NEWFOUNDLAND CRISIS
The Assembly Meets Under the New Administration.
GOODRIDGE'S PARTY DEFEATED

The Whiteites Move a Want of Confidence Motion—The Debate of the House adjourned. A debate commenced while the debate is in progress.

St. John's, Nfld., April 16.—Saturday's parliamentary proceedings were unprecedented. Goodridge's Cabinet was sworn in in the morning. The Cabinet advised the Governor to prorogue in the afternoon and the Governor agreed to preliminary prorogation, to continue until all the accused Whiteites members are unseated, whereafter the expiry of the session will require necessary explanation of Whiteites demand for dissolution.

Assembly met soon on the announcement being made of the formation of a new ministry. Ex-Premier Whiteley read a vote of want of confidence in the new Ministry, and made a lengthy speech, and was supported by Mr. Morris.
The debate was not concluded when the member appeared to summon the members of the council, presented a motion, to formally prorogue the Legislature. The Whiteites then adopted a resolution refusing assent to the motion until the Assembly had concluded its deliberations.
The doors were closed and the Speaker ordered the members to retire. The member's question continued, and the motion of want of confidence was passed.
The Whiteites then decided to present their decision to the Governor immediately by their own hand, to delay prorogation.
The Goodridge party, however, proceeded to the committee, where prorogation was finally accomplished. The Whiteites refrained from visiting the Governor, and sent a copy of the vote by the Clerk.

Mr. Goodridge, who had been waiting upon him, and returned an answer. The Speaker then visited the Governor, who expressed himself in strong terms at their conduct.

The new departmental officers assumed their duties today.

CANADIAN CATTLE IN ENGLAND.
Prospects for the Speedy Removal of the Scottish Ban.

LONDON, April 16.—During the debate in the House of Commons on the subject of agricultural depression in England, Sir William Harcourt, Home Secretary, and leader, said he was now prepared to favor the admission of Canadian cattle which, as a matter of course, had his own views so long opposed.

Mr. Chaplin said the House would probably be informed as to the intentions of the president of the Board of Agriculture. Mr. Gardner in reply said that he had arranged to answer that question fully next week.

Mr. Chaplin said it was believed that if the restrictions now placed upon the importation of Canadian cattle were removed it would mean a loss to the farming property of Great Britain of between five and six per cent of the value of their live stock.

A Storekeeper Charged With Fraud.
MORRIS, Ont., April 16.—Hiram Silverman, of Westwood, Ont., a merchant and general storekeeper, is now an inmate of the penitentiary for the charge of fraud against him, besides two others.
Silverman was arrested in Sibley on Monday evening last, and charged with defrauding Mr. Edward Ross out of between $7,000 and $8,000. When he came to Montreal to buy goods he claimed that he had no property, and goods were sent on. When the time came for payment there was no money, and an investigation it was found that his property was in his wife's name, and that he had given a chattel mortgage to his brother for all the stock in the store. The first lot made fairly easy as Silverman was caught by surprise, and he was at once brought before the court in order to be sent to Montreal to stand trial. Silverman was brought before Judge Dugas to morrow to stand his trial on the above charge.

Farmer Suffocated by Gas.
GALT, April 16.—William Taylor, a farmer from the vicinity of Glen Morris, came to town on Saturday night and put up at the Market hotel, being consigned to a room on the third floor. Yesterday morning a strong smell of gas was noticed in that room, which was investigated, and proved to come from the room occupied by Taylor. He could not be removed until he had been taken to the hospital, where he died, lying across the bed. The gas was turned on by the proprietor, who was found dead with gas. Mr. Thompson, the proprietor, showed him to the bed night before and explained the working of the gas.

Fire in Ashburnham.
ASHBURNHAM, Ont., April 16.—Last night fire broke out in a storehouse adjoining the large flour mill owned by the Company here. The flames spread rapidly. Three Grand Trunk cars which were on the siding, which had just been to ashes. The firemen were promptly on the scene, but owing to Ashburnham not having any water works considerable time was lost in getting water.

