Acadia Defeats U. N. B.

In Intercollegiate League Hockey—Score 4-3

Acadia won her first intercollegiate game here last night defeating University of New Brunswick, four to three. The rink was crowded, most of the spectators being students. Although the ice was soft, the playing was fast and furious throughout. The Acadia team had lost its captain "Rah" Murray, due to sickness, but Crowdis took his position and played a fine game. Hirtle was acting captain.

The game started with a rush by Acadia into U. N. B. territory. U. N. B. rushed the puck back, but Clarke broke up their combination and made a fine rush, but failed to score. Acadia continued to keep the puck in U. N. B. territory and bombarded the nets, but failed to get the puck past McKenzie who seemed almost invincible. Morrison by a fine bit of playing, scored the first goal from a mix up in front of U. N. B. goal. Less than a minute later Hirtle made another score for Acadia from mid ice. In the second period U. N. B. came back strong and after a half minute of seesaw playing, Lounsbury scored. After a few more minutes of play Morrison sagged the nets again for Acadia from in front of the U. N. B. goal.

The third period started with a rush into Acadia territory, but Conrad nabbed the puck and made a fine rush up the ice but failed to score. A few seconds later Morrison shoved the puck into U. N. B. goal making the score 4-1. Jewett for U. N. B. almost immediately scored the second goal from a free for all in front of Acadia goal. Score 4-2. After this both sides roughed it up a bit and made the game all the more exciting. After some more hard playing Fleet rushed and scored for U. N. B. Score 4-3 in favor of Acadia.

Acadia. — Elderkin, goal; Clarke and Crowdis, defence; Hirtle, centre; Conrad and Morrison wings; Mason and McKay, subs.

U. N. B.—Mackenzie, goal; Jewett and Brennan, defence; Fleet, centre; Lounsbury and Reid wings; Cain and Barry, subs. Referee — Billy Wonnacott, Halifax.

MARRIED AT KENTVILLE

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Kentville, was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday at noon, when Miss Alice Eloria Christie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christie of Wolfville, became the bride of Cecil Rhodes Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Austin Holt, of Hilltown.

The church was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums, the color scheme of green and white being carried throughout in the lighting effects. The altar was banked with ferns and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Layton, under a floral arch from which was suspended a white bell. The bride wore a travelling suit of reindeer broadcloth with trimmings of mink marmot, and picture hat. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses and freesias. She was attended by Miss Erdine MacGowan, Canard, gowned in navy blue serge with neckfur and black picture hat, and carrying carnations and roses. The groom was supported by George Christie, brother of the bride. James Christie and Arthur Holt acted as ushers. The wedding marches were rendered by Mrs. A. G. Embree. The presents included a substantial cheque from the groom's father. The groom's gift to the bride was an electric seal coat trimmed with Alaska rat; to the bridesmaid, an amethyst ring; to the organist, a gold brooch and to the groomsmen, cuff links.

At the close of the ceremony a dinner and reception was held to a large number of guests at Cornwallis Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Holt left on the afternoon express on a wedding trip to Halifax, Amherst and St. John.

The Acadia Academy basketball team were defeated by the Halifax Academy team at Halifax last Friday afternoon, the score being 59 to 9.

Windsor Defeats Wolfville

Hants County Boys Too Fast For Local Team.

Evangeline Rink was packed with the biggest crowd of the season last Friday evening when the local hockey team went down to defeat before the Windsor speed boys. Over 200 fans came by special train from Windsor and witnessed their team take the lead in the Valley League, the score of the game being 8 to 1. The Wolfville boys put up a game fight but were easily outclassed, the visitors outplaying them at every point. The puck was kept in Windsor's territory perhaps as much as in Wolfville's but the locals lacked the scoring ability. The game started fast and furious with Wolfville having the best of it for the first two minutes. Then Windsor took the puck up and J. MacDonald scored. Two minutes later he got the puck on a pass and again drove it into the net. Play then centered about Windsor goal, but Windsor again got away and S. MacDonald shooting from mid ice got the puck in again the disk glancing off Spicer's protectors. Wolfville then braced up and bombarded Windsor's goal with G. Smith making some sensational stops and Wolfville could not get the puck by. J. MacDonald put one by Spicer and the period ended 4-0.

In the second period Windsor rushed and Spicer had his hands full making stops but nothing got by. After eight minutes J. MacDonald again scored for Windsor. Three minutes later Frank Poole took the puck down and put a pretty shot by Spicer for Windsor's sixth goal. Through out this period the play was fast with both goal tenders making good stops and the teams playing at top speed. The third period started faster than ever and after three minutes of seesaw play Herman Baird sagged the net on a hard wing shot for Wolfville's first score. Play then went into Wolfville's territory and J. MacDonald scored again for Windsor. There was less speed for a few minutes and then Windsor again took the puck down and once more J. MacDonald scored from directly in front of the goal. Windsor played the better game in combination work and Jack MacDonald was the star on the ice. The line up was as follows:

Wolfville	Goal	Windsor
W. Spicer		G. Smith
G. Harvey	Defence	S. MacDonald
H. Fraser		C. Wigmore
H. Baird	Centre	W. Singer
G. Christie	Wing	F. Poole
W. Kennedy		J. MacDonald
G. Kennedy	Subs	J. Hughes
F. Eagles		F. Clark
A. Woodman		E. Mosher

Wonnacott refereed satisfactorily.

GRAND PRE NOTES

Miss Louise Bowser left last week for Boston, Mass., after spending a few weeks with her parents here. She will be greatly missed by her many friends.

Miss Annie Martin, who has been here for past few weeks, has returned to St. John, where she will continue her duties at the General Public Hospital.

We are sorry to report Mr. George Trenholm on the sick list and we trust he may have a speedy recovery.

Miss Gladys Kennedy, of Middleton, made a short visit home last week.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. W. C. Trenholm is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. F. W. Curry and Miss Jean Curry, who have been ill for the past few weeks, are improving and we trust will soon be enjoying their usual health.

Mr. William Townsend, who was successfully operated on for appendicitis at Wetwood Hospital last week, is doing nicely and soon will be able to return home.

Mrs. Edmond Jenners, of Digby, is visiting here, guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Chipman.

Mr. Roy Eaton, of Halifax, is the guest of his father, Mr. W. P. Eaton.

Sensational Hockey

Conservatives Defeat Liberals in Thrilling Contest

The most thrilling hockey game of the season was played at Evangeline Rink on Tuesday evening when the Conservatives defeated the Liberals by the score 7 to 5. Over 400 enthusiastic supporters of the teams witnessed the game which filled with sensational plays and many thrilling moments. There was no need of scraping the ice between the fifteen minute periods as the players kept the surface well polished with their spectacular slides and glides. The College Band was present and supplied excellent music between periods and for the skating after the game.

Promptly at eight o'clock the referee, Jimmy Williams, lined up the teams as follows:

Conservatives	Goal	Liberals
Horton Phinney	Ernest Robinson
Alf. Cox	Defence	Bill Harris
Avery deWitt		Elliot Smith
Artie Young	Centre	(Capt.)
		Jerry Bauld (Capt.)
	Wings
Jack Roach	Bill Bleakney
Otto Foshay	Arch Mason

Frank Godfrey Herb. Blakeney Truman Sanford Burpee Balcom Freeman Crowell B. C. Silver

The first period was most keenly contested and the players surprised the spectators by the zest they put into the game. In spite of repeated attempts by both sides no goals were scored in this period. DeWitt, Godfrey and Foshay were the outstanding players for the Conservatives, while Bauld was the bulwark of the Liberals. Messrs. Robinson and Phinney did nobly as goal tenders and were loudly applauded for each stop.

