WEEKLY IRISH REVIEW IRELAND SEEN THROUGH TRISH EYES

Copyrighted 1922 by Seumas MacManus THE PROBLEM OF THE SIX NORTH-EASTERN COUNTIES

Of course the overshadowing 1rish problem today is that of the six North-Eastern counties which constitute Carsonia. Since the English first put foot in Ireland 750 years ago, the next great misfortune that befell the land was the dividing of it, along supposed religious lines, by British "statesmen." Since the time when, 125 years ago, the Protestant descendants of the English settlers, and the Catholic old Irish, joined hands in the great United Irishmen movement, and together areas in rabellion expired. gether arose in rebellion against England, the good English policy of fostering religious bias has been practised—with marked success only in North Eastern Ireland. In North-Western, Western, Southern, Eastern, and Central Ireland — that is to say in five-sixths of the country, where the old Catholic Irish are in the vast majority, sectarianism never found root—as is rightly, and gladly, testified to every day by the grateful minority of Protestant British descendants who live in the most laudable amity with the vast majority of Catholic Irish among whom they are inter-

When, eventually, Britain found, a year or so ago, that she had to relax her greedy grasp upon Ireland as a whole, she struck her masterstroke by first making a sectarian division which greath of programs in division which gave the Orangemen in the North-East complete control over six Irish counties (in only four of which counties, by the way, were they in a majority.) Having they in a majority.) Having effected this coup the British told the world they were generously evacuating Ireland—and they "evacuated" it, laughing satanically. They had done their work well, and since England was not going to get any more good out of Ireland they had seen to it that Ireland herself could not. And now that the witches cauldron of Belfast bigotry is boiling and that the minority in that city is groaning and suffering, and dying violent deaths, and that the Orange Special Constabulary are spreading death, and desolation, to the ends of the Six Court of the conduction of the court the ends of the Six County territory which they dominate, the British are once again pouring their regi-ments, through the port of Belfast, into the land which they never relinquished. And, advancing to the borders of the facetiouslynamed Free State, are giving the inhabitants to understand once more she is master in this land of Ireland. And under the supreme confidence that comes from a hearty and enthusiastic, backing of all the powers of the British Empire, every minion of the Belfast Government is proclaiming, throughout every corner of the six counties, that the Nationalist minority must out from the mill, and herself, too, quickly get out of "their" territory, where they were working, and had get out, or be stamped out. It is gone across the water for work. every day nearing the fearful was a bad time for her. The issue for the North-Eastern minority whether they shall leave and lose their little all, and escape with their lives from the territory that used to be Ireland's—or whether they are to remain, and fearfully times the Specials came tailing breaking in the door, swearing she had a man in the house, using language she winced to remember, shouting "We'll put a bullet in you if you don't tell," and trampled her

A glance at the progress of the prolonged Belfast pogrom will bring the foregoing home to any The present pogrom began in Belfast two years ago with the brutal driving out of their employment of 8,000 Nationalist workmen -leaving practically 40,000 men, women, and children, without knowing where they were to get the next meal from. From that time to the present somewhere over 400 -men, women and children, and babes-have been shot, stabbed, stoned or kicked to death in the streets of Belfast—and over 1,700 ounded - maltreated short Four thousand poor Nationfamilies have been driven their homes—homes which in many cases, wrecked, , and burned. Since Sir James Craig, a couple of months ago made a peace pact with Michael ollins there have been more than STEPHEN GWYNN PUTS RESPONSIBILITY 100 killed, and more than 200 wounded, 25 Nationalist houses were burned, 81 fired into, and 221 Nationalist families evicted, and their houses wrecked, looted, and burned-three-fourths of the killed and wounded being Nationalists. one-fourth Loyalists. For be it noted, that, after the Nationalists found that meek submission to the murderers only increased the appetite for more murder, the bolder spirits of them formed an armed defence for the Nationalist quarters, and met the murderous bands with rifles.

BOMBS ONLY EXCITE MOMENTARY INTEREST

ings, worse than those of Armenians under Turkish rule, of the veyed that three lives of the Nor-Nationalist minority in Belfast. A folks would be taken in return.

of a Belfast suburb, on a beautiful afternoon recently, looking over the pretty suburban gardens around, where children were playing, and householders leisurely working. Then hearing, from the direction of the city, the fierce bursting of a bomb, after that rifle firing, another bomb bursting, then Lewis guns getting into action—hearing all these, she was astonished to note that where, at the first sound of the mb bursting, the children turned from their play for a moment to look in that direction, and the workers in the gardens paused for a moment to listen, the children and the workers were, next instant, going leisurely forward with their play, and work, again. These sounds from the city, which so startled my friend, (a visiting stranger,) had become too common to excite more than momentary interest in the minds of the suburban children and adults.

A PATHETIC NARRATIVE

Here is a simple, intimate, picture of the home life led by the Armen-ians of Belfast—a picture drawn by another visitor. I had been warned, says this visitor, that there were "bad parts" around the Herbert Street quarter, and trusted to Providence for a guide. The guide Providence for a guide. The guide sent me was a small Nationalist boy, waiting for the tram, who confided to me that he lived there, and talked to me gravely, and intelligently, in cautious whispers, all the way. He had got some dinner, he said, in a friend's house; there was no one in his own house working, but the neighbors were good. ing, but the neighbors were good. He would not let me get down at the main street because 'the people main street because 'the people there'd kick you;" a boy had been beaten and kicked—so he led me to his home by devious ways, past houses with bullet marks on every His father and mother were taking their dinner—mugs of weak tea and crusts of bread. They re-ceived me kindly, glad to talk to any one from the incredible South, where there is safety and peace. Dan is the only child at home, a white-faced hunger-stricken child, who takes his religion and his counwho takes his religion and his country very seriously. "He was carrying home two bottles of holy water on Sunday," his mother told me, "and I asked him what he'd say if they stopped him and wanted to know what it was. 'I'd say 'tis blest water,' says he. 'They'll shoot ye if ye tell them that,' says I. 'Well then,' says he, 'do you have the blest candle ready.'"

Swiney, and Kevin Barry, as though he were singing out his creed, and quietly, at his mother's command, showed mea great half-healed shrapnel wound in his thigh. "There were six children wounded that time," his mother said, "they threw a bomb into a crowd of them in the His father was away when street. that happened; he had been driven out from the mill, and herself, too, every day nearing the fearful was a bad time for her. Three issue for the North-Eastern minorsacred pictures, and ripped up the bed. "They do come at night," she said, "roaring like wild elephants. They have more power than the devil, for he can only come in the spirit, but they come in the flesh." She saw a thing one evening that frightened her. Specials were passing in/a cage car, and a baby, ten months old, crawled to the door of the house opposite. "Look," sheard one of them yell, "there's Fenian bastard! Put a bullet through it!"—and they fired, and just missed the child. After that she sent her own baby, where so many mothers have sent heir children, to the Falls Road, for the Nationalist population is stronger there, and the persecution is not so incessant yet. From her own little district so many families have fled, so many of their vacated houses have been taken by loyalists—the terrible circle of hatred is closing

ON IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

The well-known Stephen Gwynn, writing in the London Observer, puts on the Imperial Parliament, thousands of whose troops are in Belfast, the responsibility for the terrible state of affairs there. He says that when the troops are ordered out, to quell an Orange riot, they are ordered to fire high. If a man shoots to hit he is sent back to barracks. "One private of the Norfolks," says Gwynn, "had his comrade shot beside him; he saw a figure on a house roof, fired, saw a ngure on a house roof, fired, and brought down a man whose rifle fell with him. He proved to be an Orangeman, and the official report recorded his death as due to Outside of Ireland people cannot begin to realize the terrible suffer- line of fire!" The soldier was sent back to Barracks. Word was con-

In another case Gwynn says the troops were sent out to search for arms-Nationalist arms of course. By mistake they stumbled upon a Loyalist arsenal. The search for arms was stopped. There had been a lack of tact. Naturally the men found where the arsenal was concealed escaped conviction. Gwynn points out that besides the Special Constabulary of "A's" and "B's," there are the "C" police, unpaid, who are enrolled wholesale by the magistrates. Any Loyalist can go magistrates. Any Loyalist can go in, put down his name as an unpaid "C" policeman, get arms and ammunition—and then go forth to make use of them. Says Gwynn in the Observer: "These combined forces are crushing the Nationalists out of the quarters which they in-habit." whom we are maint

Mount Charles, County Donegal.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER'S COLLEGE

The publication of the Carnegie Report of Educational Survey in the Maritime Provinces is still a source of much discussion. A Halifax daily paper, The Herald, in its issue of June 27, had an editorial on St. Francis Xavier's of Antigonish. The writer thinks that the Report recommends "a policy which runs counter to the denominational spirit." This statement is open to serious question. However, The Herald's article is here given in

In the recent Carnegie Report a feature which especially attracted our notice is the reference to the University of St. Francis Xavier's College at Antigonish. Here is one among many marks of that breadth of vision which our visitors dis-played. One might have thought that in recommending a policy which runs counter to the denomina-tional spirit and method they would be sharp critics of a college in which these have found peculiar embodiment. But the policy advocated in the Report is one which makes ample room for all that has been found valuable in the system. been found valuable in the system of independent universities that it proposes to supersede. The constructive genius always seeks to preserve the past, except in so far as the past would be a handicap in He sang for me, in a sweet strong oice, ballads, of Terence Macrealize that one's case is weakened but strengthened when one does ample justice to "the other side St. Francis Xavier's College made strong appeal to these investigators, as it has always made strong appeal to ourselves. They report that it impressed them as "a very genuine institution.' Its courses appeared to them sound, its aims well defined. its standard high. They admired its annual two months "People's its annual two months Schools"—a product, we believe, of the tireless enthusiasm of Father Tompkins-for in this provision for untrained adults they saw an original and a successful effort to extend the scope of university teaching and to bring the college into closer relations with the public. As this is a point upon which we have repeatedly insisted in these columns, we say devoutedly Amen And in their Report they singled out St. Francis Xavier's as sharing with Acadia a distinction in which other institutions of our province are notably deficient. Interest is taken by these two colleges in the these significant lines:

For them students are born little notice is apparently taken of the Klan. either of the educational conditions It is rec

We look forward to the influence of St. Francis Xavier's College inside the coming central university thing/of its own, a special character and policy, which would make the life of the whole larger and fuller and richer. We need various types; and, though we have in the past wrong. insisted upon this requirement too Later friend told me of sitting in a garden of a Belfast suburb, on a beautiful the streets.

The Norfolks were withdrawn from the cannot afford either to ignore or furniture and other equipment. In preserving this the The balace, "Wizard" Simmons, to break. In preserving this the men of all Christian creeds may declared went into "field work, et well unite, and none is compromis-ing his own faith because he recognizes and supports the devotion that belongs to another. As one passes among the structures, educa-tional and ecclesiastical, that stand side by side in Antigonish, and that make it one of the most picturesque in Canada there is a centre more reminiscent of Oxford. There indeed the Oxford man cannot but recall the words of the Chapel Thanksgiving Prayer that used to ring in his ears on those quiet Sunday evenings when thanks were returned for "our Founders, by whom we are maintained unto piety Nor should one forget the inspiration which must come to all alumni of the college by the recollection of the great self-sacrificing missionary whose name it bears. The Christian world, regardless of the divisions of section restricts in the college of the divisions of section restricts. sect or party, is at one in doing reverence to the name of St. Francis Xayier. He it was who, nearly four centuries ago, carried the message of the Cross to India, to Ceylon, and to Japan. It was he who amid many dangers and many hardships, by the fervor of a preaching that was united to the force of his example and the sanctity of his life, brought to tens of thousands in the East a real insight into the Christian purpose. The story of his persistent efforts to begin the evangelization of China, the record of the risks he ran and the opposition he encountered and the sufferings beneath which he finally sank—all this is part of the common heritage of all Christendom. Well may any college in our day be proud of bearing such a name, for it is a missionary character which still belongs to all genuine institutions of learning. They are still outposts of spiritual warfare against the enemies of mankind, still lighthouses of guidance amid dark and tempestuous seas. We can think of no symbol which, more fitly than the name of St. Francis should keep their ideals aloft and their enthus-

THE KLAN AND THE SCHOOL QUESTION

California, as well as Oregon, may be called upon to fight legis-lation that would mean the dissolution of Catholic parochial as well as other denominational schools at the fall election.

Plans to inject the religious issue into the November election were disclosed here with the circulation of petitions to place on the ballot an initiative measure based on the similar measure framed for Oregon, which would force all children of school age to attend schools maintained by the State.

Officials of the State Capitol declare that the measure is sponsored by the Ku Klux Klan and that for the most part by Klansmen. LETTERS OF KLANSMAN CHARGED WITH FELONY CONTRADICT SIMMONS

Los Angeles, July 1.-More than one million dollars has been received by Imperial Wizard Simmons and mperial Klaliff Clarke of the Ku Klux Klan as their share of money paid by the Klansmen for initiation and the hooded robes worn by members of the Klan, according to information disclosed by the District Attorney's office here as being set forth in correspondence of William S. Coburn, former grand training of teachers and in the work of the common school. We quote goblin of the Klan, who is under indictment on a felony charge in these significant lines:

"Some active interest was found at Acadia and at St. Francis Xavier's; otherwise, so far as the colleges concern themselves, the lower schools might as well not the colleges concern themselves, the lower schools might as well not the content of a felony charge in this county. The correspondence, according to Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, contradicts testimony given by Simmons and Clarke when they appeared before a Congruence of the content of the correspondence, according to Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, contradicts testimony given by Simmons and Clarke when they appeared before a Congruent of the correspondence, according to Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, contradicts testimony content of the correspondence, according to Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, contradicts testimony given by Simmons and Clarke when they appeared before a Congruence of the correspondence, and the content of the correspondence, according to Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, contradicts testimony given by Simmons and Clarke when they appeared before a Congruence of the correspondence, and the content of the correspondence of the corresponde gressional committee in Washington ut of the air at matriculation, and during a government investigation through which they have arisen or the processes by which they have been prepared. There is but faint perception of the fact that the university is directly responsible for a correct attitude among educated people with reference to the health of the elementary and secondary schools as essential parts of the whole fabric of education."

We look forward to the influence organization up to June 1, 1920, five hours and at last conquered face the ordeal of election.

Were $151,088.72. Later Simmons the flames.

Cabinet Minister without face the ordeal of election.

A feature of the Free S declared that in the first five years as a distinct gain to the corporate preceding June 1, 1920, the income life. It would contribute some- was but $15,000. When asked how the bookkeeper could possibly have increased $15,000 to $151,088.72 the "Wizard" contented himself with

Later exhibits on the part of the cetera." The "et cetera" was not offered to its exact disposition.

Chairman Campbell gressional committee then read a 568.84 had gone to Clarke and Mrs. Tyler, but the Imperial Wizard, who and romantic spots in our provinces one wonders whether anywhere else in Canada there is a centre more reminiscent of Oxford. There "patriotism," and "Americanism," was halting and incoherent in his replies as to questions concerning finances when Congressman Campbell called his attention to these

A SOLEMN PROTEST

Irish Weekly Independent, June 24

The following is a copy of the document which was issued on Tuesday:

"Statement of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland in reference to recent insults to Cardinal Logue, unanimously adopted, His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin presiding in the absence of His Eminence." "Things have come to a strange pass when the Cardinal Primate of All Ireland is thrice held up in the course of the visitation of his Archdiocese, and rudely searched by Ulster Specials. On the second occasion His Eminence was covered with revolver and rifle at close range while his correspondence was examined and the box containing the Sacred Oils opened, in face of repeated protest.

"On the third occasion His Eminence was ordered out of his car into the road, and personally searched, while the car and bags were ransacked to the accompaniment of language not wanting in

"For such maltreatment of an old man in such exalted station there is scarcely a parallel in the annals of the most savage tribe, and as, despite the presence of numerous British troops in the Northern area, there is no Government to give protection or redress to Catholics, we deem it a solemn duty to lay before the Holy Father and the whole civilized world a faint outline of the barbarities heaped upon him, who is the beloved head of the Irish Church.

'EDWARD, Archbishop of Dublin, Chairman.
"ROBERT, Bishop of Cloyne, "Denis, Bishop of Ross, "Secretaries."

FAMOUS SHRINE DESTROYED

Santa Fe, New Mexico, June 28. -Guadalupe Shrine, said to be 275 years old, and famous all through the Southwest as a place of pilgrimage, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday as a result of a defective electric circuit, and the priceless painting of the Blessed Virgin behind the elter was slightly dame. behind the altar was slightly damthe petitions are being circulated

Most Blessed Sacrament. Entering the chapel Father Le Gillon found the smoke so dense that he was temporarily blinded and unable to with an iron bar. All the statues were removed. The painting of Our Lady in the burnt Shrine is a faithful replica of the miraculous picture of the Shrine of Guadalupe, Mexico. This spring of Guadalupe, Mexico. This regard to membership of the Free candidates in parliamentary elections. latter is the picture wrought in State Senate. It is provided that: beautiful colors on the tilma of the "The Senate shall be composed of Indian Juan Diego by the hand of the Blessed Virgin. The Santa Fe nation by reason of useful public duplicate of the original was executed by Joseph Alzidar in 1783. one of the most famous artists of his time in the New Nation's life.

Although small, the Shrine of Our Lady here was one of the most beautiful in the Western Hemithe flames.

The adobe walls of the building, five feet thick, are standing, but it is feared they are unsound because of the great quantities of water poured on them while they were hot. The roof has collapsed and hot. The roof has collapsed and the interior decorations are spoiled.

Most Rev. A. T. Daeger, Archbishop of Santa Fe, is absent admin to recent Developments in Politics, "by Rev. Michael Sanction, since the English Sovereign is also Supreme Governor of the Church of England. Every now asserting that the bookkeeper was the interior decorations are spoiled.

IRISH FREE STATE CONSTITUTION

PROVIDES AGAINST THE SECULARIZATION OF SCHOOLS

Ireland.-The Constitution of the Irish Free State drafted by the Provisional Government and approved by the British Government as in conformity with the treaty is a document in which many points of the American, Canadian, and Swiss Constitutions have been absorbed and applied. the instrument the State becomes "a co-equal member of the community of nations forming the British Commonwealth." Further: "all power of government and all authority, legislative, executive and judical, are derived from the next." the people.

Parliament shall consist of Chamber of Deputies and a Senate with an Executive Council Cabinet responsible thereto. orate and ingenious provisions are inserted with the object of securing the presence of minorities in Parliament and their active participation the teaching of catechism. The in government, and of safeguarding religious rights and liberties. The liberty of the individual is inviol-

The Article relating to the free exercise of religion provides:

"Freedom of conscience and the free profession and practice of religion are inviolable rights of every citizen, and no law may be made either directly or indirectly to endow any religion or prohibit or restrict the free exercise thereof, or give any preference or impose any disability on account of religious belief or religious status, or affect prejudicially the right of any child to attend a school receiving public money without attending school, or make any discrimination respects State aid between schools under the management of different religious denominations or divert from any religious denomina-tion or any educational institution any of its property.

OLD WRONG RIGHTED

Denominationalism in education is here fully recognized. A guarantee is therefore afforded against secularization of the schools process which has been carried out to a dangerous and mischievous extent in other countries. The proviso that discrimination shall not be made "as respects State aid be-tween schools under the management of different religious denominations" is extremely important as affecting one of the greatest teaching orders in Ireland, the Christian Brothers. In the past, discrimination has been made against the Christian Brothers in their primary schools. They were excluded from participation in State grants simply because they insisted upon exhibit-ing emblems of the Catholic religion in their schools. This great and daring wrong in a Catholic country ged.
Father H. P. M. Le Guillou, in tution be righted.

bodies such as county and district councils. In respect of member-ship in the Irish Parliament there it was decided to make the rally temporarily blinded and unable to is no such qualification. So far as an annual event. Father Lester, is find the key to the Tabernacle. He the Catholic clergy are concerned, the Knight Director of the movewas compelled to force the door while they have objected to the slur ment was given a great ovation implied in express exclusion, they when he spoke. and precious objects in the chapel are not disposed to participate as candidates in parliamentary elec-

citizens who have done honor to the service, or who, because of special qualifications or attainments, repreent important aspects of

The bishops and many of the priests fulfil this qualification in a pre-eminent degree.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

The Executive Council or Cabinet shall consist of twelve ministers of whom only four need be members of the Chamber. The eight ministers who shall not be members of Parliament shall be nominated by a Committee of Dail Eireann. In this way it would be possible for a bishop or clergyman to become a Cabinet Minister without having to

A feature of the Free State Constitution not to be found in any Dominion Constitution is a provision books it was originally adapted. introducing the system of Referen-But as the Church of England is a Later exhibits on the part of the much—even pressed it to the grave disadvantage of general education—we must not now so react against it as to fall into the errors of the opposite extreme.