Constable James Stewart Dead.
OTTAWA, April 16.—Constable James Stewart, one of the most popular of the Dominion police force, is dead. Mr. Stewart personally attended Sir John Macdonald during the last illness of that distinguished statesman, and was a life-long friend of the man and served with distinction in Egypt. He died from pneumonia. He leaves a wife and six children.

A Sunday Morning Tragedy.
BURLINGTON, April 16.—Wm. Smiley and others enjoyed the home of Michael Ennis last night. Mrs. Ennis was shot and dangerously wounded. Her son Michael defended his mother and shot and fatally wounded Smiley. Smiley, it is now said, is in jail.

Hamilton Storekeepers Strike.
HAMILTON, April 16.—One hundred men employed in the Hamilton Storekeepers Association have gone out on strike against a reduction in the scale of wages.

Home Freedmen's Will.
LONDON, April 16.—The will of the late Mrs. Smith, a widow, who was a member of the Freedmen's Society, has been proved in the Probate Court. The will bequeathed her property to the Society, and the balance of her estate to her children. The will was proved by the testamentary trustees, Messrs. Messinger, Messinger & Co., of London.

The Premier of Egypt.
LONDON, April 16.—A dispatch from Cairo says that the Premier of Egypt, Messr. El-Rifa'i, has been elected to the office of the Premier of Egypt. The election was held in the presence of the British Consul-General, and the election was a triumph for the Premier.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE
TORONTO, April 16.—In the Legislature yesterday these bills received third readings: To enable the corporation of the village of London to issue debentures to consolidate the debt thereof—Mr.
Trotter. To establish a provincial park at Roussville—Mr. Eady. Respecting Municipal and North Shore Railway Company—Mr. Conroy. To enable the executors of the late John Smith to mortgage certain lands in the city of Toronto.
Mr. Clark. To consolidate the debt of the town of Saint Ste. Marie—Mr. Conroy. To incorporate the Port Lock and Desert Lake Mining and Railway Company
—Mr. Balfour.

Mr. Hall moved the second reading of his bill to permit municipalities to change the present method of assessment for taxation.

Hon. Mr. Hardy hoped the bill would be withdrawn, but it was put to the House and carried by a majority of 18.

Mr. Hall moved the second reading of his bill providing that stationary engineers shall not be liable to imprisonment and take certificates of proficiency.

On a division the motion for second reading was lost by 24 to 13.

TORONTO, April 16.—Hon. Mr. Gibson brought in the redistribution bill in the Legislative Assembly. It was introduced as a bill respecting the representation of certain cities in the Legislative Assembly.
In moving the first reading, Hon. Mr.
Gibson said the changes proposed in this bill will be confined to three cities of the province, namely, Toronto, Hamilton and Ottawa. They were all prepared to see an additional representative given to the city of Toronto, and the province made last year by the Government, accordingly an additional member is now proposed to be given to the city, and the city to be divided into four constituencies.

It is proposed that there shall be two members for the city of Hamilton, and that the city shall be divided into electoral divisions to be known as East and West Hamilton, and that the division shall be on a straight line running through the centre of Hewson street, continued to the southern limit of the city.

The only other change proposed to be made in the present representation is in regard to the city of Ottawa, and it is proposed by the present bill that Ottawa shall be represented by two members.

Concurrence in strong terms at their conduct yesterday Mr. Mack introduced a bill to amend the Municipal Act and Sir Oliver Mowat moved the following resolution:
That in the opinion of this House the election of Public and Separate School Trustees in cities, towns and incorporated villages, and in townships in which township boards are established, should be by ballot; and that it is referred to a committee of the House to report thereon and to propose a bill to amend the present law, and to provide that in cities, towns and incorporated villages, and in townships in which township boards are established, the elections of Public and Separate School Trustees shall be by ballot.

The division resulted in yeas 38 and nays 31, defeating the motion by 18.

