Fire in Montreal Causes $250,000 Damage—Highways Bill Will Be Revised—Diaz Plot Fails in Mexico—Unrest in India

MONTREAL FIRE LOSS QUARTER OF MILLION

Flames Broke Out in Clothing Factory, Deaf and Dumb Institute and Waterfront Warehouse Within Hour Sunday Morning—No Lives Were Lost.

MONTREAL, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press)—Three fires that broke out within an hour this morning kept Montreal firefighters on the jump a large part of the day, and did damage of about $250,000. The most serious was that which destroyed the premises used by the Merchants' Clothing Company and other firms at 26 West Notre Dame street, in the heart of the downtown business district.

About the same time in the forenoon the Deaf and Dumb Institute, in the north end of the city, was in flames, and then another occurred in the Canadian Pacific Atlantic Line shed on King Edward pier.

Three workmen on the third floor of the downtown building when the fire broke out were unable to say how the fire started. They escaped over the roof to an adjoining building.

Where Loss Was Heavy.
The loss is estimated at about $200,000. The building in which the fire originated, with the stock and machinery of the Merchants' Clothing Company, as well as the stocks of S. A. Desjardins and Samuel May & Co., adjoining, are a total loss.

The fire at the Deaf and Dumb Institute lasted for a couple of hours. The occupants were got out safely, and without much excitement, but the damage to the building was about $20,000.

The blaze on the river front was confined to the grain elevator of the C.P.R. Atlantic Line, between fifty and sixty feet of the conveyors being badly damaged.

BEACHEY INJURED WHEN AEROPLANE STRUCK TREE

Mishap to Propeller Caused Accident—Aviator Narrowly Escaped Death.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press)—Lincoln Beachey was severely injured late today. The propeller of his biplane flew to pieces while the aviator was flying at an altitude of about 300 feet. He started to veer, but fouled a tall tree. The machine alighted on its rudder. This broke the fall and probably saved Beachey's life. He emerged from the wreckage with a cut face and severely bruised about the legs and body, but was able to walk.

BORN IN A HOUSE AT YONGE-RICHMOND

John Lowther, for Thirty Years Weight Inspector in Toronto, Died on Sunday.

The death occurred yesterday of John Lowther, who seventy-nine years ago was born in a house on the corner of Richmond and Yonge street, the site on which now stands the Robert Simpson Co. store. His death took place at the residence of his son-in-law, Arthur W. Williams, 107 Glen road, manager of the Bell Electric Co.

The late Mr. Lowther had been connected with the Toronto Customs House for nearly thirty years as a weight inspector, from which position he retired six years ago. Previous to entering the customs service he conducted a general store at Malvern, Ont., for a number of years. He has been prominent in the A.O.U.W. and was a member of Trinity Methodist Church. The funeral takes place at 10.30 Tuesday from the residence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

HIGHWAYS BILL MAY BE SENT TO SENATE

Clamor for Good Roads Has Awakened Both Parties and Reintroduction of Measure Would Probably Result in Its Passage—Compromise is Suggested.

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.—(Special.)—There is said to be some difference of opinion among supporters of the government as to the wisdom of dropping the highways bill. Undoubtedly the Liberals suffered under the oft-repeated charge that the senate had prevented a generous appropriation for the improvement of the highways throughout the Dominion. The Liberal speakers found it difficult to arouse much interest in or sympathy with the constitutional point involved in the dispute between the two houses. The ordinary farmer with a bad piece of road between him and his market only knew that the senate had killed the highways bill.

So unpopular did the senate's action prove to be that the Liberal politicians would have insisted upon the highways bill being concurred in had it been reintroduced and passed by the house at this session of parliament, and they were frankly disconcerted by the official announcement that no such measure would be sent to the senate.

Conservatives Uneasy.
But now it is said that many Conservative members fear that it is not good politics for the house to do nothing. They say that the bill should be again sent to the senate if it passes. They argue that the government will get the credit, and if it is again thrown out by the upper chamber the Liberals will be in the hole deeper than ever. Some of them even go so far as to say that it would be better to distribute a big vote for better roads among the provinces on a per capita basis than not appropriate any money at all.

The suggestion by Mr. Rainville, government member for Chambly and Verchères, that an appropriation for the improvement of highways be incorporated in the supply bill without delaying matters by insisting upon any particular legislation has been received with considerable favor, and there is no doubt that pressure will be brought upon the government to move at this session in the direction of better roads without regard to what position the senate may take on the subject.

Fur-Lined and Coon Coats.
Now that the winter season is well advanced, Dineen's 140 Yonge street have decided to make a clean sweep of all fur-lined and coon coats. The high-grade qualities carried by this old-established house are too well known to require comment. In view of the severe part of the winter still ahead, a warm coat will be much in demand.

THE Hero of the Sinking of the Monroe— Wireless Operator F. J. Kuehne, Who Gave His Life to Save a Woman.

Wireless Operator Gave Life To Save a Woman Passenger

The heroism and death of Chief Wireless Operator Kuehne was described to President Walker by Captain Johnson of the Monroe in the following words:
"Kuehne was standing by lifeboat No. 3," said Captain Johnson, "and was about to leave the sinking ship. He had a life preserver on. I saw him unfasten the preserver, place it about the waist of a woman, and after seeing her safely away, miss his footing and fall overboard. He swam for a while in the cold, troubled waters, but before we could reach him he sank and was gone. He had stuck to the last."

