

CANADA HAS COMMANDEERED ALL WHEAT IN THE EASTERN ELEVATORS FOR GT. BRITAIN

Fifteen Millions of Bushels Estimated Seized - Move Was Taken to Protect the Purchaser of the Grain, Which is the Imperial Government.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—The Dominion Government on Saturday commandeered all wheat of Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Northern in store in Eastern elevators. The amount of grain affected is estimated at from twelve to fifteen million bushels, although there is a possibility that the total may run slightly above these figures.

As explained in an official memorandum issued last night the method of commandeering the grain was adopted in order that the purchasing government might not be subjected to the extra expense of inflated prices which would follow the government's entry into the open market as a buyer.

It is pointed out that had the method of commandeering not been adopted the price of wheat would have accrued to the grain dealers and not to the growers, while the latter, who still hold nearly 200,000,000 bushels, now stand to profit from any rise in price.

ADMIRALTY'S HELP NEEDED The Imperial Government, which has placed a time limit upon the fulfilment of the order, will, it is expected, take care of the transportation of the wheat at least in so far as the provision of adequate tonnage is concerned.

Paris, Nov. 29.—A Havas News Agency despatch from Athens dated Sunday, says: "The substance of the Greek note in reply to the Entente powers is considered in critical circles as opening a way to the solution. It is judged as satisfactory responding to the desire that Greece maintain her neutrality without adopting measures contrary to the interests of the Entente powers. The negotiations are continuing."

Many of them have sold grain for December shipment and must obtain it from other sources to get their contracts. They hope to obtain a share of the Canadian surplus not commandeered.

BIG CROWD PACKS BRANT THEATRE AT RECRUITING RALLY HELD LAST NIGHT

Mr. Landers of Hamilton Gave Fine Address Appealing for Men—Private Bloxham Spoke Shortly Tells Some of His Experiences at Front.

The second of a series of Sunday night recruiting meetings was held last night in the Brant theatre before a packed house. The speakers were Pte. Bloxham, D.C.M., lately returned from the front and Mr. Sam Landers of Hamilton. Pte. Bloxham received an enthusiastic hearing and made a simple and direct appeal for more men. There are men and married men in the trenches who need a holiday and who'll never get one till you relieve them," was one forcible argument he addressed to the young men of the audience.

Mr. Landers also made a telling speech, illustrating his points with apt anecdotes. As the audience filed out the recruiting cards were given out to all the young men leaving and it is hoped a tangible result of the meeting will be seen very soon in the enlistment returns.

THE KING HAS CALLED. "The need is great. This is the first time in the British Empire that the king has ever called for recruits. We need men. Why? Because we were not ready. For many years the pacifists said it was improbable and almost impossible that Britain would ever have war with Germany. It was as much as a government's life was worth to strengthen military supplies. On the other hand the Germans were preparing. They signed Hague conventions with one hand and were getting ready with the other."

CALLING FOR 100,000 "Canada is calling for 100,000 more men. Canada is still below the average compared with the Allies and Australia in supplying men. Nevertheless I believe you will form your battalion here and will form it over-strength. "Germany has been preparing for 40 years. Even though Saxons and Bavarians are at loggerheads now in the trenches, they had prepared for 40 years. They thought they caught Britain unprepared. They thought

The pall bearers were members of Court Endeavor, A. O. F. They were Messrs. Jas. Fitness, Harry Fitness, Wm. Bailey, Richard Waddington, George Grierson and Joseph Bond. This was laid to rest one who, during his long residence in this city, had proved himself to be a true friend, an honest man, a sterling citizen. "Ben" as he was generally known, will be greatly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing him.

BOATS HELD UP

Port Williams, Ont., Nov. 29.—Commandeering of grades One, Two and Three Northern wheat by the Canadian Government came like a bolt from the blue to vesselmen and shippers here, and yesterday the harbor was filled with vessels, some of which are partly loaded, waiting the government's next move. An unbroken line of steamers extends from the Empire elevator, at the mouth of the Kaministiquia River, to elevator B., of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, some of them moored in columns of three abreast. Shipmasters' through the offices of the Lake Shipping Association and crowded walk dejectedly along the streets. Many wild rumors of the reason of the government's action are being circulated.

Dr. Magill, chief grain commissioner, says the commission is merely carrying out the Government's orders, and he is not aware of its future policy.

ON ELEVATORS

Winnipeg, Nov. 29.—"The Government has commandeered all wheat of No. 1, 2 and 3 Northern grades in elevators. You are hereby prohibited from delivering or helping to deliver any of these grades from terminal or hospital elevators until further instructed. Orders have been issued prohibiting the granting of certificates of weight and grades, and of registered warehouse receipts for wheat covered by this order. By order of the Board of Grain Commissioners.

(Signed) "Robert Magill, chairman, "J. J. Jones, Commissioner."

WILL NOT AFFECT U.S. PRICE

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The commandeering of from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of Northern wheat in storage at the head of the lakes and eastward by the Canadian Government will have no permanent effect on prices in the United States, in the opinion of Robt. McDougal, a prominent Chicago exporter.

"I dare say there will be a bit of a flurry on the local Board of Trade to-day while traders are adjusting their accounts, but that is all," said McDougal. "The British Government has simply adopted a military method of purchasing 15,000,000 bushels of wheat. There is still an exportable surplus in Canada of 110,000,000 bushels, more or less. No doubt the Dominion Government will make satisfactory settlements with dealers who have contracts for the wheat seized."

