A. Twice.
Q. Where did he hit the car the second time?

Q. Where did the blow hit the man?
A. In the mouth.
Witness questioned by Court:
Q. Would you say the forde of the blow would drive Sunstrum back into the car should he be sober.
A. Yes it was a struggle.

The third witness N 15889 Pte. L.R.Ryan 5Cdn. R. was called and duly sworn. Questioned by Prosecutor.
Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Towards the end of June an incident occured in the Hay Cutters would you tell the court what you saw.
A. On the night of June 28 when the fight started I seen Duncan was drunk and there was going to be a fight. I went to see if I could get him home, at that time Sunstrum wanted to quiten Duncan down. I told him to go as I could get him home if he would leave me alone, he wouldn't go and said,"I would quiten him down". Sunstrum took Duncan by the arm at the same time George told him to go away and not bother him. He pushed Sunstrum and knocked him in front of a car, so Sunstrum got up and took his respirator off and said " I'll quiten you by force"; then they started to spar off getting into close range for blows. Sunstrum Hit George in the face, the first blow struck, then George struck him back and down he went, then George Kicked him.

Q. Where at?
A. I do not know exactly,but in the face somewhere.
Q. What condition was Sunstrum in just before he was Kicked?
A. Unconsious, laying on his back face up after he was kicked George came to me.

Witness questioned by the Defence:

Witness questioned by Court

Q. When Sunstrum hit Duncan was Sunstrum held by anybody?
A. No sir at that time they were apart. When Sunstrum got up from the car he took his respirstor off and squared around. There was no interupting them and both were loose with the crowd in a circle. When Sunstrum got up to return the blow Duncan was still free.
Q. would you say Sunstrum was under the influence of liquor?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Definitely?
A. Yes sir either drunk or crazy.

The fourth witness called Pte. Monger M.D. M 15998 was duly sworn . Questioned by the prosecutor.

Q. Towards the latter part of June an incident occured at the Hay Cutters would you tell the court what happened? Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes Sir. I was in the pubabout three weeks ago. Pte. Duncan was there a little under the influence of liquor. He was wandering around the room and in walking upset beer over one table causing an argument and practically got into a fight with a civilian at the table.
Q. Were any blows struck?
A. He struck at them, Duncan was put out of the pub then by two civilians and myself. I didn't follow out but could see through the window he was carrying on with some one, Duncan was facing me I could seehe was fighting, the other man's back was to me.

Witness questioned by the Defence.

Q. Did you say you helped put Duncan out of the pub.
A. Yes Sir.
Q. You didn't see the face of the man who Duncan was fighting with?
A. No sir.
Q. So you don't know if Duncan had a fight or not?
A. He was fighting with some one.
Q. were you sober?
A. I had two or three small glasses of beer.

The first witness for the defence was called Pte. Martin P. Brick M 17070 Admn. H. Questioned by the Prosector.

Q. Something happened at the Hay Cutter during the later part of June would you tell the court what you saw?
A. I was there and saw George Duncan and just before closing time I noticed a disturbance in the other room and I see they were taking George out it was just before 10 and I went as quickly as I could with intentions of seeing him home or doing what I could for him. When I got through the crowd several of our own boys had already got Duncan under control. Being a fairly good friend of Duncan's and being that he had listened to me on previous cases when under the influence of liquor I went up to him and tried to persuade him to calm down and go home. I was under the impression that the situation was well in hand. It was then that I first noted Pte. Sanstrum. No one had a hand on Duncan we didn't anyway and I think that Sanstrum tried to help us quiten Duncan, but his methods were not the same as ours and tried to use a little force taking Duncan by the arm, as this couldn't be done, there were a few words,I do not remember what they were but when he tried to hold Duncan; Duncan told him to keep away. He did not do, he treid to catch hold and Duncan gave him a shove. Sunstrum then changed tactics altogether. He said something to the effect if thats the way you feel and said something else I cannot remember, and took off his respirator. At that time Duncan was still standing before us and no effort was made on my part to stop Duncan and Sanstrum from fighting it out. They came to-gether ~~cautio~~ cautiously but evidently Sanstrum wesn't very skilled because he lost out in the first exchange of blows. He staggered back and there was another exchange of blows and this time Duncan; I thought hit Sanstrum on the jaw knocking Sanstrum down; Sanstrum did not move so I was under the impression he was knocked out. It was after he was laying down for what seemed seconds, but I do not think it was more than one or two that Duncan walked up and give him a kick.
Q. where did he kick him?
A. I could not see but some where at the head end, it may have been a hand or arm but I think it was the face. It WAS THEN that people on the other side of the human ring grabbed hold of Duncan.

5 Pte Clarke Ryan

Witness questioned by the Defence.

Q. Brick why did you not use efforts to stop Sanstrum and Duncan.

A. The whole thing was more or less distasteful. It not think that Sanstrum had any business in the fight.

Q. Can you give me the nameso of other D. Coy. men there?

A. Jimmie Duncan; Pte. Rye; Murphy Healy.

Q. So between the lot of you, you were looking after Duncan?

A. Yes.

Q. You said They were taking Duncan out; who were they?

A. I think most were civilians and not many soldiers. The piano was playing and I was with a civilian I did not notice them until they were practically out.

Q. So as far as Duncan's D Coy. friends were concerned it was the civilians who were looking after him as far as the door.

A. I had bought a beer and noticed Duncan with some civilians.

Q. You mentioned Pte. Ryan as being a member of D Coy, is that correct?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. You also mentioned other occasions when Duncan had been under the influence of liquor was that correct?

A. Yes but it had never come to blows.

Q. You helped calm him down on those occasions?

A. Yes.

Q. Its true then when Duncan has a few drinks he gets a little out of hand.

A. Yes.

Q. You mentioned Duncan gave Sanstrum a shove did he knock him over when he shoved him?

A. I couldn't say truthfully. Sanstrum tried to take hold of Duncan, who wouldn't stand anyone taking hold of him. I don't think it was a hit.

Q How many times was Sanstrum knocked down?

A. The first time he backed into a car and slid down a light and fender so he was only knocked down once.

Q. Did you notice whether Duncan had on army boots.

A Yes he did sir.

Witness questioned by the Defence.

Q. Brick to your knowledge does Duncan get pugnacious if not interferred with?

A. No sir.

Q. Would you saySanstrum was under the influence of liquor?

A. I would say he was although I do not know him.

Duncan was then asked by the court if he wished to give evidence.

A. there is not much I can give sir. On the night of the 28th of June I was under the influence of liquor. I was outside in front of the Hay Cutter when Sanstrum came up and told me to shut up. There was a scrape. He hit me and I hit him back, thats about all I remember.

President.

Q. There are no other witnesses?

Defence. A. One other I am not calling.

Court adjourned at 1215 hours for lunch. re-opened again at 1335 hours. Prisoner was arreinged. Major Bury D Coy Edmn. R. was called by the defence as a character witness, who was duly sworn.

Sir, the accused is one of the orginal members of the company and came over with us in Dec. 1939. I have always found him a good and willing soldier. I have had practically no trouble with him except when under the influence of drink, and must admit his high water mark is in his boots. He doesn't often go out and get drunk and it is only on those occasions we have trouble with him.

Witness questioned by the defence.

Q. Is he a man you would care to have back in your company?

A. Yes.

Su mary of the Defnce.

Though intention is not the essence of assault, I think it could be argued the man did not intend to assault him. Then there is the matter of character, and his Company Commander has spoken highly of him. There is only the one charge of drunkeness against him. There is one point now puzzling me; as the charge reads it is assault causing bodily harm, therefore I would ask it to be common assault. I know drunkeness is not an excuse for the crime.

SUMMARY of EVIDENCE in the case of M.15991 Pte. Duncan G.M.
Edmonton Regiment, Cdn Army (O)

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the following summary of evidence is taken on oath: -

1st Witness for the Prosecution

M.16349 Pte. Sunstrum G.F., Edmonton Regiment, having been duly sworn states:- I am Pte. Sunstrum G.F., M.16349. On 28 Jun 41 I was in the bar of the Haycutter Public House and heard piano playing in one of the other rooms, and went in to listen. There was a disturbance being caused by a soldier, the accused, with civilians and I asked him to quiet down and behave, and after a bit of argument, persuaded him to come outside. We walked out of the Pub, Several people were grouped around, and one suggested he be put in a civilian car and taken home. On the supposition that he had come in the civilian car, I removed my respirator so as to help him get in the car. It was while I was getting my respirator off that he hit me. The blow knocked me down, and while I was lying on the ground hekicked me., which is the last I remember.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

m.15869 Pte. Ryan L.G., Edmonton Regiment, having been duly sworn states:- I am Pte. Ryan L.G., M.15869 of "D" Coy, Edmn R. On 28 Jun 41 I went to the Haycutter Pub and while there I saw Pte. Duncan, but did not stay with him. I had had about 6 beers, but was relatively sober. I was expecting to go to a dance with some fellows, and looking for them, I came around to the front. Duncan was outside the Pub trying to get back in, and the Pub Owner was keeping him out. I was trying to pacify Duncan and think I had him under control when Pte. Sunstrum came up and said he would try to quiet him. I told him to leave Duncan alone, as I had the trouble in hand, but Sunstrum was determined to handle the thing his way. I was holding Pte. Duncan by the right arm, and Sunstrum was holding him by the left, trying to quiet hi , when Duncan tried to pull away and pushed Sunstrum down with his left hand. Sunstrum got up and said, "I'll quiet him by force." The both began sparring around and Sunstrum hit Duncan with his clenched fist. This left Sunstrum open and Duncan returned with a blow that knocked Sunstrum off his feet, and in my opinion knocked hi out. It was while he was lying on the ground that Duncan kicked Sunstrum. After some argument we eventually got Duncan home. In my opinion both Sunstrum and Duncan were drunk.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

3rd Witness for
the Prosecution

M.16301 Pte. Brown H.E., Edmonton Regiment, having been duly sworn states: I am Pte. Brown H.E., M.16301 of H.Q. Coy. On 28 Jun 41 I was at the Haycutter Pub about nine thirty and saw both Sunstrum and Duncan in the Pub, and Duncan was tending to create a disturbance with a civilian in the Pub. I went into the lavatory and when I came out I saw Pte. Sunstrum lying on the ground bleeding from a head wound.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

4th Witness for the Prosecution

M.15998 Pte. Conger E.B., Edmonton Regiment, having been duly sworn states:- I am Pte. Conger E.B., M.15998 of H.Q. Coy. I was in the Pub on 28 Jun 41 and saw Pte. Duncan slightly drunk, bump a table and upset some beer at which some civilians were seated. This created an argument, and Duncan struck at the civilian. Two other civilians then started to put Duncan out of the Pub, and I assisted them. I stayed inside and standing at the bar, I could see Duncan sparring around with someone, out in the parking ground. The fighters moved over out of view, and I couldn't see the end of the fight. In my opinion Duncan was quite drunk, but I thought Sunstrum was quite sober when I was talking to him.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

5th Witness for the Prosecution

Mr. W. Cowlard M.M. of Oxted, Surrey.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary of evidence, hereunder.

" I saw this mentioned soldier, C. Duncan "p" Coy., kick Sunstrum in the face when he was on the ground causing him to have a severe cut over the eye and to be taken to Field Hospital."

Certified true copy. E.W. Day
Sig. of Officer taking Summary.

The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4, elected to make statement, not under oath.

The accused, M.15991 Pte. Duncan C.M. Edmonton Regiment states:- Sunstrum hit me first. That is all I remember of the affair.

Certified that Rule of Procedure 4 (C)(D)(E)(F)(G) have been complied with.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 82(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 82(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 132.) (i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 19)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 562(a).)

Duncan:

I was on a 48 hr pass from 14 & 16 Jan in Brussels. On the 16 Jan the lorry did show up to take us back to the unit. We were sent for that night to St Jean Barracks. The Sgt Maj told us we could go out that night. I got knocked out with some poisoned liquor the first I had had since landing in France. I came to on the afternoon of 17 Jan in the Maple Leaf Club. From then on I just tried to recuperate, and after the Provost Sgt picked me up he sent me to the M/R four times. When I was arrested I was only about a block from the Provost office, where I was on my way to surrender myself. I have never had any charge against me since I left Canada in Jan 44.

I joined 10 CIB Coy RCASC in Jan 44 and came to France with it in Jul 44. I am a qualified Driver category A and single. I would like to go back to my coy.

The statement was read over to Duncan.

1st Pass. Witness. Lt. C. J. Tiffney, 1 Bn Essex Scot. duly sworn, deposes:-

- I was Pln Comdr of the Rcc. On or about 23 Aug about 1500 hrs we were in rest in a forward position. Had been going about 1/4 of an hour when Rcc dropped out. I went back to urge him on & he stated he could go no further. I ordered him to proceed on. He again said he could go no further & did not attempt to move. I then ordered the Sgt to bring him along and took up my place at front of Pln. I did not see him again till two or three days later.

Cross Ex - Rcc in Pln about 2 or 3 wks prior to that. He had been in F Echn with us all the time. He had complained about his ft. & had requested to be transferred to carrier Pln.

Court. I believed him to be category A. He used to drop out on marches. I ordered him to come on with the march and he did not carry on. I said he could do it as well as the others and he said he couldn't make it. I told the Sgt. to bring him along. Later on he went with the Pln. He only got back to Pln 2 or 3 days later.

2nd Pass Witness F 54704 Sgt. McKinnon J. F. Essex Scot. duly sworn is examined:-

I was Pln Sgt of Rcc on 23 Aug. On Tiffney was Pln OC. about 1500 hrs I saw Rcc fall out of the march. My Pln OC called to me to fall out & tell Rcc to fall in & continue to march.

I went over to Duncan who was sitting on side of road & said to him "Duncan get up & carry on with your Platn." He said "I'm sorry Sarge I can't do it." I urged him about 3 times then said if he didn't get up I'd charge him He said "Go ahead Sarge." I reported Platn HQ & Dee did not return to his Platn.

Cross Ex Don't say if Mr Jeffery went back but I think he must have as he yelled at me to see Dee fell in. Dee a good soldier apart from this. He had told me before he had trouble in marching

No Pte X

Const - I had told Platn O.C. of his not marching as he had done it before. He was told me he came from RCASC - he was on reinforcement when he came. I don't know if Mr Jeffery had spoken to him before or after I did. ~~He had been to H~~ Essex

Dee duly sworn deposes:-

I joined Essex Scot early in Aug last 44. Seen there ever since in 4 Echelon. The date of this incident was the 26th ~~About these days prior to this~~ Three days prior to this we marched all day and all night. Marched all day the next day & slept that night. The third day we didn't march but rode all night. The day of the 26th we marched all morning & started out again in the afternoon.

I knew I couldn't go any further so I told man ahead of me to report to Mr Jeffries that I had to drop out. I fell out & sat on roadside Pte Jeffrey shouted to me to get back into file. I said I couldn't - I was finished. He said to the Sgt to pull out & take me back into the march. Sgt told me to get back into file that I was no more tired than the others. I said "I'm sorry Sarge I can't do it." He repeated the question & I replied the same way. Then he went after the Plns. I got up after 1/2 a mile & tried for about 200 yds but I couldn't go on. [redacted] I came up to C Coy which was resting & rested with them. I spoke to Pte. ~~Fardyke~~ Fredgley there. They started marching then but I still couldn't go on. I stayed there about an hour. Then I got a lift from a 15 cwt truck going towards the front. Wanted driver to take me ahead of my Coy so I could wait for them. He couldn't do that but he left me with the Rear Coy. I then reported to my own Coy again when the Rear could get a truck up.

I had complained of my feet to Lt. Jeffrey the night before & to the padre. Nothing came of it. I had wanted a transfer to the carriers I have always been terribly keen on horses. I'm 39 & have been in army 14 years. It's my legs. They bothered me terribly. I had asked for switch to transfer Plns as I'm useless in my present state.

Statement for the Defence. (Pte DUNCAN, James

- Accused is 39 years of age.
- Enlisted voluntarily in July 1940
- has been with RCASC since then (driving & clerical work) till transferred in Aug 44 to C/C.
- Evidence shows he has complained repeatedly about his legs and feet. Also shows he did his best in attempting to keep up to his unit on marches. And shows he is considered a good soldier except for his inability to travel long distances.
- He only fell out when he could not go any further. And then he obtained the first conveyance possible to the front lines.
- His inability to obey a command is the only reason for his being under charge. And the case should never have reached a Court Martial; ~~and the~~ and I am sure the prosecution is not anxious for a conviction.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: For the Prosecution

Lt C.J. Jeffrey, an officer of the 1st Bn., The Essex Scottish Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Lt C.J. Jeffrey of 1st Bn., The Essex Scottish Regiment. On the afternoon of 25 AUG 44, I was platoon commander of No 17 Pl 'D' Coy of which B 83329 Pte Duncan, J. was a member. During a march on that date we were moving to a position towards the front lines when at 1500 hrs, 25 AUG 44, Pte Duncan dropped out. I ordered him to carry on as we had not been marching very long when he dropped out and did not appear to be incapable of completing the journey. He stated that he was tired and could march no farther. I warned him a second time and he would not move. I then ordered my seargeant, F 54704 Sgt J.F. McKinnon to bring him along and I proceeded on with the remainder of my platoon. I did not see him again until two days afterwards, when he was placed in the custody of my platoon, 27 AUG 44."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Sgt. C.J. Jeffrey, Lt. C.J. Jeffrey

SECOND WITNESS: For the Prosecution

F 54704 Sgt McKinnon, J.F., 1st Bn., The Essex Scottish Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Sgt McKinnon, J.F., F 54704, of the 1st Bn, The Essex Scottish Regiment. I was Sgt of 17 Pl of the Essex Scottish Regiment when approximately about 1500 hrs, of the 25 AUG 44 I saw Pte Duncan fall out of the platoon and sit down on the side of the road, when my platoon commander hollered back to me to make Pte Duncan carry on with the platoon, so I immediately broke away from platoon HQ and went over to Pte Duncan who was sitting down by the curb and I said to him at least five times to get up and fall in with his platoon and carry on the march, that he was no more tired than the rest of us, and he said I cannot do it and I cannot go any further, so I told him if he didn't get up and march with his platoon, that there would be a charge laid against him, so he said go ahead Sarg and I immediately went back and rejoined my platoon and he still never came like he was told to do."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Sgt J.F. McKinnon, Sgt. Sgt. J.F. McKinnon

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P.4 (e) says "I do not wish to make a statement at this time".

Certified that R.P. 4 have been complied with.

REVIEW OF SENTENCES

1. In connection with the reports forwarded by you for the review of sentences, I am directed to state that it is not necessary for you to deal with the facts of the offence or offences committed by the soldier under sentence in question as a copy of the proceedings is held at this HQ.

2. The information required from you is as set out in new pro forma used by you covering specifically the following three points:

(a) Is the soldier anxious to return to his former unit and redeem himself?

(b) Has the soldier been entirely satisfactory as to discipline and work during the period of the report?

(c) Is it considered that the soldier would likely render useful service if the sentence were suspended?

1. Reference 510/DUNCAN JD/1 (AG7) d/14 Feb 45 relative to the m/n soldier.

2. The u/m infm is appended:
(a) Date sentenced by FGCM - 3 Jan 45
(b) Date admitted to detn bks - 10 Jan 45
(c) Number of days remission already lost - NIL

(e) Date of release with full remaining remission - 30 Aug 45

3. An average soldier on the parade square, reacting favorably to strict military discipline. Smart in appearance and bearing, clean in person and clothing. Kit is always neat and tidy. A good worker, now employed in this unit on details. Wishes to return to his former unit upon release from detn.

4. This soldier is serving a sentence for negligence in the use of firearms. This soldier states that he had no intention of causing a wound to render him unserviceable to the army. He was in a cellar room at St Leonard in Belgium where he was billeted with four or five other soldiers and had finished cleaning his rifle. He was in a chair and fell asleep with the rifle across his lap and the muzzle pointing to the ground. The enemy were pouring a heavy conc of mortar fire at this time and he woke with a start and the rifle was discharged. A bullet entered his left foot. He cannot explain how it happened, but he might have had his hand across the butt of the rifle. He did not examine the rifle afterwards for any defect in trigger or sear spring mechanism. He received only a slight wound which has now completely healed and has received no after effects from it.

5. A good all round soldier who will make a useful man upon his return to his unit. This is his first major crime in the army. It is recommended that consideration be given towards suspension of sentence in this instance.

Opening Address by Prosecutor

There were two witnesses Pte Cameron and Cpl Cameron, but they have since become casualties and are not now available.

D3
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Major J.P. Middleboro, RCAMC att 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I examined the accused this morning. I found a well healed soft tissue wound on his left great toe lying on the medial side of proximal phalanx. This was in the nature of a groove and passed at right angles to axis of the toe. No disability and I believe the wound could have been caused by weapon held in accused's own hands.

Cross-Examination.

The accused is fit to return to the line.

RP 83(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — B76047 S/Sgt CHESTER H.W. SIS Cdn Provost Corps att 12 Bn 2 CBRG being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused. On 11 Oct 44 at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp I interviewed the accused and informed him I was investigating circumstance surrounding his wound. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He volunteered a statement which I reduced to writing, which he read over himself and signed. I produce the statement, marked exhibit "A"

The defence has no objection to admission of statement in evidence.

No Cross Examination

RP 83 (B) complied with.

D.4

MOTION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

I move for dismissal of both charges on following grounds. Firstly case by prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case there is not a scintilla of evidence to show intent in first charge and blameworthiness in second charge. Firstly Major Middleboro says he found a well healed tissue wound of great toe - no disability and that wound might have been caused by weapon. Second witness who merely produces a memo he took on 11 Oct 44 and purporting to be none other than an explanation by this accused as to actually what happened. Nothing in which discloses intent or negligence. There is nothing on which to found a conviction on the first charte. On the second charge if there is sufficient in your minds to establish blamworthiness, under Army rules and active conditions, only then you can make a finding on that charge.

REPLY BY PROSECUTOR

The prosecution has some difficulty with witnesses and must rely on the circumstances surrounding the incident - you have his nervous background. In his statement he admits he went to the bldgn for shelter after near misses and heavy machine gun fire for shelter - then you find him escorting prisoners to the rear. He returns to find his Pl Cmdr to take names of those left - he cleaned his rifle and this happened. This is sum and total of his statement. I say there is sufficient evidence there to necessitate an explanation. As to negligence, he has trained since 42 - basic and advanced and in the line some time before this incident happened. He admits trouble with mag and playing with bolt when in that condition, operated bolt back and forward several times, and safety must have been off - then nothing more but a vague explosion. Nature of the wound is also an important factor. As to negligence accused knew of faulty magazine and did not take proper safety precautions. You can find sufficient grounds in the circumstances to put the accused on his defence on both charges.

D6
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE — C73724 Pte DUNCAN J.D. Black Watch RH of C being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

I had no sleep for two days. I had completed cleaning my rifle Before I dozed off. I heard a noice and the first thing I heard someone ask me if I wanted a cigarette. I had no thought of getting out of the line. There was heavy mortar fire at the time but it had ceased. What just woke me up I cannot say. I don't think that its fair that I have the suspicion of wounding myself intentionally. I had not asked to be relieved - I was with the unit for 8 days. I only account for dozing off because I had no sleep for 48 hrs. No one found fault with my work - I am a rifleman and would like to go back and prove myself. This injury was not wilfull. I am 20 yrs of age - joined when I was 18 yrs - unmarried.

Cross-examination

I did not hold my hand down on rounds in magazine, when I worked bolt. I did not check to see if a round in chamber when I last closed bolt. You normally, when no round in chamber you close bolt and put safety catch on. I don't recall taking that precaution there. Sometimes we carried rifles loaded and safety catch off. We were close to enemy lines at the time. We were waiting for Calgarys to pass through. There were 5 or 6 of us in the cellar. Maybe if I hadn't been so tired and sleepy I would have been more careful. Cpl took names andwe were going to 18 pl where they were dug in. We were reforming and they were making one platoon out of two. We were cut off first and A & C Coys went through. I cannot explain the incident any different that I explained it in my statement. My memory was so blotted out that is all I can remember about it. I have never been in good physical condition since I've been in Army. MO's brush it off as rheumatism, or stiffness from lack of exercise or something like that. I said I'd go back to the infantry. There are however sometimes you have to run and that leaves me out. After I have stood still for a while I cannot start running. I have always had that, that is why I joined RCOC. The army has brought it on more. We started to fight 3 o'clock on afternoon untill 1500 hrs the next. We took our objective, then enemy counter attacked. Just the one show. I was not fighting all the 48 hrs I was without sleep

By the Court

I was an Airplane Mechanic in civil life.
I suppose the round caught the last time I pushed the bolt home. I was off duty part of the 48 hrs but I got wet in the rain and could not sleep.
R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

PROSECUTION CLOSING ADDRESS

The facts are simple and fresh in your minds - I only want to bring out a few of them showing that the accused's story is not consistent. The charges are in the alternative and it is my submission that there is sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction under the 1st chge. The accused was cleaning his rifle in basement of a bldgn there were a number present. The circumstance leading up indicate in some reppect what was in accused's mind - At least the type of work he was doing and what his Pl Cmdr thought of his position at the time. As far as negligence is concerned, he said he remembered nothing after he worked the bolt - no precautions were taken - He did not see if a round in the chamber - did not hold rounds down when he shoved bolt home. If you do not beleive the accused then thereis sufficient evidence to support the first charge. I leave the question of credibility to you. 303 round through the toe would not blot everything out of your mind, not like a blow on the head. No question of concussion in 303 explosion - there would be very little report or noise. I suggest the natural sequence of events lead up to accused doing this act - return to bldgn then to rear with prisoners followed by return to cellar to find Pl Comdr taking names of those present to transfer to another platoon for action, then the shooting. Unfortunately.

DEFENCE CLOSING ADDRESS

The accused was placed on his defence and under oath gave the court his explanation of what took place. When asked about the particular circumstances surrounding this incident and asked if it was wilful or negligent - his reply was reasonable one - one cannot account for all actions under conditions existing in the front line. It is not likely that if accused intented to injure himself that he would do so in the basement in presence of 5 of his comrades. The prosecution have not been able to produce one single member of these five. That is unfortunate - principle of doubt and establishment of intent in this case is impossible in view of lack of evidence I have referred to. As to the first charge it is impossible to convict this man on his own story where intent cannot be substantially inferred. Charge should be dismissed. As to negligence, he knows certain standards are to be maintained under certain conditions and probably the first thing he learned. Despite the rigorous conditions existing at the time - in contact with enemy certain standards of care must maintained or more accidents would occur. Therefore he is prepared to accept those conditions where they are precedent to good soldiery and in order to prove he is a good soldier he has told you under oath that he wants to go back and prove it. My submission on this charge (2nd) that any sentence you may feel like awarding - have its effect suspended and make it possible for this boy to go back and prove in his own mind and others that he is worthy to be wearing the uniform of the Black Watch.

B3

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused is 20 yrs old - enlisted 16 Nov 42 born 3 Nov 24 - from Oshawa, Ont - father inspector with General Motors - both parents living. One brother with PPCLI in Italy, one in RCAF 18 yrs old in Canada education 1 yr high at 15 yrs - unmarried - assigns $20 to his mother. My remarks are only to second charge and material to consider the extent of his blameworthiness pursuant to amend to Sec 40. Weigh evidence as to its relative degree of negligence in these particular cases. In this particular case I ask you to consider this lads unit was in close proximity to the enemy when this unfortunate occurrence took place, and secondly we are unable to produce any comrade to say how he previously acquitted himself in the Bn before this happened. Finally I ask you to view as a case where he wants to go back and prove he is type of soldier he says he is. Therefore I can do no better than ask you to do everything you can which will enable him to return thereby giving him his means to carry outhis will.

21 Cdn Gen Hosp

Reg No C73724 Pte DUNCAN, Jack Douglas, Black Watch, (RH of C)
17 Pln "D" Coy, 2 Cdn Infantry Div., states as follows:

I have been warned by S/Sgt Chester, SIS Cdn Provost Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I understand this caution and I make this statement voluntarily.

(Sgd) J. Duncan

I will be 20 years of age in November of this year. I enlisted voluntarily in the RCOC at Kingston, Ont on 17 Nov 42. I served with and had my basic training in the RCOC at Kingston and Cornwall. Four months after enlistment I was transferred with a number of other men from Ordnance to Cdn Infantry Corps and sent to Valcartier camp where I had advanced training for two months. In December 43 I arrived in the UK with other infantry reinforcements and went to 5 CIRU where I remained until March 44 when I went as a reinforcement to my present unit and was placed in "E" Coy which was training coy for reinforcements. Before the unit came to France about the middle of June 44 the majority of "E" Coy including myself were sent to CBRC as a reinforcement Coy for the Black Watch. After 2 weeks there I was sent to 1st Cdn Army Service Incre for about 2 months, then to 4 Div Service Incre, for a few days, then to 4 CIRU where I remained for about 5 weeks, until about 1 Sept 44 when I was sent to France, arriving about 9th or 10th of Sep at 2 CBRC. I rejoined my unit about 22nd or 23rd Sept 44. They were then at a rest camp in Belgium and we stayed there until 28 Sept when we moved up to a town, it was either St Leonard or a part of it and took it with very little opposition, but were driven out again early the next morning by a counterattack and took up a position on the south side of the canal. From about 0530 hrs until about 1100 hrs 29 Sep I was with the Company spread out behind the back of the Canal and were pinned down by machine gun and mortar fire. There were not enough slit trenches to go around, so about 1100 hrs, after a couple of near misses from mortar-bombs, with ther permission of my Cpl, Callaghan by name, I went with another man from the Coy, whose name I don't know, and got into the basement of a nearby building which used to be company headquarters before they moved across the road. There were a number of men going in and out of this building looking for the new HQ. After a while I went to the new HQ to take a look at some prisoners held there and was detailed by the CSM to help escort prisoners back to Battalion HQ about a mile away. On returning to the basement I saw Cpl Callaghan taking the names of those of our platoon who were left. I went out again to look around and then accompanied Cpl Callaghan and another man into the town, about 75 yards up the road to pick up some equipment that had been left behind when we were driven back. Back in the basement, we had something to eat - there were six of us in a room, and I started to clean my rifle. I cleaned it and was playing with the magagine trying to get the spring to work as it seemed to catch and would not push the cartridges out into the breech. It still didn't work but I filled it and put it back on the rifle. I worked the bolt but it seemed to slide over the rounds without pushing one into the chamber. I was sitting on a chair facing the door with the rifle across my knees. I must have dozed off. I had had no sleep for over 2 days Something woke me up - I think the time was about 1530 hrs, it could have been Mortar fire, I don't know what it was. I was lying on the floor and somebody was asking me if I wanted a cigarette, someone else was taking of my boot from my left foot which felt numb. I remember that Pte Cameron was in the room but I don't recall what he was doing. He is in No 5 Section, 17 Platoon. I can't remember anything from the time I was sitting on the chair working the bolt of my rifle until I found myself on the floor. I have a vague recollection of an explosion of some kind. Somebody put a bandage on my left foot. I was very hazy about the whole thing but I sat up and saw blood was coming through the bandage. I didn't know where the blood was coming from but one of the fellows told me I had been shot in the big toe - that it was only a slight wound. Another man told me that the bullet which wounded me came from my own rifle. He said he had looked at it and there was an empty round in in the chamber. I used the rifle later as a crutch but I didn't look for the empty round myself. I went with the help of another man whom I don't know to Coy HQ and there my wound was dressed again - or I think it was - I was still pretty hazy about the whole thing. From there I was sent to Field Dressing Station and through various hospitals until I arrived at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp on 10 Oct 44.