After a short interval the M.P. was escorted to his place by Chief of Police Crowell and the second period commenced. After three minutes of play Foshay scored the first goal amid the cheers of his Conservative friends. Shortly after deWitt carried the puck the length of the ice and scored number two, and he was followed two minutes later by Godfrey. With three goals ahead of them the Liberals settled down to work and Bill Bleakney got past Phinney for their first tally five minutes before the bell rang. Thus encouraged Bauld made a spectacular rush up the ice and added another to the score, and almost immediately tied the score while the Liberals friends cheered loudly.

The third period was fast and furious and the contestants became so excited that a few of them found their way to the penalty box. Godfrey opened the scoring for the Conservatives and was followed by deWitt who scored on a pass from Roach. Then Bauld opened up again and added number four to the Liberal score. Foshay received a nice pass in front of the goal and sagged the net and in two minutes Godfrey again scored. Bill Harris then carried the puck up the ice for the last tally of the game.

MRS. KEMPTON HONORED

On the afternoon of Wednesday January 25th, a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. H. G. Perry to celebrate the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Kempton. Representatives of the W.C.T.U. and of the Social and Benevolent Society, the Missionary Aid, the Ladies' Bible Class, and the Home Mission Committee of the Baptist Church, in all of which Mrs. Kempton has taken an important part during the years she has spent in Wolfville, were present to congratulate her upon attaining her four score years, and to express their pleasure in her continued good health. Tea was served, after which the company was favored with a solo by Mrs. Perry, her daughter, Grace, accompanying her with the violin. A number of gifts were then presented to Mrs. Kempton as small tokens of the loving esteem in which she is held by all who have had the privilege of knowing her intimately. To these she responded with a few earnest words of thanks, and the happy occasion was brought to a close by the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds."

Town Elections

Alex. Sutherland Elected Mayor by Acclamation

Tuesday was nomination day for the civic election for Mayor and Councillors which takes place on Tuesday of next week. There will be no contest for the office of Mayor, the only nomination being that of Prof. Alex. Sutherland, who recently resigned his seat in the Council in order to qualify. Mayor Fitch, who has served the town faithfully for many years in the capacity of councillor and Mayor, was unwilling to accept the nomination for another term.

The nominees for Council are for the two year term, Dr. Leslie Eaton, Mrs. Laura H. Moore, Messrs. D. G. Whidden and A. M. Young. For the unexpired term of one year caused by the resignation of Coun. Sutherland, Messrs. A. J. Mason and C. R. Nowlan have been nominated. The cards of the respective candidates appear elsewhere in this issue and are commended to the careful attention of our readers.

BOYS' WORK NOTES

Next Thursday evening the Wolfville Taxis boys will play a game of hockey against a team of Windsor boys. All who can do so should attend and encourage our younger players. They will be afforded a chance to judge how the future players for the town teams of the two towns compare. The game is called for 7 o'clock so that it will not interfere with the lecture by Dr. Norwood at 8 o'clock.

The inter-patrol Basket Ball and Hockey league is proving very interesting and promoting a keen rivalry. The highest credits for "all three" (Church, Sunday School and Week night meeting) attendance the past month goes to the Presbyterians, No. 1, Crusaders (Anglican) second, Methodist third and No. 2 Baptist fourth.

Town Council

Last Meeting of Old Council—Mayor Fitch Presents Annual Report.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Council on Wednesday evening only Mayor Fitch and Couns. Moore, Nowlan, Cox and Wheaton were present. The absence of Coun. Shaw was due to his being in the United States, while the resignation of Coun. Sutherland accounts for one vacancy on the board.

A number of communications were read and referred to the incoming Councillors since they dealt with matters which will require their attention.

The following bills were read and ordered to be paid:

Registrar of Vital Statistics	$ 8.00
Burton Croft	3.00
Dr. J. B. Oakes	5.00
A. & W. Mackinley, Ltd.	14.93
F. W. Barteaux	18.55

Coun. Cox, for the Street Committee reported an expenditure during the month $299.25, a considerable amount of which was for gravel for use on Highland Avenue.

This gravel is hauled from Greenwich and costs the town two dollars per load. In the discussion there was some criticism of this item as it was declared that the material was not worth so much money.

The report of the Poor Committee, presented by Coun. Moore, showed an expenditure during the month of $27.00.

The financial statement for the month was presented by the Town Clerk, and showed that $2450.97 had been received while the expenditure amounted to $3957.68. The bank overdraft has again reached $12000.

The committee appointed to name men to be appointed as commissioners to carry out the provisions of the Dominion Housing Act reported the following: G. K. Prescott, Dr. Wheelock, Grant Porter, W. A. Reid and C. A. Brown, but no appointments were made.

A. G. Cowie was appointed Poll Clerk at the approaching town election for District No. 104 in place of Mr. H. E. Arnold who was unable to act.

Mayor Fitch presented his annual report which was an interesting review of the work of the year, and will be published in the year book with the other reports.

There being certain business which must be done by the new Council at the first meeting in February the meeting was adjourned until Wednesday evening of next week, when the new Mayor and Councillors will be sworn into office and the usual routine business transacted.

DEATH OF MRS. DANIEL BORDEN

The death of Mrs. Annie M. Borden, relict of the late Daniel Borden, of Town Plot, took place at the home of her daughter, Miss S. M. Borden, at Marblehead, Mass. on Monday night. The deceased was a daughter of the late Lemuel Perry and Marjorie Cummings Borden, of Avonport, and was 76 years of age. The greater part of her life was spent at Town Plot but during recent years she has spent much of her time with her daughter at Marblehead. She was an exceedingly well informed lady and was highly esteemed by many friends. No particulars are at hand as to her demise save that the end came suddenly. It is supposed however that her death was due to paralysis, she having previously suffered two shocks, the first in 1910. Her husband, the late Daniel J. Borden, predeceased her in 1903.

Mrs. Borden is survived by a brother, Rev. Arthur C. Borden, D.D., now living at the old home stead at Town Plot, and three daughters, Mrs. C. M. Vaughan of Wolfville; Miss S. M. Borden, Marblehead, Mass.; and Mrs. F. Magee, of Roxbury, Mass. Another brother, Lemuel P. Borden formerly of Wolfville, died in California a number of years ago.

The remains, accompanied by three daughters, are expected to arrive at Port Williams Saturday morning, and the funeral service will take place from the old home of the deceased on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, the interment at the cemetery at Hamilton Corner.

Correspondence

TELEPHONE DEFENDED

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Sir:—I was pleased to see R. W. Tuft's letter in appreciation of the service given us by the local Telephone Exchange and sorry later to find "Knocker" disqualifying Mr. Tufts because he sells Telephone stock.

As far as I know I am qualified to speak on the subject, because I never bought or sold any telephone stock, I have no relatives in the Company and do not even know the girls by name, being guilty only of a speaking acquaintance with the manager.

I have had a phone for some six years on a twelve to fifteen party line which means plenty of occasions to criticise somebody. In that time we have never received anything but the most courteous and considerate treatment from the Wolfville Central girls. I get what I pay for and more, for frequently an operator who is wholly unknown to me will go out of her way to do something she is not paid to do.

Dozen of times I have heard telephone service here and elsewhere under discussion and it is always agreed that Wolfville operators must have good training for they are so considerate and anxious to please even the crabs. The most of our telephone troubles come from the side of the public who turn the service into "clothes lines" and "listening posts". The public is impatient, thoughtless and stands on its imagined rights. The Central girls are trained to take "sass" and say nothing back and of course they have no rights.

