ARTHUR HUNT CHUTE MAY BE CANDIDATE

For Kings—Hunts in Coming Federal Election—Has Had Wide and Varied Experience

Our brilliant young townsman, Mr. Arthur Hunt Chute, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Chute, Westwood avenue, has recently returned from Labrador, where he has been gathering material for the publication of a new book. Although a traveller in many lands he is first and foremost a Nova Scotian. In an interview with THE ACADIAN, commenting on local conditions, Mr. Chute said:

"In a Province that is fighting with its back to the wall, bitter partisanship belongs to the discard. Never mind what side he's on, never mind whether he's Grit or Tory. The call of our Province right now is more insistent than the call of party. The time has come when we must stand together, united and undivided, for the good of Nova Scotia."

The ACADIAN is authorized by Mr. Chute to say that in the approaching federal election it is his intention to be in the running for the candidacy of the constituency of Kings—Hants, and that he would esteem it a high honor to give the services of any talents that he may possess for the advancement of this most highly favored section. Mr. Chute has had a wide newspaper experience having been a war correspondent in the first and second Balkan Wars and later in North Africa, Mexico and South America.

His syndicate articles have appeared in a chain of papers across the continent. He has been a magazine contributor to Blackwoods, Harpers, MacLean's, Saturday Evening Post, Colliers, North American Review, etc. His "Wall Street Sermons", appearing on the front page of Wall Street Journal, have struck a responsive chord. He is the author of "The Real Front", "Roaring Tides", was listed among the six great poets of the war.

The North American Review says: "His writings have won for him immediate recognition." "Mr. Chute, speaking of his work, 'May I say I read every word you write. The Star and other papers with great interest and admiration.'"

As a speaker, Mr. Chute is well known both sides of the Atlantic. His address delivered before the Halifax Commercial Club is still spoken of as one of the most arousing ever heard in that city. He has spoken on the floor of the House Exchange in New York, before the National Association of American Bankers, and before the Chambers of Commerce of leading American and Canadian cities.

There is a strong call upon Arthur Chute from the western end of the County and I understand that Chute has agreed to allow his name some time before the convention for nomination.

It is a pleasure in backing Mr. Chute, first on moral grounds as a young man of sterling integrity who can be relied upon by those who give him support. Mr. Chute has qualifications of world travel and experience acquaintance with foreign markets and trade conditions, both home and abroad.

As a speaker he has qualifications beyond the ordinary and both with the pen and the tongue he is a young man of promising future, an out and out Nova Scotian and one of the type who back to represent us in the best of the word.

GOOD MARKET FOR NOVA SCOTIA APPLES

Growers Must Pack Their Fruit Well, Says English Buyer.

"Nova Scotia will hold her own in the fruit markets of England if her apple growers will only pack their fruit well," was the statement recently made by P. T. Samuel, representative of a firm of London fruit merchants, who is spending some weeks in the Valley. Of the entire fruit crop of England this year only about ten per cent. of it is good fruit of first class order, said Mr. Samuel, but the market was such that Nova Scotians must send over good fruit or there would be no money in it. With good packing and clean fruit from this Province, the prospects of good markets were excellent, Mr. Samuel thought, although he would not commit himself too definitely on prices. His own firm desired to handle about one hundred thousand barrels of apples. The best English varieties were already on the markets, and it was now ready to the Nova Scotia producer to send his fruit in good state. Gravensteins, he thought, should do well, and the first shipment of that variety is expected to leave Halifax on the 15th of this month.

As far as London was concerned, Mr. Samuel said there were five firms that handled Nova Scotia first class fruit. There were firms which handled lower grades of Nova Scotia fruit and those firms, Mr. Samuel claimed, did more harm than good by the type of Nova Scotia fruit they placed on the market. Asked if there was any steady demand for Nova Scotia apples to be shipped in boxes, Mr. Samuel replied that so far as he knew he believed that the Nova Scotia shipper should continue packing in barrels, but he again emphasized the need of packing being given the utmost care.

Nova Scotia shipped about 1,400,000 barrels to Great Britain last year. This year the entire crop for commercial purposes is considerably below that amount, the Government authorities placing the crop at 1,219,000 barrels. Warning is also being given that shippers from this island should have a bank inquiry as to the standing of the firms to which they are shipping. The American crop is very large and in excellent condition, but these shipments to Great Britain are largely for desert while those from Nova Scotia are more of the cooking variety.

TITLE CREATES MUCH INTEREST
"Greater Than Marriage" Has Everyone Speculating

The title of the picture to be shown at the Orpheum Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday creates more than the usual amount of interest. The question that most persons are asking is "What is Greater Than Marriage?" A number of suggestions have been offered as a solution to the problem; but few are correct, according to the answer in the photograph.

Victor Hugo Halperin's production "Greater Than Marriage" is an adaptation of the novel, "Joan Thursday," by Louis Joseph Vance. The story revolves around a young girl who seeks to follow upon the steps of her mother and gain fame upon the stage. She realizes that her mother sacrificed a brilliant career for marriage and does not intend to have her life blighted in similar manner. The cast includes Marjorie Day, Lou Tellegen, Peggy Kelly, Tyrone Power, Raymond Godowsky, Mary Thurman, Raymond Bloomer and Effie Shannon.

WOLFVILLE BALL TEAM LOSES AT KENTVILLE

A thrilling ninth inning rally that netted them two runs gave Kentville a 7 to 6 victory over the Wolfville baseball team at Kentville on Monday morning. The game was exciting throughout, first one team leading and then the other. Features of the game were the splendid twirling of Schofield and the heavy batting of C. Munro, who drove out two singles and a home run. Wolfville—Dick, 3b; Saunders, 2b; C. Munro, c; Bartheaux, s.; Kennedy, 1b; Rudolf, 1b; Gould, c.f.; Patriquin, r.f.; Elderkirk, 1b; D. Munro, p. Mr. C. M. Gormley has sold his property on Maple avenue to Mr. William B. Hardwick, who will occupy it in the near future. Mr. Hardwick is one of Wolfville's oldest citizens both in point of age and residence. For the past few years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. F. K. Trenholm, at Grand Pre. Well over ninety he is still many, many more active than many men of his age. Old residents of the town will be very glad to welcome him back again and will join THE ACADIAN in wishing for him continued mental and physical health.

FOURTH CANADIAN TOUR BY THE VANNINI SYMPHONY ENSEMBLE

Of exceeding interest is the announcement that the Vannini Symphony Ensemble, that wonderful organization of thirteen prominent members from the Boston Symphony Orchestra, is to make a fourth tour of the Eastern Provinces this month. It will be recalled that when this aggregation of artists played in Wolfville last year, their performance was the most talked of event of the musical season here. Inasmuch as the Boston Symphony Orchestra does not open its season in Boston until the first week of October, these artists are able to make the Canadian tour, other community to have this concert. Several of the members are returning from abroad three weeks earlier than usual so that they can fill the Canadian bookings. Augusto Vannini, the eminent conductor, will again wield the baton and promises an unusually attractive and well-balanced program. Jesus Maria Santorra, the Spanish piano virtuoso who created such a sensation last year, will once more be heard as soloist.

Reviewing last season's concert our press writes as follows: "A large audience greeted the Orchestral Ensemble and Signor Vannini. It was a welcome and an assurance of popularity which noticeably pleased Signor Vannini and the members of the Ensemble. With what delight the audience was thrilled to the music of the Vannini Symphony Ensemble may be judged by the fact that the band was compelled to give five encores."—Halifax Herald. "Thirteen musicians of the Boston Symphony Orchestra rendered a program with all the melody and fire that has made that orchestra the leading one of this continent. The audience sat enraptured as selection after selection was played, at the close of each one breaking into rapturous applause."—St. John Globe.

THEFT OF AUTO IS ALLEGED

On Saturday last Leslie Hanco, of Aldershot, was charged with having made a get away with a car belonging to his neighbor, Harold Simmons. He was not long outside the clutches of the law, however, for Provincial Constable Hall located him shortly afterwards at Port Williams, where he was employed as apple picker. Mr. Hall had the car locked up in a garage in Wolfville, and proceeded to Kentville with the prisoner, where he was placed in the County Jail. He was remanded to stand trial today.

