Conference a Failure. Montreal, June 27.—Nothing was achieved from the conference held today between the representatives of the Canadian Pacific and the Trainmen, and tonight the situation is practically unchanged. It is possible that another conference will be held tomorrow when Vice-President McNeill of the C. P. R. will return to the city, but whether this will result in anything remains to be seen.

FOREIGNERS IN LYNN WILL BE EXAMINED

Mayor Issues Order For Thorough Inspection Of Foreign Quarter — Surviving Bandit Tells His Story

Lynn, Mass., June 27.—Mayor James E. Rich issued instructions to the police this afternoon to give the foreign quarters of the city a thorough overhauling. He instructed the police inspectors to go through those sections of the city where the foreigners live, interview all strangers and if they cannot give a satisfactory explanation of their presence in the city, to either arrest them or railroad them out of town. He declares that the tragedy of Saturday would not have happened if the police had followed similar instructions which he gave them some time ago and for which he had two extra inspectors appointed. The order of Mayor Rich followed a report which reached him to the effect that the three bandits who shot up the city Saturday had been hanging about Andrews street for several days.

Chief Shannon, of Chelsea, visited Lynn today in the hope of identifying the men, but he was unable to do so. Many other police officials have also made similar attempts without success. As no one has come forward to claim the remains of "Joe" and "Andy" the bandit, who was killed, plans have been made to bury him at the city's expense tomorrow morning. "Andy" Abson who is in the hospital, is in an extremely critical condition tonight and his death is hourly expected.

Watched Two Weeks. Twankowski, the bandit under arrest, has been watched for several days by Burkes and Deputy Bartlett. He said he knew the others only by the names of Andy and Joe and displayed absolutely no interest when reminded that one was dead and the other dying. He said that for at least two weeks the movements of Mr. Landregan in securing the money for the weekly payroll had been watched and that the whole affair was planned. He did not know the shooting, he says, and in this he is corroborated by eye-witnesses of the affair.

He is certain an officer killed his companion "Joe," for he says he saw the officer shoot at "Joe" and the head of the latter suddenly dropped. The officer, the arrested man says, did not know he had killed Joe.

SAME COMPANY BUYS LARGE TIMBER LANDS

Special to The Standard. Halifax, June 27.—London capitalists have signed a contract with the government of Nova Scotia under which they will build a railway from Halifax to Guysboro and from New Glasgow to Country Harbor on the Atlantic coast. The general manager of the company is T. B. Fox, formerly of the Toledo Terminal Railway. The financial men in the company are known in London as the South African group. They say the railway will be built in three years.

ITALY ASKS FOR EXTRADITION

Word Received That Rome Has Moved In Porter Charlton's Case—U. S. Takes No Action.

New York, June 27.—Although word comes from Rome that the Italian government has decided to ask for the extradition of Porter Charlton, the youth charged with wife murder, the U. S. authorities have refused to take any action. Although the police books against Rossi reads as follows: "Giovanni Rossi, alias Andy Rose, aged 21, a native of Italy, arrested on suspicion of shooting with attempt to kill, Diego Siracusa in his house in 37 North street, and also with robbing him of $50 and a gold watch and chain," the announcement of the death of Siracusa is hourly awaited, when the charge must necessarily be changed to murder or manslaughter.

The boy's arraignment has been set for tomorrow, but it was understood tonight that the federal authorities will ask for an adjournment. This will probably be granted. Meanwhile the state department will likely reach a decision and unless insanity proceedings interfere he will be turned over to the federal authorities if they decide to grant extradition. The young prisoner is still in a highly nervous state, verging on mental and physical collapse. He eats but little and alternately paces the floor of his cell or attempts to read.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S SON IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

Italian Struck By Auto Driven By Robert Taft Will Probably Die — President Sends Doctor From Boston.

Beverly, Mass., June 27.—The serious condition of Michael Thisthwaite the Italian laborer who was struck by an automobile operated by Robert Taft, the president's son, has caused a hurried change in the plans of the Taft family who were preparing to leave New London tomorrow morning. Instead of attending the races the family will remain in Beverly unless there is an unexpected change for the better in the man's condition. The report from the Beverly hospital tonight was that his name was on the dangerous list and he has only a slight chance of recovery.

Dr. S. J. Mistor of Boston, at the request of the president, arrived here this afternoon and he is working with the hospital authorities, doing all that can be done for the injured man. Robert Taft was badly broken up over the affair and has spent much of his time this afternoon at the hospital.

NOT PLEASED WITH ENGLAND

New York, June 27.—A Sun London cable says: "There seems to be a rift in the entente cordiale between England and France. It is reported that France is displeased by the failure of Foreign Secretary Grey to adopt its point of view regarding Crete, believing that sooner or later some satisfactory intervention will occur as a result of Sir Edward's policy of procrastination. The French government wanted a conference but Sir Edward would not accept the proposal. He also declined the suggestion that representatives of protecting powers should meet frequently in London for the purpose of settling current business in regard to Crete."

DEATH OF VERY NEAR VICTIM OF ROSSI'S GUN

Diego Siracusa Still Lives While His Assailant Behind Prison Bars Awaits His Fate.

FEW NEW DETAILS IN TRAGEDY YESTERDAY

With Diego Siracusa lying at death's door with a bullet in his head in the general public hospital and his brother Italian and confessed would-be murderer, Andrew Rossi, lying in a prison cell, at Central police station, his own existence depending upon the life or death of the man whom he attempted to slay, as a result of jealousy over a pretty woman, sums up in brief the present situation of one of the most sensational criminal cases in the police annals of the city for several years.

ANDREW ROSSI.

Although the police charge on the police books against Rossi reads as follows: "Giovanni Rossi, alias Andy Rose, aged 21, a native of Italy, arrested on suspicion of shooting with attempt to kill, Diego Siracusa in his house in 37 North street, and also with robbing him of $50 and a gold watch and chain," the announcement of the death of Siracusa is hourly awaited, when the charge must necessarily be changed to murder or manslaughter.

THREE HURT IN B. & M. WRECK

Wrecking Train Collides With Freight At Newburyport And Fire Follows — Fireman Quincy Injured Internally.

Peabody, Mass., June 27.—A wrecking train of the Boston and Maine railroad on its way from Boston to Newburyport tonight ran into a freight train demolishing the caboose, setting fire to several cars and injuring three men. The most seriously injured was Fireman Quincy of the wrecking engine who is believed to have sustained internal injuries. He was taken to a Boston hospital. The other men, neither of whom was a railroad employee, were Patrick Collins and Ernest Martin. They were sitting in the caboose. Martin sustained badly lacerated wounds of the head and thigh and Collins a broken leg. The accident happened on the Georgetown branch between West Peabody and Lynnfield. A portion of the freight train had been left standing on the through track while the engine shifted the other cars onto the siding at Martin's gravel pit. The cause of the accident has not been ascertained.

Bangor, Me., June 27.—Everett S., the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price, of Oloman, was drowned Saturday in a pond near his home, by falling from a boat while playing alone. THREE SERIOUS ACCIDENTS IN COBALT MINES

Five Men Drop Sixty Feet Down Shaft And Two Are Badly Hurt — Electrician Probably Fatally Shocked.

W. M. DAVIDSON KILLED BY FALLING TIMBER

Special to The Standard. Cobalt, Ont., June 27.—The already lengthy list of accidents here received three additions at the city of Cobalt mine when five men dropped sixty feet down a shaft, three of them escaping with a few minor injuries, while Abe Larsen, a Finlander, had his left leg and arm broken, and a man named Regan sustained an injury to his foot. The men had boarded the cage at the 137 foot level, coming from the bottom. Only the presence of mind of the hoist man, who hastily applied the friction brake, saved them all from death.