The division accounted for 38 members in a total of 91. The seven absentees consisted of four Ministers, Messrs. Conservative, Mr. F. Clarke, of Toronto, and Mr. McNaughton, the Patron of Industry.
The only transfer of allegiance was from Mr. Deak, who voted with the Opposition. The Equal Rights representative and the E. P. A. representative also supported the Opposition. The result of the division was received with applause on the Government side of the House.

TORONTO, April 16.—In the Legislature
yesterday Sir Oliver Mowat's bill respecting Councils of Conciliation and Arbitration was read a third time, and the bill received its final passage.

The House went into committee on the bill to rectify Nipissing into a provincial judicial district.

After some discussion Mr. Meredith moved to have the section covering this matter referred and an amendment submitted providing that unless the Honorable member before time, the opinion of the electors should be obtained.

The House divided, and the amendment was rejected by 30 votes to 21.

The bill was reported with amendments.

Sir Oliver Mowat moved the second reading of the bill respecting Queen Victoria Niagara Falls park. The bill proposes to allow the park commissioners to issue $75,000 worth of debentures for necessary park improvements and the purchase of land.

Sir Oliver Mowat moved the second reading of the bill enabling boards of public and separate school trustees in certain places to appoint general arbitrators for the purpose of settling disputes between the board and the trustees. It was proposed that a certain number of arbitrators, from amongst whom general arbitrators should be appointed. It was suggested that by this course fair, impartial and reliable arbitrators would be appointed. The bill would be perfectly voluntary in its character.

Sir Oliver Mowat's bill respecting the call of solicitors to the bar passed a second reading after a protest from Mr. Meredith and the provisions of the measure were enacted.

TORONTO, April 16.—In the Legislature yesterday these bills were introduced and read a first time: Dr. Gilmore—To amend the Municipal Act. Mr. Conroy—To amend the Joint Stock Company's Letters Patent Act. Mr. Atway—To amend the Agricultural and Aris Act. Dr. McKay (Oxford)—Respecting the assignments of book debts.

The following bills were read a third time: Respecting mortgages and sales of personal property—Mr. Gibson (Hamilton).
To consolidate the debt of the town of Warton—Mr. O'Connor, relating to Algonquin park and the township of Canterbury—Mr. Hart.

Mr. Wood (Hastings) moved for a return showing the persons employed in each regular division for the last three years, giving names, date of engagement, length of time employed, character of service and the amount paid to each person for the year.

Mr. Meredith asked that the motion be made of wider scope and it was allowed to be so.

Hon. Mr. Gibson's bill to amend the Registry Act, one provision of which respecting the registration of mortgages was read a second time.

The Attorney-General's bill enabling him to make regulations in relation to the Government with reference to the proposed subsidy to an Atlantic telegraph line.
They will urge that the bill be only granted on condition of sufficient security for the Government.

The liquor dealers organized a Hotel-keepers' Protective Association; and sent a deputation to interview the Ontario Government.
The Toronto News says: Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. J. S. Hardy were too busy to receive them, so Messrs. Harcourt, Dryden, Ross and Gibson were deputed to "save them off."
At the request of the deputation the press was excluded.
Mr. Harcourt's answer acted as spokesman. The deputation's demands were briefly as follows:
1. Uniformity as to hours of closing to be settled by legislation.
2. Number of taverns not to be reduced yearly and arbitrarily, but at regular intervals, say three or four years apart.
3. Taverns keepers to be eligible for municipal offices.
4. Power of municipalities to increase license duties to be withdrawn.
5. Sale of cigars to be regulated and licensed by the commissioners.
6. Clauses requiring majority of qualified electors to petition before new license granted to be amended and less restriction as to transfers.
7. A question. Will the Government grant compensation in the event of a prohibitory law being enacted?
All Mr. Harcourt would promise was to present the views of the deputation to the Premier.
Mr. Harcourt's reply was very smoothly put and satisfied most of those present. But it did not satisfy the great bulk of the delegates.
"It was a complete snub for the hotel men," said one of them afterwards. "When then the Police Commissioner there they were received by the Premier himself. He gave them a straight answer and saved us off. We are to be kept on a string until after the elections and then he can snap his fingers at us. The trouble with our deputation was that having had no experience in such matters they accepted fine words instead of a straight answer."

