CLOSING SCENES OF THE PORT ARTHUR SIEGE

ent was a steel shield covering the face and body.

In order to recover the wounded when possible, soldiers crawled from the trenches at night and worked along the Japanese lines, pulling the wounded slowly to cover.

The Japanese army was finally announced that a general assault would be made on September 19 up on the hill, the half-moon fort, and the redoubt at the foot of Rihlung mountain.

Early the next morning the whole force was concentrated in a furious assault on the Japanese lines.

The Japanese bombardment on the 20th transformed the slopes into inferno. At 11 o'clock a small party of the Japanese charged toward the west slope and a desperate fight ensued.

The Japanese continued their advance and several lines of trenches during the night and several lines of Japanese trenches extended along the slopes of the crest of the brow of the ridge.

Before dawn the Japanese pursuing the Russians along the slopes until the two hundred Japanese officers and men were killed. The Japanese captured the Russian trenches and remained under arms until daylight.

The Russian casualties from the 19th to the 21st were 6,000 and a single regiment of 2,500 men, only six officers and two hundred men, of this regiment remained after the fight.

The Russians were unseated in their efforts to recapture the trenches.

The Japanese now gained the crest of the ridge and the Russian position was untenable.

The retention of the Banjan fort gave the Japanese a foothold on the ridge and a result of six days of fighting.

During the operations from October 28th to September 18th, the Japanese made night attacks.

The pioneers were sent to attach ropes and ladders to the Russian trenches and to pull up the ropes, drag the Russian trenches and to pull up the ropes, drag the Russian trenches.

The Russian trenches were captured and the Japanese were hurled hundreds of feet.

The west Urh fort was damaged October 13th. The battleship Peresviet was struck by shells and caught fire.

On October 10th the Japanese attacked an entrenched hill called Hachima, capturing the trenches at the crest which the Russians evacuated.

It was announced on October 25th that the Japanese had captured the crest of the east fortified hill and also the Chair fort.

The Russian trenches were captured and the Japanese were hurled hundreds of feet.

Early on October 25 the Russians made sorties on the Japanese trenches near the west Urh fort.

The Russian trenches were captured and the Japanese were hurled hundreds of feet.

THE CAMPAIGN JUST BEGUN.

The Colonist takes the first opportunity of stating that the question of Better Terms, which it assisted in making an issue in this Province will not be permitted to drop. In fact, the campaign having in view the readjustment of our financial relations has just begun.

NOT SETTING A GOOD EXAMPLE.

We assume that the readers of the local papers are tired of political discussion, and we do not propose to continue it in the spirit of the campaign that has just ended.

THE RUSSIAN DOG.

returns received, and even if it were done, as is alleged, for the purpose of influencing the voting, it would be after all only appealing to the same sentiment of the electors which our opponents appealed to through the election, and that was to be on the winning side.

THE LIBERALS ARE VICTORIOUS.

While at the time of writing the returns are not complete, the Liberal party is doing better than the Conservative party in the previous house.

THE PULP INDUSTRY IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

We have heard a great deal about the manufacture of pulp in British Columbia, and we are periodically assured of the commencement of the industry.

choice and his determination to work for it. The Post-Intelligencer says: "The letter which is quoted here is a very interesting one, and it is a pity that it is not more widely known."

THE SITUATION AT PORT ARTHUR.

Despatches from Port Arthur are to the effect that its fate is imminent. The Japanese by great pressure have been enabled to force the British to evacuate the city.

BRITISH COLUMBIA AT THE ROYAL HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY EXHIBIT.

One of the most gratifying things in connection with the fruit-growing industry in British Columbia is the appreciation of our fruit at the Royal Horticultural Society in England.

With the exception of Mr. Borden and Mr. Clancy, on the Conservative side, and Mr. McCreary, on the Liberal side, the House has been returned, and the debating strength of the House has not been impaired.

Sir Thomas has served in Turkey, and also in Egypt and South Africa, and before retiring, in 1902, was commandant at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, in command of the Thames district.

