INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. Nil (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read in relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by employing with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A) see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or. The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans. Not required. Character witness
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 165(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex D respectively.(3)
(1. AFB 255 or AFB 294. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. Nil (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the J.A. if any.~~(2).
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 46. As to sentences see AA 44, 128, 182, RP 46-50, 68, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 363-366, Overseas RO 309, 1323, MML p 60, 737-739. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(2), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(3), 68(1), KR Can 364. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

CASE OF

B-93928 Private DUBEAU, L. 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, RCOC

DEFENCE

CHARACTER WITNESS
FIRST WITNESS

B8284 Cpl PAYNE, V.J., 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, RCOC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Sir, Pte Dubeau has been on the strength of my section since Sep last year and I have found him at all times a very capable and an exceptional worker. He was employed as hut orderly, Sir. I had no other work I could give him as he was L-4 and it also was the RSM's order.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH KR 83(B)

PLEA IN MITIGATION

THE DEF OFFR SAID: I have NO PLEA IN MITIGATION AND JUST WISH TO SAY THAT THE ACCUSED CAN GIVE NO REASON FOR GOING AWL AND HE WAS QUITE SATISFIED WITH THE JOB OF HUT ORDERLY ON WHICH HE HAD BEEN PUT FOR QUITE SOME TIME AND IS QUITE WILLING TO GO BACK TO THAT JOB.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B-93928 Pte. Dubeau, L., of 4 V.R.D., on the strength of 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By Direction of the O. i/c 4 V.R.D., the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

for the Prosecution

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL HELD AT MORVAL BARRACKS, COVE, HANTS ON FRIDAY the 28th MARCH 1941

Trial of No. L12185, Pte. John Joseph Dubec, South Sask. Regiment.

Prosecutor: Capt. J. R. Painchaud, Pus. M. R.

Defending Officer: Lieut. D. A. Croll, Cdn Base Units

Shorthand Writer: D24030, S/Sgt. J. H. Spence, H.Q. 2 Cdn Div.

---

1. The Order convening the Court is read in the presence of the accused.

2. The following questions are asked of the accused:

"Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the other Members of the Court whose names you have heard read over?
Answer: No.

"Do you object to the shorthand writer being present and taking down the evidence in shorthand?
Answer: No.

2A The President, Members and Shorthand Writer are sworn

3.(a) The accused answers to His name and number, and the charge is read over.

(b) The accused pleads "Not Guilty".

4. The accused is asked the question at the foot of page 2 of A.F.A. B, and his answer is "No."

5. The Prosecutor: The prosecution intends to prove the charge submitted in this case by submitting as evidence the following exhibits: Firstly, declaration of a Court of Inquiry which was held in Canada; secondly a confession of desertion, signed by the accused; thirdly a certificate of surrender, signed by the Commandant of the Guard in Canada, at the Depot, South Sask. R.; and fourthly a guard report from the same Depot.

The 1st Witness for the Prosecution, Lieut. C. W. Mason, Asst.Adjutant, S. Sask. R., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 1 Mr. Mason, will you please give your name and appointment?
A 1 Lieut. C. W. Mason, Assistant Adjutant, S. Sask. R.
Q 2 As Asst. Adjutant you are in charge, or deal with documents relating to the Unit, or to members of the Unit?
A 2 Yes, sir.
Q 3 Now, this is a record of a Court of Inquiry which was held on 27 Nov 40, for the purpose of investigating and recording the absence without leave from His duty, and deficiencies of kit, if any, of No. L12185, Private John Joseph Dubec, S. Sask. R. Mr. Mason, do you know Private Dubec, J. J.?
A 3 Yes, sir.
Q 4 Could you identify him if he was in this Court here?
A 4 He is the accused.
Q 5 Would you have knowledge of this document here?
A 5 Yes, this was submitted to us for record purposes. It is the declaration of the Court of Inquiry held in Toronto on 27 Nov 40.
Q 6 Now, I see on this document that it is marked "Certified a true copy of the original page in M.S.88, insofar as it concerns this man" and it is signed "Geo. B. Buchanan, Lieut." Is Mr. Buchanan still with your unit?
A 6 Yes, sir.
Q 7 Is he actually here?
A 7 Yes, sir, he is Intelligence Officer.

Q 8 Well, I should, to satisfy the Court, bring him as a witness and have him say this is a certified copy of the proceedings.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I am not questioning the document. I will admit, for the purposes of the record that it is not necessary to bring Mr. Buchanan here, if my learned friend says his signature is there.

A 8 It is there.
Q 9 Do you produce this to the Court as Exhibit P. 1?
A 9 Yes, sir, I do.
Q 10 Now, here is another document which the prosecution want to submit to the Court as Exhibit P. 2. It is a document which reads "Confession of Desertion, I Pte. Dubec, John, do hereby confess that I am--

THE COURT: Well, we had better have it marked first, does the defence object?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, let him put it in for what it is worth.

Q 10 (continuing) "I am No, L128185 of the South Saskatchewan Regt., and that I deserted from that corps on 0600 hrs Oct 21/40 and remained absent till 1600 hrs Jan 6 1941, when I surrendered, signed seventh day of January, 1941, J. Dubec, signature of soldier" and then it is marked below "I have explained to the above soldier the effect of this confession and I am satisfied that he understands thoroughly the nature and consequences of the same and that he is not immune from trial under Section 161 of the Army Act. signed A. Driver, Major, 12th District Depot, Regina."

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: We cannot admit that document. The Court will appreciate that I didn't know what was in that document until my friend read it out and for that reason I could raise no objection to it until I knew what there was in it, but I am now submitting to the Court that the charge here is one of absence without leave and any other confession that may be made has nothing to do with this immediate case. He may have been guilty of a charge of murder, and if he was charged with stealing chickens, a confession of murder wouldn't enter the charge against him; it is an entirely different charge and I point out to the Court that it isn't relevant. I am not going to put any obstacles in the way of getting the facts of the case before the Court, except that legally that isn't a document which is admissible; it might be if it dealt with the immediate charge, but it deals with a different charge entirely and for that reason it is not admissible.

THE COURT: It is an admission that he was absent during these dates, though.

THE DEFENCE: It is an admission, sir, that he deserted, but not on the main question of absence, I don't think the Court should pick out there these first four lines for an admission that we are interested in and leave out the rest of the document that we are not interested in. I don't think there is any question about his being absent; he has pleaded not guilty, but I am not going to try and prove he was there when he wasn't there. I am only asking that the evidence be put in properly. I am here to protect whatever rights the accused has under the law.

THE COURT: Do you object to that being admitted as evidence?

THE DEFENCE: Yes, sir, I do.

THE PROSECUTOR: May I answer the objection put forward by the defence? May I submit to the Court that, although, as the defending officer mentioned the declaration mentions desertion from the unit, still I submit that in a case of desertion and absence without leave, I don't agree with the defending officer that there is totally two different charges. As a matter of fact, when a man is accused-- even if a charge is laid for desertion against him-- the prosecution has the right to change the charge to read only absence without leave, so in the first point I bring this to the Court, that in a case of desertion and absence without leave, they are really one and the same thing and can be made no distinct charges, because they are really one and the same thing, but this man is not charged with desertion, he is just charged with absence without leave, and that document is an admission made by him that he was absent without leave. We are not trying to prove by that that he was a deserter. But if a man has been a deserter, or has confessed that he is a deserter, we can involve him there that he has been unnecessarily absent without leave.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER Another point I might bring to the Court's notice is that this document purports to be signed by "J. Dubec", but they are not offering any proof that the accused actually did sign that document, or that if he did he knew what he was signing.

THE PROSECUTOR: On that point as submitted by the Defending Officer about the signature of Major Driver, I quite agree with the defending officer that in cases of confession made by the accused it must be proved by the prosecution that the statement or declaration or confession has been made voluntarily by the accused, and we intend to prove this by the statement which is on there and signed by Major Driver that the accused has signed this confession, after it had been explained to him and he knew very well the consequences of it, so that would cover what the prosecution has now brought out.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: My friend has made a submission that I can't quite agree with. We have made a ladder you can walk down but you can't walk up the ladder. If he was charged with desertion it might be quite properly found that he was simply guilty of absence without leave, but if he is charged with absence without leave the Court has no jurisdiction to find his guilty of desertion. The essence of the charge of being absent without leave is the fact of being absent and the essence of the charge of desertion is the intention. He may be absent the same length of time, but one contains the essence of intention to desert and the other is merely a lengthy absence.

THE PROSECUTOR: I think that we are just going in a circle. The point which was raised by the defending officer is a very fine point, but if we look at it in a straight way, we are not submitting this to make any proof of desertion or to make any proof of intention. He might very well object if we were trying to make a proof of desertion out of it, but we are just showing a confession which was made by the accused and which involves and which covers the point that he has been absent without leave.

THE COURT: The Court has decided that it is not admissible as evidence.

THE PROSECUTOR: Then the Court's decision is that the confession is not admissible as evidence?

THE COURT: That is the opinion of the Court. How is it going to affect the prosecution?

THE PROSECUTOR: Well, I will admit, frankly, that it was one of the main grounds for the prosecution; this case is one in which most of the dealings took place in Canada, and we have brought the proof available, which was the certificateof the declaration of the Court of Inquiry which was held in Canada and which established that the accused had been absent without leave and which has been produced as Exhibit P. 1, and there was no objection raised--

THE COURT: The Court will close untilwe decide this question

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED Dealing with absence without leave, the two exhibits which are offered as evidence. Objection was made by Counsel for the defence that they were not admissible on the grounds that they dealt with an entirely different offence, that of desertion. The Court asks to be directed by the Convening Officer.

THE COURT IS ADJOURNED UNTIL 1400 HOURS.

THE COURT RESUMES AT 1400 HOURS, 28 MARCH 1941

THE PRESIDENT: Now, the reply has been received on the legal question raised this morning, would you care to see it?

(Letter from Major-General V.W. Odlum, disallowing the objection raised by the defence handed to the Defence and Prosecution in turn)

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Without commenting on the reply at all I should have felt better if there had been some reason for it. I am not quarrelling with it at all, but just so that I don't ever make the same mistake again, or the Court, if it is possible that some reason, and they are able to give a reference, I think it would help the Court a great deal.

THE PRESIDENT: You did find a reference for that, didn't you, Mr. Newman?

LIEUT. NEWMAN: That is the opinion of the Major-General, actually, and neither I nor anybody else can assign the reason. If he wishes to make a request that--

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, no, let's go on.

THE PROSECUTOR: I will have to call Mr. Mason again.

The 1st Witness for the prosecution, Lieut. C. W. Mason is recalled:

Q 11 You are still on oath, Mr. Mason?
A 11 Yes, sir.
Q 12 Mr. Mason, this is the document I read over to you this morning; it is purported to be a confession by the accused, to which the objection was raised, and now we are authorized to have it as an exhibit. I would like to point out to the Court that the intention of the prosecution, while using this confession, is only to use it to prove the absence without leave and that it is submitted as such and with the reservation that it should not be prejudicial to the accused in this way that it might not be used against him in any further proceedings with reference to any desertion charge that might be made against him. Will you read this document again, please?
A 12 Exhibit P. 2 is read by the witness.
Q 13 Now, Mr. Mason, did you have occasion-- did you know Major Driver?
A 13 Yes, sir.
Q 14 Did you have occasion before to see his signature?
A 14 Yes, sir.
Q 15 Could you tell the Court, in your opinion and knowledge, that this is Major Driver's signature?
A 15 Yes, sir, that is Major Driver's signature.
Q 16 And you are very familiary with his signature, you say?
A 16 Yes, I was associated with Major Driver for about two years.
Q 17 And do you recognize this as being his signature as you saw it?
A 17 Yes, sir.

(Document referred to again produced and marked as Exhibit P.2)

Q 18 Now, here is another document, which purports to be a certificate of surrender by the accused and which is purported to be signed by Major Driver. I would ask the witness to read it to the Court?
A 18 Yes. (witness reads document, which is produced and marked Exhibit P. 3.)
Q 19 Now, will you tell the Court if you recognize the signature appearing there as being Major Driver's signature?
A 19 Yes, I do.
Q 20 Now, the fourth document is a copy of the guard report, the return of offenders confined to the Guard Detention room at Regina on 7-1-41, which I ask the witness to produce as Exhibit P. 4 before the Court. This document here contains a few names on the back which I understand are the names of those who were in the guard detention room at that time, and among other names there is the name Liptag, Private Dubec J. J., S. Sask. R., which shows that he was confined at 1600 hours on 6-1-41, and I would ask the witness to read it, as far as it refers to the accused, Dubec?

THE PROSECUTOR: The prosecution wish to draw the attention of the Court again at this time that the charge mentioned on this document refers to desertion and it is the intention of the prosecution to use this document only to prove that the accused was absent up until the 6th of January, 1941 and that it is produced without any prejudice being caused to the accused on account of the fact that desertion is mentioned there.

Q 20 (continuing) Is that Capt Hogg's signature?
A 20 Well, I am not familiary with Capt. Hogg's signature.
Q21 Would there be anyone in your unit who would be familiar with Capt. Hogg's signature, to your knowledge?
A 21 Not that I know of.
Q 22 Now, there is another document here which is an extract from Daily Orders, Part II, South Saskatchewan Regiment, and which refers to the accused, John Joseph Dubec. It is the same thing, it is a certified true copy by Capt. Hogg, Adjutant, 12th District Depot. Will you please give to the Court what entries in that document refer to the accused?

(Document referred to now produced and marked Exhibit P. 8.)

A 22 Yes, sir. (Witness reads relevant entries in Exhibit P.8)
Q 23 Mr. Mason, will you now tell the Court if the name, number and rank mentioned in these documents, and referring to Private Dubec is the same man as the accused in this case?
A 23 Yes, sir.

THE DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

THE PROSECUTOR: Well, that is all for the prosecution.

THE COURT: Has the defence any evidence?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes, sir, provided you keep them from taking a second bite at me; they were very clear in saying that my friend had completed his case and I hope, for once, it is complete. I must submit to the Court that there is not any evidence before it at all to show that the man who signed that exhibit P. 2, is the same man who is sitting here. No one has said that; no one has intimated that and no one has suggested that-- that the same man who signed that statement which is before you at the present time, that this statement, upon which so much is based, was signed by the same man whom I am defending at the present time. Now, if before my friend had closed the case he had brought, in order to give the Court the benefit of all the evidence-- evidence to show that this was the same man, he could have been called, it could easily have been proved, and I am submitting, as a very serious objection, that the case is incomplete in the respect that no identification has been made of the Dubec who is alleged to have signed that document and the man who is here at the present time, defending himself against the charges. Mr. Hogg's signature has not been verified by anyone here; there is no one here to say that that is his signature on either one of the documents, and I assume that the Court may take some general knowledge, but this is a specific charge. There are some sections in the Act which give the Court great leeway, but where evidence is procurable, and I emphasize that-- you might very well toss me out on my neck, with respect to Hogg, but I don't think you can so easily set aside the argument that I present with respect to my client, who is here in Court and who could very well have been asked "Is that your signature, or is that not your signature?"

THE PROSECUTOR: I am sorry to interrupt the defending officer, but he seems to be pleading his case now. I said my evidence was closed. I have no witnesses to be heard right now. But if he is going to make his plea now, then I should have an opportunity of making my plea first.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I am making a preliminary objection; I am proposing to the Court that there isn't sufficient evidence at the present time to put the accused on his defence and I am asking the Court to dismiss it, because there was no identification of him, and if the Court comesto a different conclusion I know what I can do under the circumstances, but I am proposing that to the Court, and I say where evidence is available it was the duty of my friend to call such evidence, to make it clear, to clear up any question in your mind. The evidence was available, he didn't call it; he closed his case and I am asking that the case be dismissed.

THE PROSECUTOR: My answer to this is these documents which the prosecution has produced as exhibits here do give the evidence that we require. The point just raised by the defending officer is only to the effect that he says that no proof was given that this confession was signed by the accused. Well, I don't agree with that. On this document, which was read to the Court, and which is submitted and at that time I mentioned this morning, that this is going to be proved by the other statements included in it and signed by Major Driver, and here is evidence that we submitted for the signature of the accused on this confession, the statement which is put there by Major Driver, and he says "I have explained to the above soldier the effect of this confession, and I am satisfied he understands the nature of it," and Major Driver's signature as a witness to the accused's signature has been recognized, and we have submitted evidence of Major Driver's signature through Mr. Mason, and he says he knows the Major's signature very well. And then we have the accused's number here, as a further identification of the accused being the same man, and he is the only man in the British Army with that number and so I submit that there is all the evidence required covering the point submitted by the Defending Officer and this is the best proof.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: If Major Driver were in this country I should demand that Major Driver be brought here to identify his signature, as he is not in this country a man comes forward and says this is his signature, all right, well and good, but Dubec is here in this room and it is your duty to place before the Court his positive identification. He is here, right in this room, and he isn't called, and what inference can the Court possibly come to except that legally he isn't the same man, until such time you prove he is the same man. On that I say you have completed your case, and the whole case hinges on the fact you haven't identified Dubec as the very same man; it might be somebody else. Why wasn't Dubec called? Surely the Court can take only one inference that he isn't the same man.

THE PROSECUTOR: Is the defending officer referring to the fact that the party or the man mentioned in that document has not been proved that it is the accused? Or if you are talking about the signature of the accused? If you are saying that it isn't proved that the man referred to isn't the accused, I don't see any other evidence that can be submitted than by the regimental number. There is only one man in the whole British Army with that number.

DEFENDING OFFICER:

THE/~~XXXXXXXXX~~: Men have been known to sign the wrong signatures--

THE PROSECUTOR: Are you raising the fact of identifying the accused? I say the accused is perfectly identified as being the same man as appears there. Now, secondly, if you are talking about the fact that you are saying no proof was given as to the signature appearing there as being that of the accused, I say, yes there is a statement signed by Major Driver, and as to the use of Major Driver's signature there, we have one witness who came along and positively identified Major Driver's signature. He said he had been with him a good many times and he recognized his signature, very well, and there is evidence. Now, if the defending officer wants to make a case and say that it wasn't signed by the accused, well then it is up to him to prove that point. It certainly is not given to the prosecution to call the accused as a witness against himself.

DEFENDING OFFICER:
THE/XXXXXXXXXX I have had some experience in prosecuting and on many occasions we have called the evidence of the accused, and there is nothing wrong with calling an accused person in order to prove something, but you would have to take what he says, and for that reason I say you wouldn't take the chance and for that reason you wouldn't call him, and my friend can't show me anything in the Army Act where the accused can't be called, and all they have to do is call him and put him in the witness box and say "Dubec is this your signature?"

 R. P. 73(B) and Sec. 1 (a) of the Criminal Evidence Act, 1898 were drawn to the attention of the Defending Officer.

THE COURT: I think we may assume that the Dubec who signed this statement is the same one that is present here in this Court Room.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I am going to let the case rest. At that I think my point is well taken and while I don't like to put you in such a very embarrassing position, But I think my point is well taken in connection with identification. I don't think they have made out a case and I am resting on that ground. I am not offering any evidence at all. I am submitting that there isn't a case sufficient to put my client on trial, because he hasn't been identified as the man who signed that particular document and I pointed out to the Court that he was here in the room and available for identification purposes. Now, I have rested on that and I want to say that if the Court comes to the conclusion that this is a case where the man is proven guilty, I think there are some things that ought to be taken into consideration and I want the Court to know that this man has been confined for 80 days. He has been in close arrest since the 5th of January; he has been handcuffed and kept in close arrest, and from just looking at my client you can very easily come to the conclusion that he is a man of nervous temperament and you will have to take my word for some of the history of the case and it can be easily confirmed. In trying to transform a civilian into a soldier we sometimes do it a little too quickly; It isn't done too gently and you all know what problems confront you. My client, when five years old, was sent to a Children's shelter. I don't think that is any cause for sympathy, but I bring that up because of the certain amount of discipline that must have come to him; it wasn't the kind of discipline that you knew in your home or I knew in mine. He got his discipline in the children's shelter and the discipline in a Children's shelter, is necessary, but often it is laid on pretty hard. And then when he joins the army to fight for his country he goes to Shilo, I think it is about 200 miles fromhis home; he was newly married and in March he was taken away for an offence he committed. He was handcuffed and left for Toronto without being given an opportunity to see his wife, without an opportunity to see his people, and the natural thing that appealed to him was to get back there as soon as he possibly could. Now, the facts of the case and I am able to prove them with another witness who is here at the present time, a fellow named Norton, are that he did go back and he xx stayed in Estevan in his home, not only did he do that but he had chicken pox for a period of five weeks and Doctor Milke attended him and when he got better he sent word to Major Driver by a man called John Pless, telling the Major where he was and asking for transportation, which wasn't sent to him. He then went to see the Chief of Police, who paraded him to a Major Kerr, and they said "no, we are not interested, you go back to your unit some way and he finally did, in desperation, hitch-hike back to Regina. I point that out to the Court because, unfortunately, or perhaps fortunately, in handing out justice, the Court takes the attitude that all men should be punished equally, and I submit to the Court that that sometimes isn't the fair thing to do. Here is a boy who is lacking in home discipline, who suddenly finds the strictest and harshest of discipline, and he is quite helpless. These people don't realize that they break themselves when they try to xxxxxxx break the army. I think that the fact of his urge to see his wife and his family and then he was confined for 5 weeks with Chicken Pox, and he returned himself, and I think all these things should be taken in his favour and I would ask the Court to be lenient and give him a chance once again to start soldiering like a man.

THE COURT: You are not calling any witnesses?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir, I am resting on that.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF FINDING.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE ACCUSED IS BROUGHT IN

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADMITS THE ACCURACY OF THE A.F.B. 296 and M.P.M. 6, in connection with the accused, and they are filed by consent.

THE COURT: Has the accused anything he wishes to say in mitigation of punishment?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, I think there is nothing more, except what I have already said.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing pagess of typewritten matter, numbered Sheet one to Sheet 8, is a true and correct transcript of shorthand notes taken by me in the above matters at the time and place first hereinbefore written.

I Relieved Cpl. Griffiths, W.R. at 0910 o'clock. Previously to the old Guard marching off, I inspected the several articles in charge of the Guard, and found them correct according to the above list, the Guard Room clean, and the Board of Orders legible. Immediately after the old Guard marched off, I read the orders to the Guard, and again to the sentries first posted, after they had been relieved, after which I visited the Sentries and found them properly posted and acquainted with their orders, and the Board of Orders hung up in the Sentry Boxes and complete. I inspected all Reliefs both going out and coming in, and found them regular. I also visited the Sentries frequently during my Guard and found them alert and on their posts and correct in their orders. The Guard was under arms at Retreat, Tattoo and Reveille sounding when all were present and sober. I inspected the Kits of the men on Guard and found them Correct

Army Form A.3.

Correspondence to be PINNED here.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A. Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Fourth day of November, 19 41

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial, *~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

* Omit if not applicable.

[redacted]

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of Units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix 'A' to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

Lieut. W.C. Newman, A.D.J.A. 2 Cdn Div is hereby appointed Judge Advocate.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL HELD AT DENTON, SUSSEX, ON 11/12 NOVEMBER 1941

TRIAL OF NO. L12185, Pte. J. J. Dubec, S Sask R

PRESIDENT: Major J. E. McRae, S Sask R

MEMBERS: Capt. J. M. Vezina, Fus M R

Capt. W. E. Osler, Camerons of C

JUDGE-ADVOCATE: Lieut. W. C. Newman, H.Q. 2 Cdn Div.

PROSECUTOR: Capt. J. R. Painchaud, Fus M R (Lawyer)

DEFENDING OFFICER: Capt. J. C. Smith, R.C.A.S.C. (Lawyer)

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused and he is asked whether he objects to being tried by the President or by any of the Members of the Court, and his answer is "NO".

2. The President and Members of the Court are sworn.

3. The accused answers to his number, rank, name and unit, and is duly arraigned and pleads "NOT GUILTY" to both charges.

4. Rule of Procedure 39(A) is complied with, and the accused's answer "NO, SIR" is recorded by the President on page 2 of A.F.A. 3.

5. THE FOLLOWING PROSECUTION WITNESSES ARE CALLED:

First Witness, L12016, Sgt. R. H. Smith, S Sask R., having been duly sworn, states:

I know the accused. On 29 Mar 41 I was sergeant of the guard at Morval Barracks, Cove. On that date the accused was shot or injured in the right foot. He had been confined in the guard room. At 1315 hours I ordered the accused to get dressed for instructional training. He went to the washroom, and came out again to the guard room, and reached around the door for his rifle.

(The witness identifies a Sketch of the Guard Room, which is marked Exhibit P.1).

The accused occupied a cell marked "I". As he reached for his rifle I glanced again at the paper I was reading at the table in the centre of the guard room. I heard a shot fired behind me. I turned around and saw Pte. Dubec standing in front of the bed. He was holding his rifle by the small of the butt in his left hand and was holding his stomach with his right hand. The muzzle of his rifle was pointed towards his feet. I immediately sent a man for the M.O. and another man for the duty officer. Sgt. Ring and Sgt. Tracy came in at this time. Sgt. Ring administered first aid and Sgt. Tracy picked up the rifle that fired the shot and in my presence opened the breech. We discovered the empty casing in the chamber and one live round in the magazine. These were submitted to the orderly officer. The M.O. arrived and Dubec was put in an ambulance and sent to the hospital. I examined the arms of the guard and found that this rifle belonged to no member of the guard. I then searched the guard room for ammunition and found 135 rounds in the cupboard in the guard room. Pte Barabash, who was undergoing detention had 46 rounds in his kit in No. 3 cell. The rifles were in an ordinary rifle rack. It was usual for the accused to undergo instructional training. On that day the accused objected to undergo instructional training. Previously he had been on a Court Martial where the point of instructional training arose. The rifle that fired the shot belonged to

Pte. Dubec, his name was scratched on the rifle, near the butt plate. Lieut. Edmundson was Orderly Officer of that day.

(The defence admits spent and live round of ammunition as Exhibits P.2 and P.3, respectively, were rounds found in the rifle).

The accused used this rifle for instructional training at least twice a day.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

"I saw the accused reach for the door with his right hand. At the time of the shot he was near the bed, and after the shot he was facing me, with his back toward the bed. The right hand might have been against the right groin. He staggered and fell and I tried to break his fall. He fell towards the stove, slightly left and forward. I do not remember what happened to the rifle since, nor do I remember on what side the name was scratched.

"I did not see anyone come through the door from the cell block to or from the guard room until Dubec got the rifle. The Regimental Police came in when I went into the cell, but left before the shooting. I do not know what year was stamped on Pte. Barabash's ammunition, nor on the ammunition in the cupboard, which was not locked. The accused's Court Martial took place the day before this incident happened. The men wore packs on instructional training. The rifle fell on the floor beside the accused. His hand was on the small of the butt, just above the trigger (indicates on rifle). He was slightly bent forward and started to stagger forward.

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

"The shot came from the rifle in Dubec's hand. The rifle was smoking. There was a man lying on the bed by the rifle rack. He was on his right side, facing the wall. There was another man on a bed near the window. Pte Wilkinson was sitting across the table facing me. He was then Corporal of the guard. The accused had not handled the rifle previously that morning. The accused did not say anything at first, but later complained that his foot hurt. The bullet had entered above the ankle on the inner side of the right foot and left the outside edge of the instep. The rifle rack where the accused's rifle was was for the men in detention. There was an elapse of time of approximately 12 seconds between the time I saw the accused and the shot was fired. There was enough noise to hide the noise of the bolt if it had been slowly opened.

The Second Witness, L12131, Pte. Wilkinson, W.A., S Sask R, having been duly sworn, states:

On 29 Mar 41 I was Corporal of the Guard. I was sitting at a table in the guard room. I saw someone walking through the doorway and then he pulled the door back from the rifle rack behind it. He then came over near the bed with the rifle, and bent over as if to examine it. The shot was fired and the accused fell to the floor. I saw no one else come through the doorway. The rifle had been standing in the rifle rack on its butt.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

The guards did not keep their rifles in the same rack as the accused, though it was possible for some of them to be there. The sun was shining that day, but the rifle rack was in a dark corner. When the accused picked up the rifle from the rack he faced the wall. When he was examining the rifle he faced me. Higher Sgt. Tracy or someone else was standing by the stove. This person was never near the accused at any time.

The third witness, L12143, Pte. K. G. Brown, S Sask R, having been duly sworn, states:

"I know the accused. I was lying on the bed in the guard room at the time and was about to roll over when Pte. Dubec shot himself. I was facing the wall, lying on my right side just opposite where it happened. I did not hear him complain about pain at all. The head of my bed is about half a foot from the rifle rack."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

"I did not see the accused go to get his rifle. I heard no noise of a click of a bolt. I did not hear him take the rifle from the rack by my bed."

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

"There was no noise in the room at the time, before the shot was fired. I did not hear anyone walking around my bed before the shot was fired. By noise, I mean loud noise."

The Fourth Witness, 112520, Sgt. F. W. Ring, S Sask R., having been duly sworn, states:

"I know the accused. I went on 29 Mar 41 to the guard room where Pte. Dubec lay on the floor. I asked him where the wound was. He first said his leg, then later his knee and later his foot. I removed his boot and sock and saw the wound. The bullet entered above the ankle on the inner side of the right foot and went diagonally to outer bottom edge of the foot. I am the medical sergeant, assigned to the regimental M.O.

THE DEFENCE DECLINED TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

"He seemed rational and quiet. I do not recall hinsaying any more."

The Fifth Witness, 112908, Pte. Barabash, P., S Sask R., having been duly sworn, states:

"On 29 Mar 41 I was in confinement in Morval Barracks at Cove. I know the accused, he was in confinement, too. I was in the cell when it happened and I came out and saw Pte. Dubec on the floor, with Sgt. Ring standing over him. I saw the accused three hours before, while we were outside working. We used to have instructional drill twice a day. Pte. Dubec was in the same cell with me before that."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

"On pack drill we had on full equipment. Previously Dubec and I were in No. 2 cell, together for four or five days. Dubec was changed to cell No. 1. Just when, I do not remember. On pack drill sometimes we examined arms. They did not examine arms the day before the accident. At times there were guards' rifles in the rank. After the shooting I reported that I had 46 rounds in my kit bag. This was issue ammunition. An M.P. came in to tell us to get ready for drill before the shooting. I heard no one else come into the cell block.

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

"I was four rounds short of my original 50 rounds, but I do not know whether the four rounds were missing before or after I went into confinement. I had my own rifle."

The Sixth Witness, L12095, S/Sgt. Tracy, L. W., S Sask R, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 29 Mar 41 I was orderly sergeant. When I was talking to the R.S.M. I heard a sound which was like that of the discharge of a live round. I enetered the guard room and saw Dubec and the rifle on the floor. I picked up the rifle and asked whose it was and noted the number. Sgt. Ring came in and we both helped the accused. He said first it was his leg, then his knee and then his foot. I looked at his rifle. It had a live round and one spent round in it."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

"Instrucional Drill was drill in full marching order"

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

"The rifle had been fired. The barrel was fouled and the safety catch was forward. No other rifle was on the floor."

The Seventh Witness, Lieut. D. B. Johnson, S Sask R., having been duly sworn, states:

"I know the accused, Pte. Dubec. On 10 Mar 41 when I was orderly officer the accused asked to see me. He complained about being compelled to carry a rifle and bayonet, as he was awaiting trial. I said that was the orders and in any case he carried no ammunition and he replied that ammunition could be got. I told him it would not help his case any. I treated the matter lightly at the time as I thought he was only trying to get out of carrying the rifle and bayonet on drill."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

"Both Smith and Dubec had much to say about the rifle."

The Eighth Witness, L12493, Pte. Shymko, J., S Sask R, having been duly sworn, states:

"I know the accused, Pte. Dubec. On 29 Mar 41 I was a member of the R.C.M. Police. I warned Dubec for drill and stood looking out of the window. I heard a shot and looked around and saw Pte. Dubec dropping on the floor. He had full equipment on and his rifle was beside him. I took the accused on instructional drill every day."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

"I had no trouble with Dubec on drill, he was obedient. I did not see anyone enter the door while I was there."

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

D E F E N C E

The Accused is warned under R. P. 40 and elects to give evidence on oath.

The accused, L12185, Pte. Dubec, J., S. Sask R., having been duly sworn, states:

"On 10 Mar 41 I called on the duty officer to complain about pack drill, which they started on 8 Mar 41, which was the date I arrived. Spr. Smith was present when the Orderly Officer arrived. Spr Smith made an objection about me carrying a rifle for various reasons given. I confirmed his statement about ammunition being able to be got, I suppose, but what I reall meant was because I could break out of the guard room and get it.

"On this day it was pretty dark and I reached quite a ways for my rifle, between the bed and the wall. As I grabbed the rifle I had to stretch for it, as I picked the rifle up I turned around. I had the markings on the rifle on the butt plate. As I turned around, with the rifle in my hand, some one came through the door, and the door was pushed towards me and hit the rifle and me at the same time, and I lost balance, with the rifle, causing it to discharge. That is all. I picked the rifle up with my left hand. I am sure that I grabbed the rifle around the magazine. I bent back and made a right turn about. I was just about to make a step towards the table in the guard room, when some one opened the door leading to the cell block, when it hit me and the rifle at the same time. It hit me in the elbow. I had my name marked on the side of the butt and a mark on the heel of the butt. The shot hit my foot and I stood for a minute and could not hold myself any longer and fell down towards the left. When I feel a man passed between me and the stove. I saw his lower portion. He was passing from the detention room door to the outer door. I felt a pain in the groin when the shot was fired. There was no examination of arms at all when I was there from 8 to 29 Mar 41. I never pulled back the bolt nor touched the safety catch of the rifle. I never had any ammunition when I went into confinement, nor on the day of the shooting. I suggested at the Court of Inquiry that the rounds be tested for finger prints. I never cleaned the rifle. It was always in the rack. I changed my cell on 29 Mar 41. Prior to then I was in cell No. 2. I changed my cell at 1130 hours. I changed because the lock on No. 2 cell was not good enough. I never intended to shoot myself in the foot.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

"I remember the facts pretty well before the shot. (Demonstrates to the accused his version of the affair). I am not quite sure if my hands slipped when the door hit me. I do not remember my finger touching the trigger, though that is how the rifle must have gone off. I remember very well that I took a step forward after being struck by the door and before the rifle went off.

I was together with Pte. Barabash in the same cell for four or five days. I had been doing instructional drill every time since 8 Mar 41, once a day. We did drill with full pack on. I did not mind the drill at all. I objected to Mr. Johnson on pure question of principle about rifle drill. I like military training and I like very much to be in the army and I have been in it a long time.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

"I made complaints about instructional drill to the R.S.M. about 10 Mar 41. The door struck the rifle first. It struck the rifle hard. The door was made of wood. I think it struck the rifle first. During 19 days I was on rifle drill every day. Every day there was a new N.C.O., not one of them ever gave the order "For inspection, port arms, examine arms".

The 2nd Witness for the defence, B25340, Spr. C. H. Smith, 2 Can Fd Regt., R.C.E., having been duly sworn, states:

"I was in confinement in Morval Barracks on 10 Mar 41. The accused sent for the orderly officer, because he was obliged to do pack drill while awaiting trial. Dubec asked the orderly officer to explain why he should go out with us, not being a sentenced man. The orderly officer explained that he would have to consult the rules of the army. I pointed out to the orderly officer about the ammunition being about and the rifles of the accused people being with the guards. My rifle was in the rack near the window. I do not remember if Dubec said anything about ammunition being in the cells. Pack drill was done with bayonets. A few days later the bayonets were taken away.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

"I did instructional drill with Pte. Dubec. I did not like it it was quite hard for us, an hour's steady going."

THE DEFENDING AND PROSECUTING OFFICERS ADDRESS THE COURT:

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR FINDING

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE ACCUSED IS FOUND "NOT GUILTY" OF THE SECOND (ALTERNATIVE) CHARGE.

THE PROSECUTOR FILES M.F.M. 6 AND A.F.B. 296 IN CONNECTION WITH ACCUSED; AS AMENDED TO 55 DAYS IN CLOSE ARREST - THESE ARE FORMALLY ADMITTED BY THE DEFENCE.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO MAKE A STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT:

When the accused had left Canada his wife was an expectant mother and in February he received a letter from the doctor, saying that his wife was due to have a hard time. He received no mail from then until July. This had a bearing on his conduct at the time in question. He stated that he wanted to transfer out of the S Sask R to another unit. He wants to soldier, not to get back to Canada.

He would like a re-board and a transfer to another unit. There is some suggestion that he is category "E", but not physically.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR SENTENCE.

The summary of evidence in the case of L-12185 Pte Dubec, J.J. South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active)

L-12015 Sgt. Smith, B.H. of South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:

On 29 Mar 41 at Morval Barracks, I was Sgt. of the Guard. At this time L-12185 Pte Dubec, J.J. was undergoing detention and as Sgt. of the Guard, was under my charge. At 1315 hrs I ordered Pte Dubec to get dressed for instructional training. At this time he had part of his equipment on. He came out of his cell and went into the washroom. He then returned to his cell and put on the remainder of his equipment. He came out of his cell andinto the guard room and reached around the door as if to pick up his rifle, at this time I glanced back at the paper I was reading. Suddenly I heard a shot fired behind me, I turned around around and saw Pte Dubec with his rifle in his left hand and holding his stomach with his right hand. The rifle was pointed at his feet. Pte Dubec was falling forward so I jumped and grabbed him to break his fall. I sent one man after the M.O. and one man after the Orderly Officer. I then began to administer first aid. At this time Sgt. King came in accompanied by Sgt. Tracy who was orderly Sgt. of the day. Sgt. King took over the duty of administering first aid. Sgt. Tracy and I then examined the rifle that had fired the shot. We found one live round in the magazine and one spent casing in the chamber. At this time the orderly officer came in and the rifle, the live round and spent casing was turned over to him. The M.O. then arrived and Pte Dubec was placed in an ambulance and sent to hospital at approximately 1405 hrs. I then examined the arms and ammunition of the guard. The rifle was found to belong to Pte Dubec. Pte Anderson had only 59 rounds of ammunition instead of 60. I also searched the guard room and discovered ammunition in the cupboard of the guard room. These were taken and all the ammunition was turned into the regimental stores.

Pte Barabash and Pte Dubec went into their cells to get their equipment on. Pte Dubec occupied the first cell on the left hand side. He came out fully dressed and the door of the detention barracks was partly open. As he came through he opened the door fully then partially closed it and reached in for his rifle in the rifle rack. Then turning inwards to the guard room he bent as if to examine the rifle. Then I heard the shot. It was then I saw someone fell to the floor. Sgt. Smith went over to see what had happened and called for the orderly officer. In the mean time I went over and saw Pte Dubec on the floor and realized that something had happened.

(Signed) W.A. Wilkinson.

Questioned by the accused.

Q. Before the shot was fired why did you not know who it was?

A. I was not turned towards you.

Q. Did you see anyone in the doorway?

A. That I could not say.

Q. Was there anyone standing inside the building by the window?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any M.P's when the shot was fired?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Was it dark in the room especially the corner?

A. Darker than usual outside.

Q. Was it raining outside?

A. No.

Third Witness

L-12143 Pte Brown, K.G. of South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 29 Mar 41 at approximately 1315 hrs I was lying on the bed about 5 minutes before the shooting. Just as Pte Dubec came out of the cell I was about to turn over when a shot was fired. The next thing I seen him lying on the floor. I immediately went to the R.S.M's office and notified Sgt. Ring that Pte Dubec had shot himself.

(Signed) K.G. Brown.

Q. Did you see anyone standing in the doorway after the shot was fired?

A. No.

Q. Did you see anyone standing around the windows other than the guard?

A. Couldn't say for sure.

Q. Did or did you not see Pte Shymko in the room?

A. No.

Fourth Witness

L-12520 Sgt. Ring, F.W. of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 29 Mar 41 at approximately 1315 hrs I was in the R.S.M's office at Norval Barracks when Pte Brown, K.G. came in XXX. I immediately went to the guard room where Pte Dubec was and asked him where he had shot himself. At first he said in the knee, on seeing no mark I said where? He then stated in the leg and afterwards owned up that it was in his foot. I removed his boot and sock and applied first field dressing and in the meantime Capt. Wood the M.O. had been sent for who arrived shortly after the shooting. On removal of boot and sock the bullet had entered the inside of the right ankle and came out on the bottom of the right side of the heel.

(Signed) Sgt. F.W. Ring.

Questioned by the accused.

Q. Did you say to the man lying on the floor "get up and do your pack drill"?

A. No.

Q. You examined quite a while before finding the bullet wound?

A. The whole examination took less than a minute.

Q. Did anyone volunteer where the bullet had gone?

A. Pte Dubec said in his knee, afterwards his leg, then said his foot.

Q. Did anyone other than Pte Dubec give you any information?

A. No.

Fifth Witness

L-12515 Pte Barabash, P. of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 29 Mar 41 at approximately 1315 hrs I was serving detention in Norval Barracks. We had been given orders to get our equipment on to go out for our regular instructional drill. I was in my cell and had most of my equipment on.

(4)

As I was putting my large pack on I heard a shot and ran out of my cell to see what it was and there I saw Pte Dubec lying on the floor with Sgt. Ring looking at him and there were others there but I do not know their names at present. I was then sent back to my cell to finish putting on my equipment to go out on parade.

(Signed) P Barabash

The accused declines to cross examine.

Sixth Witness

L-12095 Sgt. Tracy, L.W. of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 10 Mar 41 at approximately 1320 hrs, I was the orderly sgt of the South Saskatchewan Regiment for the day. AT this time of the day I was in R.S.M's Strums office. I heard a shot and made the remark that it sounded like a live round. As we spoke about this shot I, think that it was a live round went out to investigate. I went to the guard roomand found a number of the guard around a soldier on the floor. On getting into the circle I found it to be Pte Dubes who appeared to be hurt and had a rifle lying beside him. I picked the rifle up and checked the number on the base plate, I asked who the owner was from the guard and found that it did not belong to the guard. I opened the bolt and found one spent round in the chamber and one live round in the magazine. I unloaded the rifle and left it on the table. I helped Sgt. Ring remove Pte Dubec's shoe and found blood on his sock on the inside of his foot. I then took the rifle and expended, and live round to R.S.M. Strum's office. Ithen went to drill defaulters.

Q. Did you find out who the owner of the rifle was?

A. I do not remember.

(Signed) L.W. Tracy.

Seventh Witness

Lieut. D.B. Johnson of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army, (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 10 Mar 41 I was Sn. Orderly Officer of S.S.R. on this day and date. On this evening some individual brought a message that Pte Dubec who wasin custody at Morval Barracks at this time wished to speak with me. At the time I was unable to go but saw him at my normal tour of duty at 2200 hrs. I asked Pte Dubec what his complaint was and was informed by him that he did not think it was right for him to be carrying a rifle and bayonet on instructional drill. Another detention chap seemed also of the same opinion regarding Pte Dubec. I made the statement that they had no ammunition for the rifles and that it was orders that rifles and bayonet would be carried on instructional training. Both the detention men said that ammunition could be got. I treated the matter lightly at the time as it seemed rather frivilous at the time.

(Signed) D.B. Johnson, Lieut.

Eight Witness

L-12894 Pte Shymko, J. of the South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army (Active) being duly sworn states:-

On 29 Mar 41 I was a regimental military police of the S.S.R. At 1315 hrs I warned Pte Dubec and Pte Barabash for instructional drill. I walked from the cells out into the guard room and stood looking out the window. Pte Dubec followed me out into the guard room. He was at this time ready to go on instructional drill. While I was standing at the window I hearda shot. On looking around I saw Pte Dubec fall on the floor. The Sgt. of the Guard told me to go and get the orderly officer.

(Signed) Pte Shymko, J.

Q. What window were you standing by?

A. The one facing Bn orderly room.

Q. You were facing the clock?

A. Yes.

Q. Who gave you orders to take the detention men out on drill?

A. No one . That was part of my regimental duties.

Q. Were you talking to anyone in the building?

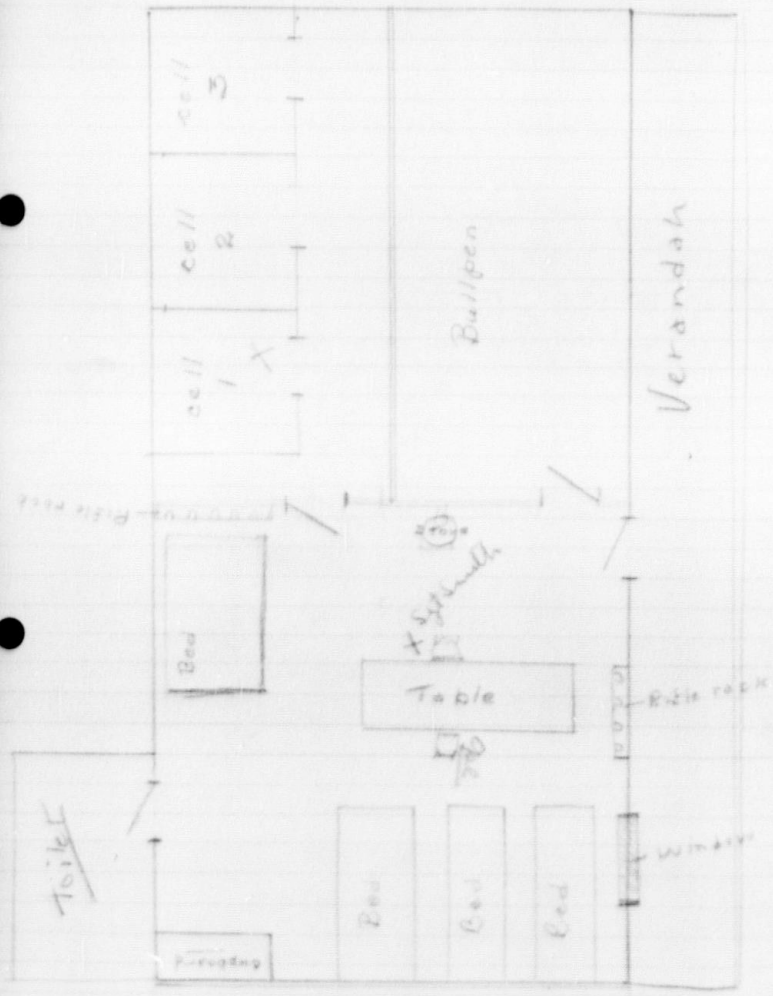
A. Just to you and Pte Barabash.

Q. In the guard room?

A. No.

The accused does not desire to make a statement or give evidence.

Rule of procedure 4(c)(d)(e)(f)(g) have been complied with.



Taken beforeme at Seafor this 29 day of October 1941.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

On the morning of 3rd July 1942 at about 0500 hrs I was returning from having done guard duty at East London. The accused who had been a member of the same guard was there with his other men and we were all about 6 mount bike kicks between town quarters. The accused was in his ~~seen~~ vehicle second from the end of the convoy. I ~~was~~ had also been talking to Rfn Brodie who was standing by his truck. I heard a shot and saw the accused coming down from his truck with his rifle in his hand. Rfn Brodie fell down on his ground. No one else except myself and the accused & Rfn Brodie was near his truck. When the accused got off his truck he dropped his rifle and went away. I picked up the rifle and removed the ammunition. There was one round in the barrel which had been discharged and one rounds in his magazine.

NO CROSS. EXAMINATION.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B) COMPLIED WITH.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

H. 40338 Sgt McQUEEN. L.T. having been duly Sworn States:

On the morning of the 3rd of July at aproximately 0600 hrs "D" Coy R.W.R's of which I was acting C.S.M. was engaged in turbussing to leave an area at East bourne which it had been occupying during the night as a relief party for the R.C.R's.

I was engaged in rounding up members of No:17 Platoon and was about 75 yards from the trucks when I heard a shot coming from the direction of the trucks. I ran back to the trucks and found the Driver on the road.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Q. Was the Company in this area in an Operational role.

A. Yes.

BY THE COURT.

Q. Did you take his accused to a hospital.

A. Yes, his hand was injured.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him.

A. Yes I asked his general question as to whose rifle it was that went off and his accused said it was his.

Q. Is it customary in an operational role that the rifles should be loaded?

A. Yes it is customary

Q. Should there be a round in the chamber?

A. Not in my opinion.

Q. Were any instructions given regarding how rifles should be loaded?

A. Not through the Company H.Q. It was a platoon matter. There is nothing laid down as far as I know.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B) COMPLIED WITH.

LIEUT. J.G. W. SAVAGE. Having been duly sworn states:

~~Q. What~~ I have had four months experience in a Basic Training Centre in Canada and 2½ months with my unit.

The accepted method of loading with the maximum of safety is to "change magazines". That is to put ten rounds in the magazine and then apply the safety catch.

It is true that in some cases, due to wear and tear, the safety catch may work loose and go in the forward position.

I have done operational duty and have posted sentries for such duty. ~~I have~~ have been issued with 50 rounds with instructions not to load unless some offensive act is committed against them.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B) COMPLIED WITH.

The statement made by the accused at the taking of the Summary was read in to the record.

In view of the fact that the Officer who took the Summary was not available nor readily procurable, the Defending Officer agreed to waive formal proof and accept the evidence contained in the Summary as to the voluntary nature of the statement.

CLOSE OF PROSECUTIONS CASE.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

There is no evidence of carelessness. The existence of the round in the chamber was due to ignorance rather than to carelessness. The accused in his Statement on the Summary tells us he was following in the actions received in the training centres.

PROSECUTOR IN REPLY.

It is immaterial as to whether the accused had orders to load his rifle or not.

He did not unload his rifle. This was carelessness and sufficient to constitute a conviction on the charge.

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty

*To be struck out in case no plea of "Not Guilty" has been proceeded with.

*[The Court having been re-opened, the accused is again brought before it, and the charge to which he has pleaded "Guilty" read to him again.]

is found guilty of

*The summary (or abstract) of evidence is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

Answer. The accused in mitigation of punishment says:—

[or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction.

* If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. NO

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. NO

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer. N/A.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

came up and took charge. On his instructionsI had the blanket truck backed up to the spot and Rfn Drader was loaded on to it to be taken to the hospital. While this was going on I noticed that Rfn Drader had been shot in the hand. As soon as the blanket truck left I went to the rear of the truck where the accident had taken place and questioned the Riflemen who had been on the spot. I picked up 10 live rounds and one empty casing at the side of the trail which Rfn Zaste had unloaded from the rifle causing the accident. I still have them in my possession."

Q. "Were you performing any duty at the time?"

A. "No"

Q. "Did Rfn Drader make any statement or say anything to you after he was injured?"

A. "Nothing except that "I am shot". Shortly afterwards he lost consciousness."

Q. "Had any order been given for the men to embuss on the truck?"

A. "It was not necessary for such an order to be given as the men understood to get aboard when the trucks arrived. The men had boarded the trucks in this way on two previous mornings."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The accused H41785 Rfn Dubniewicz M.A., 1st Bn R Wpg Rif A.F., after being duly sworn made the following statement.

"Sir, it is needless for me to say that I am very sorry for the accident. I felt prior to the accident that I was acting in accordance with instructions given to me by instructors and N.C.O.'s at both the basic and advanced training centres. They said that a guard was permitted for his personal protection to have his rifle loaded at any time when he felt the circumstances warranted it. You may ask why didn't I remove the rounds when my guard duty was over. Well, I had my rifle fixed so that to all intents and purposes it could not be fired. At any rate it could not be fired by pressing the trigger even with the safety catch off. I now find there is only one possible way for a round to be discharged from a rifle when fixed in this way and unfortunately on this occasion it happened. It can only occur when laid down on a rough floor with ridges on it and in a certain position. I would like to demonstrate exactly what happened if I can be given the privilege."

4th Witness for the Prosecution

H41149 Rfn Peel R., 1st Bn R Wpg Rif A.F., having been duly sworn states:

"Sir, at approximately 0600 hrs on 3 July 1942 I was standing on the drivers side of my lorry when I hear a shot appearing to come from the back of the convoy. Walking around the front of my truck which was #3 in the convoy I noticed Rfn Drader coming down the road holding his chest and saying he was shot. I ran to him and gave what assistance I could it laying him on the side of the road. We opened his tunic while waiting for the truck to be backed down to take Rfn Drader to the hospital. Then I helped him on the truck.

Q. "Did Rfn Drader make any statement or say anything to you after he was injured?"

A. "The only thing I heardhim say was when he was coming down the road saying he was shot."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Summary of Evidence in the case of H41785 Rfn Dubniewicz, Myron Anthony.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

H17822 Rfn Zaste P., 1st Bn. R Wpg Rif A.F. having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, I am H17822 Rfn Zaste P. of "D" Coy of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles in the field. At approximately 0615 hrs on 3 July 1942 I was standing at the back of the truck which was driven by K92103 Rfn Drader talking to Rfn Drader. I asked him where we were going that morning. He answered "I don't know." The truck was empty at the time as no personnel had been loaded on to it. Men were standing on the trail at the back of the truck. A few moments later I heard a shot. I looked at the back of the truck and saw Rfn Dubniewicz jump back off the truck his rifle falling to the ground. I looked to my right and saw Rfn Drader lying on his back on the ground. He got upto his feet, he had his hands grasping his chest. I asked him "What is the matter?" He said "Never mind, I'm shot". He then walked about 10 paces to Lieut. Savage. I did not hear what he said to Lieut. Savage. Somebody said "Put the rifle on the truck". I picked up the rifle and noticed that it was loaded. I unloaded it and found 9 rounds of live ammunition and one empty casing. I then put the rifle in the truck."

Q. "Were you on the same detail of guard as Rfn Dubniewicz?"

A. "I was on guard the same night but not on the same hour."

Q. "You know Rfn Dubniewicz by sight?"

A. "Yes sir."

Q. "Is he in this room?"

A. "Yes" pointing to the accused.

Q. "When you went on guard duty did you receive any orders to either load or charge magazines?"

A. "No, I never received such an order."

Q. "Prior to the discharge of the rifle was any order given formen to board the truck?"

A. "I didn't hear such an order."

Rfn Dubniewicz was informed of his right to cross-examine the witness. He asked the following questions and received the answers as below:

Q. "You mention that you saw me jump back off the truck. Is it possible that you mistook my motion of my getting on the truck for the one of getting off?"

A. "I only saw you part way from the floor of the truck and coming to the ground."

Q. "Are you sure you didn't hear any order to load rifles and have bayonets fixed?"

A. "No, I never heard any - none was given to me."

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

H40538 Sgt McQueen L.J., 1st Bn R Wpg Rif having been duly sworn states:

"Sir, early morning at approximately 0615 hrs on 3 Jul 1942 while acting as CSM, I was falling in the Company to move off for Brigade battle innoculation. I was falling in #17 Platoon and I heard the report of what seemed to be the discharge of a rifle in the vicinity of the trucks about 75 yards away. I ran back to investigate and found Capt. Eadie bending over Rfn Drader who was lying on the ground. Capt. Eadie ordered me to find out who fired the shot. I questioned the men around but nobody seemed to know. We then put Rfn Drader in the A.1 Echelon truck and Rfn Dubniewicz who was wounded,in the hand also, as well as two Riflemen to assist. While in the truck on the way to the hospital I applied field dressing to Rfn Dubniewicz' hand. During this operation he explained that it was his rifle that gone off. I then attempted to apply field dressing to Rfn Drader but I only succeeded in opening his tunic, tearing his sweater open, and unbuttoning his shirt when we arrived at the hospital. Rfn Drader was pronounced dead on the truck. Rfn Dubniewicz was admitted to hospital for treatment. We then carried Rfn Drader's body to the morgue.

Q. "Where did this occur?"

A. "On a trail in Ratton Park."

Q. "Did you have anything to do with the mounting or dismounting of the guard which came off duty that morning?"

A. "No"

Q. "Did Rfn Drader make any statement or say anything to you after he was injured?"

A. "No"

Q. "You know Rfn Dubniewicz by sight?"

A. "Is he in this room?"

A. "Yes" pointing out the accused.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut. J.G. W. Savage, 1st Bn R Wpg Rif A.F., having been duly sworn, states:

"The 8 C.I.B. was doing field firing and "D" Coy of the R Wpg Rif was substituting for the Q.C.R. in its operational role. "D" Coy was in position in Ratton Park. On 3rd July 1942 at approximately 0600 hrs we were preparing to move off. All trucks were loaded except the second last truck in the convoy. The last being G1098 stores. I was standing opposite the left door of the second last truck. There were a group of men at the rear of the truck engaged in embussing. The driver of the rear truck was Rfn Drader and he was standing opposite the left front fender of his own truck. There was a shot and Rfn Drader collapsed on the ground. He immediately got up again and came in my direction, saying "I am shot". I noticed there was a good deal of blood down the front of his trousers just below his tunic. With the aid of a Rifleman I eased him down to the side of the trail and then Capt Eadie

Statement in mitigation of punishment by ~~Statement of~~ Lieut P. E. Gower Counsel.

In mitigation of sentence I wish to present the following observations:

First during his service the accused has only one minor charge on his conduct sheet.

Second, this is his first case of absence without leave since enlistment so he is not a confirmed offender and must have had what he thought was a good reason this. The accused was employed as a night fireman at 7 C.I.B. continuously for three and a half months, during which time he had only one twenty-four hour pass.

Fourth When the accused's leave came due in March it was not granted, and when he applied for his leave, it was not granted. I think it is customary, when possible, that men are allowed seven days leave once in three months and when the accused went absent without leave he still had not been granted any leave. This was nearly a month after it was due.

The accused has had unpleasant relations with other ranks, both in the unit and at Bde, possibly because his quietness and an inferiority complex, which coupled with three and a half months of working alone at night should be taken into consideration, when sentencing the accused.

RECORD of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry assembled at In the Field on the fourth day of May 1943, for the purpose of investigating and recording the absence, without leave, from his duty, and deficiency, if any, in the Arms, Ammunition, Equipments, Instruments, Regimental Necessaries, or Clothing of No. NX1765 Rfn. DUBNIEWICZ, N. A.

Summary of Evidence in the case of H41785 Rfn Dubniewicz, M.A., The Royal Winnipeg Rifles A.F.

Evidence attached as Appendix "A" being the declaration from the Findings of a Court of Inquiry that H41785 Rfn. Dubniewicz, M.A. did illegally absent himself without leave on 9 Apr 43. Declaration is a certified true copy of the original signed by the Officer having custody of the Document.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

H40637 CQMS Gregory, D., H.Q. 7 Cdn Inf Bde, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am H40637 CQMS Gregory, D. I am the CQMS at H.Q. 7 Cdn Inf Bde. It is my duty at this H.Q. to check the presence on parade of all personnel of this H.Q. Rfn. Dubniewicz was the night fireman at this H.Q. At 1900 hrs each night I made a practice of checking to see if the night fireman was on duty. Ichecked at 1800 hrs on the night of 9 Apr 43 and found that Rfn. Dubniewicz had not reported for duty. I knew that he was on a pass which was good until 1400 hrs, 9 Apr 43, so Rfn. Dubniewicz was then absent without leave and I reported him as such.
During the period between 1400 hrs, 9 Apr 43 and 1815 hrs 12 May 43, at no time did I see Rfn. Dubniewicz whom I recognize around H.Q. 7 Cdn Inf Bde.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

D. Gregory.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial afterwards proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Opening Address by Prosecution — Not made — D.3.

First Witness for the Prosecution (under oath)

P2d663 CSM Gardner C. 42 Coy 10 Bn

I am CSM of 42 Coy. On 27 Nov 44 at about 0930 hrs I held a parade in Guard room of 42 Coy. On that parade I saw the accused — oldest to him — I recognise Pte Dubois. On that parade I ordered the accused to join a working party. He refused and said "No, I want to see the Supt." I cautioned Pte Dubois that he was on active service and I again personally ordered him to join a working party. He again refused and said "No I want to see the Supt." I accused Pte Dubois refused to join the working party and he did not join the working party during the parade. Pte Dubois remarked "Oh for Christs sake, I stood the Ballchat"

Cross

Q During this parade, what was the accused's duty
A He was in Guard detlon of 42 Coy awaiting trial. He came there from hospital I believe.
Q Did the accused have ample opportunity to comply with your order
A Yes I personally, warned him, cautioned him and told him again.

Cross Examine

Q Did this offence take place here
A No outside of Depot
Q Under what conditions was the accused living
A Guard room not large and held nine.
Q Was the accused under sentence or awaiting trial
A As far as I remember he was awaiting trial?

D.J

Q Nature of working party
A Carrying & Splitting Wood
Q Were these quarters damp, were beds provided.
A No beds were provided for soldiers awaiting trial or under punishment unless homemade Q Were beds allowed in D.R.
A No.
Q Were there any homemade beds in D.R.
A At some time previous days, soldiers from D.R. had brought in Tables D.R. and put them on the floor for beds. When I found them out I reported it to the Coy Cmdr and the tables were removed.
Q Were they sleeping on the tables or using them as beds
A They were using them as beds.
Q Was this working party the accused was ordered to join to remove these tables
A No Sir, to Split and Carry wood
Q When the accused refused the order, did you explain to him that the fat was necessary.
A He was given the order slowly. After he refused I gave him time to consider it and warned him. Then I ordered him to join the party.
Q Had you have previous trouble with the accused
A Not personally
Q Was the accused allowed to explain why he wanted to see the Capt
A Yes
Q What were his reasons for seeing the Capt
A The removal of the tables. ~~of~~ the tables ~~were~~ taken out and he would not work

Sam F40950 Sgt Ducette, P.R. 42 Coy 10 CBR Bn.

I was present on the 27 Nov 44 at approx 0930 hrs in the Guard Detention Room when CSM Gardner of 42 Coy ordered the accused who I now recognize to join a work party. He refused saying "No, I want to see the Sgt" CSM Gardner cautioned him that he was on active service and after a pause again repeated the order. The accused again refused saying "No I want to see the Sgt". During the above parade I heard the accused say "For Christ Sake, Cut out the Bullshit"

Q. Did the accused have ample opportunity to comply with the order?
A. Yes.
Q. Did the accused join the work party during that morning?
A. Not during the Parade I was on.

Cross Examine

Q. What were you doing at the Parade.
A. I was ordered there by the CSM.
Q. Did the accused say more than "For Christ Sake cut out the B.S."
A. not that I know of
Q. Had you any previous trouble with the accused.
A. Not Sir.

A approx eight feet

Q. Was the C.S.M and other NCO present as close as you

A. The C.S.M closer, the other Sgt at my side

Q. If headed the accused for the work party.

A. ~~Not that day~~ I'm not certain

Q. Have you ever had previous trouble with the accused

A. not personally, no.

Q. Did the C.S.M order you to attend the parade

A. Yes Sir

Q. Was that normal

A In Regulations as far as I know

Q. ~~How would the C.S.M order you both NCOs to be on that parade~~

Court Question. In regards to the words the accused used. ~~Can you tell us in what matter they were said.~~ Did they appear to be addressed to Anyone ~~in~~ particular or was it general grumbling

D7. (5)

A. Just a general remark to all concerned.

Q. Have you at any time heard others on parade make similar remarks?

A. Not on a CSMs parade.

Q. ~~After~~ Did you personally conduct the accused back to Guard Detention Room ~~from the last~~ after he had seen the Capt and ask if he would go to work.

A. ~~The~~ I'm not sure.

Q. Did the accused see the Capt before or after lunch.

A. I think it was after lunch.

FOURTH WITNESS (for defence) THE ACCUSED STATEMENT (unsworn)

I am D61796 Rfm DuBois E H.N. R.W.R. on strength of #1 Coy. 1 CBR Bn. On 27 Nov 44 there were eleven men on Guard Detention Room. Ten of us were using tables as beds to prevent the dampness of the floor coming up to us. Cpl Silk ordered us to take the tables out saying that it was the CSMs orders. To my knowledge the CSM did not know anything about it. We asked to see the CSM and he came into the Guard room to see what was wrong and Cpl Silk told him about the tables. The CSM then ordered the tables out and I tried to explain why I wanted a table to sleep on. The CSM would hear nothing so I took the table back to its original place and came back to the Guard room intending to make a complaint to the Capt. The CSM came with all the witnesses and ordered me to go to work. I did not actually refuse the order to work I just wanted to see the Capt. I did not see the Capt until I was brought on parade. I was then remanded to the CO. After being brought up to office at approx 1200 hrs Sgt Maywood escorted me back to the Guard Detention Room and he asked me if I would join the work party. I said yes and I went to work in the afternoon at approx 1330 hrs as to the obscene language I addressed it generally to the other defaulters saying perhaps "Oh for Christs sake, lets get out the R.S. and get back to

When Sgt Maywood took me back to Guard Rm Ablution room there were two other soldiers ~~under arrest~~ by ~~Lcpl~~ Sgt Maywood of the three we ~~were~~ would work and we said Yes:
(work) That is my statement Sir.

DG p2.

Cross Examine'

Q. You have said "No, I want to see the Capt" in your own statement. Is it your right to question the C.S.M's orders?

A. No Sir

Q. In other words, you believed your complaint entitled you to refuse to go to work

A. I had a complaint to make but it did not prevent me going to work.

Q. Did the C.S.M give you ample opportunity to go back to work.

A. I had an opportunity to go back to work.

1.2.206 Rfn Chambers G B of 42 Coy of 10 C.S.M. Bn. On 31/10/44 we came back for breakfast at about 0700 hrs and were ordered by Cpl Wilk to remove our tables which we used as beds. We were given the tables on C.S.M's authority. Asked the Cpl if we could see the C.S.M and the C.S.M came down and ordered us to remove the tables which we did. We were ordered to join a work party and asked to see the Capt. The C.S.M paraded the witnesses in the guard room and ordered us to join the work party. We were then placed on charge by him and left in the guard room for O.C's orders. We went upon O.C's orders about 1100 hrs and the C.S.M turned us over to Sgt Maywood and we were taken back to the guard room. We got our mess tins to go for dinner and Sgt Maywood asked us where we were going. So he was asked each man of us if we were going to join the work party or the offence. We said yes. So he took us for dinner. We worked that afternoon until 1630 hrs when we were called out for draft parade for draft to leave the station ~~and separated from the balance of the P.~~

D.G.P.4

Summary of Defence in the Divorce Case

The accused has made a statement under oath, corroborated by notes & witnesses for the defence as to the circumstances surrounding the alleged offence. These statements differ considerably in details from those statements made by witnesses for the prosecution. The Court has to take into account the evidence has not considered a matter of such importance as charges against any member of the army. The accused did not refuse his willingness to do the work required by the orderly & left the Captain and did not go to bed. The witnesses differ as to the time of his returning to work. The accused puts it that a grievance is the question of removal of tables and not the enemy could open at the time of adjustment. It is not a coincidence that the C.S.M. ordered his N.C.O.'s to attend the parade in order to have witnesses to the subsequent order to work. The C.S.M. must have expected trouble or else had previous trouble with those in guard detention. A little later the part of the C.S.M. could have worded this trouble I leave it to the military knowledge

D.G.P.6

The Prosecution summings up follows.

The essential ingredients of a charge under A A Sec 9(1) are referred to in page 17 Para 10 to which I wish to draw the courts attention. Namely, 1 that ~~it~~ a lawfull command was given by his superior ~~f~~ officer. This has been established by ~~evidence~~ witnesses C S M Gardner, Sgt Doucette & Sgt Wraywood.

2 That it was given personally by his superior officer has been established by C S M Gardner Sgt Doucette & ~~Sgt~~ Wraywood.

3 That the superior officer was in the execution of his office was clearly brought out by the fact that he was ~~ordered~~ by his coy commander to detail a working party, and in addition was C S M of the coy. 10 C B A Bn.

4 That the man disobeyed the order has been established by witnesses C S M Gardner Sgt Doucette & Sgt Wraywood. and also the fact that it was wilfull disobedience and he had ample opportunity to comply with the order given but did not. The accused himself admits to this effect.
Might I refer the court to Page 437. Footnote 3. of M.M.L. which reads -

5 That the accused used obscene language on a ~~C~~ S parade has been brought out three witnesses & admitted by himself & therefore has ~~been~~ I think the court will agree with me been guilty of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

Therefore in summing up I believe the court will agree with me that the accused is guilty on both charges.

The accused statement regarding tables in the guard room is immaterial, irrelevant and has no bearing on the charge.

The accused admits refusing to obey the C.S.M.'s order by saying he wasn't going to see the Capt, and refusing to give the work parties.

The witness for the defence Pte Chambers has admitted that he was in detention room for having A.W.L. He also admits that he is charged with the same offence as the accused. He also admit that he was amongst several soldiers who were in 10 C.B.A.B.O. guard room ~~2~~ ~~escaped~~ four days ago and therefore due to the character of this witness his statement cannot be considered as reliable. His statement regarding removal of tables from guard room is immaterial to the charges laid. His statement regarding Sgt Haywood escorting him back to the guard room has no bearing on the case and it could have been any Sgt to do this.

Plea in mitigation of sentence after finding of guilty of W.H. Hamilton L.G.

The accused joined the Canadian Army Active in June of 1940 coming overseas the same year. He landed in France on D plus 1 and remained in the front line four months before being wounded for battle exhaustion. He had served until previously August 5 this year. I submit that he has a clean record up until present and would ask the Court to consider this with his good soldierly conduct in mitigation of punishment.

Army Form A.3.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this twentyfifth day of April, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Cdn Inf Bde, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; ~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial to enforce it a superior qualified officer~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable

*~~I am unable to appoint more~~

*~~(a) Three Officers to form the Court.~~

*~~(b) A Field Officer as President.~~

*~~(c) Three Officers having more than one year~~

~~service.~~

~~[illegible]~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely, the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistant with Appendix "A" to D.R.O.772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

The Court called D 51044 Pte Boulais J. and was examined by the Court after being duly sworn.

Question - Is this the wireless set sold to you by Pte Dubois.

Answer - Yes.

The Court called D57632 Pte St M/artin P. who was duly sworn.

Question - Can you identify the wireless set as being the one which was stolen from you.

Answer - Yes.

The witness then produced Bill of sale, showing the Serial number and model number of the set which was on Exhibit by the Court. This document was examined by the Court & was returned to the witness as it was the only proof of his ownership.

Abstract of Evidence

In the case of D-56097, Pte. Jean Louis Dubois, "C" Coy. Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, Canadian Army (Active)

For the Prosecution
First Witness: D-57632 Pte. St. Martin, R. "C" Coy.
states

That on March 14th 1942, he went on a scheme in the morning, and when he returned at noon he noticed that his wireless receiving set had disappeared. He immediately informed his platoon commander of the fact. He then went to the Memorial Hall, Pevensey, in the afternoon where he was attending a course and in conversation with other soldiers of the unit, he stated that his radio had been stolen and gave a description of it. In consequence of information from Cpl. Langlois he saw Lieut. Valliere and passed on the information and the latter said he would take the matter in hand.

