Prime Minister Squires Receives Big Reception

Hr. Grace and Vicinity Enthusiastically Welcomed Sir R. A. Squires. Bay Roberts section Falls in Line

A GREAT RECEPTION

To Prime Minister Squires

The triumphant tour of Sir Richard Squires through this district was one of the most successful and unique visits of a Prime Minister or Leader of a Party in any district in this country.

Harbour Grace, his native town, gave him a wonderful and enthusiastic reception on Friday morning. This was continued with increased enthusiasm at Bryant's Cove, Upper Island Cove, Coughlan Hall at Harbor Grace on Friday night, at Tilton and Bishop's Cove Saturday morning, and at Spaniard's Bay and Coley's Pt. Saturday afternoon.

The reception given the Prime Minister at the various places were never equalled in this old District, and proves that the district is determined to honor her own native-born talented and distinguished son, Sir Richard Squires.

The people are also determined to send to the House of Assembly local men to represent them as they have been doing the past 30 years.

The display of bunting, enthusiasm of the people, the gun-firing and the all-round general reception have never been equalled. We make this statement because we were an eye-witness to everything which took place from Friday morning until Saturday night, and defy successful contradiction.

The regrettable scene in the Orange Hall here on Saturday night was the act of men driven to desperation in a lost cause.

We regret that lack of time and space prevents us from publishing a fuller account of the incident in this issue. Suffice it to say that what we stated in a recent issue about the MENACE OF CROSBIE-ISM has come to pass, and the decent and respectable citizens of Bay Roberts are denouncing Crosbie in the very strongest terms. Large numbers of decent men who were supporting the Opposition are now supporting the Squires Party, and on May the 3rd will mark their X FOR CALPIN, PICCOTT AND SIMMONS.

RULES FOR Making Cod Liver Oil For the Guidance of Manufacturers

1st. The manager in charge of factory must see that the livers are fresh; that all brown or poor livers are thrown out; that there is no gall bladder attached to any livers.

2nd. The good livers must then be washed in a tub of clean fresh water.

3rd. The pan in which the livers are boiled must be perfectly clean inside, before any livers are placed in it.

4th. Before you start to boil any livers, you must have sufficient steam.

5th. Turn on the steam, and use as much as you need to have for the quantity of livers you have in your pan. Boil until the white scum floats off (which will take about thirty minutes.) Don't forget to stir the livers, and see that those in the bottom and those around the sides, are brought into direct contact with the steam all the time.

6th. Turn the steam off, and allow all to settle, not exceeding five minutes, according to capacity of liver boiler.

7th. Then you dip all the oil you can get, which is the finest white oil. Put this oil in a cooling tank made of galvanized iron, and let the oil remain there till next morning. Don't forget to put a straining cloth over the cooling tank before you put any oil in, so that it will catch any bits of blubber; allow to remain 12 or 14 hours, or longer if possible, then dip from cooling tank and strain through double calico bag, inside bag to be one inch smaller all around; then strain into a tin shute under the bags, the cask to be at the end of the shute with a funnel, to lead oil into casks, which funnel to be covered with caesse cloth.

8th. When you have dipped the finest oil from the top of the liver oiler pan, take all the blubber from the pan while it is warm. The oil from this blubber is not fit for medicinal purposes.

9th. Then clean your liver pan with warm water and washing powder. Have it bright and clean for the next boiling.

10th. Every bag, cloth, tank, funnel and pan, must be washed only with warm water, soap and water. Soda must not be used.

The best results for medical oil can only be obtained by the use of tin barrels. Wooden packages generally make the oil dark, and destroy its fine flavor. Keep all oil in barrels in a cool place, and covered from the sun.

REGULATIONS For Salting Scotch Pack Herring

One barrel salt to five and a half barrels herring—Large Fulls.
One barrel salt to six barrels herring—Medium Fulls.
One barrel salt to six and a half barrels herring—Matt Fulls.
This amount of salt is for dredging and laying on rows only. It does not take into account that put on the herring before gibbing.

All salt falling off herring in rousing tubs is put on rows as you pack unless very dirty or scaly; in that case, you have to make good the same amount, or otherwise you could not have any fixed rule on salt.

Matt Fulls . . . . . 10 1/2 inches long . . . . . Milt or roe
Medium Fulls . . . . . 11 1/2 inches long . . . . . Milt or roe
Large Fulls . . . . . 12 1/2 inches long and upwards . . . . . Milt or roe
Medium Filling . . . . . 11 1/2 inches long and upwards
Large Filling . . . . . 12 1/2 inches long and upwards

Filling Fish may be branded as Scotch Cure without the Crown Brand.

No drowned, stale, or scaleless herring can be used as Scotch Pack, nor herring in half frozen state.

