came in, from the rank of Sgt down. The accused still refused, and it was then that RSM Clayton sent for an escort. The RSM asked the accused if he would submit to search, the accused stated that he would not unless he was put on charge, a an Officer was present. The escort arrived and Cpl Darby then made the statement that the escort was not of the same rank as himself. R.S.M Clayton then ordered the Provost Cpl to escort Darby to the detention Cells. I don't know the exact words that the accused used to the RSM, nor do I know whether or not the Cpl showed the written authority to Darby. The attitude of Darby was more or less stubborn. I would say the accused was sober.

Cross Examination By The Defence

Q- Did you hear any of the conversation between Darby & Cpl Porter?

A- I can't say I did sir.

Q— Did you make the accused familiar with the written order?

A- No sir.

Q— Did the accused make any other statements about his escort, apart from the one you stated?

A- None that I heard.

C.J.K.

Questions by the Court.

Q - Where were you when the episode was in progress?

A - About 10 (ten) feet away, near the gate.

Q — Did you hear any order given to the accused in regard to being searched?

A — Yes sir.

Q — How did you realize that the accused was refusing to be searched?

A — The Provost Cpl told us, but when I went to the scene I saw the accused refuse to be searched because he stated that he wanted an Offr present.

R.P 83(B) has been complied with.

SEVENTH WITNESS B 49376 Cpl Burch G. C having been duly sworn states:

I am B49376 Cpl Burch G. C and I recognize the accused. I was on duty in the cell block on 12 Jan 45. About 2100 hrs I got a phone call from the Main Gate. As a result of the call I sent up L/Sgt Cleyer, I sent him because apart from myself there was not another full cpl present. The accused was brought into the cells by a cpl of the Provost Corps. The accused refused to be searched. The Provost Cpl did not directly order Pte Porter to be searched. I think Porter words were "Will you be searched now". The accused was brought down & was to be placed under Close Arrest. Every one, regardless of rank is brought into the detention Cells he is searched.

C.A.K.

The accused desired the presence of an Offr before he would submit to search, as I phoned the Orderly Officer but he was already on his way over. When the Orderly Officer arrived the accused, quite willingly submitted to being searched. The Orderly Officer then asked me to release Darby under Open arrest, otherwise I ~~should~~ would have placed him under Close Arrest.

Cross Examined by The Defence

Q — Did you Officially take Darby over from Porter?

A — Yes sir.

Q — ~~Did~~ You had no occasion to search him as a normal prisoner?

— If he had been a normal prisoner, but I did not get him Officially

Re-Examination By Prosecution

— When the accused was brought to the Cells would he not come under your charge?

— Yes sir.

— Is it customary when the Provost bring in a prisoner for you to assist them in searching the prisoner?

— Yes sir, the Provost bring prisoners to be turned over to us.

— Were you present when the Cpl. searched & took the money?

— Yes sir.

C.H.

Q— Had you permission to search the prisoner?

A— No.

Questions By The Chaplain, allowed By The Court

Q— What search do you refer to?

A— When the Cpl made the search, in the Cell Block, in the presence of the Orderly Officer.

R.P. 83 (a) has been complied with.

EIGHTH WITNESS Lieut R A Bastow having been duly sworn states:

"I am Lieut R.A. Bastow, and was Orderly Officer on the night in question and I recognize the accused. At about 2215 hours that night I received a phone call from the Provost Officer asking me to see that the guard assisted with the searching of personnel entering St Peters Barracks. I spoke to the Guard Commander and ~~[illegible]~~ delayed him to assist the Provost at the gate, along with the R.Ps to assist in searching all personnel of the rank of Sgt and below who entered the Barracks. The Guard Commander told me that it was already being done. Later I wrote an order to the Guard Commander because I had been informed that one man had refused to be searched, the order read that any man of the rank of Sgt & below who refused to be searched would be taken in the custody by the Provost.

Later I went to the detention Cells because I had phoned the Guard Commander to find out if he was still having trouble with the accused. After learning that he was still having trouble

C.J.K.

I went to the Guard Room to see if I could straighten things out. When I arrived there the accused had already been taken to the detention cells. With the Orderly Sgt I went to the detention Cells and found the accused with the R.P's. I asked him what the trouble was and he answered that he wanted an Officer present while he was being searched. I asked him if he had any objection to being searched in my presence and he said he had none. The police searched him and found nothing. The Provost Cpl then asked me if Cpl Bailey was to stay in the detention Cells ~~under close arrest~~ and I answered that I would release the accused and have him up before his Coy Commander. Coming away from the detention Cells I asked the accused what objection he had had to being searched in the presence of the two Infantry Officers that were at the guardroom. He replied that he had no knowledge of any such Officers being present. One of the R.P.s a Provost reminded Bailey that there two Officers were present at the Guardroom, the accused still didn't remember. The Provost Cpl mentioned it again and the accused then seemed to faintly recollect it. When I was present the accused was willing to co-operate and did say he was sober.

Cross Examination By Defence

Q— Was the accused made acquainted with the written order?
A— I haven't the least idea.
Q— Was he actually "booked in" to detention when you arrived?
A— I couldn't tell you that either.

C.A.K.

Q— Did you have knowledge of other Offrs at the guardroom?

A— Yes, the infantry Offrs came over and told me that there was a man at the guardroom who had refused to be searched.

Q— Did you put the accused under open arrest?

A— No I just released him from detention.

Re-Examination By Prosecution

Q— Did you ~~tell~~ order the Cpl in the detention Cells to release the accused from close arrest and have him before his Coy Commander?

A. I simply told the Provost Cpl that I was releasing the accused and would have him before his Coy Commander.

Q— In other words you were putting him under open arrest?

A— I simply released him to come before his C.O the next day.

Q— Did you consider he would be under open arrest then?

A— It didn't occur to me.

Q— Did you assume, when you saw the accused in the Guard room that he was under close arrest?

A— Yes I did.

RP 83(6) has been complied with.

C.S.H.

Plea of Prima Facie case not proven.

I submit that on the fourth charge that a Prima Facie case is not proven as from the R.S.M.'s evidence the accused made a simple statement of what he believed to be fact. and that their was no intent to be disrespectful or insulting.

I submit that on the fifth charge a prima facie case is not proven as from the evidence of L/Bdr Glazier and Sgt Logelin the accused simply made a statemnt with reference to the rank of the escort & the R.S.M. simply ordered Cpl Parker to act as escort without waiting to see if the accused did intend to refuse to go.

R. Hutchinson 9 1076.

Answer to Submission by Defence

Sir & Members of Court

Evidence has been given before the Court to establish a "prima facie" case against the accused on both the fourth and fifth charges.

The evidence on the fourth charge is particularly strong. The accused did use insubordinate language to A.S.M. Clayton ~~on~~ & here are two witnesses the A.S.M. and Sgt Logan who both testify that the accused did use the words as set forth in the charge. Both witnesses state that the manner of the accused to say was insolent and defiant. There is no evidence to contradict these statements therefore I submit that there has been a "prima facie" case established.

On the fifth charge, the evidence is plain. The accused did refuse to ~~accompany~~ be escorted by L/Bdr Glazier. He stated "this man is not of my rank" and refused to be escorted to the ~~guard~~ detention cells by the L/Bdr.

FIRST WITNESS M3043 Cpl Darby H.A. having been duly sworn states:

"I am M 3043 Cpl Darby H.A.

Q- How were you first stopped when you entered Barracks?

A— The Provost cpl stopped me by putting his arm in front of me, saying "Just a minute there, I want to search you.

Q— What was your reaction?

A— I was befuddled at that time I was the only soldier coming through the gate, I answered him by asking to be searched in the presence of an Officer. The Provost Cpl ordered me to stand against the wall to the left of the guardroom door and I did so. Then two Officers entered the gate, they did not enter the guardroom, nor go near the guardroom. The Provost cpl went over to the Officers, what he said, I don't know because an Officer looked my way and said to the RSM who had arrived then "I don't know what this is all about, Jim going over to the O.C. and find out" and they left. The R.S.M then ordered me, would I submit to a search I replied "I have already asked to be searched in the presence of an Officer, I think I am within my rights in asking that" The RSM then said "If you do not submit to a search I will place you under close arrest and have you taken to the detention Cells. I asked the R.S.M. what the charge would be, he replied that he did not know & may a charge now but could lay it later. I said "All right, but I cannot see how you can make me stick, all I have asked is to be searched in front of an Officer." The R.S.M entered the guardroom, shortly after he came out of the guardroom a L/Bdr came into the archway he walked by us towards the guardroom. The R.S.M stopped him saying "Wait your turn here, the L/Bdr came over alongside of me, I turned to the R.S.M. and said "This man is not of a rank equal to mine sir" The R.S.M detailed Cpl Porter to take me to the detention cells, I led the way as Porter did not know where the cells were. When we arrived there Cpl Porter turned to me and said "How will you let me search you?" I answered by saying to Cpl Burch of the R.E. "Do I not under close arrest Cpl Burch?" Burch replied that he did & I knocked and the O.C. replied that he did & I knocked and phoned the O.C. O.C and found that he was on his way down. The O.C arrived, and asked me what the trouble was. Cpl Porter answered "He wants to be searched in the presence of an Officer" The O.C asked me if I had any objection to being searched in his presence. I replied that I had not and the Orderly Officer replied "Search him". Burch searched me. After being released by the O.C. I was asked if I remembered the Offs at the guardroom, I answered no that I had no recollection, my reason for that is that I was not in the guardroom, the only Officer 648

I did not see in the orderly room when the Provost Cpl asked me I did reply that I had not the faintest recollection of any Officers at the Guardroom. I heard no more about the case till 1545 hours the following day when I was warned by the C.S.M. that I did appear before the Coy C.O. and there the charge which is the alternative charge here was read out to me. I appeared before the Coy C.O and was remanded to the O.C., I appeared before the O.C. about 1600 hours 13 Jan 45 and was remanded for Court Martial. The only statement I made to forestall Court Martial was to report at my own request which was denied me. I had been drinking on the night of 12 Jan 45 but I consider I tried to conduct myself as a soldier. At that time I thought that I was within my rights in asking for the presence of an Offr while I was being searched, for there was no order given to me at any time, except later by the O.C to submit to search.

Cross Examination By Prosecution

Q- Did Cpl Porter ask to search you in the presence of an Offr?
A- No sir.
Q- Are both he and Sgt Lapalme wrong in their testimony then?
A- They are mistaken sir
Q- Did ya state to the O.C that you had all the best recollection of Officers being at the guardroom?
A- I stated that to a question asked by the Provost in front of the O.C.

64K

Q— Why did you refuse to be searched?

A— For one reason, the way I was accosted by the Provost Sgt, another reason, I was the only soldier in the archway at the time and knew nothing of any order, nor was I informed. The third reason I was never ordered to be searched except by the Orderly Officer.

Q— Why did you refuse to be search, if not ordered by the R.S.M. then at his request?

A— Because the Offr had already gone to the O.C and I thought they were going to ask him to come out.

Q— Do you now admit that the officers were near you at the gate?

A— No, I have already stated that I saw the two Officers in the archway, they were not near me, they were about ten feet away from me.

Q— Far enough then that if the Offr spoke to you in a normal voice you would hear him?

A— Yes if he spoke to me.

Q— How did you know that they had gone for the O.C?

A— I heard them say that from where I was standing.

Q— Did you refuse the R.S.M. to be searched?

A— I at no time refused, I only asked to be searched in front of an Offr.

Q— Why did you not submit to search when the 2 Offrs were present?

C.H.K.

A— The two Officers & Cpl Porter who had joined them were standing in a triangle, none of the Offrs facing me and it was not my place to ask them to witness a search for me?

Q— Did Cpl Porter ask you in the hearing distance of an Offr if you would consent to a search?

A— No sir I was against the wall and there was ten feet & thereabouts between the Offrs Porter and I.

Q— Is Porter wrong there?

A— I do not say he was wrong I say he was mistaken it is over four weeks since that happened.

Q— Did you say to RSM Clayton "all right then you will have to plore a charge against me and we will see if you can make it stick"?

A— I said "All right but I can't see how it can be made to stick.

Q— Would you not consider that insolent language to a superior?

A— Not the way I said it sir.

Q— Were you ever connected in any way with Provost work?

A— Yes sir — I was in charge for two months in 1942 of the R.P. at the C.T.S. of England.

Q— Would you not know the regulations set down for the Provost Corps?

A— I only know what I was taught, and I was taught that a Provost can search you in the streets, but to conduct a search of a soldier's person a bit within that soldiers barrack lines there should be an Offr present at the search.