HYDRO COMMISSION TO BUILD NEW LINE FROM THE FALLS TO END ALL WIRE TROUBLES

Duplicate Transmission Cables of Reinforced Steel and Aluminum Will Be Carried to Dundas Six Miles Shorter Than Present Line, and Eventually Will Be Carried All Thru the System, When All Wire Troubles Will End.

Special to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Ont., Feb. 1.—Announcement was made here by the Hon. Adam Beck, late tonight, that in a few days work will commence on a scheme which will make a repetition of Saturday night's breakdown on the hydro system out of the question. Hydro engineers have surveyed a new line from Niagara Falls to Dundas, which will be six miles shorter than the existing power line, and work on this will commence at an early date. Two cables of aluminum wire, reinforced with steel, will be strung on the new line. It is the intention to carry this new steel-reinforced cable all thru the hydro service. With the completion of the new cables over the new right-of-way, a repetition of Saturday's breakdown will not occur, and all trouble will be ended.

Detectives to Testify
QUEBEC, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—The detectives who are to give evidence in the Montreal Mall charges against certain members of the Quebec Legislature, will be present at the investigation tomorrow. The illness of Mr. Mousassa, which is reported from Montreal, will not interfere with the investigation.

FRANCE PLANS TO EQUIP BIG AERIAL WAR FLEET

Every Part of Country Will Be Made Known to Navigators.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The national subscription for the French aerial war fleet amounts to $1,200,000, according to announcement made by Senator Raymond, president of the national aviation committee at a fete at the Sorbonne today, presided over by M. Poincare, president of the republic. The lists are now closed and the fund, Senator Raymond added, would enable the committee to present to the army 210 aeroplanes, pay for the training of 75 expert pilots and erect 70 aeroplane sheds at ports of call. It is intended to establish a complete system of military air ports throughout the country so that military aeroplanes pilots will be able to acquire an intimate knowledge of every part of France, without ever being out of reach of shelter and needful supplies.

HINDUS URGING MOHAMMEDANS TO BREAK WITH BRITISH RULE

Alarming State of Affairs in India Revealed in Letter to Baptist Mission Board—Native Regiments at Burisai Involved in Plot.

Critical conditions in India are disclosed in a letter received by the Baptist mission board from Rev. R. E. Smith, Canadian missionary at Coonah. While stating that "unrest and discontent are not excessively evident," he quotes two incidents to show that "all is not smooth sailing." One was "the recent unparliamentary system of an extensive plot to corrupt the native regiments in the army, and so bring about the overthrow of the British Raj."

The other is in the declaration that "the Hindu leaders have patiently and insidiously tried to estrange the Mohammedans from their loyalty to the British government." Rev. Mr. Smith says that a number of events have helped this effort of the Hindus which have led to "clashes between the government and the Mohammedans, such as the demolition of a mosque."

"Mohammedans as a body have not yet declared themselves in sympathy with the political aspirations of the Hindu, but a very large section of the Mohammedans have come out in favor of the idea of throwing in their lot with the Hindus."

Rev. Dr. Brown, secretary of the Baptist mission board, calls the foregoing letter "a revelation."

CAB WAS HIT BY MOTOR CAR

Mrs. P. W. Ellis and Party Had Narrow Escape When Their Hack Was Overturned.

In the darkness occasioned by the absence of hydro-electric power on Saturday night, a motor car speeding down Church street struck and overturned a hack containing Mrs. P. W. Ellis, her daughter and two friends. The vehicle turned completely over, but fortunately neither Mrs. Ellis nor any of her party were injured, and they continued their journey to the theatre in another cab which was sent to the scene by the Townsend Livery. The auto struck the rear wheels of the cab, which had not cleared the car tracks as it crossed Isabella street, and Driver Glen was thrown to the ground. The tongue of the hack was broken off. Glen, assisted by two Everist of the Yorkville firehall, ran for the assistance of the ladies and opened the door, thru which they were able to emerge. The number of the motor car was taken, but Mr. Townsend had mislaid it last night.

CIVIC SURVEY REPORT WRONG

Mayor Hocken Says Arrangements Were Made With T. E. L. Co. for Emergency Connection.

When The World called up Mayor Hocken last night to inquire if the suspension of hydro-electric power on Saturday night had caused any delay or inconvenience to any of the civic authorities which use it, his worship called attention to a mistake in the recent civic survey report which found fault with the combined use of hydro power and steam power in the water works department, the latter being connected up only during "peak-load" hours. The experts of the bureau of municipal research contended that the use of the steam necessitated waste as it meant that the water works boilers had to be kept under pressure continuously for only partial use during each day.

The experts further declared that a connection should be made with some other power system, preferably that of the Toronto Electric Light Company, and expressed surprise that such an arrangement had not been made.

Mayor Hocken stated last night that an understanding was made with the Toronto Electric Light Company last summer covering this very contingency and that The Telegram had criticised him severely for being a party to it.

"We can connect the water works pumping engines with the Toronto Electric Light system in from fifteen to twenty minutes," said his worship, "and Mr. Fleming stipulated that we could use his power only in cases of emergency."

FIVE SAVED BY HEROIC OFFICER

Blew Whistle Until Breath Failed, Then Dropped Dead—Nineteen on German Barque Perished.

FALMOUTH, Eng., Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—Capt. Lorenz, the first officer, and 17 of the crew of the German barque Hera, from Pissagay, Chile, for Falmouth, lost their lives today thru the vessel striking a rock as she had almost concluded her voyage. The remaining five men were saved thru the gallantry of the first officer, who, realizing his own end, was near, handed his whistle to a comrade with orders to blow it.

This attracted the attention of the crew of a lifeboat, who rescued the men from the rigging.