I have never thought about deliberately wounding myself. I don't know how it happened. I can't explain it any better than I have doen in this statement. I heard from one of the boys whose name I don't know that the safety catch was off the weapon. This would be the case as I was working the bolt the last thing I remember. I don't know what became of the rifle. I never saw it again after leaving Coy HQ on 29 Sept 44. I do not consider that I was negligent in any way.

This statement has been read to me. I have read it over and it is true.

Opening Address by Prosecutor

There were two witnesses Pte Cameron and Cpl Cameron, but they have since become casualties and are not now available.

D3
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Major J.P. Middleboro, RCAMC att 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I examined the accused this morning. I found a well healed soft tissue wound on his left great toe lying on the medial side of proximal phalanx. This was in the nature of a groove and passed at right angles to axis of the toe. No disability and I believe the wound could have been caused by weapon held in accused's own hands.

Cross-Examination.

The accused is fit to return to the line.

RP 83(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — B76047 S/Sgt CHESTER H.W. SIS Cdn Provost Corps att 12 Fd Pk 2 CHRU being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused. On 11 Oct 44 at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp I interviewed the accused and informed him I was investigating circumstance surrounding his wound. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He volunteered a statement which I reduced to writing, which he read over himself and signed. I produce the statement, marked exhibit "A"

The defence has no objection to admission of statement in evidence.

No Cross Examination

RP 83 (B) complied with.

MOTION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

I move for dismissal of both charges on following grounds. Firstly case by prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case there is not a scintilla of evidence to show intent in first charge and blameworthiness in second charge. Firstly Major Middleboro says he found a well healed tissue wound of great toe - no disability and that wound might have been caused by weapon. Second witness who merely produces a memo he took on 11 Oct 44 and purporting to be none other than an explanation by this accused as to actually what happened. Nothing in which discloses intent or negligence. There is nothing on which to found a conviction on the first charge. On the second charge if there is sufficient in your minds to establish blameworthiness, under Army rules and active conditions, only then you can make a finding on that charge.

REPLY BY PROSECUTOR

The prosecution has some difficulty with witnesses and must rely on the circumstances surrounding the incident - you have his nervous background. In his statement he admits he went to the bldgn for shelter after near misses and heavy machine gun fire for shelter - then you find him escorting prisoners to the rear. He returns to find his Pl Cmdr to take names of those left - he cleaned his rifle and this happened. This is sum and total of his statement. I say there is sufficient evidence there to necessitate an explanation. As to negligence, he has trained since 42 - basic and advanced and in the line some time before this incident happened. He admits trouble with mag and playing with bolt when in that condition, operated bolt back and forward several times, and safety must have been off - then nothing more but a vague explosion. Nature of the wound is also an important factor. As to negligence accused knew of faulty magazine and did not take proper safety precautions. You can find sufficient grounds in the circumstances to put the accused on his defence on both charges.

D6
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE — C73724 Pte DUNCAN J.D. Black Watch RH of C being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

I had no sleep for two days. I had completed cleaning my rifle Before I do_ed off. I heard a noice and the first thing I heard someone ask me if I wanted a cigarette. I had no thought of getting out of the line. There was heavy mortar fire at the time but it had ceased. What just woke me up I cannot say. I don't think that its fair that I have the suspicion of wounding myself intentionally. I had not asked to be relieved - I was with the unit for 8 days. I only account for dozing off because I had no sleep for 48 hrs. No one found fault with my work - I am a rifleman and would like to go ba ck and prove myself. This injury was not wilfull. I am 20 yrs of age - joined when I was 18 yrs - unmarried.

Cross-examination

I did not hold my hand down on rounds in magazine, when I worked bolt. I did not check to see if a round in chamber when I last closed bolt. You normally, when no round in chamber you close bolt and put safety catch on. I don't recall taking that precaution there. Sometimes we carried rifles loaded and safety catch off. We were close to enemy lines at the time. We were waiting for Calgarys to pass through. There were 5 or 6 of us in the cellar. Maybe if I hadn't been so tired and sleepy I would have been more careful. Cpl took names andwe were going to 18 pl where they were dug in. We were reforming and they were making one platoon out of two. We were cut off first and A & C Coys went through. I cannot explain the incident any different that I explained it in my statement. My memory was so blotted out that is all I can remember about it. I have never been in good physical condition since I've been in Army. MO's brush it off as rheumatism, or stiffness from lack of exercise or something like that. I said I'd go back to the infantry. There are however sometimes you have to run and that leaves me out. After I have stood still for a while I cannot start running. I have always had that, that is why I joined RCOC. The army has brought it on more. We started to fight 3 o'clock on afternoon untill 1500 hrs the next. We took our objective, then enemy counter attacked. Just the one show. I was not fighting all the 48 hrs I was without sleep

By the Court

I was an Airplane Mechanic in civil life.
I suppose the round caught the last time I pushed the bolt home. I was off duty part of the 48 hrs but I got wet in the rain and could not sleep.
R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

PROSECUTION CLOSING ADDRESS

The facts are simple and fresh in your minds - I only want to bring out a few of them showing that the accused's story is not consistent. The charges are in the alternative and it is my submission that there is sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction under the 1st chge. The accused was cleaning his rifle in basement of a bldgn there were a number present. The circumstance leading up indicate in some respect what was in accused's mind - At least the type of work he was doing and what his Pl Cmdr thought of his position at the time. As far as negligence is concerned, he said he remembered nothing after he worked the bolt - no precautions were taken - He did not see if a round in the chamber - did not hold rounds down when he shoved bolt home. If you do not believe the accused then thereis sufficient evidence to support the first charge. I leave the question of credibility to you. 303 round through the toe would not blot everything out of your mind, not like a blow on the head. No question of concussion in 303 explosion - there would be very little report or noise. I suggest the natural sequence of events lead up to accused doing this act - return to bldgn then to rear with prisoners followed by return to cellar to find Pl Comdr taking names of those present to transfer to another platoon for action, then the shooting. Unfortunately.

DEFENCE CLOSING ADDRESS

The accused was placed on his defence and under oath gave the court his explanation of what took place. When asked about the particular circumstances surrounding this incident and asked if it was wilful or negligent - his reply was reasonable one - one cannot account for all actions under conditions existing in the front line. It is not likely that if accused intented to injure himself that he would do so in the basement in presence of 5 of his comrades. The prosecution have not been able to produce one single member of these five. That is unfortunate - principle of doubt and establishment of intent in this case is impossible in view of lack of evidence I have referred to. As to the first charge it is impossible to convict this man on his own story where intent cannot be substantially inferred. Charge should be dismissed. As to negligence, he knows certain standards are to be maintained under certain conditions and probably the first thing he learned. Despite the rigorous conditions existing at the time - in contact with enemy certain standards of care must maintained or more accidents would occur. Therefore he is prepared to accept those conditions where they are precedent to good soldiery and in order to prove he is a good soldier he has told you under oath that he wants to go back and prove it. My submission on this charge (2nd) that any sentence you may feel like awarding - have its effect suspended and make it possible for this boy to go back and prove in his own mind and others that he is worthy to be wearing the uniform of the Black Watch.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused is 20 yrs old - enlisted 16 Nov 42 born 3 Nov 24 - from Oshawa, Ont - father inspector with General Motors - both parents living. One brother with PPCLI in Italy, one in RCAF 18 yrs old in Canada education 1 yr high at 15 yrs - unmarried - assigns $20 to his mother. My remarks are only to second charge and material to consider the extent of his blameworthiness pursuant to amend to Sec 40. Weigh evidence as to its relative degree of negligence in these particular cases. In this particular case I ask you to consider this lads unit was in close proximity to the enemy when this unfortunate occurrence took place, and secondly we are unable to produce any comrade to say how he previously acquitted himself in the Pn before this happened. Finally I ask you to view as a case where he wants to go back and prove he is type of soldier he says he is. Therefore I can do no better than ask you to do everything you can which will enable him to return thereby giving him his means to carry outthis will.

(Sgd) E.F. Lee Major
President.

Reg No C753724 Pte DUNCAN, Jack Douglas, Black Watch, (RH of C)
17 Pln "D" Coy, 2 Cdn Infantry Div., states as follows:

I have been warned by S/Sgt Chester, SIB Cdn Provost Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I understand this caution and I make this statement voluntarily.

(Sgd) J. Duncan

I will be 20 years of age in November of this year. I enlisted voluntarily in the RCOC at Kingston, Ont on 17 Nov 42. I served with and had my basic training in the RCOC at Kingston and Cornwall. Four months after enlistment I was transferred with a number of other men from Ordnance to Cdn Infantry Corps and sent to Valcartier camp where I had advanced training for two months. In December 43 I arrived in the UK with other infantry reinforcements and went to 5 CIRU where I remained until March 44 when I went as a reinforcement to my present unit and was placed in "D" Coy which was training coy for reinforcements. Before the unit came to France about the middle of June 44 the majority of "D" Coy including myself were sent to CBRD as a reinforcement Coy for the Black Watch. After 2 weeks there I was sent to 1st Cdn Army Service Incre for about 2 months, then to 4 Dn Service Incre, for a few days, then to 4 CIRU where I remained for about 5 weeks, until about 1 Sept 44 when I was sent to France, arriving about 9th or 10th of Sep at 2 CBRD. I rejoined my unit about 22nd or 23rd Sept 44. They were then at a rest camp in Belgium and we stayed there until 28 Sept when we moved up to a town, it was either St Leonard or a part of it and took it with very little opposition, but were driven out again early the next morning by a counterattack and took up a position on the south side of the canal. From about 0530 hrs until about 1100 hrs 29 Sep I was with the Company spread out behind the back of the Canal and were pinned down by machine gun and mortar fire. There were not enough slit trenches to go around, so about 1100 hrs, after a couple of near misses from mortar-bombs, with ther permission of my Cpl, Callaghan by name, I went with another man from the Coy, whose name I don't know, and got into the basement of a nearby building which used to be company headquartens before they moved accross the road. There were a number of men going in and out of this building looking for the new HQ. After a while I went to the new HQ to take a look at some prisoners held there and was detailed by the CSM to help escort prisoners back to Battalion HQ about a mile away. On returning to the basement I saw Cpl Callaghan taking the names of those of our platoon who were left. I went out again to look around and then accompanied Cpl Callaghan and another man into the town, about 75 yards up the road to pick up some equipment that had been left behind when we were driven back. Back in the basement, we had something to eat - there were six of us in a room, and I started to clean my rifle. I cleaned it and was playing with the magazine trying to get the spring to work as it seemed to catch and would not push the cartridges out into the breech. It still didn't work but I filled it and put it back on the rifle. I worked the bolt but it seemed to slide over the rounds without pushing one into the chamber. I was sitting on a chair facing the door with the rifle across my knees. I must have dozed off. I had had no sleep for over 2 days Something woke me up - I think the time was about 1530 hrs, it could have been Mortar fire, I don't know what it was. I was lying on the floor and somebodywas asking me if I wanted a cigarette, someone else was taking off my boot from my left foot which felt numb. I remember that Pte Cameron was in the room but I don't recall what he was doing. He is in No 5 Section, 17 Platoon. I can't remember anything from the time I was sitting on the chair working the bolt of my rifle until I found myself on the floor. I have a vague recollection of an explosion of some kind. Somebody put a bandage on my left foot. I was very hazy about the whole thing but I sat up and saw blood was coming ~~from~~ through the bandage. I didn't know where the blood was coming from but one of the fellows told me I had been shot in the big toe - that it was only a slight wound. Another man told me that the bullet which wounded me came from my own rifle. He said he had looked at it and there was an empty round in in the chamber. I used the rifle later as a crutch but I didn't look for the empty round myself. I went with the help of another man whom I don't know to Coy HQ and there my wound was dressed again - or I think it was - I was still pretty hazy about the whole thing. From there I was sent to Field Dressing Station and through various hospitals until I arrived at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp on 10 Oct 44.

I have never thought about deliberately wounding myself. I don't know how it happened. I can't explain it any better than I have doen in this statement. I heard from one of the boys whose name I don't know that the safety catch was off the weapon. This would be the case as I was working the bolt the last thing I remember. I don't know what became of the rifle. I never saw it again after leaving Coy HQ on 29 Sept 44. I do not consider that I was negligent in any way.

This statement has been read to me. I have read it over and it is true.

Opening Address by Prosecutor

There were two witnesses Pte Cameron and Cpl Cameron, but they have since become casualties and are not now available.

D3
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Major J.P. Middleboro, RCAMC att 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I examined the accused this morning. I found a well healed soft tissue wound on his left great toe lying on the medial side of proximal phalanx. This was in the nature of a groove and passed at right angles to axis of the toe. No disability and I believe the wound could have been caused by weapon held in accused's own hands.

Cross-Examination.

The accused is fit to return to the line.

RP 83(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — B76047 S/Sgt CHESTER H.W. SIS Cdn Provost Corps att 12 Bn 2 CBRD being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused. On 11 Oct 44 at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp I interviewed the accused and informed him I was investigating circumstance surrounding his wound. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He volunteered a statement which I reduced to writing, which he read over himself and signed. I produce the statement, marked exhibit "A".

The defence has no objection to admission of statement in evidence.

No Cross Examination

RP 83 (B) complied with.

D.4
MOTION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

I move for dismissal of both charges on following grounds. Firstly case by prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case there is not a scintilla of evidence to show intent in first charge and blameworthiness in second charge. Firstly Major Middleboro says he found a well healed tissue wound of great toe - no disability and that wound might have been caused by weapon. Second witness who merely produces a memo he took on 11 Oct 44 and purporting to be none other than an explanation by this accused as to actually what happened. Nothing in which discloses intent or negligence. There is nothing on which to found a conviction on the first charge. On the second charge if there is sufficient in your minds to establish blamworthiness, under Army rules and active conditions, only then you can make a finding on that charge.

REPLY BY PROSECUTOR

The prosecution has some difficulty with witnesses and must rely on the circumstances surrounding the incident - you have his nervous background. In his statement he admits he went to the bldgn for shelter after near misses and heavy machine gun fire for shelter - then you find him escorting prisoners to the rear. He returns to find his Pl Cmdr to take names of those left - he cleaned his rifle and this happened. This is sum and total of his statement. I say there is sufficient evidence there to necessitate an explanation. As to negligence, he has trained since 42 - basic and advanced and in the line some time before this incident happened. He admits trouble with mag and playing with bolt when in that condition, operated bolt back and forward several times, and safety must have been off - then nothing more but a vague explosion. Nature of the wound is also an important factor. As to negligence accused knew of faulty magazine and did not take proper safety precautions. You can find sufficient grounds in the circumstances to put the accused on his defence on both charges.

D6
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE — C73724 Pte DUNCAN J.D. Black Watch RH of C being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

I had no sleep for two days. I had completed cleaning my rifle before I dozed off. I heard a noise and the first thing I heard someone ask me if I wanted a cigarette. I had no thought of getting out of the line. There was heavy mortar fire at the time but it had ceased. What just woke me up I cannot say. I don't think that its fair that I have the suspicion of wounding myself intentionally. I had not asked to be relieved - I was with the unit for 8 days. I only account for dozing off because I had no sleep for 48 hrs. No one found fault with my work - I am a rifleman and would like to go back and prove myself. This injury was not wilfull. I am 20 yrs of age - joined when I was 18 yrs - unmarried.

Cross-examination

I did not hold my hand down on rounds in magazine, when I worked bolt. I did not check to see if a round in chamber when I last closed bolt. You normally, when no round in chamber you close bolt and put safety catch on. I don't recall taking that precaution there. Sometimes we carried rifles loaded and safety catch off. We were close to enemy lines at the time. We were waiting for Calgarys to pass through. There were 5 or 6 of us in the cellar. Maybe if I hadn't been so tired and sleepy I would have been more careful. Cpl took names andwe were going to 18 pl where they were dug in. We were reforming and they were making one platoon out of two. We were cut off first and A & C Coys went through. I cannot explain the incident any different that I explained it in my statement. My memory was so blotted out that is all I can remember about it. I have never been in good physical condition since I've been in Army. MO's brush it off as rheumatism, or stiffness from lack of exercise or something like that. I said I'd go back to the infantry. There are however sometimes you have to run and that leaves me out. After I have stood still for a while I cannot start running. I have always had that, that is why I joined RCOC. The army has brought it on more. We started to fight 3 o'clock on afternoon untill 1500 hrs the next. We took our objective, then enemy counter attacked. Just the one show. I was not fighting all the 48 hrs I was without sleep

By the Court

I was an Airplane Mechanic in civil life.
I suppose the round caught the last time I pushed the bolt home. I was off duty part of the 48 hrs but I got wet in the rain and could not sleep.
R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

PROSECUTION CLOSING ADDRESS

The facts are simple and fresh in your minds - I only want to bring out a few of them showing that the accused's story is not consistent. The charges are in the alternative and it is my submission that there is sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction under the 1st chge. The accused was cleaning his rifle in basement of a bldgn there were a number present. - The circumstance leading up indicate in some reppect what was in accused's mind - At least the type of work he was doing and what his Pl Cmdr thought of his position at the time. As far as negligence is concerned, he said he remembered nothing after he worked the bolt - no precautions were taken - He did not see if a round in the chamber - did not hold rounds down when he shoved bolt home. If you do not believe the accused then thereis sufficient evidence to support the first charge. I leave the question of credibility to you. 303 round through the toe would not blot everything out of your mind, not like a blow on the head. No question of concussion in 303 explosion - there would be very little report or noise. I suggest the natural sequence of events lead up to accused doing this act - return to bldgn then to rear with prisoners followed by return to cellar to find Pl Comdr taking names of those present to transfer to another platoon for action, then the shooting. Unfortunately.

DEFENCE CLOSING ADDRESS

The accused was placed on his defence and under oath gave the court his explanation of what took place. When asked about the particular circumstances surrounding this incident and asked if it was wilful or negligent - his reply was reasonable one - one cannot account for all actions under conditions existing in the front line. It is not likely that if accused intented to injure himself that he would do so in the basement in presence of 5 of his comrades. The prosecution have not been able to produce one single member of these five. That is unfortunate - principle of doubt and establishment of intent in this case is impossible in view of lack of evidence I have referred to. As to the first charge it is impossible to convict this man on his own story where intent cannot be substantially inferred. Charge should be dismissed. As to negligence, he knows certain standards are to be maintained under certain conditions and probably the first thing he learned. Despite the rigorous conditions existing at the time - in contact with enemy certain standards of care must maintained or more accidents would occur. Therefore he is prepared to accept those conditions where they are precedent to good soldiery and in order to prove he is a good soldier he has told you under oath that he wants to go back and prove it. My submission on this charge (2nd) that any sentence you may feel like awarding - have its effect suspended and make it possible for this boy to go back and prove in his own mind and others that he is worthy to be wearing the uniform of the Black Watch.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused is 20 yrs old - enlisted 16 Nov 42 born 3 Nov 24 - from Oshawa, Ont - father inspector with General Motors - both parents living. One brother with PPCLI in Italy, one in RCAF 18 yrs old in Canada education 1 yr high at 15 yrs - unmarried - assigns $20 to his mother. My remarks are only to second charge and material to consider the extent of his blameworthiness pursuant to amend to Sec 40. Weigh evidence as to its relative degree of negligence in these particular cases. In this particular case I ask you to consider this lads unit was in close proximity to the enemy when this unfortunate occurrence took place, and secondly we are unable to produce any comrade to say how he previously acquitted himself in the Bn before this happened. Finally I ask you to view as a case where he wants to go back and prove he is type of soldier he says he is. Therefore I can do no better than ask you to do everything you can which will enable him to return thereby giving him his means to carry outhis will.

EXHIBIT "A"

Reg No C73724 Pte DUNCAN, Jack Douglas, Black Watch, (RH of C)
17 Pln "D" Coy, 2 Cdn Infantry Div., states as follows:

I have been warned by S/Sgt Chester, SIS Cdn Provost Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I understand this caution and I make this statement voluntarily.

(Sgd) J. Duncan

I will be 20 years of age in November of this year. I enlisted voluntarily in the RCOC at Kingston, Ont on 17 Nov 42. I served with and had my basic training in the RCOC at Kingston and Cornwall. Four months after enlistment I was transferred with a number of other men from Ordnance to Cdn Infantry Corps and sent to Valcartier camp where I had advanced training for two months. In December 43 I arrived in the UK with other infantry reinforcements and went to 5 CIRU where I remained until March 44 when I went as a reinforcement to my present unit and was placed in "E" Coy which was training coy for reinforcements. Before the unit came to France about the middle of June 44 the majority of "E" Coy including myself were sent to CBRD as a reinforcement Coy for the Black Watch. After 2 weeks there I was sent to 1st Cdn Army Service Incre for about 2 months, then to 4 Di Service Incre, for a few days, then to 4 CIRU where I remained for about 5 weeks, until about 1 Sept 44 when I was sent to France, arriving about 9th or 10th of Sep at 2 CBRD. I rejoined my unit about 22nd or 23rd Sept 44. They were then at a rest camp in Belgium and we stayed there until 28 Sept when we moved up to a town, it was either St Leonard or a part of it and took it with very little opposition, but were driven out again early the next morning by a counterattack and took up a position on the south side of the canal. From about 0530 hrs until about 1100 hrs 29 Sep I was with the Company spread out behind the back of the Canal and were pinned down by machine gun and mortar fire. There were not enough slit trenches to go around, so about 1100 hrs, after a couple of near misses from mortar-bombs, with ther permission of my Cpl, Callaghan by name, I went with another man from the Coy, whose name I don't know, and got into the basement of a nearby building which used to be company headquarters before they moved across the road. There were a number of men going in and out of this building looking for the new HQ. After a while I went to the new HQ to take a look at some prisoners held there and was detailed by the CSM to help escort prisoners back to Battalion HQ about a mile away. On returning to the basement I saw Cpl Callaghan taking the names of those of our platoon who were left. I went out again to look around and then accompanied Cpl Callaghan and another man into the town, about 75 yards up the road to pick up some equipment that had been left behind when we were driven back. Back in the basement, we had something to eat - there were six of us in a room, and I started to clean my rifle. I cleaned it and was playing with the magazine trying to get the spring to work as it seemed to catch and would not push the cartridges out into the breech. It still didn't work but I filled it and put it back on the rifle. I worked the bolt but it seemed to slide over the rounds without pushing one into the chamber. I was sitting on a chair facing the door with the rifle across my knees. I must have dozed off. I had had no sleep for over 2 days Something woke me up - I think the time was about 1530 hrs, it could have been Mortar fire, I don't know what it was. I was lying on the floor and somebodywas asking me if I wanted a cigarette, someone else was taking of my boot from my left foot which felt numb. I remember that Pte Cameron was in the room but I don't recall what he was doing. He is in No 5 Section, 17 Platoon. I can't remember anything from the time I was sitting on the chair working the bolt of my rifle until I found myself on the floor. I have a vague recollection of an explosion of some kind. Somebody put a bandage on my left foot. I was very hazy about the whole thing but I sat up and saw blood was coming through the bandage. I didn't know where the blood was coming from but one of the fellows told me I had been shot in the big toe - that it was only a slight wound. Another man told me that the bullet which wounded me came from my own rifle. He said he had looked at it and there was an empty round in in the chamber. I used the rifle later as a crutch but I didn't look for the empty round myself. I went with the help of another man whom I don't know to Coy HQ and there my wound was dressed again - or I think it was - I was still pretty hazy about the whole thing. From there I was sent to Field Dressing Station and through various hospitals until I arrived at 21 Cdn Gen Hosp on 10 Oct 44.

I have never thought about deliberately wounding myself. I don't know how it happened. I can't explain it any better than I have done in this statement. I heard from one of the boys whose name I don't know that the safety catch was off the weapon. This would be the case as I was working the bolt the last thing I remember. I don't know what became of the rifle. I never saw it again after leaving Coy HQ on 29 Sept 44. I do not consider that I was negligent in any way.

This statement has been read to me. I have read it over and it is true.

First witness for the prosecution

Major S.P. Middleboro, RCAMC att 2 Can Gen Hosp. being duly sworn to examined by the prosecution.

I examined the accused this morning. I found a well healed soft tissue wound on his left great toe lying on the medial side of proximal phalanx. This was in the nature of a groove and passed at right angles to axis of the toe. No disability and I believe the wound could have been caused by weapon held in accused's own hands

I recognize the accused. On 11 Oct 40 at 21 Can Gen Hosp I interviewed the accused and informed him I was investigating circumstances surrounding his wound. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He volunteered a statement which I reduced to writing, which he read over himself and signed. I produce the statement, marked exhibit "A".

The defence has no objection to admission of statement in evidence

Motion by defending officer

I move for dismissal of both charges on following grounds. 1st by case by prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case there is not a scintilla of evidence to show intent in first charge and blameworthiness in second charge. Firstly Maja Middleboro, says he found ~~a wound~~ the ~~wound left great toe~~ small healed tissue wound of great toe - no disability and that wound might have been caused by weapon. Second witness who merely produces a memo he took on 11 Oct 44 and purporting to be more other than an explanation by this accused as to actually what happened. Nothing in which discloses intent or negligence. There is nothing on which to found a conviction on the first charge. On the second charge if there is sufficient for you to wonder to establish blameworthiness under army rules and actual condition, only then can you make a finding on that charge.

Reply by prosecutor

The prosecution has same difficulty with witnesses and must rely on the circumstances surrounding the incident - you have his nervous background. In his statement he admits he went to the bldgs for shelter often near misses and heavy machine gun fire for shelter - then you find him escorting prisoners to the rear he returns to find his CO Cmdr is take names of those left ~~to go to another~~ - he cleaned his rifle and this happened. This is the sum and total of his statement. I say there is sufficient evidence there to necessitate an explanation. Re to negligence, he has trained since 42 - ~~rapid~~ and advancement and in the line some time before this incident happened. He admits trouble with mag and playing with bolt when in that condition, operated bolt back and forward several times, and safety must have been off - then nothing more but a vague explosion. Nature of the wound is also an important factor as to negligence seemed known faulty magazine and did not take proper safety precautions you can find sufficient grounds in the circumstances to put the accused on his defense on both charges.

D 6.

First witness for the defence

C/26724 Pte Duncan J.D. Black Watch, R.H. being duly sworn is examined by the defending Officer.

I had no sleep for two days. I had completed cleaning my rifle before I dozed off. I heard a noise and the first thing I heard someone ask me if I wanted a cigarette. I had no thought of getting out of the line - then was being mortar fire at the time but I had heard. What put me up I cannot say. I don't think that it's fair that I lose the privilege of wounding myself intentionally. I had not asked to been relieved - I was sick the night for 3 days. I only account for dozing off because I had no sleep for 48 hrs. No one found fault with my work - I am a reformer and would like to go back to work. I took 38 prisoners back with another lad. I would like to go back and prove myself. This injury was not wilful. I am 20 yrs of age - joined when I was 18 yrs - was married.

Cross-examination

I did not hold my hand down on rounds in magazine when I worked bolt. I did not think it was of a round in chamber when I heard click bolt. You normally, when no round in chamber you close bolt and put safety catch on. I don't recall taking that precaution then. Sometimes we carried rifles loaded and safety catch off. We were close to enemy lines at the time. We were waiting for Calgary to pass through. There were 5 or 6 of us in the cellar. Maybe if I hadn't been so tired and sleepy I would have been more careful. Cpl Stock-manner and we were going to 18 pl. when they were dug in. We were reforming and they were making one platoon out of two. We were cut off first and 19 & C Coys went through. I cannot explain the incident any different than I explained it in my statement. My memory was not blotted out. That is all I can remember about it. I have never been on guard plagued condition and I've been on many. Mc. knocked it off as abnormality, or affliction from lack of sleep, or something like that. To prove that it wasn't intentional. I said I'd go back to the infantry. There are times sometimes you have to run and that knocks me out. After I have stood still for a while I can start running. I have always had that. That is why I joined the RCOC. The army has brought it on more. We started to fight 3 o'clock one afternoon until 1500 hrs the next. We took our objective, then enemy counter attacked. first the one above. I was not fighting all the 48 hrs I was without sleep.

By the Court

I was an airframe mechanic in civil life. I suppose the round caught the last time I pushed the bolt home. I was off duty part of the 48 hrs but I got wet in the rain and could not sleep.

RP 83(2) complied with

Prosecution closing address

The facts are simple and fresh in your minds - I only want to bring out a few of them showing that the accused's story so not consistent. The charges are in the alternative and it is my submission that there is sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction under the 1st chge. The accused was cleaning his rifle in basement of a bldgn there were a number present. The circumstances leading up thereto in some respect what was the accused's mind – at least the type of work he was doing and what his fl. under thought of his position at the time. As far as negligence is concerned, he said he remembered nothing after he worked the bolt – no precautions were taken. He did not see if a round in the chamber – did not hold rounds down when he shoved bolt home. If you do not believe the accused then there is sufficient evidence to support the first charge I leave the question of credibility to you. 303 would through the bn would not that everything out of your mind, not like a blow on the head – no question of concussion in 303 explosion – there would be very little report or noise. I suggest the natural sequence of events lead up to accused doing this act – return to bldgn then to rear with prisoners followed by return to cellar to find Pl. Comdr taking names of those present to transfer to another platoon for action, then the shooting unfortunately Defences closing address.

The accused was placed on his defence and under oath gave the court his explanation of what took place. When asked about the particular circumstances surrounding the incident and asked if it was wilful or negligent – his reply was a reasonable one – one cannot account for all actions under conditions existing on the front line. It is not likely that if accused intended to injure himself that he would do so in the basement in presence of 5 of his comrades. The prosecution have not been able to produce one single member of these five. That is unfortunate - principle of doubt and establishment of intent in this case is impossible in view of lack of evidence I have referred to. As to the first charge it is impossible to convict this man on his own story where intent cannot be substantially inferred. Charge should be dismissed. As to negligence, he knows certain standards are to be maintained under certain conditions and probably the first thing he learned - Despite the rigorous conditions existing at the time - in contact with enemy certain standards of care must be maintained or more accidents would occur. He is prepared to accept those conditions when they are precedent to good soldiering and in order to prove he is a good soldier he has told you under oath that he wants to go back and prove it. My submission on this charge (2nd) that any sentence you may feel like awarding - have its effect suspended and make it possible for this boy to go back and prove in his own mind and others that he is worthy to be wearing the uniform of the Black Watch.

