FORTY-FIRST YEAR

BOARD OF TRADE ASKS FOR PERMANENT TARIFF BOARD

Instead of Committee of Commission For Investigation. Resolution Forwarded to Premier.

WANT IT OUT OF POLITICS.

At the recent annual convention of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade a lengthy discussion took place upon a resolution asking the Dominion Government to appoint a Commission to make exhaustive inquiries regarding the tariff. This suggestion was strenuously opposed by several delegates, among them the representative of the Kitchener Board of Trade, who argued that what the country needed was not a Commission of inquiry, but a permanent Tariff Board, composed of experts, who would at all times be well-informed on tariff matters, not only of Canada but of other nations as well. The resolution was defeated.

The Council of the Kitchener Board of Trade has forwarded the following letter to the Prime Minister:

Dear Sir,
The Kitchener Board of Trade has been advised that your Government has under advisement the intention of holding a series of tariff investigations by a Committee, or Commission, of Cabinet Ministers in the chief cities and towns of Canada, in the near future.

At a meeting of the Council of this Board of Trade on November 18th this matter was discussed; and it was unanimously decided that a Commission should be sent to you strongly advising that this course be not pursued; but that instead of appointing a committee or commission of Cabinet Ministers a Permanent Tariff Board be appointed.

It is felt by this Board of Trade that, as far as possible, the tariff should be taken out of politics and be dealt with on a purely business basis, for the good of all the citizens of Canada. This Board feels that this may be brought about to a much fuller extent by the appointing of a Tariff Board than by sittings of Cabinet Ministers or Special Commissions.

Trusting that this communication will receive your careful and favorable consideration, we beg to remain,

Yours faithfully,
Kitchener Board of Trade.

THE OTHER SIDE MAKES STATEMENT

Vermont Flag Incident as Reported by Canadian Nurses.

(Special to the Record.)

FREDERICTON, N.B., Dec. 8.—A story from Woodstock, N.B., that Miss Annie Melane, the central figure in the now famous flag incident at the Rutland (Vermont) Hospital, is not a native of Woodstock but of Truro, N.S. The correspondent follows that up by saying there are a number of Woodstock women at the Rutland Hospital as nurses and gives the following version of the whole affair as gathered from their letters to their families at Woodstock.

The flag incident started when Miss Melane and Miss Miles were alone together. The former claims she said: "It is a good looking building if it did not have that dirty old rag flying over it." Miss Miles then proceeded to knock Miss Melane down.

Some time previously a number of American nurses destroyed a Canadian flag belonging to one of the nurses, but which was not in this incident as there always had been good-natured bantering between the nurses as to the merit of the Canadian and Union flags.

To the American nurses who waited upon Miss Melane at her room, she apologized to this extent: "I am sorry, girls, I did not mean to hurt your feelings. It was all in fun. I respect your country and I respect your flag, but I won't get up and salute it. Go away."

Two weeks later an investigation of the affair was ordered by the Lunatic Association which completely exonerated Miss Melane and admitted her into membership of the association, everything seemed to be harmonious but the city authorities took it up.

The steamer will reach Liverpool on the 22nd, so there will be three days left to send the mail and send it to its destination.

The British Columbia vacancy is already earmarked for Hon. Martin Burrell, Secretary of State. For the Ontario vacancy there are many competitors, including Dr. Edwards, M.P. for Frontenac, Hon. T. W. Crothers, ex-Minister of Labor, Col. W. R. Smith, former M.P. for Algoma, J. J. Carriek, former M.P. for Thunder Bay, Dr. Preston of North Lanark, and others.

END OF STRIKE NOW IN SIGHT

Provisional Agreement Reached at Washington on Saturday to be Considered at Indianapolis To-morrow.

TRAIN REDUCTION ON C.P.R.
Washington, Dec. 8th.—Government proposal for settling the coal strike are closed in a veil of mystery which promised to lift only at Indianapolis to-morrow, when the federal court and the leaders of the United Mine Workers alike will be called upon to consider them.

A conference at Washington on Saturday resulted in a provisional agreement to settle. Not one of the participants of the conference will discuss its meaning or intent in any way. But the feeling prevails that the end of the strike is in sight.

Fuel Administrator Garfield states that not one cent can be added to the price of coal to finance wage increases to the miners greater than the 14 per cent suggested which the operators could pay out of profits, and the Government is behind him in the stand.

EXPECT MEWBURN TO RETIRE SOON

(Special to the Record.)
OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—Rumors of the early retirement from the Cabinet of Major-General Hon. C. Mewburn, Minister of Militia, to resume his own private law practice at Hamilton, have been received with little surprise in political circles.

It has been known for some time that Gen. Mewburn had no intention of making public life a profession, and that he desired to retire as soon as the odds and ends of the war were cleaned up. General Mewburn, however, has not yet returned from his week-end absence at home, and as it is a holiday in the government departments to-day, denial or confirmation of the report cannot be secured.

THE GIRL'S WATCH GIVEN TO WIFE

Young Married Man In Role Suitable For the Screen.

LOCAL LADY THE VICTIM

This city during the last few days could have been made the scene of moving picture serials. A romance is related which would make a desirable story for the cinematograph man.

"How he got the watch," is the first reel. The next will be "Did she get the watch back?"

The story is based on these facts: Some time ago a handsome young man (married) came down from his home town in Bruce county and accepted a position here. He forgot to attend church services in the new town. The services, however, were of more than usual interest to him. The pew soon had a particular allurement for him.

The attractiveness of a winsome young lady held his attention from Sunday to Sunday. The young lady reciprocated and the result finally was that the young man got the inspiration to introduce himself to her on the street after the services. The young lady was taken up with him and gave him the privilege to accompany her to the home of which she is the maid. The gentleman visitor, courteous, obliging and careful, made a deep impression on his first visit. He immediately won confidence.

His welcome calls were repeated and the lady became more and more attached to him. The young man did not know to the young lady to be married and continued to gain in favor, so much that the man got her watch. He sent this watch to her as a gift, all unknown of course to the owner.

Then came an interruption in the story. The young man did not make his appearance as heretofore. So the young lady went to church and prayed for an hour that she would again meet him and get her watch back. It seems her prayers were answered, for on Saturday evening while in a popular East King street store where throngs of people pass to and fro she espied the much sought man, whom she induced to again accompany her to her home. Here the young lady explained the situation and informed him that she was anxious about her watch. Not being able to offer a satisfactory explanation as to its whereabouts the man became the object of suspicion in contradiction to her hero-worship of preceding days.

As a result of this the man had to hold a conference with Magistrate Weir who gave him sound advice. After repudiating him for his conduct he ordered him to have the watch returned to the owner and to make a deposit of money with the court as a guarantee of payment of costs and any other contingencies which may arise. The man made the deposit and finally declared he would try to get the watch back.