The Hera encountered a gale at the entrance to the English channel. She lost her course and struck on the rocks near Pissagay. The vessel immediately lifted and the men took to the boats, which capsized. Eight succeeded in getting back to the ship, but three of them were washed off before the lifeboat arrived. The first officer, who was lashed to the rigging, blew his whistle until the rising tide had almost engulfed him. Then he passed it over with the remark: "Here, chum, you can do better with that than I can," and fell back dead.

GALT MERCHANTS USED LAMPS AND CANDLES

Hydro Power Off Nearly Seven Hours on Saturday Night.

GALT, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—Galt suffered somewhat by the break in the hydro power system last evening. The power was off here from 6.35 p.m. until 1.05 a.m. today. The merchants were the greatest sufferers in Galt and although some were fortunate in still having gas on their premises, others were forced to resort to the use of old-fashioned lamps and candles for illumination.

CANADA'S PROBLEMS LIKE UNCLE SAM'S

you the advantage of our experience in meeting many of the strains to which our political and social structure have been subjected.

Canada's Traditions. "You have eight millions of people and in a short time that number will be doubled. You have marvelous resources, a great agricultural territory, growing manufactures, a wonderful inland navigation, and my imagination fails to limit your material expansion. Your closeness to Great Britain, as the eldest daughter still in the family, has given you certain traditions that in the eyes of radical innovation may stand you in good stead."

Corruption and Corporations. "You have corruption in Canada—how much I do not know. We have had them intervene in your politics—how much I do not know. As long as your country in the United States, as long as your lands are not taken up, as long as you have pioneers who are looking for capital to develop your western country and your northern country, you people may not be aroused to the danger of a possible plutocracy. With us the time has come when the western country is largely filled and the people are securing the corporate and corrupt control of politics that for a time threatened our welfare, and we have now had a reaction in the last decade which has aroused our people to its danger."

"We are living in a transition period when the millennium is before the eyes of many and when society is being reconstructed on the basis of a perfect, altruistic, self-sacrificing man from whose soul is banished all selfishness and all of those motives that have been wont to move human nature. Our concern should not be with reference to the ultimate nature of such dreams, but our energy should be directed to making clear their inefficiency as early as possible, in order that the cost of their experiment may be as little as possible."

"The year of 2114 is a year that Canada and the United States may well cherish. It is close to a millennium, it is a year which along a boundary of 4000 miles we have no fortifications, no canons, no troops. It is true we have had our differences in several instances, but they have all been settled by arbitration and we have decided by the judgments. The further we get away from our defeats the more contented we are that arbitration makes an end of them. It is the growth of a spirit of certainty that no trouble can come between us that we should rejoice in."

Speaking on the question of the tools of Panama, Mr. Taff said that the Americans were divided among themselves as to the right and wisdom of exempting their coastwise vessels. Congress in time thought they had the right, but now the matter will have to be settled by arbitration unless congress reverse their decision. He explained that the idea of congress in passing the bill and his idea in signing it was that they were thus giving a subsidy to their coastwise ships between New York and San Francisco, in order to moderate by genuine competition the tariffs of the transcontinental railways which they had subsidized in years gone by. He drew attention to the fact that no country was affected by the coastwise traffic of the United States except Canada, and if Canada is affected in that way she can subsidize her trade between Quebec and Vancouver. "However, this may be, it turns out upon arbitration that we have no right to subsidize our own vessels at all, or that if we do, we must do it directly, and not indirectly, then we shall abide by the decision," said Mr. Happy Aggury.

At the end of his address, Mr. Taff said: "I shall not have failed in the purpose of my address if I have conveyed to you my confidence, based on a fairly intimate knowledge of both countries, that the century of peace, just now concluded, is the beginning of a number of centuries of peace between two peoples whose history and tradition and origin are so similar that a common purpose to live as close neighbors in perfect amity, with certain self-restraints, is certain to secure that beneficent result."

SUDDEN DEATH OF WILLIAM ALGIE

Well Known Manufacturer at Alton, Ontario—Cause Heart Failure.

William Algie, the proprietor of extensive woollen mills at Alton, five miles from Orangeville, died at his home early yesterday morning. He was 68 years of age.

Mr. Algie was in normal health 56 hours before his death. An attack of indigestion brought on heart trouble and death followed at 4:30 Sunday morning. Last Thursday he was in Toronto, and registered at the Walker House. He is survived by his wife and twelve children. His brothers, Dr. James Algie and Robert Algie, live in Toronto, also a son, William Algie, of 37 Lindsay avenue. Mr. Algie was one of the executors of the Dale estate, Brampton.

There will be an entertainment tonight in the Trinity Methodist Church. Miss Maud Gillman will give a reading, "Sowing Seeds in Danah." The Brampton Quartet will also contribute to the program.

Remarkable Quality, Remarkable Value, Remarkable Choice, Distinguish This Greatest of All February Sales of Furniture

Covering the Needs of the Many-roomed House and the Tiny Flat, the Imposing Mansion and the Unpretentious Cottage

NEVER BEFORE IN CANADA, we venture to say, has there been congregated in one display such a stupendous array of superfine Furniture. Gathered together from the recent trade exhibitions at Stratford, Berlin, Waterloo and Toronto, it stands as the worthiest productions of the largest manufacturers in the Dominion. Procured at wonderfully advantageous figures, it is offered at prices lower than any which have prevailed at similar events for seven years. Furniture for every type of room is represented in the offering, the following list providing some idea of the values that are featured in bedroom and dining-room pieces:—

You were Inquiring?

