If You Are Interested in St. John Do Not Fail To Attend Tonight's Meeting in Nickel Theatre

MUST NOT APPROVE AGREEMENT UNTIL EXAMINED BY EXPERTS

Prominent Citizens go on Record as Requesting Government, by Resolution Tonight, to Stay Its Hand

The citizens of St. John realize that the fight in the matter of the mail ships is only begun, and that if they fail to press their claims at Ottawa or a square deal, the port will receive a blow of the most serious character. It is felt that the government must not approve of the Gutelius agreement till more is known about it by the people of St. John. The Times this morning submitted this question to leading citizens:

Do you favor the adoption, at tonight's mass meeting, of a resolution requesting that the government withhold its assent from the Gutelius-Bosworth agreement until it has been thoroughly examined by a traffic expert in the interests of St. John?

HAT THEY SAY

A. W. Adams:—"I certainly do."
R. H. Bruce:—"Why certainly; that goes without saying."
C. B. Allen:—"Yes, I would approve of that."
Ambrose Brothers:—"Yes, we would approve of such action."
W. H. Barnaby:—"I would prefer to wait until the meeting before saying that course I would approve."
H. C. Schofield:—"That would be the proper course; in fact it is the only way we can take."
A. McMillan:—"Yes, certainly; I would be in favor of that resolution."
Sevill Bros. & Co., Ltd.:—"Certainly, any reasonable man would approve that."
W. J. Mahoney:—"Yes, I surely do approve."
Thomas Gorman:—"Yes, certainly, I would be in favor of it."
C. H. Peters:—"That would be only fair and quite in order."
J. A. Barry:—"Certainly, I do; St. John should have a chance to submit the evidence to show the discrimination."
John Keefe:—"Yes, of course."
R. B. Emerson:—"I would prefer to wait until I hear what the delegates have to say this evening."
W. E. Foster:—"Certainly I favor it; unless we take some such step the matter will go into effect."
W. F. Burditt:—"I would approve of securing the delay until the details of the agreement could be studied."
T. Collins:—"Certainly I would."
W. M. Jarvis:—"I would prefer to hear the reports of the delegates before committing myself."
T. T. Lantulum:—"Yes, you may certainly say I do."
Dr. A. F. McAvenny:—"Yes, I certainly do."
R. W. W. Frink:—"Yes, certainly."
C. Cross:—"Yes, the government's consent should be withheld until St. John has time to prove its case."
W. F. Hatheway:—"Yes, I would favor such a resolution."
G. A. Horton:—"Yes, the matter is one that requires the work of traffic experts and it would be only fair to hear their report before allowing the rates to go into effect."
David Magee:—"No one could find any objection to that."
Edwin Peters:—"There is no doubt that there is discrimination against St. John and the agreement should be held up."
F. L. Potts:—"By all means."
James Pender:—"Yes, that is better than letting it drift. It would be five times better for the I. C. R. to carry the freight all the way from Montreal over their own lines at C. P. R. rates than to accept the rates mentioned in the agreement. I would suggest that Mr. Gutelius could serve the country better if he were placed in charge of the canal only, where there are no rates for him to per with."

Tonight's public meeting will be held in the Nickel Theatre, on street, at eight o'clock.

TRAVELERS HERE TODAY FROM WALES IN SEARCH OF THEIR MOTHER

Five and Eight Crossed over to Montreal and Then Here

When the Atlantic express pulled in the depot today at noon two young men, aged five and eight years, toddled under the care of Conductor Perry were handed over to the charge of R. Ross, terminal agent, who will endeavor to find their mother. The boys, Stanley and Henry Hewitt, bright Welsh youngsters, whose long journey from Enniscorthy, Wales, was now at an end and who eagerly asked where their home could be found.

WE WANT A SOP?

The Halifax Echo says a delegation should be sent from that city to Ottawa to enquire about this kind of sending the Royal Line steamers to St. John. It says the proposed change "is manifestly in the nature of a sop for the people of St. John."

ocean, apparently quite contented and oblivious of the fact that, through their being such youthful tourists, they were attracting unusual attention. Their bright sunny faces and cheerful smiles won them friends amongst their fellow passengers on the steamer Royal George on which they came across the ocean, and at Montreal they were given in care of Conductor Perry, who safeguarded them to St. John, to which city they were ticketed. They said their father was dead, but that their mother lived here, and they had come to join her.

NO PARTISANSHIP IN THIS

There are no two opinions in St. John about the course that should be pursued at tonight's public meeting in Keith's Theatre. The government must be asked not to approve of the Gutelius-Bosworth agreement before it has been thoroughly examined by experts in behalf of this city.

The Standard this morning said:

"The agreement must be thoroughly analyzed by persons competent to judge. If it is found to be, as the St. John delegates believe, discriminatory toward St. John and unfair in its terms, then there must be the strongest possible protest against it, and this analysis and protest should be made before it goes to the Minister of Railways for his approval."

The Telegraph this morning said:

"Therefore, one thing now to be done is for the citizens of St. John to make a united demand that the Gutelius-Bosworth agreement be not confirmed by the department of railways, at least until a complete transcript of the text of the agreement has been furnished in order that it may be examined by traffic experts on behalf of the people of the city."

Political lines are thus obliterated. This is a fight for the rights of St. John.

THERE IS TIME FOR PROTEST

Ottawa Says Cochrane Will Not Be at Desk For Some Days and Nothing is to Happen Till He Returns

(Special to Times)

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Hon. Frank Cochrane did not return to Ottawa today, though it was said to members of the St. John delegation that he would be back to take up the tentative agreement made by General Manager Gutelius with the C. P. R. for running rights over the Intercolonial.

It is said that Mr. Cochrane will not be seen in Ottawa until Wednesday or Thursday and possibly not until next week.

There will be no further action in relation to this agreement until he returns.

SAYS THERE MAY BE ANOTHER ARREST

Startling New Evidence in Sydney Alleged Murder Case Promised

Sydney, Oct. 13.—George A. Bryant, who has taken an active interest in the Haynes alleged murder case, has returned to the city after a search for more details bearing on the tragedy. Mr. Bryant said that he had secured some absolutely new evidence, he might say startling. He had discovered another doctor who saw the body of the late B. S. Atkinson at the scene of the tragedy, and who has a very decided opinion on the case.

Mr. Bryant said he has had practically to do his own work in trying to clear up the alleged mystery and has had to do his own financing in the past and expects to do it in the future in his search for further evidence.

Mr. Bryant says it is possible that another arrest will soon follow in the Haynes case and that entirely new developments are pending.

THE STREET CAR ACCIDENT
New names are being added to the list of those who were injured in the street car accident last week. It has been learned that the conductor of the car, Thomas Cosgrove, was laid up for several days from a lame back. Emanuel Connor, 59 Adelaide street is still confined to the house with an injured arm.

EXPLOSION ON THE VOLTURNO SENT FORTY MEN TO DEATH

First Survivors of Awful Marine Disaster Are Expected to Reach London Today—Bereaved Relatives Seeking News of Loved Ones

London, Oct. 13.—None of the steamers, which brought succor to the ill-fated Voltorno, when she was burning in mid-Atlantic, had arrived at its destination this morning, but a wireless report from the Cunard line steamer Carmania, which was the first to reach the scene of the disaster, told that she had passed Brownhead at 2:46 a.m. today and expected to reach Flagstaff at half-past one this afternoon.

All the other vessels which played such a heroic part in the rescue of the Voltorno's passengers, and which were coming toward Europe, are expected to reach port with survivors of the wreck on board today or tomorrow. The Minneapolis is due at Gravesend in the Thames at half-past one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, the Devonian at Liverpool and the Cear at Rotterdam on the same evening, while La Touraine may arrive at Havre this evening.

The Uranium line has made arrangements to send those survivors who desire to proceed to their destinations to America on board other vessels as soon as possible.

The Amsterdam correspondent of the Times learns that all the Voltorno's cabin passengers were saved.

Montreal, Oct. 13.—Evidence that the explosion which started the fire upon the Uranium steamer Voltorno was of tremendous force is to be found in a statement received by wireless here via Cape Race, from one of the rescue vessels, the Grosser Kurfuerst, and which says that forty men were killed by it.

This statement also contains the information that Capt. Inch of the Voltorno is wounded, though no details of his injury are given.

The message, which was despatched from the Grosser Kurfuerst on Sunday morning, reads as follows:

"Four Voltorno boats were smashed, two boats with 100 souls missing; forty men were killed by explosion, most of women and children on the Seydlitz. (Continued on page 7; seventh column)"

Call For Meeting Tonight

ST. JOHN, OCTOBER 11.
A MEETING OF ALL CITIZENS INTERESTED IN THE WELFARE OF ST. JOHN IS CALLED FOR MONDAY EVENING, 13TH INSTANT, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK, IN KEITH'S THEATRE, CARLETON STREET, WHEN THE DELEGATION SENT TO OTTAWA REGARDING THE MAIL STEAMERS WILL MAKE ITS REPORT.

(SIGNED) J. M. ROBINSON,
PRESIDENT, BOARD OF TRADE

All St. John has gained thus far is some information; it must have more, and then the real fight will begin. Don't be sidetracked tonight.

GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL MUST GIVE ASSENT TO CHANGE IN RATES

Mr. Gutelius, Under Railway Act, Has No Authority--It Is Up To Mr. Borden --Here Is The Law

With regard to the statement that the agreement made for hauling traffic of the Canadian Pacific between St. John and Halifax was made by Mr. Gutelius, it is perhaps worth while to consider the following section from the revised statutes of Canada entitled, "An Act Respecting Government Railways." Section 46 of Chapter 96 says:—

"The governor in council may impose and authorize the collection of tolls and dues upon any railway vested in His Majesty, or under the control or management of the minister; and from time to time in like manner may alter or change such tolls or dues and may declare the exemptions therefrom."

How, then, could Mr. Gutelius do it?

In this connection, also, it is worth while to quote Section 77 of Chapter 97, dealing with the subject of discrimination. It says:—

"Whenever it is shown that any company charges one person, company or class of persons, or the persons in any district, lower tolls for the same or similar goods, or lower tolls for the same or similar services, than it charges to other persons, companies or classes of persons, or to a person in another district, or makes any difference in treatment of such companies or persons, the burden of proving that such lower toll, or difference of treatment, does not amount to any undue preference or unjust discrimination, shall lie on the company."

Shall the government which does not permit discrimination on the part of a company be itself responsible for rank discrimination against the port of St. John?

FIND GREAT ISLAND OR A CONTINENT IN FAR NORTH

Russian Polar Expedition Made Discovery in August—Splendid Spectacle in Phenomenon of Green Sun

(Canadian Press)
St. Michael, Alaska, Oct. 13.—Further reports on the Russian Polar expedition, which has just reached St. Michael bringing news of the discovery of a large island or a continent north of Siberia, was given out today by Lieut. Commander Wilitski. He said he succeeded to the command of the expedition after General Sergieff was stricken with apoplexy in Behring Bay in the Russian cruiser Argon.

The ships brought back a remarkable collection of polar marine animal life, marine plants found about the new land and a large geological collection. Nicholas Second Land, as the new tract was named was discovered August 21, and possession taken on August 22, Russian calendar. The Russian colors now are flying in latitude eighty, longitude one hundred east.

The ships witnessed a splendid concurrence, rare in the Arctic, the phenomenon of a green sun, lasting ninety seconds each time at sunset, on July 30 and Sept. 14. The spectacle was sketched in colors by Lieut. Posen, chief engineer.

The vessels have a karograph record of the Behring Sea storm and photographs showing the extreme inclination of the vessels during the storm with mountainous seas apparently about to overwhelm them.

The Russian officers are very courteous but reticent regarding scientific data and results obtained.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Members of the National Geographic Society said here that the reported Russian discovery of a continent 500 miles north of Asia, if true, would be the last great discovery of land. They pronounced it the most important discovery within the Arctic circle in the last century.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—Confirmation of the discovery of new land in the Arctic ocean was received by the Russian admiralty today in a brief official wireless report from Commander Wilitski. The newly found land extends in a narrow strip from about sixty miles north of Cape Tchelyuskin, also known as Northeast Cape, to the northern termination of the Asiatic continent, to 81 degrees north.

THREE THOUSAND MARITIME PROVINCES PEOPLE IN CALGARY

New Brunswick Views Shown at Recent Entertainment—A Ward in Hospital

The following is from a recent Calgary paper:

Former residents of the maritime provinces, of which there are about three thousand residing in Calgary, held an evening's entertainment at Paget hall on Thursday evening when an interesting programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, short addresses, readings and stereoscopic pictures of beauty spots in the maritime provinces, was put on. The hall was crowded.

R. B. Bennett, K.C., M.P., president, and delivered an address of welcome to those present, at the same time paying a fitting tribute to the old provinces down by the Atlantic.

Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Florence Blake Mahony, Mr. H. A. McLean, and Mr. R. C. Buckley and Miss Mabel Fage gave instrumental solos. Mr. F. M. Logan, late of Amherst, N. S., and Mr. J. H. Huggill, of the legal department of the C. P. R., a former Dalhousie university man, gave several enjoyable readings.

During the evening a series of nearly one hundred maritime provinces' views were shown. T. B. Kidner showed the New Brunswick views, a score or more of which had been loaned to the association by the New Brunswick government, and others by Charles Whitaker, formerly of Fredericton, N. B., now of Calgary.

J. A. Irvine looked after the Nova Scotia views, and Rev. A. D. Macdonald handled those from Prince Edward Island. The gentlemen accompanied the views with entertaining remarks descriptive of the scenery.

The Maritime Provinces Association was organized here a few years ago, chiefly through the efforts of R. B. Bennett, K.C., J. A. Irvine and J. G. Van Wart, and has connected with it by membership and otherwise about fifteen hundred persons in the city, including such leading citizens as Mayor Sinnott, Ald. G. W. Ross, S. B. Hillocks and T. M. Tweedie, M. P.; R. B. Bennett, M.P.; Bishop McNally, Rev. A. D. Macdonald, Rev. Dr. A. B. Macdonald, Rev. Canon Montgomery, J. T. Macdonald, Dr. Coffin, of the Normal school, and others. The officers and executive include the following:

President—C. W. Matheson.
Vice-president—Nova Scotia, J. L. Jennings; New Brunswick, C. W. Cope; Prince Edward Island, Dr. Coffin.
Treasurer—H. B. Macdonald.

Secretary—John A. Irvine.
Executive—M. T. McKay, Charles Boyd, A. A. Holdsworth, J. E. Burgess, D. D. Harper, M. L. Brooks, J. L. Neville, J. M. Humphrey.

During the last summer the association held a picnic at Red Deer, and a committee consisting of Lieut. Governor Bulver and others was selected to form a provincial organization. A committee from the executive have recently been formed to consider the advisability of starting a club room. An hospital committee is being organized who will call on every maritime province person who may be ill at any of the hospitals or boarding houses, when notified.

It may not be generally known that a maritime province ward was established some time ago in the General Public Hospital.

Is This Man The Arch Murderer of The Whole Western World? Or is He Just a "Romancer?"

Chicago Police Baffled by The "Confessions of James Burke, Who Insists He Has Murdered 25 Persons and Who Presents a Carefully Tabulated "Death List"

James Burke and his confessed victim, Mildred Rexroat, a Chicago Tango teacher.

Is James Burke, alias Harry Spencer, the arch-murderer of the western world? Or is he just an ordinary criminal with an astoundingly perverted imagination?

This is the problem now greatly baffling Chicago police and which they are, so far, unable to answer.

Burke was arrested for the self-confessed slaying of Mrs. Mildred Rexroat, a tango teacher, whose body was found in a lonely field outside of Chicago.

Questioned by the police, he declared he had committed twenty-five or thirty murders during his life, fourteen of them in the last year!

He dictated calmly a "death list" giving the names of his victims. The list is being investigated.

Prosecuting officials are inclined to believe that Burke did murder Mrs. Rexroat and three others, but that the rest of the list is fictitious.

Odd Streaks in Burke's Character

Queer streaks in the character of Harry Spencer, confessed murderer of a tango teacher and perpetrator of scores of revolting crimes, are reflected in parts of his conversation with the police.

"Killing women doesn't mean much to me," he said. "I don't care for my own life nor anybody else's. I've put so many away that I'm used to it—it's all part of the day's work. I hate women. But I had to use them. I spent dough on 'em because I knew when the time came I was going to get it all back—and more."

"I've been hounded since I was a little kid. Half of my life I've spent behind prison bars. This is only my revenge and my way of getting a living. It's a business with me. I know when the time came I was going to get it all back—and more."

"I know they'll swing me for this, but I don't care. I've had my revenge."

The part. That's what I did with the tango teacher. She thought she was going to trim me. It's one on her, all right.

"I know they'll swing me for this, but I don't care. I've had my revenge."

Proceeding, Mr. Samuel referred to the Licensing bill which met an unhappy fate in the second chamber, Lloyd George's controversial budget, the act dealing with the sweating system, the establishment of labor exchanges, the Housing and Town Planning bill, the National Insurance bill and the Scotch temperance and land bills.

In this connection Mr. Samuel said it was a preposterous and intolerable situation that the Imperial Parliament had to deal with local affairs in Scotland and Ireland, which could better be dealt with in provincial parliaments.

Prevent the Evils Here

"Admirable, as in my view, these reforms are," proceeded the right honorable gentleman, "it would be far better if it were possible to do without them. To have no social problems is better than curing them, and if you can avoid the bad social conditions which give rise to the necessity for legislation of this character, you will be rendering much more service to your country than by curing evils after they have once occurred."

A vote of thanks was accorded the speaker on the call of the Hon. G. P. Graham, seconded by Sir John Willison.

SOCIAL REFORM IN BRITAIN

Rt. Hon. H. Samuel's Address In Toronto

WHAT LIBERALS HAVE DONE

Reviews Accomplishments Before Reform Club—A Warning To Canada

Toronto, Oct. 12.—That the present Liberal government of Great Britain contains more men of extraordinary brilliance than any other government during the last century, was the opinion expressed by Liberal and Tory alike at the complimentary dinner to the Rt. Hon. Herbert Samuel, Postmaster-General, at the Ontario Reform Club.

N. W. Rowell, K. C., was the host of the evening, and the dinner party was chiefly made up of brother bartenders, together with Senator Jaffray, the Hon. George P. Graham, his Honor, the Lieut-Governor, Sir Edmund Walker, Sir John Willison, Sir Edmund Osler, Justice Sutherland, Justice Latchford, the Hon. Allen Aylesworth, Rabbi Jacobs, Joseph Oliver, the Hon. J. J. Foy, and J. G. Kent.

