NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Returns from various sources indicate that Flower's plurality in the State is about 40,000.

The Herald says the State Legislature is Republican on joint ballot. The Sun, Times and World say it is Democratic.

The World says, editorially, regarding the election, that a momentous victory for Democracy and good government is won in this State. Tom Platt is beaten in his effort to seize the State and rule it as his province. The World assumes that the election means that New York is soundly Democratic in national affairs, and that it presages the success of the party's Presidential candidate in next year's election.

The Times says the result is an unmistakable verdict against the Republican party under the leadership of Thomas C. Platt. Of the election in Ohio the Times says the majority is hardly large enough to be regarded as an indication of the peculiar fiscal policy with which Mr. Mr. McKinley's name is so intimately considered.

The Tribune says the elections of Tuesday show that the Republican party is handsomely regaining its strength, but has not yet gained quite enough to make sure

The Herald says the election of Mr. Flower will prove a sort of boomerang to the Democratic party in the Presidential campaign next year and a blessing in disguise to the Republicans because a large number of Democrats who believe in the prophecies of their party and under ordinary circumstances throw their whole weight for its support will be either luke-warm or go over to the Republicans with the boomer to be considered to the consideration of the consideration of

for its support will be either luke-warm or go over to the Republicans with the hope of defeating Tammany.

New York, Nov. 4.—A riot in which eleven persons were seriously hurt and many more slightly injured occurred in front of a polling place in North Third street, near Berry street, Williamsburg, last night. Partisan bitterness led to the row, and when it was over eight men and three women were lying on the ground covered with wounds. Charles Brady, 19 years old, one of the leaders in the fight, was badly hurt, while an unknown man, whose skull is supposed to have been fractured with a club, was carried away by friends. friends.
New York, Nov. 4.—Flower's estimated

Plurality is 43,581.

The great victory of Roswell P. Fowler in New York overshadowed all the other notable Democratic successes in the State elections yesterday. It is an earnest of the result of next year's presidential election.—[Detroit Free Press.

abuse of those who show an inclination to help us. I very much regret the defeat of Governor Campbell. He has been a brave and honest official. This and the splendid canvass he made entitled him to success. While the election of Flower, Russell and Boies ought to cause the utmost rejoicing among Democrats, they should not forget that with these things comes the obligation to be true to the people, honest in the advocacy of our principles and decent in all things." COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 4. -Gov. Campbell

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Gov. Campbell takes the situation philosophically, and says the Democratic party was laboring under too great a handicap in Ohio because of lack of funds to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign. He says they have made the best fight they could in the face of a Republican majority and the combined opposition of the manufacturers and capitalists. Besides all this it was a life and death struggle with the Republican party. To defeat Major McKinley, one of its national leaders, and representative of its chosen ideas of protection, meant the downfall and disintegration of the party itself. Party lines were closely drawn.

Dubugus, Ia, Nov. 4.—Returns coming in now show almost uniform gains for Boies (Dem.) for Governor. The indications are that he will have 8,000 ts 10,000 in the State. The balance of the Democratic State tleket is probably elected, with a majority of 3,000 to 4,000. The Senate is andoubtedly Democratic by two majority. In the House the Republicans will probably have four majority. The contest just closed was the sharpest and most active ever known.

The election of Jelley (Rep.) to Congress in South Dakota is conceded.

Quite full returns indicate the election of Gevernor Boics (Dem.) by a decided majority.

TILINOIS.

With the exception of two candidates the Republicans made a clean sweep in the Chicago local election and in Cook county.

The Alliance did not hold its own. In endready of the Republicans and the House was 140 Republicans and 100 Democratis.

The Alliance made a clean sweep.

MICHIGAN.

Hazen S. Pingree (Rep.) is re-elected mayor of Detroit, and the entire Republican city ticket was also elected.

MASSAGHUSETTS.

