OFFER ACCEPTED WITH THANKS

Canada will Contribute Another Mounted Force to South Africa.

Message From Chamberlain Expressing Imperial Government's Gratitude.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The following cablegram was received by His Excellency the Governor-General today:—

"Lord Minto, Ottawa.—Referring to your telegram of November 21, Imperial Government gratefully accepts the offer of a corps, consisting of not less than 600 men, to be raised on the following lines:—

"First—Men to be able to ride and shoot.

"Secondly—Imperial Yeomanry rate of pay to be accepted, namely, cavalry rates to date of embarkation, and Yeomanry rates subsequently.

"Thirdly—Canadian Government to provide horses, saddlery, uniforms, boots, etc., on payment. The Imperial Government to provide arms.

"Fourthly—Officers to be nominated by Canadian Government, and their names submitted to commander-in-chief for approval of the Secretary of State for War.

"Fifthly—Medical conditions to be as for Imperial Yeomanry.

"Sixthly—Preference to be given to men who have had previous service in South Africa, and to single men. Married men and widowers with children to be accepted provided that they understand that no separation allowance will be issued.

"Telegraph as soon as possible whether scheme as outlined above meets with approval of your Ministers. (Signed) Chamberlain."

THE SCHEME SATISFACTORY.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The scheme outlined by Mr. Chamberlain in his despatch to the Canadian Government regarding the mounted corps, has been found satisfactory to the Canadian Government and a reply has been sent the Colonial Secretary to this effect.

In the meantime, Col. T. B. Evans has been telegraphed to at Winnipeg to come on at once to Ottawa, presumably to consult with the Minister of Militia respecting the selection of officers, the work of recruiting, outfitting, mobilization and so forth.

The Militia Department would be glad to have it generally known that it is useless for applications to serve in the regiment to be sent to the department. All applicants should address to the district officer commanding the district to which they belong, and thus save time. Numerous applications are coming in by every mail, and nothing can be done with them at the department, except to refer them to the proper quarters, and it has been found necessary in view of the heavy correspondence to confine replies merely to acknowledgments of letters received, and this only in the case of officers.

PARIS TRAGEDY

Wronged Husband Shoots His Faithless Wife and her Lover in a Public Street.

Paris, Nov. 26.—A tragedy characteristically Parisian was committed in the heart of Paris to-day. At the corner of the Boulevard des Capucines and the Place de l'Opera a husband shot his faithless wife and her lover in full view of hundreds of people. The opera square was filled with promenaders at lunch time when a cab drove across the square, followed by a man running. A policeman, who was regulating traffic, stopped the cab in front of the cafe de la Paix, enabling the pursuer to overtake it, when the man drew a revolver, thrust it through a window of the vehicle and fired twice, killing the woman, who was inside. Her lover opened the other door and tried to flee, but the husband sprang after him and blew out his brains before anyone could interfere. Then the husband approached the policeman, handed him the weapon and surrendered.

A robber shot and killed J. Asling, Man.

A freight wreck on the C. P. R. near Cross Lake delayed traffic about eight hours.

It is reported that the switchmen's strike ordered at Pittsburg yesterday is a flat failure.

Arch. McDonald was struck by a locomotive at Sault Ste. Marie and probably fatally injured.

George James was run over while trying to cross under a train at Stratford. His leg was cut off.

Ice blocked the street railway powerhouse pipe at Ottawa. As a result the city was in darkness for a time, and the street-car service was demoralized.

Thanksgiving Day.

Gather the pumpkins and make the pie. And bring in a turkey of monstrous size. Cook it and dress it and bring it in brown. Put on your best bib and tucker and gown.

Thanksgiving Day is the time for me. Such dinners we have a right to see. So gather the pumpkins and make the pie. Thanksgiving dinner is just my size. —Jean C. Hayes.

ALLEGED PLOT IN THE YUKON

That Serious Trouble out there is Imminent Canadian Officials Admit.

Three of Them on Their Way to Ottawa for help to put down the Threatened Rebellion.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Overland through Alaska to the sea, by water to Seattle, and through the United States on their way to Ottawa, officials of the Yukon are hurrying to plead at the Canadian capital for help to put down the rebellion threatened by members of the Order of the Midnight Sun. Three of these officials have arrived at Chicago, and others are on the way. That serious trouble is imminent in the far north-west is candidly admitted by three members of the Yukon Department of Public Works who are in consultation at the Palmer House with local capitalists who have interests in that country. The men are D. McR. Minard, accountant; J. C. Tache, resident engineer, and P. E. Mercier, assistant engineer. President H. S. Graves, of the White Pass & Yukon Railroad Company, was among those who linked over the situation with the Yukon officials. The White Pass & Yukon Railway is owned largely by American capital, its main office being in Chicago. A determined, united effort by a band of at least 1,500 men, who have been laying plans for nearly a year, is the plot as described by the officials, to establish an independent government. Seven of the men are Americans, and they have grievances, and the ability to set them forth in convincing style. They believe they have power to secure by force the rights which they declare have been denied them. Governor-General Minto of Canada is to be asked to send troops to the scene, and at least to double the Mounted Police.

