COURT OF REVIEW.

LEGAL DICISION JUDGNENT.

30th April 1891.

Garie, y vs. Turcot. -Johnson, Ch. J .- The plaintiff's mother in September, 1878, sold to the defendant certain real estate, and the deed stipulated that the purchaser, from and after the decease of the vendor, was to provide for the mainte ance of the plaintiff, who was her son, as long as he lived-either at the defendants, house or in an asylum.

After the mothers death the plaintiff appears to have resided with his brother François, at whose house both he and his mother up to the latter's death had lived : but the plaintiff, who does not seem to have much will of his own, soon afterwards, on some protext or other, left François' house and went to live with another brother, Octave; and he now brings his action to get $10 a month to pay his board, and also $80 for arrears accrued.

The defendant pleads that the only good he ever got from the property was anannual rent of $12; that he was always charitably disposed to the plaintiff, and put him to board at François Gariepy's, thought not obliged to do so, and that the action was the first news he got of the plaintiff having left Françoi's house, and that he is ready to maintain him.

This offer is not so precise as it might beit should designate the place; at the same time the term "elsewhere" in the deed means somewhere to which the defendant consents and approves of.

The judgment was for $10 a month for the past and future. That judgment is right in principle, and is comfirmed.

The amount must be reduced however, to 88 a month-all that was paid at François', where the man was kept with the defendant's Jetté, J., dissented as to the condemnation for the future, as the defendant offered to receive and maintain, the plaintiff.