Before closing let me suggest that if one has any real trouble with the telephone service, the better course to pursue is to report to the manager instead of taking it into a court where the girls would not be permitted to tell even a little of what they know about the case.

THE TOWN STATEMENT

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Sir:—I am always interested in town affairs and therefore perused the financial statement of the town as published in the last issue of your paper with all the interest I could command. I am not an accountant nor versed in financial terms and phrases. I pay my taxes and often find it difficult to raise the needed funds. However Wolfville is a progressive town and I am glad to contribute my mite to wards the maintenance of its institutions.

I must confess my inability to comprehend the financial condition of the town after reading the auditors' statement. The whole thing, due doubtless to my lack of knowledge of such things, was exceedingly misty.

I am writing this brief letter Mr. Editor, to ask if the auditors, the chairman of the Finance Committee or some one else duly qualified will be good enough in your next issue to present a brief and simple statement that "one who runs may read" and understand.

I trust that this request will not be taken as criticism but as an honest endeavour to have light thrown on a matter in which I, in common with all other citizens, are interested.

RATEPAYER.

THANKS FOR ADVICE

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Sir:—In your last issue there appears a letter signed "Knocker" in which the writer continues to find fault with our telephone service and criticizes the defense made by Mr. Robie Tufts.

Now I hold no stock in the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Co., but I wish to state that I myself do a great deal of telephoning and always find "Central" most obliging and efficient.

I consider that we do get what we pay for and I am quite sure that if "Knocker" was man (or woman) enough to come forward and try to keep his (or her) patience through even one day in the telephone office he (or she) would find that it is easier to find fault than to give service.

And Mr. Editor allow me to give a few words of advice. You (Continued on page 8.)

THE COMMON FOE OF THE COMMUNITY

[From "The International Record," London, G. B.]
Never before in the history of mankind has the liquor interest been so heavily challenged as today. The local fight has become national, and since whole nations have accepted the principles of Prohibition we are faced with a quite new situation. One nation goes "dry" and, of course, snouts out the liquor commerce of another. The "wet" nation, not finding it easy to market its liquor, threatens the small "dry" nation with commercial reprisals.
Prohibition doesn't prohibit? How strange it sounds when a "wet" nation boycotts another because it goes "dry". Finland adopts Prohibition thus cutting off the market of French and Spanish wines. Much to the annoyance, and in spite of the pressure of the vine-growers, Finland stands firm for Prohibition.
A similar situation shows itself in Iceland. A storm of protest has been raised against Spain in her attempt to foist wines on her. Iceland was the first country in Europe to adopt Prohibition and although commercial pressure is being used against her, there is every prospect that Iceland will stand firm for Prohibition.
Now we hear that France and Spain are attempting to force Norway to accept wines and spirits. France demands that Norway shall buy 400,000 litres of spirits, and Spain stipulates for the admission of wines up to 21 per cent. alcohol. But Norway has decided by a national referendum to prohibit all spirituous liquors and strong wines. At the recent general election she elected a strong Parliamentary majority to maintain this law.
Norwegian fishermen show splendid sentiment in their fight against outside interference with internal politics as the following cable demonstrates:—
"Four hundred fishers of More and the Fjords, assembled at Masloy, affirm that their country ought not to abandon its right to self-government in the question of alcoholism. They expect their government to conform to the will of the people popularly expressed. If the vine-growing countries of the South do not wish to admit our fish unless we buy their wine, it is preferable that we should not have any commercial convention with them."
The fishermen of More and the Fjords deserve our hearty congratulations upon their brave stand for freedom, and Norway has our full sympathy and support in its struggle against tyranny.
World-wide Prohibition is in process of being adopted. The Liquor Traffic is being brought to bay on critical issues and is alarmed. May the common sense of Commerce prevail against this common foe of the Community.

REPLY TO EQUAL RIGHTS
To the Editor THE ACADIAN.
Sir:— In last week's Acadian "Equal Rights" makes a plaintive appeal for Mrs. Moore's return to the Council, and that by acclamation. That appeal was aimed for our hearts but, as usual when a woman is the marksman, the shot miscarried and went straight to the seat of our risibilities instead.
In all charity, and with all due regard for the opinion of "Equal Rights", her whole reasoning was unmarred by a single argument in favor of Mrs. Moore's election. It is merely a plea for "Woman's Rights", which, like Reciprocity, "is a dead issue"; or, at most, an attempt to popularize Mrs. Moore's candidature by a plea of unfair treatment. If, after her two years of public service, Mrs. Moore's supporters can produce no better arguments than these then it would seem that she can hardly be a fit person for re-election.
If Mrs. Moore were the only woman in Wolfville, or even the only woman endowed with normal intelligence, and she should be forcibly or illegally deprived of her rights, there then would be cause for this appeal for "Woman's Rights."
But Mrs. Moore is not the only woman in Wolfville, nor the only woman with normal intelligence, and if it appears that she cannot secure re-election, then the women can quite easily satisfy their ambitions and render their rights secure by nominating some of their number who can. And nothing is to hinder their nominating four ten, twenty or for that matter, every woman in the town. We fail to see in what particular the rights of the women of Wolfville have been infringed upon in the slightest degree.
And, moreover, we fail to see why the defeat of Mrs. Moore, or of any other candidate should make the town the object of ridicule or stand as a lasting reproach upon us. Even the election of certain candidates could hardly have that result, their defeat, never.
Is "Equal Rights" demanding equal rights for Mrs. Moore? If so, then our reply is that she has them already, but she cannot consistently claim equal rights and at the same time claim re-election on the grounds, merely, that Mrs. Moore is a woman.
In this case "Equal rights" means that Mrs. Moore must be duly qualified and duly nominated by two electors. That's all. Is there any unfairness in that?
She then has an "equal right" to say to the electors, "I have served you to the best of my ability. I am anxious for re-election that I may serve you again, my record is before you, my platform for the future is—. If you consider my record and my platform good enough, elect me; if you don't, why then elect someone else. You are the ones to decide."
She has a right to do that and that right is no greater and no less than the individual right of her fellow-candidates. With the one difference, however, that she has been there before and has a record, while most of the candidates have not. That record may be a strength or it may be a weakness to her cause. At any rate she, herself, made it, not her friends to elect her, nor her opponents (she has no enemies) to defeat her.
Therefore Mrs. Moore has "Equal Rights", her "equal rights" and her record. Et c'est tout; et cela suffit.
Here's to the winners; give my love to the girls.
Yours faithfully,
MORE EQUAL RIGHTS.

FRIGHTENED!

"Every morning I woke up, I felt that something terrible was going to happen."

Writes Mrs. M. and she goes on to say, "I wonder if any other woman ever had such fits of depression as I had for over a year. I was so utterly despondent that if it had not been for my children, I believe I would have put an end to my life. Every day and every night was a nightmare. I dreaded going to bed because I lay awake most of the night. When I did sleep, I had the most dreadful dreams. I couldn't eat; I was completely run down—nothing interested me, nothing appealed to me. I consulted several doctors. They prescribed different remedies to build me up but these preparations didn't do me any good. Doctors told me I had a nervous breakdown. I was tired all the time. I felt every day that my strength was gradually leaving me. The least little exertion left me thoroughly tired out. I knew I was gradually wasting away. I felt I was going to die and I was so thoroughly miserable that I did not care whether I lived or not. And then I heard about Carnol and what a fine tonic it was. At first I refused to take it as I was sure it wouldn't do me any good. Finally I did try it with the most wonderful results. I am well and happy every minute of the day now. I eat heartily and sleep soundly. My friends won't believe that Carnol alone has done this for me. I am never despondent now and every day is a day of joy. What Carnol has done for me it will do for you."