Plea in mitigation by the defending Officer

The accused is 20 yrs old - enlisted 16 Dec 42 born 3 Nov 24 - from Oshawa, Ont - father inspector with General Motors - both parents living. One brother with PPCLI in Italy, one in RCAF. 19 yrs old in Canada - education 1 yr high. at 15 yrs - unmarried - assigns $20 to his mother. My remarks are only to record charge and material to consider the extent of his blameworthiness pursuant to amend to sec 70. Weigh evidence as to its relative degree of negligence in these particular cases. In this particular case I ask you to consider this lads unit was in close proximity to the enemy when this unfortunate occurrence took place, and personally we are unable to produce any comrade to say how he previously acquitted himself on the Bar before this happened. Finally I ask you to view us as a case where he wants to go back and prove he is type of soldier he says he is. Therefore I can do no better than ask you to do everything you can which will enable him to return thereby giving him the means to carry out his will

Reg No. C-73724, Pte. DUNCAN, Jack Douglas, Black Watch, (R.H.of C.) 17 Plw, "D" Coy, 2 Cdn. Infantry Div., states as follows:

I have been warned by S/Sgt Chester, S.I.S. Cdn. Provost Corps, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I understand this caution and I make this statement voluntarily.

SIGNATURE J. Duncan

I will be 20 years of age in November of this year. I enlisted voluntarily in the RCOC at Kingston, Ont on 17 Nov. 42. I served with and had my basic training in the RCOC at Kingston and Cornwall. Four months after enlistment I was transferred with a number of other men from Ordnance to Cdn. Infantry Corps and sent to Valcartier Camp where I had advanced training for ~~two~~ JD months. In December 43 I arrived in the U.K. with other infantry reinforcements and went to 5 C.I.R.U. where I remained until March 44 when I went as a reinforcement to my present unit and was placed in "E" Coy which was a training Coy for reinforcements. ~~Before~~ JD the unit came to France about the ~~middle~~ JD ~~end~~ of June 44 the majority of "E" Coy including myself were sent to C.B.R.G. as a re-inforcement Coy for the Black Watch. After 2 weeks there I was sent to 1st Cdn Army Troops Mess for about 2 months, then to 4 Div. Troops Mess, for a few days, then to 4 C.I.R.U. where I remained for about 5 weeks, until about 1 Sept 44 when I was sent to France, arriving about 9th or 10th of Sept at 2 C.B.R.G. I rejoined my unit about 22nd or 23rd Sept 44. They were then at a rest Camp in Belgium and we stayed there until 28 Sept when we moved up to a town - it was either St. Leonard or a part of it and took it with very little opposition, but were driven out again early the next morning by a counter-attack and took up a position on the south side of the Canal. From about 0630 hrs until about 11.00 hrs 29 Sept I was with the Company spread out behind the bank of the canal and were pinned down by machine-gun and mortar fire. There were not enough slit trenches to go around, so about 1100 hrs., after a couple of near misses from mortar-bombs, with the permission of my Cpl, Callaghan by name, I went with another man from the Coy, whose name I don't know, and got into the basement of a nearby building which used to be Company headquarters before they moved across the road. There were a number of men going in and out of this building looking for the new H.Q. After a while I went to the new H.Q. to take a look at some prisoners held there and was detailed by the CSM to help escort prisoners back to Battalion H.Q. about a mile away. On returning to the basement I saw Cpl Callaghan taking the names of those of our platoon who were left. I went out again to look around and then accompanied Cpl Callaghan and another man into the town, about 75 yards up the road to pick up some equipment that had been left behind when we were driven back. Back in the basement, we had something to eat — there were six of us in a room — and I started to clean my rifle. I cleaned it and was playing with the magazine trying to get the spring to work as it seemed to catch and would not push the cartridges out into the breech. It still didn't work but I filled it and put it back on the rifle. I worked the bolt but it seemed to slide over the rounds without pushing one into the chamber. I was sitting on a chair facing the door with the rifle across my knees. I must have dozed off. I had had no sleep for over 2 days. Something woke me up. I think the time was about 1530 hrs., it could have been Mortar fire, I don't know what it was. I was lying on the floor and some body was asking me if I wanted a cigarette, some-one else was taking my boot from my left foot which felt numb. I remember that the Cameras was in the room but I don't recall what he was doing. He is in No. 5 Section, 17 Platoon. I can't remember anything from the time I was sitting on the chair working the bolt of my rifle until I found myself on the floor. I have a vague recollection of an explosion of some kind. Somebody put a bandage on my left foot. I was very hazy about the whole thing but I sat up and saw the blood coming through the bandage. I didn't know where the blood was coming from but one of the fellows told me I had been shot in the big toe – that it was only a slight wound. Another man told me that the bullet which wounded me came from my own rifle. He said he had looked at it and there was an empty round in the chamber. I used the rifle later as a crutch but I didn't look for the empty round myself. I went with the help of another man whom I don't know to Coy H.Q. and there my wound was dressed again – or I think it was – I was still pretty hazy about the whole thing. From there I was sent to Field Dressing Station and through various hospitals until I arrived at 21 Can. Gen. Hosp. on 10 Oct 44.

I have never thought about deliberately wounding myself. I don't know how it happened. I can't explain it any better than I have done in this statement. I heard from one of the boys whose name I don't know that the safety catch was off the weapon. This would be the case as I was working the bolt the last thing I remember. I don't know what became of the rifle. I never saw it again after leaving Coy H.Q. on 29 Sept 44. I do not consider that I was negligent in any way.

This statement has been read to me. I have read it over and it is true.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Capt D.R. Buchanan, 20 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC, sworn, states:

I examined the accused, Pte Duncan, to-day, 19 Dec 44. I found a half-inch scar on the lateral surface of the proximal phalanx of the left great toe. It is not adherent or painful. There is no limitation of movement. He walks without difficulty and there should be no lowering of category. This could have been caused by a weapon held in the man's own hands. He is fit for full duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No, sir .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E2 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (1). (1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charge on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (C).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 712.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Con 563(a).)

This is to certify that I have this day examined R64227 Rfn Richard DUNCAN and have found him fit to stand trial by Field General Court Martial.

R.D. Gatward, Capt.

The president having read to the accused para B2 on record form "B", the Judge Advocate addresses the accused:

Do you understand that if you plead"guilty" no witnesses will be called by the prosecution but the court will read the summary of evidence which was taken in your presence and hear anything you wish to say or any witnesses you wish to call, but it will only be a question of assessing sentence?

Secondly, you have pleaded "guilty" to using insubordinate language to a superior officer. I must point out to you that fbr you to be guilty of this charge it is not sufficient that you admit that the words alleged were used. By pleading "guilty" you would also admit that the words used were used with an insubordinate intent. That is to say they must be, either in themselves or in the manner or circumstances in which they were spoken, insulting or disrespectful and it must be that they were intended to be heard by the superior officer to whom they were addressed. Therefore if you plead "guilty" you admit that you intended to be disrespectful toward a/Cpl Huff.

Do you still wish to plead "guilty"?

Accused: Yes, sir.

N O T E

The defending officer declined to make a plea in mitigation. The Judge Advocate pointed out to the defending officer that the accused had elected trial by court-martial and then at the court-martial had pleaded"guilty". The defending officer might have grounds for saying nothing but there might be certain matters unanswered in the minds of the court. He then asked the defending officer if his decision to make no address in mitigation were a considered one and was assured that it was.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. FIRST WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt. J.H. Gilbraith, No 1 Coy R.C.C.S. 2nd Cdn Div. Signals. Having been duly sworn states:

"On the 23rd Jan 44, I was Signal Master here at H.Q. 2 Cdn Div. At approximately 1030 hrs I sent Sgt Strachan to look for the accused. Sgt Strachan was unable to find him. Again before 1100 hrs Sgt Strachan was sent to look for the accused, but without success, after 1330 hrs I sent again Sgt Strachan to look for the accused but he was unable to produce him. The first time I saw the accused after that was when he reported to take his duties as superintendant between 1450 and 1500 hrs.

I'm sect. com'der of the accused. By mutual agreement between Sgt Strachan and the accused they each take 24 hrs of duty and have 24 hrs off. As far as the use of their 24 hrs off duty, they're under Div.Signals. From 1200 hrs to 2300 hrs personnel off duty may be out of [illegible] without pass on week days and on Sundays from Reveille till 2300 hrs."

Cross-examine by the defence. The witness further states that "Relief of those Sgts were made at 1200 hrs but by mutual agreement the Sgt on duty normally carried on the work until the relieving Sgt appeared. The superintendant was not normally called for while he was off duty. For a period of approximately one month the accused was held responsible for the man-management of the signal office. In the last four and half months the accused has served under me he has proved to be efficient reliable and willing."

Question by the court.

Q. 1 "Has Sgt Duncan had any means of knowing he would required on the morning of the 23rd Jan 44.?"

SECOND WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

L.20022 Sgt Strachan, J.K. R.C.C.S. 2nd Cdn Div. having been duly sworn states:

"I recognize the accused.

At 2100 hrs on the 22 Jan 44 I received orders that the accused and some 10 other persons had to be paraded at 1100 hrs the next day. At approximately 2300 hrs the 22rd I looked for the accused in the Sgt quarters and the Sgt mess, he was not in the Sgt quarters or the Sgt mess. At 0720 hrs the 23rd Jan 44 I again looked for the accused and could not find him in the Sgt mess or Sgt quarters. At 0900 hrs I reported the fact to Capt. Gilbraith, I again looked for the accused in the Sgt Quarter and Sgt mess at 1020 hrs and 1345 hrsbut could not fine him. I only saw the accused approximately at 1500 hrs after he reported to Capt. Gilbraith, When I visited the Sgt quarters at 0720 hrs the 23rd the bed of the accused was made up.

The normal tour of duty of superintendance is from 1200 hrs to 1200 hrs the next day on arrangement between the Superintendant. The lunch period inthe Sgt mess is from 1145 hrs to 1300 hrs every day. Usually when passes are approved by section com'der they are signed by the O.C. of the Coy."

Cross-examine by the defence. The witn states:

"I cannot swear that nobody slept on the ac the night of the 22nd to 23rd Jan 44. I do not occasion on which I relieved the accused later th except one occasion when I relieved him at 2000 hrs. We ha gement between the accused and myself by which we carr our duty until relieved. I searched 3rd quarter and 4th at 2300 hrs 22nd and 0720 hrs 23rd. The first time I saw the accused after that was approximately 1500 hrs 23rd Jan 44."

(R.P. 63(3) has been complied with.)

plea by the defencing officer that there is no prima facie case on this charge.

Defencing officer puts up a plea that the prosecution has not brought evidence to prove the charge, and the prosecution replied that a Sgt should not be allowed to have special privileges.

Court closes for deliberation

The court feels that there is no sufficient evidence to prove the charge.

Not guilty.

Case is close.

I wish a defending officer.

I desire the services of S/Sgt Haskell (at DADOS 2 Corps Tps) if he is available.

A Summary of Evidence taken in the case of C.3556 Sgt. Duncan, Ronald Stewart, of Signals 2 Cdn Inf Div., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, while in the Field, taken on oath by Capt. J.J.Williams at the direction of Lt.-Col. J.W.Johanson, C.O. Sigs 2 Cdn Inf Div on 25 Jan 44.

The accused is informed of his rights.

1st Witness for the Prosecution - Capt. J.H.Gilbreath, O.C. "O" Section, Signals 2 Cdn Inf Div., having been duly sworn states:-

"I was Signalmaster at H.Q. 2 Cdn Inf Div on 23 Jan 44. At approximately 1030 hrs Sgt. Strachan, the Signal Office Superintendent, told me that Sgt. Duncan was supposed to be at No. 1 Coy office at 1100 hrs. I sent Sgt. Strachan out to try to find him. Sgt. Strachan reported back that he could not find him in his quarters or in the area. On returning from lunch at 1330 hrs I sent Sgt. Strachan again to try to find Sgt. Duncan and he (Sgt. Strachan) again reported that he could not find Sgt. Duncan. At 1457 hrs Sgt. Duncan reported to me in the Signal Office to take up his duties as Superintendent."

Cross-examined by the Accused

Question 1 - "How long did it take Sgt. Strachan to make this search at approximately 1030 hrs?"

Answer 1 - "Four or five minutes."

Question 2 - "Did you conduct a search at all yourself?"

Answer 2 - "No."

Question 3 - "Are you certain that the time that I reported to you was 1457 hrs?"

Answer 3 - "No, but it was between 1450 hrs and 1500 hrs.

M Gilbreath Witness
J.H.Gilbreath - Capt.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution - L.20022 Sgt. Strachan, J.M., Signals 2 Cdn Inf Div., having been duly sworn states:-

"I was Signal Office Superintendent on the night of 22 Jan 44. At approximately 2100 hrs 22 Jan 44 I received a telephone call from the Coy clerk of No. 1 Coy to say that Sgt. Duncan and a number of other men would be required at No. 1 Coy office at Shermanbury Grange at 1100 hrs 23 Jan 44. At 2300 hrs I went to the Sgt's quarters at H.Q. 2 Cdn Inf Div., and Sgt. Duncan was not there. I also looked in the Sgts' Mess at this time and Sgt. Duncan was not there. I intended to look for Sgt. Duncan after the liberty truck returned from Horsham but due to the fact that a large number of lines went out shortly after midnight and that I was collecting traffic and statistics to be compiled, just about midnight, I did not get to the Sgts' quarters until approximately 0720 hrs on 23 Jan 44. Sgt. Duncan was not in his quarters at 0720 hrs on 23 Jan 44. At approximately 0900 hrs 23 Jan 44 when I informed Capt. Gilbreath that the lines were out I also told him that Sgt. Duncan was supposed to be at No. 1 Coy office at 1100 hrs 23 Jan 44. At 1020 hrs I again looked for Sgt. Duncan in the quarters and Sgts' Mess. Sgt. Duncan was not there. I reported to Capt. Gilbreath that I could not find Sgt. Duncan.

Capt. Gilbreath then told me that the meeting Sgt. Duncan was to attend was to be at 1400 hrs at Div H.Q.

L.20022 Sgt. Strachan continues his evidence.

"At 1345 hrs Sgt. Duncan had not yet appeared and was not in the Sgts' Mess or quarters. I did not see Sgt. Duncan until after he had reported to Capt. Gilbreath."

Cross-examined by the Accused.

Question 1 - "At 2300 hrs did you search or look for me in any place other than the Sgts' quarters or Sgts' Mess?"

Answer 1 - "No."

Question 2 - "So from 2300 hrs until 0720 hrs you made no further search?"

Answer 2 - "No."

Question 3 - "Again at 0720 hrs you merely looked in the Sgts' quarters and no further?"

Answer 3 - "I had just come from the Sgts' wash room and you were not there. I also looked in the Sgts' Mess at this time.

Question 4 - "In all your searches you merely confined your search to the Sgts' quarters and the Sgts' Mess, did you?"

Answer 4 - "That is correct."

Questioned by Officer taking the Summary

Question 1 - "When you looked in the Sgts quarters at 0720 hrs 23 Jan 44 had Sgt. Duncan's bed been slept in?"

Answer 1 - "Not unless it had been made up."

Witness
L.20022 Sgt. Strachan, J.M.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE, and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Plea in mitigation of punishment by Defending Officer attached hereto.-

W.P. McIner Capt

STATEMENT OF MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

B-25449 Sapper DUNCAN, W.G., 5 C.C.C.

This soldier has a relatively good military crime record, considering his three and a half (3½) years service. His documents show that he has not had a tendency towards absence without leave. In fact the only previous infraction occurred over two years ago.

Therefore it is apparent that some unusual combination of circumstances must be responsible for his present state. I find that the three (3) reasons which combined, led to the present infraction, are;-

(1) An irregular love-affair.
(2) Misplacement in army relative to civil trade qualifications and, therefore, inability to draw trades pay as promised at time of placement with Unit.

(3) No suitable reply to request for transfer.

As regards (1) this soldier was advised a few weeks ago by his Officer Commending, that a civilian girl claimed to be carrying his (Duncan's) unborn child. The Officer Commen ding warned Duncan that he was planning to effect a meeting between the two (i.e. Duncan and the girl). The interview was arranged and, just prior to the hour of meeting, Duncan left camp and was as the Court knows, absent for several days. He now realizes his folly in trying to evade the issue and has made amends to the girl as far as his married status will allow him.

As regards (2) here is a soldier who was a machinist by trade, although he was working as a miner at time of enlistment. Through lowering of category in the field he was returned to Holding Unit and his trades pay discontinued. Later he was transfered to his present Unit with, he says, the promise of machinist's trades pay. This could not be granted due to factors of War Establishment. He was, however, sent to be tested as a fitter, an entirely different trade and posted as "Failed" whereas he never tried the test.

As regards (3) the desire for transfer arose out of No.(2), as he wished to work at his trade instead of which he was employed as a labourer. A further irritation to this soldier arose out of refusal of Unit to grant Privilege Leave, soon after his return from hospital where he had spent two (2) months.

This soldier is inclined by nature, I will say, to brood over real and fancied troubles and injustices, and to act rashly as a result.

I do feel however that he fully realizes the folly of his latest and only serious military crime, and if given an opportunity to do work for which he is best suited, he will prove to be an efficient soldier. I therefore, plead that the Court deal lightly with the accused, as I am convinced that he is resolved not to repeat the crime for which he has been tried today.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K 42842 Sgt. Duncan, W.G., of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on the strength of No 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION — Lieut D A Leedham, Westminster Regiment (M), on the strength of No 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, as A Reinforcement, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut D A Leedham, Westminster Regt.(M) on the strength of No 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. On 1 Jul 43 I was Orderly Officer of Holding Wing, No 1 C.I.R.U. At 2355 hrs., K47878, Sgt Quinn, E.W., came to the Orderly Room where I was on duty and stated he wished to lay charges against Sgt Duncan, of the S.H. of Canada. He then made statements which I took down verbatim. I sent for the M.O. and then the Orderly Sgt.

The M.O. spoke to Sgt Quinn and I sent the Orderly Sgt to bring Sgt Duncan to the Orderly Room under escort and advised Sgt Quinn to leave before the arrival of Sgt Duncan. At 0030 hrs 2 Jul 43 Sgt Duncan was brought to the Orderly Room. The M.O. spoke to him. He then admitted to me that he had struck Sgt Quinn and asked for C S M North and another Sgt as witnesses. I sent for these men.

While waiting for the C S M, ~~in~~ I told the accused he would be placed under close arrest. When C S M North arrived I told him to place Sgt Duncan under close arrest. C S M North told the escort to take the accused to the guard room. I thought it advisable to send him to the guard room under guard in view of the threats he made in the hearing of the M.O. and myself.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

D A Leedham Lieut
(D.A. Leedham)

SECOND WITNESS for the PROSECUTION — K47878 Sgt Quinn, E.W., Westminster Regt.(M) on the strength of No 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I am K47878 Sgt Quinn, E.W. Westminster Regiment (M), on the strength of No. 1 C.I.R.U. At approximately 2350 hrs., 1 July 43 I was asleep in my bed in D Block, Barossa Bks., Aldershot. I was suddenly awakened by receiving blows in the face. The lights were out in barracks but, as the blackouts were not drawn there was some light, sufficient to identify the accused, Sgt Duncan, as my assailant. I was considerably dazed by the blows. I remember distinctly hearing somebody shouting in the barracks room. The accused then left. I immediately arose and reported to Holding Wing Orderly Officer, Lieut Leedham. I had gone to bed shortly after 2300 hrs. I had seen Sgt Duncan earlier in the evening at the Sgt's Mess. I saw him at a distance as the mess was full. I did not speak to him. Previous to 2300 hrs I had been in an altercation with and had received blows from the accused, but as I had been drinking I had paid no attention and considered the incident closed.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

I am M15559 Sgt Davies, W G., Edmonton Regiment, on the strength of No I C.I.R.U. About 2230 hrs 1 Jul 43 I was walking behind Sgt Quinn towards D Block, Barossa Barracks. I walked in behind him. He stopped to talk to some fellows at that end of the room. While he was talking there, Sgt Duncan came in with two other sgts. Sgt Duncan and Sgt Quinn started to argue. Sgt Duncan offered to go outside but Sgt Quinn wouldn't go with him. Finally, Sgt Duncan left with these two sgts. The whole affair only lasted two or three minutes. I did not see any blows exchanged as I had gone over to my own bed and started to undress. I did not see Sgt Quinn go to bed as I went to sleep. I would say that Sgt Quinn was drunk. I wouldn't say that Sgt Duncan was drunk.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

I noticed the accused,Sgt Duncan and Sgt Quinn were arguing. I told them if they wanted to argue to go outside. It was nearly closing time, which is 2300 hrs. I think Sgt Quinn was in the mess the whole evening from approx 1900 hrs to 2300 hrs. I don't remember when Sgt Duncan came in but he wasn't in as long as Sgt Quinn. I served Sgt Quinn drinks that evening. He was drinking gin and cider. I don't know how many drinks as I was very busy. I wouldn't say Sgt Quinn was drunk but he was 'feeling good'. The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

1st Witness for Prosecution — K47978 Sgt. Dunn, E.W. of 1 C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states.

At 2350 hrs on 1 Jul 43, I was asleep in my bed. I was suddenly awakened by someone shining one in the face. The light was not bright there was no number to it. It was sufficiently light for me to recognise my assailant as the accused. My bed is in front of a window. He left the room then. The M.O. examined me later. I had been sleeping the night and I did not recognise the accused about 2350 hrs, but I did not wish to upset the first assault. I remember telling the accused in the Mess before the first assault to leave me alone.

Cross-examination:

I was called the accused any names. The first assault took place outside the Mess and that is why I did not want to upset N.C.O. I took the accused inside as he was I had occasion to comment unfavourably on his outcomes to his superior officer.

2nd Witness for Prosecution — Lt. H.G. Hudson, of 1 C.R.U. being duly sworn, states

On the night of 1 Jul 43 I was present when the M.O. attended to Sgt. Dunn. I later placed the accused under arrest.

Cross-examination. The accused was sober.

Evidence for Prosecution. Capt. B.H. Murphy, R.C.A.M.C. 1 C.M.R.H., having been duly sworn, states,

I examined Sgt Quinn on the night in question. He had a black eye and was bleeding from his nose. The accused I saw later in the orderly room at 0900 hrs. He was intoxicated when Sgt. Quinn had been standing and was a little shaky. The injuries which Sgt Quinn had might have been made by blows from a man's fist.

Cross-examination. nil.

Evidence for Prosecution. M.15537 Sgt. Dunn, W.J. having been duly sworn, states,

On the night in question at about 2200 hrs, I heard Sgt. Quinn and the accused arguing. I heard the accused offering to take Sgt Quinn outside and Sgt Quinn would not go. I did not see the accused again that night. Sgt. Quinn sleeps about 15' away from my bed. Quinn was under the influence of liquor. Again Sgt. Duncan was sober.

Cross-examination. nil. I heard a thud Sgt. Quinn coming to get out of the sleeping quarters but I do not know to whom he was speaking.

Evidence for Prosecution. F/21163 A/Sgt Sowerby, R.A. 1 C.M.R.H. having been duly sworn, states. I was in the Sgt's Mess and Sgt. Quinn and the accused during an argument last night in the Mess.

Cross-examination - I think Sgt Dunn was in the Mess for about ½ hr that night.

The Committee is cleared.

R. P. 100 (2) & (3) complied with.

Lt C.J. Ross for Defence. The accused having been duly sworn, states. Sgt Quinn referred to me as "Canadian bastards" in the Sgts Mess. I told him to take it back and he said it, as an insult. I ordered him out and then I punched him in the nose later that night. I did not strike him at any time. He refused to obey my order & left the room as I left him.

Cross-examination I do not think he was drunk but Quinn had been drinking. I cannot say if Sgt Quinn was provoked me before my written remarks as he made that evening.

Re-examination

Lt C.J. Ross for Defence. K 42936 Sgt. Fullerton, W. D. 1/1 C.I.R. being duly sworn, states. I was present both Sgt Quinn and the accused. I heard the Sgt Major shortly after lunch in the Sgts Mess & the Sgt Major ordered the term "Canadian bastards" to be withdrawn generally. I took it to be addressed to everyone generally.

Capt H.J. Ross for Defence K 42945 A/Sgt. Jackson, R. C. D. of 1 C.I.R. being duly sworn, states that Sgt Quinn was fully at addressed during the remarks he made, at least I thought they were. But nothing more of it.

4th Witness for Defence

K52229 Sgt. Blair, C. of 1 CIRU having been duly sworn, examined by Witness. I know nothing about the matter except that on the evening of July 1st I was ordered by Witness to get the names of the accused and I left him to get it. He left this with me at about 10 or 11 p.m. on 2nd July.

The Defence is closed

The Defending Officer makes a closing address in which he speaks upon provocation.

The Prosecutor does not make any final address.

The Court is cleared for consideration of finding.

The Court is re-opened and Witness R.O. 3262 is complied with.

Address in mitigation of punishment

This soldier was treated in a Base Hospital of the R C A M C till late in Oct when he was transferred to a Reinforcement Unit. From that time till the offence & subsequently the soldier received no information from Canada concerning his wife or family or any one. This had a serious demoralizing effect. ~~caused~~ Mental suffering. Came forward into the Nijmegen Salient in late Nov ~~1944~~ with no winter underclothing or greatcoat. He was given blankets but on repeated demands to the A M Dept was not able to obtain underwear or greatcoat. Was given to understand that these items would be made available in Brigade. This ~~Our~~ man who had recently spent 3 weeks in a General Hospital for a chest ailment - ~~the Feet~~ - left this soldier with the idea in mind that the longer it should be required. He went away for 7 days, returned voluntarily never punished. The circumstances were not explained. He made further advances to the A M Dept with no satisfaction the again pointed in the way he understood. Went A W L.

This soldier is entitled as a Volunteer to serve with his Corps in the field & I suggest to you that the ends of justice are best met in this way.

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR A.3543 Tpr DUNDAS, DM

Tpr Dundas enlisted in Dec 1941, and went into action on 'D' Day on the continent. On 29 Sept 44 he was blown out of his tank and was returned to the U.K. because of his emotional instability.

While in the U.K. he obtained permission and married a girl who is suffering from tuberculosis of the spine, heart and lungs. Because of her condition the marriage has never been consumated, nor will his wife be able to go to Canada. Dundas freely admits the ceremony was a direct result of his unsettled mental condition and his inability to make a clearly thought-out decision.

His crime sheet also bears evidence that it is only since he was wounded that he has run into serious difficulties. For prior to his being wounded his record shows only two crimes - one for a day's absence when he took his fiancee to hospital, and one for being late on parade. However since that time he has been guilty of various military offences, all of which tend to show a man who is extremely unsettled and entirely influenced by uncontrollable impulses.

I would like to point out to the court that Dundas is one of the many war casualties and one who is further distracted by the knowledge that his wife is apparently incurable and unable to follow him to Canada.

As a result of his service he suffers an impediment in his speech, but he wishes me to make a plea for him that he might get back to Canada, and among sympathetic relatives and familiar surroundings try to regain a normal useful life.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

A-3543 Cpl. Dundas D.M.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment.

I should like first to out line briefly Cpl. Dundas's military career. He enlisted in Dec. 1941. Until Jan. 1944 his M.F.M. 6 was entirely clear and until this present charge the worst offence was a charge of A.W.L. for a period of 4 days.

He landed with the 27 CAR. in France, on D. Day, as a trouper. Based on the qualities he displayed as a soldier in the field, he was promoted to the rank of Cpl. and commanded his tank crew in action until wounded in Belgium, in Sept. 1944.

Serving with the same Regiment in France, I know personally his conduct in the field to be exemplary.

Since being evacuated to U.K. he, Cpl. Dundas, has been confronted with a series of the most unusual and unfortunate circumstances.

He fell in love with an English girl who was confined to a hospital bed with a Turbircular spine. Knowing that she would be in bed for at least a year, and feeling that he, himself would be returned to N.W.E. on recovering from his wounds, they decided to be married. The marriage took place on 24th Feb. 1945 while she lay in her hospital bed. He incurred at this time an unexpected debt of £25-0-0, the marriage fee for a wedding under these conditions. Her condition was considered so serious by the hospital that a request was made to Canadian Military H.Q. to have Cpl. Dundas, kept in the U.K. as the worry caused by his return to N.W.E. might impair still further her condition. On the basis of this recommendation he was posted to an instructors vacancy in U.K.

On the 23rd. of June, the accused was given a 48 hour pass. The day he was to return to Camp he was told by the Doctor, that X-ray's were to be taken of his wife that day, and the results would be known the following day. The X-rays showed that her condition had worsened and developed into Jumping Tuberculosis, and had reached both her heart and lungs. The accused was greatly distressed and was reluctant to leave his wife in such a condition.

The worry over his wife, and the £25-0-0 debt directed his attention to his personal problems. I feel the accused has had an excellent army record prior to being faced with such problems.

For your consideration Sir.

Officers under instruction are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to B 88521 Sgt. James Lonergan, R.C.A., C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

A5 - As Officer in charge of records No. 1 Cdn Inf Hldg Unit I present the following exhibits: First, the record of a Court of Inquiry in connection with the illegal absence of the accused, showing that he absented himself without leave from the 16th of September 1940. Second A.F. 01617, the descriptive return of a deserter or absentee, dated the 9th of October 1940 and signed by C. Defending Officer: I have seen those documents.
(Witness continuing): I also submit the 4th exhibit Form W 3017, signed by the Officer commanding the Military Isolation Hospital, dated 9th October 1940; the 5th is a charge sheet M.F.B. 264, signed by Sgt. Ayre, of the Canadian Provost Corps, dated 9th Oct. 1940.
Prosecutor: I might say that the last exhibit is only put in for the purpose of the statement on the back. They made a mistake in saying that he was apprehended and had not surrendered himself.

Defending Officer: I wish to examine the last two documents. (Defending Officer examines the documents).
Defending Officer: I am satisfied.
WITNESS IS EXCUSED.

Prosecutor: On the first charge , the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry showing the accused illegal absence from the 18th of September, and Army Form O1617. METROPOLITAN POLICE.

2nd November 1940.

Report for the information of the A.P.M., Canadian Military Police, 30 Henrietta Street, London W.C.2. respecting Privates George Scott Regimental No. C-4362 and Roy Clarence Dunkley C-11545, deserters both of 'C' Company, Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT.

(The information given is supplied on the clear understanding that it will be regarded as confidential, the source from which it is obtained not being disclosed to the persons concerned.)

To Divisional Detective Inspector.

