REPORT TODAY SAYS ELECTION IN JULY

The exact date of the provincial elections is a matter of uncertainty even among the supporters of the government. It was announced as to the date made by the party managers yesterday they did not spread the information among their followers. The date seems to have narrowed down to a choice between June and July and the general impression seems to be that it will be July.

DENMARK'S KING IS STRICKEN IN STREET; DIES AT AN UNKNOWN

Christian Frederick Succumbs In Hamburg

JOURNEYING HOME AFTER HEALTH TRIP

Goes Out for Stroll Alone After Tea and Falls in Street With Stroke of Apoplexy—Unconscious, he is Hurried to Hospital Where Searchers Find Monarch Dead—Brother of Queen Mother Alexandra

(Canadian Press) Hamburg, Germany, May 15.—King Frederick VIII of Denmark died alone, unrecognized and unattended in the street here late last night, of apoplexy. The king, traveling incognito, arrived here on Monday on his return after a long trip to the south, where he had been convalescing from a serious attack of inflammation of the lungs. With the queen and the royal suite, he took quarters at the Hambroer Hotel.

At ten o'clock last night, the king left the hotel unaccompanied for his usual stroll before retiring. He had gone only a short distance when he was overcome by a stroke of apoplexy. He fell unconscious to the pavement and not being recognized as a person of great prominence, was rushed to the nearest hospital, an automobile. But he was already dead.

When members of the king's suite became alarmed over his failure to return to the hotel after a reasonable time, they called in the proprietor and a search was made. The searchers found the king lying dead in the hospital, and brought his body back to the hotel, with them.

The king was hurriedly taken to the hospital, where he was completely restored to health by his trip to the south. Yesterday he fell particularly well, and he expressed joy at his expected return to Copenhagen today. He remarked that he felt refreshed and completely restored to health.

It was announced this morning that arrangements for taking the body to Denmark would be completed during the day. His Majesty's relatives and royalties, particularly the royal family, were notified of his death. Here, where the king had repeatedly been a welcome guest, were at half past ten today.

King Frederick and Queen Louisa, who had travelled here from Nice as the Count and Countess of Kronberg, had their three youngest children—Princess Thyra, Prince Gustav and Princess Dagmar, with them. King Frederick had been undergoing a course of treatment at the sanatorium, where he had been troubled for a considerable time. He had also suffered from an attack of inflammation of the lungs, but this had been completely overcome.

When he left the Hambroer Hotel last night after eating a hearty dinner, the king strode toward the "Goose Market," one of the principal squares in the business section of the city, and which is just around the corner from the hotel.

Dead in Street. A few minutes later some pedestrians noticed an elderly gentleman fall to the sidewalk. He was dressed in an ordinary business suit, and appeared to be a well-to-do tradesman. He was lying on his back, and his eyes were closed. He was not breathing, and his pulse was gone. He was lying on his back, and his eyes were closed. He was not breathing, and his pulse was gone.

Advertisement Brings 100 Names From Boston—Canvass of City Tomorrow

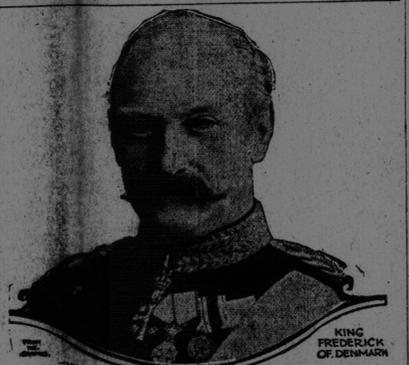

Tomorrow will be the day when the volunteers' committee of the 1911 Club will set out to raise $6,000 to cover the expenses of the Back to New Brunswick campaign by a canvass of the business and professional men of the city. The city has been divided into sixteen districts with two members of the committee for each district, and they hope to complete their canvass in one day.

The names of former New Brunswickers are coming in rapidly with requests for information and literature. An advertisement which appeared in one of the Boston papers on Saturday has already brought more than 100 names.