ELECTORAL MACHINERY SET IN MOTION

Colonel Biggar, Chief Electoral Officer, Announces the Initial Steps in the Election Procedure.

OTTAWA, Sept. 6.—The electoral machinery has been set in motion. Writs of election were prepared Saturday for despatch to the returning officers in all of the 241 electoral districts in Canada, October 22 is nomination day, and October 29 polling day. Colonel O. M. Biggar, Chief Electoral Officer, gives the following account of the initial steps in the election procedure:

"Upon the receipt of the writ addressed to him, each returning officer will publish a proclamation specifying the days fixed for nomination and polling. On October 29th for polling in all electoral districts, and October 22nd for nomination except in twenty electoral districts in which nominations close on October 15th. This proclamation will be posted up in every post office in the electoral district, and copies of it will also be sent to each person who was a candidate at the last election therein. The proclamation will state which of the polling divisions in the electoral district are urban and which are rural. In some electoral districts there are only rural polling divisions, in some there are only urban, and in most districts there are polling divisions of both kinds.

Preparation of Lists. "All polling divisions in cities and towns having a population of 5,000 or more are urban, as are also the polling divisions in certain other places not specifically incorporated as cities or towns, but having either so dense or so transient a population that the Chief Electoral Officer has directed that the polling divisions they contain should be treated in the same way as polling divisions in cities and large towns. The preparation of lists of voters in rural polling divisions will not commence until over three weeks hence, but in urban polling divisions registrars will be at once appointed. To each urban registrar there will be allotted a registration district consisting of about twenty to seven urban polling divisions and containing a population of about 4,000 people, and in each district the registrar will open an office, of which public notice will be given by notices posted up by the several registrars in the polling divisions allotted to them respectively. The registrars will be in attendance at these offices from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m., and from 6 p. m. to 8 p. m. on the six week-days, commencing on Thursday, September 10.

"Any person qualified to vote may go to the registrar for the polling division in which he resides, and cause his name to be entered on the list. If there are in existence Provincial lists which would be used with or without revision at a Provincial election if one were being held at the same time, persons whose names appear on such lists need not attend to registrar, since the registrars will transfer to their preliminary Provincial lists all the names which the electoral lists contain. Otherwise everyone must attend in person to register unless he is ill or away from home, in which event only his name may be registered by a relative or employer."

"By a new provision made at the last session of Parliament each urban registrar is required to permit the presence of a representative of each recognized and opposed political interest in the electoral district. Though such representatives have no right to intervene in the proceedings, this new right will doubtless be widely taken advantage of in order that political parties may obtain early information as to the contents of the lists and progress of registration."

PLANE SERVES BIRD WARDEN

The Air Service co-operated with the Migratory Bird Act in law enforcement on Monday when Major T. A. Laurence, of Geological Survey of Ottawa, conveyed R. W. Tufts, Wolfville, Federal Bird Warden for the Maritime Provinces, from Fredericton to Bridgewater by sea-plane. They crossed the Bay of Fundy in twenty-two minutes, flew directly over Annapolis, thence to Lockeport, and Bridgewater, returning to Yarmouth for the night.

While crossing over Port Mouton, Mr. Tufts dropped a written message to his brother, Dr. H. G. Tufts, of Jamaica Plains, who is spending his vacation at his summer home there, and could see him pick it up. Mr. Tufts is enthusiastic about the possibilities of a bird patrol from the air in enforcing the migratory laws.

REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS IN WOLFVILLE

Furnished by Mr. Stephen MacIntosh Who is Now in His 95th Year

One of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of this section is Mr. Stephen MacIntosh, who some months ago came with his wife and other members of his family to make their home in this town, purchasing the old Hardwick place at the corner of Highland avenue and Pleasant street.

A representative of THE ACADIAN called upon Mr. MacIntosh one day last week and spent a most enjoyable and profitable hour or more in his company. To note his erect bearing, cheery voice and youthful appearance, and to listen to the clear manner in which he remembers and recounts the doings of a past generation one would never imagine that his age was well on towards the century mark.

Born at Grand Pre over ninety-four years ago on what was later the John Faulkner place, he came with his family to reside in Wolfville when he was three years old. Until he reached the age of ten his father continued to live in this town which was then a very small village. For a time they occupied what was known as "the old red house" which stood at the rear of the site now occupied by St. Andrew's church on the farm of the late Stephen DeWolfe, and later in a house which stood on the site of the present residence of Mr. George A. Prat.

Mr. DeWolfe was one of the old time family which gave Wolfville its name. His home was the old dwelling which stood just west of the hardware store of Mr. L. W. Sleep, and was destroyed by fire in the spring of 1915 when well over a hundred years old. Mr. MacIntosh worked for him when a boy and gives many interesting reminiscences. One of his duties was to take the cows to pasture and go to them at night, letting them into the lane leading to the pasture through a set of bars at what is now Gaspareau avenue.

The present business section of Wolfville was then divided into farms, the main thoroughfare being lined by pole and brush fences. To keep these fences which bounded his property so that wandering flocks of geese and ducks could not get through was one of the jobs which young MacIntosh was entrusted with.

Some Old Dwellings
On the south side of what is now Main street, between Highland avenue and "Mud Creek", were then five dwellings occupied by "Poppy" Fowler, Elijah Fowler, Stephen DeWolfe, "the red house" and the Woodworth house. Mr. MacIntosh is not able to say whether any of these now remain or not. The Woodworth house was burned and rebuilt between eighty and ninety years ago. He well remembers a child watching it burn from his father's home.

On the north side of the street, the present St. John's church was then standing. Next to it was the dwelling occupied now by Mrs. F. C. Bishop, then the home of Dr. Johnson; the Harding place (now the Armstrong place); next the Thompson Hotel, which stood until probably twenty-five years ago opposite where St. Andrew's church now is; then the Andrew DeWolfe home, now occupied by Mr. John Eye and family.

Wolfville had only one real "store" in those days, which stood on the corner now occupied by Mr. J. D. Harris' grocery. It was the chief centre of public gatherings were held there. Next came the dwelling of Mrs. Israel DeWolfe, where the Bank of Montreal now is, then George Graham's hotel, now the "Central House", and on what is now the "campus" the home of Joseph DeWolfe, latter.

What is now the Randall place was then occupied as a school for young women by Mrs. Best, who later conducted her school in the house now occupied by Mrs. Stackhouse. She had three sons, one of whom, William, was a member of Franklin's Arctic party, and was never heard from after.

Mr. MacIntosh attended a boys' school in the house now occupied by Mr. Henry White at "Scotts Corner". After returning to Grand Pre he worked for a number of well known families of that place, including Miss Nellie Leard, who had a large place. Finally, over forty years ago he purchased the farm on which he resided until coming to Wolfville. This place he bought for $1400 and greatly improved, planting an orchard and generally enhancing its value. He sold it for practically $7000.

ACADIA SEMINARY HAS RECORD ATTENDANCE

Strong Staff of Teachers and Outlook Bright for a Banner Year

Acadia Ladies' Seminary was reopened for the new term on Friday last with an unusually large attendance of pupils and excellent prospect for a still larger increased registration.

Rev. Dr. DeWolfe, who recently retired from the principalship after twenty-four years of devoted and efficient service, for all faculty work at the University in the Department of Testament Languages and Literature, is still directing the affairs of the Seminary in the absence of his successor, who has not yet been selected.

Miss Adella G. Jackson, M.A., who for thirty years has been a valued member of the teaching staff, has been granted a year's leave of absence and her place is taken by Mrs. Mary Mercer, of Paradise, who will teach mathematics and science.

The place of Mrs. Donald Grant, M.A., who has given a leave of absence, is taken in the history by Miss Mary E. St. John. Others who staff this year are: Miss Langley, a foreign language instructor in violin and orchestra; Grace E. McNeil, a general classes, and Miss E. Macdonald, associate in household science. Miss Mary Whitley takes charge of the Normal Work in Piano-forte.

In view of the increasing number of young women who desire higher work in household science, a four year course in household economics, leading to the degree of B.Sc., has been established. For this department Miss Frances McNally, B.Sc., for some years connected with this department at Gunder. Miss McNally is a graduate of Columbia University, and an authority in her work.