Telephone Cable.—Theophilus Smith, of London, Eng., has returned to Vancouver after superintending the work of laying the telephone cable for the living Victoria connection with the Mainland. Fortunately, the weather was fine throughout, and the only delay was occasioned by the heavy fog. It is expected that the cable will be ready for commercial purposes inside of a couple of weeks, some of the land connections having yet to be perfected.

Grain Samples.—Samples of grain and potatoes grown by the Rev. C. Harrison at Massett, Queen Charlotte Islands, were yesterday received by the Deputy Minister of Agriculture and to be seen at the Department of Agriculture. The excellent quality and quantity of the grain and potatoes of the province is well adapted for the production of grain, and the Rev. C. Harrison is to be congratulated upon having secured the gold medal of the Royal Horticultural Society for his exhibit of fruit, Mr. Harrison says in reference to the samples: "The season was very wet and not suitable for a fine crop this year."

West Coast Activity.—Mining conditions on the West Coast are brightening according to W. M. Brewer, M. E., who has just returned from the coast. He further development of the Hayes property on Alberni canal indicates the confidence of the government in the district. Mr. Brewer also says the timber cruisers and surveyors who have been operating between the coast and the inlet for some time have completed their labors. They are representing a big Seattle mill company, and the latter's intention to erect a large mill on the West Coast.

Visited Saanich.—The Rev. Dr. White, superintendent of Methodist missions, visited Saanich and preached acceptable and interesting sermons on Sabbath. He was pleased with the prospective outlook and congratulated the people for having put forth their best to erect a parsonage, which will greatly strengthen the work and is another step towards helping Saanich to become a self-sustaining church. The people enjoyed the visit of the superintendent. Dr. White left on Monday morning for Salt Spring Island, where the erection of a church is about to be undertaken.

Railway Officials' Tour.—Passenger and immigration representatives of the Northern Pacific Railway, who are on an important tour of the coast, will leave this morning for Seattle and return to the regular westbound through train on a comprehensive tour of the territory served by the Northern Pacific. The trip is to be made for the purpose of personal knowledge of the system and its growth and development. It is likely that the party will visit Victoria.

Wins the Plate.—President Redelshimer, Seattle, of the Western Canada League, has finally decided that Mr. J. C. Crofton, of Victoria, is the winner of the president's plate for the year. Mr. Crofton's record in the West is well known, and the president was called in to decide the matter, with the above result.

An inquiry was held in Spanish yesterday in the case of the body of a man, aged 75, whose body was found in the well. The verdict of the coroner's jury was "suicide while insane." Evidence was given to the effect that the deceased's mind had been affected for some time next to the fact that he had been watching him to a certain extent under the impression that he might endeavor to avoid him. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 11 a. m. at Church of England Cemetery, South Saanich.

Patrol Wagon.—The patrol wagon is paying its way, according to a report submitted at a meeting of the board of police commissioners. During October the sum of $36 was received from the board, the majority of the contributors being drunks. The back hire saved amounting to $100,000, or more, is being saved an expenditure of $37.

Branded Salmon.—Indian Agent R. L. Laing, stationed at Hazelton, gave notice of a fair under the patronage of the government, a quantity of the smoked salmon bearing a brand in the form of a "W" which had apparently been placed on the cans before the smoking process. They were taken by the Indians in the Eskimos. The specimens will be handed to Commissioner Babcock.

Chinese Conspiracy Case.—In the Police court yesterday the evidence for the prosecution in the Chinese conspiracy case was concluded, and an adjournment was called for Monday next at 2:30, when the evidence for the defense will be adduced. No evidence for the defense was put in beyond the contributions of the examination, the accused reserving their defense for the present.

Stock Judge's Report.—Mr. Daniel Drummond, one of the stock judges at the fall show, in his report to the deputy minister of agriculture from Okeana, says: "I beg leave to make the following report of my work in British Columbia. The first fair was at Comox, when I judged all the cattle, and, in company with Mr. McMillan, the sheep and swine. The fair was an exceptionally good one for an isolated district. The like Comox. We gave reasons for our decisions in a good many instances when ever we considered it would be advantageous. The dairy cattle are very good. At Duncan we followed the same course, where the show was also good, especially in dairy cattle. The swine were not numerous, but of good quality. At Victoria I judged the dairy cattle also, and was congratulated on the exhibit there, some of the animals being of outstanding merit and would give a good account of themselves at any fair in any country."

