Police Constable Winters shot one of the robbers, but his companions carried him to a waiting automobile and escaped. Most of the bullets passed high in the air or into the sidewalks, but a stray one crashed through the window of a neighboring house, striking a young girl in the leg.

BATTLE WITH HOLDUPS DALYNECHO, VICTIM, FATALLY BEATEN

Robbers Attack Two Men in Riverside; Dalyncho Struck on Head With Gun

DALYNECHO is in the general hospital probably dying as the result of a battle with holdups on Third Avenue, Riverside, which occurred about 12 o'clock last night. John Dargo, who was with Dalyncho, was beaten about the head, ran for it, was pursued and caught, and relieved of his money. Dargo's story to the police is that he and his friend were walking along the street when four men stepped out of the alley and ordered them to throw up their hands. Two of the robbers were Dalyncho obeyed the order. Dargo was so frightened that he did not know whether he put up his hands or not. The next instant he was struck on the head with a revolver. He ran, one of the bandits pursuing him. The robber struck him again with the gun and he stopped and put up his hands. The bandit then took his money, about two dollars, and let him go.

He hunted up the police and told them of the occurrence. Officers were rushed to the scene of the holdups.

deek and some from the cash drawer. Teller Scott backed to the rear wall of the office from the teller's cage and pressed a button in the wall behind him. Mr. Rhodes, who had been ordered back into his office, did the same thing. It was this action of the two men, who were even then looking down the barrels of a revolver, that saved the bank from losing a great deal more money.

The holdups were connected with a fire gone in a south Vancouver branch fire hall, and when the bell in the hall rang, the fireman on duty responded by pressing a button. This rang a gong in the bank office. The Italians heard the gong immediately after a shot from the man in the teller's cage, placed the teller in the place where Mr. Scott stood and the manager's office. Then followed the hasty flight of the hold-ups.

President Taft Signs Panama Canal Bill Declaring That Nothing in Measure Could be Construed as a Violation of Treaty Rights of Great Britain

Says Hay-Pauncefote Treaty Contains Nothing Preventing United States Extending Favors to Its Own Shipping, and Grants Right to All Nations to Do the Same; No Other Nation Given Advantages

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—President Taft signed the Panama canal bill at 7:15 o'clock today. Following this he sent to congress a memorandum suggesting the advisability of the passage of a resolution which would declare that this measure was not considered by this government a violation of the treaty provisions regarding the canal.

In discussing the British protest against the exemption of American shipping from the payment of toll for the use of the canal, Mr. Taft said the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from it is that, although the United States owns, controls and has paid for the canal, it is restricted by treaty from aiding its own commerce in the way that all the other nations of the world may freely do.

Enjoys Absolute Rights. In view of the fact, Mr. Taft continued, that the Panama canal is being constructed by the United States wholly at its own cost, upon territory ceded to it by the Republic of Panama for that purpose, and that unless the United States enjoys absolute rights of ownership and control, including the right to allow its own commerce the use of the canal upon such terms as it sees fit, the question is: "What the United States (by the terms of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty) deprived itself of the exercise of the right to pass its own commerce free, or to remit tolls collected for the use of the canal?"

Basic of Neutralization. The president points out that the treaty specified in the article of the treaty which made the basis for the British protest were adopted by the United States on the basis of the neutralization of the canal and for no other purposes. He further says, "Is a declaration of policy by the United States that the canal shall be neutral, that the attitude of this government towards the commerce of the world is that all nations will be treated alike and no discrimination made by the United States against any one of them observing the rules adopted by a treaty which neither Great Britain, herself, nor any other nation that uses the canal, has surrendered or proposes to surrender."

Amateurish Work. The robbery, in the opinion of those who were held up, was done in a very amateurish fashion. In five minutes to nine three of the Italians entered with cries of "Money, money!" in the room at the time were Manager Rhodes, standing behind the teller's cage, J. Scott, the teller; J. Norman, ledger keeper; A. Hunter, the janitor; and A. Simpson and A. Searns, who were standing in front of the teller's cage, having just made a deposit.

With the lower part of their faces covered with a handkerchief the men dashed into the front of the office and got behind the teller's cage. A man, evidently the leader, presented a gun and ordered the teller out of the cage and grabbed all the money on the table and fled. The men had just got clear of the yard when the watchman managed to wrangle himself free from his bonds, and alarmed the police. Chief Robert and several officers rushed to the scene. As a bullet whizzed past the head of one of the policemen, a regular fusillade of bullets, and under cover of these the yeggmen dashed off and were quickly lost among the cars and sheds of the Grand Trunk freight yards nearby.

Many amendments to the proposed new boxing bylaw will be presented at the meeting tonight of the council by Alderman James A. Hornby. The principal feature of the amendments will be to have the control of an independent commission of reputable citizens.

The number of rounds will be limited, and Mr. Hornby also proposed to insert a provision that not more than one boxing match a month be permitted. He will also ask that heavy bouts be filed by the participants to see that they carry out the provisions of the bylaw.

A number of names of well known citizens have been mentioned for membership on the proposed commission, including William Geogerson, M. McCarthy, H. W. Lunney, L. V. Kelly, Superintendent Dean, of the Royal North-West Mounted Police, and others. Mr. Lunney is a young attorney, a former newspaper man, well versed in sports, having written sports for eastern newspapers and served as sporting editor of a local newspaper. Mr. Kelly also is a newspaper man who is said to have had considerable experience in sport matters.

In these proposed amendments Mr. Hornby will have the support of practically all the other councilmen with the exception of one or two who are opposed to any kind of a bylaw. Alderman Minchin, who introduced the proposed boxing bylaw, is said to be willing to consent to amendments provided they are along the right lines, and he will ask that if a commission is named, it shall include Superintendent Dean, Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Lunney.

Petitions were circulated in a number of the churches yesterday asking the mayor and council to re-enact the former bylaw which absolutely prohibited boxing of any kind, professional or amateur. The petitions were the outcome of a meeting of the Ministerial Association on Saturday, at which a resolution was passed demanding the re-enactment of the former bylaw prohibiting boxing. A committee was instructed to present the resolution to the council. The resolution was passed after a lengthy debate, the secretary, Rev. S. B. Hillocka, voting against it.

The proposed new building bylaw also will come up for discussion, and Building Inspector Sylvester and Fire Chief "Cappy" Smart will be on hand to explain it and make pleas against the striking out of various sections, notably that prohibiting the bringing of children in arms to evening performances of theatres and moving picture shows.

Wishes to Appear Before Senate Committee and Present Enemy's Credentials

Oyster Bay, N. Y., August 24.—Col. Roosevelt announced tonight that he wanted to appear Monday in Washington before the senate committee investigating campaign funds to refute the testimony of John D. Archbold yesterday concerning his knowledge of an alleged contribution of $100,000 by Mr. Archbold to the republican campaign fund of 1904.

"I have wired Senator Clapp, chairman of the committee," Col. Roosevelt said, "that I should like to appear before the committee on Monday."

At the time Col. Roosevelt made his announcement, he had not received a reply from Senator Clapp to his telegram, but had arranged to leave Oyster Bay for Washington in time to appear before the committee Monday. The colonel thought he might receive a reply during the evening. The colonel's telegram read:

Roosevelt's Telegram.

"Senator M. C. Clapp, Washington.

"As I am unwilling that Mr. Archbold's statement about myself should pass without immediate official contradiction, I request the privilege of appearing before your committee on Monday."

AN INDEFENSIBLE UTTERANCE

The now notorious speech delivered by Col. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, in Vancouver, in which he endeavored to give force to the familiar opinion that war with Germany is inevitable, by declaring that it was "well known" that that country had offered to slacken its pace in the race for naval supremacy provided Great Britain ceded to her certain British colonies, finds a defender in the Daily News, of St. John's, Newfoundland. Of this speech, which few even of the militant colonists' political friends ventured to defend, The Daily News says: "It may not have been statesmanlike; it may even have been indiscreet, but it was the clear-cut expression of a man who believed every word he said."

Few who are familiar with the militant colonel as a figure in public life will question the assertion that he believed what he said; not many however, would venture to make this the sole ground for approval of his utterance. To us his unwavering belief in the truth of a statement so palpably absurd as that which referred to a bargain between Great Britain and Germany in which British colonies were to be offered in consideration of a cessation of German activity in naval construction, affords the best of all possible ground for distrusting the discretion of the colonel, discounting his intelligence and doubting his fitness for the responsibilities of so important an office as that which he fills. If he had been able to announce at the close of his speech that he was merely making a little joke in order to relieve the seriousness of the international situation, we might have pardoned him, while believing that he had overestimated his own abilities as a humorist. But that a responsible minister could make himself and Canada ridiculous by suggesting that such a bargain could be seriously made or considered by either of the two powers concerned, would have been almost impossible of belief until this time. That a Canadian minister should entertain such extraordinary notions of the diplomatic relations of two great powers is surprising, that he should give utterance to them is regrettable, that any responsible newspaper should commend him for doing so presents a phenomenon for which no suitable label can be found without violating the conventions of permitted speech.

