ODDS SWING TO BROOKLYN TO WIN THE SERIES

Betting Now Two to One on the Dodgers

Next Game Tomorrow in Cleveland with Likelihood of Coveleski Facing Marquard or Pfeffer—Welcome for Indians.

New York, Oct. 8.—The Dodgers and Indians were on route early today for Cleveland, where they will resume tomorrow, weather permitting.

This speaker and his tribe were not frightened by the revelations of the statistics, however, and confidently and emphatically expressed their opinion that the series would be on even terms again after tomorrow's encounter.

Manager Robinson's proteges, flushed with their two successive victories, had all the confidence in the world that nothing, not even the handicap of playing on foreign soil, could stop them in their dash for the highest honors in the national game.

Brooklyn Now Favorite.

That section of the sporting world which backs up its views with cash today seemed to be inclined to share Brooklyn's feeling of optimism, for the odds switched, making the National League a 2 to 1 favorite.

The popular pastime here today, wherever died-in-the-wool fans gathered, was to guess whom the rival managers would pitch in tomorrow's fray.

Cleveland, Oct. 8.—A big ovation awaited the Cleveland Indians when they alighted from the train which brought them from Brooklyn today, despite their two defeats at the hands of the Dodgers in the world's series there.

"They will win the series if Cleveland backs them as it backed them in the pennant," the proclamation read: "I ask that Cleveland Friday show in every way possible its appreciation."

SCHOOL HOUSE AT BURTON BURNED

Boys Put on Too Great a Fire—Harry W. Cox of Fredericton Dead.

(Special to The Times.) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 8.—The children of Burton for some time to come will have to attend school in a dwelling house altered to meet the purposes of a school building.

When Miss Rowan arrived the boys were away trying to get help. The building was totally destroyed. Harry W. Cox died last evening at his home in King street after an illness of several years.

Instead of speaking in Winnipeg on Oct. 14, Premier Meighen will make the opening address of his tour there on Oct. 15. He will speak in St. John's, St. John's, Nfld., on next Tuesday.

Pungent Points For Electors To Consider

A vote for the government candidates is a vote for good government.

Don't trade safe, sane and honest administration for government by a group of men whose reputation in handling the affairs of the province leaves much to be desired.

By your vote return to power the party whose aim is the betterment of the province by the development of her natural resources, for therein lies progress.

The Foster government have proven themselves capable to handle the affairs of the province. Why exchange a sure thing for a questionable policy?

Do you want your children to grow up surrounded by every chance for a healthy life that a care-taking government can put on the statute books? If so, vote for Hon. W. F. Foote and his colleagues.

Actions speak louder than words. We have the record of the actions of the Foster government before us, while on the other hand are words—empty words.

Give every man his due. It is due to the Foster government that we have splendid trunk roads, our plan for development of water power, our excellent health act and woman suffrage. Vote right.

Reckless statements, made without regard to their truth, or from ignorance, or wilfully with intent to deceive present themselves in striking contrast to a record of honest administration, honestly accounted for.

In 1917 the people of the province gave a charge into Premier Foster's keeping. He has proved a worthy steward. Show him you appreciate the result.

This is the period of reconstruction, a period when none but the best men are capable of handling affairs in the proper manner. A single false step means much. We know the Foster government are capable. Play safe. Elect the men who are tried and trusted.

The province needs progressive administration. It has had it for the last three years—ensure it for the next five years.

It has taken the Foster government three years to get the province out of the rut into which it was dragged by their predecessors. Don't undo the work of three years and bring on a return to the old order of things.

The women of the province have an excellent opportunity of thinking those who championed their cause when the matter of franchise was brought forward. A vote for the Foster government will be a fitting compliment.

The government which gave the province one black eye should not be allowed the chance of attempting to disclose the other. The Foster government has safeguarded the trust confided in it by the people and deserve a continuance of the confidence.

In three years the roads of the province have been put in better shape than ever they were before. Four more years of good government will give highways of which we can well be proud.

It is unwise to change horses while crossing the stream. Another term will allow the Foster government to show the province what hydro-electric power means.

Every employer and workman knows the value of the Workmen's Compensation Act. It is only one of the thoughtful pieces of legislation of the Foster government.

The Murray-Baxter aggregation has not a single constructive plank in its platform. Its campaign has been nothing but a series of groundless charges and insinuations against the best government New Brunswick has ever had.

A party which still has on its escutcheon the disfiguring traces of decayed potatoes should be hesitant about criticating a government with a record such as the Foster administration has.

Yes, friends, it is the same Baxter, Murray, Smith and Jones we read so much about in 1915-16-17. It is hardly in the interests of the province to hand it over to them for another four years.

There is a wholesome satisfaction in having such men as Foster, Roberts, Scully and Hayes representing the city at Fredericton. They deserve the support of all thinking women and men.

Dr. Roberts' health department put New Brunswick on the health map of the continent. It is up to the St. John electors to keep it there.

R. T. Hayes proved a tower of strength in the government of the city during the trying war period. His assistance to the province would be invaluable at the present time.

Mr. Scully's experience in the city and municipal councils proved him a legislator of ability. His presence in the provincial house would be in the best interests of St. John and New Brunswick.

The Foster government have opened the doors to cheaper power in the province. Let us not slam the door.

All the world's a stage—yes, we have some funny actors playing the role of would-be politicians in this election, and they are not to be found among the Foster candidates.

The mothers of this province know who is working for the welfare of their babes and for generations yet unborn. Show your appreciation, Mothers, by voting for Dr. Roberts and his colleagues.

No one will question that the last three years have been years in which New Brunswick has gone ahead. Our great wealth lies in our natural resources. What government raised the stumpage rates to a fair and equitable figure? What government gave the women the right to have a say in the conduct of affairs? What government gave us the roads of which we have every reason to be proud? What government will develop the water power and provide cheap and plentiful power to light our homes, turn the wheels of our industries and take light into the places which are now struggling in the dark? No answer necessary. Every-

The Brethren

Now there was strife among the Brethren.

For though they worshipped the same gods, each worshipped in his own way and sought special favor for himself.

And they disputed one with another concerning many things, but most of all how they should gain the favor of the people.

Then began the strife which was heard throughout the land, even unto Pokesudie and Pokemoche and in the region round about Pisarino and Passamquoddy.

And so it was until one came to proclaim that the people were about to choose new leaders.

And straightway the Brethren embraced each other, and fell upon each other's necks, and took counsel together in the Seamen's Mission, as to what they might do to make the people's necks their foot-stool.

And after they had conspired together they went to the husbandmen, and to them who tolled with their hands, and to each of them said: Come with us and we will do thee good.

But the people saw them afar off and ran away, and would not bend their necks to the yoke.

OPERATORS MAY NOT MEET MEN

Indication in Situation re Nova Scotia Coal Mine Operations.

Glace Bay, N. S., Oct. 8.—Indications today point strongly to the view that coal operators will refuse to meet the United Mine Workers at Truro on Tuesday to discuss the royal commission's award.

The operators feel that the public, in the face of tumbling prices, will not stand for an increase of 50 or 84 a ton on the price of coal to access to unreasonable and one-sided demands.

Col. Leckie and Major Shearer and his assistant resumed the flight northward at 7:15 last night from there. Rockets and flares along the route were used to guide them.

STIRRED UP BY A MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION

Search of Newark and Jersey City Unavailing

Bomb Plot Mystery in Hutchinson, Kansas—Deadly Missile Found Under Approach of Viaduct in City.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 8.—Newark, Jersey City and surrounding towns were startled a little after ten o'clock today by a mysterious explosion.

Several loud reports caused considerable excitement and newspapers and police headquarters soon were swamped with telephone calls, many persons believing that one of the numerous powder plants in the eastern section of the state had blown up.

Canvass of all big powder manufacturing companies and of the government arsenal at Harlan, however, brought no information.

Belief that the reports had come from big guns at the Fort Hancock proving grounds was dispelled when the military authorities announced that there had been no firing this morning.

Bomb in Kansas.

Hutchinson, Kan., Oct. 8.—A bomb plot mystery engaged the attention of local authorities today following the finding last night of a cylinder containing a powerful charge of explosives under the approach to the Main street viaduct in the center of the city.

Absence of threatening letters and a close check recently which indicated the suppression of any radical activities here put officials at a loss to understand the presence of the bomb.

Early today the police had no clues to work on other than the story told by boys who picked up the bomb while fishing.

The bomb, which G. M. Knowles, chief of police, declares contained sufficient explosives to destroy the viaduct, the convention hall, and many other buildings, contained no timing device, but had several fuses attached. It measured fifteen inches in circumference.

LATER.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 9.—After several hours of investigation, police and county officials expressed the opinion that the loud report came from a quarry blast somewhere in this vicinity.

OPERATE BY THE LIGHT OF LANTERN

New York Doctors Cut Off Motorman's Leg in Wreckage of Street Cars.

New York, Oct. 8.—Physicians working with the aid of one flickering lantern early today amputated the right leg of Henry Helms, a motorman, in order to rescue him from the tangled wreckage of two street cars telescoped in a collision that caused injuries to twenty other persons.

Helms, who was pinned under the car, when physicians arrived persuaded them to perform the operation without an anesthetic in order to save time.