Naming the Montclare

At the Naming Ceremony of the New Canadian Pacific Steamer "Montclare" by Lady McLaren Brown

WHY SHIPS AS "SHE"?
Inspecting the "model" room before the luncheon, Lady Brown remarked how strange it was that since first they sailed the main ships had always been spoken of as "she." "I suppose," she added, "they made her a woman because they found out that, loved and humoured, she is an angel, but driven—well, she isn't." She thought it was Kipling who said that ships were like women in that they had many secret hopes and dreams. However that might be her ladyship trusted that the good ship "Montclare," the new C. P. R. Liner, would prove to be what all women hoped and dreamt of—the beautiful, the strong, and the true.
One of the raciest speeches ever heard at a Clyde launch was that by Lady McLaren Brown, following the luncheon at Messrs. Brown's Yard, December 16. While the new Canadian Pacific liner was not put into the water, her Ladyship christened the vessel, and as a souvenir she received a beautiful brooch which the recipient declared would give a fresh lease of life to her dress and thereby gratify her husband.

THE NEW CANADIAN PACIFIC STEAMER "MONTCLARE"

The speaker was the wife of Sir George McLaren Brown, the European Manager of the C. P. R., who, with a distinguished party, travelled from London to Liverpool for the launch.

Lady Brown, a Canadian, was both eloquent and witty and she was warmly congratulated on her contribution to the post-prandial oratory.

To clarify tallow dissolve half a pound of alum in one pint of water; then put in a double boiler so that the tallow will not burn; boil it about three-quarters of an hour and skim. Add one-quarter pound of salt dissolved in one pint of water, boil and skim.

A simple milk and potato soup may be given a relish with celery salt.

To protect mattresses, take white bran or flour sacks, sew together, hem outside edge and ends, tack tape along. Spread over springs and tie. This cover can be removed when it needs laundering. Any old sheet can be used in the same way.

Dust a little flour over the cake to prevent the icing from running off, before putting on the icing sugar.

A pinch of carbonate of soda added to fruit that is to be stewed or made into a tart will take away much of the roughness and acidity, so that the fruit will not require so much sugar.

Screen doors should be taken off as soon as fly time is past. Some folks leave them hanging all winter, but they have to buy new doors in the spring.

During warm weather everybody keeps doors and windows open to admit plenty of fresh air, but when the first cool days come they are all likely to be closed. This should be done only partially, so the body may become accustomed to plenty of fresh air, and not become liable to that shivery, sensitive condition, intolerant of the slightest sensation of chill which is the result of living in a close atmosphere. Put on more clothes, but give the lungs pure air.

To remove disagreeable odors from the house, sprinkle freshly ground coffee on a shovel of hot coals, or burn a little sugar on the shovel. This is an old-fashioned deodorizer, still good.

Occasionally wipe the windows with clean paper, tissue paper is best, but newspaper may be used, and so keep the dust and dirt from accumulating and minimize the number of real window washings necessary. You will be surprised at the amount of dirt that the paper collects from the window panes; at the ease with which you can thus clean them, and the result—clean, shining windows.

When adding a hot mixture to eggs, pour only a little at a time into the egg mixture, fold in and repeat.

When making buttonholes upon thin goods, try putting a little photo paste upon the underside of the goods, this will give a firm surface for the stitches and the paste will not injure the goods.

When roasting fowl, always place the bird on its knees, instead of upon its back, then the juices will naturally fall, making the white meat, which is apt to be dry, juicy and delectable. Fifteen minutes before serving, turn the fowl upon its back to brown the breast.

In giving castor oil to the children, put six table-spoonful of orange juice in a glass, followed by the amount of oil to be given and the same amount of orange juice on top of the oil, and the taste will not be found so objectionable. If to this is added about one-quarter of a table-spoonful of bicarbonate of soda effervescence will take place, and if the child takes it at once, very little, if any, of the oil will be tasted.

To prevent screens from rusting, treat your screen doors to a dressing of kerosene, applied with a cloth. It cleans them, prevents rust, and—in a measure—is obnoxious to flies.

In serving birds, remember that the leg of a flying bird, and the wing of a swimming bird are the choicest portions.

Thin blouses will take starch much better if dried first and then dipped into boiled starch and dried again.

THE AMUSEMENT TAX

(From the Amherst News.) How much longer are we in the towns and cities going to remain silent while the provincial government comes along and scoops in an amusement tax from every person who buys a theatre ticket, a rink ticket, a circus ticket or any kind of a ticket which is embraced in the legal definition of "amusement"? The provincial government in so acting is undoubtedly interfering with a legitimate source of civic revenue. It not only is depriving the towns of a source of revenue that is essentially the towns, but it is, in some cases at any rate, attempting to keep from the towns amounts necessary to pay civic expenses resultant from the presence of certain amusements. We would in this connection recall a local happening of the summer of 1919. A circus came to town and did street damage which necessitated the expenditure of a certain sum of money. The town had no redress from the circus. The provincial government had collected the amusement tax. The town had to repair the street and pay the bill. An attempt was made to harness the charge on the provincial government but all in vain.

The right of the towns to the amusement taxes, save that portion which is necessary to cover such things as censors fees, etc., needs not to be argued. What is necessary is that the towns and cities assert their rights.

A WORD TO THE WISE

(From the American Legion Weekly.) A colored preacher in Alabama had at one time served a short jail sentence and was fearful lest his congregation discover the fact, as in his later years he had been a model of rectitude.

One Sunday, rising to begin his sermon, his heart sank to see a former cellmate sitting in the front row.

Quick thinking was necessary. Fixing his eye on the unwelcome guest, the preacher announced solemnly:

"Ah takes mah text dis mo'nin' from de sixty-fo'th chaptah and fo' hundredth verse of the book of Job, which says: 'Dem as sees and knows me, and says nothin', dem will Ah see later.'"

AMENITIES OF THE BIG TOWN

Four immigrants at the Battery asked a taxi driver where they could get tickets to Iowa. He supplied them with subway tickets charging them $6 each, and they did not learn they had been swindled until they were put off a train at 255th street.

Three Japanese last week hired an open-faced carriage and drove for two hours around Central Park. The driver charged them $12.50, and they paid it.

WHERE PROHIBITION PROHIBITS

In view of the insistent and persistent demand in Canada for total prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicants as beverages the testimony of the largest Protestant Church in the States, that prohibition there is already "a relative success and is on the way to complete success" is important. It confutes the contrary testimony of the liquor propaganda completely. It is the witness of 20,000 churches that it is well-enforced in nine-tenths of the whole area and sufficiently well-enforced in the remainder to be a great improvement on the previous system.

The details are significant—"an enormous decrease in consumption of liquor and in arrests, as well as in petty crimes, and a corresponding increase in purchase of homes, furniture, and other articles, for home-comfort and enjoyment. There has been a most gratifying decrease in poverty and financial stringency not withstanding the crisis of deflation just past.

Of course, as was to be counted on, the liquor propaganda is magnifying the extent of illicit distilling and selling of the "home-brew" products. But, the fact is that so much of the stuff thus made and sold is so crude as to be dangerous drinking that only the dope-fiends indulge and if they continue to, they'll soon drop out. Tried by a variety of valid tests public sentiment seems to be still solidly back of the prohibitory law, and to have faith in its enforcement.

THE WAY OF WEALTH

The business man was very glum. His goods got dusty on the shelves.

His clerks found life quite wearisome, With no one there but just themselves.

A friend came in. The merchant sighed, "Business is rotten!" he complained.

And it was only just from pride That the poor man his tears restrained.

His friend looked at him in surprise And said: "Why don't you advertise?"

