UNDER ARREST.

Man and Woman Charged With Robbing Express Car of $150,000.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—The man and woman who have been arrested here suspected with complicity in the robbery of an express car on the Great Northern railroad, near Wagner, Mont. July 3rd last, when the safe was blown open and a consignment of unassigned notes for the National Bank of Helena, Mont., amounting to $60,000 and $100,000, were stolen, were put through a process of "sweating" last night.

The woman finally admitted that her right name was Laura Bullion and that her home was in Knickerbocker, Texas. Her grand parents, she said, resided at Douglas, Arizona. Her companion Longbaugh, admitted that he had not won the money by manning as he at first stated, and said that in due time he would prove to the officers where he had secured it. Then he resumed his stubborn attitude and maintained it. When the woman was asked by Chief of Detectives Desmond where she got the money, she said: "Longbaugh" gave it to me. My share of the money was over $7,000, and he had as much."

She would not admit that she had any knowledge of the complicity in any robbery or that she had participated in any hold up. The woman laid great stress upon the eminent respectability of her grand-parents and begged the officers to withhold the fact of her arrest from them. Desmond, it is understood, is of the opinion that Miss Bullion, disguised as a man, actually participated in the express robbery. In a note book found among Miss Bullion's personal effects were two letters purporting to have been written to her by W. R. Carver, from Sherman, Texas, and Ponca City, Oklahoma.

MISS STONE ALIVE.

Consul General Dickinson Wants Negotiations Kept Secret.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The messenger sent by S. M. Bakmeteff, the Russian diplomatic agent, to the brigands has returned, bearing a letter from Miss Stone to a former pupil at Sofia, Miss Stone's correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser. Mr. Bakmeteff, having thus established communication, has turned the letter and details over to Mr. Dickinson, the American consul general, saying the latter has the ransom and upon him rests the responsibility. The messenger was absent nine days. The letter consists of half a page, saying Miss Stone and Miss Ellen M. Stone are well.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 7.—Consul General Dickinson of Constantinople is greatly chagrined because the fact that he had received a letter from Miss Stone leaked out. He says it is calculated to affect seriously, if not completely undo the progress already achieved. On two previous occasions negotiations with the brigands who abducted the American missionary were abruptly broken off by the former, owing to the premature disclosure of secrets which the bandits regarded as a breach of the understanding with them. Mr. Dickinson informed a representative of the Associated Press today that it was absolutely indispensable, if Miss Stone was ever to be released, that the course of the negotiations be kept inviolably secret. Her release is hopeless except the brigands place confidence in the negotiators.

HAS PANAMA FALLEN?

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald prints the following: From a source of information on the situation in Columbia, which thus far has furnished no news not subsequently verified by wire, we have received the copy of a cablegram saying that the city of Panama has fallen and is in the complete control of the Associated Press today that it was absolutely indispensable, if Miss Stone was ever to be released, that the course of the negotiations be kept inviolably secret. Her release is hopeless except the brigands place confidence in the negotiators.

"All foreign interests will be protected. The isthmus will be kept open and the Panama railroad guarded from guerrilla attack if necessary. Everywhere where the government is established, the rights of foreigners will be secure."

SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Lord Kitchener, calling supplementary details of the recent fight near Brakenburg, eastern Transvaal, says: "The Boer loss was forty-four killed, including Gen. Opperman, and one hundred wounded. The Boers got nothing beyond the guns. The Boer attack was easily repulsed until the arrival of Louis Botha with six hundred men."

THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Moderate to fresh northwest to northeast winds, fine, not much change in temperature. Friday, winds shifting to east and south, fair, clear, the day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Forecast—Eastern states and northern New York—Fair tonight, with warm rain, west portion; Friday, fair, fresh northerly to easterly winds.

ANOTHER CARNEGIE OFFER.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—It is announced that Andrew Carnegie will give £150,000 to build and equip a technical college in southern Scotland. The institution will probably be located at Glasgow, counties of Roxburgh and Selkirk.

POLICE CAPTURED THEM.

An Attempt to Smuggle Chinamen From Canada Into the States.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—An attempt to smuggle Chinamen into this country from Canada was frustrated by the police at an early hour this morning. While two patrolmen were standing at Niagara street and Hotel avenue they saw a carriage rapidly approaching them, and when the driver saw the patrolmen he whipped up his horses. That excited their suspicions, and they ordered the driver to stop. The door of the carriage was opened, and in it were four Chinamen huddled as far out of sight as they could get. The driver of the rig, who gave his name as Grant Householder, was taken in custody and ordered to proceed to the police station. He is charged with attempting to smuggle Chinamen in violation of the exclusion act. The four Chinamen gave their names as Chung-Kud, Karn Sing, Han Kung and Quong Chik. They are charged with being in the country illegally.