Later his other leg, badly mangled, was also removed at the hip. Helms and the conductor, Wm. Wierax, whose skull was fractured are said to have slight chances of recovery.

The accident happened when the brakes failed to function on the descent of a steep hill in Amsterdam avenue.

Many of the passengers, who became hysterical, when the car sped uncontrolled down the hill escaped injury by huddling together on the rear platform.

JURYMAN COULD NOT UNDERSTAND

Not Conversant with French and Case Must Be Started Again.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—The case of Ambrose Bourdage, accused of manslaughter may have to be started all over again after evidence covering several hours had been heard. After the court had adjourned it was found that a jurymanned Leduc could not understand a word of French and all the evidence had been heard in that language.

The city's new motor flusher is now at the public works yard at the foot of Charlotte street and will likely be tried out tomorrow or early next week in the city streets.

AS HIRAM SEES IT

"Them there airplanes is gittin' quite thick lately," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter.

"I s'pose it won't be long till we'll see 'em as they go by—well, ain't it wonderful? It's come about at last that man kin take to himself wings an' fly to the uttermost parts of the earth. I wonder if he'll be happier. He ort to be able to do a lot o' things to make folks feel safer. When you kin send out a message by wireless an' get help in little or no time by sign machines it orto make people feel in their minds. An' yet the man that'll tell you the world's comin' to an end right away, an' a man's inventive faculty is goin' to be snuffed out like a candle just when he's got' strong. They remind me of a ground-bog. He just knows enough to git what he wants to eat and dodge into his hole. Some people is like that. They go round in a little circle an' git their minds wrapped 'n' git ideas in their heads that you couldn't git out with a mustard plaster—no, sir."

"When you get an airplane service to the Settlement," said the reporter, "I am going out there to board, if Mr. Hornbeam will have me. Has any hundred-pound pumpkins in the garret?"

"No, she hasn't," said Hiram, "but she has some that makes the finest pies you ever tasted."

"I will not wait," said the reporter, "for the airplane. I'll be there on Sunday."

"THE BLACK FLAG"

A Great Big Hit, Best Yet, at Queen Square.

"The Black Flag," as produced at the Queen Square Theatre by the Young-Adams Company is the best show seen at that theatre in many moons. Everybody made a hit with the large audience and certain calls were in order. Percy Norman as the villain was greeted back and gave a finished performance. Miss Adams as Naomi did the part well and was roundly applauded; Marguerite Young as Ned made a big hit and will be a great favorite with the kiddies on Saturday afternoon. Mal Murray and Sidney Leonard gave good touches of character comedy; David Riggan and George Carruth played minor parts; Miss Nell Hobson and Marie Fischer were both good. H. Wilton Young as Lazarus did the very best work he has ever done here in the comedy line. He was a scream from start to finish, and made a big hit with the audience and rest assured crowded houses will greet the remaining performances of "The Black Flag," which is the best yet. See it tonight and Saturday.

VEGGMEN GET BOLD, ROB THREE SAFES

Feeling Secure in Relaxed Police Vigilance, They Revive "Soap and Soup" Method—$20,000 in Loot Obtained.

(New York Times.) Apparently feeling secure in the knowledge that Police Headquarters no longer maintains a safe squad, composed of veterans who know the faces of safe-robbers, veggmens are returning to the old-fashioned "soap and soup" safe-blowing methods of the nitro-glycerine days.

In support of this belief was the disclosure yesterday that safe blowers had looted the fifth floor of the Jewellers' Craft Building, 45 to 51 Lispenard street last Wednesday night and obtained diamonds, platinum and jewelry valued at more than $20,000.

The veggmens drilled holes in three safes with the aid of soap and then touched off charges of nitro-glycerine. Telephone books were the only muffers of the explosion which the thieves thought necessary to employ.

The losses were: L. Jobner, $15,000; Alfred Schiedring, $8,000; Green & Medoff, $2,000, and the remainder was scattered in small amounts among other tenants. In one office that of the United States Chain Company, the veggmens got only a box of cigars.

According to detectives the robbers reached the fifth floor of the jewelry building by means of a rear fire escape, boarding it from an abutting building with an entrance on Canal street.

Tested Loot as They Smoked. The four by six foot safe yielded platinum and platinum settings. Next they opened the safe of Schiedring, a specialist in jeweled emblems of the Elks, while diamonds were the haul from the quarters of Green & Medoff. In the chain company's office they found the safe open and a box of cigars therein.

The many cigar stumps left on the floor, and acid traces, indicated that the robbers had tried the soothing influence of Havana while they tested the jewelry for its genuineness. Nobody yesterday seemed to know why the robbers left the building without trying their skill on the other floors.

While the safe workers were enjoying a return to "old-day" prosperity, hold-up men were busy too. During the morning Nathan Schrader was in his fur shop at 1746 Madison Avenue when two men came in. They pointed revolvers at Schrader and directed him to raise his hands. The furrier, however, declined to do so, and when he made a break for the door, one of the men shot him in the right arm, just below the elbow.

The sound of the shot appeared to frighten the holdup men and they darted for the door. Policeman Patrick Carroll, who was coming up to find the meaning of the shot, saw the running men and caught one of them. At the station Carroll's prisoner described himself as Sidney Krafon of 20 West 118th street, Krafon, according to the police, admitted that he had been in the store. Schrader was treated at Harlem Hospital.

Following the arrest of James Lorenzo, a chauffeur of 446 West Forty-sixth street, by Detective Edward Fitzgerald, the police said that soldiers from Camp Dix, N. J., had lost thousands of dollars in the last few months in a series of hold-ups. Lorenzo was held for the New Jersey authorities on an allegation that he had been concerned in the luring of four Camp Dix men to the outskirts of Trenton, on pretense of furnishing them whiskey. The soldiers were robbed of $500. Thomas J. Carney, a decorated member of the 1st Division told the police he recognized Lorenzo.

Policeman Convicted of Larceny. Captured early yesterday after a chase in which several shots were fired near Amsterdam Avenue and 102nd street, William Kelly, 23 years old, of 139 West Sixtieth street, was held on a charge of attempted burglary in Magistrate Max Levine in West Side Court.

THE PISTOL AND THE PUBLIC (Montreal Star.) Robert Bickerike and the Prisoners' Welfare Association do well to revive the agitation against the free sale of revolvers in Montreal. It is to be hoped that they will keep it alive, and perhaps not too much to hope that something may come of it.

We have a fine set of by-laws and regulations and what not forbidding the sale of revolvers to minors and even their display in shop windows. How much attention is paid to them? The answer may be obtained by looking into a certain class of shop window any day in the week, or—better still—purchasing as many revolvers as one's purse can afford. Like a good many others, the regulations governing the sale of these deadly weapons have been calmly ignored, and the killings go on.

It is all very well for the courts to attempt the cure at the wrong end. So long as it is perfectly easy for hard-braised youths to purchase pistols and lug them about the streets in the approved movie style, so long there will be shootings and trouble. And so long as certain shopkeepers ignore the law and display these dangerous wares, there will always be found purchasers. The Prisoners' Welfare Association will be doing very good work indeed if it can persuade the police to enforce the law as it presently exists.

Improvement in Road Making? The spraying of roads with tar has now become a standard means of rendering them waterproof and free from dust, but the process has certain difficulties attached to it. One is the difficulty of keeping traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, off the road until the tar has been covered by chippings. Several ways have been devised of carrying out both operations at the same time, and perhaps the simplest and most effective is that recently adopted by a British road engineer. He uses a 6-ton tractor to haul a 320-gallon tar tank followed by a 5-ton tipping wagon filled with chippings. At the back of the wagon is a V-shaped trough through which the chippings fall upon the freshly tarred surface. To prevent the choking of this trough it is traversed by a shaft with projecting spikes, and this shaft is rotated by a chain gear at the rear axle of the wagon. This simple equipment is a great labor-saver, and it spreads the chippings much more evenly than can be done by hand.

Policeman Harry Riger said he saw Kelly come from the basement of the saloon of James Dougherty at Amsterdam Avenue and 102nd street and that when he ordered Kelly to stop, the man ran. Riger said investigation of the basement disclosed $700 worth of cigars and cigarettes packed up ready for transport. Kelly pleaded not guilty. Policeman John O'Hara of the Fourth Avenue Station, Brooklyn, was found guilty in the Brooklyn Court of Special Sessions on a charge of petty larceny. He was sent at once to the penitentiary by Justices Voorhes, Murphy and McInerney. On May 16 last O'Hara was sent to investigate the report of a burglary at the Danmiller Coffee Company, 116 Thirty-ninth street, Brooklyn. He reported that there was no trace of a burglary. The next day, Miss Anna Anderson, a bookkeeper for the coffee company, living at 5,125 Sixth avenue, reported that her gold wrist watch worth $27 was gone. O'Hara admitted, according to Detective Michael Ward, that he had taken the watch, but said he had done so only to insure payment for slight damage to his uniform sustained when he entered the company's store. O'Hara had been on the force for one year. His counsel, George W. Martin, announced an appeal.