Not Rhetorical

As the Postmaster-General himself admitted at the end of his address, his speech was of a very hum-drum kind, but that was not his fault, as he made his remarks with wit and by the speaker's splendid diction and pleasing personality.

Persuades Others to Come

Following the suggestion of Mr. Rowell, Mr. Samuel said he would certainly persuade other members of the cabinet to visit Canada during the recess, but the difficulty was to discover the recess. And he would also try to persuade the most brilliant and effective members of the opposition to come to Canada—and stay here. He admitted that the Liberals of the present day had wandered far from the principles of the Manchester School. These they had entirely abandoned in theory and in practice. The doctrines of Cobden and Bright are not countenanced by the modern Liberal party.

Year by Year

"Our first measure of social reform in 1906" said Mr. Samuel, "was an education bill, which met an unhappy fate in the House of Lords with various other social reforms." These bills passed that year, one touching the question now being discussed here, workmen's compensation for accidents, and a bill to enable needy school children to be fed by local authorities.

In 1907, Mr. H. C. Curzon, then foreign secretary, introduced a bill for the extension of the system of small holdings, which is doing good in settling more people on the land or preventing depopulation. In the same year I assisted Herbert Gladstone, then home secretary, to establish a system of probation for offenders, an idea I took from the American Probation of Offenders Act. In 1908 Mr. Asquith passed the Old Age Pensions Act, one of the most conspicuous of the social reform acts.

Before that act was passed there were 168,000 old people receiving out-door poor law relief. Last year the number was reduced to 8,000 a reduction of 95 per cent. That same year an eight hour day bill for miners became law, and I passed a bill for the greater protection of children.

Devolution Necessary.

Proceeding, Mr. Samuel referred to the Licensing bill which met an unhappy fate in the second chamber, Lloyd George's controversial budget, the act dealing with the sweating system, the establishment of labor exchanges, the Housing and Town Planning bill, the National Insurance bill and the Scotch temperance and land bills.

In this connection Mr. Samuel said it was a preposterous and intolerable situation that the Imperial Parliament had to deal with local affairs in Scotland and Ireland, which could better be dealt with in provincial parliaments.

"Admirable, as in my view, these reforms are," proceeded the right honorable gentleman, "it would be far better if it were possible to do without them. WOMEN OF ICELAND GET EQUAL SUFFRAGE LAW

And now the women of Iceland are going to get the vote right away. News has come that a bill was passed by the Icelandic Althing which conferred the franchise on the women of that island on equal terms with the men.

The bill passed the first time in June, 1911. Now it needs only the signature of the King of Denmark, and this, it is said, he is sure to give. It will be presented to him at the next council of state by the minister for Iceland, who represents his country in the Danish cabinet.

"Iceland," said Miss Eleanor Byrne, of "The National," "was very apologetic that it hadn't given its women the franchise before. It was so apologetic that by way of making up a little the government sent two women, Mrs. Breit Amundsdottir and another leading suffragist to the international suffrage convention at Budapest in June—sent them at Iceland's expense."

"This country is poor and the government had to economize in order to

LOW WAGE ABETS TRAFFIC IN WOMEN

"The investigations into the question of the low wage paid to the women in America have brought out the close relationship between the low wage and the social evil," said Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the National Women's Trade Union League, in her recent address at St. Louis. "The girl who is hungry and tired and lonely is likely to take a 'long chance,' and when invitations come from forlorn places as well as foremen in the department stores or factories, or are brought by leading customers of her employer, her instinctive friendliness naturally responds. That there is commercialized vice, organized for the purpose of betraying the youngest of our sisters, we now all know, and that it sends its representatives into the day's work of factory and store and business we also know. The only protection for the girl under those circumstances is to be found in her trade union

ENCOURAGE NEW INDUSTRIES

Calgary Will Have Municipal Plant

PROSPECTS GOOD

Public Building Will Furnish Ideal Accommodation For Smaller Manufacturers—Rented Before Built

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 13.—By-laws aggregating the sum of $600,000 have been passed by the city council of Calgary which will result in the establishment of a large number of new industries for this city.

The most important of these is for a sum of $250,000 to erect an industrial or municipal factory building. This object has been in the public eye here since Andrew Miller, the commissioner of the Calgary Industrial Bureau, did a visit to Haverhill, Mass., and saw a similar building in operation. The question has been before the council of Calgary now in one form or another for nearly a year and finally they have endorsed it and voted the money for the building.

Briefly, the plan is one for the encouragement of small industries. A model factory is to be erected by the city, light and sanitary, containing all modern conveniences. Space in this building will be rented to new industries coming to Calgary. In this way it is hoped to attract the manufacturer with small capital, who realizes the possibilities of the rich territory of which Calgary is the centre. A manufacturer who has sufficient capital to run his business for a year or two, but not enough to buy land and erect a building will thus be able to get a start in time will have the opportunity to build up an industry which will be credit to the city. In the meantime employees will be able to work in a clean, well-lighted building, surrounded by conditions conducive to their health so that the whole community will be benefited. Commissioner Miller already has applications which will take up the entire building from the start it will be no inconsiderable amount to Calgary's payroll.

The other important expenditure which the ratepayers of Calgary have authorized is the sum of $600,000 for the lease of land adjoining the stocks for sites for abattoirs and packing plants. The three transcontinental railroads running into Calgary have agreed to establish union stockyards in this city. The civic administration decided that it would be a good thing to centre the livestock and packing industry adjoining these stockyards, and to purchase a tract of land there on a new abattoir plan is formed or an established concern decides to set a branch in Calgary, it will be able to buy a site adjoining the yards and contiguous to all three roads. Thus the packing industry is segregated and at the same time placed in a position of the greatest convenience to itself.

DISCUSS OLD MEMBER RATE

High Chief Ranger Grass of St. John and J. T. Hawke of Moncton Review the Supreme Court Proceedings

(Moncton Times.)
About 175 Independent Foresters met in the new hall on West Market street last night and listened to addresses of the High Chief Ranger, M. E. Grass, of St. John, and J. T. Hawke, representative from the High Court of New Brunswick to the meeting of the Supreme Court held at Toronto in August last. The subject under discussion of course, was the action of the supreme court in putting a lien of from $100 to $200 on every $1,000 policy held by members joining the order prior to 1899. Not only was every policy of the pre-1899 members a lien against it for the amount stated, but unless the amount is paid in a lump sum at once, the member is called upon to pay interest of four per cent. on the lien.

Ald. E. A. Fryers, chairman of the I. O. O. F. Central Committee for the city, presided at the meeting, and on the platform besides were H. C. R. M. E. Grass, St. John, and Supreme Representative J. T. Hawke, and Hon. Judge Borden.

The High Chief Ranger H. C. R. Grass was first called upon, and after some introductory remarks in reference to the matter in which the order is so vitally interested, he pointed out that the order had existed thirty-nine years. He proceeded to detail the arguments used by the supreme court officers in favor of their action. The executive claimed, he said, that those who joined the order prior to 1899 were paying a pretty low rate. The whole order up to 1899, he said, was paying an inadequate rate, and that went along until 1906, when the order came in for a searching investigation by the Royal Commission. They reported then that the order was actually insolvent and that the order must be made good. In the year 1898 the executive prepared a programme to meet the deficiency.

It was thought by the supreme court that the increase in rates at that time was sufficient, but the executive did not think so.

The speaker pointed out that the act enacted by the Dominion Parliament was passed by the supreme court by more than a two-thirds vote. That law was hard on many of the members, he said.

The supreme court contended that the men who joined since 1899 are paying adequate rates, and in addition they had accumulated a reserve. He pointed out that there were 16,189 members who are between 60 and 70 years of age, and that the action of the supreme court affected many greatly.

The high chief ranger argued that in comparison with other orders the members affected by the increase would still be paying less for insurance in the future than they could get in a company. He advised the members to be sure what they were doing before dropping out of the order.

J. T. Hawke was next called upon, and at the outset spoke of the fraternal work being done by the Foresters, expressing approval of the increase from three to five cents for the maintenance of the Order's Home.

He said the supreme chief ranger announced at the recent gathering that he intended establishing a home for aged and infirm Foresters. Mr. Hawke next spoke of the supreme chief ranger having too much power. He did not believe in the power of the supreme chief ranger to make a law in the hands of so much autocratic power in the hands of one man.

He roundly condemned the action of the supreme chief ranger in summoning to Toronto representatives from other provinces and except New Brunswick to appear before the meeting, and then appointing all the committees from these members.

Again, he said, the supreme executive in presenting their side of the case had unlimited time, and immediately after the limited speeches to ten minutes at first, and later to five minutes and then the previous question was immediately sought to be put.

The arguments used by the supreme court executive were in some respects unfair to the old members. Since 1899, he said, that prior to 1899 the old members had paid out some six millions in more than fourteen millions since 1899.

He did not believe there was any financial necessity for the adoption of the pre-1899 members. He said that the Dominion Parliament had passed at the pre-1899 members because the assessment principle was the safeguarding of the order.

Mr. Hawke said those who said they could not see what the pre-1899 members ever did for the society might as well say they could not see what the pioneers of Canada had ever done for the country.

In conclusion he said to the pre-1899 members that they could not do better than stay in the order. Don't let us cut off our nose to spite our face, said the speaker. I don't defend the action of the supreme court, he said. I condemn it. Let us stay in and insist on amendments. He condemned the system of supreme court delegates being chosen in some cases by high standing committees and especially so when matters so important as that recently decided were to be considered.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hawke's speech a number of questions were asked. Those taking part included Con. S. Peterson, M. E. Mitchell, W. H. Mitchell, G. A. Dodge, John Clark, Capt. J. W. Carter, (Salisbury), Thos. Clark, P. N. Crandall, and others. The main thought in the interrogation was as to what guarantee the members had that there would not be still further increases.