At a meeting of the advertising committee last evening arrangements were made for sending out another circular letter to the mailing list of 4,000 names and also for the publication of a booklet dealing with the natural resources and agricultural possibilities of the province. Other literature will be sent out from time to time reminding former residents of the advantages which the province now offers and also of the special attractions for the old home week from July 9 to 14.

A picture post card has been published and will be on sale at all the book stores at a low price, which citizens can use in inviting their friends and relatives to return for the big reunion.

TONIGHT'S TURNOUT. No definite route had been arranged for the march out of the 62nd Regiment this evening, but it is thought that it will be the same as in other years, namely, from the armory to Broad street, to Charlotte street, to King, Dock, Union and via German to return to the barracks.

ONE Holds up Crew on New Orleans-New York Train and the Other Does the Work—Posses in Pursuit of Them

Dynamite Express Safe and Get $140,000 ONLY A PAIR OF THEM

ONE Holds up Crew on New Orleans-New York Train and the Other Does the Work—Posses in Pursuit of Them

(Canadian Press) New Orleans, May 15.—Two masked men held up the New Orleans-New York limited train, Number 2 north bound, on the New Orleans & North Eastern Railroad, eight miles south of Hattiesburg, Miss., a little after midnight, and, after dynamiting the safe in the express car, escaped on horses with one bundle containing $140,000. The passengers were not molested and no one was hurt. The train proceeded to Hattiesburg where the city and county officials were notified. Mounted posses started in pursuit of the robbers. It is said they took a northeasterly direction, evidently heading for the Alabama state line.

Five charges of dynamite were exploded in the express car, nearly demolishing it. A through safe destined from New Orleans to eastern points, said to contain possibly $100,000, most of which was government funds, was blown open and the contents were taken.

The train had stopped at a water tank, just north of Richburg, when the men boarded the express car. At the time nearly all the passengers, except a few who were to leave the train at Hattiesburg, were asleep in their berths.

The men first forced the engineer and fireman to leave the engine and, together with the conductor, flagman and other members of the train crew they were lined up against the train and covered with a revolver by one of the robbers, while the other entered the express car and forced the express messenger and a guard, said to be watching the government money, to get out and join the line-up. The messenger and guard were relieved of their weapons before they had a chance to make any resistance. After the guard and messenger had disarmed, the robbers guarding the crew sent one of them back, inform the passengers that the train was being held for a certain purpose and that the crew were safe as long as they remained inside the car.

ACTOR DIES ON STAGE; THE PLAY GOES ON

Few in Winnipeg Audience Realized Tragedy as Walter Conlan Fell From Chair Dead

Winnipeg, May 15.—Although Warren Conlan, playing a part in "Man to Man" at the Optimum, dropped dead on the stage while the play was being presented last night, only a few persons in the audience later that a tragedy had occurred. The unwritten law of the play folk, that "the show must go on," was carried out.

Conlan, who was playing the part of an aged business man, at one part of the sketch was required to sit in a curtained office at the rear of the stage, being hidden from the view of the audience. As Miss Keenan, daughter of Frank Keenan, the leading man in the sketch, drew aside the curtains at the usual period in the play tonight, Conlan toppled from the chair on which he was sitting, onto the floor.

It was near the end of the playlet, and the other three players on the stage proceeded with their lines, as if nothing was wrong. He belonged to Biddeford, Maine. He had a considerable reputation in Shakespearian roles.

Let Me Send You This Book Free

Have You Labeled Yourself?

By RUTH CAMERON. THERE was once a young man who had a habit of making wild and exaggerated statements about many things. People who knew this man took stock of his habits and were accustomed to allow for it in listening to him.

Now one day, this young man made an exact and true statement about a certain matter in which he was deeply interested. "Oh, yes," said his friends in answer, "that sounds well, but you know you are inclined to exaggerate and I'm afraid you are making those figures too big."

His friends smiled indulgently and went their way, still thinking they had been listening to one of his usual wild and exaggerated statements. Now later developments proved that the young man was quite right and absolutely accurate, and he went around and pointed this out to his friends.