All in all the Seminary has never been more strongly staffed than at present. Students are registering from all parts of the Maritime Provinces, Newfoundland, Massachusetts, New York, Maine, Alberta, etc.

BIOLOGISTS ARE AT WORK IN GUYSBORO

Expedition Being Undertaken by Faculty of Acadia and Harvard.

Guysboro county is now the scene of a biological expedition undertaken by Botanists and Zoologists who are specialists in their line of work. Acadia University has shown a marked interest in natural history and this expedition is being undertaken with a view to books being published on the fauna and flora of Nova Scotia by members of its biological faculty in collaboration with students from the Botany Department of Harvard University. The specimens being obtained are to be placed in the Herbarium and Museum of Acadia and duplicates are to be presented to Harvard University. Scientific observations will be made on the following subjects: The Geographical Relationships of Guysboro, Flora Plant Diseases, Fungi, especially the timber destroying forms, also both fresh water forms and marine. Special attention will be directed towards noting whether the bud worm of the spruce at present causing so much damage to that tree in Cape Breton is to be found in Guysboro county. As many insects will be collected as opportunity permits.

Among the members of expedition are professors H. G. Perry and R. H. Wetmore, of Acadia University; G. C. Hicks, A.M., and A. Reginald Prince, A.M., of the Botany Department of Harvard.

Rev. H. B. Camp, who was in attendance at the recent Baptist Convention, was the speaker at the Baptist church on Sunday evening. He is a graduate from Acadia University in the class of 1923 and from Newton in 1925. While a student at the latter institution he was pastor of the First Baptist church at Natick, Mass. Rev. Mr. Camp has recently accepted a call to the pulpit of the Calvary Baptist church at New Haven, Conn., where it is understood, he will receive a salary of $5000 per annum.

H. G. HARRIS APPOINTED REGISTRAR OF PROBATE

Just before the recent provincial general election Mr. James Sealy, ex-M.P.P., received the appointment of Registrar of Probate for this county. It is now reported that he has been dismissed from office and that Mr. H. G. Harris, editor of The Advertiser, has been appointed in his stead. It is seldom in this county that newspaper men have received public recognition and THE ACADIAN congratulates Mr. Harris on achieving a position which he is well qualified to fill. Mr. Harris has been throughout his journalistic career an active supporter of the Liberal-Conservative party and it is only due to him that he should be remembered by that party in the time of its ability to do so.

If you are not a regular reader of THE ACADIAN you are invited to accept this copy with the compliments of the publishers. Read its contents carefully and if you are pleased with it send us two dollars and have it come to you every week for a year. This will also entitle you to two coupons which will give you two chances of winning one of the cash prizes referred to elsewhere in this paper.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

PREPARATIONS are being made for the Municipal Elections which are to be held throughout the counties of the province early in November. In some sections considerable interest is already manifest, but not more than the occasion justifies. The selection of good men to manage the public affairs of the municipality means very much to the moral and material interests of the people concerned, and attention given to this most important duty is in no way misplaced.

We are inclined to the opinion that the selection of County Councilors might be very properly regarded as more deserving of careful consideration than the election of either provincial or federal representatives. What is required is men of vision and of good business capacity who will be connected with the office. The fact of their having affiliated with either of the political parties of the country should not be regarded a consideration. Politics should have no place in the conduct of our municipal affairs, and the fact that it has in times past has frequently operated to the disadvantage of public welfare.

In the late provincial election the fact that party affiliations played a rather insignificant part is a hopeful sign that people are getting wiser in this regard. If in the coming contest the electors could be induced to think first of all of the public welfare and support only such men as they confidently believe will work for the same our municipal affairs would be better looked after and the section in which our principal interests are involved would be better governed.

An economic and wise administration of our public affairs is much to be desired, but at the same time there are reforms that are necessary which have not yet engaged the attention of our municipal legislators. We should like to see a public meeting held in every ward at which the people could be got together to discuss the situation in order that the possible issues may be fully understood by the electors.

WOLFVILLE'S OPPORTUNITY

THE PROMOTERS of "Appo Krisp", the new breakfast food, are seeking a suitable location for their plant. It is interesting to note that Wolfville might be chosen if its people are interested. At a meeting of members of the Council and Board of Health held last Thursday evening a representative of the company described the requirements, and the matter is now under consideration by a committee.

We have looked into the proposition pretty fully and are convinced that this is an opportunity which we cannot afford to neglect to secure the presence of an industry well calculated to advance the prosperity of the town and surrounding section. We are not unmindful of the fact that there are those who are inclined to be anything but optimistic concerning the new industry and who declare that even if it does go on Wolfville would stand no chance in the matter of location. It is such a spirit that has hindered progress in by gone days and kept this town, as in fact the whole province, from making that advancement which our natural advantages so eminently warrant.

In these days we hear much about "Maritime Rights" and it is one of the "rights" that these provinces are entitled to that their people should indicate a greater faith in themselves and more enthusiasm concerning the future of their country. Nova Scotians have made good wherever they have gone and there is no place where the possibilities for success are greater than in their own province. If we want this enterprise which should naturally thrive in this section, where all the requisites for manufacture are possible of production. The experience of similar undertakings elsewhere furnishes abundant ground for expectation that under like conditions there are wonderful possibilities for the new project.

THE FEDERAL ELECTION

THE DATE of the next federal election, which has been a popular subject of conjecture for weeks past, has finally been settled. Monday's press despatches gave the information that Canada's fourteenth parliament had been dissolved and that Thursday, October 29th, had been appointed as the day of polling for the election of its successor. The information was given out by Premier King in his constituency, North York, at a meeting held last Saturday, who gave it as his reason for deciding to go to the country was the necessity which has arisen for dealing with the problems of transportation, immigration, fiscal questions and the senate, no one of which he declared can be satisfactorily dealt with by a government without a substantial majority.

There appears to be a superfluity of elections this year in Nova Scotia and most people, we fancy, will be glad when they are all over. It will be a good thing to have the contest behind us instead of still in the offing, well before the season of good will on earth is due. Elections are disturbing at all times and the approaching federal contest is in no way likely to prove an exception to the rule. However, it is the duty of every citizen to take an active interest in the affairs of his country, and in the approaching election be prepared to intelligently and conscientiously deposit a ballot for such representatives and such a policy as seems to them most likely to make for the public weal.

WOLFVILLE'S COMMUNITY SALE

THIS ISSUE of THE ACADIAN contains an important announcement from the merchants of Wolfville, which demands attention. In order to attract business to the town they are offering substantial cash premiums for the two weeks beginning on Tuesday of next week. The announcement contains all the particulars. The proposition is not a gamble but a profit-sharing sale, in which each purchaser without extra cost stands a fair chance of winning. Goods will be sold at the usual prices and every buyer is guaranteed full value for his or her money and in addition an opportunity for every dollar invested to win a substantial prize.
Our advertising columns this week in anticipation of the event will be found of special interest, several of our merchants having taken additional space in order to inform the public of what they have to offer. It is expected that this sale will attract to our town buyers from every section of the county and that the next two weeks will see busy times in Wolfville.

RE-ENGAGED

SAYS VALLEY SHOULD BE DOTTED WITH FRUIT-PRESERVING PLANTS

Harry J. Crowe, Native Nova Scotian, Sees Great Opportunities for Industrial Expansion.

(From the Halifax Herald)
To see the fertile Annapolis Valley dotted with fruit-preserving factories is the ambition of Harry J. Crowe, the well-known Nova Scotian, who has made an extensive study of trade expansion for this Province.
Mr. Crowe is firmly convinced that the future of Canada and particularly of Nova Scotia, depends on increased manufacturing, and that the canning of small fruits is the most logical industry for the Annapolis Valley to turn to, to provide occupation for the people already domiciled there, and to attract other settlers to that district.

Mr. Crowe is a native born Nova Scotian, who started his career as a lumberman in the Annapolis Valley, where he operated, with marked success, mills at different points in this part of the Province, and throughout the years of his operations in other countries, he has kept in intimate touch with the scene of his early activities. It is his opinion that no other part of Canada is better adapted to the raising of small fruits than the Valley, and that the markets of the West Indies whose trade routes are practically at our threshold, will provide the outlet for the products of such factories, were they established.

