WATFORD, DEC. 7, 1906.

BROOKE.

Ed. Bowly has returned from a trip to the west.

A. C. McIntyre, London, visited at his old home this week.

Foster Corstine is home from the west on a visit to relatives in Brooke.

William Roy Leacock, the 5 months' old twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Lachlan McNeill, con. 14, passed away Sunday, after a two week's illness. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon to the Alvinston cemetery, and was conducted by the Rev. T. B. Coupland.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert Greenfield will be pleased to hear that he has reached his new home, near Edmonton in safety. Although he was eighteen days on the trip everything in the car arrived in good condition. Mrs. Greenfield and children are visiting at Strathroy, but will join Mr. Greenfield in the course of a few weeks.

It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of one of Brooke's most highly esteemed and respected residents in the person of Walter Morcom, whose death took place at his home on the 6th line, on Friday morning last after a lingering sickness of about a year. Mr. Morcom was in his 54th year. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and also of the Forester's lodge. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three children namely: Alex. and Arthur and Minnie all at home, all of whom have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their great bereavement. The funeral service was held at the family residence on Monday at one o'clock, Rev. J. M. Wallace officiating. The remains were conveyed to Alvinston cemetery for interment. The pall-bearers were: Frank Carson, Samuel Adams, Arthur Loosmore, Thos. Mathews, Jas. Hill and Daniel Cushman.

WARWICK.

John Miller, 4th line, returned Monday after spending a week visiting his brothers, David and Archie Miller, Mount Pleasant, Mich., and also his sister, Mrs. H. Baird, Sarnia.

Grace Church Sunday School, 4th line, will give a Christmas tree and entertainment in the school house on Christmas eve. Chair to be taken at 8 p.m. A good time may be expected. Look out for posters with full particulars.

The young people of Zion S. S., second line, have arranged for an old fashioned tea-meeting for Thursday evening the 20th. See announcement next week.

The Rev. Canon Davis, of Sarnia, will (D. V.) preach in St. Mary's church, Warwick, next Sunday, December 9th, morning and evening and in St. Paul's church, Wisbeach, in the afternoon.

While feeding a horse during his auction sale on Wednesday Wm. Styles, 6th line, S. E. R., was kicked in the knee by a horse receiving very painful injury. He is likely to be laid up for some time in consequence.

The oyster supper and entertainment under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 516, given in the village on Friday evening was a great success. There was a large crowd present and all had a good time. Oysters were served in the Town Hall and the program was given in the Orange Hall. W. M. D. Falloon, introduced County Master Paul Kingston, who presented a fine musical and literary program; Messrs. Mitchell, Luckham and Prentis coupled with their vocal selections; Miss Coupland, also of Watford, gave some popular recitations; Bert Dewar and Frank Sberk, in well rendered instrumental and a laughable farce, "The Durky Barber," in which J. Pullen, Geo. Karr, Joe Stewart, D. Stewart, and H. Fenner took part. The house convulsed with laughter. Mr. Pullen's appearance delighted the large audience. Appropriate addresses were given by Revs. Shore and Hosking. The proceeds amounted to over $50. The old Pioneer Lodge never does things by halves.

A lamentable tragedy occurred at the home of Mr. Robert Campbell, 2nd line, N. E. R., early on Saturday morning last. On returning from the barn Mr. Campbell noticed a trail of water leading to the pantry, and on entering was shocked to find the dead body of his wife lying on the floor. It is thought that the unfortunate woman first jumped in the cistern and afterwards proceeded to the pantry where the fatal deed was committed with a razor. Deceased was undoubtedly in an irresponsible condition when the rash act was committed. The recent death of a favorite daughter and the serious illness of another caused her great mental worry and physical depression, which led up to the determination that ended her life. Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late William Thompson, of Arkona, and was aged 53 yrs., and highly esteemed by all who knew her. The deepest sympathy is expressed for the estimable family in their sad affliction. The funeral took place Tuesday to the Arkona cemetery and was very largely attended.

Navigation Closing.