C.H.

Q — Have you ever been on duty at any gate as a Provost?

A — Yes

Q — Have you ever searched soldiers entering a Training Camp?

A — Yes - Once on occasion and then the Adjutant was present.

Q — Is it because of that occasion that you believe an Officer should be present?

A — No sir - it is what I have been taught.

Q — Do you think you conducted yourself as a soldier on the night in question?

A — I have been taught sir that I could request to be searched in the presence of an Officer if that search took place within my barrack lines and according to that teaching I believe I was conducting myself in a soldier like manner for I did not demand, I asked.

Q — Do you not think you were obstructing the Provost in their duty by refusing to be searched?

A — To my teaching sir the Provost was not performing his duties as he should therefore how could I obstruct him in his duties. If he had ordered me in the correct manner to submit to a search I would have been searched at that time, then later I would have found out why there was an Officer there to determine whether I was wrong or right.

Q — Do you think you were conducting yourself as a soldier should when you refused the R.S.M's request for you to be searched

C.J.K.

I did not refuse sir, I merely asked to be searched in the presence of an Officer. If the RSM had ordered me I would have been searched there and then.

Q— Is Sgt Loquelin wrong when he says that the RSM ordered you to be searched?

A— The RSM stated that at no time did he give me an order to be searched, so Sgt Loquelin must be wrong.

Q — What did the RSM say to you?

A— The first time "Will you submit to a search" "I second" "If you don't submit to a search I will place you under close arrest and have you taken to the Detention Cells.

Q — What was your exact reply to the latter?

A — I replied "There will have to be a charge laid then sir" and he said "I don't have to lay a charge now I can do that later" I replied "All right but I can't see how you can make it stick."

Questions By the Court

Q- Did you accuse Cpl Potter as a member of the Provost Corps?

A- Not when I first came in, after he said he wanted to search me and after I had consented him as I did I noticed the M.P. armband on his arm.

Q- Did you mean there has to be an Officer present at a search?

A- We were taught that the correct procedure for search is barrack lines, would be a stand with an Offr present, and we were taught that any time we were in charge of a stand and there was no Offrs present that we were to ask for one.

Q— Do you consider that Provost have more authority in disciplinary matter than guards and R.Ps?

A— Not within barrack lines sir, we have our own R.Ps

Summary of Evidence by Prosecution

Sir & Members of the Court.

The accused is charged with two charges under Sec 9 (2). "Disobeying a lawful command". The court must decide on the evidence whether a lawful command was given? ~~The~~ R.S.M. Clayton states he did not give an order to submit to a search" but I suggest that a lawful command was given in that the R.S.M. ~~made a report~~ stated "If you do not submit to a search, I will have to place you under close arrest." ~~That is a~~

On the third charge, the alternative ~~charge~~ charge, the court must find the accused guilty on the evidence if as not his actions to the prejudice of good order and military discipline? ~~If any so~~ The accused ~~was~~ entered the gate refused to be searched by the provost corporal. Several witnesses have testified as to this fact. What would have happened if every soldier ~~who~~ ~~had~~ entered the gate that night had acted in the same manner? The court has ~~not~~ no alternative but to find the accused guilty on this charge.

L.G.K.

The fourth charge is the most serious of all. ~~them~~ This soldier was not only defiant but was insolent to R.S.M. Clayton. The accused is charged with saying "Alright and you will have to place a charge against me and we will see if you can make it stick" or words to that effect. R.S.M. Clayton and Sgt Logilin both testify that the accused did say these words and in a manner that was defiant. The accused himself admitted that he said "Alright but I dont see how you can make it stick." I submit that the ~~corroboration~~ evidence of the accused is sufficient to find ~~the~~ him guilty.

On the facts brought out, in the evidence, I submit the Court should find the accused guilty of charges 1, 2 and 4 but if ~~the~~ not the first and second charges ~~them~~ of charges 3 and 4.

Summarisation of Defence

I submit that the accused be found not guilty on the first & second charges as there is no evidence brought forward of any direct order being given and also of any actual attempt being made to search the accused previous to him being escorted to the exit block. He was not informed at any time of any systematic search that was being carried out and there is no evidence to show that he was informed of the written order sent by the duty officer. From the accused own evidence we are led to believe that he at all times believed he was within his rights. The R.S.M. definitely states that he heard no direct order given and that he did not give one himself.

The only reference in the manual (1999) deals with search warrants & this is not applicable.

I draw the courts attention however to footnote (1) under Sect 9(2) of the Army Act and all it implies.

On the third charge (alternative) I submit that what has been said with reference to the first two charges also applies to this case. Furthermore the man did permit himself to be searched immediately a direct order was given. This according to the evidence of the R.S.M. & the orderly officer was not carried he had been conducted to the detention barracks.

On the fourth charge I simply submit that the accused, according to his own evidence, simply made a statement of what he thought to be fact and that intent to be disrespectful or insulting is not proven.

I might also add that the accused, according to his own evidence, had been drinking (a fact borne out by that of the R.S.M.) & also one is qualified to determine to what extent alcohol affects a mans mind and consequently Ch III para 48 MML should be taken into consideration with respect to this charge.

Respectfully yours

Plea in Mitigation

In 3043 Cpl Duley H.A. joined the army 5 Sep 39 and has given good service with a clean record since that time and has held the rank of cpl since [illegible] after. He has been employed in an administrative capacity and latterly as a cook having been an instructor in that capacity in England & employed in that capacity in France till he suffered an accident to his hand the end of Nov 44. He is now ready to carry on again in that capacity and is therefore a very valuable reinforcement. In view of the fact that his crime was inadvertently committed while sticking up for what he believed to be right I ask that the court exercise their full power of discretion in deciding sentence

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF
M-3043 Cpl Duley H A, on strength of 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: A-35202 RSM J. Clayton, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 2300 hrs 12 Jan 45, I was on the Main Gate of St Peter's Barracks 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, in company with three members of the Cdn Provost Corps. A search was being made of all persons of the rank of Sgt and below, to try and locate a weapon which had been taken from a Prov earlier on in the evening. The accused, Cpl Duley HA, whom I now recognize, entered the Main Gate into the barracks. The Prov Corporal walked up to the accused and asked him to let him make a search of his person. The accused stated that he would not let him make a search as he was a soldier and had a right to refuse the same.

The accused walked past the Prov Corporal and I stopped him. I asked him to let us make a search. He said "No". I then told him that if he did not submit to a search I would have to have him placed under close arrest. He said "Alright, and you will have to place a charge against me and we will see if you can make it stick". He also asked me if I would submit to being searched and I said "Yes, as the Prov job was tough enough without making it any tougher".

I again asked the accused if he would submit to being searched and he answered "No". I went into the Guard Room telephoned the Detention Cells to send up an escort. When the escort arrived the accused said he would not go unless he had an escort of equal rank, as the escort sent up from Detention Cells was only a L/Bdr. I turned to the Corporal of the Prov and told him to take the accused down as he was a full Corporal. The Prov Corporal escorted the accused to the Detention Cells and the Orderly Officer was sent for.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1 Are you positive you saw me enter the gate that night?

A. Yes.

J. Clayton RSM

A-35202 RSM J. Clayton.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: D-7515 Sgt Willock, K. J., PE, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:-

On the night of 12 Jan 45, as the assistant to RSM Clayton I was standing at the Main Gate of St Peter's Barracks, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, assisting in the supervision of the searching of personnel of the rank of Sgt and below which was being carried out by the Cdn Pro Corps. Personnel were being searched as they entered the Main Gate of the Barracks.

Cpl Duley, the accused whom I now recognize, refused to be searched by a member of the Cdn Pro Corps at approximately 2300 hrs 12 Jan 45. It was then that RSM Clayton told the accused that he would have to submit to being searched. The accused then stated that in order to be searched he would have to be placed under close arrest and a charge laid against him. RSM Clayton entered the Guard Room and called the Detention Cells to have one of the Regt'l Police escort the accused to the Detention Cells. The Regt'l Police arrived at the Main Gate and the accused refused to accompany him, saying that he was not of equal rank. The RP was a L/Bdr. RSM Clayton then detailed the full Cpl of the Cdn Pro Corps to escort the accused to the Detention Cells.

That is all I know of the case.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1 Did you see me enter the Main Gate?
A. Yes.

Q-2 Did you hear me ask for an officer?
A. No.

Q-3 Where were you standing when the Pro Corporal asked to search me?
A. I was standing right behind the Pro Cpl.

Q-4 Did you hear what I said to the Pro Cpl?
A. No.

A. I did not hear you refuse to be searched when accosted by the Pro Cpl.

Q-6 Did you accompany RSM Clayton into the Guard Room?
A. I did not.

Q-7 Did you actually hear the RSM call for a Regt'l Police escort?
A. No, I did not.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: B-49376 Cpl Burtch, G.C., 2 i/c Detention Cells, 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:-

I was on duty at Detention Cells on the night of 12 Jan 45.

The accused was paraded to me by a Cpl of the Cdn Prov Corps at approximately 2300 hrs 12 Jan 45.

The accused Cpl Duley, HA, whom I now recognize, refused to being searched without an officer being present. I am not certain whether I or the Prov Cpl asked to search him but I am certain that one of us did.

I telephoned the Orderly Officer at Bn HQ, and found that he was on his way.

The accused then allowed himself to be searched in the presence of the Orderly Officer. The search was made by the Prov Cpl.

The Orderly Officer then ordered that the accused be released under open arrest.

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q-1 Did you know why I was brought down to the Detention Cells?
A. Yes.

Q-2 What were the reasons?
A. I was previously informed that there was a soldier at the gate who refused to being searched.

Q-3 Who informed you of this?
A. RSM Clayton, by telephone.

G C Burtch

B-49376 Cpl Burtch, G.C.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: M-589 Sgt Logelin, G.E. 65 Coy, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:-

On the night of 12th Jan 45, I was Guard Commander at the Main Gate of St Peters Barracks, 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp.

At sometime between 2100 hrs and 2200 hrs 12 Jan 45, two Cdn Prov came into the Guard Room and notified me that they were to search all ranks from Sgt down as they entered the gate of the barracks.

At approximately 2300 hrs the accused, Cpl Duley, HA, whom I now recognize entered the Main Gate. When asked by the Cpl of the Prov to be searched, he refused, stating that as a soldier of the Cdn Army he had certain privileges and that he could not be searched unless a charge was laid. RSM Clayton then asked him to be searched and the accused refused him giving the same reasons as he did to the Prov Cpl.

An infantry officer, I don't know his name, passed by just then and the matter was put before him. The officer immediately went over to the Orderly Officer and obtained written authority to search all personnel with the rank of Sgt or under who entered the gate and signed by the Orderly Officer of the day.

The accused still refused to be searched. The RSM, RSM Clayton then ordered the Prov Cpl to escort the accused to the Detention Barracks. That is all I know of the case.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1 Did you see me come in through the Main Gate that night?

A. Yes.

Q-2 Did you make me acquainted with the written order authorizing a search to be made of all ranks from Sgt down?

A. No, I handed the written order to the Prov Cpl.

Q-3 Did you not hear me ask that an officer be present while being searched?

A. Yes, I did.

Q-4 Could you state the approximate time I asked for the presence of an officer?

A. I don't exactly know but it would be approximately shortly before 2300 hrs.

Q-5 Did you not hear me state to the Prov Cpl that he could not search me unless there was an officer present?

A. No.

M-589 Sgt Logelin, G.E.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: B-67632, Cpl Porter, FR, 10 L of C, Ghent Detach, Cdn Provo Corps, having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 2200 hrs 12 Jan 45, I was detailed by my own Orderly Cpl in company with L/Cpl Tomlison to search all soldiers returned to 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, for pistols.

At approximately 2300 hrs 12 Jan 45, the accused, Cpl Duley, whom I now recognize, came into the barracks. I told the accused that I wanted to search him. He stated that he would not be searched unless there was an officer present. At this time there was an officer coming in the gate.

I asked this officer over and told him that the accused refused to be searched. The officer stated to the accused, "I would let them search you if I were you". The accused then said "I want to see the Orderly Officer". At this time the RSM came along and explained the case to him. He then ordered Cpl Duley to allow himself to be searched. The accused still refused to be searched unless the Orderly Officer was present. The RSM told him that he was under arrest.

The RSM detailed a L/Cpl of the Artillery to escort the accused. The accused refused to go with the escort as he was only a L/Cpl. The RSM then detailed myself to escort the accused to the Detention Guard Room.