E. Hogan, an electrician, employed by the Mines Power Company, received the flash from 11,000 volts when the wires in the rheostat which he was repairing became crossed. He was horribly burned about the face and body and may not recover. Wm. Davidson, while fixing the valve in pump No. 12 shaft, Buffalo mine, was struck and fatally injured by a large timber which fell distance of 25 feet on his back. The timber had been loosened by a blast a short time before, and a fellow employe stepped on it and it gave way and fell upon Davidson. The man above saved himself from falling to the bottom of the shaft by grasping a projecting iron, hanging on for some time until rescued.

HOT SHOT FOR STABBING OF AYLESWORTH "SCAB" SAILOR

Presbyterian Minister At Lunenburg Says Minister Of Justice Has Shown Himself Unfit For Office.

Special to The Standard. Lunenburg, June 27.—The Rev. D. A. Frame, Presbyterian, severely scored Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, in his sermon last night. Mr. Frame referred to the case of King and Skill, of Toronto, who were sentenced to a year's imprisonment each for selling obscene books. Though they pleaded guilty, the minister of justice said they had committed no offence and had them liberated. Such a statement on the part of the minister of justice as one man stated at the Presbyterian conference at Halifax, said Mr. Frame, argues his unfitness for office.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL CUBAN CONGRESSMAN

Single Shot Fired In Lobby Of Parliament By Another Congressman Who Went Scot Free.

Havana, June 27.—A sensational attempt to kill Antonio San Miguel, congressman from Pinar del Rio, and editor of La Lucha, was made in the lobby of congress today, a few minutes before that body was to open its session. Congressman Manuel Lores, of Oriente, was the assailant. A single shot fired went wild, but almost hit another congressman standing near.

$1,193,000 FOR WAR BALLOONS

Rome, June 26.—The Chamber on Saturday unexpectedly voted the expenditure of 10,000,000 lire (about $1,193,000) for dirigible balloons for the army. The Socialists and Republicans opposed the proposal. They deplored increased army expenditure as useless, advocated disarmament. The discussion arose during the absence of the Minister of War. He was summoned from the Senate and made an eloquent appeal to the country's national honor. The vote was then passed by a majority of 200.

NOT ANXIOUS TO CATCH FUGITIVE

NINE FLIGHTS AT MONTREAL AERIAL MEET

Lachapelle Made Speed Record, And Brookens Highest Flight—McCurdy's Baddeck Fails In First Trial.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, June 27.—Some sensational flights were made at the International Aviation meet here this afternoon. Nine flights altogether were made during the afternoon, six by the Wright biplanes, two by Deleesses in his monoplane, and one by McCurdy of Nova Scotia, which however failed. The speed trial was easily won by Lachapelle in a Wright machine he covering the route twice around the course, a distance of over 4,000 yards, at a speed of about 40 miles an hour, making the distance in three minutes, twenty-two seconds. Count Deleesses was more than a minute slower, his time being 4 minutes, 35 seconds. A fine flight was made by Ralph Johnson in a Wright machine when he flew over Lake St. Louis and cruised in the air for 35 minutes. The highest flight ever made in Canada was made by Brookens in a Wright machine. The machine went up until it was lost in the clouds and Brookens claimed that he had ascended 3,500 feet. He kept ascending for twenty minutes and then suddenly stopped his motor and swooped to earth in a wonderful long glide and alighted easily. The official figure of his ascent was 1,650 feet.

The opinion is persistently expressed that the government is not anxious to bring Goldthrite back to justice, as evidence which he could give would be disconcerting. The story published by government newspapers that Goldthrite had been sent broad-cast is untrue. One of the inspectors of the Dominion police force said today: "No circulars or photographs have been sent out. I do not know where the newspapers publishing that story got their information."

Non-Union Seaman Found Bleeding To Death On New York Dock With Placard On His Forehead.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 27.—Edward Fraser, a nonunion sailor was found bleeding to death on the docks tonight. His left ear had been slashed off and there was a deep thirteen inch gash in his thigh. Across his forehead was pasted a printed placard bearing the inscription "don't be a strike-breaker."

STATES ADDED TO BRITISH DOMINIONS

Notice To Ottawa That Postage Is Reduced To Siamese Districts First Intimation Of Latest Addition.

Ottawa, June 27.—The first intimation received in Canada that another splash of red has been added to the map of the world, is given in a notice sent out by the postoffice department. It is to the effect that the states of Kalimantan, Kedah, Perlis and Trengganu in Siam, have been transferred from the control of the government of Siam to that of Great Britain and that in consequence the postage rate to these states has been changed to two cents per ounce.

CLOUDBURST DOES $300,000 DAMAGE

Huntington, W. Va., June 27.—Great damage has been wrought throughout the Coal river and Mud river valleys by heavy rains, followed by a cloudburst today. The rivers are the highest stages ever known. The damage to crops and property will probably be $500,000. Railroad traffic has been suspended, owing to many washouts and landslides.

ILLINOIS BRIBERY CASE WITH JURY

Chicago, June 27.—Eighty hours have passed with no sign of a verdict from the jury that is considering the case of Leo O'Neil Browne, Democratic minority leader of the Illinois legislature, charging him with bribing C. A. White to vote for William Lorimer for United States Senator. Judge McSorel has not even been called upon for further instructions.

Gouldthrite Could Tell Story of How Liberal Campaign Funds Were Raised.

Complaints from Party Managers Led to Discovery of Thefts in Interior Department.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Ont., June 27.—There is no news yet of Gouldthrite, the fugitive superintendent of stationery at the government printing bureau. Commissioner Sherwood, of the Dominion Police and two of his assistants are in the United States seeking for clues as to his whereabouts, but the only official statement forthcoming tonight is that Colonel Sherwood is expected back tomorrow night. Mrs. Gouldthrite has evidently gone to join her husband. She is said to have been shadowed by detectives at Prescott on Saturday, who crossed the border after her.

The suggestion is made that if Gouldthrite is placed in the dock the whole method the Liberal party adopts of raising funds will be revealed. Indeed this was the cause of the frauds being discovered. It was not Hon. Charles Murphy's astuteness, which he himself explained in a typewritten circular which he gave out last week. The fact is that two parties had complained to the secretary of state. The first were the Liberal party managers who are short of funds, and have had considerable difficulty in gathering enough to finance the prime minister's western tour. They appealed to some of the Canadian firms which have been in the habit of contributing to the party funds to contribute to the party funds to carry over ten years. It was found that while the government was paying first class prices the goods were inferior. As an instance, the government had been paying $5 and $6 per ream for certain paper from Canadian firms but the orders had been transferred to American firms and these supplied paper worth only $1 per ream. Gouldthrite and his accomplices evidently got the balance.

LABOR UNIONS OUT WITH BALL LEAGUE

More Trouble Develops At Cleveland — Labor Leaders Claim That Score Cards Are Not Printed In Union Shops.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 27.—Trouble is again threatening between the American baseball league and the labor unions. The boycott against any park in which the Cleveland team was playing which was ended by an agreement a month ago may be revived according to local union officials. Labor leaders claim that the Cleveland club is using score cards and tickets printed by non-union labor. President Ban Johnson of the American League is expected here tomorrow when a conference will be held between the club and labor leaders, and efforts made to bring about a settlement of the trouble.

COLLEGIANS SUBSCRIBE TO EPHEBIC OATH

New York, N. Y., June 27.—The senior class of the College of the City of New York, presented to Mayor Gaynor today an "Ephobic" oath, swearing as did the Athenian youths, never by act of theirs to bring disgrace upon their city's name. The mayor, who has urged students to interest themselves in public affairs, was greatly pleased. The oath is engrossed on parchment.

ROSS'S BULLET SPEED BY HATE

He Was Jealous of Syracuse's Hold Upon the Affections of Minnie Jones.

Detective Killen captured Would-be Murderer at Welsford Station Yesterday.

Continued from page 1. Rossi was brought before Magistrate Kitchie yesterday afternoon, but was not required to plead. He was remanded until further notice, and it is altogether likely that he will not appear in court again until it has been decided upon whether his victim in the hospital will recover or die.