Mr. Crowe has been an extensive traveller, and for years has been a strong advocate of complete political and commercial union between Canada and the West Indies, and has on many occasions brought to the public notice the benefits that would accrue to this province were such a union consummated.
If sugar were admitted to Canada free of duty, Mr. Crowe believes it would mean the beginning of a great preserving industry in the fruit belts of Nova Scotia, and he has been for some time very outspoken as to the detrimental effect of the present monopoly of the sugar refineries in Canada, also declaring that the sixteen Dutch standard must go; that when it does, preserving, confectionery and biscuit manufacturing plants will be established and provide far more labor than the present five sugar refineries could ever offer.
Mr. Crowe, who is now in Newfoundland, where he has large lumber interests, plans to return to Nova Scotia this fall.

ADVERTISING DID IT

Wrigley, the chewing gum man has explained how he built up a business of millions of packages a day.
He has done it by sticking to his one line and advertising it. He spends over a million dollars a year in buying newspaper space to tell the world about 5 cent chewing gum. He has educated people to chew gum and to chew Wrigley's. He did not stop shouting as soon as he attracted attention.
He says you must keep it up or the buyers will forget you. Whether yours is a 5 cent or a $50,000 business, keep telling about it.

APPOINTMENTS AT ACADIA ANNOUNCED

Three Departmental Heads are Regarded as Valuable Accessions to University Faculty

President Patterson announced last week the faculty appointments made at a recent meeting of the Board of Governors of Acadia University: Mrs. Blanche McLean, Dean of Women and Instructor in Public Speaking; Miss Frances McNally, B.Sc., Head of the Department of Household Economics; Thomas A. Hancock, M.A., Ph.D., Professor of Physiology and Education.
Mrs. McLean, who is credited with having done excellent work as instructor in public speaking during the past year, is adding to her duties the work of the dean of women.
Miss McNally is a graduate of Columbia University, where she has received the degree of B.Sc. and M.A. in household economics. In addition, she has taken advanced work in the pedagogy of household economics and in administration. For some years she has been head of this department at Guelph Agricultural College.
Dr. Hancock is a graduate of McGill University and of Hartford Theological Seminary. His graduate work in Psychology and Education has been done at Clark University, under G. Stanley Hall. From this institution he received the degree of Ph.D. He is regarded as a man of fine character, of excellent scholarship, and of marked teaching ability.

All of these are considered valuable accessions to the Acadia faculty.
Professor Ralph H. Wetmore, Ph.D., whose appointment to the department of Biology was announced last year, is already at work. After receiving the degree of Ph.D. from Harvard University, Dr. Wetmore was awarded by the Washington government and during the past year he has been doing research work. The problem upon which he has been working has been recognized by the United States government as of sufficient importance to justify a further expenditure of time. Dr. Wetmore, in addition to teaching in the department of biology, will continue his research in this special field.
The prospect for new registrations in the University is excellent, it is stated. Already the women's residences are crowded and it is necessary to secure additional housing accommodation. The number of male students in attendance will also be large.

"AT HOME" HELD AT ALDERSHOT

Lieutenant-Colonel B. W. Roscoe, D.S.O., and officers of the King's (N. S.) Mounted Rifles, set aside thoughts of daily military routine, in favor of the social side of life, when on Friday evening they were "At Home" to some one hundred and fifty guests at the Headquarters Officers Mess, Aldershot Camp.
The hostesses were Mrs. B. W. Roscoe, Mrs. T. A. Lydiard, and Mrs. R. Innes. Music for dancing was furnished by the Rainbow Orchestra of Kentville. The lovely gowns of the ladies and uniforms of the officers, made a brilliant showing at this enjoyable function. A buffet supper was served in a marquee in the grounds adjoining.

FIREMEN STAGE BIG SHOW AT KENTVILLE

Labor Day Program Included Marching Parade and Long List of Sporting Events

Two thousand people attended the sports held at Kentville on Monday under the auspices of the Kentville Fire Department and the Railway Labor Unions.

The program started with a marching parade at one-thirty, led by Marshal John Tobin, followed by the Kentville Citizens' Band and members of the Labor Unions and Fire Department. Numerous floats were in the procession. Among those represented were Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Independent Order of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, Rotary Club, I. O. D. E. (representing Red Cross, with Miss Rhoda Nixon as Florence Nightingale, and Misses Dorothy Lloyd and Cora Munroe as nurses), Independent Association of Machinists, Dingville Fire Department, 1825, Junior Fire Department, Hobo Band, (Sanatorium), Acadia Lodge, Youths' Jazz Band, Evangeline Lodge and others.

The parade ended at Memorial Park, where the judges—Mayor Pelton, A. E. MacMahon, K. Kelly, Dr. Saunders, A. E. H. Chesley and George E. Graham—awarded the prizes to the following: 1st prize, Acadia Lodge; 2nd, Junior Fire Department.

The sports program was then carried off in good time. Competition was close in all the events. Features of the sports was the fine all-round work of Walden Kennedy, who, with 16 points, was the individual star of the day, winning the pole vault, high jump and broad jump, and taking third in the 220. Perhaps the best event of the day was the pole vault, Kennedy clearing the bar at 9 feet 10 inches, while E. Leitch was second, with 9 feet 8 inches.

The tug-of-war provided some great sport. A team representing the Nova Scotia hospital, Dartmouth, pulling the Kentville Fire Department in four minutes and forty seconds. The town team defeated the band, but forfeited to the Dartmouth boys.

Music was furnished by the Citizens' Band, under the direction of A. H. Morash, and by the Sanatorium Band, led by Mr. Cooper. Following are the results of the sports:

100 yds. dash—1, Anderson, Dartmouth; 2, Webber, Dartmouth; 3, Reniston, Kentville. Time, 11 sec.

One half mile—1, Meister, Kentville; 2, McGinnis. Time, 2:33.

220 yards—1, McGinnis; 2, Jarvis. Fat Men's race—1, R. Taylor, Kentville; 2, Ed. Jordan. Time, 15 seconds.

Officials—Announcer, J. Roy Hiltz; Starter, Fred Hiltz; Timers, R. T. Caldwell, M.P.P., Harry Newcombe; Judges, Walter McNamara, R. B. Walsh, R. Taylor, B. Schofield, James Gallagher; Secretary, F. W. Bailey; Scorer, H. W. Porter.

The day's program ended with a street dance, held in the evening on Webster street, which was roped off to accommodate the dancers. Hundreds of couples were in the dancing space, with a great number of people as spectators. Lander's orchestra furnished the music. Mayor A. L. Pelton presented the prizes to the day's winners, congratulating them on their good work. Ideal weather helped to make the day a great success.

Activities both athletic and humorous, inspiring band music and dancing, marked the Labor Day celebration.

Exciting Footrace
Not to be outdone by the "laddies", two of Kentville's older "sports", in the persons of Dr. B. S. Bishop and Harry Newcombe, staged a hilarious frolic when at 10 a. m., they met at the Capitol Theatre for a race "around the square". This event created friendly rivalry and brought forth spontaneous applause from some five hundred spectators.

J. Roy Hiltz was starter and Harry Newcombe sprinted his way to victory over the one-third mile course, in 2.07 minutes. The Doctor tied Newcombe to within twenty feet of the goal, when a little extra effort by Mr. Newcombe won for him the race.

From the door of the theatre, Mr. Newcombe thanked the spectators for the keen interest they had taken in the affair, at the conclusion of which Mayor Pelton, on behalf of the "city", presented Mr. Newcombe with a bouquet of sunflowers gaily beribboned with red. Mr. Newcombe also received the wager, $5, from the hands of Warren Wheaton, official stake holder.

$1000.00 CANADIAN NATIONAL-FLAG COMPETITION

Rules and Suggestions
We respectfully invite public attention to the following resolution passed by our Executive June 12th, and trust that it will meet with a ready response—

(c) No design to be less than two feet in length.

Designs should be sent in a separate enclosure with name and address of the contestant on the outside upper left-hand corner of package, addressed to F. W. Crawford, Secretary-Treasurer, Native Sons of Canada, 570 Granville street, Vancouver, B. C.