LOCAL SUMMARY.
There is absolutely nothing that will help you bear the ills of life so well as a good laugh. Laugh all you can. If the clothes-line breaks, if the cat falls over the milk, and the dog drops down the road, if the children fall into the mud simultaneously with the advent of clean aprons, if the new girl quits in the middle of house cleaning, and though you search the earth with candle and torch, you cannot find the place: if the neighbor in whom you have trusted goes back on you and keeps chickens, if the chariot wheels of the uninvited guest draw near when you are out of provender and the gipping of an empty purse is like the unfeeling mouth of a young robin, take courage if you have enough sunshine in your heart to keep a laugh on your lips.

OBITUARY.
Mr. Alanson Baken died in the general hospital, Brockville, on Tuesday last, aged 67 years. The announcement will be received with keen regret by a large number of our readers throughout the county, to whom he was personally known. Deceased came to this country from York state, lived for a time in Smith's Falls, and then went to Addison where he married a daughter of the late Martin Bates. For many years he resided on a farm near the head-line where he was widely known as a generous, jovial farmer. For the last few years business had not prospered with him, and he sold his farm and removed to Delta, where he conducted an insurance agency business. His health failed, and after a long period of sickness he was removed to the hospital in January last. His remains were interred in the Elbe burying ground. His wife is now in the hospital and very ill. His daughter, Mrs. Bush, of Ottawa, and his son Mr. A. Baken, of Vermont, attended the obsequies.

Comments on Canadian Justice.
Editor Athens Reporter.
DEAR SIR,—A recent issue of the Reporter contained a note of the McGrovey & Connolly case, and in your issue of April 3rd I noted an item referring to a fine for using a call celled postage stamp.
Let us compare these two crimes, together with their respective punishments. In the first case, the Dominion treasury was deliberately swindled of $100,000, and in the second case, the same was defrauded to the amount of $c. Now, then, a glance at their penalties. For defrauding the post office department of $c a man was fined $20 and ordered to do a year's imprisonment; for swindling the Dominion treasury out of $100,000 two men each received the sentence of one year imprisonment, and at the expiration of three months they were released by special pardon from Lord Aberdeen.

Now, let all just and honest minds see the difference in justice shown to an instrument of the Government and to his Majesty's subjects. I do not say that the man who robs the post office department of $c did right; far from it. But it is the difference between the penalties that calls for notice. Let us average up both crimes: taking for example, the one who was given justly without mercy. He committed a robbery of $c, a penalty $20 fine or sixty days imprisonment. At that same rate $100,000 should be worth about $65,000 fine or nearly 550,000 years imprisonment. I do not presume to fix the penalty of the latter crime, but at this much I say, that the punishment given was a gross violation of the demands of justice.
Looking at the matter from another standpoint, these men were jarred moments. Now if Canadian justice would own no real estate and therefore had not furnished one cent of the money they stole; whereas, the other was a farmer or holder of real estate and had trinketed more than the petty crook or thief paid to die.
Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech at Ottawa on March 28th, stated that Canada's National debt was $240,000,000. It does not need a glance to see which would do the more towards paying it, $c or $100,000.
Now if Canadian justice would fire its great, thundering, Armstrong canon at the heads of the $100,000 robbery and shoot off its pop-gun at the $c postage stamp defaulter, instead of via versa, it would seem a more equitable punishment in comparison with the crime.
A SUBSCRIBER.