Late returns give Russell (Democrat) a plurality of 8,628. The full returns will probably reduce this to about 5,000. Lieutenant-Governor Hale and the balance of the Republican State ticket are elected by ample pluralities. The returns for the Legislature are incomplete. The Senate will be Republican State ticket are elected by ample pluralities. The returns for the Legislature are incomplete. The schooner broke up and the crew remained on the island 27 days. Water and food gave out and the men suffered terribly. The captain, mate and two sailors left for the Loo Chou Islands, where they were picked up by a steamer and taken to Hioga. A passing steamer rescued the remainder from Borodino Islands. Nothing adds so much to the beauty of a fair girl, as a clear, bright, bealthy complexion, and to secure this pure blood is indispensable. So many of the so-called blood-purifiers sold to improve a rough, pimply, muddy skin, only drive the serofulous humors from the surface to some internal vital organ and disease and death is the inevitable result. On the contrary, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strikes directly at the root of the evil, by driving the impurities entirely out of the system, and with a fresh stream of pure blood flowing through the veins, nothing but the softest and fairest of complexion can result.

IN THE POLITICAL SWIM.

Rumor Rules the Day at

But the Cabinet-Making Business Is Really at a Standstill-General Political News.

The Cabinet crisis which Mr. Chapleau has brought about is beginning to drag. There is hardly any conceivable rumor about the political situation which has not had its hour. The truth of the matter seems to be that the situation is absolutely unchanged. Mr. Chapleau returned from Montreal on Tuesday, accompanied by several of his influential friends, among whom were Hon. J. A. Ouimet, a Privy Councilor; Mr. A. Desjardines, M. P. for Hochelaga, and a prospective senator, and Mr. Black, Conservative oganizer for the district of Montreal. These gentlemen speat the day between Mr. Abbott and Mr. Chapleau, carrying on negotiations actively. It is understood that as a result Mr. Abbott has agreed to recognize Mr. Chapleau as Conservative and Government leader in Quebec Frovince, with the right to choose his colleagues, and to give him the portfolio of President of the Council, Mr. Abbott taking Chapleau's place as Secretary of State. There statements emanate from the Chapleau side, but there is no reason to believe they are not. The same programme gives Mr. Ouimot the Department of Public Works.

Certain callers at Mr. Chapleau's house

F. Marr, Chatham, has been authorized by the West Kent Farmers' Institute to have 1,000 pamphlets printed describing the cultivation of the sugar beet.

At a meeting of the directors of the West Kent Farmers' Institute at Kent Mills on Saturday, there were present: President, Mr. John Longmore; secretary, Mr. John Clarkson; Messrs Fleming and Paxton, of Dover; McGregor and Funstone, of Tilbury, and F. Marx, of Chatham. It was decided that the first two public meetings, in which professors of the Guslph Agricultural College will be present, are to be held in Tilbury Center and Wallaceburg respectively. It was also resolved that a special meeting will be held in the town of Chatham, at which either Hon. John Dryden, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, or Hon. John Carling, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, will be invited to be present, together with the conductor of the Traveling Dairy. The township meetings during the season will be held in the following order: At Raleigh, Chatham, Dover, Tilbury, Romney, the townships to fix the date.

The Advertiser" is an organ of news dependent opinion. The ADVERTISER alone s responsible for opinions expressed in these

"The Advertiser" advocates Contiand as early as possible after, free trade with the whole world.

"The Advertiser" looks forward with hope to Canada's future as that of an Independent Canadian Nationality, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the best attainable relations with the United States. As to Imperial Federation, sometimes spoken of, the ADVERTISER as yet has seen nothing proposed that bears any stamp of practic ability, and in any case infinitely prefers the grander and more really hopeful scheme of a federation of the English-speaking peoples of the world.

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion in the meantime.

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of equal rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and considers the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first. Under the present system there is an unjustifiable waste of men, means and effort. The ADVERTISER will endeavor to promote the movement for Christian union not alone by direct appeal and argument, but by seeking to present the best rather than the worst side of each

"The Advertiser" advocates Obligatory Voting as both necessary and practicable. Nothing would so much purify electoral contests. Nothing would so much enforce the idea that the franchise is a duty, not a chattel.

London, Thursday, Nov. B.

ELECTIONS IN THE STATES. Tuesday's elections were hotly contested in several of the States, and the results do not show as great a change as was anticipated in many quarters. New York re-mains Democratic, as also do Maryland, New Jersey, Iowa and Virginia; and Removelyania remains Republican. The Pennsylvania remains Republican. Republicans, however, have won Ohio and Massachusetts, were national issues were introduced more decidedly than in the other

The greatest interest centered in Nev York State, where close elections are the rule. Every effort is made by both parties to carry the State owing to the strength of its vote in the Electoral College. There was a reasonable probability that the Republicans would carry this election, but Flower, the Democratic candidate, has made a clever run, and a victory is recorded in his favor. The majority is placed at apwards of 40,000, and the Assembly is and though Massachusetts has been conceded to them, it is by no means certain that that State has been carried by them as late returns indicate that Russel! (Demo crat) may yet have a majority.