NOT AN IOTA OF EFFECT

Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 28.—George E. Pierce, statistician of the Buffalo Elevator Association, said last night in regard to the commandeering of wheat by the Canadian Government and its effect here.

"The Government's action will not alter the grain situation here an iota. We already have elevated and shipped East this season 40,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain for export, and we are placing it on the seaboard more rapidly than exporters can find bottoms for it."

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

IF you have ever fumed and fussed, because of dirt and grime and rust, and said unto yourself, "Oh, dear! This household work will kill, I fear"—then it is time that you should find some other method far more kind.

Of all the woes a housewife bears, one always fills her day with cares: The kitchen after-meal-time, is quite enough to make one fuss. What, with the pots and pans and the knives and forks and plates and cans, no task of man, however grim, the half as mean is handed him.

Two little willing workers aim to enter in this household game: their job, the lessening of work, a task that neither of them shirk. With active little hands and brains they grab the irksome household reins, till noon each kettle, pot or dish, is just as bright as you could wish.

And not until the chores are done, from sink to silver, sun to sun, could anything inspire the two, to drop the tasks they have to do.

Therefore, if you have never known assistance such as we have shown, your troubles end, where joy begins. Now, Mrs. Drudge, the Gold Dust Twins! Henceforth, as dishes congregate, when cutlery, in sad array, awaits you at the close of day—"Cheer Up!" Forget the labor planned: You have two aids at your command.

The Situation.

Matters with regard to Greece are still reported to be in the undetermined class. King Constantine is said to have received a threatening message from brother-in-law William, and to be wobbling at the knees once more. He is certainly in a difficult position, but he might as well realize that if he thwarts the Allies it will be all day with his dynasty.

Berlin makes the announcement that the Serbian campaign is ended; that they set out to crush that people and have done so. They thought the same thing with regard to Belgium, but there is still resistance there, and so there will be with regard to Serbia, until both have been freed from the hands of their devilish oppressors. A veil of mystery rests over what the Allied troops in this region have been doing. The Huns claim that they are in desperate case, but there is nothing definite to back this assertion.

The Italian offensive continues to progress surely if slowly, and most of the pep seems to have been taken out of the Germans in the Eastern theatre.

The Grain Seizure.

The announcement that the Dominion Government had commandeered from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of No. 1, 2 and 3 Northern wheat, at the head of Western wheat, came as a great surprise. As a matter of fact, that is just the way in which it should have come, for if the intention of the authorities had been known a disturbing and speculative element would have been introduced.

The Ottawa authorities took this step at the instance of the British Government. The result will be that the grain so taken will be paid for at a fair price and leave that much more of a demand for grain now held.

The result, as far as the farmers are concerned, will be beneficial rather than otherwise, and a valued Empire service will be rendered. More than ever it becomes plain that the right course was taken in urging agriculturists to produce more abundantly of this cereal, an appeal which met with such a splendid response as to notch a record crop for the Dominion.

The argument for preferential trade within the Empire will quite probably receive an extra fillip because of the manner of this grain purchase.

Canada and Russia.

The United States has loaned the Allies $500,000,000, and preparations are being made for a further advance of $150,000,000, in addition to which innumerable credits which the public never hear of, have been granted, and $750,000,000 worth of goods have been supplied.

These statements were made by Mr. C. W. Barron, President of the Wall Street Journal, the Boston News Bureau and other United States publications, in an address to the Canadian Club at Toronto. He added that through the federal reserve act of the United States credits of $4,000,000 were available should United States bankers wish to make further loans. Indeed, $2,000,000,000 of credits were available without utilizing the privileges of the act.

Mr. Barron thought that the greatest material benefits which would accrue from the war would be to Canada and Russia. The Russian Empire and the upper part of the North American continent, he said, were the only parts of the world where great wheat growing lands were still open for development. Canada had the splendid advantage of railways already built, and of a fine form of government, and was certain to attract men from all over the world to develop her great resources. He felt convinced that the development of Canada during the next thirty years would exceed any developments which had ever taken place in any similar period of the world's history. Canadians sometimes thought that they had already too many railways, but as a matter of fact they did not have enough to take care of future developments.

He had no doubt as to Great Britain's ability to finance the war. They would find, he assured the gathering, that the cost of the war would not be so crushing a burden as was popularly supposed. On the contrary a period of inflation in wages and in prices generally would set in, production would be stimulated, and the British Empire might actually find itself richer after paying its war debts.

Asked as to how long Britain could continue to pay $25,000,000 a day for the expense of the war, Mr. Barron replied: "As long as you and I back them up." When he was in England recently he had been discussing with a nobleman the great increase in income tax, and the latter had stated: "It is not begrudged. They can have everything but our bread and butter."

As to Britain's ability to pay the bills, "there will be no diminution in that cruse of oil," he declared. "So long as Britain's name on a scrap of paper is made good by her blood and treasure before the world, you can put no commercial value or limit on Great Britain."

Germany was actually starving, he was certain of that; her home production was exhausted, and everything she purchased abroad had now to be paid for in gold, so that in finances also she was fast approaching a period of exhaustion. He did not believe that Germany could hold out another winter.