Mr. Minard, the leader of the party of officials, said: "We expect to proceed to Ottawa at once, and will have a consultation with the Government authorities about conditions in the Territory. This trouble may assume an international phase, because so many members of the secret military order are Americans, and we cannot try them for treason. The Mounted Police have always been competent heretofore to take care of all disorderly characters in the Territory, but this affair is of too serious a nature to be handled by police. Arms and ammunition, we are told, have been secreted in great quantities. Provisions have been holed at various strategic points this side of White Horse, which is the railway terminus, and beyond. Dawson was to be the capital of the republic. The conspirators depended on aid from Americans throughout Alaska, and circulated copies of grievances, with the grand seal of the organization, in White Horse, Dawson, Skagway, Hootalinqua and Circle City. Skagway is in American territory."

Kingston Council has adopted a by-law authorizing the use of voting machines at the coming municipal elections.

A special train carrying 250 artillerymen and 25 Royal Engineers, bound for Esquimaux, where they will do garrison duty, passed North Bay on the C. P. R. yesterday.

DOING MUCH GOOD WORK

Annual Meeting of the Kent Children's Aid Society.

D. S. Paterson Chosen President—Services of Dr. Bray Satisfactorily Acknowledged.

The annual meeting of the Kent Children's Aid Society was held last evening in the Sunday school room of Christ Church, with Hugh Macaulay in the presidential chair, in place of Rev. Mr. Sims, who has left the city. After the opening prayer by Rev. Rural Dean McCosh, chairman Macaulay gave an address. Misses McLean and Taylor gave one of their excellent instrumental duets.

The report of the Executive Officer was then read. It was as follows:—

Chatham, Nov. 26, 1901.
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I beg to submit for your consideration my report as executive officer of the Kent Children's Aid Society for the year ending Dec. 31, 1901. I am sorry to say that the amount of work done was not as great as last year, and still I am glad, because I believe the influence of the society has had a tendency to make people feel that if they do not deal kindly with their children, they will be taken from them, and they themselves perhaps punished, as the law allows and directs. I have tried to investigate all the matters brought to my notice, and trusts that the action taken, and the advice given, will alike prove to have been in the best interests of the children, and the work expected of the society.

LETTERS.
During the year I have written 131 letters in connection with the work, asking assistance in placing children, replying to enquiries for children, collecting evidence on which to act in taking children before the judge, tracing children who have run away, etc. I advocated last year a system of monthly reports, from society to society, but the scheme was never put in operation. I think, however, that the time will come when such a system will be adopted.

VISITS.
In connection with the work I have made 75 visits investigating complaints, securing evidence, consulting the solicitor, appearing before the judge, tracing runaway children, etc. Many miles have been travelled and a large amount of time consumed in this branch of the work.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS.
During the year there were in the police court, 21 boys—charged with stealing, disturbing private citizens, ill-treating smaller boys than themselves, etc. Of the 21 seven were fined, four were dismissed with a warning, seven are out on suspended sentence, two were given a short sentence of eight hours in the cells, and one was sent to the reformatory. In some of these cases the assistance of the Executive Officer was proffered, but refused; while in others the boys were grateful for the assistance given. I generally had a quiet talk with the offenders, pointing out to them the disgrace they were bringing upon themselves and their relatives, and trying to show them how to live right Christian lives.

ANOMALY OF A MOURNFUL TYPE

Laurier's Hob-nobbing With Redmond Party Puzzles London Journals.

Cannot Understand Statesmen Sitting with Men Who Prayed for Success of Boers.

London, Nov. 26.—Commenting on the despatch, which appeared in several London papers recently, to the effect that the Canadian Premier and other public men had been present at a luncheon given to John Redmond and his co-Nationalists by the Irish societies of Ottawa, the Globe to-day says: "It is with great regret that we read of the presence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and two of his colleagues at a luncheon given to the Irish delegates in Ottawa. The appearance at the same table of the patriot statesman who organized successive contingents of loyal Canadians for active service in South Africa with an Irishman who has publicly prayed that heaven might bring success to the Boers, is an anomaly of a mournful type. The blood of these Canadians who fell at Paardeberg and on fifty other stricken fields cries out against such a meeting, and if it be true that the vice-regal comptroller of the household, Earl Minto's aide-de-camp, were present at a subsequent demonstration, official notice must be taken of it."

The St. James' Gazette says: "We should have thought John Redmond's attitude on the war would have saved us from such an extraordinary spectacle, but whatever Canadian ministers might do, it is absolutely unintelligible that officials of the government's household should be allowed to associate themselves with the open enemies of England."

THE FALSE CREED CRY.

The local Liberal organ published a rather remarkable article yesterday, alleging that the Liberal-Conservative of East Kent "rejected" the candidature of Mr. P. H. Bowyer at their convention in Ridgeway "because his religious belief did not coincide with that of a majority of the delegates."

That the Banner-News possessed in an especial degree the confidence of the delegates is, at least, somewhat problematical, and the matter might be passed over unnoticed were it not for the serious imputations preferred against a body of gentlemen, numbering many of Kent's best, most liberal-minded and sterling citizens.

The charge that Mr. Bowyer was "knifed" by his party men "who are inclined to be intolerant," on account of his religious convictions is, however, made unusually ridiculous when it is considered that the gentlemen against whom it is aimed number many of those stalwart campaigners who did such yeoman service for the Dominion parliamentary candidature of Mr. James Clancy, and were largely instrumental in enabling that gentleman to wrest the seat from Hon. David Mills, who had graced it since Confederation, and to hold it at the last contest against Mr. David Gordon.