For the Prosecution
Second Witness: D-57044 Pte. Boulai, G. "D" Coy.

That during the first day of the month of March 1942, he happened to meet Pte. Dubois of "C" Coy. in Aero Cafe at Pevensey Bay, and that in the course of the conversation he asked Dubois if the latter knew of anyone who wanted to sell a radio. Dubois said he had one himself and would sell it for about £2.0.0 or £2.10.0 Dubois then said he would bring the wireless set in 2 or 3 days so it could be examined and tried. A few days later Dubois was met on the street by Boulai and the former said that his wireless set had been stolen but that he expected to be able to show him another one soon.
On March 14th 1942, sometime around noon, Dubois came along with a radio set which was given trial and as it was not in good working condition a price of £2.0.0 was agreed upon. At this very moment Dubois said he was selling the set for a friend. Boulai asked Dubois for a receipt for the money he was paying for the wireless set but Dubois said he could not write sufficiently well enough for that. Sgt. Boucher of "D" Coy. who happened to be there wrote the receipt which was signed by Dubois. Cpl. Langois was also present during the time that the transaction lasted.

For the Prosecution
Third Witness: D-56996 Cpl. Langlois, N. "D" Coy.
states

That on March 14th 1942, sometime around noon he saw and heard Pte. Dubois of "C" Coy. talking about the sale of a wireless set with Pte. Boulai of "D" Coy, and he saw the wireless set in question. That in the afternoon of the same day he went to Memorial Hall, Pevensey and there heard Pte. St. Martin giving a description of his wireless set to some other soldiers. He then informed Pte. St. Martin of what he had seen and heard in his billet at noon, as the radio set being described by St. Martin fitted with the set he had seen at noon.

For the Prosecution
Fourth Witness: D-56049, Sgt. Boucher, W. "D" Coy.
states

That on March 14th, 1942, sometime around noon he was in the men's billets when Pte. Dubois of "C" Coy sold a wireless set to Pte. Boulai and that Dubois said that he was selling said set for a friend. When Boulai gave Dubois the sum of £2.0.0 he asked for a receipt and Dubois said he could not write sufficiently well for that. He Boucher then offered to write the receipt if Dubois wanted to sign it and everyone agreed on that, and it was done. Dubois signed the receipt.

Taken down by me, at Pevensey, this 7th day of April 1942, in presence of the accused. Rules of Procedure complied with.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
In the case of:-

D.57097, Pte. Dubois J.L., "A" Coy., Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, Canadian Army (Overseas).

1st Witness:

I, Mrs Edith Dudley of Pevensey Bay, having been duly sworn, declare and state:

On Saturday, the 5 Jul. 41, I left my watch in my room on the dressing table and went down to the garden where I did some gardening. When I came back to my room I found that my watch had disappeared. I reported the fact to Capt. Masson.

Question: At what time did you leave your room and when did your return to it?
Answer I left my room at about 0915 hrs, and went back to it at 1200 hrs.

Edith Dudley
Mrs. Edith Dudley.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

2nd Witness:

I, Capt. J. Masson, Pay-master, Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A. (O), having been duly sworn, declare and state:

On Saturday th 5 Jul. 41, Mrs Dudley came to me and reported [illegible] I told her to make an inquiry to which I promised [illegible] attention. I reported the fact to the 2 i/c [illegible]. I told him that the disappearance of the watch could not be attributed to our orderlies [illegible] the men of "A" Coy. Pte. Tremblay L. and Pte. Dubois J.L. who at the time, were working in the mess on the second floor near Miss Dudley's room.

J. Masson
J. Masson, Captain.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

3rd Witness:

I, Major W. Lavigne, O.C. "A" Coy., Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A. (O), having been duly sworn, declare and state:

As Coy. Comdr. of "A" Coy, I was called around 2230 hrs., by Lieut.-Colonel Brosseau who told me [illegible] to Miss Dudley, living in the hotel which he used as billets for the officers. Soon, [illegible] D.57097, Pte. Dubois J.L. and Pte. Tremblay A. were on fatigue duty in the mess, [illegible]. I went to the Bn Orderly Room with Lieut. R.R. Brosseau and sent for Pte. Dubois to question him. I asked Pte. Dubois if he had the watch to which he replied in the negative. Then I ordered him to empty his pockets. From one of his pockets Pte. Dubois took out a watch and gave it to me. I handed in the watch to Lieut.-Col. Brosseau who had it identified by Miss Dudley. I was then given the order [illegible].

W. Lavigne
W. Lavigne, Major.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

4th Witness:

I, Lieut. R.R. Bibeau, O.C. #9 Pl. "A" Coy, Le Regiment de Maisonneuve, C.A. (O), having been duly sworn, declare and states:

As O.C. of #9 Pl., I know Pte Dubois to be a good soldier with a good conduct.

On the 5 Jul. 41, around 2300 hrs, I was asked by Major Lavigne ~~to come in Orderly Room with him to question Pte. Dubois, suspected of having taken a watch belonging to Miss Dudley of Pevensey Bay~~. On Major Lavigne's order I sent Sgt. Beaulieu to get Pte. Dubois.

Major Lavigne asked Pte. Dubois if he had the watch to which he denied having it. He was then ordered by Major Lavigne to empty his pockets. When emptying the right pocket of his blouse, Pte. Dubois took out a watch that he ~~handed~~ to Major Lavigne.

Some time after Pte. Dubois admitted to me ~~that he had taken the watch.~~

(R. R. Bibeau), Lieutenant,

The accused edlines to cross-examine the witness.

Questions to the accused:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

Answer of the accused:

"I have nothing to say".

Rules of procedure 4 (c-d-e) have been complied with.

This summary of Evidence was taken by me, in the presence of the accused, at Pevensey, England, this 9th day of July, 1941.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or ~~JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans ..... (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (1). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty ~~is~~ (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans ..... (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF 695. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 34(2) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 34(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable where there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans ..... No .....

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (b), and (ii) they purport to refer to [a] soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 253 or AFB 294. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes, in mitigation if punishment, but as exhibit D (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 34(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)

(1. Where several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Con 308, 326, 343-344, Overseas 40, 209, 1323, MML p 60, 737-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 4 (1)(b), MML p 136. Where accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1)(c), 68(1), KR Con 364. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Con 367. As to assembly and dispersal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

PLEA OF MITIGATION

in the Case of.

H-37328 Pte René Rochon DuBois (RCAMC)

Gentlemen of the Court:-

Pte Dubois is a soldier of 26 years old "A" Category, remustered from RCASC to RCAMC.

He enlisted Jan 41, arrived U.K. March 42 and landed in France July 44.

In action he is with his section as stretcher bearer att to an inf. regt. He likes his work but as usual because he likes it, he is posted at the H.Q. of his unit (18th Fd Ambulance) Here he asked going with forward troops but no attention to him, he felt unhappy and went AWL. I recommend his case to this Court, considering his conduct, his long service and he will be glad serving his country again!

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 68(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 2. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his ~~(their)~~ plea(s) of Guilty ~~to Not Guilty to~~ charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) ~~(his) (their)~~ change(s) his (their) plea(s) (it) ~~(them)~~ charge(s). Part 1 of the Schedule is amended accordingly(2). JJP JJP

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. ~~On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part 1 of the Schedule.~~(1) JJP

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex X, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and masking on appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. ~~No~~ (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 3.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF para E. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 84(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(b).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative pronouncement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans. Yes (marked 'B' att)

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Services(1), and certified true copy (~~copies~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(3) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and ~~D~~ respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 353 or AFB 294. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 27(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). *One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF D-123132 PTE. DUBOIS T
85 CDN BRIDGE COY R.C.A.S.C. A SOLDIER OF THE CDN ARMY OVERSEAS

The Officer Commanding directs that all evidence be taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS Capt. J.R. Godfrey Elliott 146336 REME att to 143 Fd Pk Sqn RE having been duly sworn states:

"I am Capt. J.R. Godfrey Elliott of REME. On 6 Nov 44 at approximately 1230 hrs, I saw outside of my area a private motor car standing between two army vehicles and at the back of the motor car was a civilian and a soldier talking. I waited a few minutes and the soldier saw me, he then started to walk around the car and I approached him. I then asked him whose car it was, he replied "it is mine". I asked him what he meant by saying it was his motor car and he replied to this question "I stole the car when I was up forward and as I cannot use it I am selling it to this gentleman". I then asked him for his name and unit. I approached the civilianx and asked him his name and address. I then took the car registration number, make and engine n mber. Having done this I started to walk away and just as I was about to leave both of them the driver Dubois remarked "an American officer gave it to me". I then reported this to Major Bloomer O.C. 143 Fd Pk Sqn RE.

The accused proceeded to cross examine the witness.

Q. Did you see me sell petrol?

A. No.

The accused declined to further cross examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS Mr. Johannes Gerardessy ERAS of Bosscherueg 7, Tilburg having been duly sworn states:

"I am the owner of Piquor Saloon Car Registration No. N-47678 and on Monday 6 Nov 44 I lent it to a soldier who I had met on previous days outside my fathers house, No. 84 Oefairkestroat. I lent him the car at about 9.30 AM to drive where he wanted. At abo t 1215 hrs I returned to my fathers house when I saw my car and the soldier who had borrowed it. He thanked me for the use of it and gave me three litres of petrol from a can which he took from the side of an army vehicle. I think the can contained about 20 litres.
The soldier who borrowed the car from me was short with dark hair, but I do not know his name.
Being in front of me now, I do recognize the soldier as being the man to whom I lent my car.

Statement of Mitigation by Defending Officer

I feel that though the accused has technically committed the offence the amount stolen and circumstances surrounding incident form strong motives for mitigation. Accused had got to Ruda Estate a young lady. He borrowed the car with the owners consent to take his lady friend for a ride and gave the petrol out of gratitude. The accused committed the offence more in a social mood than a criminal. He obtained no money or gain himself. I request the Court to be lenient as it was foolishness rather than Criminal.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)
President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ~~I am sorry I did it~~ (5)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to ~~change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on~~ charge(s). ~~The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) to~~ charge(s). ~~Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty ~~was~~ (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ~~A~~ C initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(*1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. E-1. STATEMENT BY ACCUSED
(UNDER OATH)

At the time mentioned in Henrietta Street one of the Provost asked me to take a pail and brush and put some water into it and took me upstairs to the Provosts quarters and asked me to scrub the floor. I said I don't think I Have to do that. They took me down stairs xxxxxx to another cell then the Sergeant of the Provost corps came down and asked me "Do you refuse to wash the floor upstairs?" and I said I still think that I dont have to do it. The Sergeant then said "Do you refuse to wash the cell floor" I said no. He said "I will put you on charge for refu sing to obey an order," so there was nothing else I could do about it. The next day I was still in there, and they asked me to scrub the floor again where I was in the cell so I did wash the cell and the floor. I did not say I would not wash the floor I merely said I did not think it was my duty to do it. I did not wash the floor upstairs. There was a pail and brush there. I had a chance to start washing the floor but instead I xxxxxx asked a question.

ADDITION BY DEF OFFR

respecting the 2nd charge I would like to bring out that the accused did not make a statement to the effect that he would not carry out the order but merely expressed the opinion that he did not think it was his duty to carry out this command. The NCO made no attempt to explain to him that it was his duty and give him a 2nd chance with the knowledge that the NCO would have given him so therefore he should not receive a heavy sentence for this offence.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

HAF President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No. (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

HAF B3. ~~The Court overrules the accused's statement.~~ The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his HAF ~~(their)~~ plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on the charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) HAF ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) to (of)~~ charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

HAF B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

HAF B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex X, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making any appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para. If submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D5.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Pte. J. Dubrow

Sir:

The accused Pte J. Dubrow D 86247 has been charged by the prosecutor of absenting himself without leave for eleven days, ten hours, however before the court passes sentence, there are a few facts I should like to bring before you.

The reason for the accused going absent without leave was to get his wife, who is going to have a baby, out of London, where she was staying, to some safer place, doing this on the advice of the doctor in charge of the case. As soon as it was possible to get a place out of the danger zone, he returned, on his own, to camp.

In looking over the M.F.M.'s of the accused, as there is only one small crime marked against him, in over two years service, it's easy to see that this man wants to soldier, but the fact that his wife was in danger and in the condition she is in, it's only natural that he would want to do something about it.

I don't mean to imply that the accused was justified in taking the matter into his own hands and going absent, but considering the position he was placed in and the fact that he has a comparatively clean record, I would ask the court to give this due consideration before passing sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

D.86247, Pte. Jack DUBROW, CIC, 13 Bn, 2 CBRG, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, all evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lt. W.A. Murray, Records Officer, 13 Bn, 2 CBRG, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt. W.A. Murray, Records Officer, 13 Bn, 2 CBRG, and present the following document pertaining to the accused D.86247, Pte. Dubrow, J."

Exh."A". Part II Orders X-List Inf. Gen. Unallocated No. 110 dated 19 Jul 44 issued by Cdn. Sec. GHQ, 2nd Echelon, 21 Army Group, showing D.86247 Pte Dubrow, J, as AWL from 0800 hrs 30 Jun 44 until 1800 hrs 11 Jul 44.

W.A. Murray

(W.A. Murray) Lt.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

The accused was cautioned in accordance with Rules of Procedure 4 (e) of the Army Act.

THE ACCUSED MADE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT:

"The reason why I went AWL was because I was worried about my wife as she is living in London and is seven months pregnant, A soldier friend of mine had told me that his wife had a miscarriage due to shock caused by the recent buzz-bombs raids, and, in addition, while I was in London a doctor at the clinic my wife was attending told me the miscarriages were very prevalent these days.

I endeavoured to have my wife evacuated from London but there was considerable delay and finally on 10 Jul 44 arrangements had been completed so on 11 Jul 44 I returned to camp."

J. Dubrow

(D.86247, Pte. Dubrow, J)

"I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that rules of procedure 4 (c) (d) and (e) have been complied with."

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 37(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 5.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a appropriate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 5.

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. I will make a statement. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans. Yes Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. NO SIR.

Closing address of the Defence:-

DEF OFFER ON THE FINDING

It would seem unreasonable that a man with as good a record as that of the accused should suddenly - for no apparent reason - overstay his leave. Accordingly the Defence has produced conclusive proof that the domestic relations of the accused are far from satisfactory, and further that these conditions have existed for the past seven months. In all this time and even while under the duress of actual battle, the accused has constantly had this in the back of his mind.

The Court has heard the evidence of a competant medical authority: that the accused has reason to doubt the parentage of the child, and that under severe emotional strain or worry, certain individuals may re-act abnormally. -- And certainly, we are hearing everyday of similar cases -- in which the resultant crimes have been even more serious than the one for which the accused has been arraigned before this Court.

The Defence contends, therefore, that due to the unsatisfactory domestic relations, the fact that he was only just free of hospitalization and battle conditions, and the sudden advent of complete freedom accorded him in leave, the accused was-for a time - mentally unstable -- and being so -- was not responsible for his actions.

PROS ON THE FINDING

The Pros. submits on the evidence brought before the Court by the Prosecution.

The Court is closed to consider the Finding

The Defence In Plea Of Mitigation Of Sentence

The Court has just heard verification of the excellent service record of the accused and it is hardly necessary to re-iterate the extenuating circumstances of this case, for everything that can be used in mitigation of sentence has already been thoroughly explored in the Defence of the accused.

If it is witnin the jurisdiction of this Court, the Defence suggests that It direct that an investigation be commenced concerning the domestic relations of the accused, for it is certainly not right that a man be asked to serve his country under such conditions, and the sooner everything is straightened out, the better for all concerned.

STATEMENT by L-39129 Pte. DUBUQUE, John Thomas.

"On the 27 July 1943, I left Sussex, New Brunswick on furlough and embarkation leave. I arrived home on the 30th of July 1943. On the 2nd or 3rd of August 1943, I left to visit my mother. However, before I left, my wife and I had a quarrel over my going. I returned home on the 4th or 5th of August 1943 to find that my wife had gone but had left a note - stating that if I wanted to run around the country I was free to do so. I remained around home awaiting the return of my wife - even to the extent of overstaying my leave three days - but she failed to do so. I turned myself in to the Provost at Saskatoon and when I explained the circumstances, they fixed things up. I arrived back in Sussex on or around the 1st of Sept 1943."

"The above evidence was given by me, under oath, on the 14th day of February 1945."

.....

(J.T. Dubuque) Private.

Evidence as to the domestic relations of L-39129 Pte. DUBUQUE, John Thomas given by Major J.S. Edmondson, who is not available for the trial.

"I, Major J.S. Edmondson, during the period June and [illegible] of the year 1944, was a Company Commander of the South Saskatchewan Regiment. Whilst so employed, I had under my command - L-39129 Pte. DUBUQUE, John Thomas.

In June of 1944, it was drawn to my attention that, although Pte. DUBUQUE was writing home, he was not receiving any mail. Also, in the due process of censorship, it was quite apparent that all was not right at home. Accordingly I called him before me and learnt of his feelings, doubts, and misgivings. It would appear that a child had been born to his wife - some ten months after his departure from her. The question arose in his mind as to whether this child was legitimately his son. I instructed him to write his wife to the effect that unless the question of the legitimacy of the child was satisfactorily straightened out in his mind, an investigation would be begun. However, before an answer could be received the Regiment, early in July 1944, embarked for France. Before departure to the thestre of operations Pte. DUBUQUE was instructed to report this matter to his Company Commander (whoever that might be) sometime around the 21st of July 1944. However due to the rapid changes of command and existing conditions he may not have been able to do so. To the best of my knowledge, no reply was ever received and due to the exigencies of the service no further action was taken, whilst I was in command."

"The above evidence was given by me, under oath, on the 9th day of February 1945."

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President of ~~J A, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(I. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO SIR (5)
(I. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E, on p 5.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (4). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly~~
(I. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(I. RP 25(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex R, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(I. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is constituted by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(I. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read ~~to~~ him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B5 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(I. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by comparing with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 5.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(I. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(I. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(I. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(I. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ! Ans.....
(I. RP 105. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(I. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42. 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(I. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or. The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(I. AA 54(3) (c), RP 43, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 107. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans. YES SIR NOTE-ATT
(I. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Services(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by A A 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT OF

D.106735 Cpl Dubreuil,G.

1. While we pleaded guilty to the charge of A.W.L. as the accused cannot deny that charge, had he been allowed to tell his story, he feels sure the Court would have understood, at least partially, the reason for him temporarily loosing his head and going A.W.L.

2. He has had a lot of family trouble since he left Canada in 1940. He has eight children and due to his wife's neglect, has been terribly worried about them.

3. First in 1941 he was advised that his wife had given birth to a child, the father being an English Air Force Officer, secondly that the Government in their investigation found his children living under conditions that were deplorable. He returned to Canada in 1942 on A.P.C.'s. Escort and rectified this situation to the best of his ability and with the help of his former employer placed his children in an Orphanage, also obtaining a seperation from his wife, then returned to this country to rejoin his Unit.

4. Subsequently he went to Sicily with the 1st Division was torpedoed on the way out and spent about four hours in the water and was injured in the chest. He eventually had to be returned to this country. While over there in action he managed to earn first one stripe and then his second so his record as a soldier in the field must have been good.

5. While in Italy he also received word from his Mother that the children had been taken from the Orphanage by his wife, and was therefore considerably worried about their welfare. He went to see his C.O. about this and also about getting a divorce and was told the circumstances would be investigated, that he would not have much difficulty in getting a divorce and could obtain one for about $125.00. After he had returned to this country, while he was in the 11th General Hospital at Taplow he received a wire from C.M.H.Q. asking him to call on them to discuss his proposed divorce. He applied for a 48 hour pass and got it, which shows that his intentions were good and that his going A.W.L. later was not premeditated, however on his arrival at C.M.H.Q. he was advised that the cost of his divorce would be around $650.00 and knowing that it would be impossible for him to pay this amount and worried sick about the health and fate of his children, he lost his head and decided to try to get back to Canada.

6. It shouldnot be hard to realize the state of this mans mind, tormented about the fate of his children, disappointed at the result of his interview at C.M.H.Q. and in ill health, he lost temporary control of himself, deciding to try and get a boat to take him back to Canada where he could trace and look after his children himself. All this time from the time he got the letter from his mother in Italy he had no word of his children or their whereabouts.

7. This was impossible to do however and on September 11th he surrendered himself to the Military Police in London. A point I would like to emphasize and one I hope, will be taken into consideration. He has seen service both in Sicily and Italy, was promoted to a Corporal there and if affairs at home had been alright it is reasonable to assume that this would never have occurred.

8. May I therefore request consideration be given by the Court to all these facts and taken into account when awarding sentence.

9. May I also recommend or suggest that this man who went A.W.L. while in Hospital be given a reboard to ascertain his exact physical fitness at the present time as according to opinions given to him, he says, by M.O's of the various Hospitals he was in, he was supposed to be suffering from some form of heart trouble and physically unfit.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED (IN MITIGATION) NOTE E-1

Sir,

First I heard of my children was when I was brought to 1 CSRU, yesterday I was informed by the pay office that I had seven, I have eight, they didn't want to tell me that my eldest girl has died, she was my eldest daughter and I knew that she has had spinalmeningitis. I have worried so much of my family that I really don't quite know what I'm doing half the time, I have told it all to my Defending Officer which he has read to you. I would like the Court to recommend me for a medical board and send me home so that I could get my family together again.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. N.C. S.I.R.(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

~~B3. The Court considers the accused's statement (1). The Court declines (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) changes/do) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 17(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. ~~As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8~~ inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(B) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence need as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial proceeds as directed by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using ~~Record Form E on p 3~~.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

~~D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules~~ relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 90(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. .....

Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. .....

Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116; for procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order; CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if on his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(2) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using ~~Record Form E below~~.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans. N.C. S.I.R.

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence

In the case of D 641268 Pte Ducas Romeo.

The accused has chosen not to present any defence, but to thrust himself ~~on~~ the lineancy of the Court. Pte Ducas wishes however to stress the fact that although he has been in the Army for three years and three months, it is only the second time he is on charge. As to the reasons that urged him to go away for the period of time for which he is charged, he would like the Court to realize that he has gone through five years of unhappy married life and whereas he does not wish to divulge all his matrimonial problems to the Court, he would like the Court to believe that he absented himself from the Army, to try to forget his troubles.

The Accused trusts the Court will consider those points before passing sentence and will be lineant in doing so.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. N C (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty ~~is~~ (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of N/A Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE: in the case of D-58111 Pte Ducasse, A., Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, a soldier of the Canadian Army, placed on Active Service.

The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRSTWITNESS Capt M.A. Cardinal, Le Regiment de la chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Capt M.A. Cardinal, Adjt of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1700 hrs the 5th Oct 1944, I was in the Ops Room De Chaud where Lieut Trempe was on duty. I was writing on a table, when I was pushed by a soldier. I turned around and I saw Pte Ducasse, whom I recognize now as being the accused, going towards Lieut trempe who was sitting. I heard Pte Ducasse say to Lieut Trempe, "C'est toi, mon Christ, qui m'a xx fait transferrer de Cie." (It is you, Christ, who had me transferred in a Coy. When saying that, he struck Lieut Trempe in the face with his fist. I jumped on him and held his arms behind his back to stop him hitting. He freed himself and went on striking Lieut Trempe with his open hand. xx Then I ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him tight, and I said to Lieut Trempe to walk out room. I walked out myself, and ordered L/Cpl Leblanc to put Pte Ducasse under close arrest, I noticed that Pte Ducasse was in an advanced state of drunkenness, in that he was mumbling, he could not walk straight and he could not listen to common sense. Pte Ducasse was not then fit to do his duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, on the 5th Oct 1944, I was duty officer from 1400 hrs to 1800 hrs at the Ops Room R de Chaud. At about 1710 hrs on the 5th Oct 1944, Cpl Amyot came in to tell me that Pte Ducasse insisted on see me. He hardly finished telling me so, that Pte Ducasse walked in, worked his way through the room, and coming towards me, said something I did not understand. Then, facing me, he struck me in the face with his fist. The Adjt. Capt Cardinal ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him and told me to go outside. I went out and approximat ly one minute later, Pte Ducasse came out and started following me. He, then, tried to strike me again, but fell down. When Pte Ducasse came in the Ops Room, at about 1710 hrs, he was in advance state of drunkenness. He was not steady on his feet, and he could not walk straight, and was mumbling unintelligible words. He was not in a state to do any kind of military duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS E-11066 L/Cpl Blais, H., of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1710 hrs, on 5th Oct 1944, I was on duty in the Ops Room, I saw Pte Ducasse coming in and walk towards Lieut Trempe. He told him: "Can you tell why you had me transferred to a Coy." Lieut Trempe answered him: "It is not your business and your place is not here". Pte Ducasse then told him: "mon Christ je m'en vais te montrer a qui t'a affaire." (you, Christ, I am going to show you whom you are dealing with). Right after, he struck Lieut Trempe with his right fist. Lieut Trempe ordered me to take Pte Ducasse outside and to hold him until the Provost had arrived. I took hold of Pte Ducasse then Lieut Trempe walked out. In the meantime Pte Ducasse walked out alone and I did not see him afterwards.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

"H. Blais"

E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H.

FOURTH WITNESS E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1730 hrs on 5th of Oct 1944, I was ordered to apprehend Pte Ducasse who was drunk. He was lying down asleep in a field along the road. I woke him up, he got up on his feet and walked with me to the Ops Room. He was not walking straight. He was smelling of liquor, he was mumbling and hard to understand. I know Pte Ducasse very weal and I can tell that he was not normal and not fit to do any military duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1730 hrs on 5th of Oct 1944, I was ordered to apprehend Pte Ducasse whom I was told was drunk. I tried to catch him up on the road, but he was trying to escape by running away when I was getting close to him. I would have caught him immediately, but I had a sore leg. I saw him trying to hide himself in a little bush in the field. When I got near him, I asked him to come along with me. He answered that he would come if I was able to force him to. I got closer to hold him. He then kick me on the leg and hit me in the face with his open hand. I, then, forced him to lay down, and after he got xx asleep I went away to get a Jeep in order to take him down and put him close arrest.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED
Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED
No sir, I reserve my defence.

This summary of evidence consisting of two pages has been taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this 7th day of Octer 1944. I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

Signed in the Field

R.L. Boulanger, Capt.
Le Regiment de la Chaudiere
Officer detailed to take this Summary.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE I am D-58111 Pte Andre DUCASSE, Regt de Chaud, sworn, state:

On 5 Oct 1944 while we were in Belgium before the campagn in Holland I had an opportunity of buying a bottle of cognac. I drank all of it and then I did not remember what happened afterwards. The following morning I was told what I had done the previous day while under the influence of liquor.

SECOND WITNESS FOR DEFENCE I am Lieut D.A.J. Pare, Regt de la Chaud, sworn.

I have known the accused Pte Duncasse, for about one week. He is a very reliable man in action and all the time he has worked with me I must praise his work. Twice I granted him 48 hrs leave and it was cancelled because he was under close arrest but after considering his case he was granted leave. He did a wonderful job during the last operation and his pl comd begged me to come to his trial as a character witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR DEFENCE I am E-109086 Sgt R Amyot, Regt de la Chaud.

I have known the accused Pte Ducasse since Feb 1943. I have worked with Pte Ducasse in the same pl and he has always been a very good soldier. He fought alongside me in the different operations in France and in Holland, and I have absolutely nothing to say against him. He always follod me wherever I went.

While in Holland though Pte Ducasse had been transferred to another Coy, when I asked him to assist me in building a bridge he gave me every assistance.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT IN THE CASE OF

D-58111 Pte DUCASSE A., R de Chaud

Gentlemen of the Court:

The one charge standing out among the others, is that the accused struck an officer of the Cdn Army, who was on duty at the time. This give one a wrong impression of the facts, for I believe that this is not quite correct. If one looks more closely and studies the facts we will clearly see that the reason why an officer and an NCO were struck is, because the accused was in a state of drunkenness to such an extent that he did not know what he was doing. I know that this cannot be taken as an excuse, for drunkenness is never an excuse for one to do things one should not do, but the state of blind drunkenness makes one loose his head, unfortunately, I am sure that ~~xxxxxx~~ had the accused been sober, none of this would have happened. The accused quite understands that he did wrong, this has been proved by his pleading guilty, and admitting his crimes, though he did not know about it until he was told later on by someone else. The accused has been in the Army four years and half, during which time, he only had 2 charges, in 4½ years of service, charges are not against a mans all round behaviour. Lt Pare & Sgt Amyot have stated that the accused was a very valuable man in action, and this is the things which counts, most. I beg of the court to take into consideration the few points I very briefly put into light and to be as kindhearted as possible, so that the accused can be brought back to his unit quickly and prove once more his extremely good capacities as a fighting man, wishing for nothing else but for the estruction of all the German Army.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of J A see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of J A or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed. He (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty are (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, B6(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(6).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans Yes, later.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 353 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes Sir, I was in Def. Offr (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to answer on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 40, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges on all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 363-366, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 90, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(3), MML p 130. (R. L. Boulanger) Capt.

FIRST WITNESS FOR DEFENCE

I am D58111 Pte André DUCASSE, Regt de Chaud. Sworn On 5 Oct 1944 while we were in Belgium before the campaign in Holland I had an opportunity of buying a bottle of Cognac. I drank all of it and then I did not remember what happened afterwards. The following morning I was told what I had done the previous day while under the influence of liquor.

SECOND WITNESS FOR DEFENCE

I am Lieut D.A.S. Parr, Regt de la Chaud sworn
I have known the accused Pte Ducasse, for about one week. He is a very reliable man in action and all the time he has worked with me I must praise his work. Since I granted him 48 hrs leave and it was cancelled because he was under close arrest but after reconsidering his case he was granted leave. He did a wonderful job during the last operation and his pl Comd begged me to come to his trial as a character witness.

THIRD WITNESS
FOR DEFENCE

I am E 109056 Sgt R. Arnyot, Regt de la Chaud.
I have known the accused, Pte Ducasse since Feb 1943. I have worked with Pte Ducasse in the same pl and he has always been a very good soldier. He fought alongside me in the different operations in France and in Holland, and I have absolutely nothing to say against him. He always followed me wherever I went.
While in Holland though Pte Ducasse had been transferred to another Coy when I asked him to assist me in building a bridge he gave me every assistance.

4th WITNESS: E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

I am E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1700 hrs, the 5th Oct 1944, I saw pte Ducasse who was drunk. He was lying down asleep in a field along the road. I woke him up, he got up on his feet and walked with me to the Ops, Room. He was not walking straigth, he was smelling liquor, he was mumbling and hard to understand. I know Pte Ducasse very well and I can tell that he was not normal and not fit to do any military duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R.
Le Regiment de la Chaudiere.

5th WITNESS: E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

I am E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1730 hrs, on 5th of Oct 1944, I was ordered to apprehend Pte Ducasse whom I was told was drunk. I tried to catch him up on the road, but he was trying to escape by running away when I was getting close to him. I would have caught him immediately, but I had a sore leg. I saw him trying to hide himself in a little bush in the field. When I got near him, I asked him to come along with me. He answered that he would come if I was able to force him to. I got closer to hold him. He, then, kick me on the leg and hit me in the face with his open hand. I, then, forced him to lay down, and after he got asleep, I went away to get a Jeep in order to take him down and put him close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

QUESTION: to the accused:
Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?
You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but, whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

ANSWER by the accused:

No, Sir, I reserve my defence.

This summary of evidence consisting of two pages has been taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this 7th day of October 1944. I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E), (F), (and (G), have been complied with.

Exhibit "A"

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE, in the case of D-58111 Pte Ducasse A., Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, a soldier of the Canadian Army, placed on Active ~~ex~~ Service.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st WITNESS: Capt M.A. Cardinal, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt M.A. Cardinal, Adjt. Of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, At About 1700 hrs, the 5th Oct 1944, I was in the Ops. Room R.de.Chaud where Lieut. Trempe was on duty. I was writing on a table, when I was pushed by a soldier. I turned around and I saw Pte Ducasse, whom I recognize now as beeing the accused, going towards Lieut Trempe who was sitting. I heard Pte Ducasse say to Lieut Trempe: " C'est toi, mon Christ, qui m'a fait transferrer de Cie."(It is you, Christ, who had me transferred in a Coy.) When saying that, he struck Lieut Trempe in the face whith his fist. I jumped on him and haid his arms behind his back to stopps him hitting. He freed himself and went on striking Lieut Trempe with his open hand. Then, I ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him tight, and I said to Lieut Trempe to walk out the room. I walked out myself, and ordered L/Cpl Leblanc to put Pte Ducasse under close arrest. I noticed that Pte Ducasse was in ~~and~~ an advanced state of drunkenness, in that he was sumbling, he could not walk ~~straigth~~ straigth and he could not listen to common sense. Pte Ducasse was not then fit to do his duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

M.A. Cardinal
(M.A. Cardinal)Capt
Le Regiment de la Chaudiere.

2nd WITNESS: Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

I am Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, On the ~~5th~~ 5th Oct 1944, I was duty Officer from 1400 hrs to 1800 hrs, at the Ops, Room R.de Chaud. At about 1710 hrs, on the 5th Oct 1944, Cpl Amyot came in to tell me that Pte Ducasse insisted to see me. He hardly finished telling ~~to~~ me, that Pte Ducasse walked in, worked his way through the room, and, coming towards me, said something I did not understand. Then, facing me, he struck me in the face with his fist. The Adjt, Capt Cardinal, ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him and told me to go outside. I went out, and approximately, one minute later, Pte Ducasse came out and started following me. He, then, tried to strike me again, but fell down. When Pte Ducasse came in the Ops, Room, at about 1710 hrs, he was in an advanced state of drunkenness. He was not steady on his feet, he could not walk straigth, and was sumbling unintelligible words. He was not in a state to do any kind of military duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

P.O. Trempe
(P.O. Trempe) Lieut
Le Regiment de la Chaudiere.

3rd WITNESS: E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

I am E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H. of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1710 hrs, on 5th of Oct 1944, I was on duty in the Ops, Room, I saw Pte Ducasse coming in and walk towards Lieut Trempe. He told him:" can you tell why you had me transferred to a Coy." Lieut Trempe answered him:" it is not your business and your place is not here." Pte Ducasse then told him:" mon Christ je m'en vais te montrer a qui t'a affaire," (you, Christ, I am going to show you whom you are dealing with) Right after, he struck Lieut Trempe with his right fist. Lieut Trempe ordered me to take Pte Ducasse outside and to hold him until the Provost had arrived. I took hold of Pte Ducasse and then Lieut Trempe walked out. In the meantime, Pte Ducasse walked out alone and I did not see him afterwards.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Plea of mitigation of punishment in the case of Pvt Smith, Pvt Duncan, & Pvt Clark

Gentlemen of the Court.

The one charge standing out among the others, is that the accused struck an Officer of the Ceylon Army, who was on duty at the time. This gives us a wrong impression of the facts for I believe that this is not quite correct. If we look more closely & examine the facts we will clearly see that the reason why we, privates & N.C.O. were struck, is because the accused was in a state of drunkenness & such an extent that he did not know what he was doing. I know that this can not be taken as an excuse, for drunkenness is never an excuse for me to do things we should not do, but the state of that drunkenness makes me take the next opportunity I am sure that has the accused has seen some of the events from the past. The accused pulls understands that he did wrong this has been proved by the pleasing guilty, and admitting his crimes, though he did not know about it until he was told later on by someone else. The accused has been in the army for years and half, during which time, he only had 2 charges, in 4½ years of service, this 2 charges are not against a man of abnormal behaviour. It has often been stated that the accused was a very valuable man in action, and this is the thing which counts most. I beg of the Court to take into consideration the few points I very humbly put into light, and if to be as kind-hearted as possible, so that the accused can be brought back to his unit quickly, and prove once more his extremely good qualities as a fighting man, wanting nothing else but for the destruction of all Germans

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE: in the case of D-58111 Pte Ducasse, A., Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, a soldier of the Canadian Army, placed on Active Service.

The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Capt M.A. Cardinal, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Capt M.A. Cardinal, Adjt of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1700 hrs the 5th Oct 1944, I was in the Ops Room De Chaud where Lieut Trompe was on duty. I was writing on a table, when I was pushed by a soldier. I turned around and I saw Pte Ducasse, whom I recognize now as being the accused, going towards Lieut trempe who was sitting. I heard Pte Ducasse say to Lieut Trempe, "C'est toi, mon Christ, qui m'a fait transferrer de Cie." (It is you, Christ, who had me transferred in a Coy. When saying that, he struck Lieut Trempe in the face with his fist I jumped on him and held his arms behind his back to stop him hitting. He freed himself and went on striking Lieut Trempe with his open hand. Then I ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him tight, and I said to Lieut Trempe to walk out room. I walked out myself, and ordered L/Cpl Leblanc to put Pte Ducasse under close arrest, I noticed that Pte Ducasse was in an advanced state of drunkenness, in that he was mumbling, he could not walk straight and he could not listen to common sense. Pte Ducasse was not then fit to do his duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut P.O. Trempe, Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, on the 5th Oct 1944, I was duty officer from 1400 hrs to 1800 hrs at the Ops Room R de Chaud. At about 1710 hrs on the 5th Oct 1944, Cpl Amyot came in to tell me that Pte Ducasse insisted on see me. He hardly finished telling me so, that Pte Ducasse walked in, worked his way through the room, and coming towards me, said something I did not understand. Then, facing me, he struck me in the face with his fist. The Adjt, Capt Cardinal ordered L/Cpl Blais to hold him and told me to go outside. I went out and approximat ly one minute later, Pte Ducasse came out and started following me. He, then, tried to strike me again, but fell down. When Pte Ducasse came in the Ops Room, at about 1710 hrs, he was in advance state of drunkenness. He was not steady on his feet, and he could not walk straight, and was mumbling unintelligible words. He was not in a state to do any kind of military duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS E-11066 L/Cpl Blais, H., of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1710 hrs, on 5th Oct 1944, I was on duty in the Ops Room, I saw Pte Ducasse coming in and walk towards Lieut Trempe. He told him: "Can you tell why you had me transferred to a Coy." Lieut Trempe answered him: "It is not your business and your place is not here". Pte Ducasse then told him: "mon Christ je m'en vais te montrer a qui t'a affaire." (you, Christ, I am going to show you whom you are dealing with). Right after, he struck Lieut Trempe with his right fist. Lieut Trempe ordered me to take Pte Ducasse outside and to hold him until the Provost had arrived. I took hold of Pte Ducasse then Lieut Trempe walked out. In the meantime Pte Ducasse walked out alone and I did not see him afterwards.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

"H. Blais"
E-11066 L/Cpl Blais H.

FOURTH WITNESS E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-109086 A/Cpl Amyot R of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1730 hrs on 5th of Oct 1944, I was ordered to apprehend Pte Ducasse who was drunk. He was lying down asleep in a field along the road. I woke him up, he got up on his feet and walked with me to the Ops Room. He was not walking straight. He was smelling of liquor, he was mumbling and hard to understand. I know Pte Ducasse very well and I can tell that he was not normal and not fit to do any military duty.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-9362 L/Cpl Leblanc A of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere. At about 1730 hrs on 5th of Oct 1944, I was ordered to apprehend Pte Ducasse whom I was told was drunk. I tried to catch him up on the road, but he was trying to escape by running away when I was getting close to him. I would have caught him immediately, but I had a sore leg. I saw him trying to hide himself in a little bush in the field. When I got near him, I asked him to come along with me. He answered that he would come if I was able to force him to. I got closer to hold him. He then kick me on the leg and hit me in the face with his open hand. I, then, forced him to lay down, and after he got xx asleep I went away to get a Jeep in order to take him down and put him close arrest.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED
Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED
No sir, I reserve my defence.

This summary of evidence consisting of two pages has been taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this 7th day of Octer 1944. I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

Officer detailed to take this Summary.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE I am D-58111 Pte Andre DUCASSE, Regt de Chaud, sworn, state:

On 5 Oct 1944 while we were in Belgium before the campaign in Holland I had an opportunity of buying a bottle of cognac. I drank all of it and then I did not remember what happened afterwards. The following morning I was told what I had done the previous day while under the influence of liquor.

SECOND WITNESS FOR DEFENCE I am Lieut D.A.J. Pare, Regt de la Chaud, sworn.

I have known the accused Pte Ducasse, for about one week. He is a very reliable man in action and all the time he has worked with me I must praise his work. Twice I granted him 48 hrs leave and it was cancelled because he was under close arrest but after considering his case he was granted leave. He did a wonderful job during the last operation and his pl comd begged me to come to his trial as a character witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR DEFENCE I am R-109086 Sgt R Amyot, Regt de la Chaud.

I have known the accused Pte Ducasse since Feb 1943. I have worked with Pte Ducasse in the same pl and he has always been a very good soldier. He fought alongside me in the different operations in France and in Holland, and I have absolutely nothing to say against him. He always follwed me wherever I went.

While in Holland though Pte Ducasse had been transferred to another Coy, when I asked him to assist me in building a bridge he gave me every assistance.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT IN THE CASE OF

D-58111 Pte DUCASSE A., R de Chaud

Gentlemen of the Court:

The one charge standing out among the others, is that the accused struck an officer of the Cdn Army, who was on duty at the time. This give one a wrong impression of the facts, for I believe that this is not quite correct. If one looks more closely and studies the facts we will clearly see that the reason why an officer and an NCO were struck is, because the accused was in a state of drunkenness to such an extent that he did not know what he was doing. I know that this cannot be taken as an excuse, for drunkenness is never an excuse for one to do things one should not do, but the state of blind drunkenness makes one loose his head, unfortunately, I am sure that ~~xxxxix~~ had the accused been sober, none of this would have happened The accused quite understands that he did wrong, this has been proved by his pleading guilty, and admitting his crimes, though he did not know about it until he was told later on by someone else. The accused has been in the Army four years and half, during which time, he only had 2 charges, in 4½ years of service, charges are not against a mans all round behaviour. Lt Par & Sgt Amyot have stated that the accused was a very valuable man in action, and this is the things which counts, most. I beg of the court to take into consideration the few points I very briefly put into light and to be as kindhearted as possible, so that the accused can be brought back to his unit quickly and prove once more his extremely good capacities as a fighting man, wishing for nothing else but for the estruction of all the German Army.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without auth; from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (4) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 90(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 90(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(1)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans Nil.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) to charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans Yes. (Character attached)
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s) purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "B" and Ex "C" respectively.(2)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(4), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 120. One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Con) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, EWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 82(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the page in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 89(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused while has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits on opening the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 2 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 567.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 560. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (8).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 55(2), RP 114(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", unless otherwise directed.

Plea of Mitigation by Capt R. D. Landry (RCA Mc)

The accused does not deny his guilt, however I feel it my duty to stress the following points. The accused is 38 years of age, he is married has a wife and five children in Canada, the eldest of which is a girl of 14. He joined the army on the 6 Sept 39, and has been in England since Dec 1940. He has very little education in that he can barely read or write. His going A.W.L. does not constitute an act of malice. I wish to point out that he returned on his own, because he thought the unit was going on a sailing the day following his return, thereby not wanting to take the chance of being stranded, or taking the chance of eventually being declared a deserter. He has already been nine (9) days in close arrest. Due to his age and Marital status he deserves more sympathy than severity. He is not 19 or 21 any more, and realises fully the predicament he is in to-day, and is worried less his wife and children suffer from his mistake, and has resolved to be a good soldier henceforth. Maj Blais has stated under oath that he was always a willing worker and as such a good influence on his fellow soldiers.

Pte Deschaine A reported to me at the guard room at 2330 hrs 26 March 1944 and I placed him under close arrest.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

A/Cpl Renaud A.E.

The accused was cautioned as follows: Do you wish to make any statement in his evidence on oath? you are not obliged to say anything in his evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say in any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused does not wish to give evidence. The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this Fifth day of October, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; * ~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer;~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

~~*I am unable to appoint~~
~~*three Officers to form the Court;~~
~~*a field Officer as President;~~
~~*three Officers having more than one year's service;~~

~~for the following reasons, namely:~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely, the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans [illegible] (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 5. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on [illegible] charge(s). ~~The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 45 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 562(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 986. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(3), RP 118(C), MML p 709.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

This is to certify that [illegible] 056489 Rank Pte Name Ouchanne H.

D56489 Pte Saunders Duchesne

The Defending Officer submits the following in his plea for mitigation:

Duchesne is an older married man who left his home and family at the out break of war. He completed about six months regular infantry training but was finally placed as a cook due to civil experience and physical inability to withstand training when his unit proceeded overseas in '42 he regretfully to go with them. However due to shortage of cooks at the T.C., he was held back. Finally in '42 he was sent overseas and on arrival at R.C. Unit once again to withstand duty (mind you he could have told them of previous instability. About about 3 mos. his legs began to fail so he was placed once again on a cook. He continued in that capacity from that time on. Duchesne admittedly went a.w.l. without real reason but claims he would have returned within a couple of days had he not heard that unit had proceeded overseas and was much afraid of desertion charge. Time drifted on and he met several friends who supplied him with money. After the first few days he visited Godalming and Guildford which were in close proximity to units location at the time he went a.w.l. He expected to be picked up much sooner but was content to drift along rather than face desertion charge obviously an inadequate type of person. On one point, as he particularly pointed out when and that was his wish to go overseas. He wishes to make it quite clear that he did not go a.w.l. to avoid overseas service.

said would like to proceed forward as soon as possible. Duchaine's reason for leaving the unit was nothing more than the usual which and is not excusable, however, there seems little to be gained in keeping a qualified Cook from duty for any great period, particularly when there is an urgent need for such personnel. Duchaine is eligible for overseas being A1 category, he is willing and has almost 5 years service to his credit. While he has given a number of minor crimes, these are spread over a long period and in the main are of a petty nature. I say, ~~that~~ taking everything into consideration, that it is in the interests of the service that leniency be exercised in sentencing this man. A sentence which could be committed in a very short time if behaviour is good, would certainly seem reasonable common sense justice. This man now 40 years of age has tried on two occasions to get himself in the highly combatant role of infantry man but not being physically competent has had to do his bit in a more menial way, an adjustment that many have found insurmountable. I regret that there is little to be gained by sentencing this unofficious person to other than the minimum penalty. The sooner his services can be utilized by the Can Forces, the better.

PART 1.

CERTIFICATE OF SURRENDER TO THE CIVIL POLICE OF A DESERTER OR ABSENTEE WITHOUT LEAVE.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit*† in the case of soldiers and in the case of airmen the O.C. the station at which the airman last served, notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depot in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depot, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

* Stations of Units and Depots are shown in the Monthly Army List.

† NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters from the Army, who surrender to the civil police; such persons will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military unit or the O.C. Troops at the nearest military station. (A.C.I. 480/1940).

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans.....

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. A and Ex. B respectively.(3)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. No.....(2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 68. INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP Vol 2 fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. N/O (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (1). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex P, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(C) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(C). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 102(E).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans N/O Sir.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copies (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier's having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. CONVENING OFFR WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS

(See overleaf for oaths and notes for use on trial.)

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RD (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 85(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 93(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statements by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 562(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 86(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(3), RP 114(C), MML p 758.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE

I certify that I have this morning examined No.D56489 Pte Ducharme,H. of RCASC att 2 Cdn Corps Signals and in my opinion is fit to undergo trial by court-martial.

Station Field

Date 10 Mar 44

G. C. McGarvey Major
(Medical Officer)

This man joined the army September 1939 with the expectation to come overseas with the unit of his own choice, namely the Regiment de Maisonneuve. When this unit departed for England, he was left behind, he asked the Colonel at the depot where he was posted, time and again to be sent overseas, with no results. This combined with family troubles, prompted him to go absent without leave, at various occassions. He finally was sent overseas with a reinforcement draft for his regiment. Being 37 years of age at the time, he was not able to carry out hard training that was required of him. His Commanding Officer sent him off to a school of Cookery, where he qualified as a cook and subsquently transfered to the R.C.A.S.C. He was then posted to #4 Lines section 2 Base Bop sigs as a cook.

While in that section he discharged his duties in a splendid manner, and he was happy until December 1943, because he was running his own show, and his Military Conduct during that period was exemplary. After December 1943 he was put to work in a kitchen with other cooks, as a pool at Borge Wood Camp, this situation had a bad effect on him, for several reasons, his English is limited therefore he is not understood and he cannot very well understand the other people he works with. This resulted in being put to work, at various chores, which are below the dignity of an accomplished cook which he is.

When he came over to this country, he was deeply in debt, which caused him to receive only ten shillings each pay day, thus depriving him of recreation, seeing those other people enjoying themselves, he sought the companionship of other french speaking people, at the Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

REMARKS

This is exhibit "A" referred to in the summary of evidence in the case of D56589 Pte Homeadon Duchrame taken before me this 7 Mar 44

J.D. Mercer Capt

Exhibit 17

Summary of evidence in the case of D56589 Pte Hornsadon Ducharme, R.C.A.S.C. att 2 Edm Corps Sigs, charged with absence without leave from 22 Feb 44 to 3 Mar 44.

The commanding officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First witness K45614 Cpl Craig G.A., 2 Edm Corps Sigs, sworn, states,

I am a corporal in 6 line sec, 1 Edm Corps signals. On 22 Feb 44 I was guard commander at Sage Wood camps. Pte Ducharme's name was on the midnight pass list for 22 Feb 44. He did not report on to me by 2359 hrs 22 Feb 44. I reported him absent without leave.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

J.A. Craig

Second witness F91765 Cpl Hadley J.B. R.C.A.S.C., att 2 Edm Corps Sigs, sworn states:

I am the corporal cook at Sage Wood Camps. On 22 Feb 44, I called the roll in the cooks' quarters at reveille and found Pte Ducharme absent. I reported it to the guard room. I called the roll at reveille and tattoo daily until 3 Mar 44, when the guard room I was informed Ducharme was in the guard room. Ducharme was absent from roll call at each and every one of these parades.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

J.B. Hadley.

Third Witness K25608 d/Cpl Halley L.H. 4 Edm Res Coy.

Document purporting to be a signed statement of the evidence of K25608 d/Cpl Halley L.H. 4 Edm Res Coy was read over to the accused, marked exhibit 'A', and attached.

I certify that in my opinion owing to the exigencies of the service, including the time and expense involved, the attendance of this witness at the taking of the summary of evidence cannot readily be procured.

J.F. Deacon Capt.

The accused was warned as follows:

If you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused: I have nothing to say at this time.

The accused declined to call witnesses on his own behalf.

I certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with. Taken by me in the field in the presence and hearing of the accused this 7 Mar 44.

J.F. Deacon Capt.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

On Active Service, this Eighteenth (18) day of February, 19 42

Order convening the Court.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 2 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*[I am unable to appoint :—

*(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)

*(2. A Field Officer as President.)

for the following reasons, namely :—]

Due to the extremities of the service.

* Omit if not applicable.

PROCEEDINGS OF FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL ON ACTIVE SERVICE.

TRIAL OF: H-16227 a/Cpl(unpaid)DUCHARME, Odo Carl
Hq 2 Cdn Inf Bde C.A.O.

PROSECUTOR: Lieut J.E.T. McMillan, Seaforth Highlanders of Canada.

DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut A.J. Steeves, Edmonton Regiment at 0940 hours the trial commenced

The names of the President and Members were read to the accused.
The accused was asked " Do you object to be tried by me as President or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over."

Answer by accused. " No "

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the schedule

1st witness for the prosecution — K-92132 L/Cpl Kinnear, W.E. Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, attached to 2 Cdn Inf Bde in the Field, sworn states:

" On Friday 13 Feb 42 I was Duty NCO for 2 C.I.B. Hq. I made a tattoo role call at 2300 hours. Cpl Ducharme was absent from his quarters. I made a re-check at 2359 hours, Cpl Ducharme was still absent. I reported it on my report to the duty officer. Cpl Ducharme was not booked out in the Entry Book. My duties as Duty NCO ceased at 0600 hours 14 Feb 42. I looked through all the other rooms for Cpl Ducharme.

Cross examined:

I made inquiries in adjacent rooms endeavouring to establish Cpl Ducharme's whereabouts, but could find no one who could answer my inquiries. I submitted my report to the duty officer at 0700 hours 14 Feb 42 under instructions.

No questions by the Court

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

2nd witness for the prosecution — K-52221 L/Cpl Raffa,F Hq. 2 Cdn Inf Bde in the Field, sworn states:

" On the 14 Feb 42 I was Duty NCO at Hq. 2 C.I.B. After switching on the lights between 0600 hours and 0630 hours, I went around and woke up the personnel. On entering Cpl Ducharme's room I found his bed empty, it did look as if it had been slept in. I told the duty officer about it and he instructed me to place Cpl Ducharme under open arrest, this I did between 0730 hours and 0800 hours when the accused reported to me. I had, earlier, looked in the cook house and could not find him.

Cross-examination:

When I made my rounds at Reveille 14 Feb 42 the accused was neither in his bed nor his room. I checked the upstairs lavatories and some downstairs. I checked all the other rooms, I also checked the kitchen.

No questions by the Court

R.P. 83(B) complied with

The prosecution is closed.

Defense:

The accused states that he is going to call another witness as to facts.
The accused made a verbal statement.

1st witness for the defense — K-82768 Pte Conroy,H, Seaforth Highlanders of Canada attached H, 2 Cdn Inf Bde, in the Field, sworn states:

" On the night of 13 Feb 42 I slept in the same room as Cpl Ducharme, Pte Rodney, Pte Lavergne. I retired at approximately 2200 hours. Pte Lavergne at that time was in bed and Pte Rodney was on pass. Cpl Ducharme was not in bed, I was awaked at about 2315 hours by Cpl Kinnear and again at 2330 hours I was disturbed by the room door opening. Someone just stepped into the room. I did not see who.

Cross-examination:

I looked at my luminous dial watch on both occasions when I was disturbed. I got up at 0610 hours 14 Feb 42 and Cpl Ducharme's bed did not look as if it had been slept in. The accused may have tidied up his bed after rising early and before reporting to duty.

No questions by the Court.

R.P.83(B) complied with.

Findings

After finding: The Court being re-opened the accused is again brought in.

Evidence as to character etc. — Capt. F.J. Cooper, H, 2 Cdn Inf Bde, sworn states:

" I produce A.F.B.296 which I have compared with the regimental books which is a true statement as to character and service of the accused - H-16227 a/Cpl(unpaid)Ducharme, Odo Carl, H, 2 Cdn Inf Bde.

The document is read marked 'H' signed by the President and attached hereto.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused declines to make a statement in mitigation of sentence although asked if he desires to do so.

The Court is closed to consider the sentence.

Sentence

Detention for 60 days

The Court sentences the accused No. H-10227 a/Cpl(unpaid) DUCHARME, Odo Carl, Hq 2 Cdn Inf Bde to undergo detention for 60 days.

Signed in the Field this 23rd day of February, 1942.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para L3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on N/A charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) changes his (their) plea(s) on N/A to charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TÉMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd is Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jun 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 92(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 2(b)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 2 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 567.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 162 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or representation by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(3), RP 118(C), MML p 709.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

Final Address of the Prosecution

As the accused has pleaded guilty I have very little to say. I would like to point out with regard to the First Charge that the accused was alleged to have been wearing an officers' tie which would tend to indicate more preparation than we would be lead to believe. Also when approached by Cpl Popert and saluted he returned the salute.

With regard to the Second Charge the onus falls on every soldier or officer to produce identification at all times. Almost no circumstances would alleviate that responsibility and certainly not in the present phase of operations.

Regarding the Third Charge. It does not state nor is the charged with "Refusing to Obey an Order" but rather he is charged with "Disobeying a Lawful Command". This command was given by a superior officer and heard by Pte Blake. All of which has been given as evidence under oath.

RECORD OF EVIDENCE

Final Address of Defence
(Statement of Mitigation)

The charges as stated on charge sheet are undeniable, however, there are certain circumstances that I think should be brought to the attention of the Court.

The accused met a friend of his from his home town who was an officer and who came to Oldenburg just prior to repatriation to see him. They had a drink together and this led to several and they finally had too much. They then went to the park opposite the Town Major and proceeded to sleep it off, placing their tunics under their heads for pillows. When the accused woke up the officer was gone and he put on the tunic that was there. He walked up town, was not saluted by any soldiers he passed, and went past the Provost post where nobody said anything to him and he had no idea he was wearing an officers' tunic until stopped by the Provost Corporal.

The evidence of the Provost Corporal to the effect that he stopped on seeing the jeep and attempted to conceal his identity is purely supposition. He could have stopped for the railway crossing.

As far as means of identity, he did not have on his own tunic and naturally didn't have any means of identity.

In regard to the third charge he had already admitted the fact that he was not an officer to the Provost and it is the natural behaviour of a man befuddled with sleep and drink to try to remove the pips. Also from the evidence it would appear that this charge should be "Failing to Comply with an Order" rather than "Refusing to Obey one" as at no time did he state that he refused to obey the order.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

H 20816, Pte DUCHARME, W.R. - 2/3 Cdn Inf Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC

By the order of the C.O. this summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - D 142518, Cpl Popiel, P, No 3 S.I.S. Provost, having been duly sworn, states:

"At approx 1650 hrs 29 Oct 45, whilst on tour of duty in the Oldenburg area, accompanied by F 87079, L/Cpl Johnsen, H.A., 2/4 Provost Coy CAOF we were driving along Heiligengeist when we came to a railway crossing and stopped at the barrier as a train was passing by. Here I noticed an Officer standing, whom upon seeing a Provost Vehicle come to a halt, turned slightly to his right in a manner as though trying to conceal his identity.

I immediately brought this to the attention of L/Cpl Johnsen, H.A. and we then proceeded to check the identity of this Officer. The correct compliments were paid to this Officer, which he returned same, before being checked. He was not in possession of any form of identification and later stated he was not an Officer and wanted to get out of town immediately.

Upon being questioned the reason for his wearing the insignias of a Lieut and an Officers' tie, he replied that he had made a mistake, by taking the wrong jacket out of a club and that the tie was his own personal property. He was then placed under arrest and escorted to 2/4 Cdn Provost HQ, CAOF, Oldenburg.

Whilst proceeding to the a/m unit, this soldier attempted to remove the Officers' insignias from his jacket, I ordered him not to remove same, but in direct violation of this order, continued to remove same. This act was witnessed by H 1642 Pte Blake, B.E. employed as a cook at Cdn Provost HQ, Oldenburg, who was met on street, whilst en route to Coy HQ. A voluntary statement was later obtained from Pte Blake, B.E.

Upon arrival at Coy HQ, the soldier was further interrogated, and gave his particulars as being H 20816, Pte Ducharme, Wilfred, 2/3 Cdn Inf Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC (CAOF) I then informed him he would be charged with the following:-

1. Impersonating an Officer
2. Disobeying an Order
3. No devoted means of identity.

Pte Ducharme was later escorted to his Unit, Major L.Y. Patrick, O.C. was informed the circumstances of arrest, and the accused was turned over to S/Cdr Wiggins, O.D., of the Unit.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - H 1642, Pte Blake, B.R., RCASC 2/4 Provost Coy CAOF having been duly sworn states:

"At apprex 1700 hours 29 Oct 45 whilst walking along Heiligengeist, Str. I was met by a Provost Jeep, that pulled alongside of the road. I recognized the driver as Cpl Popiel, P., of No 3 Special Investigation Section, who is stationed at Provost HQ at Oldenburg. Cpl Popiel asked me to accompany him, as he had a soldier in the jeep who was wearing the insignias of an Officer (Lieut). Whilst on our Way to HQ, I noticed this soldier removing the pips off his shoulders. I then heard the Corporal ordering him to leave them on. He refused to obey this order and continued taking them off. Cpl Popiel then stated that he would be charged for disobeying an order.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - F 87079, L/Cpl Johnson, H.A., 2/4 Cdn Provost Coy CAOF having been duly sworn states:

"At apprex 1650 hours 29 Oct 45 I was proceeding to the civilian Police Station (Heiligengeist Str) accompanied by Cpl Popiel, P. when we reached the railway crossing, we were compelled to stop, due to the barrier being down. Cpl Popiel noticed an Officer standing by the barrier and called my attention to this Officer, stating that he did not appear to be an Officer. We decided to check his identity. Cpl Popiel approached the Officer paid proper compliments, which were returned. I got out of the jeep and went over and the alleged Officer was stating to Cpl Popiel that he was a private and wanted to get out of town.

Cpl Popiel then ordered him into the jeep and we proceeded to the civilian Police Station where I left the jeep and carried on with another detail. Cpl Popiel then proceeded to take the accused to 2/4 Cdn Provost HQ.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement (1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence as marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as " Notes ".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS : When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows :

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states :

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 69 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam : He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam : None.

Exam by Court : He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE : RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused :

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 46 fn 3(6)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 95(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD ITEMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order :

(a) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(b) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 108, 106, 107, 114.

(c) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 567.)

(d) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(e) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of registered books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(f) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

(g) Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 107(f).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(3), RP 118(C), MML p 758.)

3. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked " Confidential ", unless otherwise directed.

Submission of no case by def. Offr. on first charge:

The evidence for the Prosecution does not in any way show that the accused wilfully injured himself and therefor he should not be called on for his defence on the first charge.

Reply by Prosecutor:

The evidence is sufficient to make out a prima facie case on both charges and the Court should not allow the motion by the defence.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (b); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 14 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A)(E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO SIR.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) ~~(no)~~ opening address.(1) "940"
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).) "940"

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not~~ establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court ~~is re-~~opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on ~~the latter charge~~(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. I will give evidence and call witnesses. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. YES
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF 885. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened. "941"
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. ~~The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s)~~ of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, ~~and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated.~~ Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(7) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. NO SIR

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Con 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 85(C)), any objections (RP 85(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Con 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 2 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 587.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting as evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(F), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

OPENING ADDRESS

Prosecution will prove in July this year PTE[illegible] was in Enchede area. At the relevant time thecomplainant visited the camp of this unit.

On way home a Cdn Sold offered her choc to go with her - there he indecently assaulted her. She subsequently told her mother. She developed gonhorea.

24 Jul an identification parade was held - no one identified, Accused in hosp at that time. Subsequently when accused in parade he was twice identified by complainant.

First Witness for the Prosecution: Dr G E Rutgers, Medical Practitioner, Enschede, Holland, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a duly qualified medical practitioner practicing in Enschede. I recall visiting a child at 135 Dreiner Emchweg, Hengelo 21 July 1945. Her name was the child ter Riet. She was suffering from bleeding and discharge of pus from genitals. I took her to hospital for observation by gynaecologist.

X-examination declined.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Dr H J Amesz, Hortenaerstraat 5, Enschede, Medical Practitioner, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a woman's medical doctor, a gynaecologist. I have been practicing that more than 20 yrs in this Province. 21 July 45 I examined Johanna ter Riet a little girl eight years of age, living in Hengelo. I made this examination in the Hospital in Enschede. I found an inflammation and supuration of external genitals. This caused by infection from gonococcus. This was caused by infection of not less than 5 or 6 days and not so much as several months. It is possible that the infection was acquired from a man, a W.C. or clothes infected. For a little girl it is common that she gets it from bed of mother (if infected), the W.C. or laundry. There were no wounds or other marks of interest on the child.

X-examination: The shortest time the girl could have been infected would be 4 or 5 days, the longest one or two months. I could be more specific.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Third Witness for the Prosecution: F75799 Cpl Poirier W F, 8 Cdn Pro Coy, 4 Cdn Armd Div, having been duly sworn, states:

22 Jul 45 I went to unit lines of PEILH and interviewed CO. 24 Jul 45 I went to Hospital in Enschede and saw Johanna ter Riet. The same day I arranged for an identification parade in unit lines of PEILH. Johanna ter Riet attended that parade at 1500 hrs accompanied by Nurse Dercksen. There were approx 125 men on parade. The child was carried by Cpl Snyder to the parade ground and up and down the ranks. She saw them all. I watched her closely, she did not indicate any soldier. 27 July 45 I held another parade at Hospital in Enschede where child was a patient. Between parades I went to Leeuwarden where I located the accused. I brought him to Olmelo. The accused and 3 others were on 2nd parade. The child's room was on 3rd floor of hospital. The soldiers were in line on ground below her window. It was about 1100 or 1200 hrs. I stood behind the soldiers on the ground. I stood in turn behind each one. When I stood behind accused, Johanna ter Riet nodded affirmatively. She shook her head when I stood behind others. I stood behind all. I then had Johanna brought to ground floor window and 4 soldiers were lined up again about 10 feet away. The accused was again identified by the girl. The soldiers were all dressed the same. I didn't indicate anyone to the child. While the girl was being brought downstairs, I collected 3 wrist watches and a pocket watch and my own. The accused produced a wristwatch and a pocket watch. I asked accused for his watch. He went towards his coat and came back with a pocket watch. I then asked hom where his wristwatch was. He told me it was broken. I then said get it. He started towards his coat again but discovered that he had it in his pants pocket. I examined the watch and saw that it read 20 minutes to 12. My watch read 10 min to 12. At 1430 hrs the same afternoon the watch was still 10 min slower than mine. I handed the four watches to thenurse. When I turned back the nurse handed me the wristwatch I had taken from the accused. The accused was not on the 1st parade at the PEILH. After this identification the accused was placed under close arrest by me. At this time

..../overleaf

I cautioned the accused as follows: You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do but whatever you do say may be taken down in writing and can be given in evidence. The accused signed this warning. I made no threats to the accused and held out no promises.

The witness produces original signed statement of accused in a record book.
The President of the Court examines same.
The Defending Officer consults to a certified copy of said statement being introduced in lieu of original which is returned to the witness. (Certified True Copy Marked Exhibit "A" and signed by the Pres).
I arranged for another identification parade 30 July 45 at approx 1500 hrs. There were about 24 ORs including the accused on the parade. The soldiers were all dressed alike. Lt Faulkner of PEILH accompanied me on this parade. The Lt and I went to child's room on 3rd floor. The child started from right flank of parade and counted in Dutch until number 6. The sixth man was squinting and screwing his face up - he was the accused. It was a dull day, no sun shining. He was the only one in ranks who disturbed his features.
The girl Johanna ter Riet was taken from window so she could not see. The parade was shuffled. The girl inspected parade again and identified 19th from right flank who was accused. He was still squinting. The girl was then taken to a ground floor open window. The parade was formed in file and they walked by the window. She reached out to touch accused as he went by. I can't say if she actually touched him. She didn't try to touch any othersoldier.
The first time I went to PEILH lines the girl took me to a place in the woods by the side of the road about 100 or 200 x from what were A Coy lines PEILH.

X-examination: I examined accused watch. He explained the hands would only turn one way. That was correct. I have held identification parades in previous cases. I sometimes hold as many as in this case. I don't know if accused was distorting his features on first parade. I held further parades to try to shake child's identification. I don't think it would be easier for her to pick out the same man again. I picked dark complected men on parade of 24 - there were no blondes or red heads.
There is not heavy undergrowth in place in woods shown to me by child.
The nurse indicated to me that the first watch the [redacted] girl picked up. It was that of the accused. She then picked up my watch. The nurse asked her to make sure. She then picked up the accused watch. The strap on the accused watch was punched right fro[redacted] watch so child could strap watch on tight. I gave my watch to girl to put on but she couldn't do it with mine as it is not punched back that far.

By the Court: There were 3 parades - 1 in lines - 2 in Hospital. At first parade at the Hospital the little girl was sitting on a table and [redacted] the nurse was close to her. The nurse was instructed to tell child to look over men and point out man.
The nurse did not know who the man was. I didn't say anything to accused about distorting his features.
The spot showed to me by child was about 200 yds from camp, you go left, turn left again. It is by side of the road - a little gully. In my opinion it would be dead ground to the camp. (AP 83(B) complied with).

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution: Capt T P Headman, RCAMC, 9 Cdn FDS, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a medical officer.
According to records of 9 Cdn FDS B143368 Cpl Deschene LA had been admitted at FDS on 15 Jul 45 and discharged 17 Jul 45.
A smear had been taken and he was found positive for gonococcus or VDG.
X-examination: I don't identify the accused.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution: Mrs Johanna H Wennink, Driener Enschweg 135, Hengelo, having been duly sworn, states:

I am divorced. The home is in country between Hengelo and Enschede. I have daughter Johanna ter Riet. She is 8 yrs of age - born 12 Feb 37. That is my only daughter. She is in Hospital in Enschede. She went there 21st July 1945. 20 Feb 45 in the morning I found that pus and blood came from genitals of daughter. I first noticed because her pyjamas were soiled.
I remember the Saturday before. Johanna my daughter went to the camp. The cars from the camp have No 17 on them. It is about 15 minutes from my house. The child came home about 8:30 in the even that night. The child wanted to see the soldiers. She sometimes helped the cook in the kitchen. I had never seen a previous similar condition in the child. The child had not had gonorrhea before - nor have I. There had been no one in the house before with that condition so far as I know. I called Dr Rutgers on 21 Jul 45.

X-examination: I saw the child go in the direction of the camp.

By the Court: In my house there lives in addition to my daughter and myself, my son and a girl named Bonnie 21 yrs of age. My daughter sleeps in a room by herself.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution: F26450 CSM McLeod HH, PEILH, 2 Cdn Corps Defence Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Coy Sgt Maj of my unit and have been for some time.
During July this year our unit was between Hengelo and Enschede - about 1 mile off main road. Coming from Hengelo you would turn off road about 4 Km from Hengelo - turn off to left. The tactical sign on our vehicles was 17 - they were on in month of July.
The camp was in tents in woods. I remember the accused. He came to us 2 weeks before VE day. He stayed with us until 14 July 45. He went to hospital with VD. There were 2 cases in Coy between 14 July and 31 July. The other case was Pte Scavil. He did not turn out to be VD - he had strain - non-specific urethritis and was returned to unit.
I identify the accused.
When accused returned from hospital he did not have moustache he previously wore.
Hehas a moustache now again.
From hospital accused was posted to 5 Div. He came back to us for kit about 5 or 6 days after going to hospital.

X-examination: From 15 June to 14 Jul I cannot tell you how many cases went to hospital with VD. I haven't medical book. I swear the accused had a moustache when he came to unit and when he left to go to hospital.