Will he? What will his better half say?

PACKING PLANTS TO CONSOLIDATE

(Special to the Record.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—A syndicate is being formed by Messrs. Otis & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, and Messrs. Krissel, Kinnett and Co., New York, to finance a consolidation of important packing interests with plants located at Toronto, Chicago and Montreal and distributing throughout Canada, the United States and England.

Mr. E. C. Fox, General Manager of the William Davies Co. of Canada, together with his associates, are combining with James and John Agar, of Chicago, to acquire the control in the Davies Co. formerly owned by Sir Joseph Flavelle, whose activities in connection with the business ceased in 1914 when he became head of the Canadian Munitions Board.

"That is correct in substance," declared Mr. E. C. Fox, when the above news despatch was read over the telephone to him to-day. "It has evidently been given out by bankers ahead of the issue of securities. It is simply what I said in my public statement a week ago. We are absorbing an American plant."

London street, railway employees are asking for a holiday on Christmas Day. James Britton, of Port Hope, seventy-seven years old, was fatally injured while trimming a tree.

BECK AND HYDRO HAVE AGAIN WON

Border Cities Decide to Purchase D. U. R. Line.

Windsor, Dec. 6.—Though one Essex municipality of the mine voting to-day on the by-laws to purchase the Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Electric Railway from the Detroit United Railways Company, for operation as part of the proposed radial system of Ontario voted against the proposal the result, as a whole, constitutes a great victory for the principle of public ownership and the hydro radial movement, the other carrying the by-laws overwhelmingly in majority.

The defeat of the by-law in the one municipality, Anderson Township, was expected and will not affect the carrying out of the project, the amended Hydro Radial Act providing for just such cases.

The Vote.

Windsor, 1129, Amherstburg, 211, Ford City, 196, Sandwich Township, 129, Walkerville, 198, Sandwich E. Township, 214, Sandwich E. Township, 26 majority, Ojibway, 8, Anderson Township, 31.

Windsor, 22, Amherstburg, 45, Ford City, 17, Walkerville, 7, Sandwich E. Township, 11, Ojibway, 0, Anderson Township, 136.

The defeat of the by-law in Anderson Township was due to the fact that the road passes through only a corner of the municipality and the ratepayers at a distance from the road felt that they had no interest in it. The reeve of the Township approved the by-law. Under the hydro radial act as amended at the last session of the Legislature the other municipalities may apportion the share of a municipality in which the by-law is defeated among themselves where the amount is not over 10 per cent.

The total sum involving Anderson's share, $140,000, was much below this and the other eight municipalities have already taken steps to do this. A conference will be held at once as the municipalities are unable to go ahead with the completion of the deal.

The Sum Involved.
The by-laws voted on yesterday apportioned among the municipalities the sum of $2,289,000, of this sum $2,039,000 was for the purchase of the road and $250,000 for extensions and improvements. The $2,039,000 for the road will be paid to the D.U.R. in hydro-electric 30-year 4 per cent. bonds. The $250,000 will be raised on the hydro bonds in the open market.

The S.W. & A. extends through 36 miles of territory in Essex County, but with the Windsor Street Railway System, double tracking etc., has a total package of 45 miles.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF ALL THE GIRLS?

Government Employment Bureau Has 1000 Requests and No Applicants.

(Special to the Record.)
TORONTO, Dec. 8.—So serious has the shortage of woman help become in factory circles that the Provincial Government Employment Bureau has had to decline to fill further orders from the employers.

At the present time they have some 1000 orders filed on their books, but can not secure any applicants to fill the places. "Too many girls must have got married as we have no trace of hundreds of young women who used to apply for work during the war," said Rev. J. A. Milley.

WHERE ARE THE 33? Seized Liquor Decreases in Volume Before Reaching Government.

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—The disappearance of thirty-three bottles of whiskey, apparently between the time of their departure from the county of York buildings and their arrival at the Government liquor warehouse, remained unexplained at the conclusion of the hearing in the county court. The seizure of the whiskey was made by the county police near Scarborough Junction, and before it was deposited safely in the Government warehouse it suffered decrease in quantity twice.

Two county policemen were exonerated of any complicity in the disappearance. They had been accused by Mrs. David Crawford of Scarborough Junction of having given permission to take some of the whiskey and beer. Both Mrs. Crawford and her husband were arrested on a charge of stealing the liquor, which disappeared before the seizure arrived in Toronto.

County Clerk Phillips received 39 barrels, one of which had the top sprung. These were sent next day to the Government liquor warehouse. Chief Provincial License Inspector Aycryst stated the quantity received at the Government warehouse showed a difference of thirty-three bottles.

OBITUARY

JOSEPH BRENNAN.
Mr. Joseph Brennan, proprietor of the Macdonald House in Chesley, died on Sunday after a short illness, at the age of about fifty years. He had been suffering from various veins and on a recent hunting trip he returned home. His condition became worse and resulted in death.

The late Mr. Brennan was an adopted son of Joseph Schuch, a well-known Waterloo County cattle dealer and for many years proprietor of the Royal Exchange Hotel on King street east in Kitchener. Mr. Brennan spent his boyhood days here and later returned to Chesley with his foster-parents, taking charge of the Macdonald House after Mr. Schuch's death.

The deceased was married to Miss Christina Kishner of Hanover, who survives him with a family of two years old. The burial will take place on Wednesday forenoon at 11 o'clock. General sympathy is being extended to both the bereaved widow and children in their great loss.

MR. NELSON HAGEY
OF PRESTON

The death took place at the Kitchener and Waterloo hospital of one of Preston's most highly respected citizens in the person of Nelson Hagey in his 47th year. Deceased had been a lifelong resident of the town. He was born in Preston. He was a finisher by trade and for many years was a faithful employee of the Preston Furniture Company, but on account of ill health he gave up his position to become janitor of the Post Office, which post he held until about five weeks ago when he was taken seriously ill and went to the Kitchener and Waterloo hospital where he underwent an operation, from which he never fully recovered. He gradually became weaker and a glowing end came Friday morning. Deceased was of a very pleasant disposition and had many friends about town. He was a great lover of sport and in his younger days was one of the town's best football players. He was well liked by all and his death has caused a gloom in the community. He leaves to mourn his loss besides a large circle of friends, his father, Jacob Hagey, brothers Edward and United States, Arthur of Preston, and one sister Mrs. O. Krieger, of Hespeler. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon from the residence of his brother Arthur, Kress Hill.