We regret to see the local Liberal organ dragging the question of creed into politics. We feel assured this would not have been done but for the stinging contrast—which most really have hurt our friends, the enemy, even more than we had imagined—between the unanimity and enthusiasm of the great gathering of East Kent Conservatives and the disgruntled, dissatisfied and disappointing machine-manipulated convention of East Kent Liberals. But even this natural chagrin surely cannot justify the tactics resorted to.

The proceedings of the Liberal-Conservative gathering speak most strongly and eloquently for themselves. Had our contemporary displayed sufficient enterprise to be represented there it would have seen them for itself.

What Mr. Bowyer has done for Liberal-Conservatism in his riding cannot easily be estimated. He has been in truth the "very life blood of the party," and The Planet knows of no honor that could be bestowed upon him which he does not more than deserve. But Mr. Bowyer did not seek the nomination. It was only upon the most ceaseless and energetic urging that he consented to allow his name to be submitted. His words to the delegates prior to the vote evidenced his position, the report of which was as follows:—

Proceeding, he (Mr. Bowyer) paid high eulogy to the sterling personality of the late Robert Ferguson, and added, "Candidly, I have no great desire for this nomination. Personally I don't wish it, but if it is deemed that I can serve my friends and our party, if the nomination is given to me I will do the best I can. If I am not nominated I will heartily support whoever the choice may fall upon."—Applause.

Within a second after the announcement of the vote, which made Mr. Davidson the choice by a mere majority, Mr. Bowyer was upon his feet moving that the nomination be made unanimous, and a moment later he was heartily leading the enthusiastic cheers that greeted Mr. Davidson.

This is the most emphatic answer to the Banner's imputations of discord and dissension.

And everyone who has the privilege of acquaintanceship with Philip H. Bowyer, of Ridgeway, knows that whatever he does is done "with his whole heart."

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.
It makes life miserable.
Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Pianagan, Kt., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

ROSS AND PROHIBITION.

The politician who tries to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds sooner or later pays the penalty of his efforts, comments the Ottawa Citizen. Hon. G. W. Ross is a shining example. While trying to keep the liquor men in line by numbered ballot bullying and cajolery, he has been posing before the temperance people as a prohibition sympathizer whose zeal for the cause has only been curbed by the unsatisfactory and indecisive character of the law which would enable him to put his cherished principles into the concrete form of restrictive legislation "to the utmost power conferred upon him by the law" when the extent of that power was discovered.

The extent of that power has been discovered by the decision of the British Privy Council on the Manitoba act. It has been discovered at a very inopportune time for Hon. Mr. Ross. An election is pending, but there is yet another session of the legislature before dissolution which will enable the temperance people to put the bona fides of Mr. Ross' promises to the test. Probably Mr. Ross is sorry now that he strained the constitution so as to provide a "death-bed" session of the legislature, but it is too late for regrets.

Already the Liberal party organs are beginning to make excuse. The London News says—

The Conservative papers have set up a shout now because they believe that they have Mr. Ross in a trap. They call attention to the fact that Mr. Ross is on record as having promised prohibition if possible, and as much of a prohibitory law as possible. Now will be, on the very eve of an election, fulfill this promise and pass a prohibitory law!

It is hardly likely that he will.

Few people will deny that through prohibition, with the law strictly enforced, and with no person inclined to break that law, is the ideal state for any province. It must be pointed out, however, that such a form of prohibition is as yet unknown. It must also be said that such a condition would be impossible unless the people were by a large majority not only desirous of prohibition, but positively bent on enforcing it. Are the people of Ontario in such a frame of mind? It is difficult to say, and it cannot, we believe, be learned until another vote is taken.

These are a few things Hon. Mr. Ross should have thought of before he made his promises, unless he proposes to stand revealed as a hypocrite and a trimmer. There was no qualification in his promise except as to the definition of his power. That power has been defined. Mr. Ross knew the feeling in Ontario on the subject. He had had two plebiscites to guide him. He made a bid for the support of the temperance vote by making a pledge, and the possibilities of the result of the privy council decision in the Manitoba case were before him. He was either sincere in his promise or he was in the position of a political gambler staking his political life on the probability of the Manitoba act being knocked out. And he has lost. It is up to him to carry out his promise or stand confessed as a trader on pledges intended to be unscrupulously ignored. All this special pleading that Ontario is or is not ripe for prohibition is beside the question. When Mr. Ross made the promise, if he was sincere in making that promise, he evidently believed that Ontario was ripe for any measure of prohibition "which the law would enable him to enact." The law has now been defined and it is too late for him to plead unpopularity of public opinion or any other subterfuge if he desires to maintain his pose as a pure-souled, high-minded statesman. If he doesn't he will drop back into the ordinary fakir class of peasant politicians.

For four days the Toronto Globe has preserved discreet editorial silence regarding the Privy Council's decision in the Manitoba case. Looks as if the Government's organ is struck dumb.

Editor Ho-ken, of the Toronto News, has withdrawn his charges against the Toronto police. He made the accusation that police officials "stood in" with the keepers of gambling houses and afforded them protection. Given an opportunity to prove his charges, he failed to do so, and pleaded as an excuse that his informants—reputable lawyers and merchants—could not afford to come forward as witnesses. We think the editor of the News did not exercise his usual good judgment in basing specific charges upon information furnished by citizens, however reputable they might be, who refuse to accept responsibility for their statements. Citizens of that sort are very common, and every newspaper man has experience with them. No public officials—and, in fact, nobody—should be charged with a grave offense unless the charge can be sustained by sworn testimony, if necessary.