THE DUKE'S VISIT TO THE WEST

By the time H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and other members of the Royal party have completed their progress through the West and have returned to Ontario late in October, they will have made a pretty thorough inspection of that vast and diversified section of Canada lying on this side of the Great Lakes. This is the thought that strikes one on glancing over the extensive itinerary that has been mapped out by His Royal Highness. It is fitting that at the commencement of his

for a candidate for the office to secure the votes of nine aldermen in order to get the necessary two-thirds majority. In the present state of affairs of that body, it is unlikely that any candidate could secure a two-thirds majority vote of its membership. The only other recourse would be the submission of the question to the people.

Another report of Mr. Clarke's acceptance of the Banff position had not been announced for any length of time, few names have been mentioned as yet as possible candidates for the position. Friends of Alderman C. H. Minchin are urging him to make the race and the city manager is said to have practically made up his mind to enter though he declined to discuss the subject yesterday.

Another rumor has it that Mayor Mitchell himself is considering getting into the race for commissioner. Friends of the mayor have been endeavoring for some time to find out whether the mayor intends to make a race for reelection to his present office next winter but so far, the executive has declined to commit himself.

CLARKE SAID HE WOULD TAKE TIME
Commissioner Clarke will take time on the occasion of his trip east. At that time, he has acted in those capacities also, thus gaining an unusual wide experience with the financial side of the city.

term of office, Canada's new governor-general should become acquainted at first hand with all the different part and peoples of the vast Dominion over which he presides. That he has decided to do so commands the hearty approval and respect of the people of Western Canada. It makes them feel that His Royal Highness is a man who has a real sympathy with Canadians of every province and who desires to meet them personally that he may the better understand their aims and interests. It makes them feel that underneath all the gold braid and inherited prestige of his royal rank, our new governor-general is a warm-hearted man. It is not a mere diplomatic compliment to Western Canada, but the wise act of an experienced and high-minded imperial statesman who is determined to fill his important office well.

Western Canada stands with a warm smile of welcome to receive the Duke, his gracious Duchess, and the charming Princess, whom Canada has already come to jealously regard as her own. The Royal party are sure of the frankest and heartiest reception in this, "The Last Great West."

That which Canada's new governor-general is doing, others should do. If Canadians travelled more extensively within their own Dominion, there would be less of that unfortunate misunderstanding between East and West which sometimes darkens our counsel. This is a great country, and the only way we can progress rapidly and harmoniously is by getting to know each other and sympathize with each other's view point. Let public men of the older provinces follow the example set them by our new governor-general and come out to see for themselves what manner of men we are here in the West. The sooner we come to a realization of what a great country we are, the better will we be able to face and solve the problems that confront us.

Vest Pocket Essays
By GEORGE FITCH

Fountain Pens

A fountain pen is a mechanical misdemeanor which acts like a fountain when it is carried in the vest pocket and like the Sahara desert when its owner is four miles and 789 yards from an ink bottle.

The fountain pen was invented by a man who has since changed his name and escaped. It consists of a hard rubber barrel of ink and a gold pen with soft flexible points which braid up when writing. It also has a cover which comes off automatically when the pen is in the pocket and can be removed by a pair of automobile pinchers when the pen is needed.

When it is feeling well, a fountain pen will write on paper, on the floor, on the clothes of its owner and also on his fingers and thumbs. A man can write twice as much with a fountain pen as he can with an ordinary pen, but the other half is not useful.

In order to avert damage suits we will now state that there are also perfect fountain pens which will not only suck up ink out of a bottle, but will hold it for years and will not let a drop escape. It is a common sight to see a big burly man shaking a small fountain pen as a terrier does a rat and addressing it in terms which no gentleman would use even to a dumb animal in an effort to make the faithful thing give up some of its precious ink and write.

When the fountain pen was invented the recording angel put in three adding machines and four clerks and they got so far behind in the profanity department that he had to give up two summer vacations.

There are also fountain pens which will not only hold their ink when it is not needed, but will place it on paper carefully and evenly when asked to. But these pens are always wet. It was undoubtedly a fountain pen instead of the fountain of youth for which Ponce de Leon spent his life in hunting.

The fountain pen is a great convenience when a man hasn't one and this is why so many are sold. A good fountain pen, like a good wife, is one of Nature's grandest works-and can be admired to an unlimited extent, but a pen which insists on weeping on its owner's boom does not win his affections, and sooner or later he gives it away to an enemy with a grin of evil glee.

What Penrose Received.
"It is a most unheard of thing," he said, in commenting on Mr. Archibold's testimony and his departure for Europe, "that Mr. Archibold should depart without testifying about the $250,000 he gave Senator Penrose. It is a most peculiar thing that the committee should allow him to depart without so testifying. There are no dead men in that transaction. He could be sure of what he was testifying to in that."

A report that Mr. Archibold had indicated before sailing from New York today that he might see Mr. Roosevelt for Hibel, was mentioned to the Progressive party nominee.
"Mr. Archibold has said that he had given $150,000, and a medical college lecturer, was arrested today charged with the theft of a few dollars, several bottles of whisky and $2.35 from the saloon of Edward Light."

WILLIAM BARNES SAYS HE IS NOT A BOSS

Says He Will Not Try to Dictate Nomination for Governor of New York

New York, Aug. 24.—Just to prove he is not a boss, William Barnes, Jr. issued a statement in which he announced that he would not try to dictate the nomination of a candidate for governor, that he has no personal interest regarding the name of the man who will head the ticket, and that no individual can dictate to the Republican convention.

"I can only hope," he said, "that the man who will head the ticket will not struggle or attempt to becloud the public mind; that he will know his full duty, and that he will, if elected, devote his attention, not to politics, but to the business which lies at his hands. Our opponents will very naturally try to make it appear that I will exercise my due share of political influence. The Republican party of New York state is the object of any one man, and never will be."

"The state of New York needs a governor who is his own master. The spectacle of a government being controlled by the agent of a party organization or the choice of an individual citizen is not desired by the people of New York; but a government of such a nature and constancy of purpose, aided in its work, but not controlled by the organization of the political party from which he takes the nomination, is the orderly and proper solution of the social issues of the day."

"If any Democrat, Socialist, Prohibition or National Progressive thinks the public state convention of the Republican party will not be a fair and open one, he is grievously mistaken. There is no man in the Republican party who possesses such much power, and if anyone attempts to exercise such power I have not the slightest doubt that the delegates will thwart his purpose."

HORSES WILL BE BARRED FROM INDIANA CITY

Horses will be barred from the new town of Speedway, laid out in the environs of Indianapolis, says Popular Mechanics. The city council has passed a resolution which will bar horses from the new city, which will be well under way, and it is expected that the place will become an important industrial center, devoted entirely to interests allied with the motor car trade.

It is admitted that the humble equine is making in building the new town, but it is completed, and will not be any of his four-footed fellows will be permitted to enter the city sacred to motor driven vehicles. Leases will stipulate that horses must not be used for any purpose; and the butcher, baker and grocer will necessarily have to resort to the motor truck for delivery purposes. The police department will be wholly equipped with motor driven apparatus, and the patrol wagons will be motor driven, without clutter of iron-shod hoofs.

The government of Speedway will be entrusted to men identified with the motor trade, and the names of the candidates will be names illustrious in the motor world. The principal part of the new city will be directly south of the Indianapolis motor speedway, while part of the town will be west of the famous track. No factories will be admitted in Speedway, and they are in some manner identified with the motor-car trade.

Another feature of the horseless town is that it will be constructed throughout of concrete, brick and fireproof. It is predicted the motor fire department will have little to do.

DO YOU SPEAK AUSTRALIAN LANGUAGE?

New York, Aug. 25.—There are many English dialects," said a visiting Australian, "and some of them are so peculiar that the man who knows only the real English or your American form finds it difficult of comprehension. It is a rule the vocabulary is identical in all, but the words are not the same in all, and the English has published a dictionary of the language."

While the words may have been adopted at first, they have been adapted along with years of use, and so the Sydney Bulletin has offered a prize for the person who can give a list of words which are not understood by others than Australians.

