N. B. PLAYERS LOSE IN TENNIS SINGLES

SHORT AND MISS FAIRWEATHER ARE DEFEATED

Edwards and Miss Cole, Halifax, Are New Champions STRAIGHT SETS

N. B. Title Holder Finds Difficulty in Handling N. S. Type of Ball

Special to The Times-Star. HALIFAX, Aug. 21 - Two new Maritime tennis champions were crowned this morning when J. C. Edwards of Halifax wrested the title from H. L. Short of Rothesay in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, and Miss Lois Fairweather, Rothesay, went down to defeat before Miss Celeste Cole of Halifax, N. S. ladies' singles champion.

After a match of scintillating driving, volleys and court strategy on the part of both men, Edwards' victory was clean cut as he played magnificently. Short experienced difficulty with the balls used in play, the New Brunswick tournaments being played with heavier balls. Edwards started serving in the first set and both men played a hard drawing game from the base line, the Nova Scotian having the edge in the rallies. Short was having difficulty timing his shots, and the length of his drives was poor owing to the fact that he was accustomed to the type of ball used in Nova Scotia.

SHORT RALLIES. Edwards took the first three games and then the Rothesay ace hit his stride and captured the next two. His opponent ran up the score to 5-2, but Short lightened and by driving magnificently to the corner made it five all. Edwards won the first set, 7-5. Each player won his serve until the score stood three all in the second set. Then the Halifax man broke through Short's service and won his own, making the score 5-3. Short took the next game, but Edwards served superbly, winning the set 6-4. The winner's drive carried more punch than his opponent's.

With a two-set handicap to overcome, Short speeded up and won the opening game of the third and crucial set. TITLE DECIDED. The third set found Edwards instead of wearing down as expected, putting up a superb exhibition of tennis; his driving had power to burn and his length and accuracy were almost faultless. Short could not overcome the difference in the type of ball and although he fought gallantly for victory his drives lacked their usual punch and fell short in their length. Edwards won this set 6-2 and the match and title.

LADIES' SINGLES. At twelve thirty the ladies' singles title match began with Miss Lois Fairweather, youthful Rothesay player, facing Miss Celeste Cole, of Halifax, 1922 Maritime champion. The Halifax lady's superior court strategy asserted itself at once and her clever placements soon won her an advantage over her less experienced opponent. The first set went to Miss Cole 6-0. Miss Cole won the second set 6-2 and the title, her chopping service and returns being well timed and proving a source of difficulty to her young opponent.

AFTERNOON'S PLAY. In the ladies' doubles this afternoon, Miss Fairweather with Miss Margaret Henderson, Rothesay, met Miss Hilda Douglas, and Miss Winifred McFarlane, South End, Halifax; Miss Jean Knight and J. P. McInerney, Renfrew, clash with James Butler and Miss Dorothy Symonds, Bedford, N. S. In the men's doubles and Hasen Short, and P. J. Halliday, Rothesay, met James Butler and J. C. Edwards, Bedford, in the men's doubles.

PUBLIC TAKES HAND TO AVERT COAL STRIKE

Robbers Raid Chicago Jewelry Establishment, Calmly Select $250,000 In Gems, and Escape

CHICAGO, Aug. 21 - Jewelry valued at upwards of $250,000, most of it in diamonds, was the loot of a robber quartette who yesterday invaded the seventh floor offices of Lazarus & Weil, jewelry manufacturers, held a half dozen employes and officials of the company at bay, raised five large safes, and fled without disturbing more than 30 other employes in adjoining rooms. The robbers were engaged for half an hour in their task of sorting out the most valuable jewelry, scattering the cheaper gems on the floor. All were masked and worked calmly and leisurely and as they backed out of the office, pressed the elevator button, whisked the masks from their faces as they stepped in, and, at the bottom, slugged the elevator operator and fled in their car. Officials of the company, after a cursory examination, said the loot was at least $200,000, and possibly much higher. Half of them are covered by insurance.

BUSINESS MEN URGE REOPENING OF NEGOTIATIONS

New-England Governors To Discuss Question Tonight MOVE HAS EFFECT. Operators Willing to Leave Matter to Neutral Arbitration, Says Chairman. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21 - While flying high up among the anthracite coal fields, when the working agreement expires on August 23, the public has taken its place as a third interested faction in the battle between operators and miners. Tonight the governors of the New England states meet to discuss ways and means of averting a strike, and of handling the situation should they be unsuccessful. In Wilkesbarre, Pa., yesterday, a mass meeting of business men from throughout Pennsylvania, appointed a committee to persuade operators and miners to resume negotiations, broken off on August 8, at Atlantic City. Speaking for thousands of persons, throughout the coal fields, whose livelihood is dependent upon coal trade property, although not employed in the mines, the Errington, Pa., city council last night addressed petitions to the warring factions to strive once more to come to terms. W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators' scale committee, took occasion of public opinion in a lengthy letter to Governor Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts. His letter, written from Scranton, and made public simultaneously in several places, declared that the position of the miners is that they do not care to negotiate unless the operators concede in advance an increase of wages, and other adjustments which would add from $2 to $3 to the price of anthracite—and also concede the check-out.

GENEVA, Aug. 21 - The question of the establishment of a conciliation commission for the settlement of international disputes to be attached to the World Court of Justice and the problem of slavery, were two prominent features of a supplementary agenda of the League Assembly issued last night. Simultaneously, the league made public the text of a proposal to create a conciliation commission, as suggested by the Danish Government, whereby all disputes between states destined for the World Court, should first be brought before the conciliation body, which should endeavor to find a friendly agreement. Simultaneously, the league would have three members, two to be named by the parties to the dispute, the third being a member of the World Court, who would act as chairman.

Modern Machinery Condemned For Effect on Worker's Soul

BERLIN, Aug. 21 - Chancellor Luther yesterday made public the text of an address which he had prepared for delivery before the Universal Christian conference at Stockholm, in which he propounds the question: "Has the mechanization of modern economic life destroyed the soul of the individual worker?" The chancellor had hoped to be accompanied personally, but has been prevented from leaving Berlin. Chancellor Luther, who is a lineal descendant of the great reformer Martin Luther, says in his address that with the introduction of modern machines, the individual artisan has lost personal contact with his work, and calling, which has produced a spiritual void in the individual worker which practical Christianity should seek to overcome. The artisan of middle ages, the chancellor continues, rejoiced in his calling, because he was in much more intimate touch with it, whereas the worker of the present day is only expected to supplement his machine-made task with a few perfunctory manual movements. As a result, the chancellor believes the modern worker is deprived of his spiritual life and is supplied with a source of ethical inspiration as an offset.