HOPING AGAINST HOPE.

Ottawa Free Press.
Perhaps the privy council will find it necessary to modify its judgment in the Manitoba liquor act. It found it necessary to do so in connection with the Manitoba schools act.

ANOTHER JOB FOR HIM.

Ottawa Citizen.
If Premier Ross decides to keep his promise to the temperance people and introduce a measure of prohibition "to the extent of the power conferred on him by the law" the artist who drew the "scrap iron" amendment will likely have his peculiar ingenuity put to a severe test.

UP AGAINST IT.

Toronto World.
The decision of the privy council, confirming the province of Manitoba in its right to deal with prohibition, will bring the politicians down to hard pan. It will compel them to disclose their hand and to show their bona fides. They are now squarely up against the issue. It will be no longer possible for them to sidetrack the temperance people, because of alleged legal ambiguities as to where the jurisdiction lies. There can be no more beating about the bush. The politicians are up against it real hard, and particularly Hon. G. W. Ross.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.
Montreal, Nov. 25.—There were about 800 head of butchers' cattle, 30 calves and 1,000 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir today. The butchers were slow in coming out, and trade was rather dull, with the price about the same as on Thursday, quality reckoned. A pair of prime large steers were bought for shipment to Britain at 43-8c per lb., but very few of the others brought over 4c per lb. and from that down to 3 1/4-4c for pretty good cattle. Common stock were difficult to sell and brought from 2 1/2-3c per lb.; the canners paid from 1 1/2-2c, for cows and small bulls. The calves were rather a poor lot and sold at from $3 to $8 each. Sheep sold at from 2 1/2-3c a little over 3c per lb. and the lambs at from 3c to 3 3/4-4c per lb. Fat hogs sold at about 5 3/4-6c per lb. weighed.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WEAKNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man and woman, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. Guelph, Nov. 25.—Led on by the glare of the footlights and a desire to obtain money to go on the stage, Homer R. Harris, a farmer, of Holyrood, Bruce County, was arrested today at Palmerston by Inspector Joseph Rogers on a charge of attempting to purchase counterfeit money. Harris was brought to Guelph and given a preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Saunders, who committed him for trial. He elected to be tried summarily, and was taken before County Judge Chadwick. The prisoner pleaded guilty and will be sentenced in the course of a few days.

The events leading up to the arrest and conviction of Harris are interesting. Some time in July of this year Inspector Rogers received a letter from a man named Homer R. Harris, of Holyrood, Bruce County, wanting "to get terms." The letter was addressed to J. F. Rogers, Game Warden, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mr. Rogers replied asking for particulars, and received a second letter from Harris, in which the writer stated that he had been recommended to write to Mr. Rogers "for to put him on to the way to get rich quick." Mr. Rogers answered all the letters, and a vigorous correspondence was kept up during the summer. Harris sent a dollar, asking for samples of the counterfeit money, and Inspector Rogers sent clippings of a counterfeit one and a two-dollar bill. Harris replied that the bills would have looked better if they had not been clipped.

Harris subsequently wrote, enclosing $10, and wanted five and ten-dollar bills to do the same. He went on to say that he could raise $125, and after he got a start he would be a good customer. After further correspondence an appointment was made for a meeting at a hotel in Palmerston yesterday. The understanding being that Harris should go to Rogers' rooms, and the production of the letters which passed would be the means whereby each could identify the other.

This morning Inspector Rogers and Grear arrived in Palmerston about noon from Toronto. Mr. Grear went to the room, after they had registered at the hotel. He had in his possession the letters written by Harris. Inspector Rogers waited in the office a few minutes, and his attention was presently attracted to a young man apparently about twenty-four years of age. He was clean shaven, had long dark curly hair, and was neatly dressed in black clothes, and wore a white tie. The new-comer sauntered carelessly to the register, and took down a white hanging there, apparently to brush his clothes, but glancing at the register. He evidently found the name, and in a few minutes went to the room. Inspector Rogers followed soon afterwards, and arrested both Inspector Grear and Harris. He took possession of the letters, and found on searching Harris that he had in his possession $121 of good money. He had wanted to purchase about $400 of counterfeit for this money, buying at the rate of $30 for $100 of the "queer."

Inspector Rogers was seen after the preliminary hearing, and said that Harris had admitted his guilt, and that he did not want a lawyer to defend him. Harris was asked what he wanted the money for, and replied that he had worked on the farm all his life with his father. He didn't like it, and never had. He had a good voice, and sang in the Methodist choir at Ripley. In fact, he had taken a most active part in the anniversary services held there on Sunday last. He was anxious to get money to train his voice, and wanted to go on the stage. He knew no easier way to make it. He had worked hard all summer, from early morning till late at night, drawing milk to the factory and drudging on the farm. He had raked and saved the $121 in order to purchase this counterfeit money. He wanted large bills in order to get a quicker return.

Harris never suspected Grear during the whole interview, and was stunned when arrested. The following typewritten letter, which was received by Harris, led him to communicate with Inspector Rogers:

"Will tell you what to do. Address a letter to J. F. Rogers, Game Warden, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Tell him what you wish, and that he is recommended from me here as a good party. What he will do for you, I don't know. Can find that out for yourself."