Now the moral of this little tale is not-don't exaggerate. It's just this—if you have taught your friends to expect a certain quality in your own statements, when they judge all your acts in the light of that quality, they are simply doing the logical thing.

The man who is abnormally cautious, is indignant when some act of his, which is really nothing to do with his sense of caution, is attributed to that. He has no right to be indignant. His friends were simply applying the rule which he himself taught them.

When the boy of Aesop fame called for help at the approach of real danger, he was the smallest of the flock, and he thought he must be always mocking them.

In the same way, our daily habits teach people to expect certain things from us, and we have no right to expect that they will judge some speech or act of ours on the basis of our reputation, even if the judgment does happen to be incorrect.

They are acting in a perfectly logical way, and we have only ourselves to blame if we do not like the interpretation we have taught them to put upon us.

The unhappy Marriage of Brother and Sister of New Heir to Dukedom of Grafton

Colonel Lord Alfred Fitzroy, formerly of the Coldstream Guards, and a man of six feet-two, now becomes next heir to the Dukedom of Grafton, through the recent death of his childless step-brother, the Earl of Euston, to whose country title he has already succeeded.

The late Lord Euston was well known in the United States having visited there on several occasions. He represented the Duke of Devonshire at the coronation of King George V, at great Masonic gatherings, the late king up to the time of his accession having been grand master of the Freemasons of the United Kingdom. Colonel Alfred Fitzroy is married to the daughter of Eric Carrington Smith, and has several children. He was more fortunate in his choice of a wife than was his sister, Barbara Villiers whom Charles II. believed to be his own offspring, and upon whom he conferred the dukedom and the right to bear the royal arms, bribed with a bar sinister. Genealogists, however, assert that the Duke of Devonshire was not the Merrie Monarch, but Charles Berkeley, one of his boon companions.

The Duke of Grafton, as students of history are aware, was that one of Barbara Villiers whom Charles II. believed to be his own offspring, and upon whom he conferred the dukedom and the right to bear the royal arms, bribed with a bar sinister. Genealogists, however, assert that the Duke of Devonshire was not the Merrie Monarch, but Charles Berkeley, one of his boon companions.

The most famous of the Dukes of Grafton, is the third of the name, who played a great role as a statesman during the reign of George III., to whom many of the most savage letters by the mysterious "John Bull" were addressed. This third duke never allowed himself to be perturbed by the trenchant pen of "John Bull," being more than usually sensitive to attacks in print than was his descendant, the Lord Euston, who has done years older than himself. When he recovered his senses and realized what he had done, he was horrified, gave up all after, finding himself the victim of a particularly atrocious calumny, for which there was not even a shadow of a foundation. He was accused of being a French spy, and was accordingly thrown into the Tower, where he was kept for several months, and was finally released, but his health was ruined, and he died in a hospital. Lord Euston, on being prosecuted for assault and battery in connection with the affair, was acquitted, and his name was cleared.

The present Duke of Grafton is a great stickler for the proper, old-fashioned observance of the Sabbath, his leases containing the following clause: "No work shall be done in the allotment field on any Sunday or Christmas Day, nor shall any vegetables be taken out of it on that day after ten o'clock in the morning. Each tenant and his family is expected to attend some place of worship on those days, with regularity." The Liberals severely criticize him for what they call the tyrannical exercise of his powers as a great landlord. But these attacks do not disturb him seriously. Probably he is grieved over his broad acres he consoles himself with the motto accompanying his coat-of-arms, "royal, with bar sinister," "et decus pretium recti"—both the ornament and the reward of integrity.

MARKING THE FONTENY. AN OPEN LETTER From a Well Known Clergyman Showing How Indigestion Can Be Cured.