Latest telegraphic returns concede the re-election of Russell, Democrat, in Massachusetts by a majority of about 4,000.

false pretenses.

They won by the skin of their teeth. But the winter campaign killed their leader.

They persisted in the atrocious Dominion Franchise Act, thinking to gain advantage from its operation. But the effect is not all partisan gain, hundreds of hitherto supporters of Sodom we should have said Ottawa-having become so disgusted with the expense, incom renience and unfairness of the present method of making and marring the lists that they will never again support the candidates of the high tax party.

Nemesis does more than merely look on. WHERE THE RESPONSIBILITY LIES.

A contemporary jibes at Premier Abbout for having signed an annexation manifesto 40 years ago, and moralizes over the spectacle of an old-time advocate of political union with the United States to-day mounting the pulpit as a preacher of "loyalty."

It is declared to be as if the Devil were to undertake to conduct a Wednesdayevening prayer meeting, but with cloven hoofs encased in patent leathers and forked tail carefully tucked away beneath long coat-tails.

The ADVERTISER would like to see Canada an independent nation, but it sees no reason for condemning Premier Abbott because he advocated political union with the United States 40 years ago if at the time he really thought such a conjunction to be in the best interests of both countries.

To take other ground is to circumscribe the area of freedom of discussion to an extent to which we wish never in this Dominion to see it circumscribed.

Freedom of speech and of discussion is ne world-wide Liberal doctrine. Repression of freedom of speech has been rom time immemorial a distinguishing trait of what Macaulay terms "the stern and unbending Tories. As to the undercurrent of feeling on the question of equal political union, it is admitted on all hands that never in recent years has such an idea been regarded with less aversion than at present, and the question arises, to what is this to be attributed? Apart from the "Quebec question," the change in opinion and feeling has arisen largely from the shock given to public confidence by the terrible revelations of the recent session at Ottawa. No intelligent person has ever denied that the material advantages of complete union would be as great as those which followed the union of England and Scotland, and our sheet-anchor of argument has always been our superior political holiness as compared with our friends and neighbors of the United States.

No one but a hypocrite of the first magnitude would longer vaunt any such theory of Canadian political impeccability.

Truly, those who have brought things to such a pass are the bearers of a large responsibility.

"REVISING" THE LISTS WITH A VENGEANCE.

Within the next week or two, the ex-Dominion Franchise Act will be proved to several hundreds of the citizens of London. It is just as well for them to bear in mind that the vexatious measure is the product of the high tax party, and that it alone is responsible for the annoyance caused. Nevertheless, the ADVERTISER advises every citizen whose vote is unfairly attacked, or who can give evidence to aid in the purification of the lists to attend the court and assist in this work, conscious that the first vote to take place on the list will likely be the last appeal to the people under this expensive, irritating, unnecessary measure A revision has lately taken place Kingston, and we are not surprised to learn that so much discontent was bred by the operations under the act that the high tax managers attempt to make believe that the annoyances to citizens were very argely the result of Liberal action. The Whig lays that error out in good set terms, and shows that the Franchise Act, with all its wretched imperfections, is a product of the high tax party, "that it was designed for partisan purposes, that under the pre-tense of making the franchise alike the Dominion over, the machinery of the new law when placed as far as possible in the hands of men who are recognized party men, and who have not always been as im-in his favor. The majority is placed at apwards of 40,000, and the Assembly is once more Democratic, though the Senate is probably Republican as before.