As far as the crime is concerned there is nothing of a mysterious nature connected with it and not the slightest doubt exists but that Rossi is the guilty man. Although the prosecution will not attempt to bring forth much evidence, what there is of a convincing nature, and it is thought probable that should Siracusa die from the effects of the wounds which he received this Ross will plead guilty, and throw himself upon the mercy of the court.

Rossi is Calm. Rossi does not seem to be the least perturbed over the situation or worried about his impending fate. That he realizes that Siracusa may die, there is no doubt, but it is doubtful whether he understands Canadian law sufficiently to fully realize his position, and the penalty of such a crime.

Saddened Relatives at Home. That both men have people living in their native Italy there is every reason to believe. A registration report found in the bedroom where Siracusa was shot, a pathetic note in the form of a letter with money sent to his home in Messina, while Rossi is said to have written to his mother on Friday, telling of his love for the Jones girl, and of his intent to slay Siracusa.

WEDDINGS. Welch-Lewis. On Saturday night, at 9.30 o'clock a quiet and pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, 242 Prince William street, when Miss Carrie B. Lewis of Freeport, N. S., and Howard Lewis of Westport, N. S., were united in marriage by Rev. F. H. Wentworth. The couple were unattended. The bride was becomingly gowned and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Hall-Brine. At St. John's (Stone) church last evening Alexander Basil Hall of Nelson, B. C., was married to Miss Laura Amelia Brine of Truro, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Kühring, the rector. Mr. Hall is a nephew of Mrs. C. H. Fairweather of this city, and came to St. John to meet his bride. F. R. Fairweather supported the groom and Miss Alice Fairweather was bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will remain in St. John until Saturday when they will leave for Vancouver.

Rev. A. B. Cohoe's First Sermon. "Rev. A. B. Cohoe, the new minister of the First Baptist church," says the Halifax Herald, "preached his inaugural sermon yesterday, and unusually large congregations were present. Mr. Cohoe is a young man, apparently several years under forty. He has a studious, sympathetic face, and a musical, soft voice, and though it is distinct and clear, yet there were times when the preacher's tones dropped so low that in the back part of the church one had to listen to hear everything that was said. Mr. Cohoe's temperament is emotional and he is eloquent and forceful. The text taken by Mr. Cohoe yesterday morning was from Colossians 1:17—'And in Him all things abide.' After giving a summary the Herald describes the sermon as thoughtful and suggestive. While it showed difficulties it pointed a way out of them.

The Exhibition Advertising. There was a novel exhibition in the office of the Exhibition Association yesterday afternoon—no less a spectacle than that of Manager Good, Secretary Porter and Walter Golding, with their sleeves rolled up, busily packing trunks with advertising matter. On Wednesday the teams which have been engaged to distribute the advertising matter, which includes lithograph hangers, pamphlets, hand bills and prize lists, will start on their rounds of the Maritime Provinces. They will be kept on the road for a month. One team will start out from Eastport, Maine, and work towards St. John. The association expects to spend about $5000 on its advertising campaign.

NO PARLIAMENT FOR CHINESE

Imperial Decree Contains Formal Refusal of Request of Deputation — Decision Will Not Be Disputed.

Peking, June 27.—An imperial decree issued today refused the popular and insistent demand recently made for the immediate convocation of a national parliament.

The urgent petition which was presented by delegates to the provincial assemblies and was supported by organizations of merchants throughout the country, was considered at the first meeting of the council of the empire held during the regency of Prince Chun. The council's decision is now made known.

It appears that the regent proposes to adhere to his original programme, which provides for a general legislative body to be summoned nine years after the first meeting of the provincial assemblies which were constituted by a decree of the throne made on May 9 last.

Concurrent with summons of the national assemblies was made of 96 members representing all classes, and the people were instructed to prepare for a constitution and parliament.

The delegates, however, wished the immediate establishment of a general, popular legislative body and in this ambition they were encouraged by many members who have refused to pay the stamp tax hoping in this way to influence Prince Chun. The agitation crystallized early in June when the delegates met in the capital, and memorializing the throne, declared their intention of remaining in Peking until their demands were granted.

Eight of the number were pledged to suicide in the event that a refusal was met with.

The delegates included several from the Chinese colonies in the Philippines, Australia and elsewhere, and as they were believed to represent the revolutionary element among Chinese living in foreign lands, they were closely watched by the palace spies.

The leaders of the movement, however, made known that they did not propose to employ drastic measures lest an anti-dynastic revolution result from the introduction into China of the armies of foreign powers.

BANDITS ROB EVERY PASSENGER ON TRAIN

Three Masked Men Stopped Oregon Express With Sleepers, And Got Away With Valuables of 300 People.

Ogden, Utah, June 27.—Three masked bandits held up the second section of Oregon Short Line train No. 1 for Northbound which left Ogden at 1.30 o'clock this morning at Second street in the northern part of this city. All of the passengers in the train were relieved of their valuables and the express messenger was compelled to deliver the contents of the safe.

The exact amount the robbers obtained had not been reported. Two passengers and two trainmen were injured.

The robbers stopped the train by placing railroad torpedoes on the track. When the engineer brought the train to a stop the head brakeman went forward to ascertain the cause of the delay, and was struck with a revolver by one of the robbers. He was then taken at the point of a pistol to the express car and compelled to call to the messenger to open the door.

Other Countries Aid President of Mexico in Jailing Enemies

RICARDO FLORES MAGON, President of Mexican Liberal party. He has been under arrest most of the time since 1906 in the southwestern part of the United States. He is now serving a term, treated like the meanest convict, in the penitentiary at Florence, Ariz., merely because he is against Diaz.

HOW TO SAY "DIAZ." Porfirio Diaz, the self-elected and continuous performing presidential despot of Mexico, will be in the limelight for some time, and it is just as well to know how to pronounce his name. It is not Diaz, as the average reader would hurriedly pronounce it. Say it this way: Doo-see-ah—long e—and end it with a hissing s.

By John Kenneth Turner. In order to accommodate President Diaz of Mexico, the United States government has set aside our dearest American principle—that of protecting political refugees who seek safety in this country.

I say, "in order to accommodate President Diaz." But it would be just as correct to say, "in order to accommodate the American regular army, the officers of the American secret service, of the American immigration department, and United States marshals." In this campaign American detectives, Mexican consuls, and hired attorneys have been permitted to assume powers such as should be exercised only by the constituted authorities.

Twice in 1908 and once in 1909 regulars of American regulars were sent to the border to arrest or drive back into the hands of pursuing soldiers Mexican political refugees who were fleeing for safety to our country. Many of these were arrested, and others were driven back, and, as a result, were killed.

For a good many years the American people have been proud that they harbored such patriots as Schurz, Kosciuszko, and others.

By the collusion of American officials Mexican political refugees have been extensively deported to Mexico; first, by the immigration officials, second, by the use of groundless charges of felony emanating from Mexico; third, by outright kidnaping; fourth, by the method that I have mentioned, of chasing them back as they were crossing the Rio Grande river. In this country they have been improperly imprisoned on many and various charges, prominent among them being "murder and robbery" committed in Mexico and conspiracy to violate the neutrality laws.

I could fill this page with a mere enumeration of instances. Many readers will remember the case of DeLara, whom there was a conspiracy to deport as an "alien anarchist," in October, 1909. DeLara was an anarchist. Moreover, having resided more than three years in this country he was not subject to deportation on any ground. But undoubtedly he would have been deported had not the American people protested in a most vigorous way. In this case the American people protested loudly because DeLara was so well known.

As to kidnaping, in several instances the conspirators were caught in the act, but never were any of them punished.

There is the case of Manuel Sarabia, for example, who was kidnaped by American officials in Douglas, Arizona, and carried into Mexico and turned over to waiting officers there. The affair became known and Sarabia was rescued because some one heard his cries in the night. The chauffeur of the automobile that carried him across the line made a clean breast of the affair, implicating the Mexican consul as the ringleader of the plot and others as helping and being paid for their part in it. But the power of Diaz in the United States is such that, though the criminals were indicted for felonious kidnaping they were never punished.