Arriving at the Detention Guard Room the accused still refused to being searched. He refused myself and the NCO in charge of the Detention Guard Room unless the Orderly Officer was present.

The NCO i/c of the Guard Room then telephoned the Orderly Officer. On the arrival of the Orderly Officer, the accused allowed me to search him. He had not a pistol on his person. That is all.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: M-3823 L/Cpl Thomlison, W N, 10 L of C Section, No 2 Cdn L of C Prov Coy, having been duly sworn states:-

On the night of 12 Jan 45, I was detailed to come to 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, to search all incoming personnel from the rank of Sgt down. I was accompanied by Corporal Porter.

At approximately 2300 hrs I saw the accused, Cpl Duley, whom I now recognize, come through the Main Gate. Cpl Porter stepped over to search the accused. The accused would not let Cpl Porter search him. The accused stated that he wanted an officer present.

Cpl Porter then stopped an officer that was coming through the Main Gate. I don't know what took place between the officer, Cpl Porter and the accused, as I was busy checking other soldiers.

I know there was some discussion over the case but as I was checking other soldiers I could not follow what was actually happening. That is all.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

M-3823 L/Cpl Thomlison W N.

SEVENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: M-41648 Cpl Peterson, R M, RCEME 65 Coy, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:

On the 12 Jan 45, I was 2 i/c of the Main Gate Guard 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp.

I was in the Guard Room at the table checking soldiers on pass who were returning to barracks.

Cpl Duley, the accused whom I now recognize, came into the Guard Room. He declared that he wouldn't be searched as he was a soldier and not a prisoner.

I do not know much about what happened regarding the accused after this as I was busy checking soldier's passes as they came in, but I do know that the RSM ordered the accused to be taken to the Detention Barracks. That is all I know.

(Cont'd)

A. I can't state the exact time but it was somewhere between 2200 and 2300 hrs.

Q-2 Would it be closer to 2200 hrs than 2300 hrs in your estimation?
A. I can't say whether it was closer to 2200 or to 2300 hrs. I can't remember.

EIGHTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: A-35342 L/Bdr Glozier, S J, 56 Coy, 12 Bn 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:

On the 12 Jan 45, I was on duty as Regt'l Police, at Unit Detention Cells, 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp.

Cpl Burch who was in charge, informed me to go to the Main Gate at approximately 2300 hrs 12 Jan 45, to escort a Cpl back to the Detention Cells. On arriving at the Main Gate, the accused, Cpl Duley, whom I now recognize, mentioned the fact that I was not of his rank and so RSM Clayton ordered a Prov Cpl to escort the accused down to the Unit Detention.

I was detailed to remain at the Main Gate to help search soldiers entering so I don't know anything more about the case.

Cross-examined by the accused:-

Q-1 The statement this man is not of my rank is the only statement I made concerning you, isn't it?
A. Yes.

S. J. Glozier
A-35342 L/Bdr Glozier, S J.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make a statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused declines to make a statement or to give any evidence.

The accused calls the following witnesses:-

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE: Lieut R A Dubois, 56 Coy, 12 Bn, 2 CBRGp, having been duly sworn states:

On the night of the 12 Jan 45, I was on duty as Bn Orderly Officer at 12 Bn HQ.

At approximately 2215 hrs I had a telephone call from the Prov Officer asking me to have the Main Gate Guard give a hand with the two Prov to search all personnel of the rank of Sgt and under for weapons. Any man found with a weapon in his possession was to be taken over by the Prov Corps. The Guard Commander answered that is already being done.

(Cont'd)

E.A.V.

At approximately 2245 hrs 12 Jan 45 two infantry officers, I don't know their names, came to me in the Adjt Office and told me that there was a man refusing to be searched.

I immediately wrote an order to the effect that any man refusing to be searched would be held and gave the written order to one of the above mentioned officers to be delivered to the Guard Commander.

About five minutes later I telephoned the Guard Commander to enquire whether he was still having trouble and he answered that he was.

I went over to the Guard Room to see if I could put the matter straight. Arriving at the Guard Room I found that the accused had been taken to the Detention. Accompanied by the Bn Orderly Sgt, I went to the Detention Cells and when I went in I saw the accused Cpl Duley, whom I now recognize, and asked him what the trouble seemed to be and he told me that he would not be searched unless an office was present. I then asked him if he had any objections to being searched in my presence and he said "No". The search was made by the Pro Cpl and nothing was found.

One of the NCOs in charge of the Detention Cells asked me if Cpl Duley was to be kept in Detention. I answered that I would release Cpl Duley and warning him that he would be up before his Coy Comdr the following morning. On our way out of the Cells Cpl Duley was accompanied by the Bn Orderly Sgt, the Pro Cpl and myself. I then asked Cpl Duley what objection he had to being searched in the presence of the two infantry officers in the Guard Room. Cpl Duley answered that he had no knowledge of the officers being present. The Pro Cpl then mentioned to Cpl Duley that he, the Pro Cpl, had told Cpl Duley that there were two officers present, Cpl Duley still did not have any recollection of it. The Pro Cpl then mentioned it again and Cpl Duley seemed to have a faint recollection of being told but he didn't seem very sure. That is all.

Cross-examined by the accused:-

Q-1 Did I conduct myself in a sober manner and did I appear as if I was convinced that I was right in asking for the presence of an officer while being searched?

A. You appeared sober and quite convinced that you were right.

R. Dubois.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of six pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(C)(D)(E) and (F) have been complied with.

1st. Witness For the defence

E. 4578 Sjt. Trepanier, F.E. having been duly sworn states:-

Q. 1 Will you tell the court how long you have known CSM Dumais ?

A. 1 I have known CSM Dumais, J.S. since 1939.

Q. 2 Will you tell the court what you know about CSM Dumais, that is his character as a soldier, and his conduct since you have know him.

A. 2 Since I have known CSM Dumais, I always knew him as a man with a good character, faithful to his military duties, always being recognized in his unit as a good N.C.O.

I have been in action ~~in action~~ with him during the w.a.f. Sicilian Campaign and a period of the campaign in Italy.

It was in action that I recognised in him the qualities not only of a brave man, but those of good leadership.

2nd. Witness for the defence

Lieut. J.P.G. Rousseau having been duly sworn states:-

Q. 1 How long have you known CSM Dumais ?

A. 1 I have known him since December, 1939.

Q. 2 Will you tell the court what you know about CSM Dumais, that is, his character as a soldier and to his conduct since you have known him?

A. 2 I can not say very much about him while in England, as he always se rved in a different company, but while in the field of action I came in contact with him and his men.

From what I have seen, Sjt. Major Dumais has done a very good job indeed. Further more I went through his Company one day after they had sustained heavy shelling. CSM Dumais, himself, came very close to death as a shell landed about two (2) feet from his slit trench. I heard that he had been thrown in the air by the blast and after landing was buried by earth. I saw him after he had been excavated; he appeared to have been very much affected by this. However, he still carried on his duties, but it is my opinion that he was not so reliable after that owing to his nerves being frayed. He complained about having been hurt in his leg, and eventually had to be evacuated.

After I returned from Hospital, myself, I saw CSM Dumais at CBRD, and he was not the same man as I had known before; not being completely responsible for his actions while drinking, etc. I am not alone in this opinion, but all the remainder who have known him consider him shell shocked.

Q. 3 How long had he served in action ?

A. 3 He served throughout the Sicilian Campaign, and up to December, 1943 in Italy.

3rd. Witness for the defence

P 48840 CSM Dumais, J.S. (Himself) having been duly sworn states:

Q. 1 Will you tell the court what you remember about the time you went absent?

A. 1 I went on fourteen (14) days leave and a few days before the end of my leave I felt sick. I have been sick for about ten (10) days, and I was too sick to take the train to come down here. When I felt better and could take the train, I went to Leeds to do so. My train was at 2130 hrs. and at this time it was only early in the afternoon. I went to a pub, and had a few drinks. I lost idea of the time, and did not remember anything about my train or anything. I stayed there, in Leeds, not remembering anything about my pass or trains until I came back to normal when I immediately returned to the R.U.

Questions by the Court.

Q. 2 When you came back to normal did everything become clear to you? i.e. What you had done in Leeds, about missing your train, etc.?

A. 2 Yes, sir, everything became clear at once. I remembered my pass, my train, and going to the pub.

Q. 3 Did you notify the R.U. that you had taken ill and could not return at the expiration of your leave ?

A. 3 No Sir.

Q. 4 Why did you not do so ?

A. 4 I never thought about it.

Q. 5 Do you remember the date you went to catch the train for your return ?

A. 5 No Sir.

Q. 6 What date can you remember ?

A. 6 On Saturday 29th October at about 2130 or 2200 hrs.

Q. 7 Where were you ?

A. 7 I was walking on the street, and met a soldier whom I knew. He asked me some question. Such as was I on leave, or something like that. Everything came back to my mind then.

Q. 8 Had you been drinking ?

A. 8 I had a few drinks of beer, but felt badly; a bad headache, etc. This didn't come from drink, because my stomach is always bad when I drink, and it was alright at that time.

Ex 3. Statement in mitigation of punishment in the case of PN8940 C.S.M. S. Dumais R.22R.

According to the statement of the two veterans I called to testify on favour of C.S. Mr Dumais and also of his conduct sheet, It is obvious that the accused always had and exemplary conduct untill the day of his absence. ~~He was~~ He was with the R. 22e R since 1938 and in peace or war time he always was a first class soldier.

He was with the regement in the campain of Sicily and Italy as C.S. Mr, and in action did a very good job

Unfortunately on day he was wounded and spend 5 month in hospital suffering from blass, today his cathegory is S4, he is not qualified to fulfill any responsable duties because of his cathegory—

— It is obvious that the accused would have not absented himself had he been normal, and ~~therefore~~ his condition alone is the cause of ~~this~~ absence, apparently the injuries he received in action cause him temporary lost of memory

C.S.M. Dumais was not performing any duty in 6 C I R V, Therfore when he absented himself his absence did not require placing an other N.C.O. or W.O. on duty in his place.

I would like to ask the court to take into consideration the accused 8 years of good service, and his illness, as it would be a great pity should his military carer be ruined for reasons over which he has no control

I personnally know C.S.M. Dumais since he is in the R. 22R., his conduct always been without reproch, and he was a good soldier.

Statement of the accused of the circumstances in reference to the charges.

between 1330 & 1400 hrs

On 23 Jul 43 I went away because I had the permission of the Cpl. of the Field Punishment Camp to go for a swim. That night I went to the American Camp to see the picture after that I came back to the camp and I found Cpl. Lacoste & Sgt Savard both asleep so I didn't want to wake them up to report myself after that I went to the Coy orderly room and I found the clerk and the C.S.M. both asleep so I waited until the morning & Cpl Lacoste had the order from Sgt Savard to take me up to the guard room & then I passed in front of the Coy Commander & he remanded me to the C.O. The C.O. remanded me for Court Martial as I thought the charge wasn't big enough to put me up for Court Martial so I ran away from the guard room until the Provost Corp caught me

2. I did not want to desert the army. I only wanted to go for a while & then come back to the camp and have a charge to put me up for Court Martial that time. I went away because I was tired and I had the idea to go in action with my friends.

The accused had pleaded guilty to the first charge. In view of the above statement however, the Court, under 37 (1) R.P. alters the record and enters a plea of "Not Guilty" to the first charge and orders that the trial on the first charge be proceeded with.

The prosecuting officer informs the Court that both material witnesses to the first charge are now in the field and are not available and that he cannot give any information as to whether or not they would be made available and if so when.

The defending officer moves that the first charge be dismissed for lack of evidence.

3. "The Court considers the motion and allows the motion and dismisses the first charge."

He joined the Army - July 41 to fight anywhere in the world and although he has been A.W.L. several times he has always come back in his own.

I reported the absence of the accused to the Company Orderly Room when I discovered him absent at 0730 hrs Prior to absenting himself, the accused had been placed under field punishment and at the time the accused broke out of barracks, he was still under field punishment. That is why I ordered Corporal Lecompte to place the accused under close arrest if he saw him.

Statement of the accused of the circumstances in reference to the charges.

1. On 23 Jul 43 between 1330 and 1400 hrs I went away because I had permission of the Cpl of the Field Punishment Camp to go for a swim. That night I went to the American Camp to see the picture. After that I came back to the camp and I found Cpl Lacoute and Sgt Savard both asleep so I didn't want to wake them up to report myself. After that I went to the Coy orderly room and I found the clerk and the CSM both asleep so I waited until the morning and Cp Lacoute had the order from Sgt Savard to take me up to the guard room and then I passed in fron of the Coy Commander and he remanded me to the CO. The C.O. remanded me for Court Martial, so I thought the charge wasn't big enough to put me up for Court Martial, so I ran away from the guard room until the Provost Corps caught me. I did not want to desert the army, I only wanted to go for a while and them come back to the camp and have a charge to put me up for Court Martial that time. I went away because I was tired and had the idea to go in action with my friends.