Detroit, Dec. 4.—This week will practically wind up the 1906 season of navigation. The ore boats are on their last trips, but coal and grain boats will probably be loaded up to the week from Wednesday, when marine insurance expires. Zero weather at the head of the lakes has frozen up the ore on the docks and has also cut off shipment from a number of mines.

Although marine insurance expires Dec. 15, it is probable some coal boats will be run after.

There are but very few lumber boats out, and this branch of navigation will also be wound up this week.

Never Sure.

Just as we get comfortably settled down to believe something very thoroughly, something is sure to come along and try to upset us, Darwin was at first bitterly assailed, then his views were generally accepted, and now there are learned men who tell us that he was all wrong—off his base, as it were: Dalton's atomic theory of matter was accepted as conclusive until radium was discovered and then we are told that there is no such thing as an atom or a molecule; just as people were beginning to enjoy the tomato—the old 'love apple', the Lancet or somebody said that it caused cancer, and now that is laughed at; Galileo was threatened with pains and penalties for advancing the theory that the world was round and moved round the sun, and comparatively recently the late Professor Joansing, the learned negro astronomer, told us that he deserved to suffer, as he was all wrong, and the world is really flat. It is, however, about what we should do for our health that we are upset the most. Not so long ago a consumptive was kept shut up in a room with little or no ventilation, as fresh air supposed to aggravate the disease. Then came a change to the opposite extreme, and fresh air the more and the colder the better, was guaranteed to alleviate and very likely to cure. Fresh air and sunlight were and are the panacea. Major Woodruff, however, surgeon of the United States army, now comes along to try to knock that theory on the head, so far, at least as sunlight is concerned. He declares indeed, that sunlight is positively harmful, and in the cause, in the South at least of degeneration and neurasthenia. Now, will the 'fresh air' theory have to go—and shall we be told by authority that washing is bad for the epidermis, and be warned not to overdo it, if not to leave it severely alone?

DOES YOUR HEART ACHE?

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART WILL STOP THE PAIN

Is there palpitation—Is there fluttering—Is your breath short—Is it hard to find your pulse sometimes—Do you have smothering spells—Do your feet and ankles swell—Do you have fainting turns—Do you have nightmare—Do you have pain in the left side, shoulder or arm—Ever experience great hunger and exhaustion—Do you have chilly sensations? Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart has saved thousands of sufferers, and it can help and cure you; but you cannot afford to toy with heart troubles, so if you have any of the heart symptoms to-day then to-day is the day to put yourself in touch with a remedy—this great heart treatment that never fails.

"I was under treatment," says Mr. A. Lavers, of Collingwood, Ont., "with some of the best physicians in London (England) for what they diagnosed as incurable heart trouble. I suffered agonies through pain about my heart, fainting spells, palpitation and exhaustion. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. The first bottle relieved me greatly; two bottles took away all traces of my heart trouble."

Anæmia

In every street of every Canadian town you will meet with anæmic girls and women! Look at the pale lips, the waxy complexion, the dark rings round the eyes, the springless carriage! Are you a sufferer? Anæmia means that the blood is deficient in red corpuscles—those minute bodies which carry oxygen and carry energy to all the organs. Bileans replenish these corpuscles. Bileans so act upon stomach, liver and intestines that every bit of food you take is transformed into nutriment. This is how they cure indigestion, cure anæmia, cure general debility. Assimilated nutriment alone can cure anæmia. Bileans ensure perfect assimilation. Prove them! Send 1c. stamp for trial box.

Was Weak, Debilitated and Anæmic Bileans Made Her Well

Miss E. Reed, of Kingston, (Ont.), has proved how to those run down, debilitated and anæmic, Bileans come as an unspeakable blessing. She says:—"I was ill, anæmic, my blood was impoverished, and I was altogether run down. My food did not seem to do me any good. I had pains in the chest, was nervous and miserable. I tried first one thing and then another, but nothing seemed able to give me back my lost strength. Such was my state when Bileans were brought to my notice. The first few doses of this herbal remedy relieved me somewhat, and a little perseverance with their use restored me to health. Bileans are a splendid remedy, and I cannot speak too highly of them."

