TORONTO'S DEPARTMENT TO LEAVE AT NIGHT-THE NEW WELL EQUIPPED.

Commissioner Arrangements—Thousands Anxious for Service—Battled in the Qu'Appelle Valley—Plas-Fot gives assurance of Loyalty—New stores captured by the insurgents—Telegraphic communication interrupted.

At last we are able to give our readers some definite information as to the fight at Duck Lake on Thursday last. A party was in process between Major Crozier and Riel under a flag of truce; the half-breed fired on the police; the latter answered. Twelve of Crozier's party were killed, while 47 of the rebels were either killed or wounded. Crozier retired to Fort Carlton, a few miles westward and joined Col. Irvine. Next day, Friday, Col. Irvine destroyed the fort and the stores in it and with Crozier repaired to Prince Albert, the main settlement in the locality, where he is now posted. The only means of communication with him is by courier westward to Battleford and then by wire to Winnipeg.

The situation is still therefore so very serious, that it will require a large force to subdue the rebels and bring in the ringleaders. The rebels are evidently bent on fighting; they must fight or submit.

It is to be hoped that Crozier did inflict severe punishment on the Metis in the battle at Duck Lake for they appear to have acted most treacherously.

So much for the situation there. The next matter is that of putting down the rebellion. Gen. Middleton is asking for large reinforcements—say many 2000 men. As far as we can see he ought to look for as many men as possible in the province of Manitoba and the territory beyond. The past and present in the way of transporting Ontario militia are quite serious. Our men cannot be in Winnipeg till the middle of next week.

The next point concerns the fenians. Where there is smoke there is fire. If the fenians in the States are not now supporting and counselling Riel they are at least ready to take advantage of any mistake in Canada's frontier. They would try to cross the Vermont frontier or the Ontario frontier, or over the boundary line in the Northwest. Besides thinking of putting down the rebellion the government, we know, are compelled by reason of information in the States to pay attention to the defence of the country from Indian invasion in case the active militia is taken off to the Northwest.

Fort Carlton Burned Down.

WINNIPEG, Man., 29.—Fort Carlton is reported burned. It is believed to be accidental, but believed by military critics to have been done by Col. Irvine as a military stratagem to prevent it falling into the hands of the rebels, who thereby might secure additional stores, supplies, and arms. It has been ascertained that there are not probably over 500 armed men among the insurgents, although could arms and ammunition be procured probably three times that number could be placed in the field. The half-breeds are determined and seem resolved, now that blood has been shed, to force their way to an indulgence will be shown them.

If news from Col. Irvine is at all favorable it is believed that he will move forward with troops now under his command, and not wait the arrival of troops now in the way from the east. Col. Strang, who raised the men at Calgary, has been, it is rumored, ordered to repair with his men at Qu'Appelle to join with the troops from Winnipeg and is expected to begin the march to-morrow to Prince Albert to the assistance of the mounted police. Telegraphic communication is interrupted.

Messengers sent from Battleford to Fort Carlton have returned, being unable to force their way through the rebels, who seem to intend the whole country around that fort.

A second battalion of infantry has been put in commission here eight companies strong for service in the city and under the command of Lieut. Col. Osborne Smith, late deputy adjutant general of this military district.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 29.—The report of the burning of Fort Carlton is confirmed by a despatch received by Commissioner Wray, of Hudson Bay Co. Col. Irvine, with 260 police and volunteers, left the post on Friday after burning the stores and other supplies likely to fall into the hands of the rebels. Its evacuation was rendered necessary from lack of provisions to supply the increased force and the exposed character of the post.

Col. Irvine has gone to Prince Albert, as being easier to defend and a larger settlement.

The only means of news from Prince Albert will be by courier to Battleford, and thence by telegraph to Winnipeg.

Additional particulars of the fight at Duck Lake show that the firing was begun by the rebels while Major Crozier was holding a parley with Riel under a flag of truce. The rebels lost forty-seven killed and wounded.

A rebel emissary who has been traveling amongst the reserves on the north side of the mountains of the Crown at Fort Carlton, and who was arrested at Fort Pitt.

News has just been received of the capture of the steamer "The New Well" on the way to Battleford to make a demand upon the authorities.

The report, that Capt. Moore is dead still lacks confirmation.

The mail service has been interrupted through the route at Prince Albert. The last mail is now detained at Humboldt, and will probably reach its destination along with the military.

The supposed lost mail from Edmonton, Battleford and Prince Albert, escaped by the route at Prince Albert, and arrived at Duck Lake, where a crowd of half-breed women assembled and searched the mail. They returned to Prince Albert.

All the Hudson Bay supplies and government stores being freighted to the Northwest from Qu'Appelle have been seized by the rebels at Battleford crossing.