The doubling of the award of $500.00 is contingent on the adoption of our approved design by Parliament next session.

PAY-DAY

'Twas the night before pay-day
And all through my jeans
I was searching in vain
For the price of some beans.
But nothing was doing
The milled edge had quit—
Not a copper was showing,
Not even a "jit".
Forward! Turn forward!
Oh time in your flight,
Make it tomorrow just for tonight!

HOW AN EXPERT FARMS ORCHARD

No man stood higher in the production of orchard fruits during his long life than George T. Powell of New York and London. At one time he had over 10,000 trees in bearing and fruit growers from all over the country visited his farm and copied his methods. His soil was only moderately productive at first and without purchased fertilizers or manure his land improved in productivity over 100 per cent as adjudged by the best soil experts.

Mr. Powell's method of orchard treatment consisted of plowing and harrowing the orchard each year up to about July 1 to 15, when 18 pounds of crimson and common red clover were sown on each acre for a cover crop for the balance of the season and for winter protection. This was plowed under the following spring. This method rendered the plant food available early in the season when the trees make an early and strong growth. By stopping the cultivation the last of June and sowing clover, the growth of the tree is checked, the wood becomes well matured before winter sets in, fruit spurs are developed and the orchards maintained in a high state of health and production. Mr. Powell's method is basic. In sections where additional help in way of fertilizers is advisable, this can be done, but cover crops and tillage are two useful hands in getting most out of trees.

THE DEADWOOD COACH AT THE ORPHEUM MONDAY AND TUESDAY

In the strenuous days when the Deadwood coach made its dangerous way through the Bad Lands of South Dakota, road agents constantly lay in wait and the battles between guards and robbers furnished fights as thrilling as any ever recorded in the lives of Wild Bill, Buffalo Bill or Kit Carson.

With rare wisdom, Tom Mix, the most popular of Western film stars, seized upon Clarence Mulford's great story, "The Orphan", as his latest and greatest Western photoplay, took his company to these historic lands and recently completed the most exciting and scenically perfect picture of his successful career.

This production comes, of course, from William Fox's West Coast Studio, from whence all Mix pictures emanate.

Use the Telephone and be the First in the Field

In the keen competition for business these days, much depends on being the first to bid for it.

That's why the chances are that the man who sticks to the old fashioned method of packing a grip, boarding a train and travelling for the order is apt to come back without it.

For, more alert to modern rapid fire methods, his competitor has, in all likelihood, got to the earofhisprospect over the Long Distance Telephone Lines before the first man's train has left the station.

You can't afford to run such risks.

So, when you hear of an order in your line of business, get after it by Long Distance Telephone, and to that extent you'll cut down your competitor's lead.

VALLEY FORESTERS HELD BIG PICNIC

Hantsport Citizens Win Several Events in Sports Held

The town of Hantsport was seemingly deserted Labor Day. The chief event was the Foresters' Picnic, which included the different Courts of the Independent Order of Foresters of the Valley district at Dodge's Pond, Berwick. In the afternoon a program of sports was carried out. The winners were:

Best Decorated Car—E. Jink, Kentville.

Shot put—Harvey Folker, Hantsport.

Veteran members' race—A. M. Russell, Windsor.

50 Yard dash, men—L. Sarty, Hantsport.

50 yard dash, women—Mrs. G. Swimmer, Kentville.

100 yard dash, men—L. Sarty, Hantsport.

100 yard dash, women—Mrs. G. Swimmer, Kentville.

Broad jump—James Weatherbed, Windsor.

Running broad jump—Harvey Folker, Hantsport.

Banana and whistle race, men—E. Gollan, Hantsport.

Banana and whistle race, boys—Robert Peaves, Berwick.

100 yard dash, boys—Victor Wood, Berwick.

Three legged race—Dick Bishop and Fred Folker.

The prizes were presented by J. H. Gould, High Chief Ranger for Nova Scotia, who also made a presentation to Mr. Ferguson, of Kentville, who is 89 years of age and probably the oldest Forester in Nova Scotia. Mr. Ferguson is still hale and hearty and takes a deep interest in the I. O. F. The attendance was very large.

MRS. JULIA McDONALD

The death of Mrs. Julia McDonald, wife of the late Capt. John McDonald, one of Mount Denson's prominent citizens, occurred at her home, Aug. 30th. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church of which she was a devoted attendant, on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. McDonald had passed the allotted span, and was highly esteemed by all. She is survived by two sons, John, of Hantsport, and Enslie, of Mount Denson.

POTENTIAL FOREST WEALTH

In Eastern Canada, says a bulletin issued by the Canadian Forestry Association, 150 million acres of soil are better adapted to tree crops than to farm crops. No other forest region in the world is so accessible by water or rail. It is the opinion of foresters that this region, properly stocked, could supply the markets of the world and assure Eastern Canada of vastly increased prosperity. The State forests of Pennsylvania cover a total area of 1,131,811 acres, including 23,500 acres on which trees have been planted. The present value of these forests is five times what the State paid for them.

YES, YES INDEED

Knutt—"Do you know that seventeen thousand twelve hundred and eighty-two elephants were needed to make billiard balls last year?"
Dumb Dan—"My, oh my—and isn't it wonderful that such big beasts can be taught such exacting work?"
He: Well, let's talk about something. She: No; let's talk about somebody.—Progressive Grocer.

Here and There

This year's receipts from motor vehicles licenses in New Brunswick already amount to $422,000. This amount is larger than the total for any year, except last year when the gross receipts for the whole twelve months were $462,439. The estimate for the present year is half a million.

The mines and quarries of the Province of Quebec produced to the value of $18,952,896 during 1924, according to the final report issued by the Provincial Department of Mines. Building materials account for $11,880,977; other non-metallic minerals $7,191, and metallic minerals $380,804.

"In the Cascades and falls of the Canadian Rockies there is enough hydro-electric power to supply the American west with all the electric energy it will need for ages to come," declared W. Paxton Little, treasurer of the Niagara Falls Power Company, who recently visited Banff with a party of distinguished American electrical magnates.

That the Province of Quebec abounds in historic and romantic material for the construction of popular novels, is the judgment of two popular writers—James Oliver Curwood, author of scores of best sellers, and Edwin Balmer, well-known short story writer—who have recently toured the provinces and Western Canada in quest of "local color."

There has been an unusual distinction conferred upon Prof. Camille Couture, a Montreal musician, who, besides being a violinist is also a maker of violins. He has been honored with a medal and diploma from the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley for a magnificent violin of his make, which he exhibited there.

In order to dispel the existing impression in England regarding the coldness of the Canadian climate, five thousand peony blooms are being distributed at the Canadian Pacific Railway Pavilion at the British Empire Exhibition. These plants were produced by W. Ormiston Roy, of Montreal, who states that peonies are the best landscape flower and can be grown in all parts of Canada, irrespective of climatic conditions.

Hon. W. G. Nichol, Lieut-Governor of British Columbia, and D. C. Coleman, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, opened Crystal Gardens, the new and unique indoor salt-water swimming pool at Victoria, B.C., recently. This amusement centre, which has two dancing floors, a gymnasium, art gallery and tea-rooms, is regarded as the largest and finest of its kind on the continent.

Being exceeded only by Mexico and the United States, Canada now ranks third among the silver producing countries of the world. Records of Canadian production have been kept since 1858 and show a total recovery of 451,000,000 fine ounces to the end of 1923. In 1924 production was slightly in excess of 20,000,000 ounces. During 1858-1923 the value of production totalled $290,705,532, while for last year it amounted to $13,519,048.

DIARY OF MARGARET MITCHENER

2nd. We went to meeting and heard Rev. McKen preach from the words "For Israel has sidden down like a backsliding heifer". He showed how we were like Israel when we wander, but happy are they who will listen to the voice that says, "Return to me and I will heal thy backsliding". We came down to Emily Ann's after meeting. Abigail came in also. I went up to meeting again in the afternoon and heard a beautiful sermon from the words, "For what is a man profited if he gain the whole world and loose his soul". He pointed out the value of the soul, showed what a wonderful thing it was, and the price it cost to redeem it, and what a loss will they sustain who lose it. Eternity alone discloses. I went up to father's after meeting. Maria, John B. and Mrs. James came also. I was much pleased and surprised to see Uncle Ezekiel Marsters at meeting; he is the same good old fellow still, and can sing as good as ever. They all sang some in the evening. Oh how "The Better Land" thrilled through me—like by-gone days. I had to go by myself that I might listen to it alone. Uncle Ezekiel gave me some advice about mourning, which I promised him I would try to remember. Maria came to stay the night with me again; the John's came over and stayed till ten o'clock. How I would like to have Maria live nearer.