Three factors would cause the collapse of Germany. These were shortage of men—the Teutons had lost 1,000,000 killed and 4,000,000 in casualties; shortage of food; and failure to finance—nations sending supplies to Germany were now demanding cash with the order, "and cash means gold."

FINE OPENING AT ECHO PLACE

Women's Institute There Held Meeting Thursday in Their New Rooms.

The Echo Place Women's Institute opened their new rooms in the Echo Place school Nov. 25th.

These rooms are so nicely arranged they make an ideal place in which the Institute may not only have their usual monthly meetings, but for an evening entertainment they are ideal.

The large room to the north makes a splendid auditorium, while the smaller room to the south, with fine windows on south and west provide good light for those on the platform. The folding doors between these rooms when thrown open, makes them one large room. The trustees very kindly arranged large gas lights and built a platform for the use of the ladies during the many entertainments and pleasant social evenings they hope to give to the public during the winter. The ladies are to be congratulated for having trustees so kind and accommodating. With the co-operation of the trustees of the school and the help of the Improvement Association, the Institute hope to make these rooms, as a social centre, such a success that our young people will feel that Echo Place is just "the place" in which to have a good time.

For their entertainment Thursday evening, the Institute introduced a new order by having the chair occupied by their President, Mrs. Burke filled the chair admirably, and we feel that while we have a president so capable, we do not need to call upon a mere man to help us out in that respect.

The evening's program commenced by singing "O Canada," led by the popular Echo orchestra. Mrs. Burke then explained to the public, how the Institute had acquired the rooms, and intended to furnish them nicely, and devote them to the use of the Echo Place people for social gatherings.

After extending a few words of welcome to our guests for the evening, the orchestra again favored the audience with music.

Miss Hilda Hurley, a daughter of one of our members, delighted the crowd with one of her well chosen solos; for an encore she sang "Sister Susie."

After Mr. Myers in a few well chosen words had welcomed the Institute to their new rooms, and assured the President of the willingness of the Board to help them in any way, Mrs. Burke again called upon the orchestra for music.

Miss Mary Edmanson, a daughter of another of our Institute ladies, gave a humorous recitation, being the proposal of a busy business man to his stenographer, and his amazement when she quietly put him wise to the fact that they were already man and wife. For an encore Miss Edmanson gave a patriotic selection, emphasizing the fact that Britain's sons, who fight under the red, white and blue fought to show the Kaiser that they meant to keep Britain master of the blue.

The next on the programme was a sweet little solo "How Ireland got its name," by little Miss Alberta Williams, her sister, Miss Grace, playing her accompaniment. When the solo was finished, Miss Whitney presided at the piano, while the two sisters, each in Irish costumes, Miss Alberta as an Irish lass and Miss Grace as an Irish lad, gave an exhibition of an Irish dance. These two talented little maids, daughters of one of our members, were very much appreciated.

Mrs. R. Chipman's selections, An old darkey woman on the "Woman's Vote" question was so comical, that it drew forth hearty appreciation. This old lady thought if Eve had been made from Adam's back bone instead of a rib, she would be holding her own to-day in the political world, instead of sitting calmly be-moaning her hard lot. She also thought that those who held with the Darwin theory that man was descended from a monkey, had very little pride and not much to boast of, as a family tree. This is certainly a spicy little selection, calling upon women to rise up and show the world that their spinal column was a "backbone" and not a wishbone. After encore, Mrs. Chipman gave a good imitation of two little girls' quarrel over their dollies. Mrs. Chipman must have a very retentive memory, for this was real, as you could tell by the bursts of laughter from the younger portion of the audience.

Mr. Thomas, on behalf of the Improvement Association, assured the Institute of the willingness of that body to help the ladies at any time. Mr. Thomas hoped this evening was only a beginning of many such during the winter months.

Miss Marlatt rendered "Roses of Love" very sweetly, receiving hearty applause.

Miss Meyer's recitation, "A Newsboy's Soliloquy" on hearing good music for the first time. Apparently he was a homeless boy, and the effect of good singing was such that he lost his desire to mingle with the toughs of the street, went home instead and pondered the subject was it possible for a poor newsboy on the street to be good. After hearty applause, Miss Meyer gave an Irish lady's recita to a neighbor of what a narrow escape her daughter, Mary Ann, had from matrimony. This was also heartily enjoyed.

The orchestra then played "We'll never let the old flag fall," the crowd standing and joining heartily in the chorus.

Mrs. Gardner of Brantford addressed the Institute members and those present, touching on several very earnest subjects. Mrs. Gardner congratulated the Institute on their progressiveness. She thinks their new quarters are so bright and cheery, they ought to have splendid meetings. She also thought Echo Place should be proud of their talent, especially their musical, and hoped some day to see installed a good library. Mrs. Gardner advised the voters in the coming contest to vote to help their boys and not to hinder them, to vote as they will be glad they voted when they stand before the Judge supreme. She thinks that if women had the ballot they would vote with their boys' and girls' future welfare in mind, and the drink would be a thing of the past. Mrs. Gardner thinks women with her smile will win more than the militant woman. Also she thinks that if this war keeps up for long, women will have to take a larger part in the affairs of the nation, and that when woman gets the ballot she will be elected will be the man with a clean record behind him and an honest endeavor to do right. Mrs. Gardner's addresses are always so good that they give you food for thought.