BECOMES FULL OWNER OF QUEEN'S HOTEL

Toronto, Dec. 8.—The McGaw interests in the Queen's Hotel have been bought by Mr. Henry Winnett, who thus becomes sole proprietor of the famous hotel. The price paid was in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. With full control, Mr. Winnett is contemplating the erection of a new wing at the eastern end of the present building and also making extensive improvements.

The McGaw estate owned the building and the property with half an interest in the contents and in the business.

Mr. Winnett has been connected with the Queen's Hotel for fifty-five years, joining the staff in 1864. At the present time, he is also proprietor of the Queen's Royal at Niagara-on-the-Lake, and has a three-quarters interest in the Tecumseh House, London.

It is hinted that Mayor McBride of Brantford may seek a third term. Labor men in Woodstock have decided to open a co-operative union store.

PROSPECT OF RATIFICATION

Hague Tribunal to Decide Extent of Fleet Indemnity. Final Paragraph Eliminated.

Paris, Dec. 8.—The allies have consented to modify some of the terms of the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect to which Germany has made objection. The clause providing for indemnity for the destruction of the German fleet at Scape Flow has been modified so as to refer to the Hague Tribunal the question whether the delivery of the tonnage demanded will cripple Germany.

The final paragraph of the protocol providing that even after the peace treaty has gone into effect the allies might use military measures of coercion to ensure execution of the treaty's terms has been eliminated entirely, as also has clause relating to the evacuation of the Baltic provinces by German troops.

Imputation of the responsibility of Germany for the sinking of ships at Scape Flow is left in the protocol. According to best information obtainable the note to the German plenipotentiaries, regarding the signing of the protocol and setting forth the allied position as indicated, will be handed to Baron Von Lersner, head of the German mission, this afternoon.

BREAD BAKERS OUT ON STRIKE

Will Hold Out For 9-Hour Day and Better Wage.

The bread bakers of the Twin City are out on strike having quit work on Saturday and while the citizens were supplied with bread this morning, the bakers holding out. The situation, the situation may become serious unless an agreement is reached shortly. The men and the master bakers held a meeting Saturday night when the demands of the men were presented to their employers. The present wage scale and length of hours per week were discussed but neither side were able to come to an understanding. It is understood the men are demanding a 9-hour day with time and a half for overtime. As was pointed out by one of the strikers the rate in Kitchener is approximately 40 cents per hour, the men being paid by the hour. In Waterloo the men receive a flat rate per week irrespective of the number of hours worked. Organizer Walsh of Toronto, is here looking after the interests of the men and a scale has been prepared and it is to be hoped an amicable settlement will soon be arrived at. The men claim they are justified in asking for the increase. At the meeting on Saturday night the master-baker asked for a few days to consider the matter, but this was denied, the men claiming the demand had been sent to them early in the week and they had ample time to consider it. Bread is being delivered to-day the same as usual.

CONTINUE GOVT. HOUSE

Cut Down Maintenance
Government House will be used as a residence of the Lieutenant Governor for the present at least, but the cost of maintenance will be reduced as much as possible. The following statement was handed out by Attorney General Roney:

"The Government has been advised by the Law Officers of the Attorney General's Department that the funds received from the sale of the old Government House property on King St. are not in any way earmarked for the purpose of building or the upkeep of a Government House and that such funds can be used by the Government in any way it deems advisable.

Will Continue For A Time
But the Law Officers find that the property on which the Government House is erected is covered by a very stringent covenant restricting the use of the property for a period of twenty years from the date of the purchase in 1899 for any other than residential purposes.

"After the best consideration it has been able to give to the matter the Government has reached the conclusion that under the circumstances the continuing of the existing conditions is the only course open to it.

Cut Down Expenditure
"The subject will doubtless come up for consideration at the approach session of the Legislature. In the meantime the Government will endeavor to reduce the cost of maintenance, and is pleased to be able to announce that to that end it will have the active personal sympathy and co-operation of the Lieutenant Governor."

PREMIER AT UNITED CHURCH REFUSES OFFER TO SPEAK

Clergyman Asks Ministers to Come to Front.—Drury Prefers to Remain Humble Worshipper.

MAKE HIT AT COCHRANE

(Special to the Record.)
COCHRANE, Dec. 8.—The little United Church in this junction town of 2500 people and the head of the rail for the T. and N.O. Ry. was filled on Sunday morning by the presence of Premier Drury, Hon. Mr. Bowman, Minister of Lands and Forests, Hon. Mr. Mills, Minister of Mines, Commissioner Leav of the T. and N.O. and Mr. Lang, the local Liberal member, not to mention newspapermen.

The service took the usual form except when the minister Rev. Mr. Conifer, the joint pastor of the Presbyterian and Methodist, after returning thanks for the appointment to high office of men of fairness and righteousness, requested that the congregation should sing the National Anthem and the Ministers of the Crown take seats on either side of the pulpit when he hoped Mr. Drury would speak for at least two or three minutes.

The Premier, gently declined the invitation by rising and saying that while as a citizen he belonged to one of the churches represented at the service, as premier he belonged to no church. His preference was to remain where he was as a humble worshipper.

The disappointed minister accepted the situation, and the National Anthem was omitted. In the afternoon Mr. Drury visited his home. At daybreak the ministerial party left Cochrane for New Liskeard and other points south of here. They expect to address an important gathering in North Bay to-night. Premier Drury made a hit at Cochrane and many echoed the public utterance of Mayor Carter, "I believe the new Government will make good."

WILL DEMAND A BONUS.

Ontario Civil Servants Want Bonus Fixed That Higher Salaried Officials Get Not as Much.

The Ontario Civil Service Association are going to get after the Drury Government for a bonus again before Christmas. At their meeting in Toronto quite an interesting time developed.

The association want a bonus based on the same system as in the Federal service, namely that the higher salaried officials get a smaller bonus and the lower salaried officials a higher bonus.

It was pointed out that last year when the increase to the civil servants were made larger increases than the smaller salaried officials, and that, instead of paying those married men who are getting around $1,150 to $1,600 a year an increase that was noticeable they got but $50 or $100, while several of the deputy ministers and other officials who got larger salaries got anywhere from $300 to $800 increase.

The executive of the association suggested that the matter should be left in their hands, but apparently the bulk of the members of the association were not satisfied and decided that they would send a deputation to Premier Drury themselves to demand the bonus.

When the bill is introduced for prohibition or against it another poll may not be taken before the lapse of three years.

The bill is intended to come into operation in 1923.

WAS ON VERGE OF GIVING UP

Lassard Gains Sixteen Pounds and Overcomes Troubles by Taking Tanlac.

"If any man had told me, I would have laughed at him," said John Lassard, who lives at the Richelieu Hotel, Edmonton, Alberta, to a Tanlac representative the other day. Mr. Lassard saw three years service in the Canadian Expeditionary Forces and was in the thickest of many of the great battles. He is now a popular brakeman on the Canadian National Railway.