By the Court : We were duty unit in immediate area at that time. I know now where complainant lives. Anyone leaving her house and walking in direction of our camp our camp would be first installation they would come to.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

..../overleaf

Seventh Witness for the Prosecution: Lt RD Faulkner, 2 Cdn Corps Defence Coy (PEILH) having been duly sworn, states:

I remember attending parade I think 30 Jul 45 at Hospital, Enschede. I think there were 24 ORs on parade. I know the accused from time he came back to unit after case started. The complainant indicated the accused by counting. No one helped complainant. The accused appeared to be squinting. I was with the unit 14 Jul 45. There were no other units in that area. I went downstairs with complainant on day of parade. She reached out when accused passed window. I ~~xxxix~~ don't know whether she touched him or not.

X-examination: I think there were some units in Enschede and Hengelo at ~~xxxx~~ this time.

Eighth Witness for the Prosecution: Johanna ter Riet, Driener Eschweg 135, Hengelo, a child 8 yrs of age. The Court questioned this child with a view to ascertaining if the witness understood the nature of an oath on the Bible and that said oath is binding her conscience. The Court learned that the child has attended school, Roman Catholic sunday school and the Court formed the decision that an oath would be binding on the conscience of the child. Accordingly the witness was duly sworn and testified as follows:

My name is Johanna ter Reit and I live at Driener Eschweg 135, Hengelo, the home of my mother. I am now in Hospital. I went to Hospital on a Saturday night. It happened on a Saturday and the Saturday following I went to hospital. What happened was that he lay on me. He lay upon me in a wood. I went to a camp that day of Bob and Jackie. They are Canadian soldiers. I went to their camp. The vehicles at that camp have the number 17. The camp was on the Bosweg. It took me about 5 minutes to go to the camp from my house. I went to the camp at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. I saw some soldiers in the camp. I delivered a letter to Bob and Jackie from the servant in our house. I then stood for awhile in the camp. I went towards home when the Tommy came along. I still was in the camp where the Tommy came to me. I was on my way home. By a Tommy I mean a Canadian soldier. I had not seen him before. I have seen him since by our hospital. (Witness identifies accused). First he walked up to me, took my hand and we walked into the wood. He said to me you eat with me chocolate. He didn't give me any chocolate. He took me to a wood. He then opened his pants and lay upon me. My pants were taken off. The accused took them off. I did not want him to do this. I tried to get away. He held me by my legs and my shoes and I couldn't get away. He touched me with his part with which he draws his water. I felt this. I did not see it. It caused me pain on the frong, the part where I also draw water. His part of his body went inside of me. That is what caused the pain. Afterwards I got away. I took off my shoes and ran home as fast as possible. I took my shoes off so I could run fast. I did not tell my Mother when I got home because there were visitors. I told my Mother later on because it caused pain. I told my Mother on the Friday before I went to hospital. I felt the pains I mention on the Monday. The day I told my Mother blood came out of it. I was frightened. I had not seen the blood before - on the Monday blood came - but never before that.
The first time I saw the accused at the Hospital was on the grass at the Hospital. I was first standing at the window in my room. Then I went downstairs. There were 4, Bob and Jackie and a certain one and the accused. Yes I saw the same accused from downstairs. They went away then and came back again and I had to point him out. The one I pointed out was theone I went into the wood with, the accused. The same day I saw 4 watches. I pointed out one watch, a brown one. I saw that here in the hospital. I saw a watch in the wood. The accused put a watch on my wrist the day he lay upon me in the wood. I took it off my wrist and held it down before my eyes. The reason I picked out a watch at the hospital was because I recognized it by the stem as the one I had on my wrist in the wood.
I say many more soldiers on another day at the hospital. I was first upstairs then I went down with Nurse Dercksen. That day I saw the same soldier (pointing to the accueded). He was 6th from my left and 17 from my left after they were moved around. I counted up to No 6 very slowly. When I came downstairs that day I was placed before a small window, they walked before the window and I had to point out the soldier with my finger. I didn't touch him. I pointed to him (indicates accused) I pointed to him because I had seen him in the wood when he lay upon me.

Eighth Witness for the Prosecution (Cont'd):

It was 7 o'clock in the evening when the soldier was lying on me in the wood. I went home as quickly as possible.

X-examination: The soldier in the wood has black hair and in the beginning he had no moustache at all. The soldier with me in the woods did not have a moustache. When he was in hospital he made his whiskers grow. I don't remember telling Capt McQuarrie that the soldier had a moustache.
I remember Capt McQuarrie asking me questions in the hospital.
Reads from summary ques #43 and answer.
I remember giving that answer.
Reads ques #45 and answer.
I remember giving that answer.
In the wood he only had small moustache - a few hairs on his lip and now he has a big moustache.
Reads ques 48 and answer.
Yes I remember giving that answer.
He had a longer moustache at the hospital.
Reads ques 49 and answer.
I remember.
(Court adjourns for 5 minutes to give witness a rest. Court re-opens - same Court present.)
But when he was in the wood he only had a couple of hairs.
In the woods the soldier only had a shirt on same as Capt McQuarrie (khaki). He wore no jacket - no badges on his sleeves. I saw a watch in the hospital, it then had a brown strap - when I saw it before it had a black strap. The stem was the same. On the face everything was the same.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Ninth Witness for the Prosecution: Elizabeth Dercksen, Ziekenzorg Hospital, Enschede, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a graduate nurse employed at Ziekenzorg Hospital, Enschede. I was there when Johannas ter Riet was admitted. I have been nursing her since. I recall a parade of soldiers at the hospital. The first parade of all was at the camp. I walked alone with child. She picked no one out. The child was told that if she recognized the man who had been with her she was to tell me, but not to point. She told me that the man was not there.
On the 1st parade at hospital there were 4 men. I was upstairs in the hospital. I could see the men. Up to that time all the soldiers were strangers to me. The child was told that she was to count the row and tell which man it was she was referring to. I told the child there would be some soldiers in the garden if she saw the one who had the case with her she should count and tell but not point. She indicated this man (witness points to accused). I did not assist the child in any way in pointing outthe accused. We then went downstairs and the child had to count again. She picked out the same man. I saw some watches that day - I tot the watches and showed them to Johanna. There were four watches - I'm not sure how many. I had the watchesin my hand. She first picked out one watch, starte d to doubt and then picked another one. The first one had a black strap, the second one had a brown strap. When Johanna picked out the 2nd watch she said something. I then showed the watch picked out by Johanna to the soldier who had biven me the watches. I later saw another parade of soldiers. They put the soldiers outside in the garden. Ther were three soldiers up in Johanna's room with Johanna and myself. Johanna was instructed by me to look and see if the certain man was there and if so to count slowly. Johanna started immediately to count. She counted and said the 6th one. No one helped her in any way. After that Johanna was moved from the window - the soldiers moved around and Johanna counted again. She picked the 19th one. Both times she picked the same soldier the accused.

Then we went downstairs and the soldiers marched by and when the accused went by the pointed to him. She pointed to no one else. Then the soldier with us pointed to one in front and asked is that him and then to the one behind is that him and then to the accused and she said yes that is him.
On both parades at the hospital the accused made faces when in line-up.

X-examination: The accused made faces when on the 1st parade of four also - but not so much as on the 2nd parade.

First Witness for the Defence: B143368 Pte Deschene LA, PEILH, having been duly sworn, states:

I joined PEILH 2 weeks before VE Day. Before I served with Royal Regt of Canada, Sept 44 to Apr 45, in 2 Div. I fought with Regt, through France, Belgium, Holland, Beveland. We were LOB in April. We were asked for personnel for PEILH and I volunteered.
14 Jul 45 around 3:30 p.m., I left the camp and went down to Enschede to some friends by name of Melking - I'm not sure of the spelling. The girls name is Teena. I arrived about 3:30 or 4:00. I picked up my radio in a shop first and took it to the house. I stayed till around 5:50. They wanted me to stay longer for supper but I didn't want to eat their rations. The mother and 2 brothers were there in addition to Teena. I went to NAAFI getting there about 6:10 p.m. I ate there. I stayed there about ½ hr. From there I returned to Teena's. They were playing the radio. They wanted me to leave it all night. I figure I arrived around 7 o'clock and left about 8 taking my radio back to camp. I got back about 8:30 p.m. I put my radio in barrack box - may have been there ½ hr then left for Hengelo and arrived at another girl friend's , Alice by name. I'm not sure of her last name. I arrived there at 9 o'clock or 9:30. I saw Alice. I stayed there all night and came back to camp in the morning reporting to RAP. I left about 0900 hrs for place in Hengelo where a doctor examined me and sent me on to Apeldoorn to a VD hospital. I stayed in Apeldoorn 3 days, arrived Sunday and left Tues. Iwas then sent to holding unit at Nijmegen - was there 3 days. From there I was sent to 5 Div at Groeningen and to Irish Regt of Canada. I was sent from there to Bde HQ in Leuwarden. I was orderly room clerk with PEILH up until 2 weeks before I left for hospital.
I first saw child Johanna ter Riet at identification parade at Hospital.
I did not have moustache on 14 Jul 45. I had moustache when I came to PEILH but cut it off at Bad Zuitzenan - early part of May - beginning of June. I started to grow moustache I have now when under close arrest at Leuwarden - have had one now for about 10 days. When in Leuwarden I got a new band for my wrist-watch. The old one wouldn't stay buckled. The old band was a brown color like brown one now. Name of shop where I got it is Copini.
I am married and have 6 children. The oldest is around 7 or 7½. There is one set of twins about a year old. I've not seen them. I have had intercourse with women in this country on average of 3 or 4 times a week.

X-examination: The follow who left with me from the camp 14 Jul 45 has left for Canada. He did not go with me to the NAAFI. I was in camp about ½ hr sometime between 8 to 9 o'clock in the evening. I had all this intercourse with Alice particularly for the last 2 weeks before I went to hospital. Before that it was Teena. I figure I contacted VD from a woman I picked up on the street. There was another one before Teena.
My wrist-watch had not been going previously. I forgot to wind it - it stopped. I was going to set it sometime I was at a jewellers. The Provost wound it a few times, I think I wound it a bit myself.

..../7

First Witness for the Defence (Cont'd):

It goes. It keeps time. There was nothing wrong with it. I couldn't set it but when the Provost tried it the hands did turn. The reason I distorted my features was because I was worried the way the evidence was going, so I deliberately tried to make it impossible for her to recognize me the second time.
I took the treatment for gonhorrea when I went to hospital.

(RP 83(B) complied with).

Second Witness for the Defence: Erustine Caroline Melching, Hengelostraat 143, Enschede, having been duly sworn, states:

I know the accused as Harry. He visited my house many times. I last saw him on a Saturday about 6 wks ago. He came at 4 o'clock and brought a radio and went to NAAFI. He came back at 7 or 7:30 and then went to Hengelo taking radio with him. He had a friend with him. He was not wearing a moustache. I had not seen him before with a moustache.

X-examination: I first met him about 2 or 2½ months ago. I am certain that he did not a moustache before. I don't know his last name.
I am called Teena.
I did not pay special attention to the timehe left that night.

By the Court : I don't know what day of the month it was. I don't know the date.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Third Witness for the Defence: Alide Van der Slius, Van Marknenstraat 11, Hengelo, having been duly sworn, states:

I know the accused as Harry. The last time I saw him was a Saturday the 14th of July last. I don't know what time I saw him because he came, went away and came back again. He went away on a Saturday morning. I don't know because he came every night to my house and ate and slept.
Saturday he came to the house at 8:30 or 10:30 in the morning. He came back in the evening. It was nine o'clock or 9:30. I can't say. He was not wearing a moustache. I saw him with moustache yesterday for first time.

X-examination: I didn't recognize him yesterday because of moustache. I have known him all together about 3 weeks or maybe a month. I didn't know him very well. I knew him through Teena. Yesterday I saw afterwards that it was Harry. His last name is Scott or Scotty - I don't know. I don't know exactly, I heard it from the Provost or Teena. I never asked him his name.
I remember a conversation with the Provost Corporal about 1 month ago. I didn't remember them whether it was Fri nite or Sat nite that he last stayed at our house.
I know now it was Sat nite.
I talked it over with Dr Frosh who lives in the same house and we decided we could not remember the hours.
I am sure about the day because Harry went away that nite and I thought he went with the visitors who went that nte.
That Fri nite he came about 12:30 at nite. He had asked before if I was off duty and he could sleep and eat with us.

By the Court: I am a graduate nurse. We did not sleep together, this man and I. I used to have sexual intercourse with this man but not regularly, only 3 or 4 times.

..../overleaf

Third Witness for the Defence (Cont'd):

I thought a month ago that the Friday nite was the last timehe was here.
But I know now that it was Saturday nite. I am sure it was Saturday nite he did notcome because we went to the camp on the Sunday tc find out why he did not come to have tea with us. He came Saturday nite.
I went to the camp Sunday because he did not come back to sleep Saturday or Sunday so I went to the camp to look for him because I liked him very much. It was after supper Saturday nite that I last saw him. I don't know the time. I figure it was late in the evening because when he left I played the piano for a bit and then went to bed. I don't remember how long he was at the house that night. I didn't expect him back to sleep. I expected him for dinner Sunday. But he didn't come and then I went to the Camp to look for him. We couldn't find the camp.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

B-143368 Pte Deschene L.A.

Notes on closing address by defending officer.

In the case of indecent assault, the only witness who identifies the acucsed is the complainant JOHANNA de Riet. Although the court was satisfied that the child was sufficiently intelligent and understanding to take an oath, her testimony should in practice not be accepted without corroboration (Archbold page 1034)

The child at the taking of the summary of evidence (Questions and Answers 43, 45, 46, 48, and 49) states the man who aasaulted her had a moustache. She now denies the man who assaulted her had a moustache.

The accused by his own evidence and of the witnesses Tina Melching and Alice v.d. Shis, who knew him well establish he had no moustache at the time of the alleged offence.

The child ter Riet, picked the accused out of a parade in which therewere only four men two of whom she knew having referred to them as "Bob" and "Jack". There was therefore a 50% chance that she would pick the accused as the unknown asailant once she had picked a man it was easy to keep on picking the same man on subsequent parades.

Evidence of a child that she went to the camp about 600 pm on saturday, was assaulted shortly after. Evidence of child's mother that child was home at 8.30 that evening. The witness Tina Melching established the accused visitied her house in Enschede Saturday afternoon, left about 6.00 pm to go to the NAAFI came back at 700 or 7.30 and remained until 7.30 or 8.00 p.m. the offence likely being committed while he was at the Melching home in Enschede. Evidence of Alice v.d. Shies that accused came to her house between 9 and 10 p.m. that evening.

Evidence of accused and of Alice v.d. Shies that accused had sexual relations with v.d. Shies. He was not peculiar or queer type who would likely be the nam who committed such an offence.

Prevalence of honnorrhea in this country - child might have picked it up from various sources or from some other man who assaulted her.

Child uncertain when she selected the watch.

Accused should be acquitted as he waselse where at the time the offence was likely committed and the complainant wa s originally positive that her assaillant wore a moustache.

ADDRESS OF PROSECUTING OFFICER

May it Please the COURT:

There is one outstanding fact in this case. A child of eight years of age lies in hospital with gonorrhoea. To my mind the fact outweighs all the others and causes this case to differ immensely from others of a similar nature.

The child has gonorrhoea and she has told this Court what even led to here present suffering. It is not credible that this child of eight could first imagine a story of the nature she told this court here today and thenrelate the details of it as the Court saw hr do unless the story were true. That an assault as charged was committed against her, I submit, is proven by her evidence. There is no evidence to the contrary.

All that remains to do is to determine who committed the offence. The evidence points directly to the accused. First, he was unhesitatingly identified by the child on two separate days in several different ways and this despite the fact that he deliberately distorted his features on two occasions to avoid identification. It is suggested that the first parade at the hospital was not properly held because there were only four men and two of these were known to the child. I submit if the child had had any doubt about the identity of the man but at the same time understood she must pick someone then the logical time for her to have picked a man would have been on the very first identification parade where 120 men were present. But on that occasion she looked at every man and stated that the one who assaulted her was not present. The accused was in fact not there. But the moment the child saw the accused on the next parade she identified him instantly and consistently continued to do so when tested in several ways. Now, it is beyond mere coincidence, that she picked out the only logical suspect, and the one whom, unknown to her, the provost Cpl had brought all the way back from IKELWA[illegible], 100 miles away. Why was the accused the logical suspect? Because he was the one man in the PEILM Camp, the only camp in the vicinity of the scene of the offence, who was evacuated to hospital with gonorrhoea from several days before the date of the offence up until two weeks or more thereafter. The accused was admitted to hospital the very morning after the night of the offence took place.

The points that bring hom this crime to the accused are therefore;

1. The child swears he is the man.
2. Both he and she are found shortly after date of the offence to be suffering from VD '9'. This in itself is corroboration of the child's already sworn statement and I refer to Archbald Criminal Pleadings and Practice page 1028 on the subject of corroboration where it is stated that VD under such circumstances may amount to corroboration.
3. The child independantly of the parades identified the wrist watch of the accused. This perhaps may see a small point judging from the way she gave here evidence on this subject but the effect is that identification of the watch is just one more link in the chain. Each link lessens the possibility of these circumstances being mere co-incidence.

Finally, the accused has admitted in his own sworn evidence that he was in the camp area at the very time the offence was there committed. He says he was in camp between 2000 and 2100 hrs on the 14 Jul 45. The child's evidence as to the time of the attack is not positive. If she says "sometime after 6 o'clock or 7 o'clock" it not to be wondered at for such a small child does not concern herself too closely with the exactness of time. But her mother gave evidence that on the night in question she saw the child come home at 2030 hrs. The child says she got away from the man as soon as she was able and ran fast all the way home. Her home was previously proven to have been within 15 minutes walking time of the PETH Camp. Therefore the best estimate of the exact time of the offence would place it between 2000 hrs and 2030 hrs, the very period during which the accused admits being in the vicinity of the crime. Moreover, it is probable that the accused was not exactly right himself and it is therefore possible that he was in the vicinity a little before 2000 hrs. The offence would be committed quickly and the girl could easily run home by 2030 hrs. Thus the accused by his alibi has in fact added to the final link to the chain of evidence that now overwhelms him.

I therefore submit that the proof of the guilt of the accused is complete and that the finding of 'Guilty' should be entered against him."

Respectfully

(C.D. MacQuarrie) Capt
Prosecuting Officer.

JUDGE Advocate Summs up.

1. Functions of Court - Judge of facts. Any opinion inadvertently expressed by me on facts should be disregarded.

2. Functions of JA. Advise on law - directions on law should not be lightly disregarded.

3. Court will bear in mind that the accused is innocent until proven guilty and that the onus is on the prosecution throughout Onus explained.

4. Court will also bear in mind that the accused is intitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. (Reasonable doubt defined).

5. In Addition to the evidence heard in Court the court will bear in mind that under RP 74 they may take judicial notice by matters known to them by virtue of their military service.

6. The charge is read. Indecent assault defined. The charge falls withing a special class of offences namely those against females. The law is that it is dangerous to convict on the oncorroborated evidence of the complainant. It is my duty to warn you specifically on this point and I am so warning you.

7. In respect of this charge, consent of an 8 year old child is no defence nor is ignorance of age. However these points are not in issue and to mention them is merely academic.

8. You have heard the evidence of the complainant, she appreciated the nature and quality of an oath and it is binding on her conscience, according by her evidence is sworn testimony.
This child is young, only 8 years of age, on the other hand there is little likelihood of her evidence being colored by emotives of jealousy, blackmail or any of the many emotional impulses to which mature woman might be subject. I know that you have listened attentively to the testimony of this child and I am sure that you will examine it carefully before coming to a dicision based upon it.

In cases of this sort evidence of early complaint by complainant is admissable to show the consistency of her story. altho it is not corroboration in law. However there is no evidence of early complainat in this case the reason appears in evidence.

9. The court was previously warned that it was dangerous to convict in these cases on the uncorroborated evidence of the complainant. The question of the contraction VDG by the complainant and the fact that the accused had the same disease might be studied to see if it amounts to corroboration. You have had midical testimony as to how a child could contract this disease. One conclusion can be drawn from the evidence viz that the disease could have been contracted by the child from other sources than the accused.
This particular question is mentioned in Archbolds Criminal pleading Evidence and Practice, 31st Ed., page 1028(Read to Court)
10 The Defence offered as denial and alibi. You have seen and heard the witnesses and will give their testimony the consideration which in your opinion it merits.
11. The charge is a serious one and I know that the Court will give the question the most careful consideration.

PLEA IN MITIGATION. a""EEW"

The accused is married with a large family. He has served in infantry under fire as he testified.
This MFM 6 though containing a number of minor offences has no serious offences.
He has never served any detention or field punishment or been court maritaled. Taking these things into account a minimum punishment should be awarded.

"I am Deschene, L.A., a member of Irish Regt of Can, 5 CAD. I was a member of the Prince Edward Island Light Horse up until I was sent to Hospital on July 16th 1945.

I was in Hospital from 16 Jul 45 until 17 Jul 45. I was released to 13 Bn CBRC at NIJMEGAN arriving there at approx 1600 hrs, July 17th 1945.
On July 19th 1945 I was shipped to 6 Div Holding Unit at Groningen, from there I was posted to the Irish Regt of Canada at Heerenveen. On July 18th I reported on sick parade and sent from Unit MAP to 9 FDS at HENGELO and from there I was taken to VDTU at APPELDOORN for treatment.
On July 27 I was identified as the soldier who committed an offence against a young girl and I was placed under arrest (close arrest). In view of the fact that I was identified as the person who committed this all I can say is that it is a case of mistaken identity and have no knowledge of the case whatsoever, time and place where it occurred and had never seen the young girl before today."

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Taken at ENSCHEDE on 18 Aug 45

Summary of Evidence in the case of B 143368 Cpl Deschene, Lawrence Alfred, PEILH, a soldier of the Cdn Army on Active Service, charged with:

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

The Accused was asked whether he had any objection to Antoine Johan Jansen acting as interpeter on the taking of the Summary of Evidence to which he replied "No".

Antoine Johan Jansen, Official interpeter for 8 Cdn Provost Coy was then sworn as follows:

" I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability interpet and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Summary of Evidence."

FIRST WITNESS Johanna ter RIET

The officer taking the summary accompanied by the interpeter, the accused and escort attend at the bedside of the above named witness in the ZIEKENZORG Hospital, ENSCHEDE. The witness appeared to be a young girl of about 8 years of age.
The girl was questioned at considerable length and appeared to be alert and intelligent and fully understood the nature and purpose of an oath upon the same being explained to her. Upon it becoming clear that the child was competent to be sworn the oath was administered.

Johanna ter RIET, having been duly sworn states as follows:

" I am Johanna ter RIET and live at Driemer Eschweg 135, HENGELO. I am eight years old. My birthday is on 12 Februrary. I came to this hospital on a Saturday night at about 8 o'clock. I came because of a pain which occured on the previous Monday. On the Saturday evening one week before I came to hospital something happended to me. That Saturday afternoon I left my house and went to a soldier's Camp nearby H' ZIEKE. I went home again in the late afternoon. I stayed for a short time and saw my mother but did not have anything to eat. Our servant girl gave me a letter for one of the soldiers, "Jackie" and I went back to camp getting there about 6 o'clock. I saw Jackie and gave him the letter. I stayed in Camp for a while and at about 6.30 o'clock I started home. I came out of the woods to the road and a soldier, that man (pointing to the accused who was present at the taking of the evidence) came out of another wood. He said to me "You want to eat chocolate with me?"

I went to him and he took my hand and took me into the wood. He laid me on the ground and got my knickers off and opened the front of his pants. He was lying beside me. He then lay above me and caused me much pain. When I was free and I ran home fast.

Q.1. When you were lying on the ground you felt pain, where was the pain?

A.1. Indicates by pointing at her genital region.

Q.2 Did you see anything of his body at this time?

A.2 No, I didnt look. I covered my eyes with my hands.

Q.3 Did you feel any part of his body?
A.3 Yes, his 'thing'

Q 4 How did you feel it?
A 4 It was in me.

Q 5 When you went home was there any blood any place?
A 5 No, I saw some on Sunday.

Q 6 Did you tell your mother when you got home about what happened?
A 6 No, there was a guest in the house.

Q 7 Had you any pain when you got home?
A 7 No, there was pain that night.

Q 8 Where was the pain?
A 8 Indicates by pointing to region previously pointed to.

Q 9 When did you tell your mother?
A 9 I told mother one morning and mother got a doctor the same day.

Q 10 Why did you tell your mother?
A 10 Because much blood came out, red blood.

Q 11 Did you go back to the soldiers camp after this happened any time?
A 11 No

Q 12 Did you see the soldier who did this to you again?
A 12 No.

Q 13 After you came to the hospital did you ever see the same soldier?
A 13 Yes, I saw him outside the building, (turns and looks out window and points to grass lawn), there.

Q 14 How many times did you see him?
A 15 I saw him 4, no, 5 times. The first time there were 4 men and he was one of them. The next time there were many men, I counted one, two, three, four, five, six.

Q 16 Did you ever point him out to anyone?
A 16 Yes.

Q 17 When you were with the soldier in the wood did you see anything special he had?
A 17 No.

Q 18 Did he give you anything?
A 18 No.

(cont)

Q 19 Did he show you a watch?
A 19 Yes, he took it off his wrist and put it on mine. He strapped it on and left it for about 5 minutes.

Q 20 Did you see some watches at the hospital?
A 20 Yes.

Q 21 Had you seen any of them before?
A 21 Yes, I recognized one watch.

Q 22 Do you know whose it was?
A 22 It was his (Pointing to the accused)

Q 23 How do you know whose it was?
A 23 I had seen it before and had had it on my wrist.

Since the child was obviously becoming very tired the summary was adjourned.

A.M. McQuarrie
(A.M. McQuarrie) Capt
Officer taking the Summary.

19 Aug 45 - The examination is resumed.

Q 24 What time did you get home that day you were with the soldier in the wood?
A 24 At 9.30 at night.

Q 25 You said your knickers were taken off, who took them off?
A 25 Indicates pointing to accused.

Q 26 Did you try to stop him?
A 26 Yes, but I couldnt.

Q 27 You said you were lying on the ground, did you try to get away when first on the ground?
A 27 Yes, first lying on one side. Then he took me to a ditch two times.

Q 28 When you first lay down, did you lie down or were you made to lie down?
A 28 I was pushed down.

Q 29 Did you try to get up to get away?
A 29 Yes, I tried to get away.

Q 30 Did the soldier hold you down in any way?
A 30 The first time he pushed me to the ground and then he got above me. He was not holding me .

Q 31 Why did you not get away then?
A 31 I couldn't, at first he was holding by one finger, then by shoes.

Q 32 Were you trying to get away all the time?
A 32 Yes.

Q 33 Did you say anything to him?
A 33 No.

(cont)

Q 34 Did you realize at the time what he was intending to do?
A 34 No.

Q 35 Do you know now?
A 35 Yes, he tried to fuck me.

Q 36 Did he fuck you?
A 36 Yes.

Q 37 Did he put his "thing" into you or just between your legs close to you?
A 37 He put it in.

Q 38 How many times had you seen the accused before the night when this happened to you?
A 39 I had not see him before that night and he called himself Pete

Q 40 Had you ever seen the soldier in the Camp or around there?
A 40 No.

Q 41 Was the soldier wearing a cap?
A 41 No.

Q 42 Was he wearing anything on his shoulders (pointing to shoulder flashes)
A 42. No he was wearing a yellow shirt. He was wearing one medal with a star on it.

Q 43 Why do you say this is the same soldier?
A 43 I could see, same face, moustache and hair.

Q 44 Did you want him to do what he did to you on the ground?
A 44 No.

Cross Examination:

Q 45 Did the soldier who lay on top of you have a moustache?
A 45 Yes.

Re Examination

Q 46 What makes you say he had a moustache?
A 46 Because he had.

Q 47 Did he kiss you?
A 47 No

Q 48 Was the moustache a long or short one?
A 48 It was black, it was here and here (indicating over length of mouth.

Further cross-examination by Accused

Q 49 Was it like the one I have on now?
A 49 Yes.

(Johanna ter Riet)

The accused declined to cross examine the witness further.

SECOND WITNESS F 76799 Cpl POIRIER, William Francis, No. 8 Provost Coy, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am investigation Cpl for 8 Provost Coy. On instructions received I commenced an investigation of the facts herein on 22 Jul 45. On that day I proceeded to the unit lines of the Prince Edward Island Light Horse which were situated in a wood on the left side of the HENGELO - ENSCHEDE highway about 4 mile from HENGELO. There I obtained information and a document purporting to be a medical certificate"

" As a result of the information received I visited Dr. H.J. Amesz, Kortemaerstraat, ENSCHEDE. From him I received a medical certificate on 23 Jul 45. "

Document produced, examined and marked Exhibit 'B' in this summary of Evidence.

(C.D. McQuarrie) Capt

" After some further investigation on the morning of 24 Jul 45 I again visited Dr Amesz. In the company of Dr. Amesz I visited Johanna ter Riet in the Ziekenzorg Hospital in ENSCHEDE. I found her in bed and found that she was a small child. I spoke to her through the doctor as interpeter and after asking her several questions determined that she was an intelligent child. With the doctor's consent I then arranged for an identification parade to be held at the unit lines of the PEILH. The parade was held as arranged at about 1500 hrs on 24 Jul 45. The child Johanna, was carried to the parade ground. She was then taken along both front and rear ranks of the two rank parade. I was beside her and watched her closely as she glooked at each man in turn. No identification was made on this parade. I then checked the PEILH records for absentees through duties, leaves and hospitalization. I found that three members of the unit had been evacuated to hospital subsequent to 14 Jul 45, two of these with VDG and one with tonsilitis. After further investgation I proceeded to LEEUWARDEN on 26 Jul 45 and visited HQ 11 Cdn Inf Bde where I found B 143368 Cpl DESCHENE, L.A. whom I now identify as the accused present at the taking of this Summary of Evidence. I brought him to No. 8 Provost Coy where I detained him.

...../6

Since I had not seen this man on the first identification parade I held a second parade on 27 Jul 45. Four men were present, none of whom I had seen on the first parade. Both the men who had been evacuated to hospital subsequent to 14 Jul 45 suffering from VDG were present on this parade. The parade was held between 1100 hrs and 1200 hrs on the grass lawn of the hospital in ENSCHEDE where the girl was. The four men were lined up after their hats and tunics had been removed. I stayed outside. The child, Johanna, was brought to her window on the third floor of the hospital over-looking the lawn. I then placed myself behind each man in turn. The child watched and as I placed myself behind the accused she nodded her head affirmatively but as I stood behind the others in turn she shook her head negatively. I made no signal of any kind to her but merely stopped behind each man and waited for her signal.

The child was then brought downstairs and placed at an open window. The men stood about 5 feet in front of her outside the window and she identified the same man.

During the time the child was being brought downstairs I gathered together her four watches two of which I got from the accused, one of these being a pocket watch and one a wrist watch. After the identification parade I placed the watches on the window sill in front of the girl. I instructed the nurse, Miss Derksen, to ask the child if she recognized any of the watches. I turned away and did not watch the girl make her selection and when I turned back the nurse showed me one of the watches. I examined the watch and found that it was the wrist watch handed to me by the accused. I told the accused I was going to retain his watches and I returned the others. At the time I first asked the accused for his watch he produced a pocket watch. He was not wearing his wrist watch. I said to him "Where is your wrist watch?" He replied "it is broken, its in my coat". He proceeded towards his tunic but on the way reached in hispants pocket and got out the writs watch and came back and gave it to me. I examined the watch and found that it was still going and was ten minutes slower than mine which showed 10 minutes to 12 o'clock. I again checked the same watch at 1430 hrs and it was still going and was still 10 minutes slower than mine. I then returned Deschene to his unit and placed him under close arrest in unit custody. No charge was laid at the time.

After further investigation I returned to the PRISON at about 1800 hrs on the same day and interviewed the accused. I first cautioned him as follows:

SECOND WITNESS
(cont)

"You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so, but whatever you may say will be taken down in writing and can be given in evidence".

The accused then made the following statement which I took down in writing and have in my possession in my record book.

"I am Deschene, LA, a member of the Irish Regt of Canada, 5 Cdn Armd Div. I was a member of the PEILH Regt up until I was SOS to hospital on 15 Jul 45. I was in hospital from 15 Jul 45 until 17 Jul 45. I was released to 13 Bn CBRG at NIJMEGEN, arriving there at approx 1800 hrs 17 Jul 45.

On 19 Jul 45, I was shipped to 5 Div holding unit at GRONINGEN, from there ~~wa~~I was posted to the Irish Regt of Canada at HEERENVEEN.

On 15 Jul, I reported on sick parade and was sent from unit RAP to FDS at HENGELO, and from there I was taken to VDTU in APPLEDORN for treatment.

On 27 JulIwas identified as the soldier who committed an offence against a young girl and I was placed under close arrest. In view of the fact that I was identified as the person who committed this, all I can say is that it is a case of mistaken identity, and I have no knowledge of the case whatsoever, time and place where it happened and had never seen this young girl before today."

"I have read over this statement and I have been given the opportunity to make any corrections necessary. I sign my name to show that the statement is true"

The accused then signed his name to the statement.

"In order to eliminate any possible doubt I held a third identification parade at the hospital at about 1500 hrs on 30 Jul 45. Twenty four other ranks in shirt sleeves and without caps were lined up in the lawn. In the room with the child, Johanna were her nurse, Sister Derksen, Lt R.D. Faulkner, an officer from the PEILH and me. The girl indicated the sixth man from the right flank of the parade. I looked there and recognized the accused. The girl was then taken back to her bed so she couldn't see. The parade was shuffled. The girl was brought back to the window and without hesitation indicated the 19th man. I looked and recognized him as the man. Previously I had instructed the nurse, as interpeter, to ask the girl if she could see the man who had been the cause of her coming to the hospital. Each time on this parade I saw that the accused was squinting and distorting his features although there was no sun or other obvious reason for so doing. Next, we~~e~~ all came downstairs to a window and ~~s~~he men walked past in single file slowly within reach of the child. When the accused passed I saw the child reach out and touch him. She made no attempt to touch any of the others. My instructions to the nurse had been to have the child touch the man who had molested her if he was among those present on the parade.

I should add that on 24 Jul 45 I brought the nurse, Miss Derksen and the girl from the hospital. Shm, the child, directed me to a place in the woods where she pointed out a particular spot as the place where something had happened to her. The PEILH Camp was in the immediate area being about 200 yards away and it had been there for some time. The Tactical Number of the PEILH is No. 17. The place the child showed me was about a mile from her home which I had already visited.

THIRD WITNESS

Henricus Joannes Amesz - ENSCHEDE, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I am a qualified physician specializing in gyneacology and obstetrics and practice in the Province of Overyssel in the Netherlands. I have been specializing for 20 years."

A document marked Exhibit 'B' in this Summary of Evidence is shown to the Witness and recognized.

" I wrote this paper, it is a medical report dated 23 Jul 45. I wrote it after an examination of Johanna ter Riet who is here in this room. I found her condition to be suffering from pain in the external genitals and a flow of puss from those organs. It was caused by an infection of gonoccus. The condition was one which would have existed for a period of from 3 days to 3 months. It is not possible to place the date of contraction closer. There were no wounds to be seen. It is not possible for me to say whether she had ever had contact with a man. There was definitely no penetration. "

Q 1 If an man had inserted his penis in this childs genitals about 1 week before your examination would you have seen the effects?
A 1 Yes. There was no such penetration.

Q 2 Could there have been any insertion at all?
A 2 No, not without leaving visible signs and there were none.

Q 3 May there have been contact?
A 3 I suppose so because she had contracted gonorrhoea but it is not sure. She could have contracted it from a toilet seat or some other source.

(cont)

Q 4 Did the child tell you where she thought she had contracted the disease?

A 4 Yes, she told me a story.

Q 5 Was the accused present?

A 5 No.

Q 6 Is it possible that the soldier inserted his penis in the childs genitals to the slightest extent?

A 6 NO, it is NOT possible, she is too small.

FOURTH WITNESS Johanna Hermana Wennink having been duly sworn states:

" I am Johanna Hermana Wennink, divorced woman, residing at DRIENER Eschweg 138, Hengelo (O). I have two children, one boy and one girl Johanna Hillygje ter Riet. She is known by the name of her father where as I have resumed my maiden name. My daughter Johanna is 8 years and 6 months of age have been born to me at ENSCHEDE on 12 Feb 1937. Johanna is now in hospital, the Ziekenzorg Hospital at ENSCHEDE.
I do not know what the illness is, I only saw that puss and blood were coming out from here genital organs. I saw that on Friday morning the 20 Jul 45. In the morning my daughter came to me in my bedroom and said"mother, look here I have got my pyjamas dirty" So I went downstairs to the kitchen. I had a look at it and cleaned it and sent my daughter back to bed. When later she came down stairs to the W C she asked me to hold her because of much pain. In the morning when the child came to the kitchen I said, "Jojo tell me what happened". The child said "No Mother I wont tell you because I am afraid you will beat me". I replied "No, I will not beat you, you should tell me ev rything". The child said, "I have been to the camp on Saturday". She said, " I intended to go home and a soldier jumped over barbed wire and told me to come to him, so I went to the soldier". He said, "Come with me, I have chocolate and cigarettes". "The child also told me that she was sitting down with the soldier and he placed a wrist watch on her wrist.

"The child said, "and then the soldier/* s[illegible] come here I will give you a packet of cigarettes and I got the packet". She then told the soldier she had to leave because she had to pass water. Meanwhile she ran home and then she hid the cigarettes under the leaves.

I then wrote a letter at about 8 o'clock Friday night to Jack and French, soldiers from the camp which had number 17 on the cars. It is about 15 minutes walk from here. As aresult the child was examined by Dr Rutgers of ENSCHEDE who came to the house here. The child was taken to hospital on Saturday night at 7 o'clock on 21 Jul 45."

Q1 Was the child in the habit of going to the camp?
A1 Yes, practically every day.

Q2 Did any one go with her?
A2 Yes, sometimes her brother.

Q3 Did she know any of the soldiers?
A3 Yes.

Q4 When the child was talking to you in the kitchen did she say who the soldier was?
A4 Yes, it was the soldier who was sitting with Bonnie, John and herself beside the street when it was raining heavy on a Tuesday two weeks before.

Q5 Do you know the soldier referred to?
A5 No.

Q6 Did you find out?
A6 No

Q7 When did she tell you these words about the soldier?
A7 Friday morning, when I helped the child in the kitchen, 20 Jul 45.

Q8 Did she tell you this at the same time she was telling about what had happened?
A8 Yes, I asked who the soldier was. She said it was the one sitting in the rain and so on.

Q9 Do you remember the Saturday the girl referred to and if so when did the girl come home?
A9 At 8,30 at night because I looked at the clock because it was so late.

The Accused declines to cross examine the witness except as follows:

Q1 Who is this 'Bonnie'

Derkge Boukje, SCHUT, now residing at Driener Eschweg 135 with Mrs Wennink but real home in DEVENTER, Enkdwarstraat 19.

Q1. How old are you?
A1. 21 years

Q2 What is your nickname?
A2 Bonnie

Q3 Do you remember ever sitting in the rain with Jojo and a soldier?
A3 Yes.

Q4 Who is Jojo?
A 4 She is the daughter of Mrs Wennink.

Q5 Do you remember the solder?
A5 Yes, when he came here on a Sunday afternoon with Cpl (she indicates Cpl Poirier)

Q6 Was this soldier who came here the same one who was sitting with you in the rain?
A6 Yes.

Q7 Have you seen him since?
A7 No.

Q8 Would you know him if you saw him again?
A8 Yes, because there he sits, there on the chair (indicates the accused)

Q9 Where was it you were sitting in the rain with him?
A9 I do not know because I was new here. It was about 15 minutes walk from here.

Q10 About when was it you were sitting with him in the rain?
A10 About 6 weeks ago at 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Q11 Were you here when Jojo went to the hospital?
A11 Yes

Q12 How long before was it that you sat in the rain with the soldier? ~~about 14~~
A12 About 14 days

Q 13 Why were you sitting in the rain?
A13 We were hiding under a tree because it was raining heavily. We were there about 15 minutes.

Q14 How was it that the soldier was with you?
A14 I was sitting with Jojo and the soldier came down the street and spoke to us in English which I understand having learned it in school.

Q15 Did you talk to the soldier?
A15 Yes, of course.

Q16 After the rain finished what happened?
A16 We came home. The soldier did not come. I did not see him again until the Sunday afternoon with the Cpl.

FIFTH WITNESS (cont)

Cross examination by the Accused:

Q1 Were you not sitting with your young brother in the rain when I came with a radio under my arm?
A1 Yes, only my brother with me. Jojo was not there.

Re-examination

Q1 Did Jojo see the soldier?
A1 No

Q2 Had you seen the soldier before?
A2 No.

Cross examination

Q1 How did Jojo know that it was me who was sitting under the tree with you and your brother?

A1 I do not know.

SUPPLEMENTARY SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B 143369 Cpl DESCHENE, LA.

FIRST WITNESS

Lt R.D. Faulkner, Pl Comd, Prince Edward Island Light Horse having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I know the accused Deschene, from date of his return to unit when he was brought back by Provost Cpl. I had not known him previously. On the day of an identification parade I was taken along as a witness that Cpl Poirier used no kind of persuasion or help with regard to the child Johanna identifying the accused. I was present in the child's room with the Provost Cpl and the nurse during the identification parades on this day. The parade was formed up below us. The girl was brought to the window. By counting the men she identified Deschene, that is to say she started from her left and counted to the right. She stopped when she reached Deschene. The girl was then taken away from the window. Cpl Poirier gave instructions to shuffle the parade. When this had been done she was brought back to the window and once more identified Deschene in the same manner. He had been placed in a new position. The girl was then brought down to the ground floor and the men were paraded past an open window in single file. As Deschene passed she reached out and touched him to identify him as she had been instructed to do.
When the two previous parades were held the men had to look up in order that we could see their faces. Deschene appeared to me to be distorting his features by squinting his eyes. There was no sunshine at the time. It was a dull overcast day.

Q1 What is the tactical n mber of the PEILH?
A1 It is No. 17.

Q2 Does that number appear on your vehs?
A2 Yes.

Q3 At the time referred to where was your camp?
A3 It was situated between HENGELO and ENSCHEDE in the previous 2 Corps area, in a wooded farming area.

Q4 Can you state the approximate dates between which it was in that place?
A4 I would say the month of June and the month of July.

Q5 You said you were taken along as witness that no persuasion was used or help given to the child on the identification parade, can you state whether there was any sort of persuasion or help to the child?
A5 No, there was no persuasion or held whatsoever.

Cross examination by accused

Q1 In connection with distorting my features, would you that be a logical move after I had already been identified in 2 previous parades?
A1 I don't know, that would depend on the individual himself.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No sir (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on third charge(s). ~~The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~ MD

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(E). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charge(s) on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1) 15 MD

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Form E on p 3.

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 76 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 46-47 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 90(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 46 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 46 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 46 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(K), KR Can 565(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 2 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On inp.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (ii).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 739.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

Evidence for prosecution

First Witness - F30247 Sgt J.C. Kehoe, 27 C.H.R.

having been sworn states:

"I am as above described. I was in the Sgt Mjrs room at the time that Gnr Duclos refused the order. Sgt. Mjr gave Duclos an order to report to the kitchen & Duclos replied "I will not do it, sir". Sgt. Mjr replied, "You refuse my order!" Duclos replied, "Yes sir". I recognize the accused. The Sgt Mjr placed the accused under arrest when he disobeyed the order. The Sgt Mjr did not show any signs of prejudice at the time. The accused did not give any reason for not being able to work in the kitchen. (Defg Offr objects to a leading question & the prosecutor does not pursue the matter farther)

X-examn

Duclos was not drunk under the influence of liquor when this order was given. There was a great deal of drinking amongst the men of the regt due to VE day celebrations. I am not certain that Duclos may not have been suffering from a bad night the night before.

By the court.

I don't know the approximate time of this occurrence. I don't know what date it happened. The person referred to as the Sgt. Mjr is Sgt. Mjr Caffrey.

By the J.A.

This happened in the Sgt. mjrs room. It was in the early evening. I had had my supper. I had been on duty all day with the Sgt. mjr. I am his driver. I don't know why the Sgt mjr was detailing Duclos to report to the kitchen in the evening. I belong to Argyle & so does Duclos. The sgt mjr did not say what job was to be done in the kitchen. The sgt mjr said to Duclos "Report to the kitchen" The Sgt mjr had sent for Duclos. I told the sgt mjr send a runner out for him. I had driven the Sgt mjr on several trips that day. I can't remember where my last trip was.

R.P. & 3(B) complied with.

2nd Witness. P/O H.E. Stuck, 84 Group Provost & Security Unit, R.A.F. having sworn states:

"I am as above described. I recognise the accused (points to him). He is Sgt Duclos. On 13 May 45 about 1130 hrs. I was coming out of O/C's at Police H.Q. at Longuenesse, when I saw Duclos. He had a Browning automatic in his right hand. He was pointing it at Cpl. Simpson of our unit. He was facing Simpson towards the steps which lead down from the building. I called to Duclos & suggested that he should give me the weapon. He pointed the weapon at me and said "Get me a drink" or words to that effect. W/O Rose appeared on the scene and Duclos immediately recognised his badge of rank & called him R.S.M. & threatened him with the pistol. I seized Duelos & disarmed him & Rowe & Simpson secured him. I removed the pistol later. It was not cocked but there were 10 rds. of live ammo. in the mag.

(Prosecutor produces a pistol.). This looks like the weapon. (Witness checks) The weapon was # 1566. (witness checks weapon & identifies it by the number) Exhibit "A"

Defense Cross-examin.

I would say that Duelos was under the influence of liquor. I would say that he did know what he was doing because he recognized the C.O. as an R.S.M & he appeared to recognize me as an Offr. I don't know how far away Duelos huts were. The nearest Can exhibit & our huts was parked about 100 ft away. Our huts areas were adjacent.

Re-exam. Our quarters are plainly marked.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Third witness:- 1284562 Warrant officer C.W. Rowe, 84 Sierra Leone Police Unit having been sworn states.

"I recognize Duclos, the accused. He is sitting there. (Points) at 2130 hrs on 12 May '45 I had occasion to go onto the terrace adjacent to the Offrs & sgts mess of my unit. I there saw P/O Strutt & Cpl Simpson of my unit & a Can soldier whom I now know to be this Pte Duclos. Duclos was pointing a pistol at P/O Strutt & then he saw me & said. "Here's the R.S.M." & he ordered me into line - pointing the pistol at me. I got into line; we hesitated for a second; Duclos' attention was distracted. P/O Strutt disarmed Duclos, whilst Simpson & myself overpowered him. We took him to the civilian jail in Lingom.

(VI). Jas.

X. ex. am.

I had encountered Dueks earlier in the evening. It was 1900 hrs — 7 o'clock, sir. The accused had been drinking, but he was not incapable. I could not say whether he was worse at 2130. He was very unsteady on his feet. It seemed to me he had been drinking heavily.

By the court:

I think the accused knew what he was doing at 2130. He recognized me as the R.S.M. & I had had him escorted from the ops room 2 hours earlier.

By. d.a.g.

The accused face was flushed. I concluded that he had had more to drink since 1900 hrs.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Fourth Witness - 1046750 Cpl Simpson J. R. 84 Group, Police Unit, having been sworn states:

"I am as above described. I recognise Pte Duclos. (Points to him). On I was in my sleeping quarters at H.Q. at 2125 hrs, 13 May '45. I went from there towards dining hall & there I saw on the steps. I saw Duclos. He stopped me & said. "Where is your R.S.M.?" I said. "I don't know" He then said. "You'll do then." And he produced a pistol & put it in my ribs. He then said. "Where is your arm?" I said, "It's down the steps outside." He marched me thro' dining room to terrace outside. & We stopped at the top of the steps to attract attention. We were then joined by P/O. Stink who came across & Duclos turned to Mr Stink & said "I want a drink," pointing the gun at Mr. Stink, and ordering him to get into him against the wall. Mr Rowe came along then & Durlos said." Ah! you're the R.S.M." & Durlos attention was attracted for a moment. Mr Stubbs knocked Durlos' arm up & Mr. Rowe & I secured him.

X-examn:-

- I would say that Durlos had had some drink. He seemed to know what he wanted. There were 10 his rounds - all in the mag. the pistol may have been cocked when he pointed it at me. Afterwards it was not cocked.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Prosecution announces that S/M Caffrey, a witness in the S.J.C. is in a hospital in Belgium & cannot be produced. Defending Offr does not require attendance of S/M Caffrey.

Prosecution closes its case.

D-4.

Defy offr - entirely 1st charge not substantiated. Rules re notes that accused must be given an opportunity to comply with command. Merely answering "I will not do it". is not failure to obey.

On second charge.

for 2. Of see 2 A.A. - pointing an unloaded weapon should be charged under sec 40. this type of weapon is not loaded until the action is cocked & a round is moved into the chamber. Under a loaded rifle & ~~a loaded~~ rifle with a loaded magazine.

Prosecutor has no reply.

Court is closed.

Court is reopened & Pres. announces the findings.

D-6

first witness - Lieut. H. G. C. Mercer, 27 CAR.

sworn states:

"I am as above described. Spr Duclos first came to me about 1 Apr '45. He served as gunner in my tank. I had him in my crew for about 1 month. During this time we were almost constantly in action. I found him to be a keen & alert gunner. He did a creditable job & at all times carried out his duties to the best of his ability. He got on well with the rest of my crew, & the rest of my troop. Towards the end of the month of April, I noticed that Tpr Davies showed that he was under some strain when he was in action. A few days later, whilst under fairly heavy shell fire, he displayed more signs of exhaustion. The next morning he asked if he could be sent back from F. echelon for a rest as he was incapable of further work in tanks. I immediately notified my Sqn. Ldr & suggested that Tpr Davies' request be complied with as further action would possibly bring him to the breaking point and it was not good for the morale of the rest of my men. This request was complied with. In my opinion, Tpr Davies was, at the time, a case of battle exhaustion, & was no longer able to carry out the duties assigned to him to the best of his ability. After VE day, there was quite a bit of liquor in the regiment and there was considerable drinking. It was going on at the time of this incident. After disciplinary action was taken & liquor confiscated things settled down. I think that if Deals had not been given a rest at that time he might have been a bad case. After VE day Deals told me that he had volunteered for service with the Far East Forces.

Prosecutor has no summing up.

Defence sums up.

Renews submission that pistol was not loaded. It is understood that a rifle is not loaded until such time as a round is placed in the chamber & the bolt closed. When the mag. contains rounds but there are none in the chamber, it has never been considered as loaded. It is the same with the Browning pistol. The action must be worked after the mag. has been placed in place.

Although the pistol was pointed at the accused, there is no statement that the accused threatened them. There is no evidence that the accused had the intention of harming the witnesses.

Pres. informs that in view of fact that ct. has already considered the ~~the~~ no defence was offered and charge, as summing up by the J.A. is necessary.

E-1.

Plea in mitigation.

E-1

Dachau has earned his county well.
On VE day there was free liquor of a high alcoholic content around the regiment. It was consumption of hostilities & the celebrations carried on over the week-end; - not only in this particular unit but throughout the entire United Nations. Dachau having recently been under great nervous strain, & being a gunner had it instilled into him that might is right; having hung on to life itself by his weapons, can quite conceivably, under the influence of this liquor, which has already been declared dangerous & provisions in military documents, could easily have reverted to the weapon he was still authorized to carry not realizing under the flush of alcohol, the seriousness of what he was doing. The fact of Dachau being in same vicinity as this camp, is a very remote error when under the influence, especially when the 2 camps were adjacent to each other. I would ask you to consider that in both these charges. Dachau could have been spared this trouble by proper supervision of the liquor being drunk. Or being somewhat of a battle casualty. The N.C.O's & other men of the regiment would have been doing no more than their duty in looking after Ducks.

M & M 6. shows no serious crime previously, but only 3 cases of the most minor offences which are an every day occurrence.

If you must punish this man consider that he has served his country, that he got into trouble when celebrating victory with his fellow countrymen, that he has volunteered to serve in the far east. Even with this service in the far east, there is the possibility of demobilizing him still under the handicap of a [illegible] punishment.

There are weak spots in the evidence & they should be considered when fixing punishment. These points could not have occurred if Ducks had not been under the influence of liquor.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D 131750 Tpr. Duclos, M.A.G. 27th Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus Regt) Cdn Army O/Seas, Charged with:

A.A. 9 Sec 2 (1) Disobeying a lawful command given by a Superior Offr, in that he on the 13th May 45 refused to obey an order given to him by D 47038 A/SSM Gaffrey, N.L.

A.A. 8 Sec 1 (2) Offering Violence to a Superior Offr, in that he on the 13th May 45, held up F/O H. Strub (RAFP) at point of loaded automatic.

A.A. 40 (3) Conduct to the prejudice of good order, and military discipline, in that he on the 13th May 45 entered a H.Q. that was Out of Bounds to him (84 Grp R.A.F. Police).

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

First Witness D 47038 A/SSM Gaffrey, N.L. 27th Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus Regt) being duly sworn states:

I am D 47038 A/SSM Gaffrey, N.L. "A" Sqn 27th Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus Regt), on the 13th May 45 the accused Tpr. Duclos, M.A.G. upon being given a direct order from me to work in the Sqn kitchen replied, " I won't do it, Sir"., to which I queried him with " Do I understand Duclos that you refuse to obey my order?". Duclos replied, " Yes Sir." I placed Tpr. Duclos under Open Arrest.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Norman Gaffrey

(N.L. Gaffrey, D 47038) A/SSM

Second Witness F 30247 Tpr. Kehoe, J.C. being duly sworn states:

I am F30247 Tpr. Kehoe, J.C. "A" Sqn 27th Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus Regt) I was in A/SSM Gaffrey's office where I heard him give Tpr. Duclos a direct order to work in the Sqn kitchen to this he replied, " I won't do it Sir." Then the A/SSM replied, " Do I understand Duclos that your refuse to obey my order?", to which Duclos replied, " Yes Sir".

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

J. C. Kehoe

(F 30247 Tpr. Kehoe, J.C.)

Third Witness P/O H. Strub D.A.P.M.,R.A.F. Police 84 Grp Police Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am P/O H. Strub D.A.P.M. R.A.F. Police 84 Grp. Police Unit, On the 13th May 45 at 2130 hrs I left the anti-room of the Offrs Mess 84 Grp Police Unit.

On coming out of the main door into the terrace, I saw a Cdn soldier, now known to me as D 131750 Tpr. Duclos, M.A.G. of the 27th C.A.R. (Sher Fus) Regt. threatening 1046750 Cpl. Simpson, K.J. R.A.F. Police with a Browning automatic pistol, he was pointing the pistol at Cpl. Simpson's chest in the region of his heart, and he forced Cpl. Simpson down the steps at pistol point. I could see the above named Cdn soldier had been drinking, his whole bearing was unsteady, and his steps uncertain. I called him, and suggested that he let me have his pistol. The soldier then said, " Right, get me a drink", and pointed the pistol at me. By this time 1284562 W/O Howe, C.W. Unit W/O 84 Grp Police Unit arrived on the scene, the soldier recognized W/O Howe as the R.S.M. ordered him to get into line, and pointed the pistol at him. We managed to distract his attention when I immediately disarmed him, and W/O Rowe, and Cpl. Simpson secured him. I gave orders for him to be taken to the Civil jail to be detained in Close Arrest, pending further inquires. Immediately after disarming Tpr. Duclos I examined browning pistol automatic Number IT 1566 (produced) it was not cocked, in the magazine their were 10 rounds of live ammunition.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Fourth Witness 1284562 W/O Rowe, C.W. R.A.F. Police 84 Grp Police Unit. beeg duly sworn states:

I am 1284562 W/O Rowe, C.W. R.A.F. Police 84 Grp Police Unit. At 2130 hrs on the 13th May 45 I had occasion to visit the Terrace adjacent to the Offrs, and Sgts Mess at this unit. I saw a Cdn soldier whom I now recognize as D 131750 Tpr. Duclos, M.A.G. of the 27th Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus Regt), he was pointing a revolver at P/O Strub, and Cpl. Simpson R.A.F. both of this unit. The soldier recognized me as the R.S.M. by virtue of an incident which occured at 1900 hrs this day, when I had ordered him from the Sgts. Mess of this unit. Tpr. Duclos pointed the revolver at me, and ordered me into line with P/O Strub, and Cpl. Simpson. Together we distracted his attention. P/O Strub disarmed him, and Cpl. Simpson, and myself secured him.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

I am 1046750 Cpl. Simpson, J.K. R.A.F. Police 84 Grp. Police Unit. At 2225 hrs on the 13th May 45 I was in the airmens sleeping quarters at this unit H.Q. On the steps from the airmens sleeping quarters, to the airmens dining room I saw a Cdn soldier who I recognize as Tpr. Ducles, M.A.G. He said to me, " Where is your R.S.M. ?" I replied, " I don!t know.". He then produced a revolver, which I regognized as a Browning Automatic, pointed it at me, and said, " You!ll do then". He further said to me, " Where is your arms ?" (meaning my revolver) "Surely you have something!" I replied, " It is outside, down the steps." He said, "We will go and get it.", putting the revolver to my ribs, he marched me thru the airmens dining room, and anti-room to the steps outside. We stopped at the top of the steps for a moment, I talked to him trying to attract attention when we were joined by P/O Strub D.A.P.M. of this unit. He pointed the weapon at P/O Strub, and said he wanted a drink. We were then joined by W/O Rowe, C.W. of this unit, the soldier immediately recognized him as the R.S.M. and pointed the revolver at him. His attention distracted, P/O Strub disarmed him, W/O Rowe, and myself secured him. I examined the revolver number IT 1566 which was the revolver that was taken from Tpr. Ducles, which contained 10 live rds of ammunition.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1) K. G. L.
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the first & second charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the second charge(s), and allowed on the first charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (not) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans No. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans Yes
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 1 & 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the 1st Charge charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans No.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "2" and Ex "3" respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes, by my Defending Offr.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. G-27295 Cpl Bertram Robert Forse, No 3 Cdn Base Corps being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Question by the Prosecutor. The charge was read to the witness.

Tell the court what you know about this charge beginning with the times and dates.

Ans. I am G-27295 Cpl Bertram Robert Forse.

On the 25th Jan 1943 I duties took over security duties at Base HQ, 1st Cdn Corps at approximately 1150 hours. The names of the men on the different shifts were called and the first shift took over duties. Pte Dudley was on the 2nd shift at approximately 1350 hrs. I approached Pte Dudley and warned him it was time to get dressed to take over his duties at 1400 hrs. At approximately 1355 hours he had made no move to get up so I again approached him and told him to get dressed as he was going to be late. I then left the billets and went around the post to visit the men who were on guard. Then I returned to the main gate at approximately 1405 hrs. I met Pte Montgomery who told me the Pte Dudley was not turning out to take over his duties and knowing that it would have to take his place had come to meet me in order that the men might be relieved as soon as possible. I ordered him to take over Pte Dudley's duties at the post and proceeded on to the billets. Pte Dudley was standing by the stove. I asked him if he realized what he was doing and his answer[2] was yes. I placed him under close arrest and ordered Cpl Shields to act as escort. On my way to report the incident to the Orderly Sgt by phone I met Sgt Boyce and reported to him the above charge. That is all, Sir.

Pros Ques. You gave the accused an order to go on duty?

Ans I addressed him with the following words:- "It is 10 min to 2. Get dressed and get out or you will be late."

Pros Ques. The accused knew beforehand what shift he was going on, did he not?

Ans. Yes, Sir.

Pros Ques. Can you tell the court exactly what the accused said?

Ans. At approximately 1300 hrs Pte Dudley asked me if he could be replaced on guard so he did not think that he was going out. I asked him why he replied that he did not want to be able to get along in the Coy. I told him that he knew that we had no spare men and that he would do his guard. He also asked me if a man could be called from the "stand by" section. I told him I would call no one and not to be so foolish and to do his own guard.

Defense Ques. Was the accused asleep when you went to rouse him at 1330 hrs?

Ans. No, Sir.

Def Ques. Did you use any strong argument to get Pte Dudley out or were your words only "come on get out"?

Ans I tried to explain to him what it would mean if he refused to take over his duties and he replied that he knew.

Def Ques. How long has Pte Dudley been in the Coy prior to this incident

Ans I'm not sure, Sir, but for some time.

Def Ques. It is the custom with your guard that if a man is late he makes up the extra time on his next shift?

Ans No, Sir. The men are warned in time to get dressed and take over their duties

Def Ques. Did you warn Pte Montgomery to take over Pte Dudley's shift?

Ans. No, I did not, sir. I had mentioned previously that Pte Montgomery was the only available man. I section was to corroborate a recently obtained signature of how short they were.

Def Ques When you returned from the guard house at approximately 1400 hrs you found Pte Dudley out of bed?

Ans Yes, Sir Pte Dudley was standing by the stove with a stick in his hand poking in some manner his tunic was not buttoned up

Def Ques Did he say anything to you about going out and taking on his duty then Ans No, Sir. I told him to go out and take over from Pte Montgomery but I received no answer.

The evidence was read back to the witness and was accepted as correct R.P. §3(b) complied with

Second Witness for Prosecution

H-6399 Sgt William John Inge "B Coy Pros. Coy HQ. 1 Cdn Corps.

being duly sworn:-

Pros Ques. Will you tell the Court exactly what you know about this charge.

Ans. I am H-6399 Sgt William John Inge.

On Dec 23 1943 I was in charge of the security Guard at Rear H.Q. At about 1415 hrs I arrived at the guard and saw Cpl Jones. He informed me that he had put Pte Dudley under close arrest for refusing to go on guard. He also stated that he had put Pte Montgomery on guard in Dudley's place. I instructed Cpl Jones to take Pte Dudley to Coy HQ and this he did. When Pte Dudley was getting into the truck I asked him what was the matter with him and he replied nothing. I asked him why he refused to go on guard and he replied I did not say that That is all, sir.

Pros Ques. You stated just now, you said 23 Dec 43. You mean 23 Jan 43?

Ans Yes, sir.

Pros Ques Pte Dudley was taken to Coy HQ under arrest?

Ans Yes, sir.

Defence Ques. Was Pte Dudley dressed for duty when put into the truck

Ans No, sir.

Nil re-examination

The evidence was read back to the witness and was accepted as correct R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Third witness for Prosecution

K-52852 Pte George Edward Montgomery "B Coy Pros Corps 1st Cdn Corps

being duly sworn:-

Pros Ques. Will you tell the Court what you know of the incident concerning Pte Dudley.

Ans I am K-52852 Pte George Edward Montgomery.

On 23rd Jan 1943 at about 1350 hrs I was in the hut at Rear HQ 1 Cdn Corps. I heard Cpl Jones tell Pte Dudley that it was time to go out and take his shift. Pte Dudley did not move. After a while Cpl Jones again ordered Pte Dudley to go out and take his shift. Pte Dudley still made no answer and did not move. Cpl Jones left the hut immediately afterwards. After a short space of time I asked Dudley myself if he was going to take his post. He said "No". I therefore put on my equipment and went out and reported to Cpl Towse. He ordered me to take Pte Dudleys shift. That is all, sir.

Pros Ques. About what time did you leave billets to take over the post?

Ans. Roughly about 1400 hrs, sir.

Pros Ques. Had Pte Dudley made any move to go on duty?

Ans. At the time I left the hut Pte Dudley was off the bed and rolling up his bed-roll.

Pros Ques. At what time should Pte Dudley have been at his post?

Ans. I believe this shift was at 1400 hrs

Pros Ques. That is to say he should have been at his post at that time?

Ans Yes, sir.

Defence Ques Was Pte Dudley asleep or half asleep when he was ordered to go to his post.

Ans No, sir.

Def Ques On taking his post did you expect to be relieved by Pte Dudley?

Ans I expected to do the whole shift

Def Ques. Did you receive any order to prepare for duty?

Ans No, sir.

Def Ques. Did Pte Dudley ask you to take his duty for him?

Ans He asked me if I would take his shift. I saw no reason why I should.

Def Ques Do you on guard duty occasionally leave your post a few minutes late and make up for the extra time on your next shift?

Ans It is not a regular habit, sir. It is a matter of the individual.

Court Ques. What was your job in the afternoon of June 24 1942?

Ans As truck driver for C Section, sir.

No re-examination.

The evidence was read back to the witness and was accepted as correct. E.P. & S.(E.) Complaint rested

The prosecution is closed.

The Court adjourned for five minutes at the request of the defence
R.P. 40(A) complied with.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. Yes, Sir

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. Yes, Sir

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer. No, Sir.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT.

First witness for Defence.

Pte George Junior Dudley # 3 Coln Rcr Coy 1 Coln Corps being duly sworn:-

I am N-22484 Pte George Junior Dudley

Sir, I have been with my Coy for approximately 18 months. It has always been a mutual understanding with the boys on guard that if a man is late taking over his shift the time is made up on the shift to come. That is all, sir.

Def Quest. Were you asleep when you were ordered to the turn out for guard

Ans I was not asleep sir.

Def Quest Cpl Jones says that when he told you to report for duty that you gave him a negative answer, and when asked why you said that you had not been getting along very well with the Coy. Is that true.

Ans No, sir.

Def Quest Will you in your own words, tell why you did not get up when told to by Cpl Jones?

Ans At that time, sir, I had been given the understanding that when I was posted to be at a certain place at a laid down time I was not to be there one minute before or one minute after but exactly at the time laid down.

Def Quest Did you intend to take your post

Ans I had every intention of taking my post at the appointed time 1400 hrs when Pte Montgomery told me he would go out and take over my post. I therefore saw no reason as to why I should know.

Def Quest You state that Pte Montgomery told you he would take over your post?

Ans At 1356 hrs, sir.

Def Quest Did Cpl Jones order anybody to take over your post

Ans In my presence, no, sir.

Pros Quest Who gave you the understanding about changing duty at more than 1 min before or 1 min after the time given.

Ans Lieut Whalington of #3 Coln Rcr Coy

Pros Quest When?

Ans Jan 7th 1943 at 1400 hrs

Pros Quest What was that in regard to?

Accd. I was brought up in orders for 7th 1943 as I had refused to obey an order. Lt. Chittington he told me that when time was laid down for you to be at a certain place you must be there at that time not 1 min before or 1 min after.

Pros Ques. Are you sure, I state "1 min before"?

Accd I am positive.

Pros Ques You have enough time to get dressed between 1350 hrs and 1400 hrs?

Accd I did have time.

Pros Ques Would it not be impossible to shout getting dressed, shave your hut, and be on your post by 1400 hrs if you only had 1 min to do it.

Accd It would be, sir.

Pros Ques Did you intend to go on duty?

Accd I did intend to go on duty and be there at 1400 hrs. And Pte Montgomery told me he would take over for me.

Court Ques Did you receive a direct order or instruction from Cpl Jones at 1350 hrs to prepare yourself for duty

Court Ques Did you know that you had to go on duty at 1400 hrs

Accd Not prior to 1350 hrs, sir.

Court Ques Did you at 1300 hrs tell Cpl Jones that you were not going on duty?

Accd No, sir.

Court Ques Did you ask Cpl Jones if another man could be called from the hut to take your station

Accd I did sir.

Court Ques Why did you ask for this other man.

Accd I wanted to find out as to whether a Pte in the Pay Corps was to be issued a Guard

Court Ques For security guard when?

Accd At any time, sir.

Court Ques Did Cpl Jones speak to you at 1350 hrs?

Accd He did, sir.

Court Ques What did he say?

Accd Are you going on Guard? Do you realize that you are doing? I answered "No" to both questions.

Court Ques Did Pte Montgomery speak to you after 1350 hrs

Accd Yes, Sir. He asked me if I were going on guard.

4th witness for def L/Cpl Steidl A D182585 having been duly sworn states

I am L/Cpl Steidl A D182585 on the day of Jan 23 at approx 1300 hrs Pte Dudley was going out the door of the hut with his equipment on. The accused was dressed properly for guard.

In mounting the guard it is customary for the corporal to tell us it is time to change shifts and we change on our own.

Some of the provost men if they are late on a guard will make up the time on the next guard

no cross examination

Court Ques At 1300 hrs on Jan 23 was Pte Dudley going to take over his tour of duty when you saw him leaving the hut properly dressed.

Ans. Sir I don't know.

Court Ques Did you know that Pte Dudley's tour of duty started at 1400 hrs

Ans I knew he was on second shift at 1400 hrs

Court Ques ~~If~~ Where were you at 1350 hrs

Ans I was ~~eging~~ on my bunk with another L/Cpl.

Court Ques Will you tell the court whether you saw Pl. Forse or lead him give Dug instructions in the hut at 1350 hrs & the accused.

Ans Sir I saw Cpl Forse walk down to hut and say to the accused it is time to go on guard what the accused said & Cpl Forse I dont know. The accused was laying on the bunk He had his blankets over him Sir Court Cpl Forse came over to me at about 1405 hrs and told me to put on my equipment and guard the prisoner Pte Dudley was standing beside his bunk with his battle dress and tunic on I was with the accused for about 20 min in the hut. Pte Dudley rolled up his bed roll and I remained with him till he left under escort.

Court for the defence summed up the evidence for the defence which is attached and marked DDI summary for the prosecution

In the first place sir I dont agree with the defense when he says that young soldiers take a little time to come under meleing discipline by the time the man has been 1 year onwards in the army he should know enough about military discipline & do as he is told ~~that~~ The defence point does not prove that the accused refused to obey the order did not disobey an order. Secondly in regard to his superior officer meddling him up the accused was ~~paraded before the~~ me the after told by ~~me~~ a superior officer that when he was given an order he was to obey it and argue about it after the order had been carried out Regardless of whether it is the custom amongst the members of the security guard how they relieve one another it does not prove ~~to did~~ that the accused did not disobey an order. No agreement the evidence ~~so~~ does not show that any agreement was arrived at between the accused and Pte Montgomery that Pte Montgomery should take over his shift therefore the accused should not have assumed that Pte Montgomery would do his shift for him & his incident also does not prove that the accused did not disobey ~~was not guilty~~ an order. The point of ~~the~~ how the accused was dressed after the time of arrest does not prove that he did not disobey the order. The accused stated in his evidence that he did not wish to go on guard as he was to find out if a promotion in the Con Provost Corps should or could do guards. If this is true why did he wait until the last minute before going to find out. When he was in the provost corp for approximately one year and six months.

The summary was read back & to prosecutor and accepted as correct. R.P. 83(13) complied

Summing Up for the Defence

No. A. 22487 Pte. Dudley, G.J.