The business man took the advice. He ordered in a half-page ad. The ad came out, and in a trice He saw that things were not so bad.

The people flocked into his store. To buy the goods that he displayed, And gay as he was glum before, He said: "By George, my fortune's made!"

The moral is, as you surmise, All business men should advertise.

Now that severe cold weather has come, the ice companies have plenty of ice to cut, and perhaps ice will be cheap next summer.

NEWSPRINT DROPS QUARTER OF A CENT

Members who anticipated any striking reductions in newsprint prices for 1922 will be somewhat disappointed in the announcement that the price for sheet news for perhaps, the whole year of 1922 will be $4.50 per cwt. in two ton lots. The price for the last quarter of 1921 was $4.75. The reduction therefore is only a quarter of a cent per lb. The new price is surely nothing to talk about, and will hardly count in a year's business with the individual subscriber or advertiser. For roll news the new price is $3.50 per cwt., but in carload lots.

The new price for 1922 will only mean the reduction of two cents per subscriber per year for newsprint for a seven column, eight-page weekly, and one and three-quarter cents per subscriber per year for newsprint for a six-column eight-page weekly. Set against this is the increase in postal rates to all subscribers outside the free zone. There will be a slight reduction in the freight rates after January 1st. It is, however, but 10 per cent. of the pre-war advance.—Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

The astronomer who has discovered that the earth is moving north at the rate of a foot a year, hasn't yet thought of any way to stop it.

Editorial Notes

THE ACADIAN would respectfully urge that every elector who can possibly do so should take advantage of the opportunity afforded on Tuesday next of voting for those whom they wish to represent them at the Council board during the ensuing term. This is not only a privilege but the plain duty of every citizen. If we expect citizens to freely give their time and energy in conducting the affairs of the town we must show them that we are interested. A larger attendance at the Council meetings and a more evident interest in the Council and its doings would be an incentive and encouragement to those who are gratuitously acting as our representatives in this capacity. As the result of next Tuesday's voting four candidates are to be selected to fill the vacancies at the Council Board. Every elector has the right to record four votes. In past elections there have been instances of voters "plumping" for some favorite candidate. This is a most unfair and unwise proceeding and an injustice to the voter, the other candidates and the public interests. It is therefore most sincerely to be hoped that on Tuesday next there will be no "plumping" but that each voter will exercise the full right of the franchise in the selection of the full four candidates to be elected. Vote for those whom you think will best represent you. The choice is yours as well as the responsibility for the election of four candidates.

If the statements made at a recent meeting of the Electric Commission are to be taken seriously they indicate a condition of affairs which well deserves the careful consideration of citizens. We are too prone, perhaps, to pay little regard for the affairs of the different departments of town government, forgetting that it is our business and that our pockets that have to provide for wastage that may occur. At the meeting of the Commission last week it was stated by one of the members and affirmed by the electrician that current furnished for power, after being carried for little over a mile of wire was distributed at a loss of over forty per cent. A line loss of such proportions over practically a new line constructed under expert supervision would seem to be altogether too great. Throughout Canada there are numerous companies delivering current over hundreds of miles of wire at from two to two and a half cents or even less. If such companies were operating under the same conditions as are alleged to exist here the price of the current would be more than cancelled by the line loss sustained. If the claim made by the Commission is substantiated by fact the wisdom of entering into a contract with the Lower Horton Electric Co. at a rate of 8 cents might very well be questioned. The delivery of this current requires transmission of more than double the distance of that of the case referred to above. By a recent decision, the Board of Public Utilities has reduced this rate to 7 cents which according to the testimony of those in charge would scarcely pay for the loss sustained by the Commission in delivering the current. If all the affairs of the Commission are conducted on the same business like basis it may be readily understood why its finances show such a large debit balance at the end of the year.

ACADIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

To those who realize the great historic interest that centres about the districts in the neighborhood of Wolfville and the possibilities of awakening Nova Scotians to the value of commemorating historic events, the news that a that a historical society has been organized will indeed be welcomed. The first officers of this society have been chosen and are as follows:
President—Dr. George B. Cutten.
Vice-Presidents—J. F. Herbin and H. W. Phinney.
Sec.-Treas.—Dr. W. A. Coit.
These men together with Viscount Forsyth de Fronsac and W. C. Milner of the Dominion Archives recently met and launched the Acadia Historical Society. In the near future the aims and purposes of this society, its by-laws and rules for membership will be announced, and the founders are confident that a large number of people will be interested enough in the history of Acadia and the Acadians to help promote the work that will be undertaken.

Child Welfare Clinic at Clinic Rooms, Kentville, Friday, Feb. 3, commencing at 2 P. M.

At school the Eye Policeman looks in to see how you place your book, and whether your back is straight when you read, and he writes down the names of people who sprawl over their desks and put their faces too near their work. In the play ground he watches the boys particularly, because he knows how fond they are of throwing dirt or gravel at each other in fun. If he sees anything being thrown in a playfellow's face, he writes something very big in his book; don't ask what it is! If any child gets a fly or a piece of dirt in his eye, the Eye Policeman keeps a sharp lookout to see no dirty fingers are poked in after it. Flies in your eye are bad but dirty fingers are worse. If you don't want your name in the Policeman's note book, just go to the teacher and ask her to get out the unwelcome visitor. When you are at home in the evening, the Eye Policeman will probably call in, just to make sure that you're not sitting in a dark corner reading or writing, with the work on your knees. If he finds you sitting at the table, with the light coming over your left shoulder, he will creep out again with a smile on his face and the note book in his pocket, for that's the right way. At night when you go to bed, the Eye Policeman is on the watch; he puts his head in at the bedroom door just to see that you are not reading in bed, for bed time is sleeping time. Eyes need rest, just as much as your arms and legs, and instead of rest you are giving them terribly hard work when you read in bed. To be concluded in next issue. TOWN MANAGER PLAN A SUCCESS

The town manager plan of civic government seems to be working out remarkably well in Woodstock, N. B., judging by the glowing reports submitted at a public meeting of the ratepayers of that town last week. The close of the fiscal year found all bills paid and a snug balance of $8,421 standing to the credit of the town. The gentleman who fills the important position of Town Manager of Woodstock is Mr. Fraser Armstrong, a civil engineer by profession and a graduate of the University of New Brunswick. He is paid a salary of $3,000 a year and there is not the slightest doubt but that he earns the money. He works under the direction of the Town Council and has full charge of all the civic business. Public works are carried on under his direction, he purchases all supplies for the town and looks after the collection of the civic revenue. He seems to be on the job the whole time and sees to it that the town gets full value for every dollar expended. In commenting editorially on the reports submitted by the Town Manager at the public meeting recently the "Sentinel" newspaper has this to say concerning the system:

"Thanks to the good sense of the citizens we are operating under the town manager plan of civic government and all monies are expended under the supervision of a trained engineer, who is free from all local entanglements, and whose sole aim and ambition is to get the last penny of service out of every dollar that is placed in his hands to spend. The town manager is insurance against waste, and if there is anything that dries up tax sources, controlled directly by the people, it is waste. In the report submitted Monday night, the citizens were taken into the manager's confidence. He placed the cards on the table, face up, and then, having stated facts and removed the fancies of the misinformed, the result was left to the independent judgement of the individual taxpayer. The whole town business was an open book and the results shown is a convincing illustration of the superiority of the new method over the old system when desired results were obtained by indirection and manipulation."