"Just ask any of the boys I work with, they'll tell you what Tanlac has done for me and what I think of it," he continued, "why, it has added sixteen pounds to my weight."

"I went through such a nerve strain while I was in France that when I got back over here I just went to pieces all at once. I lost my appetite almost entirely, and it seemed that everything I ate seemed to go down my throat and caused gas to form so bad that I would be in misery for hours after every meal. My nerves were in such an awful condition that it was next to impossible for me to get more than a few hours sleep at night, and if any kind of an unexpected noise happened, it made me jump like I was shot at. I was in such a run down condition that I couldn't half do my work. At last, I thought I had just about reached my limit and I had decided to give up work altogether and take a long rest to try and build myself up."

"But before I quit one of the boys who heard I was going to leave, came to me and told me what Tanlac had done for him and kept on insisting so much that I agreed to try it. Well, sir, I would hardly believe it if any one told me that Tanlac had helped me as much as it has helped me, why, I'm not the same man at all. My nerves are so steady that I can stand any kind of a noise. I can sleep like a log and I never felt better in my whole life than I do right now. I eat anything I please without ever having a pain of any kind anywhere in my body, and that gas has quit forming. I have been built up in every way, am never troubled with anything in the least, and as I told you, I have gained sixteen pounds. I would publish this testimonial of mine so that other soldiers who may come back from France in a weak run down condition will know that Tanlac is the very thing they need to build them up and put them in fine shape."

PROPOSED FIRST NATIONAL DRY LAW

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—
Among the claims to distinction possessed by Henry W. Blair, former United States senator from New Hampshire, who celebrates his eighty-fifth birthday to-day, there is none his values more highly than the credit which is his due of having been the first to introduce in Congress a proposal for a nationwide prohibition amendment. It was in 1875 that Senator Blair introduced the proposal for a provision identical with that which has now become a part of the Federal Constitution and which will become fully operative next month.

Senator Blair also openly advocated the adoption of woman suffrage at a time when the prominent supporters of that reform were few and far between. During his long public career the woman suffragists always found in him a vigorous and unweary-ing defender.

His greatest public services, however, were those rendered in the cause of free education. His labors in this connection were considered of so great value that over 100,000 copies of his speeches were circulated by the Republican congressional committee as the best expression of their party on this question.

Although this was looked upon as Mr. Blair's greatest personal endeavor, his other services in Congress upon matters that bear a weighty influence even to the present day were his speeches against the Texas railroad subsidies, upon foreign markets and commerce, election frauds the exodus of the colored people the public land bill, the commission of inquiry into the liquor traffic, the tariff bills and other important matters.

Mr. Blair is a native of the State which he long and ably represented in its upper house of Congress.
As a child of two years, owing to the death of his father, he was taken into the home of a neighbor and brought up. Until he reached his majority he worked for his benefactor on the farm. His early opportunities for securing an education were meagre.

A term in the village academy roused his ambition and from that time on his life was an heroic struggle for a collegiate education. He labored night and day, taught school and toiled with his hands, canvassed and studied until his health failed and he became very sick. Then advised by Samuel A. Burns, himself a distinguished lawyer, Mr.
Blair turned to the legal profession at which he was engaged when the civil war broke out. He went to the front with a New Hampshire regiment and was wounded at the assault on Port Hudson, and returned home with the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

It was after the war that he gave up his law practice and entered the political field where he won so many personal honors. During his long career in the Senate he was noted for his regular attendance and always voted when in his seat.

Since his retirement from public life ex-Senator Blair has resided the most of his time in Washington.
He left the Senate a poor man so far as money goes and his chief means of support during the declining years of his life has been the pension which Congress granted him many years ago in recognition of his distinguished services to the nation as a soldier and a statesman.

GUELPH OUGHT TO SELL ROAD

Sir Adam Beck Presents Hydro's Case.

Guelph, Dec. 5.—Sir Adam Beck drew a picture before the eyes of an audience of 250 people in the local opera house last evening that showed Guelph stripped of the shackles which have bound her for decades in the matter of street railway service, and leaving her free to reach out through the surrounding district by means of a great radial service.

Instead of an inadequate twenty-minute service through the street, he offered an efficient ten-minute service.

He and Chief Engineer Gaby presented estimates which show that instead of an annual deficit of $15-000 on the city-owned railway, Guelph may have a yearly income of the interest on $150,000 which the Hydro Commission will pay the city to turn over to them plus her equity in the annual profits of all the Hydro lines in Ontario.

Jealous of Street Control.
These, with a host of other benefits to be gained by passing the by-law to sell the railway to the Hydro Commission, were presented. As Sir Adam himself remarked the audience did not seem enthused about the project.

In years past the city sold the right of way through her streets to private interests, and finally had to pay some $80,000 to regain control. Now the people are reluctant to let that control slip away again even to the Hydro Commission.

Sam Carter, former M. P. P., was the only one in the audience who stood up and declared that it would be folly not to accept the offer.

Deep Waterways Fight.
Sir Adam stated that if Ottawa would give them half a chance the Hydro Commission would create great storage systems when the deepening of the waterways was undertaken. A submerged weir near Buffalo will dam up the water of the wet seasons and in the summer when the waterflow lessens, will release twenty or thirty thousand feet per second, which would keep the water level high enough for ocean vessels, and even augment the depth of water in Montreal harbor. Also they will extend the power storage to 3,000,000 horse power, which would be sufficient motive power, with all the railways in the province.

No Dictation.
"We will not be dictated to by the Province of Quebec nor by the Government at Ottawa, which is trying to protect private ownership in Canada," said Sir Adam.

EDITORIAL

Breaking Mr. Nelson Parliament, M.P., elected as a Liberal in the recent election, wants to accept Premier Drury's invitation to become Speaker. Mr. Parliament is a farmer himself, had strong farmer support and for that reason as well as possibly, for the sake of the honor and the salary, feels strongly impelled to gratify his desire.

In Canada, the Speaker is invariably chosen from the supporters of the Government. Mr. Parliament's acceptance would therefore appear to some as somewhat of a severance from his Liberal colleagues, especially if he takes the office without the approval of his leader. All of this goes to show that straight party allegiance is not so strong as once it was. The leaders of parties under present conditions seem to have little assurance that their nominal followers will "stay put". It is an embarrassing position. If the tendency grows, the party system will be in a bad way.