For example, St. Francis Xavier's College stands for the association between scholarship and spiritual culture, an historic association which may be perverted, but which

CATHOLIC NOTES

Catholic missionaries first introduced the sugar-cane to the South. London, Eng.—The diocesan War memorial for the Catholic diocese of Plymouth is a new Lady Chapel in the Cathedral, which has now been completed. This fine building in the West of England has now a Lady Chapel which has been erected at a cost of $16,000, with its altar costing something like $4,500. On the front of the Lady altar is a carved panel, recording that the new chapel is the diocesan memor-ial to the Catholic men of the diocese who fell in active service during the War. Paris, June 23.—At the General Assembly of the Society of Volun-tary Catechists held at the Sacred Heart Basilica, the diocesan director reported that in Paris there are 4,800 women and girls engaged in teaching catechism to children in the churches and Catholic community centers. A certain number association has branches throughout France and is now being established

Paris, June 27 .- In connection with the reception of Cardinal Mercier here this week, the French Committee for the Restoration of Louvain announced that the children of the schools of France and other persons had contributed 250,-000 francs towards the replenishment of the famous library. This is in addition to 80,000 volumes purchased or donated. The schools of Belgium have subscribed about 260,000 francs. The subscriptions by French and Belgians, it is expected, will reach a million francs, sum equal to the aggregate of the contributions made by American universities.

Archbishop Mostyn of Cardiff, in opening a new Catholic school in the dingy mining Welsh town of Llanelly, renewed an old offer made to the Catholics of that town whilst he was Bishop of Menevia. The Archbishop offered to supplement every thousand pounds raised by local Catholics by two thousand pounds from himself. The revenues of the Metropolitan See of Cardiff of the Metropolitan See of Cardiff are by no means considerable, at least not for an archbishopric, and may be taken for granted that in making this offer to the Catholics of Llanelly the Archbishop has been assured of the most generous assistance by the many influential Catholics who live in the Welsh Metro-

Glasgow, June 26 .- One of the most notable rallies held by the Knights and Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament in Scotland was that which marked the first appearthat which marked the first appearance of the new archbishop, the Most Rev. Donald Mackintosh, after his arrival from Rome. The rally was attended by the Bishop of Argyll and the Isles, the Lord Abbot of Fort Augustus and many of the clergy. Monsignor Mackintosh graphs of the grussde in Father H. P. M. Le Guillou, in charge of the Shrine, risked his life in his successful effort to save the ineligible for membership in local Glasgow in a manner that has put new heart into those interested in

> New York.-Announcement that the Rev. Laurence J. Kelly has been elected provincial of the Maryland-New York Province of the Jesuit Order to succeed the Very Rev. Joseph H. Rockwell, who has been in poor health for some time, was made at the Jesuit Church of St. Francis Xavier in West Sixteenth Street on the occasion of the special services held to implore God's blessing on a group of fourteen missionaries selected to labor in Jamaica and the Philippine Islands. Father Kelly at the time of his election was superior and master of novices of St. Stanislaus Novitiate at Woodstock-on-Hudson. He has held many important posts in the Order, and was for some time superior of the Jesuit missions at Lennardtown, Md. Father Kelly was appointed to the novitiate at Yonkers in 1917.

London, June 20. - For some years the Anglicans have been engaged in the revision of their Book of Common Prayer, which for them answers the purpose of a combined Missal and Breviary from which Catholic liturgica dum and Initiative.

It is interesting to recall that in it can do nothing in this direction

THE WILD BIRDS OF KILLEEVY

BY ROSA MULHOLLAND (LADY GILBERT)

CHAPTER XXXII—CONTINUED

"Come joy, or come sorrow," was the cry of his will, "let my feet still keep the upward path!" And then a deep and tranquil joy took possession of him. It seemed to him that before this lonely altar his soul had been wedded to some high ideal purity, and he arose and turned away with a paler lip, but with a more steadfast reliance on the law of the Supreme Director of

Glancing upwards, he was startled to catch the eye of a monk in white garments, who was peering down on him from a small window in a gallery above his head, as if silently and secretly witnessing the com-pact that the stranger had made with his God. A second and more attentive look discovered to him that it was only the picture of a Carthusian, a cunning fresco, the whim of a painter, who had placed this monk on guard, never to be released from his watch till the walls of the Certosa shall have crumbled

Having visited the refectory, sacristies, lavatory, chapter-room, and other parts of the monastery, all rich beyond description in marbles, painting, sculpture, Kevin found himself at last treading the great cloister, round which stood the monks' dwellings. Each Carthusian had a little house to himself, four chambers in each, two above and two below, and a sweet little garden, now a wilderness of weeds and flowers, with grapes hanging unplucked from the walls. Here he worked at the particular trade or ndustry cultivated by him, tended his vine, his bees, his flowers, taught the birds to feed from his hand, and meditated on death and eternity. All was now empty, silent, deserted. As Kevin stood with folded arms at the window, looking down into the neglected garden, the secret of the lives of such men as those who had dwelt here seemed known to him. Overpowered with affliction, crushed by the loss of some one too dearly loved, he imagined the sick heart turning away from a world that could not comfort it, and finding re peace, toiling for the good of others in silent self-effacement. praying, dreaming, with eyes fixed beyond the grave, caring only for poor, and taking no natural pleasure except from the flower he coaxed out of the earth at his feet, or the bird he had lured to his

"Poor soul !" he thought, "that hid its struggles here. What was the sorrow that drove it into such the reward of its patient toil? How long the time must have seemed As for me, I would rather take my burden out into the world, and falter and limp with the disabled and the halt; I should want to hear the world's great voice in my ear, even its groans and cries, and coin my own woe into language that might bring assuagement to its pain. woe into language that Neither the needle nor the loom would content me. I should want to speak, to sing—"

Here a sound like the echo of a soft, rich note of music, just broke the stillness to his ear, as a star will gleam and vanish; and Kevin caught his breath with an impatient sigh, thinking his imagination had deceived him. 'It is the old story," he said, as he listened in vain for a repetition of the sound. "Every note in Nature disturbs me with the echo of her voice. So easily beguiled as I am, how slender is the hope I am clinging to now. Let me take warning, and nerve myself for the per-petual disappointment that awaits

Fan and the Signora had arrived earlier than Kevin, and having explored all the wonders of the monastery, were now lingering about those spots which interested them most. Mamzelle was deeply engaged in studying the meanings of strange paintings in an arched gateway leading from one part of the building to another, while Fan, having left her to her reflections upon the same, was flitting up and down and round the Cloister of the Fountain, breathless with excitement and joy. Standing under the shadow of one part of that arched gateway, she had seen Kevin pass with his guide. He had passed with out looking up, but she had easily recognized him. He was on the spot, in the very building. She had only to run after him, call out his name, stretch forth her hands, and end the long separation of years. And yet she hesitated and lingered possessed by some feeling which she could not understand, which made her hands tremble and her feet refuse to run. She shrank from flying in search of him, from seeing him start in surprise, perhaps per-ceiving a look of disappointment flash into his eyes at the first sight of her. How did she know that he not be dissatisfied with the girl, the woman who had "Have I?" said Fanchea, delight-now taken the place of little Fan? ed; "I was afraid I might not be She would rather see him coming to meet her, prepared to behold her, getting a glimpse of her in the distance, and then seeking her of own accord. Without having she acted upon it, and flinging herself upon the low wall of the cloister, looking into the garden, and supporting herself by an arm shaped such a feeling into thought, of those exquisite pillars that support the arches of lovely terracotta work, she opened her lips, uttering a few rich, sweet notes, like the beginning of a not speak to me!"

blackbird's song.
"He said he should know me by my voice," she thought. "Now, if his memory be so good, he will age and breath for a loudert longer song, a fuller, clearer message to the friend she was going to summon to her side, and in a few minutes the "Hymn of the Virgin Triumphant" broke the solemn stillness, rang through the ancient cloister, and floated, with all its tender supplication, its quaint, wild grandeur, away through the old, startled passages, and across echoing walls, till it fell mysteriously, pathetically, urgently, like a call from Heaven, upon the ear for which its message was intended.

At the first notes of the hymn Kevin gazed at the old monk who had just re-appeared beside him, and the monk gazed back at his companion with a slight pallor on his withered cheek.

"I cannot say," said the monk, with a happy smile flitting over his grave countenance; "but I have often at night heard heavenly music resounding through these ancient walls. Many saints have lived and died here, signor, and it would not be wonderful if sometimes the angelic choirs should descend to praise God in this now silent and leserted shrine. But I have never before heard them in the daytime.

"That is no angel's voice," replied Kevin, "unless, indeed, a woman may be an angel."

And with these words, which rather shocked the good old monk, he dashed away and left him.

As he hurried along the quadrangle, and threaded the passages that led to the Cloister of the Fountain, the psalm of Killeevy, the hymn of his native mountains swelled fuller and clearer on his ear, and beat more urgently on his heart. He followed the sound, and, guided by it, drew nearer every moment to the singer.

"Ah." he thought, "what be-witchment is this!" remembering the night when the same voice, same strain, waking him out of his sleep, had hurried him out into the midnight streets of London, only to fade away as he pursued it, and to lose itself in the noises of the thor-oughfare. "Am I waking or sleeping? Has an argel, indeed, descended out of the heavens to mock me?"

But the voice did not grow fainter as he proceeded; on the contrary, it swelled richer, fuller, more soft and sweet, and following it he entered the Cloister of the Fountain—a delicious, dreamy spot, a tangled garden where tall plants and flowers grew in wild luxuriance, in the centre the wide, white marble basin of a fountain, its carven urn crowned with the blossoms of the cactus. Here and there a straight, reed-like plant, covered with bloom. shot high above the rest, and caugh the broad sunlight that fell full upon this wilderness of beauty and the same sunshine dved to a richer coral-color the sculptured arches of terra cotta upon their light pilas-ters, which, springing from a low wall around the garden, formed the shady red-roofed alleys of the e: the wild, green in the entire scen garden, the light, fairy cloisters, with their coral glow, and high above, soaring in the clouds, the wonderful cupola, circling upwards with its airy galleries and spires and its delicate varieties of tint. But the voice he pursued did not come up out of the fountain, nor did it descend from the heavens. It was coming from a slight dark figure leaning over the wall in a nook by one of the pillars, the head and shoulders in the light, the dark draperies flowing back into the shade, a young, upturned face, with wide, arch blue eyes, and a cloud of soft curls over the fore-head, a fair and rosy face, as sweet, as saucy, almost as childlike as the face that had vanished from his home one night, and which he had been longing for and dreaming of ever since. It was not Elsa, it was not Francesca, but it was the very little Fan lost from Killeevy mountain long ago. With a slight spring she came to meet him, flying with outstretched hands, and was caught

'Oh, Fan! oh, Kevin! is it you?
it really true?" Weeping, laughing, stammering, clasping and unclasping hands, they knew not how the first minutes passed over "My darling, my Fanchea, you are exactly the same; but with what a difference! Half a yard more height, and all these black gauzes; but that is not it all. What the half-blown rose is to the oud, that is what you are to the little one of my memory. And, oh, my darling, how beautiful, how lovely you have grown!'

nice enough to please you. And, oh, Kevin, do you know how changed you are? If I had not caught a glimpse of you and been able to

"I had to get up my courage. I think I never could have spoken to you, except by singing. I thought, he will remember my voice," and I sang our hymn. I knew if you were within hearing, it would bring you to me.

Had I been dead, it would have called me out of the grave," said Kevin, and then broke into further extravagances which it is unnecessarv to record.

And then, walking up and down the old cloister, hand-in-hand, like a pair of strayed children, who had ost each other in a wood, been frightened at the loneliness, and found each other before the night came on, they told each other their separate stories, of all that had befallen them during the passing of those eight eventful years. After that they were on the island again together, with the sea rolling in their ears and the white birds cir-cling above their heads. Fan forgot "What is that music?" asked Kevin, scarcely daring to credit the evidence of his own senses.
"I cannot say," said the monk, child again, on the rocks, amid the sea-foam, with Nature's inimitable music ringing in their ears and in tures which shall be as the works of their souls; till the sun began to burn redder on the cloister roof, and Mamzelle came from out of the very old and weary she will come to

> CHAPTER XXXIII CONCLUSION

"So this is you, sir!" said Lord Wilderspin, glaring at Kevin. are the Kevin who has been keeping us all in fear, holding a sword over our heads for the last seven years, obliging us to resort to dark plots and heartless advertisements est our little prima donna should be snatched out of our fingers. And here you come, confound you, just in time to destroy all our pros-

"I am delighted to hear I gave you so much trouble," said Kevin, smiling. "It would hardly have been fair if the pain had been all Impertinent rascal. You are as saucy as the minx herself. Hallo, Fan, this fellow will beat My lord," said Fan. gravely, "I have promised Herr Harfen-spieler and Mamzelle. Kevin and I have resolved that I must not disappoint you. I will keep the engagement that you made for 'You shall do no such thing, yo monkey. Those two old people will have to be put in prison! I tell you you are as free as air, and shall lo only what you please. As for me, I am not the least disappointed. have known for a long time that you were only a wild bird fit for a hedge, that you would never do to sing in a cage. Now, I have already bought a hedge for you in your own country, and you can fly off and sing in it as soon as you like!

don't know what you mean, said Fan, coloring. sir," said Fan, coloring.
"I mean that I have looked on you as my own child, that is all. Every bird needs a bit of green sod we cannot accept so much. You have already been too generous to We can never for-Fanchea.

'Hold your tongue, sir and on writing your poetry, which by the way is extraordinarily good. I you this girl has been my daughter for seven years, and you not only come and dare to come and take her from me, but you presume to dictate to me as to what I am to do for her. If you do not like her with the fortune I choose to give her, you can go and seek a wife

So that night, when "Lohengrin" was performed at Milan, saw Fanchea's first and last appearance upon a public stage. The two wild birds, after their long flight round the world, winged their way home to Killeevy at last, and took possession of the little kingdom Lord Wilderspin's thoughtful generosity had bestowed upon them. Kevin works hard with his pen, and his name is every day becoming more and more honored by the nobler and purer-minded section of the reading public. Fanchea, in in his home, singing over her womanly tasks by his side, is the inspiration of his genius, even as she was in the old childish days when she sang to him on the island and he saw pictures in her songs. Connor Mor did not long survive his delight at seeing his son return, and at finding him a "clerk and a book-learned man" after all; but the good old mother lives with the young people in their pretty house, and tells her beads, and spins and knits as she used to do in her humbler home. Her joy in the humbler home. Her joy in the success of her children is unutterable, and she often bids them pray that after all the toils of her life "pride may not keep her out of heaven at the last.' glimpse of you and been able to piece you together, and make you out to be really Kevin, I should have been afraid to introduce gentleman who claimed his old gentleman who claimed his ol and Kevin takes greater pleasure forgot religion at least outwardly,

Lord Wilderspin keeps his promise of paying frequent visits to Killeevy, and is fond of appearing there suddenly, scolding every one within reach vehemently for an hour or two, enjoying himself thoroughly, and in the end going away perfectly happy. His present craze is enthusiasm for Kevin's poetry, though all his life he had prided himself on being a hater of poets. Herr Harfenspieler still walks his chosen way, with a heart modestly and ardently worshipful of music, forgiven Fanchea sometimes to come and see her in her home; on which occasions delightful concerts may be heard by the birds that flit about Killeevy mountain. He loves to wander away alone among the great rocks, and sitting on some airy perch, with his violin upon his shoulder, to pour out delicious wailings that mingle fitly with the piping of the winds and the booming of the ocean-waves at his feet. Mamzelle has been the slowest to forgive, and is still beating about the world, still subject to fits of the old madness, when she dreams that she may yet paint wonderful shadows somewhere, in search of her for shelter, and die in her

We will now take leave of our hero after sunset as they sit in their own little territory-a garden of roses extending down to the cliffs, with as Dr. Winter was returning from the crimsoned ocean at their feet a professional visit to an out-ofand all the hundred isles they know town patient, he took advantage of so well burning on it like so many jewels, set with amethyst and amber and gold.

Kevin has just finished reading his new poem to Fanchea. Her thought of her heart; and she smiles, feeling conscious of their their favorite island; they circle and wheel, and fly off in a trail towards the glory of the sun. So wing all white souls to a happy

THE END

THE FINGER OF GOD

"How can you confess your sins to a mere man?" came from a tow-headed, sparkling-eyed student as he haughtily confronted hischum and room-mate, Tom Ryan. I tell you, Joe, you're not confessing to a mere man in the con-fessional, but to one who is repre-sentative of God," was the now oft-repeated answer from a darkhaired and thoughtful slow-but-sure individual.

By this and similar questions Joe Winter had lately evinced an in-clination toward Catholicism, but to sing on, and I have bought you a little territory of your own, in the neighborhood of your beloved Killeevy. Mind you have a room always ready for me, for I mean to nay you visits."

I was evident from this ort-reiterated question that the confessional was his stumbling block. He had been Joe's intimate friend from early childhood and the fact that they now were the varsity battery -Tom the "twirler" and Joe the "receiver"-had further strengthened the intimate friendship which existed between these college chums of such diverse characters and dis-

Heretofore Joe had been too vivacious to ever consider anything seriously, but now a strange curios ity regarding religion gripped him. It was the first of February, and the annual retreat was to in a few days. Non-Catholic students were not obliged to attend the various exercises, so during the last retreat Joe had remained in undisturbed leisure in his room occupying his time in delving into the Red Book, the Green Book, and in reality voraciously devouring the contents of a host of magazines, while Tom promptly and joyfully attended the exercises of the retreat.

Nor was Tom's example without effect upon his roommate who had observed him closely. Imagine his surprise when upon leaving his room to attend the opening exercises, to hear Joe call after him, "Wait a minute, Tom, I think I'll go over to the chapel with you."
"What!" incredulously stammered Tom. I said, wait a second and I'll be with you."

"You don't mean that you are going to make the retreat tured Tom. Why not ?" chuckled Joe, enjoying his friend's discomfort.

"Well then, hurry up or else we'll be late," was the response of the still "doubting Thomas." Thus it happened that the two inseparables attended every exercise of the retreat, much to the inward delight and pleasure of Ryan who was so elated over the prospects of converting his friend Joe. This incident led to many animated discussions, concerning the doctrines and practises of the Catholic Church, but this religious poetic and legendary treasures that are stored up in the memory of his childhood's friend.

Tom determined to become another Church, and soon the weary soul St. Paul by praying for his friend's of this suffering derelict winged its conversion, but Joe's mind became flight to heave. St. Paul by praying for his friend conversion, but Joe's mind became more and more obscured in spiritual moments in silent prayer the priest arose and addressed the doctor. darkness and doubt. How Tom Ryan prayed; how he longed that his bosom friend would see the true Light and follow it; but, no, the of seeing his prayer answered on commencement day was but one of the many disappoint-ments which he had experienced oncerning his most intimate friend. departure from college and the separation from Joe Winter are thoughts too sacred for words Five years have now flown over cheering himself on with meek and heroic maxims. He has so far ables, for the fifth time commencement day at their alma mater has come and gone with the usual ceremonies of convocation and class

Tom Ryan is now ordained and kindly remembered his college chum; during his seminary days in his prayers and now in the college chum; during his seminary days in his prayers and now in the college chum; during his seminary days in his prayers and now in the college chum; during his seminary days in his prayers and now in the college chum; during his college chum; during hi

Dr. Joseph Winter is now a sucsparkling-eyed student of a years ago is now a religious indiffer-

Although constant contact with many of his kind has strengthened him in his absurd folly, yet some-how he has at times felt that he was not in the "right atmosphere." and heroine on a summer evening And though wealthy he was for some reason unhappy.

Early one beautiful May morning

this opportunity to indulge in the beautiful scenery of the surround-ing country. While slowly riding along his mind occupied with thoughts of college days, his attenhand is in his; her eyes are run hand is in his; her eyes are run hand is in his; her eyes are run hand is in his; her eyes are run looking object by the roaught.

Ever alert to matters concerning his profession he quickly alighted and approached, and to his surprise found that the object of his solicities. present at the reading, the choirs of found that the object of his solici-angels that have witnessed this new tude was an unfortunate tramp. utterance of a strong man's soul. The flushed face and agonising "Let them be the judges," is the groans of the derelict soon convinced the doctor that this was no usual case and upon further examination was found that this outcast of A cloud of sea-birds rises from society was suffering from a severe case of the dreaded diocese, smallpox. He gave the poor sufferer what medical assistance he render, but he knew that death was He was about to leave for a nearby farm house in order to telephone the case to the proper authorities, when glancing at the tramp, he noticed that he was desperately trying to speak. The > faintly whispered word, What," he said straightening up and studying the creature before him, "are you a Catholic?"