On 31st October 1940 the above two Canadian soldiers, Scott in the name of George Petley and Dunkley in the name of Roy Clarence Hinscliffe, appeared on remand at Clerkenwell Police Court with three other prisoners, Patricia Leedham, J.W.Ansell and Harry Chant, charged as follows:-

LEEDHAM, HINDSCLIFFE, PETLEY, CHANT, ANSELL - All concerned together in stealing on 17th October 1940 at Euston Railway Station one carton containing cigarettes value £27, the property of the London & Midland Scottish Railway Co. Contrary to Sect. 2, Larceny Act, 1916.

CHANT, DAVIES, PETLEY, LEEDHAM - All concerned together in stealing between 1st and 17th October 1940 one carton containing quantity of tobacco from Euston Railway Station value £23 the property of L.M.S.Rly Co. Contrary to Section 2., Larceny Act., 1916.

LEEDHAM, HINSCLIFFE, PETLEY, CHANT, ANSELL - Chant and Petley concerned together in stealing on or about 6th October 1940 at St. Pancras Station one suitcase containing books and clothing value together £20 the property of L.M.S.Rly Co. Contrary to Sect. 2. Larceny Act 1916.

Leedham Hinscliffe and Ansell concerned together in receiving the above mentioned property at 18, Mornington Cresent N.W.1. and 113, Liverpool Road N.1. knowing it to have been stolen. Contrary to Sect. 33. Larceny Act. 1916.

HINSCLIFFE, PETLEY, ANSELL, CHANT - Chant Petley and Hinscliffe concerned together in stealing on or about 15th October 1940 at St. Pancras Railway Station one carton containing slippers value £2. 13s. Od. the property of the L.M.S.Rly Co. Contrary to Sect. 2 Larceny Act 1916.

Ansell: Receiving the above mentioned property at 113, Liverpool Road, N.1. knowing it to have been stolen. Contrary to Sect. 33. Larceny Act, 1916.

Scott and Dunkley pleaded 'Guilty' to all of their charges and in addition Scott admitted seven other similar thefts from the Railway Stations and Dunkley one, whereupon the Magistrate, W.J.H.Brodrick Esq., passed sentence of 6 months imprisonment to run concurrent on their respective charges.

It is apparent that for the past two months these two prisoners having discarded their uniforms, deserted the Army, and with other persons embarked on a period of wholesale stealing from the Railway Stations in the Kings Cross and St. Pancras District, until 17th October 1940, when Dunkley was arrested at Euston Railway Station having stolen from a platform there the property in respect of the first charge.

The same day and as a result of certain information obtained by police, Scott with others was traced to an address 98 Castlehaven Road, N.W.5. where he was arrested for being in possession of property stolen from Euston Railway Station which is the subject of the second charge.

The prisoners appeared at Clerkenwell Police Court and were remanded in custody until 24th October when they were further remanded until 31st October.

During the remand periods other addresses where both Scott and Dunkley had resided were visited, and other property the proceeds of Railway thefts was discovered, also the fact that Scott had been present and concerned with the theft for which Dunkley was arrested, resulting in the further charges. It was also at this stage that it was learned that both these men were deserters from the Canadian Army. Accordingly a telephone message was sent to the Canadian Army Authorities in London advising them of the charges which were being preferred against the two deserters. At the final Hearing Officers representing the prisoner's regiment were in Court and supplied information regarding character, following which the prisoners were sentenced as shown.

Scott, who admits having been previously convicted in Canada will serve his sentence in the name of George Edward Petley in Pentonville Prison, London whilst Dunkley in the name of Roy Clarence Hinscliffe will serve his sentence at Feltham (Boys) Prison, Feltham, Middlesex.

EXHIBIT 6

METROPOLITAN POLICE. No. 995.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS.

New Scotland Yard Station. CO Division.

7th April, 1941.

Name Albert FOSTER,

Address New Scotland Yard, S.W.1.

Age Occupation Detective.

Statement At about 9-30am, 17th October, 1940, I arrested Private Roy Clarence Dunkley, Regimental No. C.11545, of 'C' Company, Hastings Prince Edward Regiment, together with a girl named Patricia Leedham, for stealing a carton of cigarettes from Euston Railway Station.

Dunkley was dressed in civilian clothes and when taken to Albany Street Police Station to be charged, he gave his name as Roy Clarence Hinscliffe, age 18, a labourer, of no fixed abode.

Shortly after his arrival at the Police Station, I saw him hand the girl Leedham something which proved to be a National Registration Card in the name of Hinscliffe. This card, which was then torn and mutilated, has since been destroyed.

Both appeared at Clerkenwell Police Court the same day and remanded in custody until 24th October, 1940.

Later the same day, at about 3-0pm, I arrested Private George Scott, Regimental No. C. 4288, also of 'C' Company, Hastings Prince Edward Regiment, at 98, Castlehaven Road, Kentish Town, London, where I found a quantity of property stolen from Euston Railway Station. At the same time, two other men were also arrested, John Robert Davies and Rosslyn Brooks, alias Harry Chant, a deserter from the Royal Welch Regiment, and all three were taken to Albany Street Police Station.

At the Police Station, Scott, who was wearing civilian clothes, gave his name as George Earl Petley, age 22, a labourer, of no fixed abode.

They appeared at Clerkenwell Police Court on the 18th October, 1940, and remanded in custody to appear with Dunkley and Leedham on 24th October, 1940, as it was then found that Leedham and Brooks occupied the rooms at 98, Castlehaven Road.

On the remand date, the five accused were again remanded in custody until 31st October, 1940.

In the meantime, another man, John William Ansell, was arrested in possession of certain property, and appeared with the other five prisoners on the 31st October, on a number of criminal charges.

The particulars and result of these charges were fully set out in a Confidential Report, dated 2nd November, 1940, addressed to the A.P.M., Canadian Military Police, 30, Henrietta Street, W.C.2.

Signature

Signature witnessed by

Both these two soldiers, Dunkley, alias Hinscliffe, and Scott, alias Petley, admitted to me that they had deserted their Regiment some two months prior to their arrest, and Scott stated at all stages that he did not want to return to the Army.

Dunkley was convicted and served his sentence in the name of Roy Clarence Hinscliffe, whilst Scott served his in the name of George Earl Petley.

(Signed) A.G. Foster,
Detective.

I certify that the hereon signed witness cannot be readily procured. (R.P. 4 (g)).

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will nos be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. STATEMENT BY ACCUSED ON PLEA OF GUILTY 25 APR 45

Statement by B119098 DUNKERLY T.H ~~under oath~~

~~I~~ states:-

When we left Breda and moved to Tilburg I met a young lady in a cafe, her father owned this cafe. I kept company with this young lady for a month and we then became engaged. I found out that she was a Catholic and that her Brother was going into a seminary up to this time her Father and Mother agreed to us being engaged, when her brother went into the seminary this affected the engagement. Her Mother wanted me to marry her daughter but the Father was very much against it, since I was not a R.C. and the war was still on, it was agreed that if I changed my religion and if the War was over by this fall, I could get married but the Father did not agree as he said his daughter had to be 18 yrs. old and this started a family argument.

I spent my last leave there and I tried to get everything cleared up. The Mother, girl and Brother tried to persuade the father to change his mind but he said that she would have to wait until she was 21 yrs old. He wanted me to go back to Canada & then return to Holland. I tried to explain to him that it was out of the question to do so, and we could not be married by proxy as this could not be done in Canada and that was where he definately decided that she would have to wait until she was 21 yrs old. I wanted to be married before I went back to Canada and her Mother also was in favour of me getting married. I am 19 yrs old and will be 20 in July 45. At this point everyone decided that on Monday or Tuesday they would go and ask the Priest for his opinion that was on Friday night. On Saturday morning the Priest said he would come up on Monday evening and would settle everything then. I returned to Camp I was awarded 14 days C.B. on a previous charge, so I had no alternative but to return to Tilburg and settle the matter. The girls name is Ludwocia De Kok and she will be 18 yrs old in Nov of this year.

In the case of 8119078 Pte Thomas Henry WINKERLEY

Argument for the Defence:

1. From the 1914-18 it is easy to see why this case must come to Court Martial — otherwise the problem of OC of the Defence Company in keeping discipline on a static scale at a HQ becomes almost impossible. While that is so there are many features in this case which call for a considerable use of the Courts discretion in giving the sentence.

2. For the good of the accused and the funeral expenses he has known during the last two months at his age these things are of grave personal importance and enough to cause alarm — more to be a great deal more public than does not constitute an excuse, it does take away any question of a deliberate infringement of discipline and consequently call for Courts leniency.

3. I second the point I made and I commend which to have committed of small offences who has not got into trouble due to his character — what the Court have had opportunity to gauge during his [illegible]. While this is open to doubt at least for a careful consideration into what sentence should be passed it is submitted that a lenient attitude should be taken in view of the offence of a hard case on the same value as a soldier.

4. There are not many cases of soldiers in our army actually having known service, where the young leaders of to-morrow are given through, while that is but one of the [illegible] is an indication of his character.

Would you kindly note what the D.J.A./4 has said respecting the above.

2. The accused made a very good impression on the Court and says he wants a job where he can work all day and he looks like an NCO who could and would do a job

3. He is quite fit except that he cannot use his left arm for any heavy work.

4. If there might be many admin jobs in the new 14 CIT Bn he could fill. I respectfully draw this situation to your attention.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

Cpl. Dunlavey hesitates to address the Court as this is his first experience with anything of this kind, and he is, frankly, nervous about speaking before the Court. However, having had Cpl. Dunlavey as a Section N.C.O. in 1940 and 1941 he has asked me to present his case.

The bare facts are as follows:

Enlisted 9 Sep 39 with I Cdn Div Amn Coy
Arrived Overseas 30 Dec 39.
Went into Sicily with 1 Cdn Div Tps Coy
Was wounded on the beach during the landings in Italy and evacuated to 15 Cdn Gen Hosp Philipville, and later to Basingstoke Hosp for plastic surgery.

Why was this man sent up for 7 & M for 3 days' absence?

During April 1944 Cpl. Dunlavey was sent to 1 CASCHU from hospital and for a short time was employed on issuing petrol and oils. Whilst so employed he was perfectly contended, as he was occupied. But when this job finished due to a change in the system, and he was left with nothing to do he became very dissatisfied.

On several occasions he asked to be sent to Italy, France or even to a job with a Base Unit in this country or Canada. Presumably no jobs were open with Base Units and his category did not permit his return to a Field Unit.

Cpl. Dunlavey was interviewed regarding 30 day leave to Canada, but was never given an opportunity to fill out and sign an application. There is every reason to believe that had his application been submitted with the first lot called for, that he would not have gone a.w.l., and there is every chance that his length of service would have entitled him to this leave.

Cpl. Dunlavey states that he did not receive his present category as a result of a re-board, but merely on xxx as the result of an examination by one M.O. at Basingstoke Hosp. Perhaps the Court might be willing to recommend that this matter be investigated, with a view to raising his category, or if the injuries to his right arm are such as to permanently incapacitate him, lowering the category so that he might return home.

This offence is strictly a case of boredom, a disease which it is probably difficult to eliminate in a R.U., but I would ask the Court to consider the prospect which faced this man of an interminable period in a R.U. with no job to do, and apparently no hope of getting to either the Field, a Base Unit or back home. There is nothing worse for a man who has been active all his life xx than to be faced with endless days of idleness through no fault of his own. Cpl. Dunlavey stopped a bullet from a German plane on the beach in Italy and from xxxx xxxxx the time his medical treatment was finished the Army seemed to have no idea what to do with him. From April to December is a long time to be unemployed, living in uninteresting surroundings with no prospects of seeing a family which had been left behind five years previously.

I would ask the Court to deal leniently with this man, and, if it is within their scope, to make recommendations that an effort be made to get him home to Canada on leave, or suitably employed in this country.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF M.20789 Corporal Jack DUNLAVEY, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st WITNESS (For the prosecution) Lieut. J.A.F. Bolduc, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

I am Lieut, J.A.F. Bolduc, RCASC, on strength 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit and I produce the following documents relating to the accused, whom I now recognize.

(a) Certified True Copy of an Extract from 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit Part II Daily Orders, Daily Order No. 303 dated 23 December 1944, certifying that M.20789 Cpl. Dunlavey, J. absented himself without leave from 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit at 2359 hours 20 December 1944. Marked Exhibit "A"

(J.A.F. Bolduc) Lieut. RCASC

2nd WITNESS (For the prosecution) K.25840 Cpl. Hunter, W.E., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

I am K.25840 Cpl. Hunter, W.E., a member of the regimental police at 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. At 0700 hours 3 January 1945 the accused M.20789 Cpl. Dunlavey, J, whom I now recognize, reported to me when I was on duty in charge of No. 1 Guard Room at 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. He informed me he had been absent. He was properly dressed and was sober. I placed him under close arrest immediately.

W E Hunter

(K.25840 Cpl. Hunter, W.E.)

The accused was cautioned as follows. "Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

THE ACCUSED, M.20789 Corporal DUNLAVEY, J., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit states:-

I enlisted 9 September 1939 and arrived overseas in December 1939. I went to Sicily and Italy and was wounded on the 3 September 1943. I returned to the United Kingdom on 3 January 1944. I came out of the hospital sometime in March 1944 and came back to 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit with Category U3. This made me a base category, so I figured that this being so, and having been away from my family for so long, I should be sent back to Canada in a base job there. If that wasn't possible I wanted to get out of the holding unit to Italy or France or a base unit in England. The Medical Officer would not agree to send me back to Italy or France. I haven't been given any work to speak of since I've been with the unit.

(M.20789 Cpl. Dunlavey, J.)

I hereby certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of Two (2) pages was taken down by me in writing In The Field on this 4th day of January 1945 in the presence and hearing of the accused and that R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

D-3 First Witness for the Prosecution

Mr. W.J. Mace, Ardingly, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecution

Q.1. Will you identify yourself to the court giving your occupation and address?
A.1 I am William James Mace, my occupation is Confectioner, Tobacconist and Hairdresser, of High Street, Ardingly.
Q.2 Will you give your evidence in this case?
A.2 On the 3rd of March approximately 9:30 I heard a rap at my back door and on opening the door I found a soldier standing there and he said to me could you do with some razor blades and I said yes I could possibly handle a few. He came in and the soldier started taking out blades from his pockets and from inside his tunic. He laid them down on the table and as he was taking them out I said there were more there than I could handle. After he had got them all out I counted them up and I think there was six and a half dozen packets of fives. I did not notice what make of blade they were at the time and I agreed to pay him £3-15-0 for them which I did, I paid him £3-0-0 in notes and 15s in half crowns. That is all that happened on that night, I did not ask him where he got the blades, I thought they were his own property and I gave him a fair wholesale price for them. I don't think I have anything further to say.
Q.3 The following day someone called on you, what did he do?
A.3 He came in my shop but he took nothing away not that day.
Q.4 What happened the following day?
A.4 Police Constable Chatfield called again and collected the blades.
Q.5 On the 6th of April 1944 were you present at an indentification parade and asked if you could identify from a number of soldier, pick out the one who sold you the blades?
A.5 Yes I attended that parade.
Q.6 Did you immediately pick out the soldier?
A.6 No.
Q.7 Did you subsequently pick out the soldier?
A.7 Yes
Q.8 What made you feel that the man you finally picked out was the man who was in your home on the 3rd of March?
A.8 Chiefly by the tone of his voice, also his height and his complexion, I did not have a good view of the soldier on the night of the 3rd because he was not in my house more than four or five minutes and he was standing in the shade of the electric light.
Q.9 Do you see that soldier in the court room today?
A.9 Yes, the soldier sitting on my right.
Q.10 What is his name?
A.10 I don't know, he was an entire stranger to me, I did not see him from that date until the day of the parade.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.11 You said this soldier was in your house approximately four or five minutes and did not stand in the light?
A.11 Yes
Q.12 Four days later you could not identify him on the parade yet now you are sure this is the soldier who was in your house?
A.12 Yes
Q.13 Did you question the soldier as to how he had obtained the blades?
A.13 No sir.
Q.14 Was there anything about them that would lead you to believe they were government property?
A.14 No
Q.15 Was there anything on them at all?
A.15 Yes the manufacturers name.

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the previsions of R.P.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 Charlie Chatfield, Police Constable 195 Sussex Police stationed at Ardingly.
Q.2 Will you give the court the evidence you have in this case?
A.2 On the 3rd of March last I received information that a soldier was attempting to sell razor blades. On the 4th of March I made inquiries and on the 5th of March I seized 450 razor blades, Minora blades from the local Hairdresser. These are the blades now produced.

Box containing 90 packets of Minora razor blades handed to the court, accepted by the President and marked Exhibit A.

On the 6th of March I visited a military unit stationed at Brookhouse, Ardingly to see the accused Cpl Dunlay in coy with Police Sgt Avis. I was unable to see him on that day. On the 17th of March I again visited Brookhouse and saw the accused. He was interrogated by Sgt Avis and in reply made a statement.
Q.3 In the interrogation of the accused was any offer held out to him that by admitting his guilt he would get off easier?
A.3 None whatever.
Q.4 Was any reference made that his evidence would be used in the prosecution of any civilian for either receiving or buying the military property in question and he would get off lighter?
A.4 The accused said something in the course of the interrogation and I am in civil law permitted to say what I like to him and to question him and the moment he says something it is my duty to caution him. He said something and I immediately cautioned him.
Q.5 Did you hold out to him that you were investigation the case and wished his evidence to prosecute some civilian?
A.5 None at all.
Q.6 What were the words of the caution?
A.6 I told him he would be reported for the offence and I asked him if he wished to make any answer to the charge. I told him he was not bound to answer the charge but whatever he said would be taken down in writing and given in evidence, then he said something.
Q.7 Was what he said entirely voluntary?
A.7 Yes sir.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.8 Did you caution the accused before he made the statement or later?
A.8 He made a statement to me and immediately after he made that statement I cautioned him and he made an additional statement.
Q.9 Did he fully understand the caution?
A.9 Yes, I believe he did, it was quite clear.
Q.10 Was anyone else with you at the time?
A.10 Sgt Avis
Q.11 The statement was given quite voluntarily?

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?

A.1 George Avis, Police Sgt No. 21 Stationed at Lindfield, Sussex Police force.

Q.2 Will you tell the court whether or not you were present with Constable Chatfield in a certain questioning?

A.2 I was present with Police Constable Chatfield in Ardingly on the 17th last month when I interviewed the accused.

Q.3 Do you recognize the accused among those present in this room?

A.3 I do (Identifies the accused)

Q.4 Did the accused make any statement to yourself and Constable Chatfield?

A.4 He made a statement after the caution was administered to Constable Chatfield.

Q.5 In your presence?

A.5 Yes sir.

Q.6 Did the constable take it down in writing?

A.6 That was taken down in writing and signed bythe accused.

Q.7 Can you tell the nature of the statement?

A.7 The statement confirmed what he had already said to me in the course of interrogation that he had taken a box of razor blades consisting of 100 packets each containing five blades from the Q.M. stores of this camp. After he made that statement to me he was cautioned and the statement he made after to Constable Chatfield I made no note of the words but it was what he had told me during the interrogation

Q.8 Could you identify these blades as being government property?

A.8 No sir.

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b)

~~EXAMINED~~ THE WITNESS WITHDRWAS

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

B 32103 RQMS Collett, C.G., 4 Cdn Armd Div Sigs having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecution

Q.1 Can you identify these blades before the court, can you tell me anything about them?
A.1 They are exactly the same type sir, as being issued by the Cdn government, the same as we have in the clothing stores.
Q.2 Will you tell the court in your own words any evidence you have in this case?
A.2 When the Police Constable came to the unit on the 6th of March they said a Cdn soldier had been attempting to sell blades in Ardingly. I had a stock taking made of the stores and checked it with the one of the previous January and checking that against the MFB 513 found there was a discrepancy of something over 120 packets of blades.
Q.3 Do you recognize the accused?
A.3 Yes sir, Pte Dunlay J.H. formerly Cpl.
Q.4 In what capacity was he associated with the unit?
A.4 He was the shoe repairer.
Q.5 Did he have access to the stores in question?
A.5 The blades are kept on a shelf in the stores and he could get in there.
Q.6 Why did he have access to the stores?
A.6 The system of boot repairs consisted of them taking them to the stores and the storeman would take them to the repairer and in the case where the boot repairer wanted to check on anything his entry to the stores would not be questioned by the storeman.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.7 Can you identify these blades as having been in the stores?
A.7 No sir, there are no markes on them to differentiate between others sold back in Canada.
Q.8 What other people besides yourself and the storeman had access to the stores.
A.8 Any person in my troop, 4 tp, his entry would not be questioned sir.

Questioned by the court

Q.9 What type of blade was missed?
A.9 The only type we had in stores were Minora, we did have Gillett some time ago but not recently.

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Motion by the Defence that there is no Prima facie case

I motion sir that they have not proved a prima facie case in that the ownership of the blades is not been proven. They are a type of blade common in Canada and could have been obtained by other means and it is only circumstantial that a quantity of blades is missing from the Q.M. stores. Other people also had access to the Q.M. stores.

Reply by the Prosecution

In reply to the Defence I might say that the prosecution has established that Pte then Cpl Dunlay among others had access to the Q.M. stores. The blades are not common blades in England and I feel that answeres the questions that the Defence has raised at this time

By the Judge Advocate

The question for the court at this time is whether or not the Prosecution has established a Prima facie case. Put shortly the question is not whether or not the accused is guilty as charged, but whether the prosecution has adduced evidence upon which the accused could be found guilty of the charge.

See D 4

D-6. Closing address of the Prosecution

In the evidence given by the various witnesses for the Prosecution I feel it has been firmly established that the blades produced to the court were the same type as those held in the Q.M. stores of 4 Cdn Armd Div Sigs, were in fact part of the blades held by that stores at one time and were the blades which the accused in his statement to the police constable and Sgt admitted stealing. The evidence adduced by the Defence in cross examination does not, I feel cause any reasonable doubt, and that the accused stole the razor blades which were public property. I submit that the evidence I have adduced is sufficient to prove the accused guilty of the first charge as read to him by the court.

Closing address of the Defence

I submit that the ownership of the property in question has not been clearly proven. The blades are a common type in use in Canada and a type in common use in the Canadian Army in England. The fact that some other type or similar type is missing from the Q.M. stores of 4 Cdn Armd Div Sigs does not prove that the blades submitted as evidence were taken from the Q.M. stores. The first witness Mr. Mace was unable to indentify the accused immediately as being the soldier who sold him the blades. The soldier was talking to him for a matter of four or five minutes and a time period of three or four days elapsed before he identified him. I feel that it has not been proven that the accused was actually the soldier who sold the blades.

The Judge Advocate sums up

The court is the sole judge of the facts and of the credibility of the witnesses. I think I need not review the whole evidence but if in this summing up I should mention any of the evidence the court must not take such mention as an indication of my opinion either as to the credibility of the witnesses or the weight to be given to the evidence. The accused is charge with (reads charge) and as a second alternative charge(reads charge). I would point out to the court that the accused cannot be found guilty of both these charges. He may be found guilty of the first or of the second or he may be found not guilty of both. The accused is charge with stealing 450 razor blades public property. The definition of theft is set out in page 118 MML (reads). It is necessary for the prosecution to establish in order that the court may find the accused guilty of the first charge, that the accused without any right, took 450 razor blades which were public property and that at the time he took them he intended to permanently deprive the owner of the blades. The questions to be answered by the court are, did the accused take the razor blades, are these the razor blades which the accused took, and coupled with that, are these blades public property. The difference between the first and second charge is merely this, that to find the accused guilty of stealing the court must find, as to the fact that he intended when he took the blades not to return them, whereas, to find the accused guilty of the second charge, the court need not find such intent. To find the accused guilty of the second charge the court must be satisfied that on the 3rd of March the accused was in possession of razor blades which were public property and that there was something improper in that possession. The court must always keep in mind two cardinal principles of English law, first, that every man is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, and second, that he who alleges a fact must prove it whether the allegation is couched in affirmative or negative terms, and lastly, I would remind the court that the burden is always on the prosecution to establish the guilty of the accused beyond reasonable doubt. To warrant an acquittal on the grounds that the Prosecution has not established its' case beyond reasonable doubt, that doubt must not be light or capricious, it must be such a doubt as a calm view of the whole evidence and reasonable understanding would suggest to an honest heart.

Is there anything else you wish me to say Mr. Defending Officer

No sir.

And you Mr. Prosecutor

No sir.

I did not know him but asked him in and said that I could do with a few and asked him how many he had. He removed packages from his coat and from inside his tunic. We counted the packages and there were 450 blades that is 90 packages each containing 5 blades. I said there were more than I could handle but agreed to purchase the lot at 10d per package and paid the soldier £ 3.15.0 in cash. I did not ask the soldier how he had obtained these blades. On the following day P.C. Chatfield called at my shop and asked me if a Canadian Soldier had offered me 200 blades. I said "Yes" and told him I had purchased 450 blades. He suggested that he take charge of the blades which he did. "

On the 6 Mar 44 I visited Brookhouse accompanied by Police Sjt Avis for the purpose of interviewing Cpl Dunlay of the RCOC att RCCS. I was unable to see him. On the 17 Mar 44 I again visited Brookhouse accompanied by Police Sjt Avis and interviewed Cpl Dunlay. "On or about 18 Jan 44 I had the storeman in charge of clothing stores make a complete stock check of all clothing and equipment in stores at that time. This check included razor blades . There was a deficiency of approx 120 packets of razor blades."

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 1. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

That day it was not in the hut and he came in with it and woke me up and said here is your axe. I told him to set it down by the side of the bed so he would not, so I took it. He brought this axe and said Beaver here is your axe and I told him set it down and he set it down on the bed and I picked it up and set it on the bed. Then he went away and came back right away and pulled the covers off me. He told me to take a bath, I don't know why he said that. I told him to go away and quit bothering me then he came back and pulled them off again and I jerked them back up and that is when he struck me across the face. He was going to start again and Sgmn McGrath who had come in a few minutes before and he told him to leave me alone. That is my evidence sir.
Q.4 Does Cpl Dunlay live in the same hut as you?

Q.10 Did he pull the blankets off you before you put the axe on the other side of the bed?
A.10 No sir.
Q.11 Did he reach towards you as though to pull the blankets off just before you reached for the axe?

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Closing address of the Defence

The evidence you have heard from the witnesses for the prosecution is confusing as regards distances from Beaver's bed and they all claim to have seen Dunlay strike Beaver. Beaver definitely stated that McGonigle's bed was next to his, yet other witnesses state there was a bed between. There is confusion in the number of times the blankets were removed and whether he was wakened by having them pulled off or whether he was merely shock. I submit that in view of the distances and the lighting in this hut that neither McGrath nor Billington were in a position to see whether a blow was struck or not. It is fairly admitted generally that a number of people dislike Cpl Dunlay and I submit that Billington and McGrath were only too ready to assume that a blow had been struck. I feel that the contradictions inthe evidence and lighting and the distance between the persons concerned would tend to give more weight to the evidence of the defence witness who was in the best position to see what went on and the accused is not guilty of the charge.

Closing address of the Prosecution

Sir, two witnesses for the Prosecution have stated they saw the blow struck. There were three lights inthe hut andthat should be sufficient light to see by. They were able to see quite clearly anything that happened only three beds away. The witness for the defence has clearly shown that he was a friend of the accused and they went out together often. I submit that this may have influenced the evidence of that witness and that the evidence of the witnesses for the Prosecution considerably outweighs such evidence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the Case of

Regt'l No. C 28734, CPL DUNLAY, J.R., RCOC, att 4 Cdn Armd Div Sigs.

A soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, placed on Active Service.

C H A R G E S :-

1. Striking a Soldier.

The Comd Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS B 110204 Signn BEAVER, T., having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1130 o'clock Tue night the 16 Nov 43, Cpl Dunlay came in with an axe which belonged to the cooking truck and which I had signed back to the Stores but which I had borrowed and brought to cut wood for the hut. He woke me up and said "Beaver, here's your axe". I told him to set it down on the floor. He dropped it on the bed so I picked it up and put it on the other side of the bed. Then he went away and came back again right away and he pulled the covers off me. Then he said to me, "Go and take a bath". Well, I told him to go to bed and pulled the covers back up, then he pulled them off again and I jerked them back up. Then he slapped me across the face. He started to pull the blankets off again and Signn McGrath who had just come in told him to leave me alone. Then he left me alone and that was all.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q. 1. Beaver, are you sure I dropped the axe on the bed?

Answer: I am positive that you did.

Q. 2. Another thing, Beaver, why did you give me so much lip the next morning when I told you to go on parade?

Answer: Well, we have a duty roster in the hut which has the men's names who do the hut cleaning for the day and you told me to go on parade and I said that I was Hut Orderly and you said to me that I was the cause of all the trouble the night before and I grew indignant over that, and you said you would clean the hut if I went on parade, so I went on parade and when I got back there were no signs of the hut being started to be cleaned up. There was no one around, so I reported to R.Q. Collett.

Q. 3. Why did you say as you went out the hut at about 8.15 Wed morning to parade "You started something, now I'll get you"?

Answer: I don't remember saying that.

B 110204 T. Beaver Signn

SECOND WITNESS D 116395 Signn McGRATH, D.L., having been duly sworn states:

Upon my return from the recreational run to Haywards Heath at approx 2330 hrs the 16 Nov, I proceeded to my hut, and noticed an argument going on between Cpl Dunlay a nd Signn Beaver. Then Cpl Dunlay pulled the blankets off of Signn Beaver and struck him in the face. Then I told Cpl Dunlay to leave him alone.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q. 1. You don't remember what the argument was about?

Answer: I wasn't in the hut for the argument.

Q. 2. Why are you so sure that I hit Beaver?

Answer: Because I saw it.

D 116395 D.L. McGrath Signn

THIRD WITNESS B 32390 Sigmn BILLINGTON, S., having been duly sworn states:

At approx 2300 hrs, I forget which day, Cpl Dunlay came in the hut at this time. An argument came up between Sigmn Beaver and Cpl Dunlay about an axe. From then the argument went on for about ten minutes about the axe. Then that quietened down. Cpl Dunlay told Sigmn Beaver to take a bath. Then he snatched the blankets off him. He did that three times and each time Beaver pulled them back up. He told Cpl Dunlay that he had taken a bath two days before that and Cpl Dunlay Struck him in the face. At that time Sigmn McGrath came in the hut from the recreational run to Haywards Heath, and he told Cpl Dunlay to lay off Sigmn Beaver, which Cpl Dunlay did.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q. 1. Did you actually see me hit Beaver?

Answer: Yes.