M. C. and M. F.—Personally, one is not familiar with the "Ben Hur Chariot Race" as a piano duet (what a stirring composition it must be!), but four selections, which have been recommended for their likelihood of meeting your requirements, are "The Dance of the Demons," by Holst, at 50 cents a copy; "The June Bug's Dance," by the same composer, at 25c; "Dance of the Shadows," by Newman, at 25c, and "Dorothy," by Smith, at 25c.

"Vere de Vere."—"Length" is conspicuous by its absence in the coats of the new suits. Etions and boleros are the ruling vogue—that is, as far as the fronts and sides are concerned.
The back is usually characterized by a peplum or pouffion effect. Last year Dame Fashion appropriated her husband's morning coat; this year she's adopted his evening swallow-tail. Of course, there are more conservative designs to be seen—jaunty little box coats with cut-away fronts, and also loose-fitting reefer styles. But all are short hip-length.
As for fashionable colors, Holland blue—a tone between navy and Copenhagen—and golden brown are two of the most popular, with the sweet pea shades of pink and purple and a bright blue called "Madonna," the leading choice among the lighter tints. Wool crepes, crepe serge, gabardine and ratine are the favorite fabrics.
Now, do you think you can make your choice, fair Lady Clare?

Minna.—I am afraid I cannot endorse with any enthusiasm the idea of draping that shelf. Whatever you might use for the purpose would give a messy, stuffy look to the wall. I should suggest staining the wood brackets and all, or if the woodwork in the room is white, enamelling it to match. With books and a couple of nicely framed photographs on it, the effect should be quite alright.

"Red Riding Hood."—A truly ingenious pseudonym for one whose poems are deeply tinged with gulf.
Dr. Glier's "Key to Virgil," books 1 to 4, is procurable at 85 cents.

CONSPIRACY OF DIAZ ADHERENTS TO OVERTHROW HUERTA FOILED CHIEF ARRESTED, RIFLES SEIZED

Government of Mexico Believes it Has Effectually Checked Plot Timed to Come to Head Today—Requena, Alleged Leader,
and Others Held.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 31.—(Can.
Press.)—With the arrest of Jose Luis Requena, chief of the Felix Diaz political organization, and two or three other men who were also prominent in his support in the late race for the presidency, and the discovery of several hundred rifles stored in a garret in the war department building, it has well in hand a new plot, which it is believed, had as its object an attempt to overthrow the government tomorrow.
The case has been handled entirely by Gen. Blanquet, minister of war, and the chief of police, Col.
Francisco Chavez, many of whose men are alleged to be implicated in the conspiracy. Plans are inclined to doubt the accuracy of the war department's information.
Used Decoy Letter.
The arrests were determined upon after the submission to Gen. Blanquet of evidence discovered by a detective, who had represented himself as Juan Ortega, a well-known rebel operating in the State of Michoacan and the territory of Tepic. The detective went

NAVAL SCANDAL AROUSSES JAPAN

Public Demands Rigid Investigation of Alleged Reign of Craft.

TOKIO, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)— Both the public prosecutor and a naval commission have opened enquiries into the charges of naval corruption.
The naval commission is headed by Admiral Baron Shigetada, and will enquire into the allegations that Vice-Admiral Kojiki Fujii, formerly Japanese naval attaché at Berlin, and other officers had received illicit commissions on contracts.
Many witnesses have been summoned to appear.
While certain opposition groups are attempting to make use of the charges in an effort to discredit and overthrow the ministry, there is no doubt that the public have been aroused over the allegations and will exact a rigid investigation.
The increased naval estimates, which are included in the pending budget, form another basis for an attack. Baron Saburo Shimada, who is leading the opposition, has issued a statement to the effect that he will seek the rejection of the naval increases in the diet because they are liable to arouse suspicion in the United States that they are aimed against that country.
PINGROVE WOMAN WANTS DIVORCE.
OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Bertha L.

AEROPLANE RACE AROUND WORLD IS IN PROSPECT

Will Start and Finish at Panama
Exposition—Big Prizes Offered.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—
The Aero Club of America announced today that it had given its sanction to an aeroplane race around the world, to be started from the Panama-Pacific exposition grounds in San Francisco in May, 1915, and to be completed at the same place within 90 days. The first prize will be $100-000. The sanction was given upon the receipt of telegrams stating that the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the Pacific Aero Club of San Francisco were organizing such a race and that application for sanction had been made.
"The telegrams state," says the club's announcement, "that the exposition offers $150,000 in money prizes, and expects to obtain at least $150,000 more, which will be divided among the contestants, the first prize to be $100,000. The race is to be run under the rules of the International Aeronautical Federation."

CHATHAM CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Seven-Year-Old Girl Receives Fatal Injuries Thru Burning Stick.

CHATHAM, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)— Mabel Carron, the seven-year-old daughter of Frank Carron of Charing Cross, was so badly burned yesterday afternoon when her clothing caught fire from a burning stick, that she died four hours later. The child remained conscious to the last, despite the fearful burns, and one of her last requests was for a drink of water. The mother was out of the house at the time and returned to find the child burned entirely off the body.

LONDON-PORT STANLEY LINE WAS PARALYZED

Passengers Sat in Motionless Cars for Hours Until Carriages Arrived.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—
The failure of the hydro power last night resulted in a complete tie-up of the London and Port Stanley line for, although the company has an auxiliary plant, they did not turn it on as they were advised that the break in the service would not be of long duration.
Many passengers on the London and Port Stanley had to sit in the dark for several hours until the company, realizing that the break was a serious one, and that the power was not likely to come on again for some time, sent out carriages to bring them into the city.