> A light nod and a mute appeal doctor hastily bent over and caught from pleading eyes were the only answer. "A Catholic and he wants a priest." mused the doctor, but he on aroused himself to a sense of his duty and was soon driving attended recently, and although I rapidly for aid. "Should he try to get a priest? Should he endanger the life of the venerable old priest of Sheffield for the sake of this dying outcast"—these were of this dying outcast "—these were grateful for all the assistance you some of the questions occupying his mind. He would like to have forhe could not banish from his mind the pleading look of the dying man. Arrived at the cottage, his knock was answered and he was ushered into the hall. "Have a chair into the hall. "Have a chair doctor, and I'll"—

"Not now," he answered, "I have important business to attend to, and would like to use your 'phone,' The authorities having been notified, Dr. Winter was about to eave, when much to his surprise, he saw the venerable pastor of Sheffield enter the hall, and heard a few disconnected parting 'The danger is past.

I cannot administer the Sacrament because there is no imminent danger of death. I think he will

Yes, the son of the house would ecover, for all danger was passed Dr. Winter, amazed at finding a priest so near, forgetting his own religious indifference, and influenced perhaps by the peculiar position in which he was placed by mere chance could no longer resist the appealing eyes of the dying tramp.

"Kindly excuse my haste," looking at the man of the house,
"will you please step outside a moment Father?"
"With the greatest of pleasure,

sir; I am at your sorvice."
When outside the doctor briefly explained the case, ending with: "Now remember, Father, you are taking your life in your own hands, for it is an aggravated case of malignant smallpox, over which we doctors have no control."

"Never mind further explana-tions, this is a most urgent case," was the interruption, "and I must go at once; make no delay, doctor, or perchance it will be too late."

Soon the doctor, his mind filled with alternating thoughts of respect and doubt, and the priest, his heart burning with the zeal of an apostle, were driving rapidly away. Arrived at their destination, the priest hurriedly bent over the prostrate hurriedly bent over the prostrate zeal was only ephemeral. The all-absorbing baseball season soon came and upon its arrival, vivacious Joe with the assistance of the now school of their disciples dwelt there with the assistance of the now thoroughly amazed doctor, admin-

"I saw you in the cathedral; and you passed me in the cloisters a little time ago." than ever in drawing forth the poetic and legendary treasures that are stored up in the memory of his st. Paul by praying for his friend's of this suffering derelict winged its

"Doctor, today you have truly played the role of the good Samar itan, and more, you have been instrumental in saving a soul. Let us hope that God, Who is ever generous in rewarding the giver of a cup of cold water to the weary, will not let this kindly act of your go unrewarded. Verily God is good, God is good!"

"Indeed, Father, yours was the heroic act, for you have exposed yourself to the danger of losing your very life to save the soul, as you say, of a worthless creature."

"My act was only the external fulfilment of my duty as a priest, for when the welfare of one of the children of our Holy Mother the faithfully fulfilling duties of his high calling as curate in the prosperous City of Wallingford, and danger of death to bring to it salvasake of saving a soul brave even the danger of death to bring to it salvain his prayers and now in the Holy tiously, and then with a deferential "good-by" Dr. Winter drove away. His heart now was beating with an cessful practitioner in the young hitherto unexperienced emotion and yet thriving town of Sheffield. The in his mind a veritable tempest between his conscience and doubt was spending itself. that made him feel as if he were fleeing from some pursuing phantom. what was it that had foundly impressed him so forcibly since the event just narrated? with searching curiosity of a mino hungering for truth, he recalled again and again the haunting scene of the dying tramp.

"What happiness! What resign nation had not beamed in that weather-beaten face on the arrival of the priest, what a supernatural look had not shot forth from those appealing eyes! And what could have been the source of the mystical qualities at such an awful the hour of death? Sudder Suddenly as if by magic like a flash, the answer came—"The Sacraments. These were the soothing anodyne, panacea which made death so easy for Catholics, which had made the outcast so happy, yes and the cere-monies of the Sacrament and the self-sacrificing priest!" Thus so-liloquized the doctor. "Truly there must be something in a religion which possesses such Sacraments and is governed by such holy and self-sacrificing priests or else I'm losing my mind."

Two weeks later Dr. Winter was called to attend the pastor of Sheffield and upon entering the sick chamber, found the venerable priest in intense pain. "What can be the in intense pain. matter," he questioned, suspecting the dreaded truth.

"Yesterday afternoon," ex-plained the priest, "I felt rather indisposed; thinking that this was caused by overwork I retired early but today I am feeling very ilk. After a brief examination the doctor queried, "I can be frank with you, Father?"

Yes, doctor, but I suppose there is nothing serious about my case"
"It pains me to tell you, but you have contracted smallpox, presumably from that tramp whom of his duty and was soon driving attended recently, and although I can render, and if I must die God's will be done. Since my seminary gotten the request of the tramp, but somehow or other it seemed that that I might never fail in the fulfilment of my sacred duty, and seems that God has granted prayer. Surely the finger of God is here: and some day perhaps you will be rewarded by Him for being the instrument by which I was enabled to fulfil my last duty

The end came on the third day. and in the course of time a successo to the martyr to duty was appointed in the person of the Rev. Thomas Ryan.

The college chums again are inseparables and one as a Catholic priest discharges his duties as physician of the souls to his flock. while the other as a Catholic doctor is the healer of their physical maladies.—The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

(JULY 16)

Like a rose of snowy whiteness in the midst of crimson sisters, the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel shines in the centre of the month of the Precious Blood. Blood has its red and white corpuscles. Hence it is most appropriate that the purity of Mary should blend with the love of Jesus, and that in the month on which the Church especially honours His adorable Blood she should be remembered from whose veins that Blood was drawn.

Her memory has been, according to tradition from the earliest days of the Christian era attracted to the beautiful mount overlooking the Mediterranean known as Carmel. "Carmel's flowery top was a favorite image for exqui beauty and fragrance with Old Testament writers. It was one of the most sacred of the sacred spots of the Holy Land, particularly on

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS

MURPHY & GUNN BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES

Solicitors for The Home Bank of Canada Solicitors for the Roman Catholic Suite 53, Bank of Toronto Chamber

LONDON, CANADA Phone 176 FOY, KNOX & MONAHAN

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, Etc Cable Address : "Foy" Telephones { Main 461 Main 462

DAY, FERGUSON & CO.

James E. Day
John M. Ferguson
Joseph P. Walsh

26 Adelaide St. West
TORONTO, CANADA

Offices: Continental Life Building CORNER BAY AND RICHMOND STR ETS

TORONTO

LUNNEY & LANNAN BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES

Harry W. Lunney, B.A., B.C.L., Alphonsus Lannan, LL. B. CALGARY, ALBERTA JOHN H. McELDERRY

BARRISTER. SOLICITOR NOTARY PUBLIC CONVEYANCER

y to Loan Telephone 108% HERALD BLDG. ROOM 24 GUELPH, ONT.

ARCHITECTS

WATT & BLACKWELL ARCHITECTS Sixth Floor, Bank of Toronto Chambers

LONDON ONT.

Members Ontario Association of Architects MILLSON & BURGESS REGISTERED ARCHITECTS

209 Sparks St OTTAWA, ONT. cialists in Ecclesiastical and Institu

DENTISTS

DR. BRUCE E. EAID Room 5, Dominion Bank Chambers Richmond and Dundas Sts. Phone 568

EDUCATIONAL Westervell School

Corner of Richmond and Fullarton Sto St. Jerome's College

Founded 1864 KITCHENER, ONT.

REV. W. A. BENINGER, C. R., Presiden FUNERAL DIRECTORS

John Ferguson & Sons 180 KING ST. The Leading Undertakers & Embalma Open Night and Day

Telephone - House 373 Factory 548 E. C. Killingsworth

FUNERAL DIRECTOR Open Day and Night 389 Burwell St. Phone 3971

87 YONGE ST. TORONTO PHONE MAIN 4030

Hennessey nething More Than a Drug Store"

CUT FLOWERS PERFUMES CANDIES Order by Phone - we deliver

GORDOM MILLE Habit Materials and Veilings SPECIALLY PRODUCED FOR THE USE OF

RE_ TIOUS COMMUNITIES BLACK, WHITE, AND COLOURED

SERGES and CLOTHS, VEILINGS CASHMERES, ETC. Stocked in a large variety of widths and quali-

LOUIS SANDY

Gordon Mills, STAFFORD, ENGLARD

- Luisandi, Stafford. Phone No. 10

Monuments Distinctive Designs J. P. LAURIN 95 George St. Ottawa

Write for Catalogue

Every 10c Packet of

WILSON'S

WILL KILL MORE FLIES THAN $800 WORTH OF ANY

STICKY FLY CATCHER

Clean to handle. Sold by all

Druggists, Grocers and

General Stores

resolves not to read news of this will power. It will be like a temp-tation resisted that gives strength

Christian ethics do not admit of hearing bad stories, nor do they allow the reading of them. To look at bad pictures is sinful even when they appear in the papers. To gloat over the dragging of names of God's creatures through the mire of scandal is a sin whether it comes from word of mouth or from the

Everything we see in the papers is not true, nor pure, nor readable. Let us get that into our minds, and resolve to exercise the same tone of the whole community.-The

THE ROSARY AND MEN

During the stirring days of the War the professional patriots prophesied that many good things would be effected by it. They told us that t would make men better, stronger.

They told us that it would give us a more unselfish outlook upon life. They told us that it would weld the human race together into solidar-ity. This is not the place to say whether these prophecies have been

One thing, however, the War has accomplished, and that is a deepening of love amongst men for the Rosary beads. In the feminine days that preceded the War only something fit enough for women and children, but just a trifle exaggerated and pietistic for men. However, out in the trenches, in the them spiritually in touch with the loved ones at home, but established

Heaven. It is proverbial that practically all of our Catholic soldiers many a regiment going into action saw vast numbers of the men with the Rosary beads slung over their arms or hung around their necks. And today at Lourdes there is a touching mountain made up of the Rosary beads which the boys at the front made for themselves out of twigs, bullets, pieces of shrapnel, and such other objects as they could lay hands on. If, then, the War did nothing else than make our men realize, through the bitter schooling of suffering, that there is nothing like a love for the Mother of God to cheer and bear up the human heart, the struggle was not entirely in vain. Those who have much dealing with men declare that since the War more rosaries are carried by the male contingent of our Catholic population than ever before. It is a hopeful and healthy sign of a deeper piety.

In the solution of the great problems of reconstruction the Rosary saw ravaging society are still doing

the good Mother in

also a living contact between the selves and the good Mother printed page.

'Skip the scandals" was the

Summer Camp

For Catholic Boys

Under Personal Direction of the Christian Brothers,

Lake Simcoe Beach, Ont.

Swimming, Boating

Fishing Hiking

An ideal place for your boy. For fur-ther particulars, address:

REV. BROTHER ALFRED

ST. JOSEPH'S HOME

of the SACRED HEART

Hospice for Ladies
Old Gentlemen and Couples

The institution is situated in the nicest part of the City of St. Catharines, Ont. Chapel in the Home, every day Holy Mass. Moderate Torms.

Mother Superier, 78 Yate St. St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada in charge of the Carmelite Sisters. D. C. J.

F. E. LUKE

OPTOMETRIST

AND OPTICIAN

167 YONGE ST. TORONTO

Eyes Examined and Glass Eyes Fitted

Cords

THE TIRE SENSATION OF 1921 WILL BE YOUR CHOICE FOR 1922

The Cross-Bearers

Of The Saguenay

By Very Rev. W. R. Harris,

Toronto, Ont.

575 Jarvis Street

ious communities of post-Christian

Because of Old Testament allusions, Mt. Carmel was by the earliest Christian writers used as an image of the Blessed Virgin and the place came to be associated with her. Indeed, according to some accounts, this association began during her life here on earth during her life here on earth. Whatever may be thought of such accounts, we have indubitable evidence of the existence from the twelfth century on Mt. Carm an organized community of the Order which bears that name today. And the scapular which is associ ated with the same Order, and which has done so much to cultivate devotion to Our Lady, dates back to the beginning of the thirteenth cen-tury of our era. The worth of that badge of consecration to the Mother of our Redeemer, has been empha sized by the many favours the Church has attached to the devout wearing thereof and has become so general that during the late War the finding of it on a wounded soldier was an immediate call for the ministrations of a priest. May this practical testimony to devotion to Mary grow and continue to bring as it has for so many ages her special protection in life and death.

—The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacra-

A GLORIOUS RECORD

When His Holiness Pope Pius XI. opened the Twenty-Sixth Inter-national Eucharistic Congress in Rome a few weeks ago, he expressed abiding faith and firm confidence in its complete success. In a letter to of the Cardinal Vicar after the close of the Congress the Holy Father declares that that hope has been realized in a way that fills his soul with holy joy. The whole world followed the proceedings of the Congress with keen interest and ever increasing constitution as incident ever increasing emotion, as incident after incident revealed clearly and more clearly to them that this guests. year's Eucharistic Congress was a Of a tremendous tribute to the Prisoner of Love in the Tabernacle.

From the words of the Holy Father we learn how complete and satisfying the triumph has been. "We have seen with special pleasure," says His Holiness, " not only the piety and zeal, but the enthusiasm too, with which the faithful have desired to show their filial affection towards their dear Lord Jesus Christ, Offering of peace and love, and to honor the Prisoner of the Divine Tabernacles with religious manifestations worthy the city which is the centre of the Catholic world and the seat of the Vicar of Christ."

What particular manifestations to single out as the outstanding features of the Congress has been a difficult task for correspondents. All agree that the Great Procession and Te Deum was the most wonderful event of the whole Congress. As the Holy Father said of it, "the truly memorable and glorious of the most glorious pages in the story of Christian Rome."

If the Great Procession was the line wonderful variety. Seventy different species of birds, seven hundred different species of plants ancient pagan Christian Rome reddened with the blood of so many Christian martyrs, and the scene of imperial triumphs, was changed for the day into a vast temple of the Holy Eucharist. Priests innumerable celebrated Masses and carried Holy Commun-ion to thousands on the floor space and to every corner of the old ruin. Fifteen thousand souls, of whom thousand were children, ved Him that morning. received Mothers and fathers, with the tradition of faith and beautiful simplicity of the Italian parent, lifted their tiny children to their shoulders "per vedere Gesu," at the Elevation, that they might see their Lord and their God. shoulders

With a swell of jubilation surging in their hearts the vast concourse of people from every nation and tongue that had gathered to view this most impressive of page-ants and most holy of ceremonies returned with the Holy Father's prayer in their minds, a prayer that we shall all do well to utter frequently in these tempestuous days when salvation and place must come if they come at all through the power of Christ in the Eucharist. "And now," concluded the Holy Father in his letter to his Cardinal Vicar, "that the Catholics of all the world in this centre of Christianity, have consecrated their hearts to Christ Lesus. Victim of love for to Christ Jesus, Victim of love for humanity. We shall continue to pray that these treasures of Eternal life may never be coatten life may never be scattered, gathered as they have been in these days of joy and propitiation at the tomb of the Apostles, in the arenas where the martyrs shed their blood, where the martyrs shed their blood, arity with divorce proceedings, in the glorious basilicas of Rome, in shocking criminal details, and the mystic recesses of the cata- murder stories. combs; rather may they form the initiation full of promise, of the second series of Eucharistic Consecuence with the convention passed a resolution expressing "unqualified disapproval" combs; rather may they form the initiation full of promise, of the second series of Eucharistic Conservation passed a resolution gresses. May it please the Lord, the Prince of Peace, to extend His kingdom over every branch of human society, that the minds of all men may be brought together in the brotherhood of faith and love, and over the land but lately drowned in blood and tears the dawn of peace may arise, from the mystic ark of the holy tabernacles the dove with olive branch may wing its flight through the skies.—The Pilot.

JASPER PARK LODGE

AN IDEAL STOP-OFF POINT

With the advent of reduced fares to Alberta and British Columbia points, many who have long anticipated seeing the Canadian Rockies and Pacific Coast will make the journey this year. To them, and to the individual travelling "Across Canada" for purely busines reasons, the "National Way" an the Canadian National Railways' premier trains, "Continental Lim-ited" and the "National" appeal most strongly, the route connecting most strongly, the route connecting as it does the great urban centres of Canada, and traversing regions of outstanding interest. The various Canadian National hostelries en route suggest excellent stop-off points and are noted for the excellence of their service. To their number is added this year Jasper Park Lodge on Lac Beauvert. Park Lodge on Lac Beauvert.

Jasper Park, Alberta, in the Canadian Rockies is the largest of Canada's National Parks, its area of 4,400 square miles offering unlimited holiday possibilities to the Tourist and the Sportsman. Dolley Varden trout lurk in the clear pure mountain streams. Beautiful transparent lakes mirror the creating and transparent lakes mirror make us unhappy and morbid; and the encircling mountains, and a new unspoiled Alpine wonderland of snow-crowned peaks and verdant valleys gladdens the eye. In this delightful setting on Lac Beauvert, three miles from Jasper Station (with which it is connected by motor car service, is Jasper Park Lodge, operated by the Canadian National Railways' Hotels Department, and now open for the reception of

Of artistic log construction, the Lodge comprises a large, comfortable Lounge building, surrounded by Dining Hall and separate Sleeping buildings, each containing sitting-room and four bed-rooms, electric lighted, with all modern conveniences, running water in each room. baths, etc. In conjunction with the Lodge is a Dancing Pavilion where good music assures to the guests delightful evening diversion.

From the Lodge a magnificent panorama greets the eye. Mount Edith Cavel, so called in memory of the martyred British Red Cross Nurse, stands out in bold relief, its glinting slopes making it to appear as "a sheet suspended from the heavens." The picturesque valley of the Athabaska is flanked by Pyramid Mountain, the richness of its varied color effects presenting a very striking contrast. Whistlers Mountain, Colon Range, Roche Bonhomme, are but a few of the mighty peaks that meet the gaze. Riding is, of course the popular culmination of the Congress was yesterday, when the City of the Popes and Martyrs celebrated the apotheosis of the Holy Eucharist, carried in triumph through the streets decorated for a great factivel in the midst of inverse. festival, in the midst of innumerable multitudes whose applause was the outcome of heartfelt religious exultation. It is an event of world-wide grandeur and event of significance, such as to remain one Animal, bird and plant life is found most wonderful scene, the cere- and flowers have been accounted mony at the Coliseum was the most for, and within the confines of the beautifully impressive. The historic Park (which is a bird and game preserve) are big horn mountain sheep and goat: bear, cinnamon, brown and black; caribou and moose, elk, beaver, otter, marten and deer. For those more venturesome, who would explore the more difficult and extended trails, guides, ponies, pack-horses and complete outfits can be obtained at the Lodge, from which point also parties set out on hunting expeditions beyond the confines of the Park.

This delightful region is fully described in a new booklet entitled "Jasper Park Lodge," copies of which may be obtained from the nearest Canadian National or Grand Trunk Agent.

THE PRINTED PAGE

Recently the statement was made that most people read the scandals in the papers and merely scan the important news items. Perhaps this statement is too sweeping. The author might have contented himself with saying that too many people skip the news and devour the

Some reformers go so far as to advise the appointment of a high commissioner of literature to purge our reading matter from abuses somewhat after the method in which Will Hays is cleaning up the movies, or Judge Landis is renovating base-ball. But reform of what people read will come more effectively from the action of the readers themselves. The people themselves will have to undergo a rigorous disci-pline, in controlling their appetite whetted by so many years of familipart in healing the social sores from which post-bellum society is suffer-ing.—Rosary Magazine.

POPE PIUS AND THE GENOA CONFERENCE

The Genoa Conference probably raised more hopes than it could reasonably fulfil. Whether success or failure must be written over it, remains for the future to determine. But one bright page at least was written into the records of the Conference by the attitude and action of His Holiness Pope Pius XI. Before the Conference had assembled the Holy Fether heiled. assembled the Holy Father hailed it as a harbinger of peace and understanding and took his rightful stand as the champion of charity will never be effective until every reader carries the suggestion into his or her own life, and really and elementary human right.