The defence has taken no leave interest in the accused's case and finds in it a parallel to the attitude of a great number of our younger soldiers in this army to-day. Living undisturbed born and bred, regardless of home background, they have experienced great difficulty in adapting themselves readily and agreeably to army life and discipline. Too often one finds a man whose training has been sadly neglected in certain [redacted] aspects of discipline. They have been taught that they must stand to attention, salute and show due to our officers but any individual who puts out accepts, especially has he had previous years. But the younger members is now called to the service and [illegible] thousand men in army life, with tendency intolerance of junior officers and N.C.O.s and become inclined to set the over 'common herd' rather like victims Such attitude and action is admittedly wrong, but the defence maintains that circumstances cannot fully be laid on the man. A conviction or acquittal for a person with such an attitude would often [illegible] cause resentment and bewilderment in the man's mind a feeling of persecution. Quite understandably handled by a fellow man, this ~~very exploited~~ self pity or persecution complex could cause no end of trouble for the man and his colleagues.

Such is the defence's attitude towards the case.

To come to this present charge Pte. Dudley had been arraigned on a ~~[redacted]~~ charge and through wrong his own

'common sense' was Brigadier from the Royal Regt
N.C.O. rank. With this promotion came the authority from a superior officer that when he had been detailed no orders or by order to report at a certain place at a certain time. He was to be there by at that time and not one minute before or one minute after.
He then left Pte. Fenner ordered him to prepare for his tour of duty was found Pte Dudley rather uncertain in his own mind as to just what he ought to do; due to his recruit, though strong feeling of having been wronged before through no fault of his own - the prosecution enquiries - together with the absence of his superior officer Pte Dudley
[illegible] - he finally left - at the end of the camp
[illegible] the new duty arrived. Now proceed individually, I
[illegible] to make up their parts

At no time was the person felt certain that Pte. Dudley had felt intention of neglecting to do his tour of duty - By his own admission, given on oath, he states that he had every intention of doing his tour of duty. By his own evidence given under oath, he showed to the Court that unsettled he was in his thoughts, together with the fact that, having made an effort to get himself replaced, he was resolved to do his tour of duty. He was upset when his application was turned down by the Air Force returned it 1405 hrs on the 23rd Jan. Surely such actions are indicative of an intention to do his tours of the case. That he was late is no great failure in his part. Apparently it was the custom, by mutual agreement of the aircrew on duty, that should [illegible] in repairing to the crew bus the number of minutes late would be made up on the next tour of duty. Such action is a time honoured custom with Aircrew and services [illegible]

That no one was warned or ordered to take Pte Dudley's place on guard could point to Cpl Foote's ruling that Pte Dudley could take his tour of duty — or show a lack of promptness on the part of Cpl Foote, which latter ~~fact~~ must appear to the court to be improbable in view of the definite, and determined action taken by Cpl Foote when Pte Dudley was late.

~~As~~ Pte Montgomery, learning ~~that~~ that Pte Dudley failed to reach his post ~~on~~ time, ~~for~~ guard and went out there giving Pte Dudley the impression that Pte M. was taking over for him [illegible] Cpl Foote ~~had~~ ~~Pte~~ Pte D. to this ~~forewarning~~, it is quite logical and right to assume such the case. Giving Pte D, ~~and~~ being aware that he could make up lost time on his next shift, Pte D made no hurried effort to turn out to his post.

H. Swan Maj

In summing up the defence would like to lay before the court the fact that while Pte D. allegedly refused verbally to prepare for his tour of duty, he did make efforts to prepare for it and by his own sworn statement, that action was his intention of doing it. This bed was made and tennis on before he was placed under arrest. Bearing in mind the conflicting thoughts in Pte Dudley's mind, the defence cannot say with absolute [redacted] certainty that Pte Dudley did refuse to obey the order to get up and prepare for duty. May I please the court to approach their findings with these facts in mind.

No.3 Cdn. Provost Coy.
Canadian Provost Corps
1615 hrs. 26 January 1943

Summary of evidence in the case of A22489 Pte. George Junior Dudley, of No.3 Cdn. Provost Coy. Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at EastGrinstead Sussex.

The evidence will be given on Oath.

1 st. witness: Regt. No. G27295 Cpl. Bertram Robert Forse, No.3 Cdn. Provost Coy. Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at East Grinstead, Sussex, states on Oath:-

On 23 January 1943 'E' section took over Security Duties at Rear H.Q. 1 Cdn. Corps at approximately 1150 hrs. The names of the men on different shifts were called out and the first shift went on duty. At approximately 1350 hrs. 23 January 1943, Pte. Dudley was warned that it was time to get dressed to take over his duties on the second shift, which goes on duty at 1400 hrs. At approximately 1355 hrs. he had made no move to get ready and was asked again. I then left our billets to check the men on the posts. When I was returning to the billets at approximately 1405 hrs. I met Pte. Montgomery at the main gate dressed for duty. He informed me that Pte. Dudley had made no move to come out, and knowing he would have to take over his post, had come out to meet me so that the other man would be releived no later than necessary. I ordered him to take over Pte. Dudley's duties at the door in the rear courtyard of Rear H.Q. 1 Cdn. Corps. I then proceeded to our billets and endeavoured to persuade Pte. Dudley to take over his duties from Pte. Montgomery. At first I received no reply, and when I asked him if he realized what he was doing, his answer was "Yes." I then informed him that he was under close arrest and ordered L/Cpl. Steidl to act as escort. On my way to the telephone to report the incident to the Orderly Sgt. I met Sgt. Inge and reported the matter to him. He then took charge.

Question by the accused: Cpl. Forse at 1150 hrs. as you stated in your evidence, where was I at the time you warned the men for their different shifts.

Answer : All the men of the section are not always present when the names are called out, but they usually enquire from the other men or the Corporal.

Question 2 by accused: Cpl. Forse at 1355 hrs. when you left the billets and asked me to get up and get ready for duty, was I not in bed without my tunic, and cap on.

Answer to question 2: You were lying in bed without your cap but I did not notice whether you had your tunic on or not.

Question 3 by accused: In your evidence Cpl. Forse you stated that I made no further move to get ready for guard. At 1405 hrs. when you returned, was I not out of bed with cap and tunic on?

Answer to question 3: I stated that at 1355 hrs. you had made no move after being called at 1350 hrs. and that I called you the second time at 1355 hrs. and then left the billets. I did not state in my evidence where you were or what you were doing when I returned to the billets at approximately 1405 hrs.

Question 4 by accused: Was I ordered to go out on guard, or did you say are you going on guard?

Answer to question 4: At approximately 1300 hrs. when we were in the billets, you asked me if you could be replaced on the guard, that you didn't think you were going out. I informed you that we had no one to take over your duties and that you would take over your duties anyway and not be so foolish. You asked me then, if a man could not be called from the 'Stand To' section. I told you that you were going to take over your own post. When you were called at 1350 hrs. you were told to get dressed and get out and take over your duties.

2 nd. witness: Regt. No. H6399 Sgt. William John Inge, No.3 Cdn. Provost Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at East Grinstead, Sussex, states on Oath:-

On 23 January 1943 I was in charge of Paddockhurst Security Guard. About 1415 hrs. Cpl. Forse reported to me that he had put Pte. Dudley under close arrest and ordered Pte. Montgomery to take his post. I asked Cpl. Forse the reason for putting Pte. Dudley under close arrest and he told me Pte.Dudley wouldn't go on his guard. I then ordered Cpl. Forse to bring Pte. Dudley back to Company H.Q. under escort. As Pte. Dudley was getting into the truck I asked him what was the matter, and he replied, "Nothing." That is all sir.

Question by accused: After asking me what was the matter, you also asked me why I refused to go on guard. Did I not say, "I didn't say that."

Answer: Yes, that is correct.

3 rd. witness: Regt. No. K52852 Pte. George Edward Montgomery, No.3 Cdn. Provost Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at East Grinstead, Sussex, states on oath:-

I heard Cpl. Forse order Pte. Dudley to go out and take over his shift. Pte. Dudley made no move and said nothing. A few minutes later, Cpl. Forse again ordered him to take over his shift and warned him of being late. Pte. Dudley made no move and said nothing. Cpl. Forse then left billets. After a few minutes had passed I asked Pte. Dudley if he were going on post. He answered in the negative and I therefore put on my equipment and went out to meet Cpl. Forse. I explained the situation to him and he ordered me to take over Pte. Dudley's post. That is everything sir.

Question 1 by accused: Pte. Montgomery, didn't Cpl. Forse ask me "Come on it's time to get ready and go out."

Answer to question 1: I couldn't interpret that to be a question. I would say it was an order.

Question 2 by accused: Pte. Montgomery, when Cpl. Forse left the billets was I not in bed.

Answer to question 2: Pte. Dudley you were lying on the bed. You had your pants on, shirt and cardigan, and either one or two blankets thrown over you.

Question 3 by accused: Pte. Montgomery, as you were getting ready to go out, did I not get out of bed, straighten the blankets and put my tunic on.

Answer to question 3: When I left the billets with my equipment on, you did not have your tunic on and you were engaged in rolling up your bed.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (b); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(B) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para L3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (~~them~~) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ~~the~~ charge(s).(2) The accused is (are) so informed, ~~and he (they) changed his (their) plea(s) on charge(s)~~. ~~Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 38(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ~~B~~, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charge(s) on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charge(s) on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. ~~President to accused~~: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the .....charge(s), and allowed on the .....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans .....
Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans .....
Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or. The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative pronouncement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ~~C~~ and Ex ~~D~~ respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 255 or AFB 295. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans .....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 737-739. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(2), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1)(b), (d)(i), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Con 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Con) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puisant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than as to mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Con 562(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and them pinned by top left corner to p 2 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Con 507.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting as evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Con 560. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already so exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for money will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after mention of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

Statement of the Accused (Cont'd)

To Hermitage St & after waiting outside for a period of 20 - 30 mins, I was told to go down to the Can where I would be met by a friend. I was told that they would phone this friend to say I would be waiting for me.

I went to the Can Canes Rouge & met a C.W.A.C. & a group of women behind the counter. I do not remember that I was coming down. I came back to the table & had a few drinks & after I had (2 hrs ") I left & went to Piccadilly & stood around the Regent Club & met drinking afternoon with RAF people. We went drinking & that evening, I left & caught a train as I believed to be the one taking me to my home. The following morning (5th Apr '42) I left for the train & arrived at Victoria Station. I did not remember anything that happened that day. I got to Victoria & bought a ticket & got off at Victoria. I bought a paper & a ticket & got off at Victoria. INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. If you make a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. However, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO - SIR (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (1). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) charge(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part 1 of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 37(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using para D4 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him ~~(them)~~ again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. NO. SIR. (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~an~~ (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. NEITHER TO MAKE A STATEMENT. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. YES SIR. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. NO - SIR
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(*1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. B 64113 Rfn DUDLEY, R.D.C., 1 CGRU

21 & 22 NOV 1944

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR: Note D-2

Sir,

The accused, Rfn Dudley, R.D.C., was arrested at about 2015 hours near the Black Prince Public House, in London. He was arrested by two officers from New Scotland Yard Det Sgt E Cook, and Det Sgt A Webb. At the time the accused was arrested he was seated in the cab of a Cdn Mil veh with a certain number on it which was noted and had a certain unit sign on it, that was L CGRU. These facts will be demonstrated by witnesses I propose to produce. The accused was taken into custody as he was unable to answer as to what he was doing in a truck at such a place, and at such a time, the facts were reported to the Cdn Mil Provost at Cdn Mil HQ and S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS at CMHQ went to the Police station where the accused had been taken by the police officers, and took him into mil custody and removed him to the Cdn Provost Detention Barracks. The next day upon interview Dudley, it appears, made a statement. This statement will be produced, the Prosecution will also prove that in this truck were 700 army blankets. It will also be proved that at 1530 hours Dudley appeared with the same truck at the blanket xxx stores, or accommodation stores and that the truck was loaded with 700 blankets and that Dudley drove the truck away. It will further be proven from various witnesses that there was no legitimate authority of any kind granted for this purpose. Dudley further admitted that at the time of his arrest had certain documents alleging to give him the authority to proceed on such a journey, which the Prosecution will prove were not genuine, and that he knew them to be not genuine. I will now call my first witness.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION Note D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Det Sgt E COOK, New Scotland Yard, having been duly sworn states:

I am a detective sergeant employed at New Scotland Yard. About 8:15 p.m. on the 5 Oct 44 with Det Sgt Webb also of New Scotland Yard, and other officers I went to Walworth Road, Walworth, S.E. in London and about 100 yards from the Elephant and Castle I saw an army lorry No L 762820.

DEF OFFR objects to witness using his notes:

Witness: I xxx made these notes the same evening of the affair.

PRESIDENT: He may refresh his memory from notes made on the evening in question.

WITNESS CONTINUES:

I saw motor lorry L 762820 and went up to it and in the driver's seat and found a Cdn soldier, he was Cfn Dudley, he is present in the Court, (points to the accused) that is the man I found in the lorry. I said "we are police officers, what are you doing here?" He said, "I am waiting for my Sgt, he has gone to get something to eat." I said to him "where are you going? and what load have you got on?" He said "I am from Aldershot, and I am taking a load of blankets to Watford", I said "you are miles off your route", he said I am only acting on instructions", I said, "where is your sgt gone?" He said, "I have not any idea" I checked the lorry which was covered by a tarpaulin tied down, under it and in the truck I was able to see that it contained a xxxx large quantity of army blankets.

PROSECUTOR:

Outside the Court there is standing a lorry which is loaded with blankets, I would like the permission of the Court for this witness to view this lorry and the blankets and tell us if this is the lorry and if he saw a similar load of blankets, I would also ask the Court to view the lorry.

(Court, Witness, Def Offrs, Prosecutor and Accused, proceeded to view the lorry Number CL 762820 and witness continues:)

That "C" has been added in front of the "L" since I saw it on the night of 5 Oct 44. But it is definitely the veh I saw.
Def Offr did not object to marking truck Ex 1.
(Veh CL 762820 marked Ex "1" by the Court) Witness continues:

I told Dudley that I was not satisfied and that enquiries would have to be made. He then produced a printed form which he handed to me saying "this is my authority,"it showed the particulars of the load of blankets from Aldershot to Watford. This form was handed to S/Sgt Nelson of the Cdn SIS.

(Witness is shown a form and he continues):

This is the form, it is a tpt work ticket.

(Def Offrs examine form) There is no objection to the admission of it.

(Tpt work ticket marked Ex "2" by the Court) Witness continues:

I then said to Dudley,"I am still not satisfied with your explanation and enquiries will still have to be made," he then said "I will tell you the truth."
(Major Fellows)
Def Offr: /I object to that evidence because the accused had not been warned:

Wilding-White: I object on the ground that this is irrelevant and hear say evidence and that the accused had not been cautioned by the police officer. Apart from that I have no questions to ask the witness at this point.

Witness continues:

Q Had you made up your mind to charge Dudley?
A No at that time.

PROSECUTOR: I draw the attention of the Court to Sec 78, Sub Sec 1, MML. The evidence is certainly not hear say, the accused was present, and at the time he was charged with any offence and it was not in the minds of the police to charge him, the accused had merely been told that enquiries would have to be made and volunteered his statement.

Def Offr (Lt Wilding-White) He may be asked questions and he may answer them, but they cannot be used in evidence as the caution had not been given, and the man may have been allowed to go ahead and convict himself. I ask that this evidence be struck from the record and no more that the accused said before he was cautioned be taken.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE OBJECTION
COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE OBJECTION IS DIS-ALLOWED AND THE STATEMENT WILL BE ADMITTED.

What else did the accused say?
He said, "I will tell you the truth, the blankets are stolen"

He also said "I made the particulars out myself and my sgt told me what to do and where to go." I then left the lorry, leaving one officer inside the cabin with Dudley.

PROSECUTOR: Do not mention any names, go ahead with your evidence

WITNESS: From some distance away we kept observation, at about 1015 p.m. I saw a Cdn Sgt about to climb into the cabin of the lorry, and we went up to him. Later we took Dudley and this sgt and the Lorry to Carter Street Police Station where they were detained and I later informed S/S$_{gt}$ Nelson of the Cdn Mil police.

Q Did you find out who this other sgt was?
A Yes, his name was Gratrix.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY Major Fellows:

Q Can you state that you saw the accused leave the cab of the truck except at your request?
A No Sir, he did not leave until I told him to.

Q Can you say that the accused, ~~Dudley~~ Dudley endeavoured to unload the truck?
A No.

Q Can you state that the accused endeavoured to sell or pawn the blankets?
A No.

Q How do you recognize the form which we call Ex 2?
A By the particulars on it and I believe it is endorsed by Sgt Nelson.

Q How can you actually indentify it, did you initial it?
A No Sir, I took it from Dudley and gave it to Sgt Nelson.

Q Did you see Sgt Nelson actually sign the form in your presence?
A No Sir.

Q Could it be another form?
A It is possible (looks at the form) but this is no doubt the one that the accused handed to me. I remember it quite distinctly and the wording of it.

Q Do admit that it could be a form something similar to it but not exactly that form?
A It is possible as it has been out of my possession.

Q Did you meet another soldier in addition to Sgt Gratrix that evening?
A No Sir.

By Lt Wilding-White:

Q Did you count the blankets in the truck?
A No Sir.

Q You have no idea how many there was in the truck?
A No Sir.

Q to the best of your knowledge where these blankets taken off the truck at any time in London?
A No Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Det Sgt A WEBB, New Scotland Yard, having been duly sworn states:

I am a det sgt at New Scotland Yard. On the evening of 5th Oct 44 I went to Walworth road at about 8:15 p.m. with Det Sgt Cook of New Scotland Yard and some other police officers, we saw an army lorry No L 762820. There was a man in the driver's cabin and Sgt Cook spoke to him and said "what are you doing here?" The man said "I am waiting for my sgt, he has gone to get something to eat." That man was Cfn Dudley, he is present in this room, (points to the accused). Sgt Cook asked him where he had come from and where he was going to and what was the load. Dudley replied he come from Aldershot and was going to Watford. Cook said it was a round about way of getting to Watford, Dudley said "I am only acting on instructions." He said he did not know where his sgt had gone. We looked in the truck and saw a very considerable number of blankets, the lorry appeared to be filled with them. Sgt Cook said he was not satisfied with him. Dudley then handed Sgt Cook a form and said"this is my authority" it appeared to be a form authorizing him to take blankets to the hosp. I saw the form the night it was handed to S/Sgt Nelson. (Witness looks at Ex 2) Yes that would be the form I saw that evening.

Q What happened then?
A Sgt Cook said he still was far from satisfied with Dudley and the whole thing and further enquiries would have to be made. Dudley said, "I will tell you the truth."

DEF OFFR OBJECTS
OBJECTION OVER RULED

Dudley said "I will tell you the truth, the blankets are stolen I made the particulars out myself. My sgt told me what to do and where to go."

Q What did you do then?
A We continued to keep observation on the lorry and at about 10:15 p.m. another soldier came to the lorry, I had certain conversation with him and finally Sgt Cook said he was not satisfied with the explanation of either man and he said "you are going to be arrested and detained p nding further enquiries." We took them to the police station and later S/Sgt Nelson, of the Cdn Mil Police came and took them into his custody. The blankets and lorry were also taken over, Ex 2 was also taken over.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFRS:
(Maj Fellows)

Q Did you see the accused, Dudley, get out of the truck and endeavour to unload the blankets?
A No Sir.

Q Have you any evidence to show that Pte Dudley endeavoured to sell or pawn the blankets which were in the veh?
A No Sir.

Q What date did you mention in connection with your investigation?
A 5 Oct 44.

Q How can you definitely state that the form shown to you as Ex 2 was the form you saw that night?
A I had a good look at it, I have seen such forms before and Sgt Cook later handed it to S/Sgt Nelson and to the best of my knowledge that is the same form.

Q Could it be another form?
A I never initialled it, but unless someone substituted another one for it then it is the same one that I saw that night.

Q Was it dark that night?
A Yes, but we have a torch.

(By Lt Wilding-White)

Q Did you count the blankets in the truck?
A No Sir.

Q You have no idea how many there were?
A There was a large number, we could see there was a stack in the back of the lorry?

Q You had no idea what was at the front of that pile or stack?
A I did not examine them thoroughly.

Q To your knowledge were these blankets taken out of the truck while in London?
A No Sir.

Q About this form, Ex 2, you say it is possible that it could be another one other than the one you took?
A Yes it is possible but I should say it is the form which we obtained from Dudley and handed to Sgt Nelson. I cannot imagine what trickery has gone on since that time if it is any other form.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Capt R.N. KEEN, on strength No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am the Tpt Offr of 1 CGRU, I know the accused, he is Rfn Dudley. He is one of the drivers in our section. He used to drove veh CL 672820, this veh previously did not have the letter "C" in front of the "L". Dudley was the driver of this veh on the 5 Oct 44 from information that I now have.

Q Could you explain to the Court the authority upon which vehs are allowed outside the 20 mile limit?
A It is authority given by a Comd senior to the unit, in other words Group or by CRU. It is usually given verbally by phone to the Adj who gets in contact with me and then the authority is followed up by written letter.

Q What form does it take?
A There are numbered as messages are numbered, the system is kept by Group.

Q When you make out a work ticket to send a veh out of the 20 mile limit what happens?
A The authority is generally attached to the work ticket, some times we merely write the authority and hold the letter on file until the veh returns then I return them to the Adj.

Q Could you quote us an example of an authority which would be on a work ticket?
A If the job was to be done for ADOS, CRU, we would merely put "ADOS, CRU" in the authorizing column.

Q Is that practice still in use in your tpt office?
A Yes.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFRS:
(Major Fellows)

Q Wherre were you on the 5 Oct 44?
A I was in barracks.

Q How do you know that Pte Dudley, the accused was the driver of this veh?
A Because in the evening I was given permission to be absent from the barracks and the CO recalled me.

Q In connection with these blankets and also with your work tickets, were there buch shee blankets and bucksheе trips made with vehs?
A I do not understand what you mean?
Q Were unauthorized trips made from time to time, on the 5 Oct or previous to that?
A I know of one occasion 15 months ago.

Q Anyother occasion?
A No to my knowledge, I have suspicion of one which is not relevant to this case.

Q You feel you system usually works?
A My system does work.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
U 1889 S/ Sgt NELSON, F.R., on strength SI S, CMHQ, having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the SIS, Cdn Provost Corps at CMHQ. I was on duty on the 5 Oct 44 on which night I was called to Carter Street Police Station. I was on duty at about 2220 hours and I received a phone message from the civilian polce in consquence of which I, acting on instructions of Major Holmes, the APM, I proceeded to the Carter Street Police station. In the station yard I saw a Cdn WD lorry L 762820. This lorry was covered with a tarpaulin which was secured at the back with ropes. I looked inside under the tarpaulin and saw a large quantity of blankets.

Q Did you find anyone in the police station?
A I found Det Sgt Cook and Webb of the Flying Squad, New Scotland Yard and also in the police station I saw the accused whom I see here, Rfn Dudley. I also saw S/Sgt Gratrix of 1 CGRU. In company with police officers I escorted Dudley to the SIS office.

Q Did you remove the veh?
A Not personally, but I saw that it was moved.

Q Were any blankets at the time in it?
A Yes Sir. I took Dudley to the SIS office in Henrietta Street SW 2, London. I had the truck placed outside the guard room of No 6 Cdn Prov Coy and I had the blankets removed from the truck and had them placed in a safe place in the building. I counted them and found there were 700. They were tied to gether with string in bundles of 10. By a safe place I mean a room within the building which is kept by the Provost and where they were not touched by anyone. There were no blankets in the room before I put these in it. Last Friday I personally superintended the removal of these blankets from the room to the truck which I found them in and handed them to 1 CGRU. On that date I [redacted] accompanied the QM of this unit, Capt Lake, to his stores where I handed over the blankets to him. In my presence Capt Lake put them in a room placing a pad lock on the door and he gave me a receipt for the blankets. I have that receipt dated 17 Nov 44.

DEF OFFR: I object to the submission of the receipt.

OBJECTION SUSTAINED.

Q Did you find anything in the possession of the accused?
A Yes Sir. I found in his possession a work ticket, the last entry of which was dated 5 Oct 44 and showed a detail for mob stores to Farnham and Farnborough.

Q I show you a tpt work ticket, will you tell the Court if that was the ticket you found in possession of the accused?
A That is the work ticket.

(Def Offrs examine work ticket and offer no objection to the submission of said work ticket)

(Work ticket marked Ex 3) Witness continues:

I endorsed it on the back as having been seized from Dudley.

Q Did you find anything else in his possession?
A There was another work ticket I found, but I cannot say it was in the possession of Dudley, as it was handed to me by Det Sgt Cook of the police force.

Q Can you tell me whether or not Ex 2 is the work ticket which was handed to you by Sgt Cook?
A Yes Sir. I endorsed it on the back, I see I have put siezed on it as in the other case, but that is not quite correct as I did not sieze it, but received it from the police officer.

Q What became of the truck?
A I informed the unit, the duty offr at 0020 hours on the 6 Oct of my findings and on the 6 Oct I handed over the truck to Sgt Childes of 1 CGRU on an order signed by the Adj of that unit.

Q Did you interview the accused, Dudley, on the 6 Oct 44?
A Yes Sir. At about 1400 hours on the 6 Oct I saw Dudley in the SI S office. I cautioned him and said to him, "you do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so, but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." I asked him what about these blankets, he said something to the effect "Well I will tell you" and he made a statement, first of all I wrote out the caution which he signed, and he made a statement which I took down in writing which I read over to him and explained to him that he could delete, alter, add or correct anything and he signed the statement in my presence. I have here the statement that he made.

Q When you received this statement from the accused, did you exert any pressure on him to get him to make it?
A No Sir.

Q Promise anything?
A No Sir.

Q did you explain the caution to him?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did he seem to understand it thoroughly?
A Yes Sir.

Q Were there any words written which showed that the statement was made voluntarily?
A Yes -

OBJECTION BY DEF OFFR
OBJECTION OVER RULED

Q Were any words added to this to show he made the statement voluntarily?
A Yes Sir.

Q Do you recall what they were?
OBJECTION BY DEF OFFR
OBJECTION OVER RULED

A I do not remember the exact words, but the effect was "I have read over the statement which has been made voluntarily without hope of favour or fear from any threat."

Q Did the accused sign it?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did he seem to know what it meant?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you examine him on the statement?
A No I read it over with him but I do not know if he made any alterations. I do not think he did.

PROSECUTOR TO PRESIDENT: May this statement be admitted in evidence?

DEF OFFR: I object.

PRESIDENT TO DEF OFFRS: You may cross examine this witness at this point regarding the statement only.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY DEF OFFRS:
(Major Fellows)

Q Did you find the accused a willing soldier during the investigation
A Yes Sir.

Q In discussion with other detectives or other persons did you ever intimate in your opinion that the accused was a good chap and you would like to see him get a break?
A No Sir I do not remember saying anything like that.

Q Did you make such a statement to anyone at any time?
A I may have mentioned it someone but I do not recall it.

Q Did you use any planned or psychological means to obtain the alleged statement from the accused, or mthod, did you work on the accused either on his sympathy or any other angle which would induce the accused to make his statement?
A I can only repeat that statement was perfectly voluntary.

Q Did you use any planned means whatsoever to obtain the original alleged statement from the accused?
A No Sir.

Q Will you explain to the Court the exact method you used to obtain the statement.

A I cannot remember exactly what I said to the accused prior to the actual writing down of that statement or what he said to me in its entirety. I said to him "now Dudley what about these blankets and his reply, if I remember correctly was "I will tell you".

Q You are sure you cannot remember all you said previous to the actual statement?
A That is about as much as I can remember, there was very little said.

Q Was there anybody with you in the room when you asked Dudley to make his statement?
PROSECUTOR OBJECTS
OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q Did you have a witness when you were discussing the making of the statement with Dudley?
A There was no discussion respecting the making of the statement.

Q Did you have a witness between the time which you first talked to Dudley and the time he started to make his statement.
A There may have been people in the room but I paid no attention and did not see any, there are chaps coming in and going out all the time.

Q Ifthe accused is to be assumed innocent until he is proven guilty is it not fair and usual for examinations to be made in the presence of at least one witness.?
A If you will allow me I was not examining him and as for having other people there the answer is "no" he is allowed to be alone or with other people as he chooses.

Q It is not your practice?
A It is not my practive to run around with a force of witnesses.

Q Did you mention any offensive weapon while talking to the accused previous to or during the investigation?
A No Sir.

Q A weapon of any kind?
A I did not.

Q Did you intimate that the accused was not a criminal type and that he was in bad company?
A I amy have passed that remark, I do not remember.

Q Did you intimate to the accused that he was not the criminal type and he was actually in bad company?
A I do not know.

Q Were any compliments or expressions used to gain the confidence of the accused?

PROSECUTOR OBJECTS:
OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q Were any compliments used to the accused in order to gain his confidence?
A What do you mean by compliments?

Q Was nice things said to him about himself?
A I can only say I do not know Sir. There might have but I do not know.

Q Did you intimate to the accused that it would be better for him to put in a statement before Sgt Gratrix tried to throw the blame on his shoulders?
A No Sir I did not.

Q Are you sure?
A I am quite sure.

Q Regarding the weapon are you quite sure that you did not mention a weapon or object allegedly carried by another soldier while talking to Dudley?
A Yes Sir I am quite sure that I did not.

Q Did you mention to the accused anything concerning Sgt Gratrix alleged record or character?
A Sir, if you will read Dudley's statement you will see that he said to me that this man said to him "I was pinched over there once." I may have said "yes there was a spot of bother there" but that is as far as I would say.

Q Then the answer to our question regarding Gratrix alleged character would be"yes". In making the case against Pte Dudley did you show him statements alleged to have been made by other accused?
A Yes.

Q Did you, at any time during the investigation intimate that you were a friend of the accused and wanted to heop him?
A It is very difficult to remember but my answer is "no sir."

Q You did not intimate that you wanted to help the accused or you were really his friend?
A I tobd Dudley that I was interested in the truth and that I was

Q I show you a tpt work ticket, will you tell the Court if that was the ticket you found in possession of the accused?
A That is the work ticket.

(Def Offrs examine work ticket and offer no objection to the submission of said work ticket)

(Work ticket marked Ex 3) Witness continues:

I endorsed it on the back as having been seized from Dudley.

Q Did you find anything else in his possession?

the remaining accused to became aware of certain questions that I wish and shall ask in cross examination, if they are allowed to communicate what has been asked them and wht they have answered I have a strong feeling that this court will not acquire the truth.

DEF OFFICER: I object. The Prpsecutor is to assist the Court in the administration of justice and to behave in an impartial manner, I refer to RP 60(A). I am sure that if these witnesses are allowed in in the manner that is ordinary and usual that the Prosecutor will be very pleased that he is assiting in the administration of justice.

PROSECUTOR:

I feel that the administration of justice will not be furthered by allowing witnesses to go back outside and talking over what has been said in here, I still ask that they be kept separate, at least until Dudley's trial is over.

PRESIDENT:

The Court rules that the other accused be not allowed to communicate with each other until the trial of Dudley is over. I do this so that greater credence may be given by the Court to their evidence. The Court allowed the suggestion of the Defence that these other accused be called as witnesses on this trial within a trial respecting the admission of this statement. The accused persons for this purpose are merely ordinary witnesses.

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE ----ON TRIAL RESPECTING ADMISSION OF STATEMENT
B 64113 Rfn DUDLEY (The Accused) on strength No 1 CGRU havingbeen duly sworn states:

Q Would you please give the Court your statement concerning any dealings with S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS and yourself previous to and during the making of your alleged statement?
A S/Sgt Nelson took me to the room alone at HQ of the Provost Coy in London where he asked me if I knew S/Sgt Gratrix well. I said "no". He said "well I do", he told me he was a bad character and he said he had a black jack which he took from S/Sgt Gratrix. He also said that S/Sgt Gratrix had beat up some police officers and that I would be as much to blame for him carrying that black jack as was Gratrix himself. He also said that if I did not make a statement I might be charged with reference to the black jack. He said that if I did make a statement before S/Sgt Gratrix could try to blame me that I would off a lot lighter. He used soft words xxx to the effect that I was not a real bad guy and thereby gave me confidence.

Q Did you want to make a statement?
A No Sir, I had not intention of making a statement but I was never in a jam before and I was afraid of another charge reference to to the black jack and S/Sgt Nelson had me scared.

Q When he said that S/Sgt Gratrix had beaten up some police offrs did he say or mention anything about the black jack?
A I cannot remember his exact words, I took the impression that they had been beat up with the black jack.

Q When he told you you might be involved in S/Sgt Gratrix's case with respect to the black jack was that also respecting the beating up the officers?
A He did tell me about the beating up first.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q What was the first question that Nelson asked you?
A I cannot remember his exact words, I do remember him asking me if I knew S/Sgt Gratrix.

Q What was the 2nd question?
DEF OFFR OBJECTS
OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q What was the 3rd question?
A He asked me if I knew S/Sgt Gratrix, that was the 1st question.

Q What was the second question, what was the 3rd question?
A --

Q How many questions did he ask you?
A I cannot say for sure?

Q Will you tell the Court this, why you can come here and give the details in a statement, saying all these things and yet you cannot give the court the 1st or 2nd or 3rd question or how many questions you were asked, how do you explain that?
A I do not think he asked me any more actual questions.

Q In other words he did not ask you anything at all?
A He certainly did.

Q Now you tell us you do not know, now you tell us you do know and that he asked you questions, is that the case?
OBJECTION BY THE DEF OFFR
OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q He asked me if I knew S/Sgt Gratrix very well, I told him I did not. He told me he did and that he was a bad character, and that he had a black jack that he took from Gratrix, he then told me about beating up some police officers.

Q How many police officers?
A As far as I can remember he did not give me an exact number. He told me I could be held responsible as much as S/Sgt Gratrix for carrying that black jack. He said if I did not make a statement I might be brought in for carrying the black jack. He also said if I made a statement and got in ahead of Gratrix before he tried to throw the blame on my shoulders that I would get off a lot easier. He was very nice to me, he said some nice things about me, he told me I was not a bade guy and should not be mixed up in this mess at all and he said he did not think I was in the right company that I was not that sort of a guy to be mixed up in this sort of business. When I went up to that room I had no intention of making that statement as fellows I had talked to down in the cell, people I never saw before and I cannot give their names, told me that what ever I did not to make a statement. That was the idea that I went up there with and as I had never been in this sort of business before I took their word, but as I was scared of being taken in on this black jack business I was nervous and scared and I made the statement.

Q Let us go back to the story S/Sgt Nelson is supposed to have told you about S/Sgt Gratrix having beaten up some police offrs, when did this happen?
A I do not think he said but I took it that he meant the night before.

Q Were you in the Carter Police Station that night and did you accompany S/Sgt Gratrix to the No 6 Prov HQ?
A Yes Sir, but not in the same car, he was with somebody else.

Q Were you taken to the Prov HQ in Henrietta Street and was Gratrix taken there also?
A Yes Sir.

Q How do you know?
A I saw him.

Q Did you see S/Sgt Gratrix beat up any police officers?
A No Sir.

Q Did you see G"atrix seized for beating up any police officers?
A No Sir ~~thxxxxwxx~~ he was brought in at the same time as I was.

Q You finally made a statement?
A Yes Sir.

Q Were you cautioned before you made that statement?
A Yes Sir.

Q Was it explained to you?
A He told me the caution that is all.

Q Did you sign it?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you sing it under the words to the effect that "I understand the caution and to know that I understand it I sign my name here?
A I think so.

Q When you finished this statement did you sign the following - "I have read ~~xxx~~ over the above statement which has been made voluntarily without fear of any threat or hope of any favour to come and it is true" did you sign that?
A Yes Sir.

Q You have told the Court the reason why you made this statement presumably the reason you signed it was because you were afraid you were going to be charged over this alleged black jack business?
A Yes Sir.

Q Now then Dudley will you tell me why you lied when you signed that statement and said -

OBJECTION B/ DEF OFFR
OBJECTION OVERRULED

"I have read over the above statement which has been made voluntarily without fear of any threat and hope of any favour to come and it is true" why did you lie?
A I was scared of getting into more trouble.
Q Is it not a fact that/you said there is ~~xxx~~ the truth and what you have said to the Court a lie?
A No Sir.

Q How can these gentlemen of the Court believe you or anybody believe you, is it not a fact that you are a liar?
A No Sir.

Q There is evidence been presented that on one or two occasions you have lied, how long did it take you memorize the statement you have given in this court?
A I read it over and over again.

Q Who wrote it out?
A I wrote it out.

Q You wrote out this evidence and read it over and over again so you could repeat it to this court, did you not think that if you could write it out you could also speak it to this Court, or was it necessary to write it down and read it over and over to impress it on your memory, is it not a plain fact that everything you have told this Court is a falsehood from the beginning to end?
A No Sir.

Q Then from the time you signed this statement you have lied. When you signed the caution you lied. Again when you wrote out this statement given in Court you lied, it is obvbus that you memorized it. You made it up yourself, did you consult the aid of any person about it?
A My lawyer, I talked it over with some of the other accused, Cpl Jeynnes, Bdr Davies and the rest.

Q Did you read the statement over to them, have they ever see it before?
A They never saw it?
X
Q Did you tell them anything that you were going to say in it?
A Yes Sir.

Q When did you ~~wix~~ write it out, this statement?
A About last Sat, I cannot say for sure.

Q Was that the day after the first time you were brought here?
A I believe so sir.

OBJECTION BY DEF OFFR The reason for this is that the whole was given to me the night before the trial.

Prosecutor - I merely want to know when it was written out.

OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q After you had written that statement out did you show it to the other people, other than the Def Offrs?
A I showed it to Sgt Gemmel.

Q Did you discuss it with him?
A Yes Sir.

Q What did you say about it?
A I asked him if it looked alright?

Q Is that all you asked him?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did he suggest any changes?
A No Sir.

Q Have you a copy of that statement?
A Yes sir, here is a copy, it is the statement, written in my hand writing.

(Statement marked Ex 1A by the Court)

Q Will you tell me what the last para in this statement is?
OBJECTION BY THE DEF OFFR: This is not a university or school where people are expected to memorize paras or scripts.

PROSECUTOR: This statement is alleged to be the exact words and statements of the accused.

OBJECTION OVERRULED

A The words are to the effect "I swear that this is the solemn truth, that S/Sgt Nelson did by clever methods use influence to get my statement".

Q Read the last para.
(Witness reads the last para).

Q Did you show this statement to anyone other than Sgt Gemmel and the Def Offrs?
A No Sir I did not show it to them to read they knew I had a statement but did not know the contents of the statement.

DEF OFFR: Some of the Def Offrs did see this statement. They saw it but did not read it, they had an idea of its contents as I talked it over with them, I talked it over with all of them.

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES WITH CROSS EXAMINATION

Q One minute you say you did not talk it over with anyone other than the def offr and the next you say you did, what is your answer?
DEF OFFR: He discused it with me before he said anything to anyone else.

Q Did you discuss it with anyone else besides Sgt Gemmel?
A Yes, not the actual statement but the contents.

Q Did you and the remainder of the accused decide to cook up something that would get your statements thrown out of Court, is that true?
A That is a lie.

Q In other words you and the others cooked this up to get the statements thrown out.
A No but I intended to give it in evidence, it is not cooked up.

Q Had you ever had, since the day you made those statements seen your statement you made to Sgt Nelson or heard it read to you?
A No Sir, I have not.

OBJECTION BY DEF OFFICER - the accused had the summary given to him.

PROSECUTOR - The accused is giving evidence

PRESIDENT - Proceed.

Q Were you present at a summary of evidence which was taken on the 1st or 2nd Nov of this year?
A Yes Sir.

Q You were present throughout the entire summary?
A I believe so.

Q On page 3 of that summary I find this statement referring to the same statement taken on the 6 Oct 44, "at about 1400 hours in the Special Investigation Section office, Canadian Mil HQ I saw Rfn Dudley, I cautioned him and he made to me a xxx voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence, a copy of which I here produce" "The statement having been read to Rfn Dudley is attached to the Summary," why did you say you have never heard it read before?
A I said I never heard it read before or after I made the statement to S/Sgt Nelson. I meant I had not seen the statement I made on the 6 Oct after I had made the statement in my evidence which is Ex 1A.

Q Did you make any objections to the xx statement at the time of the Summary?
A No Sir I was scared at the time.

Q I took the summary when you came in for the purpose of having that summary taken what was the first thing that I, as officer who took the summary said to you?
A I think you explained why we were there, for a summary of evidence concerning some blankets alleged to have been stolen from this unit.

Q What else did I say?
A The next thing I remember you started in on this statement, read them to us and showed them round to us.

Q Did I not tell you anything else?
Nothing that I remember.

Q You memory of recent events is not very good, now we come on to another thing. You say he used soft words, what do you mean?
A He was nice to me, said I was not a bad guy.

Q In other words he did not beat you up, he treated you decently?
A He gave me the impression that I was not a bad guy.

Q It is a fact that he treated you decently at that time, when did he stop treating you decently?
A I would say when he brought up this black jack angle.

Q Lets go over your evidence so far, so that I can be certain we have it all straight, you were arrested, that right?
A Yes Sir.

Q S/Sgt Nelson Came to you?
A Yes Sir.

Q Took you to the SIS?
A Yes Sir.

Q He turned you over to No 6 Cdn Prov Coy?
A Yes Sir to the NCO IC the desk.

Q What happened next?
A I was taken down to the cell where I was for the night.

Q Where did you see S/Sgt Gratrix?
A I saw him in the Carter Police Station and at the Provost.

Q Was he when you saw him at the Prov Coy marked up or as usual?
A I did not notice anything particular.

Q You would have noticed though had he been roughed up?
A Yes.

Q If he had in in a fight?
A Yes.

Q No the next day, the first thing of importance, S/Sgt Nelson came down and got you?
A And took me up to the room in the SIS, he said he wanted to ask me some questions, he asked me I knew S/Sgt Gratrix well.

Q What was the next question?
OBJECTION BY DEF OFFR - The accused has given this evidence twice verbally and has given a written statement.
OBJECTION OVERRULED

A I cannot say for sure what he asked me, he asked me a lot.

Q The thing that puzzels me, Dudley, is this, you can remember the first question as if you knew it by heart, i.e. "do you know S/Sgt Gratrix well?"
A Well I would not swear that was the first thing or his exact words.

Q You can not remember the first things I said to you at the summary of evidence but strangely enough you can remember a long involved detail of events and yet you cannot remember the second question that was asked you. You admit you can remember the first thing you hear, because if it is not then the Court is waiting to hear what you remember.

DEF OFFR - The witness has given this evidence three times, whether he remembers what question was 1st, 2nd, 3rd or 4th is irrelevant as long as he has stated three times exactly the same thingthen surely he has answered satisfactorily.

OBJECTION OVERRULED:

Q What happened next?
A He told me that he wanted the statement and he got it, I signed it.

Q Then the next time you heard this statement read was at the summary of evidence, is that right?
A S/Sgt Nelson read it back to me, the next time was at the summary.

Q Did you ask any questions about it?
A No Sir.

Q Did you speak to me about it?
A I recognized it, but I said nothing to you about how it was obtained.

Q Did you have opportunity to do so?
A Yes Sir.

Q When you were brought before you CO did you say anything about the method by which this statement was obtained?
A No Sir.

Q In other words the first time you did anything about the method this statement was taken from you was either on last Sat or Friday night?
A The first time I mentioned it was the day before the trial.

RE EXAMINED BY Lt Wilding-White:

Q Your signature appears on your statement given to S/Sgt Nelson three times doesn't it?
A Two times that I know of Sir. I signed at the bottom of each page?

Q What induced you to put all these signatures on each page?
A I was afraid I would get into more trouble.

Q You signed the statement and all other statements under the same influence?If You were afraid of being prosecutred for a more severe crime than you are being charged with now would you naturally tell the Prosecutor about them, or the CO?
A No Sir, I wanted to tell my Def Offr about them first.

Q Before you saw S/ Sgt Gratrix at the Police Station was there a long interval of time during which he could have been in trouble? And maybe beaten up on someone?
A Yes Sir, I did not see him for two hours.

Q At the summary of evidence did the Prosecutor make any general threats?
A I cannot say they were threats, he said words to the effect that how much time we were going to get out of this. He kept making reference to Sgt Johns, he said something about a pronged fork. He said he built a fork with many prongs and if he did not get you with one he would get you with another.

Q Did he say that to you?
A Not to me in particular but to all of us.

Q You said that S/Sgt Nelson [illegible] treated you decently, did he not treat you particularly decently?

A Yes Sir he did.

Q In fact did he not try to appear to be your friend?
A Yes Sir.

Q What did S/ Sgt Nelson say about the black jack, what were his words?
A He said he had a black jack that he took from S/ Sgt Gratrix, I cannot day for sure but I took the impression that he got it from Gratrix.

REEXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q Did you ever see this mysterious black jack?
A No Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

S/Sgt NELSON is recalled under RP 86(B) to give evidence on matters that have arisen in the evidence of the last witness:
Def Offr: I have no objections I wish to Call Capt Keen. Granted;
S/Sgt Nelson, already sworn states:
PROSECUTOR:
Q We want you to go over the circumstances surrounding the taking of this statement from Dudley, do you recall what the first thing was that you said to Dudley, when you brought him up to your office?
A The first thing I said to Dudley, "what about these blankets?"

Q Did you ask him anything about S/Sgt Gratrix?
A I did not sir.

Q Did you tell him that Gratrix was a bad egg?
A No Sir.

Q Did you state that S/Sgt Gratrix had a balck jack with which he had beaten up some police officers?
A No Sir.

Q Did you know whether or not S/Sgt Gratrix had beaten up any police officers?
A He had not done so to my knowledge.

Q Has any complaint been made to you at any time that S/ Sgt Gratrix beat up any police officers?
A No sir.

Q Did you say to the accused, you had better make a statment before Gratrix blames you for all this?
A No Sir.

Q Did you tell the accused that he was not a bad fellow and should noy [illegible] take the whole balme for all this?
A No Sir.

Q The accused has complained that you were nice to him? How did you treat the accused?
A I treated him as man to man.

Q You let him sit down?
A Naturally I let him sit down.

Q Did you treat him as you would treat an ordinary soldier?
A I think so.

Q Did you let him smoke?
A Yes Sir.

Q He says you used soft words to him, can you think of anything you might have said to him that might be presumed "soft words"?

A No sir I am sure I can't.

Q Did you brow beat him?
A No sir.

Q Bully him?
A No sir.

Q Swear at him?
A No Sir.

Q Did you tell him that he would be ch arged along with S/Sgt Gratrix for having possession of a black jack?
A No sir.

Q Did you hear that S/ Sgt Gratrix was in possession of a black jack?
A Not at that time.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY DEF OFFR (Lt Wilding-White)

Q Did you ever make a trip out to Farnborough in connection with this case?
A Yes Sir.

Q Who did you see there?
A I saw a number of people. I spoke to Major Creasy and Capt Lowe.

Q Who else? Did you see a Mrs Ward?
A I remember a Mrs Ward, but am not sure that I saw her at Farnborou

Q Who did you go there with?
A Det Constable Lightfoot and Capt Keen.

Q Did you ask Mrs Ward any questions?
A Yes I think I did.

Q Did you say to her, "we are Bill Miskimmins friends, if you tell us all you know it will be to his advantage? Did you say that?
A No Sir.

OBJECTION BY PROSECUTOR
DEF OFFR - This conversation with Mrs Ward is to show the method that was used in obtaining evidence from people, it is part of the method and the sort of method he used?
OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q Did you intimate that you were attempting to help Miskimmins and you were his friend?
A Actually I did not question Mrs Ward, it was done by Constable Lightfoot, and I did not say any such a thing to her.

Q Did you not hold yourself up as a friend of Miskimmins and would help him?
A I do not think so, I may have told her that I knew Miskimmims

Q And you would help him?
A No sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY Maj Fellows:

Q The question by the Prosecutor regarding the black jack being used to beat up officers, I would like to disassociate the police officers, did you mention to the accused the presence of a black jack or the existance of a balck jack?
A I did not sir.

Q At any time during the taking of the statement did you mention a black jack?
A No sir.

Q When did you first learn of the existance of this black jack?
A On the 7 Oct. I took it out of the bag containing the personal property of S/ Sgt Gratrix in the SIS office. I confiscated it.

Q On what authority did you take this black jack?
A On my own authority as a policeman.

Q In whose custody was it when you took it?
A In the custody of the provost of which I am a member. When I interviewed S/Sgt Gratrix I took him and his personal property and gave a receipt for the live body and personal property in the presence of S/ Sgt Gratrix I opened the bag to look at his belongings and found the black jack and pulled it out of the bag. When it was taken off him by the Provost it was left with the rest of his property.

Q You produced it in front of Gratrix?
A Yes sir.

Q After you had finished talking to Gratrix regarding this black jack what did you do with his property and the black jack?
A I replaced the personal belongings and returned the property bag, I retained the black jack as it is my duty to do so as no Canadian soldier is allowed to carry one about. I told Gratrix I was taking it, I said "I had better have this" he said"please do". I placed it with the collection of other weapons that have been confiscated, I did not leave it with his personal property because I was afraid that some L/Cpl might return it to the owner.

Q When you interviewed Gratrix did you stand in front of him xwinging the black jack and say "Now Gratrix what do you know of this?"
A No sir.

Q After all the statements were completed did you say to anyone of the accused,"the black jack is at the bottom of the Thames".
A No sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q What do you mean by "a collection of weapons"?
A It is weapons that we have confiscated, they are kept in the office

BY THE COURT:

Q Did you say to the accused anything to this effect, that if he did not make a statement that he might be xxx charged with respect to the black jack?
A No sir.

Q Are you positive?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you say to him anything to this effect, "xxxxx if you make a statement before S/Sgt Gratrix tries to blame you, you will get off a lot lighter?"
A No sir.

Q Are you positive?
A Yes sir, at the time of the interview with Dudley I did not know of the existance of the balck jack.

WITNESS RETIRES

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE ON THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE STATEMENT
L 1161 Pte (A/S/Sgt) GRATRIX, R.J., on strength of No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q Will you please give the Court in detail any dealing you had with S/ Sgt Nelson of the SIS generally and with special regard to any reference of a black jack?
A I was taken to the SIS office at Henrietta Street in London and there interviewed by S/Sgt Nelson. This was on the 7 Oct 44; he asked me if I wished to make a statement, prior to asking me he cautioned me. I told him the only statement I would make would be to my CO. He then said that I was a dam fool and that I was in a serious jam, he told me there were two ways of doing things, a hard way or the easy way, he said"it is up to you, if you wish to play ball with me, I will play ball with you, but if you want it the hard way that is the way you are going to get it". He had with him at that time a sack containing my personal belongings that had been taken from me by the Provost at Henrietta street and he produced from that bag a black jack that I was carrying on 5 Oct, he held it out to me and said "what about this, this is going to make things look much worse than they are." He said it is my duty to see that you are charged with carrying a concealed weapon and in this country it is a serious charge and a heavy penalty. He then went on and asked me who owned the black jack and if the person who owned it would want to have it back, I replied "no" he said "if you are smart you will tell me the whole story and let me deal with the black jack". I told him I would type a statement and he said "before lunch we will get a rough idea of the story and if you tell me the whole story there will be no need to mention the black jack." After lunch under S/ Sgt Nelson's supervision I typed a statement. While typing that statement he repeatedly asked me to put it in my own words as it would too obvious that he told me what to say. I signed that statement that afternoon under the impression that no more would be said about the black jack and that there would be no charge of carrying a concealed weapon. That is all that I had to do with Sgt Nelson in London.

Q You mean you did not have anything to do subsequent to that?
Q He was with me on 5 Oct when I was brought to Henrietta Street where they took my personal belongs and it was there that when they searched me they got the black jack. A L/Cpl of the Provost searched me and he produced the black jack and handed it to the cpl at the desk.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

PRESIDENT TO ACCUSED: You are not compelled to answer any question which might te d to incriminate you unless you wish to do so.

Q What day were you taken to Henrietta Street?
A 5 Oct 44, at about 2300 hours.

Q Who took you there?
A S/ Sgt Nelson in a CID car, I was accompanied by two members of the CID.

Q What happened to you that night after you were taken to Henrietta Street?
A I was searched by the L/Cpl, my personal belongings were checked and registered in the desk book.

Q Were you cautioned at any time that night?
A S/ Sgt Nelson cautioned me when he first came to the CID office.

Q How long were you in the cells at Henrietta Street before you saw S/ Sgt Nelson.
A I was not in the cells at Henrietta Street, I was taken to an English guard room, I was there until 7 Oct 44.

Q What time did you see S/Sgt Nelson?
A Around 1000 hours.

Q Where was this statement taken, in what room?
A A room in the SIS office at Henrietta Street.

Q Were you brought into that room by someone?
A Nelson and a L/Cpl of the Provost brought me in, Nelson had my belongings in a bag which he got from the Cpl at the desk who had gotten them from me. He opened the bag in front of me and took the articles out, among the articles was the black jack.

Q You were carrying it the night you were arrested?
A Yes Sir.

Q What was the first thing he said to you?
A "you are in a bad jam".

Q Did he say anything else?
A He said "you are a dam fool".

Q What did he say first.
A He cautioned me and then said "you are in a bad jam" and then asked me if I wished to make a statement. I said "I would make a statement to my CO." He then said "you are a dam fool".

Q That is not the way you have said it here? Were you standing up when he was examining you?
A I was sitting down sir.

Q You say you typed this statement out?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you type the caution out also?
A No sir.

Q Was it already on the paper?
A S/ Sgt Nelson typed it and I read it over.

Q Did you type at the end of it anything like this "I have read over the above statement which has been made voluntarily without fear of any threat or hope of any favour to come and it is true" and did you sign it?
A Yes sir.

Q Why?
A I was under the impression that if I did not make that statement I would be charged with a more serious charge i.e. that of carrying a concealed weapon.

Q One statement must be a lie?
OBJECTION BY DEF OFFR - I feel that the statement is one thing and the reference to the black jack might or might not have been put in the statement but it is no lie to say there was a reference to the black jack?

OBJECTION OVERRULED

Q Either the statement you made to this Court which is that you signed this original statement because you were afraid of being charged with the black jack is true or else the statement you signed is false. One of those statements cannot be true is that not right?
A When I signed that last statement which says "no threat or promise" that is false.

Q Did you understand the caution you were given?
A Yes Sir.

Q How are you employed?
A I am chief instructor of the Clerks Training Wing, 1 CGRU?

Q Then you would have no trouble knowing what words meant?
A No Sir.

Q These words were quite clear were they not?
A Yes sir.

Q Were you present at the summary of evidence taken on the 1st or 2 Nov?
A I do not know the date but I was present at a summary of evidence.

Q Was your statement read over to you at that summary?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you ask any questions regarding it?
A No sir.

Q Did you make any complaints?
A No sir.

Q When you appeared before your CO did you complain?
A No sir.

Q Will you tell your story over again exactly as you told it to the Def Offr?

DEF OFFR: Is that necessary?
PRESIDENT: Yes.

A On the morning of 7 Oct I was taken to the SIS office, Henrietta Street and I was interviewed by S/Sgt Nelson. He cautioned me and asked me if I wished to make a statement, I told him the only statement I would make would be to my CO. He then told me that I was a dam fool and that I was a bad jam. That there were two ways to do everything, an easy way and a hard way. He told me if I wanted to play ball with him he would play ball with me but if I wanted it the hard way that is the way I would get it. He had with him at the time a bag in which were my personal belongings that had been taken from me by the provost personnel at Henrietta Street on 5 Oct 44, he took from that back a black jack which I had been carrying on 5 Oct 44. He showed it to me and said "what about this", he also said "it is my duty to see that you are charged with carrying a concealed weapon, and in this country it is a serious charge and the penalty is heavy. He then asked me who owned the black jack and if the person who owned it would require it back. I replied "no" and he said "if you are smart you will tell me the whole story and let me take care of the black jack. I offered to type a statement for him and he said "before lunch let's get a rough idea of the whole story and if you tell me the whole story there will be no need to mention the black jack." After lunch under S/Sgt Nelson's supervion I typed a statement. While typing that statement he repeatedly said to me to put some of this in your own words so that it would not be so obvious that I told you what to say.

Q Did you write all this out before you come to Court? Did you interview any of the accused in regard to this statement, that you just made?
A I was in the presence of the Def Offrs.

Q Did you see any of the other accused?
A Yes with the def offrs present.

Q Did you try to see any of the accused when the Def Offrs were not present?
A I tried to but did not. We were not allowed to be together.

Q When?
A I cannot state any definite time.

Q I suggest to you that it was yesterday that you tried to see the remainder of the accused, that it was yesterday afternoon did you or did you not?
A I tried to see some of them.

Q Did you consult with any of the accused as to what they were going to say?
A No sir.

Q Have you seen at any time any of the statements that the other accused are going to make here?
A Yes sir, I have see them all.

Q Have you read them all?
A No sir.

Q Have you discussed them with the other accused?
A Yes sir.

Q When?
A During the last couple of days.

Q Did you memorize this statement before you come into Court?
A No sir.

Q Have you a written statement of this evidence?
A Yes Sir.

(Prosecutor reads the statement)
Q Why did you not give the complete statement that you wrote out?
A I gave a complete statement to the Court as far as I can remember.

(Statement marked Ex 1 B by the Court)

Q I read on it "what I had been told by two other accused after I had arrived in the guard room", what does that mean?
A Pte Gemmel was brought into the guard room about two days after I arrived there and put in the same cell as I was, I cannot tell the exact date.

Q This conversation took place while you and Gemmel were in the guard room?
A I think Sgt Davies was there.

Q Suppose that I suggest to you that after consultation with the rest of the accused you decide that it would be very useful to have these statements you signed thrown out and arranged a story the story that you have told and then after that you and Gemmel and Davies consulted about what you said and you decided you would add a little weight to their remarks by adding it to yours?
I would say it is not right sir.

After you had finished writing out your original statement which I see you signed did you decided that this was not good enough that you would better it that you had been told the same thing by other people and then added it?
I added it, yes sir.

For that reason? wrote
I added it after I [redacted] that statement in case I needed to give it in evidence.

You cannot remember what day you arrived in the guard room at 1 CGRU?
No sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR

Q How many places is your signature on the statement you made?
A Several times.

Q What influenced you to write them there?
A I was under the ~~impression~~ impression that unless I signed it I would be charged.

Q Under what inducement?
A The fact that I would not be charged regarding the black jack and that I would hear no more about it.

Q The Prosecutor also mentioned that you never referred to the black jack at the summary or to the CO, when faced with a more serious charge would the prosecutor or the CO be the normal persons to tell things like this to?
A I did not think so at the time, and when I was up in front of the CO I did not say anything as I was remanded for CM.

Q Do you remember at the taking of the summary the Prosecutor making any threats?
A He stated that when he built a pitch fork he put enough prongs on it so that if he missed with one he would get us with another, I understood that if he did not get us on one charge he would on another.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

PROSECUTOR ASKED FOR LEAVE TO RECALL S/Sgt NELSON to rebut evidence given by the last witness - request granted.

S/Sgt Nelson, already sworn states:

Q Did you interview a S/Sgt Gratrix?
A Yes sir, on the 7 Oct 44.

Q Will you tell us the circumstances of your interview with him?
A I gave a receipt for his live body and brought him to the SIS office where I made some remark to him as to what it was all about and ~~if~~ I cautioned him in the usual manner, after which he made a statement. I had noted down his remarks on some scrap paper. After he finished his statement I opened a bag containing his personal belongings and it was after that that I suggested to him that I take it down in writing, he did not object. I cautioned him again and he typed the statement out. I saw Gratrix at about 1445 hours on the 7 Oct, it was the first time that I had seen him that day.

Q Did he make a statement that you jotted down in pencil?
A Yes Sir. Gratrix then said he would type it out himself.

Q Did you dictate his statement to him and use the following words, "you had better put some of this in your own words or it wont sound right"?
A No sir. He told me he was a typing instructor and volunteered to type it out.

Q Did you use to him the following phrase, "you are a dam fool and are in a serious jam" or similar words?
A No sir.

Q Is it your custom ~~xxxx~~ to call people dam fools?
A No sir.

Q Did you say anything similar to the following "There are two ways to do everything, a hard way and an easy way, if you play ball with me, I will play ball with you" or similar phrase?
A I do not recall it sir.

Q Would say positively that you did not say such a thing?
A I am not sure, it might have arisen?

Q Did you say when you found this black jack, "this is going to make things much worse for you"?
A No sir.

Q Did you say "you have been carrying a concealed weapon and there is a heavy penalty for that sort of thing?
A No sir.

Q Did you say "it is really my duty to charge you with carrying a concealled weapon?"
A No sir.

Q Did you say to him "if you are smart you will tell me the whole story and I will deal with the black jack"?
A No sir.

Q Did you promise S/Sgt Gratrix any amunity from anything?
A No sir.

Q Did you make any effort at any time to bully him?
A No sir.

Q How many times do you recall cautioning S/Sgt Gratrix?
A Once when I arrested him, once when I first started to speak to him on the 7 Oct and when he started to type his statement.

Q Did he sign a statement to this effect?
A He did, something to the effect that "I have read over the above statement, it is made voluntaryily without fear of any threat and hope of any favour and it is true".

DEF OFFRS DECLINE TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

BY THE COURT

Q At what stage in the taking of the statement did you open the bag with his belongings and pull out the black jack?
A He had finished his story which I had made notes and it was after that that I opened the bag and found the black jack.

Q Did you know the black jack was in the bag?
A No sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE ON THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE STATEMENT
L 15134 Pte GEMMELL, N.A., on strength No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

PRESIDENT: You are not compelled to answer any question which might tend to incriminate you.

EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR

Q Would you tell the Court of your dealings with S/ Sgt Nelson generally and with special regard to any reference made to a black jack.

A On Friday, 6 Oct I heard a rumor that S/ Sgt Gratrix and a driver from 1 CGRU were in arrest in Lond having been picked up with Gratrix carrying a black jack. I heard this rumor repeated several times during the next three or four days then on the 10 Oct I was put under arrest by S/Sgt Nelson, I was cautioned and taken out to No 9 Prov Coy. There, after lunch, I was taken into a room and S/Sgt Nelson cautioned me again and asked me what I knew of the affair that Gratrix and the driver were involved in. I told him I knew nothing. Then he told me that Gratrix had been arrested in possession ~~fm~~ of a black jacm. He went on to say that serious charges could be laid against Gratrix and that he had proof that I was involved in the affair and therefore would be serious for me too. But if I made a statement it would go lighter and be much easier on me and that I should make a statement. I thought for a few minutes and then agreed to sign a statement which Staff Nelson took down in his hand writing.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q At what time on Friday 6 Oct did you hear this rumor that Dudley and Gratrix had been arrested in London carrying a black jack?
A It was when I went to mess for lunch at approx 1145 hours.

Q Who said it?
A I do not remember who first told me this story, I believe it was Spr Gorman. I understand he is now in France, he left shortly after that.

Q Who was carrying the black jack according to the rumor?
A S/ Sgt Gratrix.

Q Have you ever seen him with a black jack?
A No.

Q Had you ever known him to carry one?
A I have never known him to carry a black jack.

Q How long have you known him?
A Over two years.

Q Where were you arrested on the 10 Oct?
A "A" Wing office, 1 CGRU, Major McLean was present, and there may have been others in the office. S/Sgt Nelson arrested and cautioned me there. I understood the caution.

Q You are a member of the CMSC?
A Yes sir.

Q You understand the meaning of the words?
A Well enough for the purpose.

Q Where were you questioned by Nelson after lunch?
A No 9 Prov Coy I believe was the place.

Q Will you tell me the first thing that Nelson said to you?
A He cautioned me.

Q Next thing?
A He first asked me what I knew of the affair of Gratrix and the driver who was with Gratrix.

Q What was your answer?
A I told him I knew nothing of it. xxxxxx

Q What next?
A He then told me that when Gratrix was arrested he was carrying a black jack and it was serious and serious charges would be laid against me.

Q What happened next?
A He told me that he had proof that I was implicated with Gratrix.

Q What next?
A His words were to the effect that serious charges could be laid against me because I was implicated but if I made a statement these serious charges would not be laid.

Q Did you write out the evidence you have made to the Court today?
A I made notes.

Q Have you them with you?
A Yes Sir. Here they are in my own hand writing.

(Notes marked Ex 1C by the Court)

Q Have you shown these notes to any personnel other than your Def Offr?
A The other officers have seen them.

Q Have any of the accused seen them?
A No sir.

Q Have you discussed the matter of that statement with any of the other accused?
A Yes sir.

Q To what extent?
A Quite a good deal.

Q Did the remainder of the accused tell you what their statements were going to be?
A They told me the essence of what their statements were.

Q Did you discuss their statements with them?
A The statements were made one to another but it could not be called or taken as discussion.

Q In other words you understood what the others were going to say.
A Yes I suppose so.
Q Have you a general idea of what Miskimmons is going to say?

OBJECTION BY THE DEF OFFR:

OBJECTION OVERRULED

A I have a general idea of what Miskimmons will say.

Q And the rest?
A And the rest.

Q On what date did you write out that statement?
A Yesterday.

Q When did you make your first notes for it?
A Some time ago, I cannot tell you just when.

Q Last week?
A Before last week.

RE EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR

Q On whose request did you make out this statement?
A The first notes I made were on my own suggestion, I made up the statement at the request of the Def Offr.

Q With regard to the statement that S/Sgt Nelson got you to sign did you sign it in several places?
A Yes sir.

Q What induced you to sign that statement?
A Because I believed there was a threat and promise in it.

Q What induced you to sign in the various places, and in particular that it was in your own free will?
A I had been cautioned and it was to be a statement of my own free will so I thought I might as well sign it as such.

Q Was it in your own free will?
A No sir.

Q In other words the promises or threats of Nelson induced you put your signatures on that statement?
A Yes sir.

did
Q Some days/I come down to the guard room and interview you?
A Yes sir.

Q Did each one of you give a statement at that time?
A Yes sir.

Q Was that repeated at any time?
A That procedure was again repeated very recently.

Q What other offrs were present at the time?
A On the second occasion all the def offrs were there.

Q And the first time do you remember who was there?
A Yourself and Capt Saunders.

RE CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q Were you prsent at the summary of evidence on the 1st and 2 Nov 44?
A Yes sir.

Q Was your statement read over to you on that occasion?
A Yes sir.

Q Were you given an opportunity to make any comments on it had you wished to do so?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you do so?
A No sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR (Lt Wilding-White)

Q What influenced you not to make any complaints at the time of the summary of evidence?
A I had realized by this time that the making of statements could not help me in any way or anyone else, I thought I had made enough by then and there was no one there urging me to make any more.

Q Would the Prosecutor be the normal person to make any statement to?
A No sir.

Q Did the officer taking the summary on that occasion make any threats?
A He suggested the penalties that we would receive would be very heavy.

Q Did he say anything else?
A He also mentioned that a good many charges would be laid so that if we beat one we would be got on another. He told us that when he built a pitch fork he made it with lots of prongs on it and if he missed us with one he could get us with another.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you tell the officer taking the summary of the inducements made to you by S/Sgt Nelson?
A I did not feel it was the place to make any protests.

BY THE DEF OFFR

Q Were you still under the influence of the threats?
A Yes sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

S/Sgt NELSON, already sworn is recalled: Examined by Prosecutor

Q Did you on the 10 Oct 44 arrest a then Sgt Gemmel?
A Yes sir, in the office of the OC "A" Wing, 1 CGRU, the OC was present when I arrested this man.

Q Did you caution him?
A I took him over to the guard room and then to the APM's office at CRU and then to No 9 Cdn Prov Det. I interviewed him at the No 9 Prov after cautioning him.

Q Did you say to Gemmel these words or words similar? "Sgt Gratrix when arrested was in possession of a black jack and it is going very hard with him"?
A No sir.

Q Did you at any time metnion to Gemmel anything about this black jack?
A No sir.

Q Did you show him the black jack?
A No sir.

Q Did you tell him that because S/Sgt Gratrix had a black jack that very serious charges would be laid against Gemmel.
A No sir.

Q Did you use any such expression?
A No sir.

Q Did Gemmel make a statement?
A Yes sir.

Q Was it voluntary?
A Yes sir.

Q Was he given the usual caution?
A Yes sir.

Q Did he sign it?
A Yes sir.

Q Did he then sign this statement or a similar statement? "I have read over the above statement which has been made without fear of any threats or hope of any favour and it is true"?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you at any time in your dealings with Gemmel threaten, bully, abuse or do any other thing to induce him to make a statement?
A No sir.

Q Did you offer him any favour or infer if he made a statement that he would be let off easier?
A No sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY DEF OFFR

Q When you went from accused to accused on these occasions did you ever show the statements of one to the other?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever read it to them?
A No sir, I gave it to them to read themselves.

Q Then after showing it to one and if he gave a statement you carry it back to show it to someone else, is that true?
A No sir.

Q You might have done it?
A But I did not.

Q You did to a number of accused before they had made statements produced statements of the other accused?
A No sir, I produced the original statement to another accused but that would not be the statement which had been taken as a result of previous action I had taken.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you in your discussions with Gemmel before he made a statement say anything to this effect, "that if he, Gemmel, made a statement it would be lighter for him?"
A No sir.

Q Did you say to him, "that if he made a statement it would go easier for him"?
A No sir.

Q Are you positive?
A Yes sir I am sure of it.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

WITNESS RETIRES:

4th WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE ON THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE STATEMENT
D 91032 Bdr DAVIES, J.C., on strength No 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn states:

PRESIDENT: You are not compelled to give any evidence or answer any questions which might tend to incriminate you.

EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR (Maj Fellows)

Q Would you tell the Court any dealings you had with S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS in general and in particular with reference to a black jack?
A On the 11 Oct 44 I was taken to Aldershot Police station and interviewed ~~xxx~~ by S/ Sgt Nelson. I told him that I had no intention of making a statement about an alleged theft. I was worried at this time about reports that were rife in the Sgts Mess and in all the camp in general that S/Sgt Gratrix had caused bodily harm to some police officers in London, I think I heard these rumors about the 5 Oct. I asked S/Sgt Nelson a direct question, did S/Sgt Gratrix beat up some police officers in London and ~~xxx~~ he rather avoided the question and said "so you realize how serious a charge this can be" so I told him I could not realize just how serious a charge can be as I did not know what occurred in London. S/Sgt Nelson went on and said "your friend Gratrix is in trouble and if you want to help him and help yourself too", as a matter of fact he used bad language, he said "you will fucking well do as I say" so I made a statement and I won't accused S/Sgt Nelson of dictating it word for word, but he was continually referring the statement that Gratrix made and Gemmel. He kept reminding me to use my own phrasing as he continually referred to his notes I was doing the typing.