It is supposed that the Chinamen were brought across the river from a point near Fort Erie, and the authorities are trying to locate the boat which brought them across the river. It is also believed that Householder had accomplices on this side of the river in the attempt at smuggling. All the prisoners have been turned over to the United States authorities, who will have charge of the prosecution.

WINNIPEG.

A Grit Candidate Who Intimidated—Premier Roblin's Partner Charged With Theft.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 7.—At the assizes court yesterday the grand jury returned a true bill against V. Wrinkler for undue intimidation in the general election of November last. Wrinkler contested Lager against R. L. Richardson, who was recently unseated. The grand jury also here brought in a true bill against D. W. Mills, charged with stealing from his partner, Premier R. P. Roblin. Mills has disappeared, and is believed to be in the States.

BRITAIN AND FREE TRADE.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—F. W. Evans, the first president of the board of trade, who has recently returned from England, has informed the council with regard to Canadian representation on the permanent committee of the conference of chambers of the empire that from what he had heard he was forced to the conclusion that representation coming from the colonies, unless in line with the views of the British imperial government, is not likely to have much weight. Mr. Evans added that while convinced as to the desirability of the adoption of some scheme of preferential trade with the empire he was equally convinced the English people are so wedded to the doctrine of free trade that the present prospect of any action by the imperial government are improbable.

PRESERVE COMBINE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—Seventeen of the largest preserve manufacturers of the country, at a meeting in this city, formed a combination to be known as the American Association of Manufacturers and Distributors of Food Products. The object of the organization is to regulate prices and sales territory and to secure a more just interpretation of the pure food laws. The companies represented at the meeting here have a combined capital of $3,500,000 and control about three-fourths of the total product of the country. A central office will be established in Pittsburgh or Chicago.

RAILWAYS IN MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7.—The Mexican Central has completed its new line to the state of Jalisco, a distance of 118 miles from Guadalajara. The same company shortly expects to complete the line between Tuxpan and Colima, a distance of 46 miles. At Colima the Central will connect with the railway to Manzanillo belonging to General Wm. J. Palmer and association.

RUSSIA IS PLEASED.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—The newspapers here anticipate that, following the lead of France, the powers will discover claims against Turkey. Russian newspapers generally welcome the French naval demonstration in Turkish waters as a set back to what Russia terms "German pretensions."

MONTREAL.

Got $800 for the Whale—A Dane Charged With Murder.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—Insanity will be the defence in the case of Thorvald Hansen, who is to be tried this month for the murder of young Eric Marrotte, Westmount. The Danish colony is subscribing money for the cost of the defence.

The capture of that whale by Alex. Sabourin of Longueuil was a lucky thing for him. A museum manager paid him eight hundred dollars for the monster.

TORONTO.

Osteopathy Under Fire—Alleged Criminal Operation—Spitting Nuisance—Power From Niagara.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Hubert C. Jaquith and Yvonne B. Frederick, osteopaths, have been summoned to appear in the police court to answer the charge of practising medicine without a license. One of their patients, Maggie Keenan, died suddenly while being treated in their office last week, and the jury, which investigated the case, recommended that the practice of osteopathy should be prohibited.

Dr. Stephen B. Pollard, a prominent Toronto physician, and Miss Julia Thompson, are on trial at the criminal assizes for an alleged criminal operation on a woman known as Mary Smith.

A deputation representing the National Council of Women, waited on the board of health yesterday to urge that measures be taken to prohibit spitting in the streets and public buildings. The matter was referred to the city medical health officer to report upon.

It is probable that before many months elapse the Toronto Railway Co. will be securing its power from the falls of Niagara. A draft agreement between the company and the Niagara Power Company has already been prepared and all that now remains is to settle as to terms.

Miss Maggie Tanner, aged 33 years, of Belleville, was knocked down by a bicyclist, Robt. Pinkney, on Yonge street yesterday and died of her injuries six hours afterwards. Pinkney gave himself up to the police.

William F. McLean, aged 51, a clerk in the employ of the Economic Gas Apparatus Co., Ltd., was dragged under the flywheel of the engine yesterday and instantly killed.