NEWSMAN CONVERSES WITH WARSHIP 14,000 MILES AWAY

Voice From London by Radio Heard in Wellington, New Zealand - Commander Denies Reports of Fighting Between U. S. Sailors and Police. By KEITH JONES. United Press Staff Correspondent. Copyright 1925 by United Press. LONDON, Aug. 21 - The world's record long distance radio press interview was made today when I conversed across 14,000 miles of space with Commander Grosse of the United States battleship Seattle at Wellington, N. Z. This feat of aerial communication and journalism was made possible through the courtesy of the famous radio amateur, Gerald Marcus, who, without any pre-arrangement, established in 50 seconds a link by air with the battleships more than half way around the world from here. The commander aboard the visiting United States battleship in faraway New Zealand could hear my voice plainly, but he gave his answers in Morse code. DENIES REPORT. The connection was made at 6.30 this morning and I asked the commander: "Is there any truth in the reports of fighting between the American sailors and the New Zealand police?" "The reports are absurd," came his reply. "There has been no fighting and no rioting whatsoever. The sailors are do-

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 - A despatch from Cleveland, Ohio, to the New York Evening World today says that Ruth, home run king, may not receive his salary of $52,000 a year, when his present contract expires and he signs a new one. A slump in his batting, which is now under .250 for this season, will result in a reduction in his pay, says the despatch. When the season ends Ruth plans a hunting trip to New Brunswick. He will spend a month or more after the season in the woods up there for the greater part of the winter, with the object of making a valiant attempt to get into shape for the 1926 season, and avoiding the threatened salary cut. OTHERS COMING. There will be a second baseball expedition to Canada this fall, according to the World. Stresses Co-operation as Best Avenue to Country's Aims EARL APPLAUDED. Crowded Chamber Visibly Affected By Words Of King's Representative. Canadian Press via Reuters. SIMLA, India, Aug. 21 - A record crowd of visitors and a full house was attracted by the exceptional interest in an address by the Earl of Reading, Viceroy, at the state opening of the autumn session of the All-India Legislature yesterday. The Earl of Reading said that his discussions with leaders of varying political views in Great Britain, showed that while they were all sympathetic toward India, they were equally determined not to yield to pressure nor make premature concessions. CO-OPERATION URGED. This, he continued, confirmed his own view that it was through friendly co-operation alone that India could advance to her ultimate goal. He declared that the time for the revision of the constitution had not yet arrived. Indeed, if an impartial Royal Commission were now appointed to examine the position in light of the co-operation treaty, it would only result in disappointments. On the other hand, the time was now opportune for the working of the machinery of reform. The Muddiman report, he observed, would remove the defects in the working of these reforms. MORE REVENUE COMING. The Viceroy said that the financial stringency was disappearing and that ministers were obtaining new resources in their programmes of improvement and development. Furthermore, he continued, ministers would recruit their own provincial services to operate in the transferred field. He considered this a step toward a more efficient system. The Viceroy announced the appointment of a currency commission under the chairmanship of Lieutenant-Commander Hilton Young. He considered this a step toward a more efficient system. Continued on Page 2, column 3.

B. C. ADOPTS LOCAL OPTION FOR BEER

Vote May be Taken on Petition of Forty Per Cent. of Electorate. CANADIAN PRESS. VICTORIA, Aug. 21 - A provincial order in council yesterday gave British Columbia local option as to beer. In parts of the province beer is dispensed by the glass and in other parts by the bottle only. The provincial government is the only legal seller of alcoholic drinks. The electoral riding of New Westminster has been selected to find some way for dispensation of beer there. The order decreed that any of the eight ridings in the province shall vote on beer whenever 40 per cent. of the registered voters petitioned for an election.

London Has Mystery Mansion Meal 12 Years Old on Table

LONDON, Aug. 21 - Twelve years ago was covered and even blinds were not drawn. What is more of a mystery is the fact that taxes, now amounting to $10,000 have been promptly paid each year. It was said that the owner is Mrs. Jennie Oliver Vetch, widow of a wealthy German, and the rumored reason for her strange departure was the sudden illness of her son; but no satisfactory explanation ever has been made. A heavily-veiled woman, believed by some to have been Mrs. Vetch, paid a three-minute visit to the house six years ago. Mrs. Vetch now lives at Monte Carlo, but the middle of the abandoned West End mansion remains unsolved.

MONTEAL, Aug. 21.—Canadians can encourage trade within the Empire and at the same time help themselves to the blessing of cheaper fruits by looking to South Africa, is the opinion of A. C. He figures that the establishment of an adequate refrigeration service from Cape Town to Canadian ports, would enable the Canadian consumer to enjoy the benefit of cheaper fruits.

PERSONALS Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gilchrist are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Flewelling at Fair Vale. Mr. Gilchrist's many friends will be glad to hear that he is rapidly improving after a recent operation at the Montserrat Hospital, Boston, Mass.

FOUR CENTS GRAPEFRUIT Mr. Kiddle, asked as to the preference to British goods given by South Africa, said that the elimination of the general preferential tariff to Britain, and the substitution thereof of preferences on various articles, had not changed matters very much. On some lines the British preference ran to 5 per cent, on other lines it was lower, the maximum being 5 per cent.

GAME THIS EVENING. In the Intermediate League this evening the Martlets and Canucks will clash. The game will be staged on the West Side diamond and is carded to start at 7 o'clock.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 21, 1925.

THE C. N. R. AND THE MARITIMES.

The attention of the Common Council, the Board of Trade, the Port Committee, and citizens generally, is directed to the concluding paragraph of Sir Henry Thornton's annual report for the year ended March 31, 1924. It is as follows:

"The business done through the Canadian Atlantic ports is capable of much greater expansion, in the accomplishment of which expansion mutual understanding between the Eastern, Western and Central portions of Canada is essential. Several suggestions have been made to the Canadian National Railways management as to how this desired result might best be brought about, but as the province of the management of the railway system is to deal solely with transportation this larger question of policy must be left to the Government and to Parliament."

The Atlantic ports are waiting. But between Sir Henry, the Government and Parliament, the "much greater expansion" of the business through these ports appears to have fallen into the deadwater of "unfashionable" policy. It must not remain there.

Before writing that concluding paragraph, telling how much more might be done, Sir Henry dealt generally with the relations between the C. N. R. and the Maritimes and recorded some of the things which had been accomplished for the improvement of business. He said in his report that the position of this part of the country seemed to call for special comment. He noted that in these provinces there appeared to exist "a feeling of disappointment and dissatisfaction in a way, which is not clearly revealed, that the provinces have not obtained the advantages from Confederation which they were led to expect." He said that "no consideration of such a problem is obviously beyond the scope and responsibilities of the administration of the National Railway system, but when dissemination in any section of the Dominion reaches such proportions as to involve a possible effect upon the country's operations, it is desirable that at least some attention should be given, and it is for this reason that the subject is mentioned in this report."

Proceeding, he said that the "traffic department had given the Maritimes increased attention, and as a result the sailings from Halifax had been increased from 491 in 1922 to 768 in 1923. "The Canadian National Railway recognizes the importance of the ports of Saint John and Halifax," he said, "and the useful part they should both play in the development of Canadian marine traffic. Nothing within reason will be left undone to promote increased business through these gateways." He called attention to the fact that the differential of one cent per hundred pounds against Halifax had been removed and that it might be understood that the C. N. R., within the limits of its ability, are endeavoring to do everything possible to better transportation conditions in the Maritime Provinces."