ROSEVELT ANANIAS CLUB SEEKING NEW MEMBER
Monday. My engagements are such that it will be the greatest inconvenience to me and to many others if the hearing is deferred to a later date.
(signed) Theodore Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt carried the dust of a day's rowing on the bay and picnicking with his family and had returned but a short time.

What Penrose Received.
"It is a most unheard of thing," he said, in commenting on Mr. Archibold's testimony and his departure for Europe, "that Mr. Archibold should depart without testifying about the $250,000 he gave Senator Penrose. It is a most peculiar thing that the committee should allow him to depart without so testifying. There are no dead men in that transaction. He could be sure of what he was testifying to in that."

A report that Mr. Archibold had indicated before sailing from New York today that he might see Mr. Roosevelt for Hibel, was mentioned to the Progressive party nominee.
"Mr. Archibold has said that he had given $150,000, and a medical college lecturer, was arrested today charged with the theft of a few dollars, several bottles of whisky and $2.35 from the saloon of Edward Light."

Riches Gone, Held for Theft
St. Louis, Aug. 25.—Dr. Leo C. Lemoine, who says, once with worth $150,000, and a medical college lecturer, was arrested today charged with the theft of a few dollars, several bottles of whisky and $2.35 from the saloon of Edward Light.
Doctor Lemoine denies the charge, saying he went to sleep in the saloon Saturday night and did not wake up until Monday morning. Light says he found a rear door open and Doctor Lemoine took this as evidence that the doctor had been in his pocket.

Horse's Kick Killed Rayville, Mo. Boy
Rayville, Mo., August 24.—John Couch, 8 years old, son of Mrs. Couch, a well known farmer residing ten miles northeast of Rayville, died yesterday as a result of being kicked in the stomach by a horse Saturday afternoon.

ROOSEVELT AND LINCOLN WERE BEST PRESIDENTS

That is the Opinion of the Bull Moose, Says Senator Williams of Mississippi

Washington, Aug. 24.—The first attempt of the Senate to debate the Works resolution for a single 6-year term for President and Vice-President plunged that body into another open discussion of the political situation.

Senator Cummins made the chief speech in support of the resolution, but was demoted with a running fire of comment from Progressives, Republicans and Democrats. Before its conclusion the brief debate became an issue between Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican, and Senator Williams of Mississippi, Democrat, as to whether Colonel Roosevelt or Governor Wilson had been guilty of indiscretion in use of language in the writings of recent years.

"The governor has endorsed the Baltimore platform," said Senator Williams, "and I would like to see any judgment, but I don't think it is his judgment." Senator Borah said: "I think the governor has endorsed Senator Williams, 'that Governor Wilson has never written more precisely than President Roosevelt.'" "If the Colonel has written some things which he ought not to have written," replied Senator Borah, "he has written a great many things for which the public is indebted to him."

Senator Williams declared Governor Wilson had never said anything unkind about the men who had been President of the United States since its foundation.

Harp on the 2-Term Idea
"I offer a good $250 chrome to anyone," he said, "who will show me any comment made by Colonel Roosevelt of any kind, except Abraham Lincoln and William McKinley, which was in any way complimentary."

Senator Williams proposed a constitutional amendment as a substitute for the Works resolution limiting a President to two terms of office. He said this would be more in accord with the spirit of the founders of the country, and that it had been only two men with "audacity" enough to "go outside the established precedent of two terms." One was General Grant, "who was rebuked by his own party," said the senator.

"The other one is rather a recent incident," he continued, "but I think it will not be found at all difficult to take care of him."

DARROW CASE TO A NEW JUDGE

Monday is set for the Trial of the Bain Indictment.

Los Angeles, Aug. 24.—Before any of the opposing counsel could offer a word of argument, Judge George H. Burton summarily relieved himself today of participation in any further prosecution of Clarence S. Darrow by assigning to Presiding Judge Willis of the Superior Court the duty of presiding at the trial at 10 o'clock next Monday morning.

Judge Burton announced that because of the fixed opinion he had formed in his mind as to the merits of the recent Darrow trial he had no desire to preside at the trial on the Bain indictment. The motion of the defense to dismiss probably will be argued before Judge Willis this week.

MOVING PICTURES LIGHTNING MELTS OLD BELL WHEN IT HITS CHURCH

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Aug. 23.—The bell on the Mammoth Methodist Episcopal church was hit by lightning during an electrical storm this morning and partly wrecked.

The old bell, which has been in the bell tower since 1847, was cracked by the lightning and in places the metal had melted and dropped to the floor.

A barn owned by Tony Fuchs, in York township, was struck by the lightning. Fifty tons of hay and ten head of horses and cattle were consumed.

ONE COLLECTION OF FORTY THOUSAND PENNIES

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 25.—A chest containing 275 pounds of pennies is deposited at a bank here to the credit of Carl W. Stordant, a real estate man. The pennies, more than forty thousand in all, were turned over to Stordant as an initial payment to bind the sale of a downtown restaurant. The purchaser, a cafe owner, had taken in the pennies over his bar during a long course of years. He had made a habit of brushing all the pennies he received into a slot which connected with a chest in the cellar.

Overdue Virginian Arrives
Quebec, Aug. 24.—Due in port at 5 o'clock from the Pacific coast, according to the time she was reported from Cape Race, the Allan R. M. S. Virginian, was met by the English and Canadian capitalists, Hon. Judge Doherty, and other prominent people, only arrived at 6 o'clock this morning.

Of the Newfoundland coast she met the Virginia left Liverpool on the afternoon of Friday the sixteenth and had made a record on the Atlantic with good prospects of making a fast record on the port but the fog and calculations. Except for the detention, the trip between the two ports was most pleasant and uneventful.

HUDSONS BAY COMPANY

First Glimpse of the New Styles For Fall

NEW SUITS. Plain man-tailored effects are again the main feature of the new suits for fall. Coats have attached or buff edges, and are lined with good quality Beading's or Skinner's Satin. Coat lengths are 32 to 34 inches and fronts are cut straight or in the modified cutaway effect. Sleeves are plain and set-in; some coats are in the Norfolk style with belted effect. The Robespierre collar and the director's revers are new features of some of the fall suits, and also very attractive. Suit skirts are, in most cases, not less than two yards wide, while a great many are plain tailored. A new feature of some of the styles is the introduction of side pleats or fullness at waistline. We are showing these new suits in men's wear, chevrot, whip-cords, plain velvets, corduroy velvets, mannish tweeds and a few broadcloths. Prices $15.00 to $47.50. COATS AND WRAPS.—The newest ideas in coats for fall are the chinchilla and boucle novelties, which have plain set-in or the new Russian sleeves. They also have large collars that can be buttoned close around throat or left open as the wearer chooses.

A COLLECTION OF FAMOUS IRISH BULLS

(From W. R. Le Fanu's "Seventy Years of Irish Life")
Of Irish bulls there is no end. Some have become household words, as for example, Sir Boyle Roche's. "A man couldn't be in two places at once, but he was a bull," there are others of his not so well known. In the Irish House of Commons in 1795, in a debate on the leather tax the champion of the exchequer, Sir John Parnell, observed, "that in the prosecution of the present war every man ought to be ready to give his life to protect the remainder."

Mr. Vandeleur said that "however that might be a tax on leather would press heavily on the barefooted peasantry of Ireland." To which Sir Boyle Roche replied that this could be easily removed by making the under leathers new wood.

In speaking in favor of the Union he said that one of its effects would be "that the barren hills would become fertile valleys." In another debate he said: "I boldly answer in the affirmative. No."

Mr. Moore used to tell a story that when he was staying, as a boy, with an uncle at Sandymount, as they walked into Dublin early one morning they found a dead highwayman lying on the road who had evidently been shot the night by some one whom he had attacked. There was a small bullet hole in his right temple. An old woman was looking at him.

"Gentlemen," said she, "it's the blessing of God that hit him in the eye!" In the coffee room at an hotel in Dublin an Irish gentleman said to a friend who was breakfasting with him: "I'm sure that is my old college friend, West, at that table over there."

"Then why don't you go over and speak to him?" said his friend. "I'm afraid so," said the other, "for he is so very shy that he would feel quite awkward if I wasn't here."

About seventy years ago the grand jury of the County of Tipperary passed the following resolutions: "First: That the materials of the old courthouse be used in building the new courthouse. "Third: That the old courthouse shall not be taken down till the new courthouse is finished."