In the hearing before the house rules committee in Washington recently I gave a list of Mexican newspaper editors who were suppressed and their editors jailed in the United States for no other reason than that they were politically opposed to Diaz.

A Los Angeles city detective confessed to receiving $1000 for help in the arrest of Magon, an unlawful fee and that detective is still on the Los Angeles police force.

An El Paso policeman testified in court that his chief of police had given him orders to obey the orders of the Mexican consul of El Paso, and yet that chief of police was not discharged.

It has been charged that a man named Dove, a collector of customs at Eagle Pass, was a paid spy of the Mexican government. When the charge was made Dove handed in his resignation, but, according to evidence introduced at our hearing in Washington last week, Dove was given his job back again.

Thos. Furlong, head of the Furlong detective agency of St. Louis, testified in court that he was employed by the Mexican government to catch political refugees. He was quoted as saying that he had got 180 in the course of two years and turned them over to the Mexican government.

GOSSIP FROM THE RINGSIDE

NO QUEST ON VICTIMS

Coroner At Oldtown Views Bodies Of David Downes And His Slain Wife And Mother-In-Law

Bangor, Me., June 27.—Coroner Rackliffe, of Oldtown, on Monday visited the scene of the Springfield tragedy, and after viewing the remains of David Downes and his two victims, Mrs. Elizabeth Downes, wife of David and her mother, Mrs. Ivo Woodland, decided that an inquest was not necessary. The funeral services will be held on Tuesday, Mrs. Downes will be buried in a separate place.

Later accounts of the tragedy vary somewhat in interesting details from the first story. The shooting did not occur in the home of the Downes family, but at the house of Mrs. Downes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivo Woodland, across the road.

Mrs. Downes had spent Saturday night with her parents, and was still in the house when at 9.30 o'clock Sunday morning, her husband appeared in rather an ugly mood, and demanded to see his wife. Mrs. Woodard refused him admittance, and when he insisted, seized an axe, and stood brandishing the weapon in the doorway, whereupon Downes raised his rifle and shot the woman dead in her tracks.

Hearing the altercation, followed by a shot and the fall of her mother's body, Mrs. Downes appeared in the doorway and after a few words she too, fell before Downes' rifle. Ivo Woodard and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, neighbors, who were in the house at the time, fled through the back door, and Downes retreated to the road, where with rifle ready, he gazed about as if seeking another victim, presumably Mr. Woodard. No one being in sight, Downes after a brief pause returned to the bloody doorway, stepped over the bodies of his wife and Mrs. Woodard, and placing the muzzle of the rifle in his mouth, fired, his corpse falling across the others.

It is said that Downes and his wife had been living apart for five weeks and that he blamed Mrs. Woodard for their estrangement.

LEFT $7,000,000 TO FORMER SWEETHEART

Mrs. Dolly Baker Had Married Twice While Travers Was Seeking Fortune In Australia — Remembered In Will.

Spokane, Wash., June 27.—Mrs. Dolly Baker, of Coeur d'Alene City, Idaho, is said to be heiress of $7,000,000. Twenty years ago she said goodbye to her girlhood sweetheart, Arthur B. Travers, in Montana, and he went to Australia. The girl grew tired of waiting and married Judge W. J. Groat, later divorcing him and marrying Baker.

Now comes word that Travers became a cattle king in Australia, accumulated $7,000,000, and died, leaving all to Mrs. Baker. Attorney R. F. Filmore has gone to Australia, carrying proofs of Mrs. Baker's identity to claim the fortune for her.

Opinion Expressed that the Jeffries - Johnson Battle Will be Last Great Contest

Johnson Made Good Impression in Bout With Kaufman --- Jeff Goes Fishing Again.

Reno, Nev., June 27.—"Well, this is the last big fight. Pugilism as it has flourished many decades will be a lost art in the United States and that means in the world, when the Jeffries-Johnson fight is over."

Such is the prediction of the whole fighting world, apparently. It is shared by fighters, trainers and sporting writers as they loiter about the hotels of Reno and the quarters of the principals, patiently awaiting Monday and the decision in the arena that day.

It was a day of reminiscences and tales of other fights and other fighters. Thousands of spectators gathered in the ring in the late afternoon, the roped square was flanked by a big gathering of visitors.

Al Kaufman was called after a few minutes of medicine ball work, but the four rounds that followed were devoid of stirring moments. Kaufman puffed like a broken race horse. He was forced to do all the leading, Johnson merely blocking his blows and sending back no exchanges. The altitude is bothering Kaufman considerably, and Johnson's easy breathing and perfect condition are sharply noticeable beside his sparring partner's gasping work.

Monahan came next and Johnson went after him with playful force in the first of their four rounds. Blood dripped from Monahan's nose and lips in less than a minute. Johnson shot in two straight lefts with flashing speed and with definite precision. The ring in the late afternoon, with Monahan and the crowd about the ring as they sparred with each other.

Two rounds with Dave Mills followed and this concluded the day's work.

Johnson's breath was unharmed when it was all over and the peripatetic was galling on his whole body in a natural way. The actual boxing was apparent more as a concession to the curiosity of the crowd than anything else. It was just play for Jack, and he showed that he was entirely satisfied with his skill in this department by every move he made.

John L. Sullivan watched Johnson work. He stood on a rock far back of the crowd at the ring side. The playful side of the exhibition evidently did not appeal strongly to the old warrior, for he mumbled something about "seeing the real business next Monday."

If present intentions are carried out at Jeffries' camp, Thursday will be the last of the former champion's training. When he pulls the six ounce gloves from his hands on that day, after his parting tussle with the shadows, the "hope of the white race" will have completed his training for his encounter with Johnson.

Jeffries' encounter of three rounds each with Berger, Choyinski and Bob Armstrong and two with Corbett early today were his first boxing bouts since coming to Reno. The bout with Berger was interesting. Jeffries slashed at his manager with an assortment of blows and in the second round he landed a right hook that bent the spine of Francis and robbed him of his wind.

Armstrong was dropped to his knees during an onslaught by Jeffries. The big sparring partner was just breaking from a clinch when a right body punch took the fight out of him and ended hostilities for several seconds.

Armstrong had a hard time taking care of himself for the rest of the rounds. When the round was over, Jeffries went to breakfast. He spent the rest of the day loitering about the grounds of his cottage and early in the afternoon went fishing.

THE SKIRT OF FEELERS

French Artists Denounce Latest Fad in Women's Gowns—Not Likely to Last as it Ruins Beauty.

Paris, June 27.—The grand society week of the year passed brilliantly though the weather has been fretful, with more rain than sunshine. Something like a sensation is produced by the latest development of smart women's frocks, known as the "jupe a l'entrevue," or skirt with feters, which makes the wearers walk with short, mincing steps, and when they want to get about quickly to proceed by rapid jumps, as if in a sack race. At the ultra-fashionable Autenil and Long champs meetings it was noticed that the fettered skirt, with tight bands about the ankles and knees, is gradually showing signs of vanishing. Leading French artists who have been asked about this craze of Pralsian couturiers are, with few exceptions, hostile to the "fettered skirt."
 Rodin, the sculptor says: "It is a fad that cannot last, because it is ugly, and assassinates the lines of beauty."
 Francois Flameng says: "These fettered skirts are simply abominable. As soon as the natural lines of the female form are interfered with, women lose their proportions and become monsters, at once hideous and vulgar."
 M. Jasson, a human legs made for movement, and to fetter this movement is illogical. This tapering of the upper and lower ends of women is a crime against nature."
 Abel Faivre says: "The fettered skirt is certainly pretentious when the wearer is motionless; but I can forgive this, because I get such infinite amusement by watching the comic efforts of fashionably gowned women tottering over on the ground when they forget their fetters and try to jump into a carriage or cross the street."
 M. de la Gandara says: "I like the fettered skirt because it accentuates the beauty lines between the hips and the knees, and, after all, the fettered skirt is not more ridiculous than the beautiful costumes of the Infantas of Velasquez, imprisoned like birds in stiff brocade cages."
 M. Rochegrosse says: "It is an outburst of feminine instinct more profound perhaps than any so called rules of art, but it is difficult for artists to understand it."
 M. Boute de Monvel says: "A century hence the fashion prints of 1910 will have great value for collectors, for they are distinctly original and odd. This fashion of ataxia locomotiva, for skirts will not last long."
 M. Cheret says: "The fettered skirt is ridiculous. It deforms all who wear it. It destroys harmony of movement. It is a nightmare that must soon disappear."