Rev. T. A. Drury, Beamsville, Ont., writes as follows: "For eighteen years I have been increasingly impressed with the wonderful effects for good wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For some years I have suffered almost constantly with chronic dyspepsia of the most stubborn type, attended by different other troubles which, invariably follow, or accompany it as its results, prominent among which were kidney trouble and piles. Against this complication of disease I waged a vigorous warfare for several months, using many different remedies, none of which gave permanent relief. In my discouragement I was about to discontinue treatment altogether when I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the use of which, though under very unfavorable circumstances, soon revived my drooping courage. The medicine struck at the root of my weakness and the different troubles of which dyspepsia was the prime cause released, let go, and disappeared. In one month I increased fifteen pounds in weight, and received a new lease of life. Only six boxes of pills produced this wonderful change in my health, which was miraculously permanent.

Later my sister became so reduced by anæmia (though under the care of our family doctor) that she could scarcely walk. In this dangerous extremity Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were resorted to and in a brief space of time restored her to perfect health. Being a minister of the gospel many test cases have come under my notice, in all of which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have fully sustained their world-wide reputation. This is why I can conscientiously recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as being superior to anything known to me in the treatment of the many diseases for which they are recommended.

OYSTERS TO P. E. ISLAND

The decline of the oyster business in the maritime provinces and also the hope of restoring it was illustrated by a shipment of oysters which passed through a few days ago consigned to Summerside, P. E. Island. There was a time when sending oysters to the Island would be in the same class with sending coals to Newcastle but the lack of care in preserving the fisheries and the thoughtless exploitation of the beds have changed conditions. Twenty years ago the annual shipments from the island amounted to about 50,000 barrels, now reduced to a few thousand. The shipment mentioned is being imported from New Haven, Conn., by James Morrison for the purpose of restocking one of the depleted oyster beds.

A prominent I. C. R. official commenting on this shipment said much of the oyster business could be restored if the provincial government would lease the shoals to individuals or companies who would restock and care for them.

BROKE WINDOW

Though the veteran window-smasher, Carrie Nation, is no more, it is evident that her example has lived after her. About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the clerks in the I. C. R. ticket office at the foot of King street were startled to hear a loud crash, and on looking to the street saw the large glass sheet in the doorway of the office broken and a hand-sawed by lying inside. It had been thrown through the window by the owner, one John Edward Jones, of Brooklyn. He was taken in charge by Deputy Chief Jenkins.

I. C. R. INQUIRY AT MONCTON.

Moncton, N. B., May 15—The proceedings in the Gaskin inquiry before Commissioner G. H. Adair of Sussex were enlivened today by a clash between counsel, C. Lionel Hamilton, for the government, declared that the questions asked I. C. R. Policeman Tingley by J. W. Gaskin's lawyer, James McQueen of Shelburne, were making a farce of the inquiry. Mr. McQueen's rejoinder was that if the inquiry was becoming a farce it was because his learned friend was making it such.

He read from the evidence that a witness, Magee, had said that pencils from the I. C. R. had been hurled by Gaskin in 1906, whereas Detective Steffington had declared he began making the inquiries in 1904 regarding Gaskin after hearing that pencils had been hurled.

Most of the session was taken up in cross-examination of Tingley regarding sales from the I. C. R. to Harvey Gaskin, and sales by him to the Maritime Metal Company of St. John.

LORD MAYOR TO HEAD DELEGATION FROM BRISTOL TO HALIFAX

Tablet to Be Presented on Occasion of Dedication of Memorial Tower

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, May 15.—Bristol is taking great interest in the dedication, by the Duke of Cornwall, of the tower in Halifax to commemorate the birth of British parliamentary government in Nova Scotia. The lord mayor has received an invitation from the mayor of Halifax to associate Bristol with the national memorial.

It was in Nova Scotia that John Cabot landed on his memorable voyage from Bristol in 1497 in the ship "Matthew," under the authority of King Henry VII, for the express purpose of exploring the unknown lands of the western ocean.

Obviously, the Lord Mayor of Bristol says, it is in every way appropriate that Bristol should participate in this function, and that nothing should be left undone to cement the friendship between Bristol and the capital of Nova Scotia. Bristol has accepted the invitation, and a tablet will be presented by its citizens depicting the departure of John Cabot. This will be executed in bronze and placed on one of the internal walls of the memorial. It has also been suggested that the city should send a delegation to present the tablet and a facsimile of the banner and ensign which King Henry VII placed in the hands of John Cabot to enable him to properly carry out his memorable mission.