3rd. A very snowy day.

4th. Maria called in this morning to bid me adieu. They have a pleasant day to go home. Mother has succeeded in getting here at last. She came to Mary's this afternoon and after school was out came over here. Father and Uncle Ezekiel came also. I have had a very pleasant visit from them. John has just taken them home on the sled. Mary got a letter tonight from Hibbard. John and Emily Ann got one from their father.

5th. Here I am again scribbling. My pen will often testify of my presence at this desk. Let me record the goodness of God as often as I write, when I can say I have so many blessings. Uncle Ezekiel came in just as school was out, and he has now gone. I took a walk with him as far as Mrs. Nunn's. He is good company. I love to converse with him as he is a well informed man and has a taste for study.

7th. The boys came this afternoon and saved my wood. Dear Simeon sawed and piled it all last winter before he went away. It is now after ten o'clock. John, Ann, Chipman and Mary Churchill have just gone home.

9th. Sunday afternoon and snowy enough; it began yesterday noon and did not stop till four o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Barnaby came from Cornwallis yesterday to get a school. I went to conference meeting yesterday afternoon. Rev. Hall was there but not many came. I went up to father's and stayed all night. Rev. Hall preached today from "Work out your own salvation". He has a desire to preach here; he says he feels as if we were about to have a revival. I would there might be a something to unite the people together for there is a great division and but little of that pure love there should be. I thank God I can sincerely say I have fought against any, but love all. May I ever say so and be enabled by the grace of God to do my duty unto all. John brought Adah and I down on the sled. She has been studying; she is a dear child. I heard while at meeting of the death of Nelson Terry. Poor Grace! She now knows what it is to be a widow. Nelson died Feb. 24th. She has one son.

MOSHER-LAMONT

KENTVILLE, Sept. 4.—A perfect morning in September and an event of more than ordinary interest combined in filling the Kentville Baptist church with an expectant throng at 10.30 a. m. The auspicious occasion was the celebration of one of the prettiest weddings of the year, the principals being Miss Olivia Elizabeth Lamont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Lamont, Kentville, and John Inglis Mosher, of Aylesford.

Girl friends of the bride had made the edifice a bower of floral beauty, the ceremony being performed under an arch of gladiolus and asparagus fern, with background of begonias, sweet peas and Boston fern. Rev. D. G. Ross, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride, given away by her father, was a picture of girlish loveliness in pencil blue Georgette, with hat to correspond, and carried Ophelia roses and mauve sweet peas.

Miss Alice Lamont, sister of the bride presided at the organ, playing very finely Lohengrin's Bridal March, and during the ceremony very sweetly and softly "O Perfect Love" and Mendelssohn's Wedding Chorus. Mrs. R. L. Eaton rendered exquisitely the vocal masterpiece "Beloved It is Morn". Messrs. Luville and Wilbert Steadman, cousins of the bride, acted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mosher left by motor on a trip to places of interest in the province, and will return to Kentville in a week's time, and leave for Texas, where they will reside. The bride travelled in a Russair crepe brown ensemble suit with hat to correspond.

The gifts were numerous and very beautiful, including cut glass, china, linen, chevrons, etc. The groom's gift to his bride was a handsome ring, to the organist, a little finger ring, to the soloist silver candle sticks, to the ushers, cuff links. The bride was the recipient of a beautiful pair of silver candlesticks from the Kentville Baptist choir, of which she is a valued member, and soloist her splendid rich voice being given on many occasions for the enjoyment and enrichment of the church and other service, and also for many other functions.

The bride is a graduate of Acadia University, Wolfville, and taught for a year in Fort Loudon, Pennsylvania, Virginia. The groom served three years in the great world war. On his return he entered Acadia University and graduated in 1921, later entered Harvard University, from which he graduated in June 1925, receiving his M. A. degree. He is now on the staff of the University of Texas at Austin, Texas. Both are deservedly popular and prime favorites and will be greatly missed. They are followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends.

The bride's mother wore black crepe roma embroidered in white with black satin hat. Miss Lois Lamont wore powder blue georgette, with hat to correspond, and Miss Alice wore brown satin with beige hat.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Church and Mrs. Elliott, Aylesford, aunts of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and son Raymond, of Liverpool.

ANNUAL CONVENTION IS HELD BY W. C. T. U.

Kings County Body Meets at Kentville—Stricter Enforcement of Law Demanded

KENTVILLE, Sept. 3.—A large number of delegates attended the seventh annual convention of the Kings County Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the Baptist church on Wednesday.

At the morning session, the President, Mrs. N. W. Eaton, of Wolfville, presided. Mrs. W. A. Porter, of Coldbrook, led the devotional services, and Mrs. J. C. Hockey, Kentville, gave an address on "Love and Charity".

At the afternoon session, Mrs. Cyril Palmer, of Berwick, gave an account of the World's W. C. T. U. Convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, to which she was a delegate. Mrs. J. W. Turner, Kentville, led the devotional exercises. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. N. W. Eaton (re-elected). Vice-President—Mrs. M. B. Morton, Berwick.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Cyril Palmer, Berwick. Recording Secretary—Mrs. Frank Allison, Berwick.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. A. Porter, Coldbrook.

At the public meeting in the evening, Mrs. H. P. Newcombe, of Halifax, was the speaker, and took as her subject, "Liquor Enforcement in Regard to the Liquor Traffic". She advocated a stricter enforcement of the Temperance Law in Nova Scotia. The great work of the W. C. T. U. was to destroy the market for intoxicants, she said.

A resolution, presented by Mrs. J. W. Turner, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, advocating stricter enforcement of the Temperance Act and the abolition of liquor export houses by the Provincial Government, was unanimously adopted.

NEW SENATOR

Hon. Charles Murphy, who has been appointed to the Senate, but who will continue to retain the office of Postmaster General.

NEW REFUNDING LOAN

Announcement has just been made that the Dominion Government has concluded its financial plans for the year by disposing of a new issue of $75,000,000 fifteen year 4 1/2% bonds through a strong Canadian syndicate, consisting of Wood, Gundy & Company, Dominion Securities Corporation, A. E. Ames & Company, Limited, and the National City Company, Limited. The bonds are being offered to the public through practically every bond dealer and stock broker in Canada, and through the chartered banks.

In arranging for its long term financing in Canada, rather than in another market, the Government has followed the policy that has been almost rigidly adhered to during the last several years. The Victory Loans of 1917, 1918 and 1919 having been planned entirely for the Canadian market and the Refunding Loans of 1923 and 1924 having been offered in the same manner. Short term financing—such as one year note issues—have been placed in United States, where the demand for such bonds is so strong that such borrowings are abnormally cheap. These short term notes, however, are of interest only to the large financial institutions.

It is understood that the proceeds of the new issue will be used for refunding purposes, including the retirement of $42,000,000 of tax-free bonds, which fall due on December 1st next. In this matter also, the strict policy of retiring tax-free bonds by the usual taxable issues is being followed.

The new issue should prove exceedingly attractive to Canadian investors. The maturity is fifteen years—in other words, these bonds run for the same number of years as did the 1934 maturity Victory bonds which were issued in 1919 and which have become so popular. At the price of 97 1/2 and interest, the bonds will yield the investor an interest return of over 4 1/2%, which is considered attractive.

The best advice to prospective investors is to enter their applications as quickly as possible. It is understood that this can be done through any bond dealer, stock exchange broker or through any branch of any chartered bank.

TWO INJURED BY LIGHTNING

Severe Electric Storm Makes Several Strikes in King's County

One of the heaviest electrical storms experienced in some years passed over the central part of the county Saturday noon. The lightning was very vivid, with heavy crashes of thunder and a downpour of rain, which lasted for half an hour.