But what has been done, what is being done, or what is to be done in order to give these ports the greater traffic that Sir Henry Thornton said in the final paragraph of his report they might have under certain conditions? What is meant by "mutual understanding between the Eastern, Western and Central portions of Canada," which Sir Henry says is essential to the much greater expansion of the business done through Canadian Atlantic ports?

What are the suggestions that have been made to the management as to how this desired result can best be brought about? Have these suggestions been placed before the Government? Presumably so, for Sir Henry says "this larger question of policy must be left to the Government and to Parliament." The greater use of these ports, the greater expansion of the business which Sir Henry says is possible, is a matter of interest not only here but to the whole country. There should be no mystery about the methods necessary to bring about this expansion.

Sir Henry Thornton places the responsibility squarely upon the Government, and there it must rest pending further developments. He intimates that this increase of traffic can be obtained if certain things are done. His report was submitted many months ago. When are the Atlantic ports to get action? How long is the additional traffic we should have to be allowed to be diverted to alien harbors?

Odds and Ends

One on Len Smithers

A Warton, Ont., despatch to the Toronto Globe: Len Smithers was searching for a horse which had escaped from the pasture field into the bush, when he discovered a bear, busily engaged in cleaning up the ripe blackberries. Although of a peaceful disposition, Mr. Smithers was annoyed at the bear should be raiding the patch from which Mrs. Smithers annually gathers her blackberries for preserving, and as the bear started to run he hit it smartly with the halter he was carrying. Mr. Smithers, however, was not afraid of bears, but the animal evidently was raised in Elmhurst, Ont., and he was not a bear. When he scrambled to his hand and saw the bear, he planted one forepaw on Mr. Smithers' back, pinning him to the ground, while it soundly shook up, but hopes to resume work in a few days.

It's Hot Up There

(Toronto Star.) The governor-general, Lord Byng, has been away up in the sub-Arctic, at Aklavik, Fort Simpson, and beyond. While the boat which he traveled in the language of the sporting editor, was "laid up" by the other forepaw of the bear, which he was wearing in his shirt sleeves and wearing a straw hat, he walked the beach of the sub-Arctic sea.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

That a certain young man is wise beyond his years was proved when he failed before answering a widow who had asked him to get out of her house. "You must have some ideas about it," she said. "I have several ideas," said the young man with a smile. "The only trouble is that I hesitate to make you any more windows of Canada, nor do I want to put any more windows of Canada on your account." "All I can say is he didn't keep it up long enough."

FUEL INDEPENDENCE.

With an anthracite strike expected in September, the Governor of Massachusetts is calling together the governors of the other New England states for the purpose of inaugurating active steps to find and utilize substitutes for anthracite. There should be a suggestion for Canada in this action, because this country has too long permitted itself to be dependent upon the United States for its main supply of hard coal, and to that extent a strike in the anthracite region would confront it. Fuller says New England should regard as intolerable and which must be avoided in years to come.

Canoeing in Canada.

(Toronto Globe.) A delightfully written little booklet, entitled "Canoeing in Canada," has been issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence Service of the Department of the Interior. It is a most interesting and surprising but doubtless correct statement made that one may travel in a canoe, with occasional portages, from the mouth of the Mackenzie River, on the shores of the Arctic Ocean, to the Bay of Fundy, a distance of 4,000 miles. It is not asserted that this trip has been made by canoe, but it still remains a possibility. A map showing our system of rivers and lakes between the Arctic Ocean and the Bay of Fundy would be sufficient evidence even to the uninitiated, while to those who have had experience with the paddle, the same map will point the challenge to a great adventure.

It is arranged that the party will arrive early that evening, remaining here overnight and until the following evening before continuing on to Saint John and other points in the Maritime Provinces. Arrangements for the party's entertainment while here will be made at a conference which is being called for tomorrow by Mayor Phillips.

The Unpopular Two-Dollar Bill

(Chicago Journal of Commerce.) In 1920 the government put ninety tons of one-dollar bills into circulation. During the present year it will distribute eight hundred tons of them. This measure the economist increases in the demand for them, and to a considerable extent the sharp increase in prices which requires larger sums of pocket money than twenty-five years ago. It is not surprising that the government seeks to popularize two-dollar bills in order to reduce the burden and expense of printing, counting and distributing hundreds of tons of one-dollar bills, and then recounting them when returned tattered and filthy for redemption.

WRECK BLAMED FOR GROUNDING

As the same value in "ones." One may carry fifty of them in a coat pocket conveniently, but a hundred ones are decidedly bulky. Only a silly superstition, born of gambling ignorance, that a two-dollar bill is unlucky, stands against them. But even a government rule that such a mutilated bill thereby accepted only at a ten per cent reduction when sent in for redemption would cure the gambler and others of their foolishness. That would "remove the curse" most effectively, aided by the banks, that would naturally protect their cash by taking the amount when mutilated bills were deposited.

DR. T. H. LUNNEY DIES IN EGYPT

Hospital Superintendent Here for Term and Had Been Grand Knight, K. C.

DR. THOMAS H. LUNNEY, of Saint John, is dead at Port Said, Egypt, it was learned in the city yesterday. He died Aug. 7. The news reached his relatives here yesterday afternoon.

It came in a letter to the family homestead in Union street and was from the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, Leadenhall street, London.

The letter quoted a telegram received under date of Aug. 8 from Port Said, stating that Dr. Lunney had died there on the previous day. He was buried at Port Said.

GRADUATE OF MCGILL

Dr. Lunney was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lunney. His mother was Miss Lantulum before marriage, and was a member of one of the outstanding families of the city. His father was prominent in the business life of Saint John in his day and was for a long time a merchant in Dock street. Dr. Lunney was a brilliant student in his public school career in Saint John. He went to McGill University, Montreal, where he had a splendid record in medicine, graduating in 1901.

HOSPITAL SUPERINTENDENT

For three years after that he was superintendent of the General Public Hospital here and then went into private practice with office in Union street, near Charlotte. Later he removed his office to the family residence in the same street. He continued with success until the war came. Then he went overseas and joined the Royal Army Medical Corps in the Imperial Army. He served all through the troublous years that followed and his duties took him to many countries, including Malta and Russia. After the armistice he was attached to the staff of the King George Hospital in London.

IN HOSPITAL AT ADEN.

He had recently taken a voyage to Antwerp on one of the Peninsular and Oriental Company's vessels and was asked then to join for a voyage to India. It was on this voyage that he was stricken. It was on the steamship Nore that he sailed from London on June 2 and presumably on the return he was taken ill. He was placed in hospital at Aden on July 29 but after a little while there was again taken on shipboard to return to the British capital. He became worse, however, and had to be landed at Port Said and there his life ended. He had gone on this voyage as surgeon of the vessel.

Dr. Lunney was the gift of music and he had a fluent command of language that made him outstanding on the public platform or in the fraternal assemblies of which he was a member. Well read in the affairs of the country and with a ready wit, he was always welcomed as he rose to speak at any gathering.

BELONGED TO K. O. C.