JAPAN DISAPPOINTED.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A despatch from Yokohama published in the second edition of the London Times today says that while the Japanese government expected to sell bonds to the amount of 50,000,000 yen in America, has temporarily shocked the stock exchange where an influx of foreign capital was expected.

The Japanese government has adopted a new plan to provide capital for the extension of the railroads and telegraphs, which are now yielding a profit of seven per cent. It proposes selling immediately 10,000,000 yen in bonds to the postal savings banks, approximately the surplus revenue to the railroads and telegraphs and providing for gradual sales of bonds in the domestic market. Foreign money will not be sought, except on favorable terms, as the steady inflow of gold, resulting from prosperous trade and a fine harvest also, renders easy domestic financial operations.

THE FIRE RECORD.

NYACK, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The St. Albans hotel at Rockland Lake was destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss of $25,000. The building was being fitted for next season.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—Fire last night completely destroyed the stables and barns of the Excelsior Hauling and Transfer Co., together with the buildings, sheds and about $12,000 worth of feed the lots, 800 head of horses and mules lost their lives in the flames.

Col. Ed. Butler, president of the company, said that $175,000 would be the total loss. The stock was insured for $100 per head, and there was partial insurance on the other contents of the barns.

ITALIANS IN AMERICA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Bishop Scatrina, who was delegated by the pope to prepare a report on the condition of the Italian immigrants in this country, has about completed his mission and will return to Rome next Tuesday. He expressed himself as being delighted with the reception and care of the Italians in this country, and said that his report would be favorable. He said that Archbishop Dineolo of Palermo would succeed Cardinal Martini.

LONDON FOG-BOUND.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The heavy fog which shut down upon London and half the country Tuesday, and which was partially dispersed yesterday, returned during the night, and the southern and eastern coasts were enveloped in a denser mantle than before. The Dutch mail boat Koenigin Regentes collided with the British third class cruiser Proserpine off Sheerness at midnight. The passengers and mails were transferred to the Proserpine and the mail boat was beached.

DEMOCRATIC AS USUAL.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—The latest returns indicate the next general assembly in Kentucky, which will elect a U. S. senator, will stand—Senate, 25 democrats, 13 republicans; house, 73 democrats, 25 republicans; one independent democrat.

THE TELEGRAPH AND MR. BORDEN.

The Telegraph is worried because Hon. Mr. Borden passed without being serenaded by a band or dragged out of the train by enthusiastic Tories. It is perhaps regrettable that Mr. Borden goes about his business quietly, instead of junketing over the country in a misty palace car manufactured in the United States, but it cannot be helped.

Sad as the case may be, however, there is one gentleman who deeply envies Mr. Borden, and would cheerfully contribute a portion of his stipend if by that means he could secure permission to go as quietly through St. John. Hon. Mr. Blair is the man. He knows what is in store for him whenever he comes this way. It may only be a delegation of directors of the Telegraph to impress upon him the fact that it is about time to get another new editor for that great journal of inaccuracies. It may only be an humble office seeker, or a man who wants to reveal to Mr. Blair the secret of successful political manipulation in this constituency, or a man with a grievance. Whichever it is, he is on hand, and there are generally five or six of him, or perhaps a dozen. That is why Mr. Blair envies Mr. Borden and longs for the immunity enjoyed by a man who does not make reckless promises, and who is not targeted after by political heelers whenever he makes his appearance. On the whole, therefore, Mr. Borden's position is not so very undesirable as the Telegraph appears to think.

A DRAWING CARD.

An eminent divine of Worcester, Massachusetts, has hit upon a theme to draw the young people to service. Last Sunday his church was full to overflowing to listen to his discussion of the ideal woman from a man's standpoint. Next Sunday bids fair to be of even more interest, as the reverend gentleman will discuss the ideal man from a woman's standpoint. At last Sunday's service letters from young men were read and one of the points brought out was that beauty in a young lady is not essential in order to make her attractive. "Accomplishments of mind and manner are of more avail than a handsome face," Nevertheless it is hardly likely that the beautiful girls of Worcester will attempt to destroy their good looks.

"The anarchist who throws bombs and shoots down presidents is a dangerous character, but he is less dangerous by far than the fool of a snob who wants the servitude of his servant branded upon the servant's forehead," says the Rev. Thomas B. Gregory of Chicago. Mr. Gregory strongly disapproves of a distinctive dress for servants. He says it is unreasonable, idiotic and un-American, and that sort of thing is not wanted in America. The Chicago divine probably wears a distinguishing costume himself. Unless he is prepared to remove from his own person every vestige of clerical garb he is not logical.