Q. 2. Do you remember what the argument was about, about the axe?

Answer: Yes. Well, you picked up the axe, took it over to Sigmn Beaver's bed, and said "Here Beaver, here's your axe that you've been worrying about." Beaver then said, "I don't want it" and laid it on the opposite side of the bed. That's as far as I bring back to mind.

by Defending Officer "M"

The accused has admitted two counts of absence without leave.
Since enlistment he has had a clean conduct sheet
Since Dec 1940 he has been employed as a shoemaker. This is rather a thankless task in the army.
As a result Pte Bradley has worked himself into a state which is commonly known as being browned off. This does not condone his action but it is some explanation.
In addition Pte Bradley had during the last 9 months suffered the loss of his mother and brother in a joint drowning accident and also the sudden death of his father.
During his first confinement on the ground now he has had considerable time to think things over. He has an English girl friend who he felt he should see before proceed overseas. He also felt that he could obtain no help from the army for his personal trouble

Because of the wonderful mental state of the accused I ask that the court take the same into consideration when awarding punishment. The law also to use low wages due to some trouble will be fast
Cpl Bentley is married and supports
$44.00 per month. The law two children

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of C-28734 Cpl Dunlay J.R. 4 Cdn Armoured Div. Sigs.

FIRST WITNESS

I, K 905 Sgt. A.H. MacLeod, being duly sworn states; on the 6 Mar 44 I was Regimental Orderly Sergeant, 4 Cdn Armd. Div. Sigs. when I was instructed, by R.Q.M.S. Collett J.C. that I would warned Cpl. J.R. Dunlay to be in the Quartermaster's Office at 1030 hours. I proceeded to do so, and contacted Cpl. J.R. Dunlay and brought him up, and he was used as a witness for a trial. The trial lasted for approximateively 15 minutes, this bringing the time to approx. 1045 hours. When the case had been dealt with, I told Cpl J.R. Dunlay to go into the Q.M.'s Office to see the Quartermaster, and I then went back to the Administration Office, where the trial had been held. Cpl. J.R. Dunlay poked his head in the door and said " The Q.M. is not here" I then said " Go into the Q.M.'s office and wait until the return of the Quartermaster. This statement was said in the presence of Capt. R.J. Letourneau, administration officer. When I had finished with Capt. R.J. Letourneau, I went into the Q.M.'s Office, and the R.Q.M.S. who had just came in, asked me, where Cpl J.R. Dunlay was. I said I had ordered him to wait there, and see out to look for him. But he was nowhere to be found. Inquiries were made as to the whereabouts of Cpl. J.R. Dunalay, after he had left the Q.M.'s Office, with negative results, he was nowhere to be found.

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 562(a).)

To take the Summary of Evidence.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence

in the case of

C.53871 Pte Dunleavy.

Pte Dunleavy enlisted in the army in Jan 1940, he was sent overseas in jul 1940. During his period of service in England his record was comparatively good, the few crimes that he committed were of a minor nature, being charges of A.W.L. for relatively short periods.

Since his arrival in Italy the accused has become very despondent due to separation from his wife in England. This condition was accentuated by the death of his first child since he left his wife. His attitude towards soldiering was considerably lowered when his application for compassionate leave to U.K. was refused.

Has the accused been sent to a fighting unit as he hoped to be, it is felt that he would never have committed the offence for which he is now charged.

For the above reasons it is suggested that the court exercise leniency when considering the sentence to be imposed in this case.

Statement in Mitigation of C53871 Pte Dunleavy J.R.

I had a bit of bad luck in Sicily. I lost my 10-day old daughter at the time I lost my paybook in Sicily. I had no money to sent a telegram back to my wife and went to the paymaster and tried to draw some money, and he refused to pay me because I had no paybook. I also applied for compassionate leave, and was refused. Not being able to get word back to my wife that I knew what had happened, I applied to go to front line three times, and they refused to let me go. Then I went Absent.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence

in the case of

C.53871 Pte Dunleavy,

Pte Dunleavy enlisted in the army in Jan 1940, he was sent overseas in Jul 1940. During his period of service in England his record was comparatively good, the few crimes that he committed were of a minor nature, being charges of A.W.L. for relatively short periods.

Since his arrival in Italy the accused has become very despondent due to separation from his wife in England. This condition was accentuated by the death of his first child since he left his wife. His attitude towards soldiering was considerably lowered when his application for compassionate leave to U.K. was refused.

Had the accused been sent to a fighting unit as he hoped to be, it is felt that he would never have committed the offence for which he is now charged.

For the above reasons it is suggested that the court exercise leniency when considering the sentence to be imposed in this case.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and question them as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-43 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor. Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Con 565(46).)

Prosecutor - Opening Address Ex B

In the trial by Court Martial of C/J Plt L. E. Dunleavy.

I am advised that 9 C.B.R.Bn has been given ample advice & warning as to the date & place of this trial.

An essential witness for the prosecution D 10100 B.S.M. Wright D. J., who appears on the Summary of Evidence, has not been produced by 9 C.B.R.Bn. On the contrary, I am advised that he has been dispatched to Holland within the last few days, & is not available as a witness for this case.

The only evidence I have as to the A.W.L. is a Part II order establishing it's commencement. As this does not appear in the body of the summary, & as it is not listed as an exhibit, presumably the Defence is entitled to notice of it & production.

However as I have no case in any event I will ask the defence to waive his rights of notice as to it's production.

Question to the accused

Q.4 Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A.4 No Sir.

The Defending Officer makes a statement in mitigation of punishment

"Mr. President, Sir. The Court has heard the accused admit his guilt on all three charges. I would like to recommend him to the mercy of the Court for the following reasons: You see before you a young energetic lad, he is just 21 years of age, and has a record of 2 years, 4 months service and I am looking at his conduct sheets. He is not a habitual offender. The charges are of minor nature and over the period of two years the number of those charges are small. This man has been employed in the capacity of a batman. A batman's job, especially in the role the Army is playing at the present time, is the type of job a young man would get fed up with. He had made requests to his officer that he would like to be a dispatch rider. He had been a driver at one time. He felt that by breaking from barracks that his punishment would be of such a nature that it would cause him to be struck off the strength of his unit to the Holding Unit where his chances of being remustered either as a driver or dispatch rider would be much better. Now, while I am not attempting to condone the offences of breaking out of jail I would like to ask that the Court be as lenient as possible, with the hope that this young energetic soldier, which I am sure you will admit from his appearance is a man who if kept on the right path will be of great use to the Army. I say he is a young energetic man which is easy to see under the circumstances. I haven't much further to add except that I recommend the accused to the mercy of the Court and hope that in considering the sentence to be awarded that these several points be considered."

The Prosecuting Officer declines to cross examine.

Question to the accused

Q.5 Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call any witnesses as to character.
A.5 No Sir.

Capt. D.N. MacLeod is duly sworn.

Q.6 Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A.6 I produce A.F.B.206 Statement as to Character and Particulars of Service of the accused: also a certified true copy of the accused's N.P.N.S.

The above statement is read, marked , signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to Witness

Q.7 Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A.7 Yes he is.
Q.8 Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A.8 I have.
Q.9 Are they true extracts from the Regimental books and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A.9 They are.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Question to the accused

Q.10. Do you wish to address the Court?
A.10 No Sir.

The Court is closed for consideration of the sentence.

"At 0720 hours on 19 Jan 42, acting on information, I searched the tent in which the accused, B 33283 Sgmn. DUNLOP, A.D., whom I recognize, was quartered, and found that he and two others were absent. I searched the compound, and as I could not find the accused, I reported his absence to C.S.M. HURRELL. C.S.M. HURRELL instructed me to search the camp area again. I did so, but the accused was not in the camp area. I have not seen the accused from that time until today."

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B 33283 Sgmn. DUNLOP, A.D., SPECIAL DETACHMENT, 1 CANADIAN CORPS SIGNALS.

IT IS HEREBY CERTIFIED under the provisions of R.P. 4 (g) that, owing to the expense and loss of time involved, the attendance of H. 12021 Cpl. FORSEY, W.J. and B. 73546 Cpl. HAYES, S.G., both of No. 6 Provost Company, cannot in my opinion readily be procured, and a statement of their evidence, marked "Exhibit 'A' and 'B'" respectively, have been read to the accused, and are appended to this summary. The accused does not demand the attendance of these witnesses for cross examination.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4 (e), reserves his defence.

CERTIFIED THAT R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) (f) and (g) have been complied with.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED:-

I have only done an odd day or so transport work with this unit, when they needed help. I had driven for them before. I never had a driver's license in this country, but I did drive here with everyone's knowledge. I have done some repair work around the lines. I figured this driver Sprachlin had a little too much to drink that night at the Surrey Arms, and I just took over. The reason I took the vehicle out again is that I had a pass till two o'clock, and I had to be back for church parade, and that was the only way to get back. Scoles, Simmonds and Spr. Clapp were with me. They did not suggest that I should drive them back, but I realized that they had to be back. They just happened to be there when I took the truck.

(over)

We all rode in the front seat of the Dennis Lorry. I was a little crowded with four in front. I do not recall having any accident on thr road from Portsmouth to Bramshott. I decided next day to take the truck back where it belonged. The work ticket was in the car, I saw it next morning. I did not report to anyone when I took the vehicle back. After taking the vehicle back I came back for church parade, and then went to Portsmouth again.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

On behalf of the accused is mitigation, I would say that from the summary of evidence, the evidence surrounding the use of this vehicle shows the looseness in administration. As the accused says, he had driven without a license within the knowledge of his superiors. He had been working in transport, and decided that he and his pals had to get back, and took the vehicle and drove back to camp. I think the evidence of his having worked aro nd the transport lines would make it seem more in his own line of work. I think the Administration in this case was a little more loose than in most cases. I suggest that the court consider this, in view of this man's occupation. He drove the vehicle under observation from his superior officer from the Surrey Arms to the billets, without any objection being made. I think the court has the rest of the evidence before them.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

No. A-48604 Sgt. Sinclair, J.R., No. 5 Canadian Construction Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army, Overseas, having been duly sworn states;

From Jan. 5th until March 17th, 1943, I was stationed in Portsmouth in command of a detachment of H.Q., Canadian Constructional Engineers. On the night of 13th March, 1943, on returning from Bramshott to Portsmouth, I arrived at the Surrey Arms on Surrey Street in Portsmouth at approximately 2015 hours. While at the Surrey Arms I was in the company of Cpl. Dunlop, Spr. Spraklin, Spr. Nye. About 2115 hours, Spr. Spraklin, Cpl. Dunlop and Spr. Nye left the Surrey Arms and informed me they were going to the Gladstone. Approximately at 2200 hours, they returned to the Surrey Arms and from there we proceeded to the barracks.arriving there about 2215 hours. When we arrived at the barracks we went into the barrack room where I was billeted and stayed there approximately 15 minutes. I then went into an adjoining barrack room occupied by the detachment until approximately 2330 hours. While there, we were playing crap. When I returned to my own quarters, I don't recall seeing Cpl. Dunlop and I went to bed. On Sunday morning, the 14th of March, 1943 at approximately 1100 hours I seen Cpl. Dunlop and Spr. Clapp arrive at the barracks. The next time I paid any particular attention that they were there was when Cpl. Dunlop was repairing the left front fender of lorry CL 695559. Iwas talking to him and he mentioned that he had done that driving home and I mentioned that I thought that Spraklin had drove. At the time it didn't seem as though Cpl. Dunlop wanted much conversation so I let it drop at that. At approximately 1330 hours Spr. Spraklin and I were going out. Cpl. Dunlop and Spr. Clapp was not coming with us so we left the barracks at approximately 1330 hours and I never seen Cpl. Dunlop until I returned to Bramshott on the 17th of March, 1943.

FIFTH WITNESS for the Prosecution.

No. M-66009 Spr. Spracklin, E.S., No. 1 Canadian Mechanical Equipment Coy., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states;

On the 13th of March, 1943 I was driver of Vehicle CL 695559 working with a detachment of H.Q., Canadian Construction Engineers at Portsmouth. I was detailed by Sgt. Sinclair to proceed to Bramshott after lunch, 13th of March, 1943. We first went to the pub and from there we went up to the laundry and from there we came on through to Bramshott, stopping at the Bridge Cafe and coming into H.Q. at Bramshott after. We stayed here until appromimately 1815 hours and returned to Portsmouth stopping at the Pub in Liphook and leaving this pub at approximately 1915 hours and proceeded back to Portsmouth. We arrived in Portsmouth at about 2015 hours, stopping at the pub and staying there until closing time. Then we went back to barracks arriving there at approximately 2215 hours. I was accompanied by Cpl. Dunlop, Sgt. Sinclair and Spr. Nye throughout this whole trip. We parked the truck and went to barracks, Sgt. Sinclair and I going into another room which is opposite our own room and I don't remember Cpl. Dunlpp in that room, Sgt. Sinclair and I started shooting crap with several others. I left this room at about 0030 hours and went to my own room and went to bed.

On awakening in the morning at about 1030 hours, I saw Cpl. Dunlop sitting on the bed and he asked me if I had a hammer. Not thinking anything more of it I told him that it was under the seat in the truck. I layed in bed until approximately 1130 hours, getting up and getting ready for dinner and going out to dinner at approximately 1230 hours. I then saw Cpl. Dunlop straightening out the fender. Going over to him I asked him what happened and what he was doing. He said that he was straightening out the fender. Thinking nothing more of it I went into dinner. Coming out from dinner Cpl. Dunlop had the fender straightened. Going into the barracks I asked him if he was going up town and he said that he may see us up there later on. Sgt. Sinclair and I went up and didn't see Dunlop anymore that day.

When I arrived home on Sunday night, I was notified that the Civilian Police had been in. They returned at about 2300 hours. They asked me a few questions in regards to my truck which I answered to the best of ability, not knowing anything about the accident. They warned me not to move the truck in the morning.

Q. Who drove your truck from Portsmouth to Bramshott and return on the afternoon of 13th March, 1943?

A. I did, sir as far as the Surrey Arms Pub Porstmouth on the return trip. Cpl. Dunlop drove the truck from the Surrey Arms back to Barracks.

Q. Why did you not drive from the Surrey Arms to the quarters?

A. In my condition, I figured it would be safer for Cpl. Dunlop to drive back.

Q. Did you pick up petrol at Bramshott?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know if anyone else picked up petrol at Bramshott?

A. Not to my knowledge, sir.

Q. Was there any discussion regarding the picking up of petrol at Bramshott camp or Hospital?

FIFTH WITNESS for the Prosecution. (Continued)

A. I said that I should get some gas and I think that Cpl. Dunlop said that he would put some in.

Q. Can you say ~~######~~ definitely whether or not petrol was put in at Bramshott?

A. Cpl. Dunlop said that there was enough gas in the truck to take us back home as he had put some in.

Q. How were your passengers seated on the trip from Portsmouth to Bramshott and return?

A. They were all in the cab.

Q. After you returned to Clarence Barracks on 13 Mar 43, did anyone mention that your truck had been moved?

A. While I was in the crap game, Sapper Flewelling, I believe, said to me that he saw my truck leaving barracks.

Q. What did you do when he told you that?

A. I didn't do anything.

Q. Did you tell Sgt. Sinclair that your truck was gone?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Was there any discussion the next morning about this truck having been taken the night before?

A. No, sir.

Q. Not even when Cpl. Dunlop talked to you about the fender?

A. Well, Cpl. Dunlop said that he had run into something but he didn't say when or how.

Q. What information can you give us of any unauthorized journey by your vehicle on the night of 13/14 March, 1943?

A. From what I've heard, Cpl. Dunlop made a trip from Portsmouth to Bordon and Bramshott.

Q. Who told you that such a trip had taken place?

A. Spr. Simmons told me.

Q. Did he say if he rode in the vehicle on that trip?

A. Yes, he did.

Q. Did anybody else tell you about the trip?

A. No, he is the only one.

Q. Is it possible to adjust or disconnect the speedometer so that mileage would not show?

A. Yes, you can disconnect it.

Q. Would it have been possible for Cpl. Dunlop to disconnect the speedometer?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is this method of concealing mileage commonly known to personnel employed around M.T. Vehicles?

A. I can't say.

Q. Is there anything you can add to the evidence you have already given?

A. I know of nothing more.

No. K-92489 Spr. Simmons, W.H., No. 1 Canadian Mechanical Equipment Coy., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states;

On the 13th of March 1943 I went into the Surrey Arms with Spr. Scoles and Spr. Clapp. There we met Cpl. Dunlop and Sgt. Sinclair and Spr. Spracklin. At closing time we left there and we ended up in the barracks going there by truck. We were in Clarence Barracks about 15 minutes where Spr. Scoles had an argument with Spr. Spracklin. While we were there, there was some argument as to how we were to return to camp. It ended by Spr. Scoles and myself getting into the truck also Spr. Clapp. Cpl. Dunlop was driving. As we were leaving the camp gate I very distinctly heard someone yell "Dennis" and from there on it is very vague until I came to and the truck stopped at Bordon. Spr. Scoles and I got out of the truck and I said "Goodnight". Only Spr. Clapp answered. We started for our barracks and the truck pulled away towards Lindford. I then went in and went to bed.

Q. Did anyone other than Cpl. Dunlop drive the truck on this trip?

A. I can't say, I was very vague.

Q. Do you know what truck you came home in?

A. It was a Dennis, that's all I know.

Q. Who drove the truck from Surrey Arms to Barracks?

A. Cpl. Dunlop drove and Sgt. Sinclair sat in the front with him.

As I was coming home from the dance on the night of March 13th, 1943, I was on Kings Terrace, Portsmouth which is by the main entrance of the Victoria Barracks. I saw the truck CL 695559 come out of the gate and proceed north on Kings Terrace. This was about 2240 hours.as I looked at my watch when I reached my destination. I returned to Barracks at 2300 hours. I did not go to bed until about 0130 hours and was still awake when Cpl. Dunlop entered the room. The time then would be about 0230 hours.

Q. When you came into the barracks, did you report seeing the truck to anyone?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear the sound of a truck stopping outside your barrack door on the night of 13/14 March, 1943?

A. Yes sir, I did, about two minutes before Cpl. Dunlop entered the room.

Q. Could you distinguish anyone in the lorry when it left the barracks?

A. No, sir.

Q. How can you be certain that the lorry you saw was CL 695559?

Q. On Sunday morning, did you hear any conversation relating to a damaged truck?

A. Yes, I did,but I don't remember who was talking.

Q. Did you hear Sgt. Sinclair talk to Cpl..Dunlop about a damaged truck?

RM

EIGHTH WITNESS for the Prosecution.

No. A-54592 Spr. Clapp, R.E., No. 5 Canadian Construction Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army, Overseas, having been duly sworn states;

I came off duty at 1500 hs 1530 hours 13th March, 1943 and proceeded to Portsmouth with Spr. Scoles. When I arrived in Portsmouth it was about 1800 hours. We went for a short walk and then proceeded to a pub. We drank for sometime and then went to the Surrey Arms pub. There we met Sgt. Sinclair, Cpl. Dunlop. (Sgts Coldicott and Williams were there for a short while). Sprs Nye, Spracklin, and Simmons were also there. I don't know what time when we left there or where we went after but I woke up next morning in my own hut in Bramshott.

I attended church parade and was detailed off parade to arrange benches in the Mess Hall. I went to my sleeping hut before going to the Mess Hall and met Cpl. Dunlop there. He asked me if I were going to Portsmouth and I said "Yes". I then went to the Mess Hall as detailed. After Church Service, I went to the Seven Thorns Hotel and on the way met Cpl. Dunlop and we continued together. After eating at the Seven Thorns, we went to Liphook and took the train to Portsmouth and went to the Clarence Barracks where the detachment is stationed. I went into the barracks and talked to the boys. Cpl. Dunlop got a hammer and went outside. Later, Cpl. Dunlop came back in and went to a show. After the show we had something to eat and then took the train back to Liphook and returned to our quarters at Bramshott, Hants.

Q. To the best of your knowledge, how did you return to barracks on the night 13/14 March, 1943?

A. I cannot say.

Q. Could you have come by train?

A. I don't beleive so but I can't say.

Q. Do you beleive that you came home in an Army Lorry on the night of 13/14 March?

A. I can't swear to it but I think it very probable. I was too drunk to come home without assistance.

Q. Did you know that Cpl. Dunlop repaired a fender on a Lorry in Portsmouth on 14 March, 43?

A. I didn't see him but he mentioned he was going to. I didn't think that strange as he has often helped me with repairs to vehicles.

Q. Has any subsequent event led you to beleive that a Lorry was used without proper authority for the return trip to Bramshott on the night of 13/14 March, 1943?

A. Only what I have learned from being questioned on events from that night.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:--

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

FIRST WITNESS for the Defence.

No. F-10858 Cpl. Dunlop, George Francis, No. 5 Canadian Construction Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army, Overseas, having been duly sworn states:--

I left Liphook station at approximately 1230 hours, 13 March, 1943 and went to Portsmouth by train. Upon arrival in Portsmouth I went to Clarence Barracks, arriving there at approximately 1315 hours same date. I wanted to see Sgt. Sinclair, but he was not there, so I started out to look from him. I finally found Sgt. Sinclair in a pub at approximately 1330 hours. We stayed in this Pub until it closed. Sgt. Sinclair then said he had to go to Bramshott on business, so I decided to come with him, in a Dennis Lorry. The driver was Spr. Spracklin. We landed in Bramshott and stayed there until 1800 hours.

We left Bramshott and went to Liphook and stayed in Liphook at the Railway Hotel for one hour. We then left for Portsmouth, arriving there at approximately 2000 hours. We then went to the Surrey Arms where we stayed most of the time until closing time.

We then went back to Clarence Barracks. I did not stay there long as we had sort of a friendly argument.

I left at approximately 2245 hours. I went to where the W.D. vehicles are parked and took one and headed for Bramshott via Petersfield, Liphook, arriving at Bramshott around midnight. I parked the W.D. vehicle in front of my billet and went inside and lay on the bed with my clothes on. I woke up about two or three hours later, went outside to have a leak and saw the truck there and decided to take it back to Clarence Barracks, Portsmouth.

I arrived at Portsmouth, Clarence Barracks and parked the truck in the Unit Lines, and went into the hut where the men stay and dozed off in front of the fire. One of fellows woke me up and said "You had better go to bed." So I went to bed. I got up at 0715 hours and came back to Bramshott on the first train and arrived in Bramshott at 0915 hours, 14 March, 1943.

I left Bramshott and returned to Portsmouth and arrived there at 1230 hours. I got talking to the driver of the W.D. vehicle I had taken, and he said to me, "What have you been doing with the truck?" I replied "Nothing, why?" Spracklin, the driver, replied, "The fender is dented." So I said if I had done it I'd straighten it out. So I got a hammer and went to work on the fender.

STATES:

I and Spr. Spracklin and Spr. Nye in Lorry CL 695559 were going along Commercial Road, Portsmouth at approx 1415 hrs 13 Mar 43 en route to Bramshott where we met Cpl. Dunlop in the vicinity of Surrey Street. We picked him up and proceeded to Bramshott, arriving there at approx 1600 hours. We stayed for tea at Bramshott leaving at approx 1615 hrs. We stopped at the Railway Hotel, Liphook and had one beer and then left for Portsmouth, the next stop we made was at the corner of Surrey St and I went into the Surrey Arms at approx 2015 hrs. I stayed at the pub approx 15 minutes when Cpl. Dunlop, Spr. Nye and Spr. Spracklin came into the pub. They left the pub at approx 2100 hours saying they were going to the Gladstone Arms, returning at 2200 hrs when the pub was closing. We then proceeded to Barracks in the lorry.

I went to sleep at approx 2330 hrs and did not see Cpl. Dunlop until approx 1100 hours the following day, 14 Mar 43. Spr. Spracklin was in bed when I went to sleep. I noticed Cpl. Dunlop was at 1130 hours reparing dents to the left wing of the 30 cwt lorry, CL 695559. When I asked him what he was doing he replied that he was taking the dents out of the fender. I then asked him how the dents had got there and he said he was crowded off the road when he was coming home. I then asked him how could hebe crowded off the road when he was not driving. Then he replied that he did drive, so I left it at that as he did not seem to want conversation. I went back to the Barrack Room and there found Spr. Spracklin who was getting dressed and asked him if he knew why Cpl. Dunlop was repairing the fender, and he replied he did not. I then told Spr. Spracklin of the conversation I had had with Cpl. Dunlop and he said that Cpl. Dunlop had not driven his lorry on the night of 13 Mar 43 to his knowledge.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON LIPHOOK - BRAMSHOT RD
Spr. Germain, No. 5 Cdn Construction Coy., RCE.

Officer Commanding,
No. 9 Cdn Provost Coy.

Sir:

1. On instructions received from MSM Golton, 9 Provost Coy (Ppc 5.4.Inv.33) I proceeded to the Barracks of No. 5 Construction Coy RCE to investigate the a/m accidnt.

2. At No. 5 Const Coy, I was informed that Spr. Germain of that Coy had been hit and fatally injured by a car or lorry at approx 0030 hrs, 14 Mar 43 on the Liphook- Bramshot Rd (MR 2855?1, sheet 184). At the time of the accident he was accompanied by Spr Turner, L.B., R.36543, and A.86671 Spr. Larmond, A. of No. 5 Const Coy RCE.

3. I questioned these two witnesses, but was unable to get any definite information from them that would identify the vehicle that caused the accident. They did inform me that it appeared to be travelling at a rapid speed and did not stop after the accident.

4. After further questioning I ascertained that whilst Sprs Turner and Larmond had been walking on the sidewalk, Spr Germain had been walking beside them on the road. They were on the left side with their backs to the traffic.

When asked if they had been drinking, Spr Larmond denied that he had been; but Spr Turner admitted that he did have a few drinks, but was not drunk.

5. From the lack of information and observation of these men during the time of the accident I strongly suspect that they may have been somewhat under the influence of alcohol.

6. I visited the scene of the accident in the company of Lieut Bereskin, No. 5 Cdn Construction Coy RCE who is in charge of the Court of Inquiry of this case.

At this place I found several pieces of paint that had apparently been chipped off an R.E. Vehicle, but not a sufficient quantity to justify the belief that they may have been from the vehicle that killed Spr. Germain. There was also a skid mark made by a dual-wheeled vehicle.

7. We then proceeded back to No. 5 Construction Coy where I met Sgt Gould of the Liphook Police who was also investigating the case. He had previously visited the scene of the accident and had also picked up some of the chipped paint, of sufficient quantity to ascertain that it had come from a W.D. vehicle. This vehicle may have been one on strength of an Engineer Coy as the chips were light blue, white and khaki paint. Part of the chips of paint showed the letter "A", from a formation sign.

Sgt. Gould informed me that he had questioned several people earlier in the day and ascertained that a W.D. vehicle probably a 3 ton lorry without tarpolin or supports had been seen in the vicinity at the time of the accident.

I suggested that this may have been the same vehicle that had been reported stolen from 3rd Cdn Corps Troops RCASC the previous evening. I gave Sgt. Gould what particulars I had on this vehicle.

Summary of Evidence

in the case of

L 104363 Pte DUNLOP, K. M

36 Fd Amy Tps Comp Coy RCASC

First Witness F51652 L/Cpl EVELEIGH C E 36 Fd Amy Tps Comp Coy RCASC having been duly sworn, states

I am F51652 L/Cpl EVELEIGH C E, HQ Pl of 36 Fd Amy Tps Comp Coy RCASC. On the 19 Oct 45 at approx 1645 hrs I was detailed by Cpl BENNETT, HQ Cpl, to take charge, with L/Cpl RICHARDS, of the accused whom I recognize, relieving L/Cpl RICHARDS after supper. At approx 1715 hrs I went to the HQ Platoon Orderly Room and relieved L/Cpl RICHARDS. Pte DUNLOP was asleep on the couch. I stayed in the room with him for approx half an hour. Then as he was still asleep I went to the lavatory in the same building. I was away 4 or 5 minutes, and on my way back to the orderly room I was met by Pte VARLEY, driver of the lorry detailed for recreational transport that evening. He told me his lorry was gone. I ran outside and someone shouted that Dunlop had taken the lorry.

I went to Cpl BENNETT'S room in the big building nearby and reported to him that Pte DUNLOP had taken the recreational lorry. Cpl BENNETT then took charge of the situation and I went to detail another driver and lorry for recreational run.

Q. What condition was Pte DUNLOP in while he was in your charge?

A. He was sleeping the whole time.

Q. Why were you detailed to take charge of Pte DUNLOP.

A. I was duty NCO from 1700 hrs and Pte DUNLOP was undergoing Field Punishment. It was the duty NCOs job to see that DUNLOP was employed on tasks around the kitchen as necessary.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. When Cpl BENNETT detailed you to take charge of me, did he advise you that I was under the influence of liquor?

A. No. Cpl BENNETT said nothing about liquor.

C.E. Eveleigh

Second Witness H 100512 L/Cpl RICHARDS, V. P. 36 Bdn Army Tps Coy Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

I am H 100512 L/Cpl RICHARDS, V.P. Regtl Police Cpl, 36 Bdn Army Tps Coy Coy RCASC. I was Guard Commander for the week and at about 1500 hrs on the 19 Oct 45, the Cook Sgt called me from the gate, told me that Pte DUNLOP, whom I recognize and who was undergoing Field Punishment, had been drinking and detailed me to look after him. I took Pte DUNLOP to the HQ Pl orderly room and helped him onto the couch where he fell asleep. I remained with DUNLOP until L/Cpl EVELEIGH relieved me at 1715 hrs. About 1730 I went back to the Pl orderly room where DUNLOP was still asleep and L/Cpl EVELEIGH I was going to the gate to check the guard. I walked to the gate and was talking to the guard, Pte HICKEE when we saw a lorry coming towards the gate from HQ at an excessive rate of speed. I asked HICKEE what time it was. He ~~looked at his watch and~~ said 'A quarter to six'. I told him to check the oncoming lorry for a work ticket. He tried to wave it down but it failed to slow down. I tried to wave it down but the lorry went right on through the gate.

I recognized Pte DUNLOP driving the lorry and I also recognized the vehicle as CL4273291 which had been standing by to go to APELDOORN. I came to HQ and reported to the C.S.M. following his instructions I detailed a driver and lorry to take myself, Cpl BENNETT and two others and try to catch DUNLOP. We went to APELDOORN to the Rest Park. We enquired if 4273291 had checked in and just then I saw Pte DUNLOP standing with two Provost NCO's just inside the gate of the Rest Park. The Provost said they were waiting for their Offr and DUNLOP would have to remain until he came, so we waited. In a short time a Major and a lieut of the Provost drove up. The Major went up to DUNLOP and said 'this is the man' and they took DUNLOP, Cpl BENNETT and myself in a jeep to Provost HQ where they detained DUNLOP after getting his particulars from BENNETT and myself. We then returned to Unit Lines and reported to the C.S.M.

Q Can you describe in detail DUNLOP's condition when you took charge of him at 1500 hrs?

A His breath smelled as if he had been drinking and he was unsteady on his feet.

Q Can you describe his condition when you saw him again in the APELDOORN Oek Park?

A He was still unsteady on his feet.

Q Have you any idea where he might obtain liquor while undergoing F.P.?

A No idea at all, sir. He has done 19 days of his F.P. without causing any trouble.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Capt. Richards J.P.