Dr. Lunney had built up a large practice here when the illness that reached him. He was a charter member of Saint John Council 997 of the Knights of Columbus and was one of the earlier grand knights of the council. Dr. Lunney is survived by one sister, Miss Helen, 104 Union street, and by four brothers, J. F., formerly of the Canadian immigration department here; Dr. E. W. Lunney, of this city; Victor, also of Saint John; and Harry, a prominent attorney in Calgary. There are also three uncles, James V. Lantulum, Canadian immigration agent at Saint John; F. T. Lantulum, of the Board of Assessors of this city; and William F. Lantulum, of Portland, Me., and one aunt, Miss Margaret Lantulum, of Union street.

Motor Cycle Speeder Proves Deaf and Dumb

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The toll of life through motor accidents has not been diminished since the bank holiday of Aug. 8, when 30 people were killed and more than 60 injured. So serious has it become that the Ministry of Transport proposes taking drastic action, though in what direction the action will be taken is not yet decided. A motor cyclist who was heavily fined for exceeding the speed limit in Surrey was described by the deaf and dumb, and he was carrying on the pillion of his cycle another man similarly affected.

Two Harvesters Are Drowned In Quebec

ROBERVAL LAKE, St. John, Que., Aug. 20.—Two young men were drowned here Tuesday. Alfred Brasser, 17 years of age, and Paul Barron, 16 years, had worked in the morning harvesting and in the afternoon after a rather heavy lunch decided to take a swim in the river. They had hardly entered the deep water when they called for help. Efforts to save them failed. Their bodies were recovered last evening.

Former Moncton Man Is Drowned In West

MONCTON, Aug. 20.—Stephen M. Rutherford, a C.N.R. train despatcher at Winnipeg, was drowned while bathing at Winnipeg Beach on Aug. 8. He was a son of the late Captain Thomas Rutherford, of Riverview, N.S., and is survived by his mother, one sister, Mrs. David Pugsley, Macan, and one brother, Robert, at home. Interment was made at Riverview on Tuesday. The late Mr. Rutherford was well known in Moncton. He had resided here for some time.

Evangelist Brings Peace To 'Bloody Williamson County'

HERRIN, Ill., Aug. 21.—Harsh words and gun toting have given way to psalm reading and Bible carrying in this section—once known as "Bloody Williamson County." And Howard S. Williams, tall and peppery evangelist, once a newspaperman, is hailed as the peace negotiator. Williams, who hails from Hattiesburg, Miss., came here some three months after the last memorable street duel, in which Glenn Young, Ora Thomas and two other men had been shot down. Theirs was just another chapter of the period of hate which has swept the county since 1922. Williams opened a small revival service, as many another evangelist had done. The town at first paid little attention to this stranger who spoke of the "Brotherhood of Man." But as Williams unlimbered the crowd increased. Klan and anti-klan supporters both started attending the tabernacle where Williams held sway. The conversions began to mount. Then one day Williams surprised

Weddings

Allen-Wyman. YARMOUTH, Aug. 20.—The paragon at Arcadia of the United Church of Canada was the scene of a quiet wedding Monday afternoon, when the pastor, Rev. A. F. Baker, united in marriage Miss Pearl Eva, niece and adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wyman, of Arcadia, to William Douglas Allen, of Melbourne, of this county.

The young people were unattended and immediately following the service, which was witnessed only by the near relatives of the young people, Mr. and Mrs. Allen left on a motor trip of the province.

B., Aug. 19.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church paragon, Derby, on Monday, August 19, when Miss May Gallon, of Upper Nelson, became the bride of Vincent Clarke, of McKinnleyville. Deaths

Mrs. L. A. Sheraton. After an illness of about one year the death of Mrs. Lydia A. Sheraton, widow of R. Sidney Sheraton, occurred at her home, 65 Hazen street, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Sheraton was born in Saint John, the daughter of the late Thomas and Betsy Fairweather, and had lived in the city all her life. She was a devout member of Saint John's (Stone) church, and held in high esteem by very many friends. Her husband died about five years ago and she is survived by two sons, Hedley T. and Noel F., of Saint John. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon from Saint John (Stone) church.

Mrs. Doris Cowan. After an illness of about two weeks, Mrs. Doris L. Cowan, wife of Edwin C. Cowan, passed away at her home, 212 Main street, last evening and many friends throughout the city were greatly shocked to learn of her death. Mrs. Cowan was an active member of the Main street Baptist church and a leader in the work of the Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies' Bible Class of the church. She was Past Most Excellent Chief of Loyalist Temple No. 13, Pythian Sisters and a member of the directorate of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage. Every charitable and philanthropic enterprise found a zealous supporter and indefatigable worker in Mrs. Cowan and her leadership in the women's organizations of which she was a member was highly valued. Mrs. Cowan is survived by her husband, three sons and one brother. The sons are Walter E., Gerald D., and Jack C. all at home, and the brother is W. E. A. Dymally of New York. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from her late home, service at 2 o'clock.

PREMIER FAVORS EARLY ELECTION

Federal Cabinet Reported to Back Leader for Contest Soon

Ottawa Believes Announcement Will Not be Delayed for Long.

TORONTO, Aug. 20.—An Ottawa despatch to the Toronto Star says: "The impression prevails today, that as a result of cabinet councils and private conferences, which have been going on since the beginning of the week, advocates of an early general election have prevailed over those who desire delay and that to all intents and purposes the campaign is on."

"While no definite official announcement is expected for some time, it is understood that Premier King, who has favored an early election from the outset and those members of his cabinet who were of a like mind, have succeeded in overcoming the objections of opposing ministers and of private members who have been unfavorable to the plunge."

2 SOUGHT IN ORGIES AT MELVILLE COVE VANISH; LIQUOR HELD

HALIFAX, Aug. 20.—A palatial speedboat of Connecticut registry, a high powered motor car bearing a New York license plate, a bungalow on the shores of the Northwest Arm and several visitors believed to be from the United States, have been colorful features of the summer colony at Melville Cove since Aug. 5.

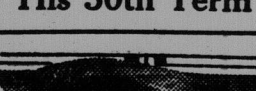

But today the bungalow was vacant, the motor boat swung idly at its moorings and the car and visitors were elsewhere while police, armed with a warrant for the arrest of R. S. Sherman and J. Mayhew, addresses unknown, had given up the vigil they had kept from ambush near the cottage since Monday night when they visited the place while the tenants were absent and seized a large quantity of rum.

Hilarity lasting far into the morning hours and participated in by young girls, had become annoying to the other members of the colony and a complaint to the police resulted in the raid. Police were unable to give the license number of the car nor identify the motor boat beyond finding that it had come from Connecticut.

"The premier, it is understood, has urged the immediate necessity of the government securing a clear mandate or majority, not only from the standpoint of government itself, but in order to better re-establish confidence in the country."

PAYS FOR PASSAGE WITH HARD LABOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—When Cornelius Osgood, 21, Harvard University student and a stowaway on the American-bound liner Minnekahda, made his presence known as the vessel left London it cost him 11 hours of hard work a day to get a free passage.