The replies by Messrs. Grass and Hawke were to the effect that according to the expert actuaries, the rates were now fully adequate.

Ald. Fryers, in closing the discussion, said he did not consider his policy worth three cents. He said they should petition the government to take charge of the finances and prevent the people from being further robbed. The government, he contended, should step in at once and protect their policies. Unless the government did this the position of the younger members would be the same in five years as the pre-1899 members was now.

"God Save the King" brought the meeting to a close.

HOBBLE LINGERIE IS THE LATEST FAD IN DRESS

Scarcity of Underwear Will Make it Good for the Furriers

Hobble underwear apparel is the latest fad in the lingerie world, examples of these unique garments having been exhibited in the large Fifth avenue shops for the first time yesterday. The new lingerie is made of the thinnest fabrics to be found, the materials most in use being silk crepe, chiffon cloth and finely woven silk. Fine linen, which formerly was considered the daintiest of all for underclothing, is seen no more.

The new hobble style is essential with the fashionable dresses, which fit the figure so close at the hips, knees and ankles that a petticoat, however sheer, shows its outline through the gown. One of the oddest of the fashionable combination suits was of thin pink crepe de chine, made to be worn with a bust supporter, no corset, unless possibly a webbing hip reducer. The upper part of the hobble garment was lace edged and it was fashioned all in one piece, the skirt part reaching just below the knee, where it was drawn in to an elastic band about an inch and a half in width. This band was just long enough to dispose of the slight fullness in the combination and to hold it close to the body. It also prevented the wearer from taking steps too long for her dress.

The old-fashioned chemise, long treasured since its revival because of its usefulness, is rarely seen now. Fashionable women have relegated it to the back-ground because it makes wrinkles and folds show in the new tight skirts. Instead of this garment fashion now decrees that women shall select a style of lingerie which adds not a perceptible inch to their size. To be truly smart one's dress must look as if it was being worn next the skin. A thin silk hobble chemise, a fancy bust supporter and a pair of silk knickerbockers will accomplish this effect.

Paul Poirer's models were knickerbockers, without the fancy ribbon bows at the knees. These look pretty, but make a visible lump through the dress. The brasserie has been instrumental in reorganizing feminine under apparel, and since the corset has been discarded and slender women are wearing bust supporters instead, all that is really necessary to go between the body and the dress is a hobble combination or a silk vest and knickers trimmed bust supporter.

Under evening dresses even less is required because anything heavy or bulky would show too plainly through.

How THE ERMINE IS CAUGHT
"The Cruelties of Trapping," is a ten-page pamphlet published by the American Humane Education Society, which tells the cost of furs in torture and death. As an illustration of the cruelty of the ermine is caught, the following conversation between a fur dealer and a prospective buyer is taken from the New York Tribune:

"This stole of imperial ermine is worth $1,000," said the dealer. "Just consider how the animals comprised in it were caught!"
"In the first place, they were caught in a winter of extreme cold, for it is only in such a winter that the weasel or ermine turns from tawny to snow white. In normal winters the ermine turns only to a greenish white—like this $400 greenish-white stole here."

"In the second place, the ermines were caught young, for when fully developed their coats are coarse and stiff—as in this $250 stole—and to catch them young the tongue trap must be used. Any other trap would tear the delicate fur."

"The tongue trap is a knife—an ordinary hunting knife—smeared with grease. The animal comes to the bait, the little ermine sees the blade, which it mistakes for ice. Ice it loves to lick—and so it licks the knife-blade and is caught fast, its tongue frozen to that zero weather frozen to the steel."

"Yes, sir, when you see a stole like this, don't begrudge a good price for it, for every ermine in it was tongue-trapped in sub-zero weather—mighty slow and painful hand process!"

KEEP TO THE POINT

St. John's business in this emergency in her history is not with the Canadian Pacific Railway or its president. The delegation which left the city the first of last week was not instructed to interview Sir Thomas Shaughnessy or any official of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Their business, and the present business of the city, is with the government at Ottawa. Unless the government consents, the iniquitous Gutelius-Bosworth agreement cannot go into effect. If any man at tonight's meeting attempts to divert attention from the fact that it is to the government alone we must look for justice, it will at once be evident that he is seeking to play the game of politics rather than to secure justice for St. John. It should not be necessary for a member of the Dominion cabinet to knock humbly at the door of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in Montreal, in connection with any matter which must receive the approval of the government before it is concluded. Mr. Borden has said that the government would not be a party to any discrimination against St. John. Let him prove it by refusing sanction to the agreement which does discriminate against St. John, or let him at least refuse assent to it until it has been examined by traffic experts in the interests of St. John.

"BY THE GRACE OF THE I. C. R."

Senator Thorne says it has been his opinion for years that St. John will always be the freight port and Halifax will have the fast mail and passenger service. This was the view expressed by the leaders of the Conservative party as far back as the early nineties, and perhaps it was shared by many Liberals at that time. Many things, however, have happened in the last twenty years, and there are few people in St. John today who will admit that Halifax has any advantage over St. John as a mail port. Canadian Pacific officials have never assented to the statement that mails and passengers could be transferred more quickly by way of Halifax than by way of St. John. They have, as a matter of fact, expressed the contrary opinion. If, therefore, Halifax remains the mail and passenger port, without making a fair test of St. John, it will be for purely political reasons, and not as a result of a comparison of the merits of the two ports. Moreover, the Canadian Pacific authorities had all arrangements made to send their mail steamers to St. John during the coming winter, and the explanation of the change which sends them to Halifax is admirably phrased by Senator Thorne when he says it was done "by the grace of the I. C. R."

Why should the interests of St. John be sacrificed "by the grace of the I. C. R.," which means by the grace of Mr. Borden and Mr. Hansen?

A RED HERRING?

The Standard has a remarkable story this morning to the effect that a St. John business man was told in December last by a high C. P. R. authority that the Empresses would not come to St. John this winter, and that Mr. Harris made the same statement to a St. John board of trade delegation last spring. In other words, the C. P. R., if these statements be true, had no intention of bringing the Empresses to St. John this year. How then can they explain the fact that the list of sailings from St. John, as lately published, included the Empresses, and that application was made to the city council for the usual accommodation for the Empresses and other steamers at West St. John?

What is the purpose of all this talk about the C. P. R. and its plans? Is it to distract attention from the fact that the government at Ottawa must be held responsible if the Empresses steamers do not come to St. John during the coming winter? The Gutelius agreement has not been approved by the government. If it is not approved, the mail steamers will come to St. John. That is the one point the people of this city ought to keep in mind, and whoever attempts to divert their attention from the real facts of the situation, while he may be a friend of Mr. Borden, is certainly not a friend of the city of St. John. Who were the St. John men who knew the Empresses would not come here, and forgot to mention it?

THE COUNTRY'S LOSS

The defeat of Hon. Sydney Fisher in the Chateaubain by-election is a loss to the public life of Canada. The seat is to be filled by a mediocre person whose chief claim to recognition was that he was a native of Chateaubain, while Mr. Fisher was an outsider. His election is another tribute to the skill of Hon. Robert Rogers as a campaign manager. We know now that Mr. Morris was elected, and perhaps a little later we shall learn how the thing was done.

When Mr. Borden was in opposition he was very pronounced in his views of holding by-elections, in order that the voice of the people might be heard in due time and without undue influence. Mr. Borden in power trails the by-elections along at his own good pleasure and in such a manner that every undue influence may be brought to bear in each constituency. The people of Chateaubain were promised public works that will never be constructed, and the gentry who operate along the side lines were sent into every town, village and settlement to induce people to vote for Mr. Morris or at least not to vote for Mr. Fisher. Men like Mr. Fisher are needed in parliament, and it is more the country's loss than his that he failed to secure his election on Saturday. The man who was elected is a supporter of the Tory-Nationalist alliance, and of him, therefore, nothing worthy of consideration may be expected.

A NATIONAL QUESTION

The Montreal Star treats the matter of the mail steamships as a part of "the ancestral feud between Halifax and St. John," and sees in it much food for mirth.

Does not the Star know that upon the very first opportunity given them to do so the Canadian Pacific and Allan lines chose St. John as the most desirable mail port for Canada in winter? Does it not further know that the C. P. R. officials have always maintained that they could give Canada a faster winter mail service via St. John than Halifax?

These questions being answered in the affirmative the issue at once ceases to be between St. John and Halifax, and assumes a national aspect. Does not Montreal want the fastest possible mail service? Is not the like true of Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver?

Again, the Intercolonial Railway is the property of the people of Canada. Will they consent to see its interests sacrificed for the benefit of the C. P. R., at the same time that a slower Atlantic mail service is being provided for between St. John and Halifax, and assumes a national aspect.

The question at issue is not between St. John and Halifax, except to the extent that Halifax may secure business at the expense of St. John. All Canada wants the fastest winter mail service, and the C. P. R. officials have said the fastest route is through the port of St. John. The Montreal Star's levity, therefore, is ill-timed.

Will the Borden Club change its name?

This is a good time for someone we know of to put his "back to the wall," and have it out with Mr. Borden.

Is Sir Thomas Shaughnessy or Mr. Gutelius the "master of the administration?"

If those grain conveyors are to be ready for use this winter it is time the work of construction was begun. They cannot be built in a day, and the season of bad weather is at hand.