The lord mayor and lady mayorsess complete heading the delegation to Halifax, which it is hoped will include the Sheriff of Bristol and Mrs. Bush, the master of the Society of Merchant Venturers and Mrs. Skelby, the president of the chamber of commerce and Mrs. Palliser Martin, and Henry Risley and Miss Risley.

Ottawa, Ont., May 15—(Special)—C. C. James is going to the maritime provinces next week to see what aid shall be given to agriculture there.

Ottawa, May 15—It is usual at this period of the year, the number of labor disputes in existence has increased, in connection with the settlements of wage schedules for the coming season of activity. There were nineteen strikes in April, being five more than in March, and five more than in April, 1911. About fifty firms and 10,000 men were involved. RICHESON ACCOUNTABLE?

(Boston Post)

Governor Foss in conversation with a Post reporter last night intimated that Dr. L. Vernon Briggs, the alienist, in his report had admitted that Clarence V. T. Richeson was abnormal in many ways but that he was accountable at the time he murdered Ava Linnell and still accountable for the crime.

Clarence V. T. Richeson was accountable and responsible at the time that he murdered Ava Linnell.

He is legally sane at this time.

This, in effect, is the report of Dr. Vernon L. Briggs, alienist, commissioned by Governor Foss to examine Richeson.

If the three other alienists employed by Governor Foss confirm the opinion of Dr. Briggs, there is no question but that Richeson will be electrocuted.

NOT TO CHANGE THE METHODIST DISCIPLINE

Minneapolis, May 16—Unless the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church overrules the action of the committee on state of the church that part of the famous paragraph 260 of the church discipline, which especially prohibits dancing, card playing and kindred amusements will remain a law of the church.

By a report of 100 to 51 the entire committee voted to reject the report by the majority of the sub-committee which favored the elimination of a portion of the paragraph and leaving the amusement question to the "conscience" of the individual member.

NEWS FOR MR. FLEMING

Sackville Post, Conservative.—A correspondent directs our attention to the fact that the road between Sackville and Dochester is not in as good condition as it should be. He says it is very narrow, its place so narrow that two teams can pass only with difficulty and that there are many stones in the road that should be removed. Our correspondent suggests that a considerable sum of money should be expended upon this particular road as it is a very important road and should be properly looked after.

One of the boys employed in a city hotel was given a scar in this morning in consequence of a complaint lodged by one of the guests that a scarf pin which he prized because of its associations, was missing from his room. The manager of the hotel made inquiry and fixed suspicion on a boy who was questioned in the matter by Sergeant Caples but the pin was not recovered. Although the boy said he knew nothing of the pin, he confessed to having pilfered a quarter from one of the rooms.

THE BANQUET A chilling wind blew in the faces of the Fleming banqueters as they came out from the festive board last night. The feasting and the boisterous were over, and they were up against the cold fact that Premier Fleming must very soon face the people with his record of broken pledges, rank political favoritism, extravagant expenditure and $66,000 deficit.

Senator Daniel was not present at the banquet. The Globe had announced in the afternoon that he was ill, but at the time this news was being read by readers of the Globe, the senator was delivering a vigorous address before the municipal council.

There were many at the banquet, however, for the tory mind tends strongly toward fodder, and this government has been a good provider for the wants of the faithful. The auditor general's report bears eloquent testimony to this fact, to say nothing of the large deficit.

There was, no doubt, a feeling of relief when the news from Hampton was received, although it was not mentioned in Hon. Mr. Murray's reference to Kings county, nor does there seem to have been time for a parting enquiry of Mr. Fred M. Spruel.

Mr. O. S. Crockett sat at meat with Hon. J. D. Hasen, which is an interesting fact in itself. Hon. Mr. Foster was also present. At the time of the federal elections, when on a stumping tour, he made a detour which carried him safely past this city, but he was at the banquet last night. There were doubtless some who remembered the reception he gave them, and what they said about it, when he was interviewed as finance minister and asked to see that St. John received justice at the hands of a tory government.