Q On whose request did you write out the statement
A I had already volunteered this information to my Def Offr.

Q What induced you to sign in the various places, and in particular that it was in your own free will?
A I had been cautioned and it was to be a statement of my own free will so I thought I might as well sign it as such.

Q Was it in your own free will?
A No sir.

Q In other words the promises or threats of Nelson induced you put your signatures on that statement?
A Yes sir.

Q Some days/I came (did) down to the guard room and interview you?
A Yes sir.

Q Did each one of you give a statement at that time?
A Yes sir.

Q Was that repeated at any time?
A That procedure was again repeated very recently.

Q What other offrs were present at the time?
A On the second occasion all the def offrs were there.

Q And the first time do you remember who was there?
A Yourself and Capt Saunders.

RE CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

A Yes sir.

Q Did you do so?
A No sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE DEF OFFR (Lt Wilding-White)

Q What influenced you not to make any complaints at the time of the summary of evidence?
A I had realized by this time that the making of statements could not help me in any way or anyone else, I thought I had made enough by then and there was no one there urging me to make any more.

Q Would the Prosecutor be the normal person to make any statement to?
A No sir.

Q Did the officer taking the summary on that occasion make any threats?
A He suggested the penalties that we would receive would be very heavy.

Q Did he say anything else?
A He also mentioned that a good many charges would be laid so that if we beat one we would be got on another. He told us that when he built a pitch fork he made it with lots of prongs on it and if he missed us with one he could get us with another.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you tell the officer taking the summary of the inducements made to you by S/Sgt Nelson?
A I did not feel it was the place to make any protests.

Q Suppose I produce a witness to say he did nothing of the kind? Do you still maintain that what you told the Court is true?
A Yes sir.

Q Did S/ Sgt Nelson start to type this statement out and you told him that xxxxxxxxx he was a poor typist and say that you would do it yourself?
A He is not a poor typist.

Q Did you take over from him?
A Yes sir, S/Sgt Nelson asked me how many words I could type and I told him and he asked me to type it.

Q You say he practically dictated it?
A Yes sir.

RE EXAMINATION BY DEF OFFR (Lt Wilding-White)

Q Did he question you concerning the statement and examine you regarding other statements?
A He asked me questions but he did not examine me.

Q Did this seem inducement and threats to you?
A Yes sir.

Q The same inducement that caused you to sign all the statements?
A Yes sir.

Q When you were at the summary of evidence was this same influence or promises affect you?
Aa Yes sir.

Q Did the officer taking the summary make any threats.
A Yes sir, he went around to various individuals and said you are liable to 10 years and you good for five years and I think it influenced out judgement. I made the correction in my statement to see what psychological effect asking to have a change made would have over S/Sgt Nelson. The officer taking the summary also said something about when he built a pitch fork he made it with many prongs meaning that we were to have many charges so that if we beat one we would be found guilty on another. This also made me refrain from complaining to him at the time he asked me if I had anything to say.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

S/Sgt Nelson, already sworn is recalled and examined by the Prosecutor

Q Did you on the 11 Oct take Cpl Davies to the Aldershot Police station?
A It was on the 10 Oct I believe and I interviewed him on the 11 Oct.

Q Did he ask you a question in the following words or to the effect "is it true that S/ Sgt Gratrix has beat up some civilian policemen in London with a black jack?" or any similar xxxxx expression?
A I am not positive but I think not sir.

Q Did you use to Cpl Davies the following or similar words "your friend Gratrix is in trouble, if you want to help him and help yourself you will fucking well do as I say"?
A No sir, I did not.

Q Did you administer the usual caution to him before taking the statement?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you dictate it from other statements?
A No sir.

Q Were there any other persons in the office?
A Yes, several members of the CID, there was Det Constable Kidd and Burns.

Q Did you offer Davies any inducement to make his statement?
A No sir, and no threats or promises and no hope of any favours if he made his statement, I in no way induced him to make a statement.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY Maj Fellows:

Q Did Davies mention a black jack at all?
A No sir, not that I remember.

Q Was there any discussion?
A There was some discussion, but I do not remember a black jack being mentioned.

BY Lt Wilding-White:

Q Would that not be rather an important thing for you to remember?
Q No sir, the question was just whether he had beat up a policeman.

Q Was that not an unusual question?
A No, there were rumors all over camp and I would not place any importance on it.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you say any words to this effect to Davies before he made his statement "if you wish to help Gratrix and yourself you will make a statement?"
A No sir.

Q Positive?
A I am sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS CALLED TO REBUT PREVIOUS EVIDENCE

Det Constable N. KIDD, Hants Joint Police Force, stationed in Aldershot, Hants, having been duly sworn states:

Q Were you present in the Aldershot Police Station on the morning of 11 Oct of this year?
A Yes sir.

Q Do you recall a S/Sgt Nelson?
A Yes sir, he was at our station on the 11 Nov of this year he was with a Cdn soldier named Cpl Davies from 1 CGRU. Davies was charged with stealing 700 blankets and Nelson was representing the SIS from Cdn Mil HQ as investigator. I had Sgt Davies in the office, I had to take his finger prints and certain records and Nelson came in and the conversation took place about the theft of blankets.

Q Did Davies say anything?
A I took no particular heed to any of the conversation but I know that Davies too the sttitude that he had been a dam fool and disgusted with the whole thing.

Q Do you know whether or not he made a xxx statement in connection with the matter?
A Yes sir he did.

Q Do you know who took down that statement?
A The statement was started by S/Sgt Nelson but he was rather slow on the typewriter and in the end Davies was asked to take over the typewriter and do his own statement.

Q Were you close enough to them to hear the conversation?
A I was within three feet during the proceedings.

Q Did you hear S/ Sgt Nelson use the following words "your friend Grabrix is in trouble, if you want to help him and help yourself you will fucking well do as I say"?
A No sir.

Q Did S/Sgt Nelson dictate to Davies the confession which was typed out?
A On the contrary Davies was asking S/Sgt Nelson how shall I say so and so, or explain and was saying his own statement and getting S/Sgt Nelso to delete anything irrelevant to the issue.

Q Was any other person besides yourself and Nelson and Davies present?
A Our full staff was there but the only person interested was Det Constable Burns, he made out the charge sheet against Cpl Davies and was around.

Q Why was a charge sheet made out?
A Davies was being lodged in a civilian cell, but it was a mil office, however while in civilian custody it was necessary to make out a charge.

Q You heard then that no threat of any kind was made?
A I am sure there wasn't.

Q Any promises?
A None sir.

Q Why can you be so sure about all this?
A It is something I have never seen before, that a person should not only make a statement but voluntarily type it out and put in everything required without any threat or inducement. I have had considerable experience at taking statements as I have been on the staff here for two years, and I never saw that happen before.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY DEF OFFRS (Major Fellows)

Q How long have you known S/Sgt Nelson?
A This was my first introduction to him.

Q Had he been in the room with Davies when you come in?
A No sir I was there when Davies and Sgt Miskimmons were brought in the evening before. At that time they were charged mil offences and would have to be charged with civilian offences to be lodged in civilian custody.

Q Could Nelson have said anything to Davies before you come in?
A No sir. I saw that they were lodged in the cell for the night and was there the following morning long before S/ Sgt Nelson arrived. I was there after he had left the evening before. He could not have seen them during the night, as no one can see the prisoner during the night, it is against regulations and except in very exceptional cases no one can get in and in that case I would know about it the next morning, S/ Sgt Nelson had not been there and had not seen Davies from the time they were brought in until the next day. Davies had been brought to our office by a mil escort.

Q You say you were very much surprised that a person should come out with all these statements?
A Not that he should come out with them but that he should type them out. To see a man typing his own statement out was what surprised me, that he was willing to make it by typing.

Q Did you have other business to tend to?
A Yes I had some other work.

Q Can you say truthfully that you heard every single word said by Nelson and Davies?
A I think I can because when we get a new or different officer down, especially a Canadian, we listen to see if we can learn anything new, I was doing a routine job of typing most of the time. It was simple routine typing and did not require much concentration.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS CALLED TO REBUT PREVIOUS EVIDENCE
Det Constable R BURNS, Hants Joint Police Force, stationed at Aldershot, having been duly sworn states:

I am a det constable stationed in Aldershot. On the 11 Oct 44 I was in the Aldershot police station. I know S/Sgt Nelson I saw him on that morning. Constable Kidd and some other police officers were in the office and another Cdn soldier, named Cpl Davies. S/Sgt Nelson was interviewing Davies I did not take much notive to the conversation at the time.

Q Were they talking in loud voices?
A No just normal.

Q Did you hear any unusual remarks?
A No sir.

Q What finally happened?
A I saw Davies typing out a statement.

Q Did he seem to be doing it willingly?
A Yes Sir.

Q Was Nelson talking to him.
A Davies seemed to be doing most of the talking, he seemed to be talking and typing simultaneously.

Q Did you hear S/Sgt Nelson make the following remark or similar remark "your friend Gratrix is in trouble, if you want to help him and help yourself, you will fucking well do as I say"?
A Definitely not sir, as a policeman if we heard a remark like that we would prick up our ears and listen, that would be so unusual.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR (Maj Fellows)

Q How big is this room?
A About as large as this room. I was about ten to fifteen feet away from them. They were not talking loudly but quite normally and I actually did not follow their conversation.

Q How long have you known S/Sgt Nelson?
A About two months. We are friends from a business point of view, I would say we are friendly.

Q What were you doing in the room at the time?
A I was writing out reports.

COURT REASSEMBLED AT 0930 HRS 22 NOV 44 PURSUANT TO ABOVE MINUTE SAME MEMBERS BEING PRESENT

FIFTH WITNESS (FOR THE DEFENCE)

B.88451 Pte (formerly CQMS) MISKIMMONS, W., 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Would you tell the Court in your own words any relations or discussions you had with S/Sjt Nelson?
A. On or around 23 Oct I was taken down to the Aldershot Police Stn where I was questioned by S/Sjt Nelson and asked if I would come clean on a blanket deal at 1 CGRU. I denied any knowledge of it. He then told me "Miskimmons, do you call yourself a Canadian?" and also accused me of taking rations to my girl friend's place at Camberley. He became very annoyed at my answers and said to me "would you like your girl friend brought into this?" and my reply was "no". I told him that the only thing I had taken out to Camberley was a sewing machine that she had lent to the Unit to make Xmas toys. S/Sjt then said that there was a serious charge may be brought into all this and it was being investigated. He said I had better make a statement. I had already heard diff rumours around camp that some police up in London had been beaten up by S/Sjt Gratrix and Pte Dudley, and realizing what Nelson had brought up to me I made a statement under that threat of accusing me of taking rations to my girl friend's place and also bringing into the case he had already asked me about.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When did Nelson interview you?
A. On the 23rd.

Q. Is that the only occasion you made a statement to him?
A. No.

Q. Explain to the Court your dealings with Nelson then.
A. He had taken me diff times, twice before that, to Aldershot Police Stn and the first time I denied I knew anything about it.

Q. Did you make a statement to him?
A. Yes.

Q. What date?
A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Do you remember very clearly that the first one was 21 Oct?
A. No, I don't know.

Q. Why did you say it was then.
A. I didn't say.

Q. The first statement I suggest to you was made on 12 Oct?
A. I don't know.

Q. I suggest also that this statement on the 12 Oct was an entirely voluntary statement, is that correct?

A. Yes, I imagine it would be.

Q. I suggest that in that statement you denied all knowledge of this offence?
A. That is correct.

Q. I suggest that you then made a second statement on the same day, is that correct?
A. I don't remember making a second statement on the same day, Sir.

Q. I suggest that you made 3 distinct statements, is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. I suggest that the first statement was entirely voluntary?
A. Yes.

Q. That the second statement was voluntary?
A. What day was that on?

Q. On the 12 Oct?
A. I did not make 2 statement on that date.

Q. What date did you make a 2nd statement?
A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. I have here 2 copies of 2 statements both dated 12 Oct 44, and both signed by you?
A. I didn't make 2 statements on the same day.

Q. Were the first 2 statements you made voluntary statements?
A. The first one was.

Q. What about the second?
A. Yes, it was voluntary.

Q. What was the nature of the threat made to you on the 23rd?
A. First I was accused of taking rations which was a lie and I denied it. Second was that he wanted to bring my girl friend in of my taking rations

Q. What other threat did he make?
A. There was supposed to be a serious charge come out of this and it was to be investigated.

Q. What was this serious charge?
A. I didn't know at the time

Q. Did you think the blanket case would be a serious charge?
A. No, not as far as myself was concerned.

Q. Then how did you regard that as a threat?
A. I heard afterwards, later on after all this had happened, before the 23rd, about the police.

Q. Who from?
A. It was all around camp.

Q. Who told you? - name me one person?
A. Davies, who was under close arrest with me. There were also others.

Q. I'm going to suggest 3 things to you which I want answered. The first is this. That you consulted all the remaining accused about the statment you have made to the Court - is that correct?
A. I don't know about them all, two of them, Sjts Davies and Gemmell.

Q. Anybody else?
A. Not that I know of off hand.

Q. The next thing is this. That the statement of which you complained was not taken on the 23 Oct.
A. I didn't say it was.

Q. The next thing - I want to suggest this to you. That your statement was not made in connection with any case of rations at all, that it actually made purely voluntary, by you, after you had made a statement in connection with another matter - is that correct? I want you to think very carefully about your answer. Is it not a fact you had made a purely voluntary statement about another matter entirely with which you were then charged - was another statement made by you to the police on the same day?

A. Yes, a purely voluntary statement.

DEF OFFR: What statement are you referring to here?
PROS: The statement made on the 24 Oct to the civil police.

Q. Your other statement to S/Sjt Nelson was made immediately after that statement?
A. Correct.

Q. Then why did you tell this - that it was made after you were threatened about some rations?
A. On the other case it was the detective that I told that to, Nelson had nothing to do with the other case.

Q. Was Nelson present?
A. Yes, but he had nothing to do with it at all.

Q. Were the police still there when you made the statement to Nelson?
A. They were there.

DEF OFFR: I would like to object to all these continuous COMMENTS that the Prosecutor makes.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. You made this statement to the police on the 24th in connection with another case?
A. Yes.

Q. Was a certain document shown to you before you made that statement and did it have any relation with your making the statement?
A. Yes, a document was shown to me but it had no relation with my making the statement.

Q. What induced you to make the first statement was entirely diff and separate from what induced you to make the second?
A. Yes.

Q. Could you tell us more in detail about this questions S/Sjt Nelson brought up about rations?
A. Right after he asked me he got me annoyed by asking me if I called myself a Canadian.

Q. Any truth in these allegations about rations?
A. Definitely not.

Q. When you made this third statement of yours on the 23-24 or whichever it was, you signed it in about 3 places?
A. Yes.

Q. You signed it was voluntary?
A. Yes.

Q. What induced you to sign that it was voluntary?
A. The same inducement.

Q. Is a sewing machine all you ever took out to your girl friend?
A. I took my washing out there a few times.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you when you signed your statement on the 24 Oct sign it under the following words "I have read over the above statement which has been made voluntary without fear of any threat or hope of favour to some and it is true"?

A. I suppose I did, yes.

Q. Were you telling the truth then?
A. No, I was not.

Q. But you are today?
A. Yes.

Q. Was your statement on the 24 Oct read over to you?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you mention the threat to the offr taking it?
A. No

Q. Why not?
A. It was put to us to leave it until the court-martial.

Q. How was it put to you?
A. If you have any questions to ask or any statement to make on your oath----------I forget the other part of it, Sir, but it was put to us that way.

Q. That doesn't seem to make any sense to me at all?
A. That's all I can remember, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

LEAVE GRANTED TO PROSECUTOR TO CALL S/SJT NELSON UNDER RP 83(B).

U.1889 S/Sjt NELSON, W.C., 1 CGRU, being recalled, on his former oath states to the Prosecutor:

Q. Do you recall interviewing a then CQMS Miskimmons on 12 Oct?
A. Yes.

Q. Recall how many times you interviewed him that day?
A. Twice.

Q. Did you obtain a statement from him that day.
A. Two, Sir.

Q. Were they made voluntary?
A. Yes, I did not threaten him in any way.

Q. Recall interviewing him on 24 Oct at the Aldershot Police Stn?
A. Yes.

Q. Was he interviewed that day by other persons than yourself?
A. Yes, he was questioned by the civil police with respect to another matter.

Q. Did he make any statement to the police about this other matter?
A. Yes, and I was present part of the time, towards the end of it.

Q. Know if a threat was used against him by the civil police?
A. Certainly not.

Q. Did he make any statement to you in regard to the present matter under trial?
A. Yes, after the police statement had been read to him and he signed it he then turned to me and said "I want to tell you the truth and make a full statement about the blankets". I cautioned him and he then made a statement to me which I took down in writing and had him sign it.

Q. Did you say at any time to him "look, you've been stealing rations and we are going to bring your girl friend in on it" or "there's a very serious charge coming out of this, you had better tell the truth"?
A. No, I did not say either of those.

Q. Did you say to him that a S/Sjt had been detained by the civil police who was carrying a blackjack?
A. I did not.

DEF OFFR: I object to this questioning.

Q. Did you ever say to him "do you call yourself a Canadian"?
A. I can't be sure of that, I remember saying that some time or another, but to whom I can't be sure. I think not.

Q. Did you bully him or threaten him with any violence or threatening to arrest his girl friend?
A. No.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you say anything of this nature "would you like your girl friend brought into this"?
A. No, there was some mention about that because I questioned him on a matter of rations.

Q. Did you say anything of this nature to him "there's a serious charge which is being investigated"and that for his own sake he should make a statement?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you threaten him by accusing him of taking rations to his girl friend and that his girl friend would be brought into the case respecting the rations?
A. No, the matter was mentioned in some way, but I didn't threaten him in that way.

Q. Did you in any way indicate that you were going to bring his girl friend into this case or any case?
A. I may have told him that I intended to see his girl friend or had seen her or something like that, with respect to rations, Sir.

Q. Did you ever go up to Camberley to see her?
A. Yes, she was interrogated by a civil policeman ~~and~~ OR a civil whatter something concerning rations. I know that he inspected some catering license.

Q. Did you ask any questions?
A. No.

Q. Did you speak to this girl's mother?
A. The police did.

Q. You did not?
A. Not that I can remember. During or after these questions by the civil policeman to the girl she burst into tears and I said to her "look, don't worry, nobody is trying to accuse Miskimmons of something he didn't do".

EXAMINED BY DEF OFFR BY PERMISSION OF THE COURT:

Q. What did the Mother do then as a result of this kindly investigation?
A. It wasn't my investigation.

Q. You were very kind though weren't you?
A. Excuse me, Sir, that is an exagerration.

Q. What did the Mother do?
A. I can't remember.

Q. Didn't she bring out her books and slamp them down on the table and say "take those up to the Ministry of Food if you want to"?
A. I don't remember. I remember that books or something or other were brought out.

WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (IN REBUTTAL)

D.C. R. BURNS, Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at ALDERSHOT, being duly sworn, states:

Q. Did you ever have occasion to interview Miskimmons in connection with a civil matter and what is the date?
A. Yes, 24 Oct.

Q. Did he make a statement respecting that civil matter?
A. Yes, and S/Sjt Nelson was present.

Q. Anyone else that you know of?
A. No.

Q. Where?
A. In the Aldershot Police Stn in the CID Office at 2.30 p.m.

Q. Did Miskimmons then make a statement to Nelson?
A. Yes, immediately after.

Q. A voluntary one?
A. Yes. I finished this matter with Miskimmons and S/Sjt Nelson was sitting next to me and Miskimmons then said "I may as well make a statement now and clear up the matter of the blankets".

Q. Then what did Nelson do?
A. He said "alright" and got up and took my place at the table next to Miskimmons. He cautioned him and then they went into the business about the blankets.

Q. Did you hear Nelson use any words such as "do you call yourself a Cdn? " "there's an investigation going on regarding rations, do you want your girl friend brought into this" or "there's a very serious charge coming out of this matter, it will be better for you to tell me the truth".?
A. I heard no such words, Sir.

Q. Did you have a good opportunity of hearing everything that was said to Miskimmons?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you leave Nelson alone with him?
A. No, I was in the same room all the time.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How far were you away from Miskimmons at the time of this statement?
A. I was sitting right next to them I was making a few notes in my book to complete another matter with Miskimmons.

Q. Were you doing that all the time?
A. Yes, I was pretty busy alright.

Q. You heard everything that was said?
A. Yes.

Q. In spite of the fact that you were working all of the time?
A. Yes.

Q. Any mention of rations?
A. No.

Q. About a Mrs Ward?
A. No.

Q. Did you answer the phone at all during that time?
A. No, we have a clerk there who answers the phone.

Q. How does it happen then that since Nelson has just admitted on being examined by the Court that he did bring up the question of rations and of his girl friend and yet you heard everything that was said and didn't hear this?

A. I heard nothing about that at all.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

WITNESS (RECALLED BY THE DEF OFFR)

D.C. KIDD, recalled at the request of and cross-examined by the Def Offr, states:

Q. Do you remember when you were in the Police Office and Davies was being examined by Nelson?
A. Yes.

Q. How many times did you answer the phone during that period?
A. I can't remember.

Q. Did you answer it?
A. I can't remember.

Q. You could have answered it?
A. I could have but we keep civilian clerks there to answer it.

Q. Did you take any infm which concerned an RC Chaplain being recalled from France?
A. I did have an inquiry through the APM's Office by phone.

Q. Did you not go over to the table where Nelson was sitting and ask Nelson how you would get in touch with this chap?
A. It's quite possible.

Q. Didn't Nelson reply "through Records at Acton"?
A. I can't remember.

Q. Would the Police Register that day show all records of bikes being stolen?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember who took down the particulars?
A. No.

Q. If the book was there would it show it as being taken down in your handwriting?
A. Not necessarily, it is taken down on a message form first and then put in the book later.

Q. Did you at that time with the assistance of various offrs take certain articles from a suitcase?
A. No, I was particularly interested in S/Sjt Nelson as he was a Cdn investigator and we can often learn something from them.

Q. Do you remember leaving the room?
A. I don't remember.

Q. Could you have left the room to wash your hands?
A. I could have

Q. How far were you away from Nelson and Davies when the Supt inquired as to when 4 typewriters were stolen from 1 CGRU?
A. There was a table between us.

Q. Did you handle that inquiry?
A. Yes.

Q. When you went for lunch was Davies still making a statement?
A. I don't know.

Q. He could have been?
A. Yes.

Q. Was he making a statement when you came back after lunch?
A. He wasn't left there during the lunch hour.

Q. Could Davies have been alone with Nelson during the lunch hour and possibly other people?
A. He could have, but he was not because Nelson and I went to lunch together.

Q. Could you give us a gen idea of what Davies said to Nelson on this statement?
A. No, it was all written and was not of interest to me.

Q. Did you hear Nelson say that when Davies made a statement to him that he would get him released from civil custody?
A. No.

Q. Was there not a civilian charge read to Davies?
A. Yes, both to Davies and Miskimmons.

Q. There was?
A. Yes.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SIXTH WITNESS (FOR THE DEFENCE)

A.9843 Sjt JOHNS, JC, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Would you give in your own words any conversation you had with S/Sjt Nelson in an attempt by him to obtain a statement?
A. Yes, Sir. On 10 Oct at 1000 hrs I was interviewed by S/Sjt Nelson; He cautioned me and then said he had my friend S/Sjt Gratrix in arrest in London; that he had been found with a load of blankets, and he said that he knew that I had very little to do with this affair but if I would give a statement as to what I did know it would help my friend Gratrix. He then went on to tell me all that S/Sjt Gratrix, myself and others were supposed to have done in this affair and also that my friend Gratrix was found with a blackjack on his person which was in itself a serious offence. He said that he was a good fellow, meaning himself, Nelson, and that he did not want to make it any tougher than possible for me or any of us and also mentioned the fact that if we had anything to do with this affair we were just as guilty as the parties concerned. At that point I interrupted him and he then got quite angry and said when talking to Gratrix he believed that I had brains, but he said "you are stupid and are nothing but a God damned fool". That made me a little angry and I said "Staff, when you have finished investigating this case you will find that I had nothing to do with it". He then said "you take me for a God damned fool" and said further "you can either make a statement now or take it the hard way". I told him I didn't give a damn what he done. He placed me under arrest then and had me paraded to the Gd Room where I was locked in a cell. He also sent a note down to the Sjt of the Gd and also informed me before going down there that if I changed my mind while in there about making a statement I was to inform the Sjt of the Gd. I've been in that cell ever since, and to my knowledge the other Sjts were placed in arrest at their own quarters. That is as close as I can remember, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Where ~~you~~ were you placed under arrest?
A. Upstairs in Command Post.

Q. Was Maj McLean present?
A. No, there was nobody present.

Q. Did Nelson interview you on 12 Oct?
A. He came in several times, I could not tell you the exact dates.

Q. Was it a rumour you heard that Gratrix had beaten up 2 policemen.
A. Yes.

Q. Who told you that?
A. A Cpl Gorman of the MT Garage.

Q. Where is he now?
A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. You say definitely it was 2 policemen?
A. That is what I got.

Q. When did you hear this rumour?
A. I couldn't tell you exactly, it was either the following day or the day after Gorman was put under arrest.

Q. Did you make this statement to Nelson "I've been advised by an offr to say nothing and I don't intend to say anything".?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Did you say "I've a good chance of beating this rap, if I make no statement it will give my Def Offr a chance"?
A. It's possible I did, Sir.

Q. How long have you known Gratrix?
A. Oh, about 2 yrs anyway.

Q. Have you seen Gratrix since the day of your arrest?
A. In the Gd Room.

Q. Talk to him?
A. Yes.

Q. Have you talked to Gemmell?
A. Yes.

Q. Miskimmons?
A. Not direct, other than to say good morning.

Q. To Dudley?
A. I don't know him very well.

Q. At any time about this case to Dudley?
A. No.

Q. Did Nelson abuse you in any way?
A. No, except calling me a God damned fool and stupid.

Q. He used abusive language to you?
A. He did that alright, Sir.

Q. Did he say that this rumour with regard to Gratrix was true?
A. No

Q. What did you take from the remark "I should have got here sooner and stopped that"?
A. I didn't know what to take from it.

Q. Did you think the rumour was true - or do you think it is true?
A. Not necessarily, the facts could be true. I've not thought of it if it was true or not.

Q. Then it didn't influence you one way or the other?
A. No

Q. How are you employed in civil life Sjt Johns?
A. I drove Canada Coach from Hamilton to New York before joining up, and I've also done investigation work, insurance investigation.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

U.1889 S/Sjt NELSON, being recalled by the Prosecution, on his former oath states:

Q. Did you arrest a Sjt Johns?
A. Yes, on 10 Oct 44.

Q. Anybody else present?
A. Maj McLean the OC "A" Wing, 1 CGRU, Sir.

Q. When did you interview Johns?
A. I'm not quite sure of the date.

Q. Did you say to him "I've your friend Gratrix in arrest in London and you had better make a statement if you want to help him" or words to that effect?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did Johns ask you if it were true that Gratrix had beaten up 2 policemen in London with a blackjack?
A. Yes, I believe he did. I said I knew nothing about it. As a matter of fact, Sir, it did not happen.

Q. Did you say to Johns that he had better make a statement?
A. No.

Q. Did you tell him that you were of the opinion that he had brains but that since he would not make a statement he must be a God damned fool and stupid?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you curse or swear at him or offer any violence or promises to him?
A. Certainly not.

Q. Did he make a statement?
A. A verbal statement I took down what he said in note form, but he refused to make a written statement.

Q. Did you lock him up and tell him that as soon as he made a statement he would be released?
A. No.

Q. Did you tell Johns that if he desired to make a statement to send for you?
A. I told him I'd be about Sir, if he wished to see me.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you say anything to Johns to the following effect: "You can either make a statement now or take it the hard way"?
A. No. He said to me "what would you do?" or something to that effect. I immediately told him that I wasn't allowed to advise him or something to that effect. He told me that he had been an investigator once and asked me "what happens if I don't make a statement?", and I replied "you can please yourself about that". and said further "In our job the work sometimes comes easy, and sometimes the hard way. If you make a statement the job is more easily completed and if you don't I will have to make further inquiries" or something to that effect, Sir.

THE DEF OFFR SAID HE WAS NOT GOING TO CALL CPL JEYNES.

THE PROSECUTOR SAID THAT HE HAD THOUGHT HE WOULD BE CALLED BY THE DEFENCE BUT NOW THAT HE WAS NOT GOING TO BE CALLED HE ASKED THAT S/SJT NELSON BE AGAIN RECALLED FOR SOME QUESTIONS HE WISHED TO ASK.

GRANTED.

WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

U.1889 S/Sjt NELSON, being again recalled, ~~xxx~~ on his former states, and is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. What has been your experience in Police work, complete?
A. I was a private investigator for 3 yrs for a retail credit company in Canada, Sir, and in England I was trained as a PC at Peel House, London, which is the Met Police Trg School, and I've over 2 yrs as a PC at Gerald Rd Police Stn "P" Division. For the past 2 yrs I have been a member of the Pro Corps and for the past 18 mths I've been with the SIS. I'm stationed at CMHQ and my rank is S/Sjt. In my Section it is not possible to rise to a higher non-commissioned rank than S/Sjt.

Q. Have any complaints been made by your superiors as to your ability or efficiency?
A. Not to my knowledge, Sir.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

DEF OFFR: I WISH TO CALL A MRS WARD TO GIVE EVIDENCE AS TO THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THIS DOCUMENT.

PROSECUTOR: I MUST OBJECT TO THE CALLING OF THIS WITNESS. EVIDENCE HAS BEEN BROUGHT BEFORE THIS COURT THAT MRS WARD WAS QUESTIONED IN REGARD TO CERTAIN RATIONS. A PRINCIPLE HAS BEEN LAID DOWN THAT A CONFESSION WILL NOT BE EXCLUDED WHICH HAS BEEN OBTAINED FROM THE ACCUSED BY AN INDUCEMENT RELATING TO SOME COLLATERAL MATTER UNCONNECTED WITH THE CHARGE. PLEASE SEE THE CASES CITED IN PHIPSON ON PAGES 250 AND 251. THE QUESTION BEFORE THE COURT IS THIS: THE ADMISSIBILITY OF A STATEMENT MADE BY DUDLEY -----NOW NOTHING THAT THIS MRS WARD CAN SAY CAN HAVE ANY RELEVANCY TO THE QUESTION OF WHETHER A STATEMENT MADE BY DUDLEY IS OR IS NOT ADMISSIBLE IN THIS COURT. I THEREFORE MUST OBJECT TO THE CALLING OF THIS WITNESS.

DEF OFFR: THIS ALL TIES IN WITH THE COMPLAINT OF ACTION USED BY S/SJT NELSON AND SECONDLY, BECAUSE IT ALSO SERVES TO UPHOLD THE STATEMENT MADE HERE ON THE QUESTION OF ADMISSIBILITY OF S/SJT MISKIMMONS ACT, AND THIRDLY IT IS MOST UMPORTANT BECAUSE IT IS THE EVIDENCE OF SOMEONE OUTSIDE OF THIS GROUP. I THINK IT WOULD GO TO THE CREDIBILITY OF THE EVIDENCE GIVEN BY S/SJT NELSON.

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT WILL ALLOW MRS WARD TO GIVE EVIDENCE.

SEVENTH WITNESS (FOR THE DEFENCE)

Mrs AM WARD, Southcote, CAMBERLEY, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Do you remember a visit paid to you sometime ago by a S/Sjt Nelson in the company of an offr and another policeman?
A. Yes, it was on a Sat morning about 11.30, the date I can't be sure of.

Q. Could you tell us in substance, what occured there?
A. Yes. It is a canteen for tps we have there and they came in and had tea, and then asked me if I had seen Bill Miskimmons lately, my boy friend. I think it was S/Sjt Nelson who asked me this. The other man was in civvies and a Cdn Army Offr. I don't know either of the other two men. The man in civvies said he was a police detective.

Q. Do you remember who the offr was?
A. I would know him by sight. I have seen S/Sjt Nelson yesterday and today and would not mistake his face anyplace.

Q. Yes?
A. He wanted to know who wrote me a message to say he was in trouble. I said I had not seen him in 2 wks. I told him that no one brought me a message. Then the Capt turned around and asked "do you know Miss Anderson" and I said I did not know her but only knew her by the name of Kathleen.

Q. Did he ask you about rations?
A. Nelson said afterwards that he had proof that Miskimmons had brought me tea and sugar and I denied this, and I said the only thing he had brought me was his washing. He then said "you did have a ham for Christmas" and I said I did not have a ham for Xmas. He then said I would get myself into serious trouble, and I said I had nothing to say. After that he left and said not to say they were there. S/Sjt Nelson said they would be a great help to Miskimmons.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Who was the second civilian?
A. He said he was a police offr.

Q. Did he say anything else during all the time he was there?
A. Yes, he said he was a friend of Bill's.

Q. Anything else?
A. He said that he knew he had brought out sugar to me. They both said this at diff times.

Q. Do you know a CWAC whose name is Anderson?
A. Yes.

Q. Know whether she knows Miskimmons or not?
A. Just in a friendly way.

Q. How long have you known him?
A. 3 yrs.

Q. Did the Capt say anything?
A. The Capt whom I now know to be Capt Keen also said he was Bill's friend.

Q. What time was this?
A. Approx 11.30.

Q. Any other tps there?
A. Yes, they just stayed in line to get their tea

Q. Who was first?
A. Nelson.

Q. Did he go up to a box of cutlery and pick up a spoon?
A. Yes, he just picked it up and asked if we had any to sell. He then showed it to the others.

Q. Any other item?
A. No, not then. After they got their tea they went to the tearoom, had their tea and then Capt Keen came out and asked for a teaspoon; he took one and went back into the room. After that they came out and S/Sjt Nelson, I think, was the first to speak to me. I was alone at the time.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. Did S/Sjt Nelson and the other men then interview your Mother?
A. She came in afterwards but they did not have much to say to her.

Q. What did your Mother do?
A. The PC asked my Mother how we kept records and she showed him her papers and said "you can look at this or you can take them with you".

Q. Did you burst into tears at any time?
A. Yes, because I was so upset, and because of the sneaking way they came in.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

XXXXXX WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

Capt R KEENE, being recalled by the Prosecutor and on his former oath, states:

Q. Do you remember making a visit to a canteen in company with S/Sjt Nelson and a policeman in civilian clothing?
A. Yes.

Q. Explain the circumstances of that visit?
A. S/Sjt Nelson had knowledge that a friend of one of the accused, S/Sjt Miskimmons, operated a small restaurant or tea shop, and asked me if I knew where it was. I told him that I knew the approx area of the shop and I would endeavour to find it for him. On our first journey we did not find the shop and I returned to bks and contacted a dvr by the name of Gnr Wood who showed us where the shop was. It was getting late in the evening at that time and Nelson explained to me that he had no jurisdiction to enter that shop as a military policeman and make inquiries and we then left the area and contacted a civilian policeman at Farnborough Police Stn, DC Lightfoot. An appointment was made to pick up this PC the following morning and to go out to the tea shop, which we did. We had 3 cups of tea there, then after finishing our tea the civilian policeman said that he would like to see the back of the shop, so he got up first followed by Nelson, followed by myself. The PC then asked for Mrs somebody, I don't remember the name, and a young lady informed him that she was out and would be back in a few mins. That young lady is present here today. He then asked her if she was Mrs so and so, the girl friend of S/Sjt Miskimmons, and she said she was. The civilian constable asked this. Then the PC explained to her his visit, that S/Sjt Miskimmons was concerned with certain irregularities pertaining to items belonging to the military and wondered if she could enlighten him on anything. She formed a very beligerent sort of attitude towards the constable and said she knew nothing and that if she did know anything she intended to keep it here, pointing to her head. The constable then asked her one or two questions which I don't recall now, but it was more or less of a gen conversation type about rations and she continued with this attitude that she was in and would not give any infm at all or offer any help, and just then an elderly lady came in whom I now know to be her Mother, and the young lady broke down and began to cry, saying "they are after Billy and are saying that Billy has been stealing things". PC Lightfoot asked this elderly lady if she was the owner of the tea shop and she said she was and that the young lady, her daughter, came in each day to assist her with her work. The PC then informed the lady of his reasons for his visit and said he was wondering if she had at any time any WD property around the shop and she said a phrase similar to "on my word to God, I've never had any rations or eqpt in my premises". The PC then asked to see her license of trade and she showed it to him. She either showed it to him or explained to him how her license ran. Somewhere around this time S/Sjt Nelson said to the younger lady "doesn't S/Sjt Miskimmons stay with you on weekends?" and she replied "yes, he does". The PC then said "does he ever bring you anything in the way of rations" and she said "yes, a little bit of tea and sugar occasionally","but he does not use them from his own rations in barracks" I then said to the younger lady "just a pound of sugar or tea at a time" and she replied "oh, yes, not any more".

DEF OFFR: I object to this evidence.

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIED THAT IT WAS NO DIFFERENT THAN THE KIND OF EVIDENCE THE DEF OFFR HAD BROUGHT OUT OF THE LAST WITNESS, MRS WARD, AND POINTED THIS OUT TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE COURT.

THE PRESIDENT ORDERED THE WITNESS TO CONTINUE.

(Witness continues)

Lightfoot then informed both the ladies that S/Sjt Miskimmons was in trouble and would they be kind enough to give him what information they could so as to ease the case on Miskimmons if necessary and both ladies then assumed the beligerent attitude and said they knew nothing about anything. Lightfoot then informed them that if he could gather sufficient evidence himself that civil action may have to be brought against them. S/Sjt Nelson asked them himself again if they could not assist him, and they replied "no". We then left the premises and returned.

Q. Who did most of the talking throughout all this?
A. Lightfoot did 99% of the talking.

Q. Did Nelson question this younger woman?
A. Only what I've already said.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did Mrs Ward's Mother at any time produce her books?
A. I didn't see her produce any books although she may have - she got a license.

NINTH WITNESS (FOR THE DEFENCE)

B.44328 Lcpl THAXTER, RR, 6 Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Were you tell us where you were at 2300 hrs 5 Oct 44?
A. On stand to duty at the dtn room 6 Pro Coy. A S/Sjt Gratrix came in that evening brought in by S/Sjt Nelson. I told him to put his personal property on the table and then I searched him. I found a blackjack on him and put it with the rest of the property.

Q. What is this document?
A. It is a certified true copy of a property statement made by me when S/Sjt Gratrix was brought in.

CERTITIED TRUE COPY OF PERSONAL AND OTHER PROPERTY OF S/SJT GRATRIX MADE BY THIS WITNESS OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT "1-E".

DEF OFFR:

This document is a statement in my own handwriting of CWAC Pte Anderson. She works at the Tpt Office here and I tried to find her there and they said she had gone to hospital with pleurisy. I finally found her in HQ CRU of the CWAC. I went in and got her CO Cynthia GOFF, and we went in together and questioned her on this matter and she made this statement here which she signed. The CO then said "this is to certify that Pte Anderson is in Sick Bay and cannot attend as a witness at any court-martial". I believe that the requirements for the admission of a document like this is for it to be signed by a field officer. It is not signed by a field officer but by a Capt, so I wondered if it could be accepted as it is. If not, I will postpone putting it in now until I get the signature of Maj Lefroy on it.

PRESIDENT: The situation would be no different then as it is now if you had the signature of Maj Lefroy on this document. I know of no rule of law which would enable me to admit that document as evidence. That evidence could only be given if Pte Anderson were sworn in this Court and made herself subject to cross-examination.

DEF OFFR: I see, Sir, may I enter an objection then, please?

PRESIDENT: Yes, you may if you wish.

TENTH WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

U.1889 S/Sjt NELSON FR, on his former oath, states:

Q. I hand you a written document, what is it?
A. This is a statement made by the accused to me on 6 Oct 44. The signature of the accused is on it, and it also bears my signature. I saw it signed.

STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT 4.

Q. Did you interview the accused again on the 19 Oct?
A. I did. I saw the accused again on the 19 Oct in the Gd Room of this unit CGRU, and showed him a statement made by another soldier, immediately cuationed him and handed him the statement which he read over, and he then made to me another statement which I took down in writing and which he signed. I have that statement here and I will produce it to the Court.

Q. Was this statement voluntary?
A. Yes.

Q. It was made after due caution?
A. Yes.

Q. Was it in all respects taken in the same manner as the first statement?
A. Yes.

Q. Does it involve other persons?
A. Yes.

DEF OFFR: We have no objection to this statement going in but I would like to ask the witness a few questions with respect to the first and second statements.

We object to the introduction of this evidence on the same grounds and supported by the same evidence as we did with respect to the first statement.

PRESIDENT: The Court will admit the statement.

STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT 5.

Q. Did you take any further statement from the accused?
A. Yes, on the 7 Oct in the SIS Office when I showed to him a statement made by another soldier. I cautioned him, and he made a statement which I typed out on the same piece of paper on which his first statement was made, and he signed it in my presence. This is the statement.

DEF OFFR: We object to the introduction of this evidence on the same gounds and supported by the same evidence as we did with respect to the first statement.

PRESIDENT: The Court will admit the statement.

ELEVENTH WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

B.51699 Sjt CHILDS, WC, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. How are you employed?
A. Tpt Sjt 1 CGRU, Sir.

Q. Did you go to London on 6 Oct 44?
A. Yes, to pick up a veh at Pro HQ, and the number of that veh was L.262820. I returned the veh to the unit as instructed. The veh was empty.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

TWELFTH WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

H.12347 Pte TOEWS, D, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. How are you employed?
A. Working in the bk stores. I was working in the Blanket Room on 5 Oct. On that day we were cleaning palliases to be sent to the laundry. In the afternoon we went to the Hale Laundry to get some blankets. We brought back 800, I counted them. That afternoon we sent 700 out of the blanket stores. I helped to load them, Gnr Gould was counting them.

Q. Do you know the accused and is he in this courtroom?
A. Yes.

Q. Where were these blankets going?
A. To the Recep Coy, CQMS Miskimmons told me that, he was the CQMS of the Stores, or known by its other name, Accn Stores.

Q. Where was the accused while the blankets were being loaded?
A. In the back of the truck piling them.

Q. Did he say anything about them?
A. Not that I could say.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did the accused go into the Blanket Room, take the blankets and load them on the truck?
A. No.

Q. Did you bring any blankets back from the laundry on 5 Oct?
A. I went to the laundry in a truck that Pte Toews had that day. We brought back 800. That day we sent 700 of them out of the unit after we came back from the Hale Laundry. Pte Toews helped me load them on, and S/Sjt Miskimmons was present and he said they were going to the Recep Coy. The dvr of the truck helped to load the blankets. I don't know the dvr's name.

Q. Would you recognize him again if you saw him?
A. At that time I would not.

Q. Is he, in this Court?
A. I don't see him - actually, I never looked at the dvr that day.

RE-EXAMINED

Q? How many people actually loaded the truck from the loading platform into the truck?
A. Pte Toews and I.

18

Q. Is that all?
A. To my knowledge, yes.

Q. Do you wish to correct a statement you made a few mins ago?
A. No.

Q. Where was the dvr at the time?
A. He was in the back of the truck. He was just straightening them up in the back of the truck.

Q. Did either you or Toews get into the truck?
A. No.

Q. The dvr stayed in the back of the truck?
A. Yes.

THIRTEENTH WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

Capt CE LAKE, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Were you present here on Fri last at approx 1630 hrs?
A. No, about half an hr before that time.

Q. Was there delivered to you a truck containing blankets?
A. Yes, I accompanied the truck over to QMSTORES to a bldg there and then sent for 2 storemen to come over and unload the blankets. I counted the blankets, there were 70 bundles of ten blankets each, making a total of 700. I locked the door myself and later the blankets were brought to this Court in the truck. I signed a receipt for them presented to me by a member of the SIS.

Q. Has there been recently made in this unit a check of blankets?
A. Yes, a Cdn Bk Stores check on 11 Oct.

Q. What did it disclose?
A. An apparent shortage of approx 800 blankets.

Q. Did you know that it was alleged that 700 blankets belonging to this unit were in London?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you not, stating there was an apparent shortage of 800, include in that shortage the blankets that were in London?
A. If I had taken those into consideration the shorage would have been 100 just around.

Q. Do you know army blankets?
A. I do. I've been the QM of this unit since Aug 43, and have roughly 9000 on charge.

Q. I now show you a bundle of blankets?
A. Yes, these are identically in every respect the same as as army blankets

Q. If they were blankets which came from your Stores would they be Army blankets?
A. They would be.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You don't know if they came from your Stores?
A. No.

Q. You say you have 9000 on charge?
A. Yes.

Q. It is quite apparent then that you can't tell one from the other?
A. They are all the same typo of blanket.

Q. I'm quite willing to admit that these are the blankets that came from London, but how do you know that these are the blankets that came from your Stores?
A. I do not know.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Do you ever send blankets to the Reception Company?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you on 4-5 Oct authorize anyone to take 700 blankets from your Stores to London?
A. No, I did not.

Q. Would you know as QM if anyone else gave authority for that to be done?
A. There was nobody else except the assistant QM and he was away on course.

Q. Before 10-11 Oct was any record of blankets recd kept?
A. I couldn't say.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge what date blanket records started in the blanket book?
A. No.

PROSECUTOR TO PRESIDENT: Before this witness leaves the room may I offer these 700 blankets as an exhibit?

PRESIDENT: Yes.

FOURTEENTH WITNESS (FOR THE PROSECUTION)

Lt JC DRAGER, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Were you employed at 1 CGRU 5 Oct?
A. Yes, as Asst Tpt Offr. I recognize the accused who was employed as a dvr on that date. I did not on that day authorize the accused to proceed to Watford in a veh. The authority would have to come through "B" Gp as Watford is out of the 20 mile limit, signed by the Adjt or the Col. On 5 Oct I saw no authority for a veh to proceed to Watford.

Q. I now show you a work ticket which has been marked Ex. 2?
A. I did not authorize that work ticket, nor did I authorize anyone else to authorize it. The signature here is Capt Keene. I've seen the signature of Capt Keene many times and this is not his signature, as I'm quite familiar with his signature.

Q. I now show you another work ticket, marked Exhibit 3, do you recognize that ticket as having been authorized by you?
A. I can't recall ever having seen it.

Q. Did you authorize that journey?
A. No.

Q. Is the last journey on that work ticket legimately ~~xx~~ authorized on that work ticket?
A. No.

I am the Offr IC of the Recep Wing. We receive personnel into the unit and issue them with blankets and other eqpt. We get our blankets from the Blanket Stores.

Q. When were you formed?
A. I can't say offhand.

Q. What is that book you have?
A. It is a record of all blankets issued & recd. It starts on 12 Oct 44.

BLANKET BOOK MARKED EXHIBIT 8.

Q. Is this sheet of paper I have here a true extract from entries in Exhibit 8?
A. Yes, I made it myself.

Q. Were you OC the Recep Coy 5 Oct?
A. No.

Q. The 11th Oct?
A. No.

Q. Know anything about the state of blankets in the Recep Coy on 4-5 Oct to your knowledge?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

D.96314 Sjt BECHER, E, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. What is your job?
A. I am in the Recep Coy and I receive all the men that come from the fd, hospital and on draft. I am the senior NCO there, and I see they go through the jumps, that is the MO, DO, Accn, QM Stores, etc. The men are issued with 3 blankets each. We get the blankets from the Accn Stores of 1 CGRU.

Q. When was this Coy formed?
A. They started on 3 Oct, but I don't know when it was formed.

At that time we had no blankets at all, but we asked Lt Dunlop, the OC, for blankets. He ordered the blankets through the QM Stores. He went down and asked for them and I and Mr Reed and a Cpl went down to the Accn Stores to get some tables and chairs and then we went to get the blankets that were already arranged for.

Q. What were the purposes of these blankets apart from the men coming in?
A. We wanted to build up a supply at the time, we asked for 500 at the time but only got 450. The next day we asked for 500 more.

Q. Did you at any time ask him in less specific terms?
A. We told him we could use all the clean blankets he could supply, Sir.

Q. That was verbal?
A. Yes.

Q. How many had he sent you before the 5th?
A. On the third 450, and 500 on the fourth.

Q. Are you sure it was 500?
A. Yes, I am pretty sure.

Q. About how many did you need?
A. We expected a draft of 150 men in with a supply of 3 to each, and then we wanted a bank supply.

Q. Did you get receipts for any of these blankets?
A. We sign a receipt book, yes.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

(MAJ FELLOWS)

I would like to start as the Def Offr my address with the evidence of detectives Cook and Webb. There evidence was clear and fair but they did not definitely identify the tickets. Again there was no evidence that blankets were sold or pawned in London, nor did they identify the blankets which they found in the truck as those that were supposed to have been taken from the Accn Stores. I come next to the statement which was filed by S/Sjt Nelson. In that statement there are several quotations, in one place the accused is alleged to have said that he did not know the road, he told me where to go, and in another place he states he was lost. I submit to the Court that this is not the statement of a planner or schemer or robber. Another statement is that I did not see any civilians. If this soldier was disposing of blankets he would certainly have contacted somebody. Another statement reads I was just driving the truck and did not know where the stuff was going. I submit that these are not the statements of a stealer. Next I would like to go to the question of blankets and stores. At the stores the evidence goes to show that the CQMS ordered 700 blankets loaded on a truck. To steal blankets according to MML the example shown there is a very good one. It mentions boxes, the box belonging to the original owner. To steal you must go into the box and grasp the contents and carry away is the original movement from the box, out. That is the law. To steal and carry away is the original movement from that box. In this case it was not a box but the Blanket Stores or Accn Stores. The Accn Stores represent the box in this case. The blankets were picked up and loaded by 2 soldiers and put on the truck on the instrs of the QMS. According to the evidence the accused remained on the truck. We now go to the Recep Coy. From the evidence obtained so far, from the QM, there was at this time no proper records kept at the Recep Coy, no definite system of ordering blankets and there appeared to be no definite check on blankets arriving at the Recep Coy. The QM said in his evidence that he had 9000 blankets and could not begin to recognize each one of those blankets. On the evidence of one of the loaders it has been established that the blankets were ordered from the Accn Stores to the Recep Coy. When they got there, there appears to be no definite method of establishing the actual number available. We have evidence to show that there seemed to be a continuous order on hand to build up a bank. Further down the line a load of blankets was found in London, but there is no evidence so far that the blankets found in London were the same blankets that were taken from the Accn Stores. I submit that there is enough evidence to show that the original blankets might have been moved from the Accn Stores to the Recep Centre and might have been delivered in the Recep Centre and other blankets removed from the Recep Centre or another loca to London When the blankets got to London I would like to remind the Court again that according to the evidence the accused stayed in the truck until asked to leave by the police. He did not try to sell or pawn the blankets or try to unload his truck. I submit in closing that in the actual charge of stealing the Prosecutor must prove definitely that the blankets were stolen in accordance with the rules of MML and I submit to the Court that the proof so far is not forthcoming. As a final sum up I would like to have the accused read to you his statement, not on oath. One last thing Sir, about the present shorthand writer, is he the one that was here yesterday?

PRESIDENT: No, this stenographer, Sjt Sinclair, should have been sworn this morning. I am quite prepared, if you wish to, to take over again all of the evidence we have taken today, or I will swear the stenographer now if you will agree that you will regard his swearing now to be the same as though he had been sworn this morning, and if you will agree that you have no complaint respecting it and that the accused has suffered no injustic, and if you will agree that you would rather do this than take the evidence over again.

THE DEF OFFRS THEN SAID THAT THEY DID AGREE TO THE SWEARING OF THE STENOGRAPHER NOW ON THE ABOVE CONDITIONS.

PRESIDENT TO ACCUSED: Do you object to P.28126 Sjt SINCLAIR A.H., being sworn as shorthand writer?

ACCUSED: No, Sir.

THE SHORTHAND WRITER WAS THEN SWORN.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

(LT WILDING-WHITE)

With regard to the inspectors Cook and Webb when they questioned the accused in London, they had not cautioned him. The first of these that appeared as a witness stated that he had not made up his mind to arrest him, nor does the second. I therefore submit that the statement of Dudley in respect to their questioning should be struck out. There are two essentials of stealing, one is intention to deprive the owner permanently thereof and the other is to carry away. At the Accn Stores if the CQMS stole the blankets and ordered his men to put them on the truck, the carrying away was complete before Dudley recd the blankets. There was once upon a time a case where a man moved some good from one end of a warehouse to the other end and then tried to sell them to the owner. Dudley may have recd the stolen goods, but he is not charged with that, and for the purposes of arguing he may have been an accessory but he is not charged with that either. In addition to that it has not been proved that they were stolen when they left the Accn Stores. The Recep Coy was ordering blankets at that time by all possible means, and Sjt Becher has stated that he said verbally to a CQMS that he would take all the clean blankets he could get and he explained the reasons why. We have also seen that this Coy kept no record of the blankets recd or that went out. The blankets could perfectly well have gone to the Recep Coy and then have been stolen from there or in some other manner. How can you have improper possession if you haven't got possession at all. In London he was sitting in a truck for a very long time and was completely subject to the orders of this Sjt and if anybody had possession of the blankets, it was the Sjt. It is quite impossible to say that the dvr of the truck had possession of these blankets. For these legal reasons and also for the substantial ones stated by Maj Fellows my friend here, I think the accused should be found not guilty of the first and second charges.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The case of the accused, Pte Dudley, is a very simple one. We have the evidence of the two constables that on the night of 5 Oct he was discovered in London in a truck in the back of which were 700 blankets. That is the first fact, but there is the accused in a truck with 700 blankets. We have the evidence of the Tpt Offr and his Assistant that this was Dudley's truck. We have the evidence of the same two police offrs who asked the accused what he was doing there and the accused answered that he was waiting for his Sjt. When asked where he was going he says that he is going to Watford, in spite of the fact that he is in the Elephant & Caste district which is miles from Watford. He later said to the police offrs, "I will tell the truth, the blankets are stolen". Looking into this matter further we find the accused taken into custody by a S/Sjt of the SIS, and we find that the accused makes 2 statements to the S/Sjt which the Defence has contested bitterly but which the Court has seen fit to admit as being voluntary statements. The first statement agrees that he, Dudley, entered into an agreement with another man to take his truck and pick up a load of blankets and drive it to London and it contains a further statement that he was to receive a sum of money for doing this. His second statement agrees once more that the accused took his truck freely of his own will, picked up the 700 blankets, which he took to London in return for which he was to receive a sum of money. The accused knows perfectly well that no dvr in the Cdn Army will be paid sums of money for carrying legitimate goods on legitimate business, and therefore the accused knew these blankets were stolen. Dudley I don't say planned this, nor do I say that he sold or attempted to sell the blankets. All he did was to enter into an agreement with another person, and the law says at this point that an accomplice is as guilty as the principal. There is no doubt from the evidence of Capt Lake that there are approx 800 missing, there is no doubt that they are public property and that Dudley drove them to London. There has been absolutely nothing presented by anyone that 700 blankets arrived at the Recep Coy on the 7 Oct. On the instrs of CQMS Miskimmons two fatigue men loaded these on to the truck. The accused got into the back of the truck and stacked them. He stole them because he is the man who removed the blankets from public possession. The moment that he drove them out of the lines of 1 CGRU he removed them from the possession of the public and the essense of theft is that it should be an illegal removal. He removed them by means of false work tickets, in company with another man, and takes them not to WATFORD, but to the Elephant and Castle district in London. He admits that the blankets were stolen, admits that he drove the truck to London in the hope of receiving a reward, tells 3 diff people that the blankets are stolen and yet he comes and asks this Court to find him not guilty of stealing them! About the blankets themselves, I myself don't know whether they are army blankets, but being a person of some common sense, if I find that 700 blankets have been loaded into a certain truck and later I find that the same truck with the same dvr is some 35 miles away from that place with 700 blankets, and I find that the dvr has no lawful reason or excuse for being where he is, and if I find that he is equipped with false documents, my natural assumption is that they are the same 700 blankets. The accused also admits it, and how can the Court find otherwise? I submit the Prosecution has amply proved the guilt of the accused on the first charge, and if he is found not guilty of that charge then he is definitely guilty of the alt charge.

Possible STATEMENT by accused 15'
(Not a oath)

I did not help plan the alledged Theft.

I did not go into the warehouse and Lift any blankets and Put them in the Truck.

I did not Try to Sell any blankets to any individual

I did not discuss the disposal of Blankets with any civilians.

I did not unload the blankets from the Truck (except at the request of the police.

In fact I did not intend to dispose the Goverment of the Blankets.

I admit that I used the vehicle - but I am not guilty of Theft or improper possession. I was merely the driver and THAT IS ALL.

REBUTTAL BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

(MAJ FELLOWS)

I would like to say in connection with the last statement by the Prosecutor on the Finding, one or two points.

In connection with the actual definition that the Prosecution has made concerning the stealing of blankets. The Prosecutor has said that once they left public property the stealing is complete. If that is so, that the blankets stayed in the truck, then they were always public property, and were always on public property because the public property is the veh owned by the Dept of Nat Defence and they are always on public rds, and in a public country. Again I submit Sir, that the second charge in this case have not been proven for the simple fact that the accused is a Pte soldier and was really acting on instrs of more senior soldiers than himself. It shows in his own statement that he was under the orders of his superiors at all times. In London he was told, "wait here" and he waited.

Q. Would you tell the Court what you have to say about the accused up to the time of this occurrence?

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Sir, the accused joined the Army at the age of 17, has been in the Army since 1940 and has only 2 very minor crimes on his MFM 6. I submit that his record in the Army up to this time has been very good. The accused himself, previous to joining the Army, belonged to a good Canadian christian family in Canada, and he has a Father and Mother and two sisters at home. He was active in church circles, boys clubs, and has a background of not a street corner hanger but of a very good solid Cdn family. I do wish that the Court would take this very fact into consideration when inflicting any punishment, and I do wish that the family of this boy be considered and his general background. It would be s shame to society to have a young clean cut boy like the accused sent to a prison where he might learn bad habits which he has not now. The worst thing that has happened to him in the Army is that he got browned off and into bad company. For these reasons I would ask the Court to consider the length of time he has already spent in custody and also to consider his parents and family and the accused himself who is now actually only 22 yrs of age and who has been 4 yrs in the Army.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

The defense has objected to the admissibility of three statements on the grounds that they were obtained under duress. This duress is said to have consisted of a threat by Sgt Nelson the man who took the statements that unless [redacted] the accused made a statement he would be charged with offenses alleged to have been committed by accused and a promise of Sgt Nelson that if accused made a statement he would not be charged with offenses alleged to have been committed by accused.

The accused Buddy has stated in substance that the threat was made to him on 6 Oct 44 by Sgt Nelson but denies that he heard the promise of Sgt Nelson. Buddy has admitted in substance that Nelson found the weapon in his personal possession but denies that he told Nelson that he had found it. It is undisputed that Buddy was taken from the stockade to the office where Nelson was and that Nelson was present when Buddy signed the statement. Buddy testified that the guard escorted him to the office and that Nelson was present when he

It is argued by the counsel that he together with the remainder of the accused realizing the dangerous position in which they are placed by reason of the existence of these statements have agreed together to concoct a story by which they have already discussed their defence story officers and men hope to deceive the court.

In an effort to buttress Dudleys story the defence have called the remainder of the accused in an effort to show that their statements were extorted from them in the same manner as Dudley. The first witness called is Private [illegible] who does also admits that the story he told the court was one he wrote out and memorized; that he also discussed it to the remainder of the accused and to all the defending officers and that he although he is known some of the facts of the accused about it no longer ago than Monday of this week. He also tells a most circumstantial story but equally fails on the stand to remember what happened first or what was said first Unlike Dudley who claims that [illegible] brutally and tried to force him with soft words he claims that he was told that it to be a damn fool, that he was in a bad spot. That there were two ways of doing everything the hard way and the easy way. He also claims that on discovering the blankets he was told that he was going to make things bad, that he was liable to very heavy penalties and that if he made a statement it would be easier for him. He then says that his statement was dictated to him and that he typed it out on the typewriter. The remainder make that same statement with the exception that they say that they were told by Dudley that he was apparently the ringleader because he was the blankets & the court would take note that Dudley denies completely each of the allegations of beating and [illegible] Chamberlain whether a commander has reason to the highest possible [illegible] rank or the [illegible] and of whom reposes [illegible] and skill his opinion think highly enough of to employ as the N & O of the Canadian army would adopt a course such must inevitably depend on [illegible] court who at also remember that Dudley admitted to [illegible] properly cautioned that he understood the caution and [illegible] that he signed a statement that his statement was voluntary made without fear of threat or hope of favour and [illegible] for the court to determine on which evidence the evidence but for that he says by his own admission & the other no obvious attempt was called to the fact that they & Dudley alleges he told Robinson to [illegible] would make no statement to anyone except his commanding officer yet he made no complaint to [illegible] officer of his treatment that further he made no complaint on hearing his statement read at the [illegible] of evidence

The next witness to appear is Leonard Arthur Stacey in of particulars entered for the charge under the remand on each case. He says that at noon on Tuesday 6 Oct 44 the day after the offence he heard a rumour from a Sapper Sorman now unfortunately on Leave that Bardsley and Stacey had been arrested on London and that Stacey was in possession of a [redacted] in this (a) the accused were only arrested at 2.30 pm the previous night. They were first taken to Carlton St Police station until 2.30 hrs. They were taken to No 6 Prevent Coy later still they were escorted not by Nelson but escorted to Scotland by a L/Cpl and that not until then was the blackjack found. None of them arrest was bound to Sgt C 4 44 at 2.30 hrs. The following morning to Capt at the was merely told that the two men had been arrested and a truck and blankets found. The mention of any blackjack was made by Nelson who certainly was not then aware of the operation. The only person from C 4 44 who went near the prisoners was 4/C Childs who did not get to London until 1.40 hrs. the 6 Oct. How then could Sorman have heard about the arrests 6 Oct at noon or indeed at any later time that day from Sapper Sorman. It is obvious then that this part of the statement at least is a lie. I suppose that what really happened is that some how or other Stacey having known him for two years he knew that he was on the habit of carrying a blackjack and when he heard that he had been arrested he immediately on the impulse of the moment thought he would get in first & tell a lie. I submit to believe

If now the first part of his statement is not true what faith can be put on the remainder of his evidence. He tells the same old tale of the threats offered him by Nelson over this regrettable blackjack as a result of which he made and signed a statement in spite of the fact that he had been cautioned in front of Major [redacted] Kaye on being arrested and cautioned again before he made the statement - he clearly admits receiving and understanding both cautions - and in spite of the fact that he also signed a statement, [redacted] which he now asks the court to believe was not, & the effect that the statement was voluntary, made without fear of threat or hope of favour and free. He also took no advantage of his opportunity to complain to the commanding officer or on hearing his statement read at the summary of evidence. His evidence I submit cannot be disregarded by the court.

Admissions of Statements

Let us now consider the evidence of the respondents Davies. He states he was interviewed by Nelson at Aldershot Police Station on 11 Oct. He states that the same threats in regard to the blackjack were made to him as to the others but with the further addition that Nelson now became violently abusive and said to Davies that better finding will do as he was told and threatening that if he didn't it would be the worse not only for him but also for his friend Crellin. He further claims that Nelson not satisfied verbally dictated his statement and made him type it out. The evidence of two independent witnesses Det Cons Riddell and Bunn directly contradicts him.

Riddell who sat next three feet from him says that he volunteered his entire information that he volunteered to do the lifting because he saw no appeal upon unarmed interfered with the affairs of appellant Nelson. He also says that appellant confined and arrested him that Nelson neither threatened him nor promised him anything that he did not coerce him and that Nelson could not have done so and of his hearing. Riddell's evidence is also confirmed by that of Bunn. I feel that the only conclusion the court can come to is that the evidence given by appellant Davies is not true and since it is entirely unbelievable the same as that of the other accused who was convicted should it at least create a grave doubt as to whether these evidence can be accepted at its face value.

The next statement I will consider is Nelson's statement that he was taken to the station and after waiting a long time was told that Crellin had been found and that Crellin had said that he had found the blackjack and with one of the other officers he went to the shed and there was by the back log saw at once the blackjack lying on the floor. He also says that he was told by Crellin that he had found the blackjack. Nelson denies that he ever made any statement from the time he was arrested at the station until he was brought before the Commanding Officer. This statement was taken immediately after he was arrested by the accused on another matter made to the Canadian Police and that the accused himself voluntarily made the statement. The evidence is confirmed by Det Cons Bunn who was present during the taking of the statement. Crellin's statement that Nelson made the statement to him in the presence of Bunn. Bunn stated that Nelson did not offer any promise or threat or make any statement to Crellin. Crellin's statement made to the court further corroborates Bunn's statement made to the Canadian Police was a purely voluntary one. The evidence that two former statements made to Nelson were purely voluntary I suggest that the court will find it difficult to believe that the third statement was not also purely voluntary.

Dudley

The evidence given by the accused he has in general agreed to admit. He mentions the blackjack remarks and says he does not think he was sorry he did not kill someone. He says he is not a person which any reasonable man would like to be. He denies the remarks. He tells the same tale of obscene language which has been disproved in the case of Barnes. He admits that he made no statement and denies that he ever had any intention of doing so. The only new evidence he gives is that he was locked up in a cell and kept there. This is merely in the discretion of R.C.M.P. to keep anyone he has reason to suspect of a crime in such custody as he pleases.

The court should also consider whether it is likely that S/Sgt Nelson the man who took these statements would have acted in the manner described by the accused. He is one has appeared in evidence a man of considerable experience both in civil and military police work. He is evidently well regarded by his superiors as is demonstrated by the fact that he has been promoted to the highest non-commissioned rank possible in his particular section of the service and by the fact that he is employed at the N.B. of the Canadian Army.

Even if these facts were disregarded the court cannot in my opinion disregard the fact that whatever witnesses happened to be present when he took any of these statements they corroborate his statements as to what occurred and positively deny the statements made to the court by the accused. This in itself seems to me to be a reason for the court to consider whether the statements of the remainder of the accused can be believed particularly when it is pointed out that the statements of all the accused made before this court are very similar to one another.

The Defence throughout has taken the attitude that S/Sgt Nelson is a man determined to complete a case against the accused ~~no matter what~~ and adopted to that end. This does not seem logical. If he earnestly desired to make a case against the accused why should he adopt methods which a future offering of his ~~evidence~~ evidence would know must in the end defeat his own object? Nothing that he has stated has been refuted by any evidence other than that of the various accused and much of it has been confirmed by independent evidence.

It seems to me therefore that the defence has failed in its contention that the statement of the accused Cadby were obtained under duress and that therefore his statement should be admitted in evidence.

LT WILDING-WHITE

Summing up on Admissibility of Confession

I would like to start by asking the court a question: If the accused had all been kept separate from the time of their arrest and given the same evidence, would not the Court believe them? It seems unfair to the accused to allow any doubt to creep in merely because they were imprisoned together – not at their own request. But Sgt. Johns does appear to have been kept separate. Moreover since he made no statement there is no advantage at all to him to come here and give this evidence to-day, unless it is true.

A day has gone by since the cross-examination of Staff Sergeant Nelson. I ask the Court therefore to cast there minds back to yesterday and in reaching their decision not to forget the effect which Staff Sergeant Nelson had on them yesterday while being cross examined by his contradictions inconsistencies in the main cross examination & in others, his very excuses and his absolute inability to explain why he took the blackjack into his own possession and kept it there throughout his investigation and after.

For attempting to discredit the witnesses for the defence the prosecuting officer has had to rely in almost every case on pure technicalities - details which no one after 6 weeks could remember. He pretends to expect each witness to remember in exact order the first question the investigator asked him, the second question, the third, etc.; and his whole attempt to discredit is based on such meaningless details. He did produce witnesses in an attempt to discredit the witness Davies. The first - said yesterday that he heard every word of the conversation between Staff Nelson and Davies, though he admitted he was typing something throughout and that it was most important to type it accurately. Recalled today he said: "I took no particular heed of the conversation." 10

Yesterday he stated he was sitting 3 feet away from Staff Nelson throughout their conversation. Today he admits that he left his desk several times and that Nelson could have said things to Davis, other than at lunch time, which he (Detective Kidd) did not hear. And today he admits that Staff Nelson and Davis could have have been together, though not during the lunch hour, when he (Detective Kidd) was not there.

Detective Burns admitted unwillingly that he was working throughout "practically the whole examination" and that he heard none of the conversation

I just heard of the allegation by the accused about the manner in which the admissions were obtained last Thursday night when one of the depending officers came to my room and told me. We had supper immediately and went straight to the Guard Room put all the accused together in our presence and cross examined them very severed each one in turn. Later Next day all, or almost all, the depending

6 OCT 44

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.

Begins:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. Nelson of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this Caution, I sign my name here. R. Dudley

States:

On 4 OCT 44 around dinner-time I was working on my truck No A-762820 in the workshops at my Unit when one of the other men in the M.T. Section came to me and asked me if I would like to make myself some extra money. He is a friend of mine and I don't want to say his name and maybe get him into trouble. I was broke and wanted to get some money so as to be able to go on leave, so I said "Yes I would" and asked him how it could be done. He told me there was some stuff to go to London next day and if I would take it in my truck I'd get a cut out of the deal. I said I'd do it and he told me that if I'd take the truck round to the Blanket Hut sometime during the afternoon next day the Staff-Sergeant in charge of Q.M. Stores would get the fatigue men to put on a load of Blankets. All I had to do then was drive up to the Canadian Theatre where somebody would be waiting to go up to London with me and look after things from there on. My friend also told me I'd better make out a Work Ticket showing a load of Hospital Blankets for WATFORD. R.D.

I had two trips next morning — one to the Pool Siding in ALDERSHOT at 01:30 hrs. and one from 11:30 hrs to 13:30 hrs. to ALTON and return. When I got back I was detailed by Cpl. JEYNES for a journey to FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH. He made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 signing it "Keen Capt." and initialling it "J.J." as the M.C.O. Dispatcher usually does.

After lunch I didn't go to FARNHAM but took my truck round to the Blanket Store at about 15:30 hrs. and backed up to the door. S/Sgt. FITZGIBBONS (I think that's his name — he is i/c Mob. Stores) came out, I opened up the back of the truck and got in. The S/Sgt. told the fatigue men to start loading blankets. I only said 'Hallo' to him and nothing much more was said. He told the men to count out so many blankets for Dispatch Coy. and so many for other Coys. in the Unit. They were all in bundles of 10 and I'm sure the fatigue men didn't know anything about the deal. They only obeyed orders. I stacked the blankets inside my truck.

