Secretary's Report.

It will not be necessary to give an account of the origin of the Homœopathic Hospital. The work done by the institution during its brief term of existence has made it favorably known to the public, and justified those who labored so energetically in its promotion.

The Institution has, during the past, its second year, increased its usefulness to the extent that has been possible under existing circumstances; a little more accommodation was provided, and immediately made use of; a maternity ward, found to be most necessary, was added to the hospital, by renting a small house on Shuter street, in the vicinity of the main hospital. Here eleven beds were provided, and these have been continually occupied. Two extra semi-private wards have been fitted up—these through the generosity of a firm who thus desired to make a "thank-offering." Miss Burns, for a time a private patient in the hospital, has, since she left, kindly furnished a bed. These means have enabled the hospital to provide thirty beds for public ward patients, six beds for semi-private patients, and one room for private patients.

But this slightly increased accommodation has been entirely inadequate compared with the applications made for admission by private and public ward patients; and this constant demand has made it necessary for the Board of Management to take a step towards securing a new building, and one in which those interested may feel that the Homœopathic Hospital has found almost a permanent home.

Unfortunately the financial position of the hospital is not such as to permit of the erection of the building expressly for hospital purposes; so that the board has gladly availed itself of an opportunity, which, through the interest of kind friends, has offered, of securing a suitable building, upon terms which it seemed the hospital, with due regard to its future, might meet. This building is situated on the north-west corner of College and Huron streets. It is just completed, is large and commodious, well heated, and in a most central locality, and good neighborhood.

The purchase price of the property is $70,000, upon which sum a moderate rate of interest is to be paid; and a small yearly payment of principal made. The equity in the property on Jarvis street, at present occupied by the Hospital, has been accepted in part payment of the sum. These advantageous terms are due to the kindness of the owners of the building, a syndicate composed of Messrs. Cox, Jaffray and Stewart, who, besides making the best possible terms for the interest of the Hospital, have headed the subscriptions to the building fund by the very handsome donation of $7,000. The Board of Management, therefore, can announce to the public that before the end of January, 1893, the Hospital will be established in its new quarters.

The increased accommodation which the new building will afford will be of great importance. It will enable the Hospital to provide for a very much larger number of patients; it will permit of an isolated ward for fevers; it will give increased facilities for surgical operations; it will permit of a much larger number of nurses in the Training School; and in addition to all this, it will ensure greater comforts to both patients and attendants.

The terms of admission for patients in the public wards are the same as those in the Toronto General Hospital. The charge for semi-private wards is $7 per week, and for private wards from $10 to $20 per week, exclusive of special nurse.

Good work has been done in the Training School for Nurses during the year. The Lady Superintendent of the hospital, who is also Superintendent of the Training School, has proved a most excellent instructress; and great satisfaction has been expressed at the manner in which the nurses have filled their positions. Those who have employed them in work outside of the Hospital have reported them efficient and obliging. In the future much more work will be accomplished in this large sphere of usefulness, as the number of applicants for entrance to the Training School, rejected in the past from want of accommodation, show that many will enter now that admission can be obtained. Thus the Hospital will hope to supply the demands for nurses for outside work.

The Board has been fortunate in retaining the services of Miss Brent, who has presided over the Hospital with entire satisfaction to the Medical Staff and to the Board of Management, and contributes to a very large extent to the continued prosperity of the institution.

In the last report the necessity for a House Physician was mentioned. This became more and more urgent, and it was felt only fair to the Lady Superintendent, whose responsibilities by this want were greatly increased, and to the Medical Staff, who were called upon at unseasonable hours, owing to urgent necessities arising during night hours, that one should be appointed. Upon the removal of the maternity ward to a separate building, it became possible to provide room for this; and in May, 1892, Mr. M. S. Lane, a fourth-year student of Trinity Medical School, received the appointment. He has performed the duties of his office since then to the satisfaction of the Medical Staff and the Lady Superintendent.