On charges of burglary involving furs valued at $80,000, of which $25,000 have been recovered, detectives yesterday arrested Harry Pearlstein, 23 a chauffeur of 118 Suffolk street, and Lewis Bellast, a fur worker, 222 East Third street. The complaint was made by Charles Dattlebbaum, a furrier, at 200 West Twenty-ninth street, where the robbery was committed on April 16. Both men have been indicted.

Jewelry valued at about $500 was stolen from the Herbert Jewelry store 198 West 123rd street, early yesterday when a thief smashed a display window with a padded brick. No arrests have been made. Heribert had decorated his window for 123rd street week and there was more jewelry in it than usual. The articles stolen included twenty gold-filled bracelets, six strings of pearls, two gold mesh bags and a number of fountain pens. Six months ago the store was robbed in the same manner but the 1,000 worth of jewelry taken at that time was recovered.

THE PISTOL AND THE PUBLIC (Montreal Star.) Robert Bickerike and the Prisoners' Welfare Association do well to revive the agitation against the free sale of revolvers in Montreal. It is to be hoped that they will keep it alive, and perhaps not too much to hope that something may come of it.

We have a fine set of by-laws and regulations and what not forbidding the sale of revolvers to minors and even their display in shop windows. How much attention is paid to them? The answer may be obtained by looking into a certain class of shop window any day in the week, or—better still—purchasing as many revolvers as one's purse can afford. Like a good many others, the regulations governing the sale of these deadly weapons have been calmly ignored, and the killings go on.

It is all very well for the courts to attempt the cure at the wrong end. So long as it is perfectly easy for hard-braised youths to purchase pistols and lug them about the streets in the approved movie style, so long there will be shootings and trouble. And so long as certain shopkeepers ignore the law and display these dangerous wares, there will always be found purchasers. The Prisoners' Welfare Association will be doing very good work indeed if it can persuade the police to enforce the law as it presently exists.

Improvement in Road Making? The spraying of roads with tar has now become a standard means of rendering them waterproof and free from dust, but the process has certain difficulties attached to it. One is the difficulty of keeping traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, off the road until the tar has been covered by chippings. Several ways have been devised of carrying out both operations at the same time, and perhaps the simplest and most effective is that recently adopted by a British road engineer. He uses a 6-ton tractor to haul a 320-gallon tar tank followed by a 5-ton tipping wagon filled with chippings. At the back of the wagon is a V-shaped trough through which the chippings fall upon the freshly tarred surface. To prevent the choking of this trough it is traversed by a shaft with projecting spikes, and this shaft is rotated by a chain gear at the rear axle of the wagon. This simple equipment is a great labor-saver, and it spreads the chippings much more evenly than can be done by hand.

WOMAN AND CHURCH

Bishop of New York Says English Episcopal Body Leads in Recognition.

(New York Times)
The Church of England stands far in advance of the Protestant Episcopal church in America in its recognition of women in the church, according to the Right Rev. Charles S. Burch, Bishop of New York. Bishop Burch expressed this opinion yesterday afternoon in the course of a sermon on "The Lambeth Conference," at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The great cathedral was so crowded that several hundred late comers were seated in the choir stalls within the chancel.

"The Lambeth Conference stood foursquare for the admission of women to those councils of the church to which laymen are admitted, and on equal terms," said Bishop Burch. "And it adopted suggestions looking toward a closer exercise on the part of women of those spiritual functions which women have proven themselves so markedly fitted to perform. The conference favored the restoration of the ancient order of deaconesses with increase in the and powers for participating in the church's services. The position was stoutly maintained that deaconesses should dedicate themselves to a life long service and be ordained with a form and manner quite similar to those used in the ordination of deacons, with the right to read morning and evening prayer and the litany where the bishop and parish priest should so direct.

Bishop Burch affirmed that "in the minds of many millions of Christian folk the most vitally compelling and appealing accomplishment of the conference was the report, the appeal and the conclusions reached on the crying question of the reunion of Christendom.

"It was nothing less than a miracle, that first, the large committee of sev-

WOMEN THE CAUSE.

New York, Oct. 8.—The election Board of the West End District of the Second Ward of Long Branch has resigned because they declare under the provisions of the Nineteenth Amendment giving the franchise to women they would have to go from house to house and ask the women voters questions they are "proverbially disinclined to answer." They say the pay is not sufficient to compensate for such a hazardous task.

RECENT WEDDINGS

The marriage was solemnized on Wednesday at Eskine Presbyterian church, Montreal, of Miss Olive Logan Finley, daughter of Mrs. Finley and the late H. F. Finley, formerly of St. John, to Kensington H. S. Hague, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hague, the Rev. Dr. Hanson officiating. The bride was given away by her brother. Her only attendant was Miss Barbara Peck, niece of the bridegroom. Prof. McCassey played the organ. After the ceremony Mr. Hague and his bride left for an extended trip to New York and the New England States. On their return they will reside in Montreal. Mrs. Albert W. Edgcombe and Miss Edgcombe of Fredericton, were guests at the wedding.

Ribbucto, N.B., Oct. 7.—In Saint Albans church on Wednesday morning, October 6, at 9 o'clock Leah Alvinia, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. O'Leary, became the bride of Charles Arthur O'Brien, formerly of Fredericton and now of St. Stephen (N.B.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. McLaughlin in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The bride entered the church with her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Rita Johnson. She looked charming in her traveling suit of navy blue serge with smart hat of old gold pail velvet, wearing South Sea seal and ermine fur and carrying a shower bouquet of American beauty roses.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the bride's home where breakfast was served. Mrs. O'Leary, mother of the bride, was given in tender jersey silk with underbodice of Pekin blue duchess satin and gold lace with large black and blue hat and mink stole. Mrs. O'Brien of Fredericton, mother of the groom, wore black silk. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, potted plants and evergreens.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. O'Brien and Miss O'Brien of Fredericton; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald T. O'Brien of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Harris Flaherty and A. P. M. Harriman of Loggieville. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien motored to Moncton where they took the Ocean Limited for an extended tour in Nova Scotia. Upon their return they will reside in St. Stephen (N.B.) where the groom is engaged in business. The presents were many and beautiful, testifying to the high esteem in which the young people are held. The bride was handsomely remembered by the Royal Bank staff of which she was paying clerk.

In St. John's Stone church last evening Rev. Canon G. A. Kurling united in marriage William Johnston and Pearl Flowers, both of this city. The bride was given away by her brother and Robert Kelly supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside in St. John.

The death occurred yesterday of Maria, wife of Walter C. Drake, at her residence, 48 Summer street. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. W. A. Nicholas of this city, Mrs. George F. Duff of Antville (Ont.) and one son, William, of this city. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Saturday at 2 p.m. Service will be conducted in Trinity church at 2:30 p.m.

Shediac, Oct. 7.—(Special)—Word has been received here of the death of John Calder, formerly a prominent resident and merchant of this town. The late Mr. Calder had been residing with his wife and family for some years in Alberta, his death having occurred at the town of Seven Persons. Mrs. Calder was formerly Miss Williams of St. John. Much sympathy is expressed with the family in their bereavement.

The death of Alex Callinan, a well known citizen of Moncton, occurred last night at his home at the age of 64 years. He was a C. N. R. clerk.

With Potts, Campbell, Tilley and Lewis at Fredericton St. John gets nothing. With Premier Foster, Hon. W. F. Roberts, W. E. Scully and R. T. Hayes as members of the governing body we will have a strong representation.

1919'S BABY CROP MADE NEW RECORD

New York's Standing High at 82 - Houston, Tex., Best at 61 - El Paso Worst.

The United States baby crop in 1919 was a new record says the American Child Hygiene Association. An annual preliminary report on vital statistics by that organization covering data from 269 cities with an aggregate population of 310,000,000 shows the infant mortality rate declined to the 'encouraging' figure of 87 deaths per 1,000 babies, a saving of nearly 12,000 babies over the 1918 rate and 7,000 fewer deaths than in 1917.

In the cities covered by the report 680,000 births were recorded, while in the entire country it is estimated there are 2,500,000 newcomers annually. All of the cities included have populations of 10,000 or more.

Babies seemed to thrive well in some of the larger cities, where formerly the death rate was very high. Among the 24 cities of more than 200,000 population reported, ten were below the average.

Quebec's Work for Education — Large Meeting of Protestant Teachers.

(Canadian Press.)
Montreal, Oct. 8.—More than 1,100 teachers were registered at the 56th annual meeting of the provincial association of Protestant teachers in the Montreal high school yesterday.
Discussing educational conditions and problems in his presidential address, I. Gammell said that systems were being examined and tested in the spirit of criticism that existed everywhere. He said the present provincial government had certainly done more for education in general than any of its predecessors, but that the sum expended on elementary education in rural districts was still a mere pittance and utterly inadequate. He summed up by saying that great improvement was in sight.

Miss Mabel Carney, Ph. D., of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, spoke on the rural school as a community centre and showed the benefit of the consolidated school in the rural areas.

A letter was reported by the president stating that henceforth the provincial association of Protestant teachers of Quebec will be invited to appoint a representative on the governing body of McGill University.