That the Mayor was well pleased with the results of the town manager system is attested by some observations which he made at the meeting referred to, and the Sentinel reports him as saying:

"I spent two years at this board under the old conditions—I have followed the affairs of the town very closely this year, and I am thoroughly convinced that the town of Woodstock has been losing annually from $2500 to $4000 in uncollected taxes and water rates. It was no uncommon thing to carry over a defaulters' list of $3,500 to $4,000 and re-assess the second time the man that has already paid. Year after year bonds were issued for $1000 and $2000 to cover payments that should have been paid out of current revenue. The showing made by our manager this year, in the face of adverse conditions, is conclusive proof that not only is the system right but the man occupying the position of manager is giving it the most careful business attention. I would also call your attention to the fact that the statement for the year 1920 showed a credit balance of $7,756.51—something quite out of the ordinary; $6,000 of this was used to reduce the 1921 assessment and now we come down this year with a credit balance of $8,421.90, with all accounts paid."

"I feel," said the mayor, "that had we adopted the manager system years ago, and been fortunate enough to secure the services of Mr. Armstrong (our present manager) the town of Woodstock would have been many thousands of dollars better off."

WASTING (?) THE RATEPAYER'S MONEY

The Ottawa Citizen publishes a despatch from its Brockville correspondent reporting the appointment in Westport, Ont., of Jerry Steele as constable, street commissioner, sanitary inspector, school attendance officer, pound-keeper, dog tax collector and officer to enforce the Ontario temperance act and caretaker of the town hall and other municipal buildings at a salary of $200 per annum.

Because of the high cost of gasoline in Cuba, alcohol is used in automobiles in place of the ordinary fuel. The price of gasoline has dropped from 54 cents to 45 cents a gallon. Alcohol is selling at 35 cents a gallon, which is susceptible to reduction if gasoline continues to drop.

WHERE SHALL I SPEND MY EARNINGS?

WHILE it must be conceded that as a general principle one has a right to spend his money as he pleases, there are considerations that should exercise certain restraint upon one. But really, is it "my money" that I earn? If I can earn $2,500 a year, I may think it is mine to do as I please. But as I may be thinking that way, along comes the Government and says to me: 4 per cent. of what you earned over $2,000 is mine in the shape of income tax. I may feel like objecting, but on second thought I say nothing and fork over. Hardly am I through when along comes the assessor and tells me to go and hand some of "my money" to the support of the school. Now, I kick of course, but, I hand it over, only to be told by the collector that that is not enough, I must hand over some more of "my money" to the keeping up of the roads, bridges, electric lights, county home, etc., etc. I kick worse than ever, but I have learned I must pay, and I pay. That part of it is not "my money". Thinking I am through paying out "my money" without getting any tangible returns, I bundle up what I have left and as I get ready to tie up the stocking I was going to hide it in, along comes the church treasurer and tells me about one-tenth of one per cent., or more is required to pay preacher's salary and heat the church during the winter. I know this cannot be collected by law, but I make use of the church some times or I might want to have my funeral there some day, so I pay. Then comes the lodge, the community picnic, the help to Mrs. Black whose husband died and left her six children, the choral society, whist club and other social functions. True I did not have to "pony up" to any of these institutions but I want to be a good citizen and my civic pride did not permit me to be a slacker. I had now contributed of "my money" to almost everything in the town except to the town itself, that is to that which makes the town, that without which there would be no town—its business institutions.

I had sent my washing to the next town because I did not like the way the laundryman's children talked to my children.

I had sent my glasses to "the city" to be repaired; our own optician being a neighbor, don't know anything.

I had sent to Halifax for a carpenter to fix up my sidewalk, because our home carpenter lived in too good a house. I sent to St. John for my gasoline, to Moncton for my chicken feed and groceries. I wasn't going to let our business men have any of "my money" because they were all charging too much, they didn't carry a good quality of goods and they were not a bit accommodating. I sent to Moncton for my dry goods because our stores at home do not keep any assortment. In fact, I had sent "my money" anywhere I wanted to because I earned it and it was "my money". But now, is it "my money"? If I am under obligation to give up part of it to the government, the schools, roads and bridges, churches and the hundred and one different things that are a part of my community, then why am I not under equal obligation to the very heart of my town—that without which there would be no town.

If there was not a blacksmith shop where I could spend it for repairs, a tailor shop where I could spend it for work and cleaning, a grocery store where I could spend it for food, a dry goods store where I could spend it for dry goods, a school where I could spend it for learning, a bank where I could leave my valuables for safe keeping, a printing office where I could have my printing done, a dentist where I could get my teeth fixed, a lawyer, where I could buy legal advice—if there were none of these and other institutions, where would be the town?—and if all the people in town did all their business affairs "anywhere they pleased" meaning, "anywhere except home" where would all these business institutions be?—and if I am under obligations to support the street, why not the institutions by the street? If I must contribute to the support of the village light, why not to the business house in front of the light. If I am obliged to contribute to the health department, why not to the home doctor, who is there on the job? Am I not under moral obligation to play fair with every institution which makes the town? If I want to be a good citizen can I truthfully say that is "my money" and I am going to see that no one of our home institutions gets the handling of it. Can I be honest, with myself and with my fellow citizens by playing Chinaman and take everything out without putting anything in?

AESOP'S ADVERTISING FABLE

Once upon a Time there lived a Merchant Prince who inserted a small ADVERTISING Card in his local paper. The World and His Wives rushed to the Store and the Great Battle of Push and Take occurred. The Merchant Prince did such a Tremendous Business as a Result of this one Small Advertisement that He was able to Retire and Spend the rest of his Life playing at Golf.

That is a Fable! But it still represents some folk's ideas of advertising.

ADVERTISING won't make any man or firm rich over night, but, if intelligently used with persistence, it will multiply customers, increase turnover, swell profits and build such goodwill for the advertiser as nothing else will.

THE WEDDING GOWN OF PRINCESS MARY

Short sleeves and a long skirt are the outstanding features of Princess Mary's magnificent wedding gown, the design for which the King and Queen the other day gave their approval.

This radical departure from prevailing fashion is due to the insistence of the Queen that the Princess follow her example.

A gorgeous court train four yards long will be in striking contrast to the simple tulle veil which will be arranged off the bride's face to fall in graceful fullness over the back of the gown to the hem of her dress.

A description of the gown has been furnished by Reville, Europe's most famous dressmaker who has achieved an artistic triumph in his handling of the famous English point lace which was worn by Queens Mary and Victoria, and also by the latter's mother, the Duchess of Kent, at their wedding.

The lace will be worn over specially woven ivory colored satin. The elbow length sleeves will also be of the same lace. It will also fall from beneath the arms in deep cascades to the skirt hem, giving a graceful and pleasing effect.

The gown is cut with a modern "V" in front, with the lace draped over the shoulders at the back in the shape of a priest's cope. The court train is of silver cloth on one side, with white satin on the reverse. It will be heavily embroidered with deep silver border, in designs emblematic of the chosen flowers of the British Empire, including the Maple Leaf of Canada.

BEWARE OF FEBRUARY

Beware of February! Canadians should consider carefully the order of their going during the first three months of the year, for vital statistics for the Dominion just published, show that the most fatal months of the year are the first three. Most deaths occur in February.

Dr. J. A. Amyot, deputy minister of health, says:

"The human system becomes peculiarly susceptible to these diseases (pneumonia and bronchitis) about February, because that is the month of greatest exhaustion after the hard winter. I imagine, also, that people about then are getting down to a fixed diet in which there is not enough green stuff, such as lettuce, cabbages and so on. The cattle at that time also are probably getting less green feed than at any other time, and so the milk does not supply the lack. The vital resources are getting exhausted after the hard fight against the cold."

"The best precaution to take is for a man to go home to bed as soon as he gets a cold. He will save time by doing it. A few days then will save a week later, and possibly prevent a condition that may develop into bronchitis or pneumonia."

