"And Man, How I Did Eat Real Food!"

TOOKING BACK, now, to those vacation days, there's a lively kindling of joy—even in the memory of appetite at camp-fire meals.

Real food-and real hunger!

That's the year-around relationship between appetite and Grape-Nuts-that crisp and wholesome gift from the great outof-doors-the perfected goodness of Nature's best food grains.

There's a flavor and charm to Grape-Nuts that appeal to the appetite like the tang of the summer camp, and there's a scientific balance of nutrition and a readiness of digestion that make Grape-Nuts a wonderful aid to health and vigor.

"Real food!" is the verdict of enthusiastic thousands who find a daily delight in the unique sweetness and crispness of Grape-Nuts, and who "carry on" splendidly with its bodybuilding nourishment.

Let the zest of appetite be a companion of your indoor meals, too.

Grape-Nuts is sold and served wherever good food is sold and served.

LAUDS OLIVER SERVICE Fears Only Able Men Can

Surmount Difficulties Confronting West. EDMONTON, Alb., Nov. 14.-(By Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)-Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of he Liberal party, addressed a capacity udlence in the Pantages Theatre here tonight, many persons being unable to gain admission to the main meeting.

The Liberal leader was preceded by Hon. Frank Oliver, Liberal candidate in West Edmonton, who declared that the return of the Liberals in 1896 brought prosperity and would do so again. Canada had become a nation during the fifteen years of Liberal rule, and a return to Liberalism meant renewed prosperity.

Mr. Oliver referred to his own se vice during the Laurier regime, and declared he was in the field to con-tinue those efforts. Mr. Oliver believed that the principles of Liberalism applied in Canada by Mr. King would bring about the same good results as they had brought during the Laurier regime, when the whole Dominion had been affected.

People Walt in Vain.

Mr. King, in his address, declared the people had waited in valn for the present Government to institute some helpful policies. Mr. King paid a tribute to the work in Parliament of Mr. Oliver, and declared that no man had served Western Canada better. The Liberal leader referred to diffi-culties facing Western Canada, and said the ablest and best men in Canada were needed in Parliament.

Mr. King dealt with the matter of the issue. The "protection plank," he de-clared, was a rotten one. It was ten rears since Canadians had voted on domestic affairs, and a new electorate had grown up since that time. The WINDSOR, Nov. 14.—A nameless little walf, less than three months old, was laid in her grave at Windsor Grove Cemetery this afternoon. The little girl, deserted by her parents on a Windsor ferry nearly two months age was buried at the expense of the city. A simple service was conducted beside the grave by Very Rev. Her parents, whose identity the authorities of the Border Cities and Detroit have been trying to learn for many weeks, were not, as far as is known, present at the services, which were attended by a considerable number of spectators and several newspapermen.

Finance Minister May Quit Now Meighen "Magic" Was Unavailing.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. Carleton County Conservatives' refusal to be longer taken numerous raids, dispersing bands made a refuge for seatless statesmen from outside has created considerable consternation in government circles. That the nomination of Sir Henry Drayton was taken for granted is indicated by the fact that Sir Henry had taken with him a portfolio containing his best speech, which he proposed to utter at a meeting in the evening. Sir Henry apparently believed that all ne had to do to secure unanimous choice was to mention the fact that "Arthur Meighen" had sent him. But neither the name of the present nor of the past premier, Sir Rober

Borden, worked any magic upon this traditionally Tory seat. The fact that Sir Robert Borden had once found sanctuary in the county was recalled by George Boyce and Rev. Mr. Steacy. It was also recalled, however, that he had forgotten the county as oon as elected, and by this action in 1915 in reading W. F. Garland out of the party had disfranchised the county

As for Sir Henry, he did not manage to finish out the ten minutes allotted him but gave up in disgust, telling the convention to fight it out among themselves, and that he was out of the running. The incident is probably without parallel in Canadian political history. Where Sir Henry, the tariff-maker f a government which claims the tariff to be the only issue, will now find a seat is problematical. The rumor, however, is again made that ne will be government candidate in Ottawa.

A. E. Fripp, ex-M.P., had at the outset decided not to run but at the last moment was given the convention here. The Ottawa Journal, arden supported of the Government, has, however, not an encouraging word to offer Mr. Fripp during the campaign. and but seldom mentions his name editorially. This fact lends color to the persistent rumor of a change in favor of Sir Henry.

Lest He Forget.

When Hon. Hugh Guthrie, now rainister of militia, speaks of the efficiency of the Government he now supports, it is to be hoped that he remembers how the Tory machine tried to shove Lieut. Col. A. T. Kelly-Evans off on South Wellington riding.

The Tory machine sent him in there on a late train for the 1911 contest, and he made a good showing against Guthrie. After the defeat he was trained by the Guelph Conservatives for the next contest.