The Hospital has not been forgotten by kind friends who have visited the patients, and done much to brighten the hours of the weary sufferers. Each Sunday volunteers have conducted services in the hospital for those of the patients who were able to attend. The Board wishes to thank all those who have assisted in either of these good works.

The Women's Auxiliary has been active during the year. Its members aided Prof. S. H. Clark in the sale of tickets for an entertainment given by his pupils; for which aid he gave to the Hospital half the proceeds of the tickets sold by them. This sum amounted to nearly $160, which the Women's Auxiliary handed to the Board of Management for the building fund of the hospital. The Women's Auxiliary, as will be seen by their report, meet and sew for the hospital, and much assistance has been given the Lady Superintendent in attending to the comforts of the public ward patients.

The Homœopathic Hospital has lost through death, during the past year, two staunch friends, in one, our late lamented President, Sir Adam Wilson. To him, as much as to any one individual, the Homœopathic Hospital owes its existence. He was one of the promoters of the Homœopathic Free Dispensary, and one of the earliest agitators for a hospital. Upon the successful inauguration of the latter, he was made president of the Board of Management, the onerous duties of which position he fulfilled till his death. Holding this office during the struggling days of the hospital, he contributed largely to its successful development, not only by his wise administration of affairs, but also by the wide spread interest which his personal influence and efforts aroused in its welfare. He was always one of the most generous contributors to the funds of the Hospital. Appended to this report will be found a statement, written by Sir Adam Wilson not many months before his death, of the work done by the Hospital, and an appeal for generous aid to those who favor the good work. The other loss the Hospital has sustained is through the death of Dr. W. H. Oliphant. He was closely connected with the Homœopathic Free Dispensary and the Homœopathic Hospital. To both he rendered professional services of great value, and spared no pains by which he might promote the cause of homœopathy. His death, at so early an age, has been deeply and widely deplored.

Amongst the handsome subscriptions to the funds of the new building has been the sum of $500 from Mr. J. D. Nasmith, a member of the Board of Management and a warm friend of this institution.

In November last Miss Gurney gave a concert in Association Hall for the benefit of the hospital. This concert realized $358.90. The Board desire to offer their sincere thanks to Miss Gurney for her kindness.

The Board of Management also wish to thank Miss O'Brien, who, when leaving for a trip abroad, resigned the Secretaryship, for her faithful performance of her heavy duties. They hope that, on her return, she will continue her interest in the welfare of the Hospital.

The members of the Board of Management feel that they have cause for congratulation in the progress made this year. They hope that, with the much greater facilities the new Hospital building will afford, still better work will be accomplished. But to do so, money is wanted, so that the future depends upon the support given financially to the institution. The demands upon the treasury will be very great; the interest upon the new building must be paid; the annual payment of principal provided for, besides the current expenses for the maintenance of the Hospital. In addition there will be unusual expense in the furnishing and equipment of the new building.

Towards all this, we look for aid from friends and well-wishers—not necessarily only homœopathics, but all those who are interested in a good practical charity—and we feel assured that many only require their attention drawn to the merits of this institution to feel a deep interest in its success, and to betoken this interest by substantial subscriptions, and by earnest work.

Medical Report.

In presenting the Second Annual Report of the results of treatment of In-patients during the year ended 30th September, 1892, the authorities and friends of the Hospital are again to be congratulated upon the large increase in the number of patients treated, and the favorable results obtained.

During the past year, the accommodation of the present Hospital has been taxed to the utmost, and has frequently been inadequate to the number applying for admission, many having to be refused. With the new building lately acquired by the Executive, this, for the present, will be obviated.

Again, the death rate of the Hospital is exceedingly low, 3.2 per cent.; notwithstanding many acute cases of a severe type have been treated.