Osgood, the son of Frederick S. Osgood of Chicago, landed here yesterday. He declares he was dead broke after "doing" London. His father was caught in the recent rubber slump, he said, and didn't seem a favorable prospect for a touch. After seven attempts to sign up with an American-bound vessel, he walked aboard the Minnekahda.

"I worked 11 hours a day and more when I had to," Osgood said. "I figure I paid my passage." Then he grinned and beat it down the gangplank for a telegraph office to wire his parents.

Well Dressed Boys Wear "Kloth Klad" Suits

There are several reasons why boys prefer "Kloth Klad" Suits. Perhaps the most important is one account of their fine tailoring and the fact that "Kloth Klads" are made by specialists in boys' wear—who are well aware of the likes and dislikes of boys where things to wear are concerned. Then too, every "Kloth Klad" suit is made double at all points of strain, thus adding months of wear to already good service. In case of 2-Pant Suits, which so many of these fine suits are, both pairs of trousers are strongly reinforced. Prices are not higher than those of ordinary suits, but style, fabric, and tailoring are always on a high level. Other Two-Pant Suits $11 to $18.50 (Boys' Shop, 2nd floor.)

Australian Visitor Thinks People Do Not Fully Appreciate Gifts

Miss Reed, Exchange Teacher, Gets Fossil Specimens at Museum.

Miss E. R. L. Reed, of the department of botany of the University of Western Australia, in Perth, paid a flying visit to the city yesterday and called at the Natural History Museum, having been specially directed to that treasure house of scientific specimens.

SHOOTING RAPIDS.

During her summer vacation she spent some time camping at North Bay and then traveled eastward by the Great Lakes route, being especially thrilled by the new experience of shooting rapids.

NEEDS SETTLERS.

The great need in Australia just now is for settlers. Miss Reed considered to be increased immigration. She spoke of the complete success of the immigration schemes which are taking large numbers of British settlers to her homeland.

Put Real Mustard in Your Kit

Men who fish and men who shoot know what a spiciness and flavour mustard freshly mixed with cold water adds to the ham, bacon, fowl, venison and other good things they eat in camp.

PLEASURED WITH N. B.

Miss Reed has been much impressed by the beauty of Canadian scenery, especially with the Canadian Rockies.

At the Natural History Museum Miss Reed was specially interested in the fine collection of Indian relics and in the herbarium.

Speaking of Canada as she had found it, Miss Reed remarked upon the great dissimilarity between the cities which she had seen. Each one had a different atmosphere and an entirely different character.

She was surprised to find that in none of the cities she had visited were botanical gardens to be found. In Australia, she said, botanical gardens were the wide of all large cities and she thought Canada was losing something in not having such gardens.

As to encountering difficulties in taking up her duties as lecturer in Canada, Miss Reed said that she had sometimes been at a loss to point out an example since she was at first quite ignorant of the flora of Canada, but university botany dealt chiefly with the fundamentals which did not vary.

The Western Australia University, Miss Reed says, is the youngest of the state universities in Australia, having been first established shortly before the outbreak of the war. It has had a strenuous time to become established but is now over its crucial period.

In Australia women and men are on an equality in the matter of educational opportunities and women are received as members of the faculty on the same standing. There were women members of the law faculties and the fact that there were no women in the department of engineering and forestry she believed was simply because no women had taken up those branches of study for their degrees.

Women and Kiddies Get More Protection By Argentine Law

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 21.—Protection of employed mothers, prospective mothers, other women workers and children is provided in a sweeping national law which has just gone into effect.

The bill provides that no minor can be employed in either domestic, industrial, commercial or rural work unless he has first completed the minimum of schooling required by law. In addition, no child of less than twelve years can be employed in any kind of labor outside his own family, and none can be employed between the ages of twelve and fourteen without special permission showing that such employment is necessary to his own support or that of his parents or brothers and sisters.

Between the ages of fourteen and sixteen no child can be employed more than six hours daily or thirty-six hours weekly, nor later than eight o'clock at night nor earlier than seven o'clock in the morning in the winter and six in the summer. No minor can be employed in public places nor on the streets, exception being made only in the case of theatrical companies where minors of more than sixteen years can be employed under certain conditions.

A long list of occupations classed as hazardous or unhealthful is barred entirely to minors of less than 18 years, and in case of accident to a minor in any such forbidden work the law holds that the employer shall be considered wholly responsible for the accident.

Women are not to be employed more than eight hours daily or forty-eight hours weekly, except in domestic service.

All women employees who are mothers are given certain privileges for the care of their children and every establishment employing women must provide for the care of children of less than two years during the hours of the employment of the mothers.

In the case of an employed prospective mother the employer must allow five months of leave before she is to leave her employment, reserving her position for her, six weeks before the birth is due.

All employers of minors must keep a special register showing the hours of work, the salary, the age, and the numbers of the special document granted to the minor by the civil registry setting forth his right to work, including a record of his schooling.

NEIGHBORS ANGERED BY "FOR SALE" SIGN

Protest Homeowner's Offer to Sell to "Negroes or a Jap."

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Neighbors and real estate brokers called yesterday upon Frank Horvath at his home in Flushing, in an effort to persuade him to remove from a post in the front yard a sign that the house is for sale to "respectable negroes or a Jap."

They were unsuccessful, and the sign is still there. The house, a two-family brick structure, is in a section recently developed, where there are more than thirty homes, most of them occupied.

Horvath said he had stood the taunts of his neighbors, but that when the Superintendent of Buildings in Queens ordered him to take his advertisement out of the yard, following a complaint made by neighbors, he was "ready to fight."

He did not indicate, however, whether applicants other than negroes or Japanese would be considered as purchasers.

GREATLY HELPED AT LADY BYNG CAMP

Case of Two City Lads Given as Instance—Some More Contributions Come.

The funds of the Lady Byng summer camp for delicate children were increased by $15 yesterday when Miss Beryl Harding presented $5 and an unknown donor left $10 at the Health Centre.

Miss H. Dykeman said yesterday that the financing of the camp was causing some concern as donations had been much fewer than had been expected during the last few weeks.

What the camp can do in transforming pale, skinny and apathetic little boys into robust youngsters full of life and vigor was well demonstrated yesterday when two boys returned to the city after spending the greater part of the season enjoying the camp privileges.

They were two brothers, the eldest 12 years old. When he was first located as a Lady Byng camp case he was carrying out as best he knew all of the duties of housekeeper for the family. His mother was in hospital and his father was away from home all day.

The 12-year-old was doing the cooking and it cannot be said that he displayed any aptitude for that occupation, he was tending his younger brother and supervising the household generally. It was a sorry-looking household. The youngsters were sent away to the camp and the father fended for himself.

MOTHER BETTER. Now that the boys have returned they have gone back to a far different home. The mother is back from hospital and although still ailing, is able to shoulder some of the burdens of housekeeping, the family is established in a comfortable home and the children are in good humor to return to school when the term begins.

The 12-year-old had been out of school since the winter as household cares had him in their clutch.

Camp life at Fair Vale has been running along without any jolts or jars. Everyone is thriving and everyone is entering wholeheartedly into the camp spirit. There has been just one excitement that has been outside of the planned programme. One of the boys in camp has nightmares and walks in his sleep. Those in charge of the camp are trying to cure even that abnormality. A slack rope has been placed beside the bed of the sleep-walker and he takes a soft tumble before he gets very far.