It was a Scotchman—"Professor Wilkie, I believe, who said to a boy he met: "Gentlemen of the jury, think my poor mother—his only mother. The following was told me many years ago. Some young fellows in the navy shaved the head of a brother of their own, an Irishman, when he was drunk and put him to bed. He had previously given orders that he was to be called at 5 o'clock in the morning and was accordingly called at that hour. When he looked in the glass and saw an appearance a sonlike what he expected, "Hang me," said he, "if they haven't called the wrong man!"

Elizabeth City, N.C., Aug. 25.—With her former husband's prophecy that something terrible would happen should she wed again vividly impressed upon her mind, Mrs. Mary D. Person, of Southampton county, Va., fainted in front of the improvised altar in the parlor of the Central hotel yesterday afternoon, just as she was about to become the bride of Kelly R. Bishop.

Dr. C. N. Kenneth Mees, who has been working on the new idea in England to protect the illuminating and Engineering Society of London, in a lecture today successful experiments with the new invention. His "day-light lamps" are made by using screens of various colors. The difficulty was to find a satisfactory blue. He recently discovered this. However, the light power loss by absorption 85 per cent. Therefore, so far, it was only suitable in small rooms, but was most useful in correct matching of colors. His system is similar to that of Mees. Art galleries and other large buildings may be expected to be like daylight at night by the improved type of inverted arc lamps if the flickerings can be overcome.

GETS FIFTEEN YEARS. Wytheville, Va., Aug. 24.—Sidna Edwards, one of the Hillsville court-house assassins, pleaded guilty yesterday to second-degree murder, and was sentenced to fifteen years in prison.

HENPERMAN-STEPHENS. The nuptials were solemnized on Thursday, Aug. 22nd, at 5 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens, of their second daughter, Annie, and Mr. F. J. Henperman. Rev. Mr. Chaucery officiated. The bride wore a gown of white voile draped over silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom, Miss Flora Henperman, sister of the groom, wore a gown of cream silk mousseline, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. John Henperman, brother of the groom, was groomsmen.

When our cauliflower is boiled with the milk or flour to preserve its whiteness, it may be dressed with butter simply after it is well drained or it may be stirred into the simplest of white sauces, when we call it creamed cauliflower. Grated nutmeg, or parsley, or egg, or whatever suits the taste, may be added to the white sauce.

For a rich cream sauce a quarter cup of cream with butter, pepper and salt is used and the cauliflower is served a moment in this; the head is especially for salads. It is good served as a main course by itself with the simplest of French dressings.

Cauliflower au Gratin—Place the small flowers in a pudding dish with alternate layers of white sauce and grated cheese. Cover the top with crumbs and bake until the sauce bubbles through the bread crumbs.

Cauliflower Omelet—When boiled cauliflower is cold, chop it small and mix it with a sufficient quantity of well beaten egg to make a thick batter. Fry as like an omelet in fresh butter and send it to the table.

Cauliflower Pickle—Cauliflower is one of the almost indispensable ingredients of mixed pickles, and a simple cauliflower pickle is one of the delicacies among pickles. It is variously made, but in every case the vinegar must be light and not heavy and dark. Boil, drain and pour over the cauliflower boiling vinegar to cover it. Let pickle for twenty-four hours, then drain, boil up the vinegar, adding a little salt, put the cauliflower in jars, fill up with vinegar, and seal. Or it may be cooked as for table use, packed in jars, and covered with spiced vinegar, to which has been added sugar and French mustard, and then bottled tightly.

Swiss Stuffed Potatoes—Four potatoes, one-half a tablespoon of butter, four tablespoons of hot milk, one-half a teaspoon of salt, pepper to taste, a slice of butter and a little Gruyere or other grated cheese. Bake the potatoes, and when they are done out into the water and scoop out the inside into a hot bowl. Mash very fine and add milk, butter and seasoning. The grated cheese may or may not be added, according to taste. Heat all till very light, add the beaten white of an egg, and stir lightly. Fill the potato shells with the mixture, and bake in a hot oven until the potatoes are done.

To Prepare Cauliflower—The best and most thorough way to prepare cauliflower is to separate the heads into small bouquets, so that it may all be washed minutely. But some people trim off all the leaves, except one circle of the outer ones, and the head in an old mackin or a piece of cheesecloth and to boil.

The little bouquets are never quite as perfect when the head is broken apart after it is cooked, and, since cauliflower is an dainty as one could desire when it is so cooked and ready for dressing, breaking first seems the better way. A tablespoon of sugar added to the water in which the cauliflower is boiled improves it for some tables.

Several other members spoke, and George briefly thanked the members for their gift.

The evening was then whirled away with song and story, Jack Burbridge keeping the company amused with his humorous contributions.

THE HEART DEPARTMENT

(By Laura Jean Libbey) The great power which moves the world is attraction. No flowers would be so lovely as they are not for the warm sunshine that gladdens the timid earth's heart.

The great power which moves the world is attraction. No flowers would be so lovely as they are not for the warm sunshine that gladdens the timid earth's heart.

The force of attraction varies between two people. Some find each other in life's morning. Others do not meet until life's noon.

Each of the other's being, and no thought. And these from unknown lands, o'er unknown seas, across the sea, are seeking wrecked wrecks of death.

On this subject a bachelor writes me: "Do you suppose I can ascertain by any means what is called 'love' or 'attraction'?"

WASHOUT ON C. P. R. DISRUPTS SCHEDULE

Long Section of Track Cut Out and Trains From Held Up Many Hours

Timely Warning of Walkers Prevents Disaster to Life and Rolling Stock

A mountain torrent that swept upon the Canadian Pacific track Friday morning took out a long section of track near "Hoppers" Pass up all traffic from the west until last night.

The washout was caused by track walkers, and was very warned of the danger in time to prevent damage to stock.

Eastbound passengers were delayed and other points along were the washout, and yesterday of transferring them to wrecked portion of the track.

The morning's large force was hurried to the necessary repairs made.

IMPORTANCE OF TALL, FAIR MEN TO THE RACE

Eugenists in Conference Make Further Discoveries Affecting Mankind
 Nature Produces New Adam and Eve for the Fresh Garden of Eden

Professor Samuel George Smith, of Minnesota University, in a paper read recently at the sitting of the Eugenic Conference at the Imperial Institute, dealt with "the new social consciousness" which, he said, was indicated, first, by the larger powers and duties assumed by the State, and second, by the new social solidarity affecting persons and groups of persons within the State.

Dealing with the question of maternity among the poor, he pointed out that hard labor must be forbidden to the expectant mother, who must have nourishing food, while her surroundings should be wholesome. The economic problem was solved in the increased vitality and consequent earning power of the coming generation. The State having raised the home and having set standards, both physical and mental, for the family, it was its duty to secure the proper physical environment for the home.

How Population Expands.
 It was generally recognized that the population expanded to the food supply. It was, perhaps, a closer relationship than the expansion to the economic limit, indicated by the standard of living. If conditions were favorable, the population expanded to the food supply. It was, perhaps, a closer relationship than the expansion to the economic limit, indicated by the standard of living.

Children Should be Informed.
 Mrs. Hensley (president of the New York Mothers' Club) remarked that everyone knew that children at a very early age asked questions, perfectly natural questions, as to their own origin. As a general rule, these questions were not answered, when really it was very desirable that they should be replied to.

Russian Diplomat is Too Keen for Abdul Hamid
 London, August 24.—Diplomats abroad tell how a distinguished member of the Russian corps diplomatique cleverly outwitted Abdul Hamid, the late Sultan of Turkey. The Russian displayed a curious ingenuity in introducing the business of his country in the guise of personal pleasure.

It appears that the Sultan had also refused to grant an audience to a member of the diplomatic body at Constantinople and that during the period in question Abdul Hamid spent the greater part of his time in cock-fighting, an amusement wherewith he was passionately fond.

The Russian heard that his imperial majesty stood in need of fresh birds to supply the place of those killed in flight, whereupon the wily Muscovite secured a fine-looking white fowl of the barnyard species, caused it to be rimmed and spiced to resemble a "tomcock" and sent it in a richly decorated case to the Sultan.

The case was successful, but the Sultan, at first delighted with the gift, soon sent for the diplomatist to explain if he could why his bird had shown no inclination to fight.

The Russian, when examined the bird in the presence of Abdul Hamid and with great astonishment and regret acknowledged that it was quite unable to cope with the royal gamecocks, which were undoubtedly of a superior breed.

A conference followed on the subject of gamecocks in general, and when this matter had been so far advanced that the Sultan had no more to say on the subject, the diplomatist succeeded in drawing the Sultan in a mood for conversation of a different character.

It is time to get ready for the coming season. The diplomatist had so long awaited an opportunity to discuss. After a long interview he returned to his embassy triumphant over his colleagues.