Inspector Rogers said that this letter had been received by Harris from G. L. Collins, who had been arrested last fall in Fort Erie for issuing circular letters advertising counterfeit money. Collins was convicted at Fort Erie and sentenced to eighteen months. He appealed, and was released on a technicality after serving six months. Mr. Rogers thought that Collins had taken this method of getting square with him, and thought he would cause the inspector some trouble. Collins returned to Brookfield, N. Y., and had evidently had some correspondence with Harris. The inspector said he had received probably forty such letters like the above from different parts of the States. He

Pretty

Is an adjective which seems to have become monopolized by the young lady at the typewriter. It is astonishing what an array of beautiful women are found in stores and offices.

In fact, the typical American beauty will be found sitting at the typewriter rather than loitering in a carriage in the park.

And yet this pretty young girl needs always to be reminded that "beauty is only skin deep," unless it roots in health. When the health is undermined by womanly diseases, the luster soon passes from the eyes, the cheeks grow thin, the body loses its plumpness.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures diseases which weaken women and which destroy their strength and beauty. It establishes regularity, stops weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prolapsus and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "Glad I have not needed it for a long time, but if I should ever have any return of the old trouble would surely try 'Favorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case it has spoken in praise of it."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure sick headache.

I felt sorry for Harris, but it was necessary to have an example made of parties who were too willing to handle the "queer" and obtain money so easily.

"I tell you, golf is going to be the salvation of the nation. It is going to make athletic men and women out of our puny offspring and lengthen our days by decades."

"But our ancestors didn't go in for golf."

"And where are they now? Dead! All dead!"

Have the Board of Works cemented the friendship of the bricks in the King street pavement?

"Hand-picked fruit" is what Revivalist McHardy designates the respectable people who join churches in other than revival times. Presumably his converts are wind-falls.

Ald. Mounteer has a good idea. It concerns the improvement of the roads leading into the Maple City. You will have a hard row to hoe, Ald. Mounteer, in securing the adoption of your idea, but keep to the work and you will have some roads in Chatham that will be hard to hoe.

Does it occur to you that the signs the Board of Health have put up reading "Don't spit on the Sidewalk," aren't half large enough. Some people wouldn't see them if they were as big as the street with letters the size of the buildings. The bigger the better, but small ones are better than none. The signs are neat and readable.

John Milton Pike met with an experience recently. While passing the Garner Hotel, a sparrow didn't see the big barriers, and flew into his face striking the brim of his Derby. Mr. Pike's hair has since stood straight. He now believes that a bird in the bush is worth half a dozen flying in your face.

The school board next year will see some changes. Chairman J. A. Wilson and Andrew Thomson had sufficient of educational honors and will retire. J. E. Johnston has left the city. The vacancies will be contested. There seems to be some degree of satisfaction at the work of trustees Dr. McKeough and William Robertson for neither are opposed. The school board has indeed been an efficient one, and has made the honor of membership so much envied that the vacancies are being eagerly contested.

In No. 2 Ward, W. H. Benson and L. E. Tillson will be the candidates.

The Turk.—That gezer was a mutto head who said violent exercise short and one's life.

In No. 4 Ward, W. F. Cornish and Joseph Kenny are lined on opposing sides and are prosecuting an eager canvass. In No. 5 Ward, the outlook is for a contest between S. B. Arnold and Geo. S. Heyward. Both are good men but it would be better if but one there to run as then the candidate would have his whole force to hurl against any third candidate who might appear upon the field. While these rumblings of contest are heard from Wards 2, 4 and 5, trustees Dr. R. V. Bray, W. N. Morley, John McCordie, R. M. Paxton and W. E. Campbell sit calmly viewing the contest from afar, with their commissions to trusteeship reposing in their inside pockets.

WEDDED AT MERLIN

Pretty Ceremony by Which Miss Maggie Hickey and Gordon Borrowman were United.

A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday at Merlin, when Miss Maggie Hickey, youngest daughter of William Hickey, was united in marriage to Gordon Smith Borrowman, only son of James Borrowman, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Mullan, at Merlin. Miss Barrie, of Fletcher, was the bridesmaid, and Joseph Hickey, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Little Pauline Connolly, niece of the bride, was maid of honor.

After the marriage service, an excellent repast was served at the residence of Mrs. Jno. Stevens by the large number of guests were present, all the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Borrowman were driven to Chatham and they took the 5 p. m. G. T. R. express for Toronto and other eastern points. On their return they will reside in Amherstburg.

Mr. Borrowman is well and favorably known in this city. He served his apprenticeship in the Central Drug Store, and afterwards conducted the Merlin Drug Store. His many friends in this city unite in wishing him prosperity in his new life.

Just

W. H. Seymour, of Ann Arbor, side-walk contractor, who has been in the city putting down walks for some time, left to-day for his home.

URSO CONCERT.

Mrs. Inez Mars on, the soprano with the Urso Concert Co., has received the very highest eulogiums from the press and critics of America. Do not fail to hear her. Reserved seats plan now open at the Central Drug Store. L. O. O. F. Auditorium, Nov. 29th.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

Before Judge Houston in the County Court this morning the trial of Tom Taylor and Duncan Macdonald, charged with trespassing on the premises of the Joy Club, was resumed. Evidence was given by Sam Holmes, Milton Pritchard, George Kime, Mr. Alexander and P. D. Mackellar. Judge Houston reserved judgment for a week.