Third Witness H 87787 Pte McKEE A.G. 36 Pde Army Tps Comp Coy R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:

I am H 87787 Pte McKEE A.G. of HQ Pl, 36 Pde Army Tps Comp Coy R.C.A.S.C. On 19 Oct 45 I was on guard at the gate leading to Coy HQ from 1700 hrs to 1900 hrs. At about 1745 hrs I was standing at the gate with Lt/Cpl RICHARDS when I noticed a lorry coming towards the gate from HQ. I signalled the lorry to stop but it didn't and as it drove through the gate I recognized Pte DUNLOP, the accused, as being the driver. Lt/Cpl RICHARDS went to HQ and I remained on my post.

Q How would you describe the way in which the lorry was being driven?

A I didn't notice anything out of the way at all, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

A. H. McKee

Second Witness A99263 Cpl BENNETT J.P. 36 Can Army Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn, states

I am A99263 Cpl BENNETT J.P. A/ADMIN SGT HQ. 36 Can Army Tpt Coy RCASC. On the 19 Oct 45 at approx 1600 hr, ~~I was informed that [illegible] DUNLOP, who I thought was under the influence of liquor~~. I went down to check and found L/Cpl RICHARDS and DUNLOP near the main HQ building talking together. DUNLOP appeared unsteady on his feet but was causing no trouble at that time. I reported to the C SM who told me to put someone with RICHARDS to take care of DUNLOP. I told L/Cpl COUGHLIN to report to L/Cpl RICHARDS. I did not see DUNLOP again until around 1645 hr. At that time he was asleep in HQ Orderly Room. I returned at approximately 1715 hr and he was still asleep. At about 1745 hr L/Cpl COUGHLIN reported to me that DUNLOP was missing and I ascertained lorry had gone. I reported this to Lt C.S.M. then checked for the recreational lorry CL4273291 and found it missing. With L/Cpl RICHARDS and other I took a lorry and went to APPLEDORN, checking at the Oak Park where I was told CL4273291 was in the Park and also DUNLOP held by Provost. Before getting the ticket for the vet. I had spoken to DUNLOP who told me that he was waiting for a vet to take him back to camp. It appeared to me he was sober. About that time Provost Officers arrived, released CL4273291 and I handed over to one of the men, and L/Cpl RICHARDS and I accompanied DUNLOP and the Provost Officers to Provost HQ where I gave them DUNLOP's particulars and returned to lines.

Q. Have you any idea when DUNLOP might procure liquor?

A. No sir DUNLOP was undergoing CB Punishment and working during the day in the Officers Mess kitchen.

Cross examined by the accused.

Q. At the vet park in APPLEDORN did I tell you that I did not remember driving in a truck?

A. Yes you did.

A. You told me that somebody else had driven the vet in and had got out when it stopped. J.P. Bennett Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this THIRD day of SEPTEMBER, 19 42

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, e subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE

I certify that I have this morning examined

No. L.104363 rank Pte Name DUNLOP K.M.

and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial

Station Field

Date 13 Oct 44

Medical Officer,
HQ RCASC 2 Cdn C tps

Before the court decides on punishment I would like to make a plea on his behalf. The accused is 19 years old and has served a long hire ovenseas. He has two brothers in the army in Italy. I make this plea on the grounds of this boys youth. He is guilty of having the lighter and he knows that he was wrong in not taking the proper steps to find the owner. He knew that it might be PC Ledsons lighter and I have discussed his action fully with him and say without fear of contradiction that he has just been foolish, has lacked worldly knowledge. He has agreed to pay back the money and I plead for leniency.

EXHIBIT A

Summary of Evidence in the case of L.104363 Pte Dunlop, K.M., 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., Canadian Army Overseas, charged with improper possession.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

A.63184 Pte Murcar, G.A., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:

I am A.63184 Pte Murcar, G.A., of 34 Cdn Corps Troops Comp Coy., R.C.A.S.C. - C Pl. On or about the 25 Sep 44 I came off detail at about 2000A hrs. Accompanied by Cpl McBride I went to a pub near Boschsnepe for a drink. While in the pub I asked a group of men if they had a lighter to sell. Pte Dunlop then told me that he had one for sale. He showed it to me: it was a Konson Combination lighter and cigarette case, in nickel finish, with a brass Canadian Maple Leaf on the face of it. We haggled over the price and I finally gave him 800 francs, French, for it. A few days later I showed it to my spare driver who said that he thought it was Pte Ledson's lighter. I was going to check on this but was away on detail and when I got back to the Unit the matter was under investigation.

Q. (By officer taking Summary): "Is this the lighter you purchased from Pte Dunlop."

A. "Yes".

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

G.A. Murcar

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Second Witness

U.1637 Pte Ledson, H.B., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:

I am U.1637 Pte Ledson, H.B., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. On the day we left Epron, near Caen, I was in "B" Pl vehicle lines and just before lunch I filled my lighter and placed it on the ground to dry by my kit which was near my vehicle. I was called away to the other side of the lorry to check the kitchen fire. I was gone about five minutes and when I came back my lighter was not there. I informed Lt Gaitens, my Platoon Officer, that my lighter had been stolen. The description of my lighter is as follows: it is a Ronson Combination cigarette case and lighter; nickel finish with a brass CANADA Maple Leaf soldered on the front of it. I asked one or two of the men in my platoon (B platoon) to keep their eyes open and let me know if they saw it around. I also asked everyone around at that time if they had seen it and nobody seemed to know anything about it. On Sunday morning, 1 October 44, the platoon arrived in location near St. Nicolas and I was standing by my vehicle talking to Pte Stranges. Stranges mentioned to me that he had seen my lighter sold to Pte Murcar in a pub. He said that Pte Dunlop had sold it to Murcar. I then went to Lt. Gaitens, my platoon officer, and told him what Stranges told me and that my lighter was located.

Q. (By officer taking Summary): "Is this your lighter?"

A. "Yes, Sir."

Q. (By accused) "Do you swear that your kit was out of the truck?"
A. "Yes"

Q. "Approximately how many men did you ask if they had seen the lighter?"
A. "At least twelve."

Third Witness

B.84342 Pte Cummins, H.C., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am B.84342 Pte Cummins, H.C., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. About noon of the day the Unit moved from Epron, I was with Pte Ledson. He filled his lighter and it overflowed. He then placed it on his kit which was on the ground beside his vehicle. About five minutes later he told me that his lighter was missing. We both looked for it but could not find it. After he had placed the lighter on his kit we both moved away whilst working around the vehicle. Pte Ledson made several inquiries if anyone had found his lighter. I also made enquiries but everyone I asked said that they hadn't seen it. Pte Ledson then reported the matter to Lt. Gaitens, the pl officer. The lighter was a combination cigarette case and lighter made by Ronson. There is a dent in the actual lighter part and a bronze Maple Leaf soldered on the face of it. It was a nickel-finished lighter. That is all I know of this matter.

Q. (By Officer taking Summary): "Is this the lighter which belonged to Pte Ledson and which disappeared the day the Unit left

A. "Yes, that's it".

Q. (By accused) "Cummins, where was Ledson's equipment?"

A. "On the ground about a foot from the truck."

H. G. Cummins

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Chas Langstaff Capt

(Signature of Officer taking Summary)

Fourth Witness

B.89665 Pte Merrlles, J.A., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am B.89665 Pte Merrlles, J.A., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. - Workshop Platoon. While the Unit was at Epron, Pte Ledson came to me with a Ronson combination cigarette lighter and cigarette case, which was nickel finished. He wanted me to solder a brass Maple Leaf, with the word CANADA on it, on to his lighter. I did so and returned it to Pte Ledson. Shortly after that I left the platoon to go to workshop. I left the platoon to go to workshop before we left Epron. The lighter had a small dent in the actual lighter part on the same side as the Maple Leaf was soldered. That is all I know.

Q. (By Officer taking Summary): "Is this the lighter which belonged to Pte Ledson and on which you soldered the Maple Leaf?"

A. "Yes, sir - that is the lighter all right."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J. A. Merrlles

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Chas Langstaff Capt

Fifth Witness

B.84813 Pte Jones, H.W.R., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am B.84813 Pte Jones, H.W.R., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. - "B" Platoon. On or about the day the Unit moved from Epron, Pte Dunlop came to me and showed me a lighter. He said "I found this lighter, do you know who owns it" or words to that effect. Then, or perhaps a little later on, after thinking it over, I told Pte Dunlop that I had seen Pte Ledson with a lighter like it. I can't remember whether he said anything further or not. That is all I know about the lighter.

Q. (By Officer taking Summary): "Do you think that this is the lighter you saw Dunlop with and which you think might have been Ledson's?"

A. "To the best of my recollection I would say it was, Sir."

Q. (By accused) "Did you see the lighter around the kitchen lorry at any time in the morning that we left

A. "No".

Q. "Did you notice whether or not there was equipment laying beside Ledson's truck?"

A. "No"

.....Hugh Jones.....

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Sixth Witness

H.87570 Pte Stranges, J.J., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am H.87570 Pte Stranges, J.J., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. One night about the 27 Sep 44 I left Composite Platoon lines to go to a cafe for a drink in the village of Boeschaepe. While I was in the cafe, I got talking to Pte Dunlop and a few other lads. One of the other chaps was Pte Murcar of "C" platoon. After talking for a while the conversation got around to cigarette lighters and Pte Dunlop said to all in general "I have a lighter to sell." Pte Murcar, who was there, bought the lighter from Pte Dunlop for 800 francs, French. I recognized the lighter as one which I had seen Pte Ledson with previously. I didn't say anything to anyone although I knew that Ledson had lost his lighter before I left "B" platoon. When I saw Ledson again I told him that I had seen Pte Dunlop sell his lighter to Pte Murcar. The article in question is a Ronson combination lighter and cigarette case. It has a nickel finish and a Canadian Maple Leaf badge in bronze on it. That is all I know about this.

Q. (By Officer taking Summary): Is this the lighter you saw Dunlop sell for 800 francs, French, to Murcar and is it the one Ledson lost?"

A. "That is it, Sir."

Q. (by accused): "At the time I sold the lighter to Murcar did you know it was Ledson's?"

A. "Yes".

Q. "Why did you not tell me that it was Ledson's, then?"

A. "For the simple reason that I figured it was none of my business what was going on in the pub."

Pte J. Stranges

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Lieut Capt

Seventh Witness

B.93289 Pte Hindmarsh, T.M., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am B.93289 Pte Hindmarsh, T.M., of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company R.C.A.S.C. A few days after the Unit had left Epron, When we were at Langannerie on Caen - Falaise road, about 1100 hours I was in "B" platoon lines lying beside the kitchen lorry. I had noticed Pte Ledson's lighter laying on the ground about five feet away from it. I got up and walked away from the lorry for some reason or other: the lighter was there when I left. When I returned a few minutes later I laid down again but noticed the lighter had disappeared. I thought nothing of it because I knew Ledson owned it and it was his lorry, therefore I assumed he had picked it up. Shortly after that Pte Ledson approached me and stated that his lighter had disappeared. I told him that I had seen it but that I didn't know where it had gone to. That is the last I heard of this lighter until this investigation opened.

Q. (By Officer taking Summary): "Is this the lighter which you knew to be Ledson's and which you saw laying on the ground the day he claims to have lost it?"

A. "Yes"

Q. (By accused) "Hindmarsh, how long were you lying on the ground before you moved away?"

A. "Roughly one half an hour."

Q. "Was the lighter there all the time you were lying there?"

A. "Yes"

T.M. Hindmarsh

The lighter referred to by this witness, produced and shown to the accused is marked Exhibit "A", signed by me, and attached to this Summary of Evidence.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this FOURTH day of FEBRUARY, 1943.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[redacted]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

* [redacted]

* Omit if not applicable.

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

Amplification of Dunlop's closing address - in mitigation of sentence.

Gentlemen,

I wish to mention a few points on this man's behalf which will cause you to regard his admitted breach of discipline in a little better light.

First - Intention - It is pointed out that both times he has been AWL. it was the act of over-staying a leave, but each time for different reasons. With regard to the absence for which he is now on trial the question arises whether or not he intended, when he left, to over stay his pass or not. The answer is no - for two reasons;

1. He gave his address whilst on leave & was apprehended here on the 27th of January '43. Obviously he would not have given his correct address if if he had no intention of returning.

2 He wrote to Col. Cunningham of his intention to return, but was apprehended the day before Lewes due to leave.

Second - Reason. - A man may have a reason for going A.W.L. which, although it is not sufficient justification under the provisions of the Army act, such as an act of God, sickness etc, is, in the man's own mind, a good and sufficient reason for him to take matters into his own hands.

The usual reasons, as you all know, are liquor and/or women, but in this case the accused does not drink, nor be mixed up with a woman. Through no fault of unfortunate occurrences and disappointments. His man has become "browned off." Briefly the events leading him into this state of mind are as follows:

1. Petties conviction by court-martial for absence during Dieppe operations has occasioned an adverse attitude on the part of certain officers and N.C.O.'s even though the accused had no idea that the raid was to take place and that he returned voluntarily immediately he learned of the raid.

2. Upon his return to holding unit from detention, he came under the command of the officer who had been his prosecutor at his trial, and it can be understood that relations between them were somewhat strained.

3. A few days after his arrival this officer ~~called him into the~~ promised him a clerks appointment with a good recommendation at the Admit. He proceeded to Admit. but the appointment did not materialize, and nothing had been heard of the recommendation.

4. Request for leave
was delayed, refused, and passed from hand to hand in such a way as to discourage the accused to such an ex tent that he asked to be paraded to the commanding officer.
5. The commanding officer did not receive him favorably, and mentioned his previous conviction in such a way as to injure the feelings of the accused so that it preyed on his mind.

6. He eventually got a leave and a weekend, and while on leave received a telegram instructing him to return two ~~and~~ days early, thus depriving him of his 48. This was the final straw which made him decide to stay away.

7. The conduct of the accused while he was with the unit is good, as his conduct sheet will show. He is young.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF C-53923 PTE DUNN, A.E.

A man who pleads guilty to a charge of absence without Leave from 152 days, and also to a charge of the loss of a Motorcycle, is pleading guilty to two very serious charges.

It shows that he is a t leavst honest with himself.

At the time of Pte Dunn's absence, the Canadian Army was in some very heavy fighting, and he was discouraged, fed up, and worried. His fiancee (whom he hopes to marry after the war) lives in England in the Rocket Bomb area, and Pte Dunn was worried about her welfare.

It was with the intent of seeing her, that he went absent. He went to Caen, where the Motorcycle broke down. He left the Motorcycle there after dismantling the gear box, and proceeded to St Aubin sur Mer, where he found that he was unable to get to England, so he started working his way back to the unit by hitch-hiking with British convoys. He proceeded as far as Lille, where he went into a Hospital, and after being discharged from the Hospital, he gave himself up.

In conclusion gentlemen, I would remind you of these points.

(a) He has not had any serious charges placed against him before.

(b) After realizing that he could not reach England he started his trek across France to rejoin his unit.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF C-53923 PTE DUNN, A.E.

A man who pleads guilty to a charge of absence without Leave from 152 days, and also to a charge of the loss of a Motorcycle, is pleading guilty to two very serious charges.

It shows that he is a t leavst honest with himself.

At the time of Pte Dunn's absence, the Canadian Army was in some very heavy fighting, and he was discouraged, fed up, and worried. His fiancee (whom he hopes to marry after the war) lives in England in the Rocket Bomb area, and Pte Dunn was worried about her welfare.

It was with the intent of seeing her, that he went absent. He went to Caen, where the Motorcycle broke down. He left the Motorcycle there after dismantling the gear box, and proceeded to St Aubin sur Mer, where he found that he was unable to get to England, so he started working his way back to the unit by hitch-hiking with British convoys. He proceeded as far as Lille, where he went into a Hospital, and after being discharged from the Hospital, he gave himself up.

In conclusion gentlemen, I would remind you of these points.

(a) He has not had any serious charges placed against him before.

(b) After realizing that he could not reach England he started his trek across France to rejoin his unit.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). About 1 Mile outside the town behind a straw stack in a field adjacent to the road, they showed me this Staff Car. The car was brought back to this Unit. The examination of the car showed that front and rear formation signs had been covered with camouflage paint, the WD number on the rear of the car had been altered to CM 195162 and the "T" following the original number had been covered with camouflage paint. At about 1000 hrs 11 May 44 Pte Dunn was again cautioned when he gave a voluntary statement, covering the removal of the car from Unit lines, which I produce. (Attached Exhibit "A") Statement of J. 86966, Pte Dunn,

Clarence Elwood, 86 Bridge & Serv &c.

I have been cautioned by C.S.M. Smith, J.B. No 1 Special Investigation Section, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. P. Dunn.

I am Clarence Elwood Dunn, age 27 years, and was born at Alliston, Ont., civilian occupation, farmer, I engaged in the Canadian Army on 9 June 1940 and arrived in England on Sept 1940. On the afternoon of 25 April 1945, I had dressed to go out as it was "day off" for "M" Platoon. At about 6 o'clock in the evening, Lt Brooks came and told us that our passes had been cancelled. He said it was because the other men left their tents untidy. I had a bottle of liquor to take out with me that evening, and as I had just come off guard, I felt disappointed because we were being punished for something we had nothing to do with. I stayed in that night, and around roll call at 11.00 o'clock at night. I drank the bottle of liquor with my friend Pte Hardie and we decided to leave camp for a few hours. We both got as fast drunk on the liquor and we took the staff car CM 195260 and left camp. We drove up North of London and saw what I got. We crashed the car behind the straw stack not far from Tonbridge C.D.

and went to London for a few days. We ran short of money and decided to come back to the unit. We surrendered to the Canadian Provost at Guildford.

I have read over this statement and it is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and memory. C. Dunn.

Henry Ernest Sargent having been duly sworn states:

I am Henry Ernest Sargent of 3 Easmore Lane, Redditch. On 3 May 44 at approximately 1100 hrs a man, whom I now recognize as Pte Dunn, C.E., came into the Hungry Man Hotel, Redditch, wearing the uniform of a Captain in the British or Canadian Army, in company with a Lieutenant of the American Army. We got into conversation and I took Dunn and the American Lieutenant in Dunn's car to the White Lion Hotel at Portway, north of Redditch. Dunn during the conversation mentioned he had a small acount in the Midland Bank and a large account in the Lloyds Bank and also a draft for about £60 on Lloyds Bank. Owing to the fact that I thought it was too late for him to cash a cheque at the Bank, he suggested that I should cash him a cheque, which I did for £5.

This witness was questioned by the Officer taking the summary.

"A"1 No. He did not.

"Q"2 When you presented the cheque to the Midland Bank was it honoured?

Blum being the person so instructed he had a small account in the Midland Bank and a large account in Lloyds Bank and also a draft for about £60 on Lloyds Bank. Owing to the fact the Manager was not there for him to cash a cheque ~~for £5~~ at the Bank, he suggested that I should cash a cheque which I did for £5.

Blum gave me his identity card which I did not examine. His uniform was questioned by the officials taking the currency from Germany but he was not asked about his identity.

During the early morning of the 26th of April, 1944, I left my camp at Newlands Corner in a Ford Sedan Army Staff car, number CM 195260, in company with Pte Hardie of my unit. We travelled up through the Great North Road and spent the night in the car at the side of the road, just outside Kidderminster. On the following morning, the 27th of April, 1944, we drove on to Feckenham, near Redditch, Worcestershire, and arrived there at about mid-day, Hardie and me went into a public house there. I do not know the name of this public house. I was wearing battledress with three pips on the shoulders, at the time, and I met in the public house, a farmer who said his name was Brooks. While I was in the public house I did say that I was a Captain Dunn and that I was looking for a suitable meadow in which to erect a camp for myself, a lieutenant and thirty other ranks, which would be working as a mechanical repair unit. I said this in general conversation and Brooks was there when I was saying this.

Mr Brooks invited myself and Hardie to his house on that day, 27th April, 1944, for lunch, and we went with him and had lunch. Later that day I asked Mr Brooks if he could give Hardie and myself lodgings while we were in the district and he agreed to do so, and arrangements were made for the price we were to pay for the lodgings, but I do not know now what the amount was. We stayed at Mr Brooks house each night from the 27th April, 1944 until 2nd May, 1944, and I paid for both our lodgings up until Sunday, 30th April, 1944, but we did not pay for the board and lodgings we had during the 1st and 2nd May, 1944, and I agree that we owe Mr Brooks the sum offourteen shillings for board and lodgings. I also admit that I obtained two pounds, in cash, from Mr Brooks, while I was staying there. I cannot now remember what day it was when I got this money.

On Tuesday, 2nd May, 1944, I met a white haired elderly man, whose name I do not know, at Mr Brock's farm at Feckenham. I asked him if he could give me a blank cheque as I wanted some money at once, and he handed me one from a cheque book, straight away.

On the 3rd May, 1944, I went to the White Lion Inn, Portway, Warwickshire, where I filled in the blank cheque form I had obtained the previous day, and I made it payable to a Mr Sargent who I drove out to this pub from Redditch. I do not remember whether I signed my name on the cheque or somebody else's. I handed the cheque to Mr Sargent and he gave me five pounds in cash. The cheque was issued for an account either on Lloyds' Bank or Midland Bank, I don't know which. I first met Mr Sargent in a public house at Redditch.

Hardie and me slept in an American Army Camp, near Redditch, for a couple of days and later we drove the car on the Northampton road and left it behind a hay stack, and then we hitch-hiked back to Guildford where we arrived on the morning of Tuesday 9th May, 1944, where we handed ourselves in to the Canadian Provost.

The witness last said says that Dunn gave every assistance in recovering the vehicle. Hand in a letter to show that the accused was written for money to repay the debt he owes. This letter shows that the money will be forthcoming. (letter attached as Exp. A).

The accused surrendered himself and was not running away. This is the story of a man, overseas for 3 yrs. 1 months, who was suddenly C.B'd. When he was expecting a days leave. He had a bottle of liquor and we all know how it could happen. The car was not damaged & well looked after.

The accused is an intelligent man with self-initiative & ability. He is the type who will make a valuable soldier & who could hold a rank. He is a willing & able soldier to my knowledge. He should not be too harshly judged for getting drunk for a few days.

Dunn showed willingness to cooperate in recovering the car, in coming 175 miles to his own area to surrender. Moreover he is going to make restitution of the money.

P to Dunn states that he wishes to add that restitution will be made for all sums, including that £5 cheque.

First Witness — 17 45074 Cpl. Sinclair W., 2/7 Cdn Recce Rgt., In Prosecution — CAOF, sworn, states:—

I recognise accused (indicates him) at approx 2330 hrs night of 19 Aug 43. I was guard comd. at Frisia Hotel, Leer. As result of a report of some shooting I was ordered to investigate. I proceeded down the street & heard some loud talking in a bldg. I went in & into a room on the left. I saw accused sitting with his arm round a man who was partially dressed. The garment that accused had on was a white singlet. He had an automatic pistol in his hand, he was possibly waving it around. I asked him to come out for a drink in order to get him out of the house & to get the pistol from him. He ordered me to get out — I took a step forward & he pointed the pistol at me & I withdrew. As I got to the door a pistol was discharged from direction of accused — I did not look round to see who fired. I waited outside bldg. until prov. arrived a few minutes later. Two prov. entered the house & came out with the accused. When shot was fired I was about in the door-way, sideways to the accused. I looked back when I heard the shot.

Cross-examd.

(Def. Offr. produces plan. Pros. offr. consents to admission of plan. Plan marked Ex. "A") I went 2 or 3 steps into the room. I went no further than "A" (marked by witness) accused was then at "N" (marked by witness) approximately. When I first entered room I asked accused to get his arm down & come out for a drink. He looked round in the direction of his arm & then back at me. I backed out of the room. I was about 6 feet away from accused. I did not see accused's face. I was a NCO — I was dressed as I am now — that is all I said to accused. The lights were good — clear enough to see anyone. Accused told me to get out. I considered if he was drunk he would know my rank. When shot was fired I was approx. at "O" (marked by witness) The door was swinging back.

at the moment of firing. I don't know if ~~it was~~ accused had a clear view of me. (Def. Offr. refers to witnesses evidence at Inquiry.) I signed that (referring to evidence at Inquiry produced by def. offr.) The statement in the sum that the accused fired "at" me should be "in my direction". I knew of the shooting from a report from 2 men of the guard — that is before I proceeded down the street. I don't know where the bullet fired in my direction struck. I am sure the accused pointed the revolver in my direction. The revolver wasn't steady.

Re-examin.

When I asked accused to come out, the pistol shaded pointing in my direction & he ordered me to get out; that ~~he~~ was the second time he ordered me to get out. The first time he ordered me to get out was when I first entered the room.

Cross-examin.

The accused was holding the pistol in his right hand & had his left arm around the man. When he pointed the pistol at me I started to step backwards still facing the accused & then I turned & left the quickly.

Questn by A.

When I was in the room the only other persons present were the accused & the man sitting by him. As far as I saw only the accused had a pistol.

~~Cross-examin.~~

R P 83 (6) complied with.

Court adjourns at 1905 hrs.

Court re-assembles at 1910 hrs.

Second Witness for Prosecution. 1111 Pte Van de Vonne E, Belgian Trans Contract Coy. CMP (2281 T.C.) BLA, a sworn states (through interpreter Sgt. Swinkels — Flemish & English):—

I recognise accused (indicates him). On 19 Aug 45 about 2230 hrs. the accused came up to me & asked me to have a drink. I refused & accused went into a hotel near the station at Leer. I went in with him & accepted one drink. Accused took a pistol from his pocket & asked him if I could look at it. The accused handed it to me & I looked it & I saw there was a bullet in the barrel. I gave it back to accused because I trusted him. The accused put pistol back in his pocket. The accused took a bottle of Schnapps out of his bottle from Hoare when we first went in & that is what I drank from. I had 2 drinks out of that bottle. It was full when accused first produced it. I don't know how many drinks the accused had. There was a third man who was in the room when he arrived — he had 2 drinks out of it. The bottle was ~~another~~ about ½2 & the accused produced another bottle also Schnapps. A Belgian policeman came in at that moment. ~~The third man~~ They finished the second bottle. They all then left except myself & the accused. A Belgian policeman entered the room & at that moment the accused took his pistol & the Belgian policeman ~~drew out his~~. He accused turned the pistol pointing it at me. He said "Fuck'g Belgians" I thought it would be dangerous so I urged accused & pushed him out of the room & then accused fired a shot. I went out of the hotel & went to a Can Cpl. & reported to him there was a Can Soldier in the hotel with a pistol & asked him to disarm the prisoner. The accused was a bit drunk when he first handed me his pistol — he was talking & mumbling, as did not talk I cannot talk in English. I handed back the pistol because I pushed him with it.

Cross-exam.

I am not sure if the pistol was first produced before I had 2 drinks with the accused. I am quite sure I did not have the accused produced the second bottle. I am quite sure I did not have a drink from the second bottle. I remember giving evidence at the Summary. I can't remember what I said then. The accused was lying on the ground when he fired the shot. I pushed accused outside the door & he then fell on the ground. He or he might have begun falling

By Court & J.A. police

On leaving the Belgian ~~house~~. went the table & stopped after ~~two~~ two.

Cross-exam (continued)

(Def. Offr. produces Ex A.) I was at "P" pointed by witness on Ex A) when shot was fired & accused was then at "Q" (marked by witness) I urged accused, pushed him outside the door, & the accused fell in the hall & I went out of room to point "P". It is possible that the accused fell accidentally.

Question by Ct.

I did not see from Q to P.

Cross examn (contd.)
I only heard the shot. I did not hear the bullet hit anything.
Re-Examn.
I did not see where bullet lodged at that time.
Questd. by JA.
I seized accused by the arms when I pushed out. The accused had the pistol in his right hand.
Questd. by Ct.
I pushed accused outside & then he fell. I pushed him from inside the room to "Q" & I stepped backwards to point "P". The shot was fired after I had stepped back to "P." As I stepped back I bent forward & did not see accused fire. I went down as I was afraid accused would fire. There was no light in the hall but some light from the room. The front door was open, & some light also came from the room.
R P 83 (6) complied with.

Next witness for prosecution B 26418 C/Cpl. Bell R A 2/6 Coy FS Coy RCC sworn states:-
I recognise this doc. (plan produced by Pros. Off.) It is a sketch of a room in the hotel where Belgian Pol. were. (Def. Off. consents to admission. Sketch marked Ex "B") On 27 Aug 45 I went to the room to prepare a sketch showing bullet holes. I took measurements & the bullet holes were as shown on the sketch. They were alleged bullet holes; I could not say they were bullet holes. No 1 was in passage way in the train of the door, No: 2 was in the floor of room, Nos 3 & 4 were in the walls of room.
Cross-examd.
The holes I took notice of were the only holes that might have been caused by pistol shots fired.
R P 83 (6) complied with.
Court adjourns at 2100 hrs.
~~Next witness for prosecution 26418 Cpl Bell RA 2/6 Coy FS Coy RCC sworn states:-~~ Prosecution closed Pros. Off. states he is not calling further witnesses. JA advises Def. Off. if he requires any witness at Summary to be called Pros. Off. should call him. Def. Off. requests Pte Dalamores be called.

Fourth witness for prosecution.

Pte. 2/80 Pte Delaunois V., 2nd Belgian Regt Belgian army Kaserne Centrale Coy, Cpl 2 (by interpreter, Cpl Loiselle R., French to English) sworn, states:-

I recognise accused (indicates him) I am Kaserne Centrale billets 19 Aug 'as I heard a shot. I was in bed. I got up & put on my pants. When I got to first floor someone shouted at me not to go down. I came down & saw accused sitting on sofa & he was talking by himself with a revolver in his hands. So I got close to him & sat next to him. I tried to reason with him in French. I mentioned "Provost" that's all I could say to make him understand. The accused started shouting so I put my arm round his neck in a friendly way & ~~I took the arm~~ with other hand held his wrist. The accused fired one shot in the floor. I gave him a drink of tea & kept mentioning "provost" to him. Cpl. Sinclair arrived; he just stuck his head in the door - he said something in English so the accused started shouting at him with the revolver pointing to the wall. The Cpl. withdrew & the accused fired to his (accused's) front & broke a picture on the wall. Again I mentioned "Provost" & the accused unloaded magazine of pistol & I pulled the hyper to clear the pistol, & the last round fell on the ground. The accused put the pistol on the table & the Cpl. provost came in & took accused. I picked up revolver & the round on the ground & handed them to the Provost & went back to bed. Cpl. Sinclair put his head & shoulders round the door. The shot was fired after the Cpl. had gone - about 10 seconds after. The shot was fired at the wall opposite the door.

Cross examined.

I had not been drinking before I went to bed, only tea. The accused did not fire at anyone. The room was fairly well lit. I did not see Cpl Sinclair's stripes. I encouraged accused to fire into the floor to empty the pistol.

R P s 3(b) complied with.

Prosecution closed.

Def. Offr. does not make opening address (R P 41 (ii)(a))

First Witness for Defence

H 617362 Pte Sutherland R G, Hqrs. Cavalry, Corps Battalion 2/7, sworn, states:—

On 11 Sept 45 I saw you (referring to Def. O/C.) remove a bullet from the door frame in passage way at No 1 as Ex "B". It was this or similar to it (Bullet produced marked Ex "C")

Cross-examined.