The Liquor Men Organize.
The liquor dealers organized a Hotel-keepers' Protective Association; and sent a deputation to interview the Ontario Government.
The Toronto News says: Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. J. S. Hardy were too busy to receive them, so Messrs. Harcourt, Dryden, Ross and Gibson were deputed to "save them off."
At the request of the deputation the press was excluded.
Mr. Harcourt's answer acted as spokesman. The deputation's demands were briefly as follows:
1. Uniformity as to hours of closing to be settled by legislation.
2. Number of taverns not to be reduced yearly and arbitrarily, but at regular intervals, say three or four years apart.
3. Taverns keepers to be eligible for municipal offices.
4. Power of municipalities to increase license duties to be withdrawn.
5. Sale of cigars to be regulated and licensed by the commissioners.
6. Clauses requiring majority of qualified electors to petition before new license granted to be amended and less restriction as to transfers.
7. A question. Will the Government grant compensation in the event of a prohibitory law being enacted?
All Mr. Harcourt would promise was to present the views of the deputation to the Premier.
Mr. Harcourt's reply was very smoothly put and satisfied most of those present. But it did not satisfy the great bulk of the delegates.
"It was a complete snub for the hotel men," said one of them afterwards. "When then the Police Commissioner there they were received by the Premier himself. The trouble with our deputation was that having had no experience in such matters they accepted fine words instead of a straight answer."

FRONTIER NEWS.
In last week's Reporter there was mistake in this matter, caused by trying to say too much with too few words.
I meant to say, if you were feeding a few gallons of sweetened water, put a piece of comb with syrup or honey in it in the edge of the sweetened water in the trough for the bees to sip from, then the bees will come. Feed two or three rods from the house in a well protected place, such as a dry woods box (a big one), open side turned to the south. Be as regular as possible, even to a minute, the first or second; then the bees will come. The time is just, will go right on to work, feed or no feed. Irregularity makes bees uncertain and indolent, as it does man.
Never feed before the bees are nearly as well, nor on windy, cool or damp days. Feed at the rate of 1 pint of sweetened water per hive daily for 14 days, if you are disposed to do so. No maple syrup, mind.
A little salt and water in a dish containing shavings or straw (to prevent the bees throwing) with a piece of comb with honey or syrup in, near the spout, is good. Feed water in the same place. You will have no trouble to start the bees feeding now if you feed, watered and salted in that place and time. Deceased came to this country from York state, lived for a time in Smith's Falls, and then went to Addison where he married a daughter of the late Martin Bates. For many years he resided on a farm near the head-line where he was widely known as a generous, jovial farmer. OBITUARY.
In St. Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville, on Wednesday, April 11, Mrs. J. K. Keenan, wife of Geo. K. Keenan, departed this life, aged 74 years, 6 months and 15 days.
Deceased, with her husband, moved from Plain Hollow to Athens a few years ago. During the closing years of her life she was helpless and a great sufferer, and had been in the hospital only a few weeks when she died.
The funeral, which took place on Friday last from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. Derbyshire, Athens, to the Baptist church, was largely attended, as was highly esteemed, and she is remembered by her friends as a devoted wife and mother.
Rev. T. J. Murdoch and Rev. S. Sheldon, of Delta, conducted the service.

OBITUARY.
Miss Mary Emma, only and beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles, was born August 17th, 1852, and departed this life, April 10th, 1894. She was in her 32nd year. Converted to God in early life, she consecrated herself entirely to his service—a devoted, virtuous, Godly young lady. But it was evident for the last two years that consumption was doing its deadly work. All that medical skill could do, as well as the ministrations of her loving parents, was of little avail in her wretched condition. In her affliction, which was long and painful, she was submissive, true and full of courage. The war she was doing its deadly work on her lips to the last. Emma lived well and died well. May God comfort the aged parents and only son in these hours of sorrow. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ferguson, assisted by her father, Rev. Mr. Knox. So many friends were present that the church was full. Life with Emma. Peace to her ashes. J. F.