The ownership of the land is the chief point of dispute. The place where Taylor and Macdonald were shooting is near the line between lots seven and eight, or where lot seven would be if the water in Patrick's cove dried up. The points on which Judge Houston reserved his decision was as to whether if the point jutting out into the water is a part of lot seven or does it belong to Col. Sam. Holmes, having formed on his land. J. G. Kerr appeared on behalf of the owner of the Joy Club.

MR. PARK INTERESTED.

"That was an awful catastrophe in Detroit yesterday," said Archie Park to The Planet this morning, "one of the most frightful things imaginable. It must have been awful to have been entombed under those walls waiting to die by the flames."

"Mr. Johnston, manager of the firm, is a particular friend of mine, having done business with him for some time. The inventor of the Plumber's injector was John Desmond, who was raised near Northwood or Kent Bridge."

"The first Plumber's injector ever sold in Canada was sold to us and we have handled them ever since. I think I will go down to see the wreck to-morrow," he concluded.

King Buffalo is a high class cigar, that is sold for five cents at all leading cigar stores and by druggists.

DUNN & MERRITT.

THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL RY.

Many people unacquainted with the geography of the west imagine that because the names "Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul" are used in the corporate title of the railway owning the line between Chicago and Omaha they must go via the cities of Milwaukee and St. Paul to reach their destination—and if it be Omaha or west thereof, this is a mistaken idea. On a map the line running directly east and west would look like this:

Omaha—Chicago.

There is nothing more simple than that, and it is less than 500 miles between Chicago and Omaha. Two through trains daily in each direction with the best sleeping car and dining car service, and all regular travellers know and appreciate the merits of the Chicago & St. Paul Railway's short line between the East and the West.

Time tables, maps and information furnished on application to A. J. Taylor, Canadian Passenger Agent, 8 King Street, East, Toronto.

CHILLED to the Bone! A teaspoonful of Pain-Killer in a cup of hot water sweetened will do you ten times more good than rum or whiskey. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis. 25c. and 50c.

NEW FACTORY

Mayor Sulman Actively Engaged in Courting Industries for Maple City.

Mayor G. W. Sulman, who is ever on the lookout for factories seeking a location, is now in communication with an American firm who are looking for a place to locate their factory.

The Mayor, on first hearing of their intention to establish a factory wrote at once to the manager and received a most gratifying reply. They are anxious to establish their business in Canada and the inducements held out by Mayor Sulman were perfectly satisfactory.

This factory will employ about 750 operators, mainly women and girls. They promise that during the first year they will employ 150 hands at splendid wages.

They have been manufacturing chiefly cuffs and collars, but they intend to also manufacture shirts. It is a business which is bound to grow and the concessions asked of the city by the company are comparatively light. They will capitalize at a stock of $100,000.

It is a firm of national reputation and Mr. Sulman is doing all in his power to secure it for Chatham.

CAPITAL CONCERT.

A concert was held at Greenbush, in Raleigh township last evening in benefit of a farmer's son, who had his arm taken off in a corn husker. The concert was a decided success. The Irish sketch by Wrigley and Poole was loudly applauded and several encores were registered against them. The program was as follows:

Chairman's address—Rev. Mr. Walker, Merlin.

Quartet—Miss Boothroyd, Mrs. Hea, Mr. Aldis and Mr. Hea.

Irish Sketch—Poole and Wrigley. Recitation—Miss Ritchie.

Vocal Solo—Mr. Hea. Address—Rev. Mr. Scott.

Irish Sketch—Poole and Wrigley. Solo Mr. Hea.

Recitation—Miss Ritchie. Solo—Mr. Aldis.

God Save the King. After the concert those who took part were given a supper by Mr. Fields.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Already new aspirants have entered the field for aldermanic honors. It is reported on the street to-day that the latest entries have been made by J. W. Humphrey, G. G. Martin, and Samuel Bullis, of the Chatham Binder Twine Co.

It is said that Mr. Humphrey believes that the present council should be changed entirely and that that body should be made up entirely of business men who are in a position to understand the city's needs.

Geo. G. Martin, it is understood, has not yet announced his platform, but it is thought that he will not be behind the rest and will make a good run.

Mr. Bullis, being connected with connected with one of Chatham's big industries, it is thought will also pull a good vote.

There are numerous other gentlemen who are being pressed by their friends to stand the contest, but as far as heard from, no others have openly announced their intention to run.

THE SCOTTISH CONCERT.

The success of the Jessie Macdonald concert seems to be positively assured and a large and fashionable audience will greet the celebrated "Queen of Scottish Song" on her appearance here on the 6th prox. This is very gratifying to the Sons of Scotland, not only from a financial standpoint, but as well because of the enthusiastic reception this artist has been receiving wherever she goes. At Massey Hall, Toronto, recently, the house was filled and the doors had to be closed three-quarters of an hour before the commencement of the program. At Montreal and other Canadian cities, and in Brooklyn, New York, Boston, and other American cities, she has been recording similar triumphs and the critics agree that she is in splendid form. A feature of the program here will be a double number of two Gaelic songs, to which she plays her own accompaniment on the Clarsach, the Highland harp so celebrated by Sir Walter Scott in many of his poems and novels. A sweet toned instrument to which the ancient bards sang their folk songs. Mr. Harry M. Bonnell, Toronto's most popular humorist, is also on the program for four numbers. The program, while largely devoted to Scottish tastes, will be sufficiently varied to afford the keenest pleasure to all and the concert bids fair to be quite the musical event of the season.