Showing of Authentic Fall Styles

THE new fall fashions and a rare attractiveness of price are joined in an offering that lends valuable distinction to our ready-to-wear department. It is an undisputed fact that this store is recognized as the mecca of fashion, the ladies of Calgary look to us at the commencement of each season, for new styles that shall be the vogue for the season, and we are now ready to show you a larger and more comprehensive selection of fall and winter styles in suits and coats than ever before. Every woman will wish to look her best at the Stampede, with the city full of smartly dressed strangers, you cannot with justice to yourself wear your last season's garments, then come to us, and pick out your new suit or coat, you will then be satisfied that you are correctly and becomingly dressed.

You Will Be Delighted With The New Fall Suits

The Suits are particularly attractive this season. We have them in men's wear serges, heavy diagonal serges, imported Bedford cords, heavy tweeds and homespuns, also heavy English suitings. We have a grand selection of the plain strictly man tailored garments, also in the more elaborate styles; the cut-away coat is a great factor this season, some of the coats have a very special feature in a kind of panel let in at the waist line to bottom of coat. This odd design at the back at once commands attention to the women who wish something entirely new. The coats are all much longer this season, running from 34 to 38 inches in length.

A very popular number for young ladies and misses is the Norfolk, which we have a delightful showing.

We have one suit here which we think is the best value ever offered in Calgary. It is a plain tailored model, made of wide wale serge, lined satin serge and is a famous Northing shapekeeping garment. We have all sizes, 14 years to 18 years and 34 to 40. The price is only

A Tempting Variety of New Fall Coats

The many favorable remarks we hear every day from the ladies who have already looked over our stock of Fall Coats, makes us think we have again made a hit in our selection of styles and cloths. One of the most common remarks we hear is "My, what sensible coats for the cold weather," and they are indeed sensible, high, close fitting collars, that can be worn open if wanted that way. Many belted Norfolk effects; cuffs that can be strapped tight round the wrist in the cold weather, some even have long throw of self material to save a fur necklet, and many other features combined with moderate prices which stamp our coats as leaders.

The cloths are the finest that money can buy, fine chinchillas, heavy tweeds and homespuns, heavy English and Scotch mixtures, sealottes and velvets, also astrachans, they are nearly all double faced cloths, and in many cases are trimmed with the reverse side of the cloth. We are showing these new coats in the heavy kind, from

$15.00 UP TO $50.00

So you have a wide range to choose from. Come and pick yours out now. We will place one away till wanted for a small deposit.

WASHOUT ON C. P. R. LINE DISRUPTS SCHEDULES

Long Section of Track Carried Out and Trains From West Held Up Many Hours

Timely Warning of Track Walkers Prevents Damage to Life and Rolling Stock

A mountain torrent that swept down the Canadian Pacific tracks Saturday morning took out a long stretch of railroad near Rogers' Pass and held up all traffic from the west until 11:35 last night. The washout was discovered by track walkers, and all trains were warned of the danger in ample time to prevent damage to rolling stock.

Passengers were held at Jasper and other points along the line during the washout, and yesterday the work of transferring them around the wrecked portion of the track began. A large force of workmen was hurried to the scene and necessary repairs made.

RUSSIAN DIPLOMAT IS TOO KEEN FOR ABDUL HAMID

London, August 24.—Diplomats abroad tell how a distinguished member of the Russian corps diplomatique cleverly outwitted Abdul Hamid, the late Sultan of Turkey. The Russian displayed a curious ingenuity in introducing the business of his country in the guise of personal pleasure.

It appears that the Sultan had also refused to grant an audience to a member of the diplomatic body at Constantinople and that during the period in question Abdul Hamid spent the greater part of his time in cock-fighting, an amusement wherewith he was passionately fond.

Dark Persons Not Productive.
 There seemed as though that in this country the dark race could more easily adapt itself to a town life. The poorer parts of many towns containing the darker elements, hardly showed traces of any lowering in the output of children.

Dealing with Militarism and Eugenics, Professor Kellogg, of Stanford University, California, referred to the army as the breeding ground of disease. General von Barden (Germany), who followed, declared that military life was healthy.

Colonel Melville said the effect of militarism was to prevent disease when militarism was properly understood. It protected young men and saved them discipline.

Colonel Warden said that our army would be taken from the worst specimens from the eugenic point of view. "Today, however, the standard was very high, and although there was a lot of disease in the army, it was steadily decreasing.

While it might certainly be said that some of those who attained the superior mental capacity, declared Professor Achille Loria (Turin), it was also possible that the large majority were composed of degenerates, and that no section of them excluded that class.

Rules Reversed.
 If individuals belonging to the upper economic classes were truly the privileged depositories of superior aptitudes, their offspring ought to show those aptitudes in a marked degree, and should present the most wonderful results. As a matter of fact, the very opposite took place, and it was exactly marriage of class and caste which furnished the most deplorable results.

Dr. Ghil (Cagliari, Italy) declared that the births of eminent people occurred with the greatest frequency in winter and with less frequency in summer.

At the concluding sitting of the congress on Tuesday Dr. Alfred Moen maintained that the injurious effects of alcohol depended on the dilution. The latest investigations showed that alcohol over a certain percentage was injurious to the quality of the offspring, not only where the mother drank, but also where the father alone was a drinker. He suggested the division of alcoholic liquors into classes according to the amount of alcohol they contained, duty being paid according to the strength.

Dr. F. W. Mott, F.R.S., pathologist to the London County Asylum, read a paper on "Heredity and Eugenics in Relation to Insanity." Now and then, said a great man arose from an apparently unknown or bad stock. Because a parent was insane the children were not necessarily insane or useless to the race.

Dr. Mott added that in boroughs with a poor population in the county of London there was a much higher percentage of insanity than in the better class boroughs.

SPENDS VACATION VIEWING BOUNTIFUL CROPS

Immigration Inspector James Craig Returns From Outing Over Provinces

Immigration Inspector James Craig, who has been on a three weeks' vacation, is again on duty at the C. P. R. depot. While away Mr. Craig took in a number of the provincial fairs, including those at Lettbridge, Moose Jaw and Edmonton. Among other points visited were Winnipeg, where he had not been for 25 years, and Taber.

"Everywhere I journeyed," said Mr. Craig, "I found good crops and a general air of prosperity. I took a trip 80 miles into the country around Taber, and was agreeably surprised at what I saw. Already harvesting is about finished in that district and the yield is good."

AEROPLANE FIRE BRIGADE IS LATEST THING

Chicago, Aug. 24.—An aeroplane fire company was created at a moment's notice yesterday at the Cicero flying field. As a result Chicago claims the credit of being the first city in the world to put the flying machine to this use.

James Beach was preparing to ascend in a biplane at the south end of the field when his motor caught fire. The blaze attacked parts of the wings and supports and the smoke was seen at the field house, half a mile away.

Andrew Drew, field director, called to Max Little to jump into a machine, and at the same time placed a chemical extinguisher in the hands of Little's mechanic and pushed him into the seat beside the aviator. The "run" was made in less than a minute and the flames extinguished before serious damage was done.

ELEPHANT DRIVES POLICE TO TREE TOPS

Chicago, Aug. 24.—An elephant crazed, it is said, because of its keeper's failure to give it water, burst its chains and escaped from a wild west show in Englewood, a suburb, yesterday. Hundreds of persons were terrorized by the maddened beast, which, in its flight smashed fences, uprooted trees and overturned one or two small buildings. Police sent in wagons to capture the elephant were forced to climb trees. Showmen finally coaxed it into a corner and shackled it.

FARMER ATTEMPTS TO STEAL NEIGHBORS GIRL

Battle Ensues; One Killed and One Fatally Injured—Kidnapper Kills Himself

Belle Plaine, Kan., Aug. 24.—In a fight which followed an attempt by Sam Wood, a farmer, 35 years old, to kidnap Ethel Manahan, daughter of Matt Manahan at the latter's farm, near here, early today, James Thompson, 16 years old, was killed; Matt Manahan was fatally wounded, and Gaylord Manahan, 15 years old a son, was hurt. Wood spared young Manahan's life when the latter agreed to drive him to safety.

Wood was overtaken by the posse near his own farm, two miles north of Belle Plaine. He ran from a cornfield into the road and fired three bullets into his breast. He was brought here fatally wounded.

Wood lived on a neighboring farm. During the night he drove to the Manahan place in a buggy and peeked out young Thompson, a farm hand. He demanded that Thompson produce Miss Manahan. The young woman had been aroused by loud talking in the yard and, overhearing the conversation of the two men, fled to a room and locked the door.