The accused had pleaded guilty to the first charge. In view of the above statement however, the Court, under 37 (D) R.P., alters the record and enters a plea of "Not Guilty" to the first charge and orders that the trial on the first charge be proceeded with.

The prosecuting officer informs the Court that both material witnesses to the first charge are now in the field and are not available and that he cannot give any information as whether or not they could be made available and if so when.

The defending officer moves that the first charge be dimissed for lack of evidence
The Court considers the motion and allows the motion and dismisses the first charge.

He joined the army in Jul 41 to fight anywhere in the world and although he has been AWL several times he has always come back on his own.

This is to notify you that, under R.P. 76, it is the intention of the prosecuting officer tp produce as a witness for the prosecution at your Court-Martial, Mr. Owen STONE, although his evidence is not included in the copy of the Summary of Evidence you have received.-

The evidence that Mr. Stone will give will be as follows:-

"I am Mr. Owen STONE of 3, Cline Road, Guildford, Surrey.

I was in Heneky's Wine Shop at about 7 P.M. (1900 hrs) on or about the 6th Nov 44, having a drink. Two Cdn. soldiers, whom I now recognize as the accused, entered and I approached them and I asked them if they could get me a pair of boots. They said they could get me some towels and socks. I took them to a shed in North St. and showed them where they could put the stuff. I had more to drink than was good for me, and thought no more about the stuff. I went to the shed on several occasions afterwards and never thought anything more about the stuff."

On 13 Nov 44, at approximately 1500 hrs. I was interviewed by L/Cpl. Darby of the Cdn. Prov. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of: A.117237, Pte. Roderick Rodeny DUMAS, CIC, on strength of 2 Cdn. Inf. Trng. Regt., a soldier of the Cdn. Army Overseas.

Second Witness Prosec. (Continued)

"At 1105 hrs. 13 Nov 44, I was in the Orderly Room of #9 Prov. Coy., Cdn. Prov Corps, when a telephone call from Sgt. D. Eldridge, Guildford Civil Police, came in, to which I was called. He told me that an informer had advised him that two Cdn. soldiers had been seen carrying 2 kit bags into an alley-way in Guildford. He requested me to come as soon as possible so I proceeded to Guildford and arrived there at approx. 1155 hrs. On arrival at the North St. Police Station, I was advised that the soldiers had been apprehended by P.C. Rice and were in a back room with Sgt. Eldridge. I went to this room and there met Sgt. Eldridge and the two soldiers, and, after a brief summary of circumstances by Sgt. Eldridge, I proceeded to interrogate the two soldiers and after giving them the usual warning. They both admitted being A.W.L. from their units and, on questioning them on the property found in the shed of the alley-way, they advised me that they had made an entry into the Q.M. stores at 2 CITR and stolen 2 kit bags, approximately 50 towels, and approximately 50 prs socks. They also informed me that they had made previous arrangements with a civilian who had offered to purchase from them boots, socks, towels, and combs, approx a week previous to their arrest.

At this point, Sgt. Eldridge requested my presence with him at a search of a house in Guildford which he suspected might be the house of a civilian prospective purchaser of the stolen articles.

The property referred to was taken into custody by me and I now produce it as Exhibit "A", consisting of 2 kit bags, 45 towels, and 29 prs. socks."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of A.117237, Pte. Roderick Rodeny DUMAS, CIC, on strength of 2 Cdn. Infantry Training Regt., a soldier of the Cdn. Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Prosecution. Alfred John RICE, Police Constable 34 of the Guildford Borough Div., Surrey Joint Police, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am Alfred John RICE, Police Constable 34, of the Guildford Borough Div., Surrey Joint Police.

At 10.15 a.m. (1015 hrs) on Monday, 13 Nov 44, in consequence of instructions from Police Sgt. 43 Eldridge, I kept observations from a concealed position on a shed at the rear of Phillip's Shoe Shop, North St., Guildford. At 1115 hrs. the same day, I saw two Cdn. soldiers, one of whom I now recognize as the accused, Pte. Dumas, R.H., approach the yard. Dumas went into the shed while his companion, Pte. Waldeck, stood by the gate. Dumas went over to the corner of the shed where a quantity of Govt. property, which I had already seen, was hidden under a number of fruit and flower baskets. He lifted one of the baskets and placed his hand in a basket containing army socks and turned them over with his hand. He then placed the basket back over the socks and started to leave the shed. As he did so, I stopped him and he said to me: "Alright, I know what you want me for." I asked him "Did you put that army property in the shed?" He replied "Yes". He told me that his mate was outside. His mate, Waldeck, was then standing against the gate at the entrance to the yard. I asked him if he knew anything about the Govt property in the shed. He replied "I guess so, I put it there". I then took both of them to the North St. Police Station and they admitted to me that they were absent without leave so I told them that they would be detained pending further inquiries. I later cautioned them and charged them with being A.W.L. from their unit and they made no reply.

I was present when both Dumas and Waldeck admitted that they had entered into the Q.M. stores at 2 CITR sometime during the night previous and had stolen the property concerned from there."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness Prosecution. B.116507, L/Cpl. Darby, D.H. #9 Prov. Coy., Cdn. Prov. Corps, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

consider his category again you can judge by yourselves.

Even with his low category this soldier is ready to go in action.

We are ready to accept the evidence of the court, but considering these facts I would ask the court to be as lenient as possible in their sentence.

R.1.7237 PTE RODERICK RODERY DUMAS

For President, Founders of the Canada

Before giving your sentence I would like to put in front of the court for consideration the career and story of this soldier.

He enlisted as volunteer in June 18 years old in 1942. Was at the time in Calgary.

Came in Englund in August 1944 and was still in Calgary, although he as always been in Canada wishing his self sorry of him, but he never complaint.

In this country as been in training one week only and was put in draft for Italy.

While in this draft has met his dishonor more and was call by his corporal to report to M.O.

The M.O. took him off the draught, then was paraded to S.P.O. and finally had an interview with the psychiatrist as then was recorded and classed M-4 and most of the further investigations will probably have an S-4.

He as never been able to throw a grenade nor qualify in rifle or account of nervousness.

This explanation very low grade Hindy

Considering all these facts I would say that this soldier as done his duty while he is in the army and as been a good soldier as much as he could.

Considering his low category and this offer that he had been a civilian in Guelph I would say that he has been terribly tempted, most as an example but if you

Pte Dunnett volunteered for service in the army in Feb 14 in May of the same year he landed in England in Sept 14 he was in Belgium with the Shropshire Regt and completed the Basin barge with them. was promoted to the rank of Cpl in action but was later confirmed.

When he came to this battalion for rest from the trenches for leave, but was not granted a pass. He decided to go AWL for 2 or 3 days to see his fiancee. Eventually, once away the days slipped by with no sight until he realized his 2 or 3 days holiday he had intended to take had lengthened into weeks. And the presence of his fiancee contributed more & less to putting off his intended return. May the court consider these factors and treat as lenient as may be.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

in th e case of B.36557 Lcpl Dumontier, G.H., "B" Coy 3 Bn 1 C.B.R.D.

Lcpl Dumontier has been in the service for three and a half years, during which time his character has been exemplary. He has been a junior N.C.O. for approx one and a half years, during which time he has worked hard and been a very conscientious N.C.O. The eviden and facts of the case as produced by the prosecution would tend to indicate a very serious crime had been committed, however, I am sure that this N.C.O. did not realize at the time the seriousness of this charge. I therefore ask the court when passing sentence for maintenanceof discipline to be as lenient as law permits.

During the time that I have known this N.C.O. he has performed his duties efficiently and in a soldierly manner.

E. I am F2077 PTE. BECK E.R. of 10 Plt. "B. Coy". I recognize the accused as L/cpl. Dumontier. I have known him for 5 months. As far as I know he is honest, he was doing a good job while in his section.

Question by Court — Have you known him in the unit.

I have known him through Bologna & Cape Griz Nez and was in his section in the field. He was not leading the section during these battles as far as I know he carried out all of his orders in action.

I am F2641 PTE. BEATON D.J. of 10 Plt. "B" Coy. I recognize the accused as L/cpl. Dumontier and have known him since 22 Aug. 44. I have served in the same section as accused. As far as I know he always carried out orders in action. As far as I know he was honest and of good character.

(R. of S. 53 B complied with)

Plea in Mitigation

I in entering plea in mitigation in the case of T/Sgt. Dumonier, I bring these points to attention of court, Accused has been shown to be a man of upright character and honest, and that he obeyed his command during action. He enlisted June 42 and has served since that time, with only 2 reprimands. Both of these were for 7 days C.B. He joined his unit July 44 and has served with distinction since that date. His Plt. Com. who is also a witness for prosecution, stated out of court that accused was one of the best and most reliable men he had in his plt. T/Sgt. Dumonier has been an NCO only since Nov. 44. Since he became new NCO he was not familiar with duties and responsibilities of his appointment. I ask the court to take into consideration his length of service in action, the statements of character by witnesses and especially the fact that accused received his appointment merely 2 months prior to offense.

(R.P. 6 3B complied with)

NOTES E3

Exhibit A

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of L.101101 L/Cpl. Noel Augustine DUMONTIER, North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut. B Fitch, sworn states: "I am Lieut. Burton Fitch, 10 platoon, B Company, North Nova Scotia Highlanders. On the 13 Jan 45 I ordered Cpl. Barrett, who was acting as platoon Sgt. to arrange that a section at a time would man an outpost on our Company front. At 0530 hours on the morning of 14 Jan 45, I telephoned the outpost and received no answer. I awoke a couple of my men with the intention of seeing what the trouble was, ~~and was told that Cpl. Dumontier's section that was supposedly on duty at the time had already returned~~. I investigated and found Cpl. Dumontier and members of his section asleep in their quarters. Cpl. Dumontier told me that he had been onduty at the outpost and that he had brought his section in before the appointed hour. I warned him that he was on charge."

Not admissible at trial

Q. What was the tour of duty laid down for the outpost?
A. From 1800 hours until 0600 hours daily.

Q. Was Cpl. Dumontier familiar with these instructions?
A. I don't know as I was acting 2 i/c of the company and my platoon was being administered by Cpl. Barrett.

Signed
Burton Fitch, Lieut.
North Nova Scotia Highrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution

F.10308 Cpl. Barrett, R.D. sworn states: "I am F.10308 Cpl. Barrett, R.D. acting platoon sergeant of No. 19 platoon, B Coy. North Nova Scotia Highlanders. At 1530 hours 13 Jan 45 I had an "O" Group of my section leaders which included L/Cpl. Dumontier and Cpl. Mitchell, stating various times each shift at the outpost was to go on dty The first shift was from 1800 hours to 2400 hours and the second shift was from 2400 hours until 0600 hours. At about 0530 hours 14 Jan 45 I was awakened by Mr. Fitch ~~who asked me what time the last shift was to come off duty. I infor~~ed him that it was at 0600 hours. He then told me that the section was in their quarters at 0600 hours. He then warned L/Cpl. Dumontier that he was on charge."

Only admissible at trial unless accused was proved to be present.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER.

G52722 Pte DUNPHY, J.A.

Address by Defending Officer for Mitigation of Sentence:

SIR, President and Members of the Court:-

It is respectfully requested that the following points be considered when passing sentence on the accused:

(1) His youth, being just 20 years old.

(2) Although he realizes the graveness of his act, it was committed as a thoughtless lark. No attempt was made to make use of extra petrol which was readily available in considerable quantities. No work tickets or pass was raised, which points out the act was not premeditated.

(3) It is felt that if, on some of the former seven offences of which this soldier has been found guilty, he had been chastised more severly, he would not have committed the comparatively grave breach of discipline for which he has now readily admitted his guilt.

Respectfully submitted,

(J.F. [illegible]) Captain,
Defending Officer,
1 CORD.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE:

In the case of G.52722 Pte. John Adolphus Dunphy R.C.O.C. on strength of No. 1 Cdn. Special Salvage Detachment R.C.O.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.
By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of evidence is taken on Oath.