CANADA AS INDEMNITY

"Some people say, 'we've nothing to do with this fight. If we lose this war, Canada will figure in the indemnity. It's not now a case of patriotism; it's a case of self-preservation. It's got now that we have to fight to protect ourselves. Were it not for the fact that our British navy looked up the German navy like rats, where would we be? We are to fight for civilization; it's up to you young man to do your share!'"

"It is the credit of you boys, the wonderful fight they put at Langemarck. The Coldstream Guards laud the Canadians.

"Our Canadians have gone and are going, and will continue to go. We could give you Canadians better rates of insurance if they'd run a little better," said a New York prominent insurance man to the Mayor of Hamilton, "but the trouble is they won't run." I want to see this war driven into Germany. Germany must be beaten and beaten thoroughly. We do not want to buy the enemy out of Belgium. We want to drive him out.

"There's our friend 'tin-can Ford," proceeded the speaker, amidst laughter. "He's going to get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas. We don't want to get out of the trenches until we beat the enemy."

"Make up your mind to-night. You've had lots of chances to make up your mind. You may be the very man who may save a situation. We isled with the good crowd, as the place, seating about 250, was filled, and the crowd expressed themselves delighted with the evening's entertainment. Proceeds, which amounted to $35, will be used in furnishing the rooms.

Big Crowd

she was disunited. Trouble in Ireland, Suffragettes in England, labor difficulties, vanished at the attack by the Huns.

"There are a large number of young men in every community who would like to go, but can't go. Yet there are a vast number in that class. 'Let George do it.' I say young man, you are missing the opportunity of your life."

"SIX OR EIGHT YEARS HENCE."

"We're are going to win this war, no doubt of it. But the day will come the days to come, when you'll regret that you didn't go. The people who keep you back, mother, sister or sweetheart, will be your worst enemy. In the fact that our British navy looked for a position you'll be asked 'did you ever go to the front?' If, not, you'll get no position."

TAKE O'NEILL BOYS' PLACE

"Is there anybody here who'll take the O'Neill boys' place, or Corp. Stephenson or Jimmy Lowes? Are you going to let the Indians do the fighting for you? Are you going to let the 'chirpers' fight for you? In the first and second contingents the majority were British born. (Applause.) But now the Canadians are waking up and going."

ASK YOU TO CONSIDER ENLISTMENT GOING OVERSEAS.

"What are we going to do to protect Serbia? I don't know when the Germans will be driven out of France or Belgium. I won't know when the war will be over. I do know this, I know we are going to win the battle, and that will be the last."

The meeting was presided over by Mayor Spence and on the platform, among others were: Rev. Lavell, T. H. Preston, Ald. J. S. Dowling, W. Norman Andrews, Pte. Chas. Bloxham, Lt.-Col. Cutcliffe, and Ald. Bragg.

AT SYDENHAM STREET.

Rev. Wm. Smythe delivered a telling temperance address in Sydenham Street church last evening. He said he wanted to place himself on record, early in the campaign in favor of Local Option. He had always taken an active part in all matters touching social reform, and gave his reasons for his stand. Temperance lantern slides will be shown in the church to-night. The music for the day was excellent.

ALEXANDRA PRESBYTERIAN.

At the evening service at Alexandra church, the Rev. D. T. McClintock delivered a powerful address in favor of Local Option. It was the intention of the pastor to have the sermon illustrated by lantern slides, but owing to the lantern not proving satisfactory in the large church, it was not used. Rev. Mr. McClintock during his remarks said he intended to hit the bar room and hit it hard at the every opportunity. The services were well attended throughout the day.

QUICK RESULT

After the recruiting meeting last evening, six men went down to the recruiting depot and signed up.

WELL CHOSEN PROGRAM AT ZION CHURCH

Mr. D. L. Wright Pleased at Large Audience With Twilight Organ Recital.

A large audience greeted Mr. David L. Wright, talented organist of Zion church, at his second Twilight Organ Recital on Saturday afternoon. The programme was a well chosen one, and showed the versatility of Mr. Wright's gifts. The "March Religieuse" in F, by A. Guilment, was the biggest number and showed to advantage the full volume of the fine-tuned organ. Special mention might also be made of the numbers "In Moonlight" and "At Evening," which were most effective and popular with the audience, while the "March Funere," by Chopin, in memory of our Brantford heroes, was much enjoyed. Mr. George E. Morley of Stratford, the teacher of elocution at the Academy of Music, was the assisting artist, and made a splendid impression on the audience, this being his first appearance in Brantford. In his "King Robert of Sicily" he showed a keen perception of dramatic possibilities, and fully satisfied the audience in his interpretation of this difficult selection. In "Uncle's Eph's Heaven" which was most popular, he showed himself to be a master of "dialect." Musical accompaniments to both of these numbers had been arranged by Mr. Wright, and these added very materially to the dramatic effects.

Private Kirby Writes to His Sister Telling How the Germans Got Him.

STILL READY TO FIGHT

The following letter from Pte. William Kirby of the Princess Pats, was written from the Duchess of Connaught Hospital, England, to his sister, Mrs. Fred Klouth, 135 Sydenham St. Pte. Kirby had lived here, but enlisted from Montreal. In spite of all that he has gone through, he still is keen for the fight, and wants to get back at the Germans as soon as possible.