During the Break period that morning from 10:00 to 10:30 hrs. I went into the M.T. Office while no-one was in there and took a Work Ticket which I made out as instructed, signing it "Keen Capt." I kept it with me for the trip to LONDON in the afternoon.

I didn't know how many blankets I had in the truck, but when the S/Sgt. said "OK, that's the lot", or words to that effect, I tied up the tarpaulin and drove up to the Pavilion Theatre as arranged. I stopped there and another Staff-Sergeant I didn't know came up and got in the truck. I know now his name is S/Sgt. GRATRIX. He told me where to go from there on, as I didn't know the road past GUILDFORD. We headed straight for LONDON. I know we went through STAINES and KINGSTON, according to the road signs, but I don't remember much about the route. I think we were pretty well into LONDON when he said to turn off and after a lot of turns round fair-sized roads he said to pull up in a street where there were car tracks.

He said "Wait here", and got out for 5 or 10 minutes. I don't know where he went. After that we did a lot more turns, and I was completely lost. ~~Had a street Map and kept looking at it.~~ Once we passed a place where he said: "I was pinched over in there once". He didn't stop any more until we got to the place where the Police found us. I guess it was about 9.30 hrs. when we got there. I knew it was getting dark. S/Sgt. GRATRIX got out and told me to wait. About half-an-hour later another soldier got into the cab with me and gave me 5/- and said "We'll be a little while yet. You'd better go and get something to eat." I couldn't see his face in the dark and wouldn't recognize him again. I couldn't tell from the way he spoke whether he was Canadian or not. I didn't notice what sort of uniform he was wearing. I went to a snack bar a little way down the street and when I came back a few minutes later the soldier got out of the cab and said: "We'll be back".

I waited a long time and then both doors of the cab opened, somebody grabbed me by the arm and asked me what I was doing. I said I was waiting for my chum and he'd gone to get something to eat. They said they were Police Officers and that they'd wait too. After a while S/Sgt. GRATRIX came back and the Police grabbed him too. I didn't see any other civilians and didn't know who was supposed to get the blankets. The Police told me to drive to a Police Station nearby, which I did. One of them drove with me. They took S/Sgt. GRATRIX in their car. R.D.

I can honestly say that I have never been mixed up in anything like this before in the Army or in civil life, and my crimes in the Army have all been trivial. I only agreed to do it on a sudden impulse because I wanted to make a little money to go on Leave, as I'd lost a bit over being 5 days AWL a little while ago. I was only in ALDERSHOT with a girl. Nobody talked me into taking blankets to LONDON. I just didn't stop to think how serious a thing it was. I figured it was safe enough, too, because somebody else was doing the job and I was just showing my face and didn't even know what the stuff was going. I'm sorry now I had anything to do with the business.

I have read over the above statement which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfm. DUDLEY, R.D.C.

M. T. Sect., "A" Wing, No. 1 CSAU, CRC Command.

Begins:

I have been cautioned by SSgt NELSON of SIS, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here A Dudley.

States:

I have read over the statement of B-76927, Cpl. JEYNES, J.C.T., dated 13 OCT 44, and wish to state: The man who asked me if I wanted to take the blankets to LONDON, and arranged it all for me was Cpl. JEYNES. I was willing to take the rap myself, and the only reason for not saying who he was at first was to keep him out of trouble if I could. I'm no squealer.

All I said in my other statement is true, except that I didn't steal the Work Ticket during the afternoon after he spoke to me about the job. Cpl. JEYNES came to me and gave me two Work Tickets. One he had made out as a sample for me to copy, and the other, which is the one you have, was blank. He told me to fill it in like the one he made out and to destroy the sample for his protection. I did this that afternoon and put the one he made out down the toilet in the Provost Lines opposite the Garage.

Cpl. JEYNES also told me I'd get about $15 for the job, and I figured he'd get a good cut out of it as well. He said: "You know who's running this, don't you?" and I said: "I have a pretty good idea" and left it at that. I figured it was CQMS MISKIMMINS and I'm sure that's who he meant. Next day he told me to pass up my trucks and make sure I had enough.

[illegible]

I was busy that day like I said on a draft job. The first idea was to get the blankets from the laundry at FARNHAM, but when I didn't get back till 16:00 hrs. he said: "Never mind, you can pick them up at the Blanket Store" and made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 hrs. He knew I had the other one to cover me for the LONDON trip.

I never asked Pte. EVANS for the job – he asked me in the first place and fixed it all up himself. I never did any jobs before for CQMS MISKIMMINS (taking stuff out, I mean) but I kind of figure others have, and I know Sgt. WOODS got caught over him once on a Quebec run when they got him drunk and he got back late.

I have read over the above statement which I have made of my own accord, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is the truth. R. Dudley 19/10/44.

Sir:

On Saturday, October 2nd, I was interviewed by S/Sgt Nelson, S.I.S. He cautioned me and asked if I wanted to make a statement. I replied I'll make a statement to my Commanding Officer. He told me not to be a damned fool and that I was in a fine jam and I could take it the easy way or the hard way and if I didn't want to play hard with him he'd see that it was the hard way. He had a log with my personal belongings, which had been taken from me by the Provost on 5 October. He produced a blackjack I had been carrying and said it was up to him to see that I was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and that it was a serious charge and in this country penalties were heavy. He asked me where it came from and if the person who owned it wanted it back and I told him "No".

he then said " if you are smart you'll do this the easy way and tell me the whole story and let me take care of the Black Jack. I then started to type a statement for him and he said " before lunch we will get a rough idea of what this is all about and then we will see any need for mentioning the Black Jack, if you give me the whole story. After lunch under his supervision I typed a statement. while typing this statement he repeatedly said. " put some of this in your own words or it will be obvious that I told you what to write." I signed that statement the same afternoon with the understanding that the Black Jack would not again be mentioned and no charge laid for carrying a concealed weapon.

On arrival at No 1 C & R V I heard the rumour that I had supposedly beat up two C.I.D. a day or so later Sgt Hamill was brought in and put in my cell he told me that S/Sgt Nelson had told him that if he made a statement he would make it easier for me and that he, Sgt Bennett, could be held responsible as I for carrying the Blackjack. Bennett also told me that Nelson informed him if he made a statement he would forget about the Blackjack. Sgt Bennett informed me about a week or so later that Nelson had told him that the Blackjack was at the bottom of the Thames.

When Sgt Davis was brought into the Guard Room he asked me if I had that anyone up. I told him no. He then informed me that S/Sgt Nelson had told him he would be held equal responsible as myself and that carrying a concealed weapon was a very serious charge and to make it easier for me I had better make a statement and that if he, Nelson, got a complete statement he would forget about the Blackjack.

room, cautioned, and asked what I knows of the affair concerning Gratrix. I told him I knew nothing. He then told me Gratrix was in arrest in London and charged with a serious offence,
~~He then~~ and told me that Gratrix was carrying a concealed weapon, and he said "I have proof that you are implicated with Gratrix and unless you make a statement
I will go hard with you too.
I know you had very little to do with this and soon can is in a serious jam and if you want to help him and yourself you will do as I fucking well say. He then related to me a resume of the statements made by S/Sgt Gratrix, Sgt Cammelle and Rfmn Dudley. I then typed a statement which S/Sgt Nelson dictated but as he was referring to the other statements he frequently stressed that I put the phrasing into my own language.

Nelson would volunteer either a denial or confirmation of the rumours which were rife in the Mess and elsewhere. A direct enquiry from me produced a ~~show of bewilderment and~~ the question "So you know how serious this affair can be." I said I could not say as I did not know just what had occurred in London. He continued "Your friend Gratux is in a serious jam and if you want to help him and yourself you will do as I fucking well

Third Witness - Prosecution

U 1889 S/Sgt Nelson, F.R., Cdn Provost Corps, SIB CMHQ having beenduly sworn states that:-

On the 5th of October ult, at about 2220 hrs at the Special Investigation Section office in London a telephone message was received from Detective Sergeant Cook of the Flying Squad, Metropolitan Police, New Scotland Yard, to the effect that he had detained at Carter Street Police Station London, South East 17, a Canadian Staff Sergeant and a driver in possession of a Canadian Army lorry containing a large quantity of War Department blankets. Acting on the instructions of Major R.H. Holmes, Assistant Provost Marshall, Canadian Military Headquarters, I proceeded immediately to Carter Street Police Station where I saw Detective Sergeant E Cook and Detective Sergeant Albert Webb, both of the Flying Squad, New Scotland Yard. In the station yard I saw a Canadian Army Vehicle Ford 60 cwt No L 762820 bearing the unit sign of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. I looked in the rear of this vehicle which was covered by a tarpaulin secured at the rear with ropes and saw a large number of army blankets which I later counted and found 700 in bundles of ten. Detained in the police station I saw S/Sgt Greatrix, whom I now recognize as one of the accused, and Rifleman Dudley, whom I also recognize as one of the accused. I said to Dudley, Are you the driver of the truck outside and he said yes. I said to S/Sgt Greatrix are you with the truck and he said yes. I said to them, had you any authority to bring the truck load of blankets to London. Both soldiers answered no. At about 2245 hrs I place S/Sgt Greatrix and Rifleman Dudley under close arrest and escorted them together with the War Department vehicle and contents to Pte 6 [illegible] Coy Detachment office, where I hand both soldiers over to the M.C.C. in charge to be detained. Detective Sergeant Cook handed the work ticket which I now produce

The work ticket produced by the witness is shown to the accused, marked by me as exhibit
"QQ" for the prosecution and attached to the summary.

In the possession of Rifleman Dudley I also found a work ticket No 320 which I now produce.

The work ticket produced by the witness is shown to the accused, marked by me as exhibit
"RR" and attached to the summary.

In the possession of S/Sgt Gravitrix I found a letter dated 5 October 1944 and signed L. Sutherland for B.S. Kerr,
Lieut Colonel, D.A.A.G. Canadian General Reinforcement Unit
H.Q., General Reinforcement Unit

This letter has been read to the accused and by me is Exhibit "SS" for the prosecution and

I made several inquiries to substantiate the statement of CQMS Miskimmons, who informed me that D 96310 Sgt Boucher, E., might remember his visit to reception on 5 Oct 44 after Rifleman Dudley had left the blanket stores with the blankets. At about 1100 hrs on 28 Oct 44 in response to a telephone inquiry I was informed by Sgt Boucher that he had no recollection of the appearance at Reception Company of CQMS Miskimmons on the specific date and time quoted by CQMS Miskimmons. At about 1600 hrs on 24 Oct 44 at the guard room I again interviewed Sgt Johns. I confronted him with the statements of Cpl Joynes and CQMS Miskimmons. I cautioned him and he said, I have not a chance of beating this rap and if I don't make any statement it will give my defending officer a chance. I am in possession of all original exhibits of which I have presented copies.

Fifth Witness - Prosecution

Captain R.N. Koono, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states that:- I am the transport officer No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. On 6 Oct 44 I was recalled from a twenty four hour pass and told that truck No L 762620 had been stolen and was in London. I was told also that the permanent driver of the vehicle, Rifleman Dudley, whom I now recognize as one of the accused, was detained in London. I questioned my despatching staff as to what duties the vehicle had been on. The only permanent persons on that staff are L/Cpl Warren, R.C. and Cpl Joynes, whom I now recognize as one of the accused. I found that the vehicle had been detailed to go to Aldershot stores. That evening I brought to the attention of Cpl Joynes there was a letter written by the quartermaster to the effect that vehicles would not be despatched on the request item stores unless a chit, signed by an officer had been presented. [illegible] that the vehicle had been detailed [illegible] stores. He informed me that [illegible] him, who I now recognize as one of the accused. I was present when Cpl Joynes was interviewed by the Provost Marshal from the Special Investigation Section and I was present when Pte Olsen was brought in and interviewed, and I was present when L/Cpl Warren was interviewed. These people denied any knowledge of the circumstances.

The witness is shown exhibit "C"

That is a transport work ticket, army form 3518 made out from Aldershot to Watford and return detailed for the purpose of taking hospital blankets authorized by C.R.U. and it is alleged to have been signed by yourself. It is not my signature and I did not sign it. I did not know of any authority for this trip as I was on a 24 hr pass. The only authority received would be communicated direct to my second in command Lieut Drake, by the adjutant.

The witness is shown Exhibit "D"

That is a transport work ticket army form 3518. To all intents and purposes as far as I am concerned it is made out correctly. The last trip is authorized by Sgt Strauss Farnham and Farnborough with my signature made by Cpl Joynes with his initials above it.

The forenoon is very hazy to me but in the afternoon the main detail was down to the Male Laundry near Farnham to pick up blankets, I believe it was seven or eight hundred. They were taken to the accomodation store-room at Corunna Barracks and unloaded there. After that I took S/Sgt Miskimmons over to the accomodation stores. After that he told me I was not needed any more with the exception of picking up another S/Sgt at Group Headquarters. The S/Sgt Miskimmons I speak of is one of the accused, whom I now recognize. I was told shortly after three o'clock I was not needed any more. That was early and I waited around for a while then went down to pick up this S/Sgt and took him up to the accomodation stores and then returned to the garage. Formally I would be dismissed from the accomodation stores between 4:30 and 5 o'clock.

Lieut J Simister, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:- On or about the 1st of October, 1944 the Officer Commanding asked me to assist in organizing a Reception office to the new Reception Basic DM Coy. On 3 Oct 44 I started to set up the office in Corunna Lines and we were advised on the afternoon of that day to expect a draft in from Canada on the night of the fourth. Myself, Lieut Dunlap, and one of the Sgts went to the accomodation stores and told the CQMS in charge we needed four hundred and fifty blankets. He told us to go along to the storeman and we could draw the blankets we wanted. We went along and saw the storeman and drew I believe four hundred blankets. That was sufficient for the draft we expected and I ceased my connection with the company on the afternoon of 5 Oct 44 and at the time we did not order any more blankets nor did anyone else in the company. I know nothing of any seven hundred blankets ordered for the Reception Company on the afternoon of 5 Oct 44

Blankets are kept in the blanket stores in Corunna barracks. This blanket stores is in charge of the Assistent quartermaster who is also in charge of the accomodation stores. CQMS Miskimmons, whom I now recognize as one of the accused is the senior N.C.O. in the accomodation stores and has been for some considerable time. As senior N.C.O. he would have access to the blankets in the blanket stores. In the absence of the assistent quartermaster he would have authority to issue blankets to any coy authorized to receive them. Having heard that blankets belonging to this unit had been found in a truck in London the Commanding Officer ordered me to have the blankets counted in this unit. Canadian Barracks services performed this duty and on the 11 Oct 44 the count was duly made. A discrepancy was discovered of between seven and eight hundred blankets.

D 93614 Sgt Beecher, E.

The officer detailed to take the summary of evidence recalls a witness for the purpose of clearing up an ambiguity in the evidence given by this witness.

Capt C Tate

Examined by the officer detailed to take the summary

Q.1 You have been recalled to clear up an ambiguity in your evidence in regard to the shortage in blankets. You stated in your evidence that a blanket check showed there were seven to eight hundred short. It is not clear to me whether you mean that there are seven to eight hundred blankets short including the blankets alleged to have been discovered in London, or whether you mean there are an additional seven to eight hundred missing.

A.1. I have here a recapitulation of the blanket check taken by Canadian Barrack Services, submitted to me by Lieut Fraser, Assistant Quartermaster. The actual amount of blankets checked totals 8900 even. There were approximately 50 blankets that were not checked in the pioneers quarters and 50 blankets with the medical company which they had out on a scheme that day. That makes a grand total of 9000 checked

The unit long roll figures were 8824 as of that date. This left a surplus of of 176 blankets. Taking into consideration the 700 already in London not checked by the Canadian Barrack Services makes a total SURPLUS of 876 blankets. Mr Fraser and I calculated as closely as possible the numb r of G 1098 blankets belonging to individuals on unit strength all of whose G 1098 blanket were counted in the check. Taking the units strength as of that date less the incoming drafts in Reception Company we calculated that there were approximately 966 G 1098 blankets in possession of the individuals. This can only be approximate as in the length of time that the check was made it was impossible to get the exact figure. The surplus of 876 blankets against our approximation of 966 G 1098 blankets showed an apparent shortage of 90. This figure could of course be wrong to the extent of 90 either way, depending upon how accurate our estimation was of G 1098 blankets. When I speak of this day I mean Oct 11th, 1944, the day of the check.

The accused elects to give evidence upon oath.

The accused B 96927 Cpl Joynes, J.C.M., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:-

"On the morning of the 5th of October, 1944, at about 0930 hrs, Sgt Johns, whom I now recognize, came to me in the motor transport office and asked me if he could get a vehicle to handle some blankets going up to London. These blankets were to be delivered in London at exactly 1630 hrs. I understood that these blankets were to be sold to someone in London. Sgt Johns told me that if I would arrange the vehicle, the driver and I would get approximately £15-0-0 each, depending upon the price received for the blankets. I said that I would do so provided I could get a driver and provided that an emergency demanding the use of a lot of transport did not come up during the day. I had in mind Rifleman Dudley as the driver of the vehicle. Sgt Johns said he would have to know by 1400 hrs that day and was not satisfied unless I could tell him right away, so I said I would let him have the vehicle, intending that if anything came up that I could not use it, not to bother letting him know differently. Sgt Johns told me to have the vehicle just below the stop-lights on the Upper Hale road at exactly 1655 hrs, where it would pick up another Sgt. I understood that the blankets were to be obtained from the Hale laundry. I went out into the yard, met Dudley and asked him if he would do this. He agreed to do so. I then made out a ticket for the trip, filling it out, and then stamping it several times with the unit motor transport stamp, so that that particular ticket could not be used. I then gave Dudley a blank work ticket already stamped and told him to copy on it exactly what I had written on the first ticket. He was then to destroy the first ticket, the reason for this was so that if he was stopped or anything went wrong, my handwriting would not show up on the work ticket. I also told Dudley that once he set out he was strictly on his own and that I had no knowledge of the deal whatsoever. I also told him to make sure his tanks were full so that he would have enough gas to get to London and back, and so that he would not have to draw any anywhere. About 1500 hrs I got Dudley's genuine work ticket on which he had been operating on legitimate business, and made an entry on it for a journey via Farnham and Farnborough. The purpose of this was to protect him until he met the Sgt at the stop-lights in Hale, pick up the blankets, and was out of the immediate area of Aldershot. Once out of the immediate area of Aldershot his London ticket would protect him. As far as I know Dudley has never been mixed up in any illegal involving transport before. The only reason I approached him was I knew he was broke and going on leave soon. I have never been mixed up myself in anything like this before either.

New Scotland Yard. I

9th. October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Ernest Cook, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At about 8.15pm., on 5th, October, 1944, I received information that a soldier in the Canadian Army had been endeavouring to dispose of a load of blankets which he had brought on a lorry to Walworth. With Detective Sergeant Webb and other Officers I went to Walworth Road, Walworth, S.E., and after searching the vicinity saw an Army lorry Index No. CL 763820 parked by the side of the road about 100 yards from the Elephant and Castle and facing South. The lorry was covered with a tarpaulin sheet secured by ropes.

We went up to the lorry and saw DUDLEY who was in the drivers seat. I said to him, " We are Police Officers. What are you doing here?". He said " I am waiting for my Sergeant who has gone to get something to eat". I said to him " Where are you from. Where are you going and what load have you got on?". DUDLEY replied, " I'm from Aldershot and I am taking a load of blankets to Watford". I said " What are you doing here, you are miles off your route". He said " I am only acting on instructions". I then asked him where his Sergeant had gone to and he said " I haven't any idea".

I looked under the tarpaulin covering and ascertained that there was in fact a large quantity of blankets on the lorry. I told DUDLEY that I was not satisfied with his explanation and that I was going to make enquiries with a view to verify his statements. He then handed me a printed form showing particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford, saying, " This is my authority". I told him that I was still not satisfied and that enquiries would be made. DUDLEY then said " I will tell you the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself and my Sergeant told me what to do and where to go".

We then left an Officer in the lorry with DUDLEY whilst we kept observation in the vicinity. At about 10.15pm., I saw GRATRIX, who had come from the direction of the Elephant and Castle, endeavouring to climb into the cabin of the lorry. We went up to him and Sergeant Webb said " We are Police Officers, are you in charge of this lorry?". He said " Yes". Sergeant Webb said " Can you explain what you are doing with it". GRATRIX said " I am taking a load of blankets to Watford". He was then asked if he would care to say where he had been to during the past two hours and he replied " I have been drinking with some friends". Sergeant Webb asked him who his friends were and GRATRIX said " I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night". He paused and then added " As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit but I am not saying who he is". Sergeant Webb then said " I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen". GRATRIX said " I don't think so".

I then said to DUDLEY and GRATRIX " I am not satisfied with your explanations, you are going to be arrested and taken to the Police Station where you will be detained pending enquiries". I cautioned them. GRATRIX said " I don't know what it is all about". DUDLEY did not reply. They and the lorry were taken to Carter Street Police Station.

The Canadian Military Police Headquarters were then informed of the detention of DUDLEY and GRATRIX and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, S.I.B. Canadian Military Police attended and took both men into his custody. I handed to Staff Sergeant Nelson the printed form obtained from DUDLEY.

This statement is true.

STATEMENT of Albert WEBB, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At 8-15 p.m., 5th October, 1944, I went with Detective Sergeant Cook and other officers to Walworth Road, S.E., where I saw an Army lorry Index No. CL-762820.

We approached the lorry and saw Dudley in the driver's seat. Sergeant Cook told him we were police officers and said, "What are you doing here." Dudley said, "I am waiting for my sergeant. He has gone to get something to eat." Sergeant Cook said, "Where are you from, where are you going, and what load have you got?" Dudley replied, "I've come from Aldershot and I'm taking blankets to Watford." Sergeant Cook pointed out that Dudley was miles out of his route and Dudley said, "I am only acting on instructions." Asked where his sergeant had gone to he said, "I haven't any idea."

We looked under the tarpaulin covering of the lorry and saw piles of blankets. Sergeant Cook told Dudley he was not satisfied with his story and that he would have to verify his statements. Dudley then handed Sergeant Cook an Army Form giving particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford. Dudley said, "This is my authority." Sergeant Cook told him that further enquiries would have to be made and Dudley said, "I will tell the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself. My sergeant told me what to do and where to go."

Leaving an officer in charge of the lorry we kept observation in the vicinity and at about 10-15 p.m. Gratrix came from the direction of the Elephant & Castle and endeavoured to climb into the lorry. We approached him and I said to him, "We are police officers. Are you in charge of this lorry?" He said, "Yes." I asked him to explain what he was doing with it and he said, "I am taking a load of blankets to Watford." I then asked Gratrix if he would give an explanation as to where he had been during the previous two hours and he said, "I have been drinking with some friends." I asked who his friends were and Gratrix said, "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night." He then added, "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit. I am not saying who he is." I then said to him, "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen," and Gratrix replied, "I dont think so."

Sergeant Cook then said to Dudley and Gratrix, "I am not satisfied with your explanations. You are going to be arrested and detained pending enquiries." He cautioned them and Gratrix said, "I dont know what it is all about." Dudley made no reply.

They were both then taken to Carter Street Police Station with the lorry and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, S.I.B., Canadian Military Police, attended and took both men into custody.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION 6 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

Sgt. No. B-64113, Sgt. DUDLEY, R.D.C.
"A" Wing, M.T. Sect., No.1 C.C.R.U., C.B.W. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.B., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY.

STATES:

On 4 OCT 44 around dinner-time I was working on my truck, No. L-762620 in the workshop at my Unit when one of the other men in the M.T. Section came to me and asked me if I would like to make myself some extra money. He is a friend of mine and I don't want to say his name and maybe get him into trouble. I was broke and wanted to get some money so as to be able to go on Leave, so I said "Yes I would", and asked him how it could be done. He told me there was some stuff to go to London next day and if I would take it in my truck I'd get a cut out of the deal. I said I'd do it, and he told me that if I'd take the truck round to the Blanket Hut sometime during the afternoon next day the Staff-Sergeant in charge of Mob. Stores would get the fatigue men to put on a load of blankets. All I had to do then was drive up to the Garrison Theatre where somebody would be waiting to go up to LONDON with me and look after things from there on. My friend also told me I'd better make out a Work Ticket showing a load of Hospital Blankets for WATFORD.

I had two trips next morning - one to the Gov't. Siding in ALDERSHOT at 01:30 hrs. and one from 11:30 hrs. to 13:30 hrs. to AISTON and return. When I got back I was detailed by Cpl. JAYNES for a journey to FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH. He made out my Work Ticket for 15:30, signing it "Jones, Capt." and initialling it "J.J.", as the M.C.O. Despatcher usually does.

After lunch I didn't go to FARNHAM, but took my truck round to the Blanket Store at about 15:30 hrs. and backed up to the door. S/Sgt. WITZOWSKE (I think that's his name - he's I/c Mob. Stores) came out, I opened up the back of the truck and got in. The S/Sgt. told the fatigue men to start loading blankets. I only said "Hello" to him, and nothing much more was said. He told the men to count out so many blankets for Despatch Coy., and so many for other Coys. in the Unit. They were all in bundles of 10, and I'm sure the Fatigue men didn't know anything about the deal. They only obeyed orders. I stacked the blankets inside my truck.

During the Break Period that morning from 10:00 to 10:30 hrs. I went into the M.T. office while no-one was in there and took a Work Ticket which I made out as instructed, signing it "Green Capt.". I kept it with me for the trip to LONDON in the afternoon.

I didn't know how many blankets I had in the truck, but when the S/Sgt. said "O.K., that's the lot", or words to that

(Contd. OVER)

words to that/effect, I tied up the tarpaulin and drove up to the Garrison Theatre as arranged. I stopped there, and another Staff-Sergeant I didn't know came up and got in the truck. I know now his name is S/Sgt. GRATRIX. He told me where to go from there on, as I didn't know the road past SUNNINGDALE. We headed straight for LONDON. I know we went through STAINES and KINGSTON, according to the road signs, but I don't remember much about the roads. I think we were pretty well into LONDON when he said to turn off and after a lot of turns round fair-sized roads he said to pull up in a street where there were car-tracks. He said "Wait here", and got out for 5 or 10 minutes. I don't know where he went. After that we did a lot more turns, and I was completely lost. Once we passed a place where he said: "I was pinched over in there once". We didn't stop any more until we got to the place where the Police found us. I guess it was about 19:30 hrs. when we got there. I know it was getting dark. S/Sgt. GRATRIX got out and told me to wait. About half-an-hour later another soldier got into the cab with me and gave me 5/- and said "We'll be a little while yet. You'd better go and get something to eat". I couldn't see his face in the dark and wouldn't recognize him again. I couldn't tell from the way he spoke whether he was Canadian or not. I didn't notice what sort of uniform he was wearing. I went to a snack-bar a little way down the street and when I came back a few minutes later the soldier got out of the cab and said: "We'll be back".

I waited a long time and then both doors of the cab opened, somebody grabbed me by the arm and asked me what I was doing. I said I was waiting for my chum and he'd gone to get something to eat. They said they were Police Officers and that they'd wait too. After a while S/Sgt. GRATRIX came back and the Police grabbed him too. I didn't see any other civilians and didn't know who was supposed to get the blankets. The Police told me to drive to a Police Station nearby, which I did. One of them drove with me. They took S/Sgt. GRATRIX in their car.

I can honestly say that I have never been mixed up in anything like this before in the Army or in civil life, and my crimes in the Army have all been trivial. I only agreed to do it on a sudden impulse because I wanted to make a little money to go on Leave, as I'd lost a bit over being 5 days A.W.L. a little while ago. I was only in ALDERSHOT with a girl. Nobody talked me into taking blankets to LONDON. I just didn't stop to think how serious a thing it was. I figured it was safe enough, too, because somebody else was doing the job and I was just driving my truck and didn't even know where the stuff was going. I'm sorry now I had anything to do with the business.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true. /ENDS.

(SGD) R. J. GRATRIX.

STATES:

One day last week, I think it was Saturday Sep 30, 1944, I was in the N.A.A.F.I., Stanhope Theatre, Aldershot, XXX at lunch time in company with, Sgt. Gemmell, N.A., Sgt. Davies, J. and Sgt. Johns, R.T. all of No 1 CCRU. Sgt. Gemmell stated that he knew of some buckshee blankets on which we could make some money if we could dispose of them.

On Sunday, 1 Oct 44, we were all in the Sgt's Mess (Maida) No 1 CCRU we again discusseddd the blanket proposition. Sgt Davies said that he might know someone in London that would take them. It was decided that Sgt Davies and I would come to London and see if arrangements could be made. We came up that night and we arrived in the Elephant and Castle district about 2030 hours. In the tube station there, Sgt Davies made inquires in the Warden's office about a man named Pop, whom he said knew of someone who would take the blankets. The warden said he would send him around to the Kings Head public house. We went from there to the Black Prince public house, where Sgt Davies went up to a man called "Ginger Mick" or "Ginger Nick" and they had a whispered conversation together, I did not overhear what was said But Sgt Davies said that he would take around 500 blankets if we could deliver them and that he would pay 7/6 a piece for them, he told me this after the conversation. We were to bring them up on Thursday Night and to meet him in the Black Prince. This Civilian would be about 40 years old, Five Feet Eight Inches, stocky build, reddish complexion, ginger stubble, thick lips , I noticed that he spoke with down cast eyes and would not look you in the face. He was wearing a grey check cap with light brown stripes running through, a cheap dirty blue suit (light) of smooth cloth, white scarf and Old brown shoes. XXXXXXXXXX

We left the Black Prince and proceeded to the King's Head where we saw the old man named "Pop" and Sgt Davies told him he had already seen the man he wanted him to locate. "Pop" is quite an old man about 5' 6" . He needed a shave and light grey stubble. He was wearing a black coat. I think he is a warden in the Elephant and Castle tube station but he said that he ahd been sick and that he expected to get discharged soon, on this account.

After a couple of drinks we went back to the Black Prince with "Pop" and Sgt Davies had a couple more words with "Ginger" there was another civilian with him but I would not recognize him again. We spent the night in XXXXXXX London and returned to Aldershot the next morning.

That morning I saw Sgt Gemmell and told him everything had been arranged. He said arrangements would have to be made for transport. Later in the day he saw me and said that arrangements were being made for the blankets to be ready on Thursday. Sgt. Gemmell, Sgt. Johns, Sgt. Davies and myself usually go into the Stanhope N.A.A.F.I. every day at lunch time and one day I think it was Wednesday Sgt. Johns said that transport had been arranged for the blankets on Thursday. We were together that day at noon, and Sgt. Gemmell went over to talk to CQMS Miskimmins. He then called us over and Miskimmins said that everythingwas all arranged. Sgt Daviss was to go to London with the truck load of blankets and Sgt Johns and I were to meet him in the Black Prince. He had a letter addressed to No 23 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC, Watford, covering shipment of 1000 blankets which would safeguard him on his journey. Later it was arranged that I should go to London with the truck and the letter was handed to me, I don't know where it came from. Sgts Johns and Davies would meet me on arrival at about 1830 hours in the Black Prince, I was to meet truck No L 762820 outside the Garrison Theatre, Aldershot at 1600 hours and show the driver how to get there. I didn't know where the blankets were coming from all I knew was that CQMS Miskimmins was arranging to get them. I

I met the truck at 1600 hours as arranged and proceeded via Staines, Kingston, Clapham Junction to the Elephant and Castle area where I had some difficulty in finding the Black Prince Pub, driving around for approximately half an hour in that area before finding the right pub. I stopped once at a Black Prince Pub but found it closed and decided it was the wrong one. We then drove back following the tram lines and stopped again to ask inquiries to the tube station after which I found my bearings and arrived at the proper place at about 1830. I told the driver to wait and found Sgt Davies and Sgt Johns inside the pub, they said there was nobody there yet but a civilian who knew Ginger was trying to get him on the phone. He came in about an hour later and went out again to make some arrangements but sent word back by another civilian between 20 and 2030 hours that arrangements could not be made that night. I would recognize Ginger again if I saw him but not the two other civilians.

While we were in the pub I gave Sgt Davies 5 shillings for the driver to go for supper, Sgt Davies stayed with the truck while he was away at about 1930 hours, he came back about 20 minutes time and I took him out some cigarrets and matches, I didn't know the lad and never saw him before in my life.

After we got "Ginger's" message Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies, and I went by tube to the west end to see if we could find a place to store the blankets, we tried in a pub near Oxford Circus without success and took a Taxi to some club or other that Sgt Johns knew about and left him there while Sgt Davies and I went back for the truck by Taxi, I was to follow the Taxi back in the truck. I left Sgt Davies talking to the driver and when I crossed over to the truck a couple of plain-clothes policemen stopped me and asked me what I was doing, I said I was going back to Aldershot but they said I had better come with them and took me to a police station near by. Another officer followed with the driver in the truck. Later S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS came and took me and the driver back to No 6 Provost Detention Room, he cautioned me and then asked me if I had any business in London with the truck and blankets to which I replied "No".

I have never been concerned in anything of this kind before except one case of selling 1000 cigs, but I was due to go on leave and needed money, and knowing that I was not directly concerned with the taking of the blankets, and did not know the persons to whom they were going, I though I could get enough money to go on leave. It was my job to direct the driver to the correct place, the arrangements being left to the others. I did not realize how serious an offence of this kind could be, or I would not have had anything to do with it.

10 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. L-16134, Sgt. GEMMELL, N.A.,
Clerks' Coy., No.1 C.G.R.U., C.R.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) N. A. GEMMELL.

STATES:

At some time after the return of 1 CGRU to ALDERSHOT it came to my knowledge that there were in the Unit three or four thousand surplus blankets. I am not sure who first told me about it. It may have been CQMS HISKINGMING; but I was under the impression that this was common knowledge. I'd heard it mentioned several times.

Ever since last August when we were at WITLEY S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS and I have been drinking somewhat heavily. About a month ago I asked Maj. LAWRENCE, O.C., Clerks' Coy., if he would post me to the Field. This was to get away from the associations and drinking habits I had formed, as I was afraid that sooner or later it would get me into trouble. As I was Chief Instructor he wouldn't consider this posting at that time.

On Thurs., 28 SEP 44, after 13:15 Parade, Sgt. JOHNS and I went down to the "Bellington" Public House for a quick drink as two of us had been in the habit of doing occasionally for some time. We had a few too many and didn't return to the Unit until about 18:00 hrs., when we learned that Maj. LAWRENCE had been enquiring for us and we'd be in trouble over it. Next morning Maj. LAWRENCE informed us that we were posted to Reinforcement Strength. Automatically I had to revert from A/S/Sgt. to Sgt., and commenced Basic Training on 4 OCT 44.

On Saturday, 30 SEP 44, between 15:00 and 16:00 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS and I were alone together in our quarters at MAIDA Bks. when S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES came in. They had been drinking, but we had not had a drink all day. We were all just about broke and the question of how to raise some money cropped up. I said: "Well, there's some buckshee blankets over in the Quarters' Stores" and from there on there was just some general conversation about the possibilities, although I think no-one had any serious idea of doing anything about it. Certainly I didn't myself.

Next afternoon, Sunday, 1 OCT 44, the four of us were together drinking again in the Sergeants' Mess. JOHNS had borrowed a couple of Pounds. The subject of selling blankets cropped up again and we were discussing the possibilities of disposal. Sgt. DAVIES said he knew of a man in LONDON who might take them. Later he and S/Sgt. GRATRIX went off together to LONDON and next day in the Mess at noon they told me that the arrangement for disposing of 1000 blankets had been made in LONDON and asked me to see CQMS MISKIMMINS about it. I did not see him until next day, Tuesday, 3 OCT 44, in the NAAFI, when all I said to him was: "If you're interested in disposing of some blankets those guys over in the corner will handle it", indicating S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES. I had not discussed the subject previously with CQMS MISKIMMINS, and that is all I said to him at the time. I had one drink with him and left the NAAFI, as I was due for Parade. Sgt. JOHNS was there with the other two. CQMS MISKIMMINS said that it was O.K. with him if they could arrange it, and that he would see them next day about it. That night in the Mess I told them what he had said when they asked me about it.

and asked/

Next day, Wednesday, 4 OCT 44, I went alone to the NAAFI at noon and joined S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. DAVIES at their table for a glass of beer. Later CQMS MISKIMMINS came in and joined us. The matter of disposal of blankets was discussed and I was told when I asked that transport had been arranged. MISKIMMINS suggested that they be picked up at the laundry next day, as had been arranged, but I didn't know when I left them where they were to come from or at what time.

Next day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at noon in the NAAFI, I was looking over a Racing Sheet with MISKIMMINS and figuring if I could place a good bet with a Bookie who comes in there. S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. DAVIES came over and final arrangements about the blankets were made. S/Sgt. GRATRIX had a letter which I recognize as the one in your possession. I had not read it, but I knew its contents. I do not know who wrote it. A truck was to pick up the blankets that afternoon, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX or Sgt. DAVIES was to go up to LONDON with the driver. I did not know what driver or what transport would be used. Next day I learned that GRATRIX went with the truck and that Sgt. DAVIES and Sgt. JOHNS went up together by train to meet him in LONDON. I heard also that GRATRIX and the driver of the truck got pinched.

On Friday noon in our room, Sgt. JOHNS told me that the civvy in LONDON who was going to take the blankets didn't turn up. He went over to a Club in the West End to try and find some other way of disposing of them, but when he got back the truck was gone.

I did not go to LONDON and had nothing to do with the deal other than stated above. I didn't know exactly how much money was in it, or how it was to be divided. Some time during the week Sgt. DAVIES said there was 7/6 apiece coming in for the blankets, and GRATRIX said Six Shillings. To my knowledge no detailed division of the proceeds was discussed. Had they chosen to give me a cut out of the deal no doubt I would have accepted it, as I was pretty well broke. I had no doubt that they would come through with something, as I had knowledge of the project from the start, although I took no active part in the business once the others got started on it. I have been living and working with S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. JOHNS over a period of two years, and have always been on the best of terms with them. It is only natural, therefore, that I would not give them away when I knew what was in the wind. After the arrangements had been made I did not like the set-up too much, and did not myself wish to become too deeply involved. By then, however, there was little I could do about it. I am sorry now that I had anything to do with it at all, as I have never been mixed up in anything of this kind before.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come and it is true. (SGD) E. A. GRESSELL 10 OCT 44

On Monday or Tuesday S/Sgt Gretzix, Sgts Johns and Cassell and I discussed the matter again and it was decided that some effort be made to obtain transport for the blankets. On Tuesday Sgt Cassell and I went to see a friend of mine at another unit who might have been able to help but he refused to have anything to do with the transaction. The person who was eventually responsible for arranging the transport I do not know. There was some talk about getting the blankets from a laundry.

On Thursday morning, October 5th 1944, I drafted a letter addressed to No 23 Can Con Hospital concerning an imaginary shipment of blankets to that unit. I thought it would cover the load of blankets en route to London. On it I used a fictitious file number and signed it L. Skinner Lt. I know of no such Officer and used the first name that came into my head. The letter you have in your possession is the one referred to in the previous sentence. In the NAAFI at noon I saw S/Sgt Gretzix and the two RA other Sgts and passed round the letter for their comments. It was suggested that I accompany the load of blankets to London, but for various reasons I declined and S/Sgt Gretzix volunteered to do this, and he took the envelope (which I had addressed) and the letter. I was not aware of the final arrangements for picking up the blankets. At approximately 2.30 p.m. S/Sgt Gretzix came to my office and requested permission from Mr Martin to have an leave early as he wanted me to assist him with some clerical work he was doing at home. At 3.30 p.m. I left the office to go to the Ciesta Training Wing and it was then arranged that I go by rail to London with Sgt Johns to meet S/Sgt Gretzix at the Bloor Grince. We left on the 4.15 p.m. train and met S/Sgt Gretzix, as arranged soon after opening time.

For some time we sat in the pub drinking beer, and I took five shillings from Staff Gretzix to the driver of the truck which was outside in the street to let him get some supper. Ginger came in about 7.30 p.m. and said'hasn't he turned up' - no name was mentioned, meaning the man who was to take the blankets. He left the pub, apparently to find the man in question, but sent back a message by a stranger, that he couldn't be found. I suggested that the truck and blankets return to Aldershot there they came from, but owing to the difficulties of that procedure it was decided to explore the possibility of making other connections. We visited several pubs and finished up in the West End at some pub or other where Sgt Johns met some people who were interested. We stayed there with them while Staff Gretzix and I went back to get the truck, hiring a taxi for the journey. When we got there, S/Sgt Gretzix went over to the truck and I gave instructions to the driver of the cab to turn around so that the truck could follow us back. We went round the block to do this and when I got back the truck and Staff Gretzix had gone. I returned to Sgt Johns and told him that had happened, so we went to Streatham for the night, returning to Aldershot in the morning.

The agreed price was 7/6d each for the blankets. Transport was to have cost £40 or £50 and I understood that the remainder of the proceeds was to be split between Staff Gretzix, Sgts Cassell and Johns, myself, and whoever supplied the blankets.

The whole plan was evolved whilst I was under the influence of liquor, and it was through my drinking activities that I had got behind financially and I acted on this method of getting myself straightened out. If I had been in a sober frame of mind, I would not, under any circumstances, have considered being a party to any such undertaking, as I have never been connected with any criminal activities, and my army Record will bear that out. I deeply regret that I have been involved and can only say that it is due to the aforesaid circumstances.

I have read over the above statement which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour, and it is true

Sgt. No. [illegible], Sgt. [illegible], R.C.,
Trade test board No. 10 (C[illegible]ons), H.Q. C.M.P., Att. 1 CDN.
U.K. Command.

I have been cautioned by [illegible], of [illegible], that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

I say that [illegible] this caution, I sign my name here.

(Sgt.) J. C. DAVIES.

On Friday, 1 [illegible], during the afternoon, I was in the Sergeants' Mess, No. [illegible], in company with [illegible], Sgt. [illegible], and Sgt. [illegible]. We had all had quite a few drinks by then, and being more or less broke, the question of how to get some money became the subject of conversation. Somebody in that connection mentioned that there were [illegible],000 blankets to be sold in the area. I don't remember who said this, and I never did hear where the blankets were supposed to be. There was quite a crowd in there, and the matter was not discussed at any length. No-one else heard this conversation. I suggested that I, the 1st Lt. Black Watch who was in the Regiment on the one hand without any delay, [illegible] and myself were delighted to sound out the possibilities.

About a year ago I was in the Piedmont a [illegible] district and there was a man who had suggested that any time I had anything to sell it was possible to make connections in that locality. He was addressed by one of his friends at the time as Oliver Cook and was wearing a grey tweed cap. He would be about fifty years of age and about five foot nine inches in his bit. He had light hair and reddish complexion with a gingerish moustache (stubble). He was clean shaven and I think he had a cauliflower ear. I know he was rather smooth looking, as there was a place where it was white apart.

That evening, [illegible] and I went to the Regent and Capitol district and after having a few drinks at various pubs entered the "Black Prince" and the "Ginger Cook" (described above) was in the pub. It was suggested to him that we had a number of blankets to sell, and he replied that he was not in a position to handle them. Another man entered the pub and I would describe him as follows:- Foreign appearance but spoke with a Surrey accent, middle age, height about 5' 7", black hair smarty complexion, thin face, clean shaven, wore a trilby hat and dark overcoat. He came over to our table and commenced a conversation with [illegible]. I did not hear the drift of the conversation and once when I made a remark I was told to "shut-up" by the civilian. At this stage I was quite drunk having been drinking since 12 o'clock noon. [illegible] was comparatively sober as he had not been drinking to any extent owing to stomach trouble. We left the pub at closing time and went to Lincoln, to avoid the night, and on the way home I understood that it had been arranged that the blankets could be disposed of.

STATES: I have read over the statement of L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J., dated 7 OCT 44. I see we don't agree about several small matters. I met the Warden named "Pop" to whom he refers about a year ago last Summer, when he found a bed for myself and a pal of mine down the "Elephant and Castle" tube station one night when we were stranded. To the best of my knowledge he has never been mixed up in anything criminal. The man named "Ginger" did not agree to take the blankets, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX is definitely wrong when he says so. Otherwise, as far as it concerns me, and to the best of my knowledge, his statement is correct.

I have also read the statement of L-18134, Sgt. GRENNELL, N.A., dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that apart from a few minor details the essence of his statement seems to be correct.

"I have been told by a friend of mine who is an officer at No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement unit not to make any statement and I guess I won't be making any. I owe £8-0-0 to Sgt Brooks £5-0-0 to Tpr Richardson, the barber, and £1-0-0 to Mr Lucas down in the Wellington Pub. Other guys owe me 20 Or 30 pounds and I have got plenty of money back home if I want it. I had nothing to do with the blanket deal but I knew it was coming off. I only went to London for a steak supper at Greatrix's place. I went to a club in the West End and got a girl friend of mine to phone up a garage to store the truck. When I told her there were blankets in the truck she phoned again and none of them would have no part of it. I had nothing to do with arranging transport. I have been drinking heavy for the past three or four months since leaving Witley. I remember being with the others but did not always know what they were talking about. When I am drinking I can do my job but forget what people say to me. I figure Greatrix is O.K. Gemmell is close as can be. Gemmell always talked alone to Miskimmons. Davies is O.K. I guess, he was only trying to find a place to park the truck not to sell the blankets he never tried to sell anything. I figure Gemmell was principally responsible he has done previous jobs in Aldershot.

(SGD) W. MISKIMMINS

STATES: I am C.Q.M.S. i/c Accommodation Stores, No.1 C.G.R.U., where I have been for 4 years in the same position. I have always worked hard to keep all Barrack Stores in good order, and have never at any time disposed of stores to outside individuals. Before the war I worked for 16 years for T. EATON & Co., TORONTO, in the Creamery Dept., and left there in excellent standing.

About two weeks ago a new Reception Coy. was formed in 1 CGRU and my O.C., Capt. LANE, instructed me to collect all surplus blankets throughout the Unit for the use of this Coy. These are all accounted for on the "Long Roll". We do not as yet keep Coy. Inventories. I started at the beginning of last week with Medical, General, and Despatch Coys., keeping over 1000 in the Blanket Store to be laundered. Next morning, 4 OCT 44, I took 1000 of these blankets to the Vale Laundry in FARNHAM. I don't remember which truck or driver was detailed. I made two journeys. My Storeman, Pte. GOLD, and Mr. SHORT, i/c R.C.A. Stores and his staff knew I was going to do this, and of course our M.T. Section knew what I was doing.

The following day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 13:30 hrs., I took the truck and driver I had had all morning round Unit Lines to FARNHAM, where I collected 600 clean blankets, in bundles of ten, leaving 200 to be collected later. I put these in the Blanket Store.

Upon my return Pte. GOLD told me that Reception Coy. required a lot more blankets, and as I had requested another truck at lunch-time, when I was told I could have the first one that came in, and having despatched the one I had to another job, I told Pte. GOLD to remain in the Blanket Store, where he was working, and to start loading the first truck which arrived. I went back to my office and on my return at about 15:30 hrs., I found a truck there and gave Pte. GOLD and the Driver a hand in loading on the blankets. I'm not sure how many were there, but I kept back about 150 in the hut. I distinctly remember telling the driver to take them to Reception Coy., within Unit Lines, and Pte. GOLD heard what I said. I went off then about my business, and the first I heard that anything was wrong was next morning, when Capt. LANE asked me what trucks I had had booked out to me and said that one had been found up in LONDON the night before.

GERRELL, H.A., dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that I don't know Wrn. DUDLEY by name, but would no doubt recognize him as the driver who took the blankets last Tursday. I did not tell him to take the blankets anywhere but to Reception Coy. Blankets never go to Despatch Coy. in any case.

I would know S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. GERRELL, and Sgt. DAVIES if I saw them no doubt, but I do not know them by name, and have never had anything to do with them. I have known Sgt. JONES as "SMOOCH" for about a year, but have never had much to do with him. Never at any time did I even mention the subject of blankets to any of these men, much less discuss with them their disposal and sale. Neither did anyone of them ever bring up the subject to me or in my presence. It's possible that they may have mistaken someone else for me, but I don't think for a minute that could be. I have no suspicions of anyone else in my department, and can only say that the theft of the blankets was entirely an outside job, to the best of my knowledge.

I do remember being in the NAAFI last Monday or Tuesday week at noon (2 or 3 OCT 44). I had a newspaper showing the runners in a horse-race last Saturday, and went over to a table where "SMOOCH" and three or four of his friends were sitting. I sat down for a minute on the piano stool beside their table and told them I had a good thing for the third race - "CADET". I don't know what they said; but I finished my beer and went to dinner. I was only in there a few minutes. I wasn't taking any bets - just passing on a good tip. I'm interested in horses, but don't play them much - just a shilling here or there when I get hold of a good thing.

I want to repeat that this whole business has been a shock to me because never at any time have I been guilty of disposing of stores to any unauthorized person whatsoever.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true. (SGD) W. MICKLEBURGH 12 OCT 44

THIRD STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J.
Clerks' Coy., No.1 C.C.R.U., C.M.U. Caommand.

BEGINS: I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) R.J.GRATRIX

STATES: I have read over the statements of L-18134, Sgt. GEMMELL, N.A., dated 10 OCT 44, D-91032, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and H-88451, CQMS MISKIMMINS, W., dated 12 OCT 44, and wish to state that prior to the occasion I mentioned, lunch-time on Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I never discussed the question of blankets with CQMS MISKIMMINS, nor did he discuss it in my presence. Further, the letter which Sgt. GEMMELL says I had - the one which you took from me in LONDON - was passed round amongst the five of us. Who all read it I don't know, but it was not in my possession until later in the afternoon, when it was given to me by Sgt. DAVIES.

On the Sunday night DAVIES and I went to LONDON (1 OCT 44) I visited the Black Prince and Kings Arms Public Houses, Elephant and Castle, for the first time in my life. I had never frequented that area. To my knowledge arrangements were completed that night between "Ginger" and Sgt. DAVIES. "Ginger was certainly arranging the disposal of the blankets. The civilian described by Sgt. DAVIES whom "Ginger" called over held a short conversation with "Ginger", and when Sgt. DAVIES interrupted, this man told him to "shut up" and left. The topic of conversation I do not know. I had never seen "Ginger" before and had no part in the arrangements for disposing of the blankets.

CQMS MISKIMMINS was at the same conversation at which the letter mentioned above was produced, and certainly knew of all the arrangements as to the loading and the intended destination (LONDON) of the blankets.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour, and it is true./ENDS. (SGD) R.J.GRATRIX 13 OCT 44

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

13 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

H-79092, Pte. OLSEN, C.R.,
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No.1 C.G.R.U.

STATES:

On 5 OCT 44, at 01:30 hrs., I was detailed for Government Siding, ALDERSHOT, but the detail was cancelled and my next detail, with Mob. Stores, at 08:30 hrs., was over-written on the same line of my Work Ticket. I was driving all morning within Unit Lines for CQMS MISKIMMINS. I was not particularly busy. I didn't handle any furniture.

After lunch at about 14:00 hrs., at the direction of CQMS MISKIMMINS, I drove him to the Male Laundry near FARNHAM and picked up 600 blankets which we brought back to Blanket Stores at 1 CGRU. Pte. Harry TIGGS went with us and also Pte. GOLD. They work in the Mob. Stores.

After I delivered the blankets, CQMS MISKIMMINS told me I would not be needed further, but to pick up another S/Sgt. near FARNHAM where he was working on stores, and bring him back to the Unit. That was around 15:00 hrs. I did this, and checked in my vehicle, No. L-765783, at 16:30 hrs. I had one more trip to ALDERSHOT Station that day.

I knew nothing of what was going on concerning theft of blankets that day, and know nothing much about it now.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) J.C.JEYNES.

STATES:

I am Corporal Despatcher in the Transport Office, No.1 C.C.R.U. On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, just before dinner, Rfn. DUDLEY, who drives L-762820, saw me as I was leaving the office and said COMD MISKIMMINS would be needing another truck that afternoon to get blankets from the Male Laundry near FARNHAM and asked if he could have the detail. I had no suspicion of any ulterior motive on his part, and just said "O.K.".

At approximately 15:00 hrs. in the Despatch Office I received the request for another 60 cwt. truck for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH from COMD MISKIMMINS. He already had one 60 cwt. with Pte. OLDEN at Hob. Stores. He said he wanted another one to get blankets at the Male Laundry. He seldom uses more than one big truck at a time, but I put it down to an incoming draft. I said I'd have a truck over in about 15 minutes. He did not request any particular driver, but I had DUDLEY in mind because of his request, and despatched him at about 15:30 hrs. I made out his Work Ticket for the journey. I know nothing about the other Work Ticket you have in DUDLEY's particulars for WATFORD. It is not genuine. He must have pinched it and made it out himself. I still had no reason to suspect his actions, and the first I heard that he'd been mixed up in any trouble was next morning, when he was reported to have been picked up in LONDON. I was definitely not in on the deal, and have never at any time been mixed up intentionally in any crime where Unit transport may have been used.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour, and it is true./ENDS

6th Aug/44.

Statement by:- B-112533 Gnr.Woods.A.C.

Sir;

On the 5th of Aug/44 I was detailed to take the Mob Stores Sgt to Witley.We went to Witley and arrived there at about 0900 hrs.We did numerous Barracks duties around the Camp. [redacted] We then came back to Aldershot.We arrived back in Aldershot at about 1200 hrs.When we got back to Aldershot the Sgt said that he had to have the vehicle in the afternoon and would have to think up some way to wangle it.He then told me to report back to the garage and he would want me again at 1300 hrs.Then he said after you park the truck come to the N.A.A.F.I.and I will buy you a beer.I went to the N.A.A.F.I. and I had three (3) pints.I bought myself a pint and him.He bought the others.I then received a late meal chit from the Messing Sgt for a late lunch at Corunna Men's Mess. After lunch I picked up the Mob Stores Sgt at his quarters in Corunna Barracks.He then got in the vehicle and said take me to Camberley.I drove him to where he wanted to go.I had explained to him that my Work Ticket was not made out for Camberley.He replied;Oh that won't matter we won't be stopped anyway. The route I took to Camberley was via Cove.This brought us out by the Public House known to me now to be called by a name like Elie.The Sgt said pull in here.This I did.He then come on and have a drink.We went inside and he bought me two (2) pints of beer.The time was about 1400 hrs. We then left the Pub and said take me this way.He directed me to a Teashop near Camberley where I understand that the Mother of his girl friend lives.We went inside and had a glass of Lemonade.After this the Sgt said take me into Camberley to the Girl friends and I will only be about 10 min.After he came out from talking to the girl he directed me to return to Aldershot.We arrived back in Aldershot at about 1530 hrs. The Sgt then started to look around the Barracks for the Messing Sgt.We first wentnto Corunna Sgt's Mess.While there, the Messing Sgt bought me a half (½) [redacted] pint of beer.The Sgt then said that we had to go to Maida Sgt's Mess.When we got there he told me to come in.The Mob Stores Sgt then bought me a pint of beer and after I tasted it I noticed that there had been Gin put in it.We then left the Mess and went to the Messing Stores.The Messing Sgt then went away and got his pass.When he came back I drove the Two Sgt's to Corunna Sgt's Mess and they bought some beer. They brought this out to the truck in a box.The Mob Stores Sgt then told me to take the Messing Sgt to Witley.This I did.When we got to Witley I was directed by the Sgt to a house near the Primrose Laundery.The Sgt got out,took the box that contained the beer with him ans went in the house.He then called me.He gave me two half pints of Beer.The time was about 1630 hrs.I then returned to Aldershot and to the Mob Stores Sgt as he had directed that I do this ~~went~~ I returned.I found him at his quarters.He was just getting cleaned up.When he had finished he told me to come and have my supper.This I did in the Men's Mess Corunna.The time by now was about 1830 or 1900 hrs.The Sgt then said he wanted to go to Camberley.When we got to Camberley he took me to Pub where we had a pint of beer that he bought.He then siad take me to the Red Lion.He then directed me to it.(We had tried another one before this but it was shut) When we got to the Red Lion he bought me three Gins and Three pints of beer.I then took him to his girl friends house in Camberley.The time was about 2100 hrs. [redacted] He then said thats all I want.I then started for home.I came home via Cove.On the way to Cove I stopped the vehicle as I did not feel very well and thought I hadbetter straighten myself up.I must have gone to sleep for a short while.When woke up I started right back for Camp.I arrived back at about 2320 hrs.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

18 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-112533, Gnr. WOOD, A.C.,
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No.1 CGRU, CRU Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) A.C.WOOD.

STATES:

I have been a driver at No.1 C.G.R.U. for over a year. I have never had much trouble in the M.T. Section, but on 5 AUG 44 I was driving CQMS MISKIMMINS who is N.C.O. i/c Mob. Stores at the Unit. He got me into trouble by taking me on a lot of unauthorized journeys and also getting me drunk. On 6 OCT 44 I was paraded before Capt. KERN, my O.C. I made to him a statement which he typed out and which I signed. It is the statement you have in your possession. The Mob. Stores Sgt. referred to is CQMS MISKIMMINS.

While I was driving him that day (I can't remember just when), CQMS MISKIMMINS said to me: "Some day when we get a chance you and I are going to make ourselves some money on some blankets. We'll get about Forty or Fifty Pounds apiece out of it". He meant that he wanted to get me to deliver some blankets for him some place where he would sell them. I didn't know what the set-up was, and made no promises. I didn't think very serious of the idea and heard no more about it from him or anybody else. He never sold anything that day when I was with him; but when I heard last week that my friend Rfn. DUDLEY was caught with a load of blankets I figured who it was who got him to take them in his truck.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION 18 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. L-414, Gnr. GOULD, E.G.,
RAF Wing, 1 C.G.R.U.

BEGINS: I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.
To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) E.G.GOULD

STATES: I am attached to Accomodation Stores, 1 C.G.R.U., where, with one short ~~XXXXXX~~ absence of about 5 weeks last Summer, I have been for about a year. I am a Storeman in that Department.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working at the Accomodation Stores all day. I can't quite remember what I was doing during the morning, but after lunch I was at the blanket Store emptying palliases in company with Pte. TOWNS, D., another Storeman. COMS MIKKINGINS came over and told us to load 1000 dirty blankets into a 60 cwt. truck driven by Dvr. OLSEN. We had about 1200 there in bundles of 10. At about 14:00 hrs. COMS MIKKINGINS, Pte. TOWNS and I went with the truck-load of blankets to the Male Laundry near FARNHAM and left the blankets there to be cleaned. We then loaded 800 clean blankets for return to the Unit. We always exchange 1000 blankets at a time at the Laundry.

The reason why we did not bring the full 1000 back was that TOWNS made a bad job of loading at the start, it was raining hard, and we couldn't get more than 800 on the truck without getting the last ones wet. COMS MIKKINGINS made arrangements to collect the remaining 200 due on the following morning.

We got back at about 16:00 hrs., and TOWNS and I unloaded the blankets into the store. Dvr. OLSEN drove his truck away. About half-an-hour later another 60 cwt. backed up to the store. COMS MIKKINGINS arrived on his bicycle about the same time and said we had to load 700 clean blankets for Reception Coy. TOWNS and I were a bit sore, having just unloaded them, but COMS MIKKINGINS and the driver, to whom I paid no attention, gave us a hand, and I counted out the bundles. The driver stacked them in the truck.

I distinctly remember COMS MIKKINGINS telling the driver: "take that to Reception". They had a fatigue party over there, so we didn't go with the truck, but COMS MIKKINGINS followed the truck away on his bicycle. The driver never said anything at all. He worked fast because it was getting late. I do know that Reception Coy. had been hollering for blankets for several days. TOWNS and I just went on working with the palliases, and that's all I know about it.

(Contd. over)

know about it./
At no time had I any reason to suppose that the blankets were to be taken elsewhere than to Reception Coy.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true./ENDS

19 OCT 44

THIRD STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.,
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No.1 CORU, CRU Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S.: that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) R.DUDLEY

STATES:

I have read over the statement of B-06927, Cpl. JEYNES, J.C.M., dated 13 OCT 44, and wish to state:

The man who asked me if I wanted to take the blankets to LONDON, and arranged it all for me was Cpl. JEYNES. I was willing to take the rap myself, and the only reason for not saying who he was at first was to keep him out of trouble if I could. I'm no squealer.

All I said in my other statement is true, except that I didn't steal the Work Ticket. During the afternoon after he spoke to me about the job Cpl. JEYNES came to me and gave me two Work Tickets. One he had made out as a sample for me to copy, and the other, which is the one you have, was blank. He told me to fill it in like the one he made out, and to destroy the sample for his protection. I did this that afternoon, and put the one he made out down the toilet in the Provost Lines opposite the Garage.

Cpl. JEYNES also told me I'd get about £15 for the job, and I figured he'd get a good cut out of it as well. He said: "You know who's running this, don't you?", and I said: "I have a pretty good idea" and left it at that. I figured it was CQMS MISKIMMINS, and I'm sure that's who he meant. Next day he told me to gas up my truck and make sure I had enough.

I was busy that day like I said on a draft job. The first idea was to get the blankets from the laundry at FARNHAM, but when I didn't get back till 14:00 hrs. he said: "Never mind, you can pick them up at the Blanket Store", and made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 hrs. He knew I had the other one to cover me for the LONDON trip.

I never asked Cpl. JEYNES for the job - he asked me in the first place and fixed it all up himself. I never did any jobs before for CQMS MISKIMMINS (taking stuff out, I mean) but I kind of figure others have, and I know Cpl. WOODS got caught over him once on a backshee run when they got him drunk and he got back late.

I have read over the above statement, which I

Regt. No. B-86927, Cpl. JEYNES, J.C.M.,

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

(SGD) J.C.JEYNES.

STATES:

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 09:30 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS, of Clerks' Coy., 1 CCRU, came to me in the Despatch office, M.T. Section, where I am in charge, and asked me if I could fix him with a big truck to take some blankets to LONDON. I asked him how long it would be needed and he said from about 16:00 hrs to 19:30 hrs. I said I'd let him know later, but he said he'd have to know before 2 o'clock. He said there would be about 700 blankets and that the driver and I would receive about £40 between us, depending on what they got for them. He didn't say who else was in the deal, but as the blankets were coming from Hob. Stores, I concluded that COMB MISCHIEVOUS was in it. I told him I'd fix it for him unless some emergency arose and I'd have to cancel it. He gave instructions that the truck was to be at the stop-lights in FARNHAM just below the Male Laundry at exactly 15:55 hrs., when a Sergeant would be there to direct the driver. He didn't say what Sergeant. I stipulated that there was to be no drinking on the trip. I told Sgt. JOHNS to expect No. L-762620, as that was the logical vehicle for the job. He said "O.K.", and left the office.

I immediately left the office to contact Rfn. DUDLEY, the driver of the 60 cwt. L-762620, and met him outside the office. I asked him if he wanted to take a buckshee trip up to LONDON, and mentioned that there would be roughly £15 in it for each of us. He agreed to take the trip, and I told him I'd fix up a sample of a work-ticket for him to make out to cover his journey. I gave him his directions as instructed, warning him also against drinking, and to be careful with his driving. I picked DUDLEY because I knew him and knew I could trust him. He doesn't know LONDON, but I figured somebody would show him the way.

I returned to the office, and when I was alone I stamped two blank Work Tickets, making one out for DUDLEY to copy. I stamped it several times so that it would be unusable. At about 10:00 hrs. I met Rfn. DUDLEY at the Workshop door and gave him the two work-tickets with the warning that the sample work-ticket must be destroyed after he had copied it. He agreed to do this, and I told him that he was on his own hook once he was on the road with his vehicle. I later advised him to see he had enough gas. He did a trip to ALTON, and I gave him his Work Ticket for

(Contd. over)

Work Ticket for/
FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH to cover him through the area at 15:20 hrs. I can remember no change of plan, and he must have received instructions elsewhere to go to Blanket Stores.

The driver for Mob. Stores that day was Pte. OLSEN, who w was on that job the day before, and was warned that night that he would be needed again at 08:30 hrs., 5 OCT 44. At no time during that day was any call received at the Transport Office from Mob. Stores for another vehicle. Rfn. DUDLEY was sent solely in consequence of the request of Sgt. JOHNS that morning. I knew nothing of any further arrangements connected with the deal.

When I made my first statement on 13 OCT 44 I figured that to tell all I knew would do nobody any good. Now I feel it isn't fair for Rfn. DUDLEY to take all the blame. I have read his statements, dated 6 OCT 44 and 19 OCT 44, and with the exception of the differences I have pointed out above, his statement is correct to the best of my knowledge. I am quite sure that he has never been mixed up in anything of this kind before. Neither have I.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is xxxx the truth./ENDS

STATES:

I am attached to Accommodation Stores, 1 CCRU, where I have been working since JUNE, 1944.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working in connection with Accommodation Stores all day. I was with Gnr. GOULD all morning at the Blanket Store emptying palliases. At noon CQMS MISKIMMINS, who was i/c Accommodation Stores, told us to be at the Blanket Store at about 14:00 hrs., as we were going to get blankets from the Male Laundry, FARNHAM, having taken a thousand there to be cleaned a couple of days before. When the truck arrived, driven by Pte. OLSEN, CQMS MISKIMMINS, Gnr. GOULD and I went with it to the laundry at FARNHAM, where we started to load clean blankets in bundles of ten. C.Q.M.S. MISKIMMINS said we were going to take 700, so I wasn't too fussy how I started loading. When I had loaded about 300 he said we'd better take 1000, but I hadn't piled them very tightly in the 60 cwt. we had, and could only get 800 on. I'd have had to empty the truck again to have taken the full thousand, but he said not to bother. It was raining that day, and if I'd put on more than 800 they'd have got wet at the back of the truck.

We brought the 800 blankets and unloaded them into the Blanket Store, and the truck went away. Gnr. GOULD and I went on working on the palliases for a half-hour or so, when another 60 cwt. truck, driven by Pte. DUDLEY, pulled up. I asked him what he wanted, but he didn't seem to know, and said CQMS MISKIMMINS wanted him to report there. A minute or two afterwards CQMS MISKIMMINS came up on his bicycle and told us to load up 700 blankets for Reception Coy. We thought that kind of funny because we could have taken them straight over in the first place; but he said that's what they wanted now, so we just got busy and loaded them and the driver stacked them in the back of his truck. Gnr. GOULD counted them, on CQMS MISKIMMINS's instructions. I didn't hear any instructions given to the driver, but when we had finished loading at about 16:30 hrs. the truck pulled away with the blankets, and that's the last I saw of them. I figured they were for Reception Coy., and CQMS MISKIMMINS said we didn't have to go with the truck because there was a Fatigue down there to unload it. I had no reason at all to suspect that there was anything wrong, and just went on with my work.

Special Investigation Section

STATEMENT OF:

Sgt. No. [illegible], C.I.D., M.P. [illegible]
Pte. King, W.A.C.(C.), C.M.P. Corporal.

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. [illegible], of C.M.P., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

Having made a true statement to Civil Police concerning some chairs, tables, and sheets which I disposed of from Unit Stores through Sgt. [illegible], to a civilian in [illegible] last August, I want to tell you the truth and make a complete statement about the seven hundred blankets which S/Sgt. [illegible], Sgts. [illegible], [illegible] and [illegible], Cpl. [illegible], and Pte. [illegible], the driver, arranged to sell in [illegible], and which I gave them out of the Unit Blanket Store on 5 Oct 44.

About a week after Sgt. [illegible] had sold the chairs, tables and sheets referred to [illegible] the Unit [illegible] C.M.P., and since as far as I had any more chairs to sell. I was anxious that the 12 chairs, one, tables, writing, and 20 sheets, were not in charge [illegible] I had previously returned their equivalent to the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], several weeks previously, and they were then surplus. I sent this furniture for several weeks in store. [illegible] was all the [illegible] I had, and I told Sgt. [illegible], this when he [illegible]. I remember telling him, though, that I had a lot of surplus blankets. He asked me how many, and I asked [illegible] about a thousand". As a matter of fact, I had about 800 surplus blankets which I had carefully collected over a long period of time in order to make good any shortages which might at some time occur.

A day or two later Sgt. [illegible] came to me again in the M.T.C.M.P. and told me that he had arrangements made to dispose of seven hundred blankets. He didn't tell me any of the details. I asked him what he would be worth to me, and he said $50. I then agreed to let him have the 700 blankets when it could be arranged. That was early in the first week of October, 1944. I saw Sgt. [illegible] each day that week in the M.T.C.M.P. and he told me the names of three who were arranging the deal when I asked him. I never had anything to do with this part of the deal, and don't recall discussing it the matter with anyone save Sgt. [illegible]. He told me that he had fixed it for a truck to pick up the blankets on Thursday, 5 Oct 44. I don't know who was arranging the transport, but I knew there had been a truck about it earlier in the week. At that time I had 1000 blankets at the Dale Laundry, [illegible], and as I thought that that would be a good place to pick them up from I told Sgt. [illegible] to have a truck there at 15:30 hrs. that Thursday. I changed my mind about this, however, because they only wanted 700, so I brought 300 back from there to the Unit Blanket Store right after dinner that day. I was going to take the whole 1000, but couldn't get any more on the truck. I previously told Sgt. [illegible] to have his truck sent to the Blanket Store instead at 16:00 hrs. I saw it pull in and there, went over on my bike, and told my storeman, Cpl. [illegible] and [illegible] to load 700 blankets. I gave them a hand. Then the truck was from the truck and/landed I began to feel a bit guilty and said to the driver, Pvt. [illegible]

"Alex, take them to Reception Hq. We'll deal with it." He said "O.K., Bill", and drove off. He looked a bit scared, too. I thought he was going to do so I said, and even went down to Reception Hq. on my bike to see if he was there. I would have had them unloaded right there, the way I was feeling honest to God, but he didn't show up. Neither [illegible]. Sorry if [illegible] what was going on, and I really meant what I said to the driver. I knew something had gone wrong next morning when Capt. [illegible] called me into his office to ask me about the truck which was missing. That is all I had to do with the deal, and I'm sorry now that I ever had any part in it. I was not short of money, and I honestly don't know whatever made me commit to it.

It is true that Reception Hq. needed more blankets, as those I had previously sent were dirty, and had to be replaced by clean ones. [illegible] fellow I don't know slipped me off a few days previously that the police in [illegible] were watching for a blanket deal that was supposed to be coming off, and that is why I was getting a bit scared about the whole thing.