First Witness Prosection

A.58736 Pte. Quackenbush W. on strength of No. 1 Cdn. Special Salvage Detachment R.C.O.C. having been duly sworn states.
On the 28 of Aug 43. I was on guard duty at the depot, with Pte. Morris. We relieved L/Cpl. Duthie and Pte. Snow at approximately 1715 hrs, so that they could go to supper. I proceeded from the guard room, shortly afterwards to make my rounds in a bush just outside the Depot enclosure. I met Pte. Dunphy at the gate just coming into the Depot. He said to me as he passed that he was coming in after his Bicycle which Morris had brought down, or words to that effect. I did not see Pte. Dunphy again until he came into the Guard room around 2230 hrs. with Pte. Morris, followed shortly afterwards by L/Cpl. Duthie and two Provost.

Second Witness Prosection

C.30382 A/L/Cpl. Duthie J.H. on strength of No. 1. Cdn. Special Salvage Detachment R.C.O.C. having been duly sworn states.
I was N.C.O. in charge of guard on duty in the guard room on the 28 Aug 43. At approximately 2230 hrs. I heard a Vehicle and Motor Cycle at the Depot gate, so I went out to see what was wanted. When they drove inside the enclosure I saw there was a Jeep and two Motor Cycles. It was quite dark so I did not recognize who was in the Jeep until I was quite close to the party walking towards me. I then recognized the accused Pte. Dunphy and Pte. Morris, as they passed me and walked into the Guard Room. I went over and took a look at the Jeep. I recognized it, as one of our own Salvaged ones, commonly used for work around the yard. I than went over to the Motor Cycles and saw that they were ridden by two (2) Provost. We all went into the Guard Room, where the Provost turned Pte. Dunphy and Pte. Morris over to me, saying that htey had picked them up in the Jeep outside and found that they had no Work Ticket. I Detailed an escort and turned them over to the Unit Orderly Sgt.

Third Witness Prosecution. F. 44925 L/Cpl. Hartling G. on strength No 3 Company Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:

I was on duty on the 28 Aug 43 with L/Cpl. Poirier A.A. on A Traffic Patrol. At approximately 2050 hrs. same date, I noticed a W.D. Vehicle without any markings, on the Winchester - Basingstoke Road. After following the Vehicle a short distance, I became suspicious of said Vehicle and stopped it. At the time of stopping Pte. Morris was driving. I asked for his work ticket which he could not produce. He told me the Vehicle which was No. C.M. 4231380 was on test, but on further questioning admitted taking the Vehicle without authorization. I checked his Identity and found it to be correct. He was accompanied by Pte. Dunphy, whose Identity was also checked and found to be correct. In the back seat of the Vehicle was Sgn. Dover L.G. and Sgn. Johnston, W.S. of the 1st. Canadian Signal R.U. On finding the Vehicle had been taken without authorization, I placed the four (4) occupants of the Vehicle, under close Arrest, and escorted them to No. 3 Provost Coy, Orderly Room, where we tried to contact their units. I telephoned but could not do so. At this point we were informed that the two (2) Soldiers from the 1st Canadian Signal R.U. were not members of the party, but had been picked up on the Road. We then escorted the Vehicle and Four (4) occupants to Bordon Station, where we left the two (2) Signal Soldiers off to return to their Unit, and proceeded to the Guard House of No. 1 Canadian Special Salvage Detachment Depot R.C.O.C. where we handed the two (2)soldiers over to L/Cpl. Duthie in charge of the Guard, and received live body receipts for the two (2) soldiers, and receipt for the vehicle which I now produce. I explained to L/Cpl. Duthie that he could hold these soldiers either under open or close Arrest as he saw fit. He placed them both under close Arrest. I noted the Vehicle Number concerned to be C.M. 4231380, 5 Cwt. Willis.

Closing address of D. of. C.C.P.

The defence adopts two main points in support of the contention that the accused is not guilty of desertion. The defence do admit the offence of absence without leave. Firstly that when the warning was given the accused was not present. Secondly that the accused surrendered himself knowing that he would again serve on active service against the enemy.

Lt. Short has shown that the accused was present on the route march and that he did not see the accused leave after the Drill Parade prior to the talk when the warning was given. The accused states that he and a comrade were around the other side of the church & did not hear the talk. The comrade supports this. Surely it is at least within the realm of possibility that with 24 to 25 men scattered about on a group, that two men might leave unnoticed to the other side of the church without Lt. Short seeing them go. Lt. Short says he did not definitely see the accused at the time he gave his talk - but he was sure they were there because he did not see them leave. The prosecution have attempted to discount the credibility of the accused and the witness for him by showing that their stories do not agree - as to length of time behind the church - exactly what they talked about & other points. These are small points it is submitted - and it is not surprising that their stories do not agree in every detail when one considers that it is over three months since the circumstances took place. In fact had the stories been exactly the same, they would have been more suspicious, because it would then have been apparent that they had been prepared ahead to obtain a grant on. So you have the sworn evidence of the accused, supported by sworn evidence of another that the warning was not heard. The only sworn evidence that the accused was on the parade, apart from his own admission, is the method of counting bodies is the only evidence the prosecution have brought forth. But the defence have come forward to clarify the situation on oath; although it is apparent that no prima facie case of desertion has been made.

2. Even assuming the accused was warned, which is not admitted but definitely denied — the accused is still not guilty because he surrendered thus admitting any suggestion that he intended to return. It also rebuts any suggestion that the accused intended to avoid a "particular service" in the terms of ~~par~~ Army Act S 12. note 1 par 2 in 1944.

The accused when reading the news that his unit was in action surrendered by upon the same action which it is alleged he intended to avoid. Even if it could be shown that it was not the same battle + there is no evidence of this, the example in M M L says "such as active service" + he most certainly intended to return to active service. His sworn testimony also states that he intended to return.

Since the prosecution have not shown, apart from hearsay, that the accused had been warned, nor established an intention not to return "to such service" the defence contend that the case of desertion has failed.

Encl

CC

Closing Address of Prosecution in the Case of Tpr Dunaintz I.

Sir:

Again, as in the previous case, the question of desertion hinges on the intent of the accused to avoid a particular service for which he had been warned. It is not necessary that the warning be an actual formal warning. If the accused knew of the impending action and went absent to avoid it he is guilty of desertion. The rule used to determine whether the man did in fact know, is the standard of the average reasonable man. If such a man would have known then the accused is presumed to know.

Here the accused says that he was not present at the warning but admits that he heard the unit was on ½ hours notice. Two witnesses for the prosecution state that the whole troop were present but they will not swear, after about three months, that the accused was seen by them on the parade. The accused admits that he was with the troop when they went into a cavalry post after Lt Shortt had spoken to them and yet he says he "don't recall" any discussion with or by the members of the troop regarding its talk given by Lt Shortt. On the other hand, Sgt Barker states that there was a good deal of discussion about the coming show" and I submit that is not only unprejudiced testimony but entirely credible testimony whereas the curious blanks in the memory of the accused and the conflict of his testimony gave rise I submit to a good deal of doubt as to his credibility. There is I submit ample evidence on which the Court can find beyond the detail of the particular service and the intention of the accused to avoid it.

If however the Court decides that there is not sufficient evidence of Desertion, then the facts of the absence without leave are fully proven

CASE OF

D.63773 Cpl DUNBAR FJ 3 CIRU

Cpl Dunbar was one of the original members of 3 Cdo Bde. He has been a full time member for approx 2 years during which time he has carried out his duties in a very satisfactory manner. He landed on D day in Normandy with 3 Cdo Bde and to my personal knowledge did a fine job. He was wounded on the 14th of August. He has now recovered from his wound. I feel that owing to the need for battle experienced men that it is the best interests of the Canadian Army and his own regt he should be returned to his Unit as soon as possible.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (opening) address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Give evidence. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No, Sir. ~~Are they witnesses as to character only?~~ Ans. ~~No~~

Sir,

At MESSINA, on the 8th MARCH 1944 at about 10.30 hrs. I was on duty at PROVOST H.Q. when a civil policeman reported that there was an ALLIED soldier acting very suspiciously on the docks. Accompanied by Capt. HUDDEE, C.M. Police, I proceeded to VIALE S. MARINO and there saw the A.W. soldier. He was dressed in blue overalls and was wearing a black beret. I then arrested and conducted him to the MESSINA GARRISON GUARD ROOM, where he was handed over to the N.C.O. i/c to be detained. Receipt attached.

Plea in Mitigation Ex F 67th

I have not had the account typed for the court because I feel that in their statements given to the Provost at their apprehension you have a complete and reliable account of this matter. Also given early and without help or advice from a defending officer. A short, bald & I suggest accurate account of this affair. An affair of relatively little weight insofar as army discipline is concerned.

The N.C.O. Thompson is a 5 year service man. Left Canada in '41. Serving all the time with the 4th C.A.A. His qualities are manifest from the fact that he became a B.M. in his unit. He landed on this Continent on D Day, stayed with his unit until a disturbance in Jan. of this year landed him at 1 Dis. Centre.

Drinkin, another '39 er has been a Cpl. Married. Has 186 points. Came to England in July of 41. To France July 44. Served with 2 Div. Service Corps by July he went AWL & was sent to Dis. Centre.

While at the Dis. Centre they were both re-trained and put on staff. Whether you find this a good policy or bad it stamps them as persons above the run of mill, at least insofar as that competition is concerned.

On a day off they went to Antwerp, a practice pretty widely followed on a day off with or without permission, I think, a procedure not usually frowned upon.

There they met a drinking companion who agreed to drive them back to camp. He went somewhere & they took the vehicle of this fellow & cruised to look for him.

Now that is the crime. The reason they are before you. Not a very serious (2) breach. True, when first accosted they took temporary flight, but reason shortly prevailed & they gave themselves up.

It is the type of offence had it happened in their own battalion would have been dealt with by their own C.O. It is the type of offence, I ask the Court to agree with me, that had it happened with a man under your command, you would, individually, have asked your C.O. to deal with. But having appeal to the C.M.P. there is the unhappy tendency to consider the offence a Court Martial matter.

One further point. The summary has a suspicion of being prepared & framed to accuse with improper possession. I know I need not deal with this more than lightly as they are not charged with it. The will say that coming by hitch hiking it is not likely Germans. Hammocks, denim jackets, cap comforter, & a lot of accident reports would have been carried by them.

The prisoners went on a short leave. They have been in the Div. Cage awaiting trial for 22 days. During that time they undergo the indignities of an S.A.S.

They both have signed 6 yrs hons. Their respective records are not clean, but with the law of averages over a five year period they cannot be considered bad types. Indeed they are persons of some substance.

They are hangovers awaiting 6 yr hon. I suggest that little value is due 6 yrs hon a lapse of much duration, and mindful also that they have shown themselves repentant of their wrong act have not made any vexatious pleas or delays as battles began magnanimously. [illegible] Capt.

Sir,

At Antwerp on the 15 June 1945 about 2015 hrs, I received information that two Canadian Provost personnel had been seen in the vicinity of the Riverside Dock Area driving a Jeep in a reckless manner. I proceeded to Kuiperstraat, and there saw the above named soldiers in a Canadian W.D. Jeep No. M 5571609, I signalled and hailed them to stop, they failed to do so. I followed them in a Fordson 15 Cwt. Truck driven by No. 6019743 L/Cpl. Turner A.G.P. C.M.Police, I overtook them at Suikerrui and again signalled them to stop, forcing them to the near side curb and causing them to halt. They immediately reversed, and drove forward again. I continued to follow them for approximately one mile through various side streets, at a speed of about 40 M.P.H. They were driving in a careless, Dangerous manner.

At 2030 hrs. they swerved into the Town Car Park, Breydelstraat, where they were compelled to halt by a road block. I arrested them and conveyed them to the Town Guard Room, where I interrogated them and found them to be A.W.O.L., in Antwerp without a pass, also in improper possession of a C/W.D. vehicle containing the following Allied Stores :-

1 Brief Case containing copies of accident Reports by M.C.O's of 42 Coy C.M.P. (R.C) being forwarded to Admin.HQ 1 Can.Army, from D.P.M. HQ 1st Canadian Army.

Sept 4.

We left our barracks about 1400h on 15th Inst, and marched our way into Antwerp. When we started drinking and going from cafe to cafe, we went in a particular cafe and met another chap, and got into a conversation he said it was his jeep that was parked outside. We asked him where he was going and he said Hoogen. we asked him if he would take us back and he said, "Okay". Well we stayed in there a while and continued to drink. Then he said he was going to see some girl of his and to wait there. Well we waited some considerable time, and we got tired of waiting so we came outside looked around and didn't see him. So we got the Jeep and started going around The next thing I knew was when I saw a M.P. car coming up behind, and saw it was a Military Police Truck I figured that as I didn't own the Jeep I was in trouble and decided to make a break for it. After some considerable chase around the town we decided to stop in the Car Park, and gave ourselves up to the Police.