In the surgical wards several major operations have been performed with complete success

Of the deaths, one was caused by Softening of the Brain following La Grippe, one suddenly by Heart Failure, one by Chronic Bronchitis, one by double Pneumonia, and collapse two days after admission, two by Pneumonia following La Grippe, within a few hours of admission, one from Typhoid Fever, one from Blood Poisoning in a patient debilitated and over sixty years of age, one from Sunstroke, being brought to the Hospital in an unconscious condition.

In the maternity wards, there were three (3) infants still-born, which are not counted in the death rate. All the mothers made satisfactory recoveries.

The favorable results of the treatment of the patients generally was greatly enhanced by the excellent nursing the patients received from the nurses trained in the Hospital, their accurate observation of symptoms, and notes taken of the cases, being of great value to the physicians, and at the same time proving the careful training they are receiving at the hands of the Lady Superintendent.

RULES FOR THE ADMISSION OF PUPILS TO THE TORONTO HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL.

The course of training for women desirous of becoming professional nurses is two years.

Those wishing to receive the course must apply either in person or by letter to the Lady Superintendent, upon whose approval they will be received into the School, to remain one month on probation before becoming pupil nurses.

The most desirable age for a candidate to enter the School is from twenty-five to thirty-five, but every candidate must be over twenty years of age.

The applicant must send, with answers to the paper of questions, a letter from a clergyman, testifying to her good moral character, and from a physician stating that she is in good health.

Applicants must have their teeth in perfect order before entering the School, and before final acceptance pass an examination before the Medical Board as to their physical condition.

During the month of probation the applicant must be prepared for an examination in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic and English dictation. This examination is to test their ability to read aloud well, to write legibly and accurately, to keep simple accounts, and to take notes of lectures. This amount of education is indispensable for a nurse, but applicants are reminded that women of superior education and cultivation, when equally fitted for nurses, will be preferred to those who do not possess these advantages.

Applicants are admitted any time during the year when there is a vacancy.

During the month of probation nurses are boarded and lodged at the expense of the Hospital, but receive no other compensation. They must come provided with the necessary clothing, including two cotton gowns and six white aprons. All clothing must be plainly marked with surname of owner. Eighteen pieces are allowed in the wash each week.

Those accepted as pupil nurses are to sign the following contract: "I, the undersigned, hereby agree to remain two years in the Training School for Nurses, as a pupil nurse, and to obey the rules of the School and Hospital."

They will reside at the Hospital, and serve as nurses in the wards.

They will receive $3 per month during the first year, and $6 per month during the second year; and those who complete the full course and pass the final examination shall be entitled to receive $25 with their diplomas.

The Hospital will provide material for two dresses, six aprons, and six kerchiefs each year, and for one cap each month; anything in excess of this must be paid for by the nurses themselves.

In sickness nurses will be cared for gratuitously. Every nurse will be expected to perform any duty assigned to her, either as nurse in the Hospital, or when sent to private cases among rich or poor in any part of the Province. Nurses will not be entitled to any perquisite or gratuity, without the sanction of the Lady Superintendent, the above remuneration with their education being considered a full equivalent.

Nurses are allowed two weeks' vacation each year.

Nurses are expected to attend morning prayers.

The instruction will be given by attending physicians and surgeons and head nurses, at the bedside of the patients, and in various other ways; also lectures by visiting physicians, and by the Lady Superintendent. Lectures will be given on such subjects as anatomy, physiology, hygiene, diseases, surgery, materia medica, and obstetrics, and examinations will be held at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is completed, the nurses, after passing final examination, will receive a diploma signed by the Examining Board, and a committee of the Board of Management.

Annual Report of the Women's Auxiliary.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Homœopathic Hospital is organized for the purpose of uniting and systematizing the work of those friends of the Hospital who, while not members of the Board, yet take an interest in the welfare of the Institution and are willing to further its interests by such means as are in their power, as for instance sewing or collecting for it, visiting the patients, sending special delicacies for those who require them, etc. In pursuance of those objects which it has set for itself, it has during the last year supplied the following articles for the use of the Hospital:—