Not what Mr. Hansen did when twenty of his constituents went to Ottawa with a prod, but what he will do now is the important question, so far as he is concerned.

If there are any apologists for Mr. Borden who regard it as a shrewd political move at this time to lecture the "longshoremen and express a fear that they will drive the steamships away from St. John, they may be reminded that it was not the longshoremen who switched the big C. P. R. and Allan mail steamships from St. John to Halifax.

Does Canada exist by the grace of any great railway company or do the great corporations exist by the grace of the people of Canada? The railway corporations of this country are rapidly increasing in power and influence, and it becomes more and more the duty of the people to see to it that they send to parliament representatives who regard the public interest as a first consideration, and the railway systems as business concerns which must be regulated in the public interest.

It is announced that the citizens of Calgary have approved a by-law to expend two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to erect a municipal factory building, in which space would be rented for new industries, and thus induce manufacturers with small capital to locate in Calgary. We are told that already applications have been received which would take up the entire building space, and that therefore from the outset the scheme would seem to promise excellent results.

"I never fail to help a brother in distress if I can do so as well as not." "Have you helped anybody recently?" "No. It beats the dickens how seldom one can give help as well as not."

Letting Her Down Easy

"Before I engage in a business transaction of any kind I always take my wife into my confidence." "Do you find her advice helpful?" "Not often, but it always lessens the shock to her when I'm trimmed, because she's had a chance to be expecting it."

The Tight-Skirt Crisis

You're a very narrow skirt. Little girl. Are you sure it doesn't hurt. Little girl.

That's a minding little stride. Where the street is wild and wide. Are you sure there's room inside. Little girl.

What will happen if you slip. Little girl. Aren't you fearful it will rip. Little girl.

You would better take a sack. So if anything should crack. It would serve you coming back. Little girl.

Does your mamma know you're out. Little girl. We're afraid to go about. Little girl.

If we met you in the sun. With your skirt so thinly spun. Why, we might all have to run. Little girl.

Let the bottom out a bit. Little girl. It is much too tight a fit. Little girl.

As the matter sadly stands. You'll be walking on your hands. And in that event—my hands! Little girl.

A Visit to Lapland—Turkish Bath There a Novel Experience

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Oct. 8.—Frank Hedges Butler, one of the greatest travelers of that much-travelled body, the Royal Geographical Society, has just returned after a trip to the almost unknown parts of Lapland. In the course of his journey he had two novel experiences; he attended a service in a church which is thrown open on only two days in the year and he took the Lapland equivalent of a Turkish bath.

Speaking of his trip Mr. Butler, who by the way, is the head of the famous firm which has acted as wine agents for the English Royal family for more than a century, said:—

"I found myself eventually in the land of eternal snows in a region with an unpronounceable name which began with a 'K' followed by half a dozen 'R's'. Here I came upon a church in which the ordinary service is held once a year, at Easter. In July of each year a general wedding service is held and Lapp pairs living within a 200 mile radius who wish to be married come to the service.

I arrived at the church just in time to witness the affair. It was a picturesque ceremony. The brides (there were

TRAINING FOR SOCIAL WORK

Course of Lectures and Practical Experience to Be Given by the Charity Organization Society of Montreal

(Montreal Telegraph)

In Montreal there is a vast amount of work—how much? perhaps few people realize—being done to meet the needs of those requiring a helping hand, and to better conditions to be found in every large city. In social work, as in every other line of effort, special training is required, if the results are to be of the best and most lasting. Often the workers feel themselves handicapped by the lack of such training and others hesitate to undertake social work without experience.

A course of lectures, study, and practical field work is now to be offered by the Social Service Educational Department of the Charity Organization Society. The course may be used in part or as a whole by social service workers in churches, hospitals, settlements and the like; by officers and committee members of charitable organizations and by nurses wishing to secure additional training for city health service or for social service work in hospitals and other institutions. The aim is general, to increase the number of available and efficient persons, paid or volunteer, who shall stand for earnest work in prevention and cure when facing problems of need and social betterment. The training of volunteers is of great importance. Besides the efficiency of their immediate services, as personal workers they help to form sound public opinion, and assist in securing good legislation and administration.

The lecture course begins on October 14, and will be held on Tuesday and Friday afternoons, at a quarter past four o'clock, in the Charity Organization Society lecture room. The course includes: "The City and its Social Work," by Albert Chevalier, director of Municipal Assistance, Montreal; "Immigration and Assimilation," by Rufus D. Smith; "The Work of the Woman Health Officer," by Miss Hurlburt; "The Problem of Alcoholism," by N. G. Brooke Claxton, K. C.; "Workingmen's Compensation in Quebec," by C. M. Holt, K. C.; "Social Prevention of Mental Diseases," by Dr. Colin K. Russell; "The Feeble-minded and Backward Children," by Gordon S. Mundie; "Mental Hygiene," by Dr. A. Harg-Sims; "The Problem of Alcoholism," by N. G. Brooke Claxton, K. C.; "The Administration of Justice," the Hon. R. Stanley Weir; "Medical Social Problems of Infancy," Dr. F. M. Fry; "Neglected and Delinquent Children," by Owen C. Dawson, of the Juvenile Court; "Miss Elizabeth Helm; "Social Work and the Church."

In connection with the course of lectures, social trips under direction will be made to typical institutions in order to get first hand knowledge of social work as carried on in Montreal. Specially directed work in district visiting, case conferences, study of system and records will be offered in November for three weeks of the course, to those wishing more intensive and practical field work. Inquiries and registration may be addressed, Social Service Educational Department, Charity Organization Society, 70 Jeanne Mance street. The president is Lady Drummond; general secretary, Rufus D. Smith; chairman social service educational department, Miss Helen R. Y. Reid.

TONIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

Starting of The Second Week Klein's Drama, "The Gamblers"

Beginning tonight and continuing throughout the week the Stock Company will produce Chas. Klein's greatest play, "The Gamblers." The already popular company will be seen in parts particularly adapted to them.

A brief story of the play follows:—Wilbur Emerson, a young bank gambler, is pitted against a famous New York district attorney, who undertakes to send him to prison on account of unreasonable and unjustifiable suspicion regarding his wife and young Emerson. Through the fear of a weak member of the board of directors, the district attorney secures incriminating evidence against Emerson's chain of banks. When Emerson learns of this, he is in desperation he goes to the district attorney's house at twelve o'clock at night, knowing him to be away, in order to steal this evidence. He is surprised and confronted by the attorney's wife. While arguing with him as to the absolute insanity of his action, her husband returns. The situation can better be imagined than described. The district attorney, used to cross-questioning witnesses, puts his wife through this degree in an endeavor to discover whether she is telling the truth as regards Emerson's visit. In this scene Miss Brandt, the leading lady, will have an opportunity of displaying her intense emotional ability. Sam. A. McHenry, the leading man, who has made himself so popular through his portrayal of the name part

TWICE PROVEN CURE FOR NERVES

Irritable, Hysterical, Sleepless, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Health.

There is a message in this letter for thousands of women who are suffering from broken-down nervous systems. Sleepless nights, much irritability over little things, spells of dizziness and nervous sick headaches are among the symptoms.

You may not realize the nature of your ailment until nervous prostration comes upon you. But, in a few days, you find yourself, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is ready to help you.

Mrs. W. J. May, 88 Annette street, Toronto, writes: "Some years ago I suffered from nervous trouble, and took Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which completely cured me. About six months ago I received a shock which again shattered my nervous system to such an extent that I was irritable and hysterical, and could not sleep nights. I began to use the Nerve Food again and was not disappointed. Improvement was apparent from the first box, and now I am entirely well."

PUBLICITY FOR CANADA IN ENGLAND

How the Agents-General Keep Their Promises — Lectures To School Boys and Students

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Sept. 30.—In the art of securing publicity it is doubtful if there are any shrewder practitioners in London than the Canadian Agents General, and the value of their efforts in this direction must be great to the provinces which they represent.

Each week the London and provincial papers received from the office of Canada's High Commissioner a statement concerning conditions in Canada which has been received from the minister of the interior. These are generally statistical. The Canadian immigration office presided over by that astute publicist, J. Obed Smith, works along another line and provides very entertaining reading matter which deals with all phases of Canadian life, the agricultural, of course, predominating. Both Columbia magazine a weekly cable service to its agents general and this example might with profit be followed by the other provinces. The Ontario office issues a weekly news sheet brightly written. Nova Scotia does the same, and the other provinces have similar means of getting the news of the public. The remarkable part about this publicity is that it is inserted free; some of the papers in which it appears may carry the government advertisement, but not by any means all of them do. Canada maintains a very efficient news service, done by writers skilful enough to get their stuff in on news value. Of course there is a general demand for news concerning Canada and editors find it profitable to meet the wishes of their readers.

The Spoken Word
But it is by means of the spoken word as well as the one which is written that advertisement is attained. Apart from the official lectures, Canadian representatives embrace every opportunity to speak to audiences of various kinds. At the winter session of the Southampton University for instance, most if not all of the agents give addresses on the areas which they represent, as well as at a good many of the London colleges. Recently there has been a great extension of the work among the advanced classes of the London County Council schools, and as a result it is somewhat frequent to find classes of the older boys paying visits to some of the Canadian offices to inspect the specimens of fruit, minerals and other exhibits always on show. In addressing the first Franco-British Travel Congress on Friday, Colonel Pelletier, agent general for Quebec, did good service to the interests of his province. As the name implies this was a congress formed with the idea of encouraging travel between the citizens of the two countries, and Colonel Pelletier was fortunate in being able to point out to this influential gathering the special attractions of his province as a resort of the tourist and the sportsman.