Quebec, Oct. 8.—The Quebec Catholic school commission will apply to the legislature at its next session for authorization to borrow $1,000,000. The sum of $300,000 is required to redeem a loan which will mature on March 1, 1921, and the remainder will be expended to provide new schools.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night Delegate Menard, dealing with the case of teachers dismissed by the Catholic school commission, said that the workmen should get control of the schools so as to educate the children not to be slaves when they grew up.

President Foster said the only remedy was the ballot box and that the people of this province were not prepared for national schools.
The discussion arose over affidavits read by a delegate from the Teachers' Welfare Association, alleging that the four district school boards under the Catholic school commission had been willing to take back teachers who would sign a declaration to be a member of an international union.

HERBERT HOOVER TO GIVE ADDRESS TO CANADIAN RED CROSS

(Toronto, Oct. 8.—(By Canadian Press))

I. O. D. E. CHAPTERS HOLD MEETINGS

The Duke of Rothesay chapter of the I. O. D. E. held its opening meeting for the season in the Consolidated school yesterday afternoon. The regent, Mrs. W. S. Allison, was in the chair and there was a large attendance of members. Much of the time was spent in arranging for the Victorian Order nurse which the chapter supports in Rothesay. One of the nurses from St. John is to devote three days a week to the Rothesay district. Preliminary plans for the winter activities were made and arrangements completed for holding a rummage sale in St. John at the end of the month. The chapter had decided to present its offering to the community club at Rothesay and at the meeting it was announced that the transfer of all of the books had been completed.

Royal Arms

The Royal Arms chapter of the I. O. D. E. at its meeting, held at the residence of the regent, Mrs. T. H. Carter, decided to continue its donations towards the support of a Victorian order nurse in the city. The resignations of two members who are leaving the city were regretfully accepted. A letter of invitation from the Y. W. C. A., which asked all members to be present at the association's rally this week, was read. The G. W. V. A. in a letter, offered the use of one of the rooms in the building as a place of meeting and it was decided that one of the G. W. V. A. rooms should be rented for the monthly meetings. The educational secretary read a report of the presentation of prizes to the grade IX school children at the June "clothing" show. Those who received the chapter's prizes were Ede Dykeman and Margaret Hamilton in Winter street school and Lillian Gregory and Gordon Kincaid in the Dufferin school. Plans for the winter programme were entered into enthusiastically.

Royal Standard

The Royal Standard Chapter of the I. O. D. E. at its first meeting of the season, held at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Fielding Bankins, formed plans for a rummage sale to be held shortly and for a tea to be arranged later in the season. Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, the regent, was in the chair and much routine business was dealt with. The Chapter entered into the plans for the winter with evident enthusiasm.

GERMANY INTO PAPER MARKET

Contracts for 70,000 Tons in United States — Product Not Large Enough to Effect Prices.

New York, Oct. 8.—(By Canadian Press)—Canadian paper mills have a new competitor in the United States newsprint market. It is reported that contracts with German manufacturers for some 70,000 tons of paper have been made by United States publishers. This is for delivery in the future running all the way to 1921. The first shipment of this paper is said to have already been received by a New York daily.

The report of the arrival of German paper follows closely upon the announcement that a number of Canadian producers have fortified customers in the United States that in 1921 approximately 70,000 tons of newsprint from the mills in the dominion would be diverted to British colonial possessions. Should the 70,000 tons of German paper develop as being actually available for the needs of the United States publishers, it will balance the loss from the dominion. Discussing the reported arrival of German paper the Wall Street Journal says:— "It is emphasized by paper men that Germany in the newsprint industry so far as it affects this country is only a negligible factor and must continue so for many years to come.

"Germany cannot produce enough newsprint to have any marked effect on prices in this country and those who are expecting lower quotations for print paper on this account are doomed to disappointment. Statistics of consumption of this country together with our production and that of Canada and Germany bear out this statement.

"Consumption of newsprint in the United States in 1919 amounted to approximately 1,800,000 tons. It has since increased. Our production was 1,375,000 tons and that of Canada 808,000 tons. The difference between our production and consumption was made up by the importation of Canadian paper.

"Germany before the war had an output of newsprint of between 300,000 and 350,000 tons. This is approximately the output of one of our large producers. Obviously with our consumption of 1,800,000 tons output cannot be a factor unless she materially increases her production.

"It is extremely doubtful if she has been able to increase it to any large amount since the close of hostilities and cannot now do so."

DIAMOND CUTTING IN GREAT BRITAIN

British Journalists Visit New Factory Established at Brighton.

London, October 8.—On the invitation of the ministry of labor and Bernard Oppenheimer, a party of journalists visited the diamond-cutting factory which the latter has established at Brighton, with the view of providing training and work for disabled British ex-service men.

The factory cost £280,000, and was opened in 1918. At the present time there are about 600 disabled men in employment and training. The ministry of labor fills up any vacancies that occur and sends ex-service men to be trained for the industry. After six months' training, during which the men are paid a maintenance allowance by the government, they pass to a minimum wage of £2, with a practical certainty of permanent employment. After the training period no financial contributions are made by the state.

Perfect eyesight is essential for the work in which these men are engaged, and it is also necessary that they should have free use of one or both arms. There are thirteen workshops in the factory, which is stated to be three or four times larger than any of the diamond-cutting establishments at Amsterdam or Antwerp. So far from one to one and a half million pounds' worth of stones have been cut and polished, and the Bernard Oppenheimer Diamond Works Company, Limited, have been able to dispose of them on equal terms with continental producers. The average earnings after two years' experience are over £5 a week, exclusive of any disability pension to which the men may be entitled.

The men were seen at work on about 1,000 stones, worth three or four hundred thousand pounds, and in one of the rooms there was a display of polished diamonds ready for the market. One of these stones was stated to be worth 7,000, and the whole collection was estimated to be worth £100,000.

After speaking at the Rothesay meeting this evening, Hon. Dr. Roberts, who was out of the city on Tuesday evening, when the other government candidates visited the city wards, will visit the workers in Victoria, Dufferin, Lansdowne, Lorne and Stanley wards.

NEWS OF SHIPS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Montreal, Oct. 7.—Strikes and other labor troubles in England have caused a delay in the completion of the new C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Canada, launched Aug. 17 from the Clyde yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding & Engineering Company, which will necessitate the cancellation of her cruise around the world announced to commence March 15 next.

The cancellation has brought dismay to the company's officials as the cruise promised to be very popular and three-quarters of the liner's accommodation had already been booked.

The C. P. O. S. liner Scandinavian, which will sail from Montreal to Southampton and Antwerp Saturday morning, is carrying 107 cabin and 178 third-class passengers.

Four liners are expected to reach Quebec Saturday. They are the Megantic, the Minnedosa, the Sicilian and the Official Ballot Is Blank; Voters Furnish Names

To straighten out conflicting reports regarding the method of voting on Saturday the Telegraph requested A. A. Wilson, high sheriff and returning officer, to explain the system used in provincial elections. Sheriff Wilson said that the system used was simple. The election officials supply blank paper for ballots and both parties furnish printed ballots which can be used by their supporters. In other words, a ballot deposited with the names of four men will count for all four. No ballot should be marked with a cross. If a voter desires to use an official ballot instead of a printed ballot furnished by one of the parties he or she must write with a pen or black pencil the names of all he or she desires to vote for up to the legal number. The initials of the candidates should be written as well as the family names.

If an opposition supporter desires to vote for one or more of the government candidates, he or she must cross out certain names on the opposition ballot and write in the names of the government candidate or candidates. A voter can vote for one, two, three or four candidates in St. John. If he or she only votes for one the voter must cross out the other names, or write one name only on the blank ballot.

WANTS CONFERENCE ON MONEY AFFAIRS

Earl Curzon Eager for Early Get Together of Britain and France.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Early summoning of a Franco-British financial conference is insisted upon by Earl Curzon of Kedleston, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, in an important note on the subject of reparations received by a French foreign office yesterday, says "Pertinax," political editor of Echo de Paris.

The note goes on further, he says, and suggests that this meeting be followed by a "veritable international conference," modeled on the meeting held at Spa recently, at which the subject of reparations was discussed.

The task of this conference, it is said, would be to transform into a definite convention plans elaborated by financial experts.

THREE ARRESTS AT BORDER IN LIQUOR CASES

One Reported in Hurry to Be Fined as "Customers Are Waiting."

Montreal, Oct. 8.—Ernest Gibo, Armand Chabot and Leon Dragon, who gave their nationality as the United States, were arrested by prohibition officers, charged with trafficking in liquor on the international border near Rosses Point.

They have built small wooden shacks near the border, and quantities of liquor have been seized in them, but it is believed large stocks are cached in the woods nearby.

The most serious part of the trouble is the bad effect upon the crews of railways that consists in being made in connection with this.

When Dragon was brought to Montreal and pleaded guilty, he became annoyed at the delay in having his papers made out and the fine of $100 and costs taken from him. "Hurry says," he is reported as saying, "there are customers waiting for me."

CLOSE CALL FOR NEWCASTLE M. D.

Dr. Nicholson Over Bank in Auto and Has Narrow Escape.