When the war broke he was again brought back, this time with a soldier suit on, and an attempt made to put him in as head of the Wellington County Battalion, a position for which he had no qualifications. It was Conservative politics pure and simple, and Kelly-Evans was being trained and groomed to thrash Hon. Hugh Guthrie.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie might explain this incident in some of his South Wellington addresses.

Canadian Goods.

Why is it that so many Canadian shops, in the steel and metal working industries, purchase their own equipment from American makers?

The Canadian manufacturer believes it is an excellent thing for finished with some of the prelim-Canadian consumers to buy Cana- inaries in connection with the arms aian-made goods.

So why is it that these shops, when in need of metal-working machinery, do not call up every time such firms as the Canada Machinery Corporation, the MacDougall people, or the Perfect Machinery Company in Galt, the John Bertram Company in Dundas, or the Ford-Smith Company in Hamilton

These places could give them a very wide range of metal-working tools, such as lahes of all sizes, milling machines, grinders, planers, boring and drilling machines.

Yet, what do we find? Go into all the leading plants in the country, look at the name-plates, and you find the name of Brown & Sharpe, Kerney & Tricker, Cincinnati Milling Machine Company, Warner & Swayze, Gishalt, and a string a yard or so long-all made in United States.

The makers of machine tools in Canada are protected by a tariff, but they do not hold the Canadian Canadian manufacturers, turning out products for the Canadian trade, are not using Canadianmade tools to carry on their work. if these Canadian machine tool plants were getting the business that comes from the Canadian field, they would all be busy today.

There is a chance here for the Canadian manufacturers to start a ssionary work right at home before they carry such heavilyworded messages to the Canadian consumer on the sacred privilege of pending Canadian dollars in Canadian plants.

Twelve men will serve on each of the two teams. Four will wield the foil, four the saber, and four the rapler.

Major F. W. Honeycutt, captain of the American team, denies that fencing is dying out as a sport.

"It's true that the sword is used hardly at all in warfare," he says, "and even the cavalry has abandoned its traditional saber as a weapon. But that hasn't killed fencing.

"Nowadays fencing has become purely a sport, like buseball and football, instead of real training for combat as it used to be in the days of duelling and hand-to-hand warfare."

REPORTS ONTARIO ROOT CROPS GOOD

The Agricultural Department Finds Help Plentiful, But Pay Low.

Toronto, Nov. 14.-Following is a immary of reports made by the district agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture. The root crops are practically all in and are giving fair satisfaction, with the exception of turnips, which in many parts of the province are affected with

Potatoes are bringing from $1.75 to $2 a big. Huron says that while some farmers have good yields, others did ot get their seed. Halton reports apple sales at from $5 to $6 a barrel for No. 1 to $4 for

Hay is selling at about $20 a ton in Western Ontario, and from $30 to $35 a ton in some of the eastern districts. Grain is moving rather slowly outward, but some western oats are ling brought in at 65 cents a bushel. Prescott and Russell report: have so far from 600 to 700 acres of clover, which will be threshed by one outfit at $3 per ten pounds of clean

Norfolk observes that a good deal o nursery stock is being purchased for spring planting, but farmers think the prices are too high. While some are through with fall plowing, fully 20 per cent of the work yet remains to be orn fields for the purpose of destroy.

ng the ear worm.

Fall wheat has gone ahead so rapidin some parts of Manitoulin that sev eral farmers have been pasturing the fields in order to keep the growth in check. Farm help has been more plentiful this season than for many seasons, and wages for winter work are lower than for years. Manitoulin says that five carloads of cattle and three of sheep were shipped from the island recently, most of them n good condition. Halton is of the opinion that the mar-eting of live stock is fairly heavy in srite of the decline in prices.

Elgin says that some pure bred cattle are selling at but little above beef prices. At a recent sale of good grade Holstein cows in Waterloo County prices ranged at from $75 to $100. Glengarry states that farmers are selling all surplus live stock, and the poorer milking cows, and that fair

Synopsis of Western OPPOSES BAIL FOR MAN UNDER ARREST

Harry Herman, Toronto, Remanded on Robbery Charge in Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Nov. 14 .- Harry Herma of Toronto, arrested here on Saturday night after a spectacular chase and accused of being one of the men who slugged Audley Murden, a storekeeper, over the head with a revolver when he refused to permit the store to be robbed, was remanded today. Louis Mandel, alleged to be the second man in the case, it will be recalled, is under arrest in Toronto. Morden was unable to attend court today and the case was adjourned.
C. W. Bell, defending Herman,

The conclusion of Mr. Beck's speech was marked by a passing storm. There were reports common before the meeting that on account of his views he is alleged to have held during the war a number of local returned men would prevent Mr. Beck from speaking. As Mr. Beck sat down, Charles Hefferon, president of the Dunnville Great War Veterans' Association, rose and declared he had come to the meeting to "meet" Mr. Beck.

There was an uproar of appeal for "Order" and shouts of "Go on, Charlle." Mr. Hefferon was still on his feet when a lady speaker stepped into the breach, began her speech, and the incident had passed. former trouble remains .-- Advt.