James E. Harding, aged 21 years, of Tabusintac, was seriously stabbed last night after a festive encounter with another young fellow, Freeman Edmunds, aged 19 years, and his recovery is not expected. The two had had some words in a quarrel, and had engaged in a fight after coming from prayer meeting. Edmunds, it is said, got the worse of it and ran for Harding with an open knife, slashing him badly about the abdomen. Edmunds then ran away. Harding was taken to the Chatham hospital.

Mail Sailings and Port Problems Will be Discussed at Meeting Tonight; I.C.R. Agreement Must Not be Signed

TONIGHT'S MEETING OF CITIZENS, IT WILL BE EXPECTED, WILL TAKE THE STAND THAT THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT SHOULD ADVISE THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS NOT TO GIVE HIS APPROVAL TO THE GUTELIUS AGREEMENT.

IT HAS BEEN STATED OFFICIALLY AT OTTAWA BY MR. BORDEN THAT THIS AGREEMENT HAS ONLY NOW BEEN FORWARDED TO HON. MR. COCHRANE FOR HIS APPROVAL. IT IS NOT TO TAKE EFFECT UNTIL NOVEMBER 15. IF IT IS NOT APPROVED BY THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS, THE SITUATION WILL BE AS IT WAS BEFORE MR. GUTELIUS AND MR. BOSWORTH GOT TOGETHER.

THEREFORE, ONE THING NOW TO BE DONE IS FOR THE CITIZENS OF ST. JOHN TO MAKE A UNITED DEMAND THAT THE GUTELIUS-BOSWORTH AGREEMENT BE NOT CONFIRMED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS, AT LEAST UNTIL A COMPLETE TRANSCRIPT OF THE TEXT OF THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN FURNISHED IN ORDER THAT IT MAY BE EXAMINED BY TRAFFIC EXPERTS ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY.

UNTIL THIS AGREEMENT HAS BEEN CONFIRMED THERE WILL EXIST NO REASON WHY THE FOUR DIRECT MAIL STEAMERS OF THE C. P. R. AND ALLAN LINES SHOULD NOT COME TO ST. JOHN, AS THEY WERE ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED TO DO.

THE POINT TO BE KEPT IN MIND IS THAT THE SHIPS WOULD HAVE COME TO ST. JOHN BUT FOR THE GUTELIUS AGREEMENT, AND THIS AGREEMENT HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED BY THE GOVERNMENT AND MR. COCHRANE—AND WILL NOT BE APPROVED IF ST. JOHN FIRMLY PRESSES THE JUSTICE OF ITS PROTEST UPON THE ADMINISTRATION AT OTTAWA.

WE HAD THE OPEN DOOR UNTIL THAT GUTELIUS-BOSWORTH AGREEMENT WAS PREPARED. THE DOOR WILL STAND OPEN IF THAT AGREEMENT IS REPUDIATED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

UNLESS IT IS REPUDIATED ST. JOHN WILL OBVIOUSLY BE THE VICTIM OF INJUSTICE AND DISCRIMINATION.

WHAT WILL TONIGHT'S MEETING DO ABOUT IT?

SHAUGHNESSY STANDS PAT BEHIND THE GUTELIUS AGREEMENT

After President Robinson, of the Board of Trade, Mayor Frink, and Senator Thorne conferred with Mr. Thomas Shaughnessy in Montreal on Saturday the following report of the conference was furnished The Telegraph and The Times through the courtesy of Mr. Robinson:

Montreal, Oct. 11.—Mr. Thomas Shaughnessy states that the Empresses and the Albatross and Canadian mail must sail from the same port; that had St. John been chosen for this service, owing to our lack of facilities, a large portion of the freight business would have to be diverted to another port to make room for the mail service.

He says in his opinion the rates to be paid by the C. P. R. to the I. C. R. are fair and adequate for the service rendered and that the C. P. R. would be glad to make similar arrangements under like circumstances to provide another company over C. P. R. lines at these rates.

He further states that St. John is the C. P. R. port and that the facilities adequate they would use it, but that, facilities being lacking, they have very recently entered into a six months' agreement with I. C. R. so as to make Halifax available for mail service.

He further states that St. John will lose no prestige and that future business will tax capacity of all ports. He further states that he considers that this delegation and agitation will be productive of most beneficial results as it will force upon the government the necessity of providing facilities at St. John with the greatest expedition in order that the C. P. R. may establish their oft repeated determination to make St. John their Atlantic terminus.

This means that the C. P. R. will make no change in programme, and that it is up to St. John to force the development of its port.

Returned Yesterday.

J. M. Robinson, on his return to the city yesterday in company with Senator W. H. Thorne, Mayor Frink and Alexander McMillan, confirmed the telegram he had sent to the evening papers, practically repeating the information given therein. He decided to go to the details of the situation until tonight's meeting, when he said the whole result of the conference both with the government and Mr. Thomas Shaughnessy would be made public and dealt with in full.

Mayor Frink and others closely in touch with the minister and the government, and that the fate of St. John depends on whether the Gutelius agreement will receive the ratification of the ministers, the belief of the majority of those business men who spoke on the subject to The Telegraph yesterday.

John Keefe was also of the opinion that the matter rested with the government.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Queen Square Methodist church is celebrating its 123rd anniversary this week. Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, assisted the pastor, Rev. Wilfred Gage, at the services yesterday and preached at both services. The celebration will be continued with a special programme for each evening during the week.

Yesterday was observed as the Sunday for the harvest thanksgiving service in most of the Anglican churches throughout the city yesterday. The churches were decorated with the fruits of the soil and special music and appropriate sermons were features of the services with a special form of prayer drawn up by the bishop of the diocese.

The thanksgiving service was held on the previous Sunday in St. James church and the services at that church yesterday were conducted by Rev. Canon Siam of Moncton in the absence of the rector, Rev. H. A. Cady, who went to Moncton to conduct the thanksgiving services there yesterday.

The annual Sunday school concert and rally of the First United Baptist church, Fairville, was held yesterday afternoon with the pastor, Rev. R. Boyer presiding. The programme, which consisted of thirty numbers, and which was prepared under the direction of Miss Helen Camp and Miss Edith Sims, was very capably rendered by the seventy-five pupils who took part. The choir, under the direction of H. P. Allingham, gave several selections. Miss Fish presided at the organ. The Sunday school C. one of the most up-to-date in the city. It is a graded school and is well equipped.

The mission that has been in progress in the Cathedral for the last two weeks closed last evening with the recitation of the Rosary, a sermon by Rev. Father Kane, C. S. R., on Perseverance; Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament; and the triple blessing. The blessing of the mission fathers was given by Father Kane, and the papal benediction by His Lordship Bishop O'Reilly, of Baker City, Oregon. This week the mission priests will commence missions at St. John the Baptist church in Lower Cove, and in Holy Trinity church in the Valley. As in the Cathedral, the first week will be devoted to the men and the second to the women.

A few months ago the Congregational church of this city, which had been without a minister since Rev. H. S. Mahood resigned, called Rev. W. H. Hill, of Gaylord (Main), who was zealous of coming to Canada. His pastorate was to begin on Oct. 12. About the first of the month the supply committee had a surprise in the decision of Mr. Hill not to accept. They decided to ask Rev. Ralph J. Houghton, of Boston, who had preached in the church several times during September, to assume the pastorate, and this he has agreed to do, beginning his ministry here about the 26th inst.

MARITIME U. B. W. M. U.
A large number of Baptist ladies are to leave the city today to attend the Baptist missionary meetings in St. Stephen. The executive boards are to meet there on Tuesday and the regular meetings are to begin on Wednesday. The ladies who will leave for St. Stephen today are: Mrs. F. H. Wentworth, Mrs. A. F. Newcombe, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. N. C. Scott, Mrs. T. S. Simms, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Mrs. J. Gillies, Mrs. H. Fritz, Mrs. A. Vaughan, Mrs. E. M. Sippell, Mrs. D. Hutchinson, Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. A. J. Archibald, Mrs. E. L. Strange, Mrs. J. R. Richards, Mrs. H. D. Everett, Mrs. Hoyt, Mrs. J. R. Vanwart, Mrs. A. B. Fowler, Mrs. C. H. Horsman, Mrs. Machum, and the Misses Myrtle, Vanwart, C. Fullerton, and Julia Pirie.

Radway's Ready Relief
Frank Malt, 420 St. St., New York, writes: "My wife suddenly fell very sick with indigestion. I called in the doctor, but he failed to help her. We have no time to be sick. So I bought a box of Radway's Ready Relief and Pills, and gave her according to the directions. In a few minutes she was back to work two days later."

GOLDS AND COUGHS
Apply the Gold to the throat and chest with the surface smart and redness. Give Radway's Pills in such doses as will freely move the bowels. For a sudden cold take a large dose Radway's Pills and a teaspoonful of Gold's Cough Syrup at once to be followed in the morning the cold will be gone. RADWAY & CO., Montreal, Can.

ment. "We must take some vigorous action at the meeting," he said. "It is useless to discuss the situation till then."

R. H. Bruce.
"We should hold our hand until the board of trade has seen the agreement," said R. H. Bruce. "We should certainly not submit quietly to having the agreement ratified."