Pope Pius pointed out a fact that some had been inclined to depreciate, namely that this was the first time since the War that representatives of the victorious and vanquished advice given in a Catholic paper not long ago. Such a resolution will be an excellent exercise in cultivating peoples sat down together to con-sult for the common good, and that therefore the Conference marked a step forward towards the realizato resist more serious temptations. What good is gained by devouring such scandal? The satisfaction of a vulgar curiosity, leaves one not better but is a serious temptation. tion of the cherished desire of European understanding and peace. But the Holy Father took care to insist that in the amicable discusbetter but worse than before. Such stories do not add to our sion of present conditions mutual confidence and friendship were better guarantees of peace than a forest of bayonets and that the help of Almighty God besought through the fervent prayers of His people was a mightier force than any that make us unhappy and morbid; and tend to loosen the restraints that keep us from falling into the same statesmen and cabinets

In the name of the universal mission of charity entrusted to him by the Divine Redeemer of mankind, His Holiness pleaded not for Bolshevist Russia but for its famishing people. He requested that in any settlement of the Russian problem three explicit clauses should be inserted into the articles of agree ment, one to guarantee full liberty of conscience to all Russians and foreigners in Russia, another to provide for the private and public exercise of religion and worship, and a third to ensure the security for or restoration of the for or restoration of the property belonging to religious bodies.

restraint in reading that we do in speaking and hearing. This will go farther to uplift the standards of the press than resolutions and Such action was needed in view of the reports of the despoiling of Church property in Russia, the imprisonment of its clergy and the censors, and will elevate the moral barriers that were being raised against the free exercise of religion

y the Russian people. No one willever beable to estimate the power for good exercised by the Holy Father over the deliberations of the Genoa Conference. His imploring words to the delegates to "unite in a Christian spirit and mutual good will" for "the great and lasting benefit" of nations and peoples, his insistence that justice peoples, his insistence that justice should not be separated from charity, and his fatherly appeal for the poor suffering people of Russia with their War troubles aggravated by famine and disease raised the Conference above the plane of mere human expediency to the plane of broad statesmanship and Christian charity. "When the full story of charity. "When the full story of the Conference comes to be told," says the London Tablet, "the action and attitude of Pope Pius XI., will provide not the least bright page in the record."—The Pilot. really pious men carried their beads about with them. The general run of men looked upon the Rosary as long watches of the night, or in the cantonments, after the day's hard By Right Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, D. D. (Rector of Catholic University of America) work, men learned to love the Rosary beads that not only kept

WORK ON NATIONAL SHRINE BEGUN

Washington, D. C., June 16.—The countless lovers of Our Blessed Mother will rejoice to know that the long-awaited work of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at Washington has begun. On May 31, the Feast of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, the contract for carried their beads with them.

Many a boy "going West" asked as a last favor of his pals that they bury him with the beads. And the construction of the Crypt or basement, was awarded by building committee of the National Shrine to the Charles J. Cassidy Company of Washington, the lowest of ten bidders. The workmen and materials are being rapidly assem-

The corner-stone of the National Shrine was laid September 28, 1920, by Cardinal Gibbons, before an audience of ten thousand, and in the presence of Cardinal O'Connell, of the Apostolic Delegate, seventy bishops, and several hundred priests. The Archbishop of Philadelphia, now Cardinal Dougherty, gave Solemn Benediction on the occasion. The ambassadors of Spain, France, Italy, England and other countries were present, besides representatives of President Wilson, the Supreme Court, and the Army and Navy. Altogether, it was the greatest public honor ever paid in our country to Mary Immaculate, and a good omen of the happy completion of her glorious monu-has an important part to play, if we may believe the words of Pope Leo XIII., who in 1885 addressed an encyclical letter to the world on "The Rosary and the Social Question." The evils which he then saw rayaging society are still deing It is hoped that the Crypt can be opened for worship in two years. It is about two hundred feet long, and occupied all the space beneath The transept measures one hundred and sixty feet. The height of the Crypt is nearly twenty-five feet. From these figures it can be seen that the Crypt is in itself a very large and impressive edifice. It will hold shout eighteen by added saw ravaging society are still doing their deadly work—namely, forget-fulness of God, selfishness, and unwillingness to suffer. If in the mind of that great Pontiff the Rosary better than any other form of prayer counteracted the evils of his day, then surely in our day it will not be one whit less potent. will hold about eighteen hundred people, and will be none too large for the demands that will be at once

The lighter the meal the more you need Bouril

will be the gift of the Marys of the New World, and when completed will be one of the loveliest tributes of the grateful American Catholic heart to the Mother of Our Re-deemer, combining all that piety and art can suggest in honor of her who made famous the name of Mary through time and eternity.

The five chapels that close the apse, will be dedicated to the Sacred Heart, Saint Joseph, Saint John the Evangelist, Saint Anne, and Saint Elizabeth, the dearest friends on earth of Our Blessed Mother. Of the two other groups of chapels one will be in honor of Saint Agnes Saint Agatha, Saint Cecilia, Saint Lucy, and Saint Anastasia, and the other in honor of Saint Margaret, Saint Barbara, Saint Catherine, Saint Barbara, Saint Catherine, Saint Dorothy, and Saints Perpetua and Felicitas. All of these holy women were martyrs of Christ, and most of them are commemorated daily in the Canon of the Mass. They will form like a perpetual guard of honor about the Queen of Martyrs.

The plans of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception are now complete, and if all the means were at hand, the noble edifice, one of the world's great churches, could go up at once, and our debt of honor to Mary Immaculate could be discharged by the generation which saw the beginnings of her glorious monument by the stately Potomac.

A man who has never had religion before, no more grows religious when he is sick than a man who has never learned figures can count when he has need of calculation.—

Opportunities come to all-come continually on all the common days, and come oft-times in the simplest common things. The trouble with too many of us is that we do not improve them, do not seize them.

Mentholatum

Appetite Good,

Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man and happiness.

He tells his own story in this

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts, Loverna, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, become very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being estored by Dr. Chase's Medicines and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

Newfoundland Representative: Gerald S. Doyle, St. John's

St. Joseph's Academy North Bay, Ont.

Fully Equipped High School and Commercial School.

Prospectus on Application.

Gained 20 lbs.

was restored to health, strength

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c box; Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd.,

Residential and Day School for Young Ladies and Little Girls

Art and Music

D.D., LL.D., Litt. D. Author of "Pioneers of the Cross," "Days and Nights in the Tropics," "By Path and Trall." Nov. 18, 1920 READERS of Parkman's vivid pages know something of the heroic labors of the early Roman Catholic Missionaries among the Indian savages of Canada. In the book before us, as in several previous works, Dr. Harris continues the study of that fascinating story. The present colume tells particularly of the work carried in among the Algonquins of the Saguenay egion. Here the name of the heroic Jesuit, and Le Jeune, shines out resplendent. His ardships and suffering as he shared the cold disqualor of the Montagnais lodges and followed the wanderings of the Indians the Price 75c. Post Paid

The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA OR

CLOKE & SON 16 West King St. Hamilton, Ont.

The Story of the Irish Race

By Seumas MacManus

720 Large Pages, Beautifully Bound in Karatol and Gold

This is the story of the Irish race from the very earliest period down to today. Writtan in what one critic calls "Seumas MacManus" own swinging, singing style," it reads like a novel, it is filled with the romance, the tragedy, the poetry, and the pathos of Erin's story—the most wonderful story the world ever knew. Any man who would pride himself on being posted about Ireland cannot afford to be without this handsome volume.

GEO. GORDON BATTLE, ordering twenty copies of the book for his friends, writes, "I wish every American would read this delightful book and learn Ireland's wonderful story. It is a contribution of permanent value to historical lore."

RT. REV. MONS. CONNOLLY, New York, writes, "I only took up this book to glance as it, but could not lay it down again. It is fascinating. I am enclosing $100 for copies."

FRANK P. WALSH: "I am simply charmed with this book. It is the most readable, concise and beautiful work that has yet been done—a most aplendid contribution to the Cause."

REV. DR. GEARY, Catholic University: "It

Cause."

REV. DR. GEARY, Catholic University: "In its a work of which every man who belongs to the proud." is a work of which every man who belongs to the Irish race may well be proud."
RT. REV. MONS. KEANE, of Pittsburgh:
"During the past fifty or sixty years, since I was a boy, herding the cows on the green hille of dear Tyrone, I have read almost every work in English by both friend and foe, about the land of my birth, but after all these years, I must candidly confess I never met a work that pleased me as much as this one. Children, yet unborn, will bless Seumas MacManus fer his beautiful work."

pleased me as madd a ret unborn, will bless Seumas MacManus fer its beautiful work."

MAJOR EUGENE F. KINKEAD: "I am positively delighted with it. Its receipt made memorable for me Thanksgiving Day, 1921."

RT. REV. BISHOP HICKEY. Providence: "It has refreshed and enlightened me. It is a valuable contribution to the literature en Ireland."

HIE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT: "Seuman MACManus keeps as closely as possible to ad-mitted facts. He adds to his laurels with this book."

GAELIC AMERICAN: "This book should be in the home of every irish family."

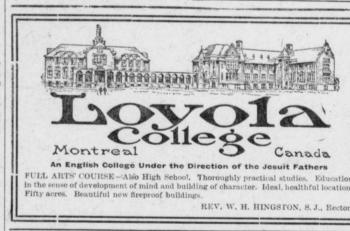

FITTSBURGH LEADER: "Singularly unbiased and absorbing. Here is history written by a poet, and romance written by an historian." istorian."

AMERICA: "A splendid book which should nd its way into every Irish home—and every

and its way into every Irish nome—and every other home as well."

THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC NEWS SEELVICE: "Here are dash, brilliancy, humor, generosity, romance. Across the pages stalle warriors and saints, poets and patriots. And shining through every chapter is the indomitable spirit of the race. To thousands ed Americans this book will be a revelation."

Price $6. Postpaid The Catholic Record LONDON, ONT.

The Catholic Record

Price of subscription—$2.00 per annum.
United States and Europe—$2.50.
Pablisher & Proprietor, Thomas Coffey, LL. D.

Editors { Rev. James T. Foley, B. A., D. D. Thomas Coffey, LL. D. Associate Editor - H. F. Mackintosh.

Manager — Robert M. Burns.
Address business letters to the Manager.
Classified Advertising 15 cents per line, emittance must accompany the order,
bere Catholic Record Box address is required ind 10 cents to prepay expense of postage con replies. Obituary and marriage notices cannot be serted except in the usual condensed form. ach insertion 50 cents.

The Catholic Record has been approved and recommended by Archbishops Falconic and Sbaretti, late Apostolic Delegates to Canada, the Archbishops of Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa, and St. Boniface, the Bishops of London, Hamilton, Peterborough and Ogdensburg. N. Y., and the clergy throughout the Dominion.

In Montreal single copies may be purchased m J. Milloy, 241 St. Catherine St. West.

In Ottawa, Ont., single copies may be pur-based from J. W. O'Brien, 141 Nicholas St.

ie Record:
ral Agents-M. J. Hagarty, Stephen V.
George J. Quigley, Resident Agentsride S aunders, Sydney; E. R. Costello, nder S. West, Vancouver, B. C.; H. serlin, "tawa West; Mrs. Geo. E.
2253 Mance S., Montreal; Mrs.
d McPike, 224 Martin Ave., Elmwood, peg, Man, John P. O'Farrell, 98
sen St., Quebec City, Miss Margaret E. an, Canora, Sask.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1922

THE OTHER SIDE

For more than a year the people of Ontario have been requested in a variety of ways to give heed to the school rights of the Catholic minority in the matter of taxation. It has to be admitted that the majority has so far refused to listen. Why? There are various reasons. In this article we can only deal with one of

Wars and other evils have in the past resulted from taxation without representation. Today the Catholics of Ontario are suffering from taxation with misrepresentation. Our claims have been deliberately misrepresented, and the general public accepted as true mere statements which are essentially false.

In reporting a speech of H. C. Hocken, M. P., the Toronto Evening Telegram had flaming three-column headlines to the effect that the Catholics sought to divert " millions of dollars of taxes" from the Public schools and thus "destroy efficiency of school system." This misrepresented even the Hocken exaggeration, for he argued that the diversion would amount to about one million. Of course, he had no ground for his guess. It was only a guess, uttered for effect, but he put it forward with the seriousness of a man who assumed to be truthful, and the point is that many believed him. They did not stop to ask themselves the pertinent question: are we really taking a million dollars per year from the Catholics of Ontario to educate Protestant children? This is the conclusion that should have been drawn, for Catholics only claim to be exempted from Public school taxes where they support Separate schools, according An amendment of the Assessment | be devised to prevent future wars. Act to give effect to Section 14 One of the most remarkable essays would give a few hundred thousand dollars to the Separate schools Hugh Cecil, M. P., with the title gifted with the corporate sentiment a state of contradiction. But outthroughout Ontario. The talk of a Nationalism and Catholicism. By million is absurd; but a large part Nationalism he means the attitude of the public swallowed the absurd-fully abstained from suggesting the hate other countries. The word is basis of tax division for incorporated companies. The basis given by this is how he uses it, and we cannot the law as it stands is the religion understand his thesis without bearof the shareholders. This has been found to be unworkable, and in any case it is left to the discretion of each company whether to make any operates potently upon human division or none. Different Provinces have adopted other plans of division, and the Catholic minority tinctive name, they will begin to has felt that in Ontario the Legis- feel a zeal for their body and an lature is the body which should omission has been misrepresented. The public has been told time and all company school taxes and divide falsehood. It never even occurred to any of us that we should get part against the Navy; for their trade belong, in its true proportion, entitled to a duly limited loyalty, of the school taxes paid by companies when all the shareholders various bodies, the nation is the controlled enthusiasm. are non-Catholics. But the public has been untruthfully informed that such was our claim, and a large another in war. "Oxford men do however wisely conceived, representation.

accepted as a final settlement. We minds to such a degree of passion ment to be its inspiration, its soul.

his position has been justified by the justified in killing and mutilating false meaning attached to the word now by many who find a morbid respective nationalities" Act demands or imposes does not taxes imposed for the support of the pipings of diplomacy."

porters as often as a new form of instincts of a citizen as he has Walsh, and during his long and ownership involves the diversion of those of a husband or father, the active career in the priesthood has taxes from Separate school sup- State being no less essential to his had charge of various parishes in porters to other schools. In other existence than the family. But the diocese. The magnificent words, a final settlement does not whence comes the morbid element church properties in Woodstock and mean a dead thing. A school in this divine arrangement? Wallaceburg, consisting of church, system is not a fossil. It grows. "When you pass from the inner convent and school, are a standing And it grows in the midst of deep life of the State to its international memorial to the untiring zeal of the economic changes. The Act of 1863 relations, the sentiment has a new prelate. involved legislative amendments in different ethical character and The Catholic Record joins with the Assessment Act. We do not effect. Why does patriotism de- his many friends in offering conseek to change the Act of 1863, but velop into nationalism? What gratulations to Monsignor Brady misrepresentation. by the daily press to have made this follows: statement:

"Every dollar of school taxes collected from any form of taxable intended to give his highest loyalty property held by Roman Catholics, that can be shown to be held by Roman Catholics, now goes to the Separate schools."

Truth compels us to brand this statement as a deliberate falsehood. No public man can be as dense or as ignorant as one who could make a statement like that in good faith.

We have given only a few samples of the misrepresentations flying about. When, therefore, it is asked why the Catholic minority has failed to make an impression on the general public, part of the answer is found in the campaign of misrepresentation waged against us, while we are debarred by the Ten Commandments from resorting to sim-

NATIONALISM AND

on the subject was written by Lord not always used in this sense; but ing this in mind. Corporate sentiment, or what the French call esprit de corps, together and call them by a disantagonism for every other similar also divides. "Men feel this sentiment for all sorts of bodies and according to population. This is a and nationalities; for the Army as and regiments." Of all these the object of a real but strictly only one for the sake of which men now feel justified in killing one part of the public accepted the mis- not shoot Cambridge men, neither do leagues of peace, however skilfully officers of the Guards officers of the Line; and though the contentions of will be indeed indispensable as an It is commonly supposed that the Line; and though the contentions of Separate School Act of 1863 was faction have sometimes raised men's and futile if it lacks a potent sentiare not concerned to deny at present that crime and bloodshed have Only if it is felt to be the organ, in one another for the sake of their satisfaction in misrepresenting the | The League of Nations would be a claims of the Catholic minority. restriction of nationalism if it could The British North America Act of be effectually constituted; but can 1867 was a final settlement of it? For multitudes of men nation-Provincial claims and counter alism is the strongest corporate claims in the matter of confedera- sentiment of which they have tion; but the putting of that Act experience. Of all the causes which into effect has called forth a stream | make men cling together as one of legislation in Canada from 1867 | nation, "the strongest is not their to 1922. The legislation which any own mutual affection, but their common fear of some enemy prevent such Act from being a final repulsive to them by reason of a settlement, providing the Legisla- distinction of race or language or ture does not depart from the re- religion or temperament." The quirements of the original Act. seeds of antagonism are inherent in Let us assume that the Act of 1863 nationality. "Even from its cradle was a final settlement. In one par- the sentiment of nationality comticular at least it could only lay bines evil with good, nationalism down what the Legislature of with patriotism, a spirit of emula-Ontario should do from time to tion and self-assertion which time. It provided that the Separate fructifies in war. Nationality has Monsignor Brady accompanied his school supporter "shall be" tremendous power, and we shall Lordship, Bishop Fallon, to Rome to exempted from the payment of scarcely charm it into obedience by attend the Eucharistic Congress.

other schools; but this "shall be" Why do men make almost an idol Holy Father, His Holiness conferred cannot reach assessors and tax of the State? What disposes them upon Father Brady the title of collectors directly. It can only to make supreme sacrifices for it? Monsignor, in recognition of his reach them through the Assessment The obvious answer is that man was long and faithful service in the Act of the Province. "Finality" created a social being, that he is interests of the Church in London in this case means that the Legisla- meant to live in society, that the Diocese. ture is bound to provide for the State is part of the divine purpose, exemption of Separate school sup- and that man has, therefore, the Dec. 8th, 1882, by the late Bishop the Assessment Act. Many oppon- makes the wholesome social instincts and wishing him many years to ents have represented that we and passions of man degenerate so enjoy his new honor. sought a departure from the Act of as to become the parents of all the 1863, and many others accepted the wickedness of war?" It will not suffice to give only a summary of In one of his many speeches on Cecil's answer to these questions. this subject Mr. Hocken is reported He must be quoted in full as "I suggest that the explanation of this problem is that man is and supremest devotion to some-thing greater than the State of which he is a citizen. Just as he loves his country better than his school or his regiment or his trade union, so there is something which he ought to love better than his Nationality is not, or ought not to be, the highest object for the corporate sentiment that is so potent a force. Accordingly, when a man devotes to the nation to which he belongs the very highest and best that he has to give, when it becomes the greatest thing that he knows, the supreme object of his love and sacrifice, there is a perversion. And all through nature perversion is always a deadly danger. It is neither an archaic superstition nor an obsolete doctrine, that idolatry is the first of For it is the perversion of religious instinct, and the religious instinct is the highest and the strongest of human motives. And nationalism may easily be discerned When the Great War ended, good men in every country looked over the world to see what th to Section 14 of the Act of 1863. the world to see what means could transcending human understanding, biguities do not tend to foster the real lure of an antique is the story is the body of Christ Himself. This body is the Catholic Church. It is is impossible to suppose that the that man may play his part as a and its tremendous power. That side the Catholic Church there he may give himself over with all exists only vagueness uncertainty of a patriot to other nations, his soul and all his mind and all his strength to this body and its corpor-The Catholic minority has carePatriotism makes a man love his ate life he is endowed with the country. Nationalism makes a man portentous passion which, perverted, desolates the world. And it is by restoring this passion to its true and natural object that nationalism can be purified and restrained and the League of Nations sustained in its work by sufficient power. If every Christian were filled, as he ought to be, with a true spirit of devotion to the Body of Christ, his feeling for nationality would sink nature. "If you group three men | naturally into its proper place. The element of hatred would drop out of t because that is inconsistent with the higher allegiance. He would no longer feel hostile to other nations; for his love of the whole catholic determine an equitable basis. This body." Organization unites, but body would extinguish all national hatreds and jealousies. All that would be left in his mind would be again that Catholics sought to pool organizations with which they are ditioned at every stage by its higher connected; for their families, clans, devotion to the Church, and seen, like all the other sentiments for all

> 'If, then, humanity is to be rescued from war it cannot be done merely by diplomatic instruments, with something stronger and purer. And this can only be done by turning devotion and enthusiasm from the nation to that universal Christian Society, the Church."

As an Anglican, Lord Hugh Cecil has not the same conception of the Catholic Church that a Catholic has. He is still entangled in the very nationalism which he seeks restrain as far as the constitution of the Church of Christ is concerned, as the rest of his essay reveals; but he conceives clearly and expresses admirably the general conditions of a lasting peace.