Sayeth.

We left our barracks about 1400 hrs. on 15 June 45, and thumbed our way into Antwerp. There we started drinking and going from Cafe to Cafe, we went in a particular Cafe, and met another chap, and got into a conversation. He said it was his Jeep that was parked outside. We asked him where he was going and he said Nymeghen, we asked him if he would take us back and he said, "Okay". Well we stayed in there a while and continued to drink. Then he said he was going to see some girl of his and to wait there. Well we waited some considereble time, and we got tired of waiting, so we came outside looked around and did not see him. So we got the Jeep and started going around.

The next thing I knew was when I saw a 15 Cwt coming up behind, and saw it was a Military Police truck, I figured that as I did not own the Jeep I was in trouble and decided to make a break for it. After some considerable chase around the town we decided to stop in the Car Park, and give ourselves up to the Police.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your pleas to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your pleas and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. ..... (5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex I, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). I am B144866 Pte DUNBRACK W.C. I cooked for 28 Bty from March 1945 until approx 1 Jun 45. At one time, Cpl Mullins and I cooked for the whole Bty without any complaints. I was working 14 to 16 hrs a day, feeding guards, etc., until 2200 hrs at night. I was also cutting hair. I had a room with a comfortable bed away from the cookhouse, as there was no room in the cookhouse. Capt Reeves came into my room and for no apparent reason ordered me to move out. I was very tired and my nerves were very bad. I may have attempted to stop Capt Reeves from leaving the room and I may have hit him on the chest, although I had no intention of doing so. I have volunteered for the Far East and had it not been for this act, I would have left today.

When placed in the guard room, I was feeling very low. There were two large windows to the room I was placed in, and there was apparently noone detailed as a special guard to me. When I was alone, I got out one of the windows and went for a long walk. I then went to sleep in a barn, wakened in the morning, washed and shaved and reported back in to the guard room.

W1

I am G8192 Cpl MULLINS T.I. sworn corporal cook attached fap to 28 Fd Bty, 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. I have known the accused the three months he has been with the battery. He has been a good worker. The last week he was on the job, he was nervous. The accused worked normally about 14 hrs a day. On occasion, he worked longer. There were no reliefs possible, due to shortage of cooks

No. 1. Cross RP 85 (B) complied with

I am C82001 Lt/t MOORE S.C., sworn battery clerk of 28 Fd Bty, 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. I have known the accused since he joined the battery. I have had many occasions to come into contact with Pte DUNBRACK, as he is in Bty HQ and he has always been a good worker for the battery. He has, on occasion, done a bit of drinking, but to my knowledge, it has always been after hours.

Defending Officer, Capt BILLO E.J., on behalf of accused, asks Court to consider following points in mitigation of punishment:

I. Accused has pleaded guilty.
II. Volunteered for Far East - needed in Far East rather than in detention barracks.
III. On evidence of Cpl cook, Pte DUNBRACK has been shown to work willingly and well for long hours, seven days a week, while other people have considerable time at their disposal. The Corporal cook has been satisfied with his work.
IV. Although Pte DUNBRACK admits striking Capt REEVES, it might have been unintentional or accidental.
V. Absence of Pte DUNBRACK from guard room was not an attempt to escape punishment, in view of his return to the guard room in the morning.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of

B144866 Pte Dunbrack, William George, 28 Fd Bty, 5 Cdn Fd Regt. R.C.A. (att. from RCASC fap) a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

The accused is informed of his rights.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A/Capt. J. F. Reeves 28 Bty. 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt. John F. Reeves "G" Troop Commander 28 Bty 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. At approximately 1500 hrs 7 Jun 45 I ordered Pte Dunbrack to move from his allotted billet and to occupy a room ajacent to the Troop kitchen in which he was employed. At approximately 1730 hrs the same day Lt. S. Long reported to me that Pte Dunbrack had informed the acting TBSM that he was not going to move. I informed the Bty Commander of this report and that I would go then accompanied by Lt. S. Long to carry out a kit inspection of Pte Dunbrack's kit. I also informed the Bty Commdr. that I suspected Pte Dunbrack of drinking in his quarters and that this possibly had some bearing on his refusal to move. Accompanied by Mr. Long I went to Pte Dunbrack's allotted billett and entered the room in which he slept. Pte Dunbrack was at the time in the civilian kitchen and followed us into his room. I informed him that I intended to carry out a kit inspection and ordered him to lay all his kit out on the bed. I indicated his kit bag and told him that we would inspect that first. He produced several items one of which was a partly filled bottle of liquid referred to as exhibit "B". I asked him what was in the bottle and he did not answer. I produced a cup and poured some of the liquid from the bottle into the cup so that I could test it. While doing this I asked Dunbrack where he had obtained the bottle. His answer was, "That is a military secret" I asked him if it was for drinking and he said, "yes". He then offered to make what he referred to as a good drink for Mr. Long and myself. He said that the liquid was too strong to be drunk by itself and that you had to mix sugar and water with it. I then asked Dunbrack if the drink contained alcohol. His reply was that it did. I then informed Pte Dunbrack that it was in contravention of both Army and Unit Orders to be in possession of any intoxicating beverage, and that he was to consider himself under close arrest. I then made towards the exit, i.e. the door leading out to the street. Pte Dunbrack pushed in front of us and barred the exit placing one hand on either side of the doorway. I ordered Pte Dunbrack to his room, his reply was to the effect that I would have a much more serious charge to place against him before I ever got out of the house. I again ordered him to his room and he did not obey but continued to block the exit. I walked towards the exit and when I was near to him he struck me with his fist, and attempted to forcibly prevent my summoning the guard. I attempted to subdue him, continually ordering him back into his room. When I determined that I would be unable to subdue him myself I asked Mr. Long to intervene. All during this period Pte Dunbrack was doing his best to knock me down and was accompanying his action by using veryvile language. Mr. Long intervened, Dunbrack then quietened down and returned to his room and sat down. I asked Mr. Long to remain with him while I went and ordered the Orderly Sjt to provide an escort and to march Pte Dunbrack to the Bty Guard Room. I informed the Bty Orderly Sjt of the charges I intended

TO place. He and his escort took charge of Pte Dunbrack. I confiscated the bottle of liquid and reported to the Bty Commander. Pte Dunbrack was in my opinion not drunk at the time, but possibly had had a drink earlier in the day.

Cross examined by Accused:-

Q. Are you positive about my vile language at the time you say that we were having a scuffle.

A. Yes

J. F. Reeves, Capt. RCA

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lt. S. Long 28 Bty 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA having been duly sworn states:-

I am Lt. S. Long, GPO "C" Tp 28 Bty 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. At approximately 1745 hrs on the 7 Jun 45 Capt. Reeves requested that I accompany him to Pte Dunbrack's quarters to carry out a kit inspection. When we entered Pte Dunbrack's room he came in behind us from the kitchen. Capt. Reeves ordered Pte Dunbrack to lay out his kit on the bed. Pte Dunbrack replied he he did not have all his kit with him. Capt. Reeves then ordered him to lay out whatever kit he had in the room. Pte Dunbrack then brought forth his kit bag and pulled out some of his equipment. He brought forth from the kit bag a bottle three-quarters full of liquid which he placed on the bed. Capt. Reeves picked the bottle up and asked Pte. Dunbrack where he obtained it. Pte Dunbrack said, "That is a military secret". Pte Dunbrack then offered to make a drink for Capt. Reeves and myself, claiming that it could not be drunk straight, but had to be diluted with water and sugar. Capt. Reeves went into the kitchen of the house and came back with a cup, he took the cork off the bottle and poured a small amount into the cup. He asked Pte Dunbrack if the liquid was alcoholic. Pte Dunbrack said, "yes". Capt. Reeves put the cork back on the bottle and told Pte Dunbrack that he would be placed under close arrest for being in possession of liquor. Pte Dunbrack said that if he was going to be brought up on that charge he would be brought up on a much more serious charge than that. Pte Dunbrack went into the hallway and placed himself with his back against the door with his arms outstretched against the walls of the hallway. He said that there would be a much more serious charge than being in possession of liquor placed against him before he was placed in the guard room. Capt. Reeves went into the hallway and ordered Dunbrack back into his room. Pte Dunbrack did not move from the door. Capt. Reeves reached for the door knob but was pushed back by Pte Dunbrack, he again ordered Pte Dunbrack back into his room. Capt. Reeves reached for the door knob again to open the door. Pte Dunbrack pushed him back and struck Capt. Reeves in the chest with his right hand. Capt. Reeves asked me to assist him in removing Pte Dunbrack from the hallway. I entered the hallway and brought Pte Dunbrack back into his room. Capt. Reeves left me to guard Pte Dunbrack while he went to fetch the guard. The guard arrived and took Pte Dunbrack into custody.

Cross examined by Accused:-

Q 1 Sir, did you at any time during the period that you were at my room or billet hear me use any vile language.

A 1 Yes, in the struggle that took place in the hallway, Pte Dunbrack used vile language but I can't remember at the moment the exact things that he said.

Q 2 Did you hear me say to Capt Reeves at the time he was leaving for the guard that now I suppose you will give me the works and that he replied "I sure will"

A 2 No.

C82001 L/Sjt S. C. Moore, 28 Bty 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn states:-

I am C82001 L/Sjt Stewart Carleton Moore, 28 Bty 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. At approximately 1700 hrs 7 Jun 45 I was called from my office to my adjoining room by Pte Dunbrack. I was busy at the time but entered the room approximately 5 minutes later. Pte Dunbrack was sitting on my bed, I looked at him for approximately 30 seconds and I said, "You look as though you have been crying". Pte Dunbrack said nothing, but rolled over sideways on the bed and cried like a baby. I fetched a drink of grape juice for him to try to stop him from crying, but with no success. He kept crying for about ten minutes. Occasionally he would stop for a minute and would mumble a few words but would then break back into bursts of crying. I finally managed to stop him crying by getting him to take a drink of the grape juice. He explained to me that he was in great trouble with Capt. Reeves, but he was in such a disturbed mental condition that I could not make outwhat he was talking about. Finally I pieced his talking together and came to the conclusion that he had been ordered to move from his former billet to a room in the building in which the kitchen is situated, and that in the latter building it would necessitate him sleeping on the floor, instead of his former comfortable bed. Pte Dunbrack as a cook is called upon to serve meals at all hours for incoming reinforcements and men proceeding on details early in the morning and in view of the fact that a man working at all hours should have comfortable sleeping quarters, I asked him to go back to his job and I would speak for him to the BSM. Pte Dunbrack is in Bty H.Q. and does not come under Capt. Reeves who is in "C" Tp. At approximately 1800 hrs I told the BSM of Pte Dunbrack's visit and he said that he would take the matter up with the Battery Commander. At approximately 1900 hrs Capt. Reeeves entered the Bty office and asked for the Orderly Sjt who was out of the office at the time. I got in touch with him by telephone and he reported immediately to the Office and was ordered by Capt. Reeves to place Pte Dunbrack under Close Arrest and take him to the guard room.

Cross examined by Accused:-

Q 1 Did I mention to you that Capt. Reeves had told me that I wasn't to leave the building in which the cook house is located ?.

A 1 Yes.

Q 2 Did I tell you that I was unable to continue with my work until I felt better ?.

A 2 Yes.

TRIAL OF

B-135082 CORPORAL DUNCAN G CIC - 9 CDN REPAT DEP

PROSECUTION

M-30825 L/SGT YEOMANS, R.C., CIC, No 9 C Rep D, sworn, states:-

Q. Do you recognize this? (showing the witness some books or pamphlets)
A. Yes, these are the rations books marked "L-50" which Cpl Duncan, the accused whom I recognize in this Court, gave to me on 6 Jul 45.