And there was a telegram. Of course there was a telegram. It was from Sir William Mackenzie, and breathed the spirit of hope and increased revenue to be squandered.

The banquet was not without its tinge of delicate humor. In that presence, and with perfect gravity, Mr. Fleming "appealed to Liberals and Conservatives alike" to support his government. That fine touch of humor must have aided digestion even more than the equally grave assertions of the premier that his government had kept its pledges.

Scotched and sustained by Hon. Mr. McLeod's assurance that "the present government would always spend the money when it was in the public interests to do it," and knowing full well what that meant, the diners in their enthusiasm forgot for the moment the day of reckoning, and rejoiced.

Hon. Mr. Maxwell announced his retirement from provincial politics, which doubtless explained the presence of Mr. John E. Wilson at the guest table, among the Honorables. Several aspiring souls no doubt heard Mr. Maxwell's announcement with satisfaction. There will be another nomination to be handed out by the bosses.

Hon. Mr. Grimmer, whose painful silence in the last legislative session caused considerable worry, was stirred last night by the general atmosphere to make some cheering observations, and Hon. Mr. Morley sang a psalm in praise of $50,000, and the government's pledges are still unfulfilled, and the reckoning is at hand.

THE SANITARIUM 1.—The place for a sanitarium for advanced cases of tuberculosis is in the city, where patients may be within easy reach of their friends, their physicians and the clergy.

2.—The presence of a sanitarium is absolutely without danger of infection for those living near it.

3.—There are in St. John today scores of homes which are dangerous centres of infection.

4.—The only reason the city is not supplied with a sanitarium for these advanced cases is that there is a dispute about a site.

5.—A committee of the municipal council has been appointed to select a site without delay, and report to a special meeting of the council.

FLEMMING GOVERNMENT'S RECORD COMPARED WITH ITS PREDECESSORS'

Facts That Cannot Be Denied Prove Reckless Extravagance Where Economy Was Promised--Increased Debt by More Than a Million in Last Four Years--Where the Money Went To--The Premier's Stumpage Dilemma--Figures, Taken from the Auditor General's Report, That Every Elector Should Study.

The figures in the comparative tables given below are taken from the reports of the Auditor General for the years indicated and can be verified by any one familiar with this public document. They show beyond doubt the tremendous increase in the public debt of the province and the large additions in expenditure in every department under the Fleming administration, and figures will not lie, and these tell the story of extravagance better than any words can.

A Million More Debt in Four Years.

Table showing Net debt 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912 with corresponding figures for 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911.

Revenue Increased from All Sources.

That Stumpage Argument.

Table showing Stumpage 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912 with corresponding figures for 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911.

Premier Fleming says no more lumber was cut on Crown Lands in 1911 than in 1908, so the loss in territorial revenue is figured by subtracting the amount his department collected in 1911 from the amount collected in 1908. The total loss in three years was $344,819.74. The average loss was $114,839.91.

How the Expenditures Increased Since the Hazen-Fleming Government Took Charge.

Further Comparisons.

The retiring allowance paid by the old government of $875, which makes the comparison favorable to the old government on this item.

Contingencies in 1911 the Greatest Ever.

Table showing Contingencies, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912.

Education--a Comparison.

Table showing Education, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912.

Total for four years... $3,015,882.33. Percentage of revenue for education during four years, 1904-07--23.34 per cent.

In other words, had the present government given to education the same percentage of their revenue that was given by the old government they would have expended in the four years $188,178.08 more than they did, an average increase per year of $47,044.52.

Executive Government Cost Far More.

The "Stump Sleepers" Cost $13,062.43 More Every Year.

Cured of Shingles and Eczema

Mr. J. H. Jarvis, of Kingston, Ont., cured of shingles and eczema.