Ohio has always been strongly Republican, though a Democrat has held the Governor's seat since last election. The State has never re-elected a Democratic Governor. Two other candidates were in the field, the people's and temperance candidates, and it is, therefore, impossible to say whether Ohio has been in reality carried by the Republicans or Democrats, though the victory is given to McKinley. Whether the people's and temperance candidates have drawn most heavily from the Democrats have lost little of the pestige they have enjoyed for some time. While the result in some elections is not yet positive, it is safe to conclude that the Democrats have lost little of the prestige they have enjoyed for some time. The Republicans have held Pennsylvania by a very narrow majority, they have carried Ohio under circumstances referred to above;

absentse was of age, and his contention being disputed he sent repeatedly after the absentee and failed to produce him. Why? The young man knew he could not say what was desired of him, and so conside what was desired of him, and so considered to the content of ered discretion the better part of valor."

The act is bad enough when adminis-tered with some degree of fairness, but if its provisions are to be carried out as the Kingston journal alleges has been the case in that city, it is time the people took the The Ottawa politicans unfairly sprung matter into their own hands. Were the the general election in mid-winter and on statements made and contradicted under arrested for perjury, and the revising officer should have been the first to move. If, on the other hand, the revising officer has retained on the list the name of a young man who will not be of age till next pring, despite evidence to the contrary, he has been clearly guilty of a misdemeanor. Revising officers are unfortunately given almost autocratic powers, but they should be taught that there is a limit beyond which they will not be permitted to go.

THE UNIVERSITIES.

Kingston University has over 700 students n attendance, and McGill University, Montreal, has 783 students enrolled in its various faculties. A knowledge of these facts should secure many friends for the proposed improvement of the Western University. From the point of view of location and of population to draw from, London is better situated than either Montreal or Kingston.

SIGNOR BOUGHI, the distinguished Italian statesman, who was appointed to preside at the coming Peace Congress, has resigned. He was the author of an article suggesting, as a means of preventing war, that Germany should give back Alsace and Lorraine to France. and that both should then shake hands and make friends. There was strong teeling in Germany against the suggestion that this territorial recession should take place, and Signor Boughi, not wishing to impair the good results of the forthcoming Peace Congress, has resigned. The German projectors of the congress were afraid that the question of giving back the French provinces might be introduced as a practical subject for the deliberation of the congress.

NEW PUBLICATIONS How to Co-operate: A Manual for Co-operators. By Herbert Myrick. 352 pages, 33 illustrations: trice, 31 50. New York: The Orange Judd Company, 52 and 54 Lafayette Place.

This is a most valuable work. It tells o the how rather than the wherefor of cooperation. It tells how to co-operate-that is, how to manage a co-operative store, farm or factory, co-operative dairying, banking and fire insurance. The directions given are not based on theory, but on actual ex-perience in the United States and Great Britain. The information supplied will be a revelation to many who have doubted the ability of men and women to co-operate to advantage. The practical directions and details for organizing and operating co-operative enterprises of many kinds are of special value to workers everywhere. Mr. Myrick's work will no doubt be much sought after.

Proceedings of the Quebec Commission.

Quacec, Nov. 4.—Commissioner J. C.
Langelier resumed his testimony before the Royal Commission regarding the Royal Commission regarding the letters and papers he had been asked for on Saturday. He said that he could not find Thom's letter of April 23 concerning Armstrong's claim, which he was ordered to produce, but filed some other letters of no special importance. He proceeded to explain how a balance of $2,500 of the Legislative grant had been paid to Cooper according to instructions received by the department from Armstrong and Thom. He also read and filed a letter from Garneau, giving detailed instructions as to the Government's policy in settling claims against this road and explaining some of these claims, intimating that many of the strictly bonafide accounts would doubtless be submitted to him for payment after the date indicated in the notices to creditors, owing doubtless to the carelessness of some of the claimants. Witness occupied almost two hours in reading the official correspondence in reference to the claims for which the Government assumed responsibility and which he as commissioner was empowered to settle.

Mr. Casgrain pointed out that there was which he as commissioner was empowered to settle.

Mr. Casgrain pointed out that there was considerable difference between the original and the translations, and also that some words had been left out of some of the copies produced. Judge Jette said they had observed this and noted it. Witness said he did not undertake the responsibility of paying Armstrong's claim without consulting Garneau, who approved it.

Mr. Casgrain complained that certain letters published in L'Electeur had not been disclosed in the Mercier-Angers correspondence; neither had they been produced before the counsel in this investigation.

The Conquering Central Road.