Another In the Dominion Parliament the Exception law declares that either the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker shall be French-speaking. The Union Government found itself in difficulty in trying to comply with the law and yet appoint one of its own supporters. None of these were French except Dr. Chabot, M.P. for Ottawa, and the latter did not desire the position. The unprecedented course was taken of choosing as Deputy Speaker a member of the Opposition in the person of Mr. George Boivin, a member from the Province of Quebec. When there is a division, however, Mr. Boivin votes with the Liberal Opposition.

Of course, Mr. Drury's action is caused by the fact that he would not otherwise have a majority of the elected members of the House. Even with Mr. Parliament in the chair, the Farmer-Labor group have a margin of only two. It cannot be an altogether comfortable position for the new Government.

COMMENT

Kolchak's army is going strong, but in the wrong direction.

What has become of the old conceptions of friendship, tolerance and fair play?

Guess Mr. Gabriel D'Annunzio is the one chap who got self-determination out of the war.

Calgary women are going in for curling, —on the ice. If they had to sweep like that at home, what hard work it would be.

In Toronto the President of a company got $10,000 to quit. We're putting in an application for the job.

If you had no coal, would it make you hot if someone sang, "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight"?

Yes, we realize that some newspapers are not worth reading. Unfortunately, in our position we have to read them, whether we want to or not. But at some we draw the line.

One advantage of abolishing those silk knee breeches which former lieutenant-governors of Ontario wore at the opening of the House, is that the office is thus democratically thrown open to our bowlegged citizenry.

Many credulous people have lost money "investing" in a company which was supposed to control a marvellous new motor. As a general thing, you may take it for granted that the really good things are never allowed to reach the ordinary man. The big fellows gobble them up. Stick to the things you know about.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Fuel Resources.

The coal shortage in the United States, already making itself felt in this country, has naturally, perhaps, turned the public mind to the importance of developing other sources of heat and power. The whole subject will henceforth receive more attention because of the impressive nature of the present demonstration. Every manufacturer and every individual citizen will now regard the question of ensuring a future steady supply of fuel and power from some source or other, or all sources combined, as one of personal concern. If the value of all our natural resources could be similarly impressed upon the public, there would be fewer opportunities for franchise grabbing than in the past. We have been rather prodigal of our resources, but it is altogether likely that we shall be more thrifty in the future.

In the United States the same sentiment is already awakening. Steps for the formation of an association to urge the development of all the water powers in the country, which are estimated to aggregate 100 million horse power, with an annual value of 5 billion dollars, have been taken in New York, where some of the leading financiers and scientists met to discuss the fuel situation.

Jazz-Time And Marriage.

London Express.

"Waltz me around once again, Willie; Around, around, around!" So runs the refrain of a song which our young people hummed a decade ago, and perhaps do still. We have never heard of a song ending with "Jazz me along again, Jim-my; Along, along, along!" The reason is now made plain by the confession of a young terpsichorean who states that when they jazz the young men never think of proposing; but when they waltz they are more likely to whisper the fatal word into their partner's ear, overcome as they are by the rhythm and poetry of the dreamy music. Indeed, the experienced dancers of the fair sex will tell you that so malleable is the male heart, so susceptible to waltz music, that it is always advisable to wait until the next day, when the cold douche of reason has flowed over his soul, to see if he really meant it. But since so many marriages have been made by Strauss and none by Irving Berlin, the jazz is to be relegated to the limbo of forgotten things, and Cupid, as master of ceremonies, is to be restored to his throne. Therefore, "Waltz me round once again, Willie!"

His Choice

"Do you want a smart boy, sir?"
"No, I do all the work myself."
"That's just the kind of place I'd like, sir."

Letter to News Record

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT

To The Editor:

In my last letter I tried to show some of the results of having the wrong men in the right place, on the Aldermanic Board and how errors have been made that it is impossible to correct.

Now it was not the intention to convey the idea that because a man was a failure in one department, he was necessarily a failure all round because the same man may have been a valuable asset in some other place. The whole object was to advocate the guarding against the electing of men to positions for which neither nature nor grace have qualified them. An inquiry into the municipal problems which face this growing and fast developing city, is most convincing that men of skill and adroitness are required, as well as men of a keen sense and power of grasping the important factors prominent in the situation. If the aldermanic board of this or any other city be made up of men inadequately equipped for the solution of its problems or for taking a wide view of affairs and gauging the trend of municipal opinion then the city suffers an irreparable loss. It is a wise observation, "that a stream never rises higher than its source," and if we expect original and brilliant municipal legislation from a dull, incompetent council we are certainly doomed to disappointment. This city has now arrived at a crisis; it has recently been favored with the establishment of immense manufacturing institutions, its population has so increased that the housing proposition in which the government proposes to advance eighty per cent. of the cost of erection, has been adopted. Families from surrounding and other rural districts are moving into the city as fast as they can obtain accommodation, and there is every indication of the city being on the verge of a period of progress and advancement both gratifying and substantial. This progress is not confined entirely to a material or commercial thing, but it should certainly have a corresponding ratio, of intellectual and educational progress. We must promote an education which comprehends all that series of instruction and discipline which is intended to enlighten the understanding to learn to control the temper and form good manners and habits of youth, such as would fit the recipients for usefulness in their future stations of life, and especially to impart that indispensable thing, a good moral education. These attainments and virtues are not produced without a cause, and no one assumes a greater responsibility for the existence of them than our City Council and other elected and appointed officials.

Nor are the electors exonerated from all responsibility in the case of elective bodies, because the calibre and capacity of elective bodies usually represents the calibre of the electors who put them there. If these be facts, which no doubt they are, one cannot help arriving at the conclusion from this course of argument that every elector is answerable for the trust reposed in him and for the faithful discharge of his duty. As long as we have numerous individuals who are sure to have proportionately numerous opinions and it is a good thing we have, because in generating these numerous opinions we are liable to have individuality and refinement of production. It is true that the council of this and every other city could not expect their aldermanic representatives to perform their duties as efficiently as is desirable when working gratuitously. The importance of the work to be performed demands more than a couple of hours two or three times a month squeezed in at night, after probably nearly, if not the whole board, having performed a good day's work elsewhere. There is little wonder that so many of the propositions disposed of are so justly open to criticism.

The rural municipalities at once consider their municipal business of sufficient importance to pay their aldermen for transacting it and of course when a servant is paid for his work his employer feels justified in demanding its proper performance.

GRANT SUSPENDED PLAYERS HEARING

Toronto, Dec. 5.—The usual meeting of the O. H. A. executive which precedes the annual meeting was held tonight.

The suspension of player Pugsley of Newmarket, was lifted. He was suspended while with Woodstock College. E. J. Jupp was given permission to play this winter in Toronto.

The senior players under suspension will be granted a hearing next week by the executive. The five who applied are Farr, Roach, McCarthy, McCaffrey and Glen Smith.