Thompson declined flatly either to produce the girl or tell where she might be found. After further parleying Wood deliberately fired at Thompson, and the latter fell dead with a bullet through his heart.

The elder Manahan then appeared upon the scene. Wood grabbed an iron bar and, after a struggle, beat Manahan over the head. Leaving Manahan unconscious on the ground, within twenty feet of where Thompson's body was stretched prone, Wood attacked Gaylord, the young son of Manahan, when he pleaded with the murderer to spare the lives of his father and sister.

Wood's reply was a blow which stunned the boy but did not seriously injure him. Wood then entered the house and started a search for Miss Manahan, but, failing to find the young woman, ran out into the yard. Young Manahan had recovered and on his knees pleaded with Wood to save the lives of his father and sister. Wood promised to do so if the boy would help him get away. The two jumped into Woods' buggy and drove rapidly to the south. Two miles distant Wood entered a cornfield, dismounted the vehicle, and ordering Manahan "to return home."

Arriving home, young Manahan spread the alarm, and soon after daylight a posse had started in pursuit of Wood. A physician who treated the elder Manahan stated his condition was serious.

Kansas Hopper Pest a Myth

GETS VALUABLE ISLAND BY RIGHT OF DISCOVERY

Tacoma, Aug. 24.—Richard E. Hays, a Tacoma newspaper man, is today the owner of an island in American lake which has cost him nothing. In the American lake district are some of Tacoma's finest suburban residences, besides the magnificent quarters of the Tacoma Country and Golf Club.

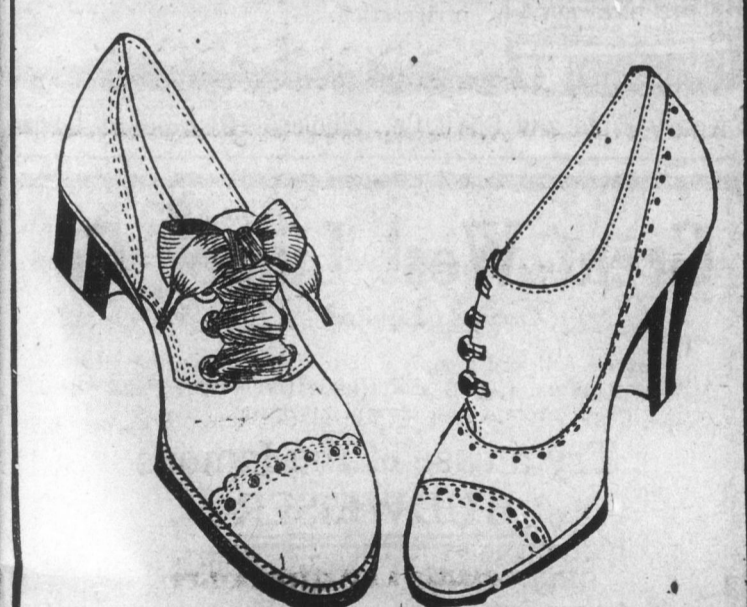

The lake is a good sized body of fresh water and the district is increasing yearly in popularity for suburban homes. Many lagoons and inlets fringe the lake.

Hays got this island by right of discovery the other day. It is about three acres and is timbered.

When he found it unoccupied, Hays made inquiries at Olympia and today found that it had never been filed on and was unclaimed. He promptly proceeded to "squint" for the island is valuable property which, by some freak chances, has been entirely overlooked by people who have been paying high prices for American lake shore lands.

Eastern Farmer Visits City
 F. A. Goodson, a prosperous farmer of Eastern Ontario, is a visitor to the city, where a brother is engaged in the real estate business. Mr. Goodson has been travelling leisurely across the country and inspecting crop and other conditions and is an enthusiastic champion of the west. Describing his trip through the west, he says he has never seen greater evidence of prosperity or a better outlook for the future.

The rapid building of cities, especially Calgary, has been a revelation, and he expressed himself as charmed with the city, and is confident of its future as a great metropolis. Mr. Goodson will remain some time in the city and may become interested financially here.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic. "Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. It makes Weak Women Strong. It makes Sick Women Well. Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this justly famous and not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drug. It is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

A ROMANCE BETRAYS MAN LONG SOUGHT

Detectives Trail Woman When She Visits Robber Wanted For Murder in Chicago

Also Charged With Being Party to Robbery of New Westminster Bank

Chicago, Wednesday, August 24.—The romance of Herman Dehm and Kitty Short finally has delivered the man into the hands of detectives who vainly had hunted him for months. When Dehm was arrested in Sandusky, O., while in the act of blowing open a safe, the police did not know they had trapped a man wanted for murder in Chicago and for a score of robberies in scattered cities. Neither did Pinkerton detectives, who had been after him know that Dehm was in custody.

But a Pinkerton operative had been trailing Kitty Short, or Agnes Drew, whom they knew as Dehm's particular woman favorite. Kitty went to see Dehm in jail. She unknowingly led the detectives to her man. Now Dehm will be brought back to Chicago today. He is under indictment here for the first murder committed in 1912. As the new year was being welcomed noisily throughout the city Dehm shot and killed a man who had lured a helpless dog.

Federal secret service men also have been seeking Dehm. He is wanted for robbing the post office in Richmond, Va., where loot of $50,000 was obtained.

Man Finally Blunders Dehm's capture, like the revelation of his identity, was due to a miscalculation. He blundered and made so much fuss in preparing to blow open a safe in Sandusky that citizens were attracted. A posse quickly formed and surrounded Dehm.

Though escape seemed out of Dehm put up a fight. He drew his revolver and duelled with members of the posse until his ammunition was exhausted. Nobody was struck by the bullet, but a charge of attempted murder has been lodged against the prisoner for shooting into the posse. Dehm was for a day congratulating himself that he was held only for the attempted robbery and the shooting. Then his sweetheart visited him in jail and it all came out.

Police Chief Welingtons of the Ohio city now says Dehm is implicated in a series of robberies in Ohio towns committed by the "Deer Creek" gang of Cincinnati. Admissions have been made by the prisoner, according to the chief, which promise to lead to the discovery and capture of a band of yeg-men who have been making rich hauls in the state.

Will Go to Chicago But the most serious charge against Dehm is contained in Chicago murder indictment, and the Ohio authorities are expected to acquiesce in the prisoner's extraction to face the indictments in Chicago and two city detectives departed at night to bring Dehm to Chicago.

The Chicago murder for which Dehm is under indictment occurred in the saloon of Pat Hughes, 222 East 34th Street, at 12:05 a. m. January 1, 1912, the first of the night. The victim was Raymond Corbett, a chauffeur. The two had been drinking with Clarence Anderson, a friend of Corbett. As they left the place a dog was barking. Hughes followed them and growled at Corbett. Corbett kicked the dog.

Dehm took the part of the dog and drew a revolver. Corbett attempted to seize the revolver and its owner is said to have discharged it. The bullet shattered Corbett's brain. Anderson was attempting to stop the flow of blood when the police arrived.

Crimes Charged to Prisoner According to the police and the Pinkerton agency these crimes are attributed to Dehm.

May 6, 1898.—Killed Policeman Moran of Cincinnati in the "House of Horrors" when Moran attempted to raid the place. Dehm was acquitted.

September 11, 1910.—Under the alias of William Edwards he was arrested in Chicago for bank robberies.

November 5, 1900.—Arrested in New York City with John McMarrow, alias "Australian Mike," for robbing the branch of the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., owned by Hughes.

December 24, 1910.—Arrested in Louisville for post office thefts.

August 21, 1901.—Arrested in Detroit, Mich., for stealing diamonds valued at $4,000. Sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary.

November 8, 1906.—Arrested in Pittsburg, Pa., while attempting to blow safe. He fired several shots at detectives, seriously injuring two.

August 31, 1907.—Arrested in New York City while robbing the National Park Bank. Sentenced for a year at Blackwell's Island.

Wanted in Other Cities Dehm is said to be wanted on these charges:

In Cincinnati, for $10,000 robbery at jewelry store of Rogers & Krull. Reward offered.

In Chicago for robbing Nordahl & Olson, Milwaukee Avenue jewelers, of jewelry valued at $2,000.

In Pittsburg, for numerous safe burglaries.

In Richmond, Va., for robbery of post office of $80,000. He was a confederate of Eddie Fay and "Little Dick" Harris.

The police believe the capture of Dehm will break up a band of post office robbers which has terrorized country post offices.