The New York Central is the greatest railroad in the world. It is the arterial center of the most magnificent Commonwealth that enriches and embellishes the geography of the globe. It weds Lake Erie to the Atlantic, and is the crowning glory of the vast Vanderbilt system, whose growth and grandeur are among the miracles of modernism. It is the mightiest of the multitude of connecting links between the metropolis of the Western Hemisphere and all america. It furnishes the most extraordinary exemplification of the productive power and industrial magnitude of the continent. It typifies the triumph of commerce and civilization. Actor Toole's Unpleasant Experience.
LONDON, Nov. 4.—Toole, the actor, had a very unpleasant experience at Coat Bridge Monday evening. Shortly after the play began the gallery commenced to hiss and jeer, and Toole angrily appealed to the audience to protect themselves against the gallery "rufflans." He was surprised, he said, at their want of manliness. and gallery "rufflans." He was surprised, he said, at their want of manliness, and declared that he would never play in Coat Bridge again. After struggling through the remainder af the performance, Toole, in an agitated manner, offered a reward for the discovery of the rufflan who had thrown a missile on the stage. The uproar was due to the raising of the prices of gallery admission tickets.

"Where are we going?" she asked presently.

"Anywhere. I only want to be with you. Anywhere. The National Gallery, if you like."

They saw little of the pictures. A mad red sky of Turner's associated itself to Eather with the memory of that morning. She was standing before it when Rutherford urged her to fix an early date for the wedding. Before leaving the building it was arranged that, subject to the approval of Mrs. Wilton, the marriage should take place towards the end of April.

Mrs. Wilton, with what seemed to Rutherford to be a certain inconsistency, suggested the beginning of the month; and as Esther had only demurred on her nother's account, the second of April was plosson.

"Why not the first?" asked Miss Close of Esther.

"All Fools' day?"

Miss Close smiled.
"If my lunatic can spare it" she said, "I will make you a present of a few yards of my string lace. It is very ugly, but she admires it, so why shouldn't you?"

The had the conviction that there was an irony intended. If this was so Miss Close should make her meaning more clear. Her shafts were padded at the barb, and they did not wound.

Miss Close's manner to himself puzzled Rutherford. Several times he surprised her eyes resting upon him in a contemplative sort of way. At such moments he fancied that she gave an almost imperceptible shrug of her shoulders as she looked away. At first she seemed to be sounding him as to his attitude regarding herself, and then, when she appeared to have come to some conclusion, she talked briskly on the trifles of hour. Rutherford was puzzled, and he spoke of her to his aunt.
"I cannot understand why Mrs. Wilton keeps that very odd little person with the pretty figure and the plain face."

"Miss Close? Even Esther wonders that," said Lady Heron. "I think her presence is a real trouble to Esther. She tells me that Miss Close dictates to Mrs. Wilton even on the subject of your engagement, and yet Mrs. Wilton will not part with her."

"What on earth has my engagement to do with her?"

Lady Heron told him of the impression

do with her?"

Lady Heron told him of the impression that he was supposed to have made upon the heart of Miss Close. He was amused and uncomfortable.

It chanced that the next morning he met the young woman on the stairs of the hotel. He remembered when Lady Heron had said to him, and he felt a certain restraint.

"You haven't congratulated me," he said, feeling at the same time that his remark was scarcely happy under exsiting circumstraes.

circumstances.

"You can hardly expect that," said Miss Close. "Of course, if, knowing what you

"I am going to trust her to you for tife. Oh, Lord Rutherford, I shall miss her so much! I can't say to you how dear she is to me. She has been a good daughter, and she will be a good wife."

"I know," said Rutherford. "I know." He grasped Mrs. Wilton's hand as he spoke. There were tears in her eyes.

"You shall not lose her," he said gently. "You shall see her often. You will be different. You will love her always, as she deserves, I know. Esther is true as steel—and—and she is high-minded—she is incapable of deceiving anyone——"
"I would doubt myself before Esther," said Rutherford.

"I would doubt myself before Esther," said Rutherford.
"I penal Esther would not lend herself and in this is would better not." said "I tink you hay then I congratulation, why then I congratulation, what is made upon her? The looked radiantly happy and heautiful as her eyes fell upon her lover.

"Have I kept you waiting ! I didn's know you were here."

"And cheering her up. I hope. I think mother rather grudges me to you. Now, Leale, I am ready."