The root cause of light salting is to come as near as possible to the pleasing of the palate of the consumer; and if we bear in mind that over three-fourths of all Scotch-Pack Herring are consumed as a tonic before the mid-day meal, just as they come out of the barrel, without any fire cooking, we can see the reason at a glance for the right salting. The herring is dressed by the head and the tail being cut off, the main bone taken out. It is then cut into squares of about one inch, and is served with vinegar and other condiments. This gives power to the stomach to digest the following meal and keeps the consumer in the best of health.

People with bad stomachs please note that the art of cooking and eating right is just as essential as the art of curing; and based on the best medical directions, and with the chemical analysis of the constituent parts of herring as a food ever kept before the consumer we need not be surprised that the people who eat most herring are the most healthy and efficient.

Lucy Graham's Secret (Continued.)

Poor little girl, she was very low spirited; and when I told her that my London expedition had failed, she fairly broke down and broke into a storm of sobs and lamentations telling me that I ought not to have married her if I could give her nothing but poverty and misery; and that I could give her nothing but poverty and misery; and that I had done her a cruel wrong in making her my wife. By heaven! Miss Morley her tears and reproaches drove me almost mad; and I flew into a rage with her myself, her father, the world, and everybody in it, and then ran out of the house. I walked about the streets all that day, half out of my mind, and with a strong inclination to throw myself into the sea, so as to leave my poor girl free to make a better match. "If I drown myself, her father must support her," I thought; "the old hypocrite could never refuse her a shelter; but while I live she has no claim on him." I went down to a rickety old wooden pier, meaning to wait there till it was dark, and then drop quickly over the side into the water; but while I sat there smoking my pipe, and staring vacantly at the sea-gulls, two men came down, and one of them began to talk about the Australian gold-diggings, and the great things that were to be done there. It appeared that he was going to sail in a day or two, and he was trying to persuade his companion to join him in the expedition.

"I listened to these men for upward of an hour following them up and down the pier, with my pipe in my mouth and hearing all their talk. After this I fell into conversation with them myself, and ascertained that there was a vessel going to leave Liverpool in three days, by which vessel one of the men was going out. This man gave me all the information I required, and told me, moreover, that a stalwart young fellow, such as I was, could hardly fail to do well in the diggings. The thought flashed up on me so suddenly that I grew hot and red in the face, and trembled in every limb with excitement. This was better than the water, at any rate."

Don't Know His Own Mind

The following message was received by C. E. Russell from John R. Bennett as late as March 22nd.

"Can you come to town tomorrow. I want to make final arrangements for Harbor Grace ticket. Am asking Mr. Archibald also."

J. R. BENNETT

The following day when Mr. Russell was on the train en route to St. John's a message was delivered to his home suggesting delay his coming for a day or two.

This message was telephoned to St. John's and received by Mr. Russell while on his way to Mr. Bennett's office to see him. He thereupon phoned Mr. Bennett, told him he was in town and asked him if he wanted to see him then. Mr. Bennett replied that he would be busy the following morning, March 24th, but that if he wanted him Saturday afternoon he would phone him. He did not phone and Russell returned home Saturday night.

Word in Season

A word to John R. Bennett: You have placed Albert Hickman on the ticket against the wishes of a majority of the people who were supporting your party. BUT YOU CANNOT FORCE THE ELECTORS TO VOTE FOR HIM.

The ballot box is where the people are absolutely supreme, John R., and they will show you this on May the third.

That $1,000 Hickman bet with Lewis Dawe that Sir Richard Squires would not be elected in St. John's west must have been taken from the little pile of $200 he (Hickman) had saved up to give C. E. Russell in order to try and induce him to retire in his favor and be false to the very people Hickman is now appealing to for their support and vote.

Query: If Albert Hickman was prepared to pay $100,000 to Russell, how much does he expect to make out of the government if he and his party should be elected to power? John Crosbie wouldn't be a patch on him. The money covering the bets is now at the Bank of Nova Scotia at Bay Roberts.

TWILLINGATE STRONG FOR THE HUMBER

From a letter received recently from Grand Falls we learn that fully 80 per cent. of the electors of Twillingate District will vote for the Squires Government and the Humber Development Scheme.

Certain persons supporting the Opposition have suddenly become very solicitous for C. E. Russell and his welfare. We would advise these gents to allow charity to begin at home.

POLITICAL PARS

Is Bennett the Boss? Ask the electors of Bay Roberts and vicinity.

Ask Josiah Gosse what he said to Bennett about Frank Archibald a few weeks ago. He was doing his level best then to force Archibald off the Opposition ticket.

Who selected John R. Bennett as leader of the Opposition Party? Answer—Crosbie, Cashin, Higgins, Vinnicombe, Fox, Sullivan, Sinnott, Walsh, Moore and Jones.

If Bennett is returned to power and Sir Michael becomes Finance Minister, what is to hinder Sir Michael from moving a vote of confidence in John R. Bennett the same as he did with Lloyd?