A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM

BIRDIE GLADSTONE, WHOSE ATTEMPT TO PLAY MOTHER BROUGHT HER MAMMA BACK HOME TO HER PAPA, AND HER LITTLE SISTER EDNA.

By W. G. Shepherd.
 Hoboken, N. J., June 27.—Both little girls in the Gladstone family have beautiful curly hair and beautiful faces.
 But they have a good deal more than these, as you'll see before this story is ended.
 Birdie can remember back about two years; she's five now. Edna does lots of things now that she'll not remember because she's only three. They take things as they come, without complaining, just as they "take" and love their poor, little worried tailor-father, who can't make very much money, and their mother, who gets awfully tired of poverty, sometimes.
 It was pretty hard for everybody about a month ago in the Gladstone home. The little girls heard their father and mother talking nearly all night. In the morning their mother went away to get work for herself. But Birdie had something besides curls and a pretty face, as has already been said. She's got what men would call "sand." There were the two rooms to take care of; there was Edna's hair to curl and face to wash, and her lunch to get.
 That night when the poor, tired little tailor got home he found the table set and on it the evening meal—bread which Birdie had made by mixing flour and water. It was burned on the bottom; it was soft on top and within, it was dough. But it was a little girl's very best and the worried tailor man sobbed as he picked her up in his arms and kissed her and then sat down and ate some of the bread just to show that it was better than any bread the richest man in the United States could have.
 Every day the little tailor worked; every night he hunted for work after Birdie and Edna had gone to sleep.
 One day a newspaperman heard about Birdie's bread. He talked to her and then put a story, something like this one, into his newspaper.
 "That night the mother, who read the story, rushed into the two little rooms and over to the bed where Birdie and Edna lay asleep and just deliberately woke them up with kisses. Then she kissed the poor little, tired tailor man and said:
 "Papa, I'd rather stay here with you and them and be poor."
 Some of the wrinkles went out of his face and he threw his arms around her and kissed her and was happy.
 Now the Gladstones are all together again, fighting the same old battle against poverty, living in the two little rooms and wearing the same old clothes and waiting for the little man in mansions won't be splendid until everyone under the sun has got at least a little house of his own; when silk dresses won't be beautiful, until every little girl has at least got a good clean gingham dress, when the flowers in cut glass vases in fine automobiles won't be sweet and fragrant until every man and woman and little boy and girl under the sun has had plenty to eat.
 Maybe the story of how little Birdie did her very best, even when her father and mother were almost ready to give up, will help things along toward that day. All these little things do help, and the day is surely coming.

THE ROAD TO TABLE STAGE

Conference the Result of Royal Initiative—King of Favored Precedent Set by Queen Victoria in 1884.

London, June 27.—British politics have reached the round table stage. It was high time for a conference. Superheated partisans had been proclaiming in resentful tones that King Edward had been harried and worried into the grave by Radical politicians, and this reckless indictment had been met with the countercharge that the Lords were accessories before the fact, since they had thrown out the budget in spite of his warnings. When Tory extremists and Radical Hotspurs were branding one another as political assassins in basing the end of a beloved sovereign a trace of indispensable in the interest of good morals and the amenities of life.
 It has been proposed by the King. As he had recently passed an hour with Mr. Chamberlain, there are suspicious Radicals who are convinced that there is a subtle Birmingham plot. It is an easy inference that Mr. Chamberlain is anxious to have the constitutional controversy disposed of so that the tariff question can become once more the paramount issue of British politics; but what passed between him and the King cannot be revealed. The initiative for a consultation between the leaders of the two main parties respecting the future of the houses could be from the King alone. When it came, neither the Prime Minister nor Mr. Balfour could offer resistance to it.
 The King in suggesting a conference is following the precedent set by Queen Victoria in the famous transactions of 1884 over suffrage reform and redistribution of seats. The occasion is of greater importance, since the issues which have arisen between the houses have been unexampled since the settlement of 1888. The King's desire to have the constitutional procedure revised in a conciliatory spirit and to avoid an open conflict between the houses with the general electorate as the court of arbitration at once commands loyal respect and approval. Before his wishes were known the nation may not have considered a conference practicable, but in a moment he has all England behind him in a policy of conciliation.
Effort Necessary.
 A conference may be doomed to failure, but rival leaders must make an honest effort to adjust their differences, or they will be condemned as disloyal to their King. So the prospect of conciliation are now going forward satisfactorily, and it will not be long before half a dozen or more negotiators are seated around a round table.
 Their problem will be the readjustment of the relations of the houses respecting finance and general legislation without the preposterous menace of the creation of 500 peers. If a conference be arranged and be allowed a free hand in settling actual grievances, a satisfactory revision of the constitutional usage is not unlikely. The predominance of the Commons in finance is not seriously contested by the Lords. What is wanted is a safeguard against "tacking," or embodying controversial questions in the clauses of a finance bill.
 It ought not to be difficult for rival leaders to come to an understanding in conference on this point. Either the Speaker can be armed with discretionary power in excluding "tacking," or a finance bill can be defined so explicitly that the Lords will not have cause for complaint over smuggling highly contentious politics into port as privileged finance. The impasse respecting general legislation is more difficult, but certainly a modus vivendi is not impossible. Surely a more rational method of settlement can be found than that of creating 500 peers after a general election with mixed and unintelligible results.
 The Liberal party has a grievance, and so long as this is redressed, the methods of reform are immaterial. The grievance is the fact that it is invariably outvoted hopelessly in the Upper House, while the measures of a Conservative government are mechanically registered by the Lords. Liberal bills are hung up or rejected, while Conservative bills are passed. The Commons may have come into existence from the country. Popular government, as the Radicals explain the situation, exists only in name when an irresponsible oligarchy can veto measures which it dislikes, without reference to the democratic majority in the country.
 The inequity of one-sided arrangements as a permanent Tory second chamber is a legitimate grievance. If some practical method is found for redressing it, the fate of the vetoesolutions will not be of supreme importance. Various schemes for removing the block on Liberal legislation have been proposed, and there are other methods of securing temporarily a government majority in the Lords. There is also a definite plan of referendum on the Swiss plan, which may enable the general electorate to arbitrate between the houses in emergencies. Wise and conciliatory must be the six men around the table if so complex a problem of constitutional reconstruction is to be worked out with a new and just procedure established but who will say that it is an impossible task?
 It will readily become a practicable undertaking if the party leaders really desire to be conciliatory and to effect a statesmanlike reconstruction of the constitution at the opening of the new reign. If they want peace they can speedily arrange a modus vivendi, and thereby they can offer a memorial tribute more enduring than marble or bronze to their lamented sovereign, Edward the Peace-maker. There are increasing signs of good temper and moderation in the relations of political leaders. There is a growing conviction that no useful work of the first importance can be done by either Radicals or Conservatives until the ground is cleared, the two houses set in order and the constitutional mechanism thoroughly repaired.
Conservatives Anxious.
 The Conservatives have perhaps the stronger motives for haste in disposing of the constitutional question. Until this is done the field will not be clear for tariff reform and imperial unity. After the veto resolutions will come constitutional reform and the multiplication of peers, and when the crisis is ended Home Rule for Ireland and the disestablishment of the Church in Wales will be the leading questions of politics. Tariff Reform is likely to be crowded out unless the relations of the houses are settled by suitable concessions and reasonable compromises.