The residents of Duke street were rudely aroused from their peaceful slumbers last Monday, early in the morning by the piercing voice of a woman on the street, calling loudly for help.

Number aroused themselves sufficiently to enquire the cause of the racket and those who did so saw a very unique spectacle. A woman, very scantily clothed, was running down the street towards Weaver's grocery, shrieking at the top of her voice, and was closely followed by her husband, who was pursuing her with an axe, evidently with ill intent.

The woman ran into Weaver's yard and was caught by the infuriated man who promptly proceeded to abuse her with his fists. He came, however, and it was found the man was badly intoxicated. He had evidently been "boozing" heavily Sunday night, and when he came home he was in any way pleasant mood. He had decided to give vent to his gloomy feelings by beating his wife, who had barely time to escape from the house before he was pursuing her in the above mentioned manner.

The affair was quickly settled, however, and the man was finally induced to postpone the punishment that he claimed his wife deserved.

He had evidently been "boozing" heavily Sunday night, and when he came home he was in any way pleasant mood. He had decided to give vent to his gloomy feelings by beating his wife, who had barely time to escape from the house before he was pursuing her in the above mentioned manner.

The affair was quickly settled, however, and the man was finally induced to postpone the punishment that he claimed his wife deserved.

A PLEASANT DISAPPOINTMENT

A Cheltenham Man is Agreeably Surprised—An Old Grudge Paid.

Mr. Turner After a Successful Effort to Get Rid of One Enemy Finds that it is so he has put away another.

Cheltenham, Ont., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—A fortunate man, indeed, is Mr. Chas. Turner, of the place. For years Mr. Turner has been suffering with kidney disease. It gave him great pain, and for the last two or three years rheumatism has added to his already heavy burden, of sickness, and he has seldom known an hour from pain. Not associating the rheumatism with the old kidney trouble, and despairing of curing the former, Mr. Turner bought and used Dodd's Kidney Pills to try and dispose of the kidney trouble. He used a few boxes, and the pain in his back kept getting less and less, and finally went away. All the unpleasant symptoms of kidney trouble disappeared, and what was still more strange to Mr. Turner, he has not since been bothered with rheumatism.

He is so grateful for the miraculous result of the treatment that he has been cheerfully telling his friends and neighbors his experience. He says: "Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured me of a long standing case of kidney disease. I was also a sufferer of rheumatism and although I took the pills for the kidney trouble, I was surprised to find that when the disease was cured the rheumatism also disappeared. This was over a year ago and I have not been troubled since. I used in all six boxes. The first two boxes did not appear to do me any good, but I persevered and the result is that I am now a healthy man."

Of course, to those who recognize rheumatism as what it really is, a symptom of Kidney Disease, there is nothing wonderful about Mr. Turner's experience. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure kidney trouble, and with it rheumatism, acitias, lame back, neuralgia, heart trouble, dropsy, diabetes, bright's disease and any of the other many forms in which it may and often does appear.

More people have starved to death from the want of love than from the want of food.

DOING MUCH GOOD WORK

CHILDREN COMING UNDER OUR NOTICE.

The number of cases reported to your office as requiring investigation was 28, embracing 44 children, of this number 14 lived in town and the others in Harwich, Raleigh and Dover townships, Detroit, Montreal and Cleveland. Some of these children were orphans and their guardians were ill-treated them; some were being ill-treated by their parents; some were left to get their own meals, and left alone most of the night, through the parents working out, and staying out; others were growing up in idleness, not attending school, etc. In most cases warnings were given and promises were then made that things would be different. Your officer has endeavored to keep track of these cases, and in only three instances has it been necessary to give a second warning. Of these 44 children only three were made wards of the Society during the year, and all were placed in homes, but one of them was returned and is now in the Shelter in London, awaiting a home.

CHILDREN CHANGED IN HOMES.
We have had to change four children in homes during the year, for various causes, and I want to say just here, that the fault is not always on the side of the children, but we believe the changes were in the best interests of the children and the work expected of this Society.

APPLICATIONS FOR CHILDREN.
About twenty applications for children were received during the year, but as only three children were made wards of the Society, and of these three, two had to be placed outside all County, and through the action of another branch, only one of the twenty applicants was successful.

There are now the following cases awaiting action:—
1—A baby boy of two months, mother wants to give him up so that she will be able to earn her own living, and the child be sure of a good home.
2—A girl of three years, mother is unable to support this child and herself; father has deserted them.
3—A girl of about 11 years of age, not being treated very well by people with whom she is working.

4—A girl of three years, Italian, mother wants to place her in charge of the society, and will pay so much per week for her board; father won't work and she has to keep body and soul together.

Probably there may arise many more cases during the winter, and if all members of this society would report cases coming under their notice investigation would be made and suitable measures adopted to relieve the conditions.

I would like to thank all the members of the Board for the kindness they have shown me, and the help they have given me, during the year, and I trust that my successor in office will receive the hearty co-operation of every member of the Board and that he or she will have the interest of these poor neglected children as near their heart as I have had it near mine.

In conclusion, I would like to give the following figures, as illustrating the work done, during 1899, 1900 and 1901:

Letters written—170, 149, 131—450.
Visits made—103, 156, 75—334.
Children coming under our notice—40, 45, 44—129.
Children made over to society—13, 13, 3—29.
Children in police courts—8, 16, 21—45.
Children placed in homes—13, 13, 2—28.
All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. V. BRAY.