Dr. Nicholson of Newcastle came within an ace of death at Douglas town on Monday, while on a professional call. He was turning his car on the highway and in backing he went over a bank which is twenty feet high and crashed to the bottom. The car turned completely over and landed upside down on a tree stump, which fortunately plunged into the centre of the car, just in the rear of the doctor, who had whirled over with the car and was still in the driver's seat when the crash came. The stump prevented the car from hurling itself close to the ground. There remained a space of about ten inches between the upturned body and the ground, and Dr. Nicholson, though severely shaken and bruised, was able to crawl out. Nearby residents rushed to his aid and he was conveyed to his home in Newcastle. Last reports state that the injuries are quite serious. The doctor was alone in his car at the time.

LYNN PEOPLE ON COAL RATIONS

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 8.—This city went on a one ton coal ration today and residents whose bins were empty found it necessary to make application to the health commission before dealers would supply them.

The situation resulted from an agreement between Mayor Creamer and local dealers, whereby one ton of coal will be allowed to each coal burning unit.

Applications for a second ton will not be honored until the first has been used. Inspectors will investigate each request.

The mayor hopes by this means to overcome hoarding and prevent a fuel shortage.

A BIT BRIGHTER IN MOTHERLAND

Coal Labor Situation Somewhat Relieved

Sober-Minded Leaders for Moderation But Extremists Raise Difficulties — Trade Depression Threatens.

London, Oct. 8.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The coal situation in England is somewhat relieved as a result of Robert Smillie's statement urging the miners to accept the present proposals of the government of a datum line, but only as a temporary measure.

The output returns for the last week of September, however, reveal the extent of the total since the middle of June, among the chief contributors to this record being districts where the opposition to the datum line has been most vigorously expressed.

Mr. Straker, Northumberland miners leader, expressed the opinion that the strike will be maintained. All accounts seem to show that while the sober-minded leaders of the miners are for moderation, there are extremists who raise difficulties against any solution, but that of force.

Cautious observers, who incline to optimism, base their faith on the bulk of the men recognizing facts which Mr. Smillie admits at least by inference, and that peace, therefore, is possible if it only is rather an indefinite sort.

Trade Depression. Meanwhile, prognostications of general trade depression during the winter continue to arrive from industrial centers all over England. The plight of unskilled workers is almost desperate. For instance, an advertisement for a coffee stall keepers in London caused an office in Chancery Lane to be literally besieged by more than 1,000 ex-soldiers.

GREAT LOSS IN FAKE SECURITIES

Boston, Oct. 8.—The annual loss to the people of the United States through the purchase of fraudulent securities was estimated at $800,000,000 by Charles J. Anderson, Secretary of the National Association of Security Commissioners, in testimony before a special "blue sky" law committee.

Mr. Anderson said that about ten per cent of the stock offered to the public in the United States is "blue sky" stock, although thirty-eight states have "blue sky" laws, "some are so loose that practically everything gets through."

The "blue sky" law gives the states control over the insurance of securities and power to investigate company finances.

BRITAIN'S THREAT TO SOVIET RUSSIA

IN WALL STREET

New York, Oct. 8.—(10:40)—Initial prices in the stock market today were again very irregular, showing the usual proportion of nominal advances and declines. Before the end of the first half hour, however, the list strengthened perceptibly on the support accorded popular rails, equipments and steels.

Leading New York Central, American Locomotive and Crucible Steel were materially higher, also Baldwin Locomotive, General Electric, Texas Company and Hide and leather preferred. Reactionary tendencies were shown by St. Paul preferred, Texas Pacific, Montana Power, American Car and American Smelting.

Neon Report. Low priced oils were singled out for pressure during the morning. Invincible, Middle States and Texas Pacific coal and oil fell 1/4 to 1/2 points, more moderate losses being sustained by Houston Oil, and California, Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum. Stears continued to reflect unfavorable trade condition and Harvester added about three points to yesterday's setback. Shipping lost one to two points and the early reversal in the cheaper rails made further headway. Embracing Colorado Southern and Texas and Pacific, the few offsetting features included Reading, Chicago and North-western, Lehigh Valley, Sears, Roebuck, Montgomery Ward and Industrial Alcohol, at gains of one to two points. Cull money opened at the unusual rate of 1/2 per cent, indicating a scarcity of funds over the week end.

At 1:30 p. m. Tobacco, motor specialties, shipping and the cheaper rails broke sharply at midday under renewed short selling. Extreme losses of two to six points were made by American and Lorillard Tobacco, Goodrich, Kelly Springfield, United States Rubber, Atlantic Gulf and Texas and Pacific and the latter falling to a new low record.

THREE ROUSING GOVERNMENT MEETINGS HELD LAST NIGHT

Voters of North End, West Side and Fairville Greet Candidates With Enthusiasm; All Ready for the Contest

Most encouraging reports were received last evening from every constituency in the province regarding the government's chances at the polls tomorrow. While it is not the policy of the government leaders to make rash predictions, there is every reason to believe that the administration will be sustained by an overwhelming majority.

The forces of the good government party have been increased during the last week by scores of thoughtful men and women who are determined that this province shall not return to condition of affairs from which it was rescued by Hon. Mr. Foster and his followers in 1917. The women, particularly, are active and enthusiastic and they have played a most important part in the campaign in their house to house canvass and by their logical presentation of the situation from honest, conscientious point of view.

THREE ROUSING MEETINGS

The government's speech-making campaign in St. John city was concluded last evening when two rousing meetings were held, one in the North End, the other in the West End. At both meetings speeches were made by Hon. Dr. Roberts, R. T. Hayes and W. E. Scully and others. In Fairville one of the first meetings of the campaign was addressed by Hon. Dr. Roberts, Dr. Curran, Mrs. R. J. Hooper and L. A. Conlon.

The issues of the day were clearly presented and the speakers found ready and hearty response to their appeals for the election of all four government candidates in the city, and the two government standard-bearers in the county, to the end that the St. John constituencies stand emphatically for a continuance of a business-like administration of provincial affairs and the completion of the great works and projects now under way or planned by Hon. Mr. Foster and his colleagues.

Cheers rang in the hall as telling points were made, and the candidates were given every reason to believe that the choice on Saturday would be for honesty and integrity in public life and the general progress of the province.

Good West Side Meeting

Frequent cheers and unbounded enthusiasm marked a rousing good-government rally last evening in Oddfellows' hall, West Side. The speakers were Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, W. E. Scully and R. T. Hayes, three of the four candidates in the city; S. K. Smith and W. M. Ryan. The chairman of the evening was William R. Sanderson. The women voters were well represented in the audience and have entered enthusiastically into the campaign.

Mr. Scully

The audience gave Mr. Scully a good reception. It pleased him, he said, to say a few words to his friends in his own home town. The party ticket had been designed to have all sections of the city and all classes represented. The government was a good, honest, straight-forward business administration and it had put many good acts into operation, including the workmen's compensation act, which he had advocated when he was a candidate in the last campaign. This act had been of great benefit to the working people and was unquestionably satisfactory, he thought. He remarked, in explaining the workings of the act, that it cost him between $200 and $300 a year, which he sent to the compensation board to protect his men. He thought that if the ladies had had votes in 1917 he would have been elected.

He considered the hydro-electric bill a very wise act and one that would be of very great benefit to the people of the city and county of St. John. It would induce industries to locate here. They had assurances from the premier that the development work would be undertaken at once. Mr. Scully praised the work done by the department of Hon. Mr. Veniot. As people drove over the roads today they saw a vast improvement over the order of things under the old government. Hon. Mr. Veniot had certainly made the highways better than they ever had been before. Mr. Scully said that he came to West St. John in 1880 and had experience in the board of aldermen and in other capacities. He would like the government ticket to get a big vote in the district. He thought the candidates stood a good show of carrying. Guys drawn in this contest and the people were lining up to support good government, as the old government had been neither moral nor honest. Politics should be buried to a certain extent when it came to deciding questions for the good of the whole people. The Foster government should get six men from the city and county. He urged all his hearers to vote and work for the whole ticket.

Mr. Hayes

Mr. Hayes was given a flattering reception. He said that he did not feel that he had to apologize for being on the ticket. The record of the Foster government was before them and he thought no one could say with justice that the government had failed in doing all that could be expected of it in the interest of good government. In the old government there had been one scandal after another. They were too busy looking after their own interests that they had no time to institute reforms such as the Foster government has carried out. Mr. Hayes endorsed the health department, especially better health for babies. He believed in protecting newborn infants rather than depending on immigrants to take their places. He believed that his work was going to grow very extensively. Mothers' pensions were to follow. He was not anxious to see undue taxes laid on the people, but after all the people's lives were more important than money. Mr. Hayes said that the hydro-electric programme to be inaugurated was an important one. The city had had applications from time to time from firms desiring to locate here, but they were prevented by the high cost of power, and no firm would come while there was cheaper power to be had elsewhere. If the programme Premier Foster had outlined was put through they will have more industries and cheaper lighting. Mr. Hayes said that the hydro-electric project should not go ahead by leaps and bounds. This was the principal reason why the election was brought on at this time, as Mr. Foster desired to know if the people approved of his development programme. He appealed to his audience to rally to the support of the present government and vote a straight ticket.