W. H. Barnaby said he would prefer not to speak for publication until the meeting.

The delegates who came home on Saturday were Senator Daniel, W. H. Barnaby, Hon. John E. Wilson, L. P. D. Tilley, M. L. A.; Philip Grannan, M. L. A.; John Keefe, D. F. Pidgeon, D. F. Pidgeon, Joseph A. Likely, R. B. Emerson, R. H. Bruce, H. C. Schofield and B. R. Armstrong.

Rising indignation.
That the dissatisfaction and rising indignation of the citizens of St. John over the discrimination against this port in the mail boat sailings will find further strong expression at the public meeting this evening in Keith's Theatre, Carleton street, in vigorous protest against the Gutelius arrangement with the C. P. R., is expected. The whole transaction was criticised severely throughout the city on Saturday and yesterday, and keen disappointment was expressed that more information had not been available in Ottawa for the St. John delegation.

That there is still ample opportunity for the citizens to protect their rights is the point of view taken by business men, if only they go about it in the proper spirit and with unshaken determination, in view of the fact that the agreement or to reject it, there is no reason why the C. P. R. would have running rights over the I. C. R. does not become operative until Nov. 15.

It was further pointed out last night that as the matter now rests altogether with the government and they have power either to ratify the Gutelius agreement or to reject it, there is no reason why St. John should not obtain its rights if sufficiently strong representations are made.

Whatever the prospects of St. John may be, there is every reason to believe that the meeting tonight will be enthusiastic in its attitude and that drastic measures will be taken to obviate the disaster which seems imminent unless a policy of drastic and determined action is pursued by the citizens.

John Keefe was also of the opinion that the matter rested with the government.

RECENT WEDDINGS
In Holy Trinity church yesterday afternoon the wedding of Miss Margaret Josephine Burns to William Dixon, in the employ of the Empire Cloak and Coat Co., was solemnized by Rev. J. J. Walsh. Miss Marie Burns, her sister, supported the bride, while Frank M. O'Brien was groomsmen. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, John Duplissier, wore blue broadcloth with a plush hat with plumes. The bridesmaid wore blue serge. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will reside in the city.

PRENTICE BOYS HOLD ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE

The 'Prentice Boys' held their annual church parade to Zion church yesterday afternoon. There were three lodges present, those from Carleton, Fairville and Germain street, and in spite of the threatening weather there was a good turnout. The procession left the hall in Germain street about 3 o'clock and proceeded to the church by way of Prince, Charlotte, Union, Dorchester, City Road and Wall streets. They were accompanied by the Carleton Cornet and Temple of Honor bands. At the church Rev. Wm. Lawson, the pastor, delivered an interesting address, touching on the duties of the members. After the sermon the Temple Band played several selections, prepared for the occasion. The return to the hall was made by the same route as going.

SCHOTLAND ARRIVES

The giant ocean-going tug Zwartzee, Captain Person, arrived yesterday from Rotterdam with the Norton Griffiths dredge Schotland in tow, and the powerful towboat justified the confidence of her owners in her steadiness by bringing the heavy digger to port in the time estimated for the long pull, despite six days of foggy weather on the last week of the long voyage.

The Zwartzee steamed from Rotterdam at midnight, Sept. 11, and arrived off Partridge Island at midnight on Saturday, making the passage in thirty days, including a stop of two days at the Azores for supplies.

The dredge, secured to the tug by 155 fathoms of great hawser, consisting of steel cables for thirty-five fathoms from the station, and of manila hawser for the balance, was upwards of one-sixth of a mile astern, and during the passage through the fog bank, when the tug was not visible for several days, and only the drag of the tow made her safely known to the captain of the steamer.

SAVED FROM GALLOWS AT ELEVENTH HOUR

Few "condemned to be hanged" cases have attracted such all Canadian attention in recent years as that of Charles Gibson, of Toronto, sentenced to be hanged at dawn on Thursday, October 9, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. All the higher courts refused him a new trial; the dominion cabinet took up the case, and said the sentence was just, and the administrator of Canada, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, signed the death warrant.

Then there came a wave of popular sympathy, with petitions containing 60,000 names, and telegrams and letters from all over Canada, asking for a commutation of the sentence. At two o'clock, on Thursday, just a few hours before the time set for the execution, the acting governor-general signed the order commuting the sentence to imprisonment for life.

ISAACS PLEADED GUILTY ON SECOND CHARGE; GETS FIVE YEARS IN DORCHESTER

A sentence of five years in Dorchester was imposed on the King's bench division of the circuit court on Saturday afternoon upon Richard D. Isaacs by Mr. Justice White on the charge of which he was adjudged guilty, and five years in the same institution on the second indictment constituting a similar charge to which he pleaded guilty a few minutes before sentence was passed. The sentences were to run concurrently and date from Saturday.

When the indictment was read, Isaacs pleaded guilty and J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., who appeared for the crown, moved for sentence. Asked if he had anything to say before sentence should be passed, Isaacs asked for leniency. Before the judge imposed sentence, he asked him to consider his wife and children who would be left penniless while he was in jail, and asked to be given a chance to return to them before long. He professed penitence and expressed a desire to show his repentance by his future conduct.

J. A. Barry made a forcible plea on behalf of the prisoner, asking the judge to be merciful towards him. Judge White said he hoped when Isaacs was liberated he would return to his family and endeavor to do all he could to help them, because his wife had sacrificed much for him.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With it To Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly or thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 80 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is a sin, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. B. darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, at another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, so and luxuriant. CURED ECZEMA LIKE MAGIC Suffered for Years—Tried all Kinds of Treatment—Surprised at Results From Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You can soon tell when people are enthusiastic about medical treatment by the language they use. After experimenting with all sorts of ointments in vain effort to obtain relief and cure, the writer of this letter was astonished by the quick and satisfactory results obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"It worked like magic," she wrote. Indeed, it is surprising the healing that is often effected in a single night by the great ointment. The stinging and itching are relieved at once, and cure is a matter of time and patient treatment.

Mrs. Clements, 18 Strange street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have suffered from eczema for years, and after using all kinds of ointments, at last tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It worked like magic and proved a God-send to me. I would advise anyone suffering from eczema to try one box and be convinced." 60c. a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bat & Co., Limited, Toronto.

OTBALL

U. N. B. Team Won.

The U. N. B. football team had no trouble in taking a victory from an aggregation representing the St. John A. on the Marathon grounds Saturday morning by a score of 14 to 8. The team, however, put up a good game, but team work was lacking and experienced combination plays of the varsity boys was too much for them. There is a lot of good material, however, in the St. John club, and with a more practice they will undoubtedly make a much better showing. Coach Campbell, of the Fredericton team, commented the local boys after the game, said that they showed good form in it is known that they have been kicking together for only a week. For winners, Burdon and Balkum starred, man also playing a good game. Arrangements for the only try for the St. John after some good scrim work, the local team is anticipating a return to the university boys, to take place probably next Saturday. In preparation for this game the team will practice every day this week. A thing of the players will be held after the Tuesday evening to decide on trip.

BOXING SUCCEEDS BASEBALL

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee, Oct. 10.—With the passing of the world's series baseball games, New York fans and thousands throughout the Empire State are getting ready for a busy boxing season.

Big cards are a little scarce just now, but as the season progresses it is expected good cards will develop.

That the fans will turn out when the card is attractive was demonstrated last Thursday when over 10,000 people witnessed the Langford-Jeanette fight at Madison Square Garden. It was not a pleasing fight, but it was a hard battle nevertheless, and no doubt the two colored stars tried their best. It was simply a case of two men knowing each other's style perfectly, and as a result it was a difficult matter for either to put over a sleep producer. Had Langford been in perfect condition he would have made Joe Jeanette move even more lively than he did to avoid the K. O. punch, but instead of carrying about 180 pounds, Samuel was dragging around 199 1/2, just 20 pounds excess baggage. Jeanette tipped the scales at 195, and was in fine shape, but his right hand was in bad shape from an accident a week before while cranking an automobile. The two giants put all their strength into their blows, and at times landed one another badly while in close. Langford had his right eye badly cut and was bleeding, as was Jeanette about the mouth. White men would have shown all these traces and the fans who like gore would have been satisfied, but on the black skin the blood did not show, hence the supposition that neither was marked up. It was their ninth meeting and naturally they understood each other's style. However, there is no denying that both men are on the toboggan and going backward fast, so that another year or two will see the famous trio of colored stars—Johnson, Langford and Jeanette—out of the heavyweight running. Then will come the white man's chance again.

THE FOUR BASE HITTER IN ACTION

The convention and exhibition of the International Association of Fire Engineers was held. The door is revolved by an electric motor, and ordinary pressure on the brace arm or push plate starts the motor and turns the door. Discontinuing the pressure breaks the circuit, bringing the motor to a stop. Should the vestibule become overcrowded from any cause, so that the pressure on the door increases beyond the ordinary limit, the doors and the wings forming their approach automatically collapse, thus permitting free exit passage. Although the doors are easily collapsed, the ordinary pressure used in their regular operation does not affect the proper working of the mechanism. This mode of operation, involving merely pressure on the push plate is of recent development. The doors are made in two styles, oak and bronze.

PHILADELPHIA
AGAIN WINS
CHAMPIONSHIP

New York, Oct. 11.—The Philadelphia Athletics won the baseball championship of the universe for 1913 at the Polo Grounds this afternoon by defeating the New York Giants 3 to 1 in the fifth and deciding game of the world's series.