Kewanis Club Buys Home in Yarmouth

YARMOUTH, Aug. 20.—The Kewanis Club, organized a few weeks ago in Yarmouth, has taken possession of a valuable piece of property in Main street which the members will fit as a club home. The property, known as the Dr. Joseph Parish property, is situated at the corner of Main and Cumberland streets. It had been leased for a term of years by the United States Government and used as the consulate residence and offices. The Kewanis will take immediate possession of the premises and after making certain changes will occupy it and hold their weekly luncheons there.

ROWDYISM SAID TO BE CAUSE OF SMASH-UP OF BORDER LEAGUE

RECENT FIGHT IN CALAIS PUT STOP TO SERIES

Management Disgusted And Pay Off Players

THE local baseball season is about at an end and it has terminated differently than was expected, says the St. Croix Courier.

The managing committee have got out from under and what players now remain are "on their own."

The last St. Croix League game was played last Saturday on the Calais diamond and it was "some game" with "rimlin" Phinney and Saunders were the umpires and there were murmurings all afternoon about decisions—murmurs all over the lot.

Umpires in Trouble. Several players didn't believe that a man betting on the games was qualified to umpire a game. Phinney had his finger under Phinney's nose about all afternoon, protesting decisions and Tibbets was once ordered out of the game for offensive remarks to Phinney.

Get Into Fight. Two young men, from Milltown, N. B., and Milltown, Me., had a stand-up and knock-down which ended with the pair being escorted off the field by a Calais policeman.

They Up Their Hands. The Calais management had had enough and that evening paid off their men in full to date, wiped their hands of the management.

Milltown Claims Title. The Calais team won the first section, and as the Calais players were not willing to continue, and divide the gate receipts according to the rules of the league, there was nothing left for Milltown today but claim the championship of the season of 1925, as they were the leading team of the second section, when the league broke up on Saturday last.

The players of the Milltown team, having been used right by the management, and acting on the square themselves, asked the Calais management to let them have the Calais title, as they might go barnstorming and play out on their own on Monday last, with the best wishes of the managing committee, and the citizens of the town of Milltown.

Their title was granted, so they started on their own on Monday last, with the best wishes of the managing committee, and the citizens of the town of Milltown.

Vanquished by St. Jude's—Assumption Team is Now in The Lead.

In the Senior Softball League game in West Saint John last night the St. Jude's team won from the Veterans by a score of eight to six, in a seven inning game, which was one of the best of the season.

Both teams were in fine form, showing the result of the season's training. The game saw several back and forth in the sixth inning when St. Jude's pushed over four runs and took the lead by eight to four.

The Vets came back with two, but that was not enough. The umpire called the game at the end of the seventh inning. The Vets had gone to bat in the eighth inning and had scored three runs but the game had to be called on account of darkness and the score was put back to even inning.

Saint John Power Boat Club Arrange For Annual Cruise and Service

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

ONE OF THE big attractions of the season will be staged on the east end grounds tomorrow afternoon when the Water Department and Saint John the Baptists teams meet in the second of their series of three games to decide the championship of the City Senior League.

Ken Williams, slugging outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, has apparently lost his chance to set a season's record for circuit drives.

It LOOKS AS IF "Duster" Mails has staged a real comeback with the St. Louis Nationals.

Two young men, from Milltown, N. B., and Milltown, Me., had a stand-up and knock-down which ended with the pair being escorted off the field by a Calais policeman.

West Seven Innings. The game went seven innings and was well contested. Neither team was able to score in the first two innings, but in the first of the third the Saints took kindly to Armstrong's offerings and by hunching his sent a runner across the plate.

ARGENTINE GREATLY IMPRESSED BY HEIR Prince is Hailed as Coming Monarch of Greatest Empire of Centuries.

Canadian Press. BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 21.—The newspapers of Buenos Aires comment extensively in a complimentary vein on the visit of the Prince of Wales to Argentina.

It is necessary to remember, says La Nación, that the Prince, whose face is familiar through all the world, and who is everywhere welcomed, will one day be monarch of the "Greatest Empire of centuries."

The newspaper continues: "His word letter on will weigh in human destiny and the world which knows the innate goodness of his heart, tranquilly awaits the time when his counsel will perhaps guide the fortunes of several civilizations."

MANNER LAUDED One of the most surprising things about the Prince, says La Nación is his sober manner when he answers the plaudits of the crowds. "This is not the purely diplomatic salute to which we are accustomed. It is the intelligent sympathetic attitude of an illustrious traveler, who wishes to know and understand a people."

An afternoon paper, La Razon, says that, thanks to the Prince's visit, Britain has turned upon the Argentine the searchlight of her curiosity. La Razon points out that Buenos Aires is to South America, what London is to Europe and that this visit therefore is not of purely British and Argentinian significance, but rather of universal importance.

BURIAL IN WOODS BRINGS INQUIRY

Here's a Boston story, told by the Post. A shrinking, dejected little woman, with tear-stained face, crept furtively into a taxicab on Neponset street, Norwood, the other day. Under her arm she carried a wooden box and one or two passersby noticed a shovel under her short coat.

Fifteen minutes later she threaded her way timorously along the quiet street toward the Norwood cemetery, but she did not need you any longer, she had told her taxicab driver.

In the woods near the Canton-Norwood line she busied herself a few minutes digging a small grave, then deposited her burden, said a prayer and wended her way slowly back to the line.

She boarded the first electric bound for Boston, but hardly had it started when a burly man, stern of face and eagle eyed, approached her. "Madam," he whispered, "will you please leave the car with me without making a fuss. I want to question you."

The little woman could hardly control herself. "Er—er—question me? What do you mean—why?"

"I'm Sergeant Rees of the Norwood police, madam. Please come along and make no fuss."

BACK TO GRAVE Dazed and in a world thousands of miles away, she slowly obeyed and made her way toward the vestibule of the car. As she started to leave, another burly stranger grasped her by the arm. "Yes, sergeant," she said, "I'll come along." He was Detective Wallace Hildel of the Norwood police.

Back through Norwood street they marched the woman without passing a word. Straight to the newly-dug grave they led her. There they halted. Quietly they dug into the earth. Then slowly they removed the small coffin.

It wasn't a crude affair by any means. It was well polished, and banked with flowers. In silence the cover was removed and the dead eyes scrutinized the body within. The detective replaced the cover, rearranged the flowers and once again the small coffin was put to rest.

A suspicious taxi driver had suspected a crime. But the coffin contained the body of the little old lady's pet cat.

Bargain Hunter Keeps Cost of Living High

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 21.—The bargain hunter—the woman with an obsession for economy—does more than any one else to keep the high cost of living high.

This conclusion was reached by a special committee of the Wholesale Grocers' Association, which spent two years investigating conditions in retail grocery stores throughout the United States.

"This type of personal shopper, pecking about in store after store, buying a 'special' here and a 'special' there, necessitates maintenance of large sales forces, expensive locations, and, of course, exorbitant prices," reported the committee.