RIGHT REV. MONSIGNOR M. J. BRADY

Right Rev. Monsignor M. J. Brady, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, London, Ont., has been signally honored by the Holy Father. During a private audience with the

Monsignor Brady was ordained

REVELATION

The Bible is an inspired book, or rather a collection of books and contains revelations which God made to man for the purpose of making known to him what he must believe and do in order to attain in the sale of their commodities, his eternal salvation. The Bible does not contain the whole revelation which God made to man, but only a part of it. The rest has been handed down to us by tradition.

Man by the light of reason can arrive at the knowledge of God; but it is morally impossible for all men to acquire by reason alone the whole truth about God and the things necessary for salvation. Since God intends that all men should be saved there was need of revelation.

Salvation is the one thing necessary, for which all men must strive. that Henry the Eighth liked. Christ came on earth to teach man how to attain it. His teaching was to show man the truth, to lay down certain definite principles which to be a sort of idolatry. For it is and conduct. These principles in are always read with fascinated order to be effective had to be clear and definite, not vague and indefinite. Uncertainties and amis impossible to suppose that the charm outside of its history. We exists only vagueness, uncertainty and confusion as to what men must heaven. The reason of this is not far to seek. One by one the doctrines which Christ taught have izing modernism has done its work only too well; so well, in fact, that Christianity is merely a name, conveying no meaning.

Revelation is God's truth revealed to man by God. God's truth is unchangeable, for truth is one. What was true twenty centuries ago is true today. Christ founded a Church as it is revealed in the teach the truth.

It would indeed be a blasphemous thought to imagine that the truths foundations can be laid in lies.

Christ's words had a real meaning living facts. The dogmas of religion are not "correct speculation." speculative theories as necessary for salvation. The dogmas of the Church are the principles of religion as God Himself. And unless we we must accept these doctrines States. with absolute certainty as truth, without doubt or fear of error.

ADVERTISING AND FICTION

By THE OBSERVER

The Co-operative System of purchase, sale, and manufacture has no need of the arts of fiction for its business purposes. The present system divides the community on a million dollars. false and uneconomic basis; those who want to sell and those who are prospective buyers. There is not much identity of interest between these classes. We do sometimes hear sellers say that it is their best policy to supply sound and valuable goods; but the general practice is not based on that principle, but on the very different principle of giving the least possible value for the most money that can be got.

an editorial from which I may quote do, costs a dollar to every seventy in illustration of what I have cents spent on all schools, colleges been saying about the methods of advertising:

"Editors and readers are far from being the only people that buy stories. And writers have many rivals in the art of fiction never sold a manuscript for publication. It has seemed to us at times that magazine fiction is in reality merely a very small part of the total story the total story output in

"Clever business people never lose sight of the value of a story for they have found out that customers are more likely to fall for good yarn than the stuff on sale Up-to-date advertisers now rake and scour the fields of history, romance and poetry for glamorous data to go with their product. If they purvey food, you are told of the feasts given by Lucullus or Epicurus and you may be informed how pre historic man came to eat his first oyster. If it is jewels that you are offered by the wily merchants, you are reminded of a famous line of poetry which celebrates the eternal fires of diamond and ruby. If soap is called to your attention, your mind is regaled with an anecdote about the beautiful Cleopatra or maybe the soft and scented lathers stories that have been concocted for patent medicines have perhaps attained the highest degree of artistry and imagination of any effort were to guide men in their belief Patent-medicine labels and circulars interest by a vast majority of the public. Even when they do not which accompanies it? An object of this description may possess no Divine Teacher would leave men in have seen a worn and cracked ment, fetching a dizzy price because Du Barry was its legendary owner

'Of course, stock promoters and sharpers are keenly aware of the believe and do in order to gain importance of story value in their fortune-making projects, and apply the full capacity of their brains in putting together the elements of a plausible and persuasive bit of been rejected, until today revela-tion itself is disbelieved. Rational-certificates. Next to appealing to the cupidity of a prospect, they work on his imagination. Fairy tales have been adopted by business -to a certain extent.

Steer clear of the smooth talker who greets you with a disarming smile and a fragrant cigar and who says he would like to interest you in a little proposition. The chances are that he has only a story to sell you—and nothing else."

Bible; and with that Church He application to the business of selling foundation upon which the fabric promised to be to the end of time. goods would not be a sound prac-He promised that it should be tice, economically; and it is with guided by the Holy Spirit. Surely the economic aspects of this matter if this means anything, it means that I am concerned. But in fact that His people should always be the stories are so often false or very truly observes, "is the sentitaught the truth. We cannot highly colored with fiction, that as ment of the country kept aroused. imagine that He did His divine a method of selling, they take their With everything of this character work so badly that there should be place as part of a widespread torn away, the influence of the fensible as it is injurious.

which all Christians held as But that is not all. This system around them and their associations revealed by God, from the very of deceit is organized; it has its the writers of history and romance dawn of Christianity, should be schools and its literature; its will weave their stories and thereby rejected either as "a beautiful piece teachers and its pupils. Indeed, the keep before us the accomplishments scoundrels." of poetry" as Dr. Hensley Henson whole system of selling goods is of the heroes and heroines who speculation," as Rev. D. H. A. sumers in Canada at all. Farmers Among the newcomers to Canada manufactured goods.

Subscriptions Sales 1880 $ 49,872,768 $ 39,136,306 1890 72,354,087 71,243,361 79,928,488 1909 135,063,043 202,533,245

There is an interesting story. Forty years ago, sales of newspapers up more Canadian soil. They exceeding advertising receipts by created considerable attention in ten million dollars. In 1909, adver- the vicinity of Windsor Station on tising exceeded sales by sixty-seven their arrival in Montreal for all

About one billion dollars is spent thirds of that amount was spent on universities.

great country spends a dollar for this summer to transfer their farmadvertisements to every seventy ing activities to Canadian soil. And cents for education. The "educa- every one is a Mac." Which fact, tion" of consumers to do what having regard to similar arrivals in In a current magazine I notice it will pay the sellers to have them the past, bodes well for Canada. and universities.

There is food for reflection here, is there not? But how does the Co- and purely Canadian periodical, operative System better all that?

same people; and human beings tions to tourists which exist will not spend billions of dollars throughout her length and breadth. to sell themselves goods; especially Last year, he affirms, the total not goods they don't want.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

WHEN THAT happy day comes tranquility, and the arts of peace $18,000,000, for which they received involved in the destruction of the the way of reputation. Four Courts will undoubtedly be regarded as among the greatest penalties Ireland has had to pay for her restored national autonomy, the toll of precious human lives not excepted. To a nation wedded indissolubly to a glorious past, and which has cherished with peculiaraffection the few memorials which centuries of repression and oppression have left to her, the loss of the Four Courts archives takes on the character of a national calamity, which will be increasingly estimated as the years go by.

THIS REFERENCE to Ireland's past be bracketed with the recent treasure hunt" (as the daily CANADA, THEREFORE, without des papers have rather inaptly chris- cending to vulgar schemes of tened it) at Penetanguishene. If "advertising," should awake to her that venture has done no more it possibilities by developing her has at least called public attention inherent powers of attraction. In to the importance of preserving or her glorious scenery, her game and restoring such monuments of Can- fish, added to the ease and luxurada's past as long years of neglect | iance of travelling facilities, lies a have left to her. Than the Huron | magnet asset from which enormouscountry, watered as it has been by revenues may be drawn. Probably the blood of martyrs, there is no no remaining industrial opportunportion of the soil of Canada which ity, concludes the Forestry Journal, has a better right to be regarded as matches the "export of scenery" sacred, and therefore merits more for sane development, not, it may the attention of the authorities. be added, to speak of its possibili-Much precious time has been lost, ties as a solvent of the taxation but sufficient historic remains are problem. still in evidence to warrant immediate action, ere these be completely obliterated. There is no surer way of fostering true national sentiment than by keeping alive the memory of those who by their If the stories were true, their labors or their sufferings laid the of the nation has been reared.

"By remnants of the past such as these," the Collingwood Bulletin no certainty that His Church would system of deceit which is as inde- pioneer would soon be lost. Preensible as it is injurious.

Served carefully, these memoirs of tary of his church and one who in the past will be of very great value, his honored old age had by his not mercenary, but educational, as public utterances shown himself that it was so accepted. Archbishop Lynch refused to use the tword "finality" in this connection, and "finality" in this connection, and Germans do feel "finality" in this connection, and "fi

Major, Principle of Ripon Hall. have begun to organize as con- this spring were a party of thirteen Oxford, stated in the same ancient sumers; but only partially, as yet. stalwarts from the Hebrides which Their principal organization is as arrived at St. John on the Canadian sellers. However, that is itself a Pacific steamer "Tunisian." On and they were meant to reveal good thing and will no doubt lead the vessel being docked, a St. John to the adoption of co-operative buy- reporter seeing a friend aboard ing, not only of a few standard called out to him: "Hullo Mac," The Church has never taught farm supplies, but of all kinds of and every one of the party responded. They all proved to be A book on co-operation gives the Macs, says a writer in the Forestry following figures to show the Journal, three being Macleans, which have been revealed by God to amount of money spent in news- three Macdonalds, two Mackenzies, man. They are the truth as God is paper advertising; and these figures two Mactavishes, a Macpherson, a the truth. They are unchangeable show also the extent to which the Macintyre and a Mackintosh. And advertising side of the press has to accent the Highland and Catholic reject the truth of the existence of come to overshadow the journalistic flavor (for they were piloted by a God and of His revelation to man, side. The figures are for the United priest) at their head was a Father Macdonell.

> "THEY WERE a handsome lot," proceeds the same writer, "all single men, under thirty, strong and healthy and handpicked for their qualities, all bent on tearing are near the six foot mark and some over it and their chests and every year in the United States in shoulders are built in proportion. advertising. In 1913, less than two- Every one is a veteran of the Imperial Army and several wear education, including everything decorations won in the late War. from the elementary schools to the Best of all they are only the forerunners of one hundred and fifty That is a most striking fact. That | Scottish crofters coming to Canada

To REVERT to the more material, a contributor to the same valuable not as well known as it should be, Under the Co-operative System, dilates on the monetary value to the sellers, and the buyers are the Canada of the innumerable attracnumber of visitors to our National Parks was approximately 160,000, about 60,000 of whom were from foreign parts. On a low estimate of expenditure per capita, these which shall see Ireland restored to visitors left in the country over entered upon that era of develop- full return in healthful recreation. ment which, historically and They left our forests and streams temperamentally is the nation's no poorer, and Canada gained the due, the loss of historical documents eighteen million and much more in

> THAT BEING so, why should not Canada with her ideal position and possessions, build up a tourist business worth $100,000,000 a year? France, before the War, we are reminded, had a tourist trade worth to her some $600,000,000 a year, and to rehabilitate this source of wealth has now instituted a special Touring portfolio under the jurisdiction of a Cabinet Minister. Belgium, too, has ambitions in this direction, and is spending 16,000,000 francs to put her roads in shape for visiting motorists.

IRISH PROTESTANT MINISTER DENOUNCES OUTRAGE ON CARDINAL

A Protestant clergyman, Rev. Canon Trotter, County Galway, has written to the Dublin press declaring that:

'There is not a decent Protestant in Ireland whose blood will not boil with the fiercest indignation at the insult, annoyance and sacrilege proffered to Cardinal Logue as detailed by His Eminence in terms of Christian mildness."

"What," he asks, "has Ireland come to, when any clergyman, not to speak of the most exalted dignienemy of none, could have to endure such an experience even for

He feels sure that the Protestant Primate, on behalf of the Protest-ant community, "will express ant community, "will express indignation and abhorrence of the dastardly outrage.'

Second Installment of "Talks to Boys" By the Rev. J. P. Conroy, S. J. ON BAD UMPIRING

BOY LIFE

A heart that goeth two ways shall not have success. -- Ecclesiasticus.

game, and the thing most destruc- less. God and the angels and the tive of real interest, is a bad saints can do nothing for us, beumpire. In football or in baseball cause we put on an innocent face we all know how a bad umpire and assure them that we are really unnerves and discourages the deciding as we see things. And players, disgusts the spectators, after a sufficient number of shady and turns the game from a battle decisions, and after we have thrown into a burlesque. The best laid the game over to sin and grace is plans of mice and men are often lost to us, then we actually try to ruined by the umpire.

Now, if we study this umpire we couldn't help it. question we shall discover that there are three kinds of bad life and we shall see how true it is umpires. There is the stupid that we finally defeat God's grace umpire. He means well, but he by giving the edge, the little dedoesn't know the game, or he can't cisions, to the devil. For example, follow the plays quickly enough; our prayers, morning and evening. or, after he does see the play, he is We used to say them and consider timid about his decision. Then, it a matter of importance. But now when he sees he has bungled they are gone almost altogether. matters, he tries to "even up" on By what process?" By hurry and the next decision, until he has deliberate distraction and by everything in one frenzied mess, cutting down and mumbling; down everything in one frenzied mess, cutting down and mumbling; down the chest and put hook chains to a few idiotic hand movements around it for hoisting to the scene shows that as an umpire he is accompanied by an inarticulate a very good sprinter.

liberately cheats, openly and hor- vanishing off the point. Giving thought he was under great excite- ate Province of their Order ribly. He calls a fair ball a foul; the edge to sin! he shows open prejudices against Where are our old-time weekly -a Nero on the ball-field.

friends, simply because he wishes | yet. them to win. And he manages to multiply and manufacture close have they become steadily of a decisions until his friends finally do deceriorating grade? "Oh I let and we are to a great degree de-But with the last fellow we are the devil gives us a horse-laugh. helpless. We know him to be unwe are only dreaming a dream.

cause we have been in it-not, let too. us hope, as umpires, but at least as the umpired. We know how it independence of, even arrogance daily life correspond with right rotten an umpire as that fellow."

and right through each day, and in to go down. and death much more important strength of our temptations? Beand death much more important than any game of football or base-ball, we are called upon to be umpires. We actually act as umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be than any game of football or base-ball, we are called upon to be umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be upon to be umpires, and we cannot avoid doing upon to be upon to the upon to the teacher that makes the school; but has done a great work in the teacher that makes the school; but has done a great work in the teacher that makes the school; but has done a great work in the tour to the teacher that make the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the tour to the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the tour to the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the tour to the teacher that make the tour to the teacher that make the school; but has done a great work in the tour to the tea umpires, and we cannot avoid doing pleased, go wherever we pleased. lose sight of what is, perhaps, the It is the game, the battle, of saving asked, with a triumphant contempt our soul. And the spectators are of all the insistent warnings of con-God and the angels and saints.

own souls, every day, every hour. it shut up. A dead conscience! A continual contest between good side and sin on the other. And we and making Him reject us.

ing is bad.

grace it ought never win a decision, heart that goeth two ways shall not and that when sin wins every rule have success." of the game of life is broken. If grace were given the proper chance, the chance God wants it to have. it would win against sin every time Nevertheless grace is defeated. Why? Entirely through our de-open cheating in big things. We shall arrive at that stage later.

But we choose little things to start our cheating with. We give the edge to sin. We shade the decisions in sin's favor. We "lean" toward sin, and we do it so cleverly The most irritating thing in any that we render the spectators helpcheat ourselves into believing that

Apply all this to our everyday groan, and we have our prayers Next we have the umpire who de- whittled away to a point, and individuals or against a whole team | Communions? Look over the list of And finally, the umpire with a leaning. He secretly favors one side; at first apparently fair, but on closer inspection found to be on closer inspection for closer inspection f Every close decision goes to his And "next week" hasn't arrived

Then our companions: Why them talk. They can't hurt me. This is the umpire who makes us I'd like to see them get me off the wild. The reason is that he adds track!" That is precisely why they sneaking, hypocrisy, to cheating do get us off the track; because we "like to see them do it." But in fenseless. We may laugh at the the beginning we gave them the At the present day, especially, stupid umpire and remove him; edge. And in the end, after our shake our fist in the cheating once powerful engine has jumped umpire's face and eliminate him. the track and rolled into the ditch, fair, but he manipulates his lights why the "flunks?" Trace them and shadows-especially the shad- back and we shall see they all began ows-so skilfully that we are in little laziness, loppings off of bewildered, baffled, and, even while home study, little evenings out, we are looking on, betrayed. And little postponements, little misunderthe deed is done with such an air of standings the next day at class, baby innocence that, in spite of the little "explanations" at home and flat evidence, we wonder if after all to the professor, until finally we could explain anything and every-We all realize this situation, be- thing. And were explaining them, feels, and we say to ourselves, toward, our parents? Because we "Well, anyway, I would never be as let in the little idea some time back Pope that as we grow large they grow And yet, my dear boys, every day, small, and as we grow up they have

"What is the game?" you ask. "It isn't a mortal sin, is it?" we most serious aspect of the Catholic science. And conscience finally did Where is this battle fought, and what we, in our underhand way, therein of large numbers of our when, and how ? It is fought in our were ordering it to do all the time-

Always giving the edge, we school. and evil goes on within us between finally gave the game to sin. Our efforts along other lines will have the powers of light and the powers of darkness; between grace on one of all hypocritical disgusting God of darkness; between grace on one of all, hypocritical, disgusting God

Sin is the aggressor upon grace in this kind of umpiring, my dear apostleship, solely for the glory of our souls, the intruder breaking boys, if we find ourselves giving the into our house, struggling to little decisions to the devil, and at possess the field of our soul. Now, the same time are making constant in this battle between grace and sin in our soul grace should win always, perfectly just, let us make up our example to him to progress in perfectly just, let us make up our example to him to progress in winter and they have what is all sin always be defeated. Yet it minds to stop it. Be square on this happens, perhaps often, that sin is point, fearless, candid. Decide the the not beaten, but comes out victorious. case as we see it, but be sure to see must ever be the guiding principle And why so? Because-our umpir- it. There is where we lose-we refuse to see the play. After all, Remember, we are the umpires in this affected blindness, this doublethis all-important series of battles. dealing of ours, this sly cheating of We know that sin is an intruder, a God-whom does it hurt in the long We know that sin is an intruder, a God—whom does it hurt in the long sympathetic co-operation on the destroyer, attacking the soul to run? Only ourselves. We can part of all who are interested in wreck it. We know that against never win at this game. For "a long lost treasure lay, put on his diving suit and descended to find surface. When he had been under water for about three minutes the bubbles from his air tube increased ment because his search was over.

> JESUIT 'TREASURE CHEST' MERELY A LARGE ROCK

The supposed Jesuit treasure chest at the bottom of the Wye cision. We umpire between sin and River near Penetanguishene, Ont.,

Rt. Rev. Mgr. M. J. Brady, D. P.

such a dumb idea."

The search for the "golden

chest" was over. AN URGENT NEED

The School Question is always with us. To every Catholic worthy of the name the question of Catholic tion. Catholics cannot be indiffernot in a Catholic school-room today, they will not be in the Cathdepends entirely on the good con-dition and discipline of the schools, and the Christians of the future will school question in our country today ! The building and equip ping of numerous and palatial ol-buildings and the assembling children do not, by any means solve our educational problem. It is the teacher that makes the school. Without teachers, all our ever be religious teachers-men and women who consecrate their whole If we are hovering anywhere near lives to the work in the spirit of an God, the good of souls, and the future of the Church. Their consecrated character gives the child respect for the law of God, their virtue, and they have what is all important for the child to learn, means of showing how religion of all our conduct, no matter under what circumstances we may be

In this matter, our conditions today call for serious thought and the question of Catholic education. There is, at the present time, a most lamentable dearth of religious teachers in Ontario and Western Canada. The supply is tremen-dously below the demand. If such be the case today, what shall we say of the future unless some con certed effort be made to meet the ever-increasing need? Do what we will in a material or financial way, if we have not efficient, qualified, religious teachers, our Catholic suffers from today is the necessity of strong reinforcements for the ranks of the devoted men and women who are wholeheartedly engaged in teaching and training the Catholic boys and girls that fil our parish schools, academies, high schools and colleges. The "nonsectarian" or religionless Public school, as thoughtful men are beginning to realize, is the chief reason why American Protestant churches are so empty today; why there are so few candidates for the ministry; why the families of non-Catholics, as a rule, are very small and why the evil of divorce is constantly growing worse. But, unless we can keep up our Catholic educational system and make the sounding slogan. "Every Catholic child in a Catholic school!" proclaim a practically universal truth, we shall be in little need of churches thirty years from now; there will be so few people to attend them. But the only means we have of maintaining our school system, besides enlisting the generosity of the Faithful, is by the steady growth of the teaching Orders and Congregations. Consequently, we should fervently pray that large numbers of highly gifted youths and maidens will flock to our novitiates this coming month and devote their lives to the sacred cause of Catholic education."