The man who says that if everybody would smile it would help make times better is right to some extent, but if everybody will work hard and not be extravagant it will help a good deal more.

Florence---Birthplace of Artists

Seen from the top of the Viale dei Colli that curves gently yet with a magnificent sweep up to the Piazzale Michelangelo, among flowering bushes and pleasant gardens, and from the various hills of S. Miniato, Florence stretches out like a woman in her beauty, between the two banks of the Arno.

It is not astonishing that this fair land should have been the mother of genius, grace and power. As we breathe the air of Florence and inhale the joyousness of its landscape, and listen to the vivacious, picturesque speech of the inhabitants, we feel that Florence and the whole of Tuscany is indeed the birthplace of poets and artists; that here art and poetry are spontaneous things, of the same nature as the water that springs from the sources of the Arno.

How could the Florence of today banish the memory of Dante? The greatest of all Italians, exiled by the wickedness of his contemporaries. And their descendants, as if to make amends for the ingratitude meted out to him, have carved his verse in marble on their street corners.

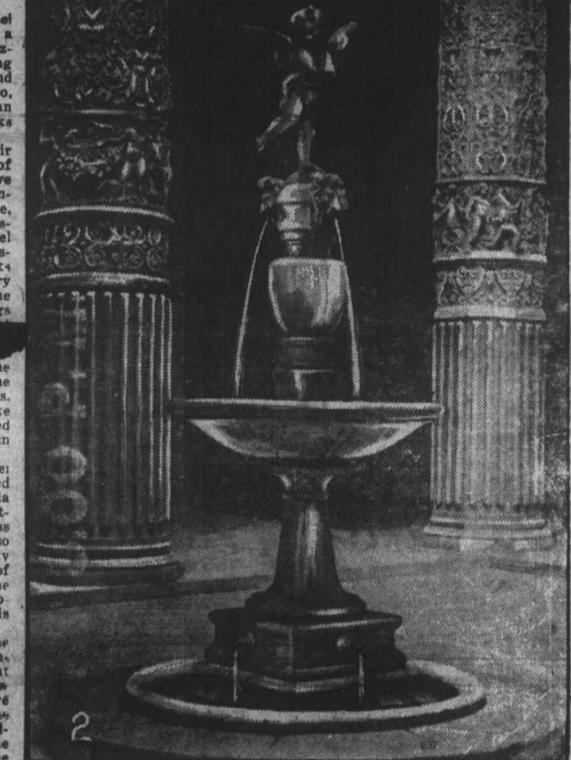

The house where Galileo Galilei lived and thought cannot be visited without emotion, especially the Villa at Arcetri, where the great scientist spent his last days in blindness and ill health, whence we can also enjoy a panorama of exquisite beauty and peacefulness; and the house of Buonarroti where a nephew of the divine Michelangelo has gathered together a precious collection of his great ancestor's works.

Florence has not yet reached the status of a great city; on the contrary it has remained a somewhat provincial town, but tram-cars now run all through its streets and give it animation without spoiling in the least the charm of the ancient buildings, of the marvellous loggias, of the churches and palaces built by the generosity of the Medici to the great glory of the "city of the lily."

Industry has not yet invaded Florence as is the case in the northern towns of Italy, although the production of art works is still an important factor, while the art of manufacturing silk and wool was a source of great prosperity in the time of the Medici.

Florence, the mother of Art, gave birth and hospitality to innumerable Italian and foreign artists: Cimabue, Giotto, Masaccio, Botticelli, Leonardo, Michelangelo, Andrea del Sarto amongst painters; Lucaerna Donatello, the two Della Robbia, Michelangelo, Benvenuto Cellini and Sansovino amongst the sculptors. Arnolfo di Cambio, the first architect of Santa Maria del Fiore, Giotto Orcagna, the great Brunelleschi, who built the beautiful cupola of the cathedral; Leon Battista Alberti and Sangallo amongst the architects.

The churches and palaces of Florence, its streets and squares, museums and galleries, make up a collection of art treasures without rival even among the famous collections of the world.

(1) Florence, Italy, showing the Bridges over the River Arno. (2) A water fountain in front of the opera house.

collections, our minds are literally saturated with beauty. But no one can have a complete idea of Florence without making an excursion beyond the outskirts of the town, where the surroundings possess great beauty of landscape and a charm which is not easily found elsewhere. A day at Piesole, where the ruins of the Roman theatre are still in existence, is a joy not soon forgotten. Then, climbing up to Belosguardo, we can enjoy a perfect panorama. Further on we find Signa with its terra cotta factory and Oecia where the well-known Ginori china is made. Nor should Settignano, cradle of the sculptor's art of the great Mino, be forgotten nor Vincigliata, or Vallombrosa, majestic buildings of the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, and those of the later Renaissance and "baroque" period, with their fantastically decorated facades and geraniums in perpetual bloom at their windows constitutes the most fascinating feature of Florence. Everything has been rebuilt on antique lines; the foundations have been scratched of buildings that were no more, so that they might be accurately restored. Facing the Pretorian Palace, situated in the Frugitore Tower, and used as a prison and place of execution, in the thirteenth century, the houses that belonged to the Alighieri have been exhumed. Patient research work, spreading over periods of years, has rediscovered the foundations, the main walls and some stone coats-of-arms belonging to the Alighieri and other noble families of Florentine merchant princes, among others the Adimari and Donati. The houses which existed when the great poet was born have been brought to life again in all the splendour of their architecture and decoration and have been surrounded by a magnificent railing of beaten iron. The red robe of the first great Italian citizen can almost be heard rustling within those rooms as one passes through its stained-glass windows.

The Medici Palace, the residence of power, bears witness to their blood-stained oppression and stolen plunder, which the poetic gifts and gentle nature of one of their race, Laurence the Magnificent, have not been sufficient to obliterate.

And the Pazzi Palace, the stronghold of the implacable enemies of the Medici, an imposing square mass, also stands as a warning against injustice and tyranny.

are spoiling what otherwise might be an excellent paper and one of the chief agencies for good in Wolfville by encouraging this growing habit of "slamming" our town and the citizens thereof through anonymous letters.

Now there is nothing very brave or clever in sitting behind the cover of a nom-de-plume and by means of letters signed "Bill" supposed to be funny, making unkind remarks about our Council and thus discouraging men and women, who have given freely of their time to the service of the Town.

I might mention other cases but those will suffice. Let us "boost" not "slam" and if we must find fault, let us do so openly and not skulk in the "dug out" of a fictitious name.

E. PERCY BROWN. Wolfville, Jan. 31, 1922.

TOWN OF WOLFVILLE

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN: Dear Sir:-

For various reasons it was not possible to complete investigations before the publication of the Financial Statements and Balance Sheet last week, with the result that it is now our duty to make known the alterations which have been necessitated by the continued examination of the Minutes and records of the Council for the whole year.

To comply with a request for an accounting of the Bonds (1921 Issue) sold to the amount of $36,000.00, we also published a Memorandum of the Expenditures to be covered by the proceeds of such sales. Guided by a reference to the record of the Estimates as passed by the Council, we included an item of $3000.00 expended during 1920 on Linden Avenue and Front Street ordered to be repaid to Current account by the Sale of Bonds which Sale we found duly authorized by a resolution passed at a later date. But on continuing our examination of the Minutes to the first of the year we discovered that in January 1921 Debentures were sold—$1000.00 Streets and $500.00 Sewers—and the proceeds amounting to $1380, had been paid into Current account in part repayment of the $3000 which was afterwards provided for in the estimates.