Duchess of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hospital Taplow, England, Nov. 8th, 1915. Dear Nellie, No doubt you know where I am long before you get this letter, as a Church of England clergyman in one of the hospitals in France said he would write home for me. I was too sick then to write myself, but I'm getting on all right now, but weak yet. They nearly got me this time—a very close shave, but I hope to be with the boys again when I get all right, but that won't be for some time yet. My last four days in the trenches were pretty strenuous ones. The Germans gave our company a lively time of it. The third night in the line we heard a working party of the enemy out in front of their own trenches, as the trenches were very close; so we sent up a flare, and opened up a tipping fire, killing quite a bunch of them. The next morning they sent up a white flag to bring in their dead—there were a good many. That was one time we caught them napping. A little while after they had got their dead in, they started on us. They were good and sore. They bombed us heavily by trench mortars, wounded two or three of the company and buried one lance-corporal in a dug-out. They kept it up for some time, and we retired to our support trenches. Then our artillery opened out on them in good shape, and that stopped them for a while. We went back to the firing line again, and those who were not on sentry, lost no time in getting to sleep, as we had been on the go all night. When I came off sentry I flung myself in my "little grey home in the west" with two more of my comrades, and had a pretty good sleep. When I woke up I thought I would take some tea. I was cutting some wood with my jack-knife to start a fire, and remembered no more. They dropped a bomb

O. H. A. AMENDMENTS TO BE DISCUSSED AT ANNUAL MEETING

Soldiers Given Privileges to Play the Same as Heretofore Given to Students—Many Minor Changes Advocated.

Toronto, Nov. 29—The most important amendments to be considered at the O. H. A. annual convention will be those affecting the enlisted soldier-hockeyists. There are clauses suggested by the chairman of the sub-committee, Mr. J. Ross Robertson, to give the soldiers the same privileges as students as regards resitown in which he is located by the military authorities. Mr. J. T. Sutherland of Kingston proposes that when suspended O. H. A. players enlist their suspensions shall be automatically raised. This, of course is not to apply to professionals. Mr. A. H. Schlegel of Preston suggests that during the war players of any town not represented in the O. H. A. be allowed to play with the O. H. A. club nearest to their residence. In addition to the foregoing there are other amendments, one restricting the residence rules as it applies to High school pupils, another making it clear regarding junior players, and others making it imperative for players to sign referee's reports before a game and compelling clubs to keep a regular set of books open to O. H. A. inspection. In the rules of the game, Mr. G. B. Dawson of Sarnia makes a suggestion regarding the introduction of substitutes in the second and third periods of play. The amendments were sent out to the clubs on Saturday. The present clauses and proposed amendments are as follows: TO THE CONSTITUTION. Present clause: 6. No player who has been suspended or expelled by this or any other organized association shall play with or against any club in the O. H. A. in any match to which an admission is charged until such player has been reinstated or the period of his suspension has terminated and any club in the association playing any such suspended or expelled player or players on its team, or playing against a team playing any such players, shall forfeit its membership in the association. Provided, however, that no player who has been professionalized, whether by this or any other recognized association, or who has by his conduct become a professional under the conditions of those regulations, shall be eligible for reinstatement into this association upon any ground whatsoever; and provided further that the executive of this association shall have no power to even entertain an application for the reinstatement of any such player. In all applications for reinstatement to the association to be considered at the annual convention notice must be given in the regular way. Proposed amendment, by Jas. T. Sutherland, Kingston: Add to section 6 the following: "Any player who is under suspension from the O. H. A. for any cause whatever and who enlists for overseas service shall automatically be reinstated and eligible for membership in this association. This, of course, does not apply to professionals." TO THE REGULATIONS. Present clause: 3. No player shall compete in an association match who has not been a bona fide and continuous resident of the town, city or village to which his club belongs since the 1st of August next preceding the date of such match. In case of a player residing in a rural district village or police village, he must play with the O. H. A. club in the nearest town to his residence. A bona fide and continuous resident shall include a teacher or a student who may be absent from home and registered and in actual and regular attendance at lectures at a preparatory school, a High school, a university, or an affiliated college, but such teacher or student shall elect before the date of the first association match and shall notify the secretary of the association, whether he will play with a club where his home is situated or with a club where the said school of learning is located. In case of a sailor who has not been a continuous resident under this rule, he must play with the club of his town, city or village of which he has been a resident from the 1st of January preceding the 1st of August mentioned in this clause. Proposed amendments: By J. Ross Robertson: After word "residence" in the eighth line, insert: "It being understood that a junior player has the privilege of playing in the nearest town to his residence, which has a junior O. H. A. team." By A. H. Schlegel, Preston: After the word "residence," in eighth line, add: "This rule is also to apply (during the war) in the case of a player residing in a town which is not represented in the O. H. A." By James T. Sutherland: After the word "located" in clause 3 of the regulations, 19th line, add: "Provided in case of a player attending a College Institute or High school, such player shall only be granted a certificate when it is shown that such player is attending the nearest Collegiate Institute or High school to his place of residence." By J. Ross Robertson: Add the following: "In case of an enlisted soldier who has not been a continuous resident under this rule he shall have the following options: (1) He may play with the teams in his home town, or (2) He may play with a soldier's team in the town or military district in which he is located, or (3) He may play with any team in the town in which he is located." Present clause: 4. No player shall take part in any Association match unless the captain shall have furnished the referee with a full list of the players and their playing certificates. Certificates shall be issued in the following form: On blue paper for senior, pink paper for intermediate, and white paper for junior series, on application to the secretary of the Association. Proposed amendment: By J. Ross Robertson—Add to Clause 4: "A player shall sign his name in full on the space provided in the certificate and also on the duplicate." By J. Ross Robertson: (A New Rule)—Each club shall have a set of books setting forth the receipts and expenses of each year in detail, which books may be examined by the O. H. A. or any of its officers appointed for such purpose at any time. TO RULES OF COMPETITION. Present clause: 12. Before every game the referee shall receive from the captains of the opposing teams a full list of the players on his side and each man shall answer to his name at the call of the referee. Proposed amendment: By J. Ross Robertson—Add the following: "And shall also sign the name on the referee's report in the presence of the referee." TO RULES OF THE GAME. Present Clause: 10. The game shall be started and renewed by the referee blowing his whistle or calling "Play" after dropping the puck in the centre of the ice between the sticks of two players, one from each team, who are to face it. The players who face the puck must keep the blades of their sticks on the ice until the referee drops the puck. After a goal