I did not see Ex "C" in the door frame. I saw the hole from which it was extracted. It was about 6'6" from floor.

Re-examined.

It was an oblong hole - about 2½".

Questioned by Ct.

That was the only hole I noticed in the door frame.

R P 83(6) complied with.

Defence closed.

Def. O/C. addresses Court.

Pros. did not prove first charge. No proof accused knows Cpl. Sinclair was a N.C.O. Shot was not fired in direction of Cpl. Sinclair. As to 2nd charge Van de Kerne was under influence of liquor. The firing was during a struggle; it was an accident.

Pros. O/C. addresses Court.

Cpl. Sinclair's evidence substantiates first charge. Second charge clearly proved. The bullet hole "No 1" in B shows shot fired in direction of de Kerne.

J.A. addresses Ct.

Advises as to burden of proof, benefit of doubt & facts for Ct. to determine. Charges explained. As 1st charge, if accused did not know Cpl Sinclair's rank he should be acquitted. As to 2nd charge was a shot or shot fired by accused in presence of Belgian soldier without provocation? If firing deliberate provocation should be in self-defence or circumstances justifying shooting.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of F82256 Spr Clarence William DUNN, 2/6 Cdn Fd Coy RCE, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

By direction of the Officer Commanding, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

For the Prosecution

1111 Pte Van de Venne, Eustachius of the Belgian Traffic Control Company, CMP (2281 T.C.) BLA a soldier of the Belgian Army, having been duly sworn states as follows:

I am No 1111 Pte Van de Venne, Eustachius of the Belgian Traffic Control Coy CMP (2281 TC) BLA stationed at LEER, GERMANY. On 19 August 1945, at approximately 2230 hours a drunken Canadian soldier came to our billets. He started speaking but we could not understand him very well. He produced a bottle of gin asking us to have a drink. We said "No", but he came in, sat down, and we started drinking. When the bottle was empty, he produced a second bottle. We did not want to drink anymore, but he persuaded us. All at once, he seized his pistol so I thought right away that it might become dangerous. I asked to see his pistol. He handed it to me and I saw that it was loaded with a bullet in the barrel. Then I returned it, as I trusted the soldier fully. After that, other soldiers from my unit came in. They all had a drink and then they all went to bed. When they were gone, L/Cpl Maurice, H came in to join us. The The Canadian pulled out his pistol again; whereupon L/Cpl Maurice went away. Then he pointed the revolver at me saying continuously, "Fucking Belgium." I thought it would become dangerous and jumped to my feet and seized him and pushed him outdoors. He shot once at me; then I went out to the NCO of the 7th Recce Regt who reported it to the Cdn Pro Coyps. It was then approximately 2330 hrs. I later learned that the Canadian soldier was Spr Dunn, 2/6 Cdn Fd Coy RCE

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

For the Prosecution

POL 2/80 Pte Delaunois, Victor, 2nd Belgian Traffic Control Coy, CMP. a soldier of the Belgian Army, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

I am POL 2/80 Pte DELAUNOIS, VICTOR, of the 2nd Belgian Traffic Control Coy, CMP stationed at Leer Germany. During the evening of Sunday the 19th August 1945, I was suddenly awakened by the sound of a pistol shot which seemed to come from the inside of the building in which we are billeted. I then went downstairs into our guardroom to find out what was going on. It was around 2330 hours and I saw a Canadian soldier, who I later learned was Spr Dunn of the 2/6 Cdn Fd Coy, RCE, armed with a pistol, seated on a sofa. So I went up to him, put my arm around his neck, as I could see that he had been drinking and tried to make him listen to reason. On account of the difference in languages, it was evident that he did not understand what I was trying to tell him and he shot twice into the floor. I was trying to get him to empty the magazine into the floor so that no one would get hurt. Then he started singing. Then I gave him two cups of tea, feeding it to him, as I was still holding on to him. While Spr Dunn was drinking his tea, a corporal of the Canadian Army, warned by my friend Pte Van de Venne stuck his head in the door and said something to Spr Dunn. Spr Dunn replied but I did not understand what they were saying. Spr Dunn was still brandishing the pistol. The corporal left the room and Spr Dunn fired into the wall but not in the direction of the doorway in which the corporal had been standing. Then I grabbed him by both arms, saying, "Attention, Provost" and Spr Dunn removed the magazine from the pistol. Then I succeeded to eject the cartridge that was still in the barrel and made sure the pistol was empty and persuaded him to put the pistol on the floor, which he did. Two members of the Cdn Pro Corps ran into the room, seized the soldier and took him away with them.

Questioned by the accused:

Q1 Did I still have the pistol after the tea was served to me?
A1 Yes, you did.

At approximately 2330 hours, 19th August 1945, I was guard commander in our billets, located in the FRISIA HOTEL, on the corner of Churchillstabe and Bahnhofstrasse in LEER, when I was informed by two members of the guard that there was a soldier discharging a pistol. I immediately informed the duty officer who instructed me to proceed to the scene of the shooting. I then proceeded in the direction of the firing when I heard a threatening voice coming from the billets of the Belgium Military Police. I went into the house where I saw Spr Dunn holding a pistol in his right hand and holding another soldier by the neck with his left arm. When I made an appearance in the same room, Spr Dunn pointed the pistol at me and ordered me out of the room. I took a few steps backwards. 18. The Prosecuting Officer addresses the Court as follows:

Sir: The accused pleaded Guilty to both charges and on reviewing the evidence, there is no reason why he should have not pleaded guilty.

It has been proved that he was absent without leave 33 days, 11 hours, 30 minutes and it has been proved he had kit deficiencies to the value of £2.15.2.

With reference to the 1st charge; the offence of absence without leave is becoming more and more prevalent in the Canadian Army as time goes on. A great deal of time is lost in dealing with these cases. In the event of a call to action which might happen at any time, if the men are not at their stations and are not in trim, the whole Empire suffers.

The fact must be faced that all soldiers in the Canadian Army are given ample opportunity for leave, recreation, etc.. For example, 4 "week" leaves a year are granted when circumstances permit, which is more than one would have in civilian life. Also, a point that should be remembered is that a large number of week-end passes are granted. Providing the allotment is not exceeded these passes are granted to anyone.

We do not work long hours. This past summer, work stopped at 1630 hours in the afternoon and the men were free until 0730 hours parade the following morning.

Therefore it isn't a case of a man being over-worked or not having ample opportunity for recreation. Everyone has plenty of spare time.

Spr. Dunn evidently intended to stay away as he didn't become "Fed Up" with being absent after two or three days, but stayed away over a month. He had plenty of time to think things over and come back to his Company after two or three days but he didn't.

May the Court take all this into consideration, and since offences of this nature are steadily increasing, I respectfully request that this man be given a severe sentence.

With reference to the second charge, losing of clothing and necessaries to the value of £2.15.2. This equipment was supplied to the men, free. Spr. Dunn lost it by his own neglect. I suggest the Court deal with the offence as you see fit.

19. The Defending Officer addresses the Court as follows:

Sir: It is not my purpose to try and condone the conduct of the accused. He has pleaded guilty. I would, however like to give you a "word" picture of this man's civilian and Army career, and his mental background.

Spr. Dunn, Age 24, enlisted in May 1940, the 31st Day. In about 1 week, he sailed to England. What he would learn about the Army in 1 week would not be much. Shortly after landing in England he went to Hospital for serious Hernia Operations, and was 3 months in Hospital convalescing. On return to his Battalion he was placed on light duty in the kitchen. The R.C.O. cook in the kitchen was a negroe. Just how would you react to this? Dunn did not take well to the idea but worked faithfully.

The Prosecuting Officer has stated that the Soldier's hours were from Reveille to 1630. Gentlemen, you know you work longer than that in a kitchen.

Dunn was working under Adverse conditions.

He had no knowledge of Army Procedure. He applied for a week-end pass once, and was too late in doing so. The pass was not granted.(The first pass he ever asked for was refused). Dunn, to use the vernacular, went off the deep end and "took" a week-end. He was absent 1 day and 2 hrs. This was his first crime. For this 1st offence, his O.C. awarded him 7 days C.B. and 5 days forfeiture of pay. This was a pretty severe sentence, you will admit. Dunn naturally felt bitter. He went back to work in the kitchen.

Now let us see a little of his civilian backing. He was married shortly after the war started, in Sept. 1939. To the present date he has only had 2 or 3 letters from his wife. He also has a child, 2 years old. Since he has heard so seldom from his wife, he knew nothing of how the child was. This was a constant worry to him. He also felt he hadn't been treated fairly, had to relax, and went absent without leave again.

Dunn joined the Army of his own free will, in order to give help to his country. After what he came through he felt that he did not get a square deal.

Another point, Dunn's mother was separated from his father. His mother married again and didn't pay much attention to the family.

After joining the Army, Dunn had a wife and child to support. This was a source of worry.

This man's Army record to March, 1941 was 100%. He also had worked hard and worked long hours.

Spr. Dunn has already spent 26 days, 12 hours and 30 minutes under close arrest. During this time, he has been deprived of mail, cigarettes and other small pleasures and necessities which mean a great deal to a soldier.

When summing up and rendering justice, I wish to suggest that the Court weigh in the balance of that which I have said.

20. The Court was closed for the Finding.

SIGNED AT Wentworth Hall, near Dorking Surrey, this 16th day of September, 1941.

I would like to try and explain to the court some of my personal history in the hope that it will help you to understand my case.

As my crime sheet goes against me and I have not gone A.W.O.L. for the fun of it, all my troubles have been caused by women and drink and being too far in debt to the army.

I joined the army in Vancouver in 1940 and was sent to a training centre in Calgary. At that time my wife and I were on good terms and she was to join me in two weeks time; a month passed and she did not come. I found out the excuses she was making were not true. I tried to get leave to go home and see what the matter was but could not get it.

I was very worried and despondent and went home without leave. I phoned my wife to meet me, and she agreed. But instead she sent the M.P.s and had me picked up for being absent and I was taken back and put in detention. I went absent again to see her. She admitted there was another man but defied me to prove it and again had me turned over to the M.P.s. I was again put in detention and when I got out I paraded to the C.O. to see if I could have my wife's allowance stopped. He said this could not be done without proof and I felt it was unfair that I should have to support her. I was arrested and got detention.

On my release I again went absent and was picked up and was awaiting Court Martial, when the army investigated my case and found that my wife was untrue. The C.O. had me paraded and told me that my wife's allowance would be stopped and asked me if I would like to go overseas. I told him I would and the Court Martial charges were dropped and I was given detention instead. I was put on draft and left for overseas. By this time I was deeply in debt but as my troubles seemed to have been settled, I intended to soldier now that I was overseas. I got along fine for the first eight months and then I got mixed up with a woman and went absent. I was put in detention and when I got out I applied for leave to visit my relations. This was refused and I came down to the field unit in the next draft. I got drunk in Horsham one Saturday night and when I woke up I had over stayed my pass by ten hours. I intended going absent to visit them. When I got there I found that my girl freind was pregnant and she accused me of being the father. I did not think that I was and stayed on there trying to prove that I was not. After all the trouble I had had at home I did not want the same sort of thing to start all over again here. I was arrested by the police but I think I can prove now that the child w was not mine.

I hope that my personal trouble will explian to some extent the reason for my conduct. I volunteered for service (active) in the first year of the war and have two brothers in the army. I want to take my punishment and then get into action as soon as possible

C-37587 Pte Dunn E. M.

Sir, I would just like to mention a few points that evidence does not bring out.

1. The lad is just twenty, having joined the army as a boy of eighteen.
2. He, did not pick out his companions wisely, consequently he has lost pay from AWL charges.
3. Owing to the loss of pay, he has been unable to take leave.
4. Since being under close arrest, he has been a model prisoner.
5. In closing, I might say that I have had the opportunity of talking with this lad. He realizes now what the loss of pay means, and has given me his word that when he gets his pay book balanced, will keep it that way. He knows now that he has to soldier in order to get his leave. I sincerely hope, the court will take these points into consideration and treat this lad leniently.

2. Overseas R.O. 2234 and 2295 are hereby cancelled. (Overseas R.O. 3415)

12. ILLEGAL SALE OF GIFTS FROM CANADA

1. The British Government agreed to allow gifts for the Cdn Army to enter the United Kin dom, free of duty, on the distinct understanding that these gifts were for personal use and NOT for re-sale.

2. The number of cases of re-sale of gifts, particularly cigarettes and tobacco, are increasing to such an extent that the British Treasury have made representations that unless the practice is discontinued, they may have to reconsider their decision regarding duty free entry.

3. The effect of a decision of this nature is obvious and the attention of all ranks is drawn to the fact that they are liable to lose this privilege, which is now enjoyed through courtesy of the Government of the United Kingdom (Overseas R.O. 635)

4. The sale, or any disposal on a commercial or barter basis in the United Kingdom by military to other military personnel or a civilian person or corporation of any gift or gifts to an officer or soldier of the Canadian Army or for distribution to the personnel of a unit of the Canadian Army, which have entered, or are commonly known to enter, the United Kingdom, free of duty, is hereby forbidden. (Overseas R.O. 960)

5. It is emphasized that the privilege extended by the British Government was only in respect of cigarettes or tobacco sent from Canada for personal use, i.e., consumption by the recipient himself and other dealings by recipients with cigarettes or tobacco from Canada is hereby forbidden. The sharing of cigarettes or other gifts with other Canadian Army personnel and the free distribution by C.O's or other individuals of such gifts among Cdn Army personnel are exempted from the provisions of this order.

6. The use of Regimental Funds for the purchase of cigarettes or tobacco in Canada for delivery in the United Kingdom, and the sale of any duty free cigarettes or tobacco in messes and canteens are also contrary to the privilege extended by the British Government, and are hereby forbidden (Overseas R.O. 1360 & 1659)

12. ILLEGAL SALE OF GIFTS FROM CANADA (CONT'D)

7. Any contravention of this order will be severely dealt with under Section 11 of the Army Act.

13. DISCIPLINE - SAFETY PRECAUTIONS TO BE OBSERVED BY TROOPS WALKING OUT DURING THE HOURS OF DARKNESS

1. Owing to the regrettable number of accidents, involving loss of life, which have occurred during the hours of "Blackout", it is considered desirable that the attention of all ranks should be drawn to the necessity of taking the normal precautions when walking in public thoroughfares at night when off duty or on duty as individuals. It should be pointed out that drivers of vehicles are often unable to see pedestrians, particularly those dressed in khaki, in sufficient time to avert an accident.

2. In places where no footway is in existence and it becomes necessary to walk in a roadway, pedestrians should walk on the right hand side of the road, i.e., against the oncoming traffic and not on the left hand side, where there is always the danger of being run down from the rear by overtaking traffic.

3. All traffic signals must be observed and thoroughfares crossed only at the appointed pedestrian crossings, when these are available.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of,

The Commanding Officer, Colonel J.M.Pocock, 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness For the Prosecution

Number 106[illegible]6 L/Cpl Salter, A., 15d Provost Coy. C.M.P. Aldershot, having been duly sworn, states:

I am number 106[illegible]6 L/Cpl Salter, A. of 15d Provost Coy. C.M.P. Aldershot.

At Aldershot on the 2nd June 42 at about 1850 hrs, I was on duty on Alisons Road when I saw the accused, C-77567 Pte. Dunn, E.W. Pte. Dunn stopped two soldiers, number illegible Pte. Berbuto, P.C.F. and number illegible Pte. Harrison, T and P.C.F. and offered to sell them Canadian cigarettes.

Whilst approaching this group of three soldiers, I saw the transaction take place and when I got here I asked Pte Dunn "Is you selling Canadian cigarettes." He replied, "What the hell's that got to do with you."

I then asked Pte. Berbuto and Pte. Harrison where they had obtained their cigarettes which they were holding in their hands and they replied, "We have just bought a package each from this Canadian soldier for two shillings a pack". These cigarettes were marked on the outside of the package, "Sweet Caporal".

I ordered Ptes Harrison and Berbuto to surrender the cigarettes to me which they did.

I then ordered Pte. Dunn to produce his M.B.I [illegible] replied, "I will when you make me my fucking [illegible]". I then ordered him to accompany me to the C.M.P. Barracks when I said to myself, "You will accompany me", when he turned round to me and said to me, "If you have to do something about it, I will". I then said to him, "If you have to do something about it, I will" and he replied, "I will when you make me my fucking arm I'll come quietly".

This was done and as we walked along Alisons Road in order. As we entered Provost Road, Pte Dunn suddenly turned and ran away. I gave chase with L/Cpl Estell and Sgt. Peppy who was also in the vicinity. The soldier ran across St. George's Church parade ground in the direction of Transport Road. I blew my whistle and attracted the attention of number illegible Pte. Mills, G., "B" Coy. Army Catering Corps, Bk. Cher Barracks, Aldershot who was proceeding along Transport Road in the direction of Queen's Avenue. Pte Mills also gave chase and caught and held the soldier until L/Cpl Estell and myself arrived and took hold of him. The above mentioned soldier violently resisted arrest by struggling and kicking me in the leg, thereby causing damage to my W.D. S.D. Trousers, also an abrasion of my left leg which I received first aid treatment at the Buller Barracks M.I. Room.

On reaching the duty room C.M.Police Barracks, the above mentioned soldier said, "Don't worry I shall get away with this". The C.M.Police Duty Sergeant was ordered and the soldier conveyed under military police escort to Blenheim Barracks Guardroom where he was handed over to the R.C.O. i/c Regimental Police to be detained.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

At Aldershot on 2 June 45 at approximately 1850 hrs I was on duty on Alisons Rd. in company with L/Cpl Salter, and was proceeding along Alisons Rd. in the direction of Queens Avenue when I saw the accused whom I now recognize as Pte Dunn, standing on the corner of Marsh Rd. and Alison Rd. He ran in the direction of St. George's Church cutting across the parade ground. I also blew my whistle which attracted the attention of Pte Mills who was on Transport Rd. He held the accused soldier until we arrived.

The accused violently resisted us by struggling and kicking. We brought him to the C.M.P. Barracks where he was detained until charges were laid and read to him. At that time he stated " Don't worry I'll get away with all this ",

14553599 Pte Berbuto, P.C.F. "X" Coy RASC Buller Barracks Aldershot having been duly sworn states:

I am 14553599 Pte Berbuto, P.C.F. of "X" Coy RASC Buller Barracks Aldershot. On the corner of Alisons and Marsh Lane at 1850 hrs on the 2 June 45 I was walking with a friend No 14537652 Pte Harrison, T., of my Coy, when we were stopped by a Canadian soldier who I recognize as the accused Pte Dunn.

The accused stopped us and asked us if we would like to buy some Canadian cigarettes. I asked him what he meant and he said " Sweet Caporal for 2 shillings a package ". Pte Harrison and I decided to each buy a package which Pte Dunn sold us for two shillings each. The package was white, it bore the name Sweet Caporal, and was of the size containing 25 cigarettes

At this moment two Military Police Corporals arrived on the scene and asked us if we had just bought the cigarettes which we were holding in our hands, and we told them that we had. They took possesion of the two packages and they asked Dunn if he had sold them. Dunn said that it was none of their business. After a scuffle the police took Dunn into custody.

Cross examined by the accused.

Question 1. "Was money mentioned in our conversation?"

Answer 1. " Yes, it was."

Question 2. " Did you give me two shillings for a package of cigarettes?"

Answer 2. " I gave you 2/6 but you had no change, so you returned the two and six after my friend paid you 2 shillings for my cigarettes."

Question 3. " Did you ask me if I had any cigarettes?"

Answer 3. " No."

14587652 Pte Harrison, T. "X" Coy 12th Trainging Battalion RASC, Buller Barracks, Aldershot having been duly sworn states:

I am 14587652 Pte Harrison, T. "X" Coy 12th Training Battalion RASC, Buller Barracks, Aldershot. At approximately 1850 hrs, on the 2nd June 1943, I was at the corner of Alisons Road and Marsh Lane with Pte Berbuto of my Coy, when the accused whom I now recognize as Pte Dunn asked if we would like some cigarettes. Not quite understanding what he meant we stopped and he told us that we could each buy a package of twenty-five cigarrettes for 2 shillings each.

We agreed to buy them and we each paid Dunn two shillings and he in turn gave us each a package of Sweet Caporal cigarrettes. Just then two C.M.P. Cpls approached us and ordered us to hand the cigarettes over to them which we did.

The police then asked the accused for his Pay-Book and he refused to show it. They then took hold of him and led him away. I accompanied them, and shortly they allowed Dunn to walk without being held. Then after walking about a hundred yards Dunn broke from his escort and run away. I lost sight of him until I again saw him outside the C.M.P. Orderly Room.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Mr President and Members of the Court

In plea of mitigation for the accused, may I point out that he joined the Army in May 41. He arrived overseas in Oct 41 and was eventually sent to Africa in Sep 43. He was with the 5th Field Ambulance Corps at Ortona in Dec of last year. This man desired to be transferred from the R.C.A.S.C. to the Infantry and was paraded to the C.O. of 7 Cdn Base Rft Bn before his last charge of A.W.L. He was refused.

Because he is still willing to transfer to the Infantry I ask the Court to be lenient in handing out his punishment so that he may transfer and go to the front.

Statement in mitigation of punishment. 66-2

I should like to ask the court for mitigation of sentence on these grounds, that the accused when he was in Canada had a very bad record indeed. His was caused by domestic trouble, resulting as he thought in no satisfaction from the military authorities he finally took the law into his own hands. Every time he was approached he made a further effort to go home and fix up matters with his wife when. However he came over to this country he has made a sincere effort to soldier properly. This fact is reflected in his crime sheet which shows no entries during the time he has been in this country, some 8 or 9 months. And this present offence he had no intention of staying away.

"6 b-2 October"

Unfortunately he was a little late owing to having had too much to drink. He decided foolishly that he might just as well "be hung for a sheep as for a lamb." Later however he realized his own error and he surrendered himself on the grounds of the following points

1 - It is genuine effort to soldier in the service.

2 - The fact that he surrendered himself. I would like to ask for mitigation of punishment.

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE

- K.R. (Can) Para. 557 -

I certify that I have this morning examined No. B-73518 Pte. DUNN, Henry (48th Highlanders of Canada Regiment), No. 1 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, and in my opinion he is fit ~~unfit~~ to undergo trial by Court-Martial.

(Medical Officer)

Algonquin Camp,
Witley, Surrey,
30th May, 1941.

B 73518 Pte. Dunn, H.(48th H & C reinforcement) No. 1 Cdn Inf Bldg Unit, tried by Field-General Court-Martial at Witley, 17 May 41.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor: Lieut. H. M. Howell.
Defending Officer: Lieut. R. O. Cleworth.

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Officers under instruction are sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to B 88521 Sgt. James Lonergan, R.C.A., C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No.

The Court Stenographer is sworn.

The Charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the above-mentioned charge sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty.
R.P. 35(B) is complied with.

Q4 - Do you wish to make a statement in mitigation of punishment?
A4 - (Defending Officer) In connection with the charge against this man we plead guilty to his absence but he states that he had a reason for being absent, that reason being that he was sick. He says he was unable to obtain attention for his sickness here, and that it got him into such a state of morbidness that he became dissatisfied with the attention he was getting and decided to go elsewhere and obtain some medical treatment that would be satisfactory to him. He had complained of dental trouble and tried to pin his situation on the state of his teeth. The Medical Officer of this unit stated that there was nothing wrong with his teeth, in spite of which, on attending a dentish in London, a civilian dentist, that dentist saw fit to make seven extractions. I have here the certificate from that civilian dentist, which I would like to have the court examine. I would also point out that one's system could become so affected by bad teeth that he could easily become very ill and be excused mentally for that reason. The accused also has suffered from syphilis. On occasions he has paraded to the Medical Officer of this unit on the complaint, and has stated to him that he was unable to keep up with the duties required of him. In every instance he has been given medicine and duty. The accused also wishes to produce a photograph of himself and family three days prior to his leaving Canada, which would indicate that at that time he was obviously in much better health than he seems to be in today. He just felt that he should get away and obtain better treatments elsewhere.

Accused: I would like to point out that my Defending Officer couldn't be here today and he didn't give me a copy of the Summary of Evidence. I have never seen it.

President: The case is adjourned under R.P. 39A.

The Court re-assembles at 1000 hours, 30th May, 1941.

Lieut. J.A. Wilson, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, appears as defending officer for the accused.

Q5 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A5 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

Q6 - You made a statement which caused the adjournment of this Court, to the effect that you had not had an opportunity to see the charge-sheet or the summary of evidence.
A6 - That is correct, sir.
Q7 - Are you now satisfied that you have had time to prepare your defence?
A7 - Yes, sir.
Q8 - Have you any further evidence to support your statement that you did not have time to prepare your defence?
A8 - No, sir.
Q9 - Have you any evidence to refute this, Mr. Prosecutor?
A9 - Yes, sir, I would like to call Major Kennedy to give evidence.

Major A.A. Kennedy, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q10 - Will you identify yourself to the Court, please?
A10 - I am Major A.A. Kennedy, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, officer commanding the Hastings & Prince Edward Company.
Q11 - Do you recognize the accused?
A11 - Yes, Pte. Dunn.
Q12 - I am showing you here a message; have you seen that before?
A12 - Yes, I have seen this before.
Q13 - Under what circumstances?
A13 - I believe there was a note placed on my desk and attached to the charge-sheet against these people.
Q14 - Do you recognize this signature?
A14 - It is your signature; Mr. Howell.
Q15 - Will you tell the Court the date and time?
A15 - It is dated the 15th May, 1941, and the Court-Martial was to assemble at Camp 101 on the 17th May, 1941.
Q16 - What time was it on the 15th May?
A16 - 1700 hours.
Q17 - As a result of that note what happened?
A17 - Previous to receiving the note -- at least a month -- I had known these three people wished me to defend them and had discussed their cases with them for a long time in my own office and discussed the charge-sheets and, in the case of Dunn, felt the thing to do was plead guilty to the charge and enter a plea for compassion on grounds of medical inattention.

The prosecutor produces in evidence a note to Major A.A. Kennedy concerning the trial of the accused; this note is signed by Lieut. H.M. Howell and dated 15-5-41.

Q18 - On receiving that note what did you do with the charge-sheet and summary of evidence of Dunn?
A18 - There had been a previous charge-sheet; this was an additional copy.
Q19 - Will you explain what you did?
A19 - The next day, I believe the 16th, and the trial was to be on the Saturday; on the 16th late in the afternoon I was told by the commanding officer that I had been appointed in charge of a working party at Ascot.
Q20 - Will you tell the Court if you did anything regarding the accused; going into the nature of his defence and showing him the charge-sheet and summary of evidence?
A20 - I had done it long before this -- three weeks before -- and we discussed the whole thing but I did nothing as far as Dunn was concerned on the 16th.
Q21 - Had he previously seen this charge; that is, the one now before the Court. (Hands charge-sheet)
A21 - Yes, sir, I believe, so.

Q22 - Well then, in the summary of evidence at that time the first witness, and only witness, was Lieut. Rider and the whole effect was to produce a confession. Has Pte. Dunn seen that since the summary was taken?
A22 - After the summary was taken I read Dunn's confession to him.
Q23 - At that time did you also discuss the charge with him?
A23 - Yes, but I didn't on the 16th.
Q24 - But it was done previous to that?
A24 - It was previous to that.
Q25 - Will you tell the Court whether Dunn had an opportunity to prepare his defence previous to the 17th May?
A25 - When did he give himself up?
Q26 - The 12th March.
A26 - I would say at least a month previous to the 16th May. I knew I was to defend Dunn and discussed it with him two or three times and discussed whether we should bring a medical officer from the No. 15 General Hospital to give evidence and I thought it unnecessary as he was going to plead guilty and as he had records of the disease of which he was suffering.
Q27 - As I to understand that he did have an opportunity of seeing the charge-sheet and summary of evidence in preparing his defence?
A27 - Yes, sir, in my opinion.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q28 - A moment ago you made a statement that you showed me the charge-sheet at your office and, you think, before May 16th.
A28 - Yes.
Q29 - Wasn't I, along with Bockout and Marshall, paraded before you at a quarter to two on May 16th and I was the first man brought before you to discuss the case and witnesses and you had a file of papers on your desk and suddenly the 'phone rang and you said "Yes, I have Dunn with me now" and you said "I am not going to let him go until I get through talking to him". A couple of minutes later you gave the file of papers to the escort and told them to take me over to the F.A.P. and when we were finished over there the escort was told to bring them back to you but you weren't there, you were just getting into a car and the escort thought the best thing he could do was bring the file of papers to Mr. Howell's office on May 16th?
A29 - That is quite true. There is no question about that, but we had been discussing the file several times before that.

Re-examination by the prosecutor.

Q30 - I am showing you a charge-sheet dated the 13th March, 1941; have you seen that charge-sheet before?
A30 - Yes.
Q31 - Is the second charge a similar one or the same as the present charge against the accused?
A31 - Yes, except it is worded differently; the second charge is not as strong.
Q32 - Would you explain how the charges bear relationship to each other?
A32 - The one on the 13th March is a simple charge of absence without leave and in the case of the charge-sheet dated the 12th May the charge is one of absence without leave while in lawful custody.
Q33 - What was the first charge on the 13th March?
A33 - Breaking out of barracks while under open arrest.
Q34 - What happened to change the charge of the 13th March?
A34 - In substance actually the action of Dunn on the 15th January is more or less condensed into one charge.
Q35 - Then the two charges have been compressed into one?
A35 - Yes.
Q36 - Did you go into the charges of the 13th March with Dunn?
A36 - Yes.
Q37 - On several occasions?
A37 - Yes.

The prosecutor produces in evidence the charge-sheet dated 13th March, 1941.

President - In view of the circumstances, I wish you to be given the opportunity of recording a plea again. Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you which you have heard read?
Accused - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q38 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A38 - (Accused) Sir, when I came out of the glass-house last September 7th I was in a run-down condition. I was nervous and had aches and pains all through my body. I was paraded before my company commander and told him I needed a leave, that I hadn't had leave all the time I had been in England and he asked me where I wanted to go and I told him London. Then my company commander said "Take a rest, Dunn" and he asked if he should recommend me for a couple of weeks at the convalescent camp at Brixham and I said "That will be fine" and he said he would get in touch with the M.O. About a week or ten days went by and the M.O. said "Get yourself ready, you are going to Brixham". A few more days went by and I was all prepared to leave and then in the latter part of September of the first week of October I was sent to the C.M.C. at Bordon. I stayed at Bordon for a period of three or four days and left for Brixham and was there for fifteen days. I felt a little better after I came back and had put on a couple of pounds in weight. I went back on full duty after I got back and then the pains started to bother me and bothered me ever since and I paraded before the M.O. again and the M.O. asked me about my family and also asked me if I had ever had V.D. I said "Yes, sir!" He asked what kind and I said I had been suffering from syphilis for about thirteen years and I asked for an X-ray and wanted to find out about my loss of weight and appetite and the fact that I couldn't sleep. I got no results until November; all during the time from Brixham until November I paraded before the M.O. In November the M.O. sent me to Bramshot to take a blood test. It was taken and I never got any word about it and came back on duty and my health was getting worse all the time until the time I went absent and came back voluntarily on March 12th. The reason I went absent was that I had been after the M.O. time after time and time again and I couldn't get medical treatment.