The statements I previously made are partly untrue, because I knew I had a surplus to cover the loss and I thought that I might be relieved of blame.

I admit that for a long time past I have been arranging stuff to make good deficiencies in the Unit, but I can truthfully say that apart from the three Lieutenants, that I disposed of stores to [illegible], I have never sent anything to unauthorised persons, or sold or disposed of stores to civilians. I don't think that a complete Unit inventory would show any shortages in my department. It might even show a surplus.

I have acted under the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, of my own free will, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour from any person or persons, and it is all true.

Third Witness - Prosecution

C 1869 S/Sgt Watson, R.C., Can Provost Corps, HQ CMHQ, having be duly sworn states thus:-

On the 9th of October ult, at about 2220 hrs at the Special Investigation Section office in London a telephone message was received from Detective Sergeant Cook of the Flying Squad, Metropolitan Police, New Scotland Yard, to the effect that he had detained at Carter Street Police Station London, South East 17, a Canadian Staff Sergeant and a driver in possession of a Canadian Army lorry containing a large quantity of War Department blankets. Acting on the instructions of Major R.H. Holmes, Assistant Provost Marshall, Canadian Military Headquarters, I proceeded immediately to Carter Street Police Station where I saw Detective Sergeant E Cook and Detective Sergeant Albert Webb, both of the Flying Squad, New Scotland Yard. In the station yard I saw a Canadian Army Vehicle Ford 60 cwt No L 76209 bearing the unit sign of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. I looked in the rear of this vehicle which was covered by a tarpaulin secured at the rear with ropes and saw a large number of army blankets which I later counted and found 700 in bundles of ten. Detained in the police station I saw S/Sgt Gendrix, whom I now recognize as one of the accused, and Rifleman Dudley, whom I also recognize as one of the accused. I said to Dudley, are you the driver of the truck outside and he said yes. I said to S/Sgt Gendrix are you with the truck and he said yes. I said to them, had you any authority to bring the truck load of blankets to London. Both soldiers answered no. At about 2245 hrs I London. Both soldiers answered no. At about 2245 hrs I

At 1645 hours on 9 Oct 44 I [illegible] Riflemen Dudley. I confronted him with the statement of S/Sgt Gregoire, Exhibit "C". I cautioned him and he made a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and which I here produce.

This statement having been read to the accused marked by me as Exhibit "Y" for the prosecution and attached to the summary.

I then submitted the statement of [illegible] Exhibit "Z" to L/Sgt [illegible] and he made a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and signed in my presence.

This statement having been read to the accused marked by me as Exhibit "Z" for the prosecution and attached to the summary.

On 10 Oct 44 at about 1050 hrs I placed Sgt Johns, whom I recognize as one of the accused under close arrest and handed him over to the N.C.O. in charge of the guard room No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. At about 1120 hrs I placed Sgts Gornall and Davies, whom I now recognize as two of the accused under close arrest and escorted them together with C/S/M Simmons, whom I also recognize as one of the accused, to the Provost Company Detachment, where at about [illegible] I interviewed Sgt Gornall. I cautioned him and he made a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence, a copy of which I hereby submit.

This statement having been read to the accused Sgt Gornall is marked by me as Exhibit "X" and attached to the summary.

I then confronted Sgt Gornall with the statement of S/Sgt Gregoire, Exhibit "C". I cautioned him and he made to me a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and which I here produce.

This statement having been read to the accused Sgt Gornall is marked by me as Exhibit "X" for the prosecution and attached to the summary.

I then escorted Sgt Gornall to the guard room of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit and handed him over to the N.C.O. in charge to be detained.

I escorted Sgt Davies and C/S/M Simmons to the Central Police Station Aldershot, where with the approval of the Superintendent of the police, I lodged them in police custody. On the 11th of October, 1944 at about 1000 hrs at the police station I interviewed Sgt Davies. I cautioned him and he made to me in my presence a voluntary statement which he signed in my presence and which I hereby submit a copy of this statement.

On hearing the above read to the accused Sgt Davies requested that he be allowed line 17 page 2 of his statement to read to the word "demurred"

This statement having been read to the accused Sgt Gowell is marked by me as Exhibit "R" and attached to the summary

At about 1400 hrs at the Motor Transport Office No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, I saw Captain R.H. Keene, officer commanding Motor Transport Section and he handed to me drivers call sheet for 5 Oct 44 and also Work Ticket No. 5703 which I now produce

The call sheet and work ticket having been shown to the accused is marked by me as Exhibit "S" and attached to the summary

In the presence of Capt Keene I interviewed L 59092 Cpl Olson, C.A. Motor Transport Section, 4 Wing. He was cautioned and in the presence of Capt Keene made a statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and in the presence of Capt Keene

This statement having been read to the accused is marked by me as exhibit "T" and attached to the summary

In the presence of Capt Keene I then interviewed R 96967 Cpl Joynes. After I had identified myself to the accused, I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything unless he desired to do so but whatever he said would be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. He then made a statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and in the presence of Capt Keene.

This statement having been read to the accused Cpl Joynes is marked by me as exhibit "U" and attached to the summary.

About 1630 hrs I proceeded to the orderly room of No 1 Administrative Transport Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, where I saw D 91040 WOII Romer, C. I questioned him and he gave me certain information which I noted. On 15 Oct 44 as the result of inquiries by Captain Major Olson, Officer Commanding 4 Wing, No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, handed to me an original statement made in writing on 6 Oct 44 in connection with disciplinary action taken in another case against B 112511 Gnr Wood, J.A. of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. I present this statement.

This statement having been read to the accused is marked by me as exhibit "V" and attached to the summary

I thereupon interviewed Gnr Wood. I cautioned him and he made to me a statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and which I here submit.

This statement having been read to the accused is marked by me as exhibit "W" and attached to the summary.

At about 1100 hrs the same date in the presence of Capt Lake, Quartermaster, No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, I interviewed L 414 Gnr Gould, E.D., storeman. I cautioned him and he made a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and in the presence of Capt Lake.

This statement having been read to the accused is marked by me as exhibit "X" and attached to the summary

At about 1400 hrs on 18 Oct 44 I interviewed Lieutenant J.J. Dunlap, officer in charge Reception Wing, R3 & D2 Coy, and questioned him concerning demands for blankets. He gave me certain information which I noted. On 20 Oct 44 in the presence of Capt Lake Quartermaster, I questioned Lieutenant J. Sinclair in the same matter and he gave me information corroborating that of Lieutenant Dunlap which I noted. On 19 Oct 44 at about 1600 hrs in the guard room of No 1 Can Gen Reinforcement Unit I again interviewed Rifleman Dudley. I confronted him with the statement of Cpl Joynes, exhibit "Y", and he gave me a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence.

This statement having been read to the accused Rifleman Dudley is marked by me as exhibit "Y" and attached to the summary

At about 1350 hrs in the Inter Transport Office I placed Cpl Joynes under close arrest and escorted him to the Special Investigation Office, Canadian Reinforcement Unit where I confronted him with the statement of Rifleman Dudley exhibit "Y". I cautioned him and he made a voluntary statement and which he signed in my presence. I produce a copy of this statement.

This statement having been read to the accused Cpl Joynes is marked by me as exhibit "Z" and attached to the summary

I then escorted Cpl Joynes to the guard room No 1 C.R.U. and handed him over to the N.C.O. in charge to be detained. On the 20th of October, 194-, at about 1020 hrs in the presence of Capt Lake, Quartermaster, I interviewed H 102347 Pte Towse, D. I cautioned him and he made a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence and in the presence of Capt Lake. I submit a copy of this statement.

This statement having been read to the accused is marked by me as exhibit "Z1" and attached to the summary.

I then questioned Capt Lake concerning the movement of blankets within unit lines and at about 5 Oct 44 he gave me certain information which I noted. On 22 Oct 44 at the Central Police station, Aldershot, I again saw C.S.M. Miskiwenna. He said to me, I want to tell you the truth and make a complete statement about the blankets. I cautioned him and he made to me a statement which I took down in writing and which he signed in my presence. I present a copy of this statement.

This statement having been read to the accused C.S.M. Miskiwenna is marked by me as exhibit Z2 and attached to the summary.

At about

At about 1600 hrs I escorted CQMS Miskimmons and Sgt Gornall to the guard room No 1 Canadian General Transport Unit handing them over to the R.S.M. on charges to be tabled. I made several inquiries to substantiate the statements of CQMS Miskimmons, who had reported the theft of two blankets, E., might remember his visits to certain billets and in particular Rifleman Dudley had left the blankets about 1100 hrs on the blankets. At about 1100 hrs on 26 Oct 44 in response to a telephone inquiry I was informed by Sgt Beecher that he had no recollection of the appearance at Reception Company of CQMS Miskimmons on the specific date and time mentioned by CQMS Miskimmons. At about 1800 hrs on 26 Oct 44 at the guard room I again interviewed Sgt Johns. I confronted him with the statements of Cpl Joynes and CQMS Miskimmons. I cautioned him and he said, I have got a chance of beating this rap and if I don't make any statement it will give my defending officer a chance. I am in possession of all original exhibits of which I have presented copies.

Fifth Witness - Prosecution

Captain R.N. Kerne, an officer of the Canadian Army overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states that: I am the transport officer of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. On 6 Oct 44 I was recalled from a twenty four hour pass and told that truck B 96927 had been stolen and was in London. I was told that the permanent driver of the vehicle, Rifleman Dudley, who I now recognize as one of the accused, was detained in London. I questioned my despatching staff as to what duties the vehicle had been on. The only permanent personnel on that staff are Cpl Warren, W.C. and Cpl Joynes, whom I now recognize as one of the accused. I found that my vehicle had been detailed to the reception stores. That evening I received a telephone call from Cpl Joynes to the effect that vehicles would not be dispatched to the reception stores unless a note signed by an officer had been presented on its inforce a telephone call from Cpl Joynes and said that the vehicle be returned to the reception stores. As before, it was Cpl Joynes who presented him, who I now recognize as one of the accused. I was present when Cpl Joynes was interviewed by the S/Sgt Police from the Special Investigation Section and I was present when Pte Olson was brought in and interviewed, and I was present when L/Cpl Warren was interviewed. These people denied any knowledge of the circumstances.

The witness is shown exhibit 'C'

That is a transport work ticket, army form 3518 made out from Aldershot to Watford in return detailed for the purpose of taking hospital patients authorized by O.R.U. and it is alleged to have been signed by myself. It is not my signature and I did not sign it. I did not use of any authority for this trip as I was on a 24 hr pass. The only authority received would be communicated direct to my second in command Lieut Driver, by the Adjutant.

The witness is shown Exhibit 'D'

That is a transport work ticket army form 3518. To all intents and purposes as far as I am concerned it is made out correctly. The last trip is Aldershot via stops Farnham and Farnborough which I signature are by Cpl Joynes with his initials above it.

The witness is shown Exhibit 'E'

She is a transport work ticket army form 3518 and the other sheets are what I call drivers call sheets on which all vehicles despatched by the despatching office are supposed to be entered on with the exception of staff cars

Lieut J Sinister, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:- On or about the 1st of October, 1944 the Officer Commanding asked me to assist in organizing a Reception office to the new Reception Basic DM Coy. On 3 Oct 44 I started to set up the office in Corunna Lines and we were advised on the afternoon of that day to expect a draft in from Canada on the night of the fourth. Myself, Lieut Dunlap, and one of the Sgts went to the accomodation stores and told the CQMS in charge we needed four hundred and fifty blankets. He told us to go along to the storeman and we could draw the blankets we wanted. We went along and saw the storeman and drew I believe four hundred blankets. That was sufficient for the draft we expected and I ceased my connection with the company on the afternoon of 5 Oct 44 and at the time we did not order any more blankets nor did anyone else in the company. I know nothing of any seven hundred blankets ordered for the Reception Company on the afternoon of 5 Oct 44.

Capt C.B. Lake., and officer of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states:- I am the Quartermaster at No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit and as such I am in charge of all stores in Keida and Corunna barracks where No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit is located. Blankets are kept in the blanket stores in Corunna Barracks. This blanket stores is in charge of the Assistant quartermaster who is also in charge of the accomodation stores. CQMS Miskimmons, whom I now recognize as one of the accused is the senior R.C.O. in the accomodation stores and had been for some considerable time. As senior R.C.O. he would have access to the blankets in the blanket stores. In the absence of the assistant quartermaster he would have authority to issue blankets to any coy authorized to receive them. Having heard that blankets belonging to this unit had been found in a truck in London the Commanding Officer ordered me to have the blankets counted in this unit. Canadian Barracks services performed this duty and on the 11 Oct 44 the count was duly made. A discrepancy was discovered of between seven and eight hundred blankets.

The officer detailed to take the summary of evidence recalls a witness for the purpose of clearing up an ambiguity in the evidence given by this witness.

Examined by the officer detailed to take the summary

Q.1 You have been recalled to clear up an ambiguity in your evidence in regard to the shortage in blankets. You stated in your evidence that a blanket check showed there were seven to eight hundred short. It is not clear to me whether you mean that there are seven to eight hundred blankets short including the blankets alleged to have been discovered in London, or whether you mean there are an additional seven to eight hundred missing.

A.1. I have here a recapitulation of the blanket check taken by Canadian Barrack Services, submitted to me by Lieut Fraser, Assistant Quartermaster. The actual amount of blankets checked totals 8900 even. There were approximately 50 blankets that were not checked in the pioneers quarters and 50 blankets with the medical company which they had out on a scheme that day. That makes a grand total of 9000 checked

The unit long roll figures were 8824 as of that date. This left a surplus of of 176 blankets. Taking into consideration the 700 already in London not checked by the Canadian Barrack Services makes a total SURPLUS of 876 blankets. Mr Fraser and I calculated as closely as possible the number of G 1098 blankets belonging to individuals on unit strength all of whose G 1098 blanket were counted in the check. Taking the units strength as of that date less the incoming drafts in Reception Company we calculated that there were approximately 966 G 1098 blankets in possession of the individuals. This can only be approximate as in the length of time that the check was made it was impossible to get the exact figure. The surplus of 876 blankets against our approximation of 966 G 1098 blankets showed an apparent shortage of 90. This figure could of course be wrong to the extent of 800 either way, depending upon how accurate our estimation was of G 1098 blankets. When I speak of this and I mean Oct 31th, 1942, the day of the check.

The accused B 94113 Rfn Dudley, R.B.C. is cautioned as follows:-
"Do you wish to give any evidence upon oath or to make any statement not on oath? You are not obliged to give evidence on oath or make any statement not on oath, but any evidence you may give or any statement you may make may be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make any statement or to give any evidence upon oath.
The accused does not wish to call any witnesses.

The accused B 96687 Cpl Jeynes, J.C.B. is cautioned as follows:-
"Do you wish to give any evidence upon oath or to make any statement not on oath? You are not obliged to give evidence upon oath or make any statement not on oath, but any evidence you may give or any statement you may make may be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused elects to give evidence upon oath:

The accused B 96927 Cpl Joynes, J.C.M., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:-

"On the morning of the 5th of October, 1944, at about 0930 hrs, Sgt Johns, whom I now recognize, came to me in the motor transport office and asked me if he could get a vehicle to handle some blankets going up to London. These blankets were to be delivered in London at exactly 1830 hrs. I understood that these blankets were to be sold to someone in London. Sgt Johns told me that if I would arrange the vehicle, the driver and I would get approximately £15-0-0 each, depending upon the price received for the blankets. I said that I would do so provided I could get a driver and provided that an emergency demanding the use of a lot of transport did not come up during the day. I had in mind Rifleman Dudley as the driver of the vehicle. Sgt Johns said he would have to know by 1400 hrs that day and was not satisfied unless I could tell him right away, so I said I would let him have the vehicle, intending that if anything came up that I could not use it, not to bother letting him know differently. Sgt Johns told me to have the vehicle just below the stop-lights on the Upper Hale road at exactly 1655 hrs, where it would pick up another Sgt. I understood that the blankets were to be obtained from the Hale laundry. I went out into the yard, met Dudley and asked him if he would do this. He agreed to do so. I then made out a ticket for the trip, filling it out, and then stamping it several times with the unit motor transport stamp, so that that particular ticket could not be used. I then gave Dudley a blank work ticket already stamped and told him to copy on it exactly what I had written on the first ticket. He was then to destroy the first ticket, the reason for this was so that if he was stopped or anything went wrong, my handwriting would not show up on the work ticket. I also told Dudley that once he set out he was strictly on his own and that I had no knowledge of the deal whatsoever. I also told him to make sure his tanks were full so that he would have enough gas to get to London and back, and so that he would not have to buy any anywhere. About 1500 hrs I got Dudley's genuine work ticket on which he had been operating on legitimate business, and made an entry on it for a journey via Farnham and Farnborough. The purpose of this was to protect him until he met the Sgt at the stop-lights in Hale, pick up the blankets, and was out of the immediate area of Aldershot. Once out of the immediate area of Aldershot his London ticket would protect him. As far as I know Dudley has never been mixed up in any illegal involving transport before. The only reason I approached him was I knew he was broke and going on leave soon. I have never been mixed up myself in anything like this before either.

Officer detailed to take the summary of evidence

In the Field
3 Nov 44

New Scotland Yard.
9th. October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Arnest Cook, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At about 5.15 pm., on 5th, October, 1944, I received information that a soldier in the Canadian Army had been endeavouring to dispose of a load of blankets which he had brought on a lorry to Aldworth, With Detective Sergeant Webb and other Officers I went to Aldworth Road, Aldworth, S.E., and after searching the vicinity saw an Army lorry Index No. CL 7628830 parked by the side of the road about 100 yards from the Elephant and Castle and facing South. The lorry was covered with a tarpaulin sheet secured by ropes.

We went up to the lorry and saw DUDLEY who was in the drivers seat. I said to him, "We are police officers. What are you doing here?". He said "I am waiting for my Sergeant who has gone to get something to eat". I said to him "Where are you from. Where are you going and what load have you got on?". DUDLEY replied, "I'm from Aldershot and I am taking a load of blankets to Catford". I said "What are you doing here, you are miles off your route". He said "I am only acting on instructions". I then asked him where his Sergeant had gone to and he said "I haven't any idea".

I looked under the tarpaulin covering and saw enough that there was in fact a large quantity of blankets on the lorry. I told DUDLEY that I was not satisfied with his explanation and that I was going to make enquiries with a view to verify his statements. He then handed me a printed form showing particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Catford, saying, "This is my authority". I told him that I was still not satisfied and that enquiries would be made. DUDLEY then said "I will tell you the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself and my Sergeant told me what to do when to go".

I then took DUDLEY in the lorry with me whilst we kept observation on the vicinity. Sergeant Webb, I saw, was walking from the direction of the Elephant and Castle, endeavouring to climb into the cabin of the lorry. We went up to him and Webb said "We are Police Officers, are you in charge of this lorry?". He said Yes. Sergeant Webb said "Can you explain what you are doing with it". GRAVES said "I am taking a load of blankets to Catford". The two Sergeants then spoke together and Sergeant Webb said to Graves "I have been drinking with some friends". Sergeant Webb asked him who his friends were and GRAVES said "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night". He paused and then added "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit but I am not saying who he is". Sergeant Webb then said "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen". GRAVES said "I don't think so".

I then said to DUDLEY and GRAVES "I am not satisfied with your explanations, you are going to be arrested and taken to the Police Station where you will be detained pending enquiries". I cautioned them. GRAVES said "I don't know what it is all about". DUDLEY did not reply. They and the lorry were taken to Carter Street Police Station.

The Canadian Military Police Headquarters were then informed of the detention of DUDLEY and GRAVES and later Staff Sergeant Major, R.C.M.P. Canadian Military Police attended and took both men into his custody. I handed to Staff Sergeant Major the print I had obtained from DUDLEY.

This statement is true.

Flying Squad Office,
New Scotland Yard.
9th October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Albert WEBB, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At 8-15 P.M., 8th October, 1944, I went with Detective Sergeant Cook and other officers to Walworth Road, S.E., where I saw an Army lorry Index No. GL-762820.

We approached the lorry and saw Dudley in the driver's seat. Sergeant Cook told him we were police officers and said, What are you doing here? Dudley said, "I am waiting for my sergeant. He has gone to get something to eat." Sergeant Cook said, "Where are you from, where are you going, and what load have you got?" Dudley replied, "I've come from Aldershot and I'm taking blankets to Watford." Sergeant Cook pointed out that Dudley was miles out of his route and Dudley said, "I am only acting on instructions. Asked where his sergeant had gone to he said, "I haven't any idea."

We looked under the tarpaulin covering of the lorry and saw piles of blankets. Sergeant Cook told Dudley he was not satisfied with his story and that he would have to verify his statements. Dudley then handed Sergeant Cook an Army form giving particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford. Dudley said, "This is my authority." Sergeant Cook told him that further enquiries would have to be made and Dudley said, "I will tell the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself. My sergeant told me what to do and where to go."

Leaving an officer in charge of the lorry we kept observation in the vicinity and saw Dudley and Gretrix come from the direction of the Serpent & Crown and endeavoured to climb into the lorry. We then went to them and I said to one, "Are you police officers." He said, "Yes." I asked him if he was in charge of this lorry." He said, "Yes." I asked him what he was doing with it and he said, he was taking a load of blankets to Watford. I then asked Gretrix if he could give an explanation as to where he had been during the previous two hours and he said, "I have been drinking with some friends." I asked who his friends were and Gretrix said, "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night. He then added, "Am a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my unit. I am not saying who he is." I then said to him, "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen." and Gretrix replied, "I dont think so."

Sergeant Cook then said to Dudley and Gretrix, "I am not satisfied with your explanations. You are going to be arrested and detained pending enquiries." He cautioned them and Gretrix said, "I dont know what it is all about." Dudley made no reply.

They were both then taken to Carter Street Police Station with the lorry and later Staff Sergeant Milner, C.I.B., Canadian Military Police, attended and took both men into custody.

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. R-64118, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.
"A" Wing, M.T. Sect., No.1 C.G.R.W., C.R.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. WILSON, of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY

STATES:

On 4 OCT 44 around dinner-time I was working on my truck, No. L-969820 in the workshop at my Unit when one of the other men in the M.T. Section came to me and asked me if I would like to make myself some extra money. He is a friend of mine and I don't want to say his name and maybe get him into trouble. I was broke and wanted to get some money so he has to be able to go on leave, so I said "Yes I would", and asked him how it could be done. He told me there was some stuff to go to London next day and if I would take it in my truck I'd get a cut out of the deal. I said I'll do it, and he told me that if I'd take the truck round to the Blanket Hut sometime during the afternoon next day the Staff-Sergeant in charge of Mob. Stores would get the fatigue men to put on a load of blankets. All I had to do then was drive up to the Garrison Theatre where somebody would be waiting to go on to LONDON with me and look after things from there on. My friend also told me I'd better come out of Work Ticket showing a load of Hospital Blankets for LONDON.

I had two trips that morning - one to the Govt. Siding in ALDERSHOT at 01:30 hrs. and one from 11:30 hrs. to 13:30 hrs. to PITCH and return. When I got back I was installed by Cpl. JEFFS for journey to FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH. He made out my Work Ticket for 15:30, signing it "Keen, Capt." and initialling it "F.J.", as the N.C.O. Despatcher usually does.

After lunch I didn't go to FARNHAM, but took my truck round to the Blanket Store at about 15:30 hrs. as backed up to the door. S/Sgt. FITZSIMMONS (I think that's his name - he's i/c Mob. Stores) came out, I opened up the back of the truck and got in. The S/Sgt. told the fatigue men to start loading blankets. I only said 'Hello' to him, and nothing much more was said. He told the men to count out so many blankets for Despatch Coy., and so many for other Coys. in the Unit. They were all in bundles of 10, and I'm sure the fatigue men didn't know anything about the load. They only obeyed orders. I stacked the blankets inside my truck.

During the Brew Period that morning from 10:00 to 10:30 hrs. I went into the M.T. office while no-one was in there and took a Work Ticket which I made out as instructed, signing it "Keen Capt.". I kept it with me for the trip to LONDON in the afternoon.

I didn't know how many blankets I had in the truck, but when the S/Sgt. said "O.K., that's the lot", or words to that

(Contd. OVER)

words to that/effect, I tied up the tarpaulin and drove up to the Garrison Theatre as arranged. I stopped there, and another Staff-Sergeant
I didn't know came up and got in the truck. I know now his name is S/Sgt. GAUTRIX. He told me where to go from there on, as I didn't know the road past SUTTON BUNDELL. We headed straight for LONDON. I know we went through STEINES and KINGSTON, according to the road signs, but I don't remember much about the roads.
I think we were pretty well into LONDON when he said to turn off and after a lot of turns round fair-sized roads he said to pull up in a street where there were one-wrecks. He said "wait here", and got out for 5 or 10 minutes. I don't know where he went.
After that we did a lot more turns, and I was completely lost.
Once we passed a place where he said: "I was pinched over in there once". We didn't stop any more until we got to the place where the Police found us. I guess it was about 19:30 hrs. when we got there. I knew it was getting dark. S/Sgt. GAUTRIX got out and told me to wait. About half-an-hour later another soldier got into the cab with me and we (S/-) - he said we'll be a little while yet. You'd better get some sort of something to eat. I couldn't see his face in the dark and wouldn't recognize his voice. I couldn't tell from the way he spoke whether he was Canadian or not.
I didn't notice what sort of uniform he was wearing. I went to a snack-bar a little way down the street and when I came back a few minutes later the soldier got out of the cab and said: "We'll be back".

I waited a long time and then both doors of the cab opened, somebody got in the one and said to me what I was doing. I said I was waiting for my chum and he'd gone to get something to eat. They said they were Police Officers and that they'd wait too. After a while S/Sgt. GAUTRIX came back and the Police got out too. I didn't see any other civilians and Police got out too. I didn't know who was supposed to be the bloods. The police told us to drive to a Police Station nearby, which I did. One of them drove with us. They took S/Sgt. GAUTRIX in their car.

I can honestly say that I have never been mixed up in anything like this before in the Army or in civil life, and my crimes in the Army have all been trivial. I only agreed to go it on a sudden impulse because I wanted to make a little money to go on leave, as I'd lost a bit over being 2 days A.W.L. a little while ago. I was only in ALDERSHOT with a girl. Nobody talked me into taking blankets to LONDON. I just didn't stop to think how serious a thing it was. I figured it was safe enough, too, because somebody else was doing the job and I was just driving my truck and didn't even know where the stuff was going.
I'm sorry now I had anything to do with the business.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of reward to come, and it is true. /END.

(SGD) R. J. GRATTAN

STATES:

One day last week, I think it was Saturday Sep 30, 1944, I was in the L[illegible], Stonehope Theatre, Aberdeen, at lunch time in company with, Sgt. Gemmell, N.F., Cpl. Davies, J. and S[illegible] Johns, R.T. all of No.1 CSRW. Sgt. Gemmell stated that he knew of some blankets on which we could make some money if we could dispose of them.

On Sunday, 1 Oct 44, we were all in the Sgt's Mess (Block) No.1 CSRW we again discussed the blanket proposition. Cpl Davies said that he might be able to get rid of them. It was decided that Sgt Davies would contact him in order to see if arrangements could be made. It was decided that when we arrive in the Elephant and Castle district that 1900 hours. In the taxi station there, Sgt Davies made inquiries in the vicinity about a place to go, where Davies knew we would take the blankets. The taxi man told us of one and we went to the Black Prince public house. We went for there to the Black Prince public house, where Sgt Davies went up to some fellow [illegible] Fisher Black and they had a whispered conversation together, I did not overhear what was said but Sgt Davies said that he would take around 500 blankets if we could deliver them and that he would pay 7/6 a piece for them. He told us this after the conversation. We were to bring them up on Thursday Night and to meet him in the Black Prince. This Civilian would be about 40 years old, Five Feet Eight Inches, stocky build, reddish complexion, finger stubble, thick lips, I noticed the necks with brown coat over the waistcoat look you in the face. He was wearing a grey check cap with light brown stripes running through, a cheap dirty blue suit (light) of serge cloth, white socks and tan brown shoes.

We left the Black Prince and proceeded to the King's Head where we saw the [illegible] "Pop" as Sgt Davies told us he had already seen the man he wanted. He is quite [illegible] about 5' 6". He needed a shave as he had light grey stubble. He was wearing a black coat. I think he is employed in the Elephant and Castle tube station but he said that he had been sick and that he expected to get discharged soon, on this account.

RMG

After a couple of drinks we went back to the flat to [illegible] with "Pop" and Sgt Davies had a couple more words with [illegible] there was another civilian with him but I would not recognise him again. We spent the night in London and returned to Aldershot the next morning.

That morning I saw Sgt Gerrell and told him everything had been arranged. He said arrangements would have to be made for transport. Later in the day he saw us and said that arrangements were being made for the blankets to be ready on Thursday. Sgt. Gerrell, Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies and myself usually go into the Stenhope N. ..P.I. every day at lunch time and one day I think it was Wednesday Sgt. Johns said that transport had been arranged for the blankets on Thursday. We were together that day at noon, and Sgt Gerrell went over to talk to Capt Hicks. He then called us over and Wiskinskins said that everything was all arranged. Sgt Davies was to go to London with the truck load of blankets and Sgt Johns and I were to get him in the Black Prince. He had a letter addressed to Mr Ed Con Sen Kapp of Watford, covering shipment of 1000 blankets which would accompany him on his journey. Later it was arranged that I should go to London with the truck and the letter was handed to me so I should know where it was from. Sgt Johns and Davies would meet us on arrival at about 1630 hours in the Black Prince. We left in truck No 1 7ton GS outside the Garrison Theatre, Aldershot at 1600 hours and Wiskinskins was there to show the driver how and where the blankets were coming from. All I knew was that Wiskinskins was arranging to get them.

I met the truck at 1600 hours as arranged and we passed through Strins, Kingston, Clapham Junction to the Elephant and Castle where I had some difficulty in finding the Black Prince. We had to cruise for approximately half an hour in the area before I found the right pub. I stopped once at a Black Prince but it was closed and decided it was the wrong one. We then proceeded along the tram lines and stopped again in front of a public house station after which I found my bearings and knew where the Black Prince was situated. I parked the truck in a side street near the pub and left the driver in the cab. I went into the pub, Sgt Davies and Sgt Johns [illegible] there yet but a civilian who knew Wiskinskins was there answered the phone. We came in about an hour later and I received some arrangements but went back by another [illegible] between 20 and 2030 hours to [illegible] I would recognise Wiskinskins again if I saw him but not the other civilians.

While we were in the pub I gave Sgt Davies 6 shillings for the driver to go for supper. Sgt Davies stayed with the truck while he was away at about 1930 hours, he came back about 20 minutes [illegible] and I took him out some cigarettes and oranges. I don't know the lad and never saw him before in my life.

After we got [illegible] Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies, and I went by tube to the west end to see if we could get [illegible] store the blankets, we tried in a pub near Oxford Circus without success and took a Taxi to some club or other that [illegible] about one left him there while Sgt Davies and I went back to the truck by Taxi. I was to follow the Taxi back in the truck. Sgt Davies talking to the driver and when I pressed [illegible] truck a couple of plain-clothes police officers stopped me and asked what I was doing. I said I was going back to Aldershot and said I had better come with them and I went with them to a police post near by. Another officer followed with the driver in the truck. Later S/Sgt Nelson of the CIS came and took me and the driver back to No 6 Provost Detention Room, he questioned me for some time as to if I had any business in London with the truck and blankets which I replied "No".

I have never been concerned in anything of this kind before except for one case of selling 1000 cigs. But I was [illegible] one needed money, and knowing that I was not directly concerned with the taking of the blankets, nor did not know the persons to whom they were going, I thought I could get enough money to go on leave. It was my job to direct the driver to the correct place, the arrangements being left to the others. I did not realize how serious an offence of this kind could be, or I would not have had anything to do with it.

STATES:

At some time after the return of 1 CGRU to ALDERSHOT it came to my knowledge that there were in the Unit three or four thousand surplus blankets. I am not sure who first told me about it. It may have been CQMS MISKIMMINS: but I was under the impression that this was common knowledge. It was mentioned several times.

Ever since last August when we were at Witley Camp, GRATRIX, Sgt JOHNS and I have been drinking somewhat heavily. About a month ago I asked Maj. LAWRENCE, O.C., Clerks' Coy., if he would post me to the Field. This was to get away from the associations and drinking habits I had formed. I was afraid that sooner or later it would get me into trouble. As I was Chief Instructor he wouldn't consider this posting at that time.

On Thurs., 28 SEP 44, after 13:15 Parade, [illegible] and I went down to the "Wellington" Public House for a drink. We had been in the habit of doing this for some time. We had a few too many and didn't get back to the Unit until about 18:30 hrs., when we learned that Maj. LAWRENCE had been enquiring for us and we'd be in trouble. Next morning Maj. LAWRENCE informed us that we were to be Reinforcement Strength. Automatically I had to revert to A/S/Sgt. to Sgt., and commenced Basic Training [illegible]

On Saturday, 30 SEP 44, between 15:00 and 17:00 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS and I were alone together in our quarters at Bks. Bks. when S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES came in. They had been drinking, but we had not had a drink all day. We were all just about broke and the question of how to raise some money cropped up. I said: "Well, there's some buckshee blankets over in the Quartermasters' Stores" and from there on there was just some general conversation about the possibilities, although I think no-one had any serious idea of doing anything about it. Certainly I didn't myself.

Next afternoon, Sunday, 1 OCT 44, the four of us were together drinking again in the Sergeants' Mess. JOHNS had borrowed a couple of Pounds. The subject of selling blankets cropped up again and we were discussing the possibilities of disposal. Sgt. DAVIES said he knew of a man in LONDON who might take them. Later he and S/Sgt. GRATRIX went off together to LONDON and next day in the Mess at noon they told me that the arrangement for disposing of 1000 blankets had been made in LONDON and asked me to see CQMS MISKIMMINS about it.

see Him until next day, Tuesday, 3 OCT 44, in the NAAFI, when all I said to him was: " If you're interested in disposing of some blankets those guys over in the corner will handle it", indicating S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES. I had not discussed the subject previously with CQMS MISKIMMINS, and that is all I said to him at the time. I had one drink with him and left the NAAFI, as I was due for Parade. Sgt JOHNS was there with the other two. CQMS MISKIMMINS said that it was OK with him if they could arrange it, and that he would see them next day about it. That night in the Mess I told them what he had said when they asked me about it.

Next day Wednesday, 4 OCT 44, I went along to the NAAFI at noon and joined S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt DAVIES at their table for a glass of beer. Later CQMS MISKIMMINS came in and joined us. The matter of disposal of blankets was discussed and I was told when I asked that transport had been arranged. MISKIMMINS suggested that they be picked up at the laundry next day, as had been arranged, but I didn't know when I left them where they were to come from or at what time.

Next day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at noon in the NAAFI, I was looking over a Racing Sheet with MISKIMMINS and figuring if I could place a good bet with a Bookie who comes in there. S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. DAVIES came over and final arrangements about the blankets were made. S/Sgt. GRATRIX had a letter which I recognize as the one in your possession. I had not read it, but I knew its contents. I do not know who wrote it. A truck was to pick up the blankets that afternoon, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX or Sgt. DAVIES was to go up to LONDON with the driver. I did not know what driver or what transport would be used. Next day I learned that GRATRIX went with the truck and that Sgt. DAVIES and Sgt. JOHNS went up together by train to meet him in LONDON. I heard also that GRATRIX and the driver of the truck got pinched.

On Friday noon in our room, Sgt. JOHNS told me that the givvy in LONDON who was going to take the blankets didn't turn up. He went over to a Club in the West End to try and find some other way of disposing of them, but when he got back the truck was gone.

I did not go to LONDON and had nothing to do with the deal other than as the above. I didn't know exactly how much money was in it, or how it was to be divided. Some time during the week Sgt. DAVIES said there was 7/6 apiece coming in for the blankets, and GRATRIX said Six Shillings. To my knowledge no detailed division of the proceeds was discussed. Had they chosen to give me a cut out of the deal no doubt I would have accepted it, as I was pretty well broke. I had no doubt that they would come through with something, as I had knowledge of the project from the start, although I took no active part in the business once the others got started on it. I have been living and working with S/ Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. JOHNS over a period of two years, and have always been on the best of terms with them. It is only natural, therefore, that I would not give them away when I knew what was in the wind. After the arrangements had been made I did not like the set-up too much, and did not myself wish to become too deeply involved. By then, however, there was little I could do about it. I am sorry now that I had anything to do with it at all, as I have never been mixed up in anything of this kind before.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to some and it is true. (SGD) R.A. GEMMELL 10 OCT 44

STATEMENT OF:

Regt. No. D-91032, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C.,
Trade Test Board No. 10 (Clerks), H.Q. C.R.U., Att: 1 CCRU.

On Monday or Tuesday S/Sgt Gratrix, Sgts Johns and Gemmell and I discussed the matter again and it was decided that some effort be made to obtain transport for the blankets. On Tuesday Sgt Gemmell and I went to see a friend of mine at another unit who might have been able to help but he refused to have anything to do with the transaction. The person who was eventually responsible for arranging the transport I do Not know. There was some talk about getting the blankets from a laundry.

On Thursday morning, October 5th, 1944, I drafted a letter addressed to No 23 Cdn Gen Hospital concerning an imaginary shipment of blankets to that Unit. I thought it would cover the load of blankets en route to London. On it I used a fictitious file number and signed it L. Skinner Lt. I know of no such Officer and used the first name that came into my head. The letter you have in your possession is the one referred to in the previous sentence. In the NAAFI at noon I saw S/Sgt Gratrix and the two other Sgts and passed round the letter for their comments. It was suggested that I accompany the load of blankets to London, but for various reasons I declined and S/Sgt Gratrix volunteered to do this, and he took the envelope (which I had addressed) and the letter. I was not aware of the final arrangements for picking up the blankets. At approximately 2.30 p.m. S/Sgt Gratrix came to my office and requested permission from QMS Martin to have me leave early as he wanted me to assist him with some clerical work he was doing at Woking. At 3.30 p.m. I left the office to go to the Clerks Training Wing and it was then arranged that I go by rail to London with Sgt Johns to meet S/Sgt Gratrix at the Black Prince. We left on the 4.16 p.m. train and met S/Sgt Gratrix, as arranged soon after opening time.

For some time we sat in the pub drinking beer, and I took five shillings from Staff Gratrix to the driver of the truck which was outside in the street to let him get some supper. Ginger came in about 7.30 p.m. and said 'hasn't he turned up' - no name was mentioned, meaning the man who was to take the blankets. He left the pub, apparently to find the man in question, but sent back a message by a stranger, that he couldn't be found. I suggested that the truck and blankets return to Aldershot where they came from, but owing to the difficulties of that procedure it was decided to explore the possibility of making other connections. We visited several pubs and finished up in the West End at some pub or other where Sgt Johns met some people who were interested. He stayed there with them while Staff Gratrix and I went back to get the truck, hiring a taxi for the journey. When we got there, S/Sgt Gratrix went over to the truck and I gave instructions to the driver of the cab to turn around so that the truck could follow us back. We went round the block to do this and when I got back the truck and Staff Gratrix had gone. I returned to Sgt Johns and told him what had happened, so we went to Streatham for the night, returning to Aldershot in the morning.

The agreed price was 7/6d each for the blankets. Transport was to have cost £40 or £50 and I understood that the remainder of the proceeds was to be split between Staff Gratrix, Sgts Gemmell and Johns, myself, and whoever supplied the blankets.

The whole plan was evolved whilst I was under the influence of liquor, and it was through drinking activities that I had got behind financially and seized on this method of getting myself straightened out. If I had been in a sober frame of mind, I would not, under any circumstances, have considered being a party to any such undertaking, as I have never been connected

STATES:

On Sunday, 1 OCT 44, during the afternoon, I was in the Sergeants' Mess, No. 1 C.G.R.U., in company with S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. GEMMELL. We had all had quite a few drinks by then, and being more or less broke, the question of how to get some money became the subject of conversation. I remember that someone mentioned that there were 4,000 puckahas blankets to be had in the area. I don't remember who said this, and I never did hear where the blankets were supposed to be. There was quite a crowd in there, and the matter was not discussed at any length. No-one else heard this conversation. I suggested that I thought the Black Market was rife around the Elephant & Castle and so without any delay, S/Sgt Gratrix and myself were delegated to sound out the possibilities.

About a year ago I was in the Elephant & Castle district and there was a man who had suggested that any time I had anything to sell it was possible to make connections in that locality. He was addressed by one of his friends at the time as Ginger Cheek and was wearing a grey check cap. He would be about fifty years of age and about five foot nine inches in height. He had light hair and reddish complexion with a ginger/ish whiskers (stubble). He was clean shaven and I think he had a cauliflower ear. I know he was rather uncouth looking and wore a blue suit with a white scarf.

That evening S/Sgt Gratrix and I went to the Elephant and Castle district and after having a few drinks at various pubs entered the "Black Prince" and the "Ginger Cheek" (described above) was in the pub. It was suggested to him that we had a number of blankets to sell, and he replied that he was not in a position to handle them. Another man entered the pub and I would describe him as follows:-

Foreign appearance but spoke with a Cockney accent, middle age, height about 5' 9", black hair swarthy complexion, thin face, clean shaven, wearing trilby hat and dark overcoat. He came over to our table and commenced a conversation with S/Sgt Gratrix. I did not hear the topic of the conversation and once when I made a remark I was told to "shut-up" by the civilian. At this stage I was quite drunk having been drinking since 12 o'clock noon. Gratrix was comparatively sober as he had not been drinking to any extent owing to stomach trouble. We left the pub at closing time and went to Streatham, to spend the night, and on the way home I understood that it had been arranged that the blankets could be disposed of.

STATES:

I have read over the statement of L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J., dated 7 OCT 44. I see we don't agree about several small matters. I met the Warden named "Pop" to whom he refers about a year ago last Summer, when he found a bed for myself and a pal of mine down the "Elephant and Castle" tube station one night when we were stranded. To the best of my knowledge he has never been mixed up in anything criminal. The man named "Ginger" did not agree to take the blankets, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX is definitely wrong when he says so. Otherwise, as far as it concerns me, and to the best of my knowledge, his statement is correct.

I have also read the statement of L-16184, Sgt. GRIDELL, N.A., dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that apart from a few minor details the substance of his statement seems to be correct.

I only went to London for a steak supper at Greatrix's place. I went to a club in the West End and got a girl friend of mine to phone up a garage to store the truck. When I told her there were blankets in the truck she phoned again and none of them would have no part of it. I had nothing to do with arranging transport. I have been drinking heavy for the past three or four months since leaving Witley. I remember being with the others but did not always know what they were talking about. When I am drinking I can do my job but forget what people say to me. I figure Greatrix is O.K. Gemmell is close as can be. Gemmell always talked alone to Eskimons. Davies is O.K. STATES:

I am C.S.M.S. I/C Accommodation Stores, No.1 C.G.R.U., where I have been for 4 years in the same position. I have always worked hard to keep all Barrack Stores in good order, and have never at any time disposed of stores to outside individuals. Before the war I worked for 16 years for T. EATON & Co., TORONTO, in the Creamery Dept., and left there in excellent standing.

About two weeks ago a new Reception Coy. was formed in 1 CGRU and my O.C., Capt. LAKE, instructed me to collect all surplus blankets throughout the Unit for the use of this Coy. These are all accounted for on the "Long Roll". We do not as yet keep Coy. Inventories. I started at the beginning of last week with Medical, General, and Despatch Coys., keeping over 1000 in the Blanket Store to be laundered. Next morning, 4 OCT 44, I took 1000 of these blankets to the Hale Laundry in FARNHAM. I don't remember which truck or driver was detailed. I made two journeys. My Storeman, Pte. GOLD, and Mr. SHOWS, i/c R.S.A. Stores and his staff knew I was going to do this, and of course our M.T. Section knew what I was doing.

The following day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 13:30 hrs., I took the truck and driver I had all morning round Unit Lines to FARNHAM, where I collected 800 clean blankets, in bundles of ten, leaving 200 to be collected later. I put them in the Blanket Store.

Upon my return Pte. GOLD told me that Reception Coy. required a lot more blankets, and as I had requested another truck at lunch-time, when I was told I could have the first one that came in, and having despatched the one I had to another job, I told Pte. GOLD to remain in the Blanket Store, where he was working, and to start loading the first truck which arrived. I went back to my office and on my return at about 15:30 hrs., I found a truck there and gave Pte. GOLD and the Driver a hand in loading on the blankets. I'm not sure how many were there, but I kept back about 150 in the hut. I distinctly remember telling the driver to take them to Reception Coy., within Unit Lines, and Pte. GOLD heard what I said. I went off then about my business, and the first I heard that anything was wrong was next morning, when Capt. LAKE asked me what trucks I had had booked out to me and said that one had been found up in LONDON the night before. I had no reason to think that any blankets were missing, and the first I heard of this was when my Charge was read by Maj. MacLEAN.

Contd.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is true./ENDS

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

10 OCT 44

SECOND STATEMENT of:

Sgt. No. B-88151, CHARLES HISKENSENS, W.
RAF Wing, No.1 C.G.R.U., C.R.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGT) W. HISKENSENS.

STATES:

I have read over the statements of B-88151 Sgt. HISKENSENS, W., DUDLEY, R.D.F., dated 6 OCT 44, LeClei, S/Sgt. CHARLES, R.A.F., dated 7 OCT 44, and Lelelas, Sgt. [illegible], dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that I didn't mention anyone by name, but would no doubt recognise the man or men who took the blankets last Thursday. I did not take him to where the blankets are anywhere but to Reception Hut, although I never go to Reception Guy. In any case.

I would know S/Sgt. DAVIES, Sgt. [illegible], Cpl. DAVIES if I saw them in Rouen, but I do not know their names, and have never had anything to do with them. I have known Sgt. JOHNS as "SMOOKE" for about a year, but have never had much to do with him. Never at any time, in a section the subject of blankets to any of them, nor discussed with them their disposal nor sale. I have no reason why they should ever bring up the subject to me, or to anyone. It is possible that they may have mistaken [illegible] for me, but I don't think for a minute they would be [illegible] of anyone else in my [illegible], and I have told the best of my knowledge.

I do remember being in the NAAFI last Monday or Thursday week at noon (2 or 3 OCT 44), and a newspaper showing the runners in a horse race last Saturday, and went over to a table where SMOOKE and three or four of his friends were sitting. I sat down for a minute on the [illegible] beside their table and told them I had a good thing for the Third Race - "CALYP". I don't know what they made; but I finished my beer and went to dinner. I was only in there a few minutes. I wasn't taking any bets - just passing on a good tip. I'm interested in horses, but don't play them much just a shilling here or there when I get hold of a good thing.

I want to repeat that this whole business has been a shock to me because, never at any time have I been guilty of disposing of stores to any unauthorised person whatsoever.

I have read over the above statement, which was made voluntarily, without fear of any threats or hope of reward to come, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT OF:

Sgt. No. L-11161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J.
Clerks' Coy., No. 1 C.S.R.U., C.A.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I hav been cautioned by S/Sgt. WILSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) R.J. GRATRIX

STATES:

I have read over the statements of L-16134, Sgt. CARROLL, J.C., dated 10 OCT 44, D-91078, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and S-68481, CQMS MISKIMMINS, W., dated 12 OCT 44, and wish to state that prior to the occasion I mentioned, lunch-time on Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I never discussed the question of blankets with CQMS MISKIMMINS, nor did he discuss it in my presence. Further, the letter which Sgt. CARROLL says I had - the one which you took from me in LONDON - was passed round amongst the five of us. Who all read it I don't know, but it was not in my possession until later in the afternoon, when it was given to me by Sgt. DAVIES.

On the Sunday night DAVIES and I went to LONDON (1 OCT 44) I visited the Black Prince and Kings Arms Public Houses, Chobham and Castle, for the first time in my life. I had never frequented that area. To my knowledge no arrangements were completed that night between "Ginger" and Sgt. DAVIES. "Ginger" was certainly arranged the disposal of the blankets. The civilian described by Sgt. DAVIES whom "Ginger" called over had a short conversation with "Ginger", but when Sgt. DAVIES interrupted, this man told him to "shut up" and left. The topic of conversation I do not know. I had never seen "Ginger" before and had no part in the arrangements for disposing of the blankets.

CQMS MISKIMMINS was at the same conversation at which the letter mentioned above was produced, and certainly knew of all the arrangements as to the loading and the intended destination (LONDON) of the blankets.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour, and it is true./ HMM.

STATES:

I have read over the statements of O-91008, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and B-39681, CQMS HENDRICKSON, dated 12 OCT 44. I have no comments to make concerning the first.

Concerning the statement of CQMS HENDRICKSON I can only say that he was fully aware of the arrangements to get the blankets away from the Unit as I stated before. He was more responsible than anyone.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true.

M.T. Sect.,

STATES:

On 5 Oct 44, at 01:30 hrs., I was detailed for Government Sidi Abdallah, but the detail was cancelled and my next detail, with MOL stores, at 08:30 hrs., was overwritten at the same time of my Work Ticket. I was driving all morning within that time for CQMS MISKIW/ICZ. I was not particularly busy. I didn't handle any furniture.

After lunch at about 14:00 hrs., at the direction of CQMS MISKIW/ICZ, I drove him to the Hale Laundry near FARNHAM and picked up 200 blankets which we brought back to Blanket Stores at 1 C.G.H.U. Pte. Kenny TOOLE went with us and also Pte. GOULD. Other work in the day.

After I delivered the blankets, CQMS MISKIW/ICZ told me I would not be needed further, but to stay on number 8/C [illegible] where we worked at stores, and then ride back to the unit. That was around 15:00 hrs. I did this, and checked in my vehicle, C.G.H. L-76761, at 16:30 hrs. I had one more trip to Abingdon Station that day.

I know what is in the above statement, and it is true.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I am not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

STATES:

I am Corporal Despatcher in the Transport Office, No. 1 C.G.R.U. On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, just before dinner, Pte. DUDLEY, who drives L-[illegible] came to see me in the office and said CQMS MCELHINNEY would be needing another truck that afternoon to get blankets from the Hale Laundry near Farnham and asked if he could have the detail. I had no objection of any ulterior motive on his part, and just said "OK".

At approximately 15:00 hrs. in the Despatch Office I received the request for another 60 cwt. truck for FARNHAM and FARNCOMBE from CQMS MCELHINNEY. He already had one 60 cwt. with Pte. CLARK at Mob. Stores. He said he wanted another to get blankets at once, but I put it down to an incoming [illegible] and put it down to get it in the morning when one big truck could serve both. I did not request any particular driver, but I knew I was going to be busy, and decided to get at about 15:30 hrs. I made out his Work Ticket for the journey. I know nothing about the other Work Ticket you have in evidence. particulars for VARPORT. It is not genuine. He must have pinched it and made it out himself. I still had no reason to suspect his actions, and the first I heard that he was reported mixed up in any trouble was next morning, when he was definitely not in on to have been picked up in LONDON. I was definitely not in on the deal, and have never at any time been mixed up in anything illegal in any crime where Unit transport may have been used.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour, and it is true. SGD

Officer taking summary

6th Aug/44.

Statement by:- B-11[illegible], Gnr Woods, A.C.

Sir:-

On the 5th of Aug/44 I was detailed to take the Lob. Stores Sgt to Witley. We went to Witley and arrived there about 0900 hrs. We did numerous Barracks duties around the Camp. We then came back to Aldershot. We arrived back at Aldershot at about 1200 hrs. When we got back to Aldershot the Sgt said that he had to have the vehicle in the afternoon and would have to think up some way to wangle it. He then told me to report back to the garage and he would want me again at 1300 hrs. Then he said after you park the truck come to the N.A.A.F.I. and I will buy you a beer. I went to the N.A.A.F.I. and I had three (3) pints. I bought myself a pint and him. He bought the others. I then received a late meal unit from the Messing Set for a late lunch at Gorrunn Man's Mess. After lunch I picked up the Lob. Stores Sgt at his quarters in Gorrunn Barracks. He then got in the vehicle and said take me to Camberly. I drove him to where he wanted to go. I had explained to him that my work Ticket was not made out for Camberly. He replied; Oh that won't matter we won't be stopped anyway. The route I took to Camberly was via Cove. This brought us out by the Public House known to me now to be called by a male likeness. The Sgt said pull in here. This I did. He then said you can have a drink. I went inside and he bought me two (2) pints of beer. The time was about 1400 hrs. He then left the Public House and told me this way. He directed me to a Fish shop near Camberly where I was to stand. He went inside and had a glass of Pottney of his girlfriend lived. He then said take me into Camberly to the girlfriends and I will only be about 10 mins. After he came out from talking to the girl he directed me to return to Aldershot. We arrived back in Aldershot at about 1530 hrs. The Sgt then started to look around the Barracks for the Messing Set. We first went into Gorrunn Set's Mess. While there, the Messing Set bought me a half (½) pint of beer. The Set then said that we had to go to Maida Sgt's Mess. When we got there he told me to come in. The Lob. Stores Sgt then bought me a pint of beer and after I had it I noticed that there had been oil put in it. We then left the Mess and went to the Messing Stores. Unloading a tank went away and collected. Then we had tea. I drove the two Sgts to Gorrunn Set's Mess and they bought some beer. They brought this out to the truck in a box. The Lob. Stores Sgt then told me to get in the truck and take the Messing Set to Witley. This I did. When we got to Witley I was directed by the Sgt to a house near the Princess Laundry. The Sgt got out; took the box that contained the beer with him and went in the house. He was called me. He gave me two half pints of beer. The time was about 1630 hrs. I then returned to Aldershot and the Lob. Stores Sgt as he had directed that I do this when I returned. I found him at his quarters. He was just getting cleaned up. When he had finished I was told me to come and have my supper. This I did in the Sgt's Mess Gorrunn. The time by now was about 1830 or 1900 hrs. The Sgt then said he wanted to go to Camberly. Then we got to Camberly he took me to Pub where we had a pint of beer that he bought. He then said take me to the Red Lion. We then directed me to it. (We had tried another one before this but it was shut). When we got to the Red Lion he bought me three Gins and Three pints of beer. I then took him to his girl friend's house in Camberly. The time was about 2130 hrs. He then said thats all I want. I then started for home. I came home via Cove. On the way to Cove I stopped the vehicle as I did not feel very well and thought I had better straighten myself up. I must have gone to sleep for a short while. When woke up I started right back for Camp. I arrived back at about 2340 hrs.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION 18 OCT 44

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-112533, Gnr. WOOD, A.C.,
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No.1 CGRU, CRU Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, any may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) A.C.WOOD

STATES:

I have been a driver at No.1 C.G.R.U. for over a year. I have never had much trouble in the M.T. Section, but on 6 AUG 44 I was driving Cpl. HISKINS who is N.C.O. i/c Hob. Stores at the Unit. He got me into trouble by taking me on a lot of unauthorized journeys and also getting me drunk. On 6 OCT 44 I was paraded before Capt. KEEN, my O.C. I made to him a statement which he typed out and which I signed. It is the statement you have in your possession. The Hob. Stores Sgt. referred to is Cpl. HISKINS.

While I was driving him that day (I can't remember just when), Cpl. HISKINS said to me: "See my wife and get a chance you and I are going to make ourselves some money on some blankets. We'll get about forty or fifty pounds apiece out of it". He meant that he wanted to get me to deliver some blankets for him some place where he would sell them. I didn't know what the set-up was, and made no promise. I didn't think very seriously of the idea and heard no more about it from him or anybody else. He never said anything that day when I was with him; but when I heard last week that my friend Rfn. DUDLEY was caught with a load of blankets I figured who it was who got him to take them in his truck.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

16 OCT 44

STATEMENT OF:

Rogt. No. L-414, Gnr. GOULD, E.G.,
"A" Wing, 1 C.G.R.U.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) E.G.GOULD

ST.TED:

I am attached to Reception Stores, 1 C.G.R.U., where, with one short absence of about 8 weeks last Summer I have been for about a year. I am a storeman in that Department.

On Thursday, 6 OCT 44, I was working at the Reception Stores all day. I can't quite remember what I was doing during the morning, but after lunch I was at the Blanket store emptying pulliases in company with Pte. TOZER, E., another Storeman. GNR MCKECHNIE came over and told us to load 1000 dirty blankets into a 60cwt. truck driven by Dvr. OLSEN. We had about 1200 there in bundles of 10. At about 14:00 hrs. GNR MCKECHNIE, Pte. TOZER and I went with the truck-load of blankets to the M.D. laundry near FARNHAM and left the blankets there to be cleaned. We thus loaded 800 clean blankets for return to the Unit. We always overload 1000 blankets at a time at the Laundry.

The reason why we did not take the full load back was that there was a big job of loading to be done, it was raining hard, and we couldn't get over the trucks without getting the last ones wet. GNR MCKECHNIE made arrangements to collect the remaining 800 and on the following morning.

We got back at about 16:00 hrs., and TOZER and I unloaded the blankets into the store. Dvr OLSEN drove his truck away. About half-an-hour later another 60cwt. truck up to the store. GNR MCKECHNIE arrived on his bicycle about the same time and said we had to load 700 clean blankets for Reception Coy. TOZER and I were a bit sore, having just unloaded them, but GNR MCKECHNIE and the driver, to whom I paid no attention, gave us a hand, and I counted out the bundles. The driver stacked them in the truck.

I distinctly remember GNR MCKECHNIE telling the driver: take that to Reception. They had a large party over there, so we didn't go with the truck, but GNR MCKECHNIE followed the truck away on his bicycle. The driver never said anything at all. We worked fast because it was getting late. I do know that Reception Coy. had been hollering for blankets for several days. TOZER and I just went on working with the pulliases, and that's all I know about it.

At no time did I any reason to suppose that the blankets were to be taken elsewhere than to Reception Coy.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No. 1 C.G.R.U., CRU Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY

STATES:

I have read over the statement of B-96927, Cpl JEYNES, J.C.M., dated 13 OCT 44, and wish to state:

The man who asked me if I wanted to take the blankets to LONDON, and arranged it all for me was Cpl. JEYNES. I was willing to take the rap myself, and the only reason for not saying who he was at first was to keep him out of trouble if I could. I'm no squealer.

All I said in my other statement is true, except that I didn't steal the Work Ticket. During the afternoon after he spoke to me about the job Cpl. JEYNES came to me and gave me two work tickets. One he had made out as a sample for me to copy, and the other, which is the one you have, was blank. He told me to fill it in like the one he made out, and to destroy the sample for his protection. I did this that afternoon, and put the one he made out down the toilet in the Provost Lines opposite the Garage.

Cpl. JEYNES also told me I'd get about £15 for the job, and I figured he'd get a good cut out of it as well. He said: "You know who's running this, don't you?", and I said: "I have a pretty good idea" and left it at that. I figured it was CQMS MISKIMMINS, and I'm sure that's who he meant. That day he told me to use his truck and make sure I had enough.

I was busy that day like I said on a draft job. The first item was to get the blankets from the laundry at FARNHAM, but when I didn't get back till 14:00 hrs, he said: "Never mind, you can pick them up at the Blanket Store", and made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 hrs. He knew I had the other one to cover me for the LONDON trip.

I never asked Cpl. JEYNES for the job - he asked me in the first place and fixed it all up himself. I never did any jobs before for CQMS MISKIMMINS (taking stuff out, I mean) but I kind of figure others have, and I know Gnr. WOODS got caught over him once on a buckshee run when they got him drunk and he got back late.

I have read over the above statement, which I have made of my own accord, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is the truth./ENDS

(SGD) J.C. JEYNES.

STATES:

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 09:30 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS, of Clerks' Coy., 1 CCPU, came to me in the Despatch Office, M.T. Section, where I am in charge, and asked me if I could fix him with a big truck to take some blankets to LONDON. I asked him how long it would be needed and he said from about 16:00 hrs to 19:30 hrs. I said I'd let him know later, but he said he'd have to know before 2 o'clock. He said there would be about 700 blankets and that the driver and I would receive about £40 between us, depending on what they got itr them. He didn't say who else was in the deal, but as the blankets were coming from Mob. Stores, I concluded that CQMS MISKIMMINS was in it. I told him I'd fix it for him unless some emergency arose and I'd have to cancel it. He gave instructions that the truck was to be at the stop-lights in FARNHAM just below the Sale Laundry at exactly 15:55 hrs., when a Sergeant would be there to direct the driver. He didn't say what Sergeant. I stipulated that there was to be no drinking on the trip. I told Sgt. JOHNS to expect No. L-762820, as that was the logical vehicle for the job. He said "O.K.", and left the office.

I immediately left the office to contact Rfn. DUDLEY, the driver of the 60 cwt. L-762820, and met him outside the office. I asked him if he wanted to take a buckshee trip to LONDON, and mentioned that there would be roughly £15 in it for each of us. He agreed to take the trip, and I told him I'd fix up a sample of a work-ticket for him to make out to cover his journey. I gave him his directions as instructed, warning him also against drinking, and be careful with his driving. I picked DUDLEY because I knew him and knew I could trust him. He doesn't know LONDON, but I figured somebody would show him the way.

I returned to the office, and when I was alone I stamped two blank Work Tickets, making one out for DUDLEY to copy. I stamped it several times so that it would be unusable. At about 10:00 hrs. I met Rfn. DUDLEY at the Workshop door and gave him the two work-tickets with the warning that the sample work-ticket must be destroyed after he had copied it. He agreed to do this, and I told him that he was on his own hook once he was on the road with his vehicle. I later advised him to see he had enough gas. He did a trip to ALTON, and I gave him his Work Ticket for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH to cover his through the area at 15:20 hrs. I can remember no change of plan, and he must have received instructions elsewhere to go to Blanket Stores.

The driver for Mob. Stores that day was Pte. [illegible], who was on that job the day before, and was warned last night that he would be needed again at 08:30 hrs., 5 OCT 44. At no time during that day was any call received at the Transport Office from Mob. Stores for another vehicle. Rfn DUDLEY was sent solely in consequence of the request of Sgt JOHNS that morning. I knew nothing of any further arrangements connected with the deal.

When I made my first statement on 13 OCT 44 I figured that to tell all I knew would do nobody any good. Now I feel it isn't fair for Rfn. DUDLEY to take all the blame. I have read his statements, dated 6 OCT 44 and 19 OCT 44, and with the exception of the differences I have pointed out above, his statement is correct to the best of my knowledge. I am quite sure that he has never been mixed up in anything of this kind before. Neither have I.

STATES:

I am attached to Reception Stores, 1 COMD, where I have been working since JUNE, 1944.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working in connection with Reception Stores all day. I was with Mr. DONALD ELLINGSEN at the Blanket Store emptying palliasses. At noon CPRL MISKIMMINS, who was i/c Reception Stores, told us to be at the Blanket Store at about 14:00 hrs., as we were going to get blankets for the Base Laundry. PARNHAM, having taken a shower there the day before. When the truck arrived driven by Pte. CPRL MISKIMMINS, Gnr. DOYLE and I went with it to the laundry at DUNDAS, where we started to load clean blankets in bundles of ten. CPRL MISKIMMINS said we were going to take 700, so I presume that's how I started loading. When I had loaded 400 he said we better stop loading. But I hadn't piled them very thickly on the truck, so I was but I hadn't piled them very thickly on the truck, so I was only at 800 or 900. I have no idea exactly how many I was taking the full thousand, but he said that is enough. I was thinking that any, and if I'd put on more than 800 they'd have got wet at the back of the truck.

We brought the 800 blankets and unloaded them into the Blanket Store, and the truck went away. Gnr. DOYLE and I went on working on the palliasses for a half-hour or so, when another 30 cwt. truck, driven by Pte. DUDLEY, pulled up. I asked him what he wanted, but he didn't seem to know, and said CPRL MISKIMMINS wanted him to report there. A minute or two afterwards CPRL MISKIMMINS came up on his bicycle and told us to load up 700 blankets for Reception Coy. We thought that kind of funny because we could have taken them straight over in the first place, but he said that's what they wanted now, so we just got busy and loaded them and the driver stowed them in the back of his truck. Gnr. DOYLE counted them as CPRL MISKIMMINS's instructions. I didn't hear any instructions given to the driver, but when we had finished loading at about 16:30 hrs. the truck pulled away with the blankets, and that's the last I saw of them. I figured they were for Reception Coy., and CPRL MISKIMMINS told us we didn't have to go with the truck because there was a Petligne down there to unload it. I had no reason at all to suspect that there was anything wrong, and just went on with my work.

When the truck was/loaded I began to feel a bit guilty and said to the driver, Pte.
DUDLEY: "Slip, take that to Reception Coy. To Hell with it!" He said:
"O.K., Bill", and drove off. He looked a bit scared, too. I thought he was going to do as I said, and even went down to Reception Coy. on my bike to see if he was there. I would have had them unloaded right there, the way I was feeling, honest to God, but he didn't show up.
Neither Ptes. GOULD or TOLAND knew what was going on, and I really meant what I said to the driver. I knew something had gone wrong next morning when Capt. L.MB called me into his office to ask me about the truck which was missing. That is all I had to do with the deal, and I'm sorry now that I ever had any part in it. I was not short of money, and I honestly don't know whatever made me consent to it.

It is true that Reception Coy. needed more blankets, as those I had previously sent were dirty, and had to be replaced by clean ones. Some fellow I don't know turned me off a few days previously that the police in ALDERSHOT were watching for a blanket deal that was supposed to be coming off, and that is why I was getting a bit scared about the whole thing.

The statements I previously made are partly untrue, because I know I had a surplus to cover the loss and I thought that I might be relieved of blame.

I admit that for a long time past I have been scrounging stuff to make good deficiencies in the Unit, but I can truthfully say that apart from the above two instances, when I disposed of stores to Sgt. SMITH, I have never sent anything to unauthorised persons, or sold or disposed of stores to civilians. I don't think that a complete Unit inventory would show any shortages in my equipment. It might even show a surplus.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, of my own free will, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour from any person or persons, and it is all true.

c Col D.L. Redman,
PERMANENT PRESIDENT, Courts Martial
HQ CRU.

G.C.M. - Tpr Dudley

1. At the recent Court Martial of the m/n OR, he declar that he had been threatened by myself, as officer taking the Summary of Evidence. He called, as witnesses, six ORs on whom a Summary was also being taken.

2. I feel that in view of his evidence, an explanation is required.

3. The nature of this threat was that I had stated that I would make a pitchfork out of the evidence against them by laying a great number of charges.

4. The facts are: when Dudley and the remainder of the accused appeared before me 1 Nov 44 for the purpose of taking a Summary of Evidence, I carefully explained to them their rights at the Summary; told them that if they had witnesses for the defence they could call them or not as they pleased; told them that in due course they would be given an opportunity of making a statement in regard to the charges but that they did not have to do this and also advised them as to their rights in cross-examining the witnesses. I then read the charge sheets to them; explained to them that the charges now laid against them were not necessarily the charges which would finally be laid; explained also that it was quite probable that more than one charge would be laid against them depending upon the evidence brought out at the summary.

5. At this point Dudley himself asked me why more than one charge would be laid and whether it was legal to do this. I told him that it was and in order to make the position clearer to him I stated that Law was like a pitchfork, that in committing a crime a man frequently runs afoul of one tine of the fork and at the same time runs xfxxx into another, pointing out to him that he was charged with stealing blankets, that apparently his share in the crime was to drive a veh to London and that in doing so he laid himself open to a possible charge of illegal use of the veh. This is an explanation of the 'pitchfork' phrase, about which the accused talked at Dudley's trial.

6. I have taken a great many Summaries of Evidence and have always been particularly careful to explain the exact position of the accused. In this case I was even more careful than usual because of the serious nature of the charges. I took the greatest pains to see that all the accused thoroughly understood what was going on. Whenever any witnesses referred to any of the accused by name or when any evidence was brought out mentioning any of the accused, or in any way affected them, I invariably called the attention of the man concerned to the fact and once more explained to him that at the end of the witnesses' evidence, he had the right to cross-examine him. I was particularly careful to do this in the case of Tpr Dudley, who obviously had only a vague idea of what was going on, and in the case of Sgt Johns, against whom the evidence was not particularly strong, but who was affected because all the witnesses mentioned his name and all of the accused, except himself, had made statements involving him. None of the accused were in any way prejudiced in their defence by anything stated or done at the Summary. All of them were treated with great fairness and consideration and the entire Summary was taken in the strictest accord with the Rules of Procedure.

7. For your information, please.

F.C.C.M. - Tpr. Dudley

1. At the recent Court Martial of the m/n OR, he declared that he had been threatened by myself, as officer taking the Summary of Evidence. He called, as witnesses, six ORs on whom a Summary was also being taken.

2. I feel that in view of his evidence, an explanation is required.

3. The nature of this threat was that I had stated that I would make a pitchfork out of the evidence against them by laying a great number of charges.

4. The facts are: when Dudley and the remainder of the accused appeared before me on 1 Nov 44 for the purpose of taking a Summary of Evidence, I carefully explained to them their rights at the Summary; told them that if they had witnesses for the defence they could call them or not as they pleased; told them that in due course they would be given an opportunity of making a statement in regard to the charges but that they did not have to do this and also advised them as to their rights in cross-examining the witnesses. I then read the charge sheets to them; explained to them that the charges now laid against them were not necessarily the charges which would finally be laid; explained also that it was quite probable that more then one charge would be laid against them depending upon the evidence brought out at the Summary.

5. At this point Dudley himself asked me why more than one charge would be laid and whether it was legal to do this. I told him that it was and in order to make the position clearer to him I stated that Law was like a pitchfork, that in committing a crime a man frequently runs afoul of one tine of the fork and at the same time runs into another, pointing out to him that he was charged with stealing blankets, that apparently his share in the crime was to drive a vehicle to London and that in doing so he laid himself open to a possible charge of illegal use of the vehicle. This is an explanation of the 'pitchfork' phrase, about which the accused talked at Dudley's trial.