The Harbor Bridge

J. Fred Byles asked Mr. Hayes if he would support Mr. Scully in a bridge project. Mr. Hayes, replying, said that the bridge project was large one to put through alone, but he had taken it up with Mr. Hanna and he understood the railroad authorities were considering plans. Mr. Hayes felt that so soon as assistance was given by the federal government there would be no question as to whether it should not cost the citizens heavily. He certainly would support the project if they could get the co-operation they should have from other sources.

S. K. Smith

S. K. Smith, in a well-delivered address along economic lines, said that the Foster government by its policies had done more and would do much to keep the young men at home and he had noticed that there had not been the movement to other parts that there had been. The good road policy and the agricultural policy of the government would also settle all the abandoned farms of the province.

Hon. Dr. Roberts

Hon. Dr. Roberts was given a warm welcome by the audience both when he entered the hall and when he began to speak. He delivered a strong address dealing with the political aspects of the present government. He compared some of the political aspects of the Foster administration with the political aspects of the present government. He mentioned the splendid condition of the St. John road as an example of what Hon. Mr. Veniot had done. He refused charges of extravagance made against the present government. The Foster government, among heavy expenditures it had to meet because of the state of affairs, had had to spend much money to make bridges safe for travel. Some of them had been dangerous to life and made a powerful appeal to support the entire good government ticket.

W. M. Ryan

W. M. Ryan closed the meeting by urging his hearers to work and vote in favor of progressive policies and against returning to the dark days which existed prior to 1917.

North End Meeting

In Palace theatre, Main street, housed a large and representative body of electors. Hon. Dr. Roberts addressed the meeting and other speakers present the reasons why the Foster government should be returned to power on next Saturday and why the premier should be given the full strength of the industry and enterprise to aid him in his task of carrying on a progressive business administration in the province. Mr. Curran, J. G. Burke made a capital chairman. The speakers traversed, necessarily, much of the ground covered last evening elsewhere in the course of the evening and so repetition in this report is not necessary. They spoke without exaggeration, just a plain, unvarnished account of the stewardship of the Foster government. It was a good record they had to lay before the electors and it was sufficient, as some of the speakers later said, to warrant the heartiest endorsement of all fair-minded people but there could not help being presented—the alternative of return to power of those who so mis-handled the business of government in what was called the dark days of 1914-17.

William M. Ryan

William M. Ryan gave a spirited address in which he showed the need for men of courage and character and ability to carry on public affairs. He referred to the conditions obtaining after the war, conditions that afforded matter for serious thought, and went on to state that the present government had carried out a programme of reforms and that the people should be given the opportunity to vote for the government that had done so much for them. He urged the people to vote for the government that had done so much for them.

Mr. Curran

Mr. Curran said that Mrs. Hooper had no political leanings and supported the Foster government because it had best served the people. He wanted to give every man the right to an opinion but he could not see anything definite in the policy of Hon. Dr. Roberts. Dr. Roberts had said he would "cut off the fringe of the health department" where were the frills. He had said he would do away with the minister of health. What substitute would he make? He said he would cut down expenses and increase revenue without interfering with the progress. How would he do it? There were two ways to do it. One was to increase the price of stamper and spoke of his own personal investigation of the Brookville line deposits which had given the direct to the insinuations that were published in a local paper.

He told of the great falls at Lepreau

He told of the great falls at Lepreau that great sixty foot waterfall and provide ten times the power supplied by the local power company at one-fifth the present cost. He referred to the good work that had been done on the roads at Musquash and Sussex, the work that had been done at Spruce Lake and mentioned the public works department programme of $3,000,000 ($1,200,000 to be paid by the federal government) that was to be completed by 1924.

Conservative governments until the results of the investigations held by royal commissions, after the Murray-Baxter party had been ousted from power, made him a strong supporter of the clean government that had been given by Premier Foster. He had no quarrel with Dr. Baxter, but thought the best service could be done by that gentleman for the people if he were allowed to remain at home. (Applause.) If the people wanted good roads, cheap power and more industrial prosperity, they wanted a safe and sane government, cheaper foodstuffs through the help that would be given the farmers and the protection that the health department could give, they should vote the straight Foster ticket for that was the only way such a result would be made possible.

Cheers for the candidates and the singing of the national anthem brought the successful meeting to a close.

County Candidates Gain Steadily

The outlook in the county of St. John for the defeat of the opposition leaders, Hon. Dr. John B. M. Baxter, and Thomas B. Carson improves every day and the good government candidates, A. F. Bentley and Dr. L. M. Curran, continue to receive great encouragement wherever they have an opportunity to meet the voters. Yesterday the Foster administration candidates spent the day in the western end of the county and both candidates have told their friends in all parts of the county that they will not be satisfied with a friendly or complimentary vote for themselves but desire to be supported as a ticket. Dr. Curran has told the voters in his section of the county that he does not want to be voted for unless a vote goes to his colleague at the same time, and Mr. Bentley has made the same appeal in his end of the county.

Mr. Bentley and Dr. L. M. Curran, continued to receive great encouragement wherever they have an opportunity to meet the voters. Yesterday the Foster administration candidates spent the day in the western end of the county and both candidates have told their friends in all parts of the county that they will not be satisfied with a friendly or complimentary vote for themselves but desire to be supported as a ticket. Dr. Curran has told the voters in his section of the county that he does not want to be voted for unless a vote goes to his colleague at the same time, and Mr. Bentley has made the same appeal in his end of the county.

Y. W. P. A. AGAIN LOOKS FORWARD TO BUSY SEASON

A heavy list of business was quickly and satisfactorily disposed of by the Y. W. P. A. at its opening meeting for this season held last night in the G. W. V. A. rooms with the president, Miss Alice Fairweather, in the chair.

Several cases for which relief had been given were reported and it was decided that the association should give milk three times weekly and a box of biscuits each month to the North End Free Kindergarten, of which Miss Ross is a teacher. The Seaman's Institute wrote, asking the Y. W. P. A. to continue its splendid assistance at the canteen and it was decided to carry on that work in the coming winter. Miss Upham was appointed convener of the committee for the canteen and the members were named as follows: Misses Mellick, Harriet Smith, Baynton, Colson and Mackey. In the work at the Seaman's Institute it was agreed that four treats should be given during the season, instead of the weekly concerts, and it was hoped that some other organization would provide the concerts.

The holding of a dance jointly with the G. W. V. A. was suggested and a committee, consisting of the Misses Borden, Hatch, Dodge and H. Smith, was chosen to meet with a committee of the "Vets" to discuss the matter. The Navy League appeal was endorsed and action regarding it is to be taken later. Miss Frances Alward reported regarding the booth representing housing and sanitation of which the Y. W. P. A. had charge at the exhibition. Miss Bettie and Miss Braxley were appointed as delegates to the Women's Hostel committee. Two new members, Miss Larkin and Miss Lake, were welcomed.

Reports told of periodicals, newspapers and comforts sent the soldiers in River Glade, East St. John and Lunenburg hospitals, of flowers sent for the funeral of Mrs. Charles Humphrey, of $25 contributed to the fund for the widow of W. Ambrose John; and of automobile drives given to the civil patients in the East St. John hospital.

The sale of membership tickets for the anti-tuberculosis association by the Y. W. P. A. members was announced as completed and unsold tickets were called in. Something more than a hundred tickets were reported sold.

In considering methods of raising funds, the revival of the collection box at meetings and the holding of a tea and sale were suggested. The formation of a Y. W. P. A. gymnasium class at the Y. W. C. A. was discussed. On motion it was agreed that a letter of regret at her departure from the city should be sent to Miss Willet, who was formerly one of the most strenuous of the association's workers and that she should be assured of the good wishes of the Y. W. P. A. and of its gratitude for her past efforts on its behalf. The sum of $10 was voted as a first installment of a gift to the Victorian Order.

One member inquired for a boy of twelve years or thirteen years who could be adopted or borrowed, by a family in St. John, and other members told of a woman who wanted work by the day and of a family that wanted a girl to care for a child.

GERMAIN STREET Y. M. A. AT BANQUET

The Y. M. A. of the Germain street Baptist church opened its winter activities with a most successful banquet at Bond's last night when forty-five were present, a much larger number than assembled last year. Addresses calculated to stimulate interest and enthusiasm were heard with keen pleasure after the five course dinner and all its good things young men should be straight, be themselves, have a sense of humor, be sympathetic and, most important, have faith in God. Brief speeches were made by the president, the leader of the class, W. C. Cross, who spoke on service; the pastor, Rev. S. S. Poole, the honorary president, S. E. Fisher and S. H. Davis, the leader of the Philathes club. During the evening, J. Stewart Smith sang a pleasing solo and the closing number on the programme was the joining of hands for the singing of Auld Lang Syne. The Y. M. A. is now started on what it believes will be a year even more successful than was the last.

You can wear Woollen Underwear if the "Itch" is taken out

Overheard at a Club--

One day at the Club I overheard two fellow members talking of the coming cold weather—one chap said,

"I do hate cold weather; I wish I could wear woollen underwear, but my skin is too sensitive."

And the other said, "Well, there's one make of woollen underwear you or anyone can wear, no matter how sensitive their skins may be—and that is "CEETEE."

It is the softest stuff I have ever seen or worn—you just try it. I know you will like it."