With the score of games standing three to one in their favor, the American League representatives went in to clinch the series, and before the masterly playing of the Mackmen the National League had absolutely no chance. Connie Mack, anxious to finish the struggle in final day of the week, sent Eddie Plank, his veteran southpaw, to the mound, and John McGraw, his back to the wall, called upon Christy Mathewson to check the victorious rush of the Athletics and thus gain for his team a breathing spell.

Both old masters of curve and break responded nobly to the call of their manager and club, but the Giants, unable to help Mathewson by even mediocre batting, fell victims to the vicious hitting, fast fielding combination which has again raised the standard of the American League over that of the National organization.

The victory was a personal triumph for Plank, but the downfall of the Giants carried no odium for Mathewson, who, besides pitching an excellent game with but two days of rest since his victory of Wednesday, made one of the two hits scored against his rival in the box.

Eddie Murphy, the first batter to stand at the plate, drove Mathewson's initial pitch through short for a single. Oldring attempted to sacrifice, but forced Murphy at second. Collins came through with a single to right, putting Oldring on third. Burns caught Baker's line fly, but the throw to the plate was too high for even the towering McLean and Oldring slid across with a single. Murphy again opened the inning with a single through short. Oldring followed with a smash at Doyle, who fumbled and the batter was safe while Murphy scampered to second. Collins sacrificed the runners along a base each. Baker dribbled a Cincinnati base hit at Merkle, who tried for the batter, and then for Murphy's plate, missing both as a consequence. McInnis then scored Oldring from third with a sacrifice fly to Burns and the Athletics' run-making was at an end.

The Giants lone run came in the fifth session and was due to a peculiar break in the game that the home fans thought had marked the fall of the Athletics' wonderful defense. After Burns had filed to McInnis the veteran Plank temporarily lost control of the ball, walking Shafer. On a hit and run play Murray raised a high fly to the center of the diamond. Plank moved but a few steps to set himself for the catch, and as Shafer had already reached second, a double play appeared assured. Baker upset the whole infield by rushing over from third and trying to take the ball from Plank. He lost the pitcher just enough to make him drop the ball, and both runners were safe, while Plank was charged with an error because the ball touched his outstretched hands.

Some 86,000 fans were now rooting in real earnest, and as almost invariably the case after such a mix-up in baseball, a base-hit followed. Larry McLean was the Giant to deliver the smash to left centre, and Shafer made the trip from second to home in record time.

With two on and but one out the fans felt sure that the Giants' luck was focusing and they raised a roar of encouragement that could be heard for blocks. If the Athletics' infielders heard it they did not permit the bedlam to interfere with baseball. Merkle drove a humming grounder at Collins, who snapped it up and tossed to Barry, forcing McLean at second. Without a moment's hesitation he flashed the ball to McInnis and Merkle was out by a step. It was one of the $100,000 infield's double plays that cut down opponents at critical periods of a game and it spelled the finish of the Giants as world's series contenders then and there.

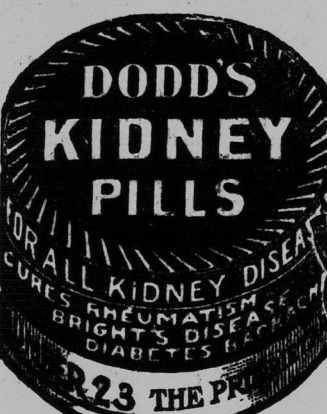

Including the present series, the Junior League has won six out of the ten championship contests with the senior organization, which began in 1908. The Athletics' victory was also pleasing to Connie Mack and his players since it gave them the rubber win over McGraw, and the Giants in the third meeting of the two teams. In 1908 the Giants won four games to one. In 1911 the Athletics took four out of six and repeated with four out of five this season. This series may mark the passing of Plank, for he has desired to drop out of the game for several years, and has only continued at the personal solicitation of Manager Mack.

It certainly won't be due to any financial inducements that Mack can offer, for Plank, in company with the other forty-nine players who participated in the series this week, will divide $185,188.89 between them in basis of sixty per cent. to the winners and forty per cent. to the losers. The stockholders of each of the two clubs will also have $79,108.80 to divide as a result of their players' drawing powers during the world's series. The National Commission received $32,298 for overseeing the five-game contest, the entire gate receipts amounting to $325,980, coming from the pockets of 151,000 fans who paid to witness the play. The profits of the ticket speculators are not available at this time.

Declares Courtenay Bay Work Easily Completed in Allotted Time — The Gutelius Agreement

Amongst the arrivals on the Montreal train today was J. Norton Griffiths, M. P., of London, Eng., who is here on a trip of inspection of the work at Courtenay Bay being done by his concern. He will remain here two or three days. He was heartily greeted by friends who had met him on his previous visit here. Mr. Griffiths is registered at the Royal.

This afternoon he will go to Courtenay Bay to look over the development there and determine for himself as to the progress being made.

He would say nothing this morning regarding the work at East St. John, except that he had no doubt whatever that it would easily be completed within the allotted time. As to the progress already made he deferred any comment until he had visited the ground.

Asked as to the statement of a prominent railroad and steamship man in St. John some months ago, that it would be from ten to twenty years before Courtenay Bay would be valuable in offering traffic facilities, he said that the idea was absurd. It was possible to make such improvements in the port as would enable it to handle more than twice its former traffic, in four or five years and to have in that time every facility arranged for. The only trouble was as to the limitation of expenditures. His company, he said, last year could have done nearly twice as much work had they not been held up on this account.

He did not care to express an opinion regarding the alleged agreement between Messrs Gutelius and Bosworth concerning the discriminatory rates for passenger and freight service to Halifax. "I do not know whether such an agreement has been definitely made or not," he said, "but I was greatly surprised to hear of it. However, it does not seem that the C. P. R. would commit themselves to any deal which would strike a blow at St. John, because they have a great deal at stake here."

SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS IN TRAVIS CASE

It is Suspended Till November 4 on Pleas That He be Allowed to Go Out of City

John Travis was summoned before Judge Forbes this morning to answer to the charge of attempting to commit suicide, to which he pleaded guilty last May and was allowed to go on a suspended sentence at the time. This morning Recorder Baxter, K. C., and C. H. Ferguson appeared for the crown and the former on behalf of the attorney general moved for sentence.

D. Mullin, K. C., representing the prisoner, objected on the ground that the prisoner was not properly before the court as no information had been made nor a warrant for his apprehension issued.

Chief Clerk was then called and gave evidence of Travis being twice arrested since his release on that occasion, on charges of breaking and entering Barrett & Smith's and Estey & Company's stores and that in each case the jury disagreed.

Mr. Mullin objected to this evidence being given, as the production of the records was the best evidence and after repeating his objection as before stated, further objected that the recognition on which the prisoner was released did not state any definite period or rather that there was no evidence that it did contain this requirement of the statute.

He strongly urged his objections, but when it was clear that the court intended to impose sentence he asked that the maximum penalty of two years' imprisonment be not imposed.

His Honor then said that the sentence of the court was that the prisoner be taken to Dorchester Penitentiary and there kept at hard labor for two years. Travis' mother, who was in court, leaned over to her counsel and said that she could send her son out of the country for two years.

His Honor replied that he thought it was too late.

With tears flowing down his cheeks Travis stood up and pleaded for a chance to go to Philadelphia.

His Honor submitted the matter to Mr. Baxter, as crown representative, and the latter said he would lay the matter before the attorney-general. It was agreed that formal sentence would not be imposed and the prisoner would be remanded until November 4, when the County Court opens here. He will then be required to appear on the charge of breaking and entering Barrett & Smith's store to stand a second trial and his whole entanglement in police circles will likely be straightened out or brought to some definite end at that time.

Accident Narrowly Averted at Suspension Bridge — Matter of Police Authority

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon an accident was very narrowly averted near bridge at the falls. The road is very narrow at the city end of the bridge, where the work is being carried on in connection with the erection of the new highway bridge, and does not allow room for two teams to pass. A collision between two automobiles was narrowly averted. One car was coming down Douglas avenue at a high speed, and but for the presence of mind shown by the driver in turning into Chesley street a serious collision must have resulted, as another car was coming the opposite direction. As it was, several pedestrians were knocked over in trying to dodge both cars, but none of them was seriously injured.

About the same time a horse and carriage came down the avenue, and when the policeman, stationed there for the purpose, stood in the middle of the road to make the driver go carefully round the corner, he was insulted and had to get out of the way to avoid being run over. The police will endeavor to find out who the driver of the team was, as he is guilty of a serious offence. Unless the direction of the police is followed out, serious accidents may result at this dangerous corner.

THE LATE MRS. ANNIE OSBORNE
Many will regret to learn of the death of another aged and respected resident of St. Martins, N. B. Mrs. Annie Osborn, widow of Joseph Osborn, died at her home on Friday evening, 10th inst. after a severe illness, in the 77th year of her age, leaving four sons and two daughters, several grand children and three great grand children. The sons are James, Crawford and William of St. Martins and George of Parrsboro, N. S. The daughters are Mrs. Samuel Merlin of St. Martins and Mrs. Jas. O. Forsythe of this city. Two of the great grand children are sons of C. W. Waldron of the I. C. R., the third is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins of Hampstead, Queens county. She was of quiet and kind disposition and was always very attentive to her household duties and belongings and had hosts of friends; the esteem in which she was held was made manifest by the large concourse of friends and neighbors from the village and outlying country who assembled at her late home on Sunday to show their last tribute of respect by following her body to its last resting place in Mosher's cemetery. Many regrets for the bereaved family in their affliction were heard.