Between happiness at the return of Rutherford and anxiety upon her mother's account, Esther's mood was full of contrast as life is full olight and shadow.

"Lesle, is mother greatly altered since you want way, or is in my fancy?"

"I don't think Mrs. Wilton looks well," and on the fretting at the prospect of losing you, and that searcely supprises me."

"Dear Leslie! But I think there must be semething more than that, I had the greatest difficulty in persuading her to see a doctor, and now that she has seen one I do not think that he is doing her much good. He asked me whether mother had anything to worry her—anything on her mind. Well. I know of nothing. What could there be."

WIVES DAUGHTERS

LONDON, CANADA.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS is the only ladies' journal published in the West. It is read by about every man, woman and child in the City of London and its suburbs.

It reaches, besides, over 2,950 towns in Ontario and the adjoining Provinces, and a large number in the United States. Many of these towns regularly receive bundles containing between 75 and 100 copies.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS was first published in October, 1890—only one year ago—and its circulation everywhere is steadily on the increase.

No ladies' journal is more widely or favorably known in Canada than WIVES AND DAUGHTERS. It is published in sixteen-page form on or about the 15th of each month.

A remarkable feature of WIVES AND DAUGHTERS is that it gives more for the money than any other ladies' journal in the world. The price is only 500. for 1892, with balance of present year thrown in to new subscribers.

For subscribers to the Daily Advertiser or the Western Advertiser the rate will be only 25c. per annum. As it is one of the best advertising mediums in the country, it will pay advertisers to use its columns. Advertising rates-which are moderate-will be made known on application.

A sample copy will be mailed to any address on re, ceipt of 5c in coin or postage stamps.

Free Railway Traveling. The relief authorities say there are many people now who eke out an existence by traveling from one place to another. They arrive in a city or town, tell a pitiful story, express a desire to reach some friend story, express a desire to reach some friend or relative at a distance, and are given railway tickets. A day or two ago a professedly blind man named Collins, who said he had come from Wisconsin, was given a pass from this city to Hamilton, where he claimed to have a brother. At Hamilton he spun a similar yarn and got a free ride to St. Thomas. He obtained some money from charitable people there, and was again furnished the means by the city to travel to Fort Erie.

The purpose of the meeting was to hear reports on the recent Y. P. S. C. E. convention at Peterboro from the lips of the local delegates. A. J. Clark, president of the local union, was in the chair, and Rev. M. P. Talling, Rev. G. B. Sage and Canon Richardson were on the platform with him. The representatives to speak were R. N. Brebner, T. B. Howard, Rev. G. B. Sage, Rev. Canon Richardson, Rev. M. P. Talling, R. Kirkpatrick and W. J. Doherty, Upon cach of these devolved the duty of dealing with one of the seven sessions of the convention, ten minutes being the indealing with one of the seven sessions of the convention, ten minutes being the individual time limit. Chatty and comprehensive reports were delivered, and their brevity gave an interest to the affair by lending it variety. All were enthusiastic over their treatment in Peterboro and their success is procuring the convention for London in 1892. After the meeting the executive of the London Union discussed the propriety of holding a county convention. The idea was favorably entertained, but consideration postponed until after Christmas.

Adams vs. Semerville.

This suit, an action to obtain an injunction restraining the defendant, C. R. Somerville, of this city, from manufacturing Mexican Fruit Chewing Gum, was heard at Osgoode Hail, Toronto, Tuesday before Judge Robertson. DuVernet & Featherstonhaugh, of Toronto, for plaintiffs, T. H. Purdom for the defendant. The judge decided in favor of the defendants with full costs, and in doing so he very severely reprimanded the plaintiffs, the Adsms & Sons Company, of Brooklyn, New York, for the manner in which they brought the action and then attempt to obtain by misleading statements the benefit of the defendant's trade in Canada. He said the plaintiff's case had a very sandy foundation, while the defendant's appeared founded on a rock. The plaintiff came into court with unclean hands, as from their own evidence they were attempting to sell goods under false pretenses. They asked an injunction to restrain the defendant from selling his brand of Mexican Fruit Chewing Gum, that they might place on the market under that name a gum they acknowledged to be identical with their Tutti Frutti. This was a fraud on the public. But outside of this fact altogether, the judge said they had no case. So far as the defendant's label for "Mexican Fruit" and the Adams label of "Tutti Frutti" was concerned, he would doubt very much the sanity of any person that would be misled by them. The judge found that the defendant had invented the name Mexican Fruit and had placed his goods extensively in the market, while the plaintiffs had

SPECULATIONS IN FUTURES.

