round there is no exci ings go on as before. T islness man does not yes onors, because it means d civic honors, because it means distrac-tion, and perhaps neglect of important business interests. He probably feels, ico, that he would get more of adverse criticism than of blessing if he did be-come an alderman. So he contents himself with an occasional growt, and a taolt acknowledgement that those who do give up a lot of time to the discussion and conduct of civic affairs are after all a well meaning set of men, who save him a lot of, trauble.

WHO'S AFRAID? The Telegraph, which got out a 16-page issue on Saturday, is so charmed, with itself that it tries to growd all the other city papers into a back seat. So far as the Star is concerned, there is no collection to this dimension is no objection to this display of van-deal in quantity, and the Star will lead in quality. That suits the Star, and the Star suits the people.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.

The Globe recently suggested that luring the absence of Hon. Mr. Mu-ock the aoting postmaster-general night institute a needed reform in a matter to which Senator Ellis, with the aid of Hon. Mr. Blair and Col. Tucker, might direct attention. Some eight or nine clerks in the St. John post ofand the letter carriers also have not yet received the arrears in salary and without cause and contrar o the regulations in 1897 and 1898. The otal amount involved is not large, in department that spends enormous ns, and there is all the less excuse for withholding from men the am to which they are fairly entitled.

General business was dis- cussed, but nothing of very great im- portance was brought before the meet-	accepted, and during a lull in the pro- ceedings, while no one appeared to be looking. Doyle took the opportunity of counting his money again, and to the great surprise of himself and every- one else, found that he had more than two dollars. On Mr. Cosman again ex- pressing his willingness to receive the	whole entertainment was most interest- ing, and all who were present last ev- ening came away with the impression that McEwen is a wonder.