INDIAN KNOCKED WIFE ON RAILWAY

Vibration of Rails Caused Her to Recover Her Consciousness.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Jan. 31.—(Can.
Press.)—Peter Williams, an Indian, residing near Middleport, was charged in the police court today with assault and battery on his wife. It is alleged that he struck her, kicking and striking a knife in her shoulder, finally knocking her senseless on the Grand Trunk tracks.
She recovered consciousness just in time to get off the rails before a train struck her, the vibration of the rails bringing her to consciousness.

NEW RURAL DELIVERY.

WELLAND, Feb. 1.—A new rural free delivery route nineteen miles in length, to be known as R. R. No. 2, will be started next Tuesday. It will extend from Welland into Thorold and Pelham townships and cover quite an important section.

Hints on Beauty

New Style Coiffures Show Ears

By MAGGIE TEYTE

THE EARS. They are coming into fashion again. The hair which has been drawn over them is to be drawn upward and away, and pretty soon every other woman will be wearing ears. Then we shall begin to notice whether they are the shell-like things the poets sing about or just ugly, stand-out protruberances.

While we massage our faces and our necks and our hands and arms we are prone to forget all about making our ears beautiful. The sooner the work is begun the better. For it is a sure fact that as soon as the hairless ear becomes fashionable there will arise talk of ear beauty.

The ear is not only important from a beauty standpoint, but it has a lot of significance in indicating character. Expert criminologists study the ear with as much interest as they do the nose and mouth and eyes. The perfect ear is the ear in exact proportion to the rest of the body. It is set on the head at the right angle. It has a lobe that is in ratio to the upper part. And the upper part, the rim of the ear, must be neither too close nor too full. The study of the perfect ear is the ear that does not attract attention.

There is the saying that the small ear denotes sagacity and narrow-mindedness, and the big ear means generosity. It is beyond me to give information on this score. I am talking of the ear because they pulled their caps down and bent them. Well, they don't do it nowadays, and the modern parent has learned the importance of molding the child ear into proper shape. If there is the least evidence of big ears the ear cap is adjusted whenever the child sleeps, or when he is in the house and the ear is early trained in the way it should go.

Wearing the hair over the ears has done the work of the ear cap. But it has not gone far enough. It has kept the ears in place during the day and at night, but the hair, when it is crumpled up, also we have worn ear-rings, and they have pulled the lobe down slightly. Let's begin the ear treatment. If your ears are not in correct position tie them in place at night. Then see that they are daintily pink. The pink ear is the sign of health as well as beauty. I am not going to tell you to massage the ear, for it will do damage instead of good unless done by an expert. But I would have you apply a dab of cold cream to the rim each night, removing it carefully with absorbent cotton.

Then if you use powder and a wee bit of rouge on your face don't neglect the ears. Touch the lobe, ever so lightly, with rouge. It should be daintily pink. And dust the rim of the ears with powder. It must be done carefully, for the perfect ear is the natural ear, and ears that evidence "make up" are a blemish to any face.

SOLITAIRE

By MICHELSON

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service.

THERE are many kinds of solitaire, but there are hearts in all of them—and diamonds. Hearts and diamonds. Yes, and Jacks. When a Queen picks up a Jack of Diamonds—oh, well! You can guess the rest. The mind quite naturally travels along certain lines until you can't help thinking about and looking at that other solitaire flashing and winking and promising on just the right left finger.

Every game halts in the presence of this THOUGHT that has been cut and polished and set into the golden crown of a ring.

If diamonds are really the old earth's tears, frozen by time, they surely are tears of joy. Even if the old earth didn't chuckle when it made them, and hid them so cleverly, the prismatic loveliness of their crystalline laughter flashes its answer to the question of a Queen's eyes.

The wonders of an opalescent sky, the elusive golden greens of the sea, the flush of the tenderest flowers, all play in the miniature mirror of this magic symbol of LOVE.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

Let not any one say that he can not govern his passions.—Locke. Nurture your mind with great thoughts, to believe in the heroic makes heroes.—Disraeli. The Woman Who Flirts By WINIFRED BLACK

I SAW her at the hotel the other day—the woman who flirts. She flirts with every man she sees, whether the man wants to flirt with her or not. I saw her pursuing a perfectly decent old fellow into a corner of the dining room. She absolutely forced him into inviting her to breakfast with him, and then she made eyes and giggled and tossed her head and simpered till the poor man didn't know whether he was drinking tea or coffee, and how many cups he'd had of either.

Winifred Black

She has a sister—the woman who flirts—a sister some two or three years younger than she is. Such a happy woman. I saw her the other day in the hotel dining room. She had two little girls with her and a gangling boy of some 16 or so. What a time she was having with that boy—teasing him, admiring him, encouraging him, loving him so hard that it fairly made your heart ache to look at her—just the awkward, rather ordinary boy—but the wonder of the world in her motherly eyes! And the little girls—one was 7—all feet and ankles and wrists, and the other about 5, all curls and dimples and roses and laughter. That woman's heart was so full when she looked at those children that you wondered how she could bear it.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

"Bandy Legs" Result of Improper Early Diet

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins). Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

HAVE you ever closely studied the spans and arches of a cantilever bridge? Observe the Brooklyn bridge or the one across the Niagara river. Some of the steel girders are concave, some convex and some are erect like the Pillars of Hercules. All who know their Old Testament recall how Samson killed himself and destroyed the Philistines by pushing down with his mighty strength the great pillars of the Temple.

The living bridges of bone and brawn which goes by the name of "man," in order to resist the force of gravity, must also be held aloft by pillars and blocks and other fleshy replicas of bridge and building architecture.