JAPAN LEADS

As the Fishing Nation of the World—They Are Very Fond of Sharks.

Tokio, Nov. 1 (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Reports just compiled show that Japan is the leading fishing nation of the world in the number of people who make their living from fishing in the relative importance of fisheries in domestic economy, in the ingenuity and skill of the people in devising fishing apparatus, in the preparation of fish and in the interest shown by the government in promoting fisheries.

It is estimated that one person in 20 in the entire empire is more or less of a fisherman. Fish appear in some form on the table of every Japanese family daily, if not at every meal. The annual value of water products is over $30,000,000. Half a million boats are engaged in fishing, of which 18,000 are more than thirty feet long. Almost a million men are professional fishermen and 1,400,000 more give part of their time to fishing and the rest to farming or other pursuits.

A thousand species of fish have already been identified in Japanese waters and almost every one of them is edible. One of the commonest, and most wholesome, most sought after is the shark, which the western people have never learned to eat. Dogfish, a member of the shark family, found along the north Atlantic coast, would never be permitted to go uncaught in Japan and even the Octopus is a table delicacy. Much fish is eaten raw.

The prominence of fisheries is attributed to the encouragement of officials who have studied the fishing industries in the United States. The Imperial Fisheries Institute at Tokio is one of the finest in the world.

Dr. Edward Stuart, of Boston, is endeavoring through the American and Bulgarian Consulates, to obtain the release of four American physicians who remained at Uskub after the Bulgarian occupation.

The deer forests and grouse moors of Scotland are so far as possible, to be used for the grazing of cattle and sheep, in order to increase the available food supply. It is expected that wherever there is land of this class which can be used to no better purpose than at the present time, landlords and agents will co-operate with the District Committees of the Department of Agriculture in making it available.

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

A feud has existed between Colonel Arthur Stanley and his cousin, Judge Lamar Stanley, over an heirloom, the diamond from the sky, found in a fallen meteor by an ancestor. Also, the succession to the Stanley earldom in England may come to an American. When a daughter is born to the colonel and the mother dies, the colonel buys a gypsy boy and substitutes him. Three years later the gypsy mother, having had no part in this bargain, steals the girl, being reared in secret, and leaves her son undetected as the heir. The gypsy has obtained possession of the diamond from the sky, and a document which the Stanley secret. When Esther is grown a beautiful young girl, Hagar, now gypsy queen, returns to Virginia with her. Dr. Lee, the late Colonel Stanley's friend, adopts Esther, but demands that Hagar turn over to him the diamond from the sky. Arthur Stanley, son of Hagar, falls in love with Esther and so does his companion and cousin, Blair Stanley, rightful heir of Stanley. In stealing the diamond Blair causes the death of the doctor. Outside is Arthur serenading Esther, Blair, escaping, infers that he has left Esther's room. Arthur forces him to fight a duel in which Blair is only stunned. He tries, with the aid of his mother, to place the blame for the murder of Dr. Lee upon Arthur, who now has the diamond. The sheriff attempts to take Arthur, but he eludes his pursuers and joins Hagar, who reveals his identity and upbraids him for his wild life. Needing money, he pawns the diamond in Richmond. Blair is in Richmond, and he, too, is forced to visit the pawnshop. The two agree to stand by each other. At a ball, at which a supposed New York belle is the guest of honor, they are stuned to find the diamond on the victim who is an adventurer who has borrowed it. While Hagar is telling the "belles" fortune Luke Lovell, Hagar's gypsy guard, steals the diamond and to avoid detection drops it into a mail box. A sheriff tries to arrest Arthur on the murder charge. He escapes from Richmond on a freight train. The diamond passes into a mail bag, which is lost from a wagon and is picked up by Quabba, an organ grinder. Quabba's monkey steals the diamond and leaves it in a nest in a tree. Arthur is robbed by hoboos, who leave him in haters. He seeks work at a farm. Hagar takes Esther to live at Stanley hall. An old time tournament is held. Arthur attends in disguise, proves himself the best knight, defeating Blair, but is betrayed by the latter to the sheriff. Quabba, in best, handcuffs the sheriff and Blair.