Taxis Seating Two Planned in London

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Owing to the great congestion of traffic on the London streets, authorities here are viewing with approval proposals being advanced to put numerous "two-seater" taxicabs into service.

It is argued that they would serve the purpose of the vast majority of taxicab users, and being small and compact would take up less room in the congested streets, being at the same time more manoeuvrable.

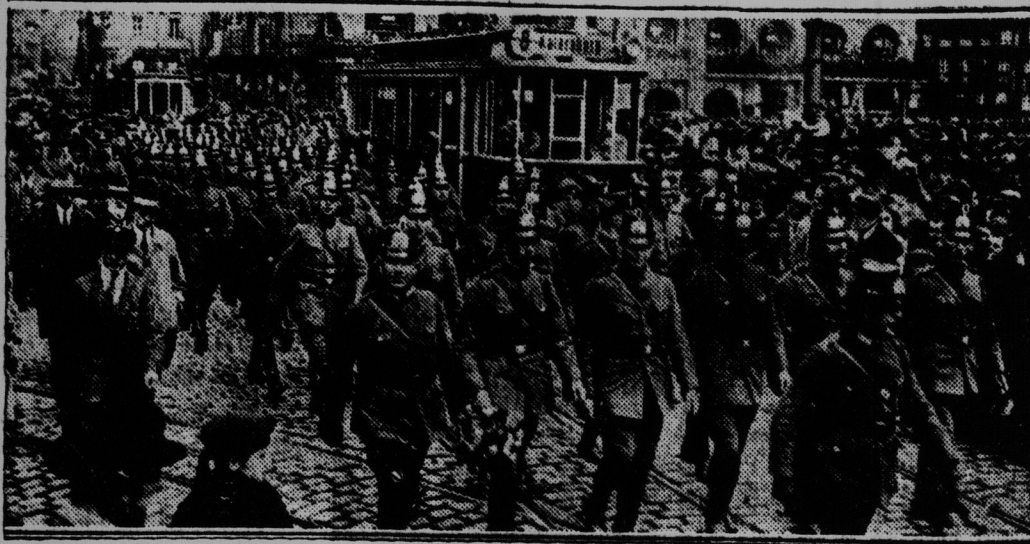

A tentative schedule of fares for the proposed two-seaters is placed at its cents for the first mile, and 6 cents for each subsequent third of a mile.

Buenos Aires Now World's Sixth City

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 21.—According to a census taken by the police the city of Buenos Aires has now 2,010,441 inhabitants, which places the capital in the sixth position on the world map, preceded by London, New York, Berlin, Paris and Chicago. The last estimated census was taken in 1921, when the city was given 1,700,000 inhabitants. Strange to say though, Argentina is a newly settled country its capital holds more than a fifth of its entire population.

Pittsburg University Plans World's Largest Hospital

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 21.—Pittsburg University, having started staid academic and architectural circles with its bold proposal to house its classes in a 62-story skyscraper, now announces it will erect a huge medical unit to equal the largest in the world.

The "Cathedral of Learning" to be erected at a cost of $10,000,000 will have as its complement a medical center with a total of 1,350 beds.

The new group of five institutions—with a capacity of 1,350 beds—passes the capacity of any group in the world and is only equaled by the similar plan of amalgamation of the Columbia University Medical School with the Presbyterian Hospital of New York.

Hospitals now in operation here have agreed to co-operate in the enterprise, and the city will have a part in the project.

The magnitude of the project is in keeping with the new trend in co-ordinating medical schools with important hospitals, already tried out at Harvard, Johns Hopkins and Washington University, St. Louis.

An industrial hospital, a hospital for treatment of nervous and mental diseases, and a communicable disease hospital are units eventually to be added to the center.

The hospitals will be grouped around the medical school to facilitate transfer of patients for diagnosis and research purposes.

Fortune Claimant Given Sentence

Woman in Boston Given Term For Perjury in Lotta Crabtree Case.

BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Ida M. Blankenburg of Tulsa, Okla., who sought to prove a claim to the estate of Lotta M. Crabtree, known as the world's wealthiest actress, on the grounds that she was her daughter, was sentenced to six months in jail for "wilful and corrupt perjury in attempting to deceive the court and obstruct justice."

The sentence was pronounced by Judge Frost in Suffolk County Probate Court, before whom a hearing has been held on a motion asking that the name of Mrs. Blankenburg be stricken from the list of heirs.

Administrators of the estate, which was valued in the millions and left to charity, contended that Mrs. Blankenburg was no relative of Miss Crabtree. Mrs. Blankenburg alleged that the husband on the grounds of desertion, Albert E. Geer and Susan Evelyn Fairfield Geer, both of this town, will be $1,000 bail after her counsel had obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Supreme Court Justice Pierce. The case will be laid before the Supreme Court, it was said, on a writ of error questioning the right of Judge Frost to sentence her for contempt arising out of perjury.

Barbers Desert Men To Cut Women's Hair

LONDON, Aug. 21.—London is threatened with a dearth of barbers for men owing to their wholesale desertion to shops catering exclusively to the bobbing and shingling of women's heads.

The deserters say they find working on women's hair not only much more profitable, but that it also affords a more interesting field for the display of their artistic talents.

A good job of shingling and bobbing a woman's crowning glory, it seems, leaves the artistically minded barber with a feeling of personal satisfaction infinitely greater than he can derive from the unromantic shearing of a male dome.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN.

COMING HERE END OF THIS MONTH

Cecil B. DeMille's superfilm, "The Ten Commandments," will conclude the summer period at Imperial Theatre beginning Monday, August 31, and continuing until Thursday, Sept. 3, unless public demand necessitates an extension of the engagement. Nothing yet attempted in visualizing Holy Writ equals "The Ten Commandments" in vivid realism. The picture, which is in eleven reels, is double in character. It first tells of the Egyptian bondage of the children of Israel and the successive plagues imposed upon Pharaoh and his people to force the liberation of the chosen ones. The final exodus into the wilderness, the pursuit by the Egyptian host, passage of the Red Sea and the idolatries of the desert are truly marvelous spectacles and will electrify the people of Saint John, as they have done everywhere.

The parting of the waters so that the children of Israel may pass over on dry land is a triumph in theatrical mechanics that will cause a veritable sensation. The second part of the story is modern in type and designed to emphasize in up-to-date scenes and plot the sin of the people today as against the background of God's mercy and watchcare demonstrated in the earlier reels depicting the struggle of the Israelites people. A grand operatic score has been published to accompany "The Ten Commandments," to which the Imperial orchestra will doubtless do full justice.

NOTED THEATRE IS TO BE DEMOLISHED

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The Academy of Music, on whose stage the stars of the stage and the opera of many generations have appeared, is to be torn down and replaced by a modern office building. The Academy is located at Fourteenth street and Irving Place, and is now used as a moving picture theatre.

The Academy of Music opened on Oct. 29, 1854, with a lavish production of "Norman." Later it became the home of the drama and practically all the well known stars of past years trod the boards of its stage. Jenny Lind, Mr. Barnum's "Swedish Nightingale" sang at a concert there. The Elder Sothens and a host of others played for long runs.