It is precisely in an effort to meet this pressing need for the education of our Catholic boys in Ontario and Western Canada that the Christian with such rapidity that onlookers Brothers have established a separand erected the De La Salle College They were right. The Captain at Aurora to prepare religious male teachers for this vast field of labor. dredge and when his helmet was They aim to bring to our youth in blamed thing is six feet long, and to think we wasted all this time on tions must be found if the work at hand is to be attempted.

"At this particular time when many are trying to decide their future, the cause of Catholic education ought to receive from our young graduates very serious considera-tion. Thousands of souls are awaiting their aid. Others may plant the faith, but training is required that the graces planted in the heart by God may increase and flourish. They ought to recognize that this when all parties are struggling for the possession of the child and, through it, of the future genera-tion may be. It is already clear tion may be. It is already clear that those who devote themselves the devil gives us a horse-laugh.

And when the year's end comes, why the "flunks?" Trace them back and we shall see they all began in little laziness, loppings off of schools in which their beliefs are explained and the practices of their faith taught, in which, in fact, they are brought up in a truly Christian atmosphere, our children will be lost to God and the Church. If they are not in a Catholic ashed room today. dioceses, but the religious teachers | News Service. have the grace and important task olic churches tomorrow. Religious teaching in the schools is, for the greater number, the only means of training to make the conduct of daily life correspond with right belief. Hence it is that the late belief. We arise the conduct of the conduct of teaching and spreading of the belief. We arise the conduct of the conduct of teaching and spreading of the belief. There is one of distinction and the conduct of the conduct of the conduct of the religious training necessary to a complete and well rounded education. Therefore special provision for religious instruction of the conduct of the conduct of the conduct of the conduct of the religious training necessary to a complete and well rounded education. Therefore special provision for religious instruction of the conduct of the c belief. Hence it is that the late Pope Benedict XV. said: "The welfare of Church and State respect to those who are given such for religious instruction of the young people at such institutions is necessary and should be provided can it reach its highest efficiency and urge upon all Catholic mentators to be a direct prophetic among us, unless more of our boys parents and others interested, a reference to the august oblation on say nothing of its super-necessity. And fifty of them.

Yet, what more comforting recol
"The Wesley Foundation and on earth? In what other Church ection at death than that of having sent a boy or girl, carrying the message of salvation to future generations; to recall that we had started a Christian educational series destined, perchance, to roll are many earnest and generous youths who are both willing and anxious to consecrate their lives to God, but are waiting for the encouraging word of parent, priest, or teacher. To such noble-hearted youth the Christian Brothers of Ontario extend a cordial invitation to join their ranks. In their College at Aurora a boy's vocation is well, a thorough religious training. We may well trust that God will supply the vocations; but it is a great part of the parents' duty to co-operate with the call of God, and by their prayers and their suggesns to keep the hearts of their children open to that call.

The need for Christian teachers was never more urgent. the Church in the West religious Very Rev. President of Extension,

NEW EDUCATIONAL PLAN IN ILLINOIS

WILL ENDOW FOUNDATION TO TEACH RELIGION AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Chicago, Illinois, June 2.—The erection of a Catholic College almost upon the campus of a State university and at which students may take courses in religious subjects and secure credit for them on their university course is the educational innovation worked out between the trustees and senate of the University of Illinois on the one hand and Rev. John A. O'Brien, Ph. D., Director of the Catholic Founda-tion at the University of Illinois on the other. This end already has been consummated at the present foundation and is to be expanded and completed by the proposed foundation for which a million dollars is being raised among the Knights of Columbus, the Catholic Knights of America, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the Catholic Order of Foresters, aided by the Catholic Alumni of the by the Ca University. INITIATED BY DR. O'BRIEN

The unique educational plan was initiated by Dr. O'Brien, who is a graduate of the Catholic University Washington and holds his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from the University of Illinois. Under it Catholic students attending the university may elect one or all of three courses at the Catholic Foundation which they may take during ministry. their Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years. These are Fundamental Christian Apologetics, the Moral Teachings of Religion, and the History of the Church.

This program can be carried out as conveniently by the University of Illinois students as though the Catholic Foundation were an integral part of the University itself. The same opportunity, of course, is open also to the students of any other religious faith which establishes a Foundation at the University. The Methodists already have taken advantage of it by establishing the Wesley Foundation, the first unit of which, costing approximately $350,000, is already built, and plans for a complete group to three and a half millions being worked out and financed. The Disciples are also operating a Foundation and other sects have plans under wav.

COMMENDED BY PRESIDENT KINLEY This opportunity offered the young men and women of the Cath-olic faith attending the State University to balance their secular training with a higher religious course naturally should appeal to them. That the university officials welome the Catholic representation is indicated by the following letter written by David Kinley, Pres of the University of Illinois, to the correspondent of the N. C. W. C

'Under the constitution and the a sacred trust. In saving others, by the denominations to which they they have the assurance of God belong. This need has already been Himself that special merit will be recognized by the people of the there is offered to My name a clean theirs."

Methodist Church in the establish oblation: for My name is great Let us not forget, then, that it is ment of the Wesley Foundation, and girls enter the ranks of our reprompt response to the efforts to our altars. Do Catholics pause ligious teaching communities. Unraise money for this foundation in frequently enough to reflect on the happily, many parents lack appreci- the interest of the Catholic students importance of the fact that the ation of the nobility of the apostolate of the Christian educator, to late of the Christian educator, to others like it are regularly char-tered educational institutions and These priests are born from differreceive the same treatment in the ent races, under different circummatter of transfer of credits as other stances of life, their social and regularly chartered educational institutions located eleswhere. on the very threshold of eternity! These foundations are intended to Leaving our school-rooms today give such courses of instruction of advance each day to the altar collegiate and university creditas are of God to offer to Him that necessary to carry out the purposes sacrifice of adoration. "My name of the foundation. They also provide for the religious intruction of saith the Lord of Hosts." The

their own young people. The frank admission of President Kinley that "religious training is necessary to complete a well rounded education" and "should be rounded edu lege at Aurora a boy's vocation is tested while he follows the regular High School course and receives, as well, a thorough religious training. sities which is stopped by law from all the world how it was the intenincluding religious training in its tion of God to have that "clean oblation" everywhere. Governthought in popular education.

MANY CATHOLICS IN STATE SCHOOLS teachers women are present in large numbers very household of Christ, but the Give to in the State schools, supported by will of God would eventually public taxes with unlimited means teachers for the vast number of for providing facilities for engineer-Catholic pupils in non-Catholic and ing, agricultural, and other technisectarian institutions," says the cal training, was disclosed by Dr. Very Rev. President of Extension, O'Brien in a survey made by him at and we solve the most important the direction of Archbishop Dowling, Catholic problem in Canada." head of the educational depart-Another distinguished Canadian Prelate writes: "May God stir the ment made by Dr. O'Brien concern-the tax-supported educational, institutions above the High school in the United States, approximately 40,050 Catholics, as compared with a total registration of approximately 19,000 in all the Catholic colleges for men and women in the country. The Catholic enrollment at Illinois is thus seen to be only the reflex of a nation-wide condition. This is simply stating a fact, a condition actually existing. "These are facts which cannot be waived aside with a gesture. They must be recognized and grappled Owing to the fact adequate equipment in such technical courses as mechanical, electrical, chemical and railway engineering, in ceramics, agriculture, etc., necessitates an outlay of many millions of dollars, few, if any, private institutions are in a position to offer complete courses in all these lines. Hence, many Catholic students can find only at the State University technical courses—engineering, cer-amics, architecture and agriculture.

BURSES

FOR EDUCATION OF PRIESTS FOR CHINESE MISSIONS

These burses will be complete at $5,000 each, and will provide a perpetual scholarship for boys wishing to study for the missionary priesthood and go evangelize China. Donors to these burses will be remembered by these future priests during their whole sacerdotal

Rev. J. M. Fraser, M. Ap., China Mission College, Almonte, Ontario. QUEEN OF APOSTLES BURSE

Previously acknowledged $2,339 55 ST. ANTHONY'S BURSE

Previously acknowledged $1,367 00 IMMACULATE CONCEPTION BURSE Previously acknowledged $2,687 43 COMFORTER OF THE AFFLICTED BURSE Previously acknowledged $391 50 A nurse... 1 00 ST. JOSEPH, PATRON OF CHINA BURSE

Previously acknowledged $2,477 43 BLESSED SACRAMENT BURSE Previously acknowledged $354 05 ST. FRANCIS XAVIER BURSE Previously acknowledged $314 80

HOLY NAME OF JESUS BURSE Previously acknowledged $249 00 ings. Let your help be ever so little HOLY SOULS BURSE Previously acknowledged $1,433 94

LITTLE FLOWER BURSE Previously acknowledged $850 04 SACRED HEART LEAGUE BURSE Previously acknowledged $2,425 25

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF CANADA

"MASS POSSIBLE FOR EVERY CATHOLIC "

From the rising of the sun even to the going down, My name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and among the Gentiles, saith the Lord political conditions are vastly different, yet with the intention great honor given the Divine Name oblation " everywhere. Govern-ments might persecute, the Gen-MANY CATHOLICS IN STATE SCHOOLS

That Catholic young men and tiles might rage, and the people devise vain things, there might arise scandals and misfortunes within the triumph.

THE CHURCH MUST BE MISSIONARY But how is this accomplished? By the missionary spirit of the Church acting effectively. This This head of the educational department of the N. C. W. C. In a statement made by Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

means necessarily that the missionary duty of the Church herself be fulfilled, that she establish and maintain missionaries. There can grace, and we let sin in—to win!

And in this contest we do not act as stupid umpires either, but with our eyes wide open. We know all along what we are cheating God. And it isn't is grace, and we let sin in—to win!

And in this contest we do not act as stupid umpires either, but with our eyes wide open. We know all along what we are cheating God. And it isn't is grace and we let sin in—to win!

Another distinguished Canadian ment of the N. C. W. C. W. C. In a sate of Catholic welf and in this context we do not act should be a flat rock about schools cannot be carried on.

In this connection, "America," the great Catholic wong men with the lofty ambition to devote them appointed.

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien concerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien oncerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien oncerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien oncerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the writer (Dr. O'Brien oncerning his findings, he said:

"An exhaustive survey conducted by the write

CATHOLICS EVERYWHERE Another powerful incentive is the presence almost everywhere of Catholics. There is scarcely a corner into which the priest may penetrate that some are not to be found. Often they are careless, often they value little the faith they have not practised perhaps for years, often vice has taken its frightful hold on their lives, but even at the very worst there is always a hidden spark of spiritual life. To these people the advent of a missionary is the first step on the road leading to their final salvation. Timid at his approach, they soon begin to realize that he alone can heal the misery of their souls and supply their longing. Mass to them is the great spiritual treasury that God intended as well as the fulfilment of their first duty to Him.

THEY ARE OUR CHILDREN

In Canada we cannot possibly forget that these are often our own flesh and blood. It is our children who are peopling the vast provinces that lie as yet but partially tilled. We may labor to leave them the means to prosper in the world, we may invest with the idea that we are providing for their future. What better inheritance could we leave them than the means to practise their faith!

THE MISSIONARY'S IDEAL

The missionary who goes forth with the authority of the Church to serve the pioneer districts has but one idea—to reach the souls that are there and maintain their Christian heritage. "Mass possible for every Catholic"—that is his great ideal and it is also ours. To gain that object, we appeal to our Catholic people who have this untold advantage at their doors to do their share towards the men who carry the faith into the world of which they have but little practical knowledge. Ask yourself today what you are doing for the Church missionary, the Church really militant in its most difficult environment. Do not say I will attend to it tomorrow You can begin at once to pray for the missionary, that God may bless his work, you can perhaps share his great Sacrifice of the altar by sending him an Intention, you can aid in our "Dollar Club" by can aid in our "Dollar Club" by helping to sustain him in the field. you can give something to educate a missionary for the Church, and it may be possible that you are able to build a little chapel for the priest who wishes to offer the Sacrific of the Mass in suitable surroundit has a value in the sight of God which makes it very real, it is yours, a reasonable service; added to the work of others, it is a powerful factor in building up the Kingdom of God.

Donations may be addressed to:

REV. T. O'DONNELL, President Catholic Church Extension Society 67 Bond St., Toronto. Contributions through this office should be addressed:

EXTENSION, CATHOLIC RECORD OFFICE London, Ont.

DONATIONS Previously acknowledged $5,299 48

MASS INTENTIONS M., Ottawa..... 4 00 Miss M. L. Murphy, Montreal. Friend, Elora 1 00 Bathurst, N. B .....

3,000 FOLLOW STATUE OF VIRGIN ONCE BORNE BY DE VARGAS AND MEN

Santa Fe, New Mexico, June 28.-Three thousand people of Santa Fe marched in the De Vargas procession here last Sunday afternoon carrying the small image Blessed Virgin from the Cathedral to the chapel in Rosario cemetery, where it is to remain until next Sunday, when it wili again be borne publicly through the streets and replaced in the Cathedral. According to tradition this ceremony has taken place in Santa Fe regularly for two hundred and thirty years, since the reconquest of the city by General De Vargas in 1692 and 1693. The Indians revolted in 1680 and massacred the Franciscan missionaries and Spanish settlers. De Vargas was sent to Santa Fe and promised the Blessed Virgin that if with her help he could take the city from the Indians he would commemorate the victory every year.

Tradition says the image of the Blessed Virgin borne through Santa Fe last Sunday and in many previous years is the same that De Vargas carried. RightRev. Monsignor A. Fourchegu, for twenty-eight years rector of the Cathedral and for half a century a priest of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, says the procession has taken place every year since he was ordained here, and that it has always been the tradition that it has recur annually since the time of Vargas. He says the image is the one De Vargas and his men carried in 1692. Monsignor Fourchegu has a letter signed by the Ordinary of the Diocese of Durango, Mexico, in 1806, authorizing the building of Rosario chapel in the cemetery to receive the image.

A tendency to sin is not a sin, but a will to sin is actually sin.

FIVE MINUTE SERMON

BY REV. WILLIAM DEMOUY, D. D. SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

HEAVEN OUR TRUE HOME a those days again, when there was a multitude, and had nothig to eat ug His disciples together. He saith to it have compassion on the multitude chold they have now beer win Me three and have nothing to eat." (Mark viii

God made all men for heaven. It is true, He put us upon earth, but our sojourn here will be temporal only; and during these days we spend upon earth, we are to fit ourselves for the blessed home that God intends us to possess. He made us without our co-operation, but He wishes us, because of the nature we have, to merit our reward. The more earnestly and sincerely we work to fit ourselves for our great future happiness, the more does He help us. Every day granted us should be a day of gain; if it is not, it is a day lost. When we say gain, we mean spiritual gain, for we may daily lose in temporal goods, and yet increase wonderfully in spiritual merit. Only he, however, who and understands the ways of God, as far as man can see them, will grasp this truth. Others, who do not understand it, will attribute worldly misfortune, loss, and disasters to unfavorable fate, or to a lack of providence on the part of a lack of providence on the part of God. God will help us through life, as long as He wishes us to roam the world. He will give every one sufficient time in which to save his soul, and if any one, during this time, is not aided by God, it is because he has rendered himself unworthy of his Maker's help.

The beautiful narrative in today's Gospel, besides showing the power of God, opens out clearly to us the truth that God will protect those who follow Him. The multitude forgot about the material needs of their bodies, while receiving spiritual food for their souls. It would not have been right for them to expose themselves to the danger resulting from the lack of nourish-ment for their bodies, had they not been under the power and influence of Him who gave them life; for men must not only preserve and protect their life by every ordinary means, but also preserve it as wholly as possible. So it is with the martyr's sacrifice. Had it not been that he was giving back his life to his Maker, he would have been bound to use every lawful means in his power to preserve it; but everflowing with zeal and with an unlimited love for his Heavenly Father, who has promised that whosoever should give his life for Him should find it, he well knew that he poured out his life for

The lesson that Christians should learn from this instance in the Gospel is that as long as they faithfully follow Christ, they will be protected. But, some one may object, instances can be cited in which true followers of Christ were protected. In some of the disasters of recent years, many of the victims were God-fearing and honest people. Some would have lost their earthly possessions, totally, or even life itself, rather than offend God. It is true that many who were innocent have met death thus. But even so, nevertheless we assert the more strongly that God protected them. If we were made for earth only, then it would be true that God failed to protect the innocent who were sent unexpectedly to their grave; but we were created for heaven; this was the ultimate end that God had in view when He gave us life. If, therefore, some are taken to their true, eternal home sooner than the rest of humanity expected or wished, these are not to be pitied; rather should we rejoice that new members are added to the heavenly court. We may feel sure that if these souls were offered another chance upon earth, they would refuse it, rather than leave, even for a day, their happy heavenly home. God granted them an infinitely greater blessing than He would have bestowed by allowing them a longer time upon earth. No one has a right to fix the time or the manner of his death. It belongs to God to summon us from earth as He desires, and when He

If others are made to suffer because of the death of a parent or a husband, we may be sure that God has reasons for permitting it.
Of course, they should not be allowed to suffer bodily want. The allowed to suffer bodily want. The State or country should care for them fittingly; nothing could be more proper, nor could money be spent in a better cause than in supplying their material needs. If we are each, individually, to a certain extent, our brother's keeper, how much more should not the State be the keeper of its subjects, especially its desolate ones?

Dear Christians, remember always that heaven is your home. If your dear ones are taken there sooner than you would have wished, rejoice over their great blessing. You, yourselves, follow Christ faithfully whither He calls you, and He will care for you, both here and

URGES NECESSITY OF RIGID ECONOMY

HOME BANK PRESIDENT DISCUSSES SITUATION

Shareholders of the Home Bank of Canada met in Toronto yesterday, and received and approved the annual statement, which was reviewed in these columns yesterday morning. Addresses dealing both with the position of the bank and with the general business out-look in Canada were delivered by President H. J. Daly and General Manager J. Cooper Mason. Perhaps of outstanding interest was the reference by the General Manager to the increased taxes on circulation and the stamp dues to be applied by the Dominion Govern-ment. This burden, he pointed out, was distributed among all banks and each would have to bear a share according to its business during the year. As a result of its very widespread application, with very widespread application, with its reaction throughout the entire sphere of business, the banks, he said, would be under the necessity of paying more attention to what are termed "minor profits" in order to equalize this new overhead expense. There were many small services that banks customarily services that banks customarily of foreigners in ten years. London is 97% English: Berlin is 100% Gerperformed for the public with-out charge, but at a small incidental loss upon each trans-action. While Mr. Mason does not enter into details on the plan proposed to offset this loss, it in Montreal. CROP OUTLOOK Mr. Daly reviewed the crop outlook, and was optimistic in his judgment of the situation. With an advance toward the realization of the harvest for 1922, he said, it was possible to look hopefully forward to the passing of the depression which marked the close of the year 1941. The reports covering the growing conditions of the crops, he added, were highly satisfactory, and the present condition of growth compared very favorably with the standing of the crop of 1915 for the same period of that year. He sounded a note of warning, however, against the development of an excess of optimism and the under-taking of heavy commitments on prospect alone. He said: "Even though the crop should be a record one, there is still the same necessity for rigid economy to be exercised in the matter of unproductive expenditure. Our greatest need in Canada is for a stimulative immigration of agricultural workers, the erection of comfortable dwellings for urban workers, the increase and extention of manufacturing into the lines of many articles which we now unnecessarily import, and a systematic co-operation between the Government and the manufacturers to create a demand for Canadian

DRAW ON SAVINGS

In explaining the small decrease in deposits shown in the statement, General Manager Mason stated that it was inevitable that the savings of the community should be drawn upon to meet living expenses in upon to meet living expenses in agricultural sections where the crop was disappointing, and in industrial centres where factories that were the support of a large portion of the population had been closed or working part time only. The motive of thrift, on the other hand, he said, had prompted the opening of many new savings accounts by persons why had been less cautious with their money when "New North." reached via Cochaccounts by persons why had been less cautious with their money when the volume in general circulation was larger. This increase in the was larger. This increase in the stretch of virgin country contiguous to the Canadian National Railways, offset by the smaller balances maintained in the average account as compared with deposits of two inces of Ontario and Quebec for years ago.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF A HANDICAP "While business conditions are undoubtedly improving in the West," he concluded, "the application of the high protective tariff on exports to the United States has so far had an adverse effect. This enactment had been in operation for a year, and has very materially checked the exports of the products of the Prairie Provinces into the United States, the export of cattle suffering the most serious curtail-

Reference was made to the appointment of J. F. M. Stewart to the Board of Directors several days fur-bearing animals are common to

"FULL CATHOLICS"

He will care for you, both here and hereafter.