(RATION BOOKS P-469504 Marked EX 1)
(RATION BOOKS P-469505 Marked EX 2)

Q. Willyou tell the Court in your own words the dreumstances in which these ration books were obtained by you?
A. On 27 Jun 45, Cpl Duncan and myself returned from course at Ripon, York. We arrived in London too late to catch a train back to camp and I suggested that we'd go out to Mr and Mrs Edwards, some people who were acquaintances of mine. On arriving out there, a man answered the door whom I presumed to be Mr Edwards' brother and he informed us that Mr and Mrs Edwards were away on a holiday to Scotland and that it would be alright for us to come in for the night. I had stayed there before. We immediately went upstairs and I went into the bath-room to wash and shave. Cpl Duncan was in the kitchen washing. A lady came up from downstairs and asked if we wanted to have tea. I never saw the lady. I said, "No thank you we are going out to lunch". We went to a pub at approximately 6:30 in the evening and drank in the pub till the pub closed and Cpl Duncan was going to see a lady home so I gave him the address of Mr and Mrs Edwards as I was going home by myself. I arrived back at Mr and Mrs Edwards' place at approximately 11 o'clock at night, and immediately went to bed. I woke up the next morning at 7 A.M. and woke Cpl Duncan telling him that I was going out for a few minutes. I was gone considerably longer than I expected to be, 1 3/4 hours, and when I came back I knocked on the door and Cpl Duncan answered the door. He informed me that he had been sitting in the front room reading a book. I immediately got my things and we proceeded back to camp, No 1 CITR. On 5 Jul, 45, I received a letter from Mrs Edwards inquiring respecting her ration books. I immediately suspected Cpl Duncan as he and I were the only two people who had been there at their house during their absence. I informed Sgt Radulski, of the RP at No 5 Trg Bn, and we went down to No 1 Trg Bn to see Cpl Duncan. On arriving there, we saw the RSM and asked to be paraded to the Adjutant; we were paraded to the adjutant, Capt Mackie. We went over to the accused's quarters. The accused was present. He was asked to lay out his kit. The OC of his co asked him to lay out his kit. Then Cpl Duncan said to me, "Are you looking for the ration books, Bob?". I answered, "Yes". Then Cpl Duncan reached up in his tunic's pocket which was hanging on the wall and gave them to me (Ex 1 & 2), saying that he intended to give them to me that evening on the bus..

Q. When you went back to the house on 27 Jun at night, did you see Cpl Duncan when he came in?
A. No.

Q. Were you sleeping when he came in?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How long would you estimate that Cpl Duncan was alone in the house the next morning?
A. 1 3/4 hours, Sir.

Q. Was he up when you went out?
A. No, Sir, he was sleeping but I woke him up and left him in bed.

Q. Were there any names at the front of Ex 1 and 2 when they were handed over to you?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Do they appear to be in the same condition now as when you got them?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you examine pages 6 and 7?
A. I have looked through the books and when I came to page 6 there was something that might have been an erasure in each book.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When you returned from the pub to go to bed, do you recall trying the light switch in the hall-way?
A. No, Sir, as I knew it didn't work.

Q. There was the switch control for the bed-room light?
A. In the bed-room and it didn't work, Sir.

Q. You mentioned that you went away in the morning, how long did you stay in the house when you came back?
A. Ten minutes; we went upstairs and grabbed our stuff and both went out.

Q. Were there arrangements for you two to meet again later?
A. Yes, Sir, on the night of 7 Jul, as I was going; we decided that on the train.

Q. Where were you going on leave?
A. Up to Scotland.

Q. Did you intend to call on these friends on your way there?
A. Yes, Sir, for a few minutes.

Q. You also mentioned that you suspected Cpl Duncan, did you suspect him of stealing Ex 1 & 2?
A. Not exactly, but the only time I met him was on the course and I knew we were the only people there during that time.

Q. You did quite a bit of drinking that night?
A. No, Sir, just three to six pints.

Q. How much had Cpl Duncan?
A. Approx the same, Sir.

Q. Did you go to sleep immediately you went to bed?
A. Yes, Sir, at about ten min past eleven o'clock that night.

Q. Did you hear Cpl Duncan come in that night?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you see the ration books on the floor or anywhere?
A. No, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. How did Cpl Duncan act when he handed you these books at the kit inspection?
A. Quite calm but a bit confused and he said, "What are you looking for ration books?" and he took them off his tunic's pocket.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH AP 83 (3).

SECOND WITNESS

Miss Mary Edith Norah DALLMAN, 2 OAK AVE, HORNSEY, N8, sworn, states:-

Q. Where do you work?
A. At the Hornsey Food Office where I'm the assistant i/c of the consumers' section.

Q. Do you recognize these books? (showing the witness Ex 1 & 2)
A. These books were issued from our office. I can tell that by the marking "L-50", which is on each of them.

Q. Have you any way of telling to whom these books are issued?
A. Yes, we have a reference leaf and on this the name of each person is entered to whom each serial book is issued.
I have examined the relevant sheet and I have found that these books were issued to Elizabeth Ann Edwards and to Courtney Edwards, 200 Wightman Rd, Hornsey, N8.

Q. Can you tell us whether they are exactly as they were when issued from your office?
A. When these books are issued the surname of the consumers to whom they are issued are written on the front page on the top line and the initials and the consumers' registration numbers are also written on the second line.

Q. Are there any variation from them?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Are there any alterations on the inside?
A. At page 4, there is an erasure. When a person is registered with a poultry keeper, the letters "pk" are put in by the office on page 4 of the new reference leaf. Also on page 6 and 7, counterfoil for eggs, the letters "pk" are entered. Nothing else is entered upon these books when they leave the office. These entries are entered in ink, Sir. These books would have been issued from the office sometime between May and 17 Jun, 1945; they were to become effective on 22 Jul 45.

Q. What would anyone have to do to use them?
A. As they are now, a retailer would not accept them, but if the person who has them wrote his own name, address and registration number on the first page, he could then be registered with a retailer. There is also a possibility that the retailer might notice the markings on pages 6 and 7 and he might query our office about them. The same person who had books properly issued to him could register with another retailer and the effect would be that he would be getting a double entitlement of rations.

Q. Have these books any value?
A. Yes, Sir, these books (Ex 1 & 2) are valuable, particularly in regard to the clothing coupons which are the only ones we get in a year.

Q. Are they ever sold?
A. Oh yes, so I understand.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (3).

THIRD WITNESS

Mrs Elizabeth Edwards, of 200 Wightman Rd, Hornsey, NB, sworn, states:-

Q. What is your occupation?
A. Waitress.

Q. Do you recognize Exs 1 & 2?
A. Yes by the "L-50" on them as being ration books issued in the Hornsey district.

Q. Did you get any new ration books this spring?
A. Yes, two, one for my husband and one for myself.

Q. What did you do with them?
A. I took them home and I put them up in my dressing table in my bedroom. I got them about the beginning of Jun 45.

Q. Is that the condition you got them in?
A. No, on each book are the names of the owner - on mine there would be my name, my registration number and on the other the name of my husband with his registration number.

Q. Have you any way of telling that they are your books?
A. I have no way of telling except by the "L-50" on each of them.

Q. Is there anything else in the book?
A. My husband keeps chickens and they are marked in the books so that we can't get eggs.

Q. When did you first miss the books?
A. I went on a holiday about 16 Jun and I was away for two weeks. On the 2nd following I returned; I took my children's ration books which I brought back from leave from Scotland and I went to get our ration books to register them altogether and they were not where I had put them.

Q. Did you report the books as missing?
A. Yes, to the Food Office. As a result of what my sister-in-law told me, I wrote a letter to Sgt Robert Yeomans respecting the loss of my ration books. I have knew Sgt Yeomans for the past 15 years. He stayed at our house when he was on holidays.

Q. What are the condition of the ligths in your hall-way?
A. There is no light at all in the hall-way in the front door. The bed-room light had been dis-connected before we went on our holidays and there is no light at all in the hall.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How did these men get in your place?
A. My sister-in-law let the Sgt and his friend in because she knew Sgt Yeomans.

Q. Are there any children in the rooms below you?
A. Yes, she's got a flat below.; there is only one entrance for the two flats and there are only two flats in the house.

Q. Would it be possible for an outsider to get in?
A. No, not unless my sister-in-law should open the door for them.

Q. How old are the children?
A. One boy is 12 and one is 3. They are my sister-in-law's children.

Q. Do you know Cpl Duncan?
A. No, I never saw him before.

Q. Were the children's ration books kept with your own?
A. No, I got them when I was in Scotland and I brought them back.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B)

FOURTH WITNESS

Mr Courtney EDWARDS, 200 Wightman Rd, Hornsey NB, sworn, states:-

Q. What is your occupation?
A. Fitter.

Q. Do you recognize Ex 1 & 2?
A. I recognize the "L-50" marked on Ex 1 & 2 which shows that they were issued for the Hornsey District. Before leaving for our holidays, I saw two new ration books in the left hand corner of the top dresser drawer in the bed-room before I went on holiday. I was there when my wife put them there. After my wife and I came back from our holidays, at the beginning of Jul, the Mrs was going down to the registrar with our books, when she went to get the ration books, she found that they were missing. I was there. The Mrs came to me and asked me about the ration books as she couldn't find them. I searched the other drawers but they were not there.

Q. Why did you not take the books with you on your holidays?
A. We had no need for them; they didn't become useful until 22 Jul 45.

Q. You considered the drawer of the dresser a safe place for them?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Had you ever used the same place previously for the same purpose?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Had you had any trouble before?
A. No, Sir.

FIRST WITNESS

THE accused, sworn, states:-

On 27 Jun, Sgt Yeomans and myself arrived in London from course at Ripond, York, that was late in the afternoon. As we couldn't make it to get to camp on reasonable time, we decided to stay in London for the night as the Sgt knew where we could get accommodation. We went up to a house in Hornsey and a man came to the door and apparently he knew Yeomans and told him the people were away but that it was alright for us to stay there for the night. We went in and cleaned up; after we went down to a pub at about 6:30 that night where we remained until it closed at 10:30 PM. When the pub closed the Sgt and I parted company and I took a girl home. I returned to the house, I imagine it would be after midnight, around 1 o'clock. I knocked at the door and I never got any answer. I noticed that the door was wedged shut with a piece of card-board and it opened as I pushed on it. I went upstairs and I tried to light the switch on the wall near the top of the stairs and I couldn't the light on. I started along the hall towards the bed-room where the Sgt would be. I bumped into a bicycle. I lit a match to see my way and I saw the door of the bed-room where I figured Sgt Yeomans was; also I saw two ration books lying what I thought at the time to be a low shelf or on the floor close to the base-board but when I was in the house later, I saw that it was a three-step stair-way into the bed-room. I picked the books up as I saw them there. It struck me that the people had gone to Scotland and had left them behind. I picked them up to tell Yeomans that they had gone without their ration books. I tried the bed-room light and it would not work. I spoke to Yeomans but I got no answer from him.. I stuck the books in the inside pocket of my tunic because the room was entirely dark; I did more or less as an involuntary action. I couldn't see any place else to put them. In fact I didn't really look for any place. I was three-quarters "canned" and I wanted to get into bed. We had been on the go since 5 o'clock that morning. I had no thought whatever of stealing these books when I put them in my pocket. The next morning, Sgt Yeomans woke me up and told me he was going down to collect some needle-work from a girl and that he would be back in a few minutes. I rolled over and went back to sleep. Some time later, I woke up; in fact the woman from down-stairs came upstairs. She didn't come in the bed-room but I heard someone come up, Sir. I got up and washed and dressed. I went back and sat down in the back room, which is a sort of sitting-room. I turned the radio on. I picked up a book and started to look up through it; it was a novel. I started to read. I don't know how much later but I was half way through the book when I heard someone knocking at the door downstairs. I waited a few minutes to see if the people down-stairs would open it; as nobody did I went and opened it. Sgt Yeomans was at the door. There was a few remarks passed about how long it took him to come back. We went upstairs, picked our kit and left. We got the 1130 AM train in the morning. We had lunch just before taking the train. We parted at Records at 1 CIR and I returned to my camp near Petworth, 1 Irg Bn. About Fri or Sat of that week I started to press up my uniforms and on cleaning out the pockets I ran across these two books.

Q. Why had you left them there all the time?

A. I never thought about them.

Q. What day was the 27 June?

A. I believe a Tue, Sir. I knew that Sgt Yeomans was leaving on 6 Jul because he had told me that he had his application in for his leave. At noon shortly after dinner on 6 Jul, Capt Mackie called me at the Pioneer Shop and asked me to show him to my quarters. Upon arriving there, he told me to lay out my kit, which I did. I picked up some of the kit that was on my bed. It struck me as I saw Sgt Yeomans there and I asked him if he was looking for the ration books. He said, "Yes". I then took the books out of my tunic hanging at the head of my bed and gave them to him. I asked him why he hadn't come to me instead of going through the rig-marole of going to the Coy Comd. I made some remarks to that effect. I told him that I intended to give them back to him that night. I was to meet him that night on the 5:15 PM Haselmere bus.