To put it correctly, the shifting centre of gravity of the human figure is balanced and checked by the legs. The legs each consist of imitation steel construction with the veins, nerves, arteries, muscles and ligaments as rivets, chains, bolts and nuts, and the upper leg bone—the femur—and the lower leg bone—the tibia—of the calf as imitation, but superior, steel.

Proper Food Necessary. Just as there are structural iron workers to oversee that the steel was properly tempered and later correctly put together in the erected building, so hygienists and physicians solder the infantile marrow together by superintending the administration of the proper baby pabulum.

If infants are not provided with human milk many ills are the price of the maternal and medical dereliction. The swarm of omissions upon the part of the mother, the midwife and the doctor in the matter of looking to a liberal provision of breast milk for the prospective baby results in these careless days of surfeited and luxurious times in feeding an unhappy lot of infants with cow's milk, artificial foods, condensed milk and other base makeshifts.

The result is soft bones, pale marrow and backwardness in the walking, teething and talking. Bandy, or bow, legs, as well as knock knees, are not, as is popularly supposed—which is also "authoritatively" averred in a great encyclopaedia open to public consultation—the consequence of the child walking "too soon." Not a bit of it.

When children are ready to walk, if they are sound in limb, they cannot be held back. Delay Often Fatal. If the bones are lacking in certain human attributes—just the Quebec bridge bowed and collapsed because of defects in the pillars and stanchions—easily obtainable in mother's milk, but not present in any other baby dietary, the bends and curves and convolutions result.

Now your child is bow-legged, knock-kneed or double-jointed. Nature tries to compensate for the shifting of the load and bends the leg bones—"gitters" is the name of one of these exaggerated bones of baby's bones. This and its related maladies attack the stiffening, limy sheath of the skeleton. Once this appears in the child its bones appear softer than they should be. Instead of straight legs and strong

Answers to Health Questions

A Reader, Philadelphia.—Why do I not feel air entering my windpipe when I breathe deeply? You pay too much attention to your breathing. This makes you self-conscious and short of breath without an organic cause. Well people can never feel air as it enters the lungs and windpipe. If you were aware of it you would be a freak. Therefore think of more important matters and try to forget that you breathe. You cannot stop breathing if you try.

H. E. N.—Can anything be done for catarrh of the head and indigestion? "Catarrh" and "indigestion" are words that mean different varieties of human ailments. "Catarrh" of the head may be an inflammation in the nose, obstructions and swellings in the nose. You should have a nose surgeon remove the cause. Do not breathe up too much and become accustomed to the cold.

You must explain your symptoms of "indigestion." This useless name is not a disease. Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care of this office.

Musings of a Cynic

Few men can remain cool when they encounter a frost. Girls make up their complexions before trying to make up quarrels. All bets are on sure things, but some are sure to lose. The man who claims everything in sight is in trouble when the article under discussion is stolen property. Each inmate of a lunatic asylum firmly believes that all the other inmates are crazy. It is hard to tell whether the man who is bluffed feels worse or better than the man who calls a bluff that is not a bluff. The dollar that you did not expect is larger than the ten dollars that you knew you would get. The only kind of born greatness that is really reliable is that which attaches to museum freaks. Durability is a quality that commends itself to a woman only when she is buying clothes for her husband or the children.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: When I was away from home this summer I got acquainted with a great big, splendid man. He's my ideal in everything, but when he came to see this winter in my home he stayed and had dinner with us, and, oh, I nearly died. He eats with his knife, and when he drank his coffee you could hear him across the room. What in the world shall I do? Do you think I could ever be happy married to him when he does such things as that? DISILLUSIONED.

WELL, now, little sister, there are so many ways to look at an affair like that. One way is this. A man of such frightful table manners must be either obtuse or eccentric. No matter what his early surroundings were, it isn't possible that he has gone all this time without ever sitting at the table with people of breeding and decent manners.

Why didn't he learn by what he was different, and go to work and correct himself? Was he too conceited to notice what other people did, too absorbed in himself to care, too pleased with himself to dream of changing in any way? There's something wrong, there's no doubt of that, and this isn't the only way it's going to show. Bad manners are not a disease. They are usually just a symptom of a much deeper disease than themselves.

CLINTON, Ont., Feb. 1.—(Can. Press)—The recent vote on the Canada Temperance Act gives some interesting figures. There were 7,487 votes for the act and 4,924 against, making a total of 12,411, and compared with the vote of 13,841 it shows that 2,000 more votes were polled in 1914 than in 1884, notwithstanding the fact that the population of Huron is now considerably smaller. The vote shows further that if it had been required to get 60 per cent. the act would have carried with a margin of 33 votes.

NANTUCKET FOUND TO BLAME FOR THE SINKING OF THE MONROE

Report on Friday's Accident is Prepared and Will Fix Responsibility for the Disaster—High Praise for Officers and Crew of Wrecked Steamer.

(Special to The Toronto World.)
WOLFOLE, Va., Feb. 1.—Blame for the ocean disaster which sent the Old Dominion liner Monroe to the bottom of the Atlantic with nineteen of her passengers and 22 members of her crew, seems likely to be fastened on the steamship Nantucket of the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company, which ran the Monroe at 1:30 o'clock on Friday morning and sent her to the bottom in ten minutes.

The expectation is based upon the preliminary hearing held last night at which Robert E. Tapley, the inspector of steam vessels for this federal district, examined officers and men of both ships at great length. As soon as the testimony could be transcribed, Mr. Tapley forwarded it to Washington for review by the chief of the bureau of navigation and the department of commerce and reference later to Secretary Redfield.