Those who deal in falsehoods must either have a very large stock, or a good memory, or must often change company.

Ide life.

"Catholic life must be guided by the presence of the Holy Ghost in the soul. If you want to be 'men,' have time, amidst your daily occupations, to withdraw every day, for a quarter of an hour, for serious a quarter of an hour, for serious a quarter of an hour, for serious and particularly in morthwestern Quebec. One species of fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not found in this far-northern country is the maskinonge. But in some of the waters flowing into James Bay are to be caught the lordly by the presence of the Holy Ghost in orthwestern Quebec. One species of fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not found in this far-northern country is the maskinonge. But in some of the waters flowing into James Bay are to be caught the lordly by the presence of the Holy Ghost in orthwestern Quebec. One species of fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not found in this far-northern country is the maskinonge. But in some of the waters flowing into James Bay are to be caught the lordly by the presence of the Holy Ghost in orthwestern Quebec. One species of fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish which is common to some of the older parts of canada not fish keep alight in you the divine light.

Read the sacred Scriptures. Too many don't know them. Read them every day. Be no half-Catholics. Go to the very end both in virtue and charity. The day of my Consecration as a bishop, I said: 'I will not be a bishop by halves.' I am saying it still every day to my priests: 'Be not priests by halves. Be saints.' So I say to you. Feed yourselves at the fountains of the Holy Scriptures and the Divine Eucharist. Why did the martyrs so generously lay down their lives? Because they possessed in themselves the divine life. So I ask you to go to the people with justice and to go to the people with justice and charity. I beg of you, especially of those who will be social apostles, to be full Catholics."—The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE CHILDLESS

Health Commissioner Copeland of New York City, speaking before the State Federation of Music Clubs, voiced the fear of all sensible spoken by as many people. The well-to-do of New York city have pay for this service, and it is presumed that this was a decision reached at a recent meeting of the sum of th

The problem is not peculiar to New York, to some extent it exists Canadian Bankers' Association held in all our large Americancities; but it is very pronounced there, and in no other city is there such concentration of home life in apartment hotels, those institutions of the childless women who have taken the vow of perpetual youth. They strike you as amusing at first, those florid establishments where barren women do a little light housekeeping for Pomeranian dogs, and devote the rest of their lives to decorating the rest of their lives to decorating their bodies. Grotesque, but after awhile disgusting, horrible. All these empty women dreaming, longing for the indefinite preservation of one thing—youth, youth ever slipping out of their fingers. Dresses without end, of course, and jewelry, but more important still, day after day their squads of renovaters and embalmers who work continually the miracle of chemical youth. The product is, of course, frightful. They are no longer human beings, they are so much manufactured goods. What a perversion of a sublime destiny. One could almost be glad at the elimination of the course they arouse sympathy, too, for they suffer so much because they are so hopeless. The things on which they depend for happiness mock them bitterly. It is not so, that there lurks always destruction and bitterness in the violation of God's laws, our scheming, ever so skillful. -The Missionary.

THE "NEW NORTH"

A SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE To men who spend their vacation fishing, hunting or canoeing, Canada

a distance of over a thousand miles, with Hudson Bay as its northern limit. To quote a traveler who knows it well: "It is a virgin country just as God made it."

To the sportsman this northern country is a veritable paradise. Within its vast forests there roam at will nearly all species of big game common to the North American continent. Of the big and burly moose it is the home. Red deer have a wide range and in some sections are numerous, while caribou are to be had by the hunter who seeks them in their feeding grounds. In several districts bear are to be found, while the smaller wide range of territory.

Disciples of Izaak Walton will find in the numerous rivers and lakes all-that the most ardent of them can desire, both in regard to extent and variety of fish which abound in their waters. Lake, or grey trout, ranging in weight from six to twenty rounds are common to At the "Social Week" for Catholic students at Brussels, Cardinal Mercier, gave a stirring address the assembled students. "You must be apostles," said the Cardinal. "Why, then, is our apostleship, at least partially, so very often unfruitful, though we possess the fountains of life, both for thought and for action? It is because we think that a Catholic is someone who believes in God and observes the laws of the Church. He who is a laws of the Church. He who is a get to Heaven, but he does not understand the true sense of Catholic life.

find in the numerous rivers and lakes all that the most ardent of them can desire, both in regard to extent and variety of fish which abound in their waters. Lake, or grey trout, ranging in weight from six to twenty pounds, are common to several of the lakes. Waters in which speckled trout abound are easily accessible, although, naturally, the more remote the districts the better the sport. In some of the rivers and streams are to be caught speekled brook trout (known also as the square tail trout) weighing from five to seven pounds. Good bass fishing is to be had in certain parts, and particularly in northwestern Quebec. One specie intercourse with God. Meditate, and pray that the Holy Ghost may keep alight in you the divine light. sturgeon, sportsmen having landed fish of this species ranging in weight all the way from twenty and from Hudson Bay, are almost beyond compute in number, the country being grid-ironed by them. Wonderfully interesting canoe trips, either extended or limited, are available. Take for example the six routes to Moose Factory all of which find their way into Moose River about 30 miles south of Moose Factory on James Bay.

Until within recent years this great new north was inaccessible to those who had but a few weeks' vacation at their disposal. It could not even be reached during an ordinary vacation term. Now, over the lines of the Canadian National Railways, the sporting fisherman, the hunter, the canoest and holiday seekers in general can, occupying en route modernly appointed steel-constructed trains, reach points in this "Happy Hunting Ground" in the course of a twenty-four-hour journey from such centres as Toronto and Montreal and from New York, Chicago and Boston in approximately thirty-six hours.

And there is an interesting little booklet entitled "Where to Hunt, Fish and Paddle in the New North, obtainable from any office of the Canadian National Railways, which enables the holiday seeker to select his camping ground in this primeval

A number of sectional maps covering the sporting territory from west of Lake Nipigen to Western Quebec, in which are shown canoe routes and trails, will prove invaluable to the sportsman visiting the territory.

The Booklet also furnishes information regarding guides, outfit and other necessary details.

THE POWER OF THE CROSS

From the middle of this month until the middle of September hundreds of thousands of people from all parts of the world will turn their steps toward Oberammergau, in Bavaria, to witness the Passion Play, which for three hundred years has been performed every decade by the peasants as an act of thanksgiving for the deliverance of their village from famine and pesti-lence after the Thirty Years' War.

There is perhaps no more soul-touching spectacle, nor one which makes a more powerful appeal to men of all religious persuasions, than this simple story of Christ's surpassing love for men, as manifested in His bitter Passion and death. With none of the adventitious helps of the ordinary stage, with no high-flown dramatic outbursts, this wonderful representation of the sublime tragedy of Calvary, so reverently given by the humble peasants, compels the human heart as nothing else in our modern lives. It is not unusual to find the entire audience of thousands melted to tears at some particularly moving scene, such as the parting of Our Lord from Our Lady, the meeting of the women on the Way of the Cross, or the cruci-

The Oberammergau Passion Play is always needed in a world which is ever inclined to drift away from God, but probably never more so than at the present time, when the fundamental lessons of love, reconiliation and forgiveness which it ciliation and forgiveness which it brings out in such a powerful way seem to have been entirely forgotten. But it can teach us also the uses of simplicity. As a consequence of the pyrotechnic methods which were found necessary during the War to promote all kinds of drives, our modern pulpits have become in many instances miniature stages, from which famous preachers, introduced from far away ers, introduced from far away places, set forth in a theatrical way the story of our Redemption on that day when least of all the human heart is responsive to the artificial-ities of life. Whilst no one will deny that oratory has its uses - especially if it arouse the latent piety and contrition of our hearts— still it remains forever true that the most soul-stirring account of Our Blessed Saviour's Passion is that narrated for us with such simplicity and directness by the Inspired Writers. Meditation on the Gospel account of the Passion is enough to account of the Passion is enough to move the hardest heart. The power of the Cross is seen to the best advantage in the Evangelists' account of Him who made it the emblem of our salvation. It should be the endeavor, therefore, of every sincere Christian to penetrate as deeply as possible into this vast ocean of love.—Rosary Magazine.

UNLESS you see the name "Bayer" on tablets, you are not getting Aspirin at all

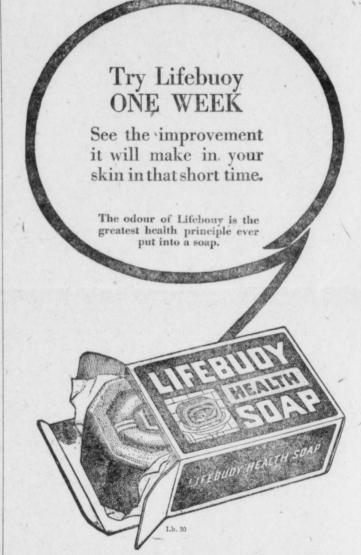

Accept only an "unbroken package" of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," which contains directions and dose worked out by physicians during 22 years and proved safe by millions for

Toothache

Headache Neuralgia Lumbago Rheumatism Neuritis Pain, Pain

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets-Also bottles of 24 and 100-Druggists. Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Mono-aceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross"

Have Your Child Learn to Play A Piano True To Tone

A musical education begins with the first lesson—the development of true music instincts begins then.

Start your child right - have him learn on a good piano, a piano like the Sherlock-Manning. The

SHERLOCK-MANNING

20th Century Piano

The Piano worthy of your Home is "Canada's Biggest Piano Value" because it is not only a true, quality piano, but one that is built to stand the hard usage of home life.

> Hear it at our nearest dealers Write us for Art Catalogue and Prices

Sherlock-Manning Piano Company CANADA LONDON

Cuticura Is Wonderful For Your Hair

On retiring rub spots of dandruff and itching with Cuticura Ointment. Next morning shampoo with Cuticura Sosy and hot water. This cleanses the scall of dandruff and promotes hair health. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Taleum 25c. Sol Lymans, Limited, 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal.

Protection Not Investment

The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada has no stock upon which investors draw dividends, or which can be bought and sold in the Stock Exchange. It is a Company of policyholders, not shareholders.

The policyholders of the Mutual Life are protected by Government supervision, like all other old-line companies.

During the helf-century since Confederation, the Mutual Life of Canada, with business in force amounting to $228,697,118, and assets of $48,211,204.98 has established itself upon an unshakeable foundation of public confederate and according to the confederate and the confederation and the conf lic confidence and good will.

The MUTUAL LIFE of Canada WATERLO, ONTARIO

SELDOM SEE

A BSORBINE TRADE MARK REG. U. S. PAT. OFF drops required at an application. $2.50 per bottle delivered. Describe your case for special instructions and Book 8 R free. ABSORBINE, JR., the antiseptic uniment for mankind, reduces Painful Swellings, Enlarged Glands, Wenn, Bruiser, Varione Venns, alloy Pain and inflammation. Price $1.25 a bottle at druggists of delivered, & Liberal trial bottle postpaid for 16c. W. F. YOUNG, Inc., 299 Lymans Bldg., Montreal, Can.

LONDON OPTICAL CO

Have Your Eyes Examined Dominion Savings Building Richmond St. Phore 6180

Stained Glass WINDOWS

COLONIAL ART GLASS CO. 586 Bank St.

Casavant Freres CHURCH LIMITEE Organ Builders

ST. HYACINTHE QUEBEO

"Service First" Phone 6925 J Pate & Vaughan TRUCKING

499 ADELAIDE STREET, LONDON W. H. VAUGHAN

Hotel Wolverine DETROIT

Newest and Most Modern 500 Baths 500 Rooms

Rates $2.50 Up

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

THE HARP OF IRELAND

Dear harp of my country! in dark-ness I found thee, The cold chain of silence had hung o'er thee long,

When proudly, my own island harp, I unbound thee And gave all thy chords to light, freedom and song!

The warm lay of love and the light note of gladness Have waken'd thy fondest, thy liveliest thrill, But so oft hast thou echo'd the deep to thy numbers,

This sweet wreath of song is the pictured prints. last we shall twine.

It was but as the wind, passing a his

Every age of the world's history has seen its reformers, so-called. There are those who would reform relig-ion, and only the angels know the true amount of damage they have done. Their misplaced zeal has engendered distrust, dissension and misery on thousands of weaker men, and their works can truly be said to live after them. There are those who would reform our social customs, our personal habits that cling to us and have become dear by their very shabbiness. No sooner have we acquired one respectable and comfortable habit than, alas, it is whisked away by the broom of the reformer, and we may no longer indulge without incurring the stigma of eccentricity. If we are devoted to books, we are narrow men, and the social up-lifters harrow us until perchance we lay them aside. If we follow the sermons of some noted preacher, we are devotees who would do far better to follow the popular sports, and so on through the entire ward-robe of our social habiliments. In change; under certain conditions we may no longer permit ourselves the luxury of a good honest common-place grasp of the hand, even though our hearts may be warm enough. But we must needs content ourselves with a slight inclination of the head and few murmured stereotyped words that mean nothing at all. And, if in the eye of our fellow man we discern the kindling of a momentary light, and if something in our own nature jumps up in response—we can simply turn away, for anything further may be commonplace.

There are reformers who attempt to make over our clothing as soon as it is comfortably settled on our backs — reformers who attempt almost everything except our very lives—but, strange to say, there are few who try to make us kind men. Truly we may say with poor little Pip, whose "Great Expectations" hardly exceeded being permitted to exist in this odd world—that we whom 'twas intended, things worth things worth whom 'twas intended, things worth the women for whom it was intended, exist in this odd world—that we have been brought up by hand. A strong hand, indeed, the hand of the reformer. Every now and then the backward swing of the pendulum permits us to take breath column permits us to take breath of the city of the city of the city of the city of all days. and wonder what is going to happen next, or where we shall be a year hence. And we are solemnly sure that after these reformers have said Grace for us after the manner of Mr. Wopsle, a sort of theatrical declaration—we are expected with little Pip to answer a huge Amen.

There was a gentleman who was noted for the grace of his social usages, and who, rather late in life, entered the Catholic Church, becoming a member of the Congrega-tion of St. Philip Neri. And, among the helpful and beautiful books which he left us, is one made up of a series of essays the first four of which, strange to say are entitled: "Kindness." It would seem that Frederick William Faber vocation. Those who are drawn to unhappily there are few reformers home, her friends, and remaining in who have taken this theme to their seclusion. hearts. But, on the contrary, their miserably from grace. Conscience-stricken and mortified, he tried to avoid his benefactor, who, however, was not to be so foiled. One day he found the unhappy man, and taking him kindly by the hand, said: "John, when the road is slippery, same," said the other affectionately.

"The road is slippery, I know, John, and you fell. But there's my hand to help you up again."

The poor cabby's heart was touched to the quick. He caught the profferred hand in a vice-like grip, and said: "God bless you, sir! You'll never have cause to regret this! I'll never fall again!"

And he kept his word.

And he kept his word.
"The road was slippery."—There sigh of sadness
That ev'n in thy mirth it will steal from thee still.

Dear harp of my country! farewell

Dear harp of my country! farewell

Dear harp of my country! farewell guard him as we see them in the

We remember the bitter experience of the courtier who all his life on thy slumbers
Till touched by some hand less unworthy than mine;
If the pulse of the patriot soldier or lover.

Have throbb'd at our lay, 'twas thy glory alone—

Have throbb'd at our lay, 'twas thy glory alone—

He heard the cutting sareagem of the courtier who all his life had paid a clown's homage to his queen. Having entangled his foot in her gown while dancing at a Court ball, he tripped and ignominiously fell. But there was no kind had stretched out to him—rather he heard the cutting sareagem of the courtier who all his life meaning of simplicity, frugality and patient industry. She has told me many times that the more we must give, and only by doing this can we keep an even balance.'

This daughter for the courtier who all his life meaning of simplicity, frugality and patient industry. She has told me many times that the more we must give, and only by doing this can we keep an even balance.' he heard the cutting sarcasm of woman's words, punning on s name: "Get up, my Lord > mortal ears than the poor cabman's response to a kindly act. And we feel certain that the benefactor went his way a better man for that heartfelt blessing of one who was socially his inferior although his brother in Christ.

>
> The greatest men in history, both religious and civil, have never been the keen cutting clever men who could wield the sword "two-edged with pain," but rather men like St. Paul or the Beloved Disciple, who, although the greatness of their revelations uplifted them to the stars—did not disdain to honor the lowly virtue of kindness which stoops even to the dust to serve.-

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

APPLYING THE SERMON

O! the pastor'd a sermon was splendid this mornin',''
Said Nora O'Hare,
"But there's some in the parish that must have had warnin'

An' plentiful, too, Wid their noses so high an' their manners so airish, But virtues so few, 'Tis a wonder they can't see how much they resemble

The proud Pharisee, Ye would think they'd look into their own souls an' tremble Such sinners to be. Not at all! They believe themselves better than others give themselves airs Till the pride o' them strangles all virtues an' smothers The good o' their prayers.'

This day of all days. 'But, indeed, 'twas a glorious sermon this mornin',' Said Nora O'Hare,

Though I'm sorry that some to the parish had warnin' An' worshipped elsewhere; But wherever they were, if their ears wasn't burnin', ears wash to barre!"
Truth, then, it is quare!"
-T. A. Daly

VOCATIONS

Vocations—what are they? A simple definition would be—a calling or occupation.

seem that Frederick William Faber had not been able to say all in one generous essay that this queen of virtues represented to him. So that, coming to the end of one phase of Kindness, he felt himself obliged to begin all over again. So we have four literary masterpieces on this gentle quality—Kindness in General, Kind Thoughts, Kind Words, and Kind Actions.

We are forced to confess that Words, and Kind Actions.

We are forced to confess that, sacrifices, forever giving up her

There is another magnificent hearts. But, on the contrary, their ambitious doctrines have been imbued with discords that have but served to stir up the miseries of mankind.

If no one can well say what is the damage done by an unkind act on a multitude of men—it can truly be affirmed that words cannot measure the magnificent strength of one kind act.

There is another magnificent calling or vocation. Is not the sacrifice of motherhood a calling, a trial and a continual humiliation before God? With the burden of tuture mothers, nuns, or priests within her grasp. She is intrusted with the shaping, moulding of the young ones that God has given her. kind act.

The story is told of a cabman who signed the pledge to please a kind patron, but shortly afterward, fell miserably from grace. Consider the Saviour and the Blessed

Perhaps, she in her mind, knows that she would best obtain heaven's you do with him?"

"I help him up again!"

"Well, I have come to do the same," said the other affectionately.
"The road is slippery, I know, John God as that of the pure Virgin or the pious mother. When her vocation is chosen every girl must live up to it. She does not necessarily have to take vows nor become a recluse, for the temptations overcome in the world in daily life are the stepping stones to eternal glory in heaven.

HUMILITY "The one big thing I strive to keep," said a wealthy young woman to a group of girl friends, "is a sane balance, My good mother taught me this. She had the advanthge of me in that she was a poor girl, and she knows the full meaning of simplicity, frugality and patient industry. She has told father was speaking mainly of riches. But the same truth would a woman's words, punning on his name: "Get up, my Lord was thy own.

Thomas Moore REFORMERS

There are few men who have not experienced at some period of their existence the zeal of the reformer.

Flyery ear of the world, punning on his name: "Get up, my Lord Bull!" The unkind return for many years of faithful service opened his eyes to the false glamour of courts. He went from the scene a wiser and sadder man, never to return.

"God bless you!" There is no sweeter word that can be uttered in sweeter word that can be uttered in patience with the ignorant lass of limited opportunity.

limited opportunity. Humility is always a blessed trait, in that it makes the best, and the greatest of us so simple, so plain, so sincere and sympathetic that all mankind will be drawn to us. Some very successful people have been thrown from their high place by force of circumstances because they did not keep a "sane balance." They became overbearing, intolerant, domineering, oppressive. We should always remember that the Master, the Son of God, was so plain, so simple that He sought the companionship of lowly fishermen. His sympathy and compassion were extended as quickly to the poor and the ignorant as to the rich and the

CONVERSATION

Conversation, as conversation, is hard to teach; we can only lead the way and lay down a few principles which keep it in the right way. These commonplaces of warning, as old as civilization itself, belong to manners and to fundamental unselfishness, but obvious as they are, they have to be said and to be repeated and enforced until they seem bored, not to interrupt, not to contradict, not to make personal remarks, not to talk of oneself someone was naive enough to say "then what is there to talk of?" not to be silent, not to advance, if the ground seems uncertain, and to be sensitively attentive to what jars all these and other things are troublesome to obtain but exceedingly necessary.