Rev. A. C. Courtice Predicts the Future of the Indian, the African and the Canadian.

of the Indian, the African and the Canadian.

"Speculating in Futures" was indulged in by Rev. A. C. Courtice at Dundas Center Methodist Church Tuesday night. A fair audience greeted him. The meeting was opened with a duet by Miss Ida Smythe and Percy Carroll and the reading of the one hundredth Psalm by Rev. Mr. Godwin, of London West.

Mr. Courtice first dealt with the future of the Indian. Blood relationship, language and literature and religion had the effect of uniting English-speaking people. The Indian was the orphan of this continent, deprived of father and mother. He should therefore be protected and defended. The gift of our Government should never be wrong; it should never be liquor. In 1876 Keewatin was detached from the Northwest Territories. In this district there were rivers teeming with fish, and mines of immense value. No liquor was formerly allowed to be brought into or made in the territories, for the Indian cannot abstain from drinking it. The region will some day be carved into provinces. Drunkenness and other crimes have increased rapidly since permits have been granted by which 4-percent, beer could be taken among Indians. In 1888 there were 36 convicted for drunkenness; in 1889, 41, and in 1890 there In 1888 there were 36 convicted for drunkenness; in 1889, 41, and in 1890 there were 92, while five years before there were none at all. In one year 183,670 gallons of strong drink were imported among them, and probably an equal amount was smuggled.
The future of the Indian may be expressed in one word—"extinction," not civilization.
The cause may be attributed to one great evil—liquor.
The African in Africa had a future aking the Indian in Canada. Slavery to that of the Indian in Canada. Slavery and strong drink were the causes. The Arabs were oppressing the Africans shamefully. The slave trade was the demon that followed Livingstone during the last twenty years of his life. Stanley estimated that the Arabs on one occasion raided portions of Africa layer, in area than Ire. the lady remarking that she was 'glad' she had found it again, but failed to reward the finder in any shape. Truly this is one way of encouraging honesty in such cases among young children. A 10-cent reward would have made that child happier than all the thanks that could be uttered."

5. E. Delegates Report.

The body of St. James' Presbyterian Chusch was well-filled last night, principal-chusch was well-filled last night. De great man thought that if Africa was rid of the white man with his gun and his liquor it would prosper; another that the opening of Africa to civilization was an opening for the white man's vices. Italy, Germany and Holland wanted strong drink to be exported into Africa. America sent to that country in one year 1,000,000 gallons of liquor. Races of men were dying from the use of it. Protestants should wake up and do their duty in preventing this in the face of God.

Of Canada no one knows what the future

this in the face of God.

Of Canada no one knows what the future will be. It might be annexation to the United States, colonial dependence or national independence, if Canadians would do away with many existing evils, God would open up a prosperous and bright future for us. The blood-stained keys that open the doors of the breweries and that open up to a public corruption must be thrown away.

CHILDREN AND FLOWERS.

CHILDREN AND FLOWERS.

The First Day of the Chrysanthmeum Show a Decided Success.

Tuesday was children's day at the flower show, and seldom has the City Hall contained such a throng of bright-eyed youngsters as were present during the afternoon. That they enjoyed themselves was evident, and as they flitted from flower to flower they kept the good-natured members of the Florists' Society busy answering innumerable questions in relation to the various beautiful exhibits. In the evening a large number of grown folks visited the exhibition, and many complimentary remarks were heard as to the excellence of the display. The new chrysanthemums from J. C. Vaughan, of Chicago, and the southern evergreens from Caldwell, the Woodsman, of Evergreen, Ala, are decided novelties and are greatly admired. The energetic committee of arrangements, headed by President G. W. Rennie, the clever landscapist at the asylum, and Secretary Wm. Gammage, have exerted their best efforts to make their annual show attractive, and are deserving of great credit for adding so pleasing a number to the entertainments of citizens. Following are the chief prizes awarded:

In the amateur class J. H. Taggie got first prize for best six chrysanthemums, John Cook second; best single plant, Mrs. J. Insell.
