Note and Comment.

Hallow'een Night, Monday, 31st. The Ladies will tell how they earned the dollar toward ORGAN FUND. Tickets 15c. Excellent programme and refreshments.

The offering for the Annuity Fund will be taken to-day. One aged brother wrote the Sec'y.-Treas. Aug. 22, 1898: "I hate to disgrace the denomination I have loved so long by applying to the parish for aid. But what can I do when forsaken by others? I do not think I shall be a bur-<sup>n</sup> to anybody long. I hope to go home soon." Use the Convention Fund envelopes, or those marked Special Collection. The object is worthy of our gifts.

The Normal Class was organized last Monday evening with a membership of seventeen. Others will join. Miss Ida Wiswell is teacher, with Miss Mabelle Parsons as assistant. The class meets every Monday evening, beginning Nov. 7, at the Pastor's residence. In addition to the Normal lesson, the Sunday School lesson for the following Sunday will be taught, and practical suggestions given on teaching and S. S. work. We may expect great benefit from this Normal Class and Teacher's Meeting combined. If you are a teacher in the main Sunday School, or in the Mission, be sure and enrol yourself a member of the class.

"There is no single one of you who could not induce another to come with you to God's house if you honestly tried. Should each of you bring another this church would be crowded to the doors. You are therefore responsible for every empty seat. The pastor tries to fill the pulpit, let the people try to fill the pews! There is no Christian here who might not be the means of winning one soul for Christ this winter. Upon you then rests the responsibility of a revival, or no revival. So it is also with every department of the church, financial, social, spiritual; in preaching service, prayer meeting, or Sunday School. The responsibility for prosperity rests upon each one of us. What manner of men and women ought we then to be."—Church Echoes"

Do you follow the Daily Bible Readings? They are carefully arranged in topics, and one who reads continuously will read through the Bible in four years. We would like to know that every member of our church belongs to the Bible Reader's Club. Take these readings for the family altar and for private devotion. It is Bible built Christians we need in our churches. If you have not been reading the course begin at once. It is a hopeful sign to learn that many in our church are following the course.