And even observing them all, we may be just as far from conversa-tion as before; how often among English-speaking people, through shyness or otherwise, it simply faints from inanition. We can at least teach that a first essential is to have something to say, and that the best preparation of mind is thought and reading and observation, to be interested in many things, "That's the way he wint at them, and to give enough personal applicaan', faith, it was splendid—
But wasted, I fear.

tion to a few things to have some things worth saying about them.—

RHEUMATISM

Then She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES" And Has Been Well Ever Since

MADAM SLOAT

PERTH JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920 "For many years, "I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My Stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple. was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indiges. tion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now, my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-tives" which I take regu

Mrs. CLARA SLOAT. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruita-tives Limited. Ottawa

Do you drink

OR JUST TEA?

There's a distinct difference in favor of "Salada"

those truths of reason and of faith and from one another.

For the lack of the spiritual exercises among the faithful—for the lack of a serious remembrance, meditation and appreciation of souls of men estranged from God,

Capital Trust Corporation Authorized Capital - $2,000,000.00 Board of Directors: President: HON. M. J. O'BRIEN Renfrew B. P. GOUGH J. J. LYONS

A. E. PROVOST Ottawa B. W. TOBIN, M. P. Ottawa

A. W. ROBERTSON
Montreal

P. V. BYRNES
Hamilton GORDON GRANT, C. E. Ottawa
HUGH DOHENE
Montreal J. J. SEITZ J. J. McFADDEN J. F. BROWN W. H. McAULIFFE JOSEPH GOSSELIB. JR. COL. D. R. STREET F. J. B. RUSSILL Toronto T. P. PHELAB COL. L. T. MARTIN

> Managing Director B. G. CONNOLLY E. T. B. PENNEFATHER
> - THOMAS COSTELLO OUR CHIEF WORK IS EXECUTOR OF WILLS

10 Meicaife St., Ottawa, or to Temple Building, Toronto

Begin, live, aspire, realize the best ideal of the moment; and this earnest effort shall lead the way to greater achievement.—H. W.

Finest Importations always in stock at lowest market prices. Samples and quotations sent promptly upon application.

Special attention given to requirements of institutions. Kearney Brothers, Limited

33 St Peter Street

TEA - COFFEE IMPORTERS and SPECIALISTS Established 1874 Montreal, Que.

Sanctuary Oil

(Eight Day Oil)

"PERPETUO" Brand

Used in all Churches in Rome

Sold in 5 gallon containers and bulk in barrels. Prices quoted on we can also quote favorably on specialty food products such as Macaroni, Olive Oil, etc. Send for our complete price list.

P. PASTENE & CO., Limited

Importers, Macaroni Mfrs., Wholesale Grocers Montreal, Que. 340 St. Antoine St.

The Home Bank of Canada

ANNUAL REPORT

Statement of the Result of the Business of the Bank for the Year Ending May 31st, 1922

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT

Cr.
Industrie Profit and Loss Account, May 31st, 1921

Ket Profits for the year after deducting charges of management, interest due depositors, payment of all municipal taxes and rebate of interest on unmatured bills $134,867.44 $409,979.77 CAPITAL PROFIT ACCOUNT .$ 146.98 Premium on Capital Stock received during the year ...... $410,126.75

Which has been appropriated as follows:-

Balance carried forward ..... GENERAL STATEMENT SIST MAY, 1922

LIABILITIES.

TO THE PUBLIC Statement
Deposits by and balance due to Dominion Government
Balances due to cher Banks in Canada
Balances due to Banks and Bauking correspondents in the United Balances due to Banks and Banking correspondents in the United Kingdom
Balances due to Banks and Banking correspondents elsewhere than in Canada and the United Kingdom 285,935.17 676.022.28 $ 27,350,492.53

2,070,007,87 $ 30,021,400.40

> 118,779.30 022,152.08

284,060,08

1.441.576.20

$ 13,447,540.71

Deposit with the Minister of Finance as security for note circulation Notes of other Banks
Cheques on other Banks
In Canada
Halances due by other Banks in Canada
Halances due by Banks and Banking correspondents in the United Kingdom Halances due by Banks and Banking correspondents in the University Ringilous Balances due by Banks and Banking correspondents elsewhere than in Canasis and the United Kingdom
Dominion and Previncial Government securities not exceeding market value
Canadian Municipal Securities and British, Foreign and Colonial Public Securities ether than Canadian Railway and other Bonds, Debentures and Stocks, not exceeding market value
Call and Short (not exceeding 30 days) Loans in Canada on Bonds, Debentures and Stocks

Other Current Loans and Discounts in Canada, less rebate of interest of interest of interest of interest other Loans and Discounts elsewhere than in Canada 23.193.93 Loans to Cities, Towns, Municipalities and School Districts of Overlue Debis 180.402.30 Military 180.50 Less 180.50

$ 30,021,490,40

H. J. DALY. J. COOPER MASON.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

In accordance with sub-sections 10 and 20 of section 50 of the Bank Act, 1913, I beg to report as follows: The foregoing balance sheet has been examined with the books and vouchers at the Head Office, and with the certified returns from the livanches, and is in accordance therewith. I have obtained all needed information from the officers of the Bank, and in my opinion the transactions coming under my notice have been within the powers of the Bank. The cush has been checked and the securities of the Bank verified, at its chief office, both on the Sist of May, 1922, and also at another time during the year, the cush and securities of one of the Branches have also been checked, and in each case they have agreed with the entries in the books of the Bank with regard thereto. In my opinion the above balance sheet is properly drawn up so, as to show a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me, and as shown by the books of the Bank.

SYDNEY H. JONES, Anditor. AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS SYDNEY H. JONES, Auditor.

SUMMER TOURISTS

Catholic visitors at summer resorts in the Muskoka and Lake of Bays districts sometimes find it difficult to attend at Mass on Sundays, through lack of information about the location of churches and the time for Masses. To meet inquiries by interested persons, a subscriber has compiled for publication for information and the time for Masses. To meet inquiries by interested persons, a subscriber has compiled for publication for information applied by the form information applied by the form information applied by the form information applied by the formation and the fo tion, from information supplied by the clergy in charge, the following schedule of the times for celebra-tion of Mass at the places here named during the coming summer months: 1000

On the first Sunday of each month, At Bracebridge, 9 o'clock. At Morinus, 10:30 o'clock.

At Gravenhurst, 11 o'clock. At Beaumaris, 7 o'clock. On Sundays other than the first Sunday of the month. At Bracebridge, 11 o'clock. At Morinus, 10:30 o'clock.

At Gravenhurst, 9 o'clock. At Beaumaris, 7 o'clock. At St. Anne's, four miles from Bala, Mass at 9 o'clock when it is possible to obtain an extra priest. Convent N. D. de Sion,

At the Wa Wa Hotel, Norway Point, Lake of Bays, Mass will be celebrated every Sunday during July and August at 10 a. m.
Masses will also be celebrated MARRIAGE during July and August at the fol-

At Depot Harbor, on July 2nd, 16th, and 30th.

August 6th. August 7th.

POPE'S WORDS USED TO ANIMATE THOSE WHO

Father Ratti—now Pope Pius XI.— more than thirty years ago were the inspirations of the Englishmen who climbed to a point within 1,700 feet of the summit of Mt. Everest, according to Sir Francis Young-husband, late president of the Royal Geographic Society.

"Mountaineering proper is not necessarily rashness, but entirely a question of prudence, courage, strength, and steadiness and of feeling for nature and her most hidden beauties, which are often awe-inspiring, and for that reason more sublime and to the contempla-tive spirit more suggestive," wrote Father Ratti in the Alpinist in peace. Bulletin.

"Those words were written thirty-three years ago by an Italian Alpine climber, Father Ratti," said Sir Francis. "That mountaineer is Sir Francis. "That mountaineer is now become Pope Pius XI. and his words exactly express the senti-ment which animated all those connected with the Everest expedition, whether in its initiation or execution, and which will continue to animate them until the final goal

Sir Francis made these statements in his valedictory as president of the Royal Geographic Society.

OBITUARY

EDWARD HOGAN

One of the largest funerals that has ever been seen in Douro was held from St. Joseph's Church, on held from St. Joseph's Church, on Thursday, when the body of the late Edward Hogan was laid at rest. Rev. Father McGuire, assisted by Rev. Father Collins, celebrated the Requiem Mass. The Holy Name Society of Douro, of which the deceased was a faithful member, attended in a body and formed a guard of honor at the church and cemetery. Amongst the relatives who attended the funeral were: Sister Berchmans, Cornwall, Sister

St. Rose, Peterborough, Mr. Thos. Babbitt, Oregon, Mr. and Miss Brick, Ennismore, Mr. and Mrs. Perdue, Peterboro, Mrs. and Miss Hogan, Peterboro, Mr. and Miss Maloney, Ennismore, Mrs. Condon, Lakefield, and several others. May his soul rest in peace.

The attention of the clergy and Laity is again called to the Novena of Masses for the Conversion of the Jews, to be held from September 29 to October 7.

Priests, willing to offer a Mass for this intention, will kindly send their name as well as the place of celebration of the Holy Sacrifice and the date thereof.

Those persons, who can procure a Mass will be good enough to notify us also, as to the above particulars.

particulars.

We cordially thank all those, who in any way took part in the Novena last year. May God Himself reward them and record their names in His Sacred Heart.

REV. MOTHER SUPERIOR,

Convert N. D. de Sion.

515 18th St. West. Prince Albert, Sask.

owing places:
At Depot Harbor, on July 2nd, 6th, and 30th.
At Mactier, July 28rd and August 0th.
At Port Severn, July 9th, and august 6th.
At Honey Harbor, July 10th, and 10 years 17th.

White - Farrell. — At St. Basil's Church, Brantford, Ont., on Tuesday, June 27, by Rev. Father White, of Tilbury. Miss Mary Farrell, daughter of Mrs. Jane C. Farrell, 24 James Street, Brantford, to Mr. Frank White, of London, Ont.

STEPHENS RALEIGH.—On Tuesday, June 27th, by the Very Rev. J. F. Player, C. S. B., at Holy Rosary Church, Toronto, Agnes Loretto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael SCALED EVEREST

Raleigh, formerly of Dublin, Ont., to Robert E. Stephens, B. A., son of Mr. Robert Stephens, Toronto, and the late Mrs. R. Stephens.

IN MEMORIAM

MAGUIRE.-In sad and loving memory of my dear husband, Patrick J. Maguire Anniversary Requiem Mass on 2nd July by Father Le Rue, Port Arthur.

DIED

NEVEN .- At his home in Chicago, on June 30th, John Neven, a former resident of Dublin, Ont., in his seventieth year. May his soul rest

CARROLL.-At 1,000 South Main St., Los Angeles, California, June 23, 1922, of heart failure, Francis V. Carroll, aged thirty-two years, youngest son of Mrs. Margaret Carroll, formerly of Arthur, Ont. May his soul rest in peace.

Why do you plant a crop?

To provide for the Future

Then you do believe in Life Insurance. Sow a Perennial Crop for your Let us explain our Monthly Income Plan.

The

Insurance Company Policies "Good as Gol HEAD OFFICE - LONDON, ONT. Agencies in all principal Cities

Everything a Catholic

Should Know-Is told Every question a Catholic may ask— is answered in THE Manual of

The Mass is Printed in Plain Type

For those with Poor Eyesight
Bound in Turkey Morecce, limp cover, gold title, $2.50

JOHN MURPHY CO., Dept. D. Baltimore Md.: Please send me the "Manual or Prayers," with Book Mark,

Address

THE HOME BANK OF CANADA ORIGINAL CHARTER 1854

Your Name on Cover, 50 Cents

The First Deposit Every bank welcomes the new account that is opened with the deposit of a single dollar. It means a convert to thrift and the prospect of a new figure in Canada British and Foreign Correspondents In All the Principal Cities

Branches and

Connections Throughout

CALLAGHAN'S TOURS TO STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE

Mr. Callaghan, of London, Ont., has been successfully organizing since 1916 personally conducted tours to the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. The trip is a delightful one down the Lakes, through the magnificent St. Lawrence route, touching Montreal and Quebec, to the famous place of pilgrimage just beyond the beautiful Montmorency. The accommodation on the steamers is all that could be desired, and Mr. Callaghan has an increasing number who join each year the excursions arranged. He will leave Toronto on the second group on July 17th. From Toronto, all expenses included, $68: from Kingston, $54,50.

Begin your life-work betimes; it is sad to be sowing your seed when you should be reaping your

5 TEACHERS WANTED

TEACHERS wanted, holding second class Ontario certificates for Catholic Separate schools, Fort William, Ont. Salary $890 per annum. Duties to commence September, 1922, Apply to G. P. Smith, Secretary, Room. I. Murray Block, Fort William, Ont. 2290-tf

WANTED a teacher holding 2nd class pro-fessional certificate for Separate Schoo Section No. 7 Sydenham, Grey Co. Duties to commence Sept. 1st, 1922. Apply stating experience and salary to Michael J. Duggan Annan, Ont. 288-4

WANTED three qualified teachers, speaking Freech and English, holding second class certificate, for Ansonville, near Iroquois Falls. Salary $1,000 up. Address Box 38, Iroquois Falls, Ont. 2282-3

WANTED Catholic teacher holding first or second class certificate for S. S. S. No. 10, Carriek. Ditties to commence after summer holidays. Apply stating salary and experience to Charles Schefter, Sec. Treas., R 3, Mildmay Ont. 2223-3

APPLICATIONS for English

Fourteen Branches in Middlesex and Elgin Counties

AN experienced teacher wanted for U. Sepselool No.1 McKillop and Logan. One holding a first class and agricultative certificate preferred, Salary $1.150. Duties to commence Sept. 1st. 1922. Apply to Edward Horan, See Treas, R. R. No. 3, Saforth, Ont. 2283-4

Assumption College

SANDWICH, ONT

AFFILIATED WITH WESTERN UNIVERSITY CONDUCTED BY THE BASILIAN FATHERS

Boarding School for Young Men and Boys

with the following courses:

College Course leading to the degree of BACHELOR OF ARTS, and offering a complete foundation for the study of the professions, and especially designed for students preparing for the Priesthood.

High School Course fitting students for Matriculation into American and Canadian Universities.

Commercial Course equipping students for a business career. aratory Department for younger boys.

Good Staff; Good Buildings; Good Equipment; New Gymnasium Swimming Pool; Running Track; Handball Alleys; Tennis Courts; Football and Baseball Grounds; Acres of Campus

Private Room accommodation for one hundred students.

The 53rd Year Begins Tuesday, Sept. 5th

For catalogue and particulars, address:

Superior: REV. J. T. MUCKLE, C. S. B., M. A.

earns just as much interest in July and August as it does in November and December. How unwise, therefore, to carry un-

Vacation

Money Takes No

invested surplus just because during the so-called "dog days" you may feel lackadaisical about re-investing it. Even if you are taking things easy, you may as well keep your money fully

When carefully invested it

Our current list of Canadian Government and Municipal Bonds contains many good suggestions, returning around 51/2% interest—and even more. Suppose you send for a copy.

Wood, Gundy & Company

Toronto Telephone Main 4280

Don't Throw Your Old Carpets Away

No matter how old, how dirty, how dilapidated, the rope around them and send to us to be made into The Famous VELVETEX Rugs Reversible—Will wear a lifetime—Prices reasonable
We have hundreds of recommendations from satisfied

SEND FOR FOLDER 46

Canada Rug Company 98 CARLING STREET, LONDON, ONT Established 1909 Phone 2485

TEACHER wanted for S. S. S. No. 12 Peel. Must have second class professional certificate. Salary $1.60°, State experience, Apply to Cornelius, Callaghan, Sec. Treas., Box. 53.

ANTED fully qualified teacher for Separate hool No. 8, Huntley, Salary $850 per annum, arding, telephone and church benyanian TEACHER wanted for C. S. S. S. No. 10, Adjala, Must have experience, School conveniently situated and beside church. State qualifications. Salary $1,00. Duties to begin Sept. 1. Apply to Kev. R. P. Walsh, Sec. Treas, Colgan, Ont.

Treas. Colgan, Ont. 2288-2

TEACHER wanted for P. S. Markstay, second class certificate, experience preferred. School, church, etc., in Village on main line C. P. R. Apply stating salary required to J. Brown, Markstay, Ont. 288-tf.

WANTED teacher for C. S. S. No. 2, Essex Co., Maidstone, Ont. State qualifications, and experience. Salary $1,000. Duties to begin Sept. 1st. Apply to Sec. Treas., Jarog Quinlan, Essex P. O. R. R. No. 3. 2282-1 WANTED for S. S. S. No. 6 Bromley, an experienced teacher holding second class professional certificate. School beside church

TEACHER wanted for C. S. No. 1, Osgoods holding 2nd class professional certifications

WANTED Catholic Normal trained 2nd clasteacher. Capable of teaching French an English; experienced preferred; to teach S. No. 4 La Passe. Apply stating salary an experience to Hecter Gervais, Sec. Treas., S. No. 4, La Fasse, Ont.

BILLIARD CLOTH BILLIARD CLOTH, finest quality, 74 inche wide, $8.00 per yard, any length cut, carriage and insurance paid. Alfred Grice, Dewsburge, England.

DENTAL practice (er sale in Northern Ontaric City, Gross receipts for 1921 $7,590, Golder opportunity for Catholic dentist. Price $2,000 Easy terms, III health reason for selling Apply Box $39, CATHOLIC RECORD, London Ont.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED

Make Your Own Summer Drinks

Callaghan's Tours

e Luxe Tour

— Quebec — Saguenay Montreal Ste. Anne de Beaupre

Boat Leaves Monday, July 17th

For the Second Tour of the Season From Toronto — 8 Day Tour, $68. 10 Day Tour, $92 Everything First Class All Expenses Included

Patrons of this De Luxe Pilgrimage may commence a Novena on date of sailing - July 17th - and arrange to complete same on the great Feast Day of St. Anne

July 26th AT ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRE

WRITE FOR BOOKLET TO

J. J. CALLAGHAN, 613 Wellington St., London, Ont. NEXT TOUR-JULY 31st

Address

FOUNDED 1864

St. Jerome's College KITCHENER, ONT.

Excellent Business College Department. Excellent High School or Academic Department. Excellent College and Philosophical Department.

REV. W. A. BENINGER, C. R., President.

De La Salle College, Aurora, Ont.

(TRAINING COLLEGE AND NOVITIATE)

HELP WANTED COOK general wanted. Four in family. No laundry work. Good wages. Apply to Box 324, CATHOLIC RECORD, London, Ont.

POSITION WANTED CATHOLIC young lacy desires position as stenographer. Can furnish references. Address Box 3i0, CATHOLIC RECORD, London, Onl. 22304

YOUNG lady, just graduated from Business College, wants a position as stenographer and book-keeper. Thoroughly competent, and can furnish best references. Could start work at once. Apply Box 338, CATHOLIC RECORD LONDON, Out. 2282-3

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

MERCY Hospital Training School for Nurses offers exceptional educational opportunities for competent and ambitious young women. Applicants must be eighteen years of age, and have one year of High school or its equivalent. Pupils may enter at the present time. Applications may be sent to the Directness of Nurses. Mercy Hospital Toledo Ohio. 2110 tr

Morinus House Lake Rosseau Muskoka

Accommodation for seventy-five. Roman Catholic Church five minutes' walk. Excellent table. Dairy and veg-

Bathing Beach and Dance Hall. Apply Morinus P. O.

VOTIVE STANDS

Oblong design, fitted for Glasses or Candles. Fifty Lights. Brass finish. Enamel tray for sand or water Price Only $65.00

405 YONGE ST. TORONTO

LAKE WILCOX

PARK Apply Mr. A. H. Kirby

354 Dupont St. Toronto Telephone Hill 1898 BOOKS (by Catholic Au thors). We have thousands of

Articles of Devotion Large Assortment Various prices. W. E. BLAKE & SON, Limited

The Red Ascent

By Esther W. Neill R ICHARD MATTERSON, whose historical studies had led him to become a Catholic, was the son of a Confederate colonel. The tale opens with his departure from a seminary in response to his sister's letter acquainting him with the desperate condition of the family fortunes. And so the black desert of unexpected disappointment leads the way to "the red ascent" through struggles which tried body as well as soul, and conquers a situation well-nigh hopeless. The construction of the plot is splendid, and the characters are drawn with It Is a Fine Stirring Story $1.25 Post Paid

The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

Conan Doyle's Spiritism

Phone 708

a Religion? Its Death Knell has been Tolled in the cleverly assembled

Proofs as given in 'Spiritism, the Modern

Satanism" By Thomas F. Coakley, D. D.

Price $1.25 Post Paid More than a hundred burning questions of the hour are answered in this marvelous book. It is unquestionably the most important book on Spiritism and Psychic Research. Four interesting chapters — 132 pages. Handsomely bound.

The Catholic Record LONDON, ONT.