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In November, 1909, I had what the doctors call shingles and eczema. My chest was raw and bleeding and itchy. I was that way all winter. It was not so bad in the summer. In September it got worse. I had the best doctors treating me, but did me no good, and I was all run worse again. I sent you for a sample cake of Cuticura Soap, you sent it to me and I got a box of Cuticura Ointment. I have used two boxes and on the third one it has cured me of shingles and eczema. I am delighted with them and do feel pleased to think I have something I have confidence in. Would anyone suffering as I did, I hope that they will do as I did, and I am sure of the results. I am recommending them from experience." (Signed) J. H. Jarvis, 7 Ann St., Kingston, Ont., May 30, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most economical and most effective treatment for itching humors of young and old. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most obstinate cases and without fail in any treatment, a liberal amount of each will do the work. Address: Foster-Pierce & Co., 45 Columbus Ave., Boston.

WAS ALL RUN DOWN.

Doctors and Medicine Failed To Cure Him.

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly why their trouble is. As a rule it is improper circulation of the blood, owing to not just taking proper care of themselves. All they want is a good tonic to build up the system and put their blood in proper shape, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal Burdock Blood Bitters. It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system. Mr. Murdoch A. Morrison, Toronto, N.S., writes: "I am writing to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last Summer I was all run down, and doctors and medicine failed to cure me. At last I decided to try a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking one bottle I began feeling better, and after I had taken the remedy for two months I was completely cured. I can safely recommend your remedy to anyone." Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In 1909 a large amount of printing in connection with the Agricultural Commission and charged to agriculture, amounting to $2,102.70.

TEA WEEK

You need not drink any particular variety but choose the kind you like, either Pure Ceylon, Indo-Ceylon Blend, Black or Oolong and black mixed.

We are making Tea one of our leading articles, and our Tea will be blended by a man of long experience and admitted by Tea experts to be one of the best Tea tasters in Canada.

The different varieties will be numbered so that when ordering again all you will need to do is tell us the number of your previous purchase in order to secure exactly the same quality as before.

We intend devoting this week to ascertaining from the largest number of buyers possible just what each one fancies, and once we satisfy you by our plan we guarantee uniformity of quality.

Think of the advantage, an expert giving his attention to every sale.

The difference between the actual first cost of Tea and retail prices paid by the consumer has been tremendous, and a large percentage of the profits have gone to the wholesale dealer, thus enabling a few to amass fortunes.

We purpose dividing the profit with our patrons and guarantee the quality and cash value of every pound of 40c. Tea, and if not satisfactory will refund your money.

You had better call today and investigate our Tea offer and plan of merchandising. After starting this plan in St. John we were criticized adversely, but we notice imitation already. Some of the largest concerns in the leading cities conduct their business on these lines. While standing back watching with dignity our plan you are allowing 20% of the money you are spending every day for Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc., to go into other people's pockets.

Our Premiums are articles that you are using in the home every day, and standard brands not being in anyway identified as a premium.