At Aldershot, Mrs. E. R. Turner, while putting down a window, was rendered unconscious, but apparently suffered no injury.

At Cambridge, Kathleen, aged seven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Durno, was badly burned on the leg and arm, the lightning entering the house through the cellar, following the electric wires and coming through the floor of the room, where four children were standing. Dr. Killam was summoned and attended the child, who is still confined to bed.

The electric light poles in the house of Oscar Paterson, a short distance from the Durno home, were struck, one being broken. The house of Mrs. Smith, a near neighbor, was also struck, the plaster being broken. The electric transformer at Cambridge was struck and lights put out of commission for a short time.

CHILDREN WITH FREAK NAMES

A gentleman of religious mind named his twin children Cherubim and Seraphim, for said he, "they continually do cry". But not all parents give as apt an explanation of the names they inflict on their children. What excuse, for instance, can be made for the man who called his children Also and Another; or the American father whose progeny sign their names, Imprimis, Finis, Appendix, Supplement, and Erratum? Such children, we scarcely think, will rise up and call their parents blessed; any more than those of a Mr. Frost, who is branded for life: Jack Frost, Winter Frost, White Frost, Cold Frost, Early Frost and Snow Frost. It is perhaps natural that a surname should suggest an appropriate Christian name to bear it company; but such combinations as the following are scarcely to be commended as examples to be followed: North West, John Lion Lamb, Mineral Waters, Winter Summers, J. Cake Baker, Trial Bailey, and Paschal Lamb. Vernal Greenwood has quite a suggestion of spring and poetry; Partridge Roast has an appetizing aspect; and Mr. Happy Land should be the most contented of patriots. But the man who has to sign his name Pine Coffin, A. Windy Bank or Foot Bath, deserves sympathy.

THE PASSING OF SUMMER

How sad it is to see the Summer dying!
The tints of yellow creeping o'er the green;
To know the echoes of the wild winds sighing
Proclaim the passing of the Season's Queen.

The shortening days announce her reign is over,
While clouds of darkness o'er the daylight glide;
Symbols 'twould seem—as they the brightness cover,
That 'nough of beauty long can here abide.

O Gardens! Must your lovely bloom all perish?
The flowers I planted, dotted on—all
Fit counterparts, alas! of what we cherish.

Our nearest and our dearest, here below,
In robes of red, sometimes the robber dresses,
To steal upon our lattice through the trees;
Though beautiful the color of his tresses,
We sigh, to know he comes to claim our Queen.

In yellow, too, we see him scaling higher,
To reach the topmost of our lovely trees;
The rustle at our feet shows his desire,
Is won; but lost with the first passing breeze.

And such is life! The passing of its Summer,
But leads to Autumn—then to Winter drear;

Our hearts are loath to know that youth is over,
And that the end must come—though perhaps not near.

Age is a robber—though so very slyly
He steals upon us almost unawares;
Stealing our youth, our vim, our high endeavor,
And for them leaving only weighty cares.

But rest is sweet, and so we lay the burden
These bring to us upon a loving Friend;
Who sticketh closer to us than a Brother—
One whose compassions tender, never end.

IMPROVEMENT OF NEGLECTED LAND

Experiments with several different treatments for the improvement of poor or neglected land were undertaken at Charlottetown in 1916.

When noxious weeds, including ox-eye-daisy and yarrow, are present a three year rotation of potatoes, grain, clover may be used to advantage.

Can clover be grown on land that has been neglected for years? Yes, it can. One successful method is to cut over the land to be improved early in July, or before the weeds form seed. After the first soaking rain plough it four inches to five inches deep and roll the same day. Cultivate occasionally throughout the summer to destroy weeds and improve the tilth of the soil. Ridge up late in the autumn to give the frost a better chance to do its beneficial work.

Level the land, as soon as it is ready to work the following spring, with the spring-tooth harrow driven first lengthwise of the drills and then anglewise. Then use the "double angle" cut to reduce the difficulty of turning. Prepare the land thoroughly for potatoes and apply broadcast 1360 pounds of a mixture of chemicals or 1600 pounds of a mixed fertilizer with about that formula. Use certified seed and take the necessary precautions to insure that the crop will meet the requirements for certification by controlling weeds, insects and diseases.

Sow grain the second year and seed with 10 pounds of timothy and at least 8 pounds of red clover and 2 pounds of alsike clover, working the land without ploughing to provide tilth fine enough for the germination of the grass seed. Treat clover seed with nitro-culture. If possible top-dress the grain when it appears with a light dressing of manure. Cut the clover hay the third year before

July 20th so that the ox-eye-daisy not form seed. Plough the clover soon after haymaking and repeat three year rotation several times. Noxious weed seeds may in this way be sprouted and killed and the land become productive.

MUST CARRY CONVICTION

A writer in an American exchange a discussion of the question "Why people buy from the Mail Order Houses?" says: "When you shake this proposition down, this is about you have. The one big problem the retail merchant is to convince buying public that he is selling a dollar's worth every day than the order man can possibly sell. Who he does this or not depends vastly upon the attitude the merchant takes than it does upon anything catalogue man does. You simply get something before him that will convince or you are hopelessly lost." (The Maritime Merchant.)

GASOLINE HAS VERY TREACHEROUS NATURE

Known Authority Emphasizes Need of Greater Care in Handling This Commodity

Gasoline might be described as a most of many-sided peculiarities and... It is three times heavier than air, and consequently will float along the surface of a stream, and if it comes in contact with a spark or open flame it will ignite and flare back to its source. It has been known to trickle down a gully on the side of a hill some 200 feet, and after igniting at the bottom, the flame ran up the side of the hill and ignited the container.

You will know that you must have proper mixture of gasoline and air for your combustion chamber before the engine will function. If the engine is choked with gasoline the ignition system will have no effect on it, and neither will you get an explosion if there is too much air; you may get a back-fire from a poor or thin mixture.

Proper Mixture Necessary
In other words, you must have a proper mixture of gasoline and air to prevent explosion. In a hundred parts of gasoline and air there must be not more than 14-10 per cent. of gasoline and not more than 6 per cent. of gasoline vapor to produce an explosion. You will, therefore, see that while the margin in which an explosion will occur is small, it is only the foolhardy who will take a chance with such an inconstant and changeable mixture.

Nobody wants to take a chance with life by setting on a stick of dynamite, and yet one gallon of gasoline is worth 1,500 times its volume of air in an explosive mixture, which will ignite from a flame or spark. Five gallons of gasoline will generate 8,000 cubic feet of gas, or enough to fill a room 20 by 40 feet and ten feet high. When ignited it immediately expands to 4,000 times that space, which, of course, would cause a most destructive explosion with probable loss of life.

A Commercial Necessity
I am not a calamity howler, and do not wish you to think that I am criticising untimely conditions which exist in this very important and ever-widening channel of commerce. Gasoline must be treated as a commercial necessity in these days of automobiles, aeroplanes, tractors and stationary internal combustion engines. It is, however, of vital importance to all business interests to see that this dangerous liquid is properly handled and stored in a safe and common sense manner. Gasoline and its derivatives are used largely in the arts. For dry cleaning purposes as explosive or hazardous element out of it, but its greater commercial utility as a dynamic power is thereby destroyed. Remember that wherever there is gasoline there is danger. If, however, it is handled in an intelligent manner and used with judgment and proper care it is perfectly harmless.—(George Lewis, Ontario Fire Marshal.)

EDUCATION PAYS

We have boys and girls all about us who left school or are leaving school as soon as they are able to earn a few dollars by working. They believe this is the quicker way to earn money. And it is—such money as they earn. But as they grow older—as they get along in years and experience—they regret not having finished their education when education was easy.

The cash value of a 4-year high school course is $33,000 and the cash value of a 4-year college or technical training course is $72,000, according to a recent study by Dean Everett W. Lord, of the College of Business Administration of Boston University. Dean Lord has issued charts showing the maximum earnings of the average untrained man, as compared with those of the high school graduate and of the college or technical school graduate. The untrained man, he finds, begins work at 14, reaches his maximum income at 30, receiving on the average less than $1200 a year, and has earned by the time he is 60, about $45,000. During the four years that would have given him high school education he earns not more than $2,000. The high school graduate goes to work at 18, rises to a maximum income of $2200 a year at 40, and has earned by the time he is 60 about $78,000. By remaining four years in high school, he has at an immediate loss of $2,000, increased his total earnings by $33,000. The college or technical school graduate begins at 22, rises to a maximum of $6,000 at 60, and earns in all about $150,000.