The order went forth from the campaign general, Wattie Crosbie, that Russell should not be allowed into the Opposition public meeting held here last week.

When Hickman made the bet of $1000.00 at Coley's Pt. and Shearstown he never dreamt there was anyone around with enough money to take bets. But Albert got left. The bet was taken by Lewis Dawe, and Bertie hasn't bet any money since.

Archibald stated that Sir Richard Squires, fooled the British Government. Sir R. A. Squires must be a pretty smart man, according to Mr. Archibald.

Squires' policy is to have the railway taken off our hands and a big saving effected. To bring the Humber Development Scheme to pass, which will provide employment for thousands of men, at the same time bring us a revenue of from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 a year.

If it was considered important by a majority of the electors to elect the Squires Government in 1919, it is doubly important to-day. Harbor Grace is in line with the other Districts.

they have to offer, then God help the country and the people.

The Tory Manifesto does not make definite promise of a bounty to the fishermen. The merchant or anybody else may get the bounty. It is significant that the printer had to make certain changes in the wording of that part of the manifesto as published in the Telegram.

"Bennett and Better Times" for Bennett, Hickman, Crosbie, Cashin and the other old time grafters. But what about Better Times for the country and the people. That's another story.

The idea of having a Government composed of merchants is to get further away from the com on people. If some of the merchant candidates are elected you will need a forty-foot pole after May 3rd to reach them.

For upwards of thirty years this District has been able to supply men with brains and ability enough to represent it in the Government. Now Mr. Bennett and his Party, all of St. John's, decides to set up a Dictatorship over us.

St. George's Day Fittingly Celebrated

Monday, April 23rd, was observed as a general holiday in honor of St. George. The Church Lads' Brigade and Boy's Scouts met opposite the Public Building and led by the Brigade Band, paraded to the Church of England where an eloquent and inspiring address was delivered by Rev. E. M. Bishop.

On leaving the church, the Brigades marched east halting before the C. of E. Rectory and the Methodist parsonage where choice band selections were rendered.

OPPOSITION MEETING HELD AT TILTON

Opposition candidates held a meeting at Tilton on Tuesday night. Archibald spoke along the same lines as he did in 1919, and repeated his promise of a telephone service.

Bennett was the last speaker. He backed up Archibald's telephone project. A voter asked him what he was going to do about the employment situation, and he said he would employ the people on the roads.

CORRECTION

In the list of children in the obituary of the late Mrs. F. Chard, the name Mrs. Geo. Gerritt should read Mrs. Geo. Farrett.

Have you said it with One Dollar yet? If you want to keep Bay Roberts on the map, do it. But DO IT NOW.

"a safe sea," and Russell must be forced off the ticket, and No 2 outsider is brought in, and a native has to take a back seat.

IF YOU WANT WORK, VOTE FOR THE HUMBER AND SQUIRES

OUR LETTER BOX

BETTING BLUFF CALLED

(Editor Guardian)

Dear Sir—Now that nomination Day has passed I have been wondering what the opposition candidate "Hickman" will have to say in his political speeches.

First he started off demonstrating his true character "Bluff" by offering thousand dollar bets that the Prime Minister, Sir Richard Squires, would be defeated in St. John's West.

Now, Mr. Editor, regarding those thousand dollar bets of Mr. Hickman's. It is very easy for him to bet with money that don't belong to him; a man who received, by way of trust from the Government ($24,000) to assist in carrying on the fisheries and makes returns of one thousand and ninety-one dollars (1091.00) or about 7 per cent of the amount received.

It has been persistently rumored around here that if Mr. Hickman is elected Mr. Walter Crosbie is going to look after his (Mr. Hickman's) interests in this district.

Electors take no chance on bringing such a scourge upon yourselves and your district, and on May 3rd vote straight for Piccott, Calpin and Simmons, and thereby assist Sir Richard Squires to develop that wonderful industrial undertaking the Humber Deal.

Yours truly, VOTER

Hard Work Means Success

There never was a goal worth getting but you must work to attain. You must suffer and bleed for it, cling to your creed for it. Fail and go at it again.

Success is no whim of the moment, no crown for the indolent brow. You must battle and try for it, offer to die for it; Lose it yet win it somehow.

The Pathway to glory is rugged, and many the heart-aches you'll know. He who seeks to be master must rise from disaster. Must take as he giveth the blow.

There's no royal Highway to splendour, no short cut to fortune or fame. You must fearlessly fight for it, dare to be right for it. Failing, yet playing the game.

The test of man's merit is trouble, the proof of his work is distress. Much as you long for it, man must be strong for it. Work is the door to success.

HEALTH is the greatest blessing in the world. If you are HEALTHY you can work hard but not otherwise. HARD WORK means SUCCESS but you will NEVER be able to work very hard without HEALTH and STRENGTH. If you require HEALTH and STRENGTH use