 The coalition groups may have more to gain than the Conservatives by the continuance of aggressive tactics on the line of the veto resolutions; but they also have serious cause for apprehension in the apathy of the masses. The constitutional question has not taken a firm hold of the democratic electorate. There is little evidence that the masses care much about it, or are willing to have everything else put aside until the supremacy of the Commons in legislation and in finance is established.
 The coalition was strong enough, with Mr. Redmond's inflexible will behind it, to carry the veto resolutions. It lacks the cohesive force required for holding three parties together for a prolonged battle for representative government. Conciliation may be the best policy for every group and party.

SENSATION FOLLOWS SERMON ON OATH

Charlottetown Stirred by Remarks of Rev. T. F. Fulton Protesting Against Abolition of Clause in Entirety.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 27.—A sensation has been created here by a sermon on the coronation oath preached in St. James Presbyterian Church last night by the pastor, Rev. T. F. Fulton. He favored, he declared, the striking out of the words "worship of saints and the mass as idolatrous and superstitious," which were needlessly offensive to Roman Catholics, but opposed further change. He gave a historical review of the struggle in England for religious freedom and held that their freedom was obtained at too great a cost to be tampered with. The succession to the throne should be carefully guarded. The disabilities formerly upon Catholics in Protestant countries grew out of their previous intolerance when they had the power, and ar return thereto would be dangerous. This church is doing great good in many ways. They had a right to teach what they believed, but not to encroach upon the lawful authority of the state or the rights of others.
 The body of John Doucette, aged 25 years, of New Acadia, was brought to the island Saturday. He was drowned in Duluth by falling through an opening in the centre of a scow when engaged in dredging.

QUESTION CONSISTENCY OF ASQUITH-MINISTRY

New York, June 27.—The Sun's London correspondent cables that the leaders of the Liberal party have been openly chaffed over the appointment of the new peers on the occasion of the King's birthday. It is suggested that the party's animosity to peerage is only skin deep.
 Observers are unable to see consistency in the government's supposedly hostile to the existence of peers. By appointing a batch of new ones the Liberal government obviously likes the work of making new peers. Within five years it has made 44, the record of any government ever attained. Cynical observers say the transformation of Liberal peers into crusted Tories requires very few years.
 Rome, June 27.—The Foreign Office today decided to follow the provisions of the Italian-American extradition conventions and to ask for the extradition of Porter Charlton, leaving it with the American authorities to accept or refuse the request.
 With this decision the Lake Como murder case enters the realm of diplomacy and the outcome of the exchange between Rome and Washington will be followed with an interest quite outside that attaching to the murder of Mrs. Charlton.

WOMEN HEAD FOR N. E. A.

Boom for Miss Ella Flagg Young as Head of Great Educational Association—Men Gallantly Retire.

New York, June 27.—The women teachers of New York are campaigning vigorously for Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the public schools of Chicago, as next president of the National Educational Association. If elected Mrs. Young will be the first woman president of the association. She has ever had, although it has had forty-seven men presidents, and it is whispered that some of the men in the organization are not overjoyed at the prospect. This suspicion does not chill the ardor of the women, and as they are in a vast majority in the organization they feel sure of electing their candidate.
 When she first spoke of running Mrs. Young said of her supporters, "the men laughed at the idea, but I guess they see things differently now. In fact, it is understood that the two men candidates who were at first proposed, President Abbott Lawrence Lowell of Harvard and Stratton O. Brooks, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Boston, are going to retire."
 Another circumstance that adds interest to Mrs. Young's candidacy is that the National Educational Association, like most other large bodies, is said to be ruled by a "ring," the existence of which is threatened by the "Young boom."
 The Interborough Association of Women Teachers is out for Mrs. Young, and an effort is being made to get every public school in New York City to elect Mrs. Young. It is not a member of the National Education Association to enroll and send a delegate to Boston pledged to vote for Mrs. Young. The convention opens on July 4, and will continue for five days.

PORTSMOUTH TREATY WILL BE REVISED

Rumor That Russian and Japanese Ambassadors Will Meet This Summer in New Hampshire Seaport.

Boston, June 27.—Rumors are current at Manchester-by-the-Sea that the ambassadors from Russia and Japan will meet there this summer to reconsider certain parts of the treaty of Portsmouth, signed at Portsmouth, N. H., on September 5, 1905, formally ending the Russo-Japanese war.
 The Japanese embassy is already settled for the summer at East Clouster. Baron Rosen, head of the Russian embassy and a prominent figure at the negotiations at Portsmouth, has changed his plans and is coming to Manchester to spend the summer instead of going to Bar Harbor.
 No official confirmation of the rumor could be obtained.

 The Nebraskan booked his passage on Tuesday afternoon without disclosing his identity. In fact, the officials of the steamship company did not know who their distinguished passenger was until just before Mr. Bryan left London. Then he asked that his name be omitted from the passenger list.

PORTSMOUTH TREATY WILL BE REVISED

Boston, June 27.—Rumors are current at Manchester-by-the-Sea that the ambassadors from Russia and Japan will meet there this summer to reconsider certain parts of the treaty of Portsmouth, signed at Portsmouth, N. H., on September 5, 1905, formally ending the Russo-Japanese war.
 The Japanese embassy is already settled for the summer at East Clouster. Baron Rosen, head of the Russian embassy and a prominent figure at the negotiations at Portsmouth, has changed his plans and is coming to Manchester to spend the summer instead of going to Bar Harbor.
 No official confirmation of the rumor could be obtained.

THE CITY WILL SEND CHIEF OF POLICE TO VANCOUVER

Safety Board at Meeting Last Night Recommended Vote of $250 to Pay Chief Clark's Expenses to Canadian Chief Constables' Convention -- Ald. Baxter Complains of Telegraph's Unfairness.

At the meeting of the Safety Board last evening it was decided to recommend a vote of $250 to Chief Clark to enable him to attend the convention of the chief constables of Canada at Vancouver in August. A new floor for the hook and ladder station on East King street, a new boiler in the central police station, a muzzle for the North End fire brigade, and a rearrangement of the lights of the city were other matters recommended.

New Boiler for Central Station. Director Wisely submitted a report recommending the installation of a new boiler in the central police station, as the old one was considered unsafe. He estimated that the cost would be $1,000. On motion of Ald. Russel it was decided to recommend that tenders for a new boiler should be called for.

The director also recommended that a new floor be put down in the hook and ladder station, King street East. This was endorsed on motion of Ald. Russel.

Ald. Potts moved that a new sliding pole be put in No. 2 fire station. This was adopted.

Ellen Walsh applied for renewal lease of lot No. 941, Winslow street, at a rental of $25 per year. Granted.

Catherine Cotter was granted a renewal lease of lot No. 349, corner of Crown street and Elliot Row at a rental of $20.

Peter Ryan was granted a renewal lease of lot No. 4, Block H, Mecklenburg street at a rental of $35 per year.

Hardy Watters applied for a lease of lot No. 21, on Morris street, Lancaster. This was granted at a rental of 40 cents per foot.

Stephen Watters applied for lease of lot on Gipsy Settlement Road in Lancaster. The director was instructed to report on the matter.

Albert Morgan applied for lease of lots No. 558 and 559 on Germain street, Brooks ward. On recommendation of the director it was decided to grant the application.

John A. Adams tendered his resignation as appraiser of lots on the West side, as he is leaving for Vancouver. W. B. Wallace, K. C., was appointed in his place.

New Fire Alarm Box. Chief Kerr stated that on instructions of the board he had installed fire alarm box No. 61 in the hospital, and No. 56 on Waterloo street. He reported that progress was being made on the Carleton fire station and asked that the director be instructed to secure the attachment for the fire alarms and telephones. The board adopted a resolution to this effect.

The chief also asked that No. 3 and 4 fire companies be furnished with Eastman nozzles. The director said there was no money available.

Ald. Potts brought up the matter of installing a fire alarm bell in Indian town. Ald. Jones thought they might arrange to have bells installed on the ferry house building.

Ald. White was of a similar opinion. After some discussion Ald. Potts moved that one Eastman nozzle be purchased for the North End.

The matter of installing a fire bell was left to Chief Kerr and Director Wisely to report back.