The testimony of the witnesses tends practically to exonerate the Old Dominion officers. It shows that the Monroe was in the comparative heavy seas, and had been proceeding at reduced speed for several hours. Twice before the collision she had blown two long blasts of her whistle and had come almost to a full stop.

In the pilot-house of the Nantucket were Captain Berry, his second officer and the quartermaster. The vessel was proceeding at slightly reduced speed. She is not a fast boat under any circumstances, but the witnesses were in practical agreement that she was going at the rate of ten or twelve knots per hour, at the time she struck the Monroe. The impact was terrific. The heavy cutter of the Nantucket ploughed thru the Monroe and diagonally thru the very heart of the vessel almost to her engine room. So close did the prow of the Nantucket come to the engine room that the No. 1 dynamo, providing the power for electric lighting in the ship, was wrenched out of place and immediately put out of commission.

Suits for Damages.
 The voluminous report of Inspector Tapley gives first-class information to the department of commerce from officers of both ships who were on duty at the time and corroborative testimony from members of the deck crew, the steward's department and the engineers.

A libel was filed late this afternoon against the steamer Nantucket on behalf of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, owners of the sunken steamer Monroe. Damages of $500,000 are asked by the plaintiff. This is the estimated value of the Monroe and its cargo.

The Nantucket left this morning for Newport News to discharge the remainder of her cargo, and today a survey of damage was begun by the underwriters, who will have to finish their work before the extent of the injury to the ship is made public.

Edward E. Fallon, assistant general manager of the Old Dominion Steamship Co., said today: "The Monroe is in 16 fathoms of water and there is no hope of ever raising her. The ship was valued at about $500,000, and her cargo at from $400,000 to $500,000, making the total loss in the vicinity of $1,000,000, which is largely covered by insurance."

Praise for Crew.
 After a day of rest and recuperation from the exhaustion and excitement of the rescued passengers of the Monroe unite in praise of the gallantry, the bravery and the universal coolness of the officers and crew of the sinking ship. Not a word of criticism can be heard. Even the few excited and overwrought passengers who last night imagined that perhaps they had been a bit roughly handled, have come today to the belief that it was only the wonderful coolness and the self-sacrifice of the crew of the Monroe that saved a full two-thirds of the passenger list.

The negroes are highly praised for fortitude and unselfish daring.

Places Blame on Monroe.
BALTIMORE, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press)—The steamer Nantucket, that was in collision with the steamer Monroe Friday morning, docked here today. In written report to the officials of the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company, Capt. Berry said that it is an endeavor to avoid a collision with the Monroe the Nantucket's helm was hard a-port to keep to the right, but the Monroe proceeded at full speed and struck across the bow of the Nantucket. She succeeded in getting partly past the Nantucket's stem when the vessels collided, the Nantucket's stem striking the Monroe forward of the pilot-house, but at right angles.

The Monroe passed under such great speed, according to Capt. Berry's report, that the stem of the Nantucket was bent sharply toward her starboard side, and the Nantucket slowed around so that her portside was scraped by the Monroe crushing one of the Nantucket's port boats. The Monroe passed on out of sight.

At the time of the collision the Nantucket's engines were running at full speed astern, and had been so running for some time previous to the collision.

DO WIRE MAKERS HAVE A COMBINE?

Question is Worrying the Hydro-Electric Commission of Hamilton.

CAMPAIGN OF Y. M. C. A.

Hundred Thousand Dollars is Needed for Modern New Building.

(Special to The Toronto World.)
HAMILTON, Jan. 31.—Charging that a combine exists among Canadian manufacturers of copper wire, the Hydro-Electric Commission at its meeting Saturday morning, moved for an immediate investigation. Every wire manufacturer in the Dominion was asked to send in their prices, and when these were received by the commission it was noticed that the price submitted by every company was exactly the same. This is taken as first-class evidence that an agreement exists among the different concerns to maintain a fixed price on all wire.

T. J. Stewart, M.P., will urge that an immediate investigation be started, and upon his motion a letter will be sent to him in his official capacity as a member, setting forth all the facts concerning the supposed combine.

Works Estimates.
 The estimates of the works department for 1914 have been prepared, but the heads of the department refused to make the report public on Saturday. Acting Mayor Cooper would not state the amount of the estimates, but did say that they would have to be reduced considerably.

Y. M. C. A. Campaign.
 A campaign will shortly be started for the purpose of raising $100,000 for the erection of a new Y. M. C. A. building in the east end of the city, to replace the present building, the old Barton Street Methodist Church, which has been used as a Y. M. C. A. for the past four or five years.

A dormitory will also be erected in connection with the Y. M. C. A. for the housing of young lads who work in the factories throughout the east end, who come from the old country and the towns and villages surrounding Hamilton.

RAISED AMOUNT OF BANK CHEQUE
 Thomas Roy of Earlscourt Charged With Defrauding Sick Man Who Trusted Him.

Charged with defrauding Thomas Thompson, 49 Carlton street, out of $270, Thomas D. Roy of Bird avenue, Earlscourt, was arrested at his home by Detective Taylor last evening.

According to the police, the fraud was committed when Roy was a boarder at Thompson's home. Thompson was in poor health, and a week ago, when sick in bed, he asked Roy to make out a cheque for him to sign, as he was in need of some cash. He told him to make the amount $30. Roy made out the cheque, which the sick man signed, after which the accused offered to go and get him the money. He went to the bank, returning with $30 which he handed over.

Shortly afterwards Thompson discovered that the cheque for $300. According to him, Roy took advantage of his illness and made out the cheque for $300, retaining $270.