The Indian women of the Ithamar of Tebanutepce, proclaimed by many judges to be the most beautiful women in the world, add to their picturesque attractiveness by wearing whatever fortune they may possess in the way of gold coins strung about the arms and neck.

Most of the ladies in Japan smoke. They have pipes longer stems than the men, and if one of them wishes to show a gentleman a special mark of favor she lights her pipe, takes a whiff, hands it to him, and allows him to smoke.

LANG TREACY CO. LIMITED

Urgent Notice

TO ALL PUBLIC UTILITIES, HOSPITALS, ESSENTIAL AND NON-ESSENTIAL INDUSTRIES IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

The shortage of Bituminous Coal has become so serious that all public utilities and industries must immediately adopt rules tending to a strict conservation of coal.

No Bituminous Coal will be permitted to go forward or be delivered to industries, until satisfactory evidence is at hand that our public utilities and hospitals have been supplied for the winter.

Manufacturers are urged to avail themselves of the supplies of steam sizes of Anthracite now in the hands of local dealers.

Public utilities and essential industries which anticipate shortage within the next sixty days are required to immediately file with me a statement, under oath, setting forth nature of industry, amount of coal on hand and daily consumption.

USERS OF FREE GAS

Users of free gas in the gas fields should conserve the supply by discontinuing the use of flares and regulating the consumption in their homes by exercising the same caution as practised by consumers paying for supply, in confining strictly to domestic use.

The Pride of Llewellyn

"Girl! I will not be outraged in my own house!"
"You will be outraged in a more public place, madam, before the play is over. What became of Arthur Powis, I ask you? You told me then that he had been assigned to the command of a store ship at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. You deceived those dear old ladies, too, who had me under their protection. I know you did, or they never would have consented to my leaving them under the circumstances. You beguiled me from their protection—beguiled me by the basest falsehood!"

"Ungrateful girl! I drew you gently from a life of dishonor and misery to one of honor and safety under my own protection!" exclaimed Mrs. Llewellyn.

"You sent me, ill, weak, and alone, to a strange port, in search of a man who had never been there, and a ship that had no existence. You followed me where you had first sent me. You found me in the condition that you had worked to produce. Deceived, baffled, and half distracted, I was wandering about the Portsmouth Navy Yard in search of the husband you had sent me to seek, when you arrested me as your mad ward!"

"You were mad!"

"Not never! weakened, subdued, palsied as I have been, I have never for an instant been mad! To resume, madam! for you shall hear all the 'why.' You could not have taken me away from those kindly old ladies except by fraud; but you could seize me in the streets of Portsmouth by force—that was what you worked for! You did so! You got me in your power; you dosed, drugged, slowly poisoned me; you took me to Kader Idris; shut me out from all my kind; degraded me to your infamous will; and you would have consummated your criminal purpose in marrying me to your imbecile son, but for the intervention of an humble agent—my poor lost mother's maid and my own nurse, who discovered your nervous practices and warned me—yes! and saved me then. But you suspected her, and consequently she disappeared! as all disappear who are in your way, Mrs. Jay. I missed her one morning, and never saw her more! What became of Alice, Mrs. Jay?"

Again the pallor of death spread over the face of Mrs. Llewellyn; but she soon rallied her flying courage, and answered haughtily:

"You insolent girl, how dare you ask me? When a servant offends me I get rid of her."

"I know you do, Mrs. Jay. But—will you get rid of retributive justice as easily? Well, my only remaining, humble friend removed from me, I made but a feeble stand against your devilish power. My situation, too, made me an easy prey. I became a mother, and had to send my child away to save her from your fell plots. Alas! did I save her? Heaven knows! Again you dosed, drugged, slowly poisoned me. Again you degraded me to your infamous will. And this time certainly you would have effected your felonious purpose, and married me to your foolish son, but for the intervention of Providence. I saved my husband in the church, and I was saved!"

"Base, shameful, thankless girl! I rescued you from a life of dishonor; for the adventurer I have permitted you to call your husband never was so in reality. All that I did for you was legally as well as humanely done; for not being a wife, but a minor, you were still my ward, owing me obedience. I had still the authority of a guardian over you—an authority that I used only for your best interests. I would have married you to my only son, a youth of spotless moral character, and thus restored you to honor and peace, but that you were frightened by a chance resemblance of a living man to a dead one. And now, when I would soothe your agitation and support your weakness, you turn on me like a tigress, and bid me with crimes that have no existence but in your own injurious suspicions. But, Gladys! for the love I bear the memory of your dead parents, I will bear with you yet," said the woman, with a fair show of moderation.

"Oh, hypocrite!" said Gladys, giving her a withering look.

"Take care, young lady! Remember that you are still a minor and my ward. Still under my authority, and in my power!" said the lady.

"I am not afraid of you, Mrs. Jay! You have done the very worst to me that you can do! Yes; you can do no worse, even though you were to kill me. By your infamous practices upon my nervous system you deprived me of my moral and intellectual free agency and drew me to the brink of crime and ruin."

NEURALGIA

CHRONIC CASE OF 12 YEARS' STANDING REMEDIED BY T.R.C.'S.

"You can't imagine what it means to me to be free from pain after having suffered with Neuralgia for 12 years," writes Mrs. Brunner, 624 Elm St., Buffalo, N.Y. "I am 63 years old and have been under different doctors' care for the past 12 years. When my attacks came on the agony was unbearable. Even the sound of human voices was unendurable. When visiting in Toronto I heard of T.R.C.'s and took a box home with me."

"One of my bad attacks came along soon after. The T.R.C.'s gave me quick relief and the attack, which generally used to last for days, was over in half an hour. Since that time I have never been without them and have no further fear of my old enemy. Neuralgia or bad headaches need no longer make you suffer. T.R.C.'s attack the cause of the pain. Ask your druggist for a box. Mailed anywhere for $1.04. (Templeton Ltd., 145 King W., Toronto)."

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms a waste which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean, and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

(From Rocky Mountain News, Denver,

Christian Science is a solace, a support, and an inspiration to hundreds of thousands of human creatures. To them it is more precious than their daily bread. In its comforting power to its followers it is entitled to the world's reverence, and therefore the name of its Founder must claim the world's respect.

Tragedy at London.
"Good-bye, Nell, and if you want to go to see your mother in St. Thomas it will be all right."

With these words Mr. Leo Sullivan add good-bye to his wife as she left her little home at 267 Waterloo St.
London, Ont., about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. An hour later Mrs.
Sullivan was cold in death, the victim of an automobile accident at Clarence and Dundas streets, London. Her husband, confident that she was safe with relatives in St. Thomas did not learn of the tragedy till yesterday morning.