Ald. Potts brought up the matter of securing an additional district engineer. Chief Kerr said he would be glad to have another assistant. It was complained that he took too prominent a part at fires, but under present circumstances it was thought best to let his orders direct to the men. The matter was laid over for the present.

Vote Made to Chief Clark. Chief Clark asked permission to attend the police convention at Vancouver. He wanted, he said, to perfect his department, and he thought he would get many important pointers at the convention. Every time he had attended one of the conventions he had secured much useful knowledge and utilized it for the benefit of the city and the force. He thought the city authorities should invite the Police Association to hold a convention in St. John.

The chief said his interest in his department was shown by the fact that he had paid for all the photographs in the rogues' gallery and most of the law books. The association had made him a vice-president, and proposed to make him president this year—which might be regarded as a compliment to the city of St. John.

Continuing the chief said he didn't want to go as it would use up his vacation, but he thought it was his duty to go. The trip would cost about $300.

The chief said the police force in St. John was the finest in any city he had ever seen, and he thought the city should provide the wherewithal for the trip. It was necessary that the chief should be in the city to see the police of other cities, in order to get a line on the crooks moving on to the fair. He moved that the sum of $250 be voted to defray the expenses of the trip, and that the treasury board be asked to find the money.

The chairman said the police force was as efficient as that of any city. The chief said that the merchants of the city would put up the money for the trip, but he felt he should be independent. If the city would put up $200 he would pay his other expenses himself.

Ald. Wigmore thought it would be to the advantage of the city to send the chief to the convention. Ald. Russel moved in amendment that the chief be given $200.

Ald. Sprout—"I'm not throwing bouquets, but I think we'd better send the chief away in proper style. We ought to pay all the expenses."

Ald. Russel's amendment was lost. Ald. Potts' motion was then adopted.

Wants Report on Street Lights. Ald. Jones brought in a resolution asking that the director be instructed to prepare a report on the lighting system of the city, and bring in a recommendation with a view to rearranging the lights so as to secure a more efficient service. This was adopted.

The chairman thought arrangements should be made to give the policemen 14 days vacation instead of 10 days as they were not paid while away. Ald. Russel moved that the council be asked to reconsider its decision.

Ald. Baxter Complains. At this stage the chairman asked Ald. Baxter, who had just entered the committee room whether he thought some arrangement could be made to induce the council to reconsider its decision. Thereupon Ald. Baxter arose and said he did not want to take part in the deliberations of the committee unless he had assurance that he would be protected from such a contemptible and dishonourable action as that which the representative of the Telegraph had been guilty of. He reported a matter which he had recently brought to the attention of the council on the understanding that it should not be referred to the press. "Either the press representative in question should be excluded from the meetings, or the pledge exacted that matters which it was not thought advisable to make public should not be reported. The council expressed their sympathy with Ald. Baxter, but no action was taken on his complaint.

The board decided to let the matter of the policemen's holidays lay over, and then adjourned.

HOW OTHER CITIES BOOM THEMSELVES

What Aggressive Advertising Has Done for City of Memphis, Tennessee--Ninety Industries in Ten Years.

Now that the Board of Trade of St. John has decided to enter upon an aggressive advertising campaign to make the advantages of the city better known, it is interesting to note what other cities have done, or are doing along these lines, and the success they have achieved. In the city of Memphis, Tenn., where a systematic effort was put forth to make their advantages better known, truly wonderful results followed. In less than ten years ninety industrial plants have been located there. These concerns represent a capital of nearly $24,000,000, and employ 12,000 hands. It is figured that between 50,000 and 60,000 people have been added to the population in this way. While a considerable amount of money was spent in advertising to bring about this result, it is certain that in no other way could this great increase in industrial development have come about. The city or town that does not advertise in these days is bound to be left behind in the race.

Hampton, will enter camp before Tuesday afternoon, some of the nearest squadrons arriving by a march route.

The other bodies which will drill at Sussex this year and which are expected on the grounds Tuesday are as follows:—10th Field Battery, Major W. C. Good, from Carleton county; 12th Field Battery, Major T. W. Lawrence, from Northumberland; 19th Battery, Major S. B. Anderson, Albert and Westmorland; Canadian Engineers, Lieut. Colonel J. R. Colonel C. H. Fairweather, from Kings, Albert and Westmorland counties. No. 9 Field Ambulance, led by Major D. McLaughlin, from Prince Edward Island, will also take their annual training at Camp Sussex this year. They will number 102 officers and men, and are expected to reach camp on Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock.

LARGE NUMBER FOR Y.M.C.A. BOYS' CAMP

Indications Are That This Year's Attendance Will Break Previous Records--Robertson's Point is Site Selected.

It is expected that many city boys will attend the Y. M. C. A. camp which will be held this year at Robertson's Point, in Grand Lake from August 3rd to 17th. Already a large number of parents have signified their intention of sending their boys and a record crowd is expected. The site selected for the camp is a good one on a high point with a fine outlook over Grand Lake.

The leader of this section will be G. A. Lawson, of Halifax, who has had experience in the Maritime camps. W. H. Moore, secretary for boys of the St. John association, will also be in camp during the entire time.

Instruction will be given in swimming, life saving, knot tying, signalling, boating. A physician will be in camp to look after the health and sanitation of the camp.

It is expected that Chancellor Jones, of the U. N. B., will spend a week end in camp. He has some fine stories and will interest the boys. Wm. McLoutch will be the guest of the camp.

The annual picnic of the Sunday school of St. Jude's church, West End, will be held at Westfield tomorrow. Trains will leave Rodney wharf, West End, at 9 a. m. and 1 p. m. and a good time is assured to all who attend.

St. Jude's Picnic. Mrs. J. B. Andrews, of 1 Elliott Row has returned home after a visit to Fredericton. She was the guest of Mrs. C. H. Giles, of Brooklands, and of Miss Friel, at St. Marys.

CAMP SUSSEX WILL BE OPENED TODAY

It is Expected That 2,500 Men Will be Under Canvas -- Advance Parties Now on the Grounds.

The main body of the New Brunswick Militia will arrive in Sussex for their annual training today. Advance corps from this city and from the capital went on Saturday and yesterday to make preparations. Between 550 and 600 tents have been erected, and it is estimated that there will be 2,500 men under canvas.

The D. O. C. with staff, who arrived Saturday, have a group of tents in the centre of the "town." Colonel Humphrey has as his staff officers the following:—Capt. F. L. Moore, Major A. E. Massie, Lieut. Col. M. MacLaren, Lieut. Col. A. J. Armstrong, Capt. J. Forbes, Lieut. F. A. Good, Major C. J. Mersereau, Capt. T. E. Powers, Lieut. Col. D. McL. Vincent and Lieut. Col. McKenzie, Vet. Short, Stringer Cosman and Elisha Nisman.

The grounds this year will be considerably improved. A new hotel, the Beulah Hotel, the dining room of which seats 200, has been erected by the church, chiefly through the efforts of John Bullock, of this city. A fine artificial lake has been constructed not far from the entrance gate. A fountain stands on the rocky in the centre of the lake and other fountains adorn a number of spots on the grounds.

From a lake on the hills some distance from Brown's Flats, a water main has been run and pipes run all through the park so that the water supply can be had right in the summer houses. The old hotel has been converted entirely into sleeping quarters and will be used as an auxiliary of the new hotel. Both of these will be crowded during the ten days' camp meeting.

JAS. J. HILL SAYS CROPS WILL BE GOOD.

CIRCULATE REPORTS OF MORGAN'S DEATH

Bears Adopt Subterfuge to Press Attack. MOOD OF DEPRESSION Uneasiness Felt at the Serious Shrinkage of Actual Transactions—Crop News Showed Some Improvement.

New York, June 27.—The stock market underwent a mood of depression again today and prices were subjected to a severe shrinkage on a smallness of actual transactions out of all proportion to the amount of the declines. The crop news was not bad and it was necessary to turn to other factors in the effort to fathom the explanation of the weakness of the market.