FRENCH GLOVE TRADE.
THE GREAT INDUSTRY OF GRENOBLE.
NEAR PARIS, FRANCE.
Nearly Ten Million Pairs Annually for the Manufacturing—Some Other Striking Figures—The Conditions of Work—Women—The Conditions of Work.
At Grenoble, near Paris, France, 1,200,000 dozen pairs of gloves are manufactured annually. This represents a trade of $10,000,000. It employs 25,000 workpeople of both sexes. France produces a certain quantity of useful skins, but she now imports nearly all the skins which she uses for gloves. The skins are supplied to the demand, even that of Grenoble. Only kids and lambs furnish glove skins, the first being the best, and the second being the most abundant. As regards other animals, they have never covered any person's hands, and when you see the skin of a dog, a cat, a pig, a horse, or a bear, you will not be surprised to see a pair of gloves made of it. Only very small parts can, therefore, be used, and these are obtained in the following manner: 1,300,000 dozen pairs that Grenoble makes is not more than 1,000,000, the balance being made of other skins. The reason why Grenoble is the leader over any other town in the glove industry is due to the number of goats reared thereabouts than it is to the special quality of its skins. Employment in the glove industry has reached a perfection in coloring which cannot perhaps be surpassed elsewhere. The work of a glove-maker comprises 800 different tints, and everyday consumers demand that the gloves should be turned out after any sort of sample.
On their arrival in a factory the skins are submitted to an examination that is very thorough. Employed in the factory are men and women, and the latter are the most numerous. Daughters of the rich have reached a perfection in coloring which cannot perhaps be surpassed elsewhere. The work of a glove-maker comprises 800 different tints, and everyday consumers demand that the gloves should be turned out after any sort of sample.

THE MECHANISM OF THE BEST COMMON ARTICLE OF ATTIRE.
Open your watch and look at the little wheels, springs and screws, such an intricate mechanism, and you will be struck by the beauty of the work. Notice the busy little balance wheel as it flies to and fro unconsciously, forming the heart of the watch. This wonderful little machine is the result of hundreds of years of study and experiment. The watch carried by the average man is composed of ninety-eight pieces, and its manufacture embraces more than 2,000 distinct and separate operations. Some of the smallest screws are so minute that the unaided eye cannot distinguish them from steel filings or particles of dirt. Under a powerful magnifying glass a perfect screw is revealed. The slit in the head is 2,000 of an inch wide, and takes 20,000 of these screws to weigh a pound, and a pound is worth $1,585. The hair-spring is a strip of steel, about 1/16 of an inch long and 1/100 of an inch wide and 37-100 of an inch thick. It is coiled up in a spiral form, and its length is 1 1/2 inches. The process of tempering these springs was long held as a secret by the few fortunate ones who possessed the secret. The spring is made of a metal which is not generally known. Their manufacture requires great skill and care. The strip of metal is heated to a certain temperature, and then drawn out into a wire of the required length. The wire is then drawn through a series of dies, which gradually reduce it to the required thickness. THE HUMAN EAR.
James J. Corbett, the pugilist, said: "Let me begin at the beginning and tell you about my starting in this business. I learned to box when a kid, and never since that time have I had a fight. I was made for a boxer, for I have the correct shape and wind. Then I am quite a good boxer. No, I did not choose it, though.
Perhaps you know that for several years I was in a bank and earned the magnificent salary of $100 a month. It made me a little to think of it now, because I spent that money on my clothes. I belonged at that time to the most exclusive club in California—the Olympia—and regularly bought for pleasure. One day I thought struck me, why not do this for a living? I may go for my life as a bank clerk at $100 a month, and it is very risky.
The thing that I found in the time in the house when I told them I was going in for my money. But that was the turning point in my life. I have over 100,000 dollars in the bank, and none of them have been here to help the old folks like me. In fact, I am doing so well that I would do the same thing over again, I am sure.
I think one sort of work, up as a rule, to one's vocation, although there are some who never reach the goal. You will find it is the unsuccessful ones who try to live their lives over again, for the man like myself who are fast making money don't want to. When I have made a big pile of money, for instance, I am only rich people are not apt to ask what you have made in it. Riches speak for themselves."