Mrs. Sullivan, who was 23 years of age, was standing near the curb on the southwest corner of Clarence and Dundas, London, when the accident occurred. A car driven by Mrs. Henry Drakeley, of Wardville, turned from Dundas east to go south on Clarence.
According to the coroner the car grazed one person and then became out of the control of the driver. The result was that it jumped the curb and jammed Mrs. Sullivan, who was in its path, against a telegraph post about eight feet away.

HOW TO PEEL OFF A WEATHERBEATEN FACE
It's really a simple matter to renovate a face soiled by dirt, wind or cold.
Ordinary mercurized wax, used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvety softness. It literally peels off the outer veil of surface skin, but so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort. The worn-out skin comes off, not in patches, but evenly, in tiny particles, leaving no evidence of the treatment itself. The younger, healthier under-skin forming the new complexion is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mer-curized wax to be had at any drug store, is enough to remove any coarse, chapped, pimply, freckled, faded or sallow skin. Apply before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

Bush", at Star Monday, Tuesday and

Two English sailors at a dog show which had so much hair that it looked more like a woolen mat than a dog.

"Which end is 'is' end, Tom?" asked

"Blowed if I know," was the reply.

GOOD BOXING AT ST. MARY'S HALL, SAT. NIGHT.

Jarvis Best Crompton.
Schultz Wins Over McKay.
Only a fair-sized crowd attended the boxing bouts on Saturday night, the inclement weather making quite a difference to the "gate," anyway the people present went away well satisfied with the night's show. It was a pity that Kid Whitney and young Martin couldn't make the trip on account of the snow, but Tom Dyer the famous old war-horse, and Boy Dwyer went four rds. to make up the card.

The first item on the programme was the wrestling bout between Kid Crompton of London, Willie Le Roy, Toronto and both gave an exhilarating exhibition, Crompton winning after twenty minutes strenuous work.

The next was a 9 rds. P.T.O. bout between the Gillette Midgets of Preston and their bout was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd.

Tom Dyer and Bob Dwyer were the next pair in the ring and Tom certainly showed up against his plucky and aggressive opponent, who it may be said, was at "one time" feather weight champion of Army and Navy. They got a good hand for their pleasing display.

The semi-final bout between Barney Schultz and Kid McKay did not come up to expectations, McKay, after winning the first round, wilted under heavy punishment in the next two rds, and threw up the sponge at the end of the third, it was a pity too, as McKay showed to advantage in the workouts during the week, but his condition was not what it could have been, and therefore he paid the penalty.

The final bout of the evening between Jarvis and Crompton was a thrilling battle, all the way through, after receiving the usual instructions from the referee they shook hands, commencing rd. one, both men opened up cautiously, Jarvis being first to score with a swift left hander to the face, Crompton replying with a left to the body, a short clinch ensued after which Jarvis came back again with left and right to the face and a left stab to the ribs, Crompton, missing with well meant punches.

The second opened with Crompton making a savage attack on the body, and getting home with a splendid left hook, which made Jarvis' eye look as if it was in mourning stepping back, Jarvis drove his left hand 3 times without a return to his opponent's face, the round ending with Crompton crowding Jarvis towards the ropes.

Crompton's Rd.
Third round came up both mixing it freely, Jack's left hand playing a prominent part, Crompton also using a right hook with good effect, round ending with honors even.

Past boxing was the thing in 4th rd, Jarvis' left hand sending his opponent's head back time and again, but Crompton came on undaunted and made it the end of the round with a vicious left and right to the stomach.

Jarvis' Rd.
The half-way session was reached and Jarvis commenced hostilities, with his left hand to the face a number of times without return, Crompton missing with his left, but shot few hard ones to the ribs and heart, breaking from a clinch Jarvis cornered his opponent and played a merry tattoo on his body. The round ending with the fans voicing their approval of a good round and also good battle. "Jarvis Rd."

The second half of the battle commenced with Crompton shooting a left and right to the face, Jarvis missing with a terrific right swing, after maneuvering with pretty foot work, Jarvis came back with a good right cross staggering his opponent with a hot shot to the mouth.

Jarvis' Rd.
Seventh rd. both men warmed up to their work immediately, Crompton punishing his opponent severely about the body, and fighting like a wild-cat, Jarvis kept cool under the heavy fire, and was content to shoot in left and right jabs, crossing occasionally with a right, but Freddie came on, fighting with the utmost fury, and having the local backing up when the gong sounded.

Crompton's Best Rd.
The fight was being thoroughly enjoyed, up to now and when the eighth round sounded each showed willingness to get in a decisive punch, towards the middle of the round, Jarvis flashed out at terrific speed driving Crompton to the four corners with a facial and body bombardment, scoring with heavy punches to the body, Crompton showing signs of slowing up. Round ended with much applause, Jarvis best rd.

Ninth Rd.
In fighting marked the opening of the ninth, both working fast with both hands, and in coming out of a clinch it was noticed that the local boy's body was covered with big red blotches, while Freddie too was showing effect of the heavy going. Jarvis showed some good fast work, and dodged some of the punches, but Crompton kept up the heavy pressure winning the rd. by a narrow margin.

Crompton's Rd.
The last rd. Jarvis sent a succession of straight lefts to Crompton's head, and shooting a right-hander with good effect to the ribs, slowing Crompton up considerably. Crompton's best work being a short right-hook. The final rd. ending with Jarvis on top, but both men feeling tired after 19 hard fought rds. The verdict in favor of Jarvis being popular, a small section of the audience thought that Crompton should have got a draw, but they evidently were not watching Jarvis' left hand as he scored the cleaver punches throughout.

"Kap" refereed the minor bouts. Tom Dyer acted efficiently in the big bout, Tom Emmett, time-keeper and Jim Haines, M.C., also carried out their duties without a hitch.

INTERMEDIATE CHAMPS WILL MEET SENIORS

Travelling Expenses In O.H.A.
Raised to 15c per Mile.
OFFICERS WERE RE-ELECTED.

Toronto, Dec. 6.—There was a large attendance at the 30th annual meeting of the Ontario Hockey Association held in the Temple building on Saturday morning.

Several important changes were made in the constitution, and the whole business of the convention carried off with the proper spirit. The president's greeting, the treasurer's address and the report of the executive committee showed that the organization was in a flourishing condition. With the war a thing of the past the entries are expected to be larger than ever.

Perhaps the most important change made by the delegates was one to allow the intermediate champions to play-off with the senior winners, and then the victor of this contest go into the Allan cup series as the official representative of the O.H.A. In the past, the intermediate were the only section that did not get into the play-off for the championship of Canada. The seniors competed in the Allan cup and the juniors played the other provincial championships for the O.H.A. memorial cup.