NEW SENATOR

Hon. Dr. Beland, Minister of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, who has been elevated to the Senate.

THE TRAGEDY OF MAN

Long, long ago,
Ere these material days,
Ere man learned o'er much for the golden glow,
Of Love's divine amaze;
Ere faith was slain; there came to this sad earth
A high, immortal being of source divine,
And, mingling with upward climbing life,
Like crystal water in some fevered wine,
Wakened in one red blood mysterious strife,
Knowledge of good and ill, and that sad birth
Of splendour and woe for all who yearn
And pine.

And this is why,
Down in the craving remorseful human heart
There doth remain a dream that will not die,
An unassuaged hunger, that o'er the smart
Of sorrow and shame and travail clamours eterne
For some high goal, some vision of being superne,
Life doth not grant, earth doth not satisfy.

This is the secret of the heart of man
And his sad tragedy, his godlike powers,
His summer of vastness, and the wintry ban
Of all his greatness high which deity
dowers,
Sunk to the yearnings of goat-footed Pan;
Hinted of Shakespeare and that mighty clan
Of earth's high prophets, who in their brief day,
Holding the glory of the god in them;
Though chained to cravings of the lesser clay,
Dreamed earth's high dreams and wore love's diadem.

Yea, this is why,
Through all earth's travail and joy,
her seasons brief,
Through all her beauty and genius that will not die,
Surges a mighty grief,
Mingling with our heart o' best piety;
A sadness dread, divine,
Lifting us beyond the pagan wine
And dance of life,
The satyr clamour and strife,
Unto a dream of being, a yearning flame
Of that heredity whence our sorrows came.

From Wilfred Campbell.
A seer's solution of a vexed question,
Since poets have ever been the world's teachers,
The ideas therein contained might be worth considering. The Gradsgrinds will say it is fanciful, unscientific, and theologians will say it is not Biblical; nevertheless it contains a mighty truth. Happy is he who can grasp it.
An ancient car chugged painfully up to the gate of the races. The gate keeper demanding the usual fee for automobiles called, "A dollar for the car!" The owner looked up with a pathetic smile of relief and said, "Sold."

A BUSINESS GOVERNOR

The names of several junior royalties, generals and admirals have been suggested in England as successors to Lord Byng in the governor-generalship of Canada. Fancy rather than suitability has apparently inspired these nominations. General Byng has been an unusual success, because he is a man of unusual ability and understanding. He is something of a constructive statesman as well as a resourceful and efficient soldier. The knowledge he has gained of Canadian and American life, opinions and aspirations, in his experience here, will make a man of his type a very great actor in Imperial affairs. If he will, on his return to the Mother Country, devote his life to Imperial development he can build up a record greater than his very brilliant military career.

Britain's and Canada's hope lies in the consolidating and perfecting of the Empire through preferences to complete free trade. That is a statesman's job, and especially the job of a resourceful man who has made his own way, preferably in the broad business world. Men whose way has been made for them by their fathers or families or who stepped into a perfected military or naval organization are seldom successes in business building.
The establishment of the empire on a solid foundation has not progressed despite the incapacity, inexperience and ignorance of business conditions within the empire on the part of Imperial statesmen. Colonial governors should be selected from the successes among the younger business statesmen, who would be a trade, not a social, political or military link, with the heart of the empire both during and after their term of governorship.
Our generals and admirals have an equally important place. We will need them all, for it is only by the sword we have held and will hold our trade and our empire.
It is important to get this thought out in Ottawa, where the chief function of the governor-general is believed by society there to be social leadership.—Financial Post.

SANITARY ASPECTS OF FARM WATER SUPPLY

It is a well-known fact that with the introduction of public water supplies in cities and towns which had previously been dependent on domestic wells, the death rate from typhoid fever, the most serious of water-borne diseases, has decreased to a remarkable extent.

In out country districts, however, where the scattered population makes the establishment of a public water supply system impossible, the farmer is forced to depend upon his own domestic source, which is, in most cases, the shallow well. That such a well can be a source of positive danger from typhoid, dysentery, diarrhoea and other disorders has been amply proven, but still many farmers do not realize fully the importance of a pure unpolluted water supply, or the danger to their families and their stock lurking in contaminated water.

The location of the farm well is frequently faulty and denotes a lack of knowledge of the danger to health from water when there is any chance of drainage or leaking from such sources of pollution as barnyards, cesspools, privy, manured fields, sink drains, etc. Not only should the well be placed at a reasonable distance from such sources of filth, (say 40-50 yards) but also, if possible, on higher ground. The more porous the ground, the greater should be the distance from any contaminating source.

Even when the well is removed from any source of pollution, the ground water should be made to filter through at least 12 to 15 feet of soil before entering the well. Soil tends to remove germs and impurities from surface washings. The water, however, should be made to really filter through the soil by insuring that the sides of the well, for a depth of 12 to 15 feet, are tight and impervious to water. The top naturally should be so constructed that no contamination can possibly enter. Water may be seriously polluted without showing this by its taste or appearance. A bright, sparkling water is by no means a guarantee of a pure supply.

When, however, water from a well becomes cloudy or turbid after a heavy rain, there is evidently some defect, for this condition indicates that surface washings are entering without proper filtration.
The Divisions of Bacteriology and Chemistry at the Central Experimental Farm will analyze water samples submitted by farmers living within a reasonable distance. Application for instructions as to taking the sample should first be made.
A. G. Lochhead,
Dominion Agricultural Bacteriologist.

The flared cape drops back from the shoulders at the back only, and its flare is balanced by the inset section at either side of the lower part. Capes will also appear on dance frocks and daytime dresses.

HOME CANNING
(Farm and Home)
The advent of the home canning instrument provides another safety valve for congested production and poor markets.

Home canning of farm products is rapidly increasing in the eastern states. Farmers unable to dispose of fruits and vegetables at satisfactory prices are learning to put these articles in tin cans and sell the finished products to their local grocers.

This method of disposing of surplus production has been found profitable in many cases and has brought good returns to growers whose marketing facilities for the raw product were unsatisfactory.

OUR NEW SERIAL
"The Smoking Flax"
By ROBERT STEAD
Author of "The Cowpuncher", "Neighbors", etc.

Will Begin October 1st
Mysterious adventure and thrilling suspense, with a background of Western atmosphere and color, and faithful pen-pictures of the people and the life of the prairie homesteads and farms.

Mr. Stead knows the charm and the fascination of the prairies. He describes it with real insight, tinged with an intense sympathy. He tells a dramatic story of a man's passionate devotion to his sister's child, his love for a woman and how he conquered a passion of great hatred.

"The Smoking Flax" is Acclaimed by Leading Critics
an Outstanding Canadian Novel

Mr. S. Morgan-Powell, book critic of the Montreal Star, in a signed review in his paper, says of "The Smoking Flax": "It will appeal keenly to those who know their West and to the reader whose knowledge of prairie farm life is confined to hearsay information it will be a book of exceptional interest. Mr. Stead can create atmosphere, and he feels the color and spirit of the prairie and strives to interpret it faithfully and without exaggeration."

The Edmonton Journal says: "There is no writer who has taken his material from the life of the prairie who has a better first-hand knowledge of the latter. The books which he has published hitherto have been genuine products of the West and have contrasted strongly in this respect with those brought out by some literary fakirs who have obtained a large vogue by giving absolutely false pictures of conditions here. "The Smoking Flax" has all the characteristics of a really fine novel. No one who knows anything of western farms can fail to be impressed with the fact that they are real people who are being sketched."

The Canadian Bookman says: "Robert Stead writes about the prairie and Main Street, Manitoba, in a way which touches my heart. If anyone wants a book which gives a fair description of life in Western Canada, here it is."

Montreal Gazette: "A fine piece of writing, in which the western atmosphere and color are vividly brought out."