Sunday was a beautiful day and every one that could was abroad enjoying the bright sunshine. The churches were all well attended, and the afternoon many visited the neighboring woods or took their first view of Charleston Lake.

A case of breach of promise of marriage came up for trial at the assizes at Cornwall last week. Miss Win Steele of Avonmore sued Dave Campbell of the same place. After considerable delay evidence was in fact forwarded to court of the plaintiff agreeing to accept $750 and costs.

The Publishers of the Port Hope Guide got judgment for $11.50 and costs in the Division Court from a man who had been a subscriber in Port Hope and moved to Guelph to which address the paper was then forwarded and continued for some years. The subscriber, after taking the paper for some years, "refused" it and tried to get out of paying for the same. Judge Ketchum, of Port Hope, however, taught him a lesson on honesty.

The B. & W. train was delayed on the down trip on Thursday morning, when a short distance below Unionville, by a number of new railway ties having been thrown across the track. The ties had been scattered along the line for repairing and some persons, presumably a lot of thoughtless boys, had lifted them over onto the rails. Whether done for a lark or with evil intent, the parties should be made the risk they run in not only injuring the property of the Railway company but also in endangering the lives of the passengers. Sup't. Mooney, who was aboard the train, was inclined to think that it was done by boys, but our opinion is that any person who is old enough to lift a heavy tie across the rails, should have common sense enough to know better, and our advice to the parties is to beware of alike offenders, or they may have time to repent of their rashness behind prison bars, as the law is very strict against placing obstructions on railway tracks.

One of the biggest events of the year in bicycling will be the relay race which will be held during the last of June, immediately before the G. W. A. meet at Montreal. The Century club of Toronto will take charge of the race, which will be from Sarnia to Montreal, about 550 miles, and the route will be as follows: Sarnia, London, St. Mary's, Stratford, Barrie, Toronto, then along the Kingston road to Brockville, Morrisburg and through to Montreal. The riders are expected to cover 15 miles an hour and the schedule time will probably be 25 hours.

Pent-maker wanted at once - G. B. Douglis, Athens.

Enne-wire $2.50 per 100 lbs. cash, at G. W. Beach's.

You can get a 30 gallon milk can with patent trimmings for $4.00, at W. F. Earl's.

Mr. Thos. Guesd, a Renfrew farmer, realized over $80 last year from the milk of one cow.

Suckers have commenced running in Beale's creek and already some fine catches of "red fins" have been made.

Carriage repairing of all kinds done in first class style at lowest prices - at A. James'.

The execution of Pendergast, the murderer of Carter Harrison, has been further stayed until July 2.

Mr. Chas. Powell, of Montreal, was in Athens last week attending the funeral of Mrs. Brannon.

Civil service promotion examinations will be held on May 15th for prospective vacancies.

An Indian who has been trapping along the Rideau this Spring claims to have caught 1,000 muskrats.

Nearly sixty bills have been introduced in the New York state assembly to amend the game laws.

A large consignment of New Goods arriving this week at G. W. Beach's. It will pay you to call and see them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is absolutely unequalled as a blood purifier and strengthening medicine. It is the ideal spring medicine. Try it.

Mr. Gideon Vanaman, who died at Kingston on Saturday last, aged 57, was a brother of Mr. T. Vanaman, Athens, and Geo. D., dentist of Iroquois.

Lovers of high-class music in Athens will be pleased to learn that what is described as "The Cat Came Back Co." went to pieces at Easton's Corners.

Baseball clubs are organizing all over the county, and some have arranged dates for matches. Isn't it about time the Athens invincibles were getting in shape for the season's campaign?

At the regular meeting of the I. O. O. F. on Wednesday evening business of special importance will be transacted, and a large attendance of members is requested.

Carlton Place Herald: The many friends of Mr. W. Taber, who has been ill with typhoid for seven weeks will be pleased to learn that he is now convalescing.