The amendments were carefully considered by the delegates. Sheriff Paxton proposed that the following be added to clause 7 of the constitution and passed, namely: "In the cities and towns desirous of playing in the senior series no club is to be admitted to membership unless it represents what is regarded by the O.H.A. executive as a bona fide permanent and general established amateur club or association, and that in all towns and villages represented in the O.H.A. in any series precedence be given to the club or association representing the whole community." D.H. Cole, of Burlington, wanted the seniors stopped from playing in

Grip, Influenza

Hamilin's Wizard Oil a Reliable Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza. Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

the intermediate series, and, after a long discussion, a compromise was made when Kitchener proposed that each senior club be compelled to register at least six bona fide players, who will be barred from play in the intermediate. This will allow the intermediates to step up if they show the ability and stop the practice of trotting out a semi-senior, in some intermediate fixture.

Dick's Amendment Carries.
A.W. Dick's amendment to let the intermediates into the play-off, was carried by a handsome majority. Angus Campbell, of the North-Ontario Association was a strong supporter of this amendment.

The war-time regulations in regard to soldiers were struck out after a short discussion and in future a junior player will have the privilege of playing in the nearest town with a junior club if his home club fails to enter a team.

Hockey expenses have mounted with the cost of living and it didn't seem long before the delegates long to advance the expenses allowed to traveling clubs. On a motion by W.A. Fry, Dunnville, 15 cents a mile for 10 men was set as the mark.

The referee's charge was boosted to allow him to ask 15 cents a mile instead of 10.

The delegates passed an amendment to give the secretary authority to appoint two referees on large ice rinks when he thinks it is necessary. Only one amendment to the playing rules was passed, and it has to do with the Canadian Hockey Association as a recommendation. It is to allow a goal to be substituted at any time. H. Sturm, of Kitchener, wanted the goal to be allowed to stop the puck in any fashion, such as kneeling, laying on the ice, etc., as in vogue in the pro league. He failed to get a seconder.

1920 Officers.

The following officers were elected:
President—R.M. Glover, Peterboro.
Past President and Treasurer—Sheriff J.F. Paxton, Whitby.
First Vice-President—A.E. Copeland, Midland.
Second Vice-President—W.A. Fry, Dunnville.

A.A.U. of C. governor—Francis Nelson, Toronto.
Secretary—W.A. Hewitt, Toronto.
Executive Committee—R. Butler, Lindsay; Wm. Eason, Stratford; Geo. B. McKay, Kingston; W.W. Davidson, Toronto.

The usual honorariums were passed for the secretary and the treasurer, and the treasurer, and Sheriff Paxton's motion that the O.H.A. adopt the suggestion of the A.A.U. of C. for the registration of all athletes with the provincial branch for the purposes of registration.

The St. Patrick's Club, of Toronto, tendered fees for the coming season, but the secretary refused to accept them. The club manager contended that this was not in order, but the president ruled that the executive had the right to refuse any entries. Entries will close on Wednesday and the clubs will be grouped by the executive on Friday.

JIMMY WILDE OUTPOINTED

Defeat of British Phenom a Surprise as New York Lad Staggers Him in Milwaukee Ring.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 6.—Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion making his first American appearance, was decisively outpointed by Jack Sharkey, a New York heavyweight tonight.

The defeat of Wilde was a surprise. He succeeded in winning only two of the 10 rounds. Sharkey having the better of seven sessions and the first was even.

The New Yorker started out to make a rushing fight, and brought the crowd to its feet in two rounds when he staggered the little Welshman with right and left smashes to the chin. He landed more frequently than Wilde and his punches had greater force.

Wilde lived up to none of his advance notices. His judgment of distance was bad, and there was little force behind his punches. He got $11,000 for the 30 minutes he was in the ring.

Under the Wisconsin law no referee's decision can be given, but it was the unanimous opinion of the newspaper experts that Sharkey had the better of the match.

Sharkey's weight was 116 pounds, and Wilde 107.

DEMPESEY READY TO FIGHT CARPENTER.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 4.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, said tonight that Georges Carpentier's victory over Joe Beckett in London was no surprise to him, as he and his manager, Jack Kearns, had picked the French champion to win. Dempsey said Carpentier was more scientific, quicker and a harder hitter than Beckett.

"I am ready to fight Carpentier or any other fighter in the world—I get my price," said Dempsey. "Carpenter is all probability will be my next opponent, and the meeting probably will come off next spring."

CITY COUNCIL AT LOG

HEADS WITH I

Refuses to Accede to Request That Vaccination—May Face Damage Suits From Citizens Infection Has Been Ca

WILL PROCEED AGAIN

Toronto, Dec. 9.—It is stated that the health will take drastic action against the Mayor Church and the city council comply to issue proclamation making general vaccination compulsory.

Toronto, Ont. Dec. 9.—The whole city of Toronto may be quarantined if the city council refuses to accede to the requests of Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, Provincial M.H.O., that the people of Toronto be vaccinated.

Dr. McCullough would not make a statement for publication this morning as he did not wish to antagonize the civic authorities. "The thing is now up to the city council," he said. "I don't want to take any further steps until I see what action the council decides upon."

It is learned from an authoritative source that the provincial authorities approve of Montreal's isolation of this city.

No deaths have occurred in Toronto from smallpox, but nine deaths have been reported from various parts of the province and they are attributed to smallpox carried from this city.

Incidentally Toronto may find itself the defendant in several damage actions. It is contended that outside municipalities or persons living elsewhere may sue the corporation of Toronto for damages in respect of smallpox communicated by persons coming from Toronto.

Isolation of the city by outside municipalities will not be advised for the present, but if the city council refuses to take action that may be the next step. It is a measure the provincial authorities would be loath to adopt since Christmas trade throughout the province would be more or less paralyzed, Toronto being the great distributing center for Ontario.

No machinery exists at the present time for the rounding up of citizens who have not been vaccinated, and some such system as that in operation for the rounding up of defaulters under the M. S. A. may have to be introduced if the city council decides upon compulsory vaccination. Of course, many people will come forward voluntarily and be vaccinated if the city council says so, but some method of getting hold of those who do not believe in this means of fighting smallpox may have to be introduced.

How Can City Council be Forced?
Toronto, Dec. 9.—There are two ways in which the provincial board of health might go about the task of forcing Toronto's city council to order a compulsory vaccination of adults, was the opinion expressed at the city hall today. "It might apply to the courts for a mandamus ordering the council to perform its statutory duties or it might indict the alderman who declines to do so before a grand jury."

City solicitor Johnston declined to say what he thought of either of these plans, nor would he state whether he believed that the aldermen could evade the responsibility by resigning, their seats for the remainder of the year.
