DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE !

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION. MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

Montreal, 21st March, 1º /4.

Messrs, Devins & Boltov,
Dear Sirs, I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doe of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, hiving beer a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, 1:12 now, after taking two bottles of this modionentic present price from pain. You are at liberty truse this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so I am. sirs, your respectfully.

I am, sirs, yours respectfully, John Helder Isaacson, N. P. FURTHER PROOF. I AM ANOTHER MAN St. John, N. B., Sept, 29, 1874.

St. John, N. B., Sept, 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH.

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not finany relief, after try ag every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody sufferig with this terrible disease to to try it, and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours.

A. Chipman Smith.
Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in string that I put every confidence in your Diamona Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the last two years with Rheumatic Pains, draing which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, sexperienced no relief, until I tried the I immond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three builtes, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

James O'Brien.

JAMES O'BRIEN. There is no medicine which so promptly re-lieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the 1.ain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflamma tion, and restores the healthy action as the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!

This medicine is for sale at all the drugg ists through Canada. If it happens that your draggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it A. CHIPMAN SMITH. Market Square, St. John, A. i

Four carrier pigeons were recently sold in London for an aggregate sum of $375, one of the four bringing $150. If there is one thing more than another that will thoroughly exaspurate a man, it is breaking a straw short off when clean-ing out a dirty pipe-stem. It is wonderful what an amount of struggling and red facedness will be gone through by a person wrestling into a new pair of shoes "a size too large."

Committed suicide on the Spanish frontier, near Biarritz, for the sake of one of the queens of the Parisian demi-monde, with whom he was madly in love, but who firmly resisted all his overtures. He made the most extravagant offers. He wished to marry her and carry her away from the life she was leading to his home in South America. She, however, was inexorable, and he sought consolation in death. In the pocket-book of the dead man was found a slip of paper, with a lock of brown hair attached, upon which was written: "To Margaret; from a man who dies for her,"

Woodman as he is, he belongs to the thinking classes, for he has his grievance—that two shillings a week more, which is to set everything right. He gives Bluebell a sounding kiss, and wipes his lips afterward. A strong yearning comes into Coltsfoot's face as he takes Bluebell's hand in his, and wishes her joy. As he stands thus, his old mother calls out:

"What! and not kiss her on such a day as this? Well, if! was a man!"

Whereupon Bluebell holds up her face, and he touches her cheek with his lips. The old woman cackles and laughs.

"May your life contain much brightness, Bluebell!" says Coltsfoot, tenderly. She answers sweetly, and bustles about to hide a tear. Joy and melancholy hold subtle relationship with each other.