The special train with the second detachment of troops from Winnipeg reached Qu'Appelle yesterday.

The excitement here continues intense. The insurgents were referred to in the pupils of many churches to-day, and prayers offered for the success of the troops.

A blizzard is raging in the Qu'Appelle valley to-day, and may delay the transportation of troops.

Gov. Dewdney has had another conference with the Fenians at other chiefs, and has again been assured that they would remain loyal.

Hilliard Miles, postmaster at Stobart near Duck Lake, is a prisoner in the hands of the rebels.

The people of Medicine Hat have resolved to form a volunteer corps.

News are being employed to watch the movements of the half-breeds to the north and westward. The Canadian Pacific railway authorities have resolved to organize a regiment. Capt. Gaultier will command a Manitoba university students are enrolling.

Col. Scott, M.P., is expected to arrive from London to raise a volunteer corps. He has telegraphed advice to the old officers of the former Red River expedition to recruit companies and to get as many men of the old corps together as possible.

A special train with arms, ammunition and supplies for the eastern troops is expected to reach here to-night.

The latest despatch indicates that the Indians are expected to be in the neighborhood of the mouth of the Red River, and their families are being transported to Swift Current station.

Telegraphic communication between Battleford and Edmonton has been interrupted.

A train will go east to-morrow and push on to the end of the Canadian Pacific railway and remain at the gap awaiting the arrival of troops from Ontario.

Capt. Newra's capture.

OTTAWA, March 29.—A telegram has been received from Calgary to the effect that the rebels have been in the effect of the Government's body guard and the community from retired army officers and ministers down to raw recruits and apprentices.

Two Gallies guns have been forwarded from Halifax and will meet the Toronto contingent at the mouth of the Red River. There are in all about 150 men in the expeditionary force. The Canadian Pacific railway authorities have resolved to organize a regiment. Capt. Gaultier will command a Manitoba university students are enrolling.

The World had a Sunday edition out on the streets at 7 o'clock, and a general strike followed, but their aggregate sales did not much more than exceed the circulation of the day before. The demand for papers continued throughout the day and up to 10 o'clock last night, the newspaper offices being in a state of confusion.

Riel's Hiding Place in Quebec.

QUEBEC, March 29.—A keeper of the Beauport asylum stated here last night that Riel had been an inmate of that institution for two years. He states that Riel is a man of great energy and undaunted character. In course of conversation he admitted that Riel had never been insane but was in hiding at that institution, and further that the government was fully aware of his whereabouts at the time, but pretended not to be.

The City Yesterday.

The enthusiasm among the volunteers and citizens was unabated yesterday, and the war fever seemed to have struck every body. From an early hour in the morning the streets were thronged with people, the busses of the Grenadiers and the busses of the Queen's Own being here, there and everywhere.

In fact, there was nothing else talked of yesterday, either in the home circles, at church, or on the streets. War, war, was the cry, and war it will be till Mr. Riel and his followers are crushed.

At the time the volunteers were ordered to parade in the morning, the major of the 45th, he and Major McMurtry, now of Port Perry, were sent from the 40th in the Ontario battalion in the late expedition against Riel.

Sam Hughes, the old lacrosse war-horse, is captain adjutant of the 45th.

will be decided to-day.

Whether Russia and England will fight or not.

Baron de Giers' Answer Anticipated.

London, March 28.—There is a marked tone in the war scare. Among the very sober minded there is no war scare at all. Some of the most fiery tongues were beginning to ask what real grounds they have had for causing all the alarm of the past week. After pointing everybody in a fever-heat of excitement by springing without notice the call for reserves, the military are now apparently attempting to minimize the import of his majesty's message by declaring that the number of the militia is being resorted to. Every effort has been made to draw the government out on this point, but without success. It is generally believed that not over 20,000 men are wanted. This number would be about enough to fill the vacancies in the muster rolls caused by the recent drafts for Egyptian and Modjibah war stations. Some people think there never was any danger of an actual conflict with Russia, and that the government has been trying to obtain glory through the war stations. London, March 28.—There is a marked tone in the war scare. Among the very sober minded there is no war scare at all. Some of the most fiery tongues were beginning to ask what real grounds they have had for causing all the alarm of the past week. After pointing everybody in a fever-heat of excitement by springing without notice the call for reserves, the military are now apparently attempting to minimize the import of his majesty's message by declaring that the number of the militia is being resorted to. Every effort has been made to draw the government out on this point, but without success. It is generally believed that not over 20,000 men are wanted. This number would be about enough to fill the vacancies in the muster rolls caused by the recent drafts for Egyptian and Modjibah war stations. Some people think there never was any danger of an actual conflict with Russia, and that the government has been trying to obtain glory through the war stations.