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF SUTHERLAND, WITH DAUGHTER, ON THEIR WAY TO ALBERTA

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24.—The Duke of Sutherland and his wife, the Duchess of Sutherland, with their daughter, the Duchess of Sutherland, arrived in Winnipeg last night, and left for Alberta today. On the present trip through the West his grace is accompanied by the duchess who for many years has been very active in philanthropic work in the Old Country, and by their son and daughter.

From Winnipeg the duke will go to Edmonton, where he will again inspect the large areas of farm lands which were recently acquired. Later the party will go to Calgary, where the duke will be spent on the duke's estate there. Lady Rosemary Leveson-Gower, daughter of the duke and duchess, will without doubt attract much attention during the present visit of the family to the West. Many romantic stories are told of her one being that she might marry Prince Arthur of Connaught, the son of the governor general of Canada.

For the past eighteen months the duke has been working on a broad scheme which involves the bringing out of a large number of Old Country farmers and placing them on the lands which he has secured. A party of two hundred of the first of these arrived in Winnipeg today. Those who are brought out find themselves placed on farms which have buildings on them and a crop already in the ground. The duke offers every opportunity of acquiring full knowledge of the farming conditions in this country, and if they wish to remain in the world to work a permanent residence they can purchase the property on reasonable terms. Already several families have come out and are doing well.

"CAN A NATION BE A GENTLEMAN?" ASKS THE CENTURY MAGAZINE

The following article, which will appear as an editorial in The Century Magazine for September, is here printed in advance sheets by permission of the editor of The Century: There was only one question that should have been involved in the discussion of the Panama canal, and that was: Shall the United States government keep its pledged faith with the nations of the world, as embodied in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty? In that treaty the United States government, acting through the president, gave its solemn pledge to abide by this stipulation. The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing the rules on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation, or the vessels of such nation, in respect of the conditions of charges of traffic, or otherwise. Such conditions and charges of traffic shall be just and equitable, and shall not be impossible to make language more clear than this. A SPECIAL GUARDIAN FOR $3,000,000 BABY

New York, Aug. 25.—With the birth of a son to Mrs. John Jacob Astor it is learned that it will be necessary for the United States government to employ a special guardian for the infant. The baby is the child of the late Mrs. Astor, who died in 1907. The child is now in the custody of the late Mrs. Astor's estate. The government has agreed to pay $3,000,000 for the special guardian.

HAD STOMACH RUMBLINGS DISTRESS BEFORE MEALS

Was Seldom Free From That Weary, Droopy, Half-Dead Feeling

Now Cured, and Gives Good Advice to Others With Dyspeptic Tendencies

If you have any stomach distress at all you will certainly be interested in the following experience which is told by Mr. Edward Dawkins: "When I was working on the farm last winter I had an attack of inflammation," writes Mr. E. P. Dawkins, of Port Richmond, "I was weak for a long time but well enough to work until spring. But something went wrong with my bowels for I had to use salts or physic all the time. My stomach kept sour, and always after eating there was pain and fullness, and all the symptoms of intestinal indigestion. Nothing helped me until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Instead of hurting, like other pills, they acted very mild and seemed to heal the bowels. I did not require large doses to get results with Dr. Hamilton's Pills and feel so good that I have found a mild yet certain remedy. Today I am well—no pain, no sour stomach, a good appetite, able to digest anything. This is a whole lot of good for one medicine to do, and I can say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the best pills, and my letter, I am sure, proves it."

Be sure to get Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, 25c per box or five for $1.00, at all druggists and storekeepers, or post paid to The Catarthoone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston Canada.

CRUISE OF THE FREIGHTER PELICAN

How a Ship With a Broken Rudder Battled Against Ice Packs and Seas

Made Port Without Aid of Tug by Use of Jury Rudder Rigged to Winch

All along Labrador the old Pelican was hammering its sturdy bows against the white barrier of the North, and was considerably behind its schedule when the broad expanse of Hudson's Bay opened out to the westward of Cape Vostenholme. It is some five hundred miles across the bay to Fort Churchill on the west shore, and while still a day's run from that haven the Pelican was nipped between two grinding floes and came out after a hard tussle uninjured in hull but minus the rudder.

In this dilemma Captain Smith made shift to rig a jury rudder by trailing over the stern an extra spar with guys from the starboard end of it leading to each quarter of the ship and thence to the drum of the cargo winch at the foot of the foremast. With this jury key engine man became helmsman, but the awkward thing of it was that he could not see ahead over the bows, nor, of course, could he see the ship's compass; so it was necessary to have someone continually on duty on the bridge calling out to slack on the starboard and haul on the other, as the case might be, to keep the ship on her course.

Goods That Must Be Delivered Many a packer has limped in from a deep water passage with just this sort of steering gear, but it is doubtful if ever a vessel was called upon to make the sort of voyage which the Pelican still had before it under such conditions, for, mind you, it had on board stores for all the Hudson's Bay Company's posts which must be delivered somehow or other.

The harbor of Port Churchill is not difficult provided one keeps clear of the shoals, and this was managed by Captain Smith without mishap. Then came York Roads, where the cargo is carried ashore in lighters from several miles off the coast. The ice, however, was a simple matter, as likewise was the return voyage across Hudson's Bay although, to be sure it is not the easiest thing in the world to work a ship which can only be steered when it feels like it through floe ice and around drifting bergs.

Off Nottingham Island in Hudson's Straits the heavy ice pack was again encountered coming down out of Fox Channel before a westerly gale. Only a few miles away to the southward lay Eric Cove, where a new post had been established on the outwardbound voyage, but the ship drove helplessly past to the eastward for a whole day in the grip of the relentless foe.

Back Against the Sea The following morning it was freed from the lee, when, to the surprise of the crew, the Captain Smith started to thrash back against the towering sea and head wind to Eric Cove, "just to see how Parsons was getting along in his new rig," as one of the officers put it. "We couldn't have gone back to England without dropping in to wish Parsons good luck."

A whole day was consumed in working the ship out of Eric Cove, although the harbor presents no difficulties to a vessel of the Pelican's size. "We used up more steam," said "Mac," the second mate, "in hauling that old spar back and forth across its length than we did going ahead on engines."

On the night following the second day after this, Akpatok Island was sighted in Ungava Bay, and the Pelican, apparently recognizing an old landmark, yawed off and made a line for the head of the bay, where Fort Churchill is situated. Being in a hurry it took a short cut past the west end of the island, which had always been carefully avoided before on account of numerous rocks and shoals, but with the northerly gale and the crippled steering apparatus there was nothing for it but to let it drive and take a chance.

Steered by the Sails The lookout was doubled and men were stationed to handle the head-sails and spanker in a hurry, for they were practically steering by the sails. Small islands and reefs with the sea crashing over them appeared time and again on either side, and sometimes all stars would stand a moment tense, expecting the shock of impact, but through some superhuman intelligence (or by blind fate) the old ship picked its way through, and the next morning dawned cloudless and calm with the open waters of Ungava Bay spread out ahead. So the all-important supplies were landed at Fort Chimo, and also at the George's River post—where there is a rise and fall of seventy feet in the tide and the ship drops down out of sight between the river banks at low water.

Another battle with the ice off Cape Childley and Captain Smith gratefully recalled the assistance of the Pelican. After the struggles of the last two months the deep water voyage to St. John's was a simple matter, but it was not until late December that the battered and dauntless old bark steamed in past Signal Hill, disdaining the assistance of a tug, and let go the anchor in the sheltered waters of St. John's harbor.—J. T. Howland in The Outing Magazine.

The attendance at the Great Re-moval Sale, resulting in the sale of more than fifty instruments last week, demonstrates the character of the bargains far better than words can tell. It is the greatest sacrifice of fine instruments ever known to Calgary, and the buyers of last week are spreading the news of the great savings faster than the advertising columns of the papers. You have only to come and test the value to learn of money savings that you never before hoped to realize. Come in and select a Piano that pleases you in tone, touch and design. They are bound to please you. Then learn the price. There is where your heart will be touched. The prices are irresistible. You will admit this much when you see the instrument.

Are You Taking Poison

"In their zeal to do good, physicians have done much harm; they have hurried to the grave many who would have recovered if left to nature. All our drug medicines are poisonous, and as a consequence every dose diminishes the patient's vitality.—Dr. Alno Clark, Professor of the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Everybody knows that poison will relieve pain—for a while. That's all it will do, except to wreck the nerves and vital. A drug without poison won't even relieve. Temporary relief is not real relief. You want a cure. What's the use of relieving an ailment today, if it will return worse than ever tomorrow? That always happens when you take drugs.