The action of the French government with regard to Turkey has been endorsed in the chamber of deputies by a vote of 306 to 77. Evidently a brush with the sultan would not be unpopular in France.

The Ministerial Association at Ottawa are discussing a resolution on the order of precedence at state functions. The evangelical clergymen are not pleased with the proceedings at the time of the royal visit.

There is said to be an unprecedented demand on the part of young Englishmen for information about Ontario as a field for farmers. Quite a number are now in that province making enquiries for themselves.

Regarding the smallpox in Quebec city the secretary of the board of health says that as soon as discovered every case is quarantined and the family as well, and that city police look after the houses.

Gen. Botha has issued a proclamation declaring Lord Kitchener and his officers and soldiers to be outlaws in South Africa. Botha appears to have a vein of humor in his composition.

Hon. Sydney Fisher will respond to the toast of Canada this evening at the annual dinner of the Canadian Society of New York.

With frost in England and snow in Manitoba we appear to have been enjoying the real thing in weather ourselves lately.

Mr. Patrick's Society of Montreal has invited J. H. B. Robinson to speak in that city, and he has replied that he hopes to do so, in company with Messrs. O'Donnell and McLaughlin, next week. Montreal fishermen announce that they will give the visitors a welcome which will make the event a memorable one. We shall see if the delegates will denounce England as strongly before a Canadian audience as they have done in the United States.

The president and vice-president of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co., emphatically deny the truth of the statement that Bessemer steel cannot be made at Sydney. They are simply making open hearted steel because that is what they set out to make, and they can produce Bessemer if it is desired to do so.

Sir Frederick Young, K. C. M. G., vice-president of the Royal Colonial Institute, said in Montreal the other day that he began in a modest way in New Zealand more than fifty years ago to work for the cause of imperial unity, and he has ever since done all in his power to promote the sentiment. Naturally he is greatly pleased with the growth of feeling in that respect in recent years.

LI HUNG CHANG.
The Foremost Statesman in China Died This Morning.

PEKING, Nov. 7.—Li Hung Chang died at eleven o'clock this morning.

LI HUNG CHANG.

Li Hung Chang was born in the Anh-Huei province, Feb. 15, 1823. In 1860 he co-operated with General (then Colonel) Gordon in suppressing the Taiping rebellion, being then governor of the Chiang-Sin province. The other Tsiang province being added to his rule, he held credit as governor of the united countries May, 1865. The following year he was appointed minister plenipotentiary, and in 1867 viceroy of Hong-Kuang, and a grand chancellor in 1868. After the Tsin-Tian massacre of 1870, he was despoiled of his title, and otherwise punished on the charge of not assisting the general in command, but in 1872 the emperor restored him to favor and the office of grand chancellor. He was the mediator for fixing the indemnity for the murder of Mr. Margary, who was killed in 1871 while endeavoring to explore Southwestern China. Next he was the viceroy of the metropolitan provinces of the Chih-Li, and as such the actual ruler or chief administrator of the Chinese empire. He visited the United States and went through Canada a few years ago. During the negotiations following the recent war between China and Japan, he was taken by Li Hung Chang, who for more than a generation has been recognized as the most astute of oriental statesmen.

THE ISLAND OF MITYLENE.

The island of Mitylene, or as it sometimes is called, Midilli and also Metelin, which was occupied by the French fleet under Admiral Caillaud on Tuesday, is about 40 miles from the entrance to the Dardanelles, the strait leading to Constantinople. It has an estimated area of 270 square miles with a population of about 40,000, and was once devastated by the Greeks in their struggle for liberty. The principal towns are Castro or Mitylene and Moli, the former having a population of 6000. This town, which is the largest on the island, is on the east coast, 55 miles northwest of Smyrna. It extends in a semi-circle about a shallow harbor, and has a large castle, several churches, convents and mosques. In the suburbs are many vestiges of ancient Mitylene. It is the seat of a Catholic archbishop of the Armenian rite. The principal products are oil and pine timber, with some grapes, figs, cotton and pitch. The wine, formerly famous, is now said to be of inferior quality. The wheat raised is insufficient for the inhabitants. The Greek poetess, Sappho, was the most noted native of the island—which is the ancient Lesbos—other well known ones in ancient history being Alcæus, Theophrastus and Pittacus.

The purpose of the French government in seizing this island is to get control of its customs receipts for the payment of its claims against Turkey, which the sultan refused to recognize, or pay, and by so doing breaks the treaty rights between his own country and the French republic.