At the same time it may be mentioned in regard to the New School Building and Land acct. that, up to Dec. 31, 1921, there had been expended a total of $36,284.22, of which a part was covered by the proceeds of the $21,500 New Bonds sold, and a part by the Special Loan from the Bank, thus leaving due to Current account a balance of $2320.22 and a net amount receivable from Capital account of $677.26.

LOWER HORTON CEMETERY COMPANY

The Annual Meeting of the Lower Horton Cemetery Co. was held in the Vestry of the Methodist church on Wednesday, January the eighteenth, the President, Dr. A. C. Borden, in the chair.

The Financial Report showed a balance on hand, Jan. 5, 21, $170, $420.00, $200.00 being a legacy from the estate of the late Alice A. Crane, deceased.

The Directors reported on work performed during the year and the plans for 1922. There were nine burials during the year. Maple trees were planted around the new part of the cemetery.

The committee in charge of the Dennison Lot, reported that the old fence had been replaced by a new one and painted and lot was now in good condition.

Officers for the year 1922 were elected as follows:

Hon. Pres.—Rev. G. W. Whitman
President—Dr. A. C. Borden
Sec'y-Treas.—Miss Annie M. Stuart

Directors—Messrs. F. E. Fuller, and L. H. Curry
Lot Layers—Messrs. F. C. Denison and S. H. Trenholm
Supt.—Mr. Frank E. Harris
Drainage Com.—Mr. Scott L. Trenholm
Fencing Com.—Messrs. Ayrton Johnson and Gordon Simson
Finance Com.—Messrs. L. H. Curry, D. M. King and Mrs. F. F. Mitchell
Men. Day Com.—Rev. G. W. Whitman and Miss Stuart

Following a spirited discussion by a large majority of those present, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

"Resolved, that we place on record, that, in our judgement the charges made by the undertakers in connection with the burial of the dead are exorbitant, and such as cannot be justified, placing upon all but the wealthy an impossible burden."

"Further Resolved: That if these charges continue as at present we shall take measures to secure relief from the same."

Great interest was shown in the meeting, especially by the younger men.

ANNIE M. STUART,
Sect'y-Treas.

ELECTION CARD

To The Electors:
Having been nominated as a candidate in the forth coming election for the Town of Wolfville I promise if elected to do what I think best for the interest of the Town.

I do not propose to make any personal appeal for I have no axe to grind. I believe that in the case of Town Councillor the office should seek the man not the man the office.

I leave it to the unbiased opinion of the Electors to vote as they choose.

ELECTION CARDS

To the Electors of the Town of Wolfville:

Having accepted a nomination for the Council, I wish to state that I am not making a personal canvass of the electorate but will be very grateful for any support I may receive. If elected I will do my utmost to serve the best interests of the town.

LESLIE E. EATON
Feb. 2nd, 1922.

To the Electors of the Town of Wolfville:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—Being again nominated to the office of Town Councillor, I embrace this opportunity of thanking you for your support in the past and solicit the same in the coming election—Feb. 7; pledging myself to uphold your interests in the transaction of all business pertaining to the good of our town.

Respectfully,
C. R. NOWLAN

Wolfville Electors:

In compliance with the request of a large number of our rate-payers, I am a candidate for Town Councillor at the election Tuesday, Feb. 7th inst. The time for personally soliciting votes is short and there will be many I shall not be able to see, but I take this way of asking you to vote for me.

If elected I shall do my utmost to place our finances on a sound basis. I shall oppose needless and extravagant expenditures of money, and shall ever keep in view that Wolfville is a beautiful residential town which we want to grow and prosper.

Respectfully,
D. G. WHIDDEN.

To the Electors of the Town of Wolfville.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—I desire to thank the electors who have tendered me a nomination to the Council Board.

In accepting I wish to say, if elected to the Council, I shall do my best to further the interests of the Town in the future as I have in the past. I take this opportunity of soliciting the votes and support of the Electorate on Tuesday next, February 7th. With thanks very many.

Much interest is being taken in the coming visit of Dr. Robert Norwood, Nova Scotia's famous poet. He will be accompanied by his friend, Mr. Marshall, of Bridgewater, also a famous poet, who while here will be the guest of Mr. Archibald Guest. While in Wolfville Dr. Norwood will be the guest of Mr. & Mrs. R. W. Tufts.

ELECTION CARD

To the Electors of the Town of Wolfville:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having been nominated by a number of yourselves as a candidate at the approaching Civic Election for the office of Councillor, I take this opportunity of soliciting your support.

Owing to the brief time at my disposal before election day, it is absolutely impossible to call personally upon all electors, a letter of this kind is therefore rendered necessary.

If elected on Tuesday next, I promise you my very best endeavours. Having been a resident of Wolfville for nearly five years, I think I may claim to be fairly familiar with the requirements of the town.

It will be my aim, if elected, to do all in my power to further the interests of this community and the welfare of the citizens, particularly with reference to

- (1) The provision of adequate fire protection.
- (2) Immediate revision of the Town By-Laws and strict enforcement of all Laws within the Town.

With due regard to the desirability of keeping taxation as low as possible, I am prepared to stand for as many Progressive undertakings as the growth and resources of the town will justify.

Thanking you in anticipation of your vote and support on Tuesday next.

I beg to remain
Yours for Progress and Justice,

A. J. MASON

THE SIMPLEX FARM RECORD
Is the most simple and complete system for keeping a correct account of all farm operations showing every item of income and expenditure, the actual cost of production of everything grown by him, whether farm produce or stock, and showing him at the end of the year just what has given best returns for the cost of production, and also just what has been done at a loss. He can then stop the leaks. It also supplies him with all needed information to correctly fill out Income Tax Return Forms, and is fully endorsed for that purpose by Mr. J. P. Edwards, Inspector of Taxation, Halifax. Prof. Cumming, of Truro, and Prof. Blair, of Kentville, also endorse it as the very thing needed. There is also a free supplement giving best information on most important farm problems. 100,000 copies already sold in Canada in four months.
Mr. Fred Graham, Avonport, has been appointed representative for territory east of Wolfville to Hantsport, and Mr. F. M. Vaughan, Port Williams, for the Port Williams section. They will carry a supply of records when calling on you in the near future, or will forward them to you at your request. Correspondence solicited.

CHARLES RAY
"Peaceful Valley"
An adaption of Sol Smith Russell's famous stage success
Charles Ray is coming as a country boy again. This is occasion to say that his arrival will indicate an evening of rare enjoyment. For who can give expression to this human character with the same vision, the same observation as Charles Ray? The picture is "Peaceful Valley", and it offers a series of highly humorous and human incidents—incidents which will be recognized as genuinely real. There is romance, sentiment, mother-love and intimate touches of farm life which make this picture thoroughly appealing. The star never gave a finer portrayal than his sketch of Hosiab Howe the part made famous by Sol Smith Russell. Don't miss this rare treat.

I. Clarkson Miller's Rugged Picture of the Klondyke
"The Idol of the North"
Certainly no actress on the screen today can be compared with her in the interpretation of the Primitive Woman of the North.
She was a wild, untamed daughter of the North, the country where men and women struggled for existence—where strong drink and fists ruled. She was the daughter of a French-Canadian—a girl possessing a vital personality. Sure of her power over men, she toyed with them. One moment she would be as gentle as a child, the next minute would find her a capricious madcap, living for only one purpose, to make playthings of men. In revenge her associates who had been victimized forced her into marriage with a stranger. But little did the miners think that she would make the best of a bad bargain. What follows is intensely itself. In fact the picture, "The Idol of the North", is a smashing, vigorous, red-blooded picture. Dorothy Dalton is the star.