Q39 - Is that M.O. still here?
A39 - I understand there is a new M.O.
Prosecutor - The present M.O. has had a good deal to do with this case and has all the documents relevant to it.
Accused - In November, long before I went absent, I was on duty as cook in the men's cookhouse and at midnight I got an awful sharp pain in my side. It was something that had never happened before. There happened to be a sergeant in the cookhouse and he got the medical orderly and brought him back and the medical orderly said "Keep him lying on the steam table while I get the M.O." After a while he came back and said the M.O. wouldn't come down and he took it upon himself to call the ambulance to take me to the C.M.C. Every word I have told you gentlemen is the God's honest truth.
Prosecutor - I would refer the Court to R.P. 37(F).

Capt. H.C. Johnson, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, Medical Officer, being duly sworn, is examined by the President.

Q40 - Have you any information or any documents which you can produce concerning the accused?
A40 - Yes, sir, numerous documents here. I would like to give a general discussion on the accused and bring out particular points. I would like to discuss the case generally.
President - Is that question satisfactory to you?
Accused - Yes, sir.

Witness/ I should think that Dunn might well have complained of pains in the chest or in the back or any other part of the body and the unit medical officer might well have had to come to inspect Dunn. I might add, though, that Dunn has been examined in four hospitals. He had been examined in two hospitals before this charge and we have records on hand to show him on sick parade and documents from C.M.H.Q. regarding what he has been considered to have during the past year and a half. Dunn came on sick parade with back pains and was put back on full duty, but I do say he had been investigated in four hospitals. He was examined by Major Gossage and Major Hamilton and since being examined by Major Hamilton who was medical officer of the unit, he has been examined by Capt. Ireland. Capt. Ireland examined him and sent him to Branshot and he was excused from Bramshot and sent to the C.M.C. and from there to Brixham this spring. It later came to light that he suffers from syphilis. He denied having syphilis on attestation. He may have brought up the subject last year and been referred to the hospital by Capt. Ireland. When he went to the hospital no complaint was given to the consultant. The man's job was that of cook which he would lose if it became known that he had syphilis. Many people have considered Dunn. The fact that syphilis was not discovered until spring is that the Department of National Defence does not necessarily take a blood Wasserman but does ask the question and each soldier is given the opportunity of saying whether he had syphilis or gonorrhoea. To both these questions Dunn answered no. As far as records are concerned, no history was given until spring. Last fall Capt. Ireland wrote down "V.D.S. (?)" and sent Dunn to the hospital and he didn't mention it. Records weren't discovered until spring. Dunn knew that he had it fourteen years ago and had not been adequately treated for it and he said he wasn't interested enough. I don't think you can hold any one officer responsible, or the whole medical corps responsible but I think you should hold Dunn responsible for not admitting he was inadequately treated fourteen years ago and that he had gone back after five years and taken two months more treatment and then gave it up because he was fed-up. It was discovered in April and investigations show that it is in the blood stream but it has not affected the brain and the nervous system and they are intact. These are the documents which will back up these statements.

Witness produces for inspection by the Court a medical file dealing with the history of the accused. Documents contained in the file are not accepted by the Court in evidence.

Accused - I would like to know what became of the report that Major Van Ostrand sent down.

Witness - This statement was given by C.M.H.Q. I was unable to get anything further from hospital at Bramshot than that.

Defending Officer - Capt. Johnson said that the previous M.O. wrote on a medical report V.D.S. (?) Isn't it possible that when that report went to Bramshot with Dunn that he was given a blood test for V.D.?

Witness - One would expect that, and I have 'Phoned Bramshot and there is no indication on their records showing a blood test had been made at that time. The first record we have of Dunn having V.D. is in late March.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q41 - Capt. Johnson, How do you account for the fact that this man did not have any treatment previous to the spring of this year? Is it owing to the fact that he made no statement until recently?

A41 - I have no evidence that he made a statement until spring.

Q42 - Is that the reason you give for no treatment?

A42 - I would say so.

Q43 - If he did have syphilis is there any evidence that he was affected mentally or nervously causing him to go a.w.l. for treatment?

A43 - No.

Q44 - Do you wish to call any witnesses as to character?

A44 - Yes, sir.

First witness, B-78522, Cpl. Harrod, S.A., No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the accused.

Q45 - (President) You are called as a witness to the character of Dunn, will you give us the particulars?

A45 - As far as I know about Dunn, all I can say is that while he was under my command while I was sergeant in my platoon -- on the day of Dunn's enlistment on the 25th November, 1939, I was a sergeant and he came to me in the reserve platoon. From that time on until I reverted to the rank of corporal in March, Dunn was a good soldier and told to the best of his ability. From that time on I could

Q46 - You were in charge until last May?
A46 - I was in charge but not as a sergeant, as a corporal, think my evidence should go before this Court. I can s I was in charge of you from the 25th November until the done what you were told and done a damn good job at that

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q47 - You said, Cpl. Harrod, that you were acquainted with the accus the end of March, 1940?
A47 - I don't think I could say anything for the man from that time on. Until that time anything I asked him to do, he did it. His soldi was fine, sir.
Q48 - Have you known anything about him since 31st March, 1940?
A48 - Just a few months, sir, during April and May.
Q49 - What year?
A49 - 1940.
Q50 - When did your acquaintance with the accused end?
A50 - It would be just after the battalion went to Dover.
Q51 - You were with the accused until that time?
A51 - Yes, sir.
Q52 - When would that be?
A52 - About the 24th May, 1940.

Second witness, B-72594, Sgt. Comins, E., No. 1 Can. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the accused.

Q53 - (President) You are called as a witness to the character of Dunn, will you give us the particulars?
A53 - He enlisted with the 48th Highlanders and came to my platoon in December, 1939, and was a good soldier until taken on the boat. At the time he was taken into the platoon the company commander said he didn't want any God damn Jews in the company and from that time on when he got a chance to ride him he did. Coming over on the boat he was taken up on a charge of gambling -- having crooked dice -- and the charge was found to be false. When he landed in Glasgow he attempted to get off the boat and was placed under arrest. He was placed in my custody from Glasgow to Aldershot. At different times the company commander and C.S.M. stated they didn't want to have anything to do with a Jew and they would ride him out the best way they could. The night before the unit went to Dover he got drunk and his story was that he thought he was giving himself up to the 48th guard-room and it was the R.C.R. guard-room and he was handed over to the reinforcements and then was up on a charge of desertion.
Q54 - In the winter of 1940, in Aldershot, was I sick then?
A54 - Yes.
Q55 - What was wrong with me then?
A55 - As far as I can recall it was pleurisy.
Q56 - A year ago last winter, is that correct?
A56 - Yes.
Q57 - Can you recall me working with plasters on my chest and back and kidneys for weeks and weeks?
A57 - Yes, for about two weeks that I know of.
Q58 - The day the regiment was going to leave for Dover and I wasn't around, what was the statement made by the commanding officer; what order did he give the men?
A58 - That if Dunn was seen he was to be shot on sight.
Q59 - Don't you think that in spite of quite a bit of racial prejudice I soldiered until that time?
A59 - Yes. I might say that while he was carrying the plasters he had to carry on the fatigues and duties the same as other soldiers. That was orders from the commander.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q60 - I understood you to say that your knowledge ends just about the 24th, or thereabouts, of May.
A60 - I wouldn't say about anything from then on as he was away from the unit. I can only speak of actual happenings while in my section and platoon, sir.

the rank of corporal in March, Dunn was a good soldier and done all he was told to the best of his ability. From that time on I couldn't say, sir.
Q46 - You were in charge until last May?
A46 - I was in charge but not as a sergeant, as a corporal, and I do not think my evidence should go before this Court. I can state that while I was in charge of you from the 25th November until the 31st March you done what you were told and done a damn good job at that time.

Lieut. H.M. Howell, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q61 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A61 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.
Q62 - Is the accused person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A62 - Yes, sir.
Q63 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A63 - I have, sir.
Q64 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A64 - They are, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q65 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A65 - (Accused) Gentlemen, you all know there are very few Jews in the [redacted] ARMY, or any other army. I have been in business for myself all my life. I sold my business to join the army because I thought it my duty. I wanted to do my bit to help lick Jerry. I came over and as soon as the company commander saw me he said "You are Jewish" and I said "Have you any objection?" I have tried to soldier as you have heard in the evidence of Sgt. Comins and Cpl. Harrod and all I can say is this -- I am sick. I know I am guilty of absence without leave. I am not asking to be let go through the window or through the door, but I have been in detention since March 12th. Take a look at me now and look at what I was like when I came over. I came over here to soldier and I want to do my bit the same as anyone else. That is all I can say, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

IN THE CASE OF B-73618 Pte. Dunn,H.

TO: The Convening Officer.

In the case above mentioned, this man pleaded guilty and subsequently in his evidence in mitigation he stated that he had not been given a copy of the Summary of Evidence and, therefore, had not had time to prepare his defence. It was then realized that he should have pleaded Not Guilty and the case would have been proceeded with under the new plea, except that R.P. 19A had not been complied with, in preparation for the Court-Martial. It is also pointed out that the Defending Officer wasn't available to clarify the situation.

REMARKS

B.73518 Pte Dunn, H., No.1 Cdn Inf Holding Unit tried by Field General Court Martial at Witley, on the 22nd day of July, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut H.M., Howell
Defending Officer - Lieut Wilson

At 1000 hrs the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to P.38244 Sgt. Rice, W.A., H.Q., C.B.U., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35 (b) has been complied with by the Court.

Q4 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

A9 - Yes sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

10 - Do you wish to address the Court?
11 - (Defending Officer) - I will not offer any justification for Pte Dunn's action in going A.W.L., it was done possible on the spur of the moment, but he now realizes it was a mistake and regrets his action. However in determining his punishment I would like you to consider these things:

First, he paraded himself voluntarily. Secondly Dunn contracted V.D. approximately 13 years ago. The medical authorities do not consider he is affected mentally, but Dunn is definitely of neurotic temperament, which I think in some way, is responsible for his record of crime in the Army.

The Court will close for the consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-73518 Pte. Dunn, H. (48th H. of C.), No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Hold. Unit.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence shall be taken under oath.

1st Witness C-5615 Pte. Pruner, E.H. (H. & P.E.), No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Hold. Unit having been duly sworn, states:

I am a member of the Regimental Police of No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Hold. Unit and as such was on duty on the 18th June, 1941. I was acting as escort for Pte. Dunn, H. to go to the Canadian Medical Centre at Bordon. While at the Canadian Medical Centre at about 1535 hours Pte. Dunn was in the line-up awaiting treatment. My attention was attracted for a moment by one of the Medical Officers who spoke to me, and after I turned around again Pte. Dunn was gone. I conducted a search for him in the hall and in the latrene but was unable to find him. I reported his absence to the Canadian Provost Corps at Bordon.

E.H. Pruner

(The accused declines to cross-examine this witness)

2nd Witness M-20808 Sgt. Ferguson, W.J. Canadian Provost Corps will prove at the trial that the accused surrendered himself to him at the Canadian Provost Corps, Headquarters, London at 2325 hours 8 July, 1941.

The accused is duly cautioned (R.P. 4(e)) and declines to make any statement.

Certified that Rules of Procedure No. 4 (c), (d) and (e) have been fully complied with, and Rules of Procedure (f) and (g).

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(I. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(*I. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Court closes to consider special plea.

Exhibit "A" GBC

Statement as to charge

Submission by D.C.

I feel it my duty on behalf of the accused to bring to the Court's attention that the accused was with another soldier during his absence, who has since been brought to trial and sentenced on the charge of Absence Without Leave. This soldier left at the same time, from the same Unit and was apprehended along with the accused in Ermot, France. I submit that it would not be fair to the accused to proceed with the trial on a desertion charge, simply because it took a little longer to produce the documents relating to his absence. I ask that the Court see fit to change the charge to Absence Without Leave.

Court re-opens,

The court allows the Special plea on the grounds that it has been established that Pte DUNN J.J. and Pte Sullivan R.G. went AWL from the same Regt at the Same time and were together when apprehended at the same ~~time~~ place. Pte Sullivan R.G. has already been arraigned and sentenced by a F.G.C.M. for a charge of A.W.L. under Section 15 (1)(a) AA. Therefore it is felt that in due justice to the accused he should be tried under the same section. The documents tendered by the witness for the defence are therefore accepted by the Court. The charge sheet in the case of Pte Sullivan R.G. is identified as exhitit "B", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings. The letter re-Pte Sullivan and DUNN, is identified and attached as exhibit "C" having been signed by the President. The special plea as to the charge of desertion is accepted, but the trial will proceed as to a finding of A.W.L.

The accused elects to plead guilty to a charge of A.W.L.

Plea in Mitigation

B70322 Pte DUNN J.J.

The accused is 28 yrs of age, enlisted in April 42 and arrived overseas in Feb 44. He went into action, Jul 44 and served 4 months of the toughest action of this war.

At the time of going absent, the accused had been sent to the cookhouse as butcher and, being somewhat browned off about this, took the wrong course and went absent. He regrets his mistake, which is his first crime since enlistment, and desires to be returned to the front line again.

I ask that the Court consider this mans excellent record and see fit to award the minimum sentence.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 82(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 82(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

comparatively brief

During this period Cpl Simms has been with E Coy. I Bn. I have had a good opportunity of observing his demeanour and the quality of his work.

He is a man of good breeding and of superior education - a triple restriction which makes it difficult for him to find interests in common with those of a lesser mould.

Upon his return from abroad I arranged an interview for him with our M.O. who confirmed my opinion and stated he thought he would be better employed on a Tribunal or at similar work.

The reports given me by my C.S.M.s and seniors in Coys have all been favourable ones.

He held a responsible position in civilian life - has latterly been employed in Bn Records office and has done a good job.

He as Clerk Sgt "C" is a capable clerk and I should regret to see the unit deprived of his services. He has assured me that he will not re-engage and I believe him.

My hope is that the Court will take a lenient view of this offence.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence in the case of

B-83796 Cpl. Dunn J.R.

Cpl. Dunn enlisted into the Army on 5 Sept. 39. Prior to enlistment he was employed for nine years by the Borden Milk Co. where he built up a reputation for reliability and efficiency which resulted in his being made Eastern Manager of that firm.

Since his initial period of training he has been employed almost continuously as a clerk, and during 1942&1943 he worked for for 15 months as corporal clerk for the D.A.&Q.M.G. -E- Group C.R.U.

His crimes during his military service have all been case of A.W.L. for relatively short periods, and attantion is drawn to the fact that he has not been on charge for the past 12 months.

Cpl. Dunn was recently discharged from hospital where he spent 5½ months suffering from a sceptic leg. His physical condition was considerably ~~lowered~~ weakened in hospital where he lost 20 pounds in weight. He is naturally of a nervous and highly strung temperment which condition was undoubtedly accentuated by his confinement in hospital. The offense for which the accused is charged is entirely due to a drinking episode which resulted in a temporary lapse of willpower due to an unsteady state of nerves brought on by his long confinement in hospital.

It is felt that the court would be well advised to consider the long and valuable service and high character ~~of the~~ of the accused when deciding the sentence and that the utmost leniency for this offense be shown.

1. The above mentioned N.C.O. has been interviewed by me on two occasions. I have found him to be of superior intelligience and has a straightforward and sincere manner.

2. I have observed that he is a nervous individual. He has a fairly noticeable tremor. In spite of this I feel he has a reasonably stable temperment and I understand from his company Commander that he does his work well.

3. He readily admits that his previous offences are the result of drinking but he claims that he is able to stop drinking entirely and is prepared to do so now. I feel that he can make good his promise.

4. In such a case this man would be of more value working as a clerk in a rear area than serving time in detention.

President;- Under oath?

Accused;- No sir.

On 6th October I returned to my Echelon and found I had been relieved of my previous duties as orderly room clerk. I was detailed for fatigue duties which work I found very uninteresting after being used to taking an active part of duty.
On the 7th October I was paraded to my Officer Commanding and was severely criticised regarding some personal debts I had incurred and was given to 10 Oct. to fix these up.
I had a friend in London whom I tried to contact on 10 Oct. regarding these debts. I arrived in London but found I would be unable to make contact with this friend until 20 Oct. I remained in London and after arranging matters re these debts I returned to my billets.
I am sorry to have caused all this trouble and would like the opportunity to carry on as a worthy soldier from now on.

President:- The court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

President:- The court is re-opened.

Have you any evidence of character to produce?

The Prosecutor having been duly sworn produced the following documents;

"a" -- Certified true copy of the accused's conduct sheet. (M.F.M. 6)
"b" -- Statement as to Character and Particulars of Service of Accused. (A.F.B. 296)

Defending Officer I wish to speak on the accused's behalf;

At the outbreak of war Pte. Dunn had a very good position with Gordon's Milk Co., which he left to Join Up and fight for his Country.
With the constant changing of jobs and spare time on his hands had led him to drift somewhat.
Regarding the debts which he had incurred it is quite true he was paraded before his Officer Commanding regarding same. He had to do something about these debts with a result went to London to contact this friend and I think these debts have since been looked after.
I have never met the accused before this date but find him to be a gentleman with not a bad character.

President:- I will close this court to consider sentence.

1 Defending Officer's Plea Gunn.

This day I am called upon to defend Gnr Gunn by trying to get the Court to consider this case as one of the many troubles our men get into through lack of something to do.
Such as action and get you to case the sentence which you may pass on Gnr Gunn.

Gnr Gunn left this camp for Hagwards Heath when decided to visit for the afternoon his girl friend whom he had permission to marry in the near future.
When arriving at her home he found her in trouble with her mother who had put her out of her home so the girl accompanied Gnr Gunn, who was on his way home, as far as London. As Gnr Gunn was about to leave her, he asked if she knew where she was going to stay. On finding she didn't, he like a gentleman said he would stay with her until she got a place. For two nights not being able to find a place to stay they had to take shelter in a tube. They then tried through London for days before finding a good landing house.

We teach our men in the army honour. What greater honour or gentlemanly could a man do than get himself in trouble for the sake of helping someone out of trouble as Mr Munn did?

Let any of us put ourselves in this place. Wouldn't we not all do the same deed for one we love? We would have to be a gentleman. I'm closing I wish the Court to consider Mrs Plummer's case as one of a very quiet soldier of good character, who was only trying to help his future wife out of trouble, and not beat the army.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. State the time and condition in which Sgt. Dunnigan was found.

A. At about 1830 hrs 15 Apr 43 I noticed Sgt. Dunnigan, whom I recognise, apparently having difficulty parking his M/C in front of the White Hart Tavern in Epsom. When he stepped off the M/C he staggered. I approached him and told him he was in no shape to drive the M/C. He said he was O.K. and just going to look for a friend. He smelled of liquor and on questioning admitted that he had had a few beers. He was drunk and in no shape to drive the M/C. I took him from there to the police station and he was kept there until escorted to Jermin Hall guard room by Sgt. Miller. I had to take both him and the M/C to the civil police station. He stopped to talk to women on the way. I had to go back to get him.

Q. Did he appear to know the women?

A. Yes.

(Question and answer objected to by defence: objection sustained).

Q. Did you ride the M/C yourself?

A. Yes.

Q. When you threw your leg off the saddle do you stagger to get your balance sometimes?

A. Yes sir.

Q. On what Opinion do you state he was drunk?
A. He staggered: was unsteady and smelled of liquor.
Q. Have you ever had one glass of beer?
A. Yes
Q. Do you smell of liquor after one glass?
A. I expect so.
Q. Would you be drunk.
A. No.
Q. You further stated the accused was told to march down the street while you took the M/C. Would you do that with a drunken man?
A. Depends on how drunk he was.
Q. Are you instructed in any way how to judge drunkenness?
A. No sir. We use our own judgement.

No cross examination.

Q. Give the time and conditions in which the accused was found.

A. On Apr. 15 at about 1900 hrs I was detailed by Sgt. Barker to go to Epsom police station as L/Cpl. O'Malley had a sergeant in custody there. I proceeded to Epsom police station where I met L/Cpl. O'Malley and Sgt. Dunnigan, the accused whom I recognize. The accused was sitting on a table in the police station. I told L/Cpl. O'Malley to drive the vehicle back to barracks. Sgt. Dunnigan eyes were blurred. On getting off the desk he stumbled and on walking from the desk to my jeep he was unsteady on his feet. His breath smelt badly of liquor. It was after Sgt. Dunnigan got up from the table that I ordered L/Cpl. O'Malley to take the M/C back to barracks. I handed Sgt. Dunnigan to Sgt. Howes who was in charge of the guard at the time.

Cross - examined.

Q. You told the Court and in the Summary of Evidence stated that Sgt. Dunnigan's breath smelled of liquor. Do you drink?
A. No sir.
Q. If I had a glass of beer, could you tell me if my breath would smell strongly of liquor?

A. Not from one glass, etc.

Q. I could rely on your, say smelling your breath to tell exactly how much liquor I had been drinking?

A. Not very well sir. I am no authority on that.

Q. Could you tell that he had been drinking quite apart say the smell of his breath?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What do you mean by "eyes were blurred"?

A. Eyes were foggy.

Q. How close did you get to the accused?

A. Within arms length.

Q. Is it correct Sgt. Dunnigan was sitting with his feet off the floor?

A. Yes sir.

Q. On your order he jumped down?

A. He moved his leg over and got down.

Q. He staggered?

A. He was very unsteady.

Q. Was this much of a stagger?

A. No sir.

Q. Did Sgt. Dunnigan answer nothing appear to be unusual?

Third Witness for the Defence } Major E.A. Lucas, S. Sup. O., HQ. Coast 2 Can. Corps Inf. Coln.

being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer –

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know of this accused?

A. The accused was Cpl. in the composite platoon of 41 Can. Mtn. Inf. Coy. when I took over in June 42. Shortly after that time my S/Sgt. was transferred to Q.M. stores, and I canvassed the coy to find the most suitable Cpl. to take his place. The accused was suggested to me and was eventually brought to the orderly room to fill the S/Sgts position. He was on probation for a few weeks and proved himself very satisfactory. Eventually I promoted him to Sgt. He carried out his duties as Admn. Sgt. for the coy with efficiency. I found him to be conscientious, honest and a hard worker. He has done more than the average N.C.O. is called upon to do in his position and he has worked long hours. At one time I was afraid that he was overworking himself. I laid it on with the adjt. that he would be forced to take one day off per week. During my command of the coy I have had three coy inspections and each time the coy received an excellent report on the orderly room administration.

No cross-examination
R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Fourth Witness for the Defence } Lieut. Mc. T. Peters, 41 Can. Mtn. Inf. Coy.

being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. You were Adjt. of the coy for the past few weeks?
A. Yes sir. Since 10 hrs.
Q. Would you tell the Court about the character of Sgt. Dunnigan for the time that you have known him?
A. I have known Sgt. Dunnigan since approx. the middle of May 42. He has served under me both in our composite platoon and at our HQ. as a Cpl and a sgt. I have always found him to be a most reliable N.C.O. I assisted in his recommendation for promotion to the rank of Sgt. During the periods he has worked for us there have been numerous occasions which called for working unduly long hours for considerable stretches of time. Sgt. Cunningham has always cheerfully volunteered his time even to the extent of doing some of the Clerks' and Jr. N.C.O's work to enable them to have a bit of free time. Sgt. Cunningham's office has always been found in excellent shape on inspection. The men working under him and with him appear to regard him most favourably.

No cross-examination.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

B-84490, Sergeant Frank Dunnigan, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Anf Div)

R.C.A.S.C.

The Officer Commanding directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution - D-72023, L/Cpl. O'Malley, V.J. No. 11 Provost Coy., Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states: I am D-72023, L/Cpl. O'Malley, No. 11 Provost Coy., Cdn Provost Corps. At approximately 1830 hours on 15 Apr 43 I was coming along Ashley Road in Epsom when I noticed the accused, B-84490, Sgt. Dunnigan, F., whom I now recognize, attempting to park his motorcycle. I first noticed that the accused stopped further away from the curb than is normal when parking a motorcycle. Secondly I noticed that the accused was having difficulty with his jiffy stand. When the accused stopped off his motorcycle he staggered a bit. As he turned around, apparently to go into the White Hart Tavern at Epsom, I stopped him. I said, "Fellow, you are in no shape to drive that bike." I said this not knowing the accused was a Sgt. as he had on a riding coat. The accused answered, " I'm O.K.. I just want to stop here for a minute to look for a pal of mine." The accused smelled of liquor and admitted having had a few beers. Then the accused asked me if I would watch his motorcycle for him. I then asked him for his pay book which he showed me. Then, after finding from his pay book that he was B-84490, Sgt. Dunnigan, F., I said, " Sergeant, to say the least I'm surprised. You've put yourself in a devil of a spot and I notice from your paybook that you have a family." I then asked him if he had a work ticket. He showed me his log book with two work tickets which I recognize before me(marked Exhibit A and B). Neither one of these work tickets was made out for the accused, and only one (Exhibit A) was made out for the machine No. CC 4221319, that the accused was driving. I told the accused, "That puts another slant on the picture and I will have to put you under arrest and take you in." The accused asked me if he could arrange to contact his unit hwich he told me was located near Leatherhead, close to Epsom . I told him that I would see the Corporal in charge of my patrol. We were about one-half block from a civilian Police Station so I told him to walk ahead of me and I would follow on the motorcycle No. CC 4221319. About 100 yards from the Police Station, the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, stopped to talk to a woman on the street and I had to get him and take him into the Police Station. Because he was a Sergeant and because he didn't cause any disorder I left him with the Civil Police and he promised to stay there until I could contact the Provost Corporal in charge of patrol. On my way out one of the Civil Police came up to me to tell me that the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, was annoying them, so I phoned my Headquarters and had a truck come to get him. D-106651, Sgt. Miller took him in the truck from the civilian Police Station to No. 11 Provost Coy. Guard House. I drove the motorcycle No. CC 4221319 to the Guard Room and turned it over to the Guard.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Cpl. O'Malley, I walked out of the civilian Police Station and did contact you outside talking to a couple of the civilian Police. Is that right?

A. Yes. I was talking to the door guard.

Q. Isn't it possible that, rather than trying to annoy the civilian Police, I was wanting to re-contact you about getting in touch with my unit? The building was strange so don't you think that I might have had difficulty in finding my way around?

A. Yes, that is quite possible. I don't think you were trying to get away, but the police felt that they were being imposed upon by our presence.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

2/Lt. J.R. O'Malley

Second Witness for Prosecution - D-106671, Sgt. Miller, W.G., No. 11 Provost Coy., Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:
I am D-106671, Sgt. Miller, W.G. of No. 11 Provost Coy., Cdn Provost Corps. On 15 Apr 43 at approximately 1900 hours, I was detailed by the Orderly Sergeant, Sgt. Barber, to go to Epsom to Epsom Police Station as L/Cpl. O'Malley had a Sergeant in custody there. I reported to the Police Station and ordered L/Cpl. O'Malley to drive motorcycle No. CC 4221316 to the Guard House. The accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, whom I now recognize, was unfit and incapable to drive this motorcycle. His breath smelled very badly of alcholic beverage and he staggered when he got up from a table at the civilian Police Station. I took the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, to the No. 11 Provost Coy. Guard Room and turned him over to Sgt. Lewis who was in charge of the guard, at approximately 1945 hours on 15 Apr 43.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

D-106671 Sgt W.G. Miller

Third Witness for Prosecution - Lieut. N.T. Peters, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div)R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:
I am Lieut. N.T. Peters, the Administrative Officer of 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div)R.C.A.S.C. With respect to Transport Work Tickets, it is ordered that either the Officer Commanding or the Administrative Officer sign all Work Tickets for trips beyond unit area, except under exceptinnal circumstances, when the Coy. Duty Officer may sign them. I examined Exhibit "B", a Transport Work Ticket No. 001, signed by myself. On this ticket I now notice an addition to the route namely "Epsom via Three Bridges", which I have no recollection of having seen before. I did not sign a Work Ticket for the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, on 15 Apr 43, authorizing the accused to ride a motorcycle.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

Lieut.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution - Major A.J. Labrie, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div)R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:
I am Major A.J. Labrie, Officer Commanding 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C. The system in effect for authorization of Transport Work Tickets is as follows: Work Tickets to be signed by three officers only - myself as O.C. - Lieut. R.T. Peters as Administrative Officer or the Duty Officer of the day. The Duty Officer of the day is to sign Work Tickets only in the absence of myself and Lieut. Peters, and in cases of emergency. I did not authorize or sign any Work Ticket to grant the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, transport by motorcycle on 15 Apr 43.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

A.J. Labrie

Fifth Witness for Prosecution - Lieut. D.E. Lewis, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:
I am Lieut. D.E. Lewis, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C. On 15 Apr 43 I was Duty Officer for the unit. By powers invested in me by the Officer Commanding as Duty Officer, I could sign Transport Work Tickets for trips proceeding beyond unit area. On the 15 Apr 43 I did not sign a Transport Work Ticket nor in any other way authorize the use of a vehicle by the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, whom I now recognize.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

D.E. Lewis

Sixth Witness for Prosecution - L-7366, Pte. Gagnier, J.F. 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:
I, L-7366, Pte. Gagnier, J.F., 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C. was using motorcycle No. CC 4221319 on 15 Apr 43. I parked motorcycle No. CC 4221319 in front of the Coy. Orderly Room, in the motorcycle park at 1530 hours, 15 Apr 43. I had Transport Work Ticket No. Q81, which I see before me marked Exhibit "B". I had just completed the Coy. M.T. run to Wych Cross as shown on Transport Work Ticket No. Q81. I gave my Log Book and the Transport Work Ticket to the accused, Sgt. Dunnigan, whom I now recognize. The Transport Work Ticket No. Q81, which I see before me has had an addition since I handed it to the accused on 15 Apr 43, namely " Epsom via Three Bridges". I notice that the number of the motorcycle shown on Transport Work Ticket No. Q81 is CC 1040319 whereas the number of the motorcycle I was using is CC 4221319. This is due to an error by myself in originally making out the Work Ticket. I went out on pass at 1700 hours 15 Apr 43 and did not hear of nor see the motorcycle again that day. At approximately 0900 hours 16 Apr 43, I was detailed by the Coy. Orderly Room to go to No. 11 Provost Coy at Mickleham to bring back a motorcycle, No. CC 4221319. I recognized the motorcycle No. CC 4221319 as the one I had used the day previous and returned with it to 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy(Inf Div) R.C.A.S.C.