PEACE COMMITTEE IS SEEKING CO-OPERATION
 Niagara Frontier People Asked to Assist in Carrying Out Plans for Celebration.

(Special to The Toronto World.)
NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Jan. 31.—The executive committee of the Niagara Falls One Hundred Years' Peace committee issued an address to Niagara frontier people today. In it the committee asks for the general co-operation of all in carrying out the plans for the peace centenary celebration to be held here next year.

The address gives the history of the movement for an appropriate celebration, and touches upon the historic events of 100 years ago. It does not go into the particulars of the Falls celebration. It had been planned to have a meeting of the peace committee to draw up plans for the celebration, but the smallpox epidemic in the American city has delayed the meeting, and it is unlikely that definite plans will be made for the next two months.

DISABLED STEAMER IS TOWED SAFELY TO PORT
 British Vessel Hit Submerged Wreck in South American Waters.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(Can. Press.)—The British steamer Sallust, Rio de Janeiro to New Orleans, struck a submerged wreck about four hundred miles south of Trinidad, and on Jan. 22 was taken in tow by the steamship Vestris and pulled into Port of Spain, Trinidad. The Vestris arrived here today from South American ports and brought the story. Her captain reported that the Sallust was in a disabled condition when the Vestris came along. The propeller was gone and the tail and shaft broken.

Four times the lines that were passed to the two ships crept into Port of Spain, where the Sallust was left to drydock for repairs.

WHITEWASH BRUSH USED BY BISHOP, STATE SUFFRAGETTES

Prelate Accused of Having Allowed Government and Holloway Prison Officials to Hoodwink Him so That Diabolical Methods Would Be Kept Hidden.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The militant suffragettes are very angry with the bishop of London, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, over his report that there was no truth in the allegations of exorcising torture being inflicted on their comrades who are subjected to forcible feeding in Holloway jail. They accuse the prelate of being an ally of the government and Mrs. Dacre Fox, one of the leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union, wrote to him today as follows:

"A whitewash brush has been placed in your hands, my lord bishop, by the authorities in order that the diabolical methods used by the government in its desire to terrorize the militant women."

The writer adds: "The whole truth of the matter is you have allowed the government and the prison officials to hoodwink you. We hold letters from Mrs. Rachael Peace, now an inmate of Holloway jail, describing the torture she has undergone. She has, on two occasions, to our knowledge, broken down under the supreme suffering involved."

(Found on page 120 of Heart Songs)

[The above is one of the songs that drew out Dr. Christian's eloquent letter, published herewith.]

A Letter to the Publishers

New York, Nov. 20th, 1913.

Heart Songs came Saturday. The girls were away, so they didn't get into it until Sunday afternoon. That H.S. is some book!

I was upstairs writing some dull stuff for a magazine when the old melodies came floating up into my den. I couldn't write any more, so my wife and I stole down to the parlor and sat by the grate.

We have not had such a treat in years. The very air blossomed with melody.

These songs took us in memory back to the old farm, back to the double log house in the Southland, sweet with the honeysuckle and the jessamine.

They took us to the battlefield and colored it with glory and set the roar of the cannon and the crash of musketry to music.

They told us the pathetic tale of the black man, and the black mammy torn from all they loved, and we felt more humane and more sympathetic.

They bore messages of love from mothers and sweethearts to wandering boys, and brought back the vows of "ever true to you, ever true."

They kindled anew the fires on the family hearthstone, and their light shone back to the very cradle.

Heart Songs seem to sweep every string on the harpsichord of human emotion.

One page would lead us gaily through fields of flowers, and the next one would moisten our eyes with the dew of tears. I can see why this book was called "Heart Songs."

We all thank you for Heart Songs.

Respectfully yours,
 (Signed) EUGENE CHRISTIAN.

[The above letter explains itself. Dr. Eugene Christian is one of the best known authorities on scientific eating in the world today. His numerous articles, contributed to the press, and his many public lectures on this subject, have given him a standing second to no other in the chosen field of his life work.]

Silk Brocades for Spring Wear

The popularity of these beautiful silks and satins is evinced in the immense variety now being received. The most fascinating of designs, shown in the rich, fresh colorings, only possible in a spring season, will appeal to all.

Crepe Ripple Brocade, Satin Liberty Broche (Charmeuse), Brocade, Brocade Duchesse Satin, Brocade Crepe de Chine, combined Brocade and Cut Velvet, Velvet and Satin, etc., etc., all of which can be perfectly matched with plain weaves.

New colorings in "Silk-Satine" and beautiful "Charmeuse-Duchesse" satins. Browns in profusion, from the dark chocolate shades to light golden effects. The new nut shades are very pretty. The tango shade is supplemented with new manilla, a darker effect, bordering presented from the most strongly red to the bright Empire shades. A new rich green is Forestier.

Pinks are widely shown. Bengale, a very deep pink, with the new delicate coral pinks, will be strong sellers. These and many others now in stock. (Second Floor.)

THE NEWS OF A PAYING STRIKE

never roused in a mining camp keener interest than did the propositions of Columbus before the Council at Salamanca, the scene shown us in Dumond's painting, now on exhibition in the Store. To the Spaniard of the period, new lands spell new gold, gems, empire and admiralty.

But it is not mere cupidity that sharpens the faces of some of the churchmen in the picture. These men had devoted their whole lives to the church, and in the eyes of the greatest among them is the vision of new worlds to evangelize. No wonder that zeal and ambition blaze in the dark, powerful face of one who stands behind the central figure in the choir!