HOW FARM BOY HAS BECOME A GREAT RUNNER

Seldom it happens that a real farmer's boy becomes a cinderpath champion, but such was the start of Ira Davenport, the great all-round runner of the University of Chicago, who will carry the Stars and Stripes on his breast in the middle distance events in the coming Olympic games at Stockholm. Davenport was born on a farm at Winfield, Kan., on Oct. 8, 1888, and there he lived for five years. With the opening of the "Cherokee Strip" in Oklahoma in 1890, Davenport's father gave up the Kansas farm to take up life in the newly settled country. Ira got the foundation of his ability as a runner by herding cattle. This he started doing when he was ten years old. He had about five miles of good, fast grass exercise every evening after school was out. And, by the way, "school" was about two miles down the road from the Davenport place, which made four miles more per diem for the sturdy legs of the embryo champion. He learned how to run a threshing machine at the age of sixteen and in the summer months made enough money in this way to pay his expenses at the Oklahoma State Preparatory School in the winter. Now was young Davenport told in his few spare hours during the school term. He got a job looking after a steam-heating plant near the schoolhouse and earned money in this way. Early in the morning and late at night Ira was on the job, and he had to get up at five o'clock with the pole vaulter, disc, and shot put, and the mile, half mile, and quarter mile. In 1907 and 1908 Davenport represented the Oklahoma Prep School in the state interscholastic championships, and on both occasions won the 100-yard, 200-yard and 400-yard dashes with ridiculous ease. In June, of 1908 Davenport set his first record at a nine in fact company, and since he did. His school sent him to the University of Chicago interscholastic meeting on Marshall Field, Chicago, and Ira staggered the middle-west experts by running an easy winner in three races one more. He did 10 2/8 seconds for the 100, 22 2/8 for the 200 and 51 1/8 for the quarter mile. At college as a freshman he set everything that opposed him off the track, and in the intercollegiate conference meets in which he has started it has been the same tale. The young Oklahoman has won both the quarter and half mile runs at the conference meeting two years, running, and held accounts new conference records at both distances. At the 1910 meet Davenport raced the quarter mile in 48 1/2 seconds, after having 59 minutes earlier won the half mile in 1:50 3/8. Last spring he won both races again in 49 3/4 and 1:50 2/8 respectively. Davenport in all his career on the cinder path, has sustained but one real defeat, and that was in a minor race, in which he was at a great disadvantage, because he had never competed on the grass. New York, May 14—The refusal of the attorneys of the United States Steel Corporation to produce certain papers wanted by the government, and the discovery that other documents which the corporation was subpoenaed to produce had either been destroyed or could not be found, furnished the sensation of today's hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the corporation under the Sherman Anti-Trust act.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEO. COCHRANE

Was in St. John Yesterday; Expected This Morning at His Home in Marysville

In apparent good health, George Cochrane, of Marysville, left here last evening after having been heartily greeted about the city yesterday by many friends, and he came as a severe shock this morning to learn of his sudden death at his home at an early hour today. A telephone message to his son, George, in Macaulay Bros. & Co's store in King street this morning, told of his father having passed away. The news seemed incredible for it was only yesterday that Mr. Cochrane had been with him, apparently in the best of health. From what could be learned today Mr. Cochrane had awakened this morning with a pain in his left side and his wife had left the room but a few moments to procure some medicine, when, on returning, she found him about breathing his last. It was only a few minutes before he passed away.

Mr. Cochrane was formerly a well known resident of St. John. For some years he was with Oak Hall in King street, and also conducted a clothing store on his own account in Union street. He was also in Sydney, C. B., for a time. Mr. Cochrane was well acquainted not only in this city but in other parts of the province. His wife was formerly Miss Mary Aiton of this city. They left here about eight years ago and made their home in Marysville.

Besides his wife, Mr. Cochrane is survived by three sons and three daughters. The sons are Frank of Regina, Harry of Montreal, and George of this city, while the daughters are Miss Gladys of St. John, Miss Helen, trained nurse in Lowell, Mass., and Miss Grace at home. Mrs. Thomas F. White and Miss Edith, as he was a member of Hibernian Lodge, F. & A. M. Masonic Fraternity, his son George and daughter, Miss Edith, will leave for St. John today.

Fredericton despatch says that Mr. Cochrane died of heart trouble, that he had been in St. John yesterday consulting a specialist. He returned home on the evening train and complained of feeling ill. At five o'clock this morning he had a bad attack and expired before medical aid reached him. He was aged fifty-two years.

FOUR HUNDRED ADDED TO TELEPHONE LIST

This is Six Months Record in City—An Indication of Advancement

There are few indications by which the business activity and prosperity of a city may be judged better than the operations of the local telephone company. If this barometer speaks the truth with regard to St. John it affords additional evidence of the advance of the city and of the substantial nature of the increased activity here.

In conversation with a Times reporter, J. Nisbet, local manager of the telephone company, said this morning that during the last six months the company has installed more than 400 instruments for new subscribers. This is a much greater number than in any previous half year. The additional number of business phones shows the increase in the volume of business being carried on in the city and the increasing list of house telephones is taken to indicate greater average prosperity.