The grounds on which this supposition had been formed were the reports that he had enlisted large amounts of foreign capital in the purchase of American securities, that he had secured an agreement with foreign copper producers to co-operate with American producers in curtailment of output and that he had assured the listing of United States Steel on the Paris Bourse.

Out of this situation an advantage is supposed to have been sought by a bear party to press an attack on the market. The action of the market today had great influence in coloring the conjectures of the alignment of parties in the speculation, the Standard Oil party being assigned, naturally, to the role of leaders of the onslaught upon prices.

The severity of the day's decline gave rise to the inevitable uneasiness, but specific rumors even of financial difficulties were not heard. Last prices were the lowest of the day, Union Pacific and Reading showing losses of over 4 points, Chesapeake and Ohio 1.2, and the active list generally from 1 to 2 points.

Bonds were weak. Total sales, par value, $1,850,000. U. S. Bonds were unchanged on call.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co. New York, June 27.—Our market was slightly easier today on better weather advices from Texas, the smaller spot sales in Liverpool and reports of further heavy curtailment by a combination of Southern milling interests, was no disposition to raid the market to any extensive scale and the decline, which at one time ranged from 10 to 16 points was due largely to scattered profit taking. Bull interests appeared in support of the market around the low level and final prices ranged from 2 to 6 lower. Tomorrow is the first notice day for July deliveries. It is estimated 40,000 will be tendered tomorrow, but inasmuch as the bulls have sold a large amount of cotton out of local stocks reducing the amount certified to under 100,000 bales, it is assumed that these notices will be promptly cared for.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co. Chicago, Ill., June 27.—Dollar wheat fascinated speculators today. Every future delivery closed here this afternoon above that mark. Before the beginning of alarm about the effect of drought on the spring crop, the price was in the eighties, well under 90 cents a bushel. Latest trading was at nearly the top figures of the day and showed a net gain of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents as compared with Saturday night. In decided contrast corn finished 3/4 to 1 1/4 down, and oats half to 3/4 to 3/8 to 1/2. It was a ragged windup in provisions all the way from 1 1/2 to 5 cents decline to 25 cents advance.

HILL HOPEFUL FOR GOOD CROPS

James J. Hill, interviewed before starting on his annual fishing trip to Labrador, expressed his views on this year's crop outlook. He said that while drought had lessened the yield the increased acreage this year would offset much of the loss from that cause, and that in his opinion the season's harvest promised to be about the same as last year.

"In some localities," he added, "wheat has already suffered from drought to an extent which means that from 50 to 75 per cent of the yield will be lost. In other sections, covering a large area, a good, drought rain of twenty-four hours' duration, such as has not been experienced since early spring, would yet be in time to make a great change in the outlook and bring up the yield. Over most of these sections the rain will have to come in the next ten days if it is to do much good."

Corn, Mr. Hill said, suffered in the early part of the season from cold weather, and much of it had to be replanted, but it was doing pretty well now. The Montana wheat crop was also doing well, he said, and a fair crop of grains was assured in most of the Northwestern States, even if the drought continued some time longer.

The justice before whom the case was tried reserved his decision.

A Quick Dodge. Walking along Wall street the other day, he was accosted by a shabby, dressed man evidently armed with a hard luck story. "I bet pardon, sir," began the stranger, "but could you help a poor man along? Now, I'm not looking for money, sir, but such a good."

"Well," came the almost breathless answer, "if you're not, I am. Good day." And in a moment the young man was half-way down the street.

Stamps and Disease. Postmaster Sears has received from Dr. G. G. Melvin, chief health officer of St. John city and county a letter calling his attention to the fact that postage stamps by reason of their gummed surfaces are apt collectors of disease germs and that the counters over which the stamps are passed are also liable to become contaminated with germs. He asks that all stamp vendors should pass the stamps to purchasers in such manner that the gummed side shall be uppermost. In this connection the health officer points out that there is danger in the moistening of a stamp with the tongue. Postmaster Sears has requested all stamp vendors to observe the desire of the health officer in the sale of stamps.

THINK THEY WILL GET MURDERER OF INFANT

Police Reported to Have Struck New Clue in Case of Baby Found on Courtenay Bay Flats. Although almost 20 days have elapsed since the discovery of the body of an infant on the rocks in Courtenay Bay, which was subsequently pronounced by a coroner's jury, the police have not yet given up hope of landing the guilty person, and are working diligently on the case. Every little clue has been followed up and theory after theory exploded. Yesterday, however, they struck an entirely new clue, which it is believed may lead up to the eventual capture of the child slayer. Although realizing that the case is an exceedingly difficult one, there seems to be a general feeling that the mystery will be cleared up.

DREDGE TROUQS HAS BAD ACCIDENT

Some of Gear of Harbor Dredge Went Overboard Yesterday—Dredging Fleet Seems to Have Hard Luck. Hard luck seems to pursue the dredges of the Maritime Dredging Company's fleet at work in the harbor here. There have been a number of minor accidents such as might be expected by any dredge contractor but in addition the company has met several serious mishaps. Not long ago the dredge Beacon Bar was sunk just south of Sand Point, and when an examination was made it was found that her boilers were in bad shape. Yesterday afternoon it was the turn of the Troquois. While digging the cables supporting the digging gear broke near the "A" frame, and as a result the crane, dipper arm and cir- cle plunged to the bottom of the harbor. They will have to be located by a diver and raised, and it is thought when they are brought up it may be found that they have been considerably damaged. The Cynthia is the only dredge now engaged on the harbor work.

TEAMSTERS DO NOT OBSERVE THE RULE. Ferry Inspector Waring May Invoke Aid of Law to Force Their Obedience to Ferry Regulations. There has been some complaint as to the action of teamsters who use the ferry, and when the boat docks, run their horses up the ferry regardless of the lives or limbs of the passengers. Several narrow escapes have been reported as the result of this practice, and the ferry superintendent has complained to the employ- ees of some of the men, but without effect. He has now obtained cases against several of the teamsters who have offended in this respect and threatens to report them to the police court if the practice is continued. Talking to a Standard man the superintendent said there is a civic by-law which provides against this practice but that he had no desire to subject the men to a fine if they would detest and pay attention to the rights of foot passengers. "If they do not I will have them before the police court, and a fine may have a salutary effect." Under the previous system the chain on the boat was not lowered until the foot passengers had passed up the floats, but in order to give more freedom to the foot passengers, this plan was done away with. "The teamsters," the superintendent said, "are not supposed to leave the boat until the foot passengers have left and if they continue to do so, I will have to see what a fine will do."

IS READY TO HEAR ALL FORMAL COMPLAINTS. Public Utilities Commission Prepared to Go Ahead With Any Matters Coming Regularly Before It. At a meeting of the Public Utility Commission, held in the government rooms on Church street yesterday afternoon, the question of the nature and extent of the powers conferred upon the commission was discussed at some length, and the conclusion was arrived at that the commission did not on their own motion have the power to hear and determine any matter which, under the act it may, upon application or complaint, hear and determine. Definite and formal complaint, as required by the act must be lodged before the commission can act. There are at present no formal complaints before the commission, asking for an investigation of any public utility company. The secretary of the St. John Board of Trade recently forwarded a communication to the commission, setting forth the nature of the investigation recently conducted by the Board of Trade, and D. R. Jack has made an informal complaint, regarding telephone rates.

AUTO TIRES HIGHER BUT SHOES UNCHANGED

Bad News for the Poor Rich in Threatened Advance in the Price of Automobile Tires. An increase in the price of rubber goods which has been threatening for several months past, is likely to become a reality in the next few weeks. Indeed every indication points to the fact that there will be a rise of about 25 per cent in automobile and bicycle tires, druggists finer qualities of rubber goods and other things where a high percentage of pure gum is required, although there is not likely that there will be any noticeable advance in the price of garden hose, rain coats, rubber footwear, and other rubber goods, where it is possible to increase the adulteration without causing any very strong kick on the part of the public.