Opium Reward.—At Seattle on Thursday A. J. Cochrane was declared by Judge Hanford to be the man to whom is due the $200 reward offered by the United States government for information leading to the seizure of the 3,190 lbs. of opium in the case of the "Plover" railroad conductor, furnished Special Agent Burke, who was detailed on the case from Washington, D. C., with the crew which resulted in the finding of the opium and the arrest and conviction of the smuggler. Since that time the question as to whom was due the reward has been much mooted, as both Burke and the collector of customs at Port Townsend claimed that they were entitled to a share of the money. Judge Hanford held, however, that the statute was not broad enough to entitle him to a share of the reward. He held that it was the information furnished by Cochrane that was directly responsible for the seizure and seizure and that he was entitled to the entire amount.

Athenian Comes From Yokohama

The C. P. R. Liner Brings Light Freight and Few Passengers From Orient.

General News Notes of Shipping in Harbor and Along the Coast.

R. M. S. Athenian, of the C. P. R.'s trans-Pacific service, arrived yesterday morning at Victoria from Yokohama and Japanese ports, but mail sacks for this point and the Sound. She waited less than an hour, passing on to Seattle about noon.

One young Japanese passenger who took chances on a trip up town to see what the place looked like, just missed the Athenian by one minute, although the outer wharf car on which he was riding from the city came without stop from Menzies street and at a railing clip. The Japanese went on to his destination by the regular ferry boat last night.

Another passenger by the Athenian was one of the great gun founders and ammunition works of the imperial Japanese government at Yokohama. The founder of the States on business. This man is going to Seattle, Pennsylvania, and Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and is on his way to the States on business. His mission was to see the great gun founders and ammunition works of the States on business. It is surmised that it has something to do with supplies of special ammunition, probably for the use of the States on business. The purchase of large quantities of ammunition on this subject, Mr. Amos is the chief of the States on business. Another curious passenger, the greatest poverty that has visited Victoria for a good many years, was a Russian gentleman who is on his way to the States on business. He is on his way to the States on business. He is on his way to the States on business.

Real Estate Transfer.—A large lot on Yates street, belonging to the old De Coombs estate, was purchased yesterday by Dr. Ernest Hall, of Vancouver. He will erect a modern dwelling at an early date.

The Patrol Busy.—The police patrol wagon had a busy time last night, having had no less than twelve calls, a number of drugs were gathered in and also several Chinamen charged with selling whisky to Indians.

By Acclamation.—The official nomination for Comox-Atlin district was held at Kimberley yesterday before Fred Crofton, M. P., presiding. The candidates were W. A. Gallier, Liberal; C. H. MacKenzie, Conservative; and J. Baker, Socialist.

AFTERMATH OF THE GREAT ELECTION

Local Opinion is That Liberal Majority is Somewhat Unwieldy.

Almost the sole topic of conversation on the streets of Victoria yesterday was the extraordinary victory of the Liberal on Thursday. General opinion, expressed by men on both sides of politics, was that the Liberal majority was somewhat unwieldy, and that the Liberal majority was somewhat unwieldy.

News September 10 at Bangor with a cargo of coal and was last reported spoken September 13, 30 miles east-southeast from Fenwick Island. On the day following the coast was swept by the destructive hurricane which wrought havoc with shipping caught in its path. The same day, the ship was reported in the Delaware, where the storm was recent, and it is probable that she sprung a leak and, being heavily laden and an oil craft, she filled and went to the bottom.

While there is a possibility that her crew of ten men escaped to some other vessel, it is feared that all hands perished, as a rescuing boat could never have withstood the tremendous seas which accompanied the gale.

Captain William Blanchard was the principal owner of the vessel, which was valued at about $10,000. There is a partial insurance on the bark. The Midget is believed to have been off the coast of Alaska, and was last reported on September 13, 30 miles east-southeast from Fenwick Island.