Bileans are also a Cure for
 Indigestion, constipation, piles, female ailments and irregularities, liver chills, rheumatism, kidney disease, blood impurities, wind spasms, pains in the chest and between the shoulders, liver congestion, biliousness, sick headache, etc. Send one cent to the Bilean Co., Toronto, and free sample box will be mailed you. All druggists sell at 50c. a box, or post free from the Company upon receipt of price (6 boxes for $2.50).

INDIAN MYTHS.

One Accounts For the Custom of Scalping an Enemy.

Among the many myths of the North American Indian the disposition of the soul after its separation from the body and its close connection with the scalp varies according to the religion of the tribe. With some the journey to the "happy hunting grounds" begins immediately; with others the spirit remains near the grave. Again, if an Indian dies away from the lodges of his people the spirit returns at once to them, where it hovers as if reluctant to leave. Among the upper Missouri river tribes it is believed that before the spirit finally departs from those who have died from wounds received in battle it floats toward a great cliff overhanging the Missouri and carves upon the wall of rock a picture showing the manner of death.

It is believed by most of the plains tribes that the soul attaches itself to the scalp; that the soul of a person scalped does not suffer from the wounds inflicted on the body, but that the opposite is the case where the scalp is not torn off.

An Indian who kills himself in battle, accidentally or purposely, has positively no hereafter. He is irrevocably lost. Those who are struck by lightning or die by any other apparently direct operation of the Great Spirit are hurriedly buried where they fell without ceremony, and no mound or mark is erected over them. If after a battle there are found corpses not scalped or mutilated it is positive evidence that such persons came to their death by their own hand, for it is a tenet of the Indian religion not to scalp or mutilate the body of an enemy who commits suicide.

Women of Ancient Rome.

"We are assured by Seneca," says the historian Inge, "that there were women in ancient Rome who counted their ages not by their years, but by the husbands they had had. Juvenal tells of one woman who had married eight husbands in five years. Divorce was granted on the slightest pretext. Many separated merely from love of change, disdaining to give any reason, like Æmilius Paulus, who told his friends that he knew best where his shoes pinched him." Rich wives were not much sought after by wise men. Their complete emancipation made them difficult to manage. Accordingly, since both rich and poor wives were objectionable, the large majority of men never married at all. In most cases a Roman bridegroom knew practically nothing of his wife's character until after marriage. Marriage for the Roman woman meant a transition from rigid seclusion to almost unbounded liberty. She appeared as a matter of course at her husband's table whether he had company or not. She could go where she liked, either to the temples of Isis and Serapis or to the circus and amphitheater. She had her own troops of slaves, over whom she ruled without interference."

Self-Protection.

"George, dear," said young Mrs. Marryat. "I got a recipe for a fruit cake to-day that will keep for a year."

"Oh!" replied the husband, "you ought to keep it longer than that."

"What? Keep a fruit cake longer?"

"No," the recipe. "Mix it somewhere."

WYOMING.

The new butcher shop opened last Tuesday morning, with a fine assortment of meats. Mr. MacKay comes among us well recommended and should receive a liberal proportion of the custom.

Miss Mary McIntyre who for some years has creditably filled the position of school teacher under principal McLean, has given notice of resignation, to take effect during the winter holidays. Miss McIntyre has secured a position in Sarnia.

The death of Mrs. Babcock occurred on Friday night at her residence in this village. Deceased was an estimable old lady, and her demise will be regretted by all. The funeral took place from her late residence, where a short service was held, after which the remains were taken to Wyoming Cemetery for interment.

The St. Andrew's supper which was held last Thursday night was quite equal to any previous event of the kind. Over three hundred attended. There was plenty of food, which was disposed of all that had been provided. Rev. Mr. Horne, of Watford, gave a very interesting and profitable address on "Wit and Humor," which called forth much merriment. Miss Sharp, of Sarnia, also entertained the audience with her charming manner in her elocutionary efforts, which furnished much amusement for the young folks. The proceeds from the St. Andrew's supper amounted to $125.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Non-Jury Sittings Opened At The Court House Sarnia On Monday.