The best way to cure any trouble is to help nature cure it. Drugs don't do that. Nature demands power, strength, vitality. You get that from electricity.

There's a whole lot to know about applying electricity so that it will cure. We have spent a good many years learning how to use it successfully, and we'll give you the benefit of our knowledge. Our Electro-Vigor is the result of years of study and experiment. It has cured some of the most stubborn cases after drugs and other treatments had failed.

Electro-Vigor is the dry cell battery for saturating the nerves and vital with life-giving electricity. It builds up vitality and strength in every weakened organ and removes the cause of disease by giving to every ailing part the power to do its work as nature intended.

Electro-Vigor does not shock or blister. Its influence is powerful, yet soothing and pleasant to the nerves.

U. S. NAVY DEPARTMENT READY TO THROW TWO THOUSAND MARINES INTO NICARAGUA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Complete arrangements to throw a force of 2,000 bluejackets and marines into Nicaragua within ten days, to protect foreign lives and property and keep railroad communication open from the American legation in Managua to the Pacific coast, were made today by the navy department.

Secretary Meyers today issued rush orders for the big armored cruiser California, at San Diego, Cal., to proceed to Panama. Meanwhile the transport Prairie has been ordered from the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard to Philadelphia to take aboard 750 marines and sail to Colon.

Would Cut Off Americans This force will be sent over the Panama railroad to Panama, be taken aboard the cruiser California and be rushed northward to San Juan Del Sur and Corinto.

The line, which is American owned, runs from Managua to Corinto. If the rebels took possession of the railroad, all Americans in the capital would be cut off from the principal seaport on the Pacific.

Besides the marines and the bluejackets ashore in Nicaragua from the three American naval vessels, the Annapolis, the Tacoma and the Justia, American Minister Weitzel has asked for details at Corinto and at San Juan Del Sur, both on the west coast.

To Maintain Communication It is necessary to hold these ports in order that communication may be maintained between the cable station and the American legation at Managua.

Plans to Tunnel Divide Denver August 24.—That a separate company will be formed by James A. McIlwaine and associates, of this city, to drive a tunnel through the continental divide, at the cost of $3,500,000, to enable the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific to reach Salt Lake, was reported today.

The Boxing Championship To The Sports of Alberta

AND THE OFFERS STILL ROLL IN

A Macon, Mo., Justice of the Peace Offered to Bet on Taft.

Macon, Mo., Aug. 24.—At a meeting of the Republican committee of Macon County last week, Z. A. Rowland, a young enthusiast from Beaver, said he had $100 worth of confidence in Taft's election in his inside pocket, and that if he could find any takers for a larger amount he would bring over from his town $10,000 in real money that said Taft would be successful. Since the wager was published Mr. Rowland's mail has been annoying. Some forty or fifty strangers have taken the liberty of writing to him, asking whether a man with sagacity enough to accumulate $10,000 was really willing to risk it on Taft. The expressions have not been pleasing to Taft's champion. "To exhibit such eager haste to bet against the chief magistrate of the nation is improper, almost indecent," he says. Besides, it is wrong to bet with real money. There's a law against it. And Mr. Rowland is a justice of the peace, engaged in upholding the majesty of the law.

ENGLAND GOING TO OGS, SAYS ALIEN

London, Aug. 24.—"There is no doubt England is going to the dogs, and much more quickly than people imagine."

This is the assurance of Dr. L. Forbes Winslow, founder of a British League for mental diseases and an expert on the subject of insanity, who has been engaged in many cases in England and the United States.

The mental condition of people of England, continued Dr. Winslow, "is most deplorable. Degeneracy is alarmingly on the increase."

"Crime is also markedly increasing, but many of the serious crimes are for crime actually are suffering from some pronounced form of mental disease."

"I am convinced Dr. Winslow says that the real cause of the trouble is the 'difficult path of the problem,' and that the nation is going to the dogs."

"I might have had a far better time here on earth if I did not know that I was going to die before they get their insurance and most folks have to cross the dark water of life."

"I was in love with her, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me."

"I was in love with her, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me."

"I was in love with her, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me."

"I was in love with her, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me, and she was in love with me."

FUGITIVE WROTE TO SEEKERS

Hutchinson, Kas., August 24.—A letter signed by Oscar Dudley, the fugitive ex-foreman of the Con Rawlins Ranch, who attempted to carry away the wife of his employer on the night of August 9, is said, as received by Sheriff C. C. Beck here today.

The postmark on the letter is either Butler or Butler, Kas. The postmark on the letter is not distinct. A farmer who lives near Hutchinson, Kas., has in his wagon for four miles on the Hutchinson road today. The officers are taking new interest in the case.

RUSSIAN CANAL PROJECT REVIEWED

London, Aug. 24.—In consequence of the recent closing of the Dardanelles and the ruinous losses incurred by Russia in the war, the project of a canal between Riza and Kherson, in order to connect the Baltic with the Black Sea, has been revived.

CHRONICLES OF THE KHAN

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Aug. 24.—Butter is quiet and unchanged. Receipts for week 14,362 packages against 18,107 a year ago.

Chicago Cattle

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Cattle. Receipts 300, market nominally unchanged. Receipts $7.50 to $10.50; Texas steers $5.00 to $6.85; Western steers $6.25 to $8.55; cows and feeders $4.40 to $7.35; cows and heifers $2.65 to $8.10.

THE MARKETS

Winnipeg Wheat

Winnipeg, Aug. 24.—Trading on the wheat market in options was dull and quiet, with prices firmer and volume of business light.

New York Stocks

New York, Aug. 24.—Apart from the extreme weakness of C.P.R. which registered another severe decline, on fairly large dealings, there was little of interest in today's narrow and dull stock market.

Chicago Wheat

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Outlook for large arrivals of North West wheat dull and quiet, with prices firm.

DO YOU WANT CHEAP LUMBER

Fifty-two Yards in Alberta—Two Yards in Calgary

Few people appreciate that there is quality in lumber the same as there is in tea, or in paint, or in most other articles. Cheap cut lumber or green lumber in better grades will build a house that when well painted, will look fairly well for a few months. Such a building in our extreme climate soon takes on a dilapidated cheap look, making it difficult to sell, difficult to rent, and uncomfortable to live in.

We have always made a specialty of the highest quality, and owing to the tremendous size of our business we are able to buy our lumber for as low a price as would be generally asked for a poorer quality. This has built up our large business—the largest in Western Canada.

Before building inspect our stocks and permit us to give you evidence that quality considered, our prices cannot be beaten. Particular people use our lumber. If your contractor obtains his lumber from us it is a sign that he is a particular man and demands the best of everything.

Canada Cement Co

Total Capacity of Barrels a Year West Has E

Output Capacity of Calgary Barrels to 1,500 B Sixty Days,

WHAT THE Canada Cement which will increase barrels a year is the F. P. Jones of the company. Output of practically double ever consumed in the past, approximately $4,000,000 in from Winnipeg.

Included in the improvement of the Calgary plants a day.

"The improvements at the Calgary plant," said Mr. Jones, "will be completed within sixty days, the plan of cement a day.

"Improvements in the turning out from 1,600 to 2,000 barrels a day, a total output of the Calgary plants a day.

"At Winnipeg, the capacity of the plant is now 1,000 barrels a day. It is now capable of handling plenty of stock on hand to enable the plant of 4,000 barrels a day.

"In addition to these improvements," continued Mr. Jones, "we expect to put in a mill at Hat having a capacity of 2,000 barrels a day.

Faith in Future of Calgary "You see," said Manager Jones, "the future of the city is fast in the future as in the past. If you don't, we are to be hurt, for the improvements that our output will be far in the next year of what it ever was past—practically double in fact, means the expenditure of $4,000,000 and we would not undertake it if we had great faith in the future of the city and the West."

Referring to the cement situation in the city, Mr. Jones said there were good sized stocks on hand at the head of the lakes, Gary and at Exshaw.

"The shortage of spring water of the most temporary character," Mr. Jones, "and was due to an extraordinary late opening of the season. The result of the late opening of the season was the result of the late opening of the season, which resulted in the reduction of the water supply. The result of the late opening of the season was the result of the late opening of the season, which resulted in the reduction of the water supply.

Eliminate Transportation F "It was on account of this due to transportation conditions we decided upon these improvements."

SNOW SLIDES DELAY WILLIAM MCKENZIE

Vancouver, Aug. 26.—Sir Mackenzie will not reach from the coast until the 29th, having been delayed with the sleds of other passengers. The slide will be a heavy one, and will delay the train, regular and special. Chinese train and a special of the coast will be delayed a day, will commence arriving on the 29th.