6. I have taken a great many Summaries of Evidence and have always been particularly careful to explain the exact position of the accused. In this case I was even more careful than usual because of the serious nature of the charges. I took the greatest pains to see that all the accused thoroughly understood what was going on. Whenever any witnesses referred to any of the accused by name or when any evidence was brought out mentioning any of the accused, or in any way affected them, I invariably called the attention of the man concerned to the fact and once more explained to him that at the end of the witnesses' evidence, he had the right to cross-examine him. I was particularly careful to do this in the case of Tpr. Dudley, who obviously had only a vague idea of what was going on, and in the case of Sgt Johns, against whom the evidence was not particularly strong, but who was affected because all the witnesses mentioned his name and all of the accused, except himself, had made statements involving him. None of the accused were in any way prejudiced in their defence by anything stated or done at the Summary. All of them were treated with great fairness and consideration and the entire Summary was taken in the strictest accord with the Rules of Procedure.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans NO - SIR (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (his) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(Q).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1) NOTE-MADE
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the 2nd and 3rd charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the 2nd and 3rd charge(s), ~~and allowed on the charge(s)~~, and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed ~~on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s)~~.(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. F.G.C.M. IN THE CASE OF

C 12524 CSM DUDLEY, W.G., 1 CASCRU

18 OCT 1944

OBJECTION BY THE DEF OFFR (to 3rd Charge) Note A-9

Sir,

Before the accused is asked to plead to the 3rd Charge I wish to object to it on the ground that the charge is not in accordance with RP, and in fact the accused is being asked to plead to two charges arising from a single transaction. In this regard I refer the Court to MML, Page 624, Sub note 3. I refer the Court further to MML, Chapter 3, para 47; taking into consideration the 1st Charge which I have not objected to. I submit for the consideration of the Court that in this case any evidence which might be advanced by the Prosecution in order to prove that the accused did, in the words of the 3rd Charge, "consititute a nuisance" or that he did use abusive language, or that he did become quarrelsome, all of which I do not admit but deny. I say it is merely a repitition of any evidence which might be adduced to prove the charge of drunkenness. Therefore I submit that in effect what the charge sheet discloses are two charges arising from one single transaction. I raise this point under RP 32.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTOR

Sir,

I leave this legal question to the Court.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE OBJECTION

COURT IS RE OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE OBJECTION IS OVERRULED.

The accused was then arraigned on the 3rd Charge.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt R.H. TURNBULL, on strength No 1 CASCRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q 1 Will you tell the Court what took place on the 6 Oct 44 in connection with CSM Dudley?

A 1 On the 6 Oct I was unit field offr and during my tour of duty at about 2215 hours I was visiting the guard room where I signed the visitors book when a runner came in and said the RSM requested an escort to remove the accused, CSM Dudley, whom I see here, from the sgts mess. I sent the runner back to the mess to tell RSM Shaw that the CSM should be removed to his quarters with an escort of equivalent rank. In a few minutes the runner returned with a message and as a result of it I proceeded to the sgts mess accompanied by the camp Sgt Major for the day and two L/Cpls who were members of the RP. When I arrived there I had conversation with the RSM concerning the removal of the accused. I proceeded into the sgts mess and into the bar where I found the accused leaning against a mess table. I could see that he had been drinking but he was leaning against the table and I could not judge as to what extent. I informed him that I was the field offr of the day and he replied "I am very pleased to meet you, will you have a drink with me" I informed him that I was there on duty and at the request of the RSM I was going to remove him to the guard room, to which he replied "being a WO I am entitled to an escort of my own rank and to be placed in my own quarters."

I explained that I was quite within my rights placing him in the guard room for his own protection. I then instructed the escorts, the L/Cpls of the RP to remove the accused to the guard room. In doing so one L/Cpl took hold of the CSM's arm which he resented very much, and pulled his arm away saying he was quite able to walk. I then instructed the escort to remove him immediately. I remained for a few minutes in conversation with the RSM, then I proceeded to the guard room. At the guard room the accused again brought up the question of his rank and asked if he could have the CO's decision. I went into detail and explained that it was laid down that any rank in the army, commissioned or otherwise could be placed in the gard room if he became boisterous or intoxicated. I took a great deal of time to explain the situation to him and told him it was for his own protection that he was being placed in the cells. When he got away from the table in the mess I saw that he was very drunk. After explaining to him and he still wished the CO's decision I went to the CO's residence and explained the circumstances as I knew them, I was instructed by the CO to place CSM Dudley in a separate cell. I returned to the guard room and gave the CO's instructions to the NCO IC the guard, the accused appeared to be satisfied with the decision and was placed in a cell.

Q2 You mentioned that the accused was in a very intoxicated conditio did you see the accused in any other capacity as being quarrelsome?

A2 I walked into the ante room and he was standing peacefully leaning on the table. I believe it was a card table. He was talking to no one. He was not quarrelling with anyone.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEP OVTR

Q3 In your evidence you stated that at approx 2215 hours you first received word that the RSM requested two RP?

A3 Yes.

Q4 Approx how long elapsed from the time you first received word from the RSM until you acutally saw the accused?

A 4 I would say it would not be more than at the very outside 5 or 6 minutes from the time I first received the request until I arrived personally at the ante room of the mess. It is a very short distance from the guard room, I would say 200 yards.

Q5 Taking a fair estimate you then saw the accused at no later than 2220 hours, is that correct?

A5 Yes.

Q6 At no time prior to 2220 hours had you seen the accused that evening?

A6 No.

Q7 When you arrived at the mess was there a great crowd?

A7 There was no one in the front of the mess, I walked into the hallway and asked for RSM who appeared at that moment. I went straight into the ante room after a bit of talk with the RSM and asked him if he could handle it himself, I went straight into the ante room. There were three CSMs, the RSM, and seven or eight s/sgts and sgts in the mess at the time. I am sure there were three CSMs.

Q8 Did you at any time arrest the accused or did you place him under protective custody?

A8 I did not arrest him, I understood that the accused had been placed under arrest by the RSM, I merely removed him from the mess and placed him in the guard room. I did not place him under arrest. I had no reason to place the accused under arrest he had done nothing to warrant it as far as I was concerned.

Q9 Did you see the accused walk out of the mess?
A9 Yes, he left walking with the two L/Cpls, RPs following him and followed by CSmp Sgt Major, S/Sgt Kemp. The escorts did not place their hands on him again except as the accused was going through the door one of the cpls put his hand on the accused shoulder, the accused said "I am not going to run away" and the three went out the door.

Q10 you are acquainted with the road on which they would follow towards the guard room KRMXMMXX from the mess, are there any trees along it?
A10 Yes there are XX large trees on either side.

Q11 Was it a dark night?
A11 Yes it was very dark and we had no flashlight, it was very dark.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(3)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
C 30123 RSM C.J. SHAW, on strength No 1 CASCRU, having been duly sworn states?

Q12 Will you tell the Court what happened on the night of 6 Oct 44?
A12 On the evening of Friday 6 Oct 44, I was present in the bar of the s ts mess of 1 CASCRU. At approx 2100 hours the accused, whom I see here CSM Dudley, entered the room and came over to me where I was sitting in the corner of the room, and asked me if I would have a drink which I declined, with thanks as I had a drink before me at the time and did not care to have another. It appeared to me from the actions and manner of the accused that he had been drinking, but he was quiet and told me he thought he would go to bed early. The accused left me and went over to the bar and down to the far end of the room to where CSM Comely, whom at that time was president of the mess, Comley was playing cribbage with another member and there were two or three others looking on. The accused interferred with the playing of the game which finally broke up, the accused then directed his attention to CSM Comley, it seemed to be unwelcome. I noticed the accused putting his arm around Comley's shoulder and appeared to become abusive. CSM Comley tried to break away and I heard the accused ask Comley to leave the room and fight him. I left my position in the corner and went to the bar and sugested to the accused that he go to his room as he had mentioned to me previously that he intended to do. He agred but failed to act. At approx 2125 hours I left the bar and went into the ante room to see how preparations for tea were progressing. At approx 2130 hours I again went into the bar to try and get the attention of the accused and induce him to go into the ante room and have some tea, he said he would but still did not do so. I returned to the ante room and had some tea, I sat down and saw shortly afterwards the accused dragging CSM Comley into the ante room. CSM Comley managed to get free in the vicinity of the door and I sent for CSM Guerin who rooms with the accused, to see if he could induce the accused to go to his room, Guerin was unable to do so and I then tried to persuade the accused to go to his room and he told me that he wanted some tea, I suggested th t if he would go to his room I would arrange to have tea and sandwiches sent to him, in fact I did arrange to have it taken to his room, but I was unable to have the accused go to his room. My efforts continued and the accused became abusive to me he said, in fact, "I don't give a fuck for you or Col Bonnick" I placed the accused in open arrest and sent for CSM Guerin t see if he could get the accused to go to his room. This Guerin was still unable to do. At approx 2215 hours the accused was still in the ante room and I gave him, before witnesses, a direct order, having told him that I was going to give him a direct order to go to his room. To this he replied that he would not go until he was ready or words to that effect.

I then sent for the RP as it appeared to me that I was unable to find two CSMs who were able to control him. Word came from the guard room that the fd offr Capt Turnbull was there and that I was to find two WOs of the rank of the accused to attend to the matter, I sent work back to the Guard room that I was unable to do so and I still requested the RPs, then the fd offr Capt Turnbull with the Camp Sgt Major and two of the RP arrived at the mess. Capt Turnbull placed the accused under close arrest and directed him to go with ~~him~~ two WOs of his own to the guard room, the accused refused and was taken to the guard room by the RP accompanied by the fd offr and the Camp Sgt Major

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q13 The accused was a member of the Sgt Mess at the date in question
A13 Yes Sir.

Q14 When was the last time you had seen the accused before the night in question?
A14 At lunch the previous day.

Q15 Before that?
A15 The accused had been on leave in Ireland I understood, and I had not seen him recently.

Q16 Was he still on leave?
A16 Yes Sir, but if he stayed around camp very long it would be cancelled, however at the time he was on leave and had no duties to perform.

Q17 You stated in your evidence that the first time he walked into the mess at 2100 hours the accused appeared to be quiet.
A17 Yes Sir.

Q18 Have you ever seen any kibitzing in any mess, which might be termed as interferring with the game?
A18 Yes Sir.

Q19 The first time you saw the accused was at 2100 hours I presume and you did not think he was drunk?
A19 I have said in my evidence that I thought he had been drinking.

Q20 But I sugrest to you that at that time even though you knew or suspected him to have been drink you did not honestly think he was drunk?
A20 He appeared to have been drinking considerably, it is sometimes hard to tell when a man is drunk.

Q21 When approx was the first time you tried to induce the accused to leave the mess?
A21 About 2115 hours.

Q22 That was before tea?
A22 Yes Sir.

Q23 And the second time you tried to induce him to leave the messwas when?
A23 At approx 2130 hours, I re-entered the bar and tried to induce the accused to leave the bar and go into the ante room and have tea.

Q24 You did not place him under arrest at 2100 hours?
A24 No Sir.

Q25 Then subsequently a 3rd time you tried to induce him to leave the mess?
A25 Yes Sir, that would be between 2145 and 2200 hours.

Q26 At 2215 hours, according to your evidence, you gave the accused a direct order, did you not?
A26 I said approx 2215 hours, it may have been before that.

Q27 What order did you give him?
A27 I warned the accused that I was going to give him a direct order, and I said to him, "go to your room" and the accused replied that he would not go to his room until he was ready, or words to that effect.

Q28 Would you swear to that, that he said "I will not go to my room until I am ready" or did he say "I will go to my room when I am ready"?
A28 I will not swear to it, to the best of my belief it was "I will not go to my room until I am ready".

Q29 You say in your evidence that Capt Turnbul arrived in the mess and placed the accused under arrest, did you place the accused under open or close arrest?
A29 I placed him under open arrest previously to Capt Turnbull's arrival. Capt Turnbull placed him under close arrest.

Q30 You placed the accused under open arrest and Capt Turnbull placed him under close arrest?
A30 It was my intention to place him under close arrest when I had the means to do it, it was not my intention to call in the fd offr.

Q31 How long have known the accused?
A31 Approx 4½ years, since Jul 1940.

Q32 Before arriving at 1 CASCRU did you ever soldier together?
A32 Yes Sir.

Q33 That was when you first knew the accused?
A33 Yes Sir.

Q34 At the time you first met the accused what was your rank and what was his?
A34 I was a pte and the accused a sgt.

Q35 While the accused was confined to his quarters did he have any visitors?
A35 ~~[illegible]~~ the fd offr and the camp sgt major visted him each day and to my knowledge he did not have any other visitors.

Q35 In other words you would not have objected to him having visitors?
A35 I would have objected.

Q36 Is it in fact possible that the accused did have visitors and you subsequently called CSM Dusgaut up before you and instructed him that the accused was not to have visitors?
A36 That is right.

Q37 What authority did you have for that order?
A37 My own authority, I considered that CSM Dudley should not have any visitors and I issued the order accordingly.

Q38 Have there been any previous cases of misconduct in the sgts mess at 1 CASCRU?
A38 This is the first charge that I recall, but at a unit dance a sgt became boisterous just after the dance while the unit was up north.

Q39 Was subsequent action taken?
A39 There was, he was called before a meeting of Wing SMs and CSMs and suspended from the privileges of the bar for one week.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

F 27755 CSM GUERIN, M.D. on strength No 1 CASCRU having been duly sworn states:

Q40 Will you tell the Court just what happened on the 6 Oct 44 in connection with this case?
A40 On the 6 Oct 44 at about 2150 hours I arrived in the sgts mess ante room. On my arrival there I was immediately approached by the RSM with the request to take the accused CSM Dudley, whom I see here, to his room. I endeavoured to do so but the accused was not in the mood to come with me and go to his room. I reported this to the RSM and then went to my room hoping that the accused would follow me down as he shares the room with me. I was not there ten minutes when RSM Shaw sent for me with the request that I take the accused to his room. I tried again and got no response, I then informed the RSM that it was hopeless. Later on at about 2210 hours I was in the ante room where the RSM and the accused were the RSM ordered the accused to go to his room, he failed to do so, and later on the fd offr came in and he spoke to the accused and then called two RPs who were outside the mess to come in and take the accused away.

Q41 In your opinion would you consider the accused drunk?
A41 He was certainly under the influence of liquor, he was unsteady on his feet, he spoke with a slur, but he understood me when I asked him to come to his room. I would not say he was terribly drunk.

Q42 Did you have any connection or see any scuffle going on in the mess?
A42 He raised his voice several times, he seemed to be making the usual noises that a drunk man makes. I did not pay any attention to him as I have seen many a man in the same state and have paid no attention to them whatever. I saw no actual quarrelling going on.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q43 What time was it when you arrived in the mess?
A43 About 2150 hours, which was the first time that I saw the accused.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR NOTE D-4

Sir, I would like to move that the Prosecution has failed to provide a prima facie case on either the 2nd or the 3rd charges. On the 2nd Charge, under Sec 9(2) AA, stating "disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer" in that he did not leave the sgts mess when ordered to do so by CM Shaw." The time stated is approx 2215 hours. In order to est a prima facie case in these particular circumstances the Prosecution has to prove

(1) That a command was given.
(2) That it was a lawful command.
(3) That he was a superior officer that gave it.
(4) The Prosecution must est disobedience.

The question is, therefore, did the accused refuse to obey a lawful command?

I submit the only way the Court can arrive at a decision is by examining the evidence of the witnesses. The only evidence worthy of consideration by the Court on this charge is the evidence of RSM Shaw. On examining his evidence what do we find? We find an RSM making three separate and individual attempts to induce, and I repeat, induce, the accused to go to his room. The fourth time the RSM stated he gave him a direct order, on cross examination we find that the order was given in this way "go to your room" it was not "go to your room at once" or "go to your room immediately" as anyone can reasonably expect after three attempts trying to induce him to leave. It was just "go to your room", that was the command and what is the response? did the accused say "no I will not" according to the evidence of the RSM the accused either said "I will not go to my room until I am ready" or "I will go to my room when I am ready" In any event there was not a direct refusal by the accused as is required by Sec 9(2) of the AA. Immediate ~~dix~~obedience to the original command was not demanded by the RSM and immediate obedience was not given. In this respect I would like to refer the Court to P 434 MML, under Not (1) which deals with Sec 9 AA. I submit that at 2215 hours or there abouts when RSM Shaw states he gave the accused an order, when taking into consideration the three previous times trying to induce the accused, he was labouring under a mis-apprhension and for that reason I submit that no prima facie case on the 2nd Charge has been established.

On the 3rd Charge, i.e. An act to the prejudice of good order and mil discipline, etc. The charge is that the accused did consititute a nuisance, where a man consititutes a nuisance is always a matter of opinion. If we are going to place very strick interpretation on the term "nuisance" I suggest many an efficient NCO and many an efficient officer in the army would be considered a nuisance by his men. Coupled with the accusation of being a nuisance we have CSM Dudley accused of using abusive language, looking at the evidence, what abusive language have the Prosecution proved that the accused used. The accused expressed a certain opinion, but he was not abusive to the RSM. According to the RSM's evidence he says, and I do not like to repeat the term, he said the accused said "he did not give a fuck for me". He did not call the RSM any names, he merely said the equivalent of "I donot give a dam for you". He did not abuse the RSM or degrade the RSM's ancestors. As a mat er of fact there was only one course and abusive word used by the accused, according to RSM Shaw's evidence.

And now we have a further charge that the accused became quarrelsome. And the Prosecution is again forced to rely on the evidence of one witness, once again RSM Shaw. I do not believe and I submit that there is not a prima facie case made against the accused, to show that he became quarrelsome. I submit that there might have been a bit of horse play, but that is usual in messes, and if charges must be backed by evidence and in this particular case there should be more evidence to back one than has been produced in this Court today. RSM Shaw states that Capt Turnbull placed the accused under arrest Capt Turnbull says that he did not, therefore I submit that the accused was actually illegally detained since night in question, he has never been placed under arrest. RSM states he was unable to have an escort yet Capt Turnbull swears he saw three CSMs in the mess. RSM Shaw said further that Capt Turnbull ordered the accused to leave with two CSMs, Capt Turnbull says he did not. Further you have the evidence to the fact that the RSM objected to the accused having visitors in his room. He objected to the accused having visitors!!! I submit that you can thumb your way through MML until you are black in the face and you will not find any provision for such an order, that a CSM can not have visitors while undergoing or rather while under close arrest, even if he had been under close arrest. That is the kind of evidence that the Prosecution unfortunately have to rely on to establish a prima facie case against CSM Dudley. And I submit that in view of the fact that the only substantial evidence that might have gone part way to proving or establishing a case on the 2nd and 3rd Charges is the evidence by one man, and his evidence has been impeached by the other witnesses of the Prosecution. I say it is the duty of this Court to uphold the motion that no prima facie case has been est on the 2nd and 3rd charges and dismiss them.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTOR

Sir,

It is very seldom that we have such a case as is presented by our learned friend, the Def Offr, but I am sure that the Court will not be carried away by such an eloquent speech.

With regards to the 2nd Charge, disobedience to a lawful command, I contend that the RSM did give a lawful command, and that it was not obeyed. The RSM's evidence is before the Court, there is no possible reason for disbelieving it.

The language used by the accused was abusive, it was abusive both to the RSM and to the CO. I don't intend to answer the long and tiresome motion by the Def Offr as I am sure that the Court have the answers to his points before now. I leave the decision in the hands of the Court feeling that the accused should be called upon to answer to the charges against him.

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER BEFORE THE FINDING Note D-6

1st WITNESS AS TO CHARACTER

Major A.C. MORRIS, on strength No 1 CASCRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am OC "F" Coy, 1 CASCRU, I know the accused, he is CSM Dudley. On Apr of this year I took over "F" Coy and the accused was the CSM of that coy. I have known CSM Dudley all the time and have found him most reliable and a very efficient worker at all times. I have seen nothing detrimental to his character. Other officers I know that have known him speak very highly of him, he appeared to get along well with those under him.

Prosecutor declines to cross examine this witness

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING:

Sir,

On the three charges that the accused is on I think I have produced sufficient evidence to show that he is guilty as charged. The witnesses evidence is before the Court and I don't believe I have anything to add to their evidence. I am quite sure that the accused was drunk, and the evidence I produced has proven it.

~~DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING:~~

~~Sir,~~

~~I am going to ask the Court to listen to~~

DEF OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Sir,

I am going to ask the Court to listen to the argument on the 1st Charge and couple that with and reconsider my former argument on the 2nd and 3rd Charges. The first charge is one of drunkenness. Drunkennes in mil law must of necessity be a question of opinion. There are two methods by which a mil court can judge drunkenness (1) is by evidence opinionated evidence by witnesses:and (2) is by the actual actions of the accused. In this particular case we have the RSM's statement that in his opinion the accused was drunk. On the other hand we have CSM Guerin, who was deliberately called in by RSM Shaw stating that although the accused had been drinking, a fact which at no time in this trial we have tried to deny, nevertheless the accused was not drunk. Capt Turnbull said that in his opinion the accused had been drinking, then turned around and under cross examination gave very valuable evidence to contradict his own statement, there, I submit that one method of forming an opinion is by listening and judging the evidence of the witnesses. We have the main witness for the prosecution, RSM Shaw, who the Defence has attempted to prove has been vindictive in this case, given the most damning evidence against the accused, therefore, I submit that the Court, when considering the opinion given by that RSM should couple with it the consideration that facts brought out by the cross examination. And in rebutal of the RSM's evidence we have CSM Guerin which would leave a question of doubt in the mind of the Court, but we can go further than that, we can use our own senses to judge for ourselves, the accused can be proven drunk in, I would suggest two ways (1) that his physical incapability of doing certain things and (2) that he was not in full possession of his mental faculties. Dealing first with the physical incapability we have definite evidence before the Court that the accused actually walked out of the sgts mess into a pitch black night and proceeded down the dark road unaided. I submit that if the accused had been drunk he could not possibly have down that without help. Regards to his mental faculties, I submit that any man who is in such possession of his faculties that he can bring up the definite points of mil law and custom of service to his advantage is not drunk. I refer to his telling the escorts to keep their hands off him, I also refer to his calling to the attention of the fd offr of the day that he was entitled to be placed in his own quarters. A drunk man, I submit would not have the mantal faculties necessary to make such a statement.

So much for the charges individually.

If the Court does not wish to find the accused guilty on the three charges I have a further submission to make. And this submission is to the effect that if the Court find the accused guilty on the fist charge, namely drunkenness they would and are estopped from finding the accused guilty of the 2nd and 3rd charges. Assuming for the purpose of argument and for this purpose only, that the accused was drunk, when we look at the 2nd charge we discover that in order to know exactly what was going on the accused would have to be sober and under a misapprehension of a command is grounds for finding the accused not guilty, I submit that if the accused was drunk he could not possibly have refused to obey a command.

Likewise if the accused was drunk, he could not have intentionally constituted a nuisance and any abusive language which he might have used could not be taken into consideration against him on a different charge. In other words any evidence that the prosecution have brought out to prove the 3rd charge is merely evidence as to his drunkenness. Drunkenness is a continuing offence and I would respectfully call the Court's attention to the time factor which is xxxx very important in this case, you will notice that the accused is charged with being drunk at approx 2130 hours, and then he is charged with disobeying a command at 2115, four to five minutes later and charged with an act to the prejudice etc, between 2100 and 2230 hours. I submit that if the accused were drunk at 2130 hours he could not be h ld responsible and charged with an offence or offences that occur subsequent to that. Equity will not allow the prosecution to xxxxxxxxxx profit by a deliberate laxity of an RSM. In other words the RSM states that the accused was drunk at 2130 hours, assuming he is right, it is the duty xx to take steps immediately instead no such thing was done, if there was personal vindictiveness certainly there was a opportunity for it, sitting by the side lines letting the accused get in deeper and deeper . If the affair had been conducted correctly the accused would have been sent out at 2130 hours and the fact that he might have disobeyed the command he might have been a nuisance and become quarrelsome is due entirely to the laxity on the part of his superior, and therefore I submit in due fairness the Court cannot possibly hold the accused responsible and xxxxxx find him guilty on all three charges. They have to decide on whether or not the accused was guilty on the first charge, if the accused was guilty of the 1st charge he is automatically not guilty on the other two. And the same applies in the other respect, the only way that the accused can be found guilty on the 2nd and 3rd charges is to find him not guilty on the 1st charge. It is for the Court to make up their minds in the light of the evidence adduced.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

COURT IS RE OPENED

PLEA IN MITIGATION

E-3

Sir,

I do not think I would be required to make a plea in mitigation so I made no preparations therefor, But I wish to say -

The accused CSM Dudley, joined the Cdn Army on the 8 Sep 39. But to do justice to the accused I will have to go back further than that. We have at the bar today as the accused a very exceptional man, exceptional in many ways. Firstly and I believe that I am the only one who realizes this, the accused is actually the youngest allied soldier to come under shell fire in the last way. I do not propose to use R Ripley as a legal authority but Ripley has made that contention. The accused enlisted in the Cdn Army (active) at the age of 13 and he proceeded overseas with the Royal Cdn Horse Arty, and was actually under shell fire at the age of 14. Undoubtedly his experiences in the last war left an indelible impression on his mind. On his return to civil life he tried various jobs and businesses and ended up at deep sea diving. Therefore you can see the accused is a very exceptional man. He is exceptional also because immediately before joining the army his job was deep sea diving and was paying him something like $20.00 a day, however he left that willingly and joined His Majesty's Service to fight along with everyone else. From 1939 to 1941 he soldiered in Canada, then he came overseas and has been serving here continuously ever since. As to the man's capabilities .I need go nother further than refer you to his Coy Comd's character evidence. It is a well known fact that being CSM in "x" Coy is no small task, their job often and usually takes them far into the night and early morning, and they must be back on the job next day.

Immediately prior to this unfortunate incident, the accused was given a very well deserved leave. He returned to camp to to collect some money. He was drinking as most of us do on leave and then got mixed up in this incident. The accused is only human, possibly he was drunk on the night in question maybe he was not, but if the accused was drunk I would just like to ask this Court before condemning him to remember that a greater man than any sitting here once said "he, among you who is without sin, let him cast the first stone". And I submit that in view of the accused past record both in the last war and in this that if ever there was a case in which the utmost leniency was not only deserved by actuall demanded, then this surely is the case.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF C-12524 Company Sergeant-Major William George DUDLEY, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st WITNESS (For the Prosecution) Capt R.H. Turnbull, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt R.H. Turnbull, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. At approximately 2215 hours 6 October 1944 I was Field Officer of the day and was visiting No 1 Guard Room. A Runner came to the Guard Room with a message from R.S.M. Shaw that he wanted two Regimental Police as escorts to remove C.S.M. Dudley from the Sgt's Mess to the Guard Room in close arrest. I sent the runner back to the R.S.M. with instructions that C.S.M. Dudley should be placed in close arrest in his quarters with an escort of equal rank. The runner returned in a few minutes stating that R.S.M. Shaw required the Regimental Police as he was unable to provide an escort from persons present in the Mess. Accompanied by Camp Sgt Major of the day and two Regimental Police I proceeded to the Sgt's Mess. I left the Regimental Police with the Camp Sgt Major outside and went into the hallway and met R.S.M. Shaw, he informed me that C.S.M. Dudley was in a boisterous and intoxicated condition and wished to have him removed to the Guard Room. I then took the Regimental Police into the ante-room of the Sgt's Mess where I met C.S.M. Dudley who appeared to be very drunk and was leaning on a table. I informed him I was Field Officer of the day to which he replied, "Very pleased to know you, will you have a drink with me ?" I replied by stating that I was there at the request of the R.S.M. Shaw to remove him to the Guard Room. This he agreed to without any argument other than stating that as a Warrant Officer he was entitled to be taken to his quarters. I then informed him that it was laid down that he could be placed in the Guard Room for his own protection. I then instructed the two Regimental Police to take him to the Guard Room and place him in a seperate cell. While asking C.S.M. Dudley to accompany the two Regimental Police to the Guard Room one escort took hold of his arm, he pulled his arm away stating, "Keep your hands off me I am quite capable of walking." I then instructed the Regimental Police to remove him to the Guard Room at once which they did. On arriving at the Guard Room myself I found C.S.M. Dudley very upset about being locked up in the Guard Room owing to his rank. I again explained to him this was being done for his own protection owing to his drunken condition. He then requested the Commanding Officer's decision. I went to the Commanding Officer's residence, explained what I knew of the case, and was instructed by the Commanding Officer to place C.S.M. Dudley in a cell by himself. I accordingly informed the N.C.O. in charge of the Guard Room of the Commanding Officer's wishes.

2nd WITNESS (For the Prosecution) C-30123 RSM Shaw, C.G., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

I am C-30123 RSM Shaw, C.G., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. I was present in the Blenheim Sgt's Mess Bar of the 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit at approximately 2100 hours on the night of Friday 6 October 1944 when C-12524 CSM Dudley, W.G., hereinafter referred to as the "accused" entered the bar.

The accused by his manner of speech and actions made it quite apparent to me that he had been drinking. He was however quiet, and came over to me and invited me to have a drink, which I declined with thanks as I had a drink at the time and did not care to have another. The accused said he thought he would go to bed early. The accused then left me where I was sitting at the end and side of the bar itself and began to molest CSM Comley, our Mess President and two other members of the Mess who were playing a game of cribbage. His interference was not welcome and it resulted in the game breaking up and the members who happened to be in the room with the exception of CSM Comley, the accused and myself leaving the bar room and going into the ante-room. I retained my seat in a corner of the room. From my position I was able to judge that the conversation the accused was directing to CSM Comley was becoming abusive and very unwelcome to the latter. From time to time the accused place his arm around CSM Comley and became objectionable. I heard the accused try and induce CSM Comley to go outside and fight him. At approximately 2125 hours I went from the bar to the ante-room to see how the preparations for tea were progressing (tea is served nightly at 2130 hrs) At approximately 2130 hours I returned to the bar and tried to induce the accused to leave the bar and have some tea and go to his room quietly. He promised to go but did not act, and continued to abuse CSM Comley. I again left the barroom and had some tea in the ante-room (because the dining room was being painted, the tea was served in the ante-room). Within a few minutes I observed the accused dragging CSM Comley from the bar into the ante-room. CSM Comley then managed to get free. I again tried to induce the accused to go to his room peaceably. He said he wanted to have some tea. I arranged for tea and sandwiches to be sent to his room and told him to go to his room and that the tea would be right down. I sent for CSM Guerin who is room mate to the accused in the hope that CSM Guerin might be able to induce the accused to go to his room. This, CSM Guerin was unable to do. Again I urged the accused to go to his room peacefully, and when he became abusive I gave him a direct order to go to his room. The accused told me he didnt give a fuck for me or for Colonel Bonnick. I placed him under open arrest and again sent for CSM Guerin to try and get him taken quietly to his room. CSM Guerin was still unable to do so. At approximately 2215 hours the accused was still in the ante-room, and I repeated my direct order to him, "Go to your room." before a number of witnesses. I warned the accused that it was a direct order. The witnesses were:- CSM Comley, CSM Guerin. The accused replied that he would not go to his room till he was ready, or words to that effect. I then sent a runner for the Regimental Police as I realized the Guard Room was the only secure place to put the accused, as I could not find any other Warrant Officers of his own rank to control him. The runner returned and said the Field Officer suggested that I find Warrant Officers of his own rank to deal with the matter. I replied that I was unable to do so and still required the Regimental Police. At 2230 hours, Capt R.M. Turnbull, the Field Officer of the day, the Camp Sgt Major and two Regimental Police arrived at the Sgt's Mess.

.....(Cont'd)

Capt Turnbull placed the accused under close arrest and directed him to go with two Warrant Officers of his own rank to the Guard Room. This the accused refused to do and was subsequently taken away by the two Regimental Police accompanied by Capt Turnbull and the Camp Sgt Major to the Guard Room.

P-27755 CSM Guerin, M.D., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

I am P-27755 CSM Guerin, M.D., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, at approximately 2130 hours 6 October 1944 I arrived at Blenheim Sergeant's Mess and immediately upon my arrival I was requested by RSM Shaw to take the accused to his room which I endeavoured to do, the accused did not comply with my request, being unable to get him to accompany me I reported same to the RSM. I went to my room and was sent for by the RSM who again asked me to get the accused to his room, the time being approximately 2210 hours to 2230 hours. I was unable to do so and the RSM then gave the accused an order to go to his quarters and upon this order not being complied with the accused was placed in open arrest. The Field Officer then came into the Sgt's Mess and placed the accused under close arrest. The reason I was ordered to take the accused to his room was on account of him causing a disturbance by his conduct to the other members of the mess. In my opinion the accused was under the influence of liquor.

I am U-1692 CSM Comley, A.J., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. On the evening of 6 October 1944 at approximately 2100 hours I was playing cribbage in the bar of the Blenheim Sgt's Mess. The accused, CSM Dudley, was at the bar at the time. It was apparent that he had been drinking. He was somewhat noisy and obnoxious and kept interfering while I was playing cribbage. He finally succeeded in breaking up the game. At approximately 2130 hours the RSM attempted to get the accused to go for tea. He did not go but insisted on taking me outside. On reaching the door to the lounge we separated. Soon after this had occurred I went in for tea. The RSM and the accused were engaged in conversation just inside the mess hall. After having my supper I went and sat down in the lounge. The accused then came into the lounge and went over and talked to the RSM. I heard the RSM request CSM Dudley to go to his room. The RSM then gave him a direct order to go to his room which he refused to do. Shortly after that Capt Turnbull came in accompanied by the Regimental Police and took the accused away.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decisvn. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of J A see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of J A or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No .(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. No
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 102(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (extract) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by A.A 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex D respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 335 or MFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 158. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes. Very little only.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the J.A. if any~~.
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 46. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 336, 343-344, Overseas RO 309, 1323, MML p 60, 737-739. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 40 (2), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 58(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

CASE OF

D-3 C-45117 Private DUFF, D.S., No.4 VRD, 1 CCOD (RCMC)

FIRST WITNESS

A-17212, Pte ARCHER, M.N., 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, RCOC, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you tell the Court in your own words what you know about this case?
A. Sir, on Mar 12 45, I asked the accused whom I recognize if he would drive my vehicle and return it to the vehicle park for me. The number of my vehicle is CZ-4808693, a 15-cwt. I turned it over to him at the end of the hut at our billets at No. 4 VRD, and he then drove to Farnham where I left him at the station. He left to return the vehicle to the park at No. 4 VRD. I never saw the vehicle till about Tue and this happened on Sat.

Q. Was this trip to Farnham authorized?
A. I had a work ticket.

Q. How long ago was it?
A. About 7 or 8 weeks ago.

Q. What was the occasion?
A. Just a week-end, Sir.

Q. When did you have this week-end?
A. I have had three or four since then. I just said Mar 12 but I am not sure about it.

Q. Did you give evidence on the taking of the summary?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When you got out of the vehicle at Farnham, who drove the truck?
A. The accused, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is it true that you had a work ticket signed by an officer?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did this offr lay on that if you were using a vehicle on a Sat afternoon that you would get a further signature?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Your ticket was legitimate?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was the accused aware of the fact that you had a work ticket when you turned the vehicle over to him?
A. I told him that my work ticket and log book were right in front of the truck on the windshield.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. What date did you say this was?
A. I wouldn't swear to the date, Sir.

Q. Do you remember giving evidence on the taking of the summary?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you give a date when you gave evidence?
A. I don't think I did, Sir, but they told me the date of the accident on the taking of the summary.

Q. Was that date correct?
A. I wouldn't swear to that, Sir. It was on a Sat about seven weeks ago.

Q. You say you told the accused to drive you to the sta?
A. I asked him, Sir.

Q. Where is the work ticket?
A. I don't know, Sir, it was turned in.

Q. Have you seen the work ticket since it was turned in?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Do you know whether it was turned into the office or not?
A. When I went in on Mon morning, my log book and the work ticket were in the office. It must have been turned in.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

SECOND WITNESS

Lt G.E. ALGAR, No. 4 VRD, No. 1 CCCD, RCOC, sworn, states:-

Q. Would you tell the Court in your own words what you know about this accident?
A. On 20 Feb, as result of infm received, I went down to my despatch office to check on a 15-cwt that had been driven by Pte Archer. In the office, I found his log book and his work ticket. This was at about 1920 hrs. This was the vehicle usually driven by Pte Archer I went down to Petersfield's Police Sta. From there I went to Burton Cross-Road, 1 6/10 miles from Petersfield on the road to Horndean. I found Archer's vehicle in the ditch. We claimed it and brought it back to camp.

Q. In what condition was it?
A. It had been damaged considerably; the bumper was bumped up into the wheel, the radiator was smashed, the frame was bent, the vehicle was full of twigs. There was nobody with the vehicle.

Q. When was it?
A. The last Sat in Feb 45, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. In your evidence you said that after checking your record, you noticed that this particular vehicle was out without a work ticket and log-book?
A. I didn't check my unit lines but as result of infn, I went down to Petersfield.

Q. Did you enquire as to when this log book might have been brought in your office?
A. Yes, I asked the despatch that question. He answered that he didn't know.

Q. Is there any system of checking log books in when they are turned in?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Then the log-book could have come in at any time during the afternoon?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How far exactly from the accident is No. 4 VRD?
A. Approx 11 miles, Sir.

Q. Would it take approx half an hour for a vehicle of this kind to cover this distance?
A. No, it would not take that long; it all depends on the speed at which it would be driven.

Q. If this ticket was made out for the Aldershot Area, would it authorise the car to be in Petersfield?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Could the vehicle have been taken out of the lines without the log-book?
A. No, it should have been checked through the guards whose duty it is to see that no vehicle leave without authorization. They are at each gate.

IN OUR OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (3).

THIRD WITNESS

W-95694, Cpl HODGINS, G.S., 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, RCOC, sworn, states:-

Q. What is your job at No. 4 VRD?
A. I am Dvr Mech at No. 4 VRD.

Q. Did you at any time check the damage done to vehicle CZ-4205993, a 15-cwt?
A. Yes, Sir, on 1 Mar. I found the extent of the damage to be to the amount of £14-12-00. The fender was smashed; there was some damage done to the side of the cab and of the body, to the doors and windshields. I just made an estimate.

Q. Do you know how it was caused?
A. It was through an accident as far as I know.

Q. At one time?
A. Yes, Sir.

IN OUR OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (3).

FOURTH WITNESS

Mr. Wm DAINTREY, Causeway, Hornedean, Portsmouth, Hants, sworn, states:-

Q. What are you employed at?
A. I am employed by the Automobile Association as a scout patrol.

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know about this accident?
A. On 24 Feb 45 I was standing at the bottom of Hulses Hill near the telephone box at [illegible]. I heard a crash and looked [illegible] was in time to see a vehicle leave the road, saw a cloud of dust and the vehicle crashed through a hedge into a field on the right hand side of the road. On seeing what I presumed to be smoke, I jumped on my bicycle and went to the scene of the accident. On arriving there, I saw the vehicle in the field and the dvr was trying to start the engine. He was sitting in the cab. I stood there a second or two realizing that the dvr and the occupants were not injured I just left the vehicle and proceeded back to my point of duty and notified the civilian police.

Q. Did you go down to the side of the bank?
A. No, I didn't leave the road.

Q. What was the distance separating you and the dvr?
A. 8 to 10 feet.

Q. Who was the dvr?
A. I couldn't identify him, Sir. I just had a fleeting glance at his face and he turned his head towards the vehicle. I had only a back-view of him. There were one soldier and two sailors [illegible] the vehicle. Mr Treasus and a boy were with the dvr.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did the boy come to the scene after you had arrived?
A. Yes. After I saw the dvr was not hurt, I went with Mr Treasus to see the damage to the telephone pole.

Q. Were the occupants in the vehicle?
A. No, Sir. The dvr was looking at his car, down by the side of the vehicle, turned around and faced his vehicle with his back to me.

Q. Where were the otheroccupants during that time?
A. Over in the field, Sir.

Q. Would you be able to recognize what the dvr was wearing?
A. Ordinary battle-dress without anklets, brown shoes and a brown jerkin.

Q. I show you two jerkins, a brown and a black one, which one would you say it was?
A. (Witness points at the brown one)and says, "This is theone".
EX.
(A BROWN AND A BLACK JERKIN MARKED "A" AND "B" FOR IDENTIFICATION)

Q. HOW FAR were you when you saw the crash?
A. 500 yds.

Q. How long would it take you to get down there on your cycle?
A. 3 minutes.

Q. Were you the first witness to arrive on the scene?
A. Yes, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. How long did the soldier and the two sailors stay there?
A. They either caught a bus or a lorry fifteen minutes later. I never say where the dvr went.

Q. Was the accused wearing high or low shoes?
Brown low shoes, Sir.

Q. Did you notice the socks?
A. He was wearing dark socks.

Q. When did you see them?
A. When he got down from his vehicle, Sir; they were dark-brown socks.

Q. Was he wearing a hat?
A. I can't say definitely, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 86 (3).

FIFTH WITNESS

Mr. Wilfred ALDRED, Laycock & Garrett, Peterefield, sworn, states:-

Q. What is your occupation?
A. I work athedge trimming.

Q. Will you tell the Court just what you know about this accident?
A. Well, I was hedge trimming with my father at about 4 PM on the last Sat in Feb when I heard a crash from Butser Hill. I went over to a vehicle which I saw. I saw it was a Cdn truck driven by a Cdn soldier with two sailors. They were outside the truck.

Q. How do you know he was a Cdn soldier?
A. Well, it was a Cdn truck. The British sailors also told me. The sailors went away. Myself and the Cdn endeavoured to start the truck but to no avail and the Cdn said he had to catch the bus back to Bordon. I saw him signal a private car and got a lift.

Q. Who was this Cdn?
A. He is sitting there (pointing at the accused).

Q. How do you recognize him?
A. From his features. I talked to him.

Q. How long were you with him?
A. From 15 to 30 minutes.

Q. Was anybody hurt in this accident?
A. No, but the dvr had a scratch on the nose and at the back of his neck.

Q. How old was it?
A. It was as a result of the accident.

Q. How long was the one on his nose?
A. About an inch, Sir; just a scratch.

Q. How was he dressed?
A. He had an ordinary battle-dress and trousers on; a leather jerkin and shoes not army boots. I am not quite sure of the colour of the shoes.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You say that at the time you came up to the accident the sailors were standing outside of the vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where was the dvr of the vehicle?
A. He was within the vehicle.

Q. You both got in the cab and tried to start the vehicle?
A. Yes. They had tried to start it before but to no avail. I noticed Mr. Daughtry, the AA Scout and another civilian whom I don't know.

Q. You say the dvr had a leather jerkin?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. (Pointing to EX. "A" and "B") Can you tell me which one of these he had on?
A. It was the dark one, I am not quite sure.

Q. Are you sure about the kind of shoes he had on?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you notice what kind of socks he had on?
A. No, Sir.

Q. You are sure about the scratches on his face and neck?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You say that you attempted to start the vehicle with the dvr?
A. Yes, by myself, with the dvr standing outside.

Q. Did the dvr take anything out of the truck when he went out to catch a ride?
A. No, I nevernoticed.

Q. What damage would you say was done to that vehicle?
A. The front bumper was bent on the right hand side. The fan was stuck in the radiator; the wing on the left hand side of the vehicle was bent and the petrol tank was hanging so the dvr pulled it off and put it in the back of the truck. The vehicle was upright.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Which way was the truck going before the accident?
A. I can't say but I think it was going towards Bordon.

Q. Which way did the dvr go?
A. Towards Bordon.

Q. Did he have his cap off?
A. Yes he had it at first and then he had it off and he put it on again.

Q. What kind of hair did he have?
A. Darkish-brown. He had his hair combed in an unfamiliar way to me. I think they had been cut with scissors not with clippers. It was longer at the centre drawn to the back and close at the sides.

Q. Describe it more?
A. (Pointing to accused) Just like that, Sir. I noticed it because I hadn't seen one just like it before.'

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

DEFENCE

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, sworn, states:-

Q. Would you make a statement of exactly what you did from the time that Pte Archer asked you to drive him down to Farnham Sta up to tea-time that day?
A. At about 12 o'clock that day, Pte Archer came into the hut at 4 VRD and asked me if I would drive him and some other chaps to Farnham Sta. His vehicle was at the corner of the hut and I drove the truck to Farnham and let them off at the sta. On the way back, I had tea at Frecklesham, just off the main road. I came back to Bordon and went down to the YMCA where I had a sandwich and tea and then put the truck on the square. The guard at the gate didn't ask me to show my work ticket. They seldom do. I gave him the number of the work ticket and proceeded to park the lorry on the tpt lines at its usual place. I then put the log-book in the tpt wicket.

Q. Did you see anyone in the tpt office?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you see him?
A. No, his back was facing me. I then proceeded to the hut and then went to the mail and then proceeded to supper.

Q. You say you did go through No. 3 gate without having to sign a guard-sheet?
A. This happens practically any day, Sir.

Q. Were you well known by the guard at the gate?
A. They know us just according to the number of times we go through in a day, Sir.

Q. Is it true that RCEME personnel at 4 VRD take vehicles on tests?
A. Yes.

Q. What do the guards do in their case?
A. I cannot say. You just give them your name and number and they let you go.

Q. Why is this?
A. They see us so many times during the day. There is the odd guard who makes us sign the guard-sheet but there are not many.

Q. Have you very many times taken the log-book in the tpt office and left it there?
A. Yes, Sir, we do that every night. We just go in, fill in our log-book and leave it in the tpt office without saying anything to anyone.

Q. At approx what time did you go through the gate?
A. Between 1415 and 1445 that day; I was in the billets after that.

Q. (Pointing to Ex "A" and "B") Are either of these your jerkin?
A. Yes, Sir, Ex "B".

Q. What colour socks did you have on?
A. Khakki socks, Sir, with black shoes.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Would you be authorised to take a vehicle to Farnham after duty?
A. Yes, Sir to the Aldershot Area. As far as I was concerned the trip was authorized by Lt MacFarlane.

40

Q. Can you explain why your name does not appear on the guard-sheet?
A. I can't explain that, Sir.

Q. Did the guard write your name and number down?
A. I can't say for sure, Sir.

Q. Afterwards you went to your hut?
A. Yes, Sir, to the mail and after to supper.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. At what time did you leave Archer at the gate?
A. I left camp at about 1810 hrs and it would be ½ an hr later.

Q. Where did you have tea at Wrecklesham?
A. I don't know.

Q. Was anybody in the truck with you?
A. No.

Q. Did you give anyone a lift?
A. No.

Q. What kind of shoes were you wearing?
A. Black shoes.

Q. Low or army shoes?
A. Low shoes, Sir.

Q. Were you wearing a jerkin?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You heard the evidence of Aldred that he was talking to you?
A. I was not even around the district.

Q. Who was the man at the gate when you came in with your vehicle?
A. I don't know his name but I know him by sight.

Q. Have you tried to find him?
A. I have seen him since.

Q. You know who he is?
A. Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 88 (3).

SECOND WITNESS

F-5082, Cpl CAMERON, L.E., No. 4 WRD, 1 CCOD, (ROYAL Scots), sworn, states:-

Q. Do you remember the last Sat in Feb?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you see the accused that day?
A. Yes, Sir, I was in my quarters from approx 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock. The accused was playing darts from 2 o'clock on.

Q. You were rooming with the accused?
A. Yes, at that time, Sir.

Q. Were you there while this dart game was going on?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did the same people play all the time?
A. Yes, Sir, Cfns Chisholm, Buckingham, Duff and myself played from 3 to 4 o'clock that day.

Q. Did you all go together after that?
A. I went to tea on my own.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You quite certain that Duff was there?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. He was there all the time?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was there that he could have gone out without you seeing him?
A. Yes, he could have gone to the wash-room.

Q. A man can't play darts continuously if he goes to the wash-room?
A. No, Sir. We were four men playing and [redacted] can step out for a minute while waiting for his turn to come around.

Q. Did you all continue to play from 3 o'clock until supper was ready?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. At what time did you have supper?
A. 1630 hrs.

Q. Is it not a rather long time to keep up a dart game?
A. No, Sir.

Q. What was Duff wearing?
A. I am not sure, Sir.

Q. Did he have a scratch on his nose?
A. I never heard he had a scratch on his nose; I didn't notice any.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RE 43 (B).

THIRD WITNESS

[redacted]-8429 Cfn BUCKINGHAM, W., 4 VRD, 1 CCCD, (RCNVR Sec), sworn, states:-

Q. Were you at the end of Feb 45 rooming with the accused?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Do you remember Feb 24?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Why?
A. Because shortly after that the accused asked me to give evidence for him and the date is well fixed in my mind.

Q. At what time did you see the accused on 24 Feb?
A. In the middle of the afternoon at approx 3 o'clock.

Q. What were you doing about that time?
A. I was doing my washing, playing darts while I was waiting for the water to get hot and was writing letters.

Q. Was the accused in the hut?
A. Yes, Sir, he was there through the whole afternoon.

Q. At what time did you leave the hut?
A. I was in all the time until supper time. I know the accused was there all through the afternoon.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What kind of clothes did the accused have on?
A. I don't know.

Q. What kind of shoes?
A. I don't know, Sir.

Q. You are positive he was there all afternoon?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were you doing anything with the accused?
A. I was playing the occasional game of darts with him. We were playing teams, Sir. We were six playing darts. We had a relay.

Q. Was there some talk of Duff going out in the evening?
A. Yes, Sir, he was driving the recreational truck.

Q. Was he dressed to go out?
A. He is a pretty natty dresser and would not need to dress any more.

Q. Did the accused go to supper with you?
A. No, I went with Cameron.

Q. At what time was supper?
A. 1630 hrs, Sir.

Q. When was it when Duff asked you if you would like to go out in the evening with him?
A. Just after tea, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RE ss (B).

FOURTH WITNESS

D-126138 Cfn GUISWOLD, J., No. 4 YHD, No. 1 COOD (RCEME Sec), sworn, states:-

Q. Do you remember the last Sat in Feb 45?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Why?
A. I have been thinking of it ever since then. I had a sleep after dinner till about 5 o'clock. After that we had a dart game, Cpl Cameron, Cfn Buckingham, Duff and myself.

Q. Was the accused in the billets when you awoke?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you state that you were playing darts all afternoon?
A. Till 1615 hrs until we went to mail just before supper.

Q. Was the accused there all that time?
A. Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Do you remember how Duff was dressed?
A. No, I can't recall.

Q. Did Duff take off his battle-dress blouse off to play darts?
A. I can't tell, Sir.

Q. Did you take your blouse off?
A. I usually do.

Q. Did anybody else except the four of you play?
A. That's all that played after I got into the game.

Q. How many dart games in the room?
A. One, Sir.

Q. Was Buckingham playing all the time?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How do you know it was three o'clock when you woke up?
A. I was around there an hour before themail came, that's the way I figured it out.

Q. Might this had been another Sat than the 24 Feb?
A. No because we had a Court of Inquiry a few days after the 24 Feb; it reminded me of it.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

DEBUTTIE
SECOND WITNESS
WOD WAC PROS

PROSECUTION

LT G.E. ALGAR, No. 4 VRU, No. 1 COOD, RCOC, already sworn, states:-

Q. Do you know the accused?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you see him shortly after 24 Feb this year?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Do you remember seeing the accused on Wed afternoon, 28 Feb 45?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you observe anything about his personal appearance?
A. I noticed a very small scratch on his nose and two scratches on the back of his neck. They were about an inch long and not deep. They showed two red distinct marks.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. When did you notice these marks or scratches?
A. I first noticed them on Wed afternoon, 28 Feb, four days after the accident. They were drawn to my attention by Mr. Aldred in his identifying the accused. I asked the accused to turn around and I saw these scratches which were not fresh. They had not been done that day. It looked as though they had been washed and there was just a red scratch.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

SIXTH WITNESS

M-83864, SGT Newstad, R.S., No. 4 VRU, sworn, states:-

Q. Have you seen the accused since Feb 24?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Who is he?
A. He is the man sitting down near the Def Offr.

Q. Looking back to Wed Feb 28, do you recall seeing the accused at Garden, Petersfield?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you notice at that time anything about his appearance?
A. I saw two scratches on the accused's face and neck. One was across his face (witness points with his finger from nose to cheek and went behind his ear); It looked like scratches from a thorn or pin. They were about four days old.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Were there any sign of blood or scab?
A. Just a scratch scab over the top.

Q. They might have been done before the definite time you stated?
A. No, Sir, I think it was just a matter of three or four days.

DEFENCE

DEF OFFR TO THE COURT

Sir, I'd like to recall the accused?

PRES TO THE ACCUSED

You are already under oath.

The accused, already sworn, states:-

I got those scratches by the Isolation Hospital in Woodham-Surrey. I was with a woman/about 1130 PM Sat 24 Feb. I don't want to bring her name in this affair.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH KO 82 (3).

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

Sir, in view of what has been presented before the Court, the defence feels that nothing of real value has been put forth to prove that the accused was at the scene of the accident or was the dvr of the vehicle which crashed into the ditch on Feb 24 45 [redacted] the accused. Evidence has been given by two civilians who were witnesses to the accident. One of these witnesses noticed quite definitely how the dvr of that vehicle was dressed although he couldn't recognize his features. The other witness, who recognizes Pte Duff by his features and a few small scratches which would take very close observation, could not describe clearly how the dvr was clothed. The defence, on the other hand, has presented to the Court sworn statements given by three of the accused's room-mates showing conclusively that he was in his billets playing darts from the hours of approx 1445 until 1615 hrs on 24 Feb 45 at which time he and his room-mates left the billets for supper. The defence, through questioning of Alger and Pte Archer, has proven that it is possible for a dvr to be admitted by the guards at [redacted] gate without signing the guard-sheet. The prosecution could have but have not brought the guard-sheet made out by the guard. The prosecution said that everybody who entered that gate during the afternoon had signed. Yet they have no proof of that fact. How can the defendant be sure that the guard is going to write down the number of a vehicle and name of the dvr if the guard will not come out/his hut. Every vehicle entering this gate should show on the guard-sheet, with the signature of the dvr. It Alger has stated that when he first learned of the accident and checked his records, the log-book and work ticket were in their proper places. Hence, it is felt by the defence that the accused has not had a conclusive evidence brought to bear against him in this case that could be of a convicting nature.

STATEMENT BY THE PROS OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

Sir, it seems all strange that the vehicle was taken at about 1400 by the accused who is supposed to have put it back at 1445 and then at 1600 hrs the same vehicle is found washed up the road near Petersfield. A vehicle certainly cannot get down there by itself and cannot be stolen from the square and be down there by that time. There's a few points about the scratches on the accused's face. It is rather strange that he should get scratches on his that very same evening. We have had witnesses to show that he did have these scratches on his face and neck. They did not get there by chance. It is also true that we have one witness, Aldred, who was with the accused. He was with him for about half an hour and helped him start the car and I feel sure that if a man who worked with another man about half an hour upon being asked to identify that man would be able to do so. Aldred is positive that the accused is the man in question and he must be believed.

COURT CLOSES TO CONSIDER THE FINDINGS.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

I think the MFM 6 speaks for itself as to the accused's character. The character reference of the accused is given by the OC of No. 4 VRD, in applying for a Court-Martial. The OC, No. 4 VRD, mentions that the character of the accused is fair. From this documentary evidence of his character, I would like to put myself on record as saying that the defendant conducted himself in a manner satisfactory to the army standards and the fact that he was not put in arrest by his CO shows his standing in the unit; it proves that he is to be trusted.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the Case of

G45117 Pte Duff D.S. on strength of 4 V.R.D.(R.C.E.M.E.), 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By Direction of the O.C. Depot Bn., H.Q. 1 C.C.O.D., the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution.

A17212 Pte Archer N.M. on strength of 4 V.R.D.(R.C.E.M.E.), 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am A17212 Pte Archer N.M. employed as a driver for M.T. Stores Section R.C.E.M.E., 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D. On the morning of 24 Feb 1945 at 0800 hrs, I drew the work ticket for vehicle CZ4205993 from the Unit Transport dispatcher. I then proceeded to carry out my daily duties of picking up and delivering stores for the M.T. Stores Section, 4 V.R.D. At 1157 hrs I checked W.D. vehicle No. CZ4205993 out at the No. 2 gate and proceeded to my quarters. I then contacted Pte Duff and asked him if he would drive the vehicle to Farnham and return it to the parking lot. He said he would so we proceeded to Farnham, with Pte Duff driving the vehicle. On arriving at Farnham Station I got out of the vehicle and Pte Duff drove off. I then caught my bus for Crookham crossroads."

The accused, Pte Duff, cross-examines this witness.

Question :- Do you always show your work ticket and sign the guard's sheet when you enter and leave the squares?
Answer :- No.

Cross-examined by Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

Question :- Was this trip to Farnham Station authorized by an Officer?
Answer :- No, sir.

.....

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut. Algar G.E. on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am employed as Officer in charge of Unit Transport, 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D. At approximately 1900 hrs on Saturday 24 Feb 45, I received information by my dispatcher that vehicle CZ4205993 was found wrecked and abandoned 2 miles south of Petersfield along the Portsmouth road. I then went to the Transport Office and checked the log book and found this vehicle was out without authority. I then went down with Pte

Yasskin and recovered the vehicle. On Sunday, 25th February, I went back to the scene of the accident and made out the 1000/42A R.A.R. I then went to the Petersfield Civil Police, who were unable to give me any information, but stated that William Daughtry was a witness to the accident. On the morning of Feb. 26th I went to see William Daughtry, but was unable to locate him. I finally located him on Feb. 27th and he refused to make a statement. I then asked the Adjutant of 4 V.R.D. to convene a Court of Inquiry and also got permission from the Automobile Association to get a statement from William Daughtry.

On 28th of Feb. the President of the Court of Inquiry and myself, accompanied by Ptes Duff and Archer, interviewed William Daughtry. Daughtry stated that neither Duff nor Archer was the driver of the vehicle and gave us the names of two other witnesses, a Willie Treagus and a Wilfred Aldred. We then interviewed Aldred and when asked if he could identify the driver of the lorry he replied, "Yes, that's himthere," and pointed out Pte Duff. The President of the Court asked Aldred if he was certain that Pte Duff was the driver of the lorry and Aldred stated that he was."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Question :- Would you be able to identify the driver of the vehicle?

Answer :- No, I shouldn't be able to identify the driver.

Cross-examined by G.45117 Pte Duff, D.S.

Question :- How far away from the vehicle was the fence along the highway which you were leaning over?

Answer: :- Eight to ten feet.

Question :- Did you notice how the soldier was dressed?

Answer :- He was wearing battle-dress, brown leather jerkin, brown shoes, dark socks and no anklets, and I don't recall seeing him with a cap on.

.....

SIXTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

Wilfred Aldred, an employee of Laycock & Garrett, Petersfield, residing at No. 5 Wyldslane, Weston, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"At approximately 1600 hrs 24 Feb., 1945, I, along with my father, was hedge trimming when we heard a crash in the direction of Butser Hill. My father said, 'It looks as if a lorry has turned over.' So I proceeded towards the direction of the accident. On arriving at the accident, I noticed that the driver of the vehicle was a Canadian soldier, who was accompanied by two British sailors. One of the sailor's Mackintosh was jammed in the door on the passenger's side of the cab and I helped him to release it. After we got the coat free, the sailors remarked that they had to catch a train, so they left the scene of the accident. The driver of the vehicle and myself then endeavored to start the motor, and when we were unable to get the engine running the driver remarked that he would have to catch a bus back to Bordon, and with that he went up onto the highway and thumbed a lift in a passing automobile proceeding in the direction of Petersfield. I then went back home."

Cross-examined by Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

Question :- Do you identify Pte Duff as being the driver of the W.D. vehicle No. CZ 4205993?

Answer :- I identify Pte Duff as being the soldier at the scene of the accident.

Answer :- By the way his hair was cut and by the scratches on his nose and neck.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

.....

SEVENTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

Willie Treagus, the Cottage, Butser Hill, a gamekeeper, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"At approximately 1605 hrs 24 Feb. 1945, while talking with William Daughtry, the A.A. scout of Buriton Cross-roads, I, along with William Daughtry, heard a crash along the Petersfield-Portsmouth highway, approximately 400 yards away. The two of us proceeded towards the scene of the accident to see if anyone was injured. On arriving, I noticed an army lorry at the bottom of the bank by the side of the road and a soldier accompanied by two sailors around the lorry. No one appeared to be hurt, so Mr. Daughtry informed me that he was going to notify the civil police. I left the scene of the accident and went home."

Cross-examined by Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

Question :- Do you identify Pte Duff as the soldier at the vehicle at the time of the accident?

Answer :- No, sir.

Question :- Would you be able to recognize the driver of the vehicle if you were to see him again?

Answer :- No, sir.

Question :- Did you leave the highway and go down the bank to where the vehicle stopped?

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.~~(1) ~~The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s).~~ The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s).~~ Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF 495. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (d), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans ..... NO
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~extract~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. B and Ex. C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans ..... NO (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(b), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 *and its purpose, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. Statement in Mitigation of Sentence

B 66843 Pte Daff G. F. 1 CAB Coy & CASC.

Mr. President and Members of the Court:

It is usually the function of a statement in mitigation of sentence to account for and explain away a person's particular line of conduct. I therefore shall make a statement of the easiest things in life to prepare - for one must needs have a smattering of psychology or at least have a better than average understanding of human nature.

After a long years of war now finished, and the sacrifices, bereavements, brave deeds which must inevitably flow as its consequences, we have all been guilty of mental lethargy, periods of slackness and at times a "to hell with it" attitude.

I do not pretend to justify the action of the accused in [illegible] but I suggest that this temporary lapse in duty is understandable.

after talking with the accused I know that when he left his platoon lines he had no intention of going AWL and fully expected to return to his billets within the appointed time, but on occasion human nature is governed by circumstances that were beyond control.

The accused has served his country for six years, enlisting 11 Sept 1939 in the Royal Regiment of Canada. He served in Canada and Iceland, arriving overseas in November 1940 as a Member of the Royal Regiment until the rank of Corporal. At his own request he was transferred to the Royal Canadian Armoured Corps 5 Jan 44 and subsequently became a driver with 1 M&C Regiment, 1 Can Armd Div Sig Coy, then served with 86 Bridge Coy and upon the breaking up of that unit joined this present Coy 6 Aug 45.

It cannot be denied that the accused has done more than his share of Army duty and with a good record behind him.

I would strongly urge the Court to give just consideration to this case in view of the fact that Duff has already served a repeat draft due to this Court Martial and has a wife and 14 months baby awaiting his return in England.

Capt F. S. Westwood
Defending Officer.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of:
B66843 Pte DUFF, G.F.
of
1 CDN ARMD BDE COY (83 COY) RCASC

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath:

1st Witness: The first witness Lieut P.E. Reeve, having been sworn states:

I am Lieut P.E. Reeve, Adjutant of 1 Cdn Armd Bde Coy (83 Coy) RCASC. In the case of B66843 Pte Duff G.F. of 1 Cdn Armd Bde Coy (83 Coy) RCASC whom I see and recognize I submit the following documents as evidence:

(a) Certified true copy of Part II Order No. 29 dated 25 Aug 45.
(b) Certified true copy of Part II Order No. 32 dated 1 Sep 45.
(c) Army Form B 115 and Appendix A.
(d) Certificate of Surrender A.A. Sec 163 (i) (J).

(P.E. Reeve) Lieut
1 CAB Coy (83 Coy) RCASC

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The documents were taken into evidence and marked exhibit A, B, C and D.

2nd Witness The Second witness D10631 Cpl Hatch D.W., having been duly sworn states:

I am D10631 Cpl Hatch D.W. of B Platoon, 1 Cdn Armd Bde Coy (83 Coy) RCASC. On the 6th Aug 45 at approximately 1430 hrs Pte Duff reported to B Platoon Orderly Room and his documents were taken in my presence. I then turned him over to Cpl Didur, instructing him to show Pte Duff to his section. This was the last I saw of him.

D10631 cpl Hatch, D.W.
1 CAB Coy(83 Coy) RCASC

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(cont'd page Two)

3rd Witness — The third witness C100276 Cpl Corrigan M. having been duly sworn states:

I am C100276 Cpl Corrigan M of B Platoon 1 Cdn Armd Bde Coy (83 Coy) RCASC. On the 7th Aug 45 at 0800 hrs I called the roll of my sections and found that No. B66843 Pte Duff G.F. was not present. I then reported him absent at my platoon orderly room.

C100276 Cpl Corrigan M
1 CAB Coy (83 Coy) RCASC

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of evidence, consisting of two pages, were taken down by me in the presence of the accused and the R.P. 4 (C) (D) (E) and (F) were complied with.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this eighth day of April, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of FOURTH CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; ~~*[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]~~

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

~~*[I am unable to appoint:—~~

~~*(1.—Three Officers to form the Court)~~

~~*(2.—A Field Officer as President.)~~

~~for the following reasons, namely:—]~~

* Strike out if not applicable.

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

PROCEEDINGS REVIEWED

NOTE.—The President must be named. The members and waiting members (if any) may be mentioned by name, or the number and ranks and the unit to which they belong may alone be named. In the latter event, the ranks, names, &c., of the members of the court, as constituted, will be recorded on the proceedings.

A 3 Yes, sir.
Q 4 Have you compared the contents of that statement with the regimental books?
A 4 I have, sir.
Q 5 Are they true extracts from the Regimental Books and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary of those entries?
A 5 They are sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, I would like to respectfully submit to the Court a few observations which I think you should bear in mind in considering the sentence which you will impose on the accused.

Taking the first charge, which is A.W.L., Section 15 of the Army Act, you will note that it entails the absence of one day, and then if you willlook at the second charge it is also A.W.L. under the same Section. You will see that it is a straight charge of A.W.L. 19 days and I wish you would please note that there is no case of the accused having escaped custody in between these two charges of A.W.L. Then, just leaving the third charge for a moment and going on to the 4th charge, you will see that it is a straight a.w.l. charge, under Section 15, and this 4th charge is being A.W.L for 3 days and so therefore for the first, second and fourth charges you have straight A.W.L. charges for 23 days. On the third charge of escaping from lawful custody I would like to refer you to M.M.L. page 447, a note to Section 22, the Section under which the accused is charged, and you will see, Note 3, second paragraph: "A soldier who escapes from arrest and then absents himself without leave may legally be charged with and convicted of both offences, but as a rule it is preferable to charge only the absence, alleging in the particulars, as increasing the gravity of the offence, that it was committed in arrest." So I would like the Court to please consider that when imposing sentence the best authority considers it is the better practice not to charge under Section 22, under these circumstances, but rather to put in the particulars of the A.W.L. Charge that it was A.W.L. from lawful custody, and I trust that the Court will consider that that submission perhaps warrants a reduction in the sentence from what they would otherwise impose. In other words, my submission is that the 3rd charge might have been laid as an A.W.L. charge, say from lawful custody and the charges would then amount to 27 days A.W.L. plus the aggravating circumstances of having escaped from lawful arrest on the last A.W.L. charge.

Now, in reference to the conduct sheet of the accused, which you have, and I hope you will please consider carefully because although there seem to be all sorts of offences they are all, except this one, A.W.L. and they are all for short periods, and the Prosecutor was kind enough to bring to your attention that the one case of fraud was, as alleged-- we can't prove it-- but I think the Court may take it as a fact, was before the accused was in the army; the actual sentence happened after the war, and finally I would like the Court to note that the accused has been incustody for 23 days.

BY THE COURT:

Q 6 Have you, Duff, anything further you wish to add in mitigation of punishment?

A 6 Nothing, sir.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE FOREGOING TWO PAGES OF TYPEWRITTEN MATTER, is a true and correct transcript of shorthand notes taken by me at the time and place first hereinbefore written.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

B-66843, Pte. DUFF, G.F., 1 R. REGT. C.

1st Witness B-67255, Cpl. Eckert, E.M., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-67255, Cpl. Eckert, E.M. I was Coy. Orderly Corporal on the 15th March 41. Pte. Duff was in possession of a pass which expired at 2359 hrs. on that date. He failed to answer his name at roll call at 0630 hrs. on 16th March 41 and reported to me at 0945 hrs. 16 March 41. He again failed to answer his name at roll call at 2230 hrs 16 March and did not answer his name at any roll call up to and including 0630 hr. roll call on the 22nd March 41. I handed over my duties at 1200 hrs. 22 March 41 when I reported Pte. Duff still absent."

Question 1 "Pte. Duff, have you any questions?"
Answer 1 "None, sir".

E.M. Eckert Cpl.

2nd Witness B-66541, A/Sgt. Peaks, E., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-66541, A/Sgt. Peaks, E. I took over the duties of Coy. Orderly Sgt. at 1200 hrs. on the 22 March 41 when Pte. Duff was reported absent. He did not answer his name at any roll call up to and including roll call at 0630 hrs. on the 29th March 41. I handed over my duties at 1200 hrs on the 29th March when I reported Pte. Duff absent".

Question 2 "Any questions, Pte. Duff?".
Answer 2 "No question, sir".

E. Peaks A/Sgt

3rd Witness B-66544, L/Sgt. Peaks, A., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-66544, L/Sgt. Peaks, A. I took over the duties of Coy. Orderly Sgt. at 1200 hrs. on Saturday, 29 March 41. I turned over the duties of Coy. Orderly Sgt. at 1630 hrs. on 31 March to Sgt. Lee. The accused was reported to me as being absent without leave when I took over duties, and did not answer roll call at any time during my tour of duty. I reported him as being A.W.L. to Sgt. Lee at approx. 1630 hrs. 31 March 41"

Question 3 "Any questions"?
Answer 3 "None, sir".

A. Peaks L/Sgt

4th Witness B-66676, Sgt. Lee, A.E., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-66676, Sgt. Lee, A.E., I took over duties of Coy. Orderly Sgt. from L/Sgt. Peaks at about 1630 hrs. 31 March 41, when Pte. Duff was reported absent without leave to me. He did not answer any roll call. He was reported as present to me by the Guard Commander who stated that he had been returned to the Guard Room by the Military Police at 1910 hrs. on the 4th April 41".

Question 4 "Any questions, Duff?"
Answer 4 "None, sir".

A E Lee

5th Witness B-67148, Sgt. Preston, T., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-67148, Sgt. Preston, T. I was Commander of the Regimental Quarter Guard on the 4th April 41, and at about 1910 hrs. Pte. Duff was handed over to me as an absentee without leave by Pte. Paynter of the Regimental Military Police. I placed him in the cells".

Question 5 "Any questions"?
Answer 5 "None, sir".

T. Preston Sgt

6th Witness B-66776, Pte. Rhuda, J., 1 R. REGT. C., having been duly sworn, states:
"I am B-66776, Pte. Rhuda, J. I was a member of the Regimental Quarter Guard on the 7th April 41, and Pte. Duff was in the big cell in the Guard Detention Room. At about 2050 hrs. he asked to be taken to his barrack room to get some clean pajamas. I accompanied him to the barrack room and he asked permission to go to the latrine. I followed him to the door which he slammed in my face and disappeared in the darkness. I was unable to find him and returned to the Guard Room and reported his escape".

Question 6 "Any questions?"
Answer 6 "Prior to my asking Pte. Rhuda permission to go he had permission from Sgt. Peaks?
Question 7 "Is that correct Pte. Rhuda?"
Answer 7 "Yes, sir".