CHAPTER XIII.

"The Fox and the Pig."
THE knights of the tournament, now frenzied with excitement, pressed on Arthur, effectually barring his way to the gate. These hot headed young Virginians had been the friends, comrades and admirers of Arthur from boyhood up, but the death of Dr. Lee and Arthur's flight had filled them with bitter resentment

King Gustav V. of Sweden, is the latest monarch to cause anxiety to the allies. It is well known that the Swedish people are more than friendly to the British, but they distrust and fear Russia. The German propagandist has been endeavoring for the past year and a half to magnify the Russian bogey, to which policy the king seems to lend his support. His raising of Sir Sven Hedin to the peerage is good evidence of his pro-German sympathies, as Hedin has been most marked in his anti-Ally attitude. The against their former companion. Everybody in Fairfax had loved Dr. Lee. There was none who had been the recipient of his genial kindnesses more than Arthur. Hence, when to shield Blair because he believed he had wronged him in being the usurper heir of Stanley, Arthur had by his flight and disappearance accepted the onus of guilt. All Fairfax was in anger heat against him.

The struggle of the young horsemen seeking to stay and capture the now betrayed and unmasked Arthur took place directly in front of the grand stand.

The excited crowd watched the titan struggle of the centaurs in tense silence for a brief moment, but above the sounds of struggle rose the hoarse voice of the sheriff as he struggled excitedly to "loosen himself from the handcuffs with which the tricky Quabba had bound him to Blair.

On his part Blair held back, as though the steel manacle on his wrist was a prophetic stigma.

The bold eyes of Vivian Marston were directed in frank admiration toward the superb feats of horsemanship and strength of Arthur's efforts.

Fascinated also as they watched the struggle below them, Esther and Hagar had forgotten the sting of the humiliation they had been subjected to in being snubbed and ignored by Mrs. Lamar Stanley, her cousin, Mrs. Randolph, the society leader from Richmond, and Vivian Marston just at the moment when Arthur as the masked victorious knight had come to crown fair Esther.

A wild cry rose in unison from the crowded stand, and men, women and children arose excitedly and shrieked as Arthur suddenly wheeled his horse and drove it to the far end of the grand stand and up the lower stairs and right in among the spectators.

When the horse reached the center aisle, the crowd in panic-breaking the seats and benches as they gave way before horse and rider, Arthur turned the gallant Starlight up this central passage, waved to Esther and Hagar as he thundered by, then, breasting his horse at the back rail of the stand, he plunged with Starlight down from the back of the stand to the ground, some fifteen feet below.

At a meeting of the committee held on the 28th to consider the new situation created by the course of subscribers' meeting; it was resolved as follows:
1. That in order to carry out the instructions given by the subscribers' meeting that the subscribers who desire to withdraw their subscriptions, whether paid in or still due, be requested to make applications in writing to the Secretary, George Hately, Court House, on or before the 2nd day of December; whereupon as soon as the applications can be authenticated, the Treasurer be authorized to pay back or release said subscriptions.
2. That in the opinion of the committee, it is desirable to save as much as possible of the fund which has been raised by so much labor, and with this end in view, the committee appeals to the subscribers generally to allow their subscriptions to stand on the following understanding—
a. "That the money left in the fund after all withdrawals will be paid over in equal parts to the Patriotic and War Relief Fund, and to the Canadian Red Cross Fund, respectively."
b. "That some day shortly after December and a meeting of subscribers be called at which the financial statement will be presented, and authority be asked by the committee to distribute the fund for the above named purposes."
3. That this minute be published in each issue of Expositor and Courier up to the second of December for the information of subscribers so that they may take such action as they think proper.
The signatures attached are those of the members of the committee who were present at the meeting, at which the above minute was approved.

situation is further complicated by the personality of the king. He has never submitted to the democratic views of the Swedish people nor to their desire for a very limited monarchy. Gustav aims to be an absolute monarch like the German emperor. He has had a number of difficulties with his parliament and was also largely responsible for the separation of Norway and Sweden when as Crown Prince he tried to coerce the Norwegians by force of arms. The fact that his wife is a German princess further explains his pro-German attitude.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food, will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of California Syrup of Figs, to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow.
Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

"MACHINE GUN" AND "EQUIPMENT" FUND.

At a meeting of the Subscribers to the Fund for the purchase of Machine Guns, Ambulances, etc., held in the City Council Chamber last Thursday evening objections were made by many subscribers to the distribution of the money as recommended by the committee. The objection was chiefly based on reports which have appeared at various times in the newspapers that the government does not wish money for Machine Guns. After discussion the following amendment to the original motion was carried—"That this meeting stand adjourned for one week; that in the meantime applications be received from the subscribers for refund of their subscriptions and that the committee be authorized to pay the same on application."
At a meeting of the committee held on the 28th to consider the new situation created by the course of subscribers' meeting; it was resolved as follows:
1. That in order to carry out the instructions given by the subscribers' meeting that the subscribers who desire to withdraw their subscriptions, whether paid in or still due, be requested to make applications in writing to the Secretary, George Hately, Court House, on or before the 2nd day of December; whereupon as soon as the applications can be authenticated, the Treasurer be authorized to pay back or release said subscriptions.