Q. What do you know about the erasures?

A. I don't know anything about the erasures on Ex 1 & 2.

Q. Did you notice that night that the names were erased on the front page?

A. No, Sir, I didn't notice that till the day when I took them out of my pockets when I pressed my uniforms. I never paid much attention to them. I saw that they were new books and I knew that they wouldn't cause the people any trouble and that there was no rush in returning them. The only way that I could return them was to get in touch with Sgt Yeomans. I didn't then know the number of the house nor the street. When I was there, Sgt Yeomans had marked it on a cigarette package for me so that I'd know where to go home that night. That night I needed a civilian to direct me to t

At camp I was working on the range everyday and I was really too tired to walk the 2½ miles that separated me from Sgt Yeomans' camp; anyway I knew I'd see him on 6 Jul; On 6 Jul I asked the RSM to be excused from going to the range in the afternoon as I wanted to catch the 5:15 PM Hazelmere bus and he excused me.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. That work that you were working at on the range, was that a fatigue that came out each day and came back each night.

A. Yes, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. What didyou do with the ration books after you pressed your uniforms?

A. I put the books back in my pocket, in my tunic pocket and hung the tunic up. I intended to see Sgt Yeomans as I knew he was going down to these people on the following Friday.

Q. What were you doing the next week?

A. We were on the range cleaning up dudd bombs.

Q. How far was Sgt Yeomans' camp from your camp?

A. About two miles, Sir. On the following Fri morning I asked the SM if I could be excused from going out on the range that day. He kept me off. I wanted to catch that 5:15 HAZELMERE bus as I had made arrangements to meet Sgt Yeomans. These arrangements were made before the 27 Jun. I had 14 days' leave coming up and he was going to the same part of Scotland as where I was going; we had more or less arranged that we would go up at the same time. I had changed my mind about taking my leave at that time.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH DP 83 (B).

STATEMENT By Prosecutor is attached

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFF ON THE FINDING

Cpl Duncan has told the Court a straightforward story which he has also told at the taking of the summary, explaining how the books came into his possession; the circumstances behind his failure to return them earlier; the witnesses have brought out that he returned after drinking at the pub and escorting a girl home to find the place in darkness and lighting a match [redacted] to find his way to the bed-room; that he saw two ration books on a three-way step. It is quitelogical to believe that he would instinctively pick them up and quite logical that with the bed-room in darkness and his companion asleep, that he would, failing a better place to put them in his tunic pocket. The Sgt brought out that the two left almost immediately the sgt returned to the house for the station. The accused had been drinking that night and his memory would not be as good next morning. Before parting at the camp, they arranged to meet again on 6 Jul 45. While Cpl Duncan is to be condemned for notmaking a greater effort to return the books; on the ether hand the majority of men realising that the books were not immediately required would have been satisfied as he was to wait until he'd meet Sgt Yeomans again; the only man who could return them. Another point in his favour is the fact that the books were left all that time in his tunic pocket; it is logical to think that anyone who wished to make use of them would have simply removed the required coupons and destroyed any way of identifying them. The question of the alterations of the books - has been denied by the accused himself and it would be well to remember that these were left in a house which had a common entrance, the lower part of which was occupied by a family of children. The fact that they had been altered does not prove in any way that it was done by Cpl Duncan.

In the case of R-135082 Cpl George Duncan

Closing Address of the Prosecutor:

1. The evidence produced before this court shows that some change in the condition of the ration books in question has taken place. The owners of the books, for whom it meansa year's clothing and food, would be unlikely to effect suhh a change, and the fact that they themselves did not lay any charges shows that their chief concern was in getting the books back. I submit that the logical assumption to make is that the books were defaced by someone who intended to use them to his own advantage.

2. Ration Books in this country are much too precious to be carelessly left lying about, and after nearly six years I believe most housewives in England would be rather careful about putting a new book into a safe place until the date it became valid. Does it not seem strange that the books in question, placed away in the dresser drawer, which place was considered safe and had been used previously for the same purpose, should find their way ~~down~~ to the hall and be picked up on the floor there?

3. A soldier in the Canadian Army who has been any time at all in England must surely realize the value of a civilian ration book. Even supposing that Cpl George DUNCAN had picked up up the books in the hall (which of course is not admitted but denied) then I submit that by his lack of positive action to return the books over a period of a week or longer, or to even notify anyone that he had them in his possession, was constituted an intention to retain them in his possession for an indefinite period of time.

In the Case of B-135082 Cpl. George, DUNCAN.

4. In conclusion, therefore, I submit that the circumstances in this case clearly show Cpl George DUNCAN, took the two ration books and intended to use them for his own benefit. I also submit that this would have been so regardless of whether he found them in the dresser drawer which is maintained by the prosecution, or in the hall as is maintained by the defence.

5. This is respectfully submitted for the consideration of the Court.

J.E. de Hart Lieut.
(J.E. de Hart) Prosecutor.

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE ACCUSED HAD BEEN FOUND NOT-GUILTY BY THE COURT AND THAT HE WAS ACQUITTED.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 9 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

M-30825 L/Sgt R.C. Yeomans, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 9 Canadian Repatriation Depot, having been duly sworn states:

I am M-30825 L/Sgt R.C. Yeomans, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 9 Canadian Repatriation Depot. I produce two ration books numbered P469504 and P469506. These are the books handed to me by B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan. I noticed the number 150 on the front of the books. I looked for a name but there was none. I also noticed on page six where something had been erased. I knew B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan, one week while on course at Ripon York. We arrived in London late on the afternoon 27th June 45 and went out to Mrs & Mrs E.C. Edward's place. The door was answered by a man who I think is Mr. Edwards brother and who knew me. He said Mr. & Mrs Edwards were on holidays, and that it would be all right for B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan and me to stay the night.
When we got upstairs I proceeded to wash and B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan was in the front room. When we had cleaned up we both went out. After we had been out together until about 2215 hrs I gave B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan the address of the house and went on home, getting in about 2330 hrs. I did not hear B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan come in. In the morning of 28th June 45, I was out for about an hour and three quarters. B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan stayed in the house. When I got back he said he had been reading a book in the front room. We then left for camp. On July 5th, I received a letter from Mrs. Edwards stating she was missing her two ration books from her top dresser drawer, also asking me how well I know B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan.
I produce the letter signed "Betty & Court" who are Mr. & Mrs. Edwards. I wrote saying I would do all I could. I informed the Regimental Police Sjt. W. Radulski. We contacted A/Capt. Mackie, O.C. Support Coy, I Cdn Infantry Training Battalion. He called in Lt. Westmore, Platoon Commander. of the Pioneer Platoon. The four of us went to B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan's hut. Capt. Mackie asked him to lay out his kit, which he started to do. Then he asked me if we were looking for the two ration coupons books. I answered "Yes" and he produced them from the pocket of his tunic which was hanging on the wall. B-135082 Cpl. G. Duncan, said that he intended to give them back to me, before I went back to London on my next leave.

And we proceeded upstairs. Sgt. Yeomans, shoved in the bathroom and I was washing in the kitchen. The lady of the house came upstairs and asked me if I was "Bob". I told her Bob was the fellow in the bathroom. I then shaved, pressed my pants, and we went down to a nearby pub and drank until the pub closed. Sgt. Yeomans and I then separated. I taking a girl home. I walked back up to the house. I believe it was about one o'clock in the morning. The door was just wedged shut with a piece of cardboard. I pushed it in, shut it and went upstairs. I tried the light switch -- the light switch wouldn't work so I started along the hallway towards the bedroom, that I figured Bob would be occupying. Going along the hall I stumbled over a bicycle. I lit a match to see where I was and by the light of the match I saw the door of the bedroom and at the same time saw two ration books either on the floor close to the baseboard or on the bottom step of a 3 step stairway. I then went into the bedroom with the books in my hand thinking that the people of the household had gone to Scotland forgetting their ration books. I switched the switch of the light in the bedroom and the light wouldn't go on. I spoke to Sgt Yeomans but got no answer from him. I then shoved the ration books in my tunic, hung my clothes on the bottom of the bed and climbed in. Next morning Sgt. Yeomans woke me up and told me he was going down to see a girl and that he would only be a few minutes. I then went back to sleep. I re-awoke, got up, washed, dressed and went into the back room and switched on the radio but it didn't work. I then sat in a chair and picked up a book and started to read it. I read about half way through it when I heard someone at the door downstairs. I waited for someone downstairs to answer but apparently they didn't hear the knocker so I went down and opened the door. Sgt Yeomans was at the door. We immediately went upstairs picked up our kits, left the house and returned to camp. On Friday or Saturday 30th or 31st June I started to press up my uniforms and cleaning out the pockets, I ran across these two books. I had forgotten all about them in the meantime. The following week I was on Range Duty clearing dud bombs on the Mortar Range and was away from camp all day long. On the morning of the 6th I asked the Sgt Major to be excused from range duty as I wanted to catch the 15.15 Hazelmere bus and I had made arrangements previously to meet Sgt Yeomans at that time and I knew that he was going back up to see these people, and I intended to return the books to Sgt Yeomans at that time. On the afternoon of the 6th Capt Mackie called me out of the Pioneer Shop and told me to lay out my kit. It then struck me that it was the Ration Books that were in question, so I produced them out of the pocket of my tunic hanging on the wall and gave them to Sgt. Yeomans.

The first witness - L.12171 Sgt. KOZAK, M., of No. 4 platoon Support Coy, South Saskatchewan Regiment, sworn states:

I am section commander of No. 3 Section, No. 4 Platoon, Support Coy, South Saskatchewan Regiment and Pte. DUNCAN, G. is in my section. On the 4 Oct 44 at about 1600 hrs my section with their vehs were all concentrated in the courtyard of a school. I had given the order to my section that all personnel were CB to their immediate area. I heard a motorcycle start up and I looked out the window and saw Pte. DUNCAN, G. riding a motorcycle around in the courtyard. I went outside to stop him from doing this but just as I got outside he was going out of the gate on the motorcycle. When the section left this area at 1800 hrs. Pte DUNCAN, G. was still missing as well as the motorcycle.

At 2000 hrs 4 Oct 44 we were formed up in convoy at Brasschaet. Pte. DUNCAN, G. reported to me at my vehicle. I asked him what he had done with the motorcycle and he stated that he had brought it back while the carriers were still parked in the courtyard of the school. The missing motorcycle was the only motorcycle with the section at the time, WD motorcycle No. C-4102541.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED.

Q. When you first heard the motorcycle start up, did you see anyone else riding the motorcycle around in the courtyard previous to seeing me?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Between four and five o'clock was there any picquet on the vehicles?

A. No, there was no picquet but I myself was on the alert and watching for your return.

The second witness L.12376 Sgt. HARRISON, T.M. of No. 4 Platoon, Support Coy, South Saskatchewan Regiment, sworn states:

I am Platoon Sgt. of No. 4 Platoon, Support Coy, South Saskatchewan Regiment, and Pte. DUNCAN, G. is in my platoon. On the 4 Oct 44 at about 1600 hrs I went to the school where Sgt. Kozak's section was concentrated to warn him for a move order. When I got there Sgt. Kozak reported to me that Pte. DUNCAN, G. had taken a motorcycle and was still missing. At about 1800 hrs No. 3 Section formed up in our convoy at Brasschaet and I inquired from Sgt. Kozak if Pte. DUNCAN had returned and he had not. At around 2000 hrs. Sgt. Kozak reported to me that Pte. DUNCAN, G. had come back without the motorcycle. I then went down and asked Pte. DUNCAN what he had done with the motorcycle and he told me that he had returned it to the courtyard of the school while the carriers were still in the courtyard. I then went to the courtyard of the school and thoroughly searched it and could find no motorcycle. The number of the motorcycle is WD MC No. C-4102541.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE ACCUSED WAS CAUTIONED AS FOLLOWS:

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.
A. I want to make a statement.
Q. On oath or not on oath.
A On oath.

THE ACCUSED SWORN STATES:

At approximately 1600 hrs I was waiting around the courtyard of the school where the vehicles were parked. One of the men from another section in the platoon started up the motorcycle and rode around the yard several times. When he had finished with the bike, I took it and made a number of trips around the yard and then went out the gate and went a short distance down the street to a cafe. In the cafe I met two of the section Cpls. I told them I had the bike and they told me I had better go back to the area with it. I returned to the area shortly afterwards. I parked the bike where I had got it, covered it with a gas cape and left the area on foot. I saw no one around the area when I returned the bike. I returned to the area shortly after dark and found the section had left. I started out looking for them and found them at approximately 2000 hrs, and reported to Sgt. Kozak, M. and informed him when asked, that I had returned the bike to the areabefore the carriers had left.