It was a question with the French government what part of the sultan's dominion should be occupied whether Syria, Beirut or Smyrna. Finally it was decided that Admiral Caillaud should occupy a couple of ports on the island of Mitylene, which is conveniently close to Smyrna. Hence should the government's impression that the sultan will satisfactorily settle the monetary questions without delay prove unjustified, and the occupation at Mitylene not suffice to meet the French claims, Smyrna can yet be occupied. France believes, no doubt, that the whole difficulty will very shortly be arranged to her satisfaction and her fleet withdrawn. A few days will determine.

SCHOLAR INQUIRY.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The climax of the Schley court of inquiry came this afternoon, when Mr. Rayner, the chief counsel for Admiral Schley, concluded a brilliant argument of over three hours with a peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within the sound of his voice were profoundly touched. This remarkable trial, he said, sought to condemn the man who had brought to a successful termination as great a naval triumph as was ever won. In vivid colors he painted the picture of the Brooklyn with its entire Spanish fleet, the thunder of the Brooklyn's guns for the ears of his countrymen, he said, around Admiral Schley's evasive foe. He pictured the victorious sailor, suffering as few have suffered for three long years, while the free of perversion leaped around him and now awaiting the hour of his vindication in the verdict of the court.

"And when it comes," he concluded, "the cry from the high and exalted position that he occupied, look down upon his traditors and maligners, and with excellent pride exclaim: 'Care got for the venomous asp of ship, drawing rooms and saloons, and the poisoned shafts of envy and of malice. I await under the guidance of Divine Providence the verdict of posterity.'"

The scene in the court room as he finished with these words was thrilling. The attending session a lady had fainted from excitement, and the chief of the court, Admiral Schley, those in the audience, many of whom were ladies, leaned forward in their seats. The speaker's voice was heard in the hall and when he described the admiral's gallant deeds and the long persecution to which he had been subjected, many of them broke down and wept. The members of the court displayed evidences of emotion and Admiral Schley himself was plainly moved. He sat leaning back, with his hands behind his head, and as he listened he said he could afford to wait the verdict of posterity. Two big tears rolled down his cheeks and he seemed to be weeping. For fully ten seconds Admiral Schley lay motionless, his head bowed, and his hands clasped in prayer. Then he arose to his feet and said that such a moment afterward the court adjourned. The judge advised pleading that he could not wait on today.

Then another remarkable thing happened. As soon as the gavel fell the entire audience surged forward to shake the hands of Admiral Schley and Mr. Rayner. But the on-coming spectators fell back a moment as they saw Admiral Dewey and his two associates move around the table as if by common impulse and congratulate Admiral Schley and his counsel. Capt. Lester, the judge advocate, also came forward to shake hands with the admiral. Mr. Rayner had his lining and for fifteen minutes the court adjourned, Admiral Schley and Mr. Rayner were kept busy shaking hands.

HALIFAX.

Ten More Cases Removed to the Epidemic Hospital.

Last evening two suspected cases of the disease were reported. One is at the residence of John Sheas, Fairville. The patient is Miss Odell, a sister of Mrs. Sheas. She was an inmate of the epidemic hospital at the time of the sickness of the deceased sailor, Bart-on. After leaving there she visited the Hamilton house, Marsh street. She has been ill for some days, and last night Dr. Morris made an examination and while not at the time pronouncing the disease to be small-pox, placed her in the house.

There is also a suspected case in Milkhish, that of Mrs. Herbert McKinnon. She had been an inmate of the epidemic hospital and was discharged a few days before the quarantine went into force. She went to her home in Cedar Grove and there developed undoubtedly symptoms of the disease. This case is outside of the jurisdiction of the local board of health. Mrs. McKinnon has a family of five children, the youngest six months old.

This forenoon in the General Public Hospital Dr. William Christie examined the three patients who were suspected of having small-pox and ordered their removal to the epidemic hospital. These victims are Miss Bertha Knapp, aged twenty-four, a daughter of I. W. Knapp, of Sackville, admitted to the hospital October 8th, Miss Julia O'Keefe, eighteen years of age, belonging to this city, admitted September 16th, and Miss Mabel Melanson, of 306 Carmarthen street, admitted October 5th. Miss Knapp and Miss O'Keefe have been isolated for the past two or three days, and Miss Melanson has also been watched. These three patients were all inmates of Ward C, which yesterday contained thirteen patients, instead of twenty-two as stated in an evening paper. The removal of Miss Melanson from the ward leaves twelve patients now in it, and as yet none of these have shown any symptoms of the disease.