When Edward VII. of England was here on a visit as the Prince of Wales he attended a great reception at the Academy of Music. On the afternoon of Nov. 18, 1919, the present Prince of Wales, on his first visit to New York also visited the Academy, which by then had become a moving picture house.

The flag has only twelve stars despite the fact that there were more than that many states in the Union at the time the flag was made.

Wurth senior was a staunch Lincoln man and wanted a flag of his own to carry into battle. So he had a tailor make the flag for himself and his brother.

RE-WED AFTER YEAR

Divorced Couple Decide to Make up Because of Their Boy.

SOUTHBRIDGE, Aug. 21.—After being separated less than a year, through a divorce decree granted the husband on the grounds of desertion, Albert E. Geer and Susan Evelyn Fairfield Geer, both of this town, will be re-wed. They were married on March 9, 1924, when the bride was 16 years old. They lived together for 15 years, most of the time with relatives of Mr. Geer. Family troubles ensued, and Mrs. Geer quit the home. A son, William A. Geer, 18 years old, was given to the custody of the father.

Recently the Geers met and decided that for the sake of their child, who they felt was entitled to a home, they would make another start, especially since there was no real serious trouble between them.

THE DAILY RACE FOR THE BATH ROOM AT OUR BOARDING HOUSE

(By one of the inmates.)

When I first came here I set my alarm clock at 7 a. m., which would mean I'd have plenty of time for a shave before breakfast.

But I was wrong. I never got a chance to get in the bathroom.

Then I shoved 'er over to 6 a. m. But my next-room neighbor was a lighter sleeper than I. So, when he heard the bell, he'd get 3 seconds start and beat me to it.

Bathing, morning or evening, was a gamble, with the odds always favoring the cause of those nearest the bathroom.

The race may not always be to the swift, but speed helps when you want to bathe.

I joined a gymnasium and trained on the running track, specializing in the 20-yard dash. And although my trainer said I'd qualify for the championship, I couldn't beat the bathroom hogs in the boarding-house.

At last I got tired of it. I was setting my alarm clock now at 4 a. m., but I lost out on the bathroom race just the same.

So I put an ad in the paper—Wanted to Rent, a room with board in a private family; must be next door to bathroom. Why, it was only the next day that I found a peach of a place, but I suppose the others are still holding their daily bathroom marathon.

I wonder why they don't "tumble" and send an ad to The

INCOME TAX IS DUE AUGUST 31

Third Installment on Time Payments in 1924 Bills

In New Brunswick Some 85 Per Cent. Paid in Full on April 30.

The third installment of the Dominion Income Tax for 1924 will be due on August 31, according to an announcement given out at the local headquarters this morning. It was estimated that approximately 85 per cent. of the citizens in the province had paid up in full on or prior to April 30, so that only about 15 per cent. took advantage of the installment plan. It was pointed out that those who did not pay in full would be assessed at the rate of six per cent. interest from April 30 until the date of payment.

TAXATION RATES

All unmarried persons, widows or widowers, without dependent children, are exempt from taxation up to $1,000. All married persons are exempt up to $2,000, plus $500 for each dependent child under 18. Corporations are taxable on all their net profits in excess of $2,000 at the rate of 10 per cent., and where the profits exceed $5,000, a further 5 per cent. on the tax is chargeable. The normal tax for individuals is 1 per cent. over the exemption, up to $6,000 of net income, and 8 per cent. on income in excess of $6,000. The surtax, which is additional to the normal tax, begins at 1 per cent. on incomes between $6,000 and $6,000, and runs up to 65 per cent. on income of $50,000 or over, plus 5 per cent. of the normal tax on incomes of over $5,000.

Canada now has had ten years' experience in collecting such taxes. The income tax law came into being in 1917, but there was a business profits and war tax in operation since 1915.

AID SOCIETY AGENT HERE IS BEREAVED

Rev. George Scott Receives News of Death of Brother in Scotland.

The mail has brought sad news to Rev. George Scott—the death of his brother, William Kerr Scott, in Glasgow, Scotland. He was pre-deceased on July 25. The following clipping from the Arbroath Guide, of August 1, came to Rev. Mr. Scott in the latter telling of his bereavement:

"A link with the old Glasgait Church in Arbroath has been broken by the death of William Kerr Scott which took place at his home, 2 Adamswell street, Springburn, Glasgow, on July 25. Deceased, who was 65 years of age, was a son of the late John Scott, who was the last preacher to the Glasgait Church here, in which church deceased was brought up. Mr. Scott served his apprenticeship as a mechanic at Burnside Works. He was afterwards for many years employed at Errol works, and latterly he moved to Glasgow. Mr. Scott, who was pre-deceased by his wife in 1911, is survived by a son and daughter.

In addition to the Saint John clergyman, who is widely known in connection with his work as agent of the Children's Aid Society, Mr. Scott leaves a brother James, in London, England, and another brother, John, in St. Thomas, Ontario. There also are three sisters—Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace of Carleton Place, Ontario, Mrs. Helen Doward of Arbroath and Mrs. Peter Lindsay of Glasgow.

ADVISES MORE BOOSTING DONE

Ex-Mayor Copley, of Hamilton, Ont., Is in City Today

Urges Bigger Maritime Bid for Tourists—Interested in Better Understanding

Ex-Mayor George C. Copley of Hamilton is in the city today on a business trip. He is an active promoter of the Hamilton Board of Trade and deeply interested in the work of the Associated Boards of Trade of Western Ontario. He is also much interested in the movement to bring about a better understanding between the divisions of Canada.

He asked many questions about the movement in the Maritime Provinces preparatory to having the case for these provinces presented to submit to a national conference, and is himself very sympathetic toward the Maritime.

In his view, they were not, however, doing as much as they should to advertise the wonderful attractions here for tourists. He said the Ontario man who wanted to enjoy some fishing heard little or nothing about the Maritime Provinces, and the like was true of the summer tourist. In Ontario a Tourist Association had been formed, and would spend $25,000 in publicity to attract business for next year.

The Provincial Government would, it was hoped, provide $10,000 of this amount in any case it would be raised. Not only hotels and transportation interests but boards of trade and retail merchants' associations were actively engaged in the movement. The people of the province had come to realize the benefit to be derived from tourist traffic.

MARITIMES CASE.

Mr. Copley expressed surprise that in these fine provinces he did not see more cattle and sheep, and felt that these directions there was opportunity for great expansion. He has been much impressed, he said, by the movement inaugurated by the Telegraph Journal and The Times-Star to bring about a better understanding and to present the case for the Maritime Provinces, and he said the people might be assured their case would get a sympathetic hearing in the Maritime Provinces. Those down here were not alone, he said, in losing population, as there had been a steady movement out of Ontario, and their problem too was to bring about a condition of affairs that would enable them to find employment for their own people.

She is survived by five daughters and one son, residing in Chicago, one sister, Mrs. Sproul, and two brothers, Thomas Evans, of this city and Walter Evans, of Black River.