Mr. "Tat" Myers and Miss Arletta Hollingsworth, students of the Athens high school, have been dangerously ill for several days, and their condition is considered critical.

The close season for black bass this year will be from May 10 to July 1, instead of from April 15 to June 15. Some of the biggest and best bass of the season will be captured before the close season arrives.

Those of our readers who have the pleasure of his acquaintance will be pleased to learn that Alden Algire is to be associated with H. Johnson in the running of Cedar Park this year.

Among those who made a "final pass" in medicine at the recent examinations in Queen's College appear the names of A. R. Myers, Forfar, and W. G. McCutcheon, Seely's Bay. Mr. Myers will take a post graduate course in New York city.

Several sons of sunny Italy gave a beard-ance exhibition on Main street late on Saturday evening. It is said to have been one of the cleverest performances ever witnessed here, the bear responding with a graceful, willowy motion to every intonation of the waltz music played by its keeper. The combination is moving west.

Patrons of the blacksmith shop of A. James will be pleased to learn that he has re-engaged Mr. Young who gave such excellent satisfaction when formerly in his employ. It is always pleasing to note such a return to the shop, not only that both employer and employee are satisfied, but also that the public interest is sure to be well served.

An exchange says: "The origin of 'He isn't in it' is thus explained: The expression was coined some time ago by an editor who grew weary of this kind of paper, and in the afternoon home that is prepared for us. He hunted there high and low for the man who took his paper for three years and died forgetting to pay for it. The man was not there."

Owing to the continuance of the illness of Mr. U. J. Flach, it was deemed advisable to procure a teacher to perform his duties at the high school for time, and accordingly the board engaged Mr. J. Boyle, B. A., of Kingston, and he arrived here last night.

Mr. Flach is progressing favorably and we believe that as soon as he is able the teaching staff will have the benefit of his counsel and whatever assistance he is capable of rendering.

Mr. J. P. Lamb, proprietor of Lamb's Lubricating Liniment, Lamb's Horse Power, Hunt's Cough Syrup, Indian Oil and Indian Pills, has received word from his travellers now on the road that the demand for his standard remedies has largely increased in the localities travelled by them last fall. Mr. Lamb has just ordered a large quantity of card board hangers.

From this office for putting up on telegraph poles, fences, &c., being determined to so place the names of his remedies before the public that "he that runneth may read."

Fire Protection.

On Thursday last B. Lovern, village clerk, accompanied by Capt. Jas. Hall, of the Brookville Hook, visited Kingston and inspected the engine and engine for sale there. On their arrival they were met by the chairman of the fire department of the city and taken down to the fire hall, where a gang of eleven corporation laborers were put to the brakes and the engine thoroughly tested. With 200 feet of hose they forced water through an 1 1/2 inch nozzle a distance of over 60 feet, and with a 1/2 inch nozzle fully 75 or 80 feet was thrown. The working parts of the engine were carefully examined and found in fair working condition, and need but very slight repairs to put it in good shape. Mr. Lovern purchased the engine at a very low figure and will have it shipped via G. T. R. and E. & W. this week, and it will probably reach Athens by Thursday or Friday night.

Wm. Taylor, a farmer from near Glenora, blew out the gas in a room in the Market Hotel, Galt, and was found dead Saturday morning.

According to the latest official regulations the following fish shall not be caught, sold or had in possession, between the dates specified: Bass, 10th of May to 30th of June; mackinac, 10th April to 15th June; speckled trout, 15th Sept. to 1st of May; salmon, 1st of May to 1st of Oct. to 30th Nov. Both days inclusive in each case.

Economy and Strength.

Valuable vegetable remedies are used in the preparation of Hood's Sarsaparilla in such a peculiar manner as to retain the full medicinal value of every ingredient. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla combines economy and strength with the only remedy of which "100 Does One Dollar" is true. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Pills do not purge, pain or grip, but act promptly, easily and efficiently.