The non-jury sessions of the High Court of Justice opened at the court house Sarnia on Monday afternoon before His Lordship, Sir William Mulock. The first case taken up was that of Gault vs. Grand Trunk Railway company. This was an action brought by W. J. Gault, of Plympton, against the G. T. R. for damages, and to have a drain constructed along and under the railway to relieve his property. The action was settled, the company paying $175 damages and agreeing to construct the drain as required. The action was adjourned pending the construction of the drain by the railway company. Hanna, LeSueur & Price for plaintiff; W. H. Biggar for defendants. Mary A. Booth vs. James Booth.—This was an action brought by Mrs. Booth against her husband for alimony. After the plaintiff's case had been put in and two witnesses for the defence called, the case was settled on the basis that the property be transferred to the Hon. W. J. Hanna and John R. Hanna, LeSueur & Price for defendants. J. T. Whittitt vs. the Morgan Lumber Company.—This was an action for the recovery of the price of goods delivered by plaintiff for defendant. Case was settled out of court. Cowan & Towers for plaintiff; Hanna, LeSueur & Price for defendant.

Grand Trunk Will Spend $900,000

The work of equipping the tunnel with electricity is progressing rapidly. The first two stories of the power house on Military street, Port Huron, which have been built of cement, are completed, and the brick work will be begun this week. A chimney, 170 feet high, has been begun and the cables to supply the tunnel with electricity have been run from the building down the shaft into the tunnel.

In the Port Huron tunnel yards $48 large iron towers have been erected, and the bridge work connecting them is now in progress. Some of these bridges will span two tracks, while others will span twelve. The longest distance is 145 feet. The towers have been placed on cement foundations and bolted down. The cement work in some instances weighs nine tons.

The Grand Trunk railway has on the ground 1,000 tons of steel rails weighing 100 pounds to the yard. These will take the place of the rails in the tunnel depot and freight yards. It is understood that the entire cost of equipping the tunnel with electricity, purchasing electric engines, building the power house and changing the rails in the depot and tunnel yards will amount to over $900,000.

Won Blue Ribbon

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Chancellor owned by T. J. Pringle, of Milwaukee, ridden by Tod Southcott, won the blue ribbon in the hunting class, at the horse show to-day, beating the celebrated Senator and Sweet Violet.

The horse was purchased by Mr. Pringle a year ago last spring from Mr. John E. Roche of Stratford.

Mr. Roche purchased him from Mr. Dougald Campbell, of Brooke. Chancellor was sired by John E. Hamilton at one time owned by W. J. Burke, of Alvinston. He was a likely looking colt and Mr. Roche when seen today by The Beacon, said he was not at all surprised at his making a record even in such a large field as that of Chicago.

Wilson-Elliott.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott, London Road, Plympton, on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, at 6 p.m., when their eldest daughter, Estella Blanche, was united in marriage to Mr. James Wilson, by the Rev. Mr. Burkholder, of Mandanville. The bride wore a very charming gown of green Sicilian cloth with trimmings of white silk and overlace, and was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel, who was attired in cream lustre with trimmings of lace and applique. The groom was supported by Mr. R. Morden, of Sarnia. Promptly at 6 o'clock the bridal party, to the strains of the wedding march played very acceptably by Miss Annabella Paton, cousin of the bride, entered the parlor and took their places under an arch trimmed with roses and myrtle. The bride and bridesmaid each carried a showery bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony, the guests, numbering about thirty, adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. After a few hours of social intercourse and music the happy couple left for their home, London Road West, amid showers of rice and good wishes. A number of beautiful presents were received by the bride, among them being a handsome gold watch from Mr. Robert Wilson, father of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold chain; to the bridesmaid a gold pin with a turquoise setting, and a pair of gold cuff links to his supporter.

REMEMBER THE DATE.

It has just leaked out that "Ralph Connor's" new story "The Doctor" has been secured by the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, for exclusive newspaper publication, and it will begin on January 2nd, 1907.

The publishers of the Family Herald intend this to be a Christmas surprise to their readers. But the news became known through a Toronto paper that expected to land the prize but failed.

"Ralph Connor is a name Canadians are proud of. 'The Man from Glengarry' 'The Prospector' and other stories have won him a great name, and the Family Herald and Weekly Star is certainly deserving of congratulations in securing 'The Doctor' for their readers.