He spoke the truth—"CEETEE" pure wool underclothing is so clean and soft a baby can wear it.

There is none other like it made in Canada.

Only the finest Australian Merino wool is used.

There are no seams, as it is knitted with selvedge edges, which are knitted (not sewn) together.

PREMIER MAKES IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT AT HILLSBORO

Tells of Plans For Development of Province's Resources; Great Reception For Candidates

Hillsboro, N. B., Oct. 7.—Albert county gave an enthusiastic welcome to Hon. W. E. Foster, the popular premier of the province, today when a public reception was held here in the afternoon and a mass meeting in the evening, the whole making a greeting of which any public man might well be proud. The streets of the village were thronged with visitors during the afternoon and when evening came the large auditorium of the town hall was packed to the doors, crowds being unable to obtain seats.

The premier and Mrs. Foster arrived at 1 p.m. and were met at the station by Hon. C. J. Osman and Mrs. Osman, by whom they were entertained during their stay in Hillsboro. At 4 o'clock a public reception for the guests was held in the Albert Manufacturing Company's hall, a function which was quite informal and most enjoyable. A large number were presented to Hon. Mr. Foster and Mrs. Foster and a social hour spent pleasantly. At the close of the gathering refreshments were served by the ladies of Hillsboro. The public meeting in the town hall opened at 8 p.m. When the premier arrived at the hall with Mrs. Foster and Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Osman, he was greeted with loud and prolonged applause which was renewed with increased volume as the party, with the government candidates, Arthur A. Stevens and Jacob W. Steeves, took the platform. Hon. C. J. Osman acted as chairman. Hon. Mr. Osman, in a brief speech, expressed the regret that the seating capacity of the large building was not sufficient to accommodate the very large gathering. Mr. Osman also expressed his sincere thanks for the support Albert electors had given the Liberal party in days gone by.

The opposition candidates, in blocking Mr. Stevens, who was given a fine reception and splendid hearing, urged the people to vote the full Liberal ticket. He dealt with vocational training and referred to action of Mr. Peck, one of made a good impression and, in the course of his remarks, spoke of the fine reception he had received throughout the county. Premier Foster.

When the premier was introduced, the big room rang with applause. The premier first expressed his deep appreciation for the fine reception tendered Mrs. Foster and himself and the very warm hospitality of the good people of Hillsboro. He dealt vigorously with the record of the Fleming and Murray governments, which, he said, history had shown to be thoroughly bad. He referred to Messrs. Peck and Smith having repudiated Baxter in the potato scandal and now going about the county of Albert endorsing him as their leader. The premier referred to the farmers and said he had no quarrel with them and was glad there was a farmer on the government ticket in Albert county. The premier said that his government was entirely in sympathy with everything that aided the productivity of the country and strongly criticized statements to the contrary.

Will Vote For Referendum. The premier dealt with the temperance question and stated that, if a resolution asking a referendum on the matter of importation of liquor were introduced, he would vote for it.

Mineral Resources. Dealing with the mineral resources of the province the premier said: "There is reason to believe that the province is possessed of undeveloped mineral resources of great potential value, and the same reasons which have induced the government to proceed actively with developing the water powers—a policy which has met with general approval—would seem to justify much greater attention being given to ascertaining the extent and value of our mineral resources, and taking vigorous steps to ensure their development along conservative lines." "In this connection, I may say that my attention has been especially directed to the vast deposits of oil-bearing shales which, according to geologists, overpread the country for a distance of about seventy miles, extending from Apohaqui in Kings county, through to Elliptical, thence through the parish of Hillsboro and on to Memramcook, in the adjoining county of Westmorland. In these days, when, owing to the great demand for gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil, and lubricating oil, and the scarcity of petroleum the world over, relatively to the demand, prices have soared to such a high figure that the time has surely arrived when every reasonable effort should be made in the public interest to extract from the rich oil shales of this district a portion at least of the vast quantities of oil contained in the shale deposits.

Existing Rights.

"I have been approached by owners and lessees of freehold land both in this and the adjoining county of Westmorland complaining that mineral rights covering their farms were leased by our predecessors a good many years ago, and that no plans for the extraction of the oil have yet been put in operation. They claim that it is not only unjust to them as individuals but entirely contrary to the public interest that these large areas should continue to be tied up in the hands of people who are either unwilling or unable to develop them. The question presents itself under two aspects. First, there is the case of farms which were granted in the early settlement of the province, and which are known as the old grants, in which the only minerals reserved to the crown were gold and silver, lead and coal.

"The owners of these lands claim that, in respect to all but these four minerals so reserved to the crown, neither the government nor even the legislature had any right to deprive them of their property without compensation. Oil shale, they contend, was not reserved to the crown in these grants. Oil shale, they assert, is not coal and the right of property in it passed to the grantee when these grants were made. A previous government, they say, acting in disregard of their rights, gave leases covering many square miles of territory, including their farms, and afterwards in the year 1915, an act was passed by the legislature declaring that oil shale shall be deemed to be coal. The farmers holding grants contend, as it seems to me, with great force, that the legislature would have no moral right to thus deprive them without compensation of property rights in these oil shales which they had held for about 100 years, and that it must be presumed that the act was not intended to be retro-active and apply to grants issued before that act of 1915 was passed. They ask that steps be taken by the government to make this clear and to remove from their farms the cloud upon their title by reason of the leases to which I have referred."

The premier went on to say that this claim seemed to him to be worthy of serious consideration by the government and the legislature and that if, as contended, an injustice had been done, steps should be taken to remedy that injustice and he added that the present mining act, which had been on the statute books for years, had quite a number of defects which must be remedied if the rich mineral resources of the province were to be effectively developed. He said that, if returned to power, he would ask the minister of lands and mines to appoint an experienced mining engineer to make a careful study of all mining leases, with power, subject to approval of the minister, to take steps, either by cancellation of leases or otherwise, to remove any obstacles in the way of development.

MAY HAVE CANTEEN FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Great regret was expressed at the resignation of Miss Jessie Lawson from the office of president at the annual meeting of the High School Alumnae held last night in the Natural History rooms, with Miss Lawson presiding. In accepting the resignation a very hearty vote of thanks was extended to Miss Lawson for her untiring and most successful work for the alumnae and Dr. D. C. Malcolm and Mrs. Bertram Smith each in a short speech paid eloquent tribute to her.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. Harold Lawrence; president, Miss Grace Campbell; 1st vice, Mrs. Bertram Smith; 2nd vice, Dr. D. C. Malcolm; 3rd vice, Miss Alice Walker; secretary, Miss Mabel Rogers; assistant secretaries, Miss Edith Haum and Miss Marion Thompson; treasurer, Miss Laura Myles; additional members of the executive, Dr. J. Magee; Miss Jessie Lawson, Miss Florence Estabrooks, Miss Agnes Warner, Miss May Ward, Douglas McKean, Stanley Clark, Miss Barbara Dobson, Miss Grace Estey and Miss Hilda Shaw.

The report of the scholarship committee showed that $2,200 had already been collected and that there remained only $700 to be added to the fund, of which, it was announced, Frank Miller would contribute $100. The meeting felt greatly pleased with the success of Kenneth Sullivan, the first winner of the scholarship, who has distinguished himself at McGill and has thrown reflected glory on the High School Alumnae.

It was announced that the Reading Club would hold its meetings on the first Friday instead of the first Thursday each month. The matter of arranging a canteen in the High school in order that the scholars might have hot lunches was referred to and it was expected that the committee in charge would do something definite in this regard in the very near future.

A resolution of greeting and felicitation on his return from the Lambeth conference, in the discussions at which he took a prominent part, was presented to His Lordship Bishop Richardson at the meeting of the executive of the Fredericton diocesan synod held yesterday afternoon in the Church of England Institute, with his lordship presiding.

"I want to give a little history of my case just to let the public know what Tanlac has really done for me," said Edward White, of 27 Caroline street, South Hamilton, Ont., a well-known foreman for the Dominion Steel Co.

"About two years ago I suffered a complete breakdown brought on by overwork and it was only when I got Tanlac recently that I recovered my health. We were making engines for the battlefront and was anxious to get out as many as possible, so lots of times I worked both night and day. Well, this finally got the best of me, and I just had to go to bed and stay there for a number of days. This left me in such a bad condition that I had no appetite at all, and was so weak that when I walked around, I would just stagger. I took electric treatment and all kinds of medicines, but failed to get any better, and I began to think nothing would help me.

SHEEP QUEENS MAY LECTURE IN DOMINION

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 5.—"Sheep queens" of the Texas range have been asked to lecture to widows of fallen Canadian soldiers, and explain their "great adventure" to other women ambitious enough and keen enough to duplicate it on the Dominion prairies.

Two of the Texas women, Mrs. Jessie Hartwell and her sister, Mrs. Donna Gardner, may accept the invitation. The sisters are daughters of a sheep range manager, and own and manage ten sections of land in Parker county, Texas, from which 30,000 sheep were sold during the last summer.

The two young women also have been deluged with letters from working girls who are desiring to learn the ranching business. Marriageable men already in the sheep business in the southwest also sent in their applications for the trip.