Exec. Officer.
Mrs. Harvie, government inspector, who was present, addressed the audience, giving some very fine pointers in the work. She said she was very much pleased to be present at the annual meeting of the Society. "You will admit," she said, "that you have not done as much as you would like to have done, but there is no cause to be disheartened." In her address she spoke of the executive officer, Dr. Bray, in the very highest terms and said that it was her sorrow that he was about to resign, but that it was unreasonable to expect a professional man to devote his time to this work without some remuneration. She gave some good hints to the society as to the finances and good suggestions as to how to get a good membership and do good work.

Mrs. Harvie told some of her experience and the work in which she is engaged.
Rev. Beverley Smith, said it was a great pleasure to be present and hear the excellent address of Mrs. Harvie. "It is not so much the work done by the society as it is the moral influence that counts," said he, "and it is not the children so much we want to get at, as it is the father who neglects his family."

Mr. McCosh then said a few words, expressing his pleasure at being present and that he was much impressed with Mrs. Harvie's address. He then asked that the society be up and doing and if anything is wanted it must be asked for.

A vote of thanks was proffered Dr. Bray for his services during the past year and the hope that he would continue. Dr. Bray replied in fitting terms, but said he could not accept it for any rate this year.

The election of officers then took place. D. S. Paterson, M. A., was elected president and Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Paterson, Dr. Bray and Mr. Baxter, were elected vice-presidents. Dr. Bray moved that the above five elected be a provisional committee to wait on the clergy for two of their congregation to act as an advisory board for the society. The motion was carried.

A vote of thanks was then tendered Christ church for the use of the hall and heating. The following was the program:

BALKY BRONCO

It Causes Its Owner Very Much Trouble While Spectators Seem Amused.

Jack Atkins, of Merlin, is known all over the country for his shrewdness in anything pertaining to a horse deal, but occasionally the best of them will be taken in, and this is what happened to Jack. He has a genial, Irish disposition however, and takes his defeat good-naturedly. He made his appearance in town yesterday morning, driving a good-looking broncho.

"Where did you get the horse?" asked a friend who was well acquainted with Jack's pursuits.

"Got him in Dover. Isn't he a dandy?" replied Jack.
Jack has been going into the horse-trading business pretty strongly of late, but to all appearances he has made his last venture for a while—not because he is satisfied with the horse he has, not at all, but he thinks he will experience a little trouble in getting rid of it.

He drove out to Baldoon yesterday with a fine grey mare. He met a farmer who took a fancy to his horse and offered to trade. The bargain was made with little difficulty and Jack got $10 to boot. He traded again during the day and got $8 and the present horse thrown in.

Jack was well satisfied and drove into Chatham feeling quite elated. He claimed the horse he started out with was only worth $20, and so he had practically made the price of a horse. Everything went smoothly until he started for home. He was driving down William Street near the C. P. station when the horse suddenly gave decided evidence of weariness and stopped with a jerk which nearly threw Jack from his seat.

The animal stood set in his buggy and waited, thinking the horse would soon regain its breath—but it didn't, the balky animal displayed no symptoms of a desire to proceed further. The whip was useless, coaxing was worse, the animal would stubbornly persist in backing up. Every man who came along had a different scheme for starting balky horses, and Jack tried every one of them, but all failed. He finally got in the alleyway back of Geo. Stephens & Co.'s hardware store, and when last seen he was standing a short distance ahead of the provoking horse with a hatful of oats temptingly displayed in hopes that the animal's hunger might induce it to move forward.

THE MARKET

Theatrical

"The Penitent," at the Grand on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd.

That interest in the depiction of Hall Caine's most powerful story, "The Penitent," which will be presented here Tuesday night, is one the increase, is evidenced by the numerous inquiries made concerning its production. The pleasing things heard of this dramatization of Caine's best book leads to the expectation of much that will interest those who have read or seen portrayed his other great work, "The Christian." In "The Penitent" that master writer strikes a new lead and shows how a man corroded by the touch of powerful temptations can arise again from sin and that the human heart has no depth in which it is lost. In working out this theme the dramatists cling closely to the novel with the result that those who view the presentation will experience the same tension, and same thrills as did the readers of the story. An excellent company and special scenery is promised.

The Rogers Griley Recitals, No. 2 of Lyceum Course, at the Grand Opera House, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 4th.

Committees and audiences have been quick to recognize the sterling merit of this unique attraction. For seven seasons they have been appearing before the leading Lyceum courses, colleges, and teachers' institutes of the country, and the list of places where they have been engaged for reappearances is a remarkable one. Their recitals are not only artistic, but are instructive and entertaining as well. No adequate description can be given of the beauties embodied in the artistic rendition of gems of literature when interpreted with the accompaniment of the harp. This instrument is particularly adapted to the human voice, and their selections given together produce an impression which lingers long in the memory. As one critic has aptly said, "Mr. Rogers is good, Mr. Griley is good; together they are superb."

Subbubs—Yes, I used to have to play cribbage with the cook in the evenings to keep her amused.

NERVOUS DYSPESPIA

A CURE FOR IT.

Not a Patent Cure All, Nor a Modern Miracle But Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their remedies will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They may make but one claim for it and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medicinal properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessing which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome foods and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ of the body.

All druggists will tell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction.