BISHOP FARTHING

Is Warmly Welcomed at Grace Church—Feeling
Reference to Rector.

The visit of His Lordship, Bishop Farmington to Grace Church on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29th, was a most memorable and enjoyable event.

Many years ago when a young man of name, Paul G. Woodcock, conducted a series of services in the same edifice and then made many warm and abiding friendships. Many then felt that should his life be spared he would attain high preferment in the church and so it has proved.

He is every inch a bishop, and also every inch a man. A characteristic incident was when one of his former Woodstock parishioners, who here called on him in the vesty, thinking perhaps that with the lapse of time he would not readily be recalled to the Bishop's memory, greeted, and they had a long talk over old times.

His Lordship addressed the 8th Battalion at their early morning service in a most impressive way, and at the regular service at 10 o'clock pretreated his address by expressing the great pleasure with which, after so long a time he again occupied Grace Church pulpit. His happy relations with here could never forget the clear, calm, and He was also deeply glad to be once more with their beloved rector, and in fact a father, and to whom he owed so much.

By request the Bishop delivered a missionary sermon, dwelling in fervent and eloquent terms upon the many activities of the Church of England in the world.

There was a large and delighted congregation. The choir under the efficient conductorship of Mr. F. C. Thomas, rendered most effectively the anthems.

“Hark, tis the Watchman's cry, Wake, Brethren, Wake.”
In the afternoon His Lordship was motored to Woodstock where he took evening service in his old parish church.

GREAT CROWDS AT ST. ANDREWS' ANNIVERSARY

Harold Jarvis, Famous Singer, Rendered Solos in Splendid Voice.

Rev. Mr. McGillivray, Hamilton, Preached Two Eloquent Sermons.

The anniversary services at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on Sunday were of a most inspiring and successful character. There was a very large congregation in the morning, and in the evening extra seats had to be brought into commission.

The preacher of the day was the Rev. A. H. McGillivray, M.A., of Hamilton, who gave two most scholarly discourses. His diction leaves nothing to be desired, and both sermons were of the good for thought in the minds of his hearers. In the evening his patriotic references to the war were most thrilling and convincing. St. Andrew's pulpit has rarely if ever, been occupied by a more able occupant.

The musical part of the services were of a thoroughly delightful character. Mr. Harold Jarvis, the well-known tenor of Detroit, was the soloist. His voice has lost none of its resonance or roundness. It is to-day as smooth and even as it was twenty-five years ago, whilst his artistry is as perfect as ever. His numbers were in the morning, “Out of the Depths” from the Oratorio of Nain (Norris), and “I know not Why,” by Vanderbuter. In the evening, “Beyond the Dawn,” (Sanderson), “The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere,” (by special request), and “Ninety and Nine” (Campbell) were the selections. The latter number was especially given a soulful rendition.

Mr. S. P. Davies, the choir-master of St. Andrew's, has really a most capable choir, with well balanced sections. Gounod's “Come Unto Him” was the morning anthem, and Rossi's “Lord of Heaven,” the evening. Mr. S. P. Davis and Mr. John Anderson took the duet in this latter anthem in a most acceptable manner. Mr. K. Tennant, the organist of the church, admirably accompanied Mr. Jarvis. His voluntary in the morning, McDowell's “To a Wild Rose,” was an exceptionally dainty offering.

St. Andrew's church was completely filled last evening by 6.45, and still people crowded in.

Mr. Jarvis sang three solos in the evening, “Ninety and Nine,” and “The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere” were perhaps the best, although the third one was exceedingly rich and beautiful.

Rev. Mr. McGillivray of Hamilton, gave a splendid sermon. He based his address on the text, “All things are yours and ye are Christ's as Christ's earthlings to God.”

Great earthly wisdom may be possessed by any human being if he uses the stepping stones in life provided by God, as stepping stones, and not as stumbling blocks.

Some people complain of having to stand in a mud handicap. The greatest of these is considered to be that of poverty. In reality, however, it is not the poor man's son who starts on life's way with a handicap to burden him, but the rich man's son. The speaker gave a clear and convincing illustration of this point. All supposed handicaps placed before good men are but stepping stones to success. They are overcome and used to his benefit.

Mr. McGillivray told of the River Rhone in Europe, a clear, strong stream, which flowed along for a way beside a mud polluted stream. These joined and the clear stream, the Rhone, predominated and cleansed the waters of the other. So could a good, clean life predominate over all evil influences which were but elements towards a future success and greatness of the individual who overcomes them.

SOAKING WET;
YET “FINE SIR”
SAY THE MEN

Lt.-Col. Colquhoun pays eloquent tribute to the men under him in a letter to his wife, received to-day. He states that the men relieve him for four days at a time—they cannot stand it any longer. Of the soldiers the Colonel says—

“They are the best body of men in the world. I never heard one of them grumble. When I go round at night and it is pouring rain, they are either singing or telling stories, and the poor fellows are wet to the hide. When I ask them how they are, the answer is always the same, “Fine, sir.”

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED.

Brantford people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, often relieve or prevent appendixitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves most ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach, etc., and shows treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-ika has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. M. H. Robertson, Limited.