ESKIMOS RETURNED TO THEIR PEOPLE

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Gratitude to the Great White Chief for his leniency to the Eskimo bands who were brought out to face the white man's law, was expressed by the Eskimo bands who returned to their homes on the shores of Coronation Gulf when four natives, two of them found guilty of murder, were returned to their own people by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

FRANCE DEVELOPS HER WATER POWER

Great Natural Resources of the Country Being Utilized.

The recent filing of the report of the Commission des Forces Hydrauliques at Paris gives American manufacturers an opportunity to learn what France's requirements in this field will be. Of the most discussed topics at the present time, in view of its economic importance with the diminishing supply of coal.

In found figures the water power in France may be reckoned theoretically at about 3,000,000 horse power. Of that amount 1,165,000 horse power is in use. About 500,000 horse power additional is being equipped. In about fifteen years 8,000,000 horse power more should be realized. The rest remains available for eventual development.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE EXPECTED
Steel Demand Quiet Down Decidedly - Improved Transportation Important Factor.

(New York Evening Post)
The dominant consideration in the steel industry's course the past month has been what will be the course of prices? Thus far there has appeared no definite statement on information as to the Steel Corporation's quotations for 1921. There appears to be a general belief that there will be no advance because of higher freights and costs. As a whole steel demand has quieted down decidedly. While production in both pig iron and steel keep up at an increased rate, or at least at a high rate, buying has perceptibly fallen. All the recent developments have worked to put buyers in a waiting frame of mind. First came the cancellations by automobile makers and then the reductions in price by two important companies - the Ford and the Franklin. This, coupled with price reductions in other lines to stimulate buying, has had the natural effect. The entire market, both domestic and for export, is extremely quiet and dull. There are indications of a softening

IRON AND STEEL. The stocks of the American Steel and Tin Plate Company have been reduced 50 per cent, and some premium prices have been rubbed out by the freer movement of bars with steel. For the first time in many months the Steel Corporation's unfilled orders on Aug. 31 showed a decline, due probably to leasy shipments.

(Toronto Globe)
As the President of the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Gompers claims the right to speak for the five million trades unionists who profess allegiance to that body. THE CONQUERING OF A DESERT

Engineers Built Railway Across 2,000 Waterless Miles and Linked Up Western Australia.

When the Prince of Wales decided to make his journey from Perth to Adelaide by means of Australia's first transcontinental railway, it was a commitment to the daring and skill of the Australian engineers who conquered one of the world's most formidable deserts.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned.

of the world's most formidable deserts says Tit-Bits.

It was the late Lord Kitchener who suggested the line, pointing out that for strategical and other reasons Western Australia should be linked with the other States of the Commonwealth by an iron road.

But the great Victorian desert lay between a barren, inhospitable and waterless stretch of country, over a thousand square miles in area. No rivulet is to be found in the whole of this vast region. It is one dreary expanse of sand and limestone, relieved here and there by salt-bush, which even cattle refuse to eat. Worse still are the intense heat and the blood-sucking insects which abound.

Five Years' Battle.

The feat meant a five years' battle against terrible odds. It was only completed just before the armistice.

The survey work alone occupied two years and cost £20,000, the total expense of the undertaking amounting to over £7,000,000. Camels had to be requisitioned to carry the surveyors and their stores. The chief engineer records how it was impossible to use ink, as it instantly dried on the pen and the leads dropped out of the shivelling pencils.

To escape relief from the rays of the mid-day sun they had to bury themselves in holes in the sand, when they were attacked by fierce insects.

means of a track-layer and spiking and bolting them.

Very trying, however, was the heat, particularly during the summer months. It was often impossible at mid-day to touch the steel rails or handle the shovel without fear of blistering the fingers. The men had to be provided with rubber gloves to enable them to handle the tools and also to save their fingers from splitting, and wear masks as a protection against the insects. Life was only made possible by a liberal supply of ice, obtained from the refrigerating cars attached to the construction trains which followed them.

At intervals of fifty miles or so, water tanks were built, the intention being to use these in connection with the working of the trains. They were to be supplied with water pumped from the reservoirs at Kalgoorlie. But after two and a half years' work, during which the track progressed at the rate of about a mile a day, the engineers realized that if a really efficient service was to be maintained the proposed method of obtaining water would have to be modified.

Priceless Discovery.

So they sent for a boring plant and at a point 250 miles from Kalgoorlie began boring for water. Everyone shook their heads saying there was no water in the whole of that barren land.

But at a depth of 1,200 feet water was found. This discovery of water not only relieved the engineers of considerable anxiety and greatly lessened their work, but it has changed the whole aspect of the country. Sheep now graze along the track, which a few years ago was a barren waste. Experts declare that the once formidable desert will become a great grazing country carrying at least 3,000,000 sheep.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Election of officers was the main business before the Canadian Women's Press Club at their conference here today.

Miss Lucy M. Doyle, of Toronto, was elected president. Judge Emily Murphy, of Edmonton, the retiring president, was elected honorary president by acclamation and presented with the jeweled corsage pin.

A banquet, which terminated the visit of the Canadian Women's Press Club to Montreal, was given in the Canadian Pacific Railway station tonight, after which the delegates left for Quebec.

Matchless Tonal Beauty

Musicians have often wondered why one gramophone should so far surpass all other makes in quality of tone.

The secret? As the soul of the Stradivari is its all wood tone passage—so it is with the Sonora.

The "Sonora" builders were the first to realize that metal or a combination of materials could not produce the quality of tone to be obtained through the use of properly treated wood.

PLAYS ALL RECORDS—The "Sonora" plays all makes of disc records perfectly, without extra attachments.

AUTOMATIC STOP—The "Sonora" Automatic Stop is carefully designed, is effective in operation, and is decidedly convenient.

LONG-RUNNING MOTOR—The splendid design and construction of the "Sonora" motor is of great importance. The "Sonora" is famous for this extra long-running, silent, powerful motor.

SUPERB DESIGN—The "Sonora" is famous for its "bulge" design lines (made as a patented process), and these curved lines are found only in the finest examples of wood workers' art.

Nearly all Sonora Models are now made entirely in Canada.

SERBIAN CONSUL DENIES REPORTS

Resents Statements that Serbs Are Guilty of Torturing Montenegrins.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—That the Serbians are not guilty of the tortures said to have been inflicted upon Montenegrin people, as claimed in a recent despatch from Washington is strongly asserted by Captain A. V. Sefcovich, consul-general for the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, in Montreal.

For some time past statements have been given to newspapers in an attempt to mislead public opinion regarding Serbia. In the Gazette of the 25th instant there was another example of this base intrigue.

"This army is quartered all over the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, in which Montenegro is included. In this army are also incorporated Montenegrins, who are Serbs of purest Serbian blood."

"There is no Montenegrin foreign office now in existence; and even the accredited representatives of the Allied powers have been withdrawn from the court of King Nicolas of Montenegro. An investigation commission by that foreign office would therefore be only imaginary."

"As a part of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, Montenegro is now administered by the Yugoslav government, in which are many officials from Montenegro."

"As to General Milosh Misllovich, who, as stated in the press, is in charge of this 'army of occupation,' his name is purely a fictitious one, as no such name appears in the 'redress' of Yugoslavia (i. e. formerly Serbian and Montenegrin) officers."

"The communique given to the Associated Press is therefore an invention of corrupted agents. I should be ashamed to be a Serb if these statements were true, and would cable my resignation to my government. There are many other members of the Yugoslav colony in Montreal who are also protesting. I am a Serbian from Montenegro and was formerly consul for Montenegro in New York."

"I protest in the name of my government and in the name of all Yugoslavs (including Montenegrins who are pure Serbs) that the statements given out at Washington to the Associated Press under date of September 27th are absolutely false, containing base accusations of sections of which the Serbs were incapable of inflicting on their enemies in the war and still less capable of inflicting today on our brethren."

Costs More to Swear.

London, Oct. 8.—Magistrate A. M. Samuel has made the suggestion that fines inflicted for using bad language should be increased in proportion to the increased cost of living. A man had been brought before the magistrate for swearing. The magistrate said that a proved offence of this kind should cost two and a half times as much as it did before. He fined the culprit 15.

GANG FEUD CAUSED FIGHT IN SALOON

Bottles, Bandits, Bung-Start and Bartender Figured With Much Force.

New York, Oct. 8.—Bottles and bandits, bung-starters and a bartender figured with much force and high frequency in a gang feud in Jersey City this week.

Four masked men, armed with revolvers, were greeted with a shower of bottles, when they entered the saloon of John Palogow, at 469 Henderson street, Jersey City, this morning.

The quartet answered by firing a volley, hitting Palogow and inflicting a flesh wound in the chest.

The firing brought Policeman Clinek and a detail of detectives in time to see three of the men lift a fourth into a touring car and whiz away.

According to Palogow he and three friends were drinking at the bar when the four "robbers" entered. Palogow and his customers, without waiting for the newcomers to speak, seized the "safe" and hurried them. Palogow, seizing a bung-starter, jumped over the bar and felled one of the masked men with a blow on the head. The shooting followed.

The police believe the fight was the result of a gang feud and not an attempted robbery. In the absence of an evidence, however, they notified the surrounding country and New York city to watch for the car and the four men.