Seven new cases were reported today in the quarantined district outside of the hospital, making ten patients altogether today. These outside of the hospital are: Louise Debow, 20 years of age; Stanley, Debow, seventeen years of age; Margie Fawcett, sixteen; Bertrand Parker, twelve; Rose Parker, eight; Joe Hamilton, three; John Hamilton, three months. This makes altogether about thirty cases in the epidemic hospital. It is understood that there are accommodations there for about thirty-six patients.

Dr. Morris has not yet handed in a definite report as to the supposed case at Fairville.

COUNTY COURT. Joseph Denaco Sentenced to Three Years in the Penitentiary.

In the County court this morning Joseph Denaco, charged with stealing a watch from Wm. Vaughan, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The judge said it was really hoping against hope when he had remanded him before. He had made enquiries concerning his character and had found that he had already spent nearly nine years in the penitentiary at different times for stealing and for breaking and entering. Some of the prisoner's unfortunate connections had visited the judge and appealed in his behalf. He would not give him a very severe sentence, and hoped that during the short time he would be in prison he would lead such a life and learn such a lesson that when he came out he would be shown that the mercy of the court has not been misdirected. The full penalty for his crime would be fourteen years.

The civil case of Patrick Byrne v. James Gilbert is now before the court. This is an action to recover money for personal services in repairing, tiling and care taking of property known as the Davenport school. The defendant alleges that during the time for which the plaintiff claims wages he (the plaintiff) was a tenant on the property and paid rent therefor, and that no contract had ever been made between them. Daniel Moffa appears for the plaintiff and A. Geo. Blair for the defendant.

WHAT VACCINATION DOES. (Philadelphia Press.)

France, Germany and other European countries where vaccination is required, and it is a penal offence not to vaccinate a child before its first year, have practically ceased to have small-pox. The level of life in these countries is lower, the cities are more crowded, the habits of the people are less cleanly and there is every possible reason why a contagion like small-pox should run riot. It does not because universal vaccination stamps out disease.

John S. Parker Wrecked—Crew Saved After a Glorious Struggle.

ORLEANS, Mass., Nov. 7.—The large English schooner John S. Parker of St. John, N. B., bound from that city for a Round port, with a cargo of lumber, struck on the bar off here during the heavy southeast gale early this morning and was wrecked. Captain Ernst and his crew of five men were rescued in the breeches buoy by the Orleans life saving crew after a gallant struggle.

The vessel was first seen by Patrolman Murphy, shortly after two a. m. The other life savers were quickly notified of the wreck and Capt. Charles and his crew left their quarters at once for the scene, some two miles distant, with their apparatus. The schooner was at this time on the outer bar with the sea running completely over her and the threatening every moment to wash the crew overboard. It was impossible to launch a boat in such a sea, and the life savers were quick to see that the only means of rescue lay in the breeches buoy. After some difficulty a line was shot on board and made fast. Soon afterwards a second line was sent to the schooner from the gun. The schooner did not remain stationary, but worked her way southward and closer to the shore. The line from the schooner to the beach was fully a mile long and took some little time to arrange it so that the buoy could be pulled in, in safety.

POLICE COURT.

Henry Burns amused himself on Duke street last evening by throwing stones about promiscuously and using language unfit for publication. He had an over-dose of nose paint on board, but in his particular case it had no effect on his complexion. Henry is the possessor of a well developed and thoroughly matured throat, and in the police court this morning he admitted that the effort of satisfying it had brought him to grief. He was fined eight dollars or twenty days.

Joe Dixon, another offender, who had been on a similar bender, was arrested last night and considered it right to quietly make a surrender. He was fined eight dollars or twenty days, and Charles Docherty, arrested on Dock street, got off for half that amount.

THANKS TO THE CHIEF.

The chief of police has received a letter from Lieut. Col. Sherwood, commissioner of the Dominion Police in which was enclosed the following:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, Ottawa, Oct. 25, 1924.

Sir—I am commanded by the Governor General to express to you his excellency's thanks for the very effective manner in which the police arrangements in connection with the recent visit of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York to Canada, were carried out; and he desires me to request that you will communicate the same to the proper authorities.

There were yesterday thirty-four prisoners in the building, which number was by the discharge of nine, reduced to twenty-five. This morning three others were admitted, making a total of twenty-eight now there, to be accommodated in five cells. The prisoners who were discharged were those whose different terms of service were nearest completion.
