The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"); or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. ## BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

I. MORNING AND EVENING BELLS.

1. On each day during Term, from the first of April to the first of November, the first Bell will ring at 6 o'clock, and the second at 6.30, A. M.; and at the time last mentioned all the resident Students will assemble in the Classical Lecture Room and attend morning prayer, unless excused therefrom.
2. During the remainder of the Lecturo season, the first Bell will ring at 7.30, and the resident Students will assemble for morning prayer at 8, A. M.
3. The Bell for evening prayer will ring at 9.45, P. M., throughout the year.
4. The entrance doors will be locked immediately after evening Prayer; and all resident Students are required to be in their respective rooms for the night at 10.30, P. M.

II. HOURS PRESCRIBED FOR PRIVATE STUDY.

5. The following hours shall be specially set apart for private study within the University, namely: in the interval between the first of April and the first of November, from morning prayer until Breakfast, and from 7.30 to 9.45 o'clock, P. M.; between the first of November and the first of April, from 6.30 to 9.45 o'clock, P. M.
6. During the hours set apart for private study, Students are required to be in their respective rooms and diligently engaged in pursuing their studies, unless leave to the contrary has been granted by the President.
7. On the joint application of two or more Students, the President may allow the parties to meet together in one room, and unite in making their common preparations for Lectures, should he have reason to believe that such an arrangement would tend to their mutual benefit.
8. The President shall not allow Students to be absent from the University during study hours, more than once a week, unless from special circumstances he may see fit to do so.

III. ATTENDANCE AT LECTURES.

9. The Lectures and Exercises to be attended and performed by the Students shall be arranged from time to time in the manner most favorable to their progress: and every Student shall attend each Lecture of his Course and all other Scholastic Exercises which may be appointed by the President.
10. Dispensation from attendance on any Lecture or other Scholastic Exercise, or excuse for non-attendance, can be obtained only from the President, and must be countersigned by the Professor.
11. Every Student is required to be in his place at Lecture precisely at the appointed time.

IV. DAILY REGISTER OF PROFICIENCY AND SCALE OF MERIT.

12. Every Professor, immediately after the daily examination of each Student, shall enter in his register the numerical value of such examination. For a perfect notation the number shall be 1000; for a less perfect one a smaller number, and for a deficiency 0. In the same register the Professor shall note whatever demerit any Student may have incurred for insufficiency of preparation, absence without sufficient excuse, disturbance, or culpable negligence during the time of lecture.

13. On the Monday of every week, each Professor shall make to the President a report of the standing of every student for the week preceding, in which shall be recorded the numerical average of his examinations for the week, together with the demerits which for any cause he may have incurred. A deduction from the aggregate of the marks of each student will be made for every demerit recorded against him.

14. In each department of study, the number of marks obtained by any Student at the written examinations, and the yearly aggregate of his standing as indicated by the daily register, will be reduced by calculation to the same measuring unit of value, namely, 1000; and the sum of the results thus obtained, when divided by two, will be his standing in that department for the year. The standings obtained in the several classes being added together, and the sum divided by the number of classes attended, will give the general standing for the year, or the scale of merit.

15. At the end of the Academical year the Students will be ranked according to the place they occupy in the general scale of merit. The first and most honorable rank will comprise those whose numerical standing is over 700; the second those whose standing is from 500 to 700; the third those whose standing is from 250 to 500; and the fourth those whose standing does not exceed 250. All Students, except those in the fourth rank, will be entitled to a certificate of merit for the year. Such Students as fail to obtain certificates will not be permitted to pass in regular course into the advanced class of the succeeding year, but will remain in the lower until, by good conduct and diligence, they obtain a higher standing.

V. ROOMS IN THE UNIVERSITY AND THEIR OCCUPATION.

16. It shall be the duty of the President to assign rooms to the Students residing in the University, and he shall have authority, at his discretion, to direct any Student to change his room.

17. In all cases of disorder in any room, the occupants shall be responsible; and no shouting or loud noises, or conduct dishonorable to the character of a literary institution, will be permitted.

18. All damages done to a room will be assessed upon the occupants, unless they immediately report the same to the President, and satisfy him that the injury was committed by other parties.

19. All damages, by persons unknown, done to the University buildings, or other property of the University, will be assessed equally upon the Undergraduates, unless there is reason to believe that the injury was done by other persons.

20. No Student shall lodge or board out of the University, except at such houses as are sanctioned by the President, and with the approbation of a parent or guardian, if the Student is under age.

21. The titles of all books, pamphlets, prints, and maps, added to the Library from time to time, shall be entered chronologically, in a book or books made for the purpose; wherein, also, shall be recorded the names of the several donors, the condition of the books as to binding, and other particulars worthy of note.

22. No person shall ordinarily be allowed to borrow from the Library more than four volumes at the same time, except the Officers of Instruction and Government. If any resident Graduate or Professional Student represent to the Librarian that he is engaged in the study of some particular subject on account of which he has occasion for more books, the Librarian may, with the concurrence of the President, permit him to have an additional number. If any Undergraduate should need additional books in preparing for an examination, or for a competition for a Prize or Scholarship, the Librarian may, with the concurrence of the President, permit him to have them; but such books, if in demand among the Students, must be returned within two weeks, or sooner if required by the President.

23. No Student shall take a book or books from the Library without the knowledge and consent of the Librarian; and no book borrowed shall be retained longer than four weeks.

24. No person shall write in a book borrowed from the Library, nor deface it, nor lend it to another, nor carry it out of town, without special leave from the President, nor keep it longer than the time prescribed, under the penalty of losing the privilege of borrowing for such period as the President may determine. And if a book be injured or lost, the borrower, or person doing the injury, shall replace it, or the set of which it is a part; and the Senate may also assess him in a sum, not exceeding the value of the book or the set.

25. Every Student before leaving College for an expected absence of more than one week, shall return the books he may have from the Library. And all books borrowed by the Students shall be returned on or before the Thursday preceding the close of the Academical year.

26. If any Student, or other person having the use of the Library, shall fail to comply with any of the regulations adopted for its management, it shall be the duty of the Librarian to report him to the President, who shall inflict such penalty on the offender as the nature of the case may demand.

27. No Student shall be admitted to the first Degree, until he produce to the President a certificate from the Librarian that he has returned in good order or replaced every book that he has borrowed, or in default thereof has deposited with the Librarian double the value of it in money, or if it be part of a set, double the value of the whole set. And no Student shall be permitted to take up his bond, or be discharged from his responsibilities, until he has obtained from the Librarian and exhibited to the Registrar a certificate as above described.

7. The Head Master shall, at least once a week, give personal instruction to each of the Classes in the English Department in their several branches of study, and note in his Register the progress they appear to have made in the various subjects.
8. All the tuition money in the Classical and English Departments shall be received by the Head Master, who shall pay to the Second Master one third part of the whole sum to be collected, (unless in the case of Boarders kept by the Second Master, and for which the Senate have otherwise provided), the Head Master being responsible to the Second Master for his due proportion of the same; and if any Boy be reported to the Visitors as being two quarters in arrear, the said Boy shall not be allowed to return to school until the arrear is made up.
